

Bitter GOP Fight Due On Civil Rights

Lodge Asserts Plane Maneuvered Into Trap

By MITON BESSER
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States asserted today it has scientific proof that Soviet fighter planes deliberately maneuvered a U.S. RB47 off its course and shot it down over international waters.

U.S. delegate Henry Cabot Lodge denounced the action as "a criminal and reckless act of piracy" which the Soviet Union tried to hide with "reckless talk."

But he did not seek council condemnation of the Soviet Union.

Instead he submitted a resolution calling on the council to either name an impartial fact-finding mission to investigate the incident, or submit the entire matter to the International Court of Justice.

In a highly dramatic speech he produced two maps to demonstrate his points.

Lodge said of the Soviet act of shooting down the plane July 1: "This astonishing and criminal act is established beyond doubt by the evidence of our scientific devices." He did not go into details and U.S. sources said the exact nature was withheld because it involved secret information of great interest to the Soviets.

He accused the Soviet Union of denying the RB47 crewmen their rights under international law and denounced this as "flagrant disregard for the standards of international conduct."

As Lodge spoke, the chief Soviet delegate, Vasily V. Kuznetsov sat attentively erect, alternately twiddling his thumbs and jotting down notes.

In the spectators' gallery, the wives of the RB47 crewmen, their expressions grim, watched tense-ly as Lodge pointed with his finger to the maps upon which the plane's course was charted.

There were two maps, one of Western Europe showing the plane's route from England toward the Barents Sea, the other a detail map of the Kola Peninsula area with a red arrow showing the position of the Soviet fighter plane which Lodge claimed maneuvered the American craft from its course.

He called the Soviet charges that the plane violated U.S.S.R. air space last July 1 a "complete fabrication" which must be dismissed as a poor attempt to cloak a wanton attack on a plane over international waters.

Lodge said he would introduce a resolution asking that the Council call for an impartial investigation of the entire incident, or a judgment on the case by the International Court of Justice.

"What actually happened was this: Before it (the plane) reached the point more than 50 miles north of Svatoy Nos, at which it was scheduled to turn northeast, a Soviet fighter pressed in from the seaward side and tried to force the plane off its course and into Soviet territory," Lodge said.

"The Soviet fighter was successful in forcing our plane off its course and in delaying its planned turn to the northeast. It was not successful in forcing the plane into Soviet airspace. It caused our plane to make a detour. That detour is shown by the green line (on the chart). The prescribed course is shown by the black line. This astonishing and criminal act is established beyond doubt by the evidence of our scientific devices, which followed the RB47 through all the events I have described."

Somewhere, Lodge said, lied about the incident.

"Only one conclusion can be drawn from this. The Soviet fighter was trying to make the RB47 fly southward over Soviet territory. There it could have been shot down on land. That is what happened. That is what I am saying," Lodge said.

"Now we wonder why the Soviets have presented so many distortions about this. Perhaps the Soviet air force was reluctant to admit to Chagnan Khushchev that the aircraft could not be shot down over Soviet air space—for the good reason that it was not there—and therefore did not inform him of the facts.

"Perhaps they did not tell him that they had to go 200 miles from Cape Svatoy Nos to follow the RB47. Perhaps Chairman Khushchev has been lied to. That is one possibility. There are others. We can all speculate."

The Soviet Union has charged that the RB47 was on a spy mission over Soviet territory when it was shot down.

Mobs In Rhodesia Reported Rioting

BULAWAYO, Southern Rhodesia (AP)—African mobs rioting against white rule were reported smashing shops, beer halls and cars in the black townships of Bulawayo today. Shots were heard in one area.

TRIPLETS BORN ON BIRTHDAY OF BROTHER HERE

Two-year-old Keith Baker Bowen of Midland had a most unusual birthday gift this morning. He now has two sisters and a brother who were born in the Cogdell Memorial Hospital early this morning to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bowen of Midland.

Mrs. Bowen is the daughter of Mrs. J. C. Crook of 2308 Thirtieth Street. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bowen of Lubbock. Both mother and father were reported in "good condition" at the hospital this morning.

The two girls, weighing two pounds and 13 ounces each, were born at 4:54 a.m. and 5:13 a.m. with the boy making his appearance at the Midland at 5:04 a.m. weighing 3 pounds and 8 ounces.

Boren, the market manager for Furr Food Store in Midland, remarked that with four birthdays on the same day they would be having Christmas twice a year now.

Youngsters Greet Nixon

By JACK BELL and WILLIAM T. PEACOCK
CHICAGO (AP)—The Republicans launched their national convention today with whoops and applause for attacks on the Democrats—and also in bitter pulling over their platform, particularly the civil rights plank.

The split between the party moderates and liberals over the civil rights stand was so great that a convention floor fight appeared in prospect unless Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the all-but-certain nominee for president, can mediate the matter before it comes up in the convention Wednesday.

Nixon winged into town from Washington shortly after 11 o'clock and was greeted with a rousing airport demonstration, mainly from young Republicans.

It was an occasion for reunion too of the vice president and Mrs. Nixon with their young daughters, Tricia and Julie, who have been in camp in California.

Nixon had already aligned himself for a strong civil rights plank. Before leaving Washington, he told a news conference he would back a floor fight, if necessary, for a strong plank.

But there was considerable grumbling in the party over what some conservatives called Nixon's surrender over the weekend to New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

During an all-night session of the Platform Committee, moderates succeeded in tacking down a civil rights plank shaped to the Nixon-Rockefeller statement of principles of last Saturday morning.

While its wording was not disclosed, the plank was reported to contain a mixture of moderate and liberal proposals.

Another problem for Nixon was a stand by a group of GOP governors that there should be an open contest for the vice presidential nomination.

By tradition, a party presidential nominee ordinarily has a free hand in naming his own running mate. There has been every indication that Nixon intended to exercising this privilege although keeping silent as to the man he would tap.

Speculation over Nixon's choice has centered on U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts and Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky, the GOP national chairman.

The first session of the convention formally got under way about half an hour before Nixon hit town.

Gov. William G. Stratton of Illinois brought cheers from the delegates by lambasting the opposition party in what was billed as a welcoming address.

Today's forenoon convention session was strictly a routine affair, devoted to welcoming address and preliminary organizational matters.

Yet it was an occasion also for getting off some initial shots at the common enemy—the Democrats.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky, national chairman, hooded at the promises he said had been made to everybody in the Democratic platform. To carry them out, he declared, would add $5 to 20 billion dollars a year to government costs.

Morton said the Republicans would adopt "a realistic, honest platform that we can and will fulfill."

The Kentucky senator is one of those figuring high in speculation about a possible vice-presidential nomination.

But the betting favorite for the No. 2 spot was, at the moment, Henry Cabot Lodge, ambassador to the United Nations.

Nixon will choose the vice-presidential nominee, as is traditional. At his meeting with reporters in Washington, he declined to discuss his choice for the spot except to say it will be a man who shares his views and one who would be qualified for the presidency if it should be necessary for him to take over that office.

Rockefeller probably would not let his name go before the convention as a presidential nominee.

Ike Satisfied With GOP Defense Plank

By JAMES DEVLIN
NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—President Eisenhower thinks the national defense plank recommended by the Republican platform committee is pretty good, the summer White House said today.

And that clearly lined the President up against New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. Rockefeller has called the plank inadequate and says it "does not face up realistically to the dangers that threaten the nation."

The plank the platform committee recommended in Chicago, on the eve of the opening of the GOP national convention, praised Eisenhower's conduct of national defense and said it would be continued on a no-price-ceiling basis.

Rockefeller has called for a $3-billion-dollar increase in defense spending this fiscal year. He and Vice President Richard M. Nixon, sure bet for the Republican presidential nomination, agreed over the weekend that there is need for an increase in military spending. But on that occasion they mentioned no specific figure.

Eisenhower for months has taken the position that defense spending is adequate.

The White House again today declined comment on the defense views of Rockefeller, who has indicated his big New York delegation may lead a convention floor fight when the platform comes up for a vote Wednesday.

Hagerty also refused again to comment on published reports that Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S.

ambassador to the United Nations, is Eisenhower's choice for the vice-presidential nominee.

Eisenhower arranged to watch today's opening session of the convention on television at his Ft. Adams vacation quarters.

He will fly to Chicago Tuesday to address the convention in the evening.

On the President's agenda today was an inspection tour of a Polaris submarine. He also arranged to preside at a meeting of the National Security Council—a session which Hagerty describes as routine without any aspects of emergency.

While its wording was not disclosed, the plank was reported to contain a mixture of moderate and liberal proposals.

Airlift Of Troops Speeded By U. N.

By RICHARD KASISCHKE
LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The United Nations airlift of troops into the Congo speeded up today, and the total of forces deployed over the new African nation approached 7,500 men.

U.N. military officials were hopeful of having more than 10,000 multiracial troops in the country by the end of the week.

With the port of Matadi again functioning, oil for Leopoldville and its big airlift airbase was being pumped through a pipeline and also being arriving by tank cars over the repaired railway line.

Maj. Gen. Raymond A. Wheeler, retired U.S. Army engineer who directed the clearing of the Suez Canal in 1956, arrived here with oil operations at Matadi and for a troubleshooting job on the land transportation system.

The U.N. also expected the early arrival of pilots from Sweden, Norway, Brazil, Argentina and Yugoslavia to fly a special U.N. aircraft fleet.

The U.S. Air Force handed over the fleet of planes, including helicopters and small aircraft, but refused to furnish air crews. The Soviet Union protested, a U.S. Army transmission unit flown here last week to help in U.N. communications. American officials said they would return to Germany.

The U.N. mission announced it is pushing a crash program to meet the Congo's pressing medical and financial needs. Most of the remaining Belgian doctors in the country are expected to leave by the end of the week.

the country said they intend leaving, and World Health Organization officials were trying to get help locally and also to recruit staff abroad.

The treasury and currency situation was reported so precarious that it appeared many Aug. 1 payrolls could not be met, and the long term outlook for replenishing government revenues was gloomy so long as the economy remained largely paralyzed.

Collins Rites Set Tuesday

Paul J. Collins of 2006 Thirtieth Street died Sunday at 9:30 p.m. in the Cogdell Memorial Hospital. He had been stricken in Dallas Feb. 22 and had been unconscious ever since.

A farmer and stockman of Scurry County since 1935, he had previously been employed by the Fort Worth and Denver Railroad.

Burial will be in Weatherford March 16, 1960.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Beulah Collins, one daughter, Mrs. E. A. Birdwell and two granddaughters, Paula and Amy Birdwell, all of Silverton; one sister, Mrs. Ben Kehlman of Fort Worth; four brothers, S.H. and Elgin Collins of Fort Worth; Stennis Collins of Weatherford; and Erwin of San Diego, Calif.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 3 p.m. in the First Baptist Church with Rev. Walter Mitchell, pastor of the church, officiating.

Interment will be in the Snyder Cemetery and will be officiated by Bolger Funeral Home.

Pallbearers will be Guy Glen, L. B. Dennis, Raymond House, Lee Ayers, Wayne Buckner, Raymond Hill, Joe Graham, and Walter Russell. Members of the Wren Bible Class will be honorary pallbearers.

Two Schools, Boys Club Burglarized

Two elementary schools and the Boys Club were entered sometime over the weekend, the Snyder Police Department reported this morning.

The West Elementary School was entered apparently by the door with offices and desks ransacked and paper left littered around the building. A package containing 75 pounds of butter and marked commodity surplus was taken from a freezer. The police found a bunch of keys which they believed were used to enter the building and the door left behind.

At Northeast Elementary the burglars entered by breaking the glass in a side door. Several interior doors were broken and offices, including the principal's were ransacked. Damage in broken glass was estimated at $75.

At the Boys Club, soft drink and candy vending machines were broken into, but no estimate as to loss was made. The burglars entered by breaking a north window.

Fish In Park Lake Will Be Checked

The Scurry County Commissioners Court this morning authorized the Game and Fish Commission to check the fish in the lake in Towle Memorial Park.

The reading and approving of bills completed the business of the meeting.

Rodeo Closes Out With Fast Show

A crowd of over 3,000 watched the final performance of the Scurry County Rodeo Saturday as winners were decided in second round events and several first go-rounds.

In bareback riding, Ted Cave was first while Bobby Reedasall, Ed Workman, and Cotton Barrington tied for second, third, and fourth.

First in the yearling tie, Joe second round went to R. E. Jones.

More Storms Boom Over State Today

By The Associated Press

Thunderstorms boomed again over Texas Monday morning with more promised in the forecasts through Tuesday as one of the wettest summers in recent memory continued its muggy course.

After thunderstorms lashed Lubbock area Sunday night, the scattered showers showed up in Monday's pre-dawn hours around San Angelo, Midland, Wink and south of Abilene.

Radar reports showed small thunderstorms northwest of Fort Worth shortly after 5 a.m. At the same time, low clouds formed around Austin and San Antonio.

The Weather Bureau said the rest of Texas was clear.

Humidity remained high over the state as temperatures continued below normal summer levels in most of Texas. Sunday's maximum temperatures were mostly in the 90s, ranging from 103 at Laredo to 90 at Alpine and Sherman.

Pre-dawn temperatures Monday were in the 60s-70s range, the low at Dalhart and the high at Palestine.

A five-day forecast issued by the Weather Bureau Monday called for temperatures over the state ranging from 1 to 3 degrees below normal in extreme north portions of East, Central and West Texas and from 1 to 4 degrees above normal, south and west of the Pecos valley and in South Texas as near the coast.

Rocky's Delegates To Remain Firm

By ROBERT T. GRAY

CHICAGO (AP) — New York's big delegation under the firm control of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was ready today to spearhead a convention floor fight for the platform he worked out with Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Opposition developed in the platform committee to some parts of the Nixon-Rockefeller agreement.

While siding with Nixon in the platform fight, Rockefeller still was unwilling to release the New York delegates to endorse the vice president as the Republican presidential nominee.

The governor postponed until a meeting of the delegation Tuesday afternoon, any decision on a presidential nominee.

The convention will select its nominee Wednesday night, Nixon the only declared candidate is considered assured of the assignment.

Rockefeller has continued to hold himself open to a draft, even while conceding that his chances of getting one are almost nonexistent.

His plans to meet today with the Montana, Wyoming and New Mexico delegations, and Tuesday with Illinois, helped keep alive speculation the New York governor still has hopes of winning the nomination.

A Rockefeller aide said his meetings with the other states would involve only discussions on the platform.

Ernest secretary Robert McManus, said the various delegations had invited Rockefeller to appear and that he had not sought the meetings.

The governor said Sunday he saw little evidence of any support for a draft for him.

Other developments in the Rockefeller camp:

1. The 96-vote New York delegation, of which Rockefeller is chairman, voted unanimously to back the 14-point platform agreement between the governor and Nixon and to back the convention call.

2. Republican State Chairman L. J. Morhouse was named chairman of a committee to look into the possibility of nominating a New Yorker as a favorite son candidate for vice president. Sen. Kenneth B. Keating was being mentioned prominently.

3. Rockefeller told a meeting of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People he would wage a floor fight, if necessary, in support of a strong civil rights bill in the platform.

4. Rockefeller said he would not accept a vice-presidential nomination if it were placed on him, but he would make the classic refusal if he were not nominated.

Second round spots in bull riding went to Squirley Northcutt first, Jimmy Cloud and Jim Brock tied for second and third, and Don Stuart fourth.

Calf roping second round honors went to Cotton Barrington first, J. D. Armstrong second, Walter Arnold third and Donald Rutledge fourth.

Winners for the wild mare race were Eddie Stewart Wednesday, Roger Townsend Thursday, Skeet Lubbock Friday and Robert Conster Saturday.

Linda Merriott took the grand prize saddle in the sponsor race with her sister Pat coming in second for the buckle. This was the order of the second round winners, too, with Judy Deatridge third, and Carolyn Jackson and Betty Fry tied for fourth.

Timed events in the Saturday session went fast and furious as final rounds which were to make the all important difference rolled around.

In the sponsor barrel race Linda Merriott trimmed Tom Voss of Snyder with 22.3, Linda Williams of Sweetwater with 21.7, Marie Wayland with 20.4, Connie Robinson of Snyder with 21.8, Iris Swan of Lamesa with 20.9, Diane Huff of Merkel with 21.5, Peggy Sue Williams of Colorado City with 20.4, Betty Fry of Abilene with 19.9, Sheila Goswick of Jayton with 22.3, Judy Deatridge of Anson with 19.7, Donna Sue Jackson of O'Donoghue with 21.1, and Marie Voss of Snyder with 20.6.

In the show performance in calf roping Walter Arnold of Silverton had the low score of 12.6 followed by Riley Miller of Springdale with 13.1, J. D. Armstrong with 13.6, G. A. Jameson of Big Spring, 14.2; Ralph Miller of Silverton, 14.7; Connie Gibbs of Winters, 14.7; Jack Kirkpatrick of Post, 14.7; Herb Woods of Big Spring, 15.1; Robert Koonce of Jayton, 16.5; and Dale Burnett of Sweetwater, 42.2.

R. F. Josey of Post had the low show time in the yearling tie, followed by Riley Miller of Justiceburg, 17.1; Ralph Miller of Fluvanna, 19.1; Walter Arnold of Big Lake, 20; Robert Koonce of Jayton, 20.3; Connie Gibbs of Sweetwater, 23.1; and Peyton Whitaker of Abilene, 27.4.

Wagner told reporters at the airport he believed all of the factions want to support the ticket.

Kennedy had invited the mayor to discuss some means of bridging the rival factions into some sort of harmonious organization and to discuss campaign strategy in general.

The conference with Wagner raised high in importance for this busy week in which Kennedy hopes to clear the decks for the arrival of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, the vice-presidential nominee.

Wagner Talks With Kennedy

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City flew in today for talks with Sen. John F. Kennedy, predicting that wrangling New York Democratic factions will find a way to harmony.

Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, has expressed deep concern about the New York factional strife. He wants some way found to achieve unity, lest feuding among Democrats dump over appearances in New York which casts 45 votes in the Electoral College — more than any other state.

Wagner told reporters at the airport he believed all of the factions want to support the ticket.

Pilot's Body Is Sent Home By Embassy

MOSCOW (AP) — With a prayer and a brief military farewell, the U. S. Embassy today sent home the body of the pilot of the RB47 reconnaissance plane the Soviet Union shot down July 1.

A Soviet medical certificate said the pilot, Capt. William G. Smith, of Oak Ridge, Tenn., drowned and that his body was found floating in the Barents Sea. The U. S. charge d'affaires, Edward L. Seers, refused to make the full report public because of "legal and political implications."

The body, in its rough wooden coffin, was formally transferred to American custody at a shabby, fly-ridden, shanty town in the Soviet Union.

At the airport eight uniformed officers of the embassy military staff, dressed in American flag over the coffin and carried it to saw horses set up beside the KLM plane flying it to Amsterdam.

At Amsterdam the body will be turned over to the U. S. Air Force, which will fly it back to the United States.

The Soviet Union is holding the two surviving crewmen of the plane for trial as spies. The other three crew members are missing and presumed dead.

Johnson Doubts Session Will Be Campaign Sounding Board

JOHNSON CITY, (AP) — Lyndon B. Johnson, the Senate majority leader and Democratic presidential candidate, doesn't believe Congress will be a sounding board for party platforms or a campaign stump when it reconvenes Aug. 8.

He believes Congress will stick to its unfinished business and have a short, but productive session, the Texas told a news conference Sunday at his LBJ Ranch near here.

Republicans have been taunting the Democrats to enact laws putting their strong civil rights plank and other proposals adopted by the Democratic National Convention into effect during the upcoming session.

"A platform is drawn up for submission to the voters," Johnson said. "If the voters approve of it they will make their decision known in November and it is the duty of the party to carry out the decision in the following Congress."

He reaffirmed his support of the Democratic Party platform, saying "I intend to run on the platform."

Johnson, who returned from a vacation in Acapulco, Mexico, Saturday night, talked by phone with the Democratic presidential nominee, John F. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, Sunday.

He said he and Kennedy will discuss Congress's work and campaign plans when they confer at Hyannis Port, Mass., Aug. 1 or 2.

He announced that he has speaking engagements at Nashville, Tenn., July 30, at Ottumwa, Iowa, July 31, and will go to Oklahoma City Aug. 5 for day-long festivities in connection with a new book published by Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla.). He plans to go direct from Oklahoma City to Washington.

Johnson also said he and Kennedy had agreed on an early visit to Hawaii. He will either go alone to attend the ground-breaking for the East-West Cultural Institute or at a later date with Kennedy.

He also said Kennedy desired both candidates to visit Alaska and Hawaii at the beginning of the campaign.

Johnson is a candidate for reelection to the Senate as well as for vice president in the November General Election.

Asked when he would resign as senator if he is elected vice president, Johnson replied:

"I don't know. I will resign when I feel it is time to do so."

Johnson said that Kennedy may visit Texas during the campaign but that he does not anticipate.

Johnson said that Kennedy may visit Texas during the campaign but that he does not anticipate.

"I think Texas would wait its senator to serve until just before the inauguration. I haven't given it much consideration, but I would think in view of world conditions, Texas would not want to be without a senator for any length of time."

The president and vice president elected in November will be inaugurated Jan. 20. If Johnson is elected, both vice president and senator and retains his Senate seat until almost inauguration time he could have a strong hand in organizing the new Senate.

Texas law requires that when a U.S. senator resigns the governor must call a special election to be held in 60 to 90 days and if Congress is in session he must appoint a temporary senator.

Johnson labeled as "Republican plans" reports that former Gov. Allan Shivers might run as a write-in candidate for senator in November.

"There are some reports that some Republican people might like to embarrass me in my home state," Johnson said. "I have no reason to believe that any individual of stature would be a party to these Republican plans."

Shivers has refused to confirm or deny the reports. The Republican candidate for U.S. senator is Atty. John G. Tower of Wichita Falls.

FLUID BANG—Fresh as tomorrow, soft and feminine, is the new "Natural Grace" coiffure, designed to complement fall and winter clothing fashions. The bang flows gently across the forehead with a lift at the temples, and then eases softly into the closely fitted sides, which cover the ears completely. These are distinctive features of the new "Fluid Bang" trend in hair fashions for the season. Note the youthful surge of coquette curls at the sides which brush the cheek and direct attention to the eyes. The hair at the crown blossoms out horizontally into a soft and feminine blouse effect. The hair at the back is dressed into a flowing mass movement, following its natural growth direction, but with a single upward change in direction. Natural elegance and easy care of the style are assured with professional permanent waving.

Handy Tips For Electric Range Owners

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

MANY A BRIDE is thrown for a loss the first time up at the stove or range. An electric range or oven is likely to look just as complicated as the pilot board of an airplane. We've assembled a long list of favorite questions about these appliances, hoping the answers will prove useful to tyro cooks. Here they are:

"Should aluminum foil be used in drip - bowls of surface units to catch spill - overs?"

IT is not recommended by manufacturers of electric ranges, as use of such foil on surface units may interfere with the efficient diffusion of heat.

"Should the surface parts of the range be cleaned when it is cold or would it be more effective when hot?"

You can clean the range any time, but prompt cleaning after use is most desirable. Wipe all surfaces soon after use to eliminate a more time - consuming chore later on.

"How To Clean?"

What is the first step in cleaning the outside of an electric range?

First remove all possible parts (such as chrome trim rings). Put them to soak (but not the heating elements). Clean the front of the range with a warm soapy cloth or sponge, the sides and black splash - Rinses and allow it to air-dry. Clean, rinse and dry the removable parts, and replace.

"How should hardened stains be removed?"

Use an old toothbrush or other small brush to remove food stains and to clean crevices. A mild cleanser may be used, but never use a knife or other sharp instrument to remove any stains.

"Is a special treatment necessary for chrome of stainless steel surfaces?"

It's a good idea to rub in the direction of the metal's natural polish marks. Don't use a circular movement.

"What's the best way to clean an oven after broiling or grilling?"

Add a little beet juice to mayonnaise to make a pretty pink. This is how the salad dressing is tinted for smorgasbord tables.

When somebody really is interested in the house you have to sell, he begins to ask questions about the mortgage, taxes, etc. It's a good idea, therefore, to keep a written record of all information about the house so that it's handy when the questions begin.

The fuel oil industry has come up with a new oil-powered water heater that mixes oil and air in a sun-like burner head of the kind used in automatic oil heating plant. The National Fuel Oil Council says the heater needs only one hour a day to produce 120 gallons of hot water in a compact 30 gallon storage tank.

When using a sanding machine to refinish a wooden floor, never stop the forward motion of the machine while the sandpaper drum is in contact with the floor. If the machine is allowed to rest in one spot, gouges in the wood will result.

While a brush can be used to paint, screening, the job will be easier if a well-loaded roller or a screen painter is used. In the absence of either, a reasonably good screen painter can be made by tacking an old piece of carpet to a wooden block.

If you don't have room under your wall telephone for a table, try a small hanging shelf, which can be bought ready-made or put together from a piece of plywood or white pine and a couple of shelf brackets.

Despite the general easing of the money market, the most financial experts agree that there will be no important or significant drop in home mortgage interest rates during the remainder of 1960.

ROCKEFELLER'S INTENTIONS

Think The Demo Parley Was Rigged? Behold The Master

BY INEZ ROBB
CHICAGO — As the starting gate opens and they're off at the Republican convention, what is the chief difference between this gathering and the Democratic conclave in Los Angeles two weeks ago?

Basically, it's the difference between a convention that's rigged—Los Angeles—and one that's in the bag—Chicago. Now, it might seem that the difference would be barely discernible via the naked eye. But that is not so. There were at least four contenders for the Presidency in Los Angeles, although three of them may have to split the All-American Optimist Award of 1960.

But there is only one contender for the Presidency here. His name is Richard Malcolm Nixon. Let's make no mistake about that. The groundsweeper for Gov. Nelson Rockefeller is going to stay right on the launching pad, to fuff up a few metaphors.

In Los Angeles, Sen. John Kennedy may not have run scared. But he had his nervous moments. Nixon will have none in Chicago. His nemesis is assured and his organization so well oiled it doesn't even purr. It doesn't have to.

Bystanders in Los Angeles felt the Kennedy machine had the efficiency and impact of a steamroller should take a graduate course at Nixon headquarters and in this convention to see how it is really done.

The Nixon acreage at the Hilton Hotel, convention headquarters, and across the street at the Sheraton-Blackstone is by far the largest and most elaborate encountered at a political convention in my generation. Furthermore, both are staffed by dispassionate experts.

By contrast with the bloodless dispatch of the Nixon headquarters, the Rockefeller headquarters have the warm, cozy and confused aura that flows from the sweet and sometimes frenzied zeal of the Simon-pure amateur. At the Rockefeller headquarters, in the Blackstone Theatre, next to the Sheraton-Blackstone, a visitor feels he is an individual. At Nixon's spread in either hotel, he is apt to feel that he is a number.

To put it another way, the Nixon adherents exude the confidence of those who have it made while the Rockefeller enthusiasts obviously feel that the age of miracles is not necessarily over.

Even should Rockefeller decide to accept second place on the ticket, I am not certain that he can now get it. There is a very definite tendency here among Republicans, who were once unalterably associated with financial power and privilege, to build up a "Poor Richard" ticket with which to oppose the heartless millions of wealth and Wall Street, the Messrs. Kennedy, and Johnson.

Gov. William Stratton Illinois became the chief spokesman for the "Poor Richardites" when, on the eve of the convention, he attacked the Democratic candidate as a man "born with a platinum spoon in his mouth," and as a multi-millionaire. He went on to make favorable and pointed references to "American families who have never rigged the stock market or acquired a whiskey monopoly."

If the "Poor Richard" faction in the party prevails and if the GOP hopes to win the 1960 election by smiting the former Republican shibboleths of wealth and economic power, Nelson Rockefeller will have to go back to New York as its governor. And a poor but honest politician will have to be found as Nixon's running mate.

It has not been possible for the GOP to boast that Nixon was born in a log cabin, but it has done the next best thing. In the party's official release titled "Where Richard Nixon Spent his Boyhood," the candidate has been turned into an overland, barefoot boy, swimming in the irrigation ditches around Yorba Linda, Calif., where he was born.

It seems to me that Rockefeller, born with a diamond spoon in his mouth, would run this pitch with a youth spent in Lord Fauntleroy suits and heated swimming pools.

But somehow I just can't believe that the Republicans are really going to come out against money at this convention.

Rocky-Nixon Talk May Be Big Error

BY JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
CHICAGO (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon's sudden and secret journey to New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller—just three days before the Republican convention opened here today—was a mixed blessing.

The two men reached what they called an agreement but it turned out to be an agreement with big holes in it. It looked like a shrewd political maneuver at first. But it may prove to have been a tactical error.

It seemed at first that Rockefeller had put Nixon in his pocket, or that Nixon had the governor in his pocket. But now that isn't clear, either.

It got the governor off Nixon's back, at least temporarily, but it angered some Republicans. And Democrats in the upcoming presidential campaign will probably try to wrap the whole business around Nixon's neck.

Rockefeller, for months critical of Nixon and the Eisenhower administration, only last week here in Chicago indicated he might continue his criticism if the Republican platform's promises fell short of his desires.

This was gruesome news for Nixon, almost certain to be the Republican presidential nominee, since he will probably have to carry New York if he hopes to win the November election.

The vision of a disgruntled Rockefeller, sitting on his hands during the campaign instead of trying to carry New York for the Republican ticket, spelled peril for Nixon. Late Friday Nixon tried to straighten things out.

He flew secretly from Washington to New York—apparently without consulting President Eisenhower or even his closest aides here in Chicago—to see the governor.

Rockefeller had complained repeatedly that Nixon wasn't taking either a clear enough or strong enough stand on some issues.

Wait until my stock gets to its highest point, then, just before it starts down, sell it!

STAVE OFF LATE RALLY

FL Americans Victorious

A spirited last-inning rally on the part of the National Football League All-Stars held Saturday night, and the Americans held on long enough to come through to an 8-6 victory behind the right arm of little Gary Smith.

The Americans held a comfortable lead of 8-1 and the picture was one of calm and tranquility as the Nationals came to bat in the sixth. But not for long, for it was at that point that the dominant stick power of the losers—held in check for five previous innings—suddenly came to life, battering Smith for five hits and as many runs before Jackie Weaver hit a single over short to advance Smith to third. Next up was Parsons, who lumbered up and took a liking to Donnie Copeland's first delivery, poling it high and wide over the left center field fence for a three-run homer.

All of which led to the pitching

FRANK PARSONS
Big Boy, Big Bat

demise of Copeland, who had come on the same inning in relief of starter David Smith. Runners took the hill and the Americans—getting peppered for two additional runs himself, and Bob Ray came on in the fifth to finish out the game.

David Smith, who was nipped for the initial two markers of the game by grace of a baseline single to right by Lloyd Potts which brought home two runners before him, was charged with the loss.

EXOTIC FOOD HEADQUARTERS IN SNYDER is the Pick & Pay Grocery on the East Highway with specialties in all ingredients for spicy foods plus a catering service to custom prepare any particular dish. Above, Adelle and Marcel Josephson, owners of the store display several of Marcel's new heat and serve dishes.

Exotic Foods Of Pick & Pay Gain Wide Popularity Here

The new ready-packaged heat and serve line of "Exotic Main Dishes" announced recently by Marcel and Adelle Josephson, owners of Pick & Pay Grocery on the East Highway, has made a place for itself on the tables of discriminating Snyderites.

The Josephsons have always specialized in custom packaging of all Marcel's special dishes for parties, freezer, or for just a special meal at home, but now he has pre-packaged the dishes in Aluminum containers that need only be put in the oven and heated. If you want a spicy meal but are afraid to heat your kitchen, put a little water in the bottom of a deep skillet or Dutch oven, place the conveniently rounded package in and turn the burner down way low. There will be no overhanging heat and there are some who say the steam enhances the taste of the dish.

Included in these one dish meals that are perfect served with only a salad are Italian Spaghetti, Lasagne, Shrimp Creole Piquante, Chicken Spaghetti, Sliced Baked Ham Supreme, and Chopped liver. All are spiced just to the gourmet's taste.

In addition they wish you to know that they are getting fresh fish and shrimp on weekends—catfish, trout, red fish, red snapper, flounder, and the largest size shrimp—all sold in bulk or custom baked by Marcel.

Also on Thursdays they have assorted breads including rye, pumpernickel, egg twist, onion, bagel, hard rolls and French bread.

All these weekend specials are in addition to the complete line of plain and fancy foods available at Pick & Pay on the East Highway, open seven days a week. Picnic and party headquarters, Pick & Pay is the place to pick up all you need for the best ingredients for all occasions.

CENTER FOR TOYS—Here is a display of dolls and other items likely to excite the small fry at Toyland, located in the Highland Shopping Center. Toyland and Snyder Athletic Supply combine to provide year-round play and recreation equipment in the Snyder area.

Two Stores Combine To Give Well-Rounded Service Here

Snyder Athletic Supply and Toyland, located in the Highland Park shopping center, have combined to give a more complete service the year round Guy Sullivan and Gene Williams are the co-owners. Williams is the manager of the store with his wife, Marlene as bookkeeper and toy buyer.

Right now a big summer clearance of sporting goods and a few summer items in the Toyland side, such as sand sets, water toys, etc., are being offered.

The two stores combined handle a complete line of sporting goods, toys and baby supplies, including baseball, football, golf, Little League and tennis equipment along with a very large assortment of model planes, boats and AMT carousing kits plus ready to fly plane kits.

"We have all accessories also in the baby line we have plastic baby furniture, baby strollers, baby car seats and baby cribs," Williams said.

Earl Long Into Runoff

By HAROLD K. MILKS

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro has found a third of the Cuban sugar crop—the cornerstone of the country's shaky economy—to the Communist bloc.

For the next five years Cuba has agreed to supply the Soviet Union and Red China 1 1/2 million tons of sugar annually out of a harvest that this year is set at 5,700,000 tons. Shipments to other Communist countries will bring the total Cuban sugar going behind the Iron Curtain to nearly two million tons a year.

The Soviets also have bought the 700,000 tons of sugar President Eisenhower cut from Cuba's 1960 sales to the United States.

The Castro deals with the Communists are largely on a barter basis pegged to world prices. The United States long has been Cuba's best customer at premium prices of 2 to 2 1/2 cents a pound above the world market price.

The Soviet Union pays the world price and Red China presumably will do likewise.

Maj. Ernesto Guevara, the Red-leaning president of the Cuban National Bank, signed a five-year pact with a Peiping trade mission Saturday night to supply Red China a half million tons of sugar a year.

The terms were along the lines of the earlier agreement to send the Soviet Union a million tons a year.

The Cuban-Soviet pact led to the establishment of diplomatic relations between the two countries. The trade agreement with Red China is expected to follow the same course, making Cuba the first nation in the Western Hemisphere to recognize the Peking regime.

Four In Family Killed In Crash

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — A single-engine airplane crashed into a hillside Sunday near the western Pennsylvania community of Centerville, killing the four occupants, all members of a Maryland family.

Killed were Richard Callison, 46, Rockville, Md., the pilot; his wife, Marcela, 49; and two daughters, Sally Ann, about 12, and Betsy Jane, 9. Two other daughters were home.

Federal Aviation Authority officials said the plane apparently ran out of gas in a dense morning fog.

Apple Assn. Meets In Citrus Center

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — With the exception of a few trees in back yards, there are no apples grown in Florida. But members of the Florida Citrus Commission looked forward to the opening today of the 66th annual meeting of the International Apple Assn.

As a commission member pointed out, "There's more citrus sold at the apple convention than apples."

The big gathering, meeting for the first time in Florida, attracts dealers in all kinds of produce.

Smashup Is Fatal To Houston Couple

THEODORE, Ala. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. William S. Ward, of Houston, Tex., were killed Sunday in an accident involving their automobile and two trailer-trucks.

Police said their car was struck from the rear by one of the big vehicles and knocked into the path of the other.

Philip Rodney Adams, 24, of Anniston, Ala., who was driving the first truck was charged with manslaughter.

Nine-Hour Marriage Ends In Shooting

CULVER CITY (AP) — The marriage of Hoyt and Betty Mull lasted just nine hours. Then they quarreled and the bride was shot to death.

Mrs. Mull, 27, a male nurse, was booked on suspicion of murder. Police said he told them his wife was holding the pistol when it went off by accident as they argued.

She still wore her blue bridal gown when officers arrived Saturday night to find her body with three bullet wounds.

Violence In State Claims 41 Victims

By The Associated Press
Late Sunday night auto accidents, one killing three youths in Houston, pushed weekend violent deaths in Texas to 41.

Of the dead, 20 died in traffic, 9 by gunfire and 5 drowned. A rattlesnake bite killed a Big Spring girl.

Three teenagers died Sunday night and a fourth was seriously injured when a car that police said was stolen smashed into a house.

Only the name of the survivor, Ray Brolley, 16, of Houston was learned at once. One of the boys died instantly, another died en route to a hospital, and the third died in the hospital emergency room.

A two car collision Sunday night at Rascas, south of Hillsboro, killed Eddie Davis, about 40, and Mrs. John Martin, 60, both of near-by Rascas.

At Houston, Margaret Schnitzler, 18, a University of Texas student, died Sunday night of injuries received in an auto accident near Angleton earlier Sunday.

Archie Kirkpatrick, 42, of Bonham was killed by a hit and run driver Sunday night. His body was found on Farm Road 1396 about 8 miles north of U.S. 82 in Fannin County.

Other late deaths included: Lee Douglas, 8, of Port Neches, drowned Sunday in the Neches River, at Sheffield's ferry 12 miles west of Kirbyville.

Carl Hughes, 25, Negro, was shot to death in a Houston street Sunday.

Troy Gaffney, 20-month-old son of a Ft. Hood soldier, Larry Gaffney, choked to death Sunday when he was caught between the mattress and railing of a bunk bed in his home at Killen.

Maynard Adams, 51, of Richardson drowned Sunday while swimming with two of his five children in Garza-Little Elm Lake, north of Dallas.

Carol Clark, 16, of Big Spring died Sunday after being bitten twice on the foot by a rattlesnake while on a fishing trip.

Ollie Green, 21, of Pittsburg was shot to death by Sheriff H. H. Loveless outside a Pittsburg cafe early Sunday. Police said the youth knocked the sheriff down as he tried to take Green to jail.

A. J. Gorman and William Joyner, both 36, of McAllen, were killed Sunday when a car overturned south of Falfurrias.

Ronald Bradley, 25, Houston Negro, was shot fatally during an argument at a Dallas house early Sunday.

George Skinner, 61, of Corsicana and Robert Scott, 34, Fort Worth Negro, were killed in an auto collision south of Corsicana early Sunday.

Real Thing Not Enough For Movie

By BOB BARNES
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A National political powwow recently ended in Los Angeles, another starting in Chicago—but is that enough for Hollywood?

Not on your life. The movie moguls had to set up their own. The glitz, the drama, the excitement—all these were available in the genuine commodity when the Democrats were in town.

You'd think it was made to order for a movie company about to shoot a political convention sequence.

But they don't do things that way out here. So—

A new and unusual political convention was staged last week. The press tables were filled, but not a word went out. Speeches boomed, candidates were halleluied—and it never made TV.

Why didn't Warner Bros. use all the honest-to-goodness politicking? The Democrats didn't follow the right script, that's why. The signs had different names, the cast wasn't right. Everything was all wrong.

For the movie, "A Fever in the Blood," 800 delegates packed the hall, strawhatted and shirtless and festooned with campaign buttons.

It was just like real—until the cameras stopped grinding.

Then the "delegates" were too quiet. They didn't chatter enough. These were no out-of-towners on hand to politic, mend fences and make new friends.

They were bored extras, waiting for the lights to go back on, the director to cry, "action" so they could grope and react as instructed.

Any remaining illusion of reality was smashed when men rushed in with smoke machines. "A little more smoke in the center," bellowed the loudspeakers. Hold it, that's too much.

Results came back. It took 10 minutes to get the smoke machine to work like the real thing—for a minute or so at a time.
