THREE WERE HURT early Monday morning when this 1964 Falcon driven by Ronnie C. Morris, 19, of Rt. 3, struck the rear of a truck at Thirty-seventh Street and Avenue S. The truck, driven by Edward Thomas Glover of Ardmore, Okla., was stopped for a red light. Morris received serious injuries, the extent of which were still unknown this morning. Also injured was Shirley West, 17, 1311 Twenty-fifth Street, who was admitted to the hospital for treatment, and Margaret George, 17, 2505 Avenue I, who was treated and released. The truck driver was not injured and damage to the truck was minor.

Court Names Members To Co. Boards

A number of appointments were made to the various county boards by the commissioners court this morning.

Re-appointed to the Child Welfare Board were Fred Davis, Jim Erwin, Bentley Baize, Mrs. Fred Bullard, Carl Herod, Cecil Boren, Dr. J. W. O'Banion and Mrs. E. J. Hardin.

Re-appointed to the Library Board were Jake W. Greene, Frank Patterson, Robert Cribb and Mrs. Robert H. Melton. Holdover members of that board are Mrs. Mary Dulaney, Mrs. Carr Patterson, Mrs. Mildred Tracy and Mrs. Paris McPherson.

On the Scurry County Airport Board E. D. Flynn was appointed to fill out the remaining year of the term of Theo Lamb. Jack Patchell was appointed to the board in the place held previously by Dr. E. A. Rogers, and Lyle Alexander and Roger Mize were re - appointed. Jimmy Thompson is a holdover member of the board.

Re-appointed to the Hospital Board were Dawson Moreland and Paul Keaton. Jess Everett, whose term also expired, had requested that he not be reappointed, and Harold Lacik was appointed to fill his position. Holdover members of the board are Howard Hogue, Herman Doak and Hugh Taylor.

On the Welfare Board, Guy Stoker and Roy Pilgrim were re - appointed. Holdovers are Arthur Duff and Delbert Johnson.

In other business this morning the court heard a request from Jack Sparks and Lowell Prince that some type of monument be erected to the war dead of Scurry County. The commissioners said that they would be happy to consider such a request, and asked that cost figures, location, and type of monument be submitted for study.

The court also this morning authorized the advertising of bids by financial institutions to serve as depositories for county funds.

Speech Details Defense Policy

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson details for Congress today his view that U.S. military power is second to none and that he will keep it that way.

Johnson, two days away from his inauguration to a full four-year term, arranged to lay out his defense policy in a special message.

It was his sixth special message since Congress returned to work on Jan. 4.

Addressing the Senate and House on the State of the Union that night, the President said:

"In this period, we have built a military power strong enough to meet any threat and destroy any adversary.

"And that superiority will continue to grow so long as the office is mine — and you sit on Capitol Hill."

This was all he said about defense at that time, leaving details to the special message and the budget message due next week.

Johnson can, if he wishes, scoop his own budget message and disclose the final defense figure.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara disclosed just before Christmas that defense spending next fiscal year might fall about $500 million below this year's estimated $49.8 billion.

Since then, there have been some refinements but the final figure is expected to be fairly close to $49.3 billion. This is expected to account for about half of the entire federal budget for the bookkeeping year starting July 1.

This is the first special message on defense since 1961 when President John F. Kennedy revised the recommendations of the outgoing Eisenhower administration and then added on still more because of the Berlin crisis that year.

It appeared that Johnson was aiming to put his own imprint on a defense policy he inherited from Kennedy.

Johnson made no appreciable change in the Kennedy policy and there was every indication he would continue along the same course.

Basically, that policy involves building U.S. power to deal with all kinds of threats ranging from subversion and "little wars" to all-out nuclear war. That policy has been called "flexible response."

The President has placed strong emphasis on all possible economies in national defense and has embraced McNamara's cost-reduction program, as well as McNamara's strategic ideas.

Sir Winston Is Steadily Weakening

By COLIN FROST

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill, his life slowly ebbing, was a little weaker today, a medical bulletin said.

The bulletin was issued by Churchill's personal physician and lifelong friend, Lord Moran, after a visit to the 90-year-old statesman this morning.

It said that otherwise there was nothing to report on the old man's condition.

The text of the bulletin:

"Sir Winston had a restful night. He is a little weaker, but otherwise there is nothing to report."

This was the seventh bulletin since Churchill was struck by cerebral thrombosis Friday. All have told of the steady decline of the aged statesman.

Moran, 82, arrived for the morning examination at 11:17. The bulletin was issued 30 minutes later.

The next bulletin will be issued at 8:30 p.m. (3:30 p.m. EST), the physician said.

Lord Moran left the Churchill home immediately after issuing the bulletin. Asked by reporters whether Churchill was taking any nourishment, he said:

"I don't think I'll answer that."

UN Re-Opens With Appeal For Money

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — With the United Nations' bank account almost empty and a small mountain of bills on hand, Secretary-General U Thant planned a financial appeal at the resumption of the General Assembly's 19th annual session today.

Assembly President Alex Quaison-Sackey of Ghana was to speak after Thant, presumably to back up the secretary-general's implied bid for voluntary contributions or other aid.

The United Nations has enough money in sight to meet its $2-million semimonthly payroll at the end of January, but not enough to pay off in mid-February.

It also needs money to pay debts of $45 million to governments and business firms and $40 million to the U.N. working capital fund.

It got into debt for its Congo and Middle East peacekeeping operations because the Soviet Union and allies would not help pay for either operation, and Belgium, France, South Africa and other nations would not help pay for the Congo operation.

The assembly last month refrained from voting to avoid a clash over whether the delinquent countries should lose their votes for non-payment of assessments. As a result, it has not been able to adopt new assessments for 1965.

Article 19 of the U.N. Charter says any member two years behind in its dues "shall have no vote" in the assembly. The United States and many others insist that this penalty be enforced.

On the eve of the assembly's resumption, 16 countries were two years behind — the Soviet Union, Byelorussia, the Ukraine, Albania, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland, Romania, Cuba, Bolivia, Haiti, Paraguay, Belgium France, South Africa and Yemen.

In response to Thant's plea, member countries could pay the assessments they owe the United Nations, forgive the debts the United Nations owes them, make voluntary contributions or write off their U.N. emergency bond.

Such responses would help ease the financial situation while Thant negotiates to avoid a Soviet-U.S. showdown over Article 19.

SHOCKED, GRIEVED

Wichita Begins Grim Clean-Up

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — The cleanup and the questions continued on Piatt Street today.

Shock gave way to grief among survivors of the 30 people who died Saturday when a KC135 jet tanker loaded with fuel smashed into the quiet section of modest homes in northeast Wichita.

It was the city's worst disaster.

The toll included 23 residents of the area and seven crewmen of the plane which left McConnell Air Force Base three minutes before it plunged almost vertically into the street.

Five houses were consumed by the flaming fuel which splashed from broken tanks. Only the shells remained of six houses and 25 others were damaged.

As identification of the dead was established the bodies were moved from a temporary morgue at the County Health Department to funeral homes.

Emmit J. Warmsley, 37, his pregnant wife and their three children were among the dead.

Albert Bolden, 22, his wife and their three children also died in the holocaust.

Sharon Dale, 15, was on a baby-sitting job when her mother, Alice A. Dale, 46, and 2-year-old sister, Cheryal Ann, died. Harvey Dale, the father and husband, was at work.

Joe T. Martin Jr., 22, and his brother, Gary Linn Martin, 17, died at the scene. They were the only sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joe T. Martin Sr., who went into seclusion with relatives after the father identified his sons.

While military and civilian authorities carried on the grim task of cleaning up the area seven local businessmen set about finding livable homes for those displaced by the tragedy.

Fire Chief T. A. McGaughey estimated damage to civilian property at $155,000. The plane was valued at $3 million.

Brig. Gen. Murray A. Bywater, named to head an investigation of the crash, said everything about the plane's takeoff was normal.

Bywater said the craft, loaded with 80 tons of fuel for a test mission with a B52 bomber, was given clearance to make a left turn and climb on a prescribed course.

"In a very few seconds," he said, "the pilot (Capt. Chester Szmuc of Royalton, Ohio; called Mayday, Mayday, Mayday, and gave his call sign. The control-tower operator cleared him to land and asked what his trouble was.

Mr. Lee served as a Chief Petty Officer during World War I, and was the finance officer of the American Legion post here.

Serving as pallbearers were to be Gerald Walton, Max von Roeder, Lindy Clark, Pat Falls, Max Shaw, and Simon Best.

Boy Admits Slaying Sister

RICHMOND, Mo. (AP) — A 15-year-old boy has admitted shooting his 8-year-old sister to death because "she was always in the way," prosecutor Charles H. Sloan said.

The boy, Virgil Graham, and a neighbor, Carl Riley, 16, are being held for investigation.

The girl died of three bullet wounds shortly after she was found lying in the shallow water of a creek behind the Graham home near Richmond Saturday night.

The youths also planned to kill Virgil's 7-year-old brother, Tommy Lee Graham, Sloan said, but Riley was quoted as saying, "I chickened out," and the boy was spared.

East Hit By Arctic Blast

By The Associated Press

Numbing cold stabbed deep into the eastern half of the nation Sunday adding new misery to many sections still recovering from heavy weekend snow storms.

Behind the cold another blast of arctic air pushed in, sweeping southeast through the Midwest and dumping fresh snow on already hard-hit areas.

In the West, mild temperatures prevailed while heavy fog blanketed the far Northwest.

Below-freezing weather forced Florida fruit and vegetable growers to fire up their burners in an effort to save threatened crops. The orange crop, however, was expected to avoid damage. Miami set a record low of 39 early this morning, after a record-tying low of 44 Sunday. Tallahassee, Fla., registered 19 degrees.

Farther north, many secondary roads remained snow-bound and some major highways were snow-packed or icy. Officials announced that schools would be closed in wide areas of Virginia and North Carolina. Up to 18 inches of snow fell over the weekend. About 100 schools were closed in the east Tennessee mountains.

Subzero readings were expected in some parts of Virginia.

Frigid temperatures and some snow flurries were predicted for New England and other sections of the Northeast.

With another mass of cold air moving in from the arctic, little relief was in sight for the eastern half of the nation.

The Weather Bureau said fresh snow will blanket a stretch from Upper Michigan to eastern and northern Indiana, then diminish to flurries late today. However, another snow storm is brewing in northern Alberta and will move into the Midwest Tuesday.

Smith Rites Held Today

Funeral services were to be held at 2 p.m. today for Mr. Carl Wesley Smith, 69, whose residence was on the Sweetwater Highway.

Mr. Smith died Sunday morning at Cogdell Hospital following a lengthy illness. He was a retired electrician.

Born Aug. 24, 1895 in Erath County, he first came to Scurry County in 1907 but moved away in 1915. He returned to Scurry County in 1949.

Mr. Smith was married in May of 1915 in Scurry County to Miss Ida Ohlhausen. Mrs. Smith died in 1939.

The funeral services were to be at the Eastside Church of Christ with Don Browning, minister of the church, officiating. Burial was to be in Dunn Cemetery under the direction of Bell-Seale Funeral Home.

Mr. Smith is survived by his stepmother, Mrs. Betty Smith of Dunn; one daughter, Mrs. J. M. McGranahan of Richardson; two sisters, Mrs. Roxie Ellerd of Seagraves and Mrs. Rellie Hammond of Colorado City; one half-sister, Mrs. Zula Miller of Snyder; two brothers, A. P. Smith of Snyder and Jesse T. Smith of Albuquerque, N. M.; and three half - brothers, Dildy Smith and Graham Smith, both of Dunn, and Olton Smith of Morenci, Ariz.

Speech Squad In Unusual Victory

The Snyder High School Forensic Squad brought back an unusual honor from the Perryton High School Speech and Debate Tournament.

The Snyder team won a sweepstakes award, believed to be the first ever for a class AAA school where schools of higher classification were entered. Records show that during the past 10 to 15 years in West Texas speech tournaments, no school below Class AAAA classification has won a sweepstakes.

The Snyder squad defeated teams from Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas to win the honor at Perryton. Texas teams competing included those representing Borger, Amarillo, Tascosa, Spearman, Dalhart and Perryton.

The Snyder High Forensic Squad is coached by Bobby L. Taylor.

Snyder won two of the five first places. Jay Don Rogers won first place over 30 other contestants in the extemporaneous speech contest, while Margaret Zeck placed second. John Burton won first place in the persuasive speech contest over 29 other contestants.

Snyder placed more students as finalists than any other school. They included Jay Don Rogers, Margaret Zeck, John Burton, Dean Kaplan, Jackie Beane, Dan Brunken, Gary Perser, Aleta January, Nan Martin and Sharon Rutledge. Snyder won 11 of its 12 preliminary debates, three more than its nearest competitor.

A highlight of the tournament was a debate in the semi-final round between the 1964 Interscholastic League Regional Champions of Perryton and the Snyder team of Aleta January and Nan Martin. The Snyder team won the round and second in the tournament. The final round between Snyder and Amarillo was broadcast over a Perryton radio station. Amarillo won the final round and first place in that event.

3 Generals Join S. Viet Cabinet

By PETER ARNETT

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — South Viet Nam's young generals took a more open hand in the direction of the government today as three of them were reported named to posts in Premier Tran Van Huong's previously all-civilian Cabinet.

The government also moved to step up the war effort by giving its ministries power to draft personnel and requisition property.

Reliable sources said Maj. Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu became deputy premier and took over the Defense Ministry from Huong. The air force commander Brig. Gen. Nguyen Cao Ky, became minister of youth and sport; the army security chief, Brig. Gen. Linh Quang Vien, was made minister of information.

Thieu and Ky were leading members of the "Young Turk" group of generals who dissolved the High National Council Dec. 20 and nearly caused the government to collapse. The council had acted as a provisional legislature.

The military reportedly insisted on Cabinet posts as its price for the agreement which ended the crisis resulting from the December purge. Military officers dominated the government from the overthrow of President Ngo Dinh Diem in November 1963, until Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, the commander of the Vietnamese armed forces, resigned the 6 premiership Aug. 27 under public pressure.

There was no immediate reaction from Buddhist leaders who have been waging a prolonged but so far ineffective campaign to oust Huong.

In the measures to increase the war effort, ministries were given power to draft personnel for up to one year and to requisition movable property for up to six months and real estate for up to three years.

U.S. officials have been pressing for an increase of 100,000 men in the Vietnamese armed forces. The government now has 615,000 men under arms, including paramilitary forces and police.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: When I started going with Earl ten years ago, he promised me that after he finished his 20 years in the Navy we would get married. Well, he's been out three years now, and he never says anything about marriage any more. He even placed his hand on the Holy Bible once and swore he'd buy me a ring, so when I asked him why he didn't, he said I talked too much. After ten years of going around together he decides I talked too much!

I found a book of matches in his pocket on which was written in his own hand, "IS THERE ANY WAY I CAN SEE YOU TONIGHT?" I am sure he wasn't writing that kind of message to another man. I am 39. Do you think it takes a 41-year-old man ten years to make up his mind?

GLADYS

DEAR GLADYS: No. I think Earl finished one 20-year hitch and he's not about to go for a lifetime hitch just yet. The handwriting on the book of matches is clear enough. Don't wait for him to draw you any pictures.

DEAR ABBY: Why do you claim that you answer people's problems when you don't? This is the fourth letter I've written to you and it will be the last if you don't answer. Do you just throw a letter away if you can't think up a smart answer for it? My problems are a lot more serious than some of the stupid ones I have seen in your column. Does a person have to PAY to get his letter in the paper? If you don't answer this one, I am going to quit taking the paper.

Long-TIME SUBSCRIBER

DEAR SUBSCRIBER: Does your newspaper run a "tag" after each of my columns stating that I will answer all letters WHICH INCLUDE A SELF-ADDRESSED STAMPED ENVELOPE? If it doesn't, it should. All these letters ARE answered, but due to the space limited to me, only a few letters can be answered daily in my column. Sorry.

DEAR ABBY: My Mother, Dad, husband and I had a big argument and we want you to settle it for us. Every time we go out for dinner, my husband orders steak. He is left-handed and can't cut it properly, so he gives his plate to me and I cut it for him. My parents say that this is not proper, but my husband and I don't see anything wrong with it. What is your opinion?

LEFTY'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Why your left-handed husband has trouble cutting steak is beyond me. But if he wants you to cut it and you're willing, it should be nobody else's business.

House, Barn, Shed Suffer Fire Damage

The Snyder fire department was called out shortly after noon today to extinguish a fire in a residence at 903 Avenue Q.

The department also answered a call early this morning to a storage shed one mile north of Snyder on the Clairemont Road. The building, owned by Earl Smith, was virtually destroyed.

Also suffering heavy damage was a barn and garage building owned by Cecil Hall, four miles north of Hermleigh, when fire swept that building late Sunday afternoon.

The Snyder fire department sent two trucks to the Hall fire, but was hampered somewhat in fighting the fire by a lack of water.

Man Sought By Police Is Apprehended

James Taylor of Snyder, who was the object of a search by local officers after leaving the scene of an accident which occurred during a chase by officers Saturday morning, was apprehended in Snyder Sunday night.

Charges of disregarding an officer, and speeding charges were filed against Taylor. Bond was set at $750.

Boys Club Cage Discussion Set

Adults interested in working with Boys Club Basketball teams have been invited to attend a meeting at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday in the little auditorium at Lamar Junior High School.

Plans for launching play in the Boys Club league will be made. Persons interested in serving as coaches, assistant coaches, or any other capacity, have been urged to attend.

Crowd Sees Hippo Try Texas Home

HARLINGEN, Tex. (AP) — Betsy, the unfriendly hippo bought by three Smith College girls for $400, has arrived at her new home in a Texas zoo after a long, hard ride from New York.

Her arrival several days before she was expected resulted in a comedy of errors.

After her cage-equipped truck arrived in, there was a delay while workmen finished building a special pen made of telephone poles and one-inch steel cable.

Eight armed border patrolmen stood by in case Betsy, known for her ill-temper, should go on a rampage. A crowd gathered.

Then it was discovered a crane was needed to get the cage off the truck. One was finally located but just as the crane lifted Betsy's cage, it ran out of gas. Betsy was suspended in air until the crane was refueled.

By this time the crowd had grown to between 500 and 700 persons.

Four hours and 35 minutes after Betsy's arrival, the cage was worked into position and Betsy released into the pen.

Betsy headed toward a pond and disappeared below the water.

The Harlingen zoo obtained Betsy after the college girls were refunded their $400 and the hippo had been turned over to an Eastern zoo.

The new owners have a new worry. With near-freezing temperatures at night, they are afraid the water will be too cold for a hippo, whose natural habitat is Africa.

Station Break-In Being Investigated; Another Break-In Solved

The Snyder police department is investigating the break-in of the Standard Service Station at Twenty - fourth Street and Avenue S sometime Sunday night.

Missing are a number of tires, batteries, and other items of merchandise.

A similar break-in of a service station last week in Hermleigh was solved yesterday when Jerry David Deiser, 22, and Don Van Vigil, 17, were caught in the act of burglarizing a station in Raton, N. M. The pair, whose home addresses are not known, admitted burglaries in Dallas, Lubbock, and the burglary of the Vernon Service Station in Hermleigh.

The sheriff's office here is preparing burglary charges against the pair.

Mishap Reported

The Texas Highway Patrol reported a mishap at 5:45 p.m. Sunday at the intersection of a paved county road and State Highway 208 seven miles south of Snyder.

Involved was a 1961 Chrysler driven by Jesse T. Smith of Albuquerque, N. M., who was in Snyder to attend the funeral of his brother, Carl Smith, today. Officers said Smith told them he was blinded by the setting sun, and failed to see a stop sign and went through the intersection, striking an embankment. Neither he nor his wife, who was a passenger in the car, received serious injury, and damage to the car was minor.

Selma Eateries To Desegregate

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Restaurants reportedly were prepared to desegregate today in a surprise response to a civil rights campaign mounted by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in this rigidly segregated Alabama city.

"They're going to feed you," the Rev. James Bevel, one of King's assistants, told Negroes Sunday night at church rally, where he urged them to test downtown restaurants.

Bevel and another source said that the restaurant owners had agreed to serve Negroes in compliance with the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Negro leaders said they would test the dining places and other businesses serving the public after King arrived to open his first major civil rights drive since last summer's violence-racked campaign at St. Augustine, Fla.

King planned to lead some Negroes to the Dallas County courthouse in their effort to register to vote. It was not clear whether there would be an organized march downtown, in view of a police warning against marching, or other demonstrations.

"We are not interested in getting people arrested," Bevel told newsmen at the church meeting. He indicated there would be no defiance of the ban on marching.

Wilson Baker, Selma's director of public safety and head of the police department, said he would enforce an ordinance requiring a permit to parade, but would not interfere with any persons walking to the courthouse if they were not in an organized march.

King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference planned a three-point program of voter registration, applications for city jobs, and efforts to desegregate places of public accommodations. This is King's first campaign since the civil rights law was enacted last year.

At the church meeting, Bevel said he had been informed that the restaurants would serve Negroes. Another source said the restaurant association, at a recent meeting, voted to desegregate, and that handbills would be given to white patrons explaining there was no alternative under the civil rights measure.

Meridian Cash To Indicted

MERIDIAN, Miss. (AP)—Appeals for cash went out today as 16 men awaited arraignment in Mississippi's case of the three murdered civil rights workers.

The FBI said two other men would be arrested soon.

The two are Horace D. Barnette, 25, and James E. Jordan who used to live here but moved elsewhere after the killings. Their present whereabouts was an FBI secret.

A federal grand jury in Jackson indicted 18 white men on charges of conspiracy in the case. Those arrested here and at nearby Philadelphia Saturday were freed on bond.

Legal strategy being planned included a move to have each man tried separately. A federal source said the move would be opposed.

No arraignment date was set.

At least two fund-raising groups were bidding for defense donations.

One — with a goal of $1 million — said collection boxes would be placed at every business establishment in the state and every public official would be tapped for contribution.

The 16 arrested included Neshoba County Sheriff Lawrence Rainey, 41, and Chief Deputy Cecil Price, 26, both of Philadelphia.

Barnette and Jordan also were among the 10 men listed. The FBI said both gave written eyewitness statements about the killings, which set off a massive FBI investigation.

The federal government has no authority to file murder charges in the case. There was no word on plans for state action. The Neshoba County grand jury, which would consider any state charges filed, meets next month.

Pleas Are Heard In County Court

Five pleas were heard this morning in county court.

Billy Dewayne Payne of Post pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while his drivers license was suspended. The charge was filed by the Texas Highway Patrol.

Payne was fined $25 plus costs.

Edward Arlin Lewis of Snyder pleaded guilty to a charge of DWI which had been filed by Snyder city police. He received a fine of $100 plus costs and was sentenced to three days in jail.

Jodie Franklin of Post pleaded guilty to a DWI charge which had been filed by the Highway Patrol. He received a fine of $100 plus costs and a three-day jail sentence.

Nolan Gaines Russell of Colorado City pleaded not guilty to a DWI charge which had been filed by Snyder city police. His bond was set at $750.

Othal Leon Franklin of Snyder pleaded guilty to a DWI charge which had been filed by Snyder city police. He received a fine of $100 plus costs and a three-day jail sentence.

A New FREE BOOK for MEN PAST 40

Troubled With Getting Up Nights, Pains in Back, Hips, Legs, Nervousness, Tiredness.

If you are a victim of the above symptoms, the trouble may be traceable to Glandular Inflammation . . . a condition that very commonly occurs in men of middle age or past and is often accompanied by despondency, emotional upset and other mental reactions.

Although many people mistakenly think surgery is the only answer to Glandular Inflammation, there is now a non-surgical time-tested treatment available.

Non-Surgical Treatments

This New Free Illustrated BOOK tells about the modern, mild, Non-Surgical treatment for Glandular Inflammation and that the treatment is backed by a Lifetime Certificate of Assurance. Many men from all over the country have taken the NON-SURGICAL treatment and have reported it has proven effective.

The Non-Surgical treatment described in this book requires no painful surgery, hospitalization or long period of convalescence. Treatment takes but a short time and the cost is reasonable.

NEW FREE BOOK

Receiving this book may enable you to better enjoy the future years of your life and prove to be one of the best investments you ever made.

The Tiger of the year was just named Car of the Year by Motor Trend.

If that isn't enough of a hint, try Quick Wide-Track. (This is their year.) Or Turbo Hydra-Matic, the new transmission you can order that does away with roaring between shifts. Coupled with any of the quicker engines for the '65 Pontiac, it saves the roaring for whenever you need it. When you don't need it, the extra potent engines let you just loaf along. This feeling gives you the kind of economy you wouldn't expect from a looker like the '65 Pontiac. See your Pontiac dealer. He'll show you all 32 Pontiacs that are the "Car of the Year." They're the buy of the year, too.

Columnist Reads Mail And Learns

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Women blush more often from anger than as a result of shocked modesty.

Some people can tell the seasons by their diseases. For example, both ulcers and gout tend to flare up in the spring and autumn.

The common cold is rarely deadly but it is one of the most expensive of mankind's ailments. It costs the average family from $35 to $40 a year—and it costs industry about $5 billion annually in lost working time.

The U.S. vice presidency often has been regarded as a step toward oblivion, but eight of the 35 men elected to the presidency, died or were killed while in office, and were succeeded by their vice presidents.

Odd Legislation: A teacher can't give Bible lessons in the public grammar schools of Illinois, but the state by law provides a Bible for every prison inmate.

Great men have their problems too. Did you know that Napoleon had trouble keeping his trousers up?

Psychiatrists say these are four warning signals of a possible nervous breakdown: inability to sleep well, lack of appetite and weight loss, mental and physical sluggishness, and exaggerated feelings of guilt and personal worthlessness. Well, thank heavens, I've still got a good appetite left anyway!

Science marches on: Food firms are working on an aerosol bomb that will enable you to spray a peanut and jelly sandwich mixture.

Some safety slogans for the new year: "If people drove right, there would be more people left." "Be patient today—not a patient tomorrow." "Driving is like baseball in a way. It's the number of times you reach home safely that counts."

Everything is inflated in value today, including people. The statistician who used to tell us that all the chemicals in our body were worth only 97 cents now reports they are worth $2.80.

It was Lewis Mumford who observed, "Our national flower is the concrete cloverleaf."

Churchill Built Life Upon Words, Romance, Courage

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — "I am ready to meet my Maker," Winston Churchill said. "Whether my Maker is prepared for the ordeal of meeting me is another matter."

That was on his 75th birthday, 15 years ago. It was a clear warning he intended to carry into eternity the same unflinching attitude he had on earth toward man and beast.

Unflinching was one of his favorite words.

It meant a lot to him all his life, and as it turned out, to the Western world and all mankind. For Churchill, a political failure at 65, by 70 had become one of the greatest figures in history.

How much he had come to mean was expressed as he neared his 90th birthday by C. P. Snow, the British scientist and novelist:

"We all hope he never dies. I think we have a superstitious feeling that, if he ever does go, something goes with him that Britain will not see again."

He was saucy all his life, from his youngest to his oldest days, always ready with advice and criticism, telling his contemporaries how to run their business, whether he was in the army or the government.

He knew how unpopular it made him, but this never stopped him.

Nobody ever summed up better the lifetime attitude of most people toward him — until he took command of the war against Hitler in 1940 — than Churchill himself, writing on his life in the British army when he was 23.

He said the army brass in India, in Egypt and in Britain began to take this attitude: "Who the devil is this fellow?"

But his life was built upon the three foundation stones of courage, romance and language.

Courage he had with him always, whether it was wandering around the Uganda lion country with a net, looking for butterflies in his 30s, wanting to take part in the Normandy invasion when he was almost 70, until the king stopped him because he was prime minister, or defying Hitler when all Europe was gone and England was alone.

He was a romantic from childhood to old age, dreaming of adventure but always of taking command. In many ways he was out of date most of his life because he dreamed of glorious tests while the world was undergoing change he sometimes seemed not to understand.

The British people themselves felt this way about him for, while they trusted him with their lives and the future of England in time of war, once it was over they threw him out to make way for the social changes Britain needed but which he himself admitted later he hadn't thought about.

And yet just because he was a romantic, as the war deepened and Britain edged toward despair, with him in command the impossible became usual, hope became a natural condition, and the British people suddenly felt that all the meaning of British history had been entrusted to them to preserve.

To the British he had suddenly become a sun shining in a dark and leaky cellar.

But it was through his genius for the language that he was able to give the British people words they wanted to say for themselves and in a way that gave significance to their agony.

Although they threw him out in 1945, after Germany fell, and the British people let the Laborites run the country six years, they called Churchill back for another four in 1951.

He was getting old. He suffered two strokes. Finally in 1955 his own Cabinet suggested he resign. After that for him, physically, the road was all down although even then he went on writing his history of World War II until he finished it.

Words he used to express his feelings about Harry Hopkins back in the 1940s became a description of himself in the 1960s. Churchill and Hopkins, special emissary of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, had become friends.

But the American, in failing health, already was showing signs of the approaching death which caught up with him in 1946.

In sorrow Churchill said: "A crumbling lighthouse from which shone the beams that led great ships to harbor."

Junior Editors Quiz on SIAM

QUESTION: What country is Siam in?

ANSWER: Siam—or Thailand, as it is more generally called—is not "in" any country, for it is a separate country itself. Its official name, in its own language of Thai, is "Huang Thai" or "Land of the Free." Thailand lies in southeastern Asia, in a part of the continent which juts southward. The Bay of Bengal and India are to the west, the South China Sea and the Philippine Islands to the east. It is the only southeastern Asiatic country which has never been under a European power. Thailand's neighbor countries of Laos, Cambodia and Vietnam to the east have been much in the news recently. The tropical countries in this part of the world are among the most romantic and fascinating places on earth. The temple guards and architecture which we illustrate are typical of their exotic character. Siamese people are gentle and light hearted. Many live on boats, and much commerce is carried on over the waterways in tiny craft such as we show, with people standing up to pole or paddle. The Siamese cat, with his startling blue eyes and lean, graceful body, has made the name of Siam familiar all over America.

FOR YOU TO DO: What is it about a Siamese cat which is so interesting? There is probably one in your neighborhood. Visit him and try to find out. One Siamese cat owner put it this way: "These cats think they are people."

Vol Defense Is Poison To Kentucky

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The wintry demons that conspired against the Oregon State and Bowling Green basketball teams were nothing compared to the plight of Kentucky's Adolph Rupp.

Oregon State was in a fog and Bowling Green was snowbound, but the undoing of Rupp's Wildcats at Tennessee was a thing called an Iconoclastic Defense with Disharmonious Tendencies.

That's what Tennessee Coach Ray Mears dubbed his 1-3-1 zone after the Vols had whipped Southeastern Conference rival Kentucky 77-58 at Knoxville Saturday. The loss, Kentucky's sixth in 13 starts, dropped the Wildcats' SEC record to 2-2. They entertain league-leading Auburn, 5-0, tonight.

A layer of fog that blanketed the Northwest softened up Oregon State for Pacific Athletic Conference foe Washington State. It took two chartered airplanes and four rented cars — with police escort — to get the Beavers from Seattle to Pullman, Wash., where they lost to the Huskies 64-53.

It was the second defeat in two nights for the Beavers, preseason pick to press national champion UCLA for the conference title, and left them in a last-place tie at 1-3.

Bowling Green, en route to Oxford, Ohio, for its game with Mid American Conference leader Miami, got snagged in the blizzard that hit the Eastern part of the country. The Falcons walked the last mile into Oxford from their snow-stalled bus and took a 74-58 beating from the Redskins. It was Miami's eighth straight league victory and 12th in 13 over-all games.

Foul weather caused cancellation or postponement of several games but failed to stop the nation's top ten teams from completing a rare sweep of their competition during the week.

Keith Erickson and Gail Goodrich, with 21 and 15 points, respectively, led top-ranked UCLA past Stanford 80-66 for its 13th successive triumph after an opening loss at Illinois.

Cazzie Russell scored 36 points, equaling his own Michigan single-game mark, as the runner-up Wolverines trimmed Northwestern 90-68 and took the lead in the Big Ten Conference race.

Wichita, No. 3, held the top spot in the Missouri Valley Conference with a 75-64 victory over St. Louis.

Fourth-ranked St. Joseph's, Pa., routed Lafayette 82-68; No. 5 Indiana topped Ohio State 84-72; No. 7 St. John's, N.Y., beat Seton Hall 79-69; No. 8 Davidson smashed Presbyterian 130-67; No. 9 San Francisco reversed an earlier loss to Santa Clara 89-77 and No. 10 Duke belted Wake Forest 105-77.

Sixth-ranked Providence, the only unbeaten major team, did not play.

Tennessee's I.D.D.T. was Mears' answer to Rupp's "stratified hyperbolic paraboloid defense" with which Kentucky stymied the ambitious Vols last season.

"I've saved this for a whole year," Mears said of his tongue-twisting zone after A. W. Davis' 24 points led Tennessee to its third conference victory in four tries and a 10-2 season mark.

Underdog Ellis Wins In Playoff

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The San Diego Open Golf Tournament ended in the excitement of a sudden-death playoff, a remarkable rally, victory for the underdog, Wes Ellis Jr., and a touching off-scene reaction by the most ardent admirer of the loser, Bill Casper Jr.

Ellis capped a dramatic comeback when he sank an eight-foot putt for a brdie 3 on the 73rd hole while Casper got down in par.

The 32-year-old Ellis, who doesn't play many tournaments away from his position as a club professional in West Caldwell, N.J., sent the affair into the extra hole when he made a sensational putt on the 72nd hole.

He knocked the ball in from the edge of the green, 45 feet away.

Shouts from the gallery shook the place.

But a small boy, standing in the crowd, cried.

His name? Billy Casper III, age 8. He had trotted as close to his daddy's heels as he could all day.

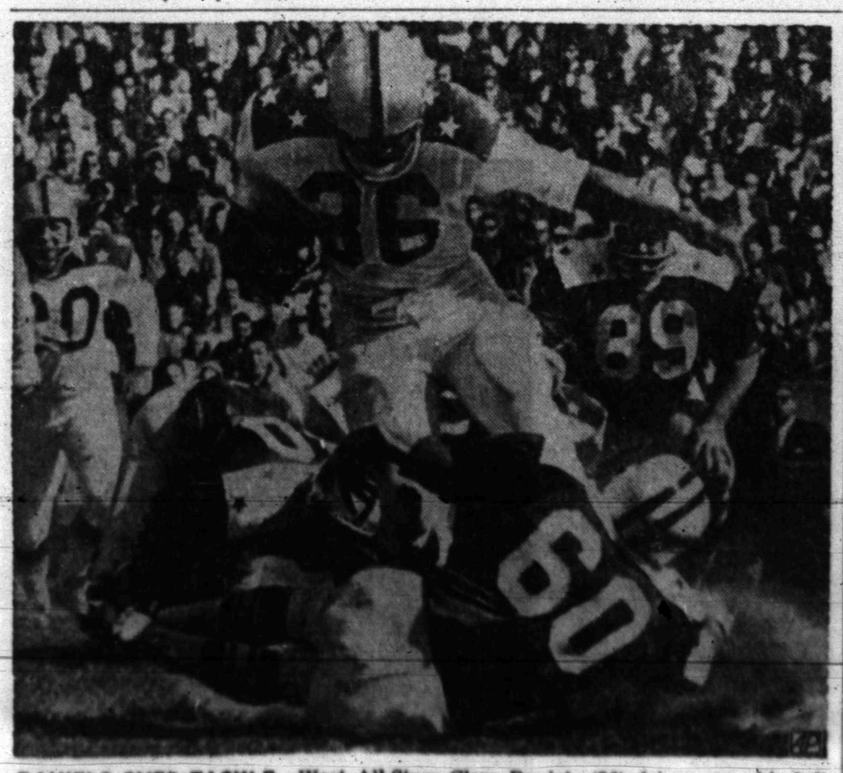

The round turned into a three-way struggle in the final nine holes among Casper, Ellis and Johnny Pott. Pott, who lost in a playoff to Tommy Jacobs in 1962, missed a short putt on the 16th hole, losing his chance for the playoff.

Pott finished with a 65 for 268, George Knudson had a 64 for 269 and Jay Dolan and Bud Holscher were tied at 272.

Defending champion Art Wall Jr. and British Open champion Tony Lema were in the 276 bracket, and Gene Littler, who scored a great 62 in the first round, finished with a 71 for 274.

Casper finished in a three-some ahead of Ellis and Pott. It appeared he had things sewed up.

But Ellis drew closer with a 45-foot putt on number 15, then a 12-footer for a birdie on number 17, and the 45-foot shaker on number 18.

DANIELS OVER TACKLE—West All-Stars Clem Daniels (36) drives over his left tackle in first quarter of the American Football League All-Star game in Houston, Texas. Daniels picked up three yards on the play before downed by the East's Larry Grantham (60) and Larry Eisenhauer (70). (AP Wirephoto)

Opposition To Braves' Shift Grows

MILWAUKEE (AP) — New opposition to the Braves' shift to Atlanta in 1966 has been voiced by Chicago White Sox owner Arthur Allyn, who says he will ask other American League owners to join him in requesting that Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick order the club to stay in Milwaukee.

In a story appearing in today's editions of the Milwaukee Sentinel, baseball writer Lou Chapman quoted Allyn as saying there was no justification for the move and that Frick has had the power all along to cancel the shift.

Allyn said he has already asked Frick twice to veto the transfer, and said, "I have asked the American League to discuss the Braves' question at our meeting in New York on Feb. 1 with the hope of requesting the commissioner to cancel the move."

Mothers Honor SHS Footballers

"Don't park on someone else's nickel," said Don Browning, minister of the East Side Church of Christ, who was the principal speaker at the football banquet Saturday night. Mr. Browning, speaking primarily to the high school football players and their dates, urged them not to shirk their responsibilities as they go through life.

The banquet, held in the high school cafeteria, is an annual affair sponsored by the mothers of the high school football players, both those on the varsity and B squads.

Approximately 200 persons attended the banquet. These included the players and their dates, parents coaches and their wives, and other special guests.

The cafeteria was beautifully decorated, showing that the mothers had put in long hours in planning the affair. Prominent in the decorations were ceramic football players, approximately ten inches high, for each of the players. Each ceramic player had the number of the boy it represented.

Following the address by Mr. Browning, Master of Ceremonies, Bob Crowell turned the program over to Coach Horrace Bostick, who introduced he varsity players. Bill Hartsfield, B Team coach, introduced his players. Representatives of the two teams then presented each of the five high school football coaches a gift from the boys.

Celtics May Be Greatest

BOSTON (AP) — The current Boston Celtics are being praised as the greatest ever — better than any of the Bob Cousy, Bill Sharman, Frank Ramsey clubs.

Seeking a seventh straight National Basektball Association title, Red Auerbach's runaways made it a record-nearing 14 straight victories and 21 of 22 by beating Cincinnati 101-98 Sunday.

And Auerbach says, "We're concentrating more than ever on defense."

In other NBA action Sunday, St. Louis downed Los Angeles 111-105 and tied the Lakers for the Western Division lead.

Cincinnati, trailing Boston by eight games in the East despite a 30-14 record, just missed on a late rally before Bill Russell hugged his 30th rebound and killed the clock. Russ also had nine assists.

Perkins Is Big Favorite

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Eddie Perkins, the much-traveled world junior welterweight from Chicago, is a heavy favorite to retain his title against No. 1 challenger Carlos Hernandez tonight, but the Venezuelan belter has a simple upset formula in the works.

"I'll finish him if I can hit him," the 24-year-old Hernandez said after finishing training for the scheduled 15-round bout beginning at 11 p.m., EST.

Hernandez decked Perkins in their first meeting — nearly four years ago in the same ring — but Perkins came off the canvas to take a 10-round decicions.

Perkins has won 31 of 41 fights with one draw. Hernandez' record is 32-3-3.

Chargers Strengthen Claim In 'Floating' All-Star Tilt

HOSTON (AP) — The American Football League's floating All-Star game settled in Houston, but for the fourth year it still belonged to the San Diego Chargers, host the previous three years.

Coach Sid Gillman's Chargers, beaten by Buffalo in the league championship game Dec. 26, played a major part in the West's 38-14 rout of the East coached by Buffalo's Lou Saban.

The victory margin was the greatest for the West in the four years of AFL All-Star games.

The contest was the finale of the long, long pro football season which began with the All-America Game at Buffalo, N.Y., late last June.

Houston was selected as the site after Negro players voted not to play in New Orleans. They complained of racial discrimination.

With five days notice, the game was shifted to Houston and the AFL Houston Oilers became the hosts.

Instead of the 65,000 fans expected at the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans only 15,446 turned out in 35,000-seat Jeppesen Stadium.

But the Oilers handled the game so efficiently on such short notice the league — which also shifted its winter meetings to Houston last week — awarded next year's All-Star game to the new Domed Stadium, providing proper financial arrangements can be made.

The stadium will be opened in April by the Houston Astros baseball club and will be used by the Oilers during the AFL season.

Twenty-two records were broken or tied in Saturday's game, almost all of them offense.

On the first play the West rubbed one statistic out of the book when quarterback Len Dawson passed 73 yards to fullback Keith Lincoln for a touchdown.

Lincoln High Teams Win

OLTON — Snyder Lincoln High School's boys cager plucked a 61-60 decision from Olton in the fading seconds after Lincoln girls had walloped Olton girls, 54-28, here Friday night.

The Lincoln boys trailed by six points at half-time and by three at the end of the third period. They pulled up even at 54-54 with four minutes left in the game and then the lead changed hands several times before Curtis Clay made two free throws with 17 seconds left to make the score 61-60. Even so, Olton missed a couple of free throws and a layup from the field as time ran out.

For Lincoln, Brady Cobb scored 17, M. C. Powell 12, Vernon Clay 11, Billy Cobb 6, Paul Barnes and Vernon James 4 each, Curtis Clay 3, L. J. Brooks and Billy McClain 2 each. L. D. Nunn and Dorr Green made 16 each for Olton. Vernon Clay and Vernon James got 8 rebounds each for the Trojans.

In the girls game, Pearlie Scott led Lincoln with 24 points, Mary Goosby had 14, Emma Garrett 9, Veronica Davis 4, Yvonne Sanders 2 and Vera Newsom 1. Evelyn Braziel was the leading rebounder with 12. Mary Mack paced Olton girls with 10 points.

Lincoln boys and girls finished the first half of district play with 3-0 won-lost records, the same as Floydada. The Lincoln teams go to Floydada for a showdown Friday night.

Aggies' Beasley Scoring Leader

By The Associated Press

John Beasley, the Texas A&M sharpshooter, took over the Southwest Conference basketball scoring lead last week as the resurging Aggies bounded back into contention with victories over Texas Christian and Rice.

The leaders—Texas Tech and Southern Methodist—were idle in league play. But they match their identical 2-0 loop marks Jan. 26 in a key contest at Lubbock.

Texas A&M moved from the cellar to a tie for second place, posting a 2-2 conference mark along with Baylor and Arkansas. Texas, languishing in last place with the Aggies, pulled off a 95-74 rout of Baylor to move into a tie for third with Texas Christian.

Last-place Rice suffered jarring defeats by Arkansas (79-61) and A&M (93-55). The Owls have won only one game all secason against 12 losses, three of them in conference play.

The Aggies barely overcame TCU, 72-71, to spark their comeback. Other scores last week were Baylor over Arkansas 84-75 and Texas Tech over the Phillips Oilers 101-91.

Final exams have cut this week's schedule to one game: TCU vs. the University of Houston at Houston Monday.

Beasley took over season scoring honors from Tech's Dub Malaise as he connected for 37 points for an overall 276. Malaise is second with 264. In individual scoring for conference games, Beasley has 82 points, followed by Doug McKendrick of Rice with 65.

Tech's Norman Reuther set a school record Saturday as he scored 42 points as the Raiders downed Phillips. He is sixth in season scoring with 190.

Other leading season scorers are Harold Denney of Tech with 226, Gary Turner of TCU with 224, and McKendrick of Rice with 211.

In league scoring, third place is held by Ed Horne of Baylor with 62, followed by Paul Timmins of A&M with 57 and Ken Norman, also on the Aggie squad, with 54.

During the 1964 football season an average of 72,520 fans packed Spartan Stadium for Michigan State's four home games.

Grid Rules Now Permit Platooning

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — After a dozen years of experimentation, college football's rulemakers may finally have settled on a substitution system that will remain in effect for a long time.

"The new rule will satisfy the desires of all people who coach and administer college football" said Abe Martin of Texas Christian University, president of the American Football Coaches Association.

The rule, adopted Sunday by the Football Rules Committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, will permit platoon substitution when the ball changes hands, between periods and after any score. Two players may enter the game at any time.

This wasn't the free and unlimited substitution rule demanded by many of the nation's coaches, but it was so close that no complaints were heard.

About the only thing the coaches wanted but didn't get was permission to send in kicking teams on fourth down. Offensive teams will have to be coached in getting down under punts.

ROAST FOWL

Temp.—450 deg. Fahr.
350 deg. Fahr.
Time—15 minutes-30 minutes to the pound

1 Bird (2 pounds dressed)
¼ pound sliced bacon
3 ounces butter
flour for thickening
salt and pepper

Carefully cut all shot from the bird. Wash inside and out with soda in the water. Rinse several times and dry with a clean cloth. Fill bird with dressing. Skewer legs and wings to the body. Lard breast with slices of bacon. Season well with salt and pepper. Place in hot oven and bake as directed until tender, basting it frequently with the drippings and melted butter.

Make a gravy of the drippings. Thicken the gravy with flour browned in a tablespoon of butter. Bring to a boil in the gravy and serve very hot.

Stuffing:
1½ cups bread crumbs
1 cup celery, cut fine
1 onion, chopped
½ cup butter
1 tablespoon sage
½ cup carrot, grated
salt and pepper

Boil the celery. Use water from the celery to moisten the bread crumbs. Mix all the ingredients together, seasoning them to taste.

Independence Proves Costly For New African Nations

By WILLIAM L. Ryan

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The black African seems to be telling the white man: "Get out — but please don't go."

In a continent so vast, so diverse, made up of so many nations, languages and cultures, all generalizations are dangerous. But conversations with African leaders indicate it is safe to make a few:

— There is an ambivalent attitude toward Europeans and Americans. Many African leaders say privately they want and need cooperation from the white world. Some — again in private — frankly criticized African vilifcation of the West after the rescue of hostages from the Congolese rebels. Publicly, however, those who deplored the vituperation preferred to remain silent.

— There is bewilderment among some Africans at being thrust suddenly onto the world stage, blinded by a limelight to which they are unaccustomed; befuddled at sudden enormous problems confronting new countries.

— There is resentment at the idea that Africans are incapable of managing themselves, at the idea that ignorance and illiteracy preclude self-management.

— The slogan of "African unity" is mostly an empty one. There is little prospect of unity. Africa is many different nations wrapped up in one huge continent, with innumerable languages. Sub-Sahara Africa has ancient, local tribal customs which set one group apart from another. The tribal makeup affects the problems of new nations which retain paternalistic traditions and lean naturally toward one-man rule.

— There are frustrations for intellectuals from whose thin ranks the leaders must come. The frustrations seem to feed an inferiority complex impelling some to bristle even at a question which, however carefully phrased, implies African shortcomings.

A substantial number of Africans, say their representatives, want to remain on good terms with Europe and the United States. They may want the white man to get out, in the sense that he should have no rights to influence policies or interfere in African affairs. But they want him to stay in Africa with his known-how and his technology, to guide them toward viability.

Those representatives of Africa who are fearful of cutting ties with the West will say so, however, only to those they know and trust. Expressing such ideas aloud can lead to difficulties.

Jaja Wachuku of Nigeria gratified some of his African colleagues last month when he went counter to a chorus of Anti-American condemnation at the United Nations. He paid a price: angry repudiation by his own political party at home. Public defense of the U.S. role in the Congo can create issues between one African country and another and feed ammunition to politicians.

African diplomats who have kind words for the United States often decline to be identified by name or nation, and even these are critical of Americans.

"The United States," says one, "agreed the Congo should be isolated from the Cold War. We worked for this. But the effort collapsed because of the Americans."

He referred to U.S. support for Moise Tshombe as Congo premier. He held it incomprehensible that Americans could do this after the U.N. — with American blessing — fought to oust Tshombe as a secessionist leader of Katanga Province.

African intellectuals refer time and again to events in Mississippi.

"Americans have friends," said one diplomat, "but their friends are embarrassed. When bullets are fired at people trying to rebuild a burned church in Mississippi, is that any more excusable than the killing of missionaries in the Congo? I was ashamed of the Congo killing, and no sane African approved it, but can you talk about the Congo in view of the things that happened in Mississippi?"

African leaders and intellectuals have adopted many ready-made labels — imperialism, colonialism, neocolonialism — in lodging their complaints against the United States. But they, in turn, accuse Americans of being victims of cliches: leftism, Communist infiltration, Communist subversion, anti-Americanism.

"No country in Africa is Communist," said one diplomat. "You are the victim of labels. Your whole policy is negative."

Some leaders express gratification for such efforts as the Peace Corps. But, said one, U.S. policy seems to demand a flatchoice: pro-West or anti-West.

Conversation with African representatives in the United States gives the impression that they are worried about their small corps of intellectuals and students at home. Frustrations often impel young men to adopt the prefabricated slogans, to associate themselves with Communist ideas because they blame all their troubles on a history of colonialism; and thus to seek common cause with Communists against the West. They are familiar only with the West's brand of colonialism.

Independence — often in nations far from prepared for it — has burdened the small intellectual elite with infuriating problems. Many have found that independence is an expensive affair, profitable for a small group but requiring all the trappings of nationhood.

In many cases, African democracy turns out to be another form of dictatorship, or at least of "planned development." Thrust into the 20th Century with stunning suddenness, Africans have had no time to build foundations for representative government.

"Give us time," says one of their representatives. "Try to understand. We are doing the best we can with what little we have."

Burleson's Oil Bill Among Several On Solon's Agenda

By MAX B. SKELTON

HOUSTON (AP) — Several bills involving oil problems already are before the new 89th Congress.

There is no indication, however, that any of them will receive immediate attention.

Rep. Oren Harris, D-Ark. and Rep. John Bell Williams, D-Miss., have introduced bills that would clarify the Federal Power Commission's authority to regulate wellhead prices of natural gas.

Rep. Omar Burleson, D-Tex., introduced a bill with import curbs designed to boost domestic crude oil production nearly 500,000 barrels a day.

Practically all oil industry producer trade groups have called for remedial legislation on gas price controls, but so far there has been no indication of an all-out effort in behalf of any specific bill.

Independent producers want tighter restrictions on oil imports but have indicated they will give Interior Secretary Stewart Udall another chance before turning to Congress for relief.

Udall has scheduled a March hearing on oil imports. He said the proceedings could lead to a major overhaul of his department's mandatory program to control such imports.

Officials of the 7,000-member Independent Petroleum Association of America thought they had sold Udall last fall on a need for a 275,000-barrel per day cutback in oil imports, but quotas for the first half of 1965 called for a small increase.

This prompted the national trade group for independents to start developing plans to take their fight to Congress unless the March hearing produces the desired relief.

A number of state and regional trade groups have pledged to support the national association at the March hearing and with any legislative action that might develop later.

Burleson's bill basically is in line with the tighter imports restrictions the national association asked Udall to adopt in setting quotas for the first six months of 1965.

The present ratio of imports east of the Rocky Mountains would be lowered from 12.2 to 10 per cent of domestic crude production.

Burleson's bill also would establish a congressional policy that West Coast states, with a shortage of domestic production, curtail imports by encouraging increased production in those states and by increasing shipments of petroleum produced in surplus areas east of the Rocky Mountains.

The Defense Department would be required to limit its foreign purchases of petroleum products, except for residual fuel oil, to 15 per cent of the department's total purchases.

Most producers would prefer Williams' gas bill over the one submitted by Harris, a veteran in preparing such legislation.

The Harris bill would exempt small producers from federal recognition but recognize some FPC jurisdiction in other areas. The Williams bill would remove all FPC authority to control prices of gas sold wholesale to interstate pipeline companies.

A Harris-Fulbright bill similar to the Williams plan was vetoed in 1957 by President Dwight Eisenhower, who actually approved the measure but objected to what he termed arrogant lobbying tactics by a small segment within the industry.

Britons In Peking Lead Lonely Life

By LOUIS NEVIN

LONDON (AP) — Eleven Britons live a lonely, frustrating life in Peking. They are the British diplomatic mission to Red China, headed by Charge d'Affaires Terence Willcocks Garvey.

They are for the most part isolated in what is known as the Peking "diplomatic stockade." Sometimes the Chinese government arranges a tour for diplomats, rarely to an area the diplomats want to see.

Their principal means of contact with the regime is by mail and telephone. They are not allowed contact with government ministers and underlings are too frightened to talk to them, according to British informants in London.

The 11 diplomats are carrying out a policy which began 15 years ago with Britain's recognition of Communist China.

London lacks full diplomatic relations with Peking at ambassadorial level, informants explain, because of a demand that Britain cease opposing Communist Chinese policies. The Chinese cite two points:

—Although Britain supports Red China's entry into the United Nations, the British maintain that the question is an important one which must be decided under Article 18 of the U.N. Charter, which means the Chinese Communists must obtain a two-thirds majority in the General Assembly.

—Although the British do not recognize the regime of Generalisimo Chiang Kai-shek on Formosa, there is a British consulate on the island. Peking says this shows the British do not support Red China's claim to Formosa.

Furthermore Britain supports American aid to the South Vietnamese against the Peking-backed Hanoi regime. And Britain is in conflict with Indonesia over the campaign of President Sukarno against Malaysia. Sukarno is receiving encouragement from Peking.

Therefore, despite the diplomatic recognition, Peking refuses to accept the appointment of a British ambassador or permit the opening of an embassy. The mission is called the "Office of the British Charge d'Affaires" — a sort of third class status.

British officials admit that recognition has brought few apparent advantages. But, as one noted, "You can't bring much influence to bear on a government if you are not in the country. And besides it's absurd to turn your back on a government which effectively represents 400 million people."

Principal advantage to the British has been a small but steady trade. In the 15 years this has amounted to $1.12 billion both ways. British exports, chiefly metals, machinery and manufactured goods, amounted to more than $500 million, giving the Chinese a slight edge in what they sell to Britain, principally raw materials.

BUSINESS and INDUSTRIAL NEWS

COMPLETE REFINISHING of leather or part-leather garments is one of the most popular services of Highland Park Cleaners. Shelby Coker, owner of the firm, displays the type of work done by the firm. Suedes, slick or grained leathers, and gloves, either regular or fur-lined, are all handled with expert care at Highland Park Cleaners.

Leather Cleaning Popular At Highland Park Cleaners

Leather clothing is fashionable.

But sometimes folks shy away from purchasing a garment that they really like because they're afraid of having a cleaning problem. And some folks who have leather coats, jackets, and other garments, are afraid to wear them much for the same reason.

Those are the people who haven't heard of the leather cleaning and refinishing services at Highland Park Cleaners.

No longer does one have to worry about having leather goods cleaned. All it takes is a call to Highland Park Cleaners, for there the dry cleaning experts take the cleaning of leather in stride.

Whether it's the thin, delicate leather of a pair of fine ladies gloves, or the rough, heavy leather of a hunting jacket, it can be brought back to like-new condition at Highland Park Cleaners.

The expert care of leather goods is just another example of how Highland Park Cleaners does everything they possibly can to provide the most modern and complete cleaning service for their customers.

Another example is found in the cleaning solution used by the firm.

Some time ago, when truly odorless cleaning solutions first became available on the market, Highland Park Cleaners was one of the first to start using it. Sure, it cost more, but it was the best, and that's what customers of Highland Park Cleaners have come to expect.

The reasons that the cleaning solution used by Highland Park Cleaners is better include the fact that the clothes can be tumbled dry at a lower temperature; that shrinkage is reduced to a bare minimum; and that stains are not set into the fabric.

These are the reasons, but few customers know or care about these reasons. All they know is that they can trust their finest things to Highland Park Cleaners. They know that they'll get good service, and the cleaning will be of the best possible quality.

That's really all they need to know.

A phone call to HI 3-7261 will bring prompt pick - up and delivery service. Or those who prefer may go by the plant on the Big Spring Highway. Clothes may be deposited at any time by using the night depository on the south side of the building.

Decision On Which Airline To Take Depends On What Movie Is Showing

By ROGER LANE
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "What's the movie?"

On the answer could depend a $168.95 decision for the New York-Los Angeles traveler — whether to fly via Trans World Airlines, American or United.

With nearly identical planes and standard fares, airlines fast are embracing entertainment in the sky as a lure to the long-hop air traveler.

Four airlines that link the West Coast with Atlantic Seaboard and Midwest points, TWA, American, United and Continental, have waded into aerial show business. Others with long routes fear competitive pressures may drag them into the swim.

The committed four are pushing the flicker film as an antidote to the boredom of sitting in the same seat for up to five hours.

Also, they seek to amuse vacationers aboard and possibly to tranquilize uneasy, first-time fliers. The airlines say response so far has been good.

The trend is toward providing an option for passengers, who balk at watching the movie. By plugging in featherweight earphones at each seat and flicking a switch, they can listen to musical or dramatic fare.

After some hesitation, the biggest domestic air carrier, United Air Lines, took the entertainment plunge in November. West Coast-Hawaii travelers on Nov. 6 were shown "Quick Before it Melts," a film billed by the producer as "uproarious." Movies on United's cross-country domestic runs will start soon.

Preceding United into the field were TWA, American and Continental at home and Pakistan International Airlines abroad.

The new audio-video systems are expensive. It costs $2 million to $3 million to outfit a big airline at roughly $50,000 a plane, plus around $1 million yearly for operations — film rental and the like.

Not surprisingly, some of the holdouts are groping for a cheaper answer.

One of these, Eastern Air Lines, recently featured magician Harry Blackstone Jr., son of The Great Blackstone, in a Miami-New York "showflight."

In another variant of vaudeville, Eastern has engaged "personalities" — usually comedians — to spark free bon voyage-type parties preceding New York-Puerto Rico departures. Performers then join the flight. Tie-ins with a resort hotel and travel agency are involved.

"A musician or comedian doesn't require a lot of electronic equipment," an airline official observed. "On the other hand you can't tune him out."

A movie aloft is shown to a captive audience mixed in age, sex, education, taste and other ways, and this makes film slection a touchy matter.

The last thing the airline wants is to drive away a paying passenger through offense to moral or religious sensitivity. Accordingly, the mystery, musical, family comedy or an outdoorsy production usually is chosen as safest fare.

Programmed amusement aloft is not really new. It dates back 30 years. Table tennis tournaments relieved the tedium of "Clipper" flying boat trips in the 1930s between the West Coast and the Philippines.

Pan American World Airways showed movies over the North Atlantic right after World War II. Projection equipment was cruder then and clashing passenger tastes proved a headache. The movies soon did a fadeout.

TWA kicked off the present scramble in August 1961 over the same waters. Completely automatic equipment erased need for servicing between terminals. TWA extended the attraction to domestic routes.

For a long time, competitors ignored the move. TWA plugged it routinely. Meantime, as airline industry fortunes arched upward from the doldrums of 1961, TWA's rocketed ahead of the rest and kept rising.

American and Continental, domestic competitors of TWA, concluded TWA's gains in some cases probably were their losses. Last summer, hoping to go TWA one better, they launched more elaborate entertainment routines.

Indians To Dance In Inaugural Parade

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — Four New Mexico Indian dancers will appear in the inauguration parade in Washington Wednesday, but without their arrowheads.

The Cochiti tribe dancers were questioned by the Secret Service, which is in charge of presidential security, about the type of arrowheads they would carry and the strength of their bows.

Joe Herrera, sponsor of the dancers, said the arrowheads were steel and volunteered to remove them for the parade.

Driving In India Real Experience

By CONRAD FINK

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The main ingredients of an Indian traffic jam are horse-drawn carriages, motor scooters and bicycles — and it's going to stay that way.

The government says India has no surplus funds to invest in the nation's infant auto industry despite a surge in public hopes for a small, cheap car.

Ending a nationwide debate, T. N. Singh, minister of heavy engineering and industry, gave the so-called "small car project" a very low priority in economic planning. That means it is doomed.

The project had captured popular imagination. It was discussed in Parliament, in newspapers and at public meetings. It came to signify a consumer goods breakthrough that would make the average man's life a little more comfortable.

Thousands of Indians eagerly looked forward to the day when horses could be turned out to pasture and bicycles used for Sunday afternoon exercise.

But, says Singh, it cannot be.

The minister says passenger car production will be about 24,000 annually — or one auto for every 20,000 Indians. The government emphasis will be on feeding the country and building its basic industry — no small task.

Cars now produced by the state-owned auto industry have a notorious reputation. Just getting on the waiting list to buy one is an incredibly difficult process often involving "bakshees" or money under the table.

Trouble seldom ends when the car finally is purchased. One indignant government official tells of driving his new car out of the showing and having the gearshift lever break off in his hand. Then the brakes failed.

There are thousands of ancient cars on India's roads. Some were turned out by the first Henry Ford.

Many cars are elaborate combinations of a few original parts plus ingenious repairs made by the nation's "shade tree mechanics" who practice auto restoration along the roadside. Baling wire seems to be a primary tool.

Even so, the auto is a status symbol. A man with a car and driver is "Mr. Big" in India.

Foreigners have difficulty importing cars for their own use. The government is afraid the autos will find their way into unauthorized hands. Those brought into the country must be taken out by their owner or sold to the State Trading Corp.

The corporation buys at far less than the original price and sells at a fantastic markup. A 1962 Chevrolet Belair recently sold at auction for $16,899.

Fog Prompts Ship Mishaps

By The Associated Press

Thick fog contributed to two shipping mishaps in the Pacific Northwest over the weekend.

At Vancouver, B.C., the USS Whitehurst, a destroyer-escort, and the Norwegian freighter Hoyanger collided in the city's harbor Saturday.

The Whitehurst received a five-foot gash, but no injuries were reported on either vessel. Minor damage was inflicted on the 9,477-ton freighter.

The destroyer-escort was manned by reserve "weekend sailors."

Near Astoria, Ore., the freighter Seamar struck a pier in the Columbia river Saturday night. There were no injuries. A hole was opened in her side, and the vessel, owned by Bethlehem Steel Corp., was towed into drydock at Portland.

Rural family loans—$2,500 loan to a low-income farmer in Long Branch, Panola County.

1964 Production Records May Fall Early In 1965

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The nation's economy is coming back with a rush after the foot dragging in the autumn that caused the total output of goods and services for the year to fall just short of earlier hopes.

The first weeks and months of 1965 should see many new heights scaled. And if 1964 already is dubbed the year of the records, its glamor may be surpassed in a short time.

The very things that slowed down the rate of growth a bit in the fourth quarter of 1964 are likely to make the first months of 1965 look all the speedier.

These were the auto strikes from late September to early November, and the steel shipments to the auto companies and their suppliers that suffered from the shutdowns. Now the auto plants are turning out cars much faster than a year ago, and the steel mills are hard put to meet the early shipment requests of auto and other customers.

The big jump in industrial production in December, which apparently is continuing in January, could be one reason the stock market has gone up so strongly this month. The popular stock price averages are back within a whisker of their records set two months ago. The output jump points toward increased sales and, hopefully, profits. So stocks look good to many.

Another reason for stock price rises is fear that a new era of inflation may be in the making, because of rising labor demands and of the opening vistas of increased government spending in the years ahead. And stocks are considered a hedge against any decline in the purchasing power of the dollar.

The production success story is told in the federal reserve board's index of industrial production which uses 1957-59 as a base. The index shows a jump of 2.2 points between November and December to a record 137 per cent. This puts it 10 index points higher than in the closing days of 1963. And it brings the average figure for all 1964 to 132 per cent of the base, up 8 points from the 1963 annual average of 124 per cent.

With auto plants humming this month to catch up strike-lost time, and steel furnaces turning out record tonnage, and with most other major industries also climbing higher, the outlook for the Gross National Product — the total output of goods and services — in the early months of 1965 grows ever brighter.

This offsets any disappointment from the slowdown in Gross National Product in October and November. Even with the strikes, the GNP did manage to climb in the fourth quarter of 1964, but at a rate only about half as fast as in the first, second and third quarters.

The government estimates the strikes cost the economy about $1 billion. This brought the GNP for the entire year to $622.3 billion.

With factories and mills going at high speed, retail sales at or near records, construction booming in most fields, and government spending high and pointing higher, the economic pace in the next few months should be a fast one.

Local Firm Completely Builds Truck

The Snyder Truck and Tractor Co. has announced a "first" for it and for the Scurry County area.

The firm has engineered and built from a bare frame up a complete truck with a maximum gross combination weight rating of 65,000 pounds. The major component parts used to accomplish this included a new main frame, new cab assembly, new engine assembly, new front axle assembly, new tag or trailing axles assembly.

A total of 191 man hours of labor went into the project. Charlie Cantrell, general manager of Snyder Truck and Tractor, said the truck has met and passed all requirements of the Texas Highway Department Vehicle Licensing Bureau to receive a 1965 rebuilt vehicle title.

Specifications of the truck are: Series VT-225 with 168-inch wheelbase, International V549 gasoline engine with 256.8 horsepower at 3400 rpm, five speed direct in fifth transmission, 23,000 pound capacity two-speed driving axle, Neway air suspension 22,000 pound capacity trailing axle, 1000 by 20 front and dual rear tires, full occilating fifth wheel, air brakes with 12 cubic foot air compressor, recording tachograph, dual air horns, spotlight, shortwave radio and transmitter, trailer brake hand control and hose connections, directional turn signals, traffic hazard flashing lights and custom instrumentation.

Test Runs, pulling a custom-built 152 barrel Gorbett tank trailer fully loaded have proven the VT-225 to surpass all expectations. Power, gradability, handling and cruising speed (60 miles per hour, plus) meet every maximum requirement.
