The good always has some bad to go along with it. Otherwise, what would the pessimists feast upon?

Before the rains came here recently, the pessimists could point to the lack of water. When this problem was solved, along came the mosquito menace, and now someone has reminded that the new crop of weeds will be tough on hay fever sufferers.

But this is no new, or unusual malady. Researchers say that ragweed, the major cause of hay fever, has existed for at least 170 million years and that a single ragweed plant may produce up to one billion pollen grains.

How did hay fever get its name? The English take credit for it. They noted that it was a disease that seemed to reach its peak during the haying season. Unfortunately, it was not confined to England's shores. The colonists found it in America, and now it is estimated that no less than a quarter-million people in this country lose a week or more from work or school each year because of hay fever.

Dewey W. Mann of Nitro, West Va., writes that K. O. Pitner, Snyder City Secretary, was the only Texan who attended the reunion of his World War II unit, Co. B, 142nd Inf., 36th Division, held in Nashville, Tenn., the past weekend.

In all, nine members of the company were on hand and they came from nine different states. Mann said Company B had 200 men who were replaced several times. The company received the Presidential Unit Citation, plus 1,196 decorations, 204 Purple Hearts, had four battlefield commissions, lost 78 men who died and had 49 missing in action.

Pitner, incidentally, received one of the four battlefield commissions and was made executive officer of the company. He was first sergeant when the unit went overseas. Pitner also earned the Silver Star, Bronze Star, the Purple Heart with oakleaf cluster, the combat infantry badge, American Defense Medal, along with the distinguished unit citation badge.

Pupils at all levels and in all areas will become involved in the new school term the coming week, but for some, the term already has begun. High School footballers have been at it for a week on the practice field, and pupils who will participate in the music programs have been busy, along with their teachers.

"I feel like I'm already a month behind," said Don Eiring, Snyder High Band Director. He has just three weeks to get his band ready for the first football game. — WACIL McNAIR.

Bolivia Claims Oruro Retaken

By HAROLD OLMOS
Associated Press Writer

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — The government radio claimed today that army troops loyal to President Juan Jose Torres have retaken the mining city of Oruro, captured Friday by rebel forces.

The claim was immediately denied by rebel radio stations broadcasting from rebel-held Santa Cruz and Cochabamba in eastern Bolivia. The insurrection against Torres' leftist government began Thursday, and the rebels claimed they had control of six of Bolivia's nine provinces.

Oruro is a strategic point in the battle for control of the country. It straddles the only highway linking La Paz, the major city, with the tin mines which support Bolivia's economy.

Some reports maintained that government troops and armed miners had surrounded Oruro, but still had not attempted to enter the city.

Unconfirmed reports also said that Torres, an army general, was personally leading operations to retake territory lost to rebel army troops and civilian forces who began the revolt on Thursday.

The government radio said troops of the "Andino" infantry regiment, stationed near La Paz, reached Oruro at 3:00 a.m. EDT and took the city without a fight four hours later.

Radio reports also said that rebel forces had executed eight students at Santa Cruz, but this could not be confirmed from the rebel side.

Global Radio claimed Friday night that 10,000 armed workers were marching on La Paz to support the uprising, but there were no apparent signs today that the march had begun.

The rebels warned government supporters Friday that further resistance "will be useless."

The government radio countered that Torres was ready to defend his regime "unto the end" against the "uprising of the fascists." The president met in La Paz with his Cabinet and high ranking military officers in an effort to solve the growing crisis.

Court Reinstates Ky On Ballot

SAIGON (AP) — The Supreme Court, reportedly under pressure from President Nguyen Van Thieu and the United States, cleared the way today for a two-man presidential race. It reinstated Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky on the Oct. 3 ballot to oppose Thieu.

But Ky deferred his decision whether to run, telling newsmen through his press office that he would announce his decision Sunday. He canceled a scheduled afternoon news conference today.

There was no immediate reaction from retired Gen. Duong Van "Big" Minh, who withdrew from the election Friday, leaving Thieu unopposed at that point and throwing the political situation into turmoil.

But Minh cannot now re-enter the race. The Supreme Court accepted his withdrawal and posted only the names of Ky and Thieu, which is final and binding unless there is a new interpretation of the constitution.

Sources said Ky had assured Minh in a meeting four hours before the Supreme Court decision that he would not run, even if the court ruled in his favor.

Regardless of Ky's decision, his and Thieu's names will appear on the ballot. The election law states that "candidates do not have the right to withdraw" after the supreme court's final posting of candidates, which took place this afternoon. Ky still could choose not to campaign.

U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker was said to have played a key role in maneuvering Ky back into contention, thus giving the appearance of a reasonably fair South Vietnamese presidential election.

By one reliable account, the 77-year-old ambassador convinced Thieu it was important to have a two-man race while also assuring Ky that the United States would treat him as a serious candidate. Ky backers had complained earlier in the campaign that the United States was downgrading Ky as a candidate and paying attention only to Minh.

TEXAS, SMITH FACING SUIT

Gov. Smith Flies To Washington

By LEE JONES
Associated Press Writer

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Preston Smith flew to Washington Saturday seeking support and sympathy for his stand against President Nixon's 90-day wage-price freeze.

An aide said Friday night Smith would leave Austin about 1 p.m. for Washington "to attend to a little business and it looks like he is going to be on 'Face the Nation' (television interview) Sunday."

The aide said Smith did not plan to talk with anyone in the Nixon administration but might seek conferences with Sen. Lloyd Bentson, D-Tex. and John Tower, R-Tex.

The quickie trip to the nation's capital followed announcement Friday by the Justice Department of plans to file a federal court suit against Smith and Texas.

U. S. Asst. Atty. Gen. L. Patrick Gray III said a suit to force Texas' compliance with the freeze would be filed in federal court here Tuesday or Wednesday.

The judge of that court, Jack Roberts, is, coincidentally, the father of a member of Smith's staff.

Smith defied the wage-price freeze Thursday by instructing state agency heads to pay state eemployes and school teachers the pay raises they were scheduled to receive Sept. 1.

The legislature appropriated $20 million for a 6.8 per cent raise for the 62,000 state employes, and state law provides automatic raises for school teachers.

Nixon's cost of living council ruled this week that the freeze applies to teachers' and government workers' salaries except for teachers whose contracts started before Aug. 15, the date Nixon declared the freeze.

The council, headed by Treasury Secretary John Connally, who preceded Smith as Texas governor, asked the Justice Department to file suit to block the pay raises. Gray said Smith "and other state officials" probably would be named as defendants.

Federal law provides $5,000 in criminal fines for violating a presidential wage-price freeze. Higher fines could be imposed for disobeying a court order.

Smith remained unbending Friday in his defiance of the freeze. He held a news conference at noon at which he said he felt the Nixon Administration "has really dragged its feet on inflation."

He said his oath of office to uphold Texas' laws and constitution left him no choice but to insist that the pay raises provided by state law take effect.

Smith denied politics had anything to do with his proclamation.

There is some question whether Smith's order actually has any binding effect, since few agency heads come directly under his authority.

He evaded the question at his news conference.

FAST ACTION — The action continued fast as the 35th Annual Scurry County Rodeo went into its final performance Saturday. Both riders and ropers found the competition tough in the arena west of town.

Rodeo Goes Into Last Performance

The 35th Annual Scurry County Rodeo headed into its final performance Saturday night following an amazing show of bronc riding in the featured invitational competition on Friday night's program.

Dan Carr of Chamberlain, S. D., logged a score of 74 as no less than six contestants stayed with their mounts. Mark McCloy of Norse had a score of 61, while J. D. Greathouse of Houston followed closely with 60, Wes Hertzog of Dodge City, Kan., 50, Bob Wilfong of Palo Pinto, 47 and Steve Crowder of Sopris, Colo., 44.

In contrast, nobody scored in the bareback riding event.

Harry Jones of Snyder led the tie-down calfropers with a time of 11.2 seconds. Bob Campbell of El Paso posted a time of 11.9, Larry Guy of Abilene 17.8, Connie McGibbs of Winters 19.2; Dennis Hill of Breckenridge 22.4; Ronnie Kester of Lamesa 25.5 and Dun Evans of Uvalde 30.8.

A 17.6 by Kathy Bowers of San Angelo led the girls barrel racers. Lisa Voss of Snyder had a time of 18.3, Mary Guy of Abilene 18.4, Barbara Hill of Breckenridge 18.5, Jackie Cauble of Coahoma 19.1, Barbara Tucker and Mandy Tubb both of Snyder, 19.2 each, Jody Hart of Snyder, 21.4, Cindy Bruton of San Angelo, 23.0, Cindy Burg 23.7 and Dale Mitchell of Coahoma 23.9.

Joe Beaver of Fluvanna led the stockholders calf ropers with a time of 14.7, followed by Rex Cox of Gail 20.8, George Maule of Hermleigh 25.3 and Mickey Burleson of Snyder 36.3. In steer roping, Mike Seago of Clairemont had a 15.6 and Jerry Springer of Snyder 21.8.

Only two bull riders managed to score, J. Charles Northcutt of Colorado City placing first with a score of 62 and Mike Bandy of San Angelo second with 38.

Donny Criswell won the wild mare race.

Chloe Is Losing Punch

MIAMI (AP)—Tropical Storm Chloe lost some of her punch today after a battle with a cold low pressure trough but forecasters said she should intensify again tonight on her course toward the island of Jamaica.

This development came as the death of a vital storm-tracking satellite handicapped the National Hurricane Center in plotting Chloe's course through the Caribbean.

An Air Force Hurricane hunter pilot tracking the storm reported that it was very disorganized and has weakened a bit. If true, the threat to Jamaica had declined. But conditions ahead of the storm were favorable for a new buildup in strength.

Chloe had been traveling along with the cold trough until the trough stopped and the storm moved under it, losing some force in the process, and changed direction slightly to a due westward course.

Nixon To Meet With Hirohito

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — At a time when Japanese-American relations are touchy, President Nixon and Emperor Hirohito have agreed to a historic September meeting in Alaska.

Although Japan's reigning monarch is largely restricted to making no more than suggestions to government leaders on policy questions, the time of the Nixon-Hirohito session was considered particularly significant in view of recent events that have raised major questions about the future of diplomatic and economic ties between the enemies of 30 years ago.

Nixon and Hirohito will meet on Sept. 26 at Anchorage, where the Emperor will pause before making an over-the-pole flight beginning a seven-nation European tour.

Washing machine is his foot in the door

By Abigail Van Buren

(c) 1971 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow in my late sixties. I've been going with a very fine widower for some time. We enjoy each other's company a great deal, and he has never been anything but a perfect gentleman in all the time I've known him.

He recently gave me a washing machine as a gift. I hesitated at first, but later I accepted it.

Do you think that was an appropriate gift from a gentleman? SECOND THOUGHTS

DEAR SECOND: It was an appropriate gift from a gentleman who would like to get his laundry into your machine.

DEAR ABBY: Well, it's slave labor season for Mr. and Mrs. Summer Cottage Owners, but don't let it get you down. Toward the end of the week, allow your groceries to run low. When the freeloaders arrive, greet them warmly, but apologetically. ["We're sorry, we didn't know you were coming, but if Mr. Freeloader will drive 20 miles back to town and pick up a few items, we can all have a good time anyway."]

Don't stop at groceries. Have cigarets, liquor and beer on your list. If the freeloaders actually get the list filled for you, when they return with the stuff, don't offer to reimburse them. After all, it's your cottage, fuel, beach, boat, etc., and you didn't invite them.

And don't wait on anybody. If they head for the beach or boat, tell them everyone pitches in with cooking and cleaning, and keep them busy.

When the moon comes over the mountain and the freeloaders go home, they'll know they've had it, and I'll bet they don't come back unless they're invited. KATY DIDDIT

DEAR KATY: I'm betting against a return engagement. In fact, most freeloaders would head for the hills as soon as the shopping list appeared.

DEAR ABBY: My husband has a beard. It is well-trimmed and so is his hair. Most people think he looks much better with a beard and I agree.

He is a computer programmer but he isn't working now. Our problem is his mother is always hassling us about his beard. She insists if he were to shave his beard he would get a job. We have told her politely to please lay off but she won't. What can we do? HASSLED

DEAR HASSLED: In future job hunting, your husband might ask prospective employers if they would like him better with his bare face hanging out. If the answer is yes, he can use his own judgment.

DEAR ABBY: I don't want to be petty about this, but it irks me. Whenever I invite my sister and her husband to a family dinner or picnic, she invariably asks, "Are you going to ask Jane?" [Jane is her married daughter who has six children.]

Abby, I have had Jane and her brood to my home for many Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners, but when Jane has a family gathering she never invites me.

Am I wrong to feel I don't have to include Jane every time I have a party? Perhaps there are others with this problem. So what should I say to my sister when she asks me if I am going to invite Jane? HAD IT WITH JANE

DEAR HAD IT: Say, "No, I am not going to invite Jane."

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Bombers Hit Northern Front

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. B52 bombers staged seven raids over South Vietnam's embattled northern front today in an intensified effort to smother a 10-day-old North Vietnamese offensive.

More then a score of the Thailand-based bombers unloaded some 600 tons of explosives on North Vietnamese positions below the demilitarized zone but the North Vietnamese kept up their rocket and mortar attacks.

Saigon headquarters reported five fresh shelling against South Vietnamese bases along the DMZ.

South Vietnamese military spokesman Lt. Col. Le Trung Hien said base camps Fuller and Alpha 2 were hit twice each by light mortar and rocket barrages and a third base was hit once.

Hien said there were no casualties among the well-entrenched South Vietnamese defenders.

The largest shelling was an 80-round mortar barrage in the first of the two bombardments on Fuller, one of the key links protecting the northern front.

Ground fighting on the northern front appeared to have slowed down, at least temporarily.

Only one skirmish was reported by the South Vietnamese command, which said a marine patrol was ambushed by a North Vietnamese unit of unknown size a few miles below the demilitarized zone. A headquarters communique said one marine was killed and two were wounded. Enemy losses were not known.

Elsewhere throughout the country only scant action was reported but Saigon headquarters reported a brisk battle only 11 miles southwest of Saigon just before midnight Friday.

Headquarters said 50 to 60 enemy troops attacked a position manned by a company of regional force troops. The government militiamen, supported by artillery and helicopter gunships, drove off the attackers, a communique said.

Field reports said three militiamen were killed and five wounded and that casualties to the attacking force were not known.

Associated Press correspondent J.T. Wolkerstorfer reported from Da Nang that U.S. troops of the 196th Brigade may have thwarted a planned enemy attack on Da Nang, the country's second largest city and the hub of the northern provinces.

The American troops, acting on intelligence information, moved into an area 10 miles south of Da Nang looking for rocket caches.

They failed to find rockets, Wolkerstorfer reported, but killed 14 North Vietnamese troops with support from helicopter gunships. The U.S. troops also captured two North Vietnamese soldiers, both wounded, and seized documents, weapons, clothing and equipment. There were no American casualties in the action.

Vocational Job Market Expanding

The expanding vocational and technological job market in the United States is made up of many fields. The occupational and technical programs at Western Texas College are geared to produce graduates trained to fill openings in many of those fields. According to Gene Robertson, director of occupational and technical education, the welding program at WTC is one of those programs.

Robertson states that WTC has the latest equipment, and that the instructor is up on the latest method. Sam Walker, instructor in welding, has just returned from a workshop in Waco where he learned new techniques that will make the welding informative, interesting and challenging.

By earning a two-year degree in welding, the student becomes qualified for employment with industrial firms as either a welder, a cutter, a layout man, a technician, an engineering aid, or as a technical representative for a manufactorer.

The salary potential, reports Robinson, in this field is good. Students graduating under this program should be able to earn from $10,000 to $12,000 per year within three years of their graduation. Robertson invites those who are interested to come by the college offices at 3610 Avenue S, and get the facts, or to enroll on Aug. 26 or 27, in WTC first Welding Program.

Monday Testing Day For Dollar

By RODNEY PINDER
Associated Press Writer

LONDON (AP) — Monday is testing day in Europe for the American dollar.

Six European governments announced Friday their foreign exchange markets would reopen after a stormy and confusing week prompted by President Nixon's suspension of the conversion of the dollar into gold.

For the first time in 27 years, the markets will be operating on a do-it-yourself basis, every country seeking its own solution to problems raised by the new U.S. economic policy.

Following their failure at a conference in Brussels to agree on concerted action over the dollar, European capitals shaped up this way today:

London—For the first time since World War II the pound sterling will be free to float upward against the dollar, though apparently within a limit.

The bank will keep tabs on the situation by publishing daily dealing limits, though it is not saying yet what these will be.

Informed financial circles predicted that Sterling—the dollar's partner as a world reserve currency—will probably settle at around $2.45 to $2.46, roughly the level it has found in New York this past week, and equivalent to a temporary revaluation of about between 2 and 4 per cent.

Paris—The franc will be on a two-tier system. On one level it will be maintained at the official 5.55 to the dollar for import-export and allied transactions, fluctuating only one per cent either way.

Buyers who want francs for investment or other purposes—the speculators, for example—will be able to plunge into a wide-open market, ruled only by the law of supply and demand.

Bonn—The German mark will float against the dollar in all transactions, as it has since May 9.

Rome—the Italian lira will remain at its official parity of 625 to the dollar. But the central bank, which is consulting with its partners in Britain and the European Common Market, indicated it will allow limited floating. Some experts believed this would be in the order of 3 per cent above or below.

The Hague and Brussels—The Dutch guilder will float free and the Belgian franc will be subject to a controlled float for commercial dealings.

Geneva—The Swiss may or may not open their foreign exchanges Monday, depending on further weekend developments.

The foreign exchange markets will be opening for the first time unrestricted by the 1944 Bretton Woods Conference at which European nations agreed to have their central banks buy and sell dollars to keep currencies within specified limits of fixed dollar exchange rates.

The Brussels conference of the Common Market Council broke down Friday after European financial leaders found the gulf between West Germany and France too wide to achieve a common economic policy on the dollar crisis. Another meeting was set for Sept. 13.

If buyers rush for European currencies and cold-shoulder the dollar, their values rise while that of the dollar declines—in effect devaluing the dollar.

When other currencies rise in this way in relation to the dollar, U.S. goods become cheaper abroad, the U.S. balance of payments deficit shrinks and the American world trading situation becomes easier.

Meanwhile, Japanese officials appeared resolutely happy over the European deadlock. Japan has been buying thousands of millions of dollars each day to keep the yen glued to the U.S. currency.

"The Japanese yen will not be revalued upward and will not float on the exchanges," declared Yusuke Kashiwagi, former vice minister of finance. A revaluation would result in deflation in Japan.

Two Mishaps Are Logged In City

Minor damage resulted from two motor vehicle mishaps that occurred here Friday.

The first one occurred at 3 p.m. in the 2300 block of Sunset. Involved were the 1964 Model Ford of Robert Varela Morales, 2300 Ninth Street, and the parked 1971 Model Chevrolet of Les Francis Chevrolet Co.

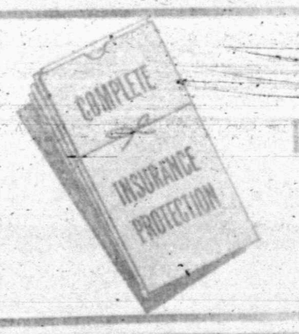

The other one occurred at 4:36 p.m. on Avenue S at Thirteenth Street. Involved were the 1965 Model Buick of Walter Dawson Casebolt, 108 Birch, and the 1968 Model Ford of Burman Douglas Elkins, 219 Thirty-sixth Place.

Officer L. D. Hinson investigated both mishaps.

Rooftop Fiddler

LONDON (AP) —Tutte Lemkow, starring as the fiddler in the current production of a film version of "Fiddler on the Roof," has a fear that does not really fit the job: he hates heights.

The dancer-actor-musician admitted he "shakes with fear" during the rooftop sequences. He said: "I think the fiddler would too. Part of his meaning is to signify survival, a difficult against-the-odds survival, and he would have some fear. He worries about falling but thankfully never did. I still worry because I still could."

Mature More Successful

DENTON, Tex. (AP) — If you are a mature woman with a family and home to care for and you're contemplating returning to college to finish your degree, your chances for success are probably greater than for most other students.

Mrs. Jean Page of Hurst, who received the doctor of education degree at North Texas State University recently became interested in the special counseling needs of "mature women" students, those which she categorizes as aged 32 and above.

Encouraged by numerous professors and by her experiences with mature students, she set out to discover several things about this particular college group at North Texas.

Most of the women she interviewed (184 of a possible 269) had completed at least one or two years of college earlier in their lives and returning to school was a "long-held dream."

Among the statistics which the researcher used in her doctoral dissertation were: 57 per cent of the women were part-time students, 95 per cent had children, two were grandmothrs, about 60 per cent commuted from the Dallas-Fort Worth area and only 20 per cent actually lived in the college community.

"Eighty-six per cent were married," she said, noting that all the others were either widowed, divorced or separated with the exception of two nuns.

On the average, the mature woman had about a 3.0, or 'B,' grade point average for their college work, even though many couldn't even begin studying until their children were in bed at night, Mrs. Page's research shows.

Out-of-town guests were from Abilene, Lubbock, Arlington, Colorado City, Midland, Big Springs, Kermit; Shawnee, Okla. City, and Edmond, Okla.; and Farmington, Minn.

Be Creative With The Sandwich

COLLEGE STATION — August is sandwich month-time to plan nutritious back-to-school packed lunches and after-school snacks, reminds Frances Reasonover, Extension foods and nutrition specialist at Texas A&M University.

The number one rule in planning sandwich lunches and snacks, she says, is to follow the four basic food groups—meat, bread-cereal, fruit-vegetable and milk.

Peanut butter and banana sandwiches are hardy lunch-time treats. Peanut butter represents the meat group; bread, the bread-cereal group; and bananas, the fruit-vegetable group. To supply the valuable vitamins A and C, round out the lunch by adding a small can of tomato juice, an easy source of both these vitamins.

For growing children, add a cheese and tomato sandwich, made with a quick and nutritious spread of canned tomatoes and cheese, or just add a thermos of milk. Either cheese or milk will represent the milk group.

Lettuce and celery are also important sandwich fillers. They add crunchy variety to mealtime, plus important vitamins and minerals.

Feels Women Not Appreciated

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — There isn't any women's liberation movement in Argentina, the land of the Gauchos, and President Alejandro Lanusse feels women are not fully appreciated.

In a speech on the Argentine economy, Lanusse said "we should also mention the woman, to whom the government has a debt. The woman is the unrecognized and tireless soldier in our great struggle against the cost of living and inflation."

THE LAND

THE LAND is one of man's most valuable assets – we think it is prime collateral. In the past 54 years the Federal Land Bank of Houston has made almost 200,000 loans on Texas farms and ranches.

In other words, we specialize in making farm and ranch real estate loans – long term loans with prepayment privileges.

Hodges Pleased With Grid Boys

The first week of two-a-day drills by the Snyder High School varsity and junior varsity squads came to a close Friday with the Tigers and Bengals still in good spirits.

Head Coach and Athletic Director Maurice (Mo) Hodges said he was pleased with the first week of work. The boys have a good attitude and good enthusiasm, he said. There are 31 boys on the varsity and 44 sophomores. The coach was pleased with the number of sophomores who came out for football.

"We worked on all phases of the game," said Hodges—"the fundamentals, and we worked on some of the plays."

Mike Glasscock, senior fullback, sustained a fractured hand in the drill Thursday night, and he will be out of action on offense until about the third game of the season. However, he will be able to play on defense by the opening game.

Jackie Murray, another senior fullback, sustained a knee injury earlier in the week, but he should be ready for the first scrimmage August 27 against Canyon at Plainview. The Tigers also will scrimmage Midland here September 3.

Local fans will get a chance to look the Tigers over Tuesday night when they have an intra-squad scrimmage. Coach Hodges siad this will not be a full-blown scrimmage, but rather will provide local fans with an opportunity to see some of the plays the Tigers will run. It's more like a "pigskin preview." The coach will introduce the players Tuesday night.

Representatives of the Tiger Booster Club also will be on hand to sell memberships at the rate of $5. You can buy them Monday at the Texaco Sales office, Rogers, Inc., McCormick & Sons, and Line & Line Oil Co.

Meanwhile season tickets have gone on sale to the general public at the rate of $6 for the four home games. No season tickets will be sold after the first home game. The season begins Sept. 10 at Stamford. Students who purchase tickets at school will pay only 50 cents apiece for them. At the gate, student tickets will cost $1. The first home game is Sept. 17 against Andrews.

The Tigers again will compete in District 3-AAA. The other non-league affray is Sept. 24 at Big Spring. District foes include Lamesa, Lakeview, Sweetwater, Colorado City, Brownfield, Lubbock Dunbar and Lubbock Estacado.

Mustangs Are Green

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS (AP) — It was just the middle of the summer but Hayden Fry was already feeling the butterflies.

"I can sell the kids that we are potential King Kongs but inwardly I'm scared to death," said the candid coach of the Mustang football fortunes.

Gary Hammond, the Mustang senior quarterback is convinced. He said "I believe we can surprise a lot of people."

The Mustangs, if they hope to duplicate their stunning Southwest Conference championship in 1966, must indeed bushwhack, bewilder, and outfox their opponents. They won't outmuscle many.

That's why Fry will spring the Flying Wishbone—T in an attempt to spread out the defense for the ferret-like dashes of Hammond, an all-conference star at flanker and tailback but who has never taken a snap in a varsity game.

Hammond, who worked long and hard on his passing in the summer, will have some talented targets such as Raymond Mapps, Louis Scott and Randy Dossett to give a few nightmares to defensive backs happy that Chuck Hixon, the NCAA pass record-breaker, has graduated. Gifted backs like Paul Bradley, Dennis Howell and T. J. Hutchinson give SMU potential on the ground.

The Mustangs will be pesky on defense led by linebacker Sherwood Blount and alert defensive back Pat Curry.

Frey said "We'll play the most freshman ever, but we have good size. That's why we tried the Wishbone."

He said his offensive line is "The most inexperienced we've had since I've been at SMU. Johnny Meyer was a good player for us last year, but he was hurt in midseason and was replaced by George Zoch. We have a total of one year's experience from tackle to tackle."

Fry said one of the keys to his green team is "We must have great progress in the early part of the season. If we can just keep from getting blown out of the tub, it could give the kids the confidence they need for the start of the conference season."

Fry said the defense will have to carry the load in the early going against the likes of Oklahoma, Missouri, The Air Force and New Mexico State. if it does the Mustangs might be somewhat salty offensively by the SWC opener against Rice.

A pre-season advertising folder put out by SMU reads "This year's Mustangs could be a team so right that they just night wind up right in the middle of a sixth game at the Cotton Bowl this season—on New Year's Day!"

But SMU is going to have to convince a lot of opponents—not themselves—that they are King Kong.

Porker End Has Surgery

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles says that tight end Bobby Nichols of Tulsa, Okla., underwent surgery Friday afternoon for a shoulder injury he received during football practice Thursday.

Nichols, a senior, fell on his left shoulder during passing drills and had to leave the field. Broyles said Nichols would be out of action until early October.

Broyles also said Friday that Rorky Cordell, a junior safety from Houston, Tex., would be out until at least the middle of next week with a head injury and sophomore defensive end Butch Davis would miss practice for an undetermined length of time with a knee injury.

Princess Wins Dressage Event

LONDON (AP) — Princess Anne, riding in competition Friday for the first time since an operation to remove an ovarian cyst last month, won the dressage event and led the field at the Eldridge horse trials at Tunbridge Wells.

The performance gave the 21-year-old daughter of Queen Elizabeth a good shot at a place on the British team for the European championships next month.

Walt Tkaczuk led the New York Rangers in scoring last season with 75 points on 6 goals and 49 assists.

Bass Released In Navarro Mills

Tyler, Tex. (AP) — An additional 22,000 striped bass have been released in Navarro Mills Reservoir near Corsicana, according to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

The fingerlings were reared at the department's Tyler fish hatchery after being hatched by the Virginia Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries earlier this year.

The young stripers joined several hundred thousands striped bass fry and fingerlings released by the department in the 5,000-acre Navarro County Reservoir during the last five years.

Largest striped bass officially reported to date from Navarro Mills tipped the scales at four and a half pounds, with another at five and a half unofficially reported in late spring this year.

The freshwater striper record weight is 63 pounds.

New M[illegible] football games this fall will be under lights.

Dallas Defeats Tough Browns

DALLAS (AP) — Whether its for a championship or a game that means virtually nothing, the Dallas Cowboys always have a hard time getting by the Cleveland Browns.

So it was Friday night when Dallas slipped by the Browns 16-15 as Mike Clark booted a 26-yard field goal with 26 seconds on the clock. He kicked three.

Except for an 89-yard touchdown romp by Calvin Hill on the 'Pokes first series of downs, there was little excitement until the final minutes.

The lead changed seven times as both clubs traded off field goals. Six were kicked and three were missed.

Bob Briggs provided the glory for the Browns when he picked up a Craig Morton fumble and lumbered 56 yards for the Browns only touchdown.

"Our defense kept us in the ball game," said Dallas coach Tom Landry. "It's hard to make that many errors and still win. We just gave them the ball too many times in the second half."

Morton, who hit 12 of 25 for 183 yards, played the whole time. Cleveland started with Mike Phipps, who was 5-15-76 for the night, and in the second half switched to Bill Nelsen. Nelsen completed 5 of 14 for 80 yards.

"It's hard to pull a quarterback when it's their game," Landry said. "There just wasn't a situation where it was fair to substitute. Morton was competing to win the ball game and I just had to let him have the chance."

"Nelsen did real well," Cleveland head coach Nick Skorich said. "I was hoping to get (Don) Gault in because I didn't want to use Nelsen that long. I stayed with him longer than I wanted." Don Cockroft kicked two field goals for Cleveland.

Bob Jacobs, who kicked one field goal to give the Browns a 12-10 halftime edge, missed an eight yarder with six minutes to play. The Browns also missed their extra point after Briggs' touchdown.

"Any angle shouldn't bother a professional field goal kicker," Skorich said. "He missed it because he looked up, and took his eye off the ball. There's no excuse for missing an extra point."

The win was the third straight for Dallas and Cleveland dropped its third, all of them on the road.

The Cowboys meet the Houston Oilers in the Astrodome Sept. 3 and the Browns journey to South Bend, Ind. for a game with the Chicago Bears Aug. 28.

American Truck Stops Share Kind Of Mystery

By JOHN BARBOUR
AP Newsfeatures Writer

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP) — The truck driver calls her over. His three buddies in the booth are laughing. He has a dirty story to tell. Jean, somewhere over 40, her trim waitress figure hiding in the white pants suit, her gray hair frozen with spray, squeezes into the booth. "Hey girls," she calls. "He's got a story." The other two waitresses hover, smiling, expectant.

The truck driver begins a tale about a salesman with a bad lisp. Jean's head falls slightly. "Ah, you've heard it before," the truck driver says. "Go ahead. They haven't," she says. The story tumbles to its unfortunate conclusion, not very funny, not very dirty, but everyone laughs anyway.

The laughter gives brief life to the nearly empty diner.

Jean has been a waitress so long few stories are new anymore. The drivers and their small talk float in from the highway and out again. Jean remains, purveyor of coffee and smiles, beneficiary of the quarter tip, recorder of their passing this way. She is one of the family at this truck stop, a very temporary family in a very temporary home.

The road sign says Beaton Truck Plaza, about halfway between New Mexico and the California desert. Open 24 hours. The light-towers over the gas pumps break the burden of the night. The windows of the diner frame a stereoptic scene. Empty booths, waitress waiting, clock standing still, a driver staring at his orange juice, the cook immobile against the stainless steel backdrop. From a distance, toys in a lighted box. Seven miles west of town.

The American truck stop. It conjures up romantic fictions. Marilyn Monroe beguiling a lonesome cowhand at a bus stop in a small town. Humphrey Bogart as killer Duke Mantee terrorizing the Black Mesa Filling Station and Bar B-Q on an Arizona highway, from Robert Sherwood's "The Petrified Forest."

Sherwood set the stage with stark reality: ... a lunch counter; with cash register, ketchup bottles, toothpicks, chewing gum and Life-Saver rack, cigars, cigarettes." That image, cast in the '30s, hasn't changed. Truck stops share a kind of mystery, a kind of excitement, a place for something to happen where nothing happens. Haven for strangers, a way station. Something of the Pony Express, the stagecoach.

Only the vehicles have changed, to quicken the pace, haul the oil and explosives, hurry the strawberries and tomatoes from California's San Joaquin Valley to Cleveland, Ohio, the unchanging roadside tribute: "See all the trucks parked there, Mary. That means the food is good. They know where to stop."

But romance aside, the truck stop is more often a mecca on a map, 400 miles ahead, measured by the appetite of the truck for fuel, the gullet for food, the eyes for sleep and the stiffness in the back and legs. it is also convenience, quick service and a chance for a few hours with people you know after a day with only yourself.

So it is this night, at this small oasis perched on the concrete edge of an American artery.

The sun forces the daylight temperatures to 110 degrees on the Arizona desert, so some drivers prefer to roll at night. Two of them have taken a dinner break. It is after 11. The head driver twists toward his plate and grumbles, "Let's get these eggs down and get goin' while its cool."

Southern accent, a voice strangely small and quiet for the big frame from which it comes. Large forearms and fading tatteos. He and his partner have been pushing the double trailer rig from Kansas westward. He finishes, goes out to sign the credit card receipt for 125 gallons of diesel oil. The truck jerks to a start and the high torque of the engine grinds toward the white staccato of the centerline US 66, and a noisy race with the Atchison, Topeka and the Santa Fe, running parallel 300 feet south.

"I guess it's the idea of a home away from home," says Tom Beaton, who operates this truck stop and who has served truckers up and down the West Coast and Southwest, many truck stops ago. "You have Western Union and showers and phones, a place to wash up and shave, to do some laundry. Most of all clean."

Upstairs, beyond a sign that says "Truckers Only," there is a sofa, a television set, two easy chairs, pool table, and small rooms that rent for $4 a night, just a bed, but a place to stretch out without doubling the knees, away from the groaning engine. Still a trucker on his own pocket usually prefers to nap in the tractor, parked in the lot, the engine going to keep up the airconditioning.

The trucks are there in force, in the early morning, again in evening. The huge rigs line up in the lot in military order, wearing their license plates on their grills like campaign ribbons: Arizona, Nevada, Utah, California, Kansas, Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania.

The crew of 45 that work this truck stop pump an average of 10,000 gallons of diesel fuel a day. Two diesel mechanics are ready to hit the road at a moment's notice, equipped to do a complete overhaul at roadside. At morning and dusk it looks and sounds like a World War II airfield, with the heavy bombers landing one by one, the ground crews swarming over the hot engines, the scarred windshields.

The very pavement seems to vibrate. The trucks barrel in, and with them the excitement of the highway forging into this meander off the main stream.

Mauri Jin, a Navajo, 23, a student at Northern Arizona University, pumps gas and oil. So does his 16-year-old brother Alan and his 19-year-old sister Eloise. His mother, Charlotte, keeps the beds made and the showers clean and the towels laundered and the sitting room orderly.

On a window facing the truck side of the lot is a poster proclaiming, "$5,000 Reward. Gurley Oil Co., Memphis, Tenn ... for information leading to the recovery of ... " Following is a detailed description and pictures of a truck-trailer combination with closeups of its special equipment. Stolen: "Jan. 17, 1971 ... Call collect."

Below the poster is an ordinary kitchen trash basket with a hinged top. But this one is not for trash. It is marked U.S. Mail. Tom Beaton collects the letters every day and takes them to Flagstaff. There are few mailboxes on US 66.

Most drivers are on the road for eight or nine weeks at a time. Telephones and Western Union are ways to keep in touch with dispatchers. The mail is the cheapest way to keep in touch with home.

The radio blares out country and rock music near the cash counter. There is a small lull between trucks and Eloise Jin comes in after having cleaned the windows of a tractor-trailer at the pumps. She walks through the room with precision. At each of the three telephones she punches the coin release lever and fingers the coin return. Nothing. She does the same with the candy machine, the cigarette machine. Still nothing. She exits to the diner.

The diner is the drawing card. It is aimed at truckers, not tourists. Three cooks keep it operating around the clock. Bob Jones, the chief chef, keeps the menu simple, alters it so that drivers coming through every third day won't face the same specials.

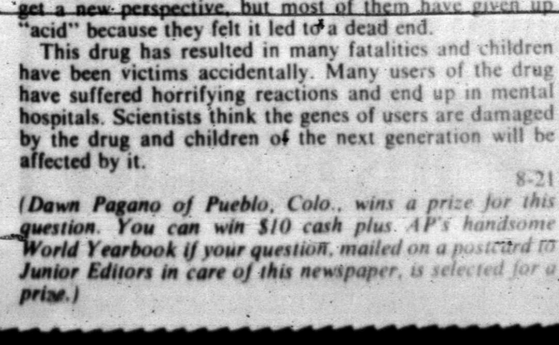

"The truck is their home, and the truck stop is their home, too," he says. He's been working truck stops for 20 years. "And the people in the truck stop are part of their family. We don't serve anything fancy, no beef stroganoff, no chicken tetrazzini. Just plain home cooking, short ribs, barbecued chicken, homemade pie."

Plenty of it, and quick service. Eggs or hamburgers done just the way they are called for. A continual flow of coffee. The waitresses serve some 5,000 meals a week, cook up some 500 pounds of coffee a month.

They had a crisis a year or more ago with a 15-inch snow. The power went out. Coffee had to be boiled on the gas range. There were 69 trucks in the lot at one time, over 100 drivers, all with no place to go.

This is trucker country.

Junior Editors Quiz on LSD

QUESTION: Why is L. S. D. harmful?

ANSWER: L. S. D. or Lysergic Acid Diethylamide is a powerful drug called a psychedelic type or a hallucinogen. It is capable of producing intense emotional changes and a feeling of complete strangeness. It was accidentally discovered by Hoffman, a chemist in 1938. He did not discover its psychic properties until about five years later.

L. S. D. is one of the most potent drugs known. A small amount, almost invisible to the naked eye will have an effect on most people. This drug intensifies the subject's concept of color, seems to strengthen the taste, smell, touch and hearing. At the same time, it enlarges the concept of the ugly and unpleasant, resulting quite often in a frightening experience, called by the adherants of the drug "a bad trip." The sense of time may be slowed. Persons under the influence have been known to jump from high places to their death because the drug had altered their concept of space.

People who have experimented with L.S.D. hoping to get a new perspective, but most of them have given up "acid" because they felt it led to a dead end.

This drug has resulted in many fatalities and children have been victims accidentally. Many users of the drug have suffered horrifying reactions and end up in mental hospitals. Scientists think the genes of users are damaged by the drug and children of the next generation will be affected by it.

WINS FIRST PLACE — Dean Floyd, local pharmacist, (center), receives the keys to a new golf cart and two sets of golf clubs as first prize in the West Texas regional profit market of Southwestern Drug Co., which consisted of Amarillo, Wichita Falls and Midland Divisions. Dean lives at 2608 Thirty-second Street.

Rate Hiked On Unlisted Numbers

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Houston telephone users who don't want information operators giving out their numbers will have to start paying for the privilege, Southwestern Bell Telephone said Friday.

Roy H. Moore, division manager, said it takes time for the operators to tell persons seeking numbers that the number is unlisted. "We are in effect, acting as a screening service, which is time-consuming. We don't mind as long as the customers help pay for the added service."

So, beginning in December 1972, the 95,000 persons in the Houston metropolitan area will have to pay an extra $1 a month to keep their phone number out of the telephone book.

"The reason for the increase is real basic," Moore said. "It goes along with the philosophy of passing along the cost of extra service to those receiving it."

Moore said information operators get an average of 5,200 daily request for unlisted numbers.

"By the time the operators talk to those people to explain they cannot give out the number," Moore said, "it has consumed much of their time and affected the service."

He said the additional charge would not be billed to persons who have their phones temporarily unlisted because of obscene phone calls or harrassment.

Sen. Hollings Weds

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — Sen. Ernest F. Hollings, D-S.C., today weds Rita Louise Liddy, a member of his office staff since 1966.

The marriage is the second for Hollings, who was divorced from his wife Sally last year after 24 years of marriage. It is the first for Miss Liddy, a 35-year-old former school teacher and Democratic party worker.

Slavery Still Exists

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — More than 100 years after Abraham Lincoln abolished slavery in the United States, there are still "a few hundred thousand" chattel slaves in the world.

That is the estimate of Col. Patrick Montgomery, secretary of the Anti-Slavery Society of London, which has been fighting all forms of slavery since 1839.

Interviewed here, he noted that the 1956 Geneva Supplementary Convention against slavery and similar practices banned not only chattel slavery, but also debt bondage, serfdom, sale of children and servile marriage.

He estimated that persons subjected to all those forms of involuntary servitude except hard-to-prove servile marriage numbered "about 10 million." He said if servile marriage was counted in, the total would be much higher.

Montgomery, a retired British army officer would not name any of the localities where those practices persisted.

But in testifying earlier before a U.N. body, he said his society had reason to believe that one or another of them was "a recognizable element in the pattern of society in 17 African countries, 15 Asian countries and 6 Latin American countries."

Montgomery said his society has studied one country where impoverished peasants in a remote section were flogged, branded, mutilated and, as a last resort, turned out of their houses to starve if they failed to grow stipulated quantities of illegal opium.

"In the same country chattel slavery too survives," he added, "and children of both sexes are both sold and given as gifts and used both as domestic help and for sexual gratification."

Oilmen Seek Hearings On Prices

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas' largest group of independent oilmen wants the federal government to set hearings on possible higher wellhead prices before President Nixon's 90-day wage-price freeze expires.

"We want to take steps now to make certain that prior to the expiration of the freeze period appropriate governmental officials have in their possession full facts concerning the relationship between improved wellhead prices and desperately needed exploration and drilling in this country," said George Mitchell of the Texas Independent Producers & Royalty Owners (TIPRO) Association.

Mitchell, chairman of TIPRO's energy policy committee, wrote George Lincoln, director of the Office of Emergency Preparedness (OEP).

In his letter, Mitchell added that "our nation is on the brink of a potentially disastrous energy crisis, and intensified exploration and drilling are absolutely necessary if the energy gap is to be closed in the months and years ahead."

Mitchell noted that President Nixon froze domestic petroleum prices but exempted imported petroleum from the 10 per cent import surtax.

"This exemption of imported oils from the import duty will not only nullify much of the announced balance-of-payments objective but can only accelerate the trend toward helpless dependence for our energy requirements upon unreliable foreign sources," Mitchell said.

Satellite Death Causing Crisis

MIAMI AP) — The death of a vital satellite brought a storm-tracking crisis at the National Hurrican Center Sat. as tropical storm Chloe bore down on the island of Jamaica with 55-mile an hour winds and pounding rains.

The ATS3 satellite, which had opened a new dimension in storm forecasting by beaming down photographs of the entire Atlantic ocean every 26 minutes, went out of operation late Friday.

"We're really facing a crisis—and in the middle of the hurricane season," said Dr. Robert Simpson, director of the hurricane center. "We're looking down a pretty black gun barrel."

The forecasters still retained the ability, however, "to do a reasonably good job of tracking storms," said forecaster Neil Frank.

"When you have been driving a Cadillac and have to switch to a model-T, it places considerable limitations on you," Frank said.

Two older satellites still in orbit, ESSA 8 and 9, provide pictures with which the bureau can piece together a total view of the Atlantic once a day. And the hurricane hunter pilots who have tracked storms for years are still on the job.

Chloe showed no increase in strength overnight as she battered the Barahona Peninsula and the south coasts of Haiti and the Dominican Republic.

But the storm was moving into a region where atmospheric conditions were increasingly more favorable for intensification. Chloe could reach hurricane force later Saturday and pose a dangerous threat to Jamaica if she stays on the same course.

An Air Force plane flew into the wide, diffused center of the storm Sat. and estimated its location near latitude 16.2 north longitude 72.0 west, 350 miles east-southeast of Jamaica.

No reports had been received from the Barahona peninsula, a vulnerable finger of mountainous land jutting down into the Caribbean path of many tropical storms. Forecasters said it may have suffered flash flooding.

Chloe was moving toward the west-northwest at 15 miles an hour, with sustained winds of 55 m.p.h. in squalls north and east of the center and gales reaching out 150 miles to the north and 75 miles to the south.

The ATS3 satellite had been functioning erratically in recent weeks, Simpson said, but until now weather experts believed that ground commands could get it operating again.

"The best information I can get right now is that it's dead," he said, "and without it our capability has been largely downgraded in dealing with hurricanes."

Much of the center's sophisticated, computerized forecasting equipment was rendered almost useless by the satellite failure, thought to have been caused by a jammed antenna.

The center still will be able to provide good forecasts of storm movement, Simpson said, "but it's certainly going to make our task much more difficult."

In 1970 Texas state inspectors examined more than 306 million pounds of beef and pork and 63.5 million pounds of poultry.

Jean Peters To Wed Stanley Hough

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Jean Peters, the former actress who divorced billionaire Howard Hughes last June 18, will marry an executive of 20th Century-Fox, a Hughes spokesman has confirmed.

A time and place for her wedding to Stanley Hough, 60, vice president in charge or production for the movie studio, have not been determined, the spokesman said Friday.

A source close to the reclusive Hughes said last February the industrialist wished the couple "the best of luck."

Miss Peters, 44, announced her separation from Hughes on Jan. 16, 1970. The marriage will be Miss Peters' third. Her first was to Stuart W. Cramer III, an oil man.

Arrests Made In Escape

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexican police have arrested two taxi drivers and a milkman in connection with the escape of New Yorker Joel David Kaplan and his Venezuelan cellmate from a Mexico City jail in a helicopter.

The district attorney's office also announced Friday that the helicopter Belgium used in the escape Wednesday night from Santa Marta Acatitla Prison has been found about 10 miles east of Matamoros on the Texas border.

A spokesman for the office said earlier reports that the aircraft had been found at La Pesca, 150 miles south of Brownsville, Tex., were "confused" and that the helicopter was not found there.

Police said one of those arrested was Pedro Cortina, a milkman alleged to have given the helicopter pilot, identified as Roger Herschnner, a ride to the edge of Matamoros.

Police said Herschner then took a taxi driven by Lorenzo Cabazos and later transferred to another taxi driven by Manuel Montes Sierra, who drove him to the Brownsville bus terminal. The two cab drivers were arrested.

Also arrested was Miguel Milan, whose home is less than a mile from the spot where the helicopter was found. Police said the aircraft would be brought to Mexico City on a trailer.

Kaplan, 45, was serving a 30-year sentence for the death of Louis M. Vidal, a New York businessman. Carlos Contreras, who shared a cell with Kaplan was convicted of fraud and robbery.

The district attorney's office said police believe Kaplan left for Sausalito, Calif., and Contreras for Guatemala.

According to the district attorney's reconstruction of the escape, the pair flew by helicopter to Actopan, about 100 miles north of Mexico City and from there by light plane to La Pesca. In La Pesca, the report said, they are thought to have taken separate planes to Sausalito and Guatemala.

The district attorney's office said police still are holding Kaplan's wife, Irma, for questioning.

A Fine Catch

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Texas commercial fishermen were paid a record $53.5 million for their 1970 catch, a 12 per cent increase over the value of their 1970 catch.

Alaska, with a catch valued at $89.7 million, continued to lead all states in fishing, followed by California and then Texas.

Career-Grams On Jobs World

Career Corner

by Joyce Lain Kennedy

what job would you like to see explored in this column?

Mixed assessments by august authorities continue to appear on the economy and unemployment. While scattered bright spots in hiring are popping up, cautious observers expect little significant improvement in the job market before 1972. And that won't be easy.

To reduce unemployment to 5 percent of the work force by the middle of next year, roughly 3 million added jobs will be needed to absorb new workers, veterans and unemployed persons. The biggest recent increase was 2 million jobs in 1969, when the economy was booming.

Business is expected to improve in the post-Vietnam era on the theory that cheery people spend more and that government spending will be rechanneled to domestic projects), but a voter-conscious Congress agreed this summer to pay up to 2.25 billion dollars to hire about 150,000 unemployed persons in State and local government jobs during the next 2 years.

On balance, the old saying, "The devil you know is better than the devil you don't know" applies to risky job-changes now. But don't overlook the fact that even in tight times, employers still seek above-average applicants.

THE NATIONAL RESEARCH COUNCIL says 14.4 percent more research Ph.D.'s were granted in 1970 than in 1969 – despite the softer job market – reflecting difficulty in crash-cutting the Ph.D. educational "pipeline." A spokesman for the Council said opportunities are better than reported: "Ph.D.'s may not get as many offers as their predecessors a few years ago and they may not get their first job choice or even a job in the same specific field as their doctoral work, but most are not going jobless."

A recent report by the National Science Foundation says that those with doctorates in science had a 1.4 percent unemployment rate during the first quarter of 1971, while scientists without doctorates had a 3.5 percent rate. (The 1971 first-quarter national average for all unemployed workers was 6.5 percent.) Hardest hit sciences were chemistry and physics, and women scientists in all fields suffered more than twice the unemployment rate of men.

CRAFTSMEN CAN EXPECT about 5 million job openings during the 1970's, according to the Federal Labor Department, mainly in these 5 groups: construction craftsmen, mechanics and repairmen, foremen, metal-working craftsmen, and printing craftsmen.

Among individual occupations, the largest number of openings are likely to be for carpenters (39,300 yearly), electricians (21,200 yearly), automobile mechanics (19,600 yearly), and plumbers and pipefitters (19,500 yearly).

THE 7-DAY WEEK is another angle to juggling work hours. A laboratory section at the Latter-Day Saints Hospital in Salt Lake City is trying it. Two crews of employees each work a 70-hour week (but are paid for 80 hours), then get a full week off – which adds up to 26 free weeks a year. Most employees seem to like the idea. The hospital saves money on overtime and part-time salaries.

DR. JAMES H. STEWART JR.

Stewart Top Aide At NTSU

DENTON — Dr. James H. Stewart Jr. will be a "right-hand man" to Dr. C. C. (Jitter) Nolen, new president of North Texas State University.

That was the appraisal of Dr. Nolen himself after he appointed Dr. Stewart as assistant to the president.

Dr. Stewart has been serving as director of development at NTSU since Sept. of 1970. He is a former Snyder resident, serving in Snyder Public Schools as a classroom teacher and athletic coach and as a junior high vice principal. He is married to the former Colleen Soles, daughter of Mrs. Adam Soles. He served as assistant to the graduate dean at NTSU in 1964-65, and then served as superintendent of the Masonic Home in Fort Worth.

Dr. Nolen said that Dr. Stewart is well qualified to assist him because Stewart has three degrees from NTSU and has extensive knowledge and acquaintanceship with Texans through his association with the Fort Worth Masonic Home. Dr. Stewart was the first Nolen appointee with prior ties with NTSU.

"I believe there will be greater efficiency and effectiveness with an assistant to the president," Dr. Nolen concluded.

British Army Lead Deserters

LONDON (AP) — More soldiers than other branches of the military service desert in Britain. At the beginning of 1971 those missing for more than five years were: Army 6,000; Royal Air Force 4,700; Navy 100.

Whales Rode To Safety

BOCA GRANDE, Fla. (AP) — Teen-agers swarmed into shallow waters and rode a herd of beached whales piggyback to safety in the Gulf of Mexico.

The impromptu rescue effort Friday put the suicide prone mammals back on course—at least temporarily.

All but two of the 47 whales were lugged and coaxed back into deeper waters, said Sgt. Robert Patterson of the Florida Marine Patrol. The two died, he said.

The black, snub-nosed sea creatures, 8 to 20 feet long, swam slowly down the gulf, but darted inland again near the south tip of this swanky winter resort.

Officer Don Ellingsen said they wallowed around in shallow waters for about two hours until a squall hit and drove them out.

The whales started beaching on Gasparilla Island here around daybreak, said Lee County Deputy Sheriff Johns Knight.

Teen-agers in floppy hats, t-shirts, blue jeans and sandals, raced into the foot-deep waters where the mammals were stranded, jumped aboard some and guided them to safety.

Marine officers in boats lassoed others by the tail and towed them to deeper areas.

"People weren't afraid," Knight said. "They went right into the water to steer them off shore."

"The whales flipped their tails and knocked some of the kids down," said Joe Warner, an observer. "But they didn't seem hurt. They got right back up."

He said about 30 onlookers, mostly teen-agers, pitched in on the rescue effort.

"No one in the world knows what makes these creatures beach themselves," said Dr. Jesse White, a sea mammal expert at the Miami Seaquariam.

Five Killed In Mineola Collision

MINEOLA, Tex. (AP) — A collision killed five persons Friday near this Northeast Texas city.

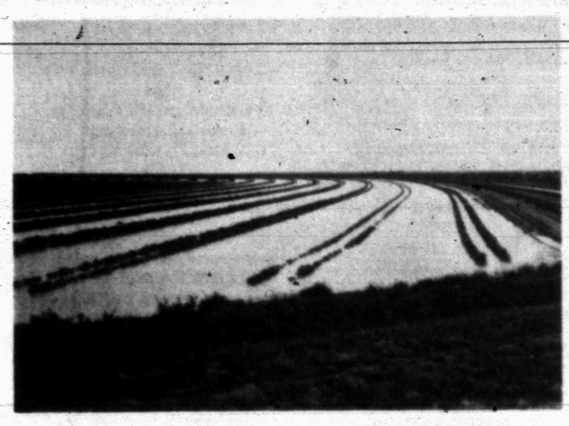

State police said a van collided with a truck hauling a trailer home.

Killed were Frank Brown, 64, of Mineola, driver of the van; his wife, Hazel, 60; their daughter, Joyce Davis, about 30; and Mrs. Davis' two daughters, Tanya, 6, and Julie, 10.

The trucker was not injured.

LATE SUMMER COVER CROP — Late planted forage sorghum was drilled in the four blank rows to prevent wind erosion. A summer cover crop will help prevent the land from blowing and improve the quality of the cotton by reducing damage caused by blowing soil. The ASCS Office is cost-sharing $3 per acre for planting of cover crops such as cow peas and forage sorghums. These must be planted by August 31. There is now adequate moisture to assure an adequate cover if planted by this date.

WATER CONSERVATION — This terraced field just 3 miles southeast of Hermleigh caught and held enough water to make this crop and have stored moisture left over. This clay loam soil will hold about 2.3 inches per foot of depth. The 4-inch rain that fell on the 350 acre farm operated by Doyle Wemken amounted to 116 acre feet. This would be enough water to fill an 8 acre lake 15 feet deep. The soil is still the greatest storage reservoir.

Not Grounds

LONDON (AP) — British police chiefs were warned that eccentric modes of dress and long hair should not in themselves be regarded as reasonable grounds to stop and search people for drugs.

Policy For School Lunch Prices Set

The Snyder Independent School District has announced a free and reduced price lunch policy for Snyder school children unable to pay the full price of 40 cents per lunch in elementary schools and 50 cents per lunch in the junior and senior high schools. Families suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships are urged to apply for free or reduced price lunches for their children. They may do so by filling in the application forms sent home by students to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. Applications may be submitted any time during the school year. The form itself is simple to complete and requests information needed to determine economic need based on the income and number of persons in the family and any unusual circumstances or hardships which affect the family's ability to pay for school lunches. The information provided on the application will be confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility.

Under the provisions of the policy the Snyder Independent School District will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the local official he may make a request either orally or in writing for a hearing to appeal the decision. Bill J. Hood, superintendent, or W. T. Falls, assistant superintendent, whose address is the School Administration Building, 2901 Thirty-seventh Street, Snyder, have been designated as the Hearing Officials. Hearing procedures are outlined in the policy.

The policy also provides that there will be no identification of or discrimination against any student unable to pay the full cost of a lunch.

A complete copy of the policy is on file in each school and in the office of the School Administration Building where it may be reviewed by any interested patron.

Big Spring Has New City Manager

BIG SPRING, Tex. (AP) — Harry W. Nagel Jr., 40, city manager of Sulphur Springs, will take over as city manager for Big Spring Sept. 13.

He succeeds Larry Crow, who resigned in May.

Nagel has been city manager at Sulphur Springs since October 1968. Before that he was city manager at Uvalde.

Bette Davis Files Suit

NEW YORK (AP) — Bette Davis has filed suit in Manhattan Supreme Court seeking $5.5 million in damages from the producers of the film "Bunny O'Hare," in which she starred.

The two-time Academy Award winning actress charged in the suit Friday that American International Pictures, Inc., "radically changed and altered the character roles and the context of the scenes" after she had approved the script.

As a result of the final product, Miss Davis said, she was "ridiculed and criticized in the press and other media."

Hughes Writes Governor

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP) — Nevada Gov. Mike O'Callaghan has received a letter signed "Howard Hughes," and people close to the billionaire recluse say it is genuine.

O'Callaghan said Friday he had no reason to believe the letter, hand-delivered early this week, was from the industrialist himself.

But a person close to the Hughes Tool Co. said the secretive Hughes sent the letter.

The typewritten note was turned over to state gaming officials.

O'Callaghan's predecessor, Gov. Paul Laxalt, received a much publicized 45-minute telephone call in 1968 from a person Laxalt said was Howard Hughes.

A Democrat serving his first term, O'Callaghan would not say who delivered the letter, nor would he give any indication as to its contents.

There were reports this week that state Gaming Commission Chairman Jack Diehl had written Hughes asking him to help straighten out snarls in Hughes' Nevada operations. Hughes owns seven casinos.

WESTERN TEXAS COLLEGE, SNYDER, TEXAS

Evening Division Registration 6:30-9:00, August 26, Trinity Methodist Church (Cogdell Center)

WTC Schedules Registration Hours

WESTERN TEXAS COLLEGE — The official schedule for Fall Semester registration at Western Texas College has been released by Dr. Duane Hood, director of admissions-registrar.

The registration runs from Aug. 26 to 27, and is divided into three sessions. Activities begin with a 8:30 a.m., Aug. 26, general orientation session for all full-time students at Trinity Methodist Church.

The orientation session ends at 10 a.m., and regular registration for all full-time students who have pre-registered will last from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. All full time pre-registered students will complete registration the first day.

Beginning at 6:30 that evening, all pre-registered part-time and evening students (and those who were unable to register earlier in the day) will register for their courses. All other students will register Friday, Aug. 27, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

The schedule for registration is the following:

THURSDAY, AUG. 26, 1971

8:30 to 10:00 a.m. — General Orientation for all full time students.

10:00 to 11:30 a.m. — Registration for pre-registered students whose last names begin A -H.

1:00 to 3:00 p.m. — Registration for pre-registered students whose last names begin I -Q.

FRIDAY, AUG. 27, 1971

9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. — Registration for all other students.

Dr. Hood reminds all students that all fees will be due at the time of registration. He reminded them that the book store is also in the church.

ACT Testing Set For Sept.

WESTERN TEXAS COLLEGE — Residual Testing for the ACT has been scheduled for 8 a.m., Saturday, Sept. 11, 1971, in Room 111, Bldg. 7-A, on campus, according to Dr. Duane Hood, director of admissions-registrar.

All full time students who have taken the ACT test, which is a pre-requisite for admission at Western Texas College, should take the test at the scheduled residual test period. The test results will be used for counseling purposes only.

The cost of the test will be $7.00, and it should be paid on the day of the test. Students who plan to take the test need to sign up at the Counselors table at registration, Aug. 26 or 27 at the Trinity Methodist Church.

CONGRESSMAN OMAR BURLESON — Dr. Clinton and Congressman Renal Rosson view the campus construction from inside the entrance of Western Texas College. Mr. Burleson's visit coincided with the change of congressional districts locally and a joint meeting of all the Snyder Civic Clubs. In the background near the entrance are Mel Gilbert, District Judge Wayland Holt and Harold Bennett.

Music Dept. Seeking Scholarship Applicants

WESTERN TEXAS COLLEGE — Music Scholarships for certain areas of talent are still available at Western Texas College, according to Dr. Marvin Genuchi, chairman of the music dept. at the new school.

Dr. Genuchi is putting together a stage band and states that "In the instrumental field we are in need of some good personnel for the stage band."

"We need," he said, "an experienced lead alto sax man, a good drummer, and an experienced jazz guitarist. In the choral field we need an alto soloist and a bass-baritone soloist."

Dr. Genuchi indicated that another field still open is the piano area. The department needs accompanists for the choral group, for the voice and for instrumental majors.

He encouraged all those interested to apply in writing to the college offices at 3610 Ave S., or to come by and see him at the offices prior to final enrollment.

Welding Grads' Future Is Good

WESTERN TEXAS COLLEGE — The expanding vocational and technological job market in the United States is made up of many fields. The occupational and technical programs at Western Texas College are geared to produce graduates qualified to fill openings in many of those fields. According to Gene Robertson, director of occupational and technical education, the Welding program at WTC is one of those programs.

Robertson states that WTC has the latest equipment, and that the instructor is up on the latest method. Sam Walker, instructor in welding, has just returned from a workshop in Waco where he learned new techniques that will make the welding informative, interesting and challenging.

By earning a two year degree in welding, the student becomes qualified for employment with indistrial firms as either a welder, a cutter, a layout man, a technician, an engineering aid, or as a technical representative for a manufactorer.
