Finland Looks To Protection In The Future

President Kallio Says Pact With Norway And Sweden Is Necessary To Keep Liberty

(By The Associated Press)

HELSINKI, March 14.—President Kyosti Kallio told Finland today her losing fight with Soviet Russia, ended by a crushing peace after 105 days, had made a Finnish-Swedish-Norwegian defensive alliance inescapably necessary.

The necessity of such an alliance, he said, has "become evident during this war" and he added:

New Fortifications Planned

"I dare to hope that the essentiality of a northern defensive alliance has become evident also to our neighbors during this war."

Finland counted on new fortifications and a possible alliance, if need be, to save her from Czecho-Slovakia's fate.

Shorn of heavily fortified frontiers by the pact of Munich, Sept. 29, 1938, Czecho-Slovakia just a year ago tomorrow passed under the rule of Adolf Hitler's reich.

President Kallio spoke in a broadcast address and he said to his people they should not forget that Finland still is independent and still possesses a powerful army.

Thanks Are Expressed

He expressed appreciation for American relief activities and said that "in this respect the work done by former President Hoover has been of extreme value." He also thanked the Scandinavian countries and western powers for their aid.

As he spoke all available trucks were on the road to begin the work of removing thousands of Finns from areas to be ceded to Soviet Russia.

Phillips Firm As Guardsmen Take Control

Scathing Attack Against The PWA Is Made; Fight In Court Being Planned By Governor

(By The Associated Press)

DISNEY, Okla., March 14.—National guardsmen patrolled the Grand river dam today as Gov. Leon C. Phillips refused to give ground in his "state's rights war" against the Public Works administration.

Work on the $20,000,000 hydro-electric project continued, however, under the watchful eyes of three national guard officers who were ordered to call a halt—by force if necessary — when construction reaches the point that lands could be flooded.

Others Are Mobilized

Seventy more guardsmen were mobilized at the Wagoner armory, 60 miles from the damsite.

Calling out the guard late yesterday, Phillips delivered a scathing attack against the PWA, from which he seeks $850,000 for roads and bridges which would be inundated.

"This action might not have been necessary if they hadn't broken their word by starting the last arch," he commented. "I am going to keep the guards there until I know I am safe. When I know I'm safe I'll pull them out."

Plans Court Fight

Phillips, a staunch advocate of state's rights, also planned a state court fight to prevent closing the gates and flooding the 52,000 acre reservoir. He ordered Attorney General Mac Q. Williamson to seek an injunction.

John M. Carmody, federal works administrator, remained silent on

Moral Embargo Of U. S. To Continue

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 14.—With President Roosevelt indicating uneasiness over Finland's future, the United States will continue to regard Russia warily for some time.

This became apparent today when it was learned that the "moral embargoes" against Russia, imposed by Mr. Roosevelt and the state department after the Soviet invasion of Finland, would be maintained indefinitely regardless of the Baltic peace.

Was Later Amplified

The president laid down the "moral embargo" on the shipment of airplanes and parts to Russia in December. This was later amplified by the state department to include materials going into the manufacture of airplanes, and also plants and plans for the manufacture of aviation gasoline.

No move to lift any of these embargoes will be made for some time, it was learned, because:

1. Officials are not sure that Russia will not again move against a weakened Finland.

2. Nor are they sure that Russia will not move against other nations, perhaps in the Balkins or the near east.

3. Nor are they sure that materials sent to Russia are not going on

Texas Farmers Paid Millions

(By The United Press)

AUSTIN, March 14—Texas farmers received $562,963,000 cash for their farm activities in 1939, the federal agricultural marketing service reported here today.

The report shows Texas farmers received $26,833,000 more than in the preceding year.

The total includes the money they got from marketing crops, from commodities placed under federal loans and from government payments for non-production or conservation activities.

Less For Their Products

Exclusive of $110,755,000 in government payments, the farmers received $442,228,000 for the products they sold. This was three per cent less than they received the preceding year.

Rumors Claim That Rumania To Be Spared

Soviet Pledge To Germany Is Reported; Negotiations Are Being Conducted In Secret

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, March 14.—Germany, an unimpeachable although unofficial source disclosed today, has obtained a definite pledge from Soviet Russia that Rumania will be spared, come what may in southeast Europe.

This assurance, which probably will be publicly documented soon, apparently has enabled German diplomacy in turn to make Rumania incline toward a Russian-Rumanian non-aggression pact.

Negotiations Are Secret

Negotiations are being conducted in the greatest secrecy.

(Authoritative sources in Bucharest said a Rumanian commission of high army officers was in Berlin.)

Just why a military rather than an economic mission should visit Berlin at this time is a mystery.

While official Germany and the Rumanian legation are tight-lipped, unofficial inquiries invariably elicit expressions like "something is doing between Russian and Rumania; the whole complexion of the international situation may change before the week is over."

Week May Be Decisive

One well-informed person went so far as to say this week was one of the most decisive of the war and would "furnish political foundations for Germany's military victory." The Rumanian question, he said, was a factor in the situation.

Still another interesting factor is the assurance with which authorized spokesmen have mentioned recently the certainty of Rumania's remaining aloof from the conflict. They have consistently pooh-poohed all rumors from abroad of Rumania's siding with the western powers.

German sources point to this week as decisive for three reasons —the settlement of the Russian-Finnish conflict on terms which from the German viewpoint are

Girl Launches Drive Against Jim Farley

WASHINGTON, March 14. (AP)—A pretty young girl who knows a lot about politics has launched a campaign against Postmaster General James A. Farley for president.

She is, of all people, his 13-year-old daughter, Ann.

It is not disloyalty that has brought out the New York school-girl against her papa. The way she looks at it, it's loyalty.

Ann is simply tired of not seeing enough of the postmaster general and chairman of the Democratic national committee.

Ann lives with her mother in New York. A sister is at college and a brother at boarding school, and Mr. Farley is in Washington most of the week.

The postmaster general, his daughter claims in common with lots of other people, is good company. She wants him around more, and it's politics that keeps him away.

If Ann had her way, Mr. Farley would get a good job and settle down at home. And—she doesn't mind telling him so.

Finance Group Chosen Today

Members of the finance committee of the South Plains Junior Fat Stock show to be held here March 25-27 were named this morning by W. C. O'Mara, chairman, who announced that they are to meet in the chamber of commerce Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Announcement also was made that a meeting of county farm agents and vocational agriculture teachers in several counties of the area is scheduled there at 2 p. m. Friday to discuss plans for entertainment and the parade in connection with the stock show.

Committee Is Named

Named on the finance committee were:

Dr. D. D. Cross, V. H. Whitworth, Vernice Ford, Jack Payne, C. E. Thompson, D. G. Barrow, W. T. Fain, Ben Jenkins, K. N. Renner, F. W. Groce, Gene Wilson, Richard Roberts, W. R. Blackburn, Frank G. Audience With Gov. O'Daniel Is Demanded

Roughly-Dressed Laborers Tell Governor Of Need For Jobs; Discrimination Is Charged

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, March 14.—A group of more than 30 roughly-dressed laborers today marched to the capitol, asked an audience with Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, got it, and were promised the chief executive would "look into" their grievances.

Harlan Armstrong and Leeroy Wier of Austin, leaders of the group, informed the governor they had been out of work for months and asserted they were being discriminated against on a local low-cost housing project being built by an independent contractor.

Reporters Later Called In

One of the governor's secretaries first barred the press when the laborers were escorted into the richly-furnished reception room but the secretary later called in reporters who witnessed the conference.

The governor told the group:

"I'll have to investigate this matter. It's all news to me. I'll get all the information I can."

When one suggested they had had time enough to explain their grievances and reminded "the governor's a busy man," O'aniel said: ernor's a busy man," O'Daniel said:

"Take all the time you want, boys. I'll see what I can do."

"All we want is a square deal, governor," Wier said. "Some of our families are hungry and we've got to feed them. They promised us some jobs and we haven't got them. We belong to a local union. We've taken it up time and time with heads of the job. Many of us have been registered at the employment office and at the WPA a long time."

For several days, white laborers have sought through the project contractor, Mayor Tom Miller of Austin and union heads to be placed on the work.

Recently, Miller stated the matter was settled.

Darrow Spirit Keeps Silent

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, March 14. — Claude Noble, a magician, stood on a bleak bridge in Jackson park, held out a hymn book, and called upon the spirit of Clarence Darrow to manifest itself if it could.

Hopefully, he stood in silence for a full minute. A bird squeaked in a naked tree and outside the park the hum of the city's traffic rose and fell. Then he turned to the newspapermen and said: "No manifestation."

Same Story For Years

It's been the same story for more than 75 years.

Noble, who came from his home in Detroit to conduct the experiment yesterday, said magicians had been trying to get a glimpse into the great beyond since the days of Conte.

There are always arrangements made beforehand. In the case of Darrow, the great criminal lawyer and agnostic, they were agreed upon at a meeting in a Detroit hotel three years ago.

Agreed To Try

"I was there and so was Howard Thurston," Noble said. "Thurston believed in spiritualism, but Mr. Darrow did not. But Mr. Darrow agreed to try to manifest his spirit if I would give him the opportunity.

Darrow had promised to try to agitate the book so that it would fall from Noble's hand. The magician trembled, but nothing stirred the book, not even the wind.

House That Wasn't There Is Barrier For Tax Collector

ROTHSVILLE, Pa., March 14 (AP) —A house that wasn't there cheated Tax Collector Jacob G. Conrad out of turning in 100 per cent collections.

Shy $2.25, he told the county controller:

"That represents the tax on a house that burned to the ground. The owner refused to pay tax on a house that isn't there."

Limitation Of $5,000 Voted Upon Political Contributions

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP) — The Senate approved a $5,000 limitation on political contributions today by attaching an amendment to the pending anti-politics legislation.

The limitation provision, sponsored by opponents of amendments to broaden the Hatch act, carried by a vote of 40 to 38.

The provision would limit any individual to contributing $5,000 to any candidate or campaign committee and define as a "pernicious political activity" any contribution above this.

Freight Rate Reductions Are To Take Effect On June 1

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission refused today to reopen for re-argument its decision in the long-fought south-to-north freight rate case, in which the south won an important victory.

The commission also today ordered reductions put into effect June 1.

As in the original decision, the commission voted 5 to 4 against granting petition filed by the northern railroads and northern intervenors for re-argument and rehearing.

In its original decision the commission ordered reductions in rates on 18 commodities from the south to the north to a basis approximating that within the north. The south-to-north rates on the commodities involved now are about 37 per cent higher than the rates within the north.

Woman Trudges Through Snow Looking For A Left Turn

MINNEAPOLIS, March 14. (AP)—Traffic Patrolman Roger Rydlund swears it's a fact—

Trudging through the snow on an avenue where "no left turn" signs abound, a woman stopped to ask him:

"I see those 'no left turn' signs all the way and I'm tuckered out. How much farther do I have to walk through this snow before I can turn left?"

Posse Seeking Lone Kidnaper

(By The Associated Press)

GREENVILLE, March 14.—A posse headed by Sheriff Frank Wolfe hunted throughout the night in the Lone Oak area southeast of here for a man who kidnaped two Terrell officers after they had placed him under arrest as a theft suspect.

Policeman J. N. McFarland, a member of the posse, returned to Greenville early today with the man's wife in custody and reported the officers had uncovered a large quantity of merchandise at her home. The property was identified by the officers as having been taken in and around Greenville during the past several months, McFarland said.

Bloodhounds Are Used

Bloodhounds were being used in an effort to track down the man in the Sabine bottoms.

City Marshal Zeb Henry and Night Watchman Carl Lovell of Terrell said the man kidnaped them after he got them to take him out on the highway under the pretense of meeting a friend.

On the way, the man pulled a gun and disarmed the officers. He approached Henry's car, and forced Lovell to drive to Quinlan. Here Henry leaped from the automobile.

Continuing toward Lone Oak the man fled on foot when the car ran out of gas, leaving Lovell with the machine.

A companion of the man, arrested at Terrell, is being held in jail there.

Plot To Free Dillinger Pal From Prison Is Thwarted

COLUMBUS, O., March 14. (AP)—Thwarting of a plot to free one of the surviving leaders of the Dillinger gang was disclosed today by Warden Frank Henderson of Ohio penitentiary.

Warden Henderson said Frank Benszowski, 33, engineered a "fantastic" escape plan, which involved kidnaping the warden, in an effort to free Russell Clark, 41, and two other life termers.

Clark is serving a life sentence for slaying Sheriff Jess Sarber, shot to death when John Dillinger's henchmen liberated him from the Lima, O., jail.

Patrolman Has A New Beat; He Tagged The Mayor's Car

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 14. (U.P.)—Patrolman Stephen C. Malley had a new beat today.

Malley tagged Mayor John F. Collins' automobile yesterday in a "no parking" area.

Prize In "Battle Of Glamor" Is Won By A "Sneak Entry"

(By The United Press)

BOSTON, March 14 — The prize in the "battle of glamor" between debutante and professional models was won by a "sneak entry" of female impersonators from Harvard's Hasty Pudding club.

The team of four begowned models "muscled" into the contest at the "Karnawal" staged for the Polish relief fund last night and carried off the "honors." The judges fled.

Miss Leslie Blake, who quit the debutante team at the 11th hour, won a cup for physical perfection, and led the professional team to second place in the "glamor" modeling contest.

Miss Anne Phillips, daughter of the U. S. ambassador to Italy, and her team of society girls failed to place in the contest, outcome of a challenge by the professionals who protested that the society girls were taking their "bread-and-butter jobs" by modeling for nothing.

The four judges, including Cartoonist Peter Arno and Princess Gourielli-Tchkonia (Helena

Having Tax Pains? Just Look How Lucky You Really Are!

Figures which may take some of the bitter out of the mouths of those who have paid their 1939 income taxes, or will pay them before Friday night, were supplied through the United States treasury today.

They disclose that such taxes in the United States are several times smaller than in such nations as Great Britain and Germany, and are considerably smaller than in Canada.

The comparative figures, supplied from Washington at the request of The Evening Journal, were a reminder here that Friday is the deadline for making returns on 1939 incomes. They should be taken to internal revenue offices on the second floor of the federal building.

The comparisons reveal that the income tax payers in the U. S. are the lucky ones, compared with the larger European nations.

According to the treasury figures, for example, the single person who earned $1,000 in the United States during 1939 pays nothing. In Great Britain

Woman Trudges Through Snow Looking For A Left Turn

MINNEAPOLIS, March 14. (AP)—Traffic Patrolman Roger Rydlund swears it's a fact—

Trudging through the snow on an avenue where "no left turn" signs abound, a woman stopped to ask him:

"I see those 'no left turn' signs all the way and I'm tuckered out. How much farther do I have to walk through this snow before I can turn left?"

Having Tax Pains? Just Look How Lucky You Really Are!

Figures which may take some of the bitter out of the mouths of those who have paid their 1939 income taxes, or will pay them before Friday night, were supplied through the United States treasury today.

They disclose that such taxes in the United States are several times smaller than in such nations as Great Britain and Germany, and are considerably smaller than in Canada.

The comparative figures, supplied from Washington at the request of The Evening Journal, were a reminder here that Friday is the deadline for making returns on 1939 incomes. They should be taken to internal revenue offices on the second floor of the federal building.

The comparisons reveal that the income tax payers in the U. S. are the lucky ones, compared with the larger European nations.

According to the treasury figures, for example, the single person who earned $1,000 in the United States during 1939 pays nothing. In Great Britain

Rumors Claim That Rumania To Be Spared

Soviet Pledge To Germany Is Reported; Negotiations Are Being Conducted In Secret

(By The Associated Press)
BERLIN, March 14.—Germany, an unimpeachable although non official source disclosed today, has obtained a definite pledge from Soviet Russia that Rumania will be spared, come what may in southeast Europe.

This assurance, which probably will be publicly documented soon, apparently has enabled German diplomacy in turn to make Rumania incline toward a Russian-Rumanian non-aggression pact.

Negotiations Are Secret

Negotiations are being conducted in the greatest secrecy.

(Authoritative sources in Bucharest said a Rumanian commission of high army officers was in Berlin.)

Just why a military rather than an economic mission should visit Berlin at this time is a mystery.

While official Germany and the Rumanian legation are tight-lipped, unofficial inquiries invariably elicit expressions like "something is doing between Russian and Rumania; the whole complexion of the international situation may change before the week is over."

Week May Be Decisive

One well-informed person went so far as to say this week was one of the most decisive of the war and would "furnish political foundations for Germany's military victory." The Rumanian question, he said, was a factor in the situation.

Still another interesting factor is the assurance with which authorized spokesmen have mentioned recently the certainty of Rumania's remaining aloof from the conflict. They have consistently pooh-poohed all rumors from abroad of Rumania's siding with the western powers.

German sources point to this week as decisive for three reasons —the settlement of the Russian-Finnish conflict on terms which from the German viewpoint are

Posse Seeking Lone Kidnaper

(By The Associated Press)
GREENVILLE, March 14.—A posse headed by Sheriff Frank Wolfe hunted throughout the night in the Lone Oak area southeast of here for a man who kidnaped two Terrell officers after they had placed him under arrest as a theft suspect.

Policeman J. N. McFarland, a member of the posse, returned to Greenville early today with the man's wife in custody and reported the officers had uncovered a large quantity of merchandise at her home. The property was identified by the officers as having been taken in and around Greenville during the past several months, McFarland said.

Bloodhounds Are Used

Bloodhounds were being used in an effort to track down the man in the Sabine bottoms.

City Marshal Zeb Henry and Night Watchman Carl Lovell of Terrell said the man kidnaped them after he got them to take him out on the highway under the pretense of meeting a friend.

On the way, the man pulled a gun and disarmed the officers. He approached Henry's car, and forced Lovell to drive to Quinlan. Here Henry leaped from the automobile.

Continuing toward Lone Oak the man fled on foot when the car ran out of gas, leaving Lovell with the machine.

A companion of the man, arrested at Terrell, is being held in jail there.

Prize In "Battle Of Glamor" Is Won By A "Sneak Entry"

(By The United Press)
BOSTON, March 14 — The prize in the "battle of glamor" between debutante and professional models was won by a "sneak entry" of female impersonators from Harvard's Hasty Pudding club.

The team of four begowned models "muscled" into the contest at the "Karnawal" staged for the Polish relief fund last night and carried off the "honors." The judges fled.

Miss Leslie Blake, who quit the debutante team at the 11th hour, won a cup for physical perfection, and led the professional team to second place in the "glamor" modeling contest.

Miss Anne Phillips, daughter of the U. S. ambassador to Italy, and her team of society girls failed to place in the contest, outcome of a challenge by the professionals who protested that the society girls were taking their "bread-and-butter jobs" by modeling for nothing.

The four judges, including Cartoonist Peter Arno and Princess Gourielli-Tchkonia (Helena

Girl Launches Drive Against Jim Farley

WASHINGTON, March 14. (AP)—A pretty young girl who knows a lot about politics has launched a campaign against Postmaster General James A. Farley for president.

She is, of all people, his 13-year-old daughter, Ann.

It is not disloyalty that has brought out the New York school-girl against her papa. The way she looks at it, it's loyalty.

Ann is simply tired of not seeing enough of the postmaster general and chairman of the Democratic national committee.

Ann lives with her mother in New York. A sister is at college and a brother at boarding school, and Mr. Farley is in Washington most of the week.

The postmaster general, his daughter claims in common with lots of other people, is good company. She wants him around more, and it's politics that keeps him away.

If Ann had her way, Mr. Farley would get a good job and settle down at home. And—she doesn't mind telling him so.

Finance Group Chosen Today

Members of the finance committee of the South Plains Junior Fat Stock show to be held here March 25-27 were named this morning by W. C. O'Mara, chairman, who announced that they are to meet in the chamber of commerce Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Plot To Free Dillinger Pal From Prison Is Thwarted

COLUMBUS, O., March 14. (AP)—Thwarting of a plot to free one of the surviving leaders of the Dillinger gang was disclosed today by Warden Frank Henderson of Ohio penitentiary.

Warden Henderson said Frank Benszowski, 33, engineered a "fantastic" escape plan, which involved kidnaping the warden, in an effort to free Russell Clark, 41, and two other life termers.

Clark is serving a life sentence for slaying Sheriff Jess Sarber, shot to death when John Dillinger's henchmen liberated him from the Lima, O., jail.

Patrolman Has A New Beat; He Tagged The Mayor's Car

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 14. (U.P.)—Patrolman Stephen C. Malley had a new beat today.

Malley tagged Mayor John P. Collins' automobile yesterday in a "no parking" area.

SANTONE IS CHOSEN

FORT WORTH, March 14. (U.P.)—Members of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' association today chose San Antonio as the place for their 1941 meeting. The 1941 convention will be held sometime in March, the exact dates to be set later by the board of directors.

Audience With Gov. O'Daniel Is Demanded

Roughly-Dressed Laborers Tell Governor Of Need For Jobs; Discrimination Is Charged

(By The Associated Press)
AUSTIN, March 14.—A group of more than 30 roughly-dressed laborers today marched to the capitol, asked an audience with Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, got it, and were promised the chief executive would "look into" their grievances.

Harlan Armstrong and Leeroy Wier of Austin, leaders of the group, informed the governor they had been out of work for months and asserted they were being discriminated against on a local low-cost housing project being built by an independent contractor.

Reporters Later Called In

One of the governor's secretaries first barred the press when the laborers were escorted into the richly-furnished reception room but the secretary later called in reporters who witnessed the conference.

The governor told the group:

"I'll have to investigate this matter. It's all news to me. I'll get all the information I can."

When one suggested they had had time enough to explain their grievances and reminded "the governor's a busy man," O'aniel said: ernor's a busy man," O'Daniel said:

"Take all the time you want, boys. I'll see what I can do."

"All we want is a square deal, governor," Wier said. "Some of our families are hungry and we've got to feed them. They promised ... some jobs and we haven't ... them. We belong to a local ... union. We've taken it up time ... time with heads of the job. Many ... us have ben registered at the ... employment office and at the WPA ... long time."

For several days, white laborers have sought through the project contractor, Mayor Tom Miller of Austin and union heads to be placed on the work.

Recently, Miller stated the matter was settled.

Darrow Spirit Keeps Silent

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, March 14. — Claude Noble, a magician, stood on a bleak bridge in Jackson park, held out a hymn book, and called upon the spirit of Clarence Darrow to manifest itself if it could.

Hopefully, he stood in silence for a full minute. A bird squeaked in a naked tree and outside the park the hum of the city's traffic rose and fell. Then he turned to the newspapermen and said: "No manifestation."

Same Story For Years

It's been the same story for more than 75 years.

Noble, who came from his home in Detroit to conduct the experiment yesterday, said magicians had been trying to get a glimpse into the great beyond since the days of Conte.

There are always arrangements made beforehand. In the case of Darrow, the great criminal lawyer and agnostic, they were agreed upon at a meeting in a Detroit hotel three years ago.

Agreed To Try

"I was there and so was Howard Thurston," Noble said. "Thurston believed in spiritualism, but Mr. Darrow did not. But Mr. Darrow agreed to try to manifest his spirit if I would give him the opportunity.

Darrow had promised to try to agitate the book so that it would fall from Noble's hand. The magician trembled, but nothing stirred the book, not even the wind.

Allan Curtis Is Free Man; And That's What He Wanted

HOLLYWOOD, March 14 (U.P.) — Allan Curtis, leading man, was free today, which was exactly what he wanted. Actress Priscilla Lawson testified in obtaining an interlocutory divorce.

Miss Lawson testified that only three months after they were married, last Nov. 17, Curtis told her repeatedly that he was not "cut out" to be a married man and asked her to divorce him. She charged that Curtis often told her he did not love her, sometimes in the presence of friends.

Fancy Roping Act Considered For Fair In City This Fall

Montie Montana, trick and fancy roping star who has appeared in many motion pictures, conferred with officials of the Panhandle-South Plains fair here Wednesday relative to the possibility of bringing his act to the fair next fall.

Montana's troupe, consisting of trick horses, two boys and two girls, has appeared in numerous motion pictures. In addition, he has presented his repertoire before audiences at major rodeos and other such shows over the country, having made a big hit at Cheyenne, Wyo.

Decision as to whether the act will be booked will be made later, said those in charge of such arrangements.

Plans For Kite Tournament On Saturday Are Complete

Preparations are virtually complete for the kite tournament in Mackenzie park Saturday afternoon to be staged under sponsorship of the city parks recreational project, according to Mrs. John W. Wilson, project superintendent.

While no estimate can be made as to the number of entries, she said, the interest indicated when announcements were made of the event in city schools indicates that the list will be large. Prizes will be awarded, she added, for the largest, smallest, most beautiful, most unusual and the highest flying kites. The awards are to be supplied by the city recreation council, of which W. H. Evans is chairman.

She added that if weather is unfavorable for the tournament Saturday, it will be postponed one week.

ANDREWS ELECTION

ANDREWS. — Mayor W. H. Cuthrie announces the city election is to be held April 2 when three aldermen are to be chosen. Outgoing aldermen are, Dr. J. G. Little, Charles W. Roberts and Frank Price.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, March 14 (AP)—Early wheat price gains of about a cent based on large export sales of Canadian wheat, crop damage reports from Kansas and below freezing temperatures in the southwest were sharply reduced before the close of the grain market today.

Some of the selling was regarded as hedging possibly against purchases of wheat that has been under loan.

Wheat closed ¼-½ higher than yesterday, May $1.01 ⅞-1.02, July 90 ¾-⅞, corn ¼-½ up, May 56 ½-⅝, July 56 ⅝-¾; oats ⅛-¼ lower.

FORT WORTH REPORT

Oats—No. 2 red 47-48.

Stock Market

FEW CHANGES ARE SEEN

NEW YORK, March 14 (AP)—The question of what will happen in Europe following the Russian-Finnish peace apparently did more than anything else today to stymie stock market speculation.

Leaders lacked up minor fractional changes either way at the start, and that was just about the way they closed. Transfers were around 650,000 shares for the full session.

While bullish forces were encouraged by further signs of a lessening of the business downtrend, and comfort was derived from the fact offerings of important stocks never assumed threatening proportions, traders were disposed to keep commitments light pending more definite trans-Atlantic news.

Seaboard Air Line was a lively performer among stocks after midday, piling up more than 50,000 shares on a few transactions. The greater part of the time the issue was off 12 ½ cents at 25 cents.

Curtiss-Wright "A" was an exception in the aircraft division, getting up about a point at a new year's peak. Radio Corp. became active in the final hour for a trifling advance.

Mild support was accorded Bethlehem Steel, Montgomery Ward, Twin Coach, General Electric, Consolidated Edison and Allied Chemical.

Inclining to lag were U. S. Steel, Chrysler, Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, Celanese, American Telephone, Standard Oil of California and Western Union.

Lifted in the curb were Cities Service preferred, Driver-Harris and A. C. Gilbert.

Bonds were uneven, with recently buoyant Scandinavian dollar loans falling under profit realizing. Commodities were resistant.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, March 14 (AP)—Domestic mill buying and Wall street covering kept cotton futures on the upgrade today despite foreign liquidation and hedge selling.

CONSTRUCTION BEGINS

SEMINOLE.—Construction of the Magnolia-Atlantic pipe line from the Seminole pool to an Atlantic line from Hobbs to Midland has been started. A crew of 150 men began work. Another crew is at work erecting tanks in a draw two miles south of town.

Complaints Against Air Guns Again Are Heard Here Today

Added to complaints here and there in the city that air rifles were being used with dangerous effect, federal building authorities this morning said several windows had been shot out there.

In a complaint to juvenile officers, especially to Emmett Galloway, counsellor for Downtown Boys club, John R. Green, superintendent of mails, said the firing usually commenced at dusk.

"The starlings come in—and so do the BB shots," he told Galloway.

Another effort will be made to have an ordinance passed banning the shooting of airguns in the corporate limits of Lubbock, it was understood. Vandalism caused by airguns has included shooting at persons, puncturing the bag and teats of a cow, shooting out $75 worth of lights in the First Baptist church auditorium, bursting of street lamps and assorted other damages.

News Briefs

Birth Is Announced — Mr. and Mrs. D. L. King, 1820 Avenue O, are parents of a son weighing 7 pounds, 1 ounce, born in West Texas hospital Wednesday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock. The father is an employe of Tech Furniture company.

Go To Houston—Mr. and Mrs. Orville Parks of 2116 Fifteenth street left today for Houston, where Parks will undergo medical treatment.

To San Angelo Meet—H. B. Bryan, county tax assessor-collector, will go to San Angelo Saturday to meet with other members of a committee on arrangement for a Texas Assessors and Collectors association of Texas convention, date for which will be determined Saturday.

Leave For Father's Bedside—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leach of 2121 Thirty-first street and Roy L. Leach of 1820 Main street left this morning for Dallas, where the men's father was reported critically ill. Harry Leach is radio operator for the Lubbock police department.

Census Workers Take Lead In Their Race With Senators

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP) — Secretary Hopkins and his army of census takers gained a commanding lead today in the legislative race with senators who are trying to delete personal income questions from the 1940 census.

Congressional leaders said it appeared likely the 130,000 enumerators would be ringing doorbells on April 2 before Senator Tobey (R-NH) can get his resolution against the income questions before the Senate.

Democratic Leader Barkley said, "the Senate will not be disposed, in my opinion, to take up the Tobey resolution ahead of the farm bill and trade agreements legislation."

GREEN NOMINATED

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP) — President Roosevelt today nominated Roy M. Green of Kansas to be federal land bank commissioner, succeeding A. S. Goss whose resignation, accepted yesterday by the president, becomes effective tomorrow.

Tech Topics

A party of Texas Technological college officials will meet in Fort Worth today to attend the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock show.

Dr. Clifford B. Jones, president, and Mrs. Jones, W. T. Gaston, business manager, and Mrs. Gaston and Mrs. W. L. Stangel left this morning. Mrs. Stangel will join her husband, superintendent of the Aberdeen-Angus department. Spencer A. Wells, vice chairman of the board of directors, has gone to Fort Worth.

Joe T. Sneed, jr., of Amarillo, chairman of the board of directors, is in Fort Worth and James M. West of Houston, a member of the board, was expected there. A meeting of a committee of the board is to be conducted, but primary object of the trip is to attend the stock show.

James G. Allen, dean of men at Texas Tech, will review "Kitty Foyle," by Christopher Morley, before the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian association at 7:30 o'clock tonight in Seaman hall. A member of the organization said persons not members of the association would be welcome.

President Clifford B. Jones of Texas Tech will be guest speaker on the fine arts program of the annual convention of the sixth district, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, in Colorado City April 2.

A convocation at which candidates for student council officers will be chosen at Texas Tech has been scheduled for April 26, at 11 a. m.

Scouting and cattle buying operations have been speeded up by a former Texas Tech agricultural student, W. G. Bivins, who is using an airplane. He and his father, J. L. Bivins, own a large ranch near Amarillo.

Thirty students in a business administration class taught by Dr. J. O. Ellsworth at Texas Tech made a field trip to Ben E. Keith company and Bell Ice Cream company Wednesday afternoon. J. V. Beauchamp directed the group through the wholesale grocery concern and explained the business and Earl B. Collins, manager of the ice cream company, explained problems of purchasing and selling in his business.

An exhibit of watercolor paintings by Miss Troy Allen, instructor in applied arts at Texas Tech, was placed in a display window at Sansom Paint & Paper company at 1219 Avenue K Wednesday and will remain there until about Tuesday of next week. The group includes a canyon scene near Lubbock, one floral and two other still lifes. Mrs. W. D. Girand has charge of selection of the monthly exhibits at the company.

A CONSOLING THOUGHT

WASHINGTON, March 14. (AP)—Here's a consoling thought for those who are figuring furiously to have their federal income tax returns ready before the deadline tomorrow night. A bill is pending in Congress to permit the deduction of funeral expenses in future income tax returns.

The "mother lodges" of the Shriners and Elks are in New York City.

Probate Of Will Of Benjamin Miller Asked In Court Here

Probate of the will of Benjamin F. Miller, who died March 8, was asked by Leo Ferguson, Rhea Pierce and Owen W. McWhorter, in an application addressed to county court.

They, named trustees in Miller's will, sought court approval as administrators of the estate, believed to be worth from $35,000 to $60,000. Miller's will asked that they so act without the formality of bond.

Dated Dec. 14, 1939, the will specified that a trust estate should have 100 equal parts (but that the estate should not be divided physically) and that 33⅓ parts should go to Ellen Miller, the widow, and other parts, each ranging from 6⅓ to 8 parts, to 10 other persons.

Degrees Will Be Conferred On 15 Candidates By Masons

Lubbock Council 183 Friday night will confer Royal and Select Master degrees on 15 candidates, said Hugh J. McClellan, secretary of Masonic bodies here.

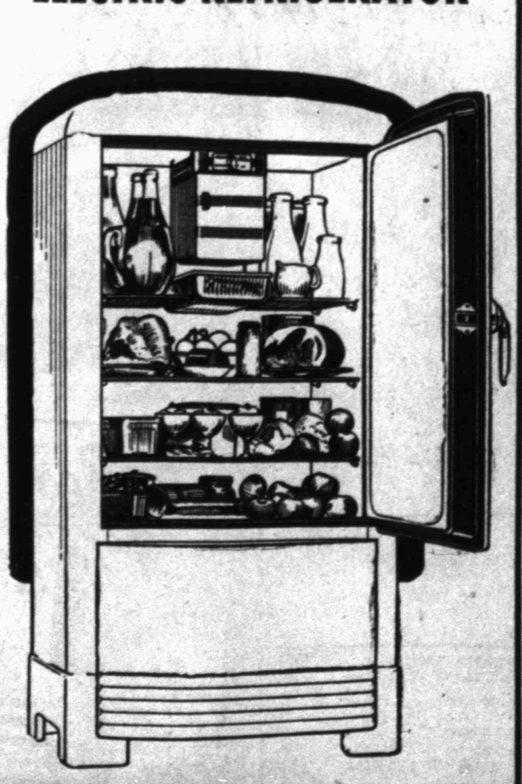

Barbecue supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

Representative attendance of the 275-member lodge and of visitors from various South Plains towns is expected.

Changes In Oil Personnel At Midland Made Public Today

WARNINGS TAKE BEATING

GALLUP, N. M. (AP)—The life-size steel dolls, resembling little school girls, which Gallup placed at its school intersections to remind motorists to drive carefully, have taken a beating this winter. Les J. Mahoney, assistant police chief, said two of the dolls were completely destroyed when struck by "careless motorists" and five others were damaged badly.

Bribery Case Being Probed

AUSTIN, March 14. (U.P.)—The state railroad commission today made changes in the personnel of its Midland office and launched an investigation of the alleged bribe-taking of Deputy Supervisor Gordon Bigham, who was fired.

W. J. Christian, chief enforcement officer formerly in the Kilgore office, was placed in charge at Midland. Also, H. C. Stipp, division engineer recently laid off at Midland has been reinstated.

Discharge Announced

Commissioner Jerry Sadler, back from Midland, announced Bigham's discharge. He said Christian would be assisted by Stanley Bean, an investigator for the commission.

Sadler said that a complete recheck of oil well potentials in the Permian basin will be made. Asst. Gen. Ben Woodall also returned from Midland and Atty. Gen. Gerald C. Mann announced that his departmtent will continue to assist in the investigation at the request of District Attorney Martelle McDonald.

Bigham, a former school teacher, was in the Kilgore office of the railroad commission before going to Midland. He was recommended highly for the Midland post as deputy supervisor, Sadler said.

"I appointed him," Sadler said, "and I will do everything in my power to help prosecute him.

To Check Potentials

"We are going to check all potentials in that district. This is a culmination of what has been going on there for several years."

He said oil proration in the district is based upon well potentials which are reported from the Midland office.

An investigation had been under way for a couple of weeks, Sadler said and was participated in by the U. S. department of the interior, the railroad commission and the state department of public safety.

Mann said the arrest of Bigham followed a report to the attorney general's department by R. J. Kelley, vice-president of Shasta Oil company, 10 days ago, that he had been told he was going to be approached by a certain employe of the railroad commission soliciting a bribe of $5,000 not to decrease their allowable in Howard county. Through the co-operation of Kelley and state rangers, Mann said, Bigham was arrested in Kelley's office.

New Synthetic Vitamins Which Stop Bleeding Are Reported

NEW ORLEANS, March 14 (AP)—Two new synthetic vitamins which stop bleeding almost instantaneously were reported today before the American Institute of Nutrition.

They are chemical developments from the original vitamin K, or anti-bleeding vitamin discovered in alfalfa hay and badly decayed sardines, Dr. E. A. Doisy of the St. Louis university school of medicine said.

One carries the jaw-breaking name "2-methyl-1, 4-napthaquinone" and the other is a close chemical relative. Both are very simple compounds, the St. Louis scientist declared, and are readily dissolved in water from their normal white powder form. No common name has been given them.

The United States alone uses 8,000,000 tons of salt annually.

Mr. Whiskers Can Be Subtle At Times; He Eases Pain Of Taxes With A Little Balm

BY JACK KRUEGER
Associated Press Staff Writer

Mr. Whiskers can be subtle at times.

Uncle Sam must have known that now would be a fine time to tell everybody just how many services he offers to his citizens . . . Especially those Texans now going through the yearly contest with income tax returns. The office of government records at Austin lately has run off its mimeograph a survey of the federal stake in Texas. . . . It offers balm to every payer of a tax, even those who came out of the income levy battle loser by $2.48 or thereabouts . . . This opus takes 58 pages to list the 149 boards, departments, agencies, controls, bureaus, corps, banks, commissions, units, courts and officials who work for us. . . .

The blue-backed book lists every federal unit in Texas, as well as all state departments . . . A little thumbing through it will indicate how much we get for our money. The government is busy at such tasks as fighting the boll weevil, lending money, building dams, stemming floods, mapping rivers, sampling the weather, patrolling the coasts, chasing the fruit fly, nursing little fishes, nabbing drug peddlers, testing foods, planting forests, finding jobs, paying pensions, mailing letters and keeping out the foreign foe. These give you a small idea. . . .

Any city with a spark of civic pride battles unceasingly to get as many government agencies as possible to settle down in its midst. . . . Chiefly because it means money. So here is the box score on which Texas towns have done best by themselves in this matter . . . . Dallas is home to 48 federal agencies, Houston has 45, San Antonio 42, Austin 25, Amarillo 12, Abilene 6, Beaumont 10, Brownsville 11, Corpus Christi 7, El Paso 27, Fort Worth 31, Galveston 11, Laredo 9, Lubbock 10, Port Arthur 5, San Angelo 6, Sherman 8, Texarkana 5, Tyler 6, Waco 14, Wichita Falls 5. . . . We might add that San Antonio probably would give up all its other federal arms rather than lose its army establishment, biggest in the country. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lee seem to be more or less permanent residents of Watterson community near Bastrop . . . They've been living on the same farm all their 70 years of married life. . . .

Publisher John Price of Littlefield is authority for this:

The Black family living near Olton is white, of course . . . But the names of the four Black children are uncompromising: Joe Wright Black, Very Black, Jet Black and Sam Cole Black. . . .

Entries For Fat Stock Show Continue At Rapid Pace

Entries for the 10th annual South Plains Junior Fat Stock show to be held here March 25-27 continue at a record pace, according to announcement Wednesday.

Those in charge of arrangements for the rapidly growing show revealed Wednesday afternoon that on the records were entries of 106 calves, 77 lambs and 104 pigs in the various divisions. Deadline for such entries is Wednesday, March 20.

Pacing the group in signing for participation in the huge parade which will be conducted through the city March 27 as a climax to the show was the entry of Martin county 4-H club, sent in Wednesday by G. A. Bond, jr., county agent of Stanton. A float and 10 boys will represent the club.

The parade, known as the 4-H club FFA boys parade, will attract approximately 2,000 boys from a territory composed of 36 West Texas and three New Mexico counties eligible to enter the show.

DAIRY SHOW PAGEANT

PLAINVIEW — An educational pageant, "Cavalcade of Dairying" is to be presented under the direction of home demonstration agents of seven counties during the annual Dairy Show here May 7-11. Miss Lida Cooper, district home demonstration agent, has completed preliminary arrangements for the pageant, to be given one night during the show.

Cousin Of Former Kaiser Is Taken By Death In Colorado

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., March 14. (AP)—An old-age pensioner know as Baron B. Henninger von Seeberg, who his friends said purported to be a cousin of former Kaiser Wilhelm II of Germany, died at St. Francis hospital here today.

His friends said he told them he immigrated to this country from Saxony when he was 18 years old.

TWA Makes Sixth Entry In Field Seeking Lubbock Rou

NAMED AS TRUSTEES

ANDREWS — Virgil Reed and A. L. McCarley have been appointed school trustees of the Andrews Independent school district to fill the unexpired terms of H. T. Wilson and Dr. J. G. Little, resigned.

Spring Fever Is Postponed; Examinations To Be Staged

Spring fever must be postponed by Senior High school students, who are facing the prospect of nine week examinations next week.

The schedule this semester brings the tests one day earlier, since public schools are to observe Good Friday, March 22, as a holiday.

The schedule for the tests are as follows: Wednesday, first period, special paid assembly by King's Ambassador's quartet; second period, exam; third period, exam; fourth and fifth periods, regular classes; Thursday, first period, exam; second and third period, regular classes; fourth and fifth periods, exams.

Line Officials Reveal Plans

Transcontinental and Western Air, Inc., joined Wednesday afternoon with the procession of those seeking permits to operate airline service through Lubbock and the South Plains.

Announcements were made here and in Kansas City by officials of TWA that an application will be filed at once with the Civil Aeronautics authority in Washington for permission to establish service from Amarillo to Houston by way of Lubbock, Abilene and Austin.

Made By President

The announcement in Kansas City was made by Jack Frye, president of the line.

The announcement here was made by Vernon Gunn of Amarillo, district manager of TWA, who made a hurried flight to Lubbock late in the afternoon after inquiries had been made earlier in the day for The Evening Journal by the Associated Press in Washington concerning reports that TWA was contemplating an airline application.

Gunn conferred while here with C. E. Maedgen, chairman of the aviation committee of the chamber of commerce, A. B. Davis, manager of the chamber, and Dick Shinkle, member of the chamber staff and secretary of the aviation committee.

Would Aid Amarillo

The dispatch from Kansas City quoted Frye as saying that the granting of the CAA of the TWA application would make Amarillo "one of the most important airline points in the Southwest."

Plans of the line, he was quoted further as saying, are to operate direct from Amarillo through Lubbock to Abilene and to fork there, one branch extending to Houston and the other to Fort Worth and Dallas. The plans, it was explained, depend upon approval of the federal authority.

The announcements made TWA the sixth entry in the field competing for permits to provide airline service through Lubbock.

Observers here were of the frank opinion that the granting of TWA's application would make highly improbable the granting of any of the other applications.

Other Applications Pending

The other applications are:

Braniff Airlines, which proposes two lines, one extending from Laredo to Denver through San Antonio, San Angelo, Big Spring, Lubbock and Amarillo, and the other from Lubbock to Houston through Abilene and Austin.

American Airlines, which proposes service from Oklahoma City through Lubbock and other points to San Diego, Calif., providing a direct trans-continental route.

Continental Airlines, asking a permit to operate from El Paso to Denver via Lubbock and Amarillo.

Essair, Inc., proposing to operate from Houston to Amarillo via Austin, San Angelo, Big Spring and Lubbock.

Private operators in Laredo, proposing to operate from Laredo to San Antonio.

Award Of $50 Will Be Given Senior

A $50 health and posture award will be given by Stewart & Benson clinic to a senior of Lubbock High school, it was announced to students Wednesday.

Monday afternoon all seniors who are not enrolled in health and physical education classes who want to be considered for the award will be asked to report to the gymnasium, where Ross Ayers and Mrs. L. H. Kirby, teachers of physical education, will begin their examinations which will last through Wednesday afternoon.

To Be Examined

The physical education teachers will recommend three or four boys and three or four girls to the whole faculty and that group will make the final selection of the one student who is to receive the award.

All students who enter the contest will be given a physical examination and a posture exam, including their posture in walking, standing and sitting, as well as positions from front, back, and side. The attendance record of these students will be checked, not to punish students for absences, but to see if they have been given sick excuses.

Announcement of the winner of this award will not be made until the 1940 Westerner is distributed on May 8.

TO ATTEND CONVENTION

FLOYDADA — Polk Goen, president of the Lions club here, has been named as delegate to the Lions International convention in Havana, Cuba, in June. He will represent the club.

U. S. Watches Its Interests

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—American interests in the near east where large military forces are being collected for the possible purpose of forming a new battle front, are so considerable that officials here are watching developments with minute attention.

Some analysts feel that the end of the Russo-Finnish war makes the likelihood of war in the near east more acute. Great Britain, they think, has become more and more reconciled to seeing Russia definitely lined up with Germany.

War In South Looms

Now that the Russo-Finnish conflict is over, the analysts think, war may break out in the south.

The Allies have concentrated a strong force in the near east. They have Turkey as an ally. They may, it is thought here, seek to invade the Russian oil fields at Baku and Batum.

But Russia, released of preoccupation on the Finnish front, is more free to move against Turkey or Iran, and the Allied forces are in the near east also to protect their own great oil interests in Iran, Iraq and Mesopotamia.

The state department lists 12,500 Americans living in Turkey, Syria, Palestine, Iraq, Iran, Bahrein, Saudi Arabia, Palestine and Trans-Jordan.

Heavy Investments

American business interests, particularly oil, in that area, run into scores of millions of dollars. There are heavy American investments also in the British and French oil companies there.

In Palestine and Trans-Jordan there are American business establishments with an investment of $39,783,000. In Syria they total $6,895,000, in Turkey $14,219,461, in Saudi Arabia and Bahrein, tens of millions of dollars; in Iran, $110,000; in Iraq, $10,845,299; in Egypt, $10,000,000.

Insurance Meet Here On Friday

One of the sixteen policyholders' meetings in Texas during March of the Texas Employers Insurance association will be held at the Hilton hotel Friday noon, W. A. Black, manager of the Lubbock district, announced today. An attendance of approximately 40 persons is expected. These meetings will be in addition to the regular annual policyholders' meeting which was recently held at the Association's home office in Dallas, at which the following directors were elected: Nathan Adams, A. F. Allen, Louis R. Ferguson, L. W. Groves, Harry P. Lawther, Homer R. Mitchell, W. F. Pendleton, Leslie Waggener, Dallas; J. E. Burkhart, sr., W. S. Mosher, Houston; Oscar Burton, Tyler; Eugene Cherry, Sherman; A. T. Clifton, Waco; N. A. Ferguson, El Paso; Capt. E. Goudge, Galveston; E. A. Holmgreen, San Antonio; T. S. Reed, Beaumont; Fred Sehmann, Wichita Falls; R. C. Sweeney, Fort Worth; Arthur Temple, Texarkana. Officers elected were: Homer R. Mitchell, chairman of the board; A. F. Allen, president and general manager; L. W. Groves, executive vice-president; Ben H. Mitchell, secretary; E. E. Watts, vice-president and treasurer; C. G. Weakley, vice-president and sales manager; A. H. Plyer, assistant secretary and assistant treasurer; L. A. Guthrie and G. M. Crowson, assistant secretaries.

1939 Best In History

According to Black, the annual report being made at policyholders' meetings this month points out the fact that 1939 was the best year in its history. Assets of the Association increased $649,105.99 during the year to reach $5,365,867.78 and surplus to policyholders increased $281,976.44 to reach an all time high of $1,640,144.28. The contingent reserve was increased from $250,000 to $400,000. Premium income for the year was $4,083,894.18 and dividends paid to policyholders amounted to $859,517.38 bringing the total dividends paid to date to $8,141,853.41. The Association handled 29,334 claims during 1939 and paid out $2,106,704.67 in workmen's compensation in Texas.

Claims and safety engineering services of the Association are maintained on a Statewide basis, these services being made available to Association policyholders in Texas through 18 service offices located in Abilene, Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth, Galveston, Harlingen, Houston, Lubbock, Midland, San Antonio, Sherman, Tyler, Waco and Wichita Falls. Two of these offices, Harlingen and Lubbock, have been opened since the first of the year. The Lubbock office of the association is in the Lubbock National building and W. A. Black is manager of the Lubbock district.

It is estimated that motorists use about 20,000,000,000 gallons of gasoline each year.

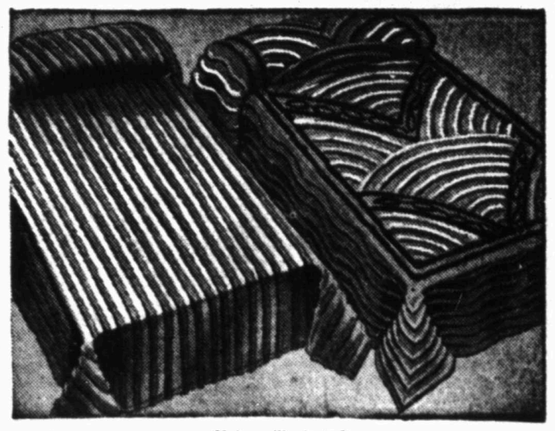

CONSTIPATED! Gas Crowds Heart.

"For years I had occasional constipation, headaches and pains in the back. Awful gas bloating seemed to crowd my heart. Adlerika always helped right away. Now I eat sausage, bananas, pie, anything I want and never felt better."—Mrs. Mabel Schott. Two things happen when you are constipated. FIRST: Accumulated wastes swell up bowels and press on nerves in the digestive tract. SECOND: Partly digested food starts to decay forming GAS, often bringing on sour stomach, indigestion, and heartburn, bloating you up until you sometimes gasp for breath. Adlerika gives double relief with DOUBLE ACTION. BALANCED Adlerika containing three laxatives and five carminatives relieves STOMACH GAS almost at once. It often clears bowels in less than two hours. No griping, no after effects, just quick results.

Have You Ever Been In Love?

THE instant you see that high-spirited nose : : : the flaunt of those ravishing lines—you know in your heart she's the one.

She's sheer glamour! All seventeen feet of her turned out like a million dollars. But don't be disheartened by that. Go to your Nash dealer and get introduced. She's grand to take out—and likes to go places.

In fact, you never knew a wheel could be so responsive.

From that first breath-taking dash at the light you never knew anything could go so silently, effortlessly, softly, as this Nash Manifold-Sealed engine!

With four speeds forward instead of the usual three . . . with a new kind of Automatic Overtake, to boot—she's a vixen that just can't stand having anyone else in the way.

She won't be stopped by any hill, or headed by any rough road you'll find. For there's a new kind of springing to smother those bumps — and it's exclusive with Nash.

A storm blows up — but this is no fair weather romance. Just turn the Weather Eye dial—and dust, cold, drafts will never come between you.

It's then you know that from the Sealed Beam lights to the Convertible Bed for touring—she's the one you've always wanted!

Yes—you'll have fun growing old together!

She'll take a lot of your time, but very little of your money.

Recently, she beat the best in her class in the 1940 Gilmore-Yosemite Economy Run, with 23.76 miles to the gallon.

And with such fine engineering features as 7-bearing crankshafts, a double frame, you'll motor happily ever after. So come on down — see how you and a 1940 Nash get along!

Sedan illustrated is Lafayette Series, delivers at factory for $845. The Weather Eye, Fourth Speed Forward, White Sidewall Tires, Rear Wheel-Shields, are optional extras. 1,800 dealers offer nationwide service. Other Nash models deliver at the factory for as little as . . .

Young Democratic Clubs Of West Texas Are Receiving Charter

New Officers Being Chosen

Rushing to organize clubs before the annual convention of Young Democratic clubs of West Texas, several groups have obtained charters in the last few days, Calvin Hazlewood, of Lubbock, West Texas president, said this morning.

Hattie Server, district clerk at Tahoka, was elected president of the Tahoka club. Others officers are Walter Mathis, county clerk, first vice president; Fred McGinty, second vice president, and Mrs. A. M. Daniel, county treasurer, secretary-treasurer. Others listed on the application for a charter included Mrs. J. W. Elliott, a member of the state Democratic executive committee, Winter Knight, W. E. Smith, Judge P. W. Goad, Carl Griffing, Rose Mary Nelms, Mrs. Harley Henderson, A. M. Cade, Tom N. Hale, Sam Holland, B. L. Parker and Lenore M. Tunnell.

Hale County Officers

Officers of the Hale county club are T. L. Proctor, president; George W. Hay, first vice president; P. M. Roby, second vice president; Lee Bedford, secretary-treasurer; J. B. Guthrie, sergeant-at-arms. Other members of the executive committee are George W. Pulley, James H. Reinken, Paul Alaskein, J. B. Oswald and Clint McFarland.

Dickens county club has elected new officers. C. L. Harris of Spur, state representative, is president. Other officers are O. B. Ratliff, vice president; A. C. Hull, second vice president; Judge Marshall Formby, secretary treasurer; Oscar Kelley, sergeant-at-arms, and George Sloan, Horace Nickels, Tom Milam, Frank Watson, Neal Chastain, members of the executive committee.

Is Invited To Speak

Scurry county's newly organized unit, headed by J. C. Smyth of Snyder, has invited Hazlewood to be principal speaker at a meeting at 8 p. m. March 29. Other officers are Herman Darby, first vice president; L. A. Chapman, second vice president; Mrs. L. A. Scott, secretary-treasurer; W. D. Sanders, sergeant-at-arms, and A. C. Pruitt, J. E. Sanders, M. K. Maples and Harry Ward, members of the executive committee.

M. O. Boring, jr., is president of the recently organized club at Odessa and Morris Payne is president of the group at Ochiltree.

Hazlewood said this morning E. B. Germany, chairman of the state Democratic executive committee, had accepted invitation to speak at the banquet to be conducted at the convention in Amarillo Saturday night. Germany will go by airplane from Dallas to Amarillo.

Junior Leaguers Go Aloft And 'Bomb' City With Leaflets

Scattered circulars were still being picked up on Lubbock streets today after the "propaganda bombardment" Wednesday afternoon by Junior Welfare League members from four airplanes. Five thousand of the leaflets advertising the league's "Merry-Go-Round of 1940" to be given at Lubbock High school auditorium April 19 were dropped from the planes over the business and residential districts of the city.

"For a double dose of dizzy dames, dream dolls, diverting dances and definitely different entertainment—don't detour this dazzling, delicious, delightful display of debutantes, sub-debs and others in a dizzy, daffy, delirious revue designed to dialate your diaphram and dispell despondency. Don't dally or delay, but dash on down on date designated for a doubly-delightful show. Dizzy? We suggest you unwind by getting aboard the Welfare League Merry-Go-Round of 1940, April 19, Lubbock High school auditorium," the leaflets read.

Mesdames Bruce Collier, Tom Murphey, Oscar Slaton and Harold Humphries went aloft in planes piloted by W. B. Whisenand, Art Chase, Mont Jennings and M. F. Dagley. Of the group, Mrs. Collier, had never before been in the air.

Girl Scouts Offer Program At Kiwanis Club Luncheon

Seven Girl Scouts under the direction of Mrs. Sam Newman, commissioner, staged a program today at the Kiwanis club luncheon in the Lubbock hotel. Girls from the Ellwood troop were Catherine Knight, Afton Walker, Marian Mills, Geraldine McMillin, Margie Craig, Zoia Mae Elliott and Sallie Nelson.

K. N. Clapp was chairman of the day. Dude Buster announced the Lubbock club would be in charge of an inter-club meeting in Plainview Friday noon.

Contests Are Set Tonight

Annual first aid contests are scheduled tonight in three of the nine districts comprising South Plains Boy Scout council to select them representatives in the council contest in Lubbock March 29, according to announcement Wednesday by Jack O. Stone, council executive.

Contests tonight include: in Tulia for troops in Plainview, Dimmitt, Kress, Silverton and Tulia; in Matador for troops in Spur, Patton Springs, Roaring Springs and Matador; and in Tahoka for troops in Post, Slaton, Wilson and Tahoka.

Plans Are Complete

Stone likewise announced that plans for the Lubbock district contest in Senior High school gymnasium Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock were completed at a meeting of district scoutmasters and commissioners in Hilton hotel Wednesday night. Ralph E. Stroup will be in charge. George Langford presided.

Other matters occupying the attention of the meeting here included:

Preliminary action was taken on plans for the annual Boy Scout circus in May.

Court of Honor was changed from Friday, March 29, until Friday, April 5, all advancements to be in by an April 2 deadline. The reason for the change was to avoid a conflict with the South Plains Council first aid contests scheduled in the city on the original and usual meeting date.

Inspection Planned

Quarterly inspection of troops throughout the council will be made within the next two weeks. Revised inspection blanks will be issued soon, said Jack O. Stone, council executive. Commissioners will make the inspections.

Early discussion concerning the annual encampment at Post also was included.

President Roosevelt's concern over the Finnish situation was expressed in a statement issued by the White House late yesterday. He said:

"The ending of this war does not yet clarify the inherent right of small nations to the maintenance of their integrity against attack by superior force . . .

That the president still resents Russian aerial bombardment of Finnish cities, which provoked the "moral embargoes" against the Soviet, was clear from the White House statement.

Continued financial support of Finland is pledged by Jesse Jones, federal loan administrator, who is keeping the $20,000,000 allocated by

PEOPLE at work plus MONEY at work equals Texas telephone service

Furnishing you telephone service in Texas requires two things . . . people at work, and money at work. It takes money to provide the poles, wires, switchboards, cables . . . it takes people at work to mold this equipment into a telephone system for Texas.

Busy at the job are 8,500 skilled men and women. Behind each of these 8,500 telephone jobs in Texas is more than $15,000 in telephone equipment and plant.

The invested savings of thousands of people, the skill and judgment of Texas telephone employees, team together to furnish the best and most dependable telephone service at the lowest possible cost to Texas telephone users.

Train Crash

valley highway.

Justice of the Peace Bob Savage of San Juan was investigating.

Strewn Along Track

Eyewitnesses said bodies were strewn along the right-of-way for 500 feet, and a half a dozen ambulances picked up the injured and carried them to hospitals in nearby lower Rio Grande valley towns.

The truck in which the orchard workers were riding apparently was struck squarely in the center, and remained jammed on the front of the locomotive when it came to a halt.

McAllen is in the center of the rich Rio Grande valley citrus fruit area, and the truck was carrying a load of workers to an orchard.

The driver of the truck was identified as Jose Ramon.

Five others were identified as members of one family: Juan, Esteban, Otina, Trinidad and Canuto Perez.

Saw Big Dust Cloud

John Boeye of McAllen, who, with Frank Brady of Mercedes was driving on a highway paralleling the Missouri-Pacific track, said:

"I saw a big dust cloud when the train reached the crossing. When we arrived at the scene we saw there had been a wreck. We rushed up to find bodies rolling around on the ground. The train was still moving.

"The dust was so thick for a moment we couldn't tell what had happened, but when we saw the mangled bodies we knew something awful had taken place.

Most Beyond Help

"We ran to a telephone to call the sheriff's office and ambulances and then looked around to see if we could help any of those people. It looked to me like most of them were beyond help. A few minutes later Deputy Sheriff George Ingram of the sheriff's office carefully tried to count the bodies.

"We found at least 23.

"I have never seen anything worse in my life. We found one child without its head. We found a man's body severed at the waist. We found another man without head and arms. We found portions of bodies scattered from the point of impact to the front of the engine, a distance of two blocks."

Bodies Flying About

Miss Mary Ann Wall, secretary of the Alamo Citrus association, who said she nearly always looks out the window of her office, facing the crossing, when the trains come through, said she was busy today and didn't look up "until I heard that terrible crash."

"When I looked, I saw bodies flying in every direction through a sheet of flame. It seemed to me that the gasoline tank of the truck must have exploded. I tried to yell but I couldn't say a thing.

"Then my boss, Albert Jensen, ran out on the loading platform and yelled back to me to call all the ambulances. I made the calls and when I looked out of the window again bodies were piled up all along the tracks.

"It's the most horrible thing I have ever seen."

Supt. G. C. Kennedy of the Missouri-Pacific at Kingsville described the tragedy as the worst "similar accident on the division since the branch was built in 1913."

All the Popes have been Italians since 1523, when Clement VII ascended the throne.

Car Licenses For 1940 Are Said Going At Slow Pace

Bought your 1940 car license?

If so, you are one of the minority of one-tenth.

H. B. Bryan, county tax assessor-collector, said slowness in purchasing new plates had created an "annual problem."

"We won't be able to handle the latecomers unless they give us help," he said. "We will begin keeping the office open over the noon hour and later at night."

Less than 1,500 tags had been issued at noon, a count showed.

Phillips Firm

Phillips' declaration of martial law, indicating the agency would stand, for the present, on recent letters to Phillips suggesting that the matter be settled in court. This the red-haired governor adamantly has refused to do.

Phillips asserted, in issuing his order for the troops, that he doubted whether the government "would pay if we got a judgment.

"I've got to choose between being a sucker and letting the state get a judgment it can collect in 1982, or getting it now."

The PWA granted the dam authority, a state agency, $9,000,000 outright and purchased $11,000,000 worth of its bonds.

Invited to attend the afternoon meeting, it was announced, are county agents and vocational agriculture teachers in Lubbock, Hale, Lamb, Hockley, Crosby and Lynn counties. The invitation, however, includes any agents of vocational agriculture teachers within the area, according to Farmer, chairman of the parade committee.

C. C. Jobson, Lubbock county farm agent and general superintendent of the show, will preside.

FDR Message For Daladier

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, March 14—Sumner Welles delivered a personal message from President Roosevelt to Premier Daladier during a half-hour talk soon after arriving by plane from London today.

There was no indication of the nature of the message.

President Roosevelt's traveling fact-finder was rounding out a tour of Europe's big four capitals amid speculation on a possible German "peace offensive" now that the Russian-Finnish war is ended.

To See Mussolini

After his interview with French statesmen Welles will talk to Premier Mussolini and Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano in Rome before he sails from Italy next Monday for the United States.

The visit to Paris and Rome are return engagements. Welles already had conferred with leaders there and in Berlin on his continental tour.

Significance was attacked in some British quarters to Welles' forthcoming talks in Rome in view of the speedy visit there last weekend of Joachim von Ribbentrop, German foreign minister.

Some Britons thought that one of von Ribbentrop's purposes was to enlist Mussolini's aid in launching a peace offensive through Welles.

The American and all the persons he saw in London maintained silence on their discussions, but there was every indication that Welles got little if any encouragement for hope of an early peace.

$36,059,862.48 KMEN'S COMPENSATION

$8,141,853.41 IN DIVIDENDS TO EMPLOYERS

44,201,715.89 Returned to Industry in Texas

...ng the twenty-six years the TEXAS EMPLOYERS ...RANCE ASSOCIATION has been in business, it has ...ned to industry in Texas $44,201,715.89 of the $55,- ...80 it has collected in workmen's compensation in- ...ce premiums. Of this amount $36,059,862.48 has been ...ed in settlement of workmen's compensation claims, ...141,853.41 has been returned to employers in the ...of dividends.

DIVIDENDS EXCEED EXPENSES

...of the remaining $11,060,766.91, $7,650,005.24 went ...ay the expenses of operation, which means that the ...ation has returned more in dividends to policyholders ...it has used for operating expenses. This low operating ...is due, FIRST, to the Association's policy of dealing ...ly with the insureds, and SECOND, to the Associa- ...large volume of business. The Association's premium income for 1939 was $4,083,894.18, approximately four times the Texas workmen's compensation premium income of its nearest competitor.

29,334 CLAIMS IN 1939

This reduction in the cost of workmen's compensation insurance to Texas industry has not resulted in any sacrifice of service. In fact, the Association, through its home office and eighteen service offices located in Texas, offers Texas industry a claims and safety engineering service unequaled by any of its competitors in Texas. During 1939, the Association handled 29,334 claims so promptly and efficiently that 99 percent had been settled, or were in the process of being settled, without litigation, at the end of the year. Workmen's compensation paid by the Association during the year amounted to $2,106,704.67.

337,000 MILES FOR SAFETY

Not content with the reduction in workmen's compensation insurance costs effected through economies in operation and through the prompt and efficient handling of claims, the Association maintains a State-wide safety engineering service. Association safety engineers are constantly cooperating with Texas business and industrial firms in an effort to reduce industrial accidents and save human lives. During 1939 safety engineers of the Association traveled more than 337,000 miles in the interest of safety in Texas. Through the constant efforts of these men, the lives of hundreds of workmen have been saved, thousands of disabling injuries have been averted, the economic waste of industrial accidents has been reduced and in many cases reductions in the cost of workmen's compensation insurance have been effected.

ARE YOU AN EMPLOYER OF LABOR?

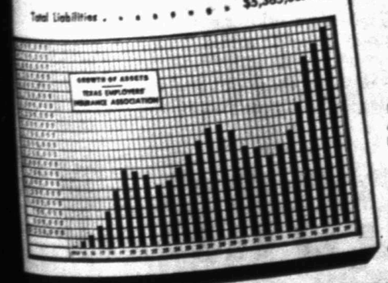

If you are an employer of labor in Texas, interested in reducing your workmen's compensation insurance costs, why not follow the example of thousands of other employers in Texas and insure with Texas' leading writer of workmen's compensation insurance?

Detroit Tigers Modestly Promise They'll Be Tougher Ball Club This Y

Greenberg And York Both To Be Swinging

BY GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAKELAND, Fla., March 14.—Though the complete returns will not be until about July 4, it may be said at this point that Hank Greenberg looks surprisingly good in left field for the Detroit Tigers and that he likes his new job better every day he plays it.

Also, it can be reported that the Tigers look like a better ball club now that the big guy is roaming the outfield and Rudy York at last is in possession of first base, the one and only spot he can play really well. Manager Del Baker appears to have solved one of the most vexing problems that ever confronted a big league pilot.

Can Trap Ground Balls

"One thing that's helping me a lot," said Greenberg is that I can handle ground balls better than a lot of outfielders. I've been stopping grounders all my life, so I'm not afraid to come in and try to trap a lot of balls that the other fellows stay back and take on the bound. If I don't quite reach it on the fly I know it won't get through me.

"That's just as important as catching flies—taking the ball fast and holding runners on base."

Later, watching Greenberg sprint around out there for nine innings, he looked like he had been telling the truth. He easily hauled down every fly that came his way, chased those that went past him enthusiastically, and pegged the ball in hard and true.

To Be A Little Tougher

So, with Greenberg and York in there swinging, one-two every day the Tigers feel they can't help being a little tougher than they were last year.

Dick Bartell, obtained from the Cubs during the winter, is playing a scrappy game at shortstop and says he's feeling great. Frank Croucher, shifted over to second, completes a fair-looking keystone combination. Pinkie Higgins remains at third.

Bill McCosky, who hit a great .311 his first season, gives the Tigers additional punch in centerfield, while Bruce Campbell and Ervin Fox probably will divide the right assignment.

Buck Newsom, who won 20 last year, and Tom Bridges, a 17-game winner, will again head the mound staff. Otherwise, Baker mostly must hope that Freddie Hutchinson, last year's highly publicized rookie, will come through on his second attempt, or that Schoolboy Rowe or Dizzy Trout will return to form.

John Tarleton Clinches Tie For Junior College Title

TYLER, March 14. (AP) — John Tarleton college of Stephenville has clinched at least a tie for the Texas junior college basketball championship.

The Plowboys last night defeated Tyler Junior college 45-33. It was Tyler's first loss and Tarleton's third straight victory of the round-robin play-off for the title. The two teams meet at Stephenville tomorrow night in the final game.

Lee Junior college, which lost twice to each Tarleton and Tyler, already has been eliminated from consideration.

Fastest Half Mile In History Objective Of Woodruff Tonight

HANOVER, N. H., March 14 (AP)—Running the fastest half mile in human history will be the objective tonight of Long John Woodruff, the University of Pittsburgh's negro Olympic champion, when he makes his first start on Dartmouth's lightning-fast-six-lap board track.

That lanky star highlights the Indians' third annual indoor record-smashing carnival, for he has assigned himself the task of running 880-yards in less than 1:49.2, the world's unofficial outdoor record, claimed by England's Syd Wooderson.

In 1500 B. C., the two obeliaks of Queen Hatshesut were transported 150 miles down the Nile to Thebes. Power for transporting the two 350-pound obeliska was furnished by 960 oarsmen.

Tahoka Club Listed As Darkhorse In TAAF Tilts

Sportometer

By COLLIER PARRIS
Journal Sports Editor

"I AIN'T GONNA sign for no ten thousand. I'll starve first."

That was last month, just a few weeks ago.

"I'm very happy to sign. I'll be with them Cubs Sunday."

That was yesterday.

It was Dizzy Dean doing the talking, of course, and as tired as sports editors get of "playing up" old Diz, they gotta admit he has a way with him and that he's good copy, even if his salary wing is just about used up and they know he won't win more than a dozen games, if that many, for the Cubs this coming semester.

Dizzy's "talk" and ever-changing mind—it is believed he is to sign with the Cubs at their own and original figure, $10,000—is, after all, somewhat symbolic of baseball. You never know what's going to happen next. A shortstop is hot one night, snatching blue darters and making impossible throws, and next night he can't find second base with both hands. We all knew Dizzy would come to terms and re-join the Cubs, but we didn't know just how he'd go about announcing it. We know a certain second baseman is good, but we don't know when he's going to have an off night, or a superlative one.

It's the suspense, the never knowing what's coming up next, that makes baseball the universal pastime.

Someone may have caught old Diz in a fib yesterday; he burst into Dallas town and announced to one and all that he had "reached an agreement with Clarence Rowland of the Cub business staff, by telephone." He passed off lightly the figures of the "terms," saying he and Rowland had agreed not to discuss the terms just now.

Queried in Avalon, Catalina Island, Calif., Rowland denied having talked with Dean. "It sounds like another one of those Dean things. No one has heard from Dean over here."

Dizzy explained by saying "we agreed to keep things quiet."

If you should suddenly fall out of a well and ask us, we'd say that old Diz got the baseball fever so bad he couldn't stand it any longer, and dashed in from the farm to announce, in different words, that he had decided to take the Cubs' offer and would report next Sunday, the Cubs no doubt having told him he was welcome—at that price.

NOT AT ALL in the Dizzy Dean manner, but maybe also attacked by the spring bug, old Freddie Firpo Marberry is about to line himself up for another summer's work on the hill.

Marberry, who is old enough to be our papa—well, anyway uncle—and who demonstrated the fact one night in Hollywood a few seasons ago, announced to one and all at the end of last year's Texas League season that he was retiring permanently from the game. He had just pitched the Panthers to a Texas League pennant, had enjoyed one of his best years.

The morning papers say that Marberry, a veteran of 18 years, mostly in the majors, agreed to confer later this week with J. Walter Morris, Cat business manager.

It means, virtually, that Firpo is feeling frisky again and can use the extra shekels another season will bring. We hope he signs, and that he has another great season. He can outsmart most of those Texas League hitters, and breeze 'em past the others.

• • •

Two-Day Tournament Will Start Friday; Crack Teams Enter

(Special To The Journal)

WACO, March 14—From out on the Texas Panhandle's South Plains, where the winds blow with abandon and they play basketball the same way, comes a rip-roaring band of independent cagers today to do battle in the two-day hardwood tournament of the Texas Amateur Athletic Federation — starting Friday.

And though there are few in the "expert" class who gave Tahoka's Orange Crush machine, winner of the Lubbock district, a chance to be around when the semi-finalists tangle, they are even less willing to count the rugged five out of the running before the opening whistle.

Won Five Straight

Undefeated in five straight games that carried them to their district tournament title without too much trouble, the Tahokans present one of the more puzzling "darkhorse" entries in the large field which boasts several question marks. So if so-called "upsets" are registered with regularity and one of them is by the boys from the South Plains then there's not going to be too many eyebrows raised around here.

First round play sends Bastrop Oilers against Neil Simpson of Tyler at 10 o'clock Friday morning, first round contests progressing straight through then. Tahoka, Oliver Farm Machinery, and the titlists of the Waco district, climaxing the opening series of games at 4 o'clock that afternoon.

Second round play will begin at 6 o'clock, to be concluded at 9 o'clock that night.

Semi-finals will be played Saturday afternoon, the finals that night.

The Tahoka crew was due to arrive here late today, they having left their Lynn county home early this morning for the tourney site. Minus two of the hot shots who sparked them to the district championship the Orange Crushers have bolstered their attack with the addition of several new recruits.

Mullins Is Absent

Moon Mullins, the former AAU great who gained All-America fame while with the Tulsa Diamond Oilers, and Jack Snodgrass, another ace net swisher, were unable to make the trip.

Those on the roster for the journey included: Loy Hubbard, Leroy Crews, former Red Raider ace, during the period when Tech was a Border power, Paul Cook, Obra Miller, sensation of the Texas Tech Jaywalker team which finished third in the recent tourney, and was high individual scorer for a single game, Beans Reed, recruited from the second place Ralls delegation, Charles Townes and Powell Armstrong, a pair of Tahoka dependables.

Take It From Old Joe Sugden, The Game Of Baseball Has Changed Very Little

(By The Associated Press)

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., March 14.—Joe Sugden, who has been in the game almost half of the 100 years it has been played, says there's nothing new in baseball—well, practically nothing.

The veteran scout for the St. Louis Cardinals organization, now coaching rookies with the Rochester Red Wings, a Cardinal farm club, observed:

"There's nothing much new to tell them. After all, it's the same game that we were playing before most of those kids were born."

Sugden, starting his 48th year of baseball and nearing 70, declared he saw no way of comparing the game today with what it was 40 years ago.

"A man can't throw a ball any faster today than 40 years ago," he asserted. "Pitchers had just as much stuff then. The game was played about the same But there's no way to tell what today's batting stars might have done against the old-time pitchers. I don't see any way to make a comparison.

Pin Topplers Of Wide Area Take Honors

Almost as scattered as cities represented were honors in the recent South Plains Open Bowling tournament, final and official results of which were released late Wednesday.

Pacing the crack field of 40 five-man aggregations the classy Coronado Cuarto Centennial pin topplers from Albuquerque, N. M., one of the best kegling machines in the entire Southwest, captured first place money in Class A competition with a total team score of 2,843.

Lubbock Team Fourth

The West Texas Gas company No. 1 five of Lubbock held the lead in Class A team competition until the influx of hot shots in the same division last Saturday and Sunday for the final two days of posting scores in the three weekend tournament, which attracted one of the largest fields of out-of-town competitors ever to invade the city.

But with the arrival of new teams, the Coronado squad in particular, the pins and lead began toppling about the heads of the local hopefuls. And when the final results were posted by the Lubbock Bowling club's league statistician, the Gassers found themselves in fourth place with a 2,745, shortly behind Ferndale Motor company of Borger, which had a 2,767, and Mann's Bread of Amarillo, which annexed runner-up honors with a total of 2,809.

Won At Amarillo

Victory for the Coronado keglers came not as a surprise to close observers of bowling over the Southwest, the visitors from the neighboring state having raced in ahead of the field in the Amarillo invitation event just recently.

Class B team competition found Dr. Pepper of Pampa dominating the field with a 2,630. Builders Supply company of Amarillo, with 2,616, was second and Amarillo Garage and Storage, with 2,557, was third.

Fulton Tire company of Midland weathered last-minute blasts to hold its lead and come out on top in Class C competition, winning with a 2,398. West Texas Gas No. 2 of Lubbock was runner-up with 2,263, and Magnolia Petroliam company of Amarillo was third with 2,260.

In a hair-breath finish for Class A All-Events competition, Conroy of Amarillo came through with a 1,743, Fortune of Lubbock turned in a 1,740 and James of Albuquerque, posted a 1,706 to end up in that order. Class B All-Events winners were as follows: Payne of Midland, 1,612, Laverty of Lubbock, 1,611, Skinny Bell of Lubbock, 1,602. This was the closest three-way race of the entire tourney.

Fulton of Midland bowled 1,522 for prize money in Class C All-Events competition, while Christensen of Lubbock, with 1,506, and Bliss of Amarillo, with 1,400, followed in that order.

Top three places in doubles and singles competition as designated follow (towns, participants and total scores included):

CLASS A DOUBLES — Laughlin, 862, McMinn, 895, for total of 1,167, both of Amarillo; Dyer, 813, Noble, 347, for total of 1,160, both of Amarillo; L. W. Bell, 858, W. E. Crites, 589, for total of 1,147, both of Lubbock.

CLASS A SINGLES—Fortune of Lubbock, 618, Fleming of Lubbock, 605, Loper of Big Spring, 600.

CLASS B DOUBLES—Skinny Bell, 860, McBurney, 814, for total of 1,074, both of Lubbock; Laverty 532, Mowery, 512, for total of 1,044, both of Lubbock; Fritchlee, 544, Weeks, 499, for total of 1,043, both of Pampa.

CLASS B SINGLES—Norris of Roscoe, 613, Laverty of Lubbock, 590, Russell of Clinton, Okla., 580.

CLASS C DOUBLES—Hegwer, 612, Camp, 453, for total of 1,065, both of Pampa, Mathis, 482, Nelson, 561, for total of 1,043, both of Lubbock, Bliss, 543, Goldson, 483, for total of 1,026, both of Amarillo.

CLASS C SINGLES—Grommon of Midland 557, Fulton of Midland, 544, Hancock of Lubbock, 541.

Have You Ever Said Naughty Things To Ump? No? What's The Matter With You?

BY HENRY McLEMORE
United Press Staff Correspondent

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., Mar. 14—Have you ever said an unkind thing or had a naughty thought about an umpire during a baseball game?

If you haven't, then you are not a good American citizen and shouldn't be allowed to vote an any matter more important than the election of an assistant dog catcher. All true Americans hate umpires, including me, and on my little tour of the spring training camps which starts today, I have decided to do a little private spying on the blue suit and whisk broom boys.

Are They In Training?

Too much attention is centered on the players during spring training, and too little on the umpires. What kind of shape are they getting in? Are they training down so they stay on top of the plays and not have to make a good guess at it through the dust? Are they practicing squinting and peering through narrowed eyes? How many of them are going to be in good voice when the time comes for them to yell "steeeee-rike"? One umpire, whose name must be my secret, opened the season last year with his voice in such poor shape that everyone in the stands could understand every word he said. Imagine anyone calling a "steeeee-rike" a "strike."

Why he wasn't called in on the carpet before Landis I will never know. Neither do I understand how the dirty dusters among the umpires get by. You know the ones I mean—those lick and a promise boys, whose dusting of home plate makes good housewives among the fans shudder. A conscientious umpire (and after my trip I will give you a full report as to those who are) would spend his spring training taking voice culture, taking eye exercises, practicing dusting, and a half dozen other things.

For instance, any umpire worth his salt should get himself hardened to abuse before the season starts. Otherwise, after a lay-off of six months, when he has been surrounded by his friends (if umpires do have friends) he will find that he has become sensitive and that his ears burn at even run-of-the-mine epithets, which he could take in stride at the season's close. This is bound to throw a man off. A mad umpire cannot render a fair decision.

An ambitious umpire, who has his heart in his work, should engage a New York taxicab driver, say, to start cussing at him along about the time spring training begins. By the time the first game rolls around he would be ready for the fans' abuse, even if the game were played in Brooklyn.

Umpires should spend a lot of their time these days going around picking fights to accustom them to the scraps and arguments that come up with players. An umpire who has been peaceful for six months might not be in proper trim to take on Ducky Medwick, Ernie Lombardi, or George Selkirk.

It would be very interesting to me to see what National and American league umpires are doing to fit themselves for their dictatorships. If by chance any of them read this column before I get through with my trip, I trust they will understand that I am simply joking, and that I don't mean a word I said about them picking fights, and that I think they are a great bunch of fellows, doing a great job.

If, however, none of them sees this story, I mean every word of it, Boo.

That Girl on Broadway says an optimist is a person who expects to hear a candidate say something original.

It may be possible that somewhere in the country there is a man who can fill President Roosevelt's shoes, but it's a cinch there's no woman among us who could fill the First Lady's Seven League boots!

NOW here's something unusual in the way of a puzzle! See what you can do in the way of solving it.

The above picture is of a well known Lubbock couple who have resided here since 1919 — for 21 years.

The picture was taken 46 years ago in Commanche, Texas, when they were bride and groom.

The couple has two daughters, but only one of the daughters connected with the city schools, lives here.

The family home is on Main street, fairly close to the business section.

Who are they?

Dr. W. D. Bradfield, the headline-hunting chairman of the Texas Liquor Control board, says he's trying to drive Texas back to prohibition.

But our guess is, if he doesn't stop chasing publicity so much he'll drive everybody in the state to drink!

SPEAKING in a jocular vein of President and Mrs. Roosevelt, as we did in the second paragraph of today's stint, calls to mind a communication The Plainsman recently received from Milton Bronner, now in London, longtime European bureau chief for NEA service, one of The Avalanche-Journal's news and picture agencies.

Milton was commenting about the way Europeans, especially Germans, Italians and Russians, Poles, Austrians and Czechs, have lost all their freedom of speech in recent years, since the dictators have taken over. He naturally contrasted conditions with those in America.

But let Milton tell the story in his own words.

"I wonder," wrote Milton, "when you sit in the theater and hear wise cracks about President Roosevelt and other prominents, or see them lampooned in films, whether you realize how that spells — freedom?

"I am led to this speculation by the reported fate of Weissferdl.

"Maybe you never heard of him. He never made a film. He never appeared outside of Munich. But in Munich he was an institution. He was as much a part of the Bavarian capital as the cathedral or the palace of the former Bavarian kings.

IN THE years after Germany lost the World war he was a joy and a consolation to the Bavarians. His stage was a Munich beer hall. You paid no entrance fee. You just went in and sat down. The most that was required of you was that you should buy a stein of beer. If you felt like going to the whole thing, you could get huge slices of rye bread and a Munich version of hot dogs. Only they were very fat — these hot dogs.

"Then you could do like the natives of Munich, sit back and wait for Weissferdl.

"He never used much makeup. His funny, round, ruddy face was good enough in itself for any comedian. He was usually garbed as a Bavarian peasant. He spoke and sang in a very broad Bavarian dialect. And always there were shrewd hits at topical subjects — taxes, manners, customs, the government.

"Now that was all very well under the republic. But when the nazis came into power, Weissferdl had to watch his step. Several times he forgot himself and was warned. He was only warned because his slips were very little ones. Amazingly enough, Weissferdl once got away with this: 'I see the Fuehrer got a vote of confidence amounting to 98 per cent of the people. But the funny thing is that I am always meeting the other two!'

"But now comes the news—

5 Would Kill

CAST OF CHARACTERS

ARNOLD BENTHORNE — Five persons wished him dead.

HELEN BENTHORNE — His charming young wife.

WILLIAM ALSTON — Benthorne's father-in-law and business associate.

JOEY DI TORIO — Night club owner and gangster.

ARA JOHNSON — The mystery girl.

JOHN DOUGLAS—A young mining engineer, in love with Ara.

CAPTAIN DAWSON — A detective who likes to listen.

Yesterday: Mrs. Benthorne admits ownership of the cat, explains her actions and the portion of Benthorne's note mentioning the cat. After she admits quarreling violently with her husband, Dawson accuses her of plotting to kill Benthorne, to make it look like suicide. While he traces her possible actions a shot shatters the stillness of the room.

CHAPTER XXIV

"In here! In here!" Flynn yelled as he leaped toward Alston's door. Dawson pushed past Helen Benthorne and followed.

There was a thin, blue wisp of smoke over the bed as they crashed through the locked door. Alston lay there, face down, as if asleep, just as Dawson had seen him before. His right arm hung down to the floor, and his fingertips rested on a small blue-black revolver. A vivid stain spread over the white pillow as blood flowed from a wound in his temple.

Dawson bent over Alston, pressed his ear close to the old man's back, but it was a futile gesture. As he straightened up, he noticed a paper, tightly clenched in Alston's left hand.

"There's nothing we can do, now, Flynn," Dawson said in a low tone. "Call the coroner."

It was not necessary. He was standing directly behind Helen Benthorne, in the doorway. As Dawson turned away from the body, Alston's daughter rushed toward the bed, but Dawson caught her in his arms and led her, gently, to a chair.

"Dad! ! !" she screamed, again and again, then wept, hysterically.

The coroner entered on Dawson's unspoken order, made a brief examination of the body. He removed the paper from Alston's hand, read the address and handed it to Dawson. "It's for you, Captain."

Krone, the coroner's deputy, filed into the room and Ara and John, still handcuffed, followed. All were watching Dawson as he read Alston's message. Mrs. Benthorne's sobbing was the only sound in the room.

Dawson bent, whispered to Mrs. Benthorne. Her sobbing subsided a little. He cleared his throat.

"You all are interested in this letter Mr. Alston has left for me. It concerns all of you.

"'Dear Captain Dawson,'" he read. "'I trust my decision to solve your case for you will not upset too many of your excellent theories. It was inevitable that you should untimely reach this final conclusion, and I have taken it upon myself to anticipate you.

"'I killed Arnold Benthorne.

"'Any man who strikes my daughter forfeits his right to live.

"'Helen's happiness has been my sole aim in life, since her mother died, and if killing Benthorne will remove a cause of unhappiness I am glad I was able to do it.

"'It was not difficult. I came in the rear entry, went directly to Benthorne's study, killed him and than ran to the rear stairs. I was in the upper hall as Helen went down the front steps.

"'Much of the time I was supposed to be asleep, I spent in Arnold's room, directly over the study. Your voice and those of the others were easily heard—Arnold had special openings just for that purpose—so I knew far more about the progress of your investigation than you guessed. What you did not know, or possibly overlooked, is that there is a communicating bath between Arnold's room and my own. That simplified matters considerably. It would have been even easier if I could have entered Helen's room by the same route, but her door was always kept locked.

"'I chose di Torio as my most likely suspect and tried to fasten suspicion on him by finding one of his cigarets in the passageway. But he had obliged me by carelessly dropping one there himself.

"'I was listening, upstairs, when started to tell you that he had seen me, so I had to kill him too. I probably would have done the same for the girl—Ara—if she had not suggested a better way by telling you to look for the gun under Mrs Benthorne's mattress. You shouldn't have let her scream that so loudly. But you arrived just in time to prement my putting it there.

"'You've been searching all over for the gun that killed Benthorne and di Torio. It will be found in my hand with three of its five shells fired.

"'I had hidden it in a most convenient location immediately after I killed Benthorne . . . The laundry chute. Your man didn't find it when he searched through the clothes because I hung it within easy reach inside the chute. Even if he had looked up, from the bottom of the chute, he could not have discovered it, unless the door on the second floor was open—and I paid particular attention that it remained closed. He might have seen it had he flashed his light up, but I doubt it. Anyway that was one of the chances I had to take. You would have found no fingerprints on it, at any rate.

"How did I hang it there? I thought you might guess when you saw me with the wire clothes hanger in my hand. Simply insert the hanger upside down diagonally in the laundry chute, push it downward, well out of sight. The spring of the wire keeps it from slipping down. Then hang the gun by the trigger guard on the hook of the hanger.

"'It was simple to get the gun out, shoot di Torio and return it after you had gone downstairs. If I had been caught, I would have said I was merely disposing of a used towel.

"'But I've been afraid, through some trick of circumstantial evidence, that you might try to blame Helen for killing Arnold. That is why I chose this way out.

"'Full control of Alston Motors will revert to Helen. Perhaps she will forgive me, as she has always insisted she already had, for suggesting her marriage to Benthorne. I urge her to make some restitution to the girl and boy for the damage Arnold has done them.

"'And by the way, Captain, if this case has given you any headaches, please try those sleeping pills I gave you. You'll find they are just ordinary aspirin. I will have a long, and peaceful sleep now.

"'My bank will attest my signature. I am sound in mind, and know what I am writing.

"'WILLIAM ALSTON.'"

Dawson was back at the desk in the study when Ara and John entered.

"How about taking off these bracelets?" Douglas asked, laughing.

Dawson smiled at their happiness.

"I'll give you the key, Ara, at the City Hall, when you're Mrs. Douglas. Then, if you're afraid you'll lose him, you can throw away the given for what it is worth — that poor old 'Ferdl' has been sent to prison for one year. The man had the audacity to say:

"'In the olden days we couldn't complain; everything was all right. Now everything is even better, but how happy we would be if everything was all right.'

SO HE is a martyr to his joke. Weissferdl will have a whole year in which to reflect that life is earnest under the nazis.

"He made the fatal mistake of not being born an American, or even an Englishman. For, though Britain is at war, if a David Low wants to make a deadly caricature of Premier Chamberlain, he does so and it is printed. If a comedian wants to crack a comic rhyme about the government or parliament, he does so and gets laughs. Nor is the aftermath arrest, trial and imprisonment.

"Maybe instead of declaring this a war to save republican institutions, the British and French could save time and breath by saying:

"'We want to make the world safe for jokesmiths'."

So the next time you hear or read a joke or a wisecrack aimed at the President, or any of our greats — even if you disagree with the sense of it, or feel it is a bit too barbed — remember how things are in Europe.

In spite of the public debt, unemployment and all the other things that worry the thoughtful American, this is a good place to live, after all!

We at least can say what we think—and the only dictators we countenance are a few little two-by-four governors, or cabinet members, here and there and now and then!

That Man on Avenue Q says there are fewer women than men in this country, but from the amount of conversation they make, you'd never think so.

A New Mexico man, distracted by a headache, placed a stick of dynamite in his mouth and lit the fuse.

Although a bit drastic, this headache cure is comparatively inexpensive and permanent!

THE picture above is that of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Meador, of 1631 Main street, although they don't look much like that now.

The picture is going to be published soon in a history of Hall county, where Mr. Meador was a pioneer citizen.

A SURPRISING STATE OF AFFAIRS

Almost in a class with the extinct dodo bird are senators like Frederick Hale of Maine, who announced the other day that he will retire voluntarily next year after 24 years of service in the upper house of Congress. Usually about the only means of separating a man from such a job he has held so long is by ballot blasting.

Only five men in the United States Senate have a record of longer continuous service than Senator Hale. He has been there so long that it would be quite easy to understand if he had come to regard the job as his prerogative, especially since his age—65 years—is such that it should offer no obstacle to the prospects of his re-election should he aspire to continue in the senate.

However, his comment that "it will be better if some younger man takes my place" is a recognition of the realities of a job which, if properly performed, calls for all the physical and mental energies of any man who is in the very prime of life.

His attitude suggests an unselfishness of the very finest sort. It suggests a willingness to forget self in what he judges to be the interests and welfare of his state. It is the kind of patriotic unselfishness of which no nation ever can have enough.

Long Predicted Foreign Trade Boom Sinc Outbreak Of War Beginning To Take Fo

By BRUCE CATTON
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The foreign trade boom, predicted ever since the outbreak of the war last September, is beginning to take hold.

Catton

United States exports today are running at a rate fully $300,000,000 a quarter above that for a year ago. On a volume basis, they are nearly as high as they were in 1929, although value basis is lower because of lower prices. Trade to Europe and to the Far East has picked up, and trade to South America has gone up even faster.

This boom did not really get going until the middle of December. Only a small part of it is due to orders of war materials as such—airplanes, chemicals, airplane gasoline, etc. Disappearance of Germany from much of the export market, and partial disappearance of Great Britain, are shifting to American exporters orders previously placed elsewhere.

Domestic Business Drops

Sharp as this rise has been, it has not offset the drop in industrial production due to fading of last fall's inventory boom. Index of industrial production shot up from 103 in August to 128 in December; it has fallen back to 105 as of today, and is expected by government soothsayers to go a bit lower. Some of these are frankly pessimistic and look for a period of inventory liquidation in the spring; others believe that expanding export trade will "firm" price levels, prevent an inventory slash and pave the way for new business investment and a substantial upturn.

All are agreed on one point: A heavy spring offensive in the European war would create a buying wave here that would make up all the ground lost since December.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
PROBATE
THE STATE OF TEXAS.
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lubbock County, Greeting:
To all persons interested in the estate of Benjamin F. Miller, Deceased:
You are hereby commanded to cause to be published once, not less than ten days before the return day thereof, in a newspaper printed in Lubbock county, Texas, the accompanying citation, of which the hereinbelow following is a true copy:
To all persons interested in the estate of Benjamin F. Miller, Deceased, No. 1435, Rhea Pierce, Leo Ferguson and Owen W. McWhorter, have filed in the county court of Lubbock county, Texas, an application for the probate of the last will and Testament of said Benjamin F. Miller, Deceased, which said will is dated December 14th, 1939, signed by said Benjamin F. Miller, Testator, and witnessed by Mrs. Sallie C. Haynes, Mrs. B. W. Thompson and Elsie Johnston, and provides for the appointment of Rhea Pierce, Leo Ferguson and Owen W. McWhorter, as Independent Executors thereunder, without bond; and for letters testamentary (the said Will accompanying said application), which will be heard and acted on by the Court, on Monday, March 25th, A. D., 1940, at the Court House thereof, in the city of Lubbock, at which time, and place, all persons interested in said Estate may appear and contest such application, should they desire to do so. Herein fail not, but have you before this Court, this writ, on the date aforesaid, with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.
Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office, in Lubbock, Texas, this March 13th, A. D., 1940.
(Seal) ED. D. ALLEN,
Clerk of the County Court, in and for Lubbock County, Texas.
By LOUIE F. MOORE, Deputy.

Four Lectures To Be Offered

LAMESA, March 14 (Special) — First of four lectures comprising an Institute of International Understanding is scheduled in the high school auditorium here Monday night, according to members of the Rotary club, who are sponsoring the event.

Arrangements for the institute were made through Hiram Arrant of Abilene, district governor.

O'Donnell Rotarians have purchased 25 tickets. Other clubs that have taken tickets or arranged for them include Odessa, Post, Tahoka, Seminole, Seagraves and Lubbock. Other clubs to be contacted include, Slaton, Littlefield, Brownfield, Levelland, Sudan, Spur, Plainview, Lockney and Floydada. President Walter B. Collins has arranged for two men to visit clubs this week.

Lectures begin at 8 o'clock. A $1 admission charge is made for the four addresses and tickets are interchangeable. Each afternoon the speaker is to appear before the high school assembly.

Russia To Be Discussed

Next Monday night Dr. John A. Morrison of Chicago, a former University of Chicago faculty member, lectures on "Development in Soviet Russia." He conducted the first course in the geography of Soviet Russia ever held in this country and has visited in Russia, Finland and Siberia, as well as other Northern European countries. At the opening of the war last Sept. 1, he was in Moscow, and a few days later left by airplane, after the Red army had begun occupation of Poland.

Mrs. Margaret H. Kaiser, German born and educated, a newspaper woman and a publicist for the German government, speaks on "The German Rise to Power," the night of March 25. She has lectured before many European audiences, has written for European publications and in 1935 made a long tour of the United States to lecture. When war began she was in France, and because she had a German passport, was detained there ten weeks before coming to the United States. She has since taken out her first citizenship papers.

Editor To Speak

Dr. Nicholas R. Doman, student in Oxford, London, Paris, Milam and Geneva and holder of a doctor's degree from the University of Budapest, has been on the board of editors of Central Europe's first ranking review of international affairs, will discuss "Central Europe—Battlefield of Imperialisms," April 1. He has been in the United States since the summer of 1939. During the Czecho-Slovakia crisis he saw active service in the Hungarian army.

Dr. Allen D. Albert, past president of Rotary International and editor of Minneapolis Tribune is the final speaker, April 8. A Spanish American war correspondent, he was with the Washington, D. C. Times, the Columbus, Ohio, News and later associate publisher of the Minneapolis paper. As assistant to the president of the Chicago Century of Progress he visited many European countries for that exposition; he also has lectured before many colleges and universities and during 1937-39 he delivered addresses to 66 institute sessions. His theme is "The Struggle for Raw Materials."

To Rebuild Gin—The Shallowater gin of Ely, Arnold and Ely of Snyder is to be rebuilt this season and clearing of the ground in preparation is under way. The gin was destroyed by fire last fall.

Community Program — Monthly Cooper community program at the high school at Woodrow tonight is being sponsored by the F. F. A. chapter and the Future Homemakers unit. A motion picture film will be shown by Ben Mann of San Angelo. Meeting begins at 7:45 o'clock.

Good Enrollment—Highest enrollment in the history of Lamesa schools, above 1,820 and 200 above a year ago at this time, was reported here yesterday by V. Z. Rogers, superintendent. Late in the scholastic year last spring the 1,800 mark was reached, said the school head.

Lodge Is Growing—Khiva Shrine Temple of Amarillo, to which many Lubbock and South Plains Shriners belong, had a net increase of nine members last year, according to reports to members by the Temple recorder. Total for 1940 was 1,011 members. There were 98 new members and 87 who were dismissed.

New Ambulance Here — A 1940 LaSalle ambulance, with a "Superior" body designed especially for special work, has been added to the Rix Funeral home service, making four cars in service. Ernest St. Clair has returned from Lima, Ohio, with the ambulance. The car is painted light gray and it has two heaters. The home is at 1601 Thirteenth street.

May Accompany Party—Shriners in this section of Texas are being urged to accompany Imperial Potentate Walter D. Cline of Wichita Falls on his official visit to Hawaii late in April. W. H. Woodfield is chairman of the party, which is to sail from San Francisco April 25 and return May 17.

Chapter Aids School—More than $60 worth of trees and shrubs for the Cooper school campus at Woodrow has been raised by the F. F. A. chapter there, assisted by the home demonstration club and the Future Homemakers club. Water pipes are being laid this week to the campus along the highway where flowers and shrubs are planted, to aid in watering them.

Minimum Is Lower — Minimum temperature this morning, as reported by the state experiment substation was 18 degrees, three lower than yesterday. Maximum yesterday was 54 degrees.

Announce Cage Tourney—Four-H club basketball teams will enter a county tournament Tuesday night at Idalou, said M. U. May, assistant county agent. Tournament begins at 6 o'clock.

Powell To Ship Lambs — Owen Powell of Becton plans to ship one deck of milk-fed lambs from Abernathy Friday. Four-H club boys will go from Becton to Abernathy to watch the shipping.

Dealers Meeting Here—Approximately 30 DeSota dealers of the South Plains area gathered in a dealer meeting at Lubbock hotel at noon today which is to continue throughout the afternoon. A luncheon was held at noon. R. W. Arnold of Dallas, regional manager; Ted Kiser of Abilene, district manager; and J. E. Evenson of Dallas, merchandising manager, were officials attending. Hub Jones of the Hub Motor company and his staff are official hosts.

Daughter Is Born—Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Pray of Wichita Falls announce the birth of a daughter this morning in that city. Mrs. Pray is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Nail of 1410 Seventeenth street. They formerly resided in Lubbock.

Olton Pastor Here — Rev. A. A. Collins of Olton will preach at the Cumberland Presbyterian church at 7:30 o'clock tonight. This will open sessions of the Amarillo Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian church which will continue through Sunday. Rev. Collins is a former pastor of the church.

Tax Figures

his tax would be $81.25 and in Germany, $132.92.

In the United States, the married couple with two children who earned $3,000 escapes without income tax. In Great Britain they would be socked $408.75 and in Germany $307.01.

Here are some of the other comparisons:

Single persons:

Income	U. S.	G.B.	Ger.
5,000	$ 149	$ 251	$ 457
10,000	869	3,226	4,589

Show At Ralls Opens Friday

RALLS, March 14 (Special)—Ninth annual Ralls Livestock-Poultry show has been made in readiness for opening here Friday. It will continue through Saturday.

Five divisions are expected to attract a near-record number of entries, majority of which will be released some time Thursday by the superintendents of the event, E. D. Bounds, vocational agriculture instructor here, and Bert Neelley, manager of the Ralls Chamber of Commerce. The chamber is sponsoring the event.

Strickland To Judge

Cash awards totaling $185 plus poultry supplies for various winners will be presented in the following divisions: poultry, hogs, sheep, fat calves and dairying.

All poultry will be shown in the Municipal auditorium while the remainder of the entries will be housed two blocks south.

Judge of the poultry entries will be J. D. Strickland, assistant professor of animal husbandry at Texas Technological college, while senior students in the agriculture division of the college will judge the livestock.

Plan Judging Contest

As an added attraction, the Crosbyton District 7 FFA will participate in a judging contest at 10 o'clock Saturday morning in the Municipal auditorium.

Money prizes will be distributed evenly in most cases in the five various divisions, which are divided into classes within themselves.

In the fat calves division, other than the $10 awards for light and heavy class winners, there will be an additional $10 award for the grand champion, the money to be presented by the American Hereford association.

Other divisions and their subdivisions with accompanying awards include: dairy division — three to eleven months, $10; one to two years, $10; two years and over, $10; and bulls, $10.

Poultry — grand prize, $15; and additional classes with appropriate awards in each.

Hogs—$10 each in light and heavy classes.

Sheep—two divisions, one of aged ewes and one of lambs under one year, $5 in each.

though, if all teams and leagues threw in together and played under the same general regulations and regulators . . . And the advice from this corner to either or both organizations: Don't get too technical in drawing up the regulations; the fewer the rules, the easier to understand and enforce . . . And we'd go easy on this "classification" business, too . . . . Forget that "batting and fielding averages" system and let the good old "won and lost" columns do your classifying for you. . . . The Lubbock Hubbers won two pennants, hand running, but did they ever finish on top in batting and fielding? . . . Heck no . . . But they won, regardless. . . .

Talk-alikes: Felix McKnight, sports chief of the Texas A. P. bureau, and George Bennett, chief of the Lubbock Coin Machine company . . . . They converse in the low register, but plainly . . . The Texas Game, Fish and Oyster commission have procured 20,000 quail from Mexico, and will distribute them over the entire state . . . Sportsmen and farmers interested in restocking their clubs or covers may obtain them by paying half the cost of the birds . . . Quail are trapped in Mexico by arranging a V-shaped brush fence not over a foot high, with the point running into a woven wire funnel some ten feet long . . . The herders, upon discovering birds, walk slowly toward them, herding them inside the brush fences . . . The birds follow the brush until they come to the narrow opening in the wire trap and walk in . . . They're crated and shipped to the Texas office, which ships them to subscribers . . . . Let's have a few subscribers around here. . . .

Annual Field Trip To Be Conducted

An eighth annual field trip to milk plants and ice cream factories in several Texas cities will be made by senior dairy manufacturing students of Texas Technological college March 20-30.

The students will inspect plant layout, organization and merchandising, said K. M. Renner, head professor of dairy manufactures.

Pausing at Lufkin the students will visit a new five million dollar paper mill. Production of paper cartons is an important part of dairy business. Plans have also been made for a stop at the federal laboratory in Houston where foods and drugs are inspected.

Professors To Go

Other stops will be at Fort Worth, Dallas, Sherman, Denison, Sulphur Springs, Longview, Kingsville and San Antonio.

Boys to make the trip are Forrest Baumgardner of Wellington, Willie Bell of Dorchester, Roland DeFee of Lubbock, Joe B. Farr of Hermleigh, Paul Kiser of Sylvester, James Lattimore of Lubbock, Wayne Mears of Fluvanna, Samuel Nelson, Kenneth Reese of Lubbock, Moffett Ryan of Lubbock, John L. Teague of Howe, Howard Wilkowske of Denison, Ed. B. Williams of Dallas and George Wilson of Princeton. Professors Renner and M. G. Pederson, both of the dairy manufacturing department, will make the trip.

Already in the quarterfinls were Texas Wesleyan of Fort Worth; Tarkio, Mo., college; Pittsburgh, Kan., Teachers; San Diego, Calif. State; Delta State of Cleveland, Miss.; Maryville, Mo., Teachers and Hamline university of St. Paul.

The Superior, Wis., Teachers bowed out in one of the few lopsided contests, 57 to 40.

Two of the teams moving into public favor are the Pittsburgh Teachers and San Diego State, opponents tonight in the feature battle of the quarterfinals.

Two Easy Victories

The Kansans have stormed to two comparatively easy victories. St. Joseph of Collegville, Ind., was their first victim, 47 to 26, and East Texas State fell in the second, 55 to 33.

Second round results:

Tarkio, Mo., college 50, West Texas State Teachers, Canyon, 49.

Pittsburgh, Kan., Teachers 56, East Texas State, Commerce, 33.

Hamline university, St. Paul, Minn. 61, Kansas Wesleyan, Salina, 50.

Delta State, Cleveland, Miss. 57, Superior, Wis., Teachers 39.

San Diego, Calif., State; Delta State of Cleveland, Miss.; Maryville, Mo., Teachers and Hamline university of St. Paul.
