Two-Way Drive Aims To Clear Supply Route

Chinese Forces Smash Ahead On 100-Mile Front

(By The United Press)

CHUNGKING, May 15 — A two-way offensive aimed at clearing the Japanese from northern Burma and reopening China's lifeline to India was in full swing today as a powerful American-trained and equipped Chinese expeditionary force burst across the Salween river on a 100-mile front and drove westward to within 22 miles of the Burma frontier.

Striking through the mountainous gorges north and south of the old Burma road, under cover of a fierce American aerial barrage, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's forces knifed deep into the Japanese positions west of the Salween at a dozen widely-separated points.

The surprise blow met little or no opposition in its initial stages, but the Japanese reorganized swiftly and a communique said bloody fighting was in progress all along the front, with both sides suffering heavily.

Chiang Kai-Shek's sudden offensive was timed to coincide with the final stages of a two-pronged Allied attack on the Japanese strongholds in the Mogaung valley of northern Burma, more than 100 miles to the west.

CHENNAULT'S AIR FORCE LENDING GREAT SUPPORT

(By The Associated Press)

The Chinese high command announced today that large Chinese forces had launched an offensive in western Yunnan province on the night of May 10, crossing the Salween river at many points on a front of over 100 miles in an effort to link up with Lt. Joseph W. Stilwell's troops in northern Burma.

Casualties on both sides were heavy, it was announced.

Maj Gen. Claire L. Chennault's sky dragons heavily supported the new drive, two American communiques reported. Mitchells attacked a bridge and warehouse area at Wanpahsa on the Burma-Thailand border today, causing numerous explosions and fires among fuel dumps. Fighter-bombers flew numerous sorties against

Shift In Demo Meet Is Urged

AUSTIN, May 15. (AP)—A proposal to switch the Democratic state convention May 23 from the state Senate chamber to more spacious quarters was advocated today by Mayor Tom Miller.

Miller said he spoke for Travis county pro-Roosevelt leaders and the proposal had found favor among a dozen other pro-Roosevelt persons in other sections of the state.

His plan contained other elements including one requiring all participants in the state convention to pledge support of all Democratic nominees in the general election.

Other developments in the pre-convention picture included:

Opening of headquarters in an Austin hotel by pro-Roosevelt forces with Fred B. Isely, former assistant attorney general, and Mrs. Ouida Ferguson Nalle of Austin in charge.

To Support Nominees

A formal statement from Mrs. H. H. Weinert of Seguin, co-chairman of the Democratic state executive committee, that she will support the party's nominees for president and vice-president regardless of whom they might be.

Miller brought his multiple-pointed proposal to Gov. Coke R. Stevenson, who suggested that Miller make it known to leaders among forces favoring an uninstructed delegation to the party's national convention.

The governor agreed that it might be advisable to transfer the state convention from the senate chamber to spacious Gregory gymnasium on the University of Texas campus or to a downtown park.

Large Delegations Expected

Miller said it was apparent that some counties would send large delegations to the state meet.

He declared further he offered his "stabilization" plan in order to assure a full hearing to all sides and to maintain order.

He conceded that it might be possible for the two factions to agree on a keynote speaker in ad-

Invasion Force Estimated At 1,500,000

Increasing Anxiety Of Nazis Betrayed By Plane Forays

(By The United Press)

LONDON, May 15 (U.P.)—Swedish sources estimated today 1,500,000 American and other Allied troops were poised in Britain for the impending invasion of western Europe, and a German war ministry spokesman warned that paratroops may attempt a landing in Germany itself.

The Germans betrayed their increasing anxiety over the imminence of the opening of a western front by sending the largest number of reconnaissance planes in recent weeks over south and southwest England last night in an attempt to spy out Allied preparations.

A Stockholm dispatch to the London Daily Express said Swedish experts estimated thte Allies would invade Europe with 100 divisions — 1,500,000 men — and a landing armada worth $1,500,000,000, supported by 9,300 planes.

Estimate Invasions Forces

The Stockholm newspaper Morgentidningen estimated that the Allies also have another 100 divisions available in North Africa, Corsica and Sardinia for operations against southern France.

In reporting a German war ministry spokesman's warning that Allied paratroops may descend on reich soil, the London Daily Mail quoted Morgentidningen as recalling that the Danish peninsula and the flat moorlands around the Elbe and Weser rivers in northwest Germany offer the "shortest road to Berlin."

Neutral correspondents in Berlin said an unexplained wave of invasion tension gripped the German capital over the weekend and attributed it to "some mysterious but startling piece of information regarding Allied plans which was supposed to have reached Berlin between Saturday and Sunday morning."

Baptists To Consider Postwar Reserve

ATLANTA, May 15. (AP) — On the eve of the 1944 Southern Baptist convention, its executive committee assembled today to consider establishment of a permanent reserve fund of about $4,000,000 to finance the convention's various agencies in the postwar period.

Dr. Louie D. Newton of Atlanta, chairman of the executive committee and mentioned as a probable successor to Dr. Pat M. Neff of Waco as convention president, said annual convention expenditures were $60,000,000.

Leaders high in church councils said Dr. Neff, president of Baylor university and former governor of Texas, would not be a candidate to succeed himself. He was elected convention head two years ago and held over through last year when there was no convention.

Advocates of Dr. Newton cited his long record in denomination activities. He is the Georgia member of the executive committee and pastor of Druid Hills Baptist church. The 1945 convention also will be held in Atlanta.

Gandhi Treated For Several Illnesses

BOMBAY, May 15 (AP)—A medical bulletin said today that Mohandas K. Gandhi, Indian nationalist leader ill with malaria fever, also has amoebic dysentery and hookworm.

The bulletin added he is being treated for these conditions just discovered.

Tech Graduation Is Scheduled Tonight

Dr. Robinson Gives Baccalaureate Sermon; Judge T. W. Davidson To Deliver Address

The long line of graduates and faculty members marched in procession over the green of Texas Tech stadium Sunday night before a disappointingly small audience for the eighteenth annual baccalaureate sermon of the college. The sermon was given by Dr. H. I. Robinson, pastor of the First Methodist church.

Tonight over the same turf the solemn procession will be repeated in commencement exercises in which U. S. District Judge T. Whitfield Davidson will deliver the address. Tonight's program is scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock and if the weather is bad the program will be transferred to the gymnasium.

One of the smallest classes since 1929, will receive degrees from the hands of Dr. Clifford B. Jones, who will be serving the college as president in his last graduation ceremony. His resignation takes effect June. Only 137 seniors make up the class, 39 of them graduates in September 1943 and January, 1944.

Only 35 Men

Only a fifth of the class, 35, are men and of the 18 to graduate in absentia, six are already in the service.

Dr. Jones paid tribute last night to those students who had the courage to continue their studies and graduate in these perilous times, declaring that he considered it a patriotic duty to prepare oneself for the part he must play in the defense of his country.

Dr. Robinson's sermon was built around the "D-Day' theme and he declared there were several D's the graduates must face before they can attain success in life. They must dare, deny and dream, he said .

D-Day could mean Draft day for a lot of the graduates he said. It is really Dismissal day for the graduates so that they may face the other D-days of life which are

Reds Massing For Big Push

BY HENRY C. CASSIDY
Associated Press Staff Writer

MOSCOW, May 15 — Russian armies are believed massing for a summer offensive surpassing any blow yet struck on the eastern front.

The spring lull which started in mid-April continued today and no fresh military dispatches were published from the front.

But there were multiplying signs of the coming push. Russian bombers, for instance, struck at the rail center of Brest Litovsk (in old Poland) starting 30 fires, and also attacked Nazi bases at Polotsk in White Russia and Narva in the Estonian republic.

Pravda reported that a new Yak fighter plane was going into mass production. Other plane and arms plants are working top speed, building up supplies for the offensive.

Recent visitors to several sections of the front said they saw intense activity, indicating the drive was fairly imminent. Details could not be published, but preparations were described as immense.

It is assumed in Moscow that the offensive will be opened in unison with the Allied invasion of Europe in accordance with decisions taken at Teheran by Marshal Stalin, President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill.

Charge Against Actor Dropped

LOS ANGELES, May 15 (AP) — U. S. District Judge J. F. T. O'Connor today dismissed a federal indictment alleging that Comedian Charlie Chaplin and three others conspired to deprive 24-year-old Joan Berry, the actor's former protegee, of her civil rights.

The dismissal was granted upon motion of U. S. Attorney Charles H. Carr, who told the court he had received written instructions from the Justice department in Washington to request the action.

Other Defendants Cleared

Thus cleared with the British-born screen veteran were Thomas Wells Durant, his sportsman friend; Police Capt. W. W. White, of Beverly Hills, and Robert Arden, radio commentator. The indictment grew out of Miss Berry's arrest on a vagrancy charge in suburban Beverly Hills in January, 1943, and the issuance of a suspended sentence on condition that she leave the city.

Chaplin was acquitted last month of a federal Mann act indictment alleging that he transported the red-haired film aspirant to New York and back in October, 1942, for immoral purposes.

Charges against two other defendants in the conspiracy indictment, Police Lt. Claude Marple and Police Matron Jessie Winifred Reno, of Beverly Hills, recently were dismissed. A third, Police Judge Charles J. Griffin, was declared by Judge O'Connor to be immune from prosecution because Griffin imposed the suspended sentence upon Miss Berry in the course of his official duties.

June Certifications For Texas Announced

AUSTIN, May 15 (AP) — The Petroleum Administration for War today certified to a need for 2,163,000 barrels daily of Texas petroleum liquids in June.

The certification included a recommendation for 2,031,000 barrels daily of crude oil, an increase of 59,000 barrels daily over the agency's certification for May's crude output in Texas.

PWA said further that 442,000 barrels daily of crude should come from sour fields and that the increase in sour crude over the May schedule should come from fields tributary to the Slaughter terminal of the Stanolind pipeline into the Cushing, Okla., area and the Midland terminal of the Magnolia pipeline to the Corsicana area.

Unanimous Approval Given To Forrestal

WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP)—The Senate naval affairs committee acted unanimously today in recommending Senate confirmation of James V. Forrestal's nomination as secretary of the Navy, and afterwards accorded the former undersecretary an ovation when he appeared before the committee in response to a special invitation.

Applause greeted Forrestal's appearance and the entire committee arose in special tribute.

The committee acted on his nomination to succeed the late Frank Knox, a few minutes before his arrival, thus reversing the usual procedure under which a nominee appears to answer any questions prior to committee action.

New Cargo Plane Of Welded Stainless Steel Produced

PHILADELPHIA, May 15 (AP)—A new welded stainless steel cargo plane, the Conestoga, is in full production at the Edward G. Budd manufacturing company plant, the Navy announced today.

The two-engine, 68-foot aircraft with an upsweep after-body giving it the appearance of a flying whale, is the first plane in which welded stainless steel has been used to a large extent, the Navy said.

Doors on opposite sides of the fuselage permit launching of paratroops and supplies simultaneously from both sides in contrast to conventional one-door transports.

The cargo compartment, 25 feet long, eight feet wide and eight feet high, is made possible by a unique manner of attaching the wing to the fuselage without passing the wing through the fuselage in the customary fashion.

The ship is capable of carrying 10,400 pounds over a range of 650 miles, but its maximum range can be increased to 3,500 miles with auxiliary fuel tanks.

Two 1050-horsepower engines give it a cruising speed of 165 miles per hour. Total weight fully loaded is 33,000 pounds.

The Conestoga can be converted to troop transport or ambulance use, and an ambulance and jeep both can be carried inside.

Senate Rejects Gag Rule By A Decisive Vote

Bill To Ban Poll Tax Is Expected To Be Shelved

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 15—The Senate rejected today a debate-limiting cloture petition which would have halted a southern Democratic filibuster against the anti-poll tax bill. The action indicated the measure will be shelved.

The vote to invoke cloture, which would have shut off all debate in 96 hours, was 36 ayes to 44 nays, not only short of the necessary two-thirds of those voting, but short of a majority.

Proponents of the House-approved bill outlawing collection of the poll tax in eight southern states as a prerequisite to voting for federal officers planned to meet immediately to decide whether to abandon present efforts to pass it.

The Senate rejected a cloture petition by a tally of 37 ayes, 41 nays in 1942 when the southern group conducted a filibuster on a similar bill.

No Chance For Vote

Without debate limitation, leaders said there was no possibility of bringing the bill to a vote over the determination of the bill's opponents to "talk it to death." Senate procedure, unlike that in the House, where the bill passed overwhelmingly, permits unlimited debate.

In a last-minute, futile appeal for adoption of cloture, Majority Leader Barkley had declared that without a debate-limitation, "this bill can never be voted on."

Senator Clark (D-Mo) interposed his view that it would be "perfectly disgraceful" for the Senate to be locked in a filibuster on the anti-poll tax bill "at a time when our troops overseas are about to embark on the greatest adventure of all time."

Barkley Favored Cloture

Barkley asserted that cloture in this instance would "not be a method to tie the hands of the Senate, but to untie them."

Among Democrats voting against the petition were Senators Connally and O'Daniel of Texas.

Senator Pepper (D-Fla) today likened Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's statement advocating abolition of poll taxes to his advocacy of "international collaboration," and asserted both declarations were "too little, and too late."

Pepper announced that he would vote to invoke cloture to limit debate on the pending bill to outlaw state poll taxes.

Connally Cites Dangers

Senator Connally said during debate the cloture motion was a move to strip the Senate of one of its greatest powers in maintaining the constitutional checks and balances of the federal government.

"I don't want the Senate to commit suicide," Connally shouted. He said that President Roosevelt's supreme court reorganization bill would have been "run roughshod through the Senate" in 1937, if proponents had been sure that

New Son Of Kindly Postman Presented Gift By Patrons

It pays to be kind. If you don't believe it just ask Harold H. Matejowsky, 2106 Twenty-Second street, postman, who was presented last week-end with a $25 bond plus $5 for stamps by appreciative women on his route as a gift to the new baby at his house.

"Because he has been so thoughtful of all of us, and especially of women with boys in the service, we wanted to do something for his new son, Charles," Mrs. Frances Lee Tolbert said.

Matejowsky has been delivering mail over the same route from Twenty-Third street to Thirtieth street for four years. The postman these days has become a welcome sight and Matejowsky has been particularly understanding of anxious mothers, wives and sweethearts about mail from "over there."

The sons of several women on his route have been missing at various times and when he has news of any kind he always rings the door bell. He is not only accommodating but he brightens up the day for many housewives by his humorous remarks.

The signature of 60 friends was on the bond. Collection for the gift was made by Miss Willie Thompson at a neighborhood grocery store.

Invasion Coast Is Pounded By U. S. Bombers

Brenner Pass Is Virtually Sealed Up In Bombings

LONDON, May 15 — American Flying Fortresses and Liberators attacked German invasion defenses in the Pas de Calais area nearest Britain today in the 31st consecutive day of the great aerial offensive, after a night in which German bombers sharply attacked the British coast.

No American bomber was lost but one of the acompanying Mustangs was missing. It fell to anti-aircraft fire since the U. S. communique said no German plane was sighted.

Installations Pounded

A maximum of 250 Fortresses and Liberators under protection of Eighth Air force Mustangs pounded military installations in France, following up a night attack on Cologne by British Mosquito bombers, and a weekend of activity which saw the historic Brenner pass, main supply line for the Nazis in Italy, virtually sealed up.

The Berlin radio asserted German raiders had made "fierce attacks" on the port of Bristol last night and declared that "large quantities of high explosives and incendiaries" were dropped. A British announcement that at least 15 of the raiders were shot down indicated the Nazis may have struck with as many as 300 planes.

British Casualties Light

The British said the raids had caused some damage and a small number of casualties "over wide areas of south and southwest England," but noted that the weight of bombs dropped did not seem proportionate to the number of planes employed, suggesting that the main objective of the attack was to gain information about possible concentrations of invasion equipment along the coast.

The RAF stab at Cologne was carried out in conjunction with raids on unspecified objectives in France and the Low Countries and minelaying. The operations were carried out without loss.

Marauders Take Part

In addition to the heavy bombers which participated in today's daylight operations, waves of American Marauder medium bombers also were observed heading for northern France.

A central German radio blackout suggested that the planes might be penetrating into the heart of the reich.

The blow at the Brenner pass, accomplished by Italy - based American Flying Fortresses Saturday, was followed up by a 1,000-plane assault yesterday on German-held airfields and railyards in northern Italy rounding out a solid month of round-the-clock attacks by Allied airmen who flew 90,000 offensive flights and dropped 130,000 tons of bombs on fortress Europe.

The month of intensive air war

Western Wrecking Company Burglarized

Burglars who took approximately $100 from Western Wrecking company some time Sunday night "added insult to injury" when they used the wrecking company's own oxy-acetylene torch to cut through the company's safe.

"Looks like persons who knew how to use the torch but were inexperienced with safes in general," said Aubrey Fawyer, assistant chief of police who investigated. "They tried first to remove hinges of the safe, and when they finally decided on the torch after failing by other methods, they cut into it where they would have to go through two layers of steel and one of concrete."

Fawver said the 2722 Texas avenue wrecking yard was only "one of two entered Sunday night." Nothing was missed from Goad Wrecking yard at 2418 South Avenue H, where a screwdriver was used in an attempt to open a pay telephone.

Gustav Line Is Cut As French Capture Town

Yanks Smash Enemy Out Of Two Towns And Capture Vital Mountain Positions; More Than 2,000 Nazis Taken Prisoners

(By The Associated Press)

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Naples, May 15. — French troops have advanced as much as seven miles from the take-off point on the Fifth army right wing in the all-out Allied offensive and captured the important town of Ausonia, creating a "significant breach" in the Germans' Gustav line in southern Italy, Allied headquarters announced today.

The Americans have smashed the enemy out of Santa Maria Infante and San Pietro on the lower Garigliano river front and taken vital mountain positions on both sides of the Ausente river.

The French have reached the hills dominating San Giorgio, equally as important as Ausonia.

The Americans are pressing an attack on Spigno, showing they have driven at least four miles north and west of Minturno.

THREE-MILE BREACH

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Naples, May 15 (U.P.) — French troops have smashed a three-mile-wide breach in the Gustav line athwart the road to Rome to set the pace for Allied gains wresting eight more strategic towns from the hard fighting Germans, it was revealed today.

Ausonia is six and a half miles north of Minturno and San Grigorio seven miles southwest of Cassino and one mile south of the Liri river.

Rapido Bridgehead Deepened

Farther to the north, the big Allied offensive also gained, with the British and Indians deepening their Rapido river bridgehead to at least 2,000 yards—more than a mile—and sending over great numbers of tanks to exploit this attack into the Liri valley — a direct road to Rome.

More than 2,000 prisoners already have streamed back into Allied cages and others were coming in constantly as the attacks progressed.

Very heavy casualties have been inflicted along the whole front and hard fighting continues everywhere up and down the line of attack, an Allied communique said.

1,200 Nazis Captured

The German 71st division, which was entirely reconstituted after its original was wiped out at Stalingrad, bore the brunt of the Fifth army attack and lost over 1,200 men in prisoners alone, including six battalion commanders.

The whole frontline defenses of this division have been overturned.

Tech Directors Hold Routine Meeting

Lacking a quorum with which to consider the matter of a successor to Dr. Clifford B. Jones as president, members of the board of directors of Texas Technological college held a routine meeting at the home of Dr. Jones today on the campus.

Present were: Chas. C. Thompson of Colorado City, chairman; O. B. Ratliff of Spur, Chancellor Weymouth of Amarillo and Mark McGee of Fort Worth. A sudden illness prevented Kyle Spiller of Jacksboro from attending and pressing business matters forced A. G. (Pat) Mayse of Paris and Karl Hoblitzelle of Dallas to send in regrets.

Thompson, McGee, Weymouth and Mayse are members of a committee to consider a successor to Dr. Jones.

Enemy Supply Lines Ripped

BY KENNETH DIXON
Associated Press Staff Writer

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Naples, May 15 — Striking both long and short range blows against slowly strengthening enemy air resistance, Allied warplanes flew more than 2,500 sorties yesterday supporting the Fifth and Eighth armies by an intense campaign to isolate the Gustav line defenders.

More than 30 enemy aircraft were sighted during the day, of which 10 were shot down, the Mediterranean Army Air force reported. Six Allied planes were reported missing, and one additional enemy plane was downed Saturday night, the report added.

Heavy bombers unleashed a barrage of blows at railroad yards in the Po valley, seeking to force the enemy to get all of his reinforcements from Central Italy. Medium bombers, plus fighter bombers, simultaneously slashed rail communications between Rome and Florence in an effort to render drawing of supplies from eveh that sector temporarily impossible.

Enemy Planes Destroyed

Fighters roared down enemy airfields throughout Italy, destroying parked planes and harassing all highway transport activity sighted along the roads leading to the Gustav and Hitler lines.

The heavy bombers hammered rail junctions at Padua, Ferrara, Vicenza, Treviso, Mestre, Mantua and Piove di Sacca, and in addition plastered airfields at Piacenza and Reggio Emilia.

Tracks and bridges south of Florence and beyond Rome were targets of medium, light and fighter bombers. Several tracks were cut and spans destroyed.

Airfields at Aviano, Villa Orba and Rivolta were strafed by fighters, who destroyed an unreported number of enemy aircraft. The RAF took over the night tasks with both medium and heavy bombers blasting railroad bridges at Lattisana, Casarsa and an oil refinery at Porto Magara.

Roosevelt Due To Go Over Top Tuesday On Nomination Votes

(By The Associated Press)

With Oklahoma Democrats leading off today in the expected selection of 22 convention delegates favoring a fourth term, voters in California and New Jersey primaries will put the final seal of approval tomorrow on a first ballot nomination for President Roosevelt.

To clinch matters even further, Delaware and Montana Democrats will name small delegations tomorrow which leaders predict will be for the President. The state committee has recommended that Delaware's votes be instructed for a fourth term and Montana leaders predict the same procedure for that state's 10 votes.

Washington For FDR

Washington added 18 to the Roosevelt column over the week end and by Tuesday its total is due to stand at 677 delegate votes pledged and claimed, as against 589 needed to nominate.

In the California primaries, a 52-vote slate favoring the renomination of Mr. Roosevelt and of Vice President Wallace will be chosen. Republicans will pick 60 delegates nominally pledged to Gov. Earl Warren, the GOP

Texas Clubwomen Named As Directors To GFWC By Committee Group

AUSTIN, May 15 — Two Texas clubwomen have been named to the Board of Directors of the General Federation of Women's clubs, according to word received here by Miss Ethel Foster, president of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs. They are Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins of Eastland, who will head the GFWC department of fine arts, and Mrs. Julius Waring Walker of Plainview, who has been named chairman of the committee on scholarships and fellowships. Both Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Perkins are past presidents of TFWC. Mrs. Perkins was recently named to the presidency of the Texas Federation of Music clubs.

These appointments were made by the GFWC executive committee, composed of newly-elected officers: Mrs. LaFell Dickinson of Keene, N. H., president; Mrs. J. L. B. Buck of Virginia, first vice-president; Mrs. Hiram G. Houghton of Iowa, second vice-president; Mrs. Oscar A. Ahlgren of Indiana, recording secretary; Mrs. Volney W. Taylor of Brownsville, treasurer; and three appointive officers. Incidentally, Mrs. Taylor, a past TFWC president, is the first TFWC member to be named to national office in 25 years.

Maj. Nix Weds Georgia Girl

The marriage of Miss Sarah Sweat and Maj. W. E. Nix was solemnized Friday at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Nix, in Abernathy with Mr. Nix reading a ring ceremony before a bank of greenery flanked by white candles.

Mrs. B. F. Pearman played the wedding music.

The bride given in marriage by Col. Joseph Duckworth of Bryan Army Air field, wore a beige crepe dress with beige accessories and carried an arm bouquet of Tailsman roses. Her attendant, Mrs. John Nix wore a black and pink dress and carried a colonial bouquet of roses. Sgt. John Nix was best man.

After the wedding, the guests were served refreshments from a table covered with a white damask cloth and centered with an arrangement or calla lilies.

Following a trip, the couple will be at home in Bryan where Maj. Nix is stationed at the Army Air field. He received his training at Cal Aero, Calif., Goodfellow field, San Angelo and Barksdale field, Shreveport, La. His bride is from Savannah, Ga.

Out-of-town guests were Mr and Mrs. E. G. Nix of Seminole, Maj. Steve Matula and Capt. John Gregory of Bryan and Sgt. and Mrs. John Nix of Fresno, Calif.

Ralph Mecusker, jr., a senior in the engineernig division at Texas Technological college. Mrs. Mecusker is Patrolman Bill Lamb's sister.

Red Roses Favorite For Mother's Day

Lubbock florists report that there was a mad scramble to fill all overseas and local servicemen's orders of red roses here Mother's Day.

"Ask nine out of every ten soldiers what kind of flowers he wants to send his wife or mother and he'll say red roses," one florist said. Fortunately, there was a better supply of these this year because florists have had the same experience the past two war years. But there was still a shortage, florists agree.

The policy of every place was to fill all overseas and servicemen's orders first before taking care of civilian needs. Most flower shops quit taking orders by noon Saturday, but some of them reserved a few corsages and cutflowers for the boys who could not get into town until late in the afternoon.

Florists in Big Spring, Abilene, Clovis, Amarillo and Plainview reported the same red rose shortage, a local flower shop manager, who talked to them Saturday, said. A few of the boys showed themselves to be individualists by sending their mothers a plant or a corsage, but even in this selection they preferred red.

Overseas orders are handled through an overseas exchange which sends orders to a clearing house in New York. From there the orders are sent to florists throughout the country.

Anniversary Of WAC Observed

Featured attractions in connection with the celebration of the second anniversary of the Women's Army Corps are window displays in four of Lubbock's department stores and in three of the local theaters, depicting WAC's at work.

Montgomery Ward and company is featuring a display of one of the most popular of all WAC work, that of radio and communications. Shown is a figure of a WAC surrounded by technical and mechanical equipment necessary to the operations of radio control by members of the WAC.

Mechanical Work Shown

Sears-Roebuck and company features a WAC at work in the mechanical end of Army operations. This figure is also surrounded by various mechanical tools designating the many types of work she does.

Hemphill-Wells and Dunlaps show WAC's in full dress uniform for the summer months. Both are attractive displays showing also the many types of literature used currently in WAC recruiting.

The Lindsey, Palace and Tower theaters are featuring large displays of WAC material in their lobbies this week in connection with the film, "It's Your War Too," being shown at the Lindsey theater. This film depicts the need for women in the WAC and is shown with the current attraction of the theater, "Miracle of Morgan's Creek."

Women between the ages of 20 to 50, with two years high school education and with no dependents under 14, are urged to visit the local Army recruiting station, room 203 in the post office building, for complete details as to the many opportunities now offered by the WAC.

Brief Bits Of Local News

Nine weeks' examinations for seniors of Lubbock High school are being held today. Students only have to take examinations in those courses in which they made less than a B average. All seniors will be back in school tomorrow for the purpose of checking out for the school year.

Thomas W. Hassell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hassell, jr., of 2401 Ninth street, was among nine 17-year-old boys to enlist in the Navy here last week, according to John C Oldham, Petty Officer 1/c, of the Navy recruiting office in the federal building. Others were: Bonard G. Stice, son of Bernie Stice of Brownfield; Weldon O. Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Ball of Fluvanna; Sudduth P. Moore, son of Mrs. Alice Moore of Floydada; Levi W. Qualls, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Qualls of Levelland; Boyce Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Allen of Tarzan; Alburn L. Hobbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emzy Hobbs of Route 2, Littlefield; W. P. Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ward of Lamesa; and James E. Kimberlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kimberlin of Ropesville.

In a civil suit filed in the office of Mrs. Olive Fluke, U. S. district clerk here, in which R. C. Kennedy of Terry county is named as plaintiff and Eldredge M. McCombs of the state of Oklahoma is named as defendant, plaintiff seeks judgment of the court for title and possession of certain land and premises in Terry county and that writ of restitution issue for his rents, damages and cost of suit.

Hearings of three emergency civil cases were set this morning for 11 o'clock Tuesday morning by T. Whitfield Davidson, U. S. district judge of Dallas upon opening of federal court here. Cases to be heard include: W. D. Wilkins and others vs. Ed Grier and others, Fidelity and Casualty company of New York vs. Fred Hoover and others, and the case of Arthur B. Hickman and Mrs. Ozia Hickman who are divorced and are on probation and desire to remarry. The case of Mrs. Ruth Wagnon and others vs. Frank Helm was continued to the November term of court.

Commandery 60 will confer the Order of the Temple on six candidates, commencing at 7:30 o'clock tonight, said Hugh J. McClellan, secretary of Lubbock Masonic bodies. The calendar for the remainder of the week: Yellowhouse lodge 841, AF&AM, will confer the Fellowcraft degree on four candidates commencing at 7 o'clock Wednesday night; the Commandery will serve supper at 6:30 o'clock Thursday night when a special meeting is convened in honor of past commanders, and the Order of the Temple will be conferred on two candidates; the Chapter will confer the Royal Arch degree commencing at 6:30 o'clock Friday night on six candidates. The Order of Eastern Star will meet Tuesday night.

The number of planes received by the Army Air forces from American production lines monthly now exceeds the combined output of Germany, Italy and Japan.

Buck Walters Hurls 'Near Perfect' Game

Cincinnati Ace Faces 28 Batters

(By The Associated Press)

Bucky Walters, star righthander for the Cincinnati Reds, yesterday just missed becoming the first pitcher in 22 years to hurl a perfect game in the major leagues. He pitched to only 28 batters.

Working the first game of a twin bill against the Boston Braves at Crosley field, Walters retired the first 23 men to face him. Then; with two out in the eighth, Connie Ryan, Braves second sacker, singled over third base. He was the only Boston player to get on base.

It was the nearest to a perfect game in the majors since Charley Robertson, of the Chicago White Sox, turned the trick against Detroit on April 30, 1922.

Fifth Straight Win

Walters won his one-hitter, 4 to 0, for his fifth straight win, but Ira Hutchinson kept the Reds from sweeping the bargain bill. He scattered the Reds' eight hits for a 6 to 0 Brave triumph in the nightcap.

The New York Yankees and St. Louis Cardinals each tightened their grip on first place in the American and National league, respectively. The Yanks beat Cleveland twice, 4 to 3 in 13 innings and 8-4 before 41,628 paid at the Yankee stadium, the largest crowd of the 188,166 fans who watched the eight Sunday doubleheaders. Johnny Lindell's 13 inning single won the opener while Don Savage's three-run homer clinched the afterpiece.

The second place Phillies went down twice before the Cards at St. Louis, 6 to 3 and 1 to 0. Big Mort Cooper won his second game in the opener while George Munger bested Southpaw Al Gerheauser in the nip-and-tuck second game.

Tigers Out Of Cellar

Dizzy Trout and Johnny Gorsica pitched the Detroit Tigers out of last place in the American loop. They beat the Boston Red Sox, 6 to 1 and 9 to 0, to shove the Sox into the basement. Gorsica twirled a three-hitter for the shutout. He faced only 29 batters.

Pittsburgh climbed into the National league first division by beating the Giants twice, 1 to 0 and 8 to 2. Rip Sewell yielded only six hits in defeating Bill Voiselle in the opener.

Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics took both ends of their twin bill from the St. Louis Browns, 4 to 3 in 11 innings and 2 to 0. Ford Garrison's fifth hit of the game won the opener while Frankie Hayes' two-run homer won the nightcap for Luman Harris. The double win put the A's back in the first division.

Sens, White Sox Split

Washington split with the Chicago White Sox. Dutch Leonard whitewashed the Sox in the opener, 4 to 0. A ninth inning rally, featured by Thurman Tucker's two-run single, won the nightcap for Chicago, 6 to 4.

Brooklyn beat the Chicago Cubs, 4 to 2, in the first game of a bargain bill before 32,166, but lost the second, 8 to 7, after enjoying a 7 to 1 lead going into the eighth. The Cubs scored five runs in the eighth and won the game with two more in the ninth. Roy Hughes' single drove in the winning run.

Pensive Will Seek Turf's Triple Crown

BALTIMORE, Md., May 15 (U.P.) —Persuasive little Pensive, which convinced turfdom's critics that he was a pretty good little racehorse by adding a smashing victory in the Preakness to his Kentucky Derby win, rested at old Pimlico today prior to going to New York in quest of the turf's triple crown.

Boasting the biggest bankroll among the three year olds, the chestnut colt from Calumet Farm now was and odds-on favorite to carry off the $50,000-added Belmont stakes and become the seventh horse in racing history to win the big three—the Derby, Preakness and Belmont.

Dallas Amateur Is PGA Winner

Jimmy Gaunt Wins Over Ray Gafford

ODESSA, May 15 (AP)—A Dallas amateur, Jimmy Gaunt, today held his third consecutive PGA and Texas Open golf championships as the result of defeating Raymond Gafford of Fort Worth by seven strokes in their 18-hole playoff.

Gaunt, with strong woods, accurate irons and good putting, shot a 34-35—69 three under par to down Gafford yesterday.

Gaunt, besides downing his Fort Worth opponent, defeated Amateur Harry Todd four and three in their Texas cup match singles play. He was one over par on the first nine and three down.

Against Gafford, Gaunt was never over regulation figures until the 18th hole where he two putted for a bogie four.

In the Texas cup match play the professionals beat the amateurs by a score of 11 to seven.

Short Establishes Record

During the morning's double of the Texas cup play Sgt. L. C. Short established a new course record of 67, five under par.

Gafford beat Sergeant Short three and two.

As a team the professionals again won the cup by a score 11-7. Winning teams in the doubles were Gaunt and Gafford beat Todd and Martin 4-3. Sgt. Short and Private John Whitten beat Jimmie Gamewell and Gene Root of Amarillo 3-2. Largely due to Short's record breaker Ralph Morgan and Graham Ross beat John Kuykendall and Cpl. Don Cherry 4-3. Harvey Penick and Smiley Rowland halved with Ernie Dowell and John Garrison. Sam Schneider, Corpus Christi and Hornbuckle beat the Army amateurs, Maj. R. R. Ashley and Lt. W. E. Doll one up.

Pro Club Given Trimming

Bill Skeeters and L. M. Montgomery gave the pro club of Stackhouse and Hampton a one up trimming.

In the singles in addition to the championship wins Ashley, amateur, downed Stackhouse five and four. Dick Martin, amateur, beat Jimmie Gamewell four and three. Chic Broome, amateur, beat Root two and one. Graham Ross, pro, bested Speck Goldman two and one by coming from behind. Geirge Aulbach and J. T. Hammett halved. Bill Skeeters, amateur, bested Morgan Hampton two and one. Irving King, pro, beat Lt. Doll three and one. Lee Roy Garrett, pro, beat Pvt. John Whitten four and three. Ralph Morgan, pro, nosed out Don Cherry when the latter missed a six inch put on eighteen. Shorty Hornbuckle, pro, routed Norris Russell five and four.

Mustered Out Players Helping To Boost Baseball Manpower

By SAM DAVIS
NEA Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 15—Material from an unexpected source is helping to solve baseball's manpower problem. A considerable number of better than green hands have been mustered out of the armed forces.

Thaddeus Cieslak, who looks like Pepper Martin at third base for the Phillies, is one of several of the honorably discharged lending a hand to major league entries. Ted Cieslak was stationed at Camp Dix the past two summers.

Coast Guardsman Jack Kramer returned to the Browns to win his first five games and to give the St. Louis outfit surprising early foot. Frank Mancuso, who was a lieutenant and a paratrooper, is catching Kramer.

The Army Air Forces returned Outfielder Myril Hoag to the White Sox. Roland Gladu, at third base for the Braves, was in the Canadian Army. Southpaw Bernie Mussill of the Phillies is an Army dischargee. Pinch-hitter, relief pitcher Tom Warren of the Dodgers saw active duty with the Navy at Casablanca.

Came With Franchise

Cieslak, a Polish lad standing five feet nine and weighing 172 pounds, appears older than his 27 years. He started playing on the playgrounds of Milwaukee. In 1937 he was picked up by a White Sox scout and told to report to Dallas for spring training.

"I was avoided like the measles," recalls Cieslak. "Only Jim Levey, the one-time shortstop of the Browns, took the slightest interest in me. He gave me valuable pointers."

Following two weeks in Dallas, Cieslak was shipped to Rayne, La., in the Class D Evangeline, where he alternated in the infield and outfield for two campaigns. Then to Oklahoma City, where he remained until shifted to Wilmington of the Interstate in July, 1941. He finished the season with a .300 batting average, joined the Army in February, 1942.

Cieslak is positive he obtained his biggest break when young Bob Carpenter purchased the Wilmington franchise. He went to the Blue Jays with the Blue Rocks.

Right-Hand Power Hitter

Cieslak has the bowlegs and hunches his shoulders like Pepper Martin. After the fashion of the Wild Hoss, his baseball knickers barely cover the knees, and he everlastingly is kicking and picking up dirt. Cieslak is a right-hand distance hitter who is off at a .340 clip, has a slingshot arm.

A home run, with the bases loaded off the veteran Ray Starr, now of the Reds, in the Texas League in 1940 was his top thrill. Like most Milwaukeeans, he is fond of bowling. His idol is Al Simmons, a Milwaukee neighbor he has never met. They are now neighbors in Philadelphia, too, Aloysius being with the Athletics.

Now if Ted Cieslak only could continue to hit like Al Simmons.

Entry List For AAU Growing

Seven San Antonio Stars Are Entered

DALLAS, May 15 (AP)—More than a dozen athletes already have accepted invitations to participate in the Southwestern AAU track and field meet here next week-end, P. C. Cobb, meet director, announced today.

Included are seven San Antonio stars who won top places in the Texas Interscholastic League meet with Charles Parker of Thomas Jefferson High, the nation's leading sprinter, to run in the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Others from San Antonio are James Southworth, vaulter, high jumper and hurdler; Guy Worrell, high and broad jumper; Perry Samuels, sprinter; Alan Sparkman, discus thrower; August Erfurth, high hurdler, and Tom Watt, low hurdler.

Seven Dallas Schoolboys

Joe Owens, Gladewater hurdler and quarter-miler, also has entered and Cobb said there would be seven Dallas schoolboy stars to compete. Those to be invited from Dallas are Rhea Nichols, half-miler, and Vernon Ratliff, broad jumper and weight man, from Adamson High; Charles Tatom, broad jumper and sprinter, and Dick Hampton, quarter-miler, of Woodrow Wilson; Dick Carson, vaulter and broad jumper and Harry Kidwell, hurdler, of North Dallas, and Bill Shadrack, vaulter of Highland Park.

Cobb also is getting acceptances from a number of service men who were college track performers. Fred Wolcott, former Rice star who holds world hurdles records, may enter.

Word from Southwest conference winners of last Saturday is awaited. All first and second-place finishers in the conference meet at Austin are being invited.

Clyde Littlefield, coach of the University of Texas who will be referee of the meet, will be here today or tomorrow to confer with Cobb regarding entries from the colleges.

COTTON SEED HULLS
DRAFTED FOR OUR FIGHTING FORCES

Selective Service applies to essential war materials, as well as men. Men and matrials, both, must go to war when our Government says they are needed. Every American would have it this waq, for WINNING THE WAR IS THE MOST ESSENTIAL JOB WE ALL FACE TODAY. COTTONSEED HULLS are ESSENTIAL WAR MATERIAL, as well as important Livestock Feed for dairymen and other livestock producers.

THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS "DRAFTING" COTTONSEED HULLS FROM THIS OIL MILL NOW, FOR USE BY THE CHEMICAL PLANT AT MEMPHIS IN MAKING SYNTHETIC RUBBER AND OTHER WAR ESSENTIALS. This War Plant has a certificate which gives it priority in the purchase of cottonseed hulls or hull bran up to 100% of the output of any oil mill during the period May 6th, through July 30th.

We must, of course, comply with this Government order. It means a sacrifice for us and our regular customers—dairymen and others who need these hulls for livestock feed, BUT, OUR FIGHTING FORCES COME FIRST, AND WE KNOW THAT LIVESTOCK PRODUCERS WILL WILLINGLY MAKE THIS CONTRIBUTION TO WINNING THE WAR, JUST AS THEY HAVE PATRIOTICALLY MADE SO MANY OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS.

As soon as cottonseed from the new, 1944 Cotton Crop begins to come to our mill, we hope to be able to supply our regular livestock customers with cottonseed hulls, as usual. COTTON FARMERS CAN HELP TO SOLVE THIS PROBLEM FOR THEMSELVES AND OTHER LIVESTOCK PRODUCERS BY DOING EVERYTHING THEY CAN TO INCREASE COTTON PRODUCTION THIS YEAR.

THE business and professional men of Los Angeles are taking quite seriously the result of an economic survey which, a few months ago, forecast that the Southern California metropolis some day can become the largest and most important metropolis in the Western Hemisphere—if not in the entire world.

The handsomely financed Chamber of Commerce of Los Angeles is carefully studying every domestic commercial angle of its present economy, as well as those foreign angles which can be probed in wartime. The West Coast men "aren't missing a trick," because they are studying Los Angeles' commercial liabilities as well as its assets, as they go along.

Most unusual thing about the way Los Angeles is going about its survey is its choice of people to do the work.

Instead of using employes of the chamber of commerce to make the various checks and contacts around the country, Los Angeles leaders are choosing from their own ranks business and professional men whose actual experience over the years particularly fits them for the task assigned.

Los Angeles is dead serious in planning to make itself one of the world's great business and industrial capitals and, in this country, is setting out in active competition to New York.

ONE of the West Coast city's business-man surveyors was in Lubbock the other day. His name is Robert H. Bolman, an assistant vice-president of one of Los Angeles' great banks. Currently, Mr. Bolman is president of the Southern California Bankers association; he has been active for years in the American Bankers association; his banking experience, in addition to years in this country, also includes experience in Hawaii.

He came to Lubbock with nothing to sell. While here he talked with local bankers and with customers of various Los Angeles wholesale concerns. He had at his fingertips the amount of business Los Angeles people do with Lubbock producers of livestock and foodstuffs — which is a great deal. He also had all the information about our purchases from Los Angeles, which are appreciable — especially in women's sports wear.

What Mr. Bolman is doing in Texas, (he went from here to Houston) other Los Angeles business men are doing in other areas all around the country. When they complete their jobs, they will report to the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and upon those reports will be predicted Los Angeles business concerns' efforts to add to their trade.

So very complete is the Los Angeles plan that it even includes asking Lubbock customers, for instance, if their letters are quickly and satisfactorily answered by the West Coast business concerns with which they trade.

No angle to Los Angeles customer-relations is too small to be given thoughtful and thorough consideration.

It will be interesting to watch, as time rolls on, the results of this unheard-of business campaign on the part of Los Angeles. If the campaign turns out to be as practical as it appears it will, other cities may well follow it, in a smaller way, in their own territories.

Lubbock, for instance.

WHILE chatting with Mr. Bolman, The Plainsman naturally asked the Los Angeles banker's opinion about California's likely political status in this national election year. Will the big West Coast state — which may be a pivotal one — go New Deal, or Republican in the national election?

Here was Mr. Bolman's summary of the prospects:

If Gov. Earl Warren is the GOP vice-presidential nominee, he almost certainly will pull California into the Republican column, whether Mr. Roosevelt is, or is not, the New Deal standard-bearer.

If Governor Warren is not on the GOP ticket, and Mr. Roosevelt tries for a fourth term, the chances are that California will give the President a majority of its votes.

If Mr. Roosevelt is not a candidate, California will go Republican, whether Governor Warren is on the GOP ticket, or not.

Incidentally, Mr. Bolman says Governor Warren is, in the eyes of most Californians and regardless of their party leanings, an outstanding man and a tremendously popular one.

That Man on Avenue Q says the person who thinks he's looking down on a neighbor usually has a false sense of direction.

We'll soon be knee-deep in June—and up to our necks in politics!

IT is difficult to see how anyone —even the bitterest of Mr. Roosevelt's enemies — can find anything wrong witht the President's appointment of James V. Forrestal to be Secretary of the Navy. Indeed, Mr. Forrestal was so much "the man for the job" that any other appointment might therefore have been subject to logical criticism on both sides of the aisle in Congress — and on countless street-corners of the nation, as well.

It is true that Mr. Forrestal is an old personal friend of the President, and that he is a member of the Democratic party. Yet the new secretary's record throughout the years he has served as first assistant to the late Secretary Frank Knox indicates beyond question that his interest in his work is not political, nor prompted merely by his friendship with his old neighbor of Duchess county, New York.

In appointing Mr. Forrestal to the cabinet, Mr. Roosevelt gives indication of at long last wishing to divorce politics from high places in the war effort.

If he had chosen to do so, Mr. Roosevelt could have made one of several different types of political appointments. He could have given the position to a great and good New Dealer to pay off a debt of gratitude; he could have plucked from the ranks of the GOP a top man who, in return, would have permitted himself to be used as a tool to lessen the power of Republican campaigning in this important election year. Also, he could have appointed a former Navy officer, or a currently still active one, and thus by-passed the spirit of the American form of government which traditionally calls for civilians in the War and Navy secretaryships.

But Mr. Roosevelt did none of these things. Instead, he promoted a man whose service in the Navy department has been outstanding; who "knows the score" of the department's aims and organization to the latest minute; and who, more quickly than any other man under the sun can pick up wher the late Secretary Knox left off and thus keep the Navy department running on even keel at a time when it must be kept running that way.

HAD Mr. Roosevelt wished to "play politics" with the Navy, he certainly could have chosen someone whose presence on the cabinet would be reflected by a bloc of support at the polls next November, if, indeed, the President is a candidate then. Mr. Forrestal, widely respected by both Democrats and Republicans, is not now, nor has he ever been, an active politician. He controls no votes; he directs no political group of any kind. He is a former highly successful business man whose talents in private affairs doubtless will make for efficiency in the Navy setup.

Every good American, regardless of his political views, will not only approve Mr. Roosevelt's appointment of Mr. Forrestal, but also will be pulling for the new secretary to do well an extremely difficult task.

They'll also hope that Mr. Forrestal will continue the quiet campaign of his late chief to break, forever and a day, the stranglehold which the reactionary, selfish and "veddy, veddy social" Annapolis clique has maintained on our navy for entirely too many years.

Feminine Viewpoint

WHEN the woman supervisor of an electric company in Cleveland had a baby it looked as though she would have to give up her job and stay home to take care of the boy.

MILLETT

But her employer, unwilling to let her stop work, fitted up a nursery for her right on the shop floor—and she manages to combine a shop job and caring for a baby the way the average woman combines housework and child care.

It sounds like a practical—even cozy—arrangement, but let's hope the idea doesn't catch on.

Working wives carry enough responsibilities to their jobs without taking along a baby to worry about.

The back of a working woman's mind, in the morning, is concerned with such details as whether or not she turned off the gas under the teakettle, how she can rush through her lunch in time to buy her husband some shirts and herself some stockings, and when she will get time to buy a new coffee pot.

AND in the afternoon she is wondering about such things as what she'll have for dinner, what she'll serve to the Joneses who are coming over later in the evening, and what to do to keep her husband from feeling frustrated because he isn't in the army.

A woman worker, who is also a homemaker, simply can't put her home responsibilities completely out of mind for the eight hours during which she works at another job. In spite of everything, they will creep in to nag her.

So it looks as though she has enough to think about without taking the baby along where she can hear him cry, or where she can be distracted by the cute things he does.

STRAWS IN THE WIND

Action of the House Foreign Affairs committee in terminating abruptly its hearing the other day on the proposed world-wide expansion of Uncle Sam's "good neighbor" policy was filled with significance that must have been most depressing to our internationally-minded visionaries.

It is the proclaimed idea of these visionaries that Uncle Sam should assume responsibility for all the peoples of the world, from the cradle to the grave. The proposed legislation on which hearings were scheduled provided, among other things, that people of other nations should be educated according to the theories of some of our own "advanced thinkers," regardless what the affected peoples might think of it.

The decision of the committee to dispense with the scheduled hearings was the best proof of the realization of the members that most of the evidence that might have been taken would be against the scheme. Since it is the business of members of the committee to know how the people they represent are thinking, the action indicates their realization that Americans taken as a whole do not endorse the notion that Uncle Sam should attempt the role of an indulgent, fat-headed uncle to the entire world.

The committee's action indicated a realization that an attempt to enact the legislation proposed would be a hopeless undertaking, and that hearing would be a waste of time. It was an action which seems to have quieted, temporarily at least, the danger that a world good neighbor scheme might be enacted into law.

Some Day You'll Go Farther---And Faster

Your Post-War Auto Fuels

BY PETER EDSON

Journal Washington Correspondent

NOW that Army, Navy and the petroleum administrator for war have lifted the lid—a little—on some of the secrets of wartime development in production of 100 octane gasoline, it's possible for refinery people to do a little predicting on postwar uses of super-fuels, with a line on what they'll do in your shiny new postwar automobile.

EDSON

While the military secrecy lid was clamped on tight, there were a lot of rumors going around that they were making "110 octane" and even "125 octane gas." That is branded as a complete misnomer. There isn't any such thing as 110 octane or 125 octane gas, because 100 octane is perfect in the arbitrary scale which the scientists set up to measure and designate the degree in which a motor fuel would not knock. Zero-octane gas will knock under any conditions; 100 octane gas won't knock at all in the highest compression motor now possible to build. Hundred octane therefore isn't a gasoline, strictly speaking, but a blend of ingredients which will do certain things 100 per cent.

But, while refinery experts can't make anything better than gasoline with a 100 octane rating, they have been able to concoct mixtures which will cruise farther and climb faster per gallon than the aviation gasolines made at the beginning of the war. It is from this fact that the stories of new super-gasolines got started.

FARTHER AND FASTER

IT still isn't permitted to tell just how much better these new gasolines are. They are of such recent development that there isn't any generally accepted nomenclature or grading, but one type of designation for aviation specification gasolines is a combination of two numbers, such as 115/145. This means a gasoline which will permit a plane to cruise 15 per cent farther and climb 45 per cent faster at full throttle than gasolines in use at the beginning of the war. But this gas would still be 100 octane.

There is still a dispute between aviation experts as to the best type of gas for war. Long-range bombers and naval aircraft operating from carriers naturally want maximum cruise range. But when taking off with a heavy load or when they get over Germany and are attacked by Nazi fighters, they need maximum power for rapid climb and quick getaway.

The need for an emergency, full-throttle fuel has been met, however, by use of water injection—feeding a little water into the cylinders along with the vaporized gasoline-air mixture from the carburetor. In principle, the water cools the inside of the cylinder, permitting higher compression and therefore more power on explosion. Water injection can't be used indefinitely, but for short periods—at takeoff, in a dog fight—it will step up power and engine performances by a surprising percentage. Just how much is restricted information.

BLENDS ARE UNLIMITED

ASIDE from practical limitations of the supply problem, there is no limitation to specifications of gasoline blends that can be made by the refineries.

There is, however, the catch that it takes more crude oil to make a given quantity of high specification aviation gasoline than to make the same quantity, of base stock.

Fitting all this into the postwar picture, refiners anticipate that commercial flying will take less gasoline than military flying, and therefore they will be able to meet all requirements for an extra high specification aviation gasoline. This may be 125/160 gasoline — meaning it will give 25 per cent greater range and 60 per cent greater power, than prewar aviation gas. This is just about the limit that airplane engines will take, as now designed.

At the same time, there will be a greater quantity of premium gasoline for automobiles and trucks. But it won't be 100 octane gasoline unless they start redesigning engines to take the stuff and get out all the energy there is in a high-compression fuel.

Put 100 octane in your old bus today, and, while it would run smoother, you wouldn't get any greater performance in miles per gallon, or on the pickup when the light goes green.

Since Pearl Harbor, Girl Scouts have contributed about 1,500,000 eight-hour days of work to the home front.

Ernie Browses Around London, Picking Up Unusual Yarns

"GI Correspondent" Sleeps Through Air Raid

By ERNIE PYLE

Journal War Correspondent

LONDON, May 15, (By Wireless) —You pick up a lot of funny stories as you wander around London. Maybe these little yarns have been printed before. If so you'll just have to excuse me on the grounds that I've been in another world for a long time.

ERNIE PYLE

One story has to do with Lt. Gen. Carl Spaatz, head of the American Army Air Forces here. One night he was standing on a balcony, watching a German raid on London. Their aim was very bad that night and they were dropping bombs miles from any target. General Spaatz was furious. He turned to one of his fellow watchers and blurted out, "The damn fools. They're setting bombing back 20 years."

Well, Well!

Another one has to do with the way Americans have flooded this island and nearly crowded the English off. Actually the Americans aren't bad and the English reception is good. Little stories like this help to keep us from getting on each other's nerves. Americans tell it themselves, so it's all right. The story is simply that one American said to another:

"These English are beginning to act as if this country belonged to them."

A YEAR ago I was with an infantry company of the First Division in those bitter mountain battles west of Mateur, in Tunisia. For three days I had been living in a tent with a British captain attached to us as a liaison officer. The night before an attack he and I marched up to the lines with separate battalions of the same regiment.

Some of you may remember my writing about him at the time. Just after dawn the next day I saw a British officer being carried on a stretcher. When I ran over, sure enough it was my friend, Capt. Jack Morris Enfield. He was badly wounded in the back and arm. Our stretcher bearers carried him to the rear and I never saw him again.

Yesterday I was having lunch in an officer's club when an American colonel I had known in Tunisia came over. He said he had a British girl at his table he'd like me to meet. And when he introduced us, it was Captain Enfield's sister.

She said her brother had recovered. He still had some pain in his back, but she guessed he was all right as he was now in the paratroops. I had missed him in London only 24 hours.

I suppose to give this story the proper ending Miss Enfield and I should get married and live happily ever after. That occurred to me too, but when I asked her she said no. Oh well, lackaday.

No Insomnia For Ernie

You've probably heard what a frightful noise the new rocket guns in London make. At least I'd heard about it before coming up here.

Well, we've had a few minor raids since I arrived. On the first one I found I was so scared after our Anzio escape that all I could do was just lie there trying to get my breath. A fellow has a kind of cumulative fright after he has had a real close one.

I think also that I was so afraid to hear the awful noise of those rocket guns that I was practically paralyzed. Finally they did go off. I guess I had expected too much, for they didn't horrify me half as much as I had thought they would. The noise itself isn't so bad—it's what it sounds like that terrifies you. For a rocket going up sounds like a bomb coming down. After you've learned that and adjusted yourself to it, rocket guns aren't bad.

P. S.—A few nights later we had the noisiest raid of my stay here and I slept through the whole thing. When the waiter came to the room next morning he started talking about the raid and I said, "What, raid?" He said, "Quit joking. Why, every gun in London was going last night." But I didn't wake up. I wish I could arrange it that way for all raids.

WE Americans in London fare very well on post-exchange rations. We are allowed seven packs of cigarets a week, two bars of chocolate, two razor blades and a can of fruit juice. In addition we can buy such needs as soap, toothpaste, shaving cream, handkerchiefs, fountain pens and dozens of other little things. We aren't suffering, I assure you.

And along that line, many readers at home are good enough to send me boxes. I appreciate them, but right now I would like to urge you not to send me any more. First, it needlessly takes up shipping space, and second, there isn't a thing I need.

My family has begged me to ask them for something, but truthfully there's nothing I want. Nothing, that is, except a dog and a sport roadster and a fireplace and my own easy chair and a dozen new books and lots of spare time. But of course they all weigh over eight ounces, so never mind.

STANDARD FACTS

SEA POWER...
Unites the United Nations: makes them strong
Look at your world map. Without the power to move freely over the face of the seas, what could the United Nations accomplish? They would be isolated—and destroyed one by one—because they could not help one another.

SEA POWER
STRENGTHENS FEEDS, TOO!

Consider feeds for poultry and livestock. Grains alone, without the help of quality PROTEINS, VITAMINS and FOOD MINERALS, are not "strong," meaning simply that rations of grain alone will not produce the maximum amounts of meat, milk and eggs per pound of feed. You waste time and money when you feed "weak" feeds. The sea is our richest potential source of the very proteins, vitamins and food minerals needed to balance up the grain and mill feeds produced on land, to help them give best feeding results.

STANTON'S FEEDS CONTAIN MANAMAR

The ManAmar contained in Stanton's Feeds is produced by Philip R. Park, Inc., San Pedro, Calif. This research organization specializes in "sea farming" . . . gathering, concentrating and blending always-healthy ocean fish (and their by-products) and "Sea Alfalfa" or Kelp. The fish are rich in proteins and also in health- and- growth-promoting vitamins. Kelp supplies food minerals which may be lacking in land feeds.

Try Stanton's feeds, enriched with ManAmar, and increase your production schedule and profit. Get all the facts, today.

Dear Lou:
Must tell you about the lovely modern 5-room home for sale and located in Green Acres addition. This is the newest and up and coming addition to Lubbock.

It is a well built pretty home and close to Roscoe Wilson school and on the pavement. The neighbors are all people whom you would like.

Confidentially, this home can be bought for $2300.00 down payment and the balance only $34.50 per month (much less than rent) There is a large fenced back yard, all landscaped and a nice garden already growing.

If not sold before you get here, go immediately and see—

Allies Breach Gustav Line

first to launch their attack Thursday night and who have been slogging through extremely difficult terrain, quickly exploited their initial success.

Charging yesterday with infantry and tanks, they overran the villages of San Ambrosio, Villa Maio and Ausonia, bypassing strong enemy points which now are being mopped up.

Yanks Cut Road

Simultaneously the Americans on the extreme left of the attack line cut the Ausonia-Fromia road.

After a bitter and bloody fight the Americans drove the Nazis out of the town of Santa Maria Infante at noon yesterday, pushed on to a road junction northeast of the town and fanned out to capture the village of San Pietro and the nearby hills, Monte Cerri and Monte Bracchi on either side of the Ausente river. Then they continued the attack on Spigno.

Southwest of Cassino the enemy put in strong counter-attacks throughout yesterday with infantry supported by Nebelwerfers, artillery and a few tanks. From the Nazi first parachute division elements in this sector the Allies captured four officers and 117 men prior to yesterday.

One Sector Quiet

The only sector of the offensive front where the fighting died down was northwest of Cassino where the Poles had attacked heavily on the two preceding days.

It was reported officially that the enemy was hastily reinforcing his defenses against the Poles and moving up other reinforcements also for a prolonged battle along the entire front with an evident determination to prevent any break-through on the Gustav line which would permit the Allies to begin an early assault on the Hitler line beyond.

Knife-swinging Gurkhas cleaned out the last enemy resistance in the labarynthine cellars and fortified buildings of San Angelo in the Rapido bridgehead and tanks and infantry advanced slowly south of that town. Enemy pockets were mopped up also in the area of the Rapido and Liri rivers.

Enemy Resists Advance

The enemy resisted a tank advance from the bridgehead with tanks and artillery but the Allies announced that more tanks were bogged down than knocked out.

The minefields in this area were not as bad as expected. At one place the enemy hung booby traps from branches of trees overhanging the road.

Additional bridges have been thrown across the Rapido river. At least 30 Nazi guns shelled one bridge.

Just as the whole attack was evidence of Allied cooperation, so was the spectacular advance of the French demonstration of the close unity of the Allied forces. American artillery backed Gen. Juin's onslaught, shelling enemy strong points, while RAF planes helped spot their targets.

Despite the announcement of a breach in the Gustav line, the Allied command made it plain that swift conquest of any sector could not be expected. Further progress in the French sector must depend on the speed with which ammunition and other supply lines can be established through a rugged country where normal avenues of communication are wrecked.

No official mention was made of booty taken but front line dispatches told of the Allied seizing quantities of teller mines.

Albinos appear at a rate of one in 10,000 persons.

War Against Japs

Japanese installations.

Other Mitchells blasted storage areas at Mangshih and Lungling in western Yunnan, while Warhawks strafed installations at Tengchung and Tatng and attacked a bridge.

The Chinese have cracked the Japanese hold on the Peiping-Hankow railway, retaking Suiping, 100 miles south of Chenghsien, but Japanese troops in northern Honan province have broken into Loyang on the east-west Lunghai railroad at three points, the Chinese high command announced yesterday.

The counter-attacking Chinese succeeded also in encircling the enemy at Chumaiten, five miles miles south of Suiping, the announcement said.

It was the first break in the solid Japanese hold on the railway since its conquest.

Japs Break Through

At Loyang, 60 miles west of Chenghsien, the Japanese broke through after sharp flanking attacks from the south. Using 200 tanks, the Japanese were reported converging on the city from the east, north and northwest. Latest reports from Chinese headquarters said the Japanese were being held. Casualties were declared heavy on both sides.

In northern Burma, Chinese troops under Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell surged through a small village and joined other Allied troops about 10 miles north of Kamaing, one of Stilwell's immediate objectives.

General successes were reported in Allied mopping-up operations on the East Indian front where British officers declared Japan's invasion thrust has "failed completely."

General MacArthur's airmen in the Southwest Pacific cooked up the biggest batch of aerial destruction for the enemy since the Hollandia invasion last month when they poured 334 tons of bombs at Japanese airfields and defense installations at Wakde island and te adjacent Dutch New Guinea coast.

MacArthur also revealed for the first time Dauntless dive-bomber pilots used rocket guns attached to their planes' wings to help destroy 40 Japanese barges at Rabaul, New Britain. Barges are about the last remaining hope of reinforcement or evacuation for the isolated Rabaul garrison.

Central Pacfic based planes harassed outflanked Japanese troops in the eastern Marshall islands and struck at the phosphate-producing island of Nauru far to the southwest.

Record SPAAF Class Is Graduated Today

South Plains Army Air field this morning graduated its second record class in succession, and wings as glider pilots and appointments as flight officers or commissions as second lieutenants were made.

Graduation exercises were at 10 o'clock in the post theater.

The group represented almost every state of the nation.

Specially engraved glider pilot wings were awarded to the two "most outstanding soldiers," F/O Henry Wayne Whittenberg of New Madrid, Mo., and F/O Hershel Hollingsworth of Carmi, Ill., bronze trophies to the two "best athletes," F/O Holly R. Carpenter of Palmyra, N. J., and F/O Donald I. Watson of Long Beach, Calif., by Col. James A. DeMarco, base commanding officer, who spoke briefly.

Maj. Richard R. Shoop, director of flying, presented wings to the class, and Capt. Harry M. Davis, school secretary, administered the oath of office.

Capt. John F. McKenna, Catholic chaplain, asked an invocation and pronounced the benediction. The SPAAF band played.

There were 18 Texans in the graduating group.

Tech Commencement

sure to follow. The other D-days pertain not only to the invasion of enemy countries but for successful invasion into business, and professional life.

The college band played a brief concert prior to the ceremonies. Rev. H. G. Gantz, pastor of the First Christian church; Rabbi Izadore Garsek, Congregational Shaareth Israel; and Rev. Edward Lawler, assistant pastor of St. Elizabeth's Catholic church, had brief parts in the program.

Charles C. Thompson of Colorado City, chairman, was the only member of the college board of directors present. Other members plan to be here today for a board meeting and to attend tonight's exercises.

Others On Program

Besides Judge Davidson, others to appear on tonight's program will be: Rev. John A. Winslow, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church who will give the invocation; Dr. Jones, who will present degrees and honors; Fike Godfrey, who will present the senior class gift, which will be accepted by Chairman Thompson; and Rev. A. H. Carleton, pastor of St. John's Methodist church, who will give the benediction.

Cannie Marion Chandler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Chandler of 2416 Thirty-fourth street, will be among the three graduates receiving high honors at the exercises. The others are Oliver Steeley Walkup of Tulsa, Okla., and Helen Ruth West of Levelland.

Among the twelve seniors graduating with honors are five Lubbock girls. They are: Ophelia May Beall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Beall of 2627 Twenty-first street; Virginia Ruth Forbes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Forbes of 2115 Twenty-eighth street; Florene Juanita Noack, daughter of Mrs. Bertha Noack of 2001 Eighth street; Betty Rhea Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Caldwell of 3201 Twentieth street; and Henrietta Lucille Hall, daughter of Mrs. Hazel M. Hall of 1419 Nineteenth street.

Others graduating with honors are: Tommie Ferrell Fowlkes, Dimmitt; Virginia Lee McSpadden, Phillips; Mary Rowena McKinley, Hamilton; Douald Robbins, Santa Fe, N. M.; Mary Jane Johnson, Graham; Katharyn Renfro, Amarillo; and Lois Ratliffe Smith, Lamesa.

State Convention

vance of the convention and thus prevent a possible fight.

Orderly Procedure Sought

He proposed that candidates for temporary and permanent convention chairmen pledge themselves to enforce this procedure:

That committees on credentials, resolutions, permanent organization and delegates to the national convention and other regular committees be composed of a member from each of the state's 21 congressional districts and that they be selected by caucus of the delegates from each district and the elections of the caucuses be fully recognized.

That delegates and alternates to the national convention be those selected at district causes and that the selections be final and conclusive.

Two Floor Leaders

That both factions at the state convention select floor leaders who will receive equal recognition and that proponents and opponents of each issue be given equal hearing.

That five members of any 21-member committee be entitled to bring in a minority report which shall be fully recognized.

That a roll call vote be given by the chairman when the results of a voice vote are not clearly apparent.

That all parties use their best efforts, in good faith, to carry out the spirit of the proposal.

In announcing opening of the pro-Roosevelt headquarters Isely declared that a committee would be named to obtain rooms in private homes for Roosevelt delegates unable to secure hotel reservations.

He asked also that county delegates send to headquarters copies of instructions given county delegations and lists of delegates.

MANY LEADERS LACK BIDS

NEW YORK, May 15 — Small-scale investment demand served to keep the stock market at selectively higher levels today although many leaders found difficulty in attracting bids.

Dealings were slack from the start and turnover of around 350,000 shares was one of the lightest for a full session since early last September. Advances of fractions to a point predominated near the close.

Gulf Oil, spurred by talk of new petroleum discoveries, got up more than a point to a 1944 peak. Ahead most of the time were Santa Fe, Northern Pacific, National Supply, Market Street Railway preferred, Standard Oil (NJ), U. S. Steel, Douglas Aircraft, American Telephone, Western Union "A", Dupont, Westinghouse and Phelps Dodge. Occasional decliners included Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, Sears Roebuck, United Aircraft and U. S. Gypsum.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, May 15 (AP) — Uncertainties over the war developments limited cotton trading today to routine mill buying against textile awards, coupled with covering operations in the May position prior to final trading day in that month tomorrow.

Nervous New Orleans and commission house liquidation found only scale down support in distant months.

Futures closed 35 cents a bale higher to 5 cents lower.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, May 15 (AP) — Persistent liquidation of wheat and rye, inspired by favorable crop growing weather and belief that the tight feed grain situation should ease within a few months, today sent futures of those grains into new low ground for the current downward move. December wheat and rye hit new seasonal lows. Oats and barley slumped.

May wheat, oats and barley held at ceilings. Active wheat futures closed ⅝-1⅛ lower, July $1.65, active oats were off ⅝-1⅛, July 77⅞, active barley was 1¼-2⅜ lower, July $1.21⅝, and rye dropped ¾-1⅛. May $1.22⅛-¼.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, May 15 (AP) — Wheat No. 1 hard 1.71½-77.

CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

HENDERSON, May 15 (AP) — The name of Capt. D. S. Meridith, jr., of Gilmer, now on duty in the Southwest Pacific, today was entered as a candidate for Congress from the Third Texas district. The filing of Meridith's name made the third candidate to announce for the position. Rep. Lindley Beckworth has filed for re-election and E. A. Martin, Longview attorney, has also announced his candidacy.

Four Texans Killed In Tennessee Wreck

HORNSBY, Tenn., May 15. (AP) —Five persons were killed and 11 others injured here yesterday when a truck ran through a railroad guard rail and plunged into a southbound Gulf, Mobile and Ohio freight train.

Four of the dead — all of whom were returning from a Bible training camp conducted by the Church of God at Cleveland, Tenn. — were Texans.

The dead included:

Bishop W. J. Vandergrift, 45, Mt. Pleasant, state overseer of the Church of God; Enos Campbell, 48, Palacios; Bob Kestler, 45, of Palacios; Millie Ray Deadrick, 30, negro, Palacios; Miss Lola Harrison, 18, of Colburn, Va.

Injured included James Kestler, Adrian Griffin, Mrs. Georgie Johnson, Miss Thelma Kestler, Miss Louise Revelle, and Miss Beulah Harrison, all white, with no addresses given, and five negroes.

Attendants at the Jackson, Tenn., hospital where they were taken, said that efforts to administer to the injured were being handicapped by their refusal to take medical treatment because of their religious belief.

Deadline Tonight On Candidates' Filings

No new filings for district candidates places on the ticket had been made, said L. C. Ellis, chairman of the Lubbock County Democratic Executive committee, this afternoon; a few hours before the filing deadline at midnight.

The midnight deadline includes candidates for congress and state and district candidates.

A United Press dispatch from Austin quoted Travis County Democratic Chairman J. M. Patterson as warning that the rule accepting filings that are in the mail by midnight of the last day (today) applies only to state candidates and has not been recognized in the past in regard to candidates for congress.

George Mahon, incumbent, and C. L. Harris, Lubbock attorney, are the only persons who had filed for a place for congress, Ellis said.

Two Negroes Charged Following Gun Battle

SEAGRAVES, May 15 (Special) —Two negro women must have been "dead serious" when they fought Sunday afternoon in the Flats district of Seagraves, suggested Dep. Sheriff Sid Hargrove after picking up the "armament."

The women had an automatic pistol, two rifles, one double-barrel shotgun, a razor and a pocket knife.

One took up a position in a house, the other directed fire from behind an abandoned car body.

How many were killed?

"Neither woman was touched," the deputy sheriff said. Holes were shot in the walls, doors and windows of the house.

Charges of assault with intent to murder were filed in the court of Joe Bailey, justice of peace.

Condition Of George Ade "Very Grave"

BROOK, Ind., May 15 (AP) — George Ade, 78, Indiana author and humorist, was reported in "very grave" condition last night after suffering from two heart attacks within 24 hours.

Ade has been in a coma since Saturday night. He has been ill since June, 1943, when he suffered a stroke that caused temporary paralysis of one arm and one leg.

News Briefs

J. D. Hassell, Rayford Hills, J. H. Rhodin and A. G. Finnell left by a Lubbock Aero Service plane this afternoon for Dallas on business matters. Emmett Morris was pilot. They will return to Lubbock late Tuesday.

It unofficially was indicated early this afternoon that the case of Robert Johnson, a negro charged with murder of another black, would be passed; that the case of L. C. Brooks, charged with assault with intent to rape, would be continued, and that the Noble Burns burglary action might go to trial this afternoon before Judge Dan Blair and a 72nd petit jury. Two civil actions were to be called subject to the criminal docket, it was learned.

Dr. C. E. Hereford, pastor of the Lubbock First Baptist church, and Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ratliff, 2413 Nineteenth street, have gone to Atlanta, Ga., to attend the annual Southern Baptist convention in session there Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Dr. Hereford left last night for Atlanta and Mr. and Mrs. Ratliff left several days ago.

Gag Rule Rejected

they would be able to cut off debate. That bill died in committee.

Connally argued that public opinion, formed as a result of Senate debate, was responsible for the death of the proposal.

"If a cause be a good cause," he said, "all the flood light that can be thrown on it will reveal its virtues; if it be a bad cause, light will reveal its defects."

Caucus Planned

But while it has been the general understanding that defeat of the debate limitation would be followed by action to pigeonhole the bill, Senator Mead (D-NY) said supporters would caucus immediately after the vote to decide future plans.

"We want to roll up as big a vote as possible," Mead said. "Of course, if we can't get a majority for cloture, then we probably can't defeat anybody's motion to lay the bill aside."

Senator Ellender (D-La), on the other side of this issue, said he was certain that the southerners who are opposing enactment of the measure would get sufficient help to show a majority in the negative.

duced in that area, twice was approached to take the presidency of Texas Technological college.

Doctor Bizzell was considered as Tech's first president, but the post did not at that time offer what he thought to be either his best professional or financial opportunity. He was again approached by Tech officials 10 years ago but declined to consider any change since at that time he was embroiled in a battle with Oklahoma politicians and said that any change he might make then would look like he "quit under fire."

Dr. Clifford B. Jones, president of Texas Technological college and a longtime friend of Doctor Bizzell, voiced the opinion of Southwestern college presidents here this morning when he said:

"The death of Doctor Bizzell is most unfortunate. He was a great American and a great college administrator. The loss engendered by Southwestern education through death of Doctor Bizzell is so great that it is impossible of evaluation."

Thomas Lee Williams Dies In Anton Home

Time For Defeat Of Nazis Big Question

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

As we await the break of D-day it's natural that one of the burning questions should be how long will it take the Allied war machine, after it has hit top speed, to grind out this final phase of the European war and administer the coup de grace to Hitler.

We are facing a terrific struggle. We should be foolish not to recognize that.

Having acknowledged this, it's legitimate to note that many observers incline to the theory that once the invading forces have overcome the terrible initial hazards and have established themselves, the Hitlerites will be about ready to accept the inevitable and surrender. This idea is based on the belief that the Nazis will quit short of allowing the fight to be carried onto German territory.

Bloody Battle Due

Speculation over the prospects of Nazi surrender would be dangerous if we didn't at the same time recognize the certainty that the invasion of western Europe is going to produce one of the bloodiest battles of history. The only thing which will force a collapse of the enemy will be conviction that there's absolutely no hope of gaining more favorable terms by hanging on.

The Prussian militarists know that they already are beaten. They're making a long-shot gamble that by protracting the conflict they can weaken Allied determination and thereby secure better terms.

The Hitlerites are going to fight invasion with everything they have—and that represents tremendous striking power, although it's far from what it once was. And we shouldn't treat lightly the German claim that they have devastating secret weapons, for they may have.

Hitler's Army Formidable

Hitler's army is generally figured to total about 3,000,000, which is a formidable force. However, the fact remains that the German reichswehr, big as it is, just isn't strong enough to cope with the Allied armies.

Despite Hitler's great strength, he no longer is able to defend adequately the entire perimeter of his European fortress.

Veritas, the British military commentator, concludes that the manpower situation "clearly indicates the inevitability of Germany's eventual collapse in the field." However, he believes the Nazis will make a supreme effort to throw back the invading Allies," or at least to effect a stalemate in the west before the Russians get at their vitals on the other side."

Hot Weather Records Set In Some Areas

(By The Associated Press)

Texans today recalled a weekend which brought new hot weather records for 1944 to numerous localities.

Quanah, in North Texas, reported 95 degrees yesterday, while El Paso recorded a 91. Dallas and Fort Worth, with 88 degrees each, saw their warmest days of the year and it was 90 at Wichita Falls.

Other reported temperatures included Houston, 89; Galveston, 84; Brownsville, 86; Corpus Christi, 82; San Antonio, 86; Austin, 85; Waco, 87; Amarillo, 85; Laredo, 88 and Edinburg, 83.

Texans Are Killed In Crash Of Seaplane

CORPUS CHRISTI, May 15 (AP)—The crash of a seaplane Friday 15 miles northeast of the Corpus Christi Naval Air station, on the mud flats of harbor island, caused the death of an instructor, an aviation cadet and four enlisted men.

The dead were Ens. Dexter Junior Russell, 24, Merlin, Ore.; A/C Francis J. Tobin, 20, Washington, D. C.; Aviation Machinist's Mate 2nd Class Benjamin Franklin Neves, 19, Jermyn, Jack county, Texas; Seaman First Class Charles Edward McWilliams, 22, Trinity, Texas; Ship's Cook, Third Class Franklin Ernest Adams, formerly of Kingsville, Texas, and Steward's Mate, First Class Sammie Green, 27, formerly of Cuero, Texas.

THEATER ROBBED

ATLANTA, May 15. (AP)—While scenes from "The Uninvited" flickered by on the Paramount theater screen, an armed, masked man slipped into the manager's office, waved a pistol at three employes and stole $1,800 last night.

The Naval Air Transport Service covers more than 65,000 miles on scheduled transport services.

Locomotive Pinch Hits For Boiler In Egg Drying Plant

WICHITA FALLS, May 15. (AP)—A boiler producing steam for egg drying at the Domestic Egg Products company plant here broke down.

Several carlots of eggs were in the plant and on the tracks—and they had to be processed.

So company officials called the Fort Worth and Denver railroad. An engine was backed up to the plant door and a steam pipe from the locomotive was attached to the plant's drying equipment and it took the place of the dead boiler.

But Mrs. Mary Ash, company manager, didn't think it was news. She commented: "It has been done before."
