Dunn house is not slated for demolition

House has been condemned, but not on "tear down" list

CONDEMNED – The former home of the late Hailey Dunn, in the 1900 block of Chesnut, has been condemned by the city's code enforcement due to the poor condition of the property. At this time, however, it has not been slated for demolition.

The house where Hailey Dunn lived when she went missing has been condemned by Colorado City Code Enforcement, but it is not slated to be demolished at this time. The home in the 1900 block of Chestnut Street may be considered for demolition by the Housing Standards Commission when the group meets in the next couple of months.

City Manager David Hoover said that weeds that were about four feet tall were what brought Code Enforcement Officer Misty Rich to the door of the residence that is still owned by Hailey's father, Clint Dunn. Rich knocked and could hear someone in the house, but no one answered the door.

Hoover said that there were "squatters" living in the home and outside in the backyard in a fenced off area. The people living there were discovered when city crews went to the property to conduct what is called a force clean.

If sufficient notice is given to owners about bringing a property up to code and the issues are not addressed within a certain time frame, the city comes in to perform a force clean. Rich said that search warrants have to be issued before a force clean can be performed.

After securing the warrant, Rich entered the home and found sufficient evidence to condemn the property. She said water has not been turned on at the property for several months, and she's witnessed people coming and going from the house.

Rich also said that when she went inside the house, she found needles and drug paraphernalia. Also, there were holes in the walls, broken windows and other dilapidated things inside the home.

"The bathroom was really bad," Rich said Tuesday. She added that the repairs it would

Aguilar reinstated as city police chief

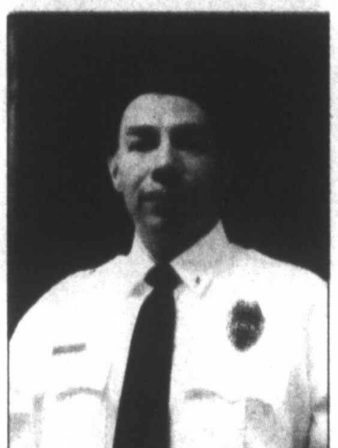

An internal investigation has been completed, and Colorado City Police Chief Luis Aguilar has been reinstated as the head of the law enforcement department of the City of Colorado City.

Though rumors were circulating, CCPD Officer James Barrows was never placed on administrative leave and continues to serve on the force as before. Sgt. Traven Berrie, who served as interim chief, has returned to his position as patrol sergeant.

On Monday, Aguilar said that any grievances being investigated were deemed unfounded and all personnel has returned to full, active duty.

"Now that I'm back, we've got a lot of work to do," Aguilar said earlier this week. "I would like to thank all the members of the community that have been so supportive of me, and I thank God I was able to return."

"I'm glad to be able to get back to work serving our community," Aguilar added.

Chief Luis Aguilar

City Manager David Hoover said he is glad that everything worked out the way it did.

"It's always disturbing when you have issues like this to deal with, and it's always a relief when those issues are resolved," Hoover said.

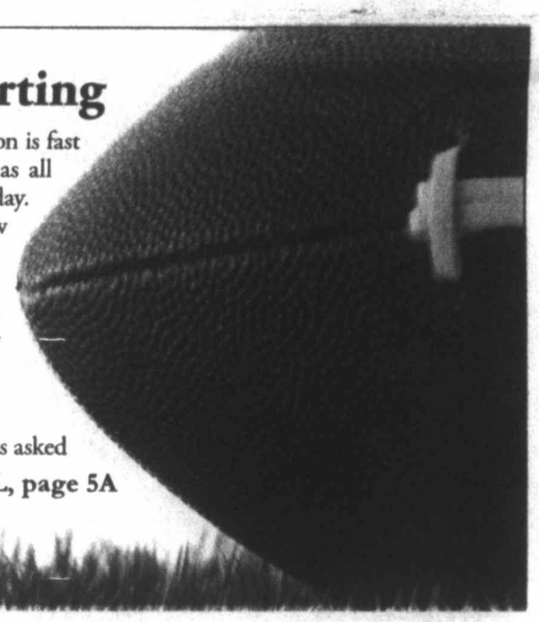

Football 2-a-days starting

The first week of August means football season is fast approaching. In Mitchell County that is true as all county schools will start football practice Monday. For years, called two-a-days the practices now usually are scheduled in the morning in one practice session. The evening session was moved to the mornings as some kids suffered heat related illnesses so most coaches practice each day before the heat sets in.

Hospital facing $255 million loss in tax valuations for 2016

Mitchell County Tax Assessor Sylvia Clanton attended the monthly hospital board meeting to present certified values. Certified property tax values for the hospital district are approximately $255 million less than last year.

Along with certified values, Clanton also presented a proposed tax rate of .301673 cents per $100 valuation, which meets the rollback rate but does not go over. If the board chooses to go with the proposed rate, it will generate $3,158,839.13, which is about $130,000 more than last year. The board will consider the figures and set a rate before September 1st.

Hospital CEO Robbie Dewberry informed board members that a second-year resident with the Texas Tech Health Science

County presented with $9.3 million budget

The Mitchell County Commissioners Court convened on Monday morning. Court members took steps toward the 2016 fiscal budget, and County Auditor Heidi Harris presented a proposed budget totaling $9.3 million.

Official values were presented by Tax Assessor Sylvia Clanton, showing a decrease of around 20%. County Judge Ray Mayo cited falling oil and gas values as the main reason for the decrease. Clanton also presented a proposed tax rate to commissioners. The effective rate, or the rate needed to bring in the same amount of money as last year, is 51 cents per $100 valuation. Rollback rate is 53 cents per $100.

Commissioners will be looking closely at the proposed budget, which has been cut by about $450,000 from the current year.

"Every year we have a deficit budget. This year the deficit is about $800,000, next year we're looking at $450,000 less," Mayo said. "It's getting less, so we're headed in the right direction."

The bid for the property and casualty insurance was awarded to the Texas Association of Counties, who bid $72,774. The only other bid was submitted by First Service Insurance, totaling $79,402.

Employee health insurance was approved for renewal, and employees will enjoy the same benefits at no cost, just like in years before. Mayo said that the increase to the county's premiums comes out to a little less than $4 per employee per month. Employees will keep the same coverage by Blue Cross/Blue Shield.

In an effort to cut costs, the county terminated the working relationship with their insurance brokerage firm, Tommy Morris Agency. While Mayo expressed

Staff members from the Integra Care Home Health office in Colorado City will be blanketing the community throughout August, distributing food collection bags and gathering donations for the Wallace Senior Citizen Center as part of the company's 11th annual food drive.

As part of the Kindred at Home family of home healthcare, employees at the Integra Care Colorado City office and their fellow employees around the country are placing the food collection bags at various healthcare facilities in their respective communities and will collect their "harvest" during the entire month of August. They are focused on beating last year's tally, when the company's 10th annual food drive yielded more than 838,000 pounds of goods for donation to charitable organizations across the country.

"As active members of the community, we know that food banks, pantries and other charitable organizations continue to face increasing demands for assistance," said Denise Crawford, Integra Care Home Health Colorado City Branch Director. "We look forward to working with many area health organizations, and we encourage local healthcare providers to contact us for more information on how they and their employees can participate in this community effort."

While its local office is staffed by area professionals familiar with the health needs of community residents, Kindred at Home's national scope allows it to bring substantial resources to its local offices that other companies often cannot provide.

Area residents, physicians and referral sources who want to learn more about Integra Care Home Health services should contact Jessica Whitesides at 940-585-6437. The Integra Care Home Health office is located at 271 Walnut Street.

OBITUARIES

Patsy Bonita Faye Black Swann
1932 - 2015

ODESSA--Bittersweet. July 20, 2015 is best described as bittersweet. Our sweet mother finally got to go home.

Patsy was born in Colorado City on November 28, 1932. She was born to Willard Hiram "Buck" Black and Molly "Blanche" Black. Her childhood was like many of the depression era. Those lean times instilled in her a will to survive and be successful. Most of all, she knew she would have to be educated. Her financial situation did not allow her to go to college even though she graduated in the top of her class. So she began to read – a lot. This was her best chance to learn about life and anything that interested her. She instilled a love for reading in all three of her children. At the age of 19, she married the man who first caught her eye when they were in the 7th grade. Stoneham "Smokey" Swann was the love of her life. They settled in Odessa and raised three children. Patsy was a homemaker and the primary bookkeeper for their many business ventures. She also loved to sew, garden (she had the best strawberry beds ever!), cook (best enchiladas ever!), was a pastel artist, loved to decorate and remodel houses. Patsy and Smokey were improving and flipping properties long before HGTV was a household name. They bought two wings of an old veteran's hospital, moved them to Odessa to remodel and move into. She worked right alongside Smokey and learned how to be a carpenter, as well. Their combined creativity lit a fire and led the way for their children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren to express themselves. Thanks Mom for the artistic genes!

Patsy had a wicked sense of humor (and no filter) and continually surprised us with her take on life. She was shy early in life, but grew to never know a stranger. She loved to dance and taught all the grandkids to two-step and do the Charleston. If you ever had a problem, she knew exactly what to say to soothe it. She demanded the spotlight at family gatherings and got it! Most of all, she loved God and her family. She most assuredly knew where she was going after death.

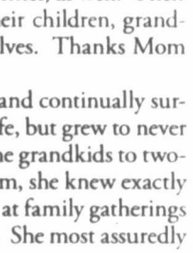

Patsy was preceded in death by her husband, Smokey; her parents, and her oldest brother.

She is survived by her younger brother, Rodney Black and wife Camilla; sister-in-law, Daisy Black; son, Terry Swann and wife Kim; and daughters, Sheryl Huckabay and husband Rickey and Randi Wright and husband Jeff. She is also survived by nine grandchildren and their spouses;13 grandchildren; one great-great grandson; and a future great-grandson due on her birthday, November 28th.

Memorial services will be privately held. For information about the memorial, call Sheryl at (432) 208-3226.

McLaury speaks to local Lions about endowment fund

Charles McLaury, a member of the Sweetwater Lions Club, came to Friday's weekly meeting of the Colorado City Lions Club to talk to members about an endowment fund set up to benefit the Texas Lions Camp (TLC).

As you may have seen in earlier editions of the Record, Lions Clubs in Texas help support the camp in Kerrville, so that the camp may continue to provide camping experiences, at no charge, to children with medical conditions. A $10 million endowment fund has been set up as another way to donate to the camp on a larger scale.

McLaury said that, over the years, membership in Lions Clubs have decreased and clubs have folded, leaving fewer clubs and people to support the camp.

The endowment fund challenges clubs to donate $400 per member to the fund over the next three to five years. McLaury challenged the local club to participate in the program. He also provided pledge forms to members interested in participating in the endowment fund.

The local club is already designated as a Century Club, as they have donated $100 per member in the past. McLaury said the endowment fund backs up the Century Club program.

Before the challenge to local Lions was issued, a video of the camp, campers and parents of campers was shown. The video made clear the important ways in which campers, parents and counselors were impacted by the camp.

TLC gives campers a chance to be a normal kid. "It's surprising what kids can do when they are not told they can't," one of the couselors said on the video.

Beyond campers' experiences, the camp provides a week-long respite for parents who bear a heavy load caring for their disabled children. The week off provided by the camp has been described as a God-send by parents.

Several local Lions attended camp graduation a couple of weeks ago and came home inspired to do more to support TLC.

Those touring the camp spoke of excellent facilities and superior staff members that provide an extraordinary experience for the disabled and diabetic children that attend each summer.

INSIDE JOB – Construction crews building the new Stripes Travel Center just east of town have been able to complete enough of the outside work to be able to move inside. City Manager David Hoover said crews are drywalling the store now.

OPINION & COMMENTARY

TUMBLEWEED SMITH

Jody Nix keeps on fiddlin'

In 1960, the drummer in Hoyle Nix's band got sick and couldn't play for a scheduled gig. So Hoyle recruited his 8-year old son Jody to pick up his sticks and get on the bus. Jody played that night and 55 years later he's still playing. But he's not playing drums anymore. His brother Larry taught Jody to play fiddle. The first time he played it in public was at the Stampede Dance Hall in Big Spring. Jody was 11 at the time and joined his dad on stage to play Faded Love. Hoyle introduced his son by saying, "He's a left handed boy playing a right handed man's fiddle."

Jody has a lot to show for his years playing western swing. He has performed at the Kennedy Center as a guest of the Smithsonian. He played for 6,000 people at George H. Bush's presidential inauguration. He has played with Ray Price and other big names. Bob Wills chose Jody and his dad to play on his album, For The Last Time, produced in 1973. Texas, California and Washington have inducted Jody into their Western Swing Halls of Fame.

Jody took over the band when his dad died and has continued to build a large audience. He plays for dances, clubs, rodeos, festivals, and fairs and is invited back year after year. He has played 28 consecutive years at Stamford's Rodeo. Last April he made his 40th consecutive appearance at the Bob Wills Festival in Turkey, Texas, which Jody calls the Super Bowl of Western Swing. He performs somewhere in the southwest about 115 times a year, sometimes booking events two years in the future.

When Hoyle had the band, he had a schedule: Brownfield on Tuesday night, San Angelo Wednesday, Sweetwater Thursday, Abilene Friday and back at the Stampede on Saturdays. He did a radio program on KPET Lamesa Saturdays at noon. The band would be at the Stampede for the broadcast and sent it to the station by a phone line.

The Stampede has been written about in various publications all over the country. Jody plays there on occasion. He has recorded 14 CD's and plans to do 3 more this year: gospel, Christmas and country. His country CD will have Faded Love on it, his most requested song. He has never recorded it, saying nobody could do it better than Bob Wills. He says his band has devised a unique way to present it.

Jody never boasts about his accomplishments unless he's prodded to do so. He is extremely modest about his fame and considers himself lucky to be a natural born musician with God-given talent. He has written a few songs: When It's All Said And Done, Bob Wills Is The One (that brought us all that good Western Swing); I Can Change The Weather Easier Than I Can Change Your Mind and Play Me Something I Can Swing To.

What you don't hear about are the many appearances Jody makes free of charge at nursing homes and retirement centers in Big Spring. He has sung at dozens of funerals. Jody has many friends and enjoys what he does. He has no plans to quit.

Soul restoration

Answer to depression

By Monte Wike

There has been an ad on TV lately about an antidepressant. It shows a tin model of the sufferer all bent over and needing to be wound up, then she starts shuffling off again. But then comes the disclaimers. The harmful effects seem to be worse than the depression they are trying to treat.

There is a simple and universal cure for depression. It is found in the middle of the Twenty-third Psalm. "He restoreth my soul." The answer to depression is to take your problems out of your own hands and turn them to the Lord. Then sit back in the soft grass by the flowing brook and let peace, contentment and assurance do their work.

David goes on in these remarkable six verses of our favorite scripture to spell out the causes of depression, the presence of evil, fear, dark valleys, and the shadows of vultures lurking in the sky like the shadow of death. He also mentions anxiety because the enemy forces are in close range and there is also a lurking sense of abandonment.

But he offers a soul-restoration for each of these dangers. The presence of the Lord will help us fear no evil, His rod and staff comfort us when the enemy hovers overhead ready to devour us, and in the very presence of our enemies He prepares a big celebration feast.

Depression comes because a person feels like (or has become) a failure, that he is lonely and no one cares for him. Healing comes when we realize God's infinite and detailed care for us, His soothing surroundings of meadow and running water and the sure knowledge that both goodness and mercy are ever-present with us. The battle comes when we choose depression over healing, when we lose hope and fail to see how close the solution is.

Hiding or avoidance will not cure depression. That may be the best that drugs can do. When we run from God instead of turning to Him, any number of things can and do happen. Depression is just one of them. It can be cured with assurance.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letter to the Editor:

Parents, please read!

Parents, talk to your kids, no matter how old, about texting while they drive. Yesterday, Sally and I drove to San Marcos for a funeral.

Our son Stan is engaged to Mandy. Mandy's brother's wife, Candyce, and unborn child were killed when she was texting her best friend. She ran into the back of a dump truck that was stopped to make a left turn. Law enforcement think she never saw the truck.

Candyce's parents were expecting their first grandchild from their only child. I could go on about what was lost, and the people left behind.

Accidents like this one are the real cost! Don't do it, for God's sake!

"Judge not lest you be judged". Many times envy prompts "greed" as an appraisal.

Fortunate is the person who rejoices the good fortune of his fellow creatures. For they are "God's" work, they are many and "a rising tide lifts all boats".

All things are perfect in "God's" view. "Good" and "evil" are views of the less sophisticated. Socrates advised moderation in all things as practical – Not "good" or "evil".

Greed is an error in judgement – not evil. Envy is evil. Envy may cause harm to others; it always spoils the life of the envious.

Center will be coming to Colorado City next Monday to tour the hospital. The administrator is looking into candidates that would be a good fit as an additional healthcare provider once construction of the new clinic is finished.

Dr. Jade Booher is from Hale Center, a small town in the Texas Panhandle, and she hopes to practicie medicine in a small town once her residency is completed.

In keeping with the hospital's Level IV Trauma designation, the board approved a resolution to continue participation with the program. Dewberry said the program requires some training and extra competency that keeps MCHD better prepared to handle trauma patients and situations.

The steel frame on the new rural health clinic has been going up this week. Dewberry said that depending on weather, construction of the clinic could be finished as soon as the end of March or first of April 2016.

Venson Stewart, Food Service Department Head, has planned a steak dinner day. On August 13th, Stewart and the cafeteria staff will serve steak at noon with all the trimmings and a drink for $13. Anyone planning to attend is asked to RSVP to Karen Holman at the hospital by Tuesday, August 4th.

take to bring the house up to code would probably cost more than what the house is worth.

Police Chief Luis Aguilar said there has been some suspicion raised about possible drug traffic in and around the residence. He also said that officers had recently recovered some stolen property from the house.

"It needs a new roof, and there are windows that have been broken out," Hoover said earlier this week.

Hoover said that the property may be considered for demolition by the Housing Standards Commission when they meet again, but that isn't expected to happen until sometime in September. The city cannot demolish a privately-owned property until it has been slated to be torn down by the commission.

C-City VFD members attend fire school

Several members of the Colorado City Volunteer Fire Department attended fire school on the campus of Texas A&M University last week. Joe Beltran, Dustin Cox, Shawn Rees, Misty Rich and Rick Goodney all went down to College Station for a week of intensive fire training.

Beltran, a relatively new member of the department, was enrolled in Firefighter I class. He has been a member of the CCVFD for two and a half months. Beltran learned how to fight vehicle fires, how to use air pack equipment, and many safety issues were addressed by the course.

"Joe learned a lot. He loved every minute of it," Goodney said.

Cox participated in the Service Officer Leadership Development class. Fire Chief Goodney said the course provides leadership skills to firefighters and also teaches the responsibilities of the safety officer, all things that Cox will be implementing in the local department.

Rees and Rich went through Firefighter II training, which is a good continuation of their previous training. The course concentrates on interior structure fires and seeks to prepare firefighters for what may be encountered in a large structure fire.

This is the 11th year for Goodney to serve as an instructor in the school, and this year he received a promotion of sorts. He learned that the Lead Instructor of the school is retiring, and Goodney was named Assistant Lead Instructor.

Goodney said that local firefighters are put through rigorous physical tests, as it was 108 degrees on the field when the heat index is taken into consideration. Also, the firefighters wear heavy, hot gear in the humid southeast Texas weather.

"Everything that they (local firemen) learn and bring back to the department makes us that much better," Goodney said.

CHEERLEADERS IN THE MAKING – CHS Cheerleaders (front) Jadyn Griffith and Marissa Parras were busy Tuesday morning teaching younger girls how to be a cheerleader. Cheers and chants can be heard around the middle school this week, as the annual CHS Mini Cheer Camp is underway.

PAVING THE WAY FOR THEIR REPLACEMENTS – CHS Cheerleaders Emily Ballard and Andie Salas were busy teaching a dance to the younger group of CHS Mini Cheer Clinic participants Tuesday morning. Cheer sponsor Joni Lacefield reported a good turnout to the annual clinic.

Sales tax holiday Aug. 7-8

Texas Comptroller Glenn Hegar reminds shoppers they can save money on certain items priced under $100 during the state's annual sales tax holiday. This year, the sales tax holiday is scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 7 - 9.

The law exempts most clothing, footwear, school supplies and backpacks priced under $100 from sales tax, which could save shoppers about $8 on every $100 they spend during the weekend.

"As the father of three young children, I know back-to-school expenses can really put a strain on family budgets this time of year," Hegar said. "This is an opportunity for families to save some money and prepare for the start of the school year."

Lists of apparel and school supplies that may be purchased tax-free can be found on the Comptroller's website at TexasTaxHoliday.org.

This year, shoppers will save an estimated $87 million in state and local sales taxes during the sales tax holiday.

The tax holiday weekend has been an annual event since 1999.

Dove season begins September 1st in North, Central zones

As of 2014, new regulations saw dove hunters with more opportunity later in the season with dates and bag limits finalized by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department for both last year and this year.

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service approved the 2014-2015 Texas dove season, including a 70-day season and 15-bird daily bag statewide, and a 16-day early teal and Canada goose season.

The traditional September 1st dove season opening day in the North and Central Zones remains. The first segment in those zones will be shorter than the 2013 season, closing on Tuesday, October 20th. The season will reopen Friday, Dec. 18th and run through January 7th, 2016 in the North and Central Zones.

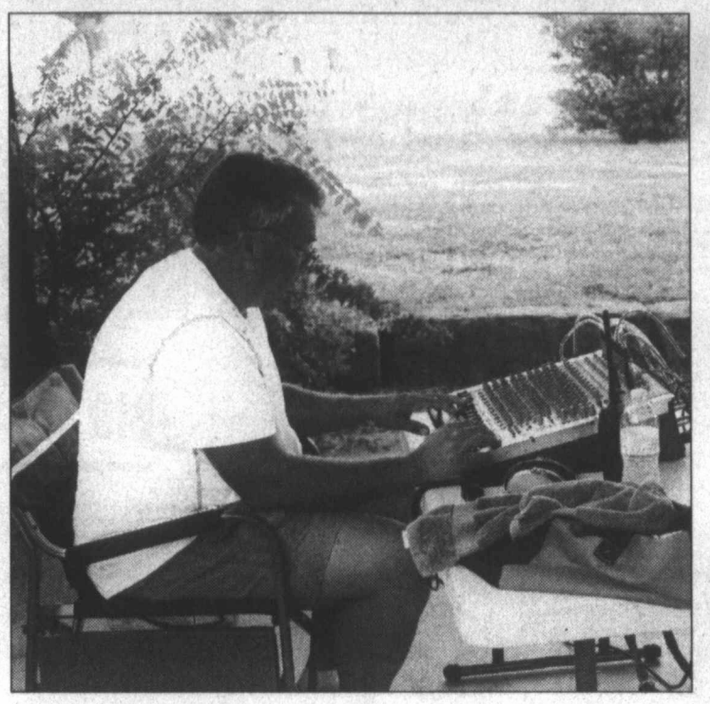

In the South Zone and Special White-winged Dove Area, the first segment will be shortened by five days compared to last year, and those days would be added to the end of the second segment. The South Zone September 19th and runs through October 20th. The second segment will run December 19th through January 25th, 2016.

The daily bag limit for doves statewide is 15, and the possession limit is 45.

The Special White-winged Dove Area will be restricted to afternoon only (noon to sunset) hunting the first two full September weekends on Sept. 5-6 and 12-13. Hunting in this area will reopen September 19th and continue through October 20th, and then reopen December 19th through January 21st. During the early two weekends, the daily bag limit is 15 birds, to include not more than two mourning doves and two white-tipped doves. Once the general season opens, the aggregate bag limit will be 15 with no more than two white-tipped doves.

Hunters are asked to check shot doves for bands and report them. The bands are very small an easy to overlook. Previous studies indicated two-thirds of banded doves taken by hunters were never reported. High reporting rates maximize return on hunting license dollars spent for needed management information.

Please report bands to the toll-free number 1-800-327-2263 or online at www.reportband.gov.

Back 2 School

EVERYONE WORKING TOGETHER – It takes everybody working together to get preparations done in time for the start of school. Coach Billy Quinn could be found painting inside the field house last week, getting things ready for the start of two-a-days which begin Monday, August 3rd.

Kelley registration packets available August 11th - 13th

Parents with students who will be attending Kelley Elementary in the upcoming school year should mark their calendars, as school officials have issued some important dates and tips to remember.

Packets containing paperwork and other must-haves should be picked up at the school office August 11th through the 13th. Personnel will be at the school during the day, and packets can be picked up anytime between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. on those days.

All paperwork in the packets should be filled out at home. All paperwork should be turned into the school on Friday, August 21st when a Meet the Teacher event will be held from 10 a.m. to noon. Parents and students will be able to meet the student's teacher, drop off supplies, and pay for t-shirts.

For those enrolling students for the first time at Kelley Elementary, a copy of the child's Social Security card, shot records and birth certificate should be brought to registration on August 21st.

The first day of classes is Monday, August 24th, and staff will be at the school from 7:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. each day during the school year. Students should be taken to school no earlier than 7:45 a.m. and picked up at 2:50 p.m.

Student drop-off and pick-up will take place each day at 7:30 a.m. and 2:50 p.m. Car riders should be dropped off and picked up on Elm Street, along the east side of the campus, and bus riders will be dropped off and picked up on Walnut Street, the west side of the campus.

Car rider mirror signs will be available at registration for parents to purchase. Anyone that regularly picks up a student should have one. Each mirror sign is $2. Students will not be allowed into a car without a car rider sign clipped around their mirror unless the office has given them a pink slip to be a car rider.

Morning assemblies will take place each day at Kelley. Head-Start, pre-k and kindergarten students will have breakfast and the morning assembly in the Kelley Café located in the school cafeteria from 7:45 to 8 a.m.

First and second graders will meet in the gym for assembly at 7:45 a.m. and will have breakfast in the café immediately following.

Student lunches will cost $2 this year, with reduced price lunches costing 40 cents. Adults and guests can eat with students, and their plates will cost $4 each.

Principal Melinda Alexander, Secretary Lisa Rees, Counselor Jody Womack and School Nurse Elena Marquez, along with all the teachers, aides and faculty, would like to welcome students back to school and are looking forward to another great year at Kelley Elementary.

Hutchinson packets to be available August 11th - 13th

The first step in registering a student at Hutchinson Elementary School is packet pickup, and this year the school will hold packet pickup Wednesday and Thursday, August 11th- 13th from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day.

After paperwork packets are picked up, parents should take it home, fill it out and read the parent information.

Registration and Meet the Teacher is planned for Friday, August 21st from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Bring back registration papers and meet your child's teacher, drop off supplies, pay for T-shirts if you have not done so already. Birth certificates, shot records, Social Security cards and all previous school records should be taken, if possible.

The first day of school for all Colorado ISD students is Monday, August 24th. Students can eat breakfast at 7:30 a.m. each school day, and class begins at 7:55 a.m. at Hutchinson. School is dismissed each day at 3:20 p.m.

Hutchinson Principal Melinda Alexander would like to take this opportunity to remind parents of some basic dress and hair codes. Shorts must be below the fingertips when arms are placed at sides. No tank tops or short skirts. Pierced ears are not allowed for boys.

Hair should be a natural color, appropriate style and appropriate length. For boys, that means hair may not be below the bottom of the ears or the bottom of the collar. No ponytails, buns or any other attempts to shorten hair by using rubber bands will be permitted for boys, either. Cornrows are acceptable but must comply with the hair code length.

The designated drop off area at Hutchinson is on 5th Street in front of the cafeteria. Students are to arrive no earlier than 7:30 a.m.

The designated pickup area for students after school is on 4th Street. Parents are reminded that it is illegal to park across the street and have students cross to the car. Please enter through 5th Street from Hickory and curve around to 4th Street. Remain in one line to pick up children on the correct side of the street. For all students' safety, please do not pass cars in line to pick up students.

Buses will be loaded after school on Cedar Street, in front of the Hutchinson campus. Please do not attempt to pick up children in that area.

Back 2 School

PREPARING TO GUIDE – Kaci Griffith could be found getting things in order in her office at Colorado High School on Tuesday. Griffith is a counselor at CHS and will be helping students find their career or educational pathway.

CHS registration begins Aug. 14

The faculty at Colorado High School is getting ready for another year, and there are some important dates that students and parents should note.

For all returning CISD students, registration will be held Friday, August 14th. Seniors will register from 9 to 10:30 a.m., and juniors will register from 10:30 to noon. Sophomores will register from 1 to 2:30, and freshman will register from 2:30 to 4 p.m. that day.

New student registration will be held from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Thursday, August 20th, with a break for lunch from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

In order for sophomores, juniors and seniors to receive their laptops, students must have the laptop handbook filled out and signed by parents. The handbooks will be included in the registration packet.

CHS Principal Mark Merrell welcomes all CHS students and is looking forward to another great school year.

CMS registration, school photos and parent meetings to be held Aug. 18

Registration schedules have been set up for students that will be attending Colorado Middle School this year. Registration, school photos, and parent meetings will be happening on Tuesday, August 18th.

Incoming 6th graders will register at 9 a.m. that day. Parents and students should meet in the library at that time, and registration activities will continue from there.

The sessions are the same for 7th and 8th graders, with 7th grade registration beginning at 10 a.m. and 8th grade registration starting at 11 a.m. All students should be prepared to have school photos taken that day as well.

Loraine ISD gearing up for 2015-16 school year

The staff at Loraine ISD is getting ready to kick off the 2015-16 school year. There are many events scheduled to take place early, and parents need to keep informed so that students are ready for the school year.

Football and volleyball two-a-days will start Monday, August 3rd. Football players should report to Coach Kyle Hauk at 6:30 a.m. Volleyball with Coach Gonzalez will begin at 8:00 a.m.

Anyone considering coming to school in Loraine as a transfer student will need to speak with Mr. Steven Parker, Principal and Coach Hauk, Head Coach/Athletic Director as soon as possible. All athletes in grades 6th, 7th, 9th, and 11th must have a physical performed this year. Athletes needing a physical form should come by the administration office at the school and pick one up.

Transfer students will need to complete registration paperwork and meet with the committee.

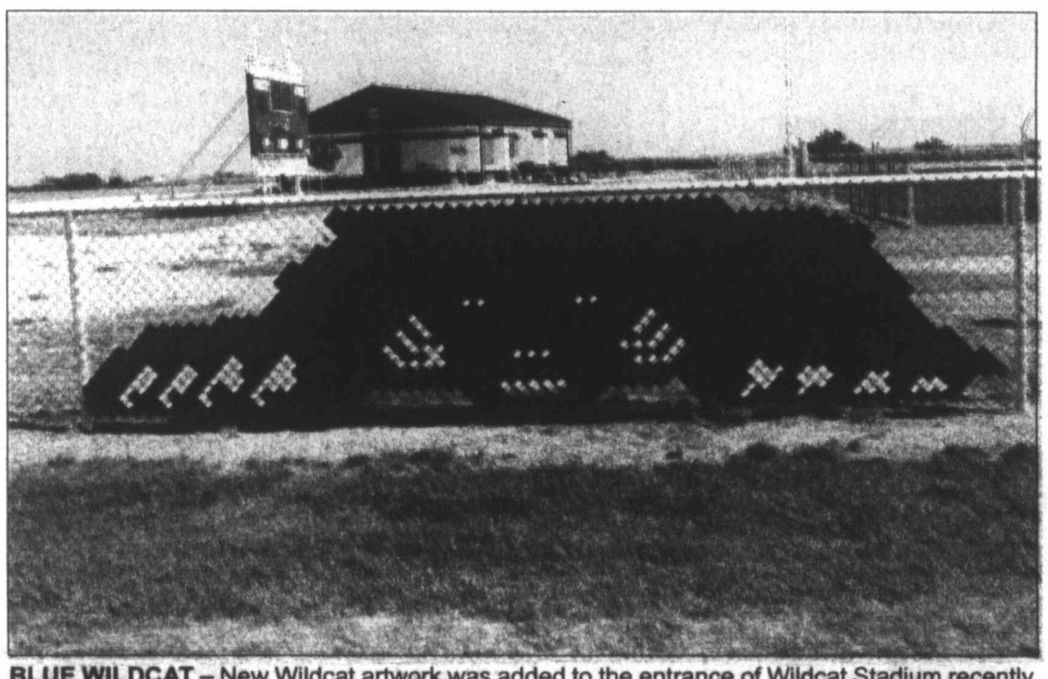

Those participating in ag or anyone who would like to participate either in showing or judging should let Ms. Sykes, ag teacher, know as soon as possible. She will help in finding animals and with the proper care directions.

Remember, dual credit classes start Wednesday, August 26th. All classes take place on the Loraine ISD campus. Students must have registered with the counselor, Mr. Doug Fortenberry. The tuition and books are covered by the district. Mr. Fortenberry will be available Tuesday, August 4th at the school campus for questions.

Beginning August 10th, new students can pick up a registration packet in the administration office to register prior to the beginning of school. Please bring birth certificate (issued from the courthouse), immunization record, Social Security card, and the driver's license of the enrolling parent/guardian. Proof of residency should be taken to registration, as well. Athletic schedules and supply lists can also be picked up at that time.

Please feel free to go on to the school website http://www.loraine.esc14.net/ or follow on School Way to stay informed of all the latest news at Loraine ISD. There is also a Loraine ISD Parents Page on Facebook.

Classes begin at LISD on August 24th.

BLUE WILDCAT – New Wildcat artwork was added to the entrance of Wildcat Stadium recently. The Wildcats, along with the Wolves and Bulldogs, start pre-season football workouts Monday, August 3.
