TOO LATE NOW

Anton Turta, 79-year-old Leduc, Alta., farmer may become a millionaire because of a court decision involving oil rights on his Canadian farm. A clerical error made in 1908 in a title office has made Turta the owner of mineral rights on his 160-acre farm. The rights are valued at $5,000,000. Turta's reaction to the news was a philosophic, "its too late to do any good."

Taft Favoring Compromise On Ike Delegates

INDIANAPOLIS, June 6 (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) said today he is willing to compromise "on a fair basis" contested delegations to the Republican national convention.

Taft, here to meet with delegates to be chosen for Indiana in meetings tonight and tomorrow, told a news conference he would like to avoid a fight before the credentials committee of the Chicago convention if compromises could be reached.

Several contests are in prospect, including those involving Texas' 38 delegates, Louisiana's 16, Mississippi's five and Georgia's 17, among others.

Taft was asked specifically about the fight in Texas, where Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge of Mass., campaign manager for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, contended the delegation has been "stolen" from the general by refusal of state organization leaders to seat Eisenhower delegates.

Observing that both sides contended they had elected delegations according to law, Taft said he believes the contest would be settled by the national convention on a basis of "fairness and justice."

Eisenhower adherents in Texas held their own rump state convention.

UN Stand On Prisoners Is Repeated Again

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—Allied truce negotiators said today the U.N. Command never will follow the path of "betrayal, force and bloodshed" by bowing to Red demands for blanket repatriation of some 170,000 Allied-held war prisoners.

The prisoner issue is blocking negotiations at Panmunjom for a Korean armistice.

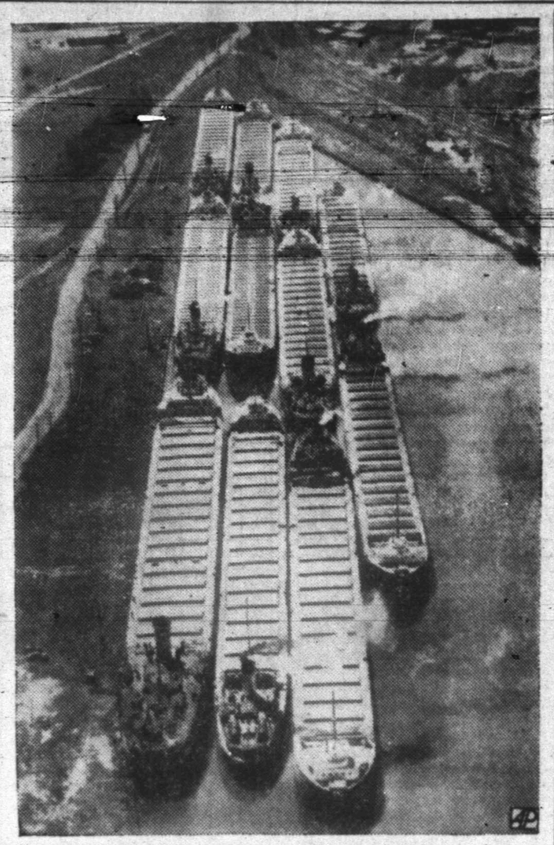

Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison, chief U.N. delegate, said acceptance of the communist proposal would "mean an abandonment of the principle of human rights."

"Neither now nor in the future do we intend to be a party to such a transaction," he declared.

North Korean Gen. Nam Il said Allied refusal to repatriate prisoners who do not want to go home "is devoid of any reason, any precedent and any legal basis . . ." He said the U.N. plan would not be "tolerated by an opposing belligerent who stands on an equal footing with the opposing side."

Nam's long tirade included charges that Allied planes have bombed and strafed prison camps in North Korea and that Red prisoners on Koje island have been slaughtered.

"Who has cut off the rations of war prisoners?" he asked. "Who has been incessantly slaughtering war prisoners like cattle with bayonets, machineguns, flame throwes and tanks?"

BOATS IDLED BY STRIKE

Eleven ore boats, idle because of the steel strike, are tied up at the Jones Island dock, Milwaukee, Wisc., as shown in this aerial photo. Seven are loaded with iron ore. Most of them were enroute to or returning from Gary, Ind., steel industries when the strike occurred.

Hope Rises That Steel Strike Can Be Settled During This Week End

WASHINGTON (AP)—Peace talks to end the five day old steel strike took on a hopeful air today as three-man negotiating teams for union and industry resumed intensive bargaining talks at the White House.

A dramatic Senate floor statement by Democratic Leader McFarland (Ariz) last night that the strike of 650,000 CIO Steelworkers might be settled over the weekend persuaded the Senate to put off until Monday all legislation dealing with the dispute.

John R. Steelman, assistant to President Truman who is riding herd on the union-management talks, acknowledged he had talked with McFarland and said the two sides had got down to "real bargaining."

"I certainly am not pessimistic," Steelman told newsmen, "but I wouldn't want to overstate my optimism."

Steelman said both sides had been discussing intensively all the complex issues involved. The walkout started Monday after the Supreme Court voided Truman's seizure of the steel industry. More than 100,000 mine, rail and other workers also have been idled by the steel shutdown.

The first break in the nationwide strike came late yesterday with announcement that the Detroit Steel Corp. had reached a contract agreement with the steelworkers, covering 4,500 employes. Details of the agreement, negotiated in Pittsburgh, were not announced. A district union official said the embodied Wage Stabilization Board recommendations.

These called for a "package" wage increase amounting to 28 cents an hour by next January.

In the Washington talks, it was reliably reported the union shop—also recommended by the Wage Board—was the subject of the most bitter dispute. This would require all steelworkers to join Philip Murray's CIO union after being hired.

Steelman said there had been "give and take" on both sides. Asked if new settlement proposals had been offered, Steelman said:

"Yes, you can't negotiat all day without making some proposals. . . They're negotiating with each other openly and above board, without any reference as to price."

Steelman reiterated Truman's comment of some time ago that when an agreement was reached, the subject of a price boost to compensate for wage increases would be discussed. The industry has said it would need a $12 a ton raise in the price of steel, now selling at $110 a ton, to meet the union's demands.

Senate Fight On Foreign Aid Bill Developes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Majority Leader McFarland faced a new fight today by Sen. Kem (R-Mo) for a tightened Allied blockade of Red nations when the Senate considers a $6,477,730,750 foreign aid bill.

The House approved the measure yesterday by a 230 to 115 roll call vote, after only brief debate. McFarland planned to call it up for Senate action today.

The bill authorizes $6,447,730,750 for military and economic aid abroad during the year beginning July 1. This figure was decided on in a Senate-House conference Tuesday to adjust differences in previous aid bills passed by both houses. The bill does not make funds available. That will be done in separate appropriations legislation. Opponents of the present bill, who say it is too big, have said they will try to cut it in the appropriations stage.

The conference eliminated an amendment by Kem stopping aid to Allied countries which knowingly export war materials or commodities useful for war production to Iron Curtain nations.

Kem said in a statement that he would move to return the compromise measure to conference, with Senate instructions to put the provision back.

Ridgway At Jump Spot On D-Day Invasion

ON THE NORMANDY BEACHES, France (AP)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway marks the eighth anniversary today of the World War II Normandy invasion with a return to the spot where he parachuted in the D-day spearhead.

Now Supreme Allied Commander in Europe, Ridgway led the 82nd Airborne Division in its leap behind Nazi lines, hours ahead of the invasion waves, to clear some of the way for Allied infantry and armor.

The general's visit — highlight of ceremonies marking the anniversary of the 1944 landings that began the final conquest of Europe from Hitler's army — includes stops along both Utah and bloody Omaha beaches, where the bulk of the American forces came ashore.

Ridgway also will visit Sainte Mere Eglise, the first town his airborne troops liberated in the predawn hours of June 6, 1944. There the general will lay a wreath at milestone zero, the start of the "Liberty Highway" — route of victory through France and Germany.

At Omaha beach he will inspect the Bayeux and St.Laurent military cemeteries. Here cliff-top graves of thousands of soldiers and officers still overlook rusted, halfin the invasion to form temporary sunken hulks of landing craft used jetties.

Ridgway will speak at ceremonies on Utah beach and will lay a wreath on the monument there which commemorates the landings.

A pilgrimage of D-day veterans from the "Fighting First" Division, now in Germany, also placed wreaths on Omaha beach at the time of the original H-hour — 6:30 a.m.

7 Migs Said Shot Down By UN Warplanes

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — U. S. Sabre pilots shot down seven Russian-built MIG15s and damaged two today as the Red jets swooped on Allied fighter - bombers blasting North Korean rail lines near Manchuria, the Air Force announced.

The MIG kills were the first reported since Saturday.

Five were shot down and two damaged in a noon battle between a screening force of 36 Sabres and a flight of 16 Communist jets.

One other MIG was knocked down in a separate fight at about the same time between 28 Sabres and 12 MIGs.

U.S. Fifth Air Force said its planes to date have destroyed 316 MIGs, probably destroyed 58 and damaged 507 in the Korean war.

Allied losses in today's fighting, if any, will be announced in a weekly summary.

In pre-dawn darkness today, United Nations B26 bomber pilots destroyed two locomotives and destroyed six box cars in attacks on trains on the line running through Kanggye, in mountainous central North Korea just south of the Yalu River boundary with Manchuria.

Water To Be Cut Off In East Snyder While Hydrant Is Moved

Several residences in the east part of town will be without water for about three hours Sunday morning while a fire hydrant is being moved, W. J. Ramsey, city superintendent, said.

The water will be shut off about 8:30 o'clock when workemn will begin moving the fire plug at Twenty - fifth Street and Avenue H to provide room for widening East Highway to a four-lane drive. The hydrant is on a loop in the water main that furnishes residences on Twenty - fourth and Twenty - fifth Streets between Avenues F and L.

Utility companies are working to complete clearing of right of way for the road project by June 15. If all is cleared by then, the state highway department believes it will be able to let contract for paving in July. Widening of the highway will require about 60 working days, department officials said.

95 High Here Yesterday

A north wind blowing into Snyder about 8 o'clock last night failed to bring temperatures down more than a recorded low of 68, Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, weather observer, said. It brought dust with it and blew for about an hour. High for yesterday was 95, and the reading at 7:30 o'clock this morning was 70.

Candidates Moving On Double In Every Section Of State

By The Associated Press

Ralph Yarborough opens his bid for Gov. Allan Shivers' job Friday night with a homecoming rally at the Courthouse at Athens as political campaigning warms up in Texas.

R. T. Craig, Athens banker and chairman of the rally, said it will be an old-fashioned East Texas political meeting.

Yarborough, a native of Chandler, Tex., will begin a stump speaking tour of East Texas.

Billy E. Beard, candidate for state agriculture commissioner, charged Thursday at Austin that policies of the U. S. Department of Agriculture are aimed at popularity, not actual value.

"It is time for all of us, farmer and city folks alike, to take heed, investigate and use every resource at our command to take Texas farming out of the clutches of the popularity seeking federal agencies," Beard said in a statement.

Atty. Gen. Price Daniel left Austin for El Paso to address the state convention of Disabled American Veterans. The candidate for the U. S. Senate will meet with his El Paso supporters. Mrs. Daniel accompanied him.

Daniel's opponent, Rep. Lindley Beckworth of Gladewater, pounded along Houston streets with a bundle of campaign literature under his arm.

Western Union Asks Rate Hike

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—The Western Union Telegraph Co., petitioned the government today for authority to raise its domestic message and money order rates 9.3 per cent. It said the boost is needed to pay its employes more money.

The company posted the proposed higher rates with the Federal Communications Commission, (FCC) and fixed July 6 as the effective date of the boost.

The revisions could be protested during the 30-day period by Western Union customers or blocked by the FCC if it considers the increases unreasonable.

W. U. said the increases together with further hikes on other service —to be filed later—would give the company about $13,200,000 per year in added revenues.

Sit-Down Strike In Prison Camp Broken

BATON ROUGE, La., June 6 (AP)—State troopers broke up a sit-down strike of 200 Negro convicts at Louisiana's state penitentiary today firing three gas shells into their camp barracks and seizing 42 ringleaders.

Col. Francis Grevemberg, state police superintendent, said troopers radioed him from the prison at Angola, about 70 miles northwest of here, the other convicts involved had surrendered and returned to their farm work.

"The situation is back to normal," Grevemberg said, three and a half hours after the prisoners rebelled at 6:30 a.m. (CST).

The 42 ring-leaders were placed in a separate building.

Angola's superintendent, D. D. Bazer, appealed for assistance at 5:30 a.m. (CST) when the convicts refused to leave their prison camp building.

State police headquarters rounded up available troopers, armed them with riot weapons and sent them to the 18,000-acre prison farm system 70 miles northwest of here.

Supt. Bazer reported 35 ringleaders were responsible for the action. The disturbance was at Camp "I". Angola has a system of several prison camps in isolated country.

Bazer radioed state police that the prisoners demanded:

1. Better food.
2. Better bathing and toilet facilities.
3. More frequent change of prison garments.

The Louisiana legislature now under consideration bills that would provide more than $2 million for improvements at Angola.

Surveys Better Than Treaty

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States has told the United Nations it should quit trying to write a treaty on freedom of information and instead make an impartial, annual survey of censorship in the world.

Walter Kotschnig, deputy U.S. representative to the U.N. Economic and Social Council, said yesterday that the harder the U.N. tried to set up a treaty guaranteeing freedom of the press, the more restrictions appeared.

The U.N. has been trying to write such a treaty for years, but it has never been able to reconcile the views of countries such as the U.S. and Britain, where freedom of information is traditional, with those of nations where the press is restricted.

Some U.S. publishers have expressed strong opposition to any treaty governing information because they feared American guarantees of freedom might be infringed to appease the views of other countries.

Kotschnig, who spoke to the Social Committee of the Economic and Social Council and to a news conference, suggested that instead of working on a treaty the council should appoint an impartial official to report annually on freedom of information.

This official's report, he said, could be submitted for debate which would make clear the status of such freedom throughout the world.

Wholesale Prices On Potatoes Shoot Up After Controls Off

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—The government reported today that wholesale prices of white potatoes shot up as much as $2 to $4 per hundred pounds overnight after the removal of price ceilings.

The Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) lifted the controls late yesterday after the Senate had voted to exempt fresh fruits and vegetables from price controls beginning July 1.

Today, OPS officials quoted figures from the Agriculture Departments Marketing News Service showing the overnight advance in prices at Pittsburgh and New York for potatoes from California and the Carolinas. The prices are wholesale for U. S. No. 1, Size A, 2-inch potatoes.

The report showed that California long white potatoes were selling in New York yesterday at $6.28 to $6.31 per hundred pounds. Today the quotations ranged from $8.50 to $9.50, an advance of up to $3.22 per hundred.

Other quotations in New York were: unwashed North Carolina cobblers $4.75 to $5 yesterday compared with $7 to $8 today, a maximum advance of $3.25; washed North Carolina cobblers $5 to $5.08 yesterday, compared with $8 to $8.25 today, a maximum advance of $3.69; South Carolina sebages, $5.60 yesterday compared with a range of $7.50 to $8 today.

Prices quoted at wholesale in Pittsburgh were: California long whites, $5.98 to $6.07 per hundred pounds yesterday, compared with a range of $7.50 to $10 today, a maximum advance of $4.02; North Carolina cobblers, $5.01 yesterday compared with $8.25 today, an advance of $3.24.

A produce buyer for a large eastern store chain said:

"A lot of speculators are going to get caught with high-priced spuds, and when the dumping begins, these abnormal prices will soon become history. Three more weeks should see plenty of potatoes in most stores."

He told a news conference it would be "interesting to watch" what happens to potato prices, but refused to make any predictions.

Other officials said potatoes have been almost impossible to buy in retail stores in many areas. They guessed there would be a sharp price increase, probably dropping off late this month and in July, when the 1952 crop hits the market.

Arnall said the Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) decided to remove the ceiling over potato prices because the Senate had voted to do so, effective July 1. Although the Senate vote would not become law unless concurred in by the House and approved by the President, Arnall said it would be impossible to administer potato ceilings while Congress threshed it out.

State Health Department Reports Polio Doubled

AUSTIN, June 6 (AP)—Polio has more than doubled in Texas so far this year, the State Department of Health reported today.

Incidence through May 31 this year was 578. Through June 2 last year it totaled 208 cases.

For the week ended May 31, however, incidence of polio was reported as normal with 33 new cases. There were 33 new cases for the corresponding week a year ago.

The State Health Department report released today did not show any cases from Lavaca County. Yesterday County Health Officer C. T. Buffner of Hallettsville said there was an outbreak of 26 cases with two deaths in Lavaca County.

Accusations Against Shivers Bring Heated Replies Today

By The Associated Press

Accusations that they exploited cheap Mexican wetback farm labor brought hot replies from Gov. Allan Shivers and other Texans Thursday night.

The charge was made in the House at Washington by Rep. Rooney (D-NY) in blocking a move to kill a $1,390,000 appropriation for tightening immigration law enforcement.

Rooney asserted that Shivers has large holdings near the Rio Grande and has "shown a disregard for immigration laws."

"Illegal aliens have been apprehended on his property weekly, and it is impossible to believe that Governor Shivers could be ignorant of these conditions."

Shivers told the Associated Press by telephone from his farm home at Woodville, that Rooney's charge is part "of a Washington smear campaign. It has a branch in Texas which is active also."

Rooney mentioned in a statement put into the record the Shary farms, owned by Mrs. John H. Shary, mother-in-law of Shivers.

"Hundreds of aliens are apprehended on these farms and the property of this owner," Rooney said, "and they show a flagrant disregard for all immigration laws."

Asked if alien labor had been used at the farm, Shivers replied:

"I don't know. I don't get down there often enough to keep up with it." He added he knew of no aliens having been arrested on the farms.

Rooney asserted that among the most "flagrant offenders are the Schuster brothers, Carl and Frank," civic leaders who have large farms along the Rio Grande south of Parr and San Juan. He added:

"They are violently opposed to immigration laws and to the personnel of the border patrol in trying to enforce such laws.

"They make open threats against individual patrol inspectors and the patrol as a unit and place every obstacle at their command in the way of the patrol in an effort to hamper them in their operations.

"Hundreds of aliens are apprehended from their farms weekly."

Carl Schuster said it was "funny that our names were on top of the list. Everybody down here has been on it. I suppose he had to name somebody."

He continued:

"We never met the gentleman when he was down here. He got a lot of one-sided views of the situation. He should have gotten our views as well. I would think 90 per cent of the big farmers in the valley employed wetbacks at one time of another. I suppose it has changed a little since they got this law in effect."

Rooney said "the Kemnueller brothers, Fred and Max," are Schuster relatives and "operate in the same manner."

Rooney also named Carlos G. Watson, U. S. commissioner of the South Texas Judicial District, who he said was an attorney and state secretary of the Republican Party in Texas. He added:

"His employes quite often refuse to pay aliens who have been apprehended on his property and who have been employed by him. Watson told the Associated Press that his farms have been rented to farmers on a share crop basis for a number of years.

"I have no employees on the farms at all," he said.

"In the past aliens undoubtedly have worked on the land clearing brush but any statement that I or any employe of mine refused to pay wages to anyone whether aliens or residents is in error."

"If the statement was made deliberately, it's a lie," he added.

Watson said that as U. S. commissioner he made a special effort "to see that aliens brought before me are paid before they are deported."

He said he had heard of very few instances of employers refusing to pay anyone, aliens or not.

"In fact," he said, "I have heard of employers following former employees across the Rio Grande to Matamoros to give them money due them."

Judge Milton D. Richardson of Hidalgo County, who also was mentioned, said the House heard an inaccurate account, adding:

"This fellow Rooney—whatever his name is—is all wrong when he says we pay them $5 a week. Down here we pay them more than $5 a day."

"It's true that I've used them "It's true that I've used them (Mexican laborers) for years—every one down here does, but I know the immigration laws and I respect them," he said.

"I never ask a man where he's from—whether he's an alien or a citizen. If a man comes looking for work, my foremen have orders to hire him.

"We're getting along all right down here and if this fellow Rooney thinks different, he's just all wrong."

Richardson said he had the "greatest respect" for the immigration officers.

"They do a good job down on the border," he said. "Of course the labor unions have been pushing them up into our farms lately."

Polling Places Unchanged In Saturday's Park Bond Election

Although plans for more voting convenience have begun, the voters will use the customary polling places in the park bond election tomorrow, Edgar Taylor, county judge, said.

All four of the Snyder voting precincts will continue to use separate rooms in the courthouse, although arrangements are pending for the use of other buildings for voting in the future.

The school board will decide in its regular meeting next Tuesday night whether to allow the use of two of the school buildings for public polling places. If the board consents, voters in the Northwest Snyder precinct may vote at the Northwest Elementary School cafeteria, and voters of the Southeast Snyder precinct may vote at the high school gymnasium in the July primary. Those in the Southwest Snyder precinct will vote at the city fire station, and voters of the Northeast Snyder precinct will use the county agent's office in the basement of the courthouse.

The reason for the attempted change in voting places is that voting booths for secret balloting are being ordered, and booths cannot be placed in the small rooms heretofore used for polling places.

Pat Johnston, county clerk, said he was ordering about 40 booths by authorization of the commissioners court, but he added that the booths could not be delivered in time for use before the July primary. The booths will cost about $8 each. They will be portable, constructed with hinged panels so that they may be folded flat for storage when not in use. It was thought that 10 booths would be set up in each for the four city voting precincts.

Polls will open at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning and remain open until 7 o'clock tomorrow night. Voters will decide whether the county shall issue up to $350,000 in bonds for construction, operation, and maintenance of a county park. The park is to be located almost in the geographical center of the county on a site promised as a donation. The 200-acre site promised by a widow, is near [illegible] and southwest of town.

Ike Talk Brings Down Rath Of OrganizedNegroGroupsOnHim

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Now that he's yielded his amateur standing, Dwight D. Eisenhower knows how it feels to be in politics where they get you coming and going and you get blamed if you do and blamed if you don't.

Eisenhower made his first political speech this week and the words were hardly out of his mouth before he began to be criticized for not being more specific. His supporters, of course, praised him.

Yesterday he tried to be more specific by answering directly some of the questions pitched at him by more than 250 reporters at his first political news conference.

He's hardly finished when trouble began.

The retired general was asked where he stood on a compulsory FEPC — Fair Employment Practices Commission—a subject important to Negroes but a bitter thought to southern white politicians.

Eisenhower said: "I believe we can do more by leadership and by getting the states to do so than by making it a federal law or compulsory thing."

Almost at once southern Democrats in Congress, long angry at the Trumanites for urging FEPC, began to praise the general. One of them even said he was sorry Eisenhower wasn't on the Democratic side.

But the answer didn't satisfy the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People which wants a federal FEPC law covering all states.

NAACP'S Executive Secretary, Walter White, promptly wired Eisenhower:

"The failure of 37 of the states to take any affirmative action to assure equality of job opportunity points to the urgency of the need for federal action in this area.

"In view of this alarming failure, we urge you to reconsider today's statement in the light of your affirmation of 'unalterable support of fairness among all American Citizens' . . ."

In view of the intense feeling of Negroes and southern whites about FEPC, Eisenhower's position, if displeasing to the Negroes, will cost him Negro votes in the cities although capturing southern white votes.

In the south, where the overwhelming majority of voters are white, the electoral college vote this year may be of the utmost importance to the men running on the Democratic and Republican tickets.

Until now Eisenhower has been a glamorous figure to Americans who have admired him as a military leader but could hardly know much about his political and social views, because he never said much.

The fact that he has been able to roll up so much support, saying as little as he did in a political way, has been a miracle of modern American politics.

But if the general public wondered what reaction it would have once he began laying his views on the line for everyone to see, his closest advisors must have been pretty earnestly concerned about it.

This showed up at the Abilene news conference yesterday where a newsman reported that some of the general's campaign leaders were frankly frightened before he opened his mouth but felt much better later.

But since this is only the start, Eisenhower will learn day by day the more you open your mouth, the more trouble you make for yourself. But if you're in politics, keeping it closed is no good either.

Billy W. Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lee of Hermleigh, has returned to duty in California following a furlough with his parents. He enlisted in the Navy in January, 1951. He was graduated from Hermleigh High School in 1950.

Mouse Could Have Held Up Atomic Bomb Tests

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—A desert mouse holed up in a sensitive camera at a forward area of the Yucca Flat testing ground nearly upset the best laid plans of men for setting off the eighth atomic blast in the spring series.

The mouse was wooed from his perch yesterday with a slice of cheese.

The test would have been postponed if the mouse had not been coaxed from the camera, test site officials said.

Drunk Driving Fine

A fine of $73.50, including court cost, was paid this morning for Aubrey Lelas Wallace, 23, of Snyder. Wallace had been charged with driving while intoxicated at the time of an automobile accident in March. He pleaded guilty.

High Fire Loss During May Is Recorded Here

Fire losses in Snyder during May amounted to many times as much as the total losses for the previous four months of this year, Ivan Gatlin, fire marshal, said.

Three major insured losses accounted for most of the total of $26,818.80 in losses to buildings here last month he said, and contents of the buildings (furniture, clothing, cars, etc.,) accounted for another $8,613.62 to make the total loss for the month $35,432.42, Gatlin said.

Insured losses from fires within the city limits for the previous for months this year totaled less than $4,000 Gatlin stated.

Last month's most destructive fire on May 13 when the Lee Dudley Body Shop located behind the Pollard Motor Co., and the adjoining Odessa Hotel were partially burned.

The two other major fires here last month were in residences from which the occupants were gone in both cases, Gatlin said.

One was the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Rhoderick, 116 Browning Street, and other was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess King, 805 Twenty-eighth Street. Both fires were burning wildly before the fire alarm was turned in by persons in the neighborhoods who happened to notice them, Gatlin said.

Gatlin said Snyder has also been seiged by air conditioner fires, none of which have caused serious damage so far. He warned that all electric motors on air conditioners should be oiled frequently so that bearings would not wear out resulting in eventual short circuits in the motors.

Another warning given by Gatlin is that current should be cut off before anyone leaves for a vacation, or week-end away from home.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McGlaun, Snyder residents, are the parents of a daughter born Saturday morning in a Sweetwater hospital.

BRECKENRIDGE, Tex., June 6 (AP)—Invitations have gone to swimming coaches in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana for the Southwestern AAU Open Swimming Tournament to be held here Aug. 1-3.

This city has just completed a $200,000 swimming pool and recreation plant.

Hearing Slated For Checking Polution Of Streams By Salt

BRECKENRIDGE, June 6. (AP)—The Railroad Commission is to hold a hearing here today to find out whether salt water from oil wells is polluting streams in the Brazos River watershed.

There are eight counties in the watershed — Young, Stephens, Fisher, Stonewall, Haskell, Throckmorton, Jones and Shackelford. The hearing resulted from a petition by the State Health Department and the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission as the result of a recently completed survey of the upper Brazos River above the Possum Kingdom reservoir.

Liquor Raid By Sheriff

Jack O'Neal, 37, of the Park Realty Co., 2012 Twenty - first Street, was released on appearance bond of $1,000 when he pleaded innocent yesterday afternoon to a charge of illegally possessing liquor.

O'Neal was arrested in a raid yesterday afternoon by Lloyd Merritt, sheriff, who said he confiscated 12 four-fifths quarts, 24 pints, and 193 half-pints of whisky which he estimated would be valued at from $700 to $865. Merritt said he found the whisky in O'Neal's automobile, parked beside the "realty office."

The last previous charge against O'Neal was filed Nov. 7, 1951, according to the county criminal court docket. Prior to that, he was charged with liquor law violation in July of last year and paid a fine of $273.50, including court cost when he pleaded guilty. In the case seven months ago, he pleaded innocent, later changing the plea to guilty and paying a fine of $223.50, including cost.

Wanger To Find Out Where He Will Serve

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Film producer Walter Wanger goes before the jail board of classification today to learn where he will serve his four-month sentence for shooting Jennings Lang, agent for Joan Bennett, Wanger's wife.

The board is expected to recommend Wanger be sent to the county honor farm in compliance with a recommendation of the sentencing judge. Wanger, 57, can be released Sept. 13, instead of Oct. 3, with good behavior. He claimed Lang was trying to break up his home.

Do you say: "Don't send sizes 32, 34, 36, 40, 42, 44; don't send red, blue, orange, green, yellow, purple, white or brown; don't send cotton, rayon, silk or leather"? Such would indeed be silly. You simply state what you want, and you expect the mail order house to abide by your specifications.

"But God didn't say not to use instrumental music in worship," one may say, "and if he didn't say not to do it, then it must be all right."

"God didn't say he that is not baptized shall be lost," another declares. "H didn't say that sprinkling is not baptism," still others say. "He didn't say not to wear different religious names, have other organizations, etc.," men assert, in defense of things for which they can give no divine authority.

When people are not contented with doing exactly what God demands of men, they invariably try to pull other things into religion through the "not-hole."

"But abide thou in the things thou has learned," we are warned by Paul in 2-Timothy 3:14. "Whosoever transgresseth and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ hath not God; he that abideth in the teaching hath both the Father and the Son" (2 John 9).

In filling God's order for human service and devotion, we must carefully read his demands, which are clearly specified in his word. Then we must deliver unto him precisely what he has ordred, or he will not be pleased. What he demands of us, we can supply. He asks for nothing more. He knows what we are and have. He will have no substitutions. Is the bundle of our religion just a package of substitutions in filling God's order, or can we go to his word and find every single bit of it requested by Jehovah? How do we do business with God?

Churches Make Efforts To Keep Down Seasonal Slump

Churches in Snyder usually have a slump in attendance during the summer, but virtually all churches have reported that no attendance decline has yet been evident this year.

Because many leave town during the vacation season, and some are lethargic about attending church because of the hot weather, nearly all the churches reported attendance from 10 to 30 per cent off during June, July, and August in previous years. Some have planned steps to prevent a slump which include awards for faithful attendance, air conditioning auditoriums, personal visiting of prospective attenders, etc.

Most churches reported attendance of their night services was considerably smaller than Sunday morning attendance. All reported mid-week services smaller.

Two churches, the Church of the Nazarene and the Assembly of God, reported better attendance in Sunday night services than in services Sunday mornings.

The Church of the Nazarene has noted no considerable decrease in Sunday morning attendance, but the summer months usually account for a decrease of about five percent.

Sickness has accounted for a slight decrease recently. The church gives gold pins as awards to those meeting certain standards of faithful attendance. Sunday school attendance ranges usually from 75 to 110, and the auditorium is ordinarily almost full for preaching. A full house is reported the usual thing for Sunday nights, but Wednesday night attendance ranges from 40 to 50 which is considered good.

The North Side Baptist Church, with an average Sunday morning attendance of about 250, reported no evident summer slump yet. Sunday school attendance averages about 135. Attendance Sunday nights is usually about two-thirds that of Sunday mornings, and about 40 or 50 attend Wednesday night Bible study and prayer meeting. No special steps are planned to prevent a summer slump this year, which has been slight in previous years. Like nearly all other Snyder churches, the auditorium is air conditioned.

The First Baptist Church, with the largest membership in Snyder, reports an average Sunday morning attendance of 1,000 which practically fills the auditorium. Sunday school attendance a year ago was 470, and last Sunday 621 attended. There has been an increase, however, of about 100 in Sunday school enrollment over this time a year ago. Last year's smallest Sunday school attendance was Christmas week with 544. Sunday night attendance is smaller, filling about three-fourths of the auditorium. The crowd on Wednesday night ranges from 75 to 150. The auditorium is air conditioned, and some rooms of the Sunday school building are cooled by evaporative fans. To encourage attendance some class instructors give awards of various kinds. The classes also have their individual week - day meetings, some monthly and some weekly.

An average morning attendance of from 90 to 95 is reported for of First Christian Church, and Sunday night services are attended by from one-third to two-fifths as many. The church usually sees a few periodic slumps during vacation. Last August there was a general slump because of several vacations occurring at the same time. The building is air conditioned.

The First Methodist Church expects a gain in attendance during the summer, especially for night services. There is usually a summer gain because of more social activities for youth and because of many college students being home. The church plans to extend its youth program and include a youth revival. About 500 attend Sunday mornings, and about half as many Sunday nights. The auditorium is air conditioned.

No decline in attendance has been noticed this year at the First Presbyterian Church, but the summer slump usually accounts for a decrease of about 30 per cent for a few Sundays when many are away on vacations and week-end visits. On the other hand, some out-of-town visitors attend here in the summer. The morning attendance during most of the year almost fills the building, which is air conditioned for summer, but Sunday night services are about one-third off. The church has discontinued Wednesday nights services for June, July, and August. When Wednesday night services are held, slightly less than one-third of the Sunday morning number attends.

The Church of Christ on Avenue R, reported a fluctuating Sunday morning attendance, often filling the auditorium, but sometimes requiring only half the seating capacity. The yearly average of attendance is usually about 10 per cent off during vacation. Attendance is better on the second and fourth Suncays when visiting ministers speak at the church. Sunday night services are attended by more than half the number attending mornings. As in most other churches, Wednesday night services are attended by a still smaller number. The church plans air conditioning the building soon.

The Calvary Baptist Church averages more than 100 on Sunday mornings, the record attendance for the church being 160. The church has set a goal of 200 for June 15 and is making personal visits to increase attendance during the summer. The church also plans to show some religious motion picture films and hear a few outdoor services in the summer. Attendance on Sunday nights is smaller, and the number for Wednesday nights is usually from 30 to 40. The air conditioned building is usually full on Sunday mornings.

The Assembly of God, which sometimes sees a summer slump had no decline during last summer, and none has been evident yet this year. Morning attendance ranges from 150 to 160, and the Sunday night group is ordinarily larger, often filling the auditorium with about 200. Week-day services are held Wednesday and Friday nights with from 50 to 80. The building, is air conditioned, and the church plans several revival meetings for the summer.

The Apostolic Faith Church has noted no decrease yet this summer and has recently increased its attendance. More than 70 usually attend Sunday morning with Sunday night attendance smaller by about five per cent. About half that many attend Wednesday and Saturday nights. The building will seat about 100 and is often filled on Sunday mornings. The church plans to air condition the building.

THE HOURS OF YOUTH

Time once loomed larger in your life than it does now. An hour once seemed "a real long time." That was when you were very young.

Today when you "spend" an hour either profitably or wastefully you are parting with only a tiny fraction of your life. But, then, you were investing or squandering a large portion of your most important asset.

On this obvious truth rests the vital importance of childhood religious training. Faith and moral character grow most rapidly in the formative early years. And the beliefs and habits acquired in those "big" hours of our childhood are not easily crowded out by the multiplicity of worldly concerns which overflow our later days and years.

Every hour you devote to the religious training of your child, going to Church with him, reading Bible stories to him, sending him to Vacation Church School, helping him to live and work and play by the best code, will strengthen your own character—and mold his!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THE ADVENTURES OF PATSY

TALK OF THE TOWN

By SUE HOLMES

Artists will gather again at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the junior high school. JIM MCCULLOUGH, who had about 10 students, last time, will be back from Abilene to instruct in oils, pastels, water color or whatever medium you choose.

* * *

SHOPPING NOTES: A local seed store has a nice collection of medium - sized old- fashioned glass seed jars. They have everything from mustard seed to watermelon seeds stored in them, but we bought three of the empties for a canister set. They also make pretty candy or cracker jars. You'll see them advertised in home magazines for a bigger price then the 75 cents you pay here.

Hardware stores are treasure-troves, as far as we're concerned. We like the tiny locks and keys, although we can't think up anything to lock. And they have all sorts of tiny link chains that would make snazzy bracelets in copper or brass. One store in town is selling imported beer steins in four sizes, which he says are for the baby, big brother, mama and papa. They have aluminum tops which the old German steins didn't sport, but they look authenic nevertheless.

At the same hardware store, there's a scale with a big curved brass bowl to hold whatever is being weighed. It's not for sale, but several women in town would like to have the brass container for flower arrangements. It would be perfect for chrysanthemums, when they are in bloom. The iron trivets are pretty, too. Some of the black ones have Pennsylvania Dutch designs on them. Which reminds us, if you'd like to paint any furniture with Pennsylvania Dutch designs, we have a book by Peter Hunt that tells you how. We're about as artistic as a cross-eyed Chinaman, but it is fun to admire and read about pretty things.

Record shops are a favorite haunt, too. The long-play records seem to be gaining in popularity all over town, and the selection in them is good.

A rather unusual record to own is one prepared by the actors and actresses up north — the real top brass. The record has Helen Hayes in a scene from "Victoria Reginia," Eva la Galliene in "Hedda Gabler," and another we can't remember. But our favorite in the collection is John Gielgud, supposedly the greatest Hamlet of our day, in King Richard II. Gielgud has a booming, dramatic voice that does justice to Shakespeare's lines, such as "Let's talk of graves, and worms, and epitaphs.."

Anyhow, if you've ever read any of the plays, it is sort of fun to hear them on record. You might discover, as we did, that the theater uses different pronunciations from the classroom variety.

There's a new long-play series called "Quiet Music." One of the local record saleswomen loughlingly said she sold the picture on the album and just gave the record away. Lovely young women are pictured on the cover, of course. But there's a wonderful selection inside, too, all the way from Debussy to Cole Porter.

Pavement was sizzling and sun continued to beam down yesterday as we stopped in to see Mrs. SAM CRESS out on the highway. She brought us some lemon bisque, the perfect answer to summer desserts or party food. We begged the recipe and here it is:

LEMON BISQUE

1 package lemon-flavored gelatin dessert powder
Grated rind and juice of two lemons
½ cup sugar

Dissolve the gelatin, juice and sugar in 1-¾ cups water. (Mrs. Cress uses one cup of boiling water, then ¾ cup cold, if she's in a hurry). Then add the rind. Let the mixture set until syrupy, like an egg white that hasn't been beaten.

Whip a tall can of evaporated milk that has been refrigerated over night (Here again, Mrs. Cress suggests placing the can in the freezing compartment for a while if you didn't have it in the refrigerator overnight.) Whip the gelatin mixture and combine with the whipped milk. Pour in a rather shallow pan over crushed vanilla wafers. Tasty!

Convertible

Ask Mildred

Send your questions to Mrs. Mildred Sparks, county home demonstration agent, the courthouse, or to the Snyder Daily News.

Dear Mrs. Sparks, I have six chickens that I want to freeze. I have heard that they are delicious to put water over them and then if you could tell me if this is better or would aluminum foil be better? Mrs. S.

There are several good wrapping materials such as aluminum foil, moisture proof cellophane pliofilm, plastic bags, etc., but some people prefer putting chicken in containers and covering it with water for freezing. When covering with water, leave enough room at top of container for expansion of water when frozen. When preparing for the freezer be sure the animal heat has been thoroughly removed by chilling. This may be done with ice, ice water or by putting in a cooler. I just couldn't say which would be the best way to package it. That would more or less depend upon you own personal preference. When placing packages on trays to go in the freezer be sure to space them to allow free circulation of air. This will hasten freezing and thereby help to maintain original quality. Poultry should not be frozen at temperatures above 0 degrees F. and it is better at minus 10 to 25 degrees F.

Recently we have killed several scorpions around in the house. I am wondering if you could tell me if there is anything that I could get to control [illegible] I have a small baby that is always crawling around on the floor and I am afraid that one will sting him. Mrs. M.

A five per cent DDT household spray applied to the surface of the area where scorpions inhabit is effective in both killing and also driving them out of the cracks and crevices. Apply around baseboards, quarter rounds and especially where small openings are present around water pipes and other fttings. The area under the building should also be dusted with ten per cent DDT dust to prevent them from entering homes. A two per cent chlordane dust may also be used in dan dust may also be used in the same manner as DDT if desired. Remember that it takes three to four years for these scorpions to mature, Therefore; if members of a household will, every evening during the spring, summer, and fall month look for scorpions and kill them as they appear, the dwelling can finally be rid of these pests with the aid of a poisoning program.

Explosive Issue Of Draft In Northern Ireland Brought Up

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) —The Irish soon may be feuding again over whether to draft youths in Northern Ireland into Britain's armed forces.

The issue has been a source of bitter wrangling ever since Britain first brought in the draft in 1939. Northern Ireland is part of the United Kingdom, but on many matters it has self-government. It never has resorted to the draft, even in World War II.

There are two reasons.

First, the Northern Ireland government is reluctant to start anything that might stir up the issue of partition of Ireland. The independent Republic of Ireland, to the south, wants to end partition by absorbing the north.

The republic attacks any action by the north which appears to be tightening Irish links with the British crown. In addition, the Republ always has claimed many of the Irish left north of the border by partition. Naturally it would condemn their compulsory enlistment in the forces of Queen Elizabeth II.

The second reason is the one which may force a new crisis. The Irish will volunteer in droves in wartime and fight like mad but in peacetime they aren't noticeably keen to enlist and train for a battle that may never come.

Many here believe Northern Ireland Premier Sir Basil Brooke is about ready to rely on conscription to fill the gaps in Northern Ireland's defense forces.

Brooke and service chiefs, worried by the gaps, already have got together in a manpower committee and it is regarded as most probably they discussed conscription.

There are national service training camps in Northern Ireland and young English and Scot draftees fail to see why the strapping boys of Ireland should escape the draft.

If Brooke decides on conscription he undoubtedly will use this as an argument. All the same, he will call down the wrath of Eamon de Valera, the Republic's prime minister.

De Valera erupted the last time the issue was raised, during World War II. "You may call up our friends," his countrymen said, "but how are you going to keep them in."

Many northern anti-partitionists probably would slip across the border, reckoning they owed no allegiance to the British crown—perhaps in sufficient numbers to wreck any draft program.

But there'll be an almighty rumpus echoing round old Ireland before ever that stage is reached.

Sain Drives Yankees To Within Striking Distance Of Indians

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Yankees are collecting "double indemnity" on Johnny Sain, 33-year-old tobacco chewing righthander from Arkansas.

Sain was purchased for $50,000 from the Boston Braves last year as "pennant insurance." Old Johnny paid off, winning two games for the world champions.

The veteran curve ball artist didn't figure highly in Yankee plans this year. Many thought that Sain would draw his release before the season started but John has fooled them all.

Sain was pressed into action early when two members of the big three, Ed Lopat and Vic Raschi bogged down because of ailments. He has won five games, the same number he posted for the Braves in 18 decisions prior to his sale to the Yanks. Only Allie Reynolds has won more, six.

The old war horse, who broke into the majors with the Braves in 1942 under his current boss, Casey Stengel, pitched and helped bat the Yanks to a 6-4 triumph over the Chicago White Sox yesterday.

Sain's margin of victory would have been greater but he has no one to blame but himself for the close call. The new Yankee ace committed two errors in the second inning that led to three unearned Chicago runs.

The Yanks came right back with three in their half to tie the score and won out in the fifth with three more. Sain, who won a game early in the week with a pinch-hit single drove home the first two runs. Hank Bauer tripled home the third.

Loose fielding by shortstop Chico Carrasquel figured in the rally. Carrasquel permitted a pop fly to drop for a hit, was slow in picking it up and later made a delayed throw to the plate after taking a relay from the outfield. Carrasquel accounted for three of Chicago's seven hits, pounding out a single double and homer.

It was the Yanks' seventh straight over Chicago and it moved them to within 1½ games of the front-running Cleveland Indians.

Early Wynn soft-balled the Indians to a 5-0 four-hit verdict over the Boston Red Sox who started the game in first place by three percentage points. Errors by Vern Stephens and George Kell handed the Indians four unearned runs and ruined a fine pitching job by Ellis Kinder.

The Detroit Tigers swamped the Athletics, 12-2, in a night game at Philadelphia. Home runs by Gerry Priddy and Walt Dropo featured the attack that permitted Marlin Stuart to coast to victory. The loss ended the A's five game winning streak and dropped them three games behind fourth place Washington. The Senators and St. Louis Browns were idle.

Brooklyn stretched its National League lead to three games, downing the last place Pittsburgh Pirates, 2-0, while the runner-up New York Giants dropped a 3-1 decision to the frisky Chicago Cubs.

Big Ben Wade limited the Pirates to five hits, walked five and fanned six in hurling his first major league shutout. The Dodgers collected only six hits but made the most of 15 walks in beating the Pirates for the eighth straight time. The Brooks broke a scoreless tie in the seventh, scoring once on two walks and two singles. Gil Hodges doubled home Jackie Robinson with the final run in the ninth.

Ed Miksis clouted a two-run two-out homer in the seventh to beat the Giants. The blow broke a 1-1 tie and gave Paul Minner the first victory of his career over the New Yorkers who had beaten him seven straight times. Lefty Dave Koslo was the loser.

In other National League games the Cincinnati Reds checked the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-3, and the Boston Braves smeared the Cards, 8-3, under the lights at St. Louis.

The Reds piled up a 5-1 advantage in three innings to allow Harry Perkowski to breeze to his fifth triumph. Poor fielding by outfielder Johnny Wyrostek, a former Red, set up a pair of two-run rallies.

Lefty Warren Spahn had no trouble racking up his fifth straight victory. The Braves clouted Johnny Yuhas and Joe Presko for seven runs in the first inning. Sid Gordon featured the rally with a three-run homer.

College Track Meet Starting

ABILENE, June 6 (AP)—More than 300 athletes came to town today for the first annual National Intercollegiate Track and Field, Golf and Tennis Meet.

Golf and tennis started this morning while track preliminaries, bringing competitors from 55 colleges into action, will be tonight.

The North Texas State College team, three times national collegiate champions; Hardin-Simmons of Abilene and Western Illinois College are due to battle it out for the golf team title. Remo Crovetti of Western Illinois and Joe Conrad and Don January of North Texas State are expected to scrap for the individual title. Billy Maxwell of North Texas State, the national amateur champion, may not be here for the meet. He has been in England playing in the British amateur.

Sixteen schools have golf entries while 18 have entered tennis.

Jim Flynn of the University of Portland and Butch Krikorian of San Jose State are considered the top contenders in tennis.

Track and field features the meet and there are some strong Olympic prospects in that division. Among them are Dick Heber of Arizona State of Tempe, who has pitched the javelin 235 feet this year, and Charles Holding of East Texas State, who has high jumped 6 feet 9⅜ inches.

Favorites In Finals Of Women's Tourney

TEXARKANA, Tex., June 6 (AP)—The favorites were in the semi-finals of the Texas Women's Golf Tournament today.

Pat Garner of Midland plays Mrs. Ruby Lee Harding of El Paso and Mrs. H. C. Riedel of Dallas meets Mrs. L. M. Keating of Houston.

Mrs. Harding struggled 20 holes yesterday in eliminating Mrs. M.W. Morgan of Baytown. Mrs. Harding was five down through 10 holes but she won 11, 12 and 13, they halved 14 and Mrs. Harding won 16 to square the match.

Mrs. Riedel beat Mrs. Harry Coffman of Houston 4 and 3. Mrs. Keating eliminated Mrs. Al Mortensen of Houstor 4 and 2. Miss Garner turned back Mrs. Ned Stewart of Texarkana 7 and 6.

Holder Indians Leading League

The second win of the season came to the Whiteway Grocery Yanks in the Little Baseball League last night as they outscored the Quarterback Giants 20-6.

The game lasted only five innings. It was called at the end of the fifth because of a local rule on time limit.

Harrell, the winning pitcher, fanned eight batters and allowed six hits. Twelve hits were allowed by Walker, the losing hurler.

The Giants pulled one double play on the winners.

The Yanks committed two errors, and the Giants had none.

A part of both of last night's games were played through a dust storm.

The Holder Construction Indians now lead the league alone after winning 7 - 6 over the Lions Cubs last night.

The Cubs played the winners a close game, getting in eight hits and managing one double play on the Indians. Clendenon, the losing pitcher, lost seven hits to the Indians, but he fanned 11 batters, while Martin, the winning pitcher, allowed eight hits and fanned eight.

Each team committed one error.

Tonight the Yanks will meet the Optimist Braves at 7 o'clock. The Giants and Cubs will meet at 9 o'clock in a makeup game.

Video Blacks Out At Fight's Crucial Moment

NEW YORK (AP)—A breakdown in the mobile unit at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium caused television fight fans to miss the end of the Jersey Joe Walcott-Ezzard Charles heavyweight championship fight.

After successfully transmitting the full 15 rounds of the fight last night the fans were cut off from sight or sound at the crucial moment of the decision.

A National Broadcasting Company announcer explained the mobile unit lost power.

Red Sox Insist Ted Williams Needed Back

NEW YORK (AP)—The man who never had thought much of Ted Williams as a "winning" ball player observed in a needling tone that the Boston Red Sox were right up there in the American League race now that the sphinx of Fenway Park had gone back into the service.

"So what?" snapped the man in whom the barb had sunk up to the shaft. "How do you know they wouldn't be six games out in front if Williams was still in the lineup? A player who led the league in as many things as he did couldn't have been much of a drawback."

"All I know," replied the heckler, "is that they didn't win with him in there. In my book he'll always be a player who didn't produce in the clutch. When it was a tie in the late innings, Williams didn't hit. Not when I was watching him, anyway."

"What you might overlook," declared the Williams fan, "is that in those games you're talking about Ted probably already had made a couple of hits to tie the score. He had made the tie possible. Did you expect him to hit every time he came up? Apparently some people did."

Recognizing that their man was off and running, the sports writers around the table leaned back and prepared to learn a few things about Williams. He had puzzled them perhaps more than any other player over the years.

"The biggest mistake you fellows ever will make," resumed Ted's friend, "was your belief that he was tight with his money. As a matter of fact, I'm sure in my own mind that he given away more money and loaned more to his friends, including other players, than any man in the game. He is, honestly, the most liberal man I've ever known.

"You didn't know about it — Ted saw to it that you didn't—but I will guarantee that he visited more hospitals and made more personal appearances at charitable and other sorts of gatherings than any other player.

Argentine Out Front In Meet

ARDMORE, Okla., June 6 (AP)—A golfing pro from the Argentine led some of this nation's top linksmen into the second round today of the rich Ardmore Open tournament.

Roberto de Vicenzo, the hard driving, accurate putting South American, stuffed $185 into his billfold just for posting a five under par 65 to take over first place in yesterday's first round.

His effort also sent him off to a good start toward the luscious first prize purse of $5,400—the richest offered on the Professional Golfers Association 1952 Tournament schedule to date.

The wad of cash for the golfers was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Waco Turner, a golf-loving Ardmore couple who is sponsoring this tournament. The original first place money was $2,400, but the Turners upped the ante an additional $3,000 and added bonus awards for birdies, eagles and sub par rounds. The bonus awards alone cost them $1,825 yesterday. They said they wanted to place the Ardmore event at their beloved Dornick Hills Country club course on a higher plane.

The tough par 70 on this hilly layout withstood the challenge of most of the field of 132 players yesterday, but 11 were fortunate enough to better standard figures.

Leaving the chase for De Vicenzo was Al Besselink, the young long hitting Chicagoan. Besselink shot a 67—a stroke ahead of Ralph Blomquist of Eaglerock, Calif., Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C., and Tommy Bolt of Durham, N. C.

Six players still were in a good position to take over the lead after shooting 69s. E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, the veteran Arkansan, who took over the Dornick Hills pro job in March, was in this group, on the strength of a three under par 33 on the back nine. It was the best score on this tough stretch.

The back nine took the starch out of several top notchers after they managed to beat par on the first nine. Ed Oliver, the pudgy Ryder Cupper, was one of the unfortunates. He was out in 32 but needed 40 coming in. Earl Stewart Jr. Dallas, was in the same boat.

The others with a 69 card were Tonny Penna, Cincinnati; Skee Riegel, Tulsa; Skip Alexander, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Dick Mayer, St. Petersburg; and Shelley Mayfield, Cedarhurst, N. Y.

Voting Started On All-Stars

CHICAGO (AP)—General Manager Frank Lane of the Chicago White Sox and Business Manager Jim Gallagher of the Cubs were among the first to cast ballots today in voting to determme starters for the 19th annual All-Star baseball game.

Fans will vote for their favorite American and National League players through 290 newspapers and radio stations in the United States, Canada, Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

The clearing house in the 22-day poll is the Chicago Tribune.

First choices of the fans for all positions except pitcher in each league will start in the baseball classic at Philadelphia's Shibe Park July 8.

Dull Fight Puts Walcott Back Into Money Of Big-Time Fights

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A million dollar shot with either undefeated Rocky Marciano or Harry (Kid) Matthews appeared to be the next move ahead for fabulous Jersey Joe Walcott today as he celebrated his second straight victory over Ezzard Charles.

Midnight almost struck for the 38-year old cinderella man of the ring but he came on with a mild rally in the last round of a tame fight to win by the narrowest of margins in mammoth Municipal Stadium last night.

Old Jersey, making the first defense of the crown he knocked from Charles' brow last July, thought he won by a wide margin. He was happy about the whole thing, dull though it was.

"This ought to show them that I didn't win the first time by a lucky punch," said Walcott. "I hope this settles the matter."

While the once poverty-stricken Negro accepted congratulations from a mob of well wishers, Manager Felix Bocchicchio began casting lines to net a golden catch for his amazing oldtimer.

Promoter Jim Norris of the International Boxing Club offered Walcott the choice of either Marciano, the Brockton, Mass., belter, or Matthews, the sensational Seattle contender, for another championship show in September.

This seemed to indicate that the proposed Marciano - Matthews match for New York in July won't come off unless Walcott turns down a match right off with either.

Marciano and Matthews are tremendous attractions and both Norris and Bocchicchio believe that a bout with either would bring in over a million dollars, television included.

Bocchicchio, however, declined to commit himself immediately.

"We'll fight anyone anywhere we can get the most money," he said. "Up to now we haven't made a dime. Maybe now that the people are convinced that Walcott is a real champion and not just a lucky old man, we'll be able to make this thing pay off."

The wheel of fortune has turned all the way for Walcott now. The muscular campaigner, who came off the relief roles to make his amazing comeback, held on to his title by capturing the last round on the scorecards of two officials. It was back in 1947 that a losing last round cost Jersey Joe the title in his first fight with Joe Louis in Madison Square Garden.

Judges Buck McTiernan and Pete Tomasco scored the 15th for Walcott. That meant the difference and a unanimous decision. McTiernan, who refereed the Pittsburgh fight between the two, voted for Walcott, 8-7. Tomasco had Joe ahead, 7-6-2.

If they had cast their last round ballots for Charles he would have become the first former champion ever to regain the heavyweight corwn Referee ach Clayton, the first Negro ever to referee a heavyweight championship fight, gave Charles the last round but voted for Walcott, 9 to 6.

The Associated Press scorecard had Charles in front, 7-6-2.

Boxing writers were divided on the decision. An AP poll at ringside showed 21 critics had Charles ahead to 18 for Walcott. Two more had the fight even.

Charles said his weight 191½ pounds—heaviest of his career—was all right and didn't hurt him. He was five pounds lighter than Walcott.

There were no knockdowns in the bout and nothing close to one. Several times Walcott appeared to have jarred Ezzy and on a couple of occasions Charles seemed to have hurt the champion. But neither could follow up any advantage.

Charles, an 11-5 favorite, suffered a cut over his right eye which required three stitches and bruises around the other eye. Walcott bled slightly from the nose in the closing rounds.

Both Walcott and Charles said there would be no fifth fight between them.

The bout, broadcast and telecast coast to coast, attracted a crowd of 21,599 and a gross gate of $210,313. Another $175,000 was added by the television-radio money. From the total, Charles and Walcott each netted about $92,000 on their 30-30 split.
