Scouting

More than 1,150 youngsters are reached in the Scouting program here, which is one of the 14 agencies supported by the United Fund. The county has an active program in Cubbing, Scouting, and Exploring, and any youngster may find a Den, Troop or Post near his home and among his friends. Volunteers, of course, direct the work. The United Fund contributes $14,750 to the support of the program here, around $13 per boy.

Witness At Probe Resigns Post In Klan

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Goldsboro, N.C., Ku Klux Klansman resigned from the Klan today in a congressional witness chair, saying he believed God and his country should come before any Klan vows.

Joseph G. DuBois, a used car salesman who said he was treasurer of the Goldsboro Klan Klavern, turned over records and documents of his unit to the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

The committee, which is making a general investigation of the Klan, had subpoenaed the records.

In earlier sessions this week of the investigation, higher leaders of the Klan had refused to turn over any records or answer any questions.

WIZARD JAUNTY
Thursday, the imperial wizard of the Klan put on a white cowboy hat and with his security guards clearing a path through the crowd of newsmen, stepped jauntily into the glare of the camera lights.

"You don't see me worried, do you?" said Robert M. Shelton, the beleaguered No. 1 man in the United Klans of America. Standing just outside the door of the House hearing room, Shelton read a statement denouncing the congressional probe of the Klan as an "inquisition" loaded with "When did you stop beating your wife?" questions.

AN ECHO
Paradoxically, the phrases were an echo of those made by witnesses grilled for alleged Communist connections by the same House Committee on Un-American Activities.

But Shelton, who has denounced "Fifth Amendment Communists," denied he was a "Fifth Amendment Klansman." He said he was protecting liberties, living up to his Klan oath of secrecy and declared:

"How many members of Congress would allow them to browbeat them into violating their oaths as Masons, Knights of Columbus or B'nai B'rith?"

DRAGONS QUIZZED
Shelton himself had been dismissed by the committee until Nov. 15. But he came back Thursday to listen when the committee questioned two of his grand dragons — James R. Jones of North Carolina and Marshall R. Kornegay of Virginia.

As it had been in Shelton's case, both declined to respond to a long list of queries that focused on alleged misuse of Klan funds, of Klan officials going into the insurance business, of tapping the membership to purchase a Cadillac for Jones.

For the first time, however, the inquiry edged into violence and harassment.

"HUMOROUS TWIST"
Committee Chairman Edwin E. Willis, D-La., said the probe would go into that subject more deeply later, but he read from what he indicated was a Klan document entitled "Harassment."

"All members," it said, "should devise new means. They should have a humorous twist in the nature of Halloween pranks."

Congress In Windup, May Finish Tonight

'Bombshells' Said Coming In Case

HAYNEVILLE, Ala. (AP) — An attorney for Collier Leroy Wilkins Jr., youthful Ku Klux Klan member charged with slaying a white civil rights worker, says he will "drop some bombshells before this trial is over."

Defense attorney Arthur J. Hanes, former mayor of Birmingham, told newsmen Thursday he planned to call few defense witnesses.

Hanes then added that he would have some "bombshells," but declined to say what they would deal.

Wilkins, a Fairfield, Ala., mechanic whose first trial on the murder charge ended in a hung jury at the same 133-year-old courthouse, was identified by the state's key witness Thursday as Mrs. Liuzzo's slayer.

HIGH SPEED
Gary Thomas Rowe, 35, Klansman who has been an FBI informer for five years, said Wilkins emptied a pistol into the woman's car after a high-speed auto chase on a dark highway.

The 39-year-old mother of five was ferrying civil rights workers back to Selma after a 50-mile, four-day march on the state Capitol in Montgomery when she was shot. A young Negro in the car with her, Leroy Moton, escaped injury.

The red-haired Rowe, a former Birmingham bartender, testified for 45 minutes that he, Wilkins, and two other Klansmen drove at speeds up to 100 miles an hour to overtake the Liuzzo car about 20 miles from Selma.

He said the driver of the car was Eugene Thomas, 42, and the other Klansman in the car was William O. Eaton, 41, both of Bessemer, and both under indictment in the slaying.

Rowe said that as they pulled around Mrs. Liuzzo's car, Thomas yelled, "Get 'em! Shoot the hell out of 'em!"

"HAD PISTOL"
"The first thing I know," Rowe said, "Wilkins stuck his arm out the window — he had a pistol in his hand — at elbow length."

The FBI informer said Wilkins fired six times while Eaton, sitting in the front seat of the car, emptied a 22-caliber pistol. Rowe said he looked back and saw Mrs. Liuzzo's car continuing on a straight line down the highway until it appeared to angle off to the side of the road.

Missing Since 1961

Child Kidnaped In 1961 Found

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP) — Blonde, blue-eyed Linda Lee Ridings, 6, reported kidnapped in 1961, has been found — after sharing the hard life of a migratory farm worker for four years.

Linda, a bright and cheerful girl, was found living with Ramona Dougherty, 41, a full-blooded Indian. Miss Dougherty was booked on suspicion of kidnapping.

Officers said they became suspicious when Miss Dougherty insisted Linda was her daughter. Miss Dougherty and Linda were living with Green and his wife, so officers took Linda into protective custody Tuesday.

TO OKLAHOMA
Police detective Clarence Boyd said, "She said at first the child was given to her. Then she admitted taking her." Boyd quoted her as saying: "Yes, I kidnapped her as a baby and took her to Oklahoma."

Boyd said police have been unable to locate Linda's mother, Barbara Ridings, 25, who moved from her last-known address in Los Angeles six months ago.

Investigators said Linda was first taken to Oklahoma City, where Miss Dougherty was born. They joined the farm labor circuit, traveling through the Midwest.

REPORTED MISSING
Los Angeles Police Department records show that Mrs. Ridings reported the child missing in June 1961. She told police Linda and Miss Dougherty, the child's babysitter since birth, disappeared the previous March, while she was on a trip to Florida.

The records also showed that Mrs. Ridings was separated from her husband, Hubert, and that she had told police Miss Dougherty had wanted to adopt Linda herself and have her baptized.

Linda came to police attention on Oct. 14, when officer Woody Williams stopped to question a man sitting with Linda in a parked car.

The man, Wilfred Leroy Green, 37, Santa Ana, was booked on Oct. 18 on suspicion of child molesting and released on $500 bond. He was ordered to appear in court on Nov. 2.

Defeats Few For Johnson On Measures

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress pushes toward adjournment today, still faced with final decisions on federal pay and sugar legislation.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen predicted flatly Congress would finish its work today, while other congressional leaders said the end would come by Saturday at the latest.

TWO DENIED
As the session drew near a close, the Johnson administration saw money denied to start two of its "Great Society" programs when both Houses accepted the decision of Senate-House conferees to drop appropriations requests at this time for rent subsidy and teachers corps programs.

But the action scarcely dimmed the luster of a Congress which has given President Johnson practically every major bill for which he asked.

In both instances Thursday, the Senate backed down in the face of House insistence that funds be delayed until details of the programs can be further worked out.

UNSETTLED ISSUES
These issues remained to be settled:

— SUGAR. Senate and House conferees met today to work out differences between the two chambers' measures setting foreign and domestic quotas for the U.S. sugar market.

Chairman Harold D. Cooley, D-N.C., of the House Agriculture Committee indicated he thinks there will be little difficulty in reaching an agreement. The Senate bill is more in line with administration recommendations.

— FEDERAL PAY. Prompt Senate passage was expected today of a bill with salary increases of 3.6 per cent effective Oct. 1 for 1.8 million federal workers.

SCALED DOWN
The Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee scaled down a House-passed bill calling for a 4 per cent raise — more than the administration favors. The House was expected to go along with Senate action in order to avoid the possibility of a presidential veto.

Before turning to the federal pay question, the Senate hoped to act on President Johnson's nomination of David G. Bress to be U.S. attorney for the District of Columbia.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., planned a last-ditch floor fight against Bress but Democratic leaders were confident the nomination would be approved.

A number of minor matters also remained on the agenda.

Power, Speed Aids S. Viets

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Overwhelming strength and speedy action paid off for South Vietnamese forces in the Mekong River delta.

About 600 government troops swooped down on a small Viet Cong concentration at Xom Chua, 35 miles southwest of Saigon. They killed 43 of the Communists, captured 15 and came out with only a few wounded Thursday.

There were no casualties among the American advisers with the government force.

PUSH IN
Reconnaissance units and a ranger battalion pushed into the area in the flooded Plain of Reeds after reports that a Viet Cong company or battalion — up to 550 men — were operating there.

The government troops seized a small number of arms, captured three Viet Cong suspects and destroyed 23 sampans in nearby canals, but enemy casualties in that phase of the action were not known when the fighting died and the government troops pulled out.

Vietnamese commanders and senior American advisers are braced for a final Viet Cong push in the Mekong River delta before the rainy season ends.

CONG DEFEAT
U.S. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said last week that the Viet Cong's monsoon offensive was defeated in its objectives — to cut Viet Nam in half and to destroy the regular government forces.

The major Communist attacks during the late summer have been in the central highlands, where the bulk of U.S. combat forces are stationed.

Recently there have been signs that the Viet Cong are stepping up their attacks in the Mekong River delta, south of Saigon, where there are no U.S. troops except for American advisers to Vietnamese units.

Critics Fret Sen. Fulbright

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., said today a large sector of the American public shares his concern about U.S. Latin-American policy.

In a prepared Senate speech Fulbright said he doesn't like being told that his criticism of U.S. intervention in the Dominican Republic was irresponsible. And he said he does not take kindly to allegations it gave aid and comfort to this country's enemies.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, added: "An interesting discussion could be developed as to whether it is my criticisms of U.S. policy in the Dominican Republic or the policy itself which has given aid and comfort to our enemies."

Police Sketch Slaying Figure

HOUSTON (AP) — A homicide detective has sketched the face of a man believed to be the slayer of Joyce Oster, 18, who was raped and shot in a pasture near here.

Detective Paul Nix drew the picture Thursday with the help of a woman who saw a man and a woman in a car like Miss Oster's Monday. It was in a shopping center parking lot where Miss Oster disappeared soon afterward.

The nearly nude body of the blonde, blue-eyed high school junior was found Tuesday.

Police said another sketch was being developed at the sheriff's office by Eddie Knowles, an identification expert. This one is based on the description of a man to whom a service station attendant sold gasoline Monday.

Manhunt For Kidnaper Garmon Shifts Eastward

DALLAS (AP) — The manhunt for kidnaper Delbert Garmon Jr. spread to Alabama today after a hitchhiker identified himself as the fugitive, the Dallas Times Herald said, quoting an Alabama state trooper captain.

Capt. Robert Moore of the Alabama state police said the motorist left before police could get his name.

The captain was not certain of the day the motorist picked up the hitchhiker.

IN DALLAS
Garmon was last reported in Dallas early Wednesday.

There appeared a chance that Garmon would surrender Thursday, but he did not respond to pleas from his family.

He is accused of kidnapping 19 persons in Oklahoma and Texas in two weeks.

Capt. Moore said the motorist let Garmon out of his car at Faunsdale, 100 miles west of Montgomery, shortly before midnight Thursday after picking him up on the outskirts of Dallas.

"He said the hitchhiker didn't talk much during the drive," Moore said. But he told him his name was Garmon and that he was wanted in Texas and Oklahoma for kidnapping "and maybe murder now," the captain said.

NONE HARMED
As far as is known, Garmon has harmed none of his kidnapping victims.

"When they got to Faunsdale," Moore said, "the hitchhiker said he wanted out. He asked the driver for money and the driver by now was so scared he gave him $2.11." He said the hitchhiker did not display a pistol, although Garmon is believed carrying two.

U.S. Sectors Enjoy Mild, Sunny Spell

By The Associated Press

Much of the country had relatively mild temperatures today with sunny skies predicted.

Sections of the Midwest had colder temperatures and rain covered portions of the Ohio Valley to the New England coast.

Temperatures were brisk over most of Texas.

The mercury sagged to 36 at Alpine, 38 at Amarillo, 39 at Brownwood and 41 at Lubbock around daylight. Spots of frost dotted the Panhandle.

COLDER READINGS

The colder readings were directed at most of Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa and Missouri. Sunny and mild temperatures prevailed over the South and West and from the Rockies to the Mississippi River.

The West Coast's unseasonable heat wave sent temperatures Thursday to 102 degrees at Miramar, Calif., north of San Diego. At San Diego the high was 101 — a record. Los Angeles Airport recorded 100 degrees. In downtown Los Angeles, the temperature reached 98.

HOT WINDS

The Weather Bureau said the high readings were caused by hot desert winds channeling through canyons to the coast, and by warming of dry air down the west slope of interior mountain ranges.

Rain or showers fell over wide sections of the country Thursday, mostly through the Midwest to the Atlantic Coast.

At Kenosha, Wis., nearly five inches of rain fell. At Fort Wayne, Ind., nearly two inches of rain fell in six hours. The rain in Kenosha flooded hundreds of basements, knocked out utility lines and shut highways because of high water.

Leimmon, S.D., reported the day's lowest reading, 17 degrees, while Miramar's 102 was the highest.

Missionary To Bring Talk

Wanda Knox, missionary to New Guinea, will speak at the 7:30 p.m. service at the Church of the Nazarene Oct. 27. She is the widow of the late Sidney Knox who was pastor of the Big Spring church from 1952 to 1959 when the couple entered the mission field. Their term of service was shortened by the death of the Rev. Knox in 1959.

Mrs. Knox returned to the mission field with her two children, completing a term there until she was eligible for furlough this year.

While in the United States for a year, she is doing graduate study in Bethany (Oklahoma) Nazarene College. She spends the weekends speaking at churches within driving distance of the college.

"She is a dynamic speaker, with a personality to interest and inspire in this arm of the church," the Rev. D. M. Duke, pastor, said. "The public is invited."

Youth Revival Is Continuing

The Baptist Student Union of Howard County Junior College will continue a youth-led revival at Hillcrest Baptist Church, through Sunday night, the Rev. Clyde Campbell, pastor, said.

Don Anderson, a second-year student at HCJC, is serving as director of the services. Other young people of the BSU are contributing to the music program of the revival.

"The young people of Hillcrest Baptist Church extend a warm welcome to the youth of Big Spring to participate in these services," Rev. Campbell said.

Don Reavis, director of the local college BSU, will attend Friday, with a delegation from Odessa College. Mr. and Mrs. Terry Carter are superintending the youth work at Hillcrest Church.

Railroad Named In Damage Suit

Texas & Pacific Railway Co. is named as defendant in a damage suit for $325,000 filed in 118th District Court Thursday afternoon. Plaintiff is H. E. Musick, a former employee of the road.

Musick alleges that on April 19, 1965 he was operating a PTL 40 Tractor for the railroad on one of its lines. In the course of his work of lining up rails and tightening the machine, he slipped into the machine. He claims he was permanently injured.

He is asking $325,000.

AMENDMENTS-4

Extend Governor's, Other Officers' Terms

(This is the fourth in a series of 19 articles on the proposed constitutional amendments which will be decided in a Nov. 2 election—Ed)

AMENDMENT NO. 4

Proposed Amendment No. 4 would provide a term of four years for the offices of governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, controller of public accounts, treasurer, commissioners of the General Land Office, and secretary of state. At present, the term for each of these offices is two years. The office of Secretary of State is appointive, but the constitution prescribes that the appointee shall continue in office during the term of service of the governor. Therefore, the lengthening of the term of the governor to four years would automatically extend the term of the secretary of state to four years.

Similarly, the lieutenant governor (an elective office) "continues in office for the same time and possesses the same qualifications" as the governor, and therefore, the office of lieutenant governor would also be extended to four years if the proposed constitutional amendment is approved.

SINCE 1876

Adoption of the proposed amendment would not extend the term of office of any office holder previously elected to a two-year term. The present two-year terms for state officials have been in effect since 1876, when the present constitution was adopted.

As of January, 1962, 35 of the 50 states had four-year terms for governors; however, the remaining 15 states limit the term to two years. Six of the states having four-year terms for governor limit their governors to serving a maximum of two consecutive terms. South Dakota, which has a two-year term for governor, also limits any governor to serving a maximum of two consecutive terms. Fourteen states which have four-year terms for governors do not permit a governor to succeed himself in office. No restriction on the number of terms or upon the governor succeeding himself is included in the proposed amendment to the Constitution.

NECESSARY

Those favoring a four-year term for elective state offices feel that the longer term is necessary in order to permit officials to develop and execute effective programs.

Those opposed to the four-year term and favoring a shorter term of office feel that longer term of office would be detrimental to the citizens who elected him. They feel that he becomes less responsive to the public will in proportion to the length of the term.

It has been said that a four-year term is too short for a good public official and a two-year term is too long for a poor one.

Fighting Marine 'Hates Antiwar Demonstrators'

MOLINE, Ill. (AP) — An antiwar young Marine lieutenant fighting in Viet Nam said today he has "begun to develop a hatred for some of you" antiwar demonstrators.

"I am speaking to those of you who carry idiotic placards denouncing our stand in Viet Nam and march in circles that closely resemble your pattern of thinking," wrote Lt. Ward S. Johnson.

SCORES "INTELLECTUALS" "And I am speaking to you

"you do not offer your remarks" about butchers and killers of women and children "directly to a Marine who has returned home from Viet Nam."

"I'm sure that he will have a broad grin of satisfaction on his face when he appears in court to answer to charges of assault and battery."

BOILING POINT

He said a "feeling inside of me has nearly reached the boiling point for another group of you — the ever-increasing group of American youths that practices the art of draft dodging."

Johnson criticized hurry-up marriages to beat draft deadlines, adding, "I'll bet you're real proud of yourselves," in a direct reference to young men.

LBJ Signs Beautification Bill Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Con-valescing President Johnson, back home at the White House, signs today the highway beautification bill passed by the House on the eve of his gall bladder operation.

Many of those who helped get the bill through — his wife Lady Bird, congressmen, conservationists and garden clubbers — were invited to the afternoon ceremony in the East Room.

The President had made his last item of business before his surgery Oct. 8, and he made it his first official ceremonial act on his return to the White House.

EASING BACK

Facing four to six weeks of recuperation, Johnson was easing back to work — with the possibility of a lengthy Texas ranch stay while he regains his strength.

Coming home Thursday — after two weeks in Bethesda Naval Hospital — the President conducted afternoon conferences on international affairs with Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler from his bed.

His chief surgeon, Dr. George C. Hallenbeck of the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn., had come to stay with Johnson at the White House as long as "the President is there."

The doctors had given Johnson "the full green light" and sent him home with just a "lean and lightweight bandage" over the portion of the incision where the last of three drainage tubes had been removed.

KISSES NURSE

The President kissed his Navy nurse, Lt. (j.g.) Mary Carroll of Cleveland, goodby, told fellow patients left behind "Now you get well" and paid a farewell visit to a ward of Marines wounded in Viet Nam fighting.

"I feel like a fellow casualty," he told them, "I have been out of circulation for a few days and kind of sliced up a little myself, but I have gone through nothing like what you have gone through."

"The thing, though, that made me able to take what I did take with my chin up, was the knowledge that men like you are willing to do what you did for your country."

Cong Again Attack Besieged Viet Camp

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Viet Cong made another strong attack on the beleaguered Special Forces camp at Plei Me today, but the fighting died down again late in the day, a U.S. military spokesman reported.

The Communist guerrillas shot down a U.S. Air Force Skyraider, but the pilot was rescued, the spokesman said. Eight Americans were killed in two helicopter crashes in the area Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Viet Cong battered the Plei Me garrison 210 miles northeast of Saigon with mortars, automatic weapons and small arms. A Vietnamese ranger unit fought its way into the camp shortly after dawn to bolster the tough mountain tribesmen who have kept the guerrillas at bay for three days.

U.S. jets pounded the guerrillas around the camp continuously.

LAUNCH ATTACK

About 500 Viet Cong launched the attack at Plei Me early Wednesday.

A Family Night Festival has been planned for 6 p.m. Oct. 24 at Kentwood Methodist Church. The Rev. Henry L. Salley, pastor, said families meet and bring covered dish dinners for the festival.

"Special emphasis on family worship will be featured," he said. "A film, 'Conversion Plus,' dealing with living in Christian faith and family situations, will be shown. It will deal with the question of 'What Am I to Do as a Christian?'"

The congregation will have fellowship, worship, singing and the film, with attention focused on newer families and guests. "Discussions around the table, and an altar service, will conclude the evening," he said.

Wednesday. The camp then was defended by about 300 Montagnard tribesmen and 10 or 12 American advisers.

U.S. helicopters lifted several companies of Vietnamese in Thursday, and U.S. authorities said it appeared the Communist offensive had been blunted.

But latest reports said the Viet Cong remained in positions around the camp in heavy strength and were massing large concentrations of weapons.

U.S. advisers in the camp reported seeing at least 50 enemy bodies in the barbed wire around the camp and on the ground beyond. U.S. officials said the garrison had suffered light casualties.

DRAW FIRE

The Communists began a new heavy barrage early today, and U.S. planes also drew heavy fire.

"It was a pretty hot night," said Capt. Bill Wittenberg, Kansas City, Kan., who flew over the area dropping flares.

Wittenberg reported the camp was under fire from all directions although American planes were pounding the Communists through the night. U.S. pilots said a field to the north of the camp was littered with Viet Cong bodies. Government troops went on the offensive in the Mekong River delta and new Viet Cong losses were reported in a battle earlier in the week in the northernmost province of Quang Tri.

Fifty-nine guerrillas were reported killed in two operations in the delta, 43 of them in a clash Thursday in Dinh Tuong Province, 35 miles southwest of Saigon.

CONG CASUALTIES

U.S. sources confirmed that 148 Viet Cong were killed in the Red attack Wednesday on an outpost in Ba Long Valley, 410 miles north of Saigon. Earlier reports said 90 guerrillas were killed.

U.S. Marines in the Qui Nhon area, 260 miles north of Saigon, ambushed a Viet Cong force and killed 11 guerrillas. No American casualties were reported. Other Marines in the Da Nang and Chu Lai areas reported 11 other Viet Cong killed. In the Mekong River Delta, overwhelming strength and speedy action paid off for South Vietnamese forces.

MYOPIA...

commonly called nearsightedness, is characterized by a person's inability to see clearly or comfortably at a distance. It may be caused by the eye being longer than normal or by too much curvature of the cornea (front) of the eye. Myopia, if present, is diagnosed in a professional eye examination by a TSO Doctor of Optometry, and vision is corrected by properly prescribed and fitted glasses or contact lenses. Also, at TSO, the eyes are examined internally for evidence of disease or defect such as glaucoma or cataract. ■ The fee for TSO eye care, including the examination, finest quality single vision lenses, and frame, is as low as $14.85. With finest quality bifocal lenses, the fee is as low as $17.85. Single vision contact lenses, including the examination and fittings, are just $65. Bifocal contact lenses are also available at reasonable cost. If desired, there is a convenient credit plan at no additional cost.

A Devotional For The Day

I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. (II Timothy 1:12)

PRAYER: God, help me always to believe in Thee. May my faith in Thee be a growing faith. Save me and keep me in this faith until I see Thee. I ask this in the name of Thy Son and my Lord and Redeemer, Jesus Christ. Amen.

More Help For State Parks

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department has applied to the federal government for $27,073.85 to be matched by an equal amount from the state, for outdoor recreation planning. This is the first step in the department's effort to upgrade the sadly neglected system of state parks.

Careful planning, substantial appropriations and years of hard work lie ahead if the parks system is to keep up with the steady rise in population. Today 75 per cent of the state's population is concentrated in urban areas. The flight from rural areas will increase, not diminish, in the years ahead.

The growth of the urban population will continue to impose great strains on the outdoor recreation facilities of Texas. More or larger parks will be needed. New ones must be selected with population centers and geography in mind.

An unfortunate imbalance is being corrected. Instead of treating the parks system as a stepchild, as it was before the Game and Fish Commission was merged with it to create a new department, a more even hand is being applied. The plea of almost unrepresented urban people for more outdoor recreation facilities has been heard. Hunters and fishermen will no longer take the lion's share of appropriations, but will share at least a bit more equally with the parks system.

Stricter Enforcement

One reason why the state increased Texas highway speed limits to 70 miles an hour in the daytime and 65 at night was that so many motorists were exceeding the old limits that an upward adjustment was considered reasonable and more enforceable.

Now violations of the new limits are soaring. This is not likely to bring another increase in the speed limits, because highway traffic fatalities are on an upswing, and the present limits are believed to be about the maximum that can be allowed average-skilled drivers with safety. But it will more likely bring a crackdown on highway speeders by an increased force of patrolmen, which is still all together too small for a state that leads in highway mileage.

The Texas Highway Department, which bases a statewide estimate on a sample of 31 camouflaged locations of speed-measuring devices, recently reported that the percentage of passenger cars exceeding the 70 m.p.h. daytime limit increased from 5.1 in 1964 to 10.2 this year. The violations of the 65 m.p.h. night rate were even higher. Average passenger car speed increased from 58.8 to 61.2 miles an hour.

The history of highway motor-vehicle traffic has been one of steadily raised allowable speeds. That argues against assuming that the present higher limits are final. But it will take a great deal more highway improvement, far safer car designing, and better driver training to expect that limits may again be raised without a sharp increase in traffic fatalities. What public safety demands now is stricter enforcement of existing speed limits. The laws of motion cannot be changed and the frailty of human life and limb bolstered.

Anti-War Sentiment

WASHINGTON — Anti-draft, anti-Viet Nam sentiment goes deeper than the frenetic demonstrations that have erupted on college campuses and elsewhere.

One U. S. Senator warned President Johnson a month ago that he was drafting legislation that would restrict draftees to stateside duty, thus placing the total burden of Viet Nam upon professional soldiers and volunteers.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON succeeded in forestalling the move, pleading that introduction of such a bill would reinforce the conviction shared by Hanoi and Peking that anti-Viet Nam feeling is a major force in the United States. The Senator agreed to hold off temporarily, but cautioned the President that sending a large conscript army to Viet Nam would provide a politically explosive issue to be exploited by Republicans in the 1966 elections.

The President agreed that increasing "peacetime" draft calls might prove unpopular, but he pointed to generally high levels of public support for his policies in Viet Nam, and emphasized that it was not possible for the United States to meet its worldwide commitments without the draft.

THIS HELPS explain the Administration's violent and well-coordinated counterattack on anti-draft demonstrators.

If no more than a handful of Communist-oriented or chronically malcontent beatnik students was involved, Washington would not be as concerned as it obviously is. But anti-war sentiment goes much deeper than that.

SEN. THOMAS Dodd (D., Conn.) fired a defensive salvo last week when he released a Senate staff study charging anti-Viet Nam teach-ins and similar protest movements were heavily infiltrated by Communists.

"Control of the anti-Viet Nam movement has clearly passed from the hands of the moderate elements who may have controlled it at one time," Senator Dodd charged, "into the hands of Communists and extremist elements who are openly sympathetic to the Viet Cong and openly hostile to the United States, and who call for massive civil disobedience, including the burning of draft cards and the stopping of troop trains. This is particularly true of the National Viet Nam Protest Movement scheduled for October 15-16."

SENATOR DODD paid grudging lip service to the principle of free expression by admitting that there are "many men with impeccable records of anti-Communism who have expressed disagreement with the Administration's policy, in whole or in part."

Examination of the Senate staff study discloses that the "many" Dodd conceded might be loyal Americans in the protest movement becomes "the great majority of those who have participated in anti-Viet Nam demonstrations" when the small type is read.

THE TRUTH is that many perfectly loyal Americans harbor grave misgivings about the war in Viet Nam, and about the prospects of the United States becoming involved in an endless land conflict on the mainland of Asia (which MacArthur himself warned against). It is shameful to smear them as Communists.

Blue Ribbon

ESPAÑOLA, N.M. (AP) — Last year when Susan Hanson of Rancho was 11 she suffered acute embarrassment at the 4-H district competition in Taos.

While the judges were examining her rabbit entered in the livestock division, the animal became a mother. Susan received a red ribbon.

But Susan had her revenge at the FFA and 4-H Junior Fair in Espanola.

She entered the same rabbit and was awarded a blue ribbon. She also entered one of the rabbits born at Taos and it took a blue ribbon.

Unions Have Big Stake In 1966 Elections

WASHINGTON (AP) — Like the AFL-CIO, convening in San Francisco in December, will start laying plans for a running start at keeping its friends in Congress after the 1966 elections.

Union chiefs, miffed at the poor record on labor legislation in the first half of the 89th Congress, really have no choice.

Their chances of winning union shop, minimum wage, unemployment compensation and other labor measures could go glimmering next year if their liberal Democratic allies waver in the face of election year pressures.

"THEY'LL BE sitting ducks," said one labor spokesman of the 38 freshman House Democrats who last year ousted long-trenched Republicans from Maine to California and then voted down the line for labor and the Johnson administration.

But it will be an uphill battle for Johnson and organized labor to prevent Republicans from recouping many of these seats.

Not since President Franklin D. Roosevelt and the Democrats pulled the trick in 1934 has the party-in-power bucked the historic trend of losing seats in Congress in a nonpresidential election year.

AFL-CIO President George Meany already has sounded the call for labor to repeat its 1964 political blitz tactics in behalf of the Democrats next year.

Labor spokesmen admit, however, it will be far more difficult to whip up flagging enthusiasm among disappointed union men after failure to win the big fight to annual state power to ban union shop contracts — agreements under which all employees must join a union.

THE 38 "sitting ducks" voted for the bill to increase the House, but it was blocked by a Senate filibuster and pushed aside until next year.

Labor is also disappointed that a bill to increase the present $1.25 federal minimum wage didn't at least get through the House.

Other labor measures were also pigeonholed until next year.

Clair A. Callan of Nebraska — both from states with so-called right-to-work laws banning union shop contracts.

Labor forgave them their "no" votes on the basis of their record on other legislation favored by labor.

The man who didn't vote was Rep. Roy H. McVicker of Colorado, who went home to a sick wife during the union shop battle. "He would have voted for repeal of 14B," an aide said.

Mite For The Middy Meal

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the biggest unsolved problems of the American husband today is how to get more luncheon money from his wife.

Here and there you still find an old-fashioned male who controls the family finances and puts his wife on a skimpy household allowance for which she must render to him strict accounting.

In most homes it operates the other way. The husband meekly brings home his weekly paycheck in his mouth. His wife, after patting him on the head, deposits the check in the bank.

THEN SHE is in charge of the spending. Some wives on Monday give their husbands the funds that are supposed to last them through the week.

Such wives usually are new-lays. Older wives know this system doesn't work. They have found out from experience that if they give a husband his full allowance on Monday he'll be broke by Wednesday morning — and whining for more.

So they dole it out daily. But some husbands seem to be in a rebellious mood about their luncheon allowances, judging by a bill session at an office water cooler I overheard recently.

"I'VE BEEN married 25 years and in that time the boss has given me five merit raises," volunteered a marital veteran. "But how many merit raises has my wife given me in that time? Not one."

"A quarter of a century ago she started giving me 50 cents a day for lunch, and it was okay then. I could get a three-course dinner for 45 cents, and that left me with a nickel to buy a cigar afterwards."

"But she still gives me only four-bits a day, and nowadays you're lucky to get a peanut butter sandwich for that."

"I KNOW what you mean," remarked another husband. "The only way I've been able to stay alive is to shake a couple of quarters out of my kid's piggy bank every night and put in a couple of washers to replace them. But that can't go on much longer. The kid's getting wise."

"My wife thinks I'm keeping another woman on the sly, she gives me for lunch, and that's a third. 'But if I had a mistress who ate like a bird, I couldn't afford her — because I don't have enough to supply her with bird seed.'"

In the long run, however, the wives are really hurting themselves. If the average husband isn't passed out a little more folding money to buy himself a decent midday meal, he soon won't be able to bring home the bacon — because he won't have the strength to tote it.

Around The Rim

Motivation — Ugh!

Whatever happened to the old-time celluloid villains? Remember them, the ones who were totally evil, without one good feature as redemption? I called it the "Bad Seed Syndrome." They were my kind of baddies—you didn't have to think when you saw a movie. You knew from the beginning that the guys with the white tie and black shirt, or the ones who wore black hats in Westerns, or who dressed too neatly, were gonna cause trouble for our hero. Still, when they sneaked up behind Johnny, or Bill (all heroes in movies had unimaginative names), you shouted, "Watch out!"

REMEMBER? Robert Middleton as the insidious Dr. Fu Manchu. There wasn't a nastier leer than his, unless it belonged to the inimitable Eric Von Stroheim.

Now there was a villain. Von Stroheim played a seemingly limitless series of flics wherein he was invariably a stiff-necked Prussian officer, with shaved head, thick neck and jack-boots with nails in them. Usually he was content to stomp peasants with the boots, his cigarette-holder clenched firmly between leering jaws. At other times he extended himself by stomping peasants plus having dishonorable intentions toward the heroine. He ruined himself when he played a mixed-up madman, a sort of Sado-Masochist with a personality split six ways. You felt sorry for him, and that blew the whole thing.

MY KIND of villain doesn't have any reason for being nasty, he just is nasty, by nature. Richard Widmark. Remember when he pushed the old lady in the wheel chair down the stairs, just for the heck of it? And then he laughed like a Shakespearean witch? Boy, you could really hate him. Jack Palance. Remember when he taunted the little ex-Confederate into drawing on him, in "Shane"? How he slowly put on his black gloves, all the while whispering vile insults in that voice of his? And then he shot the little man down, and grinned?

BUT NO MORE. Now the flics, and the television series, give their villains MOTIVATION. The baddies are SYMPATHETIC. Their mummies thumped them on the head with thimble when they were young and impressionable, thus causing them to rob, rape, murder and generally be nasty all over the place.

There is a something-or-other on television now about the late, hardly lamented Jesse James, a murderer of note back in the Old West when men were men and so were women. Seems poor ol' Jesse needs analysis by a headshrinker. The producer of this show says Jesse had nowhere to turn after the South came a cropper in the North-South police action. Supposedly he became BITTER, another excuse for rapine, brigandage and Hell-raising on the home boob-tube.

WISH THE television people would simply admit that most of their shows would be flops without violence. Violence sells. Why excuse the use of it by mealy-mouthed nonsense about psychological motivation and crime-fighting and like that? Why not just make their villains villains without the half-literate, pseudo-Freudian gobbledygook about motivation they deem necessary to either save their guilt-feelings or appease Aunt Nelly, and get on with the rub-outs? Wish the movie people would, too. —TOM BARRY

Commies Busier Than We Know

WASHINGTON—The American people are not as yet thoroughly informed on what the Soviet government is doing inside the United States to help stir up all kinds of friction and to give the world an impression of a popular discontent and unrest in America.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, minces no words in his annual report, just issued. He says that, although the Communist party of the United States "loudly proclaims its independence of foreign control," its every action shows clearly that it "owes allegiance only to the Soviet Union and is absolutely committed to the world Communist movement."

YET THE Communist party is permitted as much freedom as the Republican party or the Democratic party, and the illusion prevails that it is just another political organization entitled to the same rights as other political groups.

Mr. Hoover declares that the Communist party's traditional opposition to any phase of American foreign policy which serves to impede international communism has "reached new levels of invecitive with all-out attacks on this country's commitments in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic."

"THE PARTY is making a concerted effort to exploit its advantage the various demonstrations against American involvement in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic. "The Communists have been much encouraged by the current wave of social unrest in the United States. They view this situation as the development of a climate favorable to their operations and are constantly probing to exploit areas of discord. It is a rare civil rights activity, whether it be a voter's registration drive, a demonstration, march or picket, that does not attract Communists to some degree."

"A STRIKING EXAMPLE of this was seen in the riots which erupted in the Harlem area of New York City in July, 1964. The Progressive Labor movement—since renamed the Progressive Labor Party—a dissident and highly militant splinter group of the Communist party, U.S.A., was involved in prolonging these demonstrations by deliberate incitement of the rioters."

The FBI director makes it clear that many civil-rights organizations operate on a legitimate basis and have been successful in excluding Communists, but says that the Communist party is nevertheless continuously striving to infiltrate civil-rights movements at every level. He declares:

"THE 1964-1965 school year was a busy time for Communist leaders in all areas of the country as the party intensified its efforts to attract young people through public appearances on college and university campuses. Party leaders, encouraged by earlier successes, spoke to more than 37,000 students in 56 appearances during this period. This concentration on college campuses was aimed at gaining acceptance for the party as a legitimate political activity, creating an aura of respectability and understanding for the party and spreading Communist propaganda. Communist party leaders also appeared as guests on numerous radio and television programs."

IT WOULD APPEAR that the American people are not getting all of the truth and will not until congressional committees carry on intensive inquiries and make public their findings. There have been repeated efforts either to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities or to limit the scope of its investigations. Unless there is exposure, the people can hardly get the facts, because many of the individuals concerned with various public demonstrations have succeeded in covering up their true affiliation with the Communist movement.

The Story Of The Gallstones

WASHINGTON—There won't be any White House announcement, but fingerprints have been discovered on Lyndon Johnson's gallstones. Scientists are divided on the question of identification. Some say the telltale traces belong to Machiavelli. Others accredit them to Jefferson.

THE PROponents of the Machiavellian trace contended that the President showed a fine Italian hand by leaving through the calendar and choosing the psychological date that he did for entering the hospital. He left the Kennedy brothers to writhing in the boiling oil of the Francis X. Morrissey nomination. Morrissey is a sort of seneschal, or backstairs footman for the Kennedy household. He is not unlike Abe Fortas, whom LBJ put on the Supreme Court, except that Fortas is a political fixer with impressive credentials as a lawyer, whereas Morrissey's qualifications for the Federal Bench are the joke of judiciary circles.

THERE'S NO evidence that LBJ made the nomination just to mouse-trap Bob and Ted Kennedy into the worst embarrassment of their Senate careers, "except the evidence of Johnson's character. The only danger to Lyndon was that he might have busted his stomach from laughing at what he did."

Others, pressing the theory that the wiley master of the Pedernales had chosen the time for his hospitalization with Machiavellian insight, cited the interlude of political pause and relative international calm which left Vice President Humphrey with nothing to do but read the medical charts. The President's short term of incapacity occurred, as one commentator observed, at a period when the crisis-crises couldn't call it a time to try men's souls.

BUT THE theoreticians who thought the fingerprints on the gallstones belonged to Thomas Jefferson spoke in a more serious vein. They felt the President's operation was an act of Providence to call the nation's attention to the Jeffersonian-ideal that the least governed people are the best governed. If, as Press Secretary Bill Moyers told us, the President was feeling the accumulated weariness of twenty months of hyperactivity, there might be a prolonged period of rest and recuperation for the chief executive and the country alike. The country might be better governed for being less agitated with daily hippodrome performances.

THE PRESIDENT'S name was being banded by nothing but friendly conversationalists who wish him well, and who were concerned both for his life expectancy and continued political proficiency, if LBJ was suffering battle fatigue, he wasn't the only tired soldier of our town.

The proponents of the Jeffersonian trace felt that the hand of Providence had fallen on the President's shoulder as a warning to govern less and let the country enjoy it more.

HISTORIC DISPLAY OF TEXAS REPUBLIC PAPER MONEY

Unusual collection to be special feature at Big Spring Coin Club Show

Keen Competition Expected For Annual Coin Club Show

Fourth annual coin show of the Big Spring Coin Club swings into action Saturday at 9 a.m. Members of the club were moving in tables and arranging details today for the big event at the Hotel Settles.

Dois McKee, general chairman, said it appears the competition this year will be the keenest in the history of the event. No ribbons will be awarded to winners at this show. Instead, there will be a first, second and third place trophy in each of the seven competitive classes. In addition, there will be a special trophy for the best of show entry.

Judges will begin selecting winners early Saturday. The winners are to be recognized and honored at a breakfast Sunday at 7:30 a.m. The breakfast is at the hotel. The show will be held in the ballroom and on the mezzanine floor.

Former Resident Dies, Rites Held

Bob Birmingham, 71, long-time resident of Big Spring and West Texas, died early this week in Long Beach, Calif. where he had made his home for several years. Services and burial were held in California.

A brother, J. R. Birmingham, lives at 2002 Morrison in Big Spring. Mr. Bob Birmingham is survived by his widow and two children.

He was among the men who helped to build the first segment of the Cooden refinery here. During his residence in West Texas he was employed by Magnolia Petroleum Co. in the Westbrook area for several years, worked for other oil companies, and on ranches, before he moved to Rankin where he lived for a short time before moving to Long Beach.

Youngster Bitten

Kerry Graves, 6, was bitten by a stray dog Thursday, according to officers. The dog was taken to the city dog pound for observation. Mrs. Olen Graves, 805 W. 16th, the boy's mother said today the bite was but a scratch. No one knows the owner of the animal, she said.

Mrs. Rankin Dies Thursday

STANTON (SC) — Mrs. John Rankin, 57, of Stanton died at 7 p.m. Thursday in a Big Spring hospital. She had been ill, and in and out of hospitals, for over a year.

Mrs. Rankin was born Jan. 7, 1908 in Vernon. She was married to the Rev. John Rankin Aug. 23, 1934. He had served as pastor of churches all of their married life, and for the past two years had been in charge of the District VIII Baptist Encampment north of Stanton.

Services will be held at the First Baptist Church in Stanton at 10 a.m. Saturday. The Rev. W. H. Uhlman, pastor, will officiate, and Dr. Franklin Swann, Plainview, will assist. Burial will be in the Abernathy Cemetery at 4 p.m. Saturday under the direction of the Seminole Funeral Home.

Survivors are the husband; a daughter, Mrs. N. O. Parker, Stanton; two sons, John Steven Rankin Jr., Wurtsboro, N.Y.; James Rankin, Louisville, Ky.; five grandchildren; five sisters, Mrs. B. M. Dinsmore, Wichita Falls, Mrs. M. V. Dougal, Victoria, Mrs. O. H. Jackson, Sacramento, Calif., Mrs. R. N. Windship, Houston, and Mrs. Lois N. Byrd, Petaluma, Calif.

Saturday Rites Scheduled For Mrs. Patterson

Services for Mrs. Sallie Catherine Patterson, 93, who died at 11 p.m. Wednesday in a local hospital, will be held at the Westside Baptist Church at 2 p.m. Saturday. The Rev. Kenneth Anderson, former pastor and now of Carlsbad, N.M., will officiate, assisted by the Rev. Perry Barton, present pastor. Burial will be in the Coahoma Cemetery beside her husband, with River-Welch Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Palbearers, all grandsons, will be Kenneth Newsum, Clarence Patterson, Duane Patterson, T. C. Patterson, Robert Patterson, and Jim Newsum. All other grandsons will be honorary palbearers.

Mrs. Patterson was born in Marville, Tenn., Nov. 17, 1871, and came to Texas when she was 15 years of age. She married William Robert Patterson April 11, 1889 in Mount Pleasant, and the family came to Howard County in 1926.

She was one of a family of 14 children, and left 232 direct descendants, including five sons, three daughters (three children are deceased), 46 grandsons, 171 great-grandchildren, seven great-great-grandchildren; a brother, a sister, and a host of nieces and nephews.

Graveside Rites For S. F. Zoda

Graveside rites for Sherman Franklin Zoda, 73, 1306 1/2 E. 6th, who died Wednesday afternoon, will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday in Big Spring City Cemetery. The Rev. Donald Hungerford, pastor of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, will officiate. Arrangements will be under the direction of Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home.

Palbearers will be Vance Lebkowsky, Bob Lebkowsky, Charles Lebkowsky, J. C. Wadkins, Gene Madry, and Buddy Proffitt.

Mr. Zoda worked in oil fields in West Texas and New Mexico until 1937 when he moved to Big Spring where he was employed by Lebkowsky Distributing Co. until his retirement in 1961. He had no known relatives.

Mayor Zachariah Presides At Society's Convention

Big Spring Mayor George Zachariah is presiding at the annual state convention of the Texas Society for Crippled Children and Adults, being held in San Antonio through Sunday. He is state president of the Eastern Seal Society.

Big Spring School Supt. Sam Anderson, president of the Texas Council for Exceptional Children, will leave the state convention of the Texas State Teachers Association at Corpus Christi Saturday to preside at a special education breakfast in San Antonio Sunday. Ethel M. Leach, assistant professor of education at the University of Kansas, will address the breakfast meeting on "Planning for Children with Physical Limitations."

At the opening session luncheon today, M. A. Perleton, Chicago pediatrician, addressed the group. Guests were to be transported to the San Antonio Rehabilitation Center this afternoon to witness a demonstration of cerebral palsied children, by Dr. Perleton.

Dr. Carl Morring Jr., Huntsville, Ala., will speak at the general session Saturday morning. He is immediate past president of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults and will speak on a recent MIT study of Easter Seal Societies and their organization.

Among prominent Texans scheduled to appear during the meeting will be C. W. Jarvis,

Cast For Comedy

The cast for "Visit to a Small Planet," Big Spring Little Theatre production that opens Friday evening, includes, back row from left, Clark Frayser, Jack Meeker, Christina Tatum, Bill Fleming; front row from left, Patti Doherty, Kieran Doherty, Jimmy Townes and David Carriero. The play will be repeated Saturday evening, and curtain time both days is 8:15 p.m. in the city auditorium. Season tickets may be purchased at Peltier's, or from any board member.

Theater Season's First Play Comes Off Well

By TOM BARRY

"Visit to a Small Planet," Big Spring Little Theatre's first presentation for the 1965 season, came off as more or less a surprise during Thursday night's dress rehearsal.

We had not seen the play before, but were pleasantly surprised to find it a shade more "deep" and a bit more "sophisticated," whatever that means, than the usual run of community theater play choices.

It is a sort of junior varsity satire on people in general and warmongering in particular. There's this Martian, except he's from another dimension rather than another planet, who makes a visit to Manassas, Va., circa 1965. Being a Civil War buff, he wanted to land his ship in the year 1861 to get in on Bull Run, first version, but goofed.

CONTRIVED NOTION
The play turns around this one contrived notion, but it turns well. The outer-spaceman, Kreton, uses his powers of mind-reading and levitation to expose General Powers, a pompous egomaniac; a television commentator, shades of Front Page News; and the newsmen's daughter and her paramour, Conrad, for what they are. Warmongering humans, the play indicates, revert to type in any stressing situation. "Type," being war-loving, bestial imperialists, rather vacuous.

There are some funny lines in the show, most of which belong to Rhea, the TV man's flibbertigibbly wife. Rhea, played by Christine Tatum to the hilt, steals the first two acts, but disappears when the morality message pokes its head into the melange.

ADEQUATELY
General Powers, played adequately by Jack Meeker, who didn't get his teeth into the part until late in the play, is the main foil for Kreton's observations on human frailty. Powers, beside being an egomaniac, is paranoid — everybody's against him. Typical of the Powers' mentality is a scene in which the general's first thought, when Kreton announces he is taking over the world, is, "Napoleon couldn't do it, Hitler couldn't do it, and I can't do it."

Dave Carriero, as Kreton, is almost perfect for the part. He carries off the role in light-hearted fashion, and seems to have got the message of the play — lack of seriousness, which is the play's only true strong point. The pacifist bit has been done to death, and without the humor indigent to the play, the audience would feel they were at a camp meeting, or a Students for a Democratic Society meeting.

Patty and Kieran Doherty play the young lovers, Ellen and Conrad. Kieran carries the major role, and his portrayal of the frenetically passionate Conrad, a role which becomes tiresome because of a too-often repeated joke about the Jefferson Davis Motel, is really quite good.

OPENS TODAY
The play, which begins Friday night and carries over through Saturday, at the City Auditorium, is, despite some serious defects, mostly in the play itself rather than the actors — well worth seeing. Little Theater, a bright spot of volunteer cultural uprisings in West Texas, needs and deserves support from Big Spring. Tickets at the gate are $1.50. Season tickets will also be available at the gate at $8 for a family, more than worth it in time off from television alone. Play begins at 8:15 p.m. sharp, so come early.

Henry Case Goes To Trial Today

Elmo Henry, charged with shooting his former wife, Patsy, two times in the head with a pistol, is on trial in 118th District Court today. He pleaded not guilty to an indictment charging him with assault with intent to murder, when the case was called up at 11 a.m.

A jury was selected from the 31-member jury panel. The state, in order to make the abbreviated list of jurors serve, agreed to reduce its preemptory challenges to seven. Each side in a trial of this nature is normally entitled to 10 such challenges.

FILES PETITION
Prior to the opening of his trial Henry filed a petition with Judge Ralph W. Caton asking, if he is convicted and his punishment fixed at as much as five years, that he be allowed a suspended or probated sentence.

The first witness to be called was Mrs. Tommie Rogers, police dispatcher. She said she received a call from a man who identified himself as Elmo Henry around 5 p.m. on the afternoon of March 28.

She quoted the caller as saying, "I have shot and killed my wife. She is lying on the front porch at 408 Ryon." She said she sent police to the scene.

The first officer to reach the place was Ted Lancaster. He testified he saw Mrs. Henry on the porch. She was on her back and bleeding badly from wounds in the head, he said. Inside the house he found Henry, the defendant.

JURORS
The jurors who are sitting in the case are Bennie L. Porter, Clifford Blazer, S. C. Rhoton Jr., Mary Cochran, Malcolm Green, Victor L. Jackson, Lee B. Herndon, Roy F. Philley, Willie McDaniel, B. F. Rainey, William C. Shaffer and Robert J. Alexander.

One of the witnesses who is to be called in the case is Mrs. Henry. She was returned here from Bartlesville, Okla., earlier in the week. Mrs. Henry, who has divorced her husband since the affray, was left paralyzed from the waist down by the gunshot wounds.

She will be brought into the courtroom in a wheel chair, when her testimony is required.

Norman Spencer Jr., attorney for Henry, said he was not planning to use too many witnesses. However, he said, the trend of the state's case will determine his defense tactics. He said, however, he did intend to place Henry on the stand.

MORE WITNESSES
Burns has a number of witnesses, in addition to Mrs. Henry, waiting to testify. The case, court observers believe, can be pushed through and possibly finished today.

After the jurors had been named to serve in this trial Judge Caton excused the remainder of the panel from further duty.

To Visit Jordan
ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Queen Mother Frederika of Greece will leave Sunday for a four-day private visit to Jordan, the royal palace has announced.

Longtime Drug Store Owner, Oilman Dies

COAHOMA — F. M. Holley, 64, Coahoma, died unexpectedly at 4:15 p.m. Thursday in Coahoma. He was a well-known figure in West Texas oil fields for 26 years, having spent some 18 years with Eastland Oil Co. He owned and operated the Coahoma Drug Store for 17 years until his retirement in 1963.

Mr. Holley was a member of the Permian Basin Pioneer Club, member of the First Church of God of Big Spring and a member of its board of trustees, a member of Coahoma Masonic Lodge No. 992, and of the Texas Farm Bureau.

He was born Aug. 29, 1901 in Mitchell County. He was married to Mary Kate Brown Sept. 23, 1930 at Hobbs, N.M., and they moved to Coahoma in 1946 from Odessa.

Services will be held Saturday at 10:30 a.m. at the Big Spring First Church of God. The pastor, the Rev. V. Ward Jackson, will officiate. Burial will be in Trinity Memorial Park under the direction of Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home.

Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Mary Holley of the home; two daughters, Mrs. R. D. Hickson and Mrs. Bob Cathey, both of Big Spring; two brothers, A. L. Holley, Big Spring, and W. T. Holley, Odessa, and four grandchildren.

Palbearers will be Hezzie Read, Paul Chappell, Richard Reagan, Ralph White, R. A. Foster, Raymond Stevenson.

Committee Urges

Adoption Of No. 8

Cecil D. McDonald, Big Spring, is a member of a statewide committee of lawyers, judges and laymen organized to support adoption of a Texas constitutional amendment (No. 8) dealing with involuntary retirement of judges. Clint Small Jr., Austin, is state chairman.

The amendment creates an unsalaried state judicial qualifications commission which may recommend to the Supreme Court the removal of district or appellate judges for misconduct or retirement in case of permanent disability. A mandatory retirement age of 75, or at whatever level the legislature deems, also would be set up.

DEAR ABBY

When A Girl Loses

DEAR ABBY: I have had a crush on this neighbor kid for a long time, and just lately he started to notice me. I am about 13½ and he is 15. One night about two weeks ago I was over at his house babysitting with his little sisters when he came home with a bunch of boys at about 11 p.m. They started making a lot of noise, so I told him to be quiet. He kept right on making noise, so I socked him on the arm. He just laughed, so I got sore and pushed him over and punched him real hard in the stomach. I guess I knocked the wind out of him. Anyway, he quit laughing, the other boys left, and he wouldn't even listen to me when I tried to apologize to him. I have seen him several times since then and he won't even look at me. How can I get him to like me again?

SORRY
DEAR SORRY: I don't blame him. You humiliated him before his friends. Perhaps in a few years he will forget the incident, and you can both laugh about it. But for now, if you are old enough to have a crush on a boy, you are old enough to learn a lesson. Don't match physical strength with a male. You can't win. If you win, you lose.

DEAR ABBY: Jimmy and I have been married for eight years. He is 33 and I am 29. We've been wanting a baby for the past five years, but every time we bring it up, my mother votes it down. Jimmy has a good income, I am in good health, and I don't do anything but keep house, so there's no reason to put it off any longer. All we have to do is mention having a family and my mother gives us a lecture on how a baby will tie us down for the rest of our lives, and she says, "You are still babies yourselves."

Jim and I aren't getting any younger, Abby, but Mama and I have always been very close and I don't want to antagonize her. If I just went ahead, knowing how she feels, she'd be hurt and upset. I need some advice.

MAMA'S GIRL
DEAR GIRL: Your problem is you've been getting TOO MUCH advice. The decision should be yours and Jim's. Don't discuss it with your mother. Just flag down the stork and keep it quiet until you're sure he's headed for your house.

DEAR ABBY: I am considered an intelligent girl. I have an interest in other people, their habits (good and bad), their likes and dislikes, etc., so why shouldn't I talk them over with my friends?

When my mother hears me talking about someone, she gets furious and tells me not to gossip. She says I shouldn't even repeat things I hear about people because I can't always be sure they're true, and even if your closest friend promises she won't say anything, it can always "leak out." Abby, if you are positively sure that what you say is true, is that gossip? I still can't see why it is so terrible to discuss the actions of others with your friends.

DISCUSSES PEOPLE
DEAR DISCUSSES: Other people's business—true or false—is gossip. Have you ever played the old parlor game called "Telephone"? Several people sit in a circle. One whispers something hurriedly into the ear of the one seated beside him. The "message" is passed on in this fashion until it finally gets back to the originator. Invariably the message is so distorted, it bears no resemblance whatsoever to what started to make the rounds. This is what happens to gossip. And when it "leaks out," someone is apt to find himself in hot water. Listen to your mother, honey. Intelligent people talk about ideas—not other people.

Corporation Buys Firm

BRYAN (AP)—Albritton Engineering Corp., the largest industry in Brazos County, said today it has bought the Flexlift Crane Co. of Bryan and predicted the acquisition would boost company sales to $25 million in five years.

The sale price was not disclosed. The Flexlift Co. will become the fourth division of Albritton Engineering. Other divisions produce residential windows, commercial windows, and conduct tool research.

Jury Hears Suit In Art Smearing

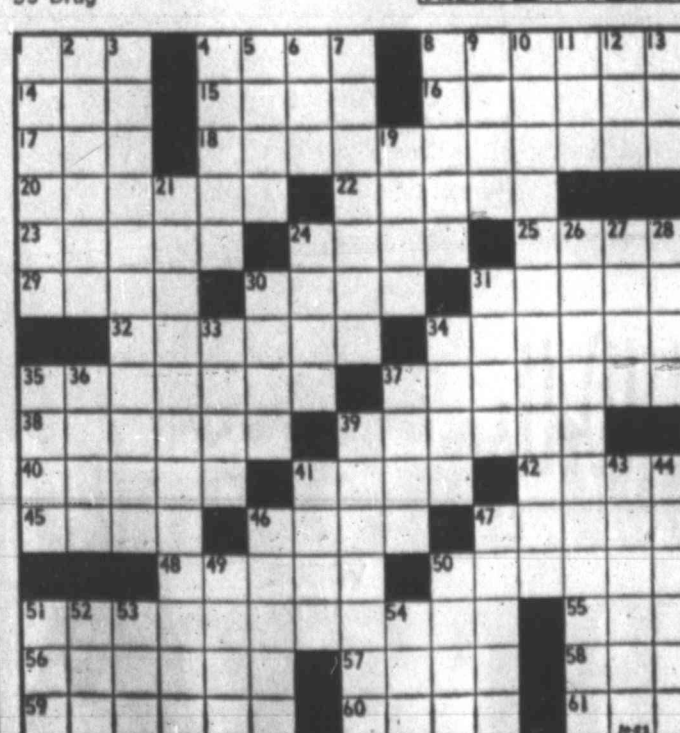

ALFRED, Maine (AP)—Ogunquit painter Peggy Cartwright Hodges sued the Misses Martha Strater and Patricia Nevins, also of Ogunquit, for $20,000 for smearing mustard and whipped cream on one of her paintings. A jury assessed each of the two $50. There was no testimony as to what motivated the smearing.

U.S. Asks Supreme Court Uphold Voting Rights Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a rare legal move, the federal government has asked the Supreme Court to declare constitutional the controversial provisions of the 11-week-old voting rights law.

And the Justice Department urged the court to stop what it called efforts of three Southern states — Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi — to obstruct enforcement of the new law.

Because of the importance of the case — and in order to assure a final decision before primary elections in the three states next spring and summer — Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach asked the Supreme Court Thursday to assert original jurisdiction.

HIGHER COURT
In effect, this short-circuits the federal judicial process by skipping U.S. district and appellate courts — where litigation could easily consume a full year — and placing the case immediately in the hands of the highest court.

The Justice Department specifically asked the court to affirm the constitutionality of those provisions of the act suspending literacy tests, authorizing federal registrars and requiring local registrars to enroll those voters approved by the federal officials.

The court was asked to give the case speedy handling, with an eye to hearing arguments by January.

At Baton Rouge, Louisiana Atty. Gen. Jack Gremillion said the request for the court ruling was "the most communistic move on the part of the federal government that I ever heard of. The Justice Department seeks to obviate the very government under which it exists."

A rarely invoked clause in Article 3 of the U.S. Constitution provides for Supreme Court assertion of original jurisdiction "in all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, and those in which a state may be a party."

It is only the 15th time in history that the government has sought a first hearing in the Supreme Court. It has yet to be turned down. The last instance was in 1949, when it brought suit against Texas and Louisiana in a dispute over tideland oil and gas rights.

In their brief to the court, Katzenbach and Solicitor General Thurgood Marshall contend state courts in the three states are obstructing enforcement of the law by ordering registrars not to enroll the names of eligible voters registered by federal examiners.

These examiners have been ordered into 20 counties under the new law. For purposes of the legal action, the government says federal examiners registered 46,000 voters in 14 counties by the end of September — yet "no person certified by the examiners has been placed on the state lists."

While it would be just as proper to initiate its action in U.S. district courts, the government said, full participation in 1966 primary elections — May in Alabama, June in Mississippi and August in Louisiana — might be denied by the time-consuming process.

Former Pastor Here Kicks Off Region Assembly

Dr. Ray Lindley, pastor of the First Christian Church of Big Spring in the early 1930s, led assembly delegates in opening worship and Bible study at the Austin Regional Assembly of the International Convention of Christian Churches. The assembly met Monday and Tuesday in the municipal auditorium.

Morning sessions of the first full day of the assembly were devoted to worship and Bible study, directed by Dr. Lindley, now president of the University of the Americas in Mexico City. He was formerly president of Texas Christian University in Fort Worth.

He also conducted assembly worship Monday morning and evening and again on Tuesday morning.

Before going to TCU and the University of the Americas, he served as pastor in Big Spring, Central Christian Church of San Antonio, and Central Christian Church of Weatherford.

Fund Raising For Tower Discussed

Mrs. Eldridge Estes, president of the West Texas Republican Women's Club presided at the meeting of the club Thursday at the Cosden Club. Plans for fund raising for John Tower's campaign were discussed. Speaker was Larry Arnhart, whose topic was "The War on Poverty." Mrs. Deryl Johnston reviewed the 10 proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution which are to be considered by Texas voters Nov. 2. The next regular meeting will be Nov. 18, at 1:30 p.m.

U. S. Bombing Viet Rails Linking Hanoi, Red China

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. bombing has been concentrating heavily in the past several weeks on railroad lines linking North Viet Nam's capital with Red China, U.S. officials said today.

What gives this pattern of attack significance is that this single-track line is the major rail connection between parts of Communist China. Trains bound from one part of southern China to another must travel through Hanoi.

IMPEDE AID

Thus, in addition to impeding the movement of Chinese aid into North Viet Nam, the U.S. bombing may also be disrupting Chinese communications to some extent.

U.S. jets have been hitting repeatedly at tracks, bridges and yards along the rail route extending to the northeast and northwest from Hanoi. Highways and highway bridges also have been smashed.

Officials disclosed this while disputing allegations by Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, retired Air Force chief of staff, that not enough air power is being used in the Viet Nam war.

LeMay, former head of the Strategic Air Command, told a luncheon Thursday honoring him as winner of the 1965 Collier Trophy that because of a hold-back in air power "there are people still getting killed who shouldn't be killed."

MILITARY TARGETS

The U.S. officials defended U.S. bombing policy, saying it has been directed at destroying military targets and trying to stop the flow of men and arms into South Viet Nam, rather than being an offensive to destroy North Viet Nam's economy.

These officials described the bombing as pursuing "limited objectives." Citing results, they said 130 bridges — important links on roads and railroads — have been made impassable.

About 90 per cent of the traffic in Communist soldiers and weapons bound for South Viet Nam travels over North Viet Nam's rail and road network, these officials estimated.

More than 20 sites for Soviet-built antiaircraft missiles have been spotted in North Viet Nam. Most are not operational.

The preemptive opening bid is a two-edged weapon. While it serves to interrupt the easy flow of information between the opponents and frequently subjects them to high-level guesses during the auction, it sometimes backfires against its user by providing valuable information concerning the distribution that enables a perceptive declarer to make an unnatural play.

Observe South's performance in today's hand, where he found himself the declarer at four spades after East had opened the bidding with three diamonds.

West opened the seven of diamonds and East played the queen and then cashed the ace. The shift was to the three of clubs. South put up the ace, for there was no question in his mind concerning the location of the king. East has already shown up with nine points in the diamond suit and the declarer reasoned that his opponent would not have made a preemptive bid if he held a high honor on the side.

While the normal play in the spade suit is to lead over to the ace and then finesse the jack on the return, South was convinced that the queen of trumps was held by West. If West has the ten as well then there is no way to avoid the loss of a trump trick; however, if East has the ten, then South can pick up the entire suit by an unusual play.

Declarer led the jack of spades from his hand. West played the three, North the five, and East followed with the four. The ace and king of spades picked up the remaining trumps and South drove out the king of clubs by playing the queen. When he regained the lead, he cashed the jack of clubs and then crossed over to the ace of hearts to discard a heart on the ten of clubs.

South restricted his losses to two diamonds and one club. Observe that it would not have availed West to cover the jack of spades when that card was led, for East's ten must succumb on the return.

Trinity Lutheran Church Opens Sunday

Still unfinished because of delay in delivery of materials, the new Trinity Lutheran Church, at East Eighteenth and Virginia, will hold the congregation for Sunday's services. This view, taken from Virginia, will be changed considerably in the next two weeks. (Photo by Ken Good)

Trinity Lutherans Move Into New Facility Sunday

Members of the Trinity Lutheran Church will move into their new home at Virginia and East Eighteenth Sunday, according to the pastor, the Rev. Donald Kenning. The congregation has been meeting in a residence building at East Sixth and Circle Drive since it was organized in 1963.

"Our plant isn't complete yet because some materials were slow coming in," Rev. Kenning said, "but we are going to start using the building Sunday. Some roof decking has not arrived, some ornamental parts, and brick are still not in. A tall iron cross, to be placed on the southwest enclosed area, which will be a sort of lighted patio, is on the ground but not up."

Tom McAdams is the general contractor for the building, Rev. Kenning said. Four contracts were let. Others were to South-west Electric for electrical circuits and fixtures; Snyder Heating and Air Conditioning Company, and Shock Plumbing Co. of Midland.

The heating and air conditioning will be set up for three zones of the building. One will be the sanctuary, which will seat about 130 persons now; one for the classroom and fellowship hall area, and one for the pastor's study.

The sanctuary, five classrooms, the fellowship hall, and rest rooms will be available Sunday. Total value of the property now is approximately $76,100, Rev. Kenning said.

"Future plans call for a larger sanctuary to be built on the south side of the present building. The present sanctuary will be converted into classrooms," he said. "A second addition will be to the education building as an extension to the existing section."

The church also owns its parsonage at 2405 Allendale.

Present plans of the 100-member church call for dedication of the new plant Nov. 21.

Rev. Kenning assumed the pastorate of the Trinity Lutheran Church when it was organized April 28, 1963. He was mission developer for the board of American missions, in Big Spring, from June 1, 1961, until he was called as pastor.

Rev. Kenning, who is listed in the current issue of Who's Who in the South and Southwest, took his bachelor of science and bachelor of arts degrees from Buena Vista College, of Storm Lake, Iowa; did graduate work at the University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa; and took his bachelor of divinity degree from Central Lutheran Seminary, Fremont, Neb.

He served his first pastorate at St. John's Lutheran Church in Persia, Iowa, before coming to Big Spring.

Wilson Ready For Crucial Africa Trip

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson cleared his desk at No. 10 Downing St. today before taking off for Rhodesia on the toughest assignment of his year in office.

Wilson messaged Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith Thursday that he planned to fly to Salisbury "in the next day or two" to renew negotiations on the demand for independence by the self-governing colony's ruling white minority.

Wilson said he planned to talk not only to Smith, but also to anyone else "whose views I feel to be relevant to a solution of this grave problem."

Officials said he would see former Prime Minister R. S. Garfield Todd, who was put under house arrest a few days ago, and African nationalist leaders Joshua Nkomo and Rev. Ndabaningi Sithole, who have been in detention camps for four months.

Wilson's message was in reply to a letter from Smith asking Britain to grant Rhodesia independence on the basis of its present constitution and trust the whites to do right by the Negro majority. Wilson said he could not agree to this.

Yanez To Appeal Assault Conviction

Clarence Yanez Jr., found guilty Thursday night of assault to commit murder without malice, will appeal his conviction. George T. Thomas, his attorney, filed notice of appeal as soon as the verdict, returned at 7 p.m. had been read and filed at two years in the state penitentiary.

Thomas contends that the verdict returned against his client is contrary to the law and the evidence. He will prepare his appeal and file it with the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. Pending outcome of the appeal, Yanez was released on his bond.

The young Latin-American was found guilty of firing two shots at Avery Falkner, a city police officer, when the latter sought to interrogate him about a traffic violation.

The case, which began Tuesday afternoon, turned out to be one of the hardest fought minor criminal cases to be aired before the court in many months. Only five witnesses were on the stand, but the case dragged through three days and two nights before it was completed.

The defense and state became involved in a prolonged battle Wednesday night and Thursday over the charge to the jury. Evidence was completed at 3 p.m. Wednesday.

Judge Ralph W. Caton held a night session Wednesday in an effort to iron out the details of the charge. At 1 a.m., he recessed court and work on the charge resumed Thursday. It was after noon before a compromise form of the charge was read.

Argument began after the charge had been read to the jury. The jurors, who had been locked up in jury quarters since Tuesday, began deliberating the verdict at 3:40 p.m. They reported to the court at 7 p.m.

Frost Comes To Panhandle

Upright Tombstones, Beauty Spot Urged For Cemetery

Donald R. Swaim, representing the Memorial Industries of North America, told a Settles Hotel gathering Thursday noon that the Big Spring Cemetery is well planned, but he would have provided space for what he called "Upright Memorials," rather than only flush, flat gravestones.

"By giving certain plots the privilege of uprights you could get additional income for the cemetery," Swaim said. The new area of the municipal cemetery provides only for ground-level markers. Less expensive than large marble, upright headstones. But, he said, there are people in Big Spring who would gladly pay extra for the privilege of having big stones.

BEAUTY SPOT
A "beauty spot" should also have been planned someplace in the graveyard, Swaim added. Swaim, who spent 30 minutes looking over the municipal graveyard, Thursday morning, said the $160 charge for a plot here is well above the national average of $100; and the 40 per cent of the cost that goes into the perpetual care fund is five per cent above the national average. This is good, he intimated, but he felt additional services should be provided for the amount charged. The "opening and closing" charge, of $35 is well within reason, especially since labor costs are rising, he said.

City commissioners, city department heads, members of the parks and recreation board, and members of the chamber of commerce were present at the meeting.

Swaim made some predictions: grass mowers will be obsolete within 10 years, chemical grass inhibitors to take their places; "backhoe" equipment will be antiquated in 15 years, probably to be replaced by an affair which deposits grave-earth on a table and then back into the hole, saving the cost of shoveling it back. In line with the predictions, Swaim told the audience not to believe any salesmen who offer a piece of cemetery machinery as the "ultimate word."

STACKED UP
"How about those graveyards, as in the East, where coffins are stacked one on the other, saving space," John Burgess, city attorney, asked. "I would not recommend them, except in areas where land is not available," Swaim said. "Out here in the wide open spaces, I don't think they'd go over too well."

He talked about the peculiarity of the way people buy things, including cemetery plots.

"For some reason, people will pay more for a lot on the right-side of the cemetery entrance than for the same piece of ground on the left. I don't know why."

Permanent vaults, rather than coffins without vaults, should be made a required fixture at the graveyard, Swaim said.

"They don't cost much more than $35 each," he said, "and they'll save a lot of money in maintenance, because the average grave with just a coffin sinks in about four times each 10 years."

FINE JOB
All in all, however, Swaim said the city has done a fine job in renovating the municipal graveyard.

A brochure from the monument builders group was passed out by Swaim. It said: "Your cemetery can sell pre-need with a dignified dramatized sales manual prepared especially for traditional cemeteries."

"Pre-need" means, in cemetery parlance, the selling of grave space to persons before they need it.

Honors Due 7 Kiwanians

Seven Kiwanians, who have been members of the Big Spring Club for 25 years or longer, will be honored next Thursday night at a ladies night dinner event.

The meeting will be in the Big Spring Country Club. A social hour opens at 7 p.m.; the dinner follows at 7:30 p.m.

The seven Kiwanians who are to be honored will be made members of the Kiwanis Club Legion of Honor. A special pin is awarded veteran leaders of the club to mark their induction into this Legion.

No regular meeting of the club will be held at noon next Thursday. Bob Travis, president of the club, urged all Kiwanians to attend the programs. He said that wives of the members will be contacted later to remind them of the dinner date. Program Thursday featured five members of the Kiwanis-sponsored high school Key Club. Each made a brief talk on some phase of the problems before youth and the part that a Key Club has in helping with these problems. Speakers were Don Shive, president; Ron Walker, Bobby Plowman, Randy French and Robbie Gossett. Soc Walker was program chairman for the day.

Plans for the annual Kiwanis Club radio auction are shaping up, Travis announced. Wait Davis is in charge of arrangements.

Homecoming Sunday

The Coahoma Church of Christ, with new educational building and other facilities, will coordinate its homecoming and open house with the annual Coahoma Homecoming events.

Coahoma Church Plans Homecoming

COAHOMA — The Coahoma Church of Christ will have its homecoming Sunday, coinciding with the Coahoma High School homecoming, in order to accommodate guests coming from some distance.

The new educational building, combined with other parts of the church including the auditorium, will be open to the public during an open house from 3 to 4:30 p.m. Bible study will be at 10 a.m., followed by preaching at 10:30 a.m., and a fellowship dinner in the high school cafeteria. Evening services, set for 7 p.m., will conclude the day's activities.

J. D. Boren of Dallas, former minister of the 14th and Main Street Church of Christ in Big Spring (1925-28), will be the guest preacher at both services. He was the man responsible for encouraging the Coahoma church to grow stronger by building its own home and starting Bible study about 40 years ago.

The elders of the church, with cooperation of families, have seen a marked growth.

Early this year they saw the need for more classrooms. They decided to move the old building, clear the grounds and build classrooms and the preacher's study. This brought the total classrooms to 21. The church now has approximately 170 members, and 198 are enrolled in Bible classes.

In reviewing the history of the Coahoma Church of Christ, the following progress was noted:

The Church of Christ met as early as 1904 in a private home, with the families of Dave Reid, Perry Smith, Dan Riley, P. D. Wilson, and Ellie Fuqua as early leaders. They first met in a store building in the winter, and under a brush arbor in the summer. The first church building was constructed in 1906 on Hoover Street.

World War I came, with drought and hardship, but still the members met. Dan Riley built fires early Sunday mornings, hoping some other family would show up, but often his was the only family present.

The faithful members were still meeting in the small frame building on Hoover Street in 1927. These were the families of Ellie Fuqua, W. S. Miller, Pat Roberts, Sam D. Buchanan, Alva Tate and others. The men saw the need for a building in 1928 and constructed a 30 by 40-foot building, with electric lights, but no classrooms, on the present location. There was no baptistry, no gas heating, and no rest rooms, but classes were carried on. The members went in debt for the building but the figures are not known today.

Next came the depression and many members moved away from Coahoma. By 1938 a few had moved back, and things looked better. All classes were meeting in one room, so more room was needed, and in 1939 three rooms and a baptistry were added. New pews were purchased and a regular preacher employed later.

The need for still more classroom space was realized in 1953 and in less than three months a class met in every room. Again, in 1956, building plans were discussed, including a new auditorium, using the old one for classroom space. This building was completed in 1957.

Elders serving the congregation since 1940 are: O. H. Vick, C. A. Cranfill, M. S. Woodard, Loyd Burkhardt, Jake Conway, E. Jack Roberts, C. A. Denton, G. E. Finley, C. E. Kiser, Phil Wynn and Ross Roberts.

Preachers who have served the Coahoma Church of Christ congregation since 1942 are: Dan Clark, J. C. Bristo, Glen Hargett, S. A. Ribble, Jimmy McNeal, W. O. Batten and I. E. Wilkerson. Herbert Love, the present minister, has served since June 1962.

Before the congregation could hire a full time preacher, several men preached on Sundays, including C. E. Kiser, J. W. Roberts, Clint Higginbotham, J. B. Collins and others.

Baptist Women Plan Prayer Day

Baptist women in Big Spring and Howard County are being urged to take part in a Baptist women's world day of prayer Nov. 1.

The program, lasting approximately an hour and a half, will be held at the First Baptist Church with all churches urged to take part. The special day is sponsored by the women's department of the Baptist World Alliance.

There will be three periods of prayer, a devotional message, the traditional call to prayer, said Mrs. W. F. Taylor, chairman.

Cheavens Named To Receive Public Relations Award

DALLAS—David A. Cheavens, Waco, has been named recipient of the annual Texas Baptist public relations award. As director of public relations and chairman of the department of journalism at Baylor University, Cheavens becomes the first person working for a Baptist institution to receive the award. He is also president of the Texas Baptist Public Relations Association.

FACING UP TO DIFFICULTY

"Caleb: Facing the Difficulty" is the title of the Oct. 24 International Sunday School Lesson. The text is found in Numbers 13:30-32; Joshua 14:6-12.

The story of Caleb is one of steadfastness, courage and strength, in the face of what others called impossibilities. He was one of the spies sent by Moses into the Promised Land to make reports on what they saw, the kind of people, and the fertility of the land.

Caleb and Joshua said the land was fertile and that the Israelites could conquer the "giants" who inhabited the walled cities. The other spies returned and called themselves "as grass hoppers" in size, to the giants who lived in the land. They admitted that the land "flowed with milk and honey," but were unwilling to risk hardships, or to fight to gain what God had promised them when they left Egypt.

Caleb asked for a mountain. He reasoned that there would never be peace in the land as long as the Anakim and their raids continued. At 85 years of age he was ready to fight to bring peace to a land promised to the Israelites, while many of the tribes were ready to return to slavery in Egypt instead of fighting for their promised land.

The story of Caleb shows the dedicated powers by which men overcome the difficulties of life to press on to triumph. Lack of faith in a person's ability leads to downfall, just as the 10 men who said the land could not be taken, died before it was taken.

Cheavens will be presented an engraved plaque and watch at the Thursday morning session of the Baptist General Convention of Texas which meets in Houston Oct. 26-28.

The son of Southern Baptist missionaries in Mexico, Cheavens was educated at the University of Missouri and Baylor University where he received the B.A. degree in 1933.

Revolutions drove the missionaries out of Mexico in 1914 when Cheavens was only seven years old. The family moved to El Paso where his father continued to write tracts and commentaries for the then small Baptist Spanish Publishing House. It was there that young Cheavens learned to run a job press and to hand-set type.

Speaking of his interest in journalism-education Cheavens said:

"One of the world's great needs is for well-educated journalists. I believe in education for journalism rather than education in journalism. Journalists today must be dedicated to truth and committed to service."

"One of the objectives of our total program at Baylor is to produce this type of journalist for all the media of communication. We feel that giving them this in the Christian atmosphere will give them added strength for service to mankind."

Cheavens went to Baylor in 1961 after almost 20 years as a Capitol correspondent for Associated Press in Austin.

Other professional experience includes being a reporter for the El Paso Herald-Post, 1923-25; reporter for the Waco News-Tribune, 1925-28; correspondent for United Press in Buenos Aires and Rio de Janeiro, 1929-32; feature writer for the New York Morning Telegraph, 1932; managing editor of the Marshall (Tex.) News-Messenger, 1933-36; and state news editor for Associated Press in Dallas, 1936-42.

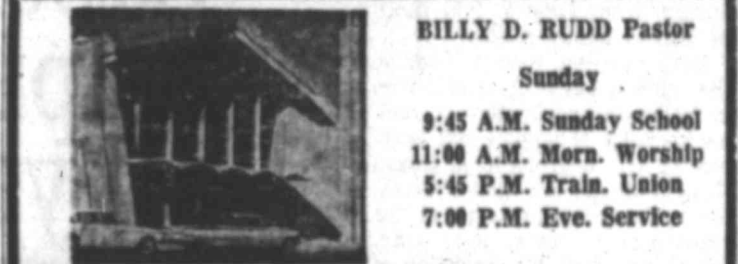

While in Austin Cheavens served as a lecturer in the University of Texas School of Journalism and lectured in religious journalism from 1945-58 at Ridgecrest and Glorieta Southern Baptist Assemblies. He was an organizer and member of the Texas Baptist Public Relations Advisory.

With his wife, the former Alice Dawson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Dawson, he co-authored a novel "As Love Knows How" and has authored more than 300 articles and short stories for church and secular magazines.

Noted Lecturer Returns For Visit

W. Ian Thomas, former major in the British army and now a noted Christian lecturer, teacher, will make a return visit here next week under sponsorship of the Big Spring Christian Businessmen's Association.

The meetings, to which all people are invited, will be at Baptist Temple at 7 p.m. Monday-Friday for one hour. This is a period of Bible study and not an evangelistic service. Businessmen also will have breakfast at 7 a.m. Tuesday-Friday at Coker's.

Thomas was reared in a middle class English home and converted at age 12. Seven years later he had been reduced to a state of complete spiritual exhaustion until he discovered the secret of complete surrender and letting Christ live through him. Since then he has preached in 10 countries, founded the Torchbearers Evangelistic organization and wrote several books.

New Church Is Dedicated

The Highland Church of God, at East Sixth and Settles, was dedicated at 3 p.m. last Sunday.

The Rev. James H. Curtis of Odessa, chairman of the West Texas District of Churches of God, preached the dedication sermon and installed the Rev. Clyde Casleton as pastor.

This church started some three years ago in a residence, moved later to East Tenth and Rannels, and recently into its own new home. Rev. Casleton, a staff sergeant at Webb AFB, becomes full time pastor, and will be out of the military service after 14 years, in 1966.

The church was not built under the sponsorship of the First Church of God, as stated last week, but several members, wanting their own church home, came together and made the new church building possible. The greater part of the construction was done by members, with only detailed work done by skilled men employed for the job.

The church now has more than 30 members meeting regularly.

PERSONAL call

These days, our minds are as busy as switchboards! There are so many things to think about, at work, at school or at home. Even our leisure hours often require a lot of mental activity... and peace of mind seems very far away.

Yet peace of mind is possible for us all, when we turn to God for relief from the tensions of modern living. He is fully aware of all our problems and difficulties, and He is always ready to lead us to a greater serenity of spirit than we have ever known.

That is why, when we take a little time from our busy lives to attend church, we leave feeling refreshed and strengthened. We have shared in His divine gift of peace.

This Sunday, God's call to a new and certain way of meeting the pressures of life is a personal call... for you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and read your Bible daily.

Tiger Triumphs

Dick Tiger of Nigeria leaps in exultation in center of ring Thursday night after he regained the middleweight boxing title with an unanimous 15-round decision over Joey Giardello. Tiger scored a decisive victory over

Giardello in fight in New York's Madison Square Garden. Giardello had taken title from Tiger 22 months ago. (AP Wirephoto)

Archer, Robinson May Meet Champ

NEW YORK (AP) — Jabbing Jones, Tiger's American representative, mentioned Archer Robinson, light-heavyweight champion Jose Torres and junior middleweight champion Nino Benvenuti of Italy as possible opponents for Tiger.

"I will fight anyone my managers name because I intend to keep busy," the 36-year-old Nigerian said today as he celebrated his clearcut, unanimous victory over defending champion Joey Giardello at Madison Square Garden Thursday night in their return 15-rounder.

HE KNEW EARLY

"Fighting is my main business," said Tiger, who owns seven apartment houses in his native land. "I was determined to beat Giardello. Nothing was going to stop me. I went out with all I had from the opening bell. I knew I had him in the first round."

Lou Burston and Jersey

quit but Joey wants to fight once more in a benefit for retarded children at Providence, R.I., Dec. 8. His 11-year-old son, Carmine, one of his four boys, is retarded.

"I couldn't get started," said Joey. "My right was slow, my legs were slow — everything was slow."

JOEY OFF FORM

It was evident early in the fight that Joey didn't have it and Tiger did.

From the opening bell, the muscular, aggressive, perfectly conditioned Nigerian grimly stalked the boxer who had dethroned him in Atlantic City, N.J., Dec. 7, 1963.

He bombed Giardello to the body, slowing the champ down, and then worked his punches up. It was a jabbing lead or a thumping right to the ribs that started off most of Tiger's barages, but it was the jarring, accurate left hooks that shook up Joey consistently and enabled Dick to hammer the champ to the ropes.

Referee Johnny LoBianco permitted Tiger to bang away at close quarters when Giardello tried to tie up Tiger as he did in his winning fight at Atlantic City. That was 22 months ago and the year-younger Giardello appeared to have aged considerably more than Tiger.

Tiger opened a cut over Giardello's left eye in the second round and a slight gash over the right eye in the ninth. By the 11th round he had the fight won, but never could floor the game, strong-jawed American.

Giardello rallied in the last three rounds but it was too late and his looping, light blows never bothered Tiger.

Giardello weighed the class limit of 160 pounds to Tiger's 158½.

Two-Club Race Is Shaping Up In Each Zone

NEW YORK (AP) — The trading season is over and the National Football League shapes up as a two-team race in each conference. Green Bay and Baltimore look like the class of the West and St. Louis and Cleveland the best in the East.

NFL

Green Bay 21, Dallas 13. The only game the Packers have lost in 10 starts was a 21-12 decision to Dallas in an Aug. 28 exhibition game. Bart Starr having a good year with eight TDs and only two interceptions and Packer defense should give Don Meredith a rough afternoon. It's about time for Packers' running game to click.

Baltimore 31, Los Angeles 14. Swarex experimenting with rookie linebacksers. John Unitalia hitting Raymond Berry and Jimmy Orr consistently and Rams are last in pass defense.

Philadelphia 23, Pittsburgh 17. Norm Snead still out so King Hill has to carry load for Eagles again with kicker Sam Baker also doubtful. Steelers' Bill Nelsen hasn't hit with a TD pass yet and now Gary Ballman is out. Another big day for Tim Brown.

St. Louis 24, Washington 7. Buddy Humphrey should be able to guide Cards past Skins and Charley Johnson can play if needed badly despite injured left shoulder.

Chicago 28, Detroit 24. The Bears have made a believer out of this fellow. Gale Sayers too hot to handle. Lions hurting in defensive backfield with Jimmy Hill and Bob Thompson doubtful.

San Francisco 28, Minnesota 27. Yeah, that close. One of week's toughest. Give 49ers edge at home. John Brodie getting great protection but Vikings' strong running game with Tommy Mason and Bill Brown will test 49ers defense. It comes down to Vikings' leaky pass defense vs. Brodie's pitching.

New York 24, Cleveland 21. Long-shot chance of the week. It can be a Cleveland romp if Giant rookies don't contain Jim Brown and cover Frank Ryan's targets. Look for Browns to throw to tight end John Brewer and pick on Henry Carr. If Earl Morrall is on target, bombs away! A close win for the Giants or a runaway for Browns.

AFL

San Diego 21, New York 14 (Saturday night). The team that thumped Buffalo should romp over the Jets but those hot-and-cold Chargers can be inconsistent. Remember that 13-13 tie with non-winning Boston last week?

Oakland 24, Boston 14. Raiders come home after three-game road trip that ended with 24-24 tie against Jets. Al Davis' boys beat Boston 24-10 on the road and should do it again with Art Graham out of Pat's lineup. Fred Biletnikoff takes over job vacated by Bo Roberson, traded to Buffalo.

Buffalo 21, Denver 17. This can be a tough one for the Bills whose offense has been shoddy since loss of Elbert Dubenion and Glenn Bass. Addition of Bo Roberson should help and there's always Pete Gogolak.

Kansas City 14, Houston 10. The Oilers haven't lost at home but they dropped their last three and the road and are switching to Don Trull as starter over George Blanda. Chiefs' offense spotty but defense solid enough to stop Oilers.

Goliad's Eighth Defeated, 14-12

SWEETWATER — Goliad's eighth graders dropped a heart-breaking 14-12 decision to Sweetwater here Thursday evening.

Goliad took an early lead when Tommy Ryan went 20 yards following recovery of a Sweetwater fumble at the Colts' 45.

Ryan scored again on a 52-yard end sweep in the second but Sweetwater got back in contention in a hurry by scoring on a throwback pass that went 45 yards for a score, then added the two PAT's.

Sweetwater counted again in the fourth on a 30-yard run up the middle.

Three 15-yard penalties hurt the Mavericks late in the tussle.

GARDEN CITY—The Garden City Beakats racked up their seventh straight win by defeating Stanton's B team in an 11-man contest here Thursday night. Final score was 32-0.

The Kats, who will be idle next weekend, came on strong after being held to six points the first half.

Gary Vaughn got Garden City's first tally in the opening period on a 51-yard drive with a five-yard run. The Kats failed to convert and carried their 6-0 lead into the dressing room at half time.

In the third quarter, David Hillger intercepted a Stanton pass on the Garden City 15 and the Kats scored on the third play of the ensuing series on a 67-yard pass play, Vernon Newsom throwing to Walter Taylor.

Tony Chandler added the third touchdown in Round Three on a two-yard run and Newsom made the two extra points on a run to run the score to 20-0.

In the fourth, following a Stanton fumble, Newsom raced 17 yards for another Garden City tally.

David Hillger intercepted another Bison aerial in the fourth on the Garden City 30 and his twin brother, Robert, finally made the touchdown from three yards away.

Coach Jack Woodley suited out 24 boys and played them all. Stanton ran five plays inside Garden City's ten during the night but could get no closer than the four. A penalty set the visitors back at that point.

Woodley praised his younger players especially the Hillger twins. Robert is a fullback while Gary glistened as defensive linebacker.

Gary Robinson of the Kats suffered a knee injury and was taken to Big Spring for an examination.

The Kats next play Sterling City in Sterling. The game opens the 5-B eight-man season for both teams.

Majors' 1966 Play Will Get Under Way April 11

CHICAGO (AP) — Major league baseball fans apparently will have the opportunity to watch 28 game-of-the-week telecasts next season—25 on Saturdays and three on holiday nights.

Tentative plans for the National Broadcasting Co. telecasts were worked out by representatives of the American and National leagues during a closed three-day session which ended Thursday. The leagues also advanced their work on preparing 162-game schedules for 1966 and furthered plans for selecting a successor to retiring Commissioner Ford Frick.

NBC signed a $30.6-million, three-year deal on Tuesday for TV-radio baseball rights, including the World Series and All-Star Games for 1966, 1967 and 1968.

The exact dates for the Games of the Week, aired this year by the American Broadcasting Co., have not been worked out, and at least another week presumably is needed to complete the schedule. The holiday nights would be Memorial Day, Fourth of July and Labor Day.

Opening dates for the 1966 season were announced as:

National League
April 11 — New York at Cincinnati Reds.
April 12 — Pittsburgh Pirates at Atlanta Braves, Philadelphia Phillies at St. Louis Cardinals, Houston Astros at Los Angeles

American League
April 11 — Cleveland Indians at Washington Senators.
April 12 — Kansas City A's at Minnesota Twins, California Angels at Chicago White Sox, Detroit Tigers at New York Yankees and Baltimore Orioles at Boston Red Sox.

The season will close Oct. 2.

Dogies Await Odessa Game

Idle last week, the Big Spring B team returns to competition at 2 p.m. in Memorial Stadium here Saturday, at which time they oppose the Odessa High reserves.

The Shorthorns are 1-4 going into the game. They lost their first four starts but came back to topple Midland's Bulldogs by a score of 32-20.

The Dogies might be gaining momentum after a slow start. Coaches say they absorb much of the blame for the Big Springers' early showing because they hadn't had much time to work with the boys.

Those boys who do not see action in tonight's varsity game with Abilene will be employed in the Odessa game tomorrow.

SPARTANS, PURDUE AWAIT COLLISION

By The Associated Press

Michigan State must carry its "minus" defense from the ground to the air against Purdue Saturday if it hopes to retain its lofty position in the college football rankings.

The Spartans, the No. 2 team in the nation, travel to Lafayette, Ind., to take on the sixth-ranked Boilermakers. In another clash between Top Ten teams, Southern California, No. 4, meets Notre Dame, No. 7, at South Bend, Ind.

In extending its record to 5-0, Michigan State has held its past two opponents, Michigan and Ohio State, to minus yardage on the ground.

Michigan lost 29 yards rushing while Ohio State lost 22 yards, the first time in history the Buckeyes' vaunted running game had turned out negatively.

But Purdue, 4-0-1, is primarily a passing team, with Bob Griese sparking the attack. Griese is the third-leading passer in the nation, having thrown for 1,111 yards in five games. He also has tossed for nine of the Boilermakers' 14 touchdowns.

"This is definitely one of the finest teams we will play all year," said Michigan State Coach Duffy Daugherty. "It will take a 100 per cent performance by all players to win this one."

Michigan State has a strong offense to go along with its defense. The Spartans are the 19th best offensive team, Purdue is 11th. The battle also will affect the standings in the Big Ten since Michigan State is 3-0 and Purdue 2-0 in conference play.

Notre Dame will be out to return the favor Southern California gave the Irish last season. The teams played in the last game of the season, and when it was over unbeaten Notre Dame no longer was unbeaten.

This season the Trojans have won four straight games after losing Minnesota in the opener, while the Irish have lost only to Purdue in four starts.

The game will be televised nationally by NBC starting at 1 p.m. EST.

Four of the remaining six Top Ten teams play night games. Top-ranked Arkansas takes on North Texas State, fifth-ranked Texas meets Rice, Louisiana State, No. 9, battles South Carolina, and 10th-rated Georgia plays Kentucky.

Nebraska, No. 3, meets Colorado in an afternoon game, and eighth-ranked Florida is idle.

Arkansas, still sizzling after its victory over Texas last Saturday, should have an easy time recording its 18th straight victory.

HOW'S FOR SOME EAGLE STEW?

Bovines Raid Aerie Seeking Fifth Win

By TOMMY HART

Big Spring seeks to spoil Abilene High with pre-Halloween pranks in an 8 o'clock football tussle in Abilene tonight. The job won't be easy. Down through the years, Abilene has contained the Big Spring menace very well. Fact is, the Steers have beaten the War Birds, good years and bad, only four times since the two schools started meeting way back in 1914.

The game is important for both clubs. The loser, for all intents and purposes, drops out of the race for the championship. Abilene, coached by astute Wally Bullington, has averaged 20.5 points a game compared to 6.6 for the opposition.

The Eagles boast a thunderous

FOREST LANE

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

The immediate concern for Big Spring, of course, is Abilene High School but is San Angelo 64 points better than the Steers? One would have to conclude the Bobcats are, if you use comparative scores. San Angelo routed Midland, 55-6, which, in turn, swung back and paddled Big Spring, 21-6.

Audrey Gill, director of athletics of the Midland public schools, has seen the Bobcats on film and in person and says they are the greatest high school team he's ever seen.

A former Big Spring player, in for a visit, says the Cats are all they're written up to be and more. From all indications, they are a team without a weakness, a club with such overpowering speed and desire that they can usually dictate the score in any of their games.

Big Spring, on the other hand, has been described by a few as a team with a lot of native talent but without a heart. In other words, the anvil chorus, which now is going full blast, is saying that the local boys have no great appetite for the sport.

That's a harsh indictment and I'm inclined to disagree with such an analysis. True, the Longhorns haven't played up to their potential thus far but there's too much talent there for it not to start hitting on all cylinders somewhere along the way.

The critics have also been prone to point out that "senioritis" might be hurting the club, that the upper classmen who should be serving as leaders and inspiration for the other hands are content merely to play well enough to retain their places in the lineup.

One sterling performance will wipe away the stain of one defeat and what better time could it come than tonight against Abilene, a Jonah for Big Spring since time immemorial?

This is for sure. The Abilene game will be the pivotal out- ing for the locals this year. If they win, they're still in the 2-AAAA race. If they lose, the best they can hope for is to spoil someone else's title hopes.

Local fans continue to support their team well. A crowd of 6,329 paid in attendance for last week's encounter here with Midland, and they contributed toward an income of $7,135.50.

Of those present, only 249 reserve and 254 student tickets were sold in Midland.

Keith McMillin, the former Daily Herald photographer who now toils for the Columbia, Mo., news organ, covered a high school game there between Columbia and Hannibal recently and writes to lament that their brand of football has a long way to go before it can be compared with that seen in this state.

"Any good sized Texas junior high outfit could have beaten Hannibal," McMillin wrote.

Keith gets to cover all of the University of Missouri's home games from down on the sidelines and this Sunday motors into St. Louis, where he'll watch Big Spring's Charley Johnson try to bomb the Washington Redskins into submission.

The general feeling in Coahoma is that the Bulldogs would be better off where they are (in District 6-A) than to have been moved into 5-A — as the Texas Interscholastic League has dictated.

The travel in 6-A is less than it will be in the Plains-Seagraves setup, for one thing. For another, the rivalries are established in 6-A for the Bulldogs.

But the Coahoma administration and the coaching staff will cheerfully move into the new setup, and not look back.

Tech, Baylor Ceded Edge This Week

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Arkansas takes out for a little outside skirmish Saturday and lets the others cut each other up in the Southwest Conference football race.

The cutting could be pretty deep. At least three teams could be eliminated from contention, joining Texas Christian and Texas A&M, who already are on the outside looking in.

This includes mighty Texas, reduced to a state of bitter despondency because of its defeat last week by Arkansas.

The Longhorns, who still have high bowl hopes, might not recover sufficiently from the shock to win a game they must win this week to even stay in the conference race.

OLD ADVERSARY

Texas plays old enemy Rice at Rice at Austin Saturday night. The Longhorns will have to come through or fade from the championship picture. It's the same for Rice, which, however, never has been rated with a chance at it.

Texas got its first defeat last week at the hands of Arkansas while Rice took a licking from Southern Methodist in its opening conference game.

Arkansas, riding high with a 17-game winning streak and leading the conference race with a 3-0 record, plays North Texas State at Little Rock Saturday night. The Razorbacks are heavy favorites to whip North Texas in such a way as to easily maintain a No. 1 rating in the country.

Baylor makes its last bid to stay in championship contention when the crippled Bears journey to College Station for a crack at Texas A&M.

Baylor has lost a conference game and must win this one or fade out. The Aggies already are out of it.

TECH TRIES SMU

The top game Saturday matches Southern Methodist with Texas Tech at Dallas. SMU is the only unbeaten team left in conference play outside of Arkansas although the Methodists have had only one game.

Texas Tech is 2-1 and has to win or lose out in the championship drive.

Southern Methodist surprisingly is favored to win and that makes two weeks in a row. SMU also was selected in the odds to beat Rice, which it did 17-14 with a last minute rally.

Texas Christian, which also is already on the sidelines in the title hunt, will be in Clemson, S. C., to play Clemson. The Frogs are underdogs in the inter-sectional clash.

Three out of four, including Arkansas over Texas, last week. Here's how they look Saturday: Arkansas-North Texas State — Arkansas by at least three touchdowns.

Southern Methodist — Texas Tech-SMU is favored in the odds but it looks like a Texas Tech victory in a close one.

Baylor-Texas A&M—The Aggies have made the record book bad by winning when they were picked to lose and vice versa, so it's Baylor from this corner.

Texas-Rice — Texas has too many guns to permit a letdown to wreck its dreams—Texas by two touchdowns.

Texas Christian-Clemson—The odds favor Clemson but here's riding with TCU.

Casper Leads Links Field

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The struggle in the $100,000 Sahara Invitational Golf Tournament shapes up as a duel of two seasoned players-Bill Casper Jr. and Jack Nicklaus.

But there is a spread of six strokes to remember — with three ambitious young challengers nestled in between.

This was the setting today as the trimmed — down field of 71 professionals swung into the third round of play over the par-36-53-71, 7,069 yard Paradise Valley Country Club layout.

Casper led the pack with straight five-under par 66s for a 36-hole tournament-record total of 132.

Three shots back was Randy Glover of Florence, S.C., with scores of 70-65-135. Dale Douglass of Denver was next with 69-67-136, and Dudley Wysong of Casper, Wyo., had 69-68-137.

At 138, and 36 holes to play, was the winner of five major tournaments this year, and the champion in the Sahara in 1963, Nicklaus. He had 71-67 and tied with him was Dave Hill, 68-70.

Past records would indicate that it will be Casper and Nicklaus when the chips—$20,000 of them to be precise—are down in the final 18 holes Saturday.

Tied at 139 after 36 holes were Art Wall Jr., Bobby Nichols, Billy Maxwell, Doug Sanders and Al Bessellink.

At 140 were seven others, including Al Geiberger, Bruce Crampton, George Knudson and Don January.

'Dogs Seeking 7th Straight Victory

at which time they play host to the Merkel Badgers.

The old grads probably could not have picked a better time to come home and rehash old times and discuss the fortunes of the current team. The Bulldogs, coached by Spike Dykes, are in the midst of Coahoma's greatest era in football.

Since Spike took over as head coach at the start of the 1964 season, the Big Red has won 16 of 17 starts.

Merkel is capable of playing some fine ball and could make it rough on the Bulldogs. Only last week, the Badgers knocked off Wylie, 26-6. Up until the game, the Wylie team maintained title aspirations.

Merkel has also beaten Aspermont and Baird this season while losing to Rotan, Colorado City and Clyde.

Coahoma has averaged 38.1 points a game this season and Dykes has seen fit to use his reserves a lot of the time. The Bulldogs have given up only 25 points all year and the regulars haven't been scored on.

Merkel boasts a fine, pass-minded quarterback in Ray Davis, a hard-nosed fullback in Nick Davis and respectable halfbacks in Bruce Allman and Felix Castillo.

Probably the best linemen the Badgers have are tight tackle Mackie Clifford, a 171-pound senior; and tight guard Gary Doan, 153-pound junior. They give up ground grudgingly.

This is the first of three tough games in a row for Coahoma. The Bulldogs follow up with games against Rotan and Aspermont.

Probable starters:

QB—Bobby Pherrigo 169 and Mike Mosley 161; T—Don Bohannon 171 and Mike Butler 157; G—Keith Jordan 158 and Teddy Marrick 173; C—Lawrence Good 151; QB—Ray Davis 152; HB—Johnny Gibson 171 and Eddie Torra 127; FB—Terry Butler 107.

White 140; T—Mackie Clifford 171 and Harold Cortright 170; G—Gary Doan 153 and Ray Woodard 142; C—Steve Butts 156; QB—Ray Davis 152; HB—Bruce Allman 155 and Felix Castillo 120; FB—Nick Davis 172.

Mayaguez Wins

SAN JUAN, P. R. (AP) — Mayaguez scored four runs in the eighth inning off Juan Pizarro of the Chicago White Sox and beat Santurce 5-1 Thursday night in the opening game of the Puerto Rican winter baseball league.

Pair Ready For Launch

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Gemini 6 astronauts Walter M. Schirra Jr. and Thomas P. Stafford get their last major medical checkup today before Monday's planned high-speed chase after a fleeing target in space.

The weather report for the flight remains satisfactory.

Schirra, a Navy captain, and Stafford, an Air Force major, spent most of the time in a flight simulator Thursday — sharpening up for the attempt to find and dock with the orbiting Agena rocket.

FOLLOW ROCKET

That's the main objective of the one or two-day flight that will blast off Monday at 11:41 a.m. EST — an hour and 41 minutes after the target rocket is sent aloft.

Thursday night, the astronauts spent about an hour after dinner making a final check of cockpit and camera equipment. Besides taking movies of their rendezvous and docking, they also will photograph special land and cloud features.

HOOKUP GOOD

Gemini program director Charles Matthews said he would consider the flight successful if only one of four hookup attempts was successful.

Even though it will be man's first effort at rendezvous and docking, the hopes are to give both men some experience in the maneuvers which are the basis of U.S. plans to return astronauts from the moon.

In the Apollo moon trip, expected in 1969, astronauts leaving the moon in a space cab will have to rendezvous with a mother ship in orbit about the moon. Their lightweight cab could not stand the rigors of an earth re-entry as will the heavier mother ship.

Morrissey Bid Dead For Present

WASHINGTON (AP) — Francis X. Morrissey's nomination to be a federal judge is dead for this session of Congress, but the White House says President Johnson has no plan to withdraw it.

Still, after Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., electrified the Senate Thursday by moving to send the nomination back to the Judiciary Committee, some senators said they would be surprised if Johnson resubmits it next year. Kennedy is chief sponsor of the Morrissey nomination.

In an emotional speech asking that the nomination be returned to committee, Kennedy said its compilation of "a full and complete record" on Morrissey would result in his confirmation.

And, Kennedy said of the old friend of the Kennedy family, "He will be a credit to the federal judiciary."

CROP Drive Set Sunday

The annual Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP) Youth project in Big Spring will be conducted Sunday between 2 and 4 p.m. Uniting in the project will be the youth groups of the various churches in the community; and approximately 100 young people of junior and senior high school age and older.

CROP is the Community Resources Appeal of Church World Service which collects farm commodities and cash, through volunteer workers, for the overseas relief and rehabilitation programs of the churches. Gifts to CROP are used under church supervision on the basis of need.

Contributions received through this youth effort will be used to help provide for handling and distribution of government-donated foods, of the Food for Peace program, and to provide other assistance including foods, emergency supplies, agricultural tools, and seeds, not otherwise available to the overseas programs of the churches.

Last year the young people of Texas collected over $53,000 for the program. This helped to provide 66,964 pounds of government-donated food, and other CROP shipments not otherwise available, for the overseas programs of the churches.

Mayor To Open Annual Rock Show

MIDLAND — Mayor Hank Avery will cut the ribbon to officially open Midland's third annual Rock Show at 9 a.m. Saturday at the National Guard Armory on North Lamesa road.

Visitors may attend the show any time from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday and from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Sunday. They can buy everything in the rockhound hobby line from rough rock to finished jewelry from authorized rock dealers, or just look at the many displays of gem stones and silver work.

The jeweled gold goblets and chalices made by an amateur and hobbyist, Bari W. Mann, will be the featured attraction. Other guest exhibits include Galt's rock butterflies, Underwood's Indian turquoise jewelry, Joe Ward's pre-Columbian Indian artifacts. Members of the Archaeological Society will show artifacts.

Farm Bureau Convention Set

STANTON (SC) — The annual Martin County Farm Bureau convention will be held in Stanton Saturday, according to Owen Kelly, in the Cap Rock Electric Cooperative auditorium. A free barbecue will be served members, their families, and guests at 6 p.m. The business session will follow at 7:30 o'clock. All members of the bureau in Martin County are urged to attend.

H-SU Yearbook Gets High Rating

ABILENE — Hardin — Simmons' student yearbook, "The Bronco," has been given a first class (excellent) rating by the 1965 All-American Yearbook Critical Service. The honor accorded the H-SU yearbook, published during the spring of 1965, is believed to be the highest ever given to a student annual on the Baptist university campus.

Mrs. Wayland Yates, now of San Angelo and for many years a resident of Big Spring, was sponsor of the 326-page award-winning annual.

Carter Named Sales Leader

Sales honors for Lone Star Life Insurance Company, Dallas, were announced this week by W. H. Smith, president and chairman of the board.

Company sales leader in new business was Sydney C. Kennedy of Dallas, Smith said. Others in the top sales group included Dee Carter, Odessa; Charles Carter, Big Spring.

Coahoma Exes Mark 60 Years Of School

By MARTHA HALL
COAHOMA (SC)—When Exes and students of Coahoma High School gather here Saturday for their reunion, they will be observing nearly 60 years of the school and 40 years as an independent school district.

This is, however, the Golden Anniversary of the first graduating class. Graduates of that historic class were Leroy Echols and Vernon Guthrie, both of Coahoma, and Gladys Sullivan (now Mrs. L. N. Fortsch), Austin.

Debt Paid: Queen Sent Peppercorn

NEW CASTLE, N.H. (AP)—Selectmen say it's about time they started paying a back debt to Queen Elizabeth II, and sent her a long overdue dry berry of black pepper.

The berry, called a peppercorn in colonial days, was sent in a letter to the queen because the selectmen said they wished "to preserve and improve relations between the United States and Great Britain."

In 1693, King William and Queen Mary granted New Castle a charter with a stipulation that on each Oct. 21 and "forever" one peppercorn be paid to the British as a franchise fee.

Gala Round Of Events Planned For Homecoming

A parade, meetings, a barbecue and the Coahoma-Merkel district football game will be on tap for the Coahoma High School homecoming Saturday.

Registration and a coffee will be from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., when ballots for "coming home king and queen" will be cast. Candidates are Coahoma High exes Sam Buchanan, John Davis, Truett DeVaney and C. H. DeVaney as well as Doris Hale, Alameda Shive, Viola Bates and Cleo Eggleston.

Parade will be at 1:30 p.m. It will move from the high school to North First, south to North Broadway, east to College, north to the junior high, there to break up. Three prizes each for the best floats, the best costumes worn by youngsters, and for best vehicles, will be awarded.

Mary Jane Club will host a tea at 2:30 p.m. in the activities room at the high school, and the auditorium will be the scene for a 4:30 p.m. business meeting.

Barbecue is scheduled for 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. at the school cafeteria. Climaxing the homecoming will be the ball game between undefeated, untied, state-ranked Coahoma and Merkel, figured to be the Bulldogs seventh straight victim, at 7:30 p.m.

Christian Crusade Due In Odessa

A former electronics engineer for North American Aviation will speak at a one-night rally in Odessa Nov. 16, under the auspices of Christian Crusade, National Anti-Communist Organization of Evangelist Billy James Hargis.

One of Hargis' associate evangelists, Rev. Charles Secrest, will also appear on the program which will be conducted at the Lincoln Hotel Ballroom at 7:30 p.m. Featured in the rally will be W. A. (Bill) Manahan of Anaheim, Calif., who said he was discharged from his position with North American Aviation, Inc. after he questioned a contract between his former employer and the Air Force.

Critics Differ On TV Show

LONDON (AP)—A BBC television look at the "American Way of Sex" was banned by a critic today as the "most tedious and ludicrous program of the week." But a woman reviewer found it "madly interesting."

The British Broadcasting Corp. program Thursday night was a survey on sex in the United States conducted by Malcolm Muggeridge, former editor of the humor magazine "Punch."

"All we got were pictures of youngsters curled up together, erotic pop tunes and a dull string of people giving their banal opinions about free love," said the Daily Mirror's Ken Estauagh. "I learned nothing new."

"I nominate this as the most tedious and ludicrous program of the week. There wasn't a sexy woman in it."

Mary Crozier of the Guardian disagreed.

"I quite like Muggeridge as a prophet of doom," she wrote, "and I found the exploration of American sex madly interesting."

The Daily Telegraph's L. Marsland Gander called the program sickening and said: "Those who know the United States will recognize some familiar symptoms. Yet I cannot by any stretch regard this as a fair picture of life in the United States."

"With half-closed eyes he (Muggeridge) saw sex in everything. Even cars and houses were temples and symbols of it. The college campus, despite disavowals of the students, was implied, the scene of nameless orgies."

Grand Jury Panelists Are Called

Sixteen Howard County residents have been notified to report to Judge Ralph W. Caton in 118th District Court Tuesday to serve as grand jurors for the new court term opening on that date.

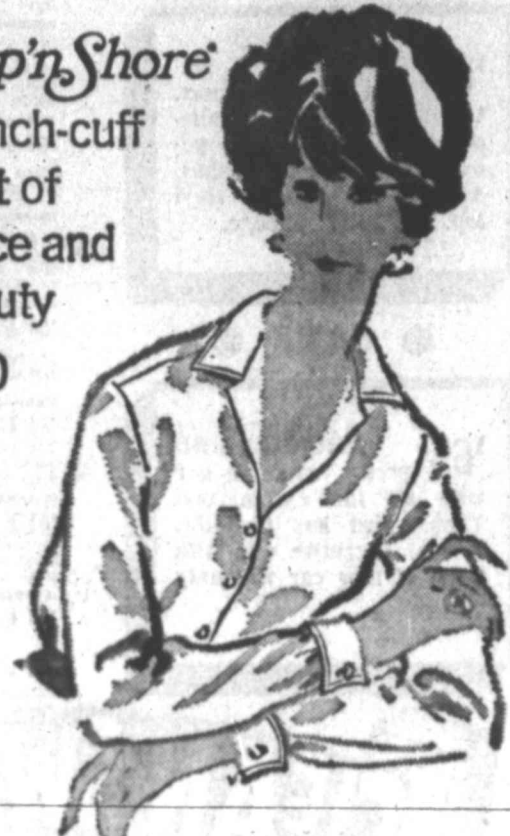

A jury commission comprised of D. M. McKinney, J. D. Jones and Mrs. Jimmy Taylor met Thursday and selected the 16 grand jurors.

When the panel reports to the court at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Judge Caton will name 12 of the 16 to serve as grand jurors and designate one of the group as foreman.

The case load to be presented to the grand jury will be light, according to Wayne Burns, district attorney. Less than a dozen felony complaints are ready for the grand jury's consideration.

The 16 panel members are Harry L. Adams, Donald Lay, W. T. Abbott, M. H. Boatler, Walter Ross, D. S. Riley, Mrs. Adelle Smith, Mrs. H. M. Smith, Tom L. South, J. L. Ridden Jr., Walter L. Wheat, Delbert M. Bardwell, George Oldham, Mrs. Ray Boren, Jerry Mancill and Reuben Hall.
