NUMBER 7

Mister Conservative has entered the 1964 presidential race, and in doing so he is rendering his country a very definite service. Whether or not he reaches his goal, it is certain that the airing of his political philosophy will stimulate a lot of thinking and help the public to become more aware of the extreme liberalism under which the nation has been operating these past several years.

Even in defeat the man can do a lot of good. There can be no doubt that he will sell many people on his ideas of economy and fiscal responsibility, on greater respect for states rights, on greater firmness in dealing with the Reds, on winning rather than co-existing in the cold war. And when those ideas receive greater popular support we can expect them to have greater influence in Washington regardless of which party has its man in the White House.

The success of his venture, of course, depends on several big questions. The first of those is whether the Republican party will regard him as its best candidate. The political picture changed a great deal when Johnson took over as chief executive. He's conceded to be more conservative than Kennedy, with a better chance of holding conservative votes, especially in the South. So, will Republican strategy switch to a more liberal candidate or will it go for Goldwater?

And if Goldwater is nominated there are other questions remaining. How strong is the nation's swing toward conservatism? Will his campaign strengthen it sufficiently to see him through successfully?

But regardless of how the big contest turns out, this column for one is grateful to Goldwater for his decision. What he says and does now will have greater influence because of his more important status as a candidate. After these many years of liberalism an increase of such influence could be very helpful to the government, starting even before the election.

A gratifying development last week is widespread circulation of an explanation on that highly controversial Russian wheat deal. First we were told it was a cash deal, and a flood of public protest pointed out that we should turn it down because the grain is more valuable to Russia than the money is to us. Nevertheless the deal went through. Next Khrushchev beefed that his ships were not getting enough of the hauling. So we gave in and gave him a still better deal. Then came word it was not a cash deal after all. K wanted to buy on credit, despite his lousy record of paying past debts. Grain dealers would not extend the credit, so our government agreed to finance it through the Export Import Bank, which is backed by our treasury.

So here is the revised status on that fiasco. Our Number One enemy gets grain, which he desperately needs to fight his cold war against us, for a slow note indorsed by us taxpayers. According to his record he will never pay that debt. In other words the grain is a gift from us. And most likely we'll also pay the Soviet ships for hauling it.

An article in last week's US News and World Report presented some very significant facts on grain production in various parts of the world. Stating that hunger is to be the world's No. 1 problem, it points out that the production of grain relative to population during the past thirty years has increased most in Australia, New Zealand, North America and Western Europe. Also that production has increased very little in Eastern Europe and Africa and has decreased in Asia and Latin America.

The comparison shows a clear distinction between capitalist free enterprise countries and those living under communism or flirting with the communist system. And it takes on added significance when we consider the production capability of the areas thirty years ago. The free countries were mechanized then whereas the others were farming by primitive methods. In general it means that the free world has no hunger problem.

Hospital Dedication and Open House Set January 19

The eagerly awaited dedication and formal opening of Muenster Memorial Hospital will be held on Sunday, January 19, starting at 2 o'clock.

The date was set last Sunday by Sister Mildred, administrator, after it appeared likely that installation of equipment could be finished in time. She added, however, that the date for admitting patients still has not been decided. It must be delayed at least long enough for a cleanup after open house traffic, and it may be a few days longer to complete equipment installations. Hiring of the hospital staff is finished.

Opening day program will consist of three parts. First there will be a blessing by Father Alcuin Kubis, pastor of Sacred Heart Church dedicating the new building to the service of God. Immediately after there will be introductions of key personnel in construction and operation of the hospital and remarks by some of them. Later in the day Father Alcuin will be celebrant of a mass in the hospital chapel.

The rest of the event is the open house to show the hand, some new building and its facilities to the visitors. Persons stationed at various spots will explain features and facilities as groups are escorted by guides. The tour will end with coffee and cookies.

Muenster's new hospital is a magnificent modern building that has been under construction since August 1962. Rated as a 30 bed hospital, it has 22 rooms, 14 of which are private and 8 semi-private. The private rooms, however, are the same size as the others. Each is large enough to accommodate two beds and the hospital actually can accommodate 44 patients without crowding.

Central facilities such as operating rooms, labs, kitchen, etc., are rated as adequate for more than twice the patient capacity.

Construction is steel, brick and plaster throughout — as near fireproof as possible. Floors are vinyl tile and walls vinyl covered for easy cleaning. Heating and cooling are accomplished by circulation of hot or cold water.

Two special features of the hospital are a chapel with seating for about 25 and separate quarters for the Benedictine sisters, who are in charge.

Cost of the hospital, when the final bills are paid, probably will add to about $750,000. Added to that is a reserve of $50,000 on which the hospital will begin operation. That total outlay of about $800,000 comes from three sources: $200,000 from donations, $300,000 from a Hill-Burton federal grant, and $300,000 from a bond issue. The $200,000 was raised by a drive and the intention of the Muenster Hospital Authority is to continue the drive for as many years as needed to pay off the $300,000 debt.

The hospital was built by A. P. Kasch and Sons of Big Spring. Its architect was J. R. Killbrew of Wichita Falls.

Mobile Service Added to Local Telephone System

Mobile dial telephone service was installed here last week by the Muenster Telephone Corporation. Alvin Fuhrmann, manager and co-owner said ten persons have subscribed up to now and the system can serve up to 30.

The installation includes a deal with the city in which the phone company swaps its fire phone service for lease of the water tower as its antenna base. The fire phone service consists of simultaneous calls to ten of the firemen's phones also a connection from city hall to the fire siren.

As explained by Fuhrmann, the mobile phones send or receive calls by direct dialing like any other phone on the Muenster, Myra, Forestburg system. However they operate somewhat like party line phones. When one is called only it will ring. While it is in use none of the others can be used. They will have an "in use" light burning and cannot hear any of the conversation.

Range of the system is about 30 miles.

Monthly rate for the service is $37.50, which is set by the city council. That is a flat rate regardless of the number of calls. The unit operates on a single channel and can not be used to talk on any other mobile phone system.

Mrs. Jo Hillis Seeks County Tax Office

Mrs. Jo Hillis authorized the Enterprise this week to announce that she will be a candidate for Cooke County tax assessor-collector in this year's Democratic primary.

Her formal statement to voters will appear in this paper at a later date.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Mrs. Joe Hoenig was in Dallas Monday for a checkup on her knee and the specialist said surgery is necessary, but she came back home to wait until a room is available at Baylor Hospital. Arrangements are made for her to enter Sunday and have the knee operation Monday. Meanwhile she can't walk but gets around the house in a wheelchair. Mr. Hoenig went to Dallas with her and they met their son Rupert Hoenig there.

Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel has her broken left ankle in a cast now. She had to wait eight days for the severe swelling to go down.

C. F. Gobble is back at home, dismissed from the VA Hospital in McKinney Saturday, and is regaining his strength after major surgery. He's taking it easy this week, expects to be back in circulation next week.

Young Farmers to Hear ETSC Ag Man

W. L. Dorries, agricultural economist at East Texas State College will be the speaker when Muenster's chapter of Young Farmers of America meet next Monday night at 8 in the MHS ag room.

His subject will be the 1964 outlook on production and price of dairy products, beef and wheat.

The meeting will be open and adult farmers are welcome.

Auxiliary to VFW Maps Program for MOD Campaign

Muenster VFW Auxiliary, at Monday night's meeting, mapped plans to again sponsor the annual March of Dimes this year.

Mrs. Beatrice Siebel of Gainesville was a guest at the meeting and discussed the drive with the membership. She presented the organization a citation in recognition of work done in connection with the March of Dimes program in past years.

Mrs. Don Flusche accepted general chairmanship of the campaign for the Auxiliary. The two principal sources of revenue will come from the traditional church door collection and from school children's contributions.

Participation in the March of Dimes is listed as the honor roll requirement for January.

County FB Starts Membership Drive

With a goal of 590, the Cooke County Farm Bureau membership committee, headed by Joe Sandmann, started plans this week for a membership drive to be held in February.

The kickoff meeting will be on Feb. 4 in the FB building with Warren Newberry of Vernon, area field services director, as the speaker. The local drive will coincide with a state wide drive.

Named to serve on the membership committee are Martin Bayer, Gus Lutkenhaus and Tony Walterscheid of Muenster; Joe Bauer Jr., Tony Sicking and Burney Almon of Gainesville; R. F. Hassenpflug and Henry Sandmann of Valley View; Bruno Zimmerer, Al Bengfort, Paul Arendt and Joe Hundt of Lindsay; George Berry, Rostons; Milton Hickman, Sivells Bend; Jim Blount, Hood; Henry Schumacher and David Schneiderjan of Dornard Fairplains.

Firemen Offer to Burn Vacant Lots

Persons who want to burn grass and weeds off vacant lots are advised that the fire department is willing to take over that job for them.

At their regular practice session on Thursday the 23rd the firemen will burn lots and stand by with their fire trucks in case the flames threaten to get out of control.

Those wanting lots burned can phone their request to the city hall.

Raised in Rank

It's Lieutenant (j.g.) Charles Felderhoff now. He received the raise in rank in Long Beach, Calif., where he is on duty with the Navy.

County Poll Taxes Start Recovery From Early Slump

Poll tax payments in Cooke County are lagging behind their usual count at this time, but business is picking up, says Rafe Piper, tax collector.

Reason for the delay is the November 9 vote on abolishing the poll tax. Many persons pay property taxes in October and include their poll tax payments. But last year was an exception. They held back the poll tax payment awaiting outcome of the election.

It all meant that poll tax payments were started more than a month later than usual. And holidays probably caused more delay.

Sales are speeding up, however and are expected to get well past last year's total of 5821 before the deadline arrives on January 31. Because of the general election the total is expected to be near 1960's figure of 7,980.

Persons between ages of 21 and 60 must pay the poll tax in order to be eligible to vote. Those who reach the age of 21 during the voting year will need an exemption certificate to qualify. Those over 60 in cities of less than 10,000 population can vote without an exemption certificate.

As an accommodation to local voters, Muenster State Bank this year is again accepting poll tax payments and sending in applications for receipts. A person fills out a form and pays $1.75, and a few days later he will receive by mail his receipt from the tax collector.

Muenster Jaycees, like those of many other cities, will be boosting poll tax sales this year. Joe Gallaway, president, says that several members will be working at it the last week of the month.

Muenster Hospital grounds have been dressed up with shrubbery and trees. The Civic League and Garden Club's landscaping committee, joined by volunteer helpers, spent two days at the site planting, fertilizing and watering.

It became almost a community project. Individuals and organizations contributed money and labor, someone else served hot coffee to the workers, the city sent a truck to pick up rocks and haul them away, children who accompanied their parents ran errands, NTPA sent six men.

Mrs. Dan Luke chairman, and members of her committee extend thanks to those who assisted in any way. The group includes the following:

Pagels Begin 55th Year of Business In Same Location

Pagel's Store begins 1964 as its 55th year in business in Muenster, a record of service unmatched in the community. It is still operating in the same location on Main Street.

Pagel's Store has been owned and operated by three generations of Pagels and the fourth generation is now growing up in the store.

It was on January 1, 1909, when Jacob Pagel opened the business as a general merchandise store. After his retirement in 1938 his son Jacob Jr. succeeded him and when the latter retired, 1955, his son Maurice Pagel took over. He had been working in the store for his father.

Pagel's Store withstood the adversities of lean year and prospered in lush seasons. In the early days when crop failures came frequently, Pagel's carried many customers through on charge accounts until crop returns made payment possible.

Pagel's Store has grown with the city during the years. It has been modernized to meet ever-increasing customer demands including a meat market, frozen food section and fresh vegetable department, and free delivery service.

It's still a general merchandise store, and it's still recognized for those old-time virtues of high standards established by its founder — quality merchandise, fair price and courteous service. These are among the things that thousands of residents of the community and trade area associate with Pagel's.

Assisting Maurice Pagel in the business are his wife Geneva, Mrs. Al Walterscheid, Danny and Jerry Yosten and Dwayne Pagel.

Vocational Nurses Receive Diplomas

Exercises for the first graduating class of vocational nurses from Gainesville Memorial Hospital were held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at Temple Baptist Church. Dr. C. F. Lusk, chief of staff, presented diplomas to 15 graduates.

The group included Mrs. Bernard Haverkamp of Muenster and a former resident, Mrs. Alvin Noggler of Gainesville.

At the ceremonies and a reception afterwards were relatives and friends of the pair including Mrs. Tony Otto, Mrs. J. P. Flusche and Mrs. Tony Hoenig going especially to see Mrs. Noggler; and Bernard Haverkamp, Messrs. and Mmes. Leonard Haverkamp, Fred Knabe and Alois Fuhrmann, Mrs. L. O. Laughlin and Miss Mary Ann Lorenz.

F. Trubenbach, 79, Dies; Funeral Here Burial in Kansas

Frank Trubenbach, 79, who came to Muenster 67 years ago and made it his home ever since, died Monday at 11:20 p.m. in a Dallas hospital. He had been in failing health for some time.

Requiem mass for him was held in Sacred Heart Church Thursday morning at 9:30, Father Alcuin Kubis officiating. Immediately after the service the body was taken by Miller Funeral Home to Sabetha, Kansas, for requiem mass there at 11 a.m. Friday. Burial will follow in Fidelity, Kansas, beside his wife Mayme who died in March 1953.

Bearers were nephews: Joe and Alois Trubenbach, Leo and Ted Voth, Tony Sicking and Andy Trubenbach.

Rosary was recited at the Miller Chapel Wednesday at 4 and at 8 p.m.

Trubenbach was born May 4, 1884, in Falls City, Neb., and was 12 years old when his family moved to Muenster. He married Miss Mayme Grewing here on Jan. 22, 1907, and they farmed north of town.

Surviving are six daughters, Mrs. Rudy Hellman of Lubbock, Mrs. Frank Neu of Valley View, Mrs. Arnold Swirczynski of San Angelo, Mrs. Bob Swirczynski of Muenster, Mrs. John Pappas of Jacksonville, Fla., Mrs. Billy Metzler of Lindsay; three sons, Harry of Amarillo, Alfred of Wichita Falls and Frank Trubenbach Jr. of Plant City, Fla.; 23 grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren, one brother Tony Trubenbach Sr. of Muenster, and two half-sisters Mrs. Barney Voth of Muenster and Mrs. Margaret Sicking of Gainesville.

Bordeau Family Loses Maine Home Contents in Fire

Since Mrs. Arthur Bordeaux and children are in Muenster visiting her mother, Mrs. T. S. Myrick, their home in East Peru, Maine, burned to the ground with a loss of all furnishings, clothing, and personal possessions.

The big one and half story farm home and all contents were destroyed at a loss estimated at $12,000.

Mrs. Bordeaux and four children arrived for a visit Dec. 26 and the fire was the following Sunday evening. Cause of the blaze was not determined.

Mr. Bordeaux, a school teacher, did not accompany his family to Texas, but was not at home at the time. He was visiting cousins in the community.

He telephoned, then sent newspaper clippings and pictures. He has called since to tell the family they'll be coming back to a new home, a furnished apartment in town, just across the street from the school where he teaches. Mrs. Bordeaux and the children plan to return in about a week.

Scholastic Census Starts Next Week

Muenster's annual scholastic census will begin next week under direction of Superintendent L. B. Bruns.

Principal George Petrus said Wednesday that the census forms are here and ready to fill out, but nothing is being done this week while mid term exams are in progress and Superintendent Bruns is attending an administrators' meeting in Austin.

The mid term exams are not early, Petrus pointed out, even though they are ahead of those in most other schools. School started a week early here and will also end a week early.

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE IS COMING THROUGH

The recent battle in Congress over the amount of American taxpayers' dollars to be given to foreign governments was probably the most lively one since the vast give-away started right after World War II with the Marshall Plan.

Yet few, if any, writers or commentators have chosen to inquire searchingly into the role the American people are playing in growing Congressional reluctance to give the Administration anything and everything it asks for.

Not only is John Q. Citizen growing tired of seeing his money poured down a rat-hole under the guise of "stopping communism" and helping "underdeveloped" Afro-Asian nations — but he is becoming more acutely aware than ever before of his United States Constitution.

An increasing number of Americans are turning to the great documents of our heritage in an effort to determine what authority the Federal Government has for many of its actions. These are the people who, once they have examined the Constitution time and again, are impressing upon their legislators their deep misgivings over unconstitutional laws and executive edicts.

This burgeoning number of students of the basic American system have learned that the Constitution was a contract between a people and their government. Its uniqueness rests in the fact that it marked the first time in the history of the world when a people drew up the structure of their own government and, at the same time, specified exactly what that government's rights and powers were to be.

It was a complete about face from the general order of things whereby men ruled by divine right and doled out limited rights to their subjects.

One of the major discoveries being made by Americans today is their Constitution's total lack of authorization for government - to - government "foreign aid". The generous assistance from the American people to distressed peoples of foreign lands is traditional. But it was always voluntary, through individuals and private organizations.

What John Q. Citizen objects to so strongly now is the compulsion under which he is forced to "donate" — without even the privilege of specifying where his "charity" is to be distributed. This is the difference between true generosity and that which is generated under tax-collector's duress.

Also, the fallacy that the Federal Government is somehow dispensing its own resources is not escaping attention. Widespread recognition is being given to the truth that Government, being but an abstraction, has no funds of its own but must take money by force of taxation from its citizens before it can pretend to be magnanimous.

As so many are learning, our founding fathers were vitally concerned over the eventual possibility that a gang of give-away artists would get their hands in the public till. This is expressly why no Constitutional authority was given the Government to lavish the fruits of the people's labor on foreign potentates and dignitaries.

Contrary to the views of alarm now coming from the foreign-aid advocates, the drastic cutting of such appropriations is not a tragedy at all. Rather, it is a healthy sign that Americans are beginning to echo the solid sentiments of those who initiated our great Republic.

REASON FOR REJOICING

Today, in 1963, we live in a time where there appears to be a growing trend in favor of private ownership of property. Even the national administration, committed as it has been to a share-the-wealth kind of administration, has not been successful in a number of its grandiose schemes. The economy will not stand a perpetual tampering and it appears that a glimmering of this realization is now dawning in parts of America.

More particularly can we rejoice at the growth of rebellion against socialism in the minds of young students in various institutions of higher learning. Conservatism, and its conscience, the voice of liberty, once almost dead and buried in the welter of federal dogoodism which flourished in the 30s, is now on the way up.

Our college students tell us that socialism is "old hat," passe, a dead issue. The burning question of our times on scores of campuses across the land is the question of ownership; the concept of human rights, the recognition of private property and private determinism.

There is still a long way to

go. But those who believe in the hallowed nature of human liberty can, we believe, with reason, rejoice in the gains that have been made. The times are pregnant with a rebirth of the spirit of liberty.

U FOR USELESS

In all the world's history, few organizations have claimed so much and accomplished so little as the United Nations.

Any objective study of UN operations over a period of years will bear out the fact that this world "super-government" has abetted aggression by the Communist powers, but has checkmated counteraction by the democratic states.

It condoned Sukarno's rape of Papua. It overlooked Indian aggression against Goa and other territories on the sub-continent, which have been Portuguese for centuries. It did nothing about Hungary, and has closed its eyes to the enslavement of Eastern Europe while forming the framework for military action and other harassment of Angola and the Union of South Africa. It ignored the onslaught against Tibet, and now it is compromising effective action to quench the sparks in the tinder box of the Middle East.

The 110-member General Assembly of the United Nations is sometimes defended on the score that it is a debating society that relieves tensions. No unprejudiced observer can share that view. The inflammatory speeches in the General Assembly do not serve the interests of peace. And freedom of speech simply does not exist in the General Assembly or its main sub-agencies. Any explanation of the position of the white colonies on the continent of Africa is hooted down, if not expunged from the record.

The UN is an expensive luxury at best—a means by which espionage and treachery are practiced regularly by our enemies. And we pay most of the bills.

We can't attend to the best interests of the United States in any part of this troubled world today, so long as we remain blind to the built-in deficiencies of the United Nations.

A wedding of interest locally is that of Thursday, Jan. 2, when Leon Hess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hess of Muenster, married Miss Delia Sota of Brady in Rochelle.

The nuptial service was in St. Patrick's church at Rockelle with the pastor, Father Carlos, officiating at 4:30 p.m. For her wedding the bride chose a 2-piece beige knit suit with matching accessories. Her sister, Miss Mary Sota, was maid of honor and a friend from Brady was best man.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Sota, grandparents of the bride, who reared her since early childhood, entertained at their home in Brady with a reception and dinner.

Among guests were the groom's parents, his brothers Gerald, Frank and Dwaine Hess and Gary Dickerson of Muenster and Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Nasche and sons of Austin.

The newlyweds are at home in Fort Worth where both are employed.

The man who just switched to bifocals is never at a loss for conversation.

Mrs. Medders Hosts Grandmas' Party For Mrs. Joe Smiddy

It was a great day for grandmas when Muenster's Golden Years Club was entertained Thursday at the Ernest Medders home. Some 20 grandmas and great-grandmas were there and other guests, youngsters and oldsters, added up to some 50 present.

It's always a noon luncheon meeting for the club and members bring covered dishes for the meal. But not this time. Mrs. Medders entertained for her mother, Mrs. Joe Smiddy, who came from Gainesville Hospital to attend. Mrs. Smiddy isn't released from the hospital yet, but is permitted visits back home.

Other guests included the Medders' out-of-town visitors, her brother and his wife, the S. D. Smiddys of Williamsburg, Kentucky, and their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smiddy and children Gloria, Bobby and Caroline of Knoxville, Tenn. The Charles Smiddy family left Saturday. His parents are remaining for a longer visit.

Cynthia Wimmer And Teddy Miller Say Vows at Mass

Miss Cynthia Wimmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wimmer, and Teddy Miller, son of T. Miller, exchanged vows in a double ring ceremony at nuptial mass in Sacred Heart Church Saturday. Father Alcuin Kubis officiated at the 4 p.m. service.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose a wedding gown of white brocade satin with fitted bodice and long tapered sleeves. The wide skirt, with extra fullness caught at the back with a large satin rose, swept into a chapel train. A crown of pearlized orange blossoms held her elbow length veil. She carried a white carnation arrangement atop her prayerbook, a gift from the groom.

Adding a bit of sentiment she wore a pearl pendant on a silver chain borrowed from her sister, and carried a white silk handkerchief handed down from her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Joe Walterscheid. The handkerchief was brought from France and was carried by the bride's mother at her wedding.

Miss Shirley Wimmer, maid of honor, and Miss Mary Wimmer, bridesmaid, were their sister's attendants. They wore blush pink velveteen gowns with fitted bodice, rounded neckline and elbow length sleeves. The full-length skirts featured wide unpressed pleats caught at the waist with a soft self belt. Their pillbox hats matched their dresses and their flowers were hand bouquets of pink carnations.

The groom's attendants were former classmates. Roger Taylor was best man and Jim Fuhrmann of Irving was groomsman. David Yosten and Clyde Walterscheid ushered.

Sacred Heart men's choir sang for the mass. Anthony Luke was organist. Mrs. Rody Klement, cousin of the bride, was vocal soloist before mass and again afterwards when the bride placed the traditional bouquet on the Blessed Virgin's altar.

Reception and buffet were held in the Parish Hall with more than 300 relatives and friends as guests. Mrs. Joe Lehnertz catered the meal and Misses Della Wimmer and Ruth Wimmer, cousins of the bride, served the cake. Presiding at the bride's book were Miss Sharon Yosten niece of the groom, and Miss Carol Wimmer, cousin of the bride. The bride's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wimmer, were among guests. Grandmother Walterscheid was unable to attend.

When the newlyweds left on their honeymoon, not revealing their destination, she was wearing a creamy white wool three-piece suit with brown accessories. They will be at home in Muenster.

She attended Sacred Heart School, Holy Angels Academy in Jonesboro, Ark., and Cooke County Junior College and was employed by Lone Star Gas Company in Fort Worth. Mr. Miller is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School and Cooke County Junior College.

Out Of Town Guests

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Herr of Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Stelzer of Post, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Berend of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Luke of Dallas, Messrs. and Mmes. Stan and Paul Yosten, Charlie Stelzer and Herbie Knabe, all of Fort Worth.

Mrs. Joe Schnitker and the Alfred Schnitkers of Denison, Mr. and Mrs. Al Schnitker, the Earl and James Schnitkers of Pottsboro, Miss Shirley Bell of Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Kasperek, Mrs. John Corcoran and daughter Linda and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Corcoran of Gainesville, Mrs. Clara Bengfort of Lindsay.

Misses Sharon Klement, Sharon Yosten, and Jane Endres of Fort Worth, Misses Frances Walterscheid, Karen Endres, Carol Wimmer, Gloria Yosten and Della Wimmer and David Walter, all of Dallas.

By 1975 we will be using daily ten times as much water as our grandfathers used in 1900. Now in our homes the average daily consumption per person is put at 150 gallons.

MHS Teams Start District Play with Wins over Lindsay

MHS ball teams are tied for the district lead, at least for now, after winning their season openers with Lindsay Tuesday night. Girls won 36-23 and boys 36-27.

In the first contest the visiting girls lost in the first quarter. At that time they trailed 14-1 and thereafter they gained in the second and fourth periods but could not overcome the Muenster lead. Scores the other quarters were 24-14, 33-16 and 36-23.

Brenda Carson was outstanding as a guard for MHS and the scorers were Sandra Cain 12, Dolores Monday 11, Cindy Cain 9, Pat Fette 4. For Lindsay they were Haverkamp 11 and Bezner 7.

The boys game was more of the same. The Hornets jumped ahead 11-6 and 25-11 the first two periods. In the third Lindsay got hot and gained 8 points. Early in the fourth they were only 4 behind when the Hornets finally took control and won 36-27.

Chris Cain was the Hornet hot shot with 13. Roy Reiter made 8 and Weldon Vogel 7. Sandmann hit 11 for the Knights.

The story was different in a pair with Forestburg last Friday. MHS girls lost 32-25. The boys were clobbered 51-29.

Muenster girls failed to get on the score board in the first period as the visitors posted 9. In the second and third Forestburg gained for counts of 19-8 and 28-13, then Muenster rallied and trimmed the margin to 7 points. Sandra Cain's absence accounted for some of Muenster's trouble. Cindy Cain scored 16 and Dolores Monday 9.

The boys game was Forestburg's all the way and scores by periods were 13-3, 32-13, 46-19, 51-29. Leading Hornet scorers were Chris Cain 8 and Bob Russell 7.

VFW Auxiliary ---

In other business the group discussed plans for their participation in the dedication and open house program at Muenster Hospital on Sunday, January 19. The various groups will report for practice on days appointed.

Dance plans for Valentine were also discussed and a committee was named to take over details and announce arrangements when completed.

Two thank-you cards were read from servicemen overseas who were among the 18 receiving gifts from the Auxiliary for Christmas. Capt. Vincent Bozzone on Okinawa and Sailor Tommy Boyles, aboard ship, expressed appreciation for the billfolds.

Members planned their next meeting for February 10, a postponement for one week, on account of a dance that is scheduled for Feb. 3, the regular meeting date. On the Feb. 10 date the Auxiliary will treat VFW Post members to supper. It is the Post's regular meeting date.

One new member was welcomed. Mrs. David Reiter was received in the organization with the prescribed ritual.

Mrs. Charlie Pagel, president, presided and Mrs. C. M. Walterscheid won the attendance prize. Thirty-two members were present and concluded the evening with a social hour.

Parochial Teams Win Three Games With Pilot Point

Basketball teams of Sacred Heart High had a big night last Friday winning all three of a triple program with Pilot Point High.

First was a Boys B game won 37-17. Next the Tigerettes squeezed out a 30-26 thriller, then the Tigers won 45-32.

The Tiger rookies gained in the first half for a lead of 15-6. Next quarter ended 21-11 then Sacred Heart got hot and gained 10 more in the last period. James Fleitman made 17 points.

In the girls game Sacred Heart led 12-2 at the first quarter and 16-7 at the half. Then the visitors started moving up 26-20 at the third period and a 26-26 tie a few minutes before the end. Finally a successful rally gave the Tigerettes their 30-26 lead. Mary Wimmer and Barbara Schmitt hit 12 each.

A bit of similar excitement came in the boys A game. Tigers led 12-8 at the quarter and only 20-19 at the half. In the last two periods they put on the steam and gained for leads of 32-23, and 45-32. Virgil Hess with 17 and Tony Fuhrmann with 10 were top scorers.

Kin in Accident

Mrs. B. G. Lyons learned Wednesday that her sister and husband, the E. W. Holcombes of Stanton, were hospitalized after a car accident Tuesday. Early X-rays at a Big Spring hospital revealed Mrs. Holcombe, 72, with three broken ribs and her 78-year-old husband with a broken pelvis bone and other injuries. Further examinations were being made.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Winchester visited two days last week with his sister, Mrs. Ora Goff of Walters, Okla.

Marysville News

By Mrs. John Richey

MARYSVILLE, Jan. 7 — Word was received Sunday by Mrs. Earl Robison of the death of her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Viola Pennington, in a Fort Worth hospital Saturday. Marysville residents remember her as the former Ola Davidson, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Davidson. She was born and reared in Marysville and was the widow of Moody Pennington. They lived in Miami after moving from Marysville 25 years ago. He died in 1959 and she had since made her home with a daughter, Mrs. W. C. Crabtree in Fort Worth. Funeral services were held Monday in Fort Worth and the body was taken to Miami for burial. Survivors include a sister, Mrs. S. M. Duffy of Fort Worth. Mrs. Robison and the Owen Almons of Gainesville attend the services in Fort Worth.

Mrs. J. N. Shaw is recovering from pneumonia that sent her to Gainesville Hospital for medical care on New Year's Day. She expects to leave the hospital this weekend and recuperate further at the home of her sister, Mrs. Myrtle Blount at Gainesville, before returning to her farm home. Cheering her with visits at the hospital were the Albert Shaws and the W. F. Davidsons. The Davidsons also visited the Sam Bakers where there were flu patients in the home.

Mrs. Rafe McElreath and daughter Becky were shut-ins over the weekend with three-day measles. Others on the sick list, and recovered, are Mrs. Linzie Branch, Mrs. Buford Whitt and Mrs. R. D. Morris.

Mrs. B. G. Lyons was in Teague, Texas, Sunday to attend the funeral of Roy Pace, father of her granddaughter's husband, Bill Pace. He died Thursday of a heart attack in Houston where he resided. Mrs. Lyons made the trip with her daughter, Mrs. Marie Stiles of Gainesville and the latter's granddaughters, Marjorie and Jane Pace of Ardmore. They left Saturday and spent the night in Waco with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hagans. She is a daughter of the late Mr. Pace. Mrs. Lyons spent Sunday night and Monday with the Bill Pace family at Ardmore and also visited a cousin, Mollie Forbes, 84, who is up and around again after suffering a heart attack. Mrs. Stiles accompanied her mother home and spent over night with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sparkman attended funeral services Sunday afternoon at Era Baptist Church for his uncle George Canady. After the service they visited his aunt, Mrs. Ida Hudspeth who is ill.

All's quiet again at the Joe Wilcox home after a round of holiday entertaining for visitors. An uncle W. F. Owens and grandson Billy Davis came from Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Richey were guests from La Pryor, and Mrs. J. A. Travis, Muenster, joined them for visiting with her sister. Other guests were the M. K. Pries and grandson Carlton Freeman of Lawton, Okla., and Mr. Wilcox's mother, Mrs. M. M. Wilcox of Nocona. Weekend guests were his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Wilcox and son Wayne Wilcox and his family of Lawton, Okla.

Weekending with Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Whitt were their son and his wife, the R. L. Whitts of Fort Worth. Sunday guests were the L. N. Akins family of Gainesville. They also stopped in to see her uncle and aunt, the Charlie Winchesters.

Mr. and Mrs. Buford Whitt were special guests at a dinner party honoring their son James Whitt in his home at Muenster Monday evening. Mrs. James Whitt entertained for her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robison and son Jimmy drove to Spur Saturday to return grandchildren Mark and Jan Robison to their home after spending the holidays at Marysville. They spent the night with the Douglas Robisons after attending a ball game and meeting Earl's brother-in-law, Jack Huey and his players.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Davidson spent New Years Day at Callisburg with their daughter and family, the Bill Roes and daughters Elizabeth and Reba.

Among guests at the thirteenth birthday party of Debbie Cain in Muenster were Ronny McElreath, Carol Bridges, Sammy Sparkman, Faye Embrey, Becky McElreath, and Mrs. Rafe McElreath and Mrs. Sam Sparkman.

Misses Wanda and Charlotte McElreath have finished beauty college in Sherman and will go to Austin this weekend to take state board examinations.

V. M. Ramsey and the Sam Sparkmans and son Sammy spent a part of the recent holidays at Whitesboro with the Melton Ramseys.

Monica Haverkamp of Whitesboro is having a short vacation with her grandparents, the R. D. Morris and her aunt and family, the Reagan McElreaths.

THANKS

The words thanks, and appreciation are inadequate to express the gratitude in our hearts for your deeds of kindness during my 6½ weeks in the hospital. Your cards, letters, Christmas gifts and prayers were proof that I was not fighting the battle alone. Sincere thanks to the Catholic Daughters, V.F.W., K.C.'s, Home Ec. Class of Public School, Myra Methodist Church, and the City Produce, for those round robin cards. My family joins me in sincere thanks. May God grant that I may ever be worthy of friends like you. — Clive Gobble.

'64 Jet-smooth Luxury Chevrolet

What does it take to make a car a great highway performer?

If the car happens to be a '64 Chevrolet, one thing only. A highway.

You'll find everything else already neatly packaged for you—on the car exactly as you pick it off the showroom floor.

There's a choice of seven engines—all the way up to a twin-carb high-compression 425-hp V8*—and four transmissions, including a finely honed 4-speed stick shift.*

And underlying it all—a bump-skimming Jet-smooth ride that helps keep the performance great even when the highways aren't so great.

What about special performance equipment? Professional driving skills? Forget them.

Nobody has to doctor or coax or soup up these Chevrolets to get the best out of them.

And that's really the test of a great highway performer: Just about anyone can get a kick out of driving one, just about anywhere, just as it comes out of the showroom.

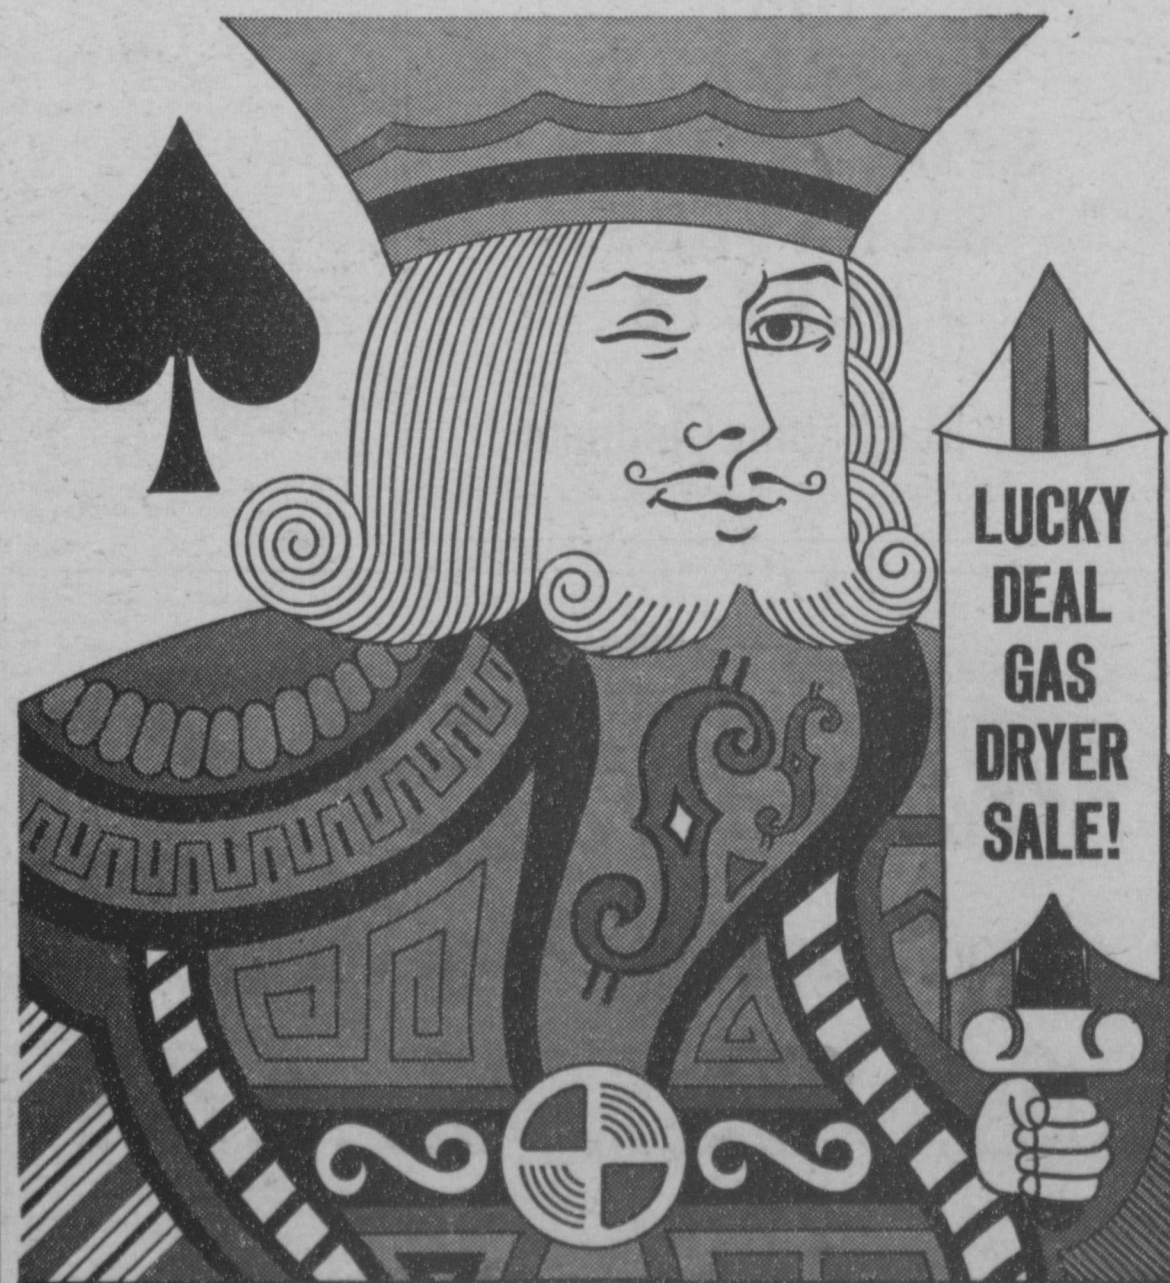

Next time you're out your dealer's way, allow a few extra minutes to sample one of these highway performers on your own. A few are really all you'll need. That's enough time to do a lot of driving in a Chevrolet. *Optional at extra cost

Sacred Heart High School Sodality members heard a panel discussion Friday on the advantages of attending a Catholic college. Speakers were three former students at home for the holidays: Loretta Schmitt of Our Lady of the Lake College in San Antonio, Patsy Endres of Incarnate Word College in San Antonio and Janice Vogel of the University of Dallas.

They spoke on the advantages materially and socially as well as spiritually, and urged sodalists who will be attending college to make the most of their spiritual and intellectual building in choosing a college.

blem for a long time but the slave countries and those leaning toward communism are already in trouble or facing it soon.

Those statistics point out the miserable failure of communism and the tragic mistake of some tottering countries that listen to the red line. Likewise they serve as a warning to the free countries, including our own, to start discarding some socialistic trends.

And it also provides a vital point for us to exploit in the global propaganda war. As leaders in the campaign for world freedom we have the duty to remind other people that this is more than a matter of human dignity. It is also a matter of survival. The facts show that freedom is the best assurance of security.

The situation is critically serious. It's high time for us to put on all possible pressure to rid the world of the red menace.

Nativity Scene Is Gift for Parish

On the Church calendar, Monday was the feast of the Epiphany or Three Kings — the three Wise Men from the East who followed a star to the stable in Bethlehem to pay homage to the Infant Savior.

Those who have observed the Nativity scene on the grounds at Sacred Heart Church and who noticed the Three Kings, Casper, Melchior and Baltasar, at a distance since Christmas, saw them Monday in the stable. They reached their destination.

The stable and the life size figures are new for the parish this year. Gifted by the Medders children Cathy, Frank, Mary Margaret and Sarah in honor of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Medders. It's entirely by coincidence that the cow in the stable is a black cow.
