OIL COMMISSION SOUGHT

TWO MEN SLAIN IN GUN BATTLE

DEPUTY, MAIL DRIVER SHOT TO DEATH

CORONER'S JURY IN EFFORT TO SOLVE FIGHT DETAILS

(By The Associated Press)

WILMINGTON, N. C., March 16—A coroner's jury attempted today to untangle the confused details of a Sunday morning pistol battle in which a mail truck driver and a deputy sheriff were slain as five deputy sheriffs sought a rum runner.

The victims were Leopold Roberts, 29, of Dudley, N. C., a driver under government contract, and W. P. Starling, 35-year-old New Hanover county deputy sheriff.

Acting On Tip

The scene was a creek bridge in the outskirts of Wilmington where the deputies went at midnight Saturday on a police tip that a load of liquor was on its way into the city.

Beginning its investigation yesterday, the jury was told by the officers that the mail truck stopped on the bridge and Roberts opened fire on them as they approached after halting another machine. There was no whisky in the truck nor was Roberts suspected as being a rum runner, they said.

Two bullets struck Starling, who did not wear a uniform, and he fired twice as he fell. The other officers, one in a uniform, then opened fire and Roberts toppled over with four bullet wounds.

Both men died before they could be taken to a hospital.

Others Not Hit

BROTHERS GOES ON TRIAL TODAY FOR LINGLE MURDER

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, March 16— End to the mystifying Jake Lingle murder mystery may be found in the trial, opening today, of Leo V. Brothers, St. Louis, accused of being the man who fired a bullet from a snub-nosed pistol into the back of the Tribune reporter's head last June 9.

As the preliminary skirmishes got under way, the St. Louis gangster, whose name had been linked with Chicago gangland activities until after his arrest December 21, calmly awaited the outcome which included the possibility that he would be led to the electric chair.

Both Sides Confident

Both the prosecution, which has closely guarded the basis for its charge, and the defense were confident of the outcome. Other than saying Brothers was identified as the slayer, the state has revealed none of the details of its charge.

"We have an air-tight case," said Charles F. Rathbun, special assistant state's attorney. "We are positively going to send him to the electric chair."

The defense pinned its main hope in an attempt to establish an alibi for the cold-eyed St. Louisan—that he was in the Riviera hotel at the exact hour Lingle was slain. In addition, Brothers' lawyers were hoping to use two anamalous situations in his behalf—the arrest of Frankie Foster, a gangster, who was held under a technical indictment for the killing, and a voluntary confession by Frank Bell that he participated in the Lingle murder. Regardless of the truth or falsity of the indictment and confession, defense counsel said they planned to present both to the jury for its consideration.

SELF DEFENSE IS HINTED IN TRIAL

FOUR JURORS NAMED UP TO NOON IN SLAYING CASE

With defense counsil questioning veniremen on the law of self defense and the state drawing opinions on whether they hold any scruples against inflection of the death penalty in murder cases, the trial of Alvis Graves, charged with the fatal shooting of Horace L. Smith in this city, January 11, was well under way at noon today before Judge Homer L. Pharr in the 72nd district court.

Four jurors had been chosen when the court recessed for the noon hour.

The jurors chosen were: Elmer Cowan, Lorenzo farmer, married and father of four children; C. B. Reasoner, Slaton farmer, married and family; S. E. Blair, Idalou, farmer, married and father of six children and J. H. Spence, Lubbock farmer, married and family.

Fifteen Questioned

Fifteen veniremen of a special venire of 125 men were examined, five being excused due to conscientious scruples against infliction of the death penalty while six were excused when turned down by either state or defense.

Burton S. Burks is leading the prosecution of the case, assisted by L. A. Howard, former county attorney. Mr. Burks questioned the veniremen in the morning. J. E. Vickers of the defense counsel of Vickers and Campbell, questioned for the defense.

About forty witnesses have been called. Witnesses were excused to appear at 9 o'clock, Tuesday morning.

Much interest is being manifested in the trial, the court room be-

PRISON CALMS AFTER RIOT

TWO CONVICTS SLAIN AND TWO WOUNDED IN PEN MUTINY

(By The Associated Press)

JOLIET, Ill., March 16—With a redoubled guard watchfully patrolling the walls of the Illinois state penitentiary today, officials began the slow restoration of the routine which was broken here Saturday by the short-lived uprising in which two convicts were killed and two others wounded.

Warden Henry C. Hill and his aides supervised the reorganization with the greatest possible caution. Hill was fearful, he said, that the 1,000 prisoners, kept to their cells on short rations since the outbreak, might cause further trouble. The 43 ringleaders who engineered the outbreak will be kept indefinitely in solitary confinement.

State legislators, appointed originally to investigate the death of Convict Joseph Coakley in "solitary," went through the damaged portion of the prison, interviewed officials and one unidentified prisoner, and returned to Springfield yesterday. Chairman Roger F. Little of Champaign had called for another meeting tomorrow in Springfield where plans will be laid for a thorough investigation.

George Jakowanis, 24, died today, the second prisoner to succumb to wounds inflicted by guards.

MISSING LOCAL MAN RETURNS TO HOME

M. B. DRESSER SAYS HE REMEMBERS NOTHING

Arriving here at 8:20 a. m. Sunday on a Santa Fe train, M. B. Dresser, 55-year-old dairyman who had been missing since the preceding Monday, told relatives that he could not remember what his experiences had been while he was away. Dresser is under the care of a physician.

Dresser said the last he recalled of Monday, March 9, was getting out of an automobile about a mile northwest of Slaton. From that time until he became conscious of himself leaving a bus at Sweetwater early Sunday morning, Dresser said he remembered nothing.

Return Reported

Mrs. E. P. Earhart, jr., a daughter of the dairyman, of 1612 Tenth street, reported his return and what he had told his family.

The daughter did not reveal the amount of money on Dresser's person when he returned, but said there were no indications of foul play. The dairyman was believed to have had $100 in collections on his person when he left here.

Dresser last had been seen between 3 and 4 p. m. last Monday afternoon walking southeastward on the Santa Fe tracks near here, until he returned Sunday morning.

Leaving the train here, Dresser started to his home, which is about two miles south of Lubbock. He was seen by a neighbor and taken to the Dresser home.

The attending physician had described Dresser's case a lapse of memory, Mrs. Earhart said.

Three Are Charged With Theft Here

Theft charges have been filed in county court against T. U. Jones, Mrs. T. U. Jones, and Charley Mackey, who were arrested by the sheriff's department late Saturday.

Mrs. Jones was freed in bail of $100 to appear in county court Tuesday morning. Her husband and Mackey are in city jail.

A woman who is proprietor of a local hotel charged that the suspects took clothing which had belonged to them but which she had been holding in lieu of room rent. They gained access to the clothing under pretence of looking for a copy of an address which they said had been left in one of the garments, the hotel proprietor said.

She said she had unlocked a compartment containing the clothing when they asked to get the slip bearing an address they wanted.

Four Million Have Until Midnight To Pay Income Taxes

BOTH BIG AND LITTLE MONEY EARNERS TO FILE RETURNS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 16.—Big and little money-earners alike today gave the treasury dollars and cents sketches of 1930 which will be joined together to form another bigger picture which the government watchfully awaits.

Four million citizens had until midnight tonight to file income tax returns for last year with internal revenue bureaus. The deadline was a day later than usual because March 15 came on Sunday.

To Forecast Deficit

From these statements the treasury expects to forecast during the fortnight how great the deficit will be at the end of the current fiscal year next June 30.

Officials estimated $525,000,000 would flow into the treasury with the returns, which must be accompanied by at least one-fourth payment of the total due. Last year the first quarterly payments reached $628,000,000. Officials believed the receipts for 1930 will be about $100,000,000 less because of the depression.

Today will be one of the biggest money days since the war. A total of $2,095,261,150 will be received and $1,19,000,000 expended through income tax receipts, the sale of bonds and certificates of indebtedness and the retirement of obligations.

At the close of business March 12 the government had a deficit of $420,235,531, having collected $2,165,902,275 and spent $2,586,137,806. For the fiscal year starting last July 1 income taxes dropped off $85,000,000. Miscellaneous tax internal revenue receipts also drop-

STERLING SAYS CRISIS FACES INDUSTRY

> AUSTIN, March 16 (AP)—A bill asking for the creation of the state conservation commission was introduced in the senate after the reading of the governor's message this morning. Senators Woodward of Coleman and Woodul of Houston signed the bill as authors.

involve all the people of Texas, Governor Ross S. Sterling today sent a message to the legislature in which he urged enactment of a law to create an oil and gas conservation commission.

The message climaxed three days of argument between the governor and the railroad commission, now charged with supervision of oil and gas production. Last Friday Sterling criticised the commission for failure to prorate the East Texas oil field, saying unrestricted production in this area was having an important effect on the entire oil industry.

Says Industry Hurt

Sterling told the legislature the oil industry was suffering from a general condition of overproduction and slack demand resulting in depressed prices for crude oil and distress among all engaged in the industry, particularly crude oil and distress among all engaged in the industry, particularly crude oil producers. He said the situation threatened great unemployment waste of crude oil reserves and abandonment of thousands of small wells, precluding recovery of many millions of barrels of oil.

He also declared that unless remedial steps were taken, it would result in "the elimination virtually, if not entirely, of the army of small or independent oil producers in this country, with the survival of only a few of the great major com-

EIGHTY FIRMS REGISTERED FOR EVENT

SEVERAL HUNDRED OUT-OF-TWO BUYERS IN LUBBOCK

Good roads and fair weather today combined to make the third annual Lubbock Market week the largest and best of the series held so far, as more merchants and more wholesalers were here for the three-day showing.

Attendance Sunday and today came from towns as far away as Dalhart, Perryton, Snyder, Miami and Tatum, N. M.

There were 80 firms represented at the show, several more than were here last fall. Two more were expected to arrive late Monday according to C. A. Sheffield.

Sales Larger

Sales managers and other officials reported larger sales of ladies ready-to-wear goods from the stocks here than at previous shows.

A more general optimistic tone was reported. Merchants here were inclined to look toward a better business season in the summer than last year.

Merchandise manufactured from coast to coast, New York to Hollywood, with a good sprinkling of markets in between, is on display. There is an increase in the number of Pacific coast firms represented here as manufacturers there are bidding strong for Texas and other southwestern states as business centers.

Show Is Praised

Dallas wholesalers and other state dealers and manufacturers are very liberal in their praise of the Lubbock show.

The score or more firms who will be represented in the style show Tuesday night, were busy today selecting their stocks for display at the affair in the Uptown Dance palace. Director Herbert B. Carpenter was giving instructions to models for the occasion and it was expected that the attendance would

INVESTIGATION IS RESUMED

STERLING OFFERS TO SEND RANGERS TO ESCORT REDS

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, March 16.—Attention of a Dallas county grand jury was turned again today to an inquiry into the reported kidnaping and flogging March 5 of C. J. Crader and Lewis Hurst, communist organizers.

Word was awaited from Hurst and Crader, now in Kansas City, whether they would accept Governor Ross Sterling's offer to send rangers to the state line to escort them to Dallas, should they agree to return and testify before the grand jury.

Governor Sterling said last night he had telegraphed assurance the two communists would be adequately protected.

District Attorney William McCraw, accompanied by E. K. Mead, Dallas newspaper man, returned late yesterday from Kansas City to interview Hurst and Crader, in an effort to persuade them to return to testify before the grand jury. They expressed doubt that local authorities in Dallas would protect them. McCraw could not be reached last night for a statement.

STRAY HAIRS FOUND ON GIRL VICTIM IMPORTANT

(By The Associated Press)

SAN DIEGO, Cal., March 16.—Stray hairs found with the body of Virginia Brooks, 10-year-old school girl, assumed new importance today in the search for her fiendish slayer.

Two suspects were held and a light truck in the bed of which several human hairs were discovered was being examined.

"The value of an adult hair found in Virginia's left hand dwarfs in importance all other fragmentary evidence," said Police chemist Rex Welch of Los Angeles. "I will not be surprised if the guilty person is caught through it alone."

The seized truck was tentatively identified through a plaster cast made from a tire imprint on the mesa near where the body was found. The driver of the truck was held incommunicado. His name was not made public.

Dentist Drowns As Three Are Rescued

SAN ANTONIO, March 16. (AP)—Dr. A. E. Norton, 68, San Antonio dentist, was drowned yesterday and Mrs. Norton and two sons were rescued by passing motorists and firemen after the Norton sedan was swept into a sudden torrent at a crossing of Olmos creek. A cloudburst in the Olmos basin was sending a wall of water down the creek when the Norton car attempted to cross. PAYING YOUNG PEOPLE TO GO TO SCHOOL FAVORED BY HENRY FORD

(By The Associated Press)

FORT MYERS, Fla., March 16.—Paying young people to go to school is advocated by Henry Ford.

In an interview, the automobile manufacturer expressed at length his opinions on both education and diet, but on the latter subject he admitted his own menu might be disagreeable medicine to other folk. In education, however, he was very positive in urging the establishing of vocational schools which paid their pupils as a remedy for what he described as wasted effort by school children.

Mr. Ford would combine practical and technical instruction with the teaching of theory. Young people, in all cases, should learn to read and write and gain a solid foundation along these lines, he said.

But from the eighth grade, he said, practice should hold equally with theory.

"Young people ought to be

NEW TYPE OF ANTI-KNOCK GAS HAS REVOLUTIONARY PRINCIPLE

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Mar. 16 (AP)—Discovery that anti-knock gasoline can be made by a new process which literally picks the knocks out of the gas was announced at Penn State college today.

The discovery introduces a revolutionary principle, the anti-thesis of present anti-knock fuels which are made by adding a foreign substance to slow down their explosion.

It promises to restore to American gasoline supplies one of the best old-time sources, namely Pennsylvania crudes. The announcement was made by Dr. Frank C. Whitmore, dean of the school of chemistry and physics, as the result of extensive research conducted by Dr. M. R. Fenske and his staff with aid of an appropriation from the Pennsylvania legislature.

Dr. Fenske found that knocking in Pennsylvania gasoline is due to extra explosiveness of only certain fractions of the fuel. The case is somewhat like

Thought For Today

But it is good for me to draw near to God; I have put my trust in the Lord God, that I may declare all thy works.—Psalm 73:28.

Exercise your God-given power of trust. Look up! Salvation is provided and nothing remains to be done. Take hold! Take hold! Don't wait!—Bishop Janes.

Unsung

Business depressions, political struggles and international complications may come and go, monopolizing the headlines and posing briefly as the important news of the day; but all the while medical science goes unobtrusively along its path, and without any blare of trumpets accomplishes things that will be considered the high-lights of the age when historians get busy half a century hence.

A brief article in a recent issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association points to some of the accomplishments of medicine during 1930—a year noteworthy, to most of us, merely for the misfortune is inflicted on us.

It wasn't all misfortune. A great many lives will be saved, through many centuries to come, because of things that were done in 1930.

To begin with, the artificial lung, or respirator, was perfected by Drs. Philip Drinker and L. A. Shaw. This has already saved the lives of a number of people whose breathing apparatuses were paralyzed by infantile paralysis or gas poisoning.

Dr. J. Shega of Seoul, Korea, found that feeding vitamins in sufficient quantity to animals prevented leprosy; and it is hoped that this will point the way to the prevention of leprosy in human beings.

Investigators at Columbia University and Johns Hopkins Medical School believe they have found the virus causing the common cold.

It was discovered that Vitamin D shortens the time that it takes blood to clot—a matter of vital importance in surgical operations.

An instrument whereby heart disease can be disclosed in its early stages, before the ordinarily noticeable symptoms are apparent, was demonstrated by Dr. P. V. Wells of Newark, N. J.

Drs. Szymanowski and Hicks of the Western Pennsylvania Hospital Institute of Pathology found that extremely short radio waves can be of value in killing the poison of diphtheria. Similarly, Dr. W. T. Richards of Princeton University found that fever produced by radio waves is helpful in treating paralysis; and the germ that causes creeping paralysis was discovered by Sir James Purves-Stewart and Katherine Chevassut of Westminster Hospital, London.

That is an imposing list of accomplishments. It may be that some of you who read this will live longer, because of these discoveries, than you would have otherwise. At any rate, it indicates clearly that 1930 was not quite the year of disaster that some of us have supposed.

Women Drivers

Women are responsible for less than their proportionate share of car accidents, according to a survey made recently by a popular magazine. This is interesting in view of the fact that public opinion is inclined to give men credit for more skill in motoring. When a woman driver makes a bad move in the traffic jam, other motorists usually comment: "It's a woman driving. What could you expect?"

The melody to which these words are sung will have to be changed, according to the census. Women are safer drivers than men. This does not necessarily mean that they are more skillful drivers. It means that they are more careful.

Men are used to taking chances. They are used to risking their necks in one toss. Women have been forced to learn caution through the ages. They have never had men's opportunities for new beginnings. They have looked more closely to detail than to generalities. The nature of their work has made them do so.

And combined factors have taught them to beat their husbands and brothers in the automobile-driving game.

The Plainsman Says:

That Girl on Avenue Q says many women look their age but few of them ever admit it.

THE Plainsman sees by the papers where we're going to have a Fire Prevention week. We've had 'em before, along with Sunflower week, Applesauce week, Eat more Prunes week and a million other kinds of weeks—which gives birth to the idea, "why not a 'use a sensible-greeting-or-none-at-all week'?"

Walk down the street and on an average of three times per block some well-meaning soul will greet you with, "Whadda ya know for the good of your country?" And to make matters more maddening a couple of others will help the good work along by merely asking, "Wadda ya know", and forget about the good of the country.

Other amiable souls content themselves with "What's new?", with "How ya makin' it?" and "How's tricks?" They're all different in sounds but basically they're the same. Something ought to be done about it.

THEN there's the popular method of hailing two persons at the same time without saying the same thing.

Bill Jones and John Smith are walking down the street together and they meet Jim Johnson, a mutual friend.

"Wadda ya know, Bill", booms Jim—and then, not wishing to overlook John he sallies, "Who's your friend."

Bill extends the conversation by answering, "He ain't no friend of mine. He's just something the cats drug in!"

Now there's not a more congenial soul in Lubbock than The Plainsman. One of the things he gets his biggest kick from is the fact that small city residence gives a person plenty of opportunity to see and greet his friends. But the same old saws, day after day, year after year finally get so stereotyped that they lose their hearty feeling.

THE Plainsman believes we can all be as pleasant and as agreeable by saying "Howdy", or "How are yuh", "Good mornin'" and the like, without having to steal the other fellow's thunder. A "sensible-greeting-or-none-at-all week" would do a lot to make life more worthwhile—even for just a week.

That Man on Avenue Q says if men always dressed for the occasion a lot of them would go to work wearing a lounging robe.

In some states two things are necessary to obtain a divorce: fifty dollars and a wife. They're especially particular about the fifty dollars.

Personal nomination for the most agreeable man in Lubbock: Hubert L. Allen, of the Texas Utilities.

SPEAKING of special 'weeks', Lubbock's third semi-annual Market Week got under way today, proving that good business features, like good men, can't be kept down. Daring to take a step unattempted by any other Texas city save Dallas, Lubbock business men and the chamber of commerce have started something in the Market Week.

The Market Week idea is not one which touches the average citizen. For that reason, it is not as important from the public's point of view as it is from the standpoint of business. People brought in here for Market Week are neighboring West Texas and Eastern New Mexico merchants and they come for business rather than for a good time.

THE Plainsman firmly believes, however, that some day the Market Week will turn into something big for Lubbock. Through Market Week merchants of the territory will become accustomed to looking to Lubbock for their wholesale needs—and once they are accustomed to so doing Lubbock's already ambitious list of wholesale houses will be augmented.

Wholesale shoe companies, hat firms, clothing concerns will sooner or later establish branches in West Texas. When they do they're going to establish those branches at logical wholesale points. What can be a more logical wholesale point than a city to which merchants have been turning for a semi-annual Market Week and its accompanying features?

Big oaks, you know, spring from relatively unexciting acorns.

The well known 'man in the street' at this time fails to work himself up to a nervous rigor over the benefits of the Market Week.

But some of these days, if the cards are played right, Market Week may prove a trump card for growing, hustling Lubbock.

It doesn't pay to overlook any bets in this country.

Filibustering Only Chance For Justice In Senate And Protects From Special Interests, Says Oklahoman

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, March 16.—"Filibustering," explains Senator Elmer Thomas of Oklahoma, "is exactly comparable to the organization of labor. A laboring man's only chance for justice lies in organizing. In the Senate, a man's only chance for justice is to the Senate rules, either to kill objectionable thing or to get attention for matters of great importance which have been ignored.

"No filibuster ever puts through an unjust law. A filibuster cannot hurt the people, but it can protect them and can block majorities when they are inspired by selfish special interests."

Senator Thomas was the big filibusterer of the 71st Congress, holding the floor on the last day with what he says was the sole intention of attracting national interest to "the third largest industry in the country, which is wholly unregulated."

Led Oil Fight

Thomas had been a leader in the fights, first for an oil tariff, second for an embargo on oil and third for an investigation of the industry. He was so sore at the failure of them all—due to what he considered the efforts of the huge oil corporations—that he chose the spectacular method of filibuster to get public attention.

The senator emphatically denies, however, that he was responsible for blocking legislation in those last three hours. Failure of the maternity and infancy measure, the immigration restriction bill and the copyright bill to become law has been widely attributed to the Thomas filibuster, but Thomas points out that all three had their enemies and that if he hadn't been filibustering in those three hours, someone else would have been filibustering.

"Not a single bill that had a chance was blocked," Thomas says. "Every bill a senator wanted to pass could have gone through as far as I was concerned, as did the $5,000,000 hospitalization bill and others."

Anyway, according to Thomas, the state of Oklahoma is behind him to a man. Oklahoma is such a big oil producing state that unless the oil industry prospers, Oklahoma doesn't prosper. The small companies which have been drilling have lately had no market for their oil; the contract price for crude is now about a dollar a barrel, but the open price has been about 40 cents, the senator says.

Every landowner in the state believes he is on top of an oil field and farmers, unable to get their land drilled and going broke from drought, low prices and loss of lease royalties, have been hollering, along with other Oklahomans.

The state has an oil production tax of 3 per cent gross and the great slump in crude prices has cut income from oil down to about a third of what it was, which puts the tax right back on the people. The cities enjoy good times when oil field and other laborers are employed, but unemployment has hit Oklahoma as it has other states. A big park in Oklahoma City is full of food tents, which are feeding 6,000 persons a day.

The independent oil producers first put on a terrific campaign for an oil tariff; they knew the big oil companies, headed by the Standard group, were bringing in 100,000,000 barrels a year from abroad and with enormous domestic overproduction, felt that ought to be stopped.

Lost Tariff Fight

The oil tariff drive failed and in the last weeks of Congress there was a strong movement for an embargo on oil. It became obvious that this, too, was doomed to failure and Thomas and other friends of the independent producers then demanded a senatorial investigation of conditions in the industry, which was proposed in a resolution introduced by Nye of North Dakota. When that was blocked—easily, because of the parliamentary situation—Thomas decided to filibuster and tell the world all about what the big oil companies were doing to the independents.

"Sometimes you can do by publicity what you can't do by legislation," Thomas says. "But that investigation we were after is essential. We can't legislate on any phase of the oil business unless we know the facts. If Congress doesn't know the facts the big companies can come along and put it in a maze.

"We want to know to what extent the oil interests control other industries—railroads, banks, public utilities and steamship lines. Nobody knows. But we do know, for instance, that the Standard Oil group and their subsidiaries form a seven billion dollar interest and that the Chase National Bank, the biggest in the world, is admittedly controlled by Standard Oil, which led the fight against our measures in the last Congress."

WHILE ordinary stocks may not have done so well during the late, lamented Nineteen-Thirty, quite a few folks collected dividends on their bonds of matrimony. According to recent figures, 30.8 babies were born every hour last year in the densely populated areas of the country.

One reason why murders are popular:

One Thanksgiving Day, 1927, a former Breckenridge oil operator shot and killed a man at Breckenridge.

In the spring of 1928, the defendant was tried in Breckenridge, found guilty and given a 45-year sentence.

A legal loophole was found and the case was tried again at Albany, where the defendant was again found guilty and assessed a 25-year sentence.

Another legal loophole was found and 2 1-2 years later, in Baird, Callahan county, a jury said 'guilty' and a 21 year sentence assessed Friday of last week.

Attorneys probably are looking for more loopholes.

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Author of "THE HUMAN BODY"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Four pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed stamped envelope to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1435 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining," "Hygiene of Women," "Infant Feeding" and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are: "Normal Diet," "List of Books for Mothers," "Bed Wetting," "Diet of the Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

SOME FORMS KIDNEY ILLS DESCRIBED

This subject is taken up in response to many requests from readers.

The treatment of kidney disease—dietetic or otherwise—is a very technical problem, and such treatment should not under any circumstances be undertaken by the patient himself. The factors involved are very complicated, and every person thus afflicted should certainly be in the hands of his family physician and should follow the advice given him to the letter.

Dr. Clendening

In order, however, to attempt to give the patient a basis for understanding the general principles involved, and to aid him to co-operate intelligently with his physician, these articles are written.

The main reason for the uncertainty in this department is found in the many forms kidney disease takes. These are so confusing that physicians especially interested in the subject spend a great deal of their time making classifications of nephritis and then tearing those classifications up and making new ones.

These articles do not consider stone in the kidney or abscess or puss in the kidney or tuberculosis of the kidney. Those are local diseases—often called surgical diseases—and effect only part of the kidney.

What we are considering is the general involvement of all parts of the excreting apparatus of both kidneys, preventing them in some greater or less degree from performing their function of throwing off waste products of the body. This may occur in childhood or old age. It may be due to infection, as by scarlet fever, or by metal poisoning as by mercury (the ingestion of bichloride tablets accidentally or with sucidal intent). It may be due to degeneration of the little arteries which go to the kidney. It may be slow in onset or rapid. For all these reasons an evaluation of each individual case by a physician is a necessity.

It is convenient, however, to think of the many possibilities in terms of the function of the kidneys. In general, the kidneys throw off from the body three classes of material—water, salt and nitrogen waste products. If any one of these three functions is deficient the substance normally thrown off accumulate in the blood and the body, causing various forms of disease or poisoning. Hence the logical treatment, when this occurs, is to withhold them from the diet.

Hence we have three general classes of diet planned for kidney disease: (1) low water diet or dry diet; (2) low salt or salt-free diet, and (3) low nitrogen or protein-poor diet.

Each of these will subsequently be explained. This, however, lays the foundation of general principles for the dietetic treatment of kidney disease. Here it only remains to say that there is no other kind of treatment. We would like to be able to do something to force the kidney to resume its proper function again. But up to the present we know of no such treatment. The kidneys often resume their functions of their own accord. But there is no known method to hasten that event.

SWAN

In Barbary With Gilbert Swan

ALGIERS, North Africa.—I have no doubt that Algiers is everything that has been said of it.

But my final adventure in North Africa allowed me only the most hit-and-run glimpse of it. This glimpse made it seem gay, cosmopolitan, extremely French, quite lovely to look upon a place of typical night clubs and mingled races, a winter resort of rare climate, splotchy with contrasts and a place where you can get a hot bath, a shoe shine and all the rest.

We had driven in at a neat rate of speed in an effort to have a day or more of browsing and city life. At the hotel word awaited that the governor general had invited me to be one of "distinguished guests"—laugh that off—at a dinner that very evening. My baggage had not arrived. My evening clothes, I knew well, would need pressing. I knew I didn't have a clean dinner shirt or collar. I fidgeted around. My grips arrived. I sent half a dozen clerks running in a dozen different directions. The presser was ordered to break an arm, if necessary, to get the suit ready on time.

Then, with a sigh, I started out for a view of the town and a bit of relaxation. I got as far as the sunshine and the lovely gardens. As I stepped out, the courier came in pursuit.

"You can't leave—come back!" he called.

"What's the big idea?"

He pointed to a sign in the lobby. It read that due to terrific storms out in the Mediterranean, the good ship on which I was to sail home might have to leave the dock at any moment and lie out in stream overnight to avoid possible accident and, also, to be in a position to get away by the following morning.

"Everyone must be prepared to be aboard by noon." I was admonished. I glanced at my watch. It was already 11. I was a prisoner in a hotel garden in Algiers. And there I remained until 11:30 when, with fellow passengers rushing about excitedly, notice came to pack up and be ready to leave at once. My dress suit was being pressed.

I rounded up a half dozen more lackies, rescued a wrinkled pair of pants, tossed my luggage into grips and rushed for the waterfront. And just as we reached the wharf, the liner was pulling into stream. Storm warnings had been such that no chances were being taken. Those left behind would get aboard, out in stream from a tug. And they would not have to be out until the following morning.

Hurray, we could stay all night in Algiers!

Back we scurried to the hotel.

"The program will be as originally planned—the governor will expect you to his banquet tonight."

I looked at my watch. It was about 2 o'clock. I again resumed my baggage. Once more I rounded up a retinue of servants who, by this time, had decided that I was slightly crazy. I ordered that the suit be back within a couple of hours.

Slightly dizzy I started out to see the town again. My courier caught me on the rebound. Limply I obeyed orders and stumbled into the bus and limply I arrived at some sort of reception at the governor's mansion, where champagne highballs began to restore the old equilibrium.

But the day had waned. Dusk was settling over the city. I fled and hired a taxi, whizzing up one street and another, and then rushing to the hotel for the governor's dinner, to be further dazzled by glimpses of wines of rarest vintage and to listen to some familiar speeches about goodwill.

So, as I remarked in the beginning, Algiers is probably everything anyone ever said about it—

But you can't prove it, for sure, by me.

Congressmen last year paid the government $67,000 for having their speeches printed. And yet it is said silence is golden.

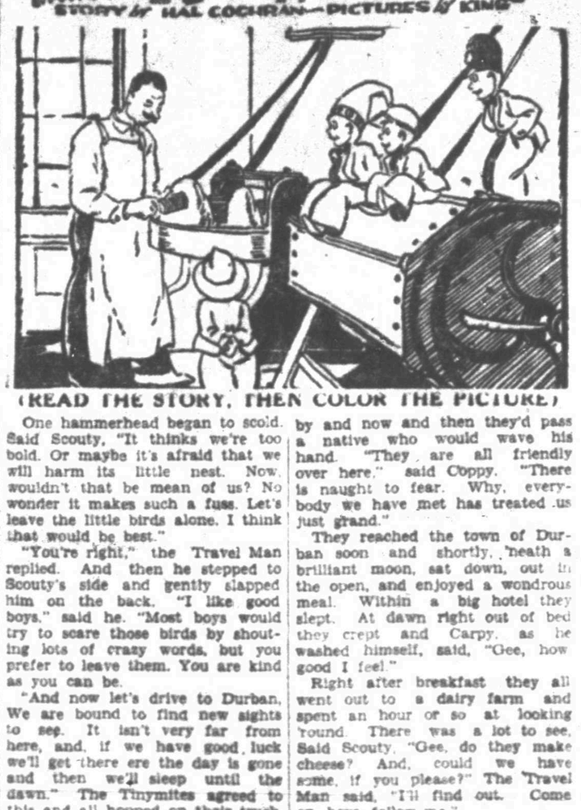

It's mostly "bill" for the young fellow who bills and coos these days.

Akron, O., rubber center, is said to be the healthiest city in the United States. In a business slump, of course, workers there don't tire as much.

One hammerhead began to scold. Said Scouty, "It thinks we're too bold. Or maybe it's afraid that we will harm its little nest. Now, wouldn't that be mean of us? No wonder it makes such a fuss. Let's leave the little birds alone. I think that would be best."

"You're right," the Travel Man replied. And then he stepped to Scouty's side and gently slapped him on the back. "I like good boys," said he. "Most boys would try to scare those birds by shouting lots of crazy words, but you prefer to leave them. You are kind as you can be.

"And now let's drive to Durban. We are bound to find new sights to see. It isn't very far from here, and, if we have good luck we'll get there ere the day is gone and then we'll sleep until the dawn." The Tinymites agreed to this and all hopped on their truck.

"Away they went, in spirits high. Some pretty scenery drifted by and now and then they'd pass a native who would wave his hand. "They are all friendly over here," said Coppy. "There is naught to fear. Why, everybody we have met has treated us just grand."

They reached the town of Durban soon and shortly, 'neath a brilliant moon, sat down, out in the open, and enjoyed a wondrous meal. Within a big hotel they slept. At dawn right out of bed they crept and Carpy, as he washed himself, said, "Gee, how good I feel."

Right after breakfast they all went out to a dairy farm and spent an hour or so at looking 'round. There was a lot to see. Said Scouty, "Gee, do they make cheese? And, could we have some, if you please?" The Travel Man said, "I'll find out. Come on, boys, follow me."

(The Tinymites head for Bombay, India, in the next story.)

Improvement Noted In Reeder Condition

Improvement was reported at noon today in the condition of O. L. Reeder, of 811 Avenue L, who was injured at about 9 p. m. Saturday when he walked against a moving automobile at Broadway and Texas avenue.

Rain which partly blinded Reeder was believed to have caused the accident. Frank Eaton, a sophomore at Texas Technological college, was the driver of the automobile.

Handles on doors of the car inflicted a gash in Reeder's right side immediately above the hip bone. Attendants at Lubbock sanitarium said today that the man had suffered no fractures. Eaton took the injured man to the hospital.

Poor Sleep Due To Gas In Upper Bowel

Poor sleep is caused by gas pressing heart and other organs. You can't get rid of this by just doctoring the stomach because most of the gas is in the UPPER bowel.

The simple German remedy, Adlerika, reaches BOTH upper and lower bowel, washing out poisons which cause gas, nervousness, bad sleep. Get Adlerika today; by tomorrow you feel the wonderful effect. You will say the day you read this was sure a lucky day for you.—City Drug Store and Lubbock Drug Co. Adv.

Muscular-Rheumatic Aches and Pains

DRAW them out with a "counter-irritant." Distressing muscular lumbago, soreness and stiffness—generally respond pleasantly to good old Musterole. Doctors call it a "counter-irritant," because it gets action and is not just a salve. Musterole helps bring soreness and pain to the surface, and thus gives natural relief. You can feel how its warming action penetrates and stimulates blood circulation. But do not stop with one application. Apply this soothing, cooling, healing ointment generously to the affected area once every hour for five hours. Used by millions for over 20 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses.

Keep Musterole handy; jars and tubes.

To Mothers—Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.
Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

FOUNDATION ESTABLISHED FOR PARENTS

Last September the president of the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa., announced a series of weekly lecture conferences to be given throughout the school year by the department of child helping of that university.

Mrs. William T. Carter of Philadelphia had, for 25 years maintained at Redington, Pa., in memory of her husband, "The William T. Carter Junior Republic, a school for the training of boys for useful citizenship," at the head of which was James Samuel Heberling, A. M.

Mrs. Carter finally came to the conclusion that most could be done for helping children by the "education of parents and teachers to the necessity and in the methods of reaching a proper understanding of the individual child." She decided, therefore, to relinquish the "Junior Republic" and establish in its stead a foundation to be administered by the trustees of the University of Pennsylvania through the medium of a professorship in child helping and to be known as "The William T. Carter Child Helping Foundation."

Professor James Struthers. This remarkable man, a veritable dynamo of energy, sympathy and human understanding is doing a great deal for parents and children. The university makes his services free to groups and individuals. To him come parents from all parts of the country. Co-operating with him are the medical school and the psychological laboratory of the university. At the head of that clinic is the eminent Professor Lightner Witmer, with whom I had the privilege to study (1909-1910).

These Wednesday lecture conferences are open free to the public, and are attended by hundreds of fathers and mothers from wide areas. Professor Heberling conducts some of these meetings; others are led by experts from different parts of the United States.

I had the honor to lead the one on January 28, a most responsive group, nearly all of whom seemed to engage in the open forum. Subject: "Everyday Mistakes of Everyday Parents With Their Children."

Professor Heberling speaks over WCAU, Philadelphia, at 3:15 p. m., Eastern Standard time, each Thursday from March 12 to April 30, inclusive. He is well worth hearing.

Pardon For Albert Fall To Be Sought

SANTA FE, N. M., March 16 (AP)—A movement to seek a pardon by President Hoover for Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior had gained petition signatures of all members of the house of representatives.

The petitions represent that Fall, convicted in connection with the naval oil reserve lease cases, has fought the government bribery charges for seven years, has lost his fortune during the long court trials and has become shattered in health.

McALLEN, March 16 (AP)—Gus Levy of San Antonio Saturday was elected president and Beverly Sheffield, San Antonio, vice president, of the State Hi-Y Older Boys' conference, at the close of the second day's session of the annual meeting. Corpus Christi tentatively was selected as the meeting place next year.

Stone Is Opposed To Debenture Plan

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP)—The export debenture plan of farm relief was condemned Saturday night by Chairman Stone of the farm board.

The proposal, which has been advanced in congress for years, was agitated anew by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, and others attending the progressive conference this week.

Speaking over the Columbia broadcasting system on a program arranged by the Washington Star, Stone said the "stimulated rush of exports from this country would have a depressing effect on the world price level, probably as much as the amount of the subsidy, thereby defeating its very purpose."

WEST TEXAS GOLF TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD HERE

AROUND THE TRAINING CAMP CIRCUIT

Collier Parris

Now for the ... Relays. The University of Texas has its annual Texas Relays; Southern Methodist University has its S. M. U. Relays; Rice has its Rice Relays, the latter in conjunction with the Texas Relays this year. Now comes the first of its nature west of Dallas and south of Amarillo—the Texas Tech Relays.

Limited to high schools this year, the Texas Tech Relays promoters hope to include West Texas colleges and universities within a year or two. It is another great step toward the development of sports in West Texas. Hasten the day when athletics in these parts will come to the point where overemphasis talk is as justifiable as in other sections of the country!

Lubbock and the South Plains is blessed with men who are ever looking forward, striving for development and working for local and territorial welfare. You find them in the coaching ranks of Texas Tech and Lubbock High school. Especially is the locality fortunate in counting as its citizen one Russell "Dutchey" Smith, the bald-pated one who comes here from Amarillo to join former teammates and coaches in the furthering of local college sports.

Smith will direct the Texas Tech Relays. For the past two seasons he has promoted a similar annual meet at Amarillo and there are plenty of men in Lubbock and in Amarillo who do not hesitate to acclaim his act as highly successful. The 1930 relay meet at Amarillo drew high school track teams from nearly every point on the Plains, north and south, from many points in Oklahoma and New Mexico, and as far south in Texas as Big Spring, north to Dalhart.

The relays should be a go here. Every track team within a radius will be invited, the radius having no boundaries of definition. The meet will be held one week prior to district track meet, and will consist solely of relays and sprints the interesting phases of track activity. Local firms will donate something a little less than $500 in prize trophies and the Avalanche and Journal will assist in the promotion of the relays.

Blondy Cross, the San Angelo expert, now and then gets hep to a bright passage of thought, depending on the lapse of time between then and now, and portrays his thoughts in a readable manner. One of his recent columns came to the unspoken defense of the sport writer. It impressed us as being worthy of further comment. Blondy has been taken to task by certain school notables of the Oil Belt region—has apparently contradicted the statement of some principal or superintendent—and finds himself in the proverbial pickle. So far this department has escaped verbal battles with class room chiefs and we count ourselves fortunate.

"This reporter," avers Blondy, "learned long ago never to cross up one of the professors deliberately unless cornered and forced onto the defense, for the humble scribe stands just about as much chance proving a point with the average school head, particularly the fanatical type who frequents the district eligibility halls, as he does winning an argument with the average housewife. We have learned by long years of association with the specie that the general run of high school football eligibility dads take themselves very seriously and that they almost as soon would lose a leg as to admit they had erred in any of their rulings." (Reminds us of the District 2 Class B eligibility halls of last fall).

Then this final paragraph: "To the average athletic-minded school officials the sports writer has no place in society. He is not even a necessary evil. He's just a flat tire on the wheel of progress. But the learned men will condescend to accept him as an aid in ballyhooing big gate receipts so the school athletic fund can be kept out of the red, if he will be very meek, sit over in a corner and keep quiet during their learned discussions and when spoken to "yes" them heartily, but horror of all horrors! never be so presumptious as to criticize the results, if any, of their brilliant mental calisthenics."

To which our observation must be that we're glad we're in District 1 instead of the Oil Belt. This department has often received in the knowledge of whole-hearted support on the part of Lubbock and Texas Tech school officials, and particularly that of the coaching staffs, than which there are none whiter.

In answer to our college student critic—we are glad that we're out of school and beginning our education.

WILSON EARNS BERTH

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Mar. 16.—Those who profess to know at the Braves camp say it looks like Charlie Wilson has earned himself a regular berth at third base. He's been performing in a manner that makes even the old-timers blink and if he can hit like he can field they say the job is his without a battle. Charlie was star shortstop on the Rochester team last season.

FILLS REEVE'S SHOES

PENSACOLA, Fla., Mar. 16 (AP)—Paddy Creeden is filling Bob Reeve's shoes at second base for the Red Sox these days and he doesn't need any padding in the toes, either. The little Brockton, Mass., boy is doing a great job, both on the sack and at bat. Paddy played ball at Boston college and since then has coached freshman football at Fordham college.

SENATORS CHEERFUL

BILOXI, Miss., March 16 (AP)—Considerably more cheerful after beating Baltimore Orioles 3-1 yesterday, the Washington Senators today worked to polish their play for four more games before next Monday. Wednesday they play the Orioles again; they meet Springfield college of Mobile Friday, and the Louisville Colonels Saturday and Sunday.

RETURNED ON OPTION

SAN ANTONIO, Mar. 16 (AP)—Gregory Mulleavy, shortstop purchased from Toledo of the American association last season, has been returned to the Mudhens on option by the Chicago White Sox. Outfielder High Willingham also will leave the camp, having been sent to Philadelphia of the National league, on waivers.

PREDICTS SOX STANDING

SAN ANTONIO, Mar. 16 (AP)—Not lower than fifth place, and possibly in fourth, is where Manager Donie Bush thinks the Chicago White Sox will finish in the American league championship race.

When the game with the New York Giants was rained out yesterday, Bush used some of the extra time to tell the squad what he thought of its possibilities.

ANOTHER PROBLEM

TAMPA, Fla., Mar. 16 (AP)—Sidney Weil, president of the Cincinnati Reds, had another problem on his hands today. He has been notified by Commissioner Landis that Pat Crawford, who finished last season with the Reds, has refused to report to Hollywood of the Pacific Coast league, where he was sent in part payment for Mickey Heath, first baseman. President Weil was busy trying to figure out how to make up the deficit because there is no chance of allowing Heath to return to Hollywood.

NINTH INNING PLAYERS

NEW ORLEANS, Mar. 16 (AP)—The Cleveland Indians are acquiring a habit of being ninth-inning finishers. Three of their five victories over the New Orleans Pelicans have been won in the ninth. They did it again yesterday when George Datore stole home in the final frame to account for a 3 to 2 triumph.

DROP THREE GAMES

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 16 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers, having dropped three out of four games in their exhibition series with the San Francisco Seals, were set to meet the Mission club today. Manager Stanley Harris ordered outfielders Ivey Shiver and Johnny Stone and Mark Koenig, infielder, to come here from Sacramento for today's game.

HAS STAR READY

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Mar. 16. (AP)—Manager Bill Killefer of the St. Louis Browns had his star southpaw, Walter Stewart, ready to face the Philadelphia Phillies in today's exhibition game here. Big Chad Kimsey probably will follow him. The Browns were happy today over their eleven hits in yesterday's triumph over the Columbus Red Birds.

SERIES TO END

BRADENTON, Fla., Mar. 16 (AP)—The "spring world series" ends here today with the fourth meeting of the year between Connie Mack's Athletics and Gabby Street's Cardinals. The Cardinals, who have won two of the three games so far, returned here immediately after their victory over the Phillies at Winter Haven yesterday.

BIT BY WHALE

PASO ROBLES, Calif., Mar. 16 (AP)—Club problems settled, including after a fashion even the question of what bit Paul Waner while he was spearing rock crabs in Florida, the Pittsburgh Pirates prepared to break camp late this afternoon, and head for San Francisco for exhibition warfare.

"It was a whale that bit me," brother Paul tells inquiries, with a suspicious wink, "but I handed the whale my card and told him he had made a mistake—for my name wasn't Jonah."

WILLINGHAM CLAIMED

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., Mar. 16. (AP)—Gerry Nugent, business manager of the Philadelphia Nationals, announced today the Phillies had claimed High Willingham, an infielder, from the Chicago White Sox on waivers. Willingham went to the White Sox from Dallas. He is expected at the Phillies training camp in a few days.

BABE GREAT OARSMAN

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Mar. 16 (AP)—Babe Ruth is a great oarsman. He rowed himself right out of a boat into the Gulf of Mexico Saturday night. He and three cronies were fishing. Ruth caught a crab or an oar slipped out of one hand or something. Anyhow he lost his balance and went into the water. His cronies pulled him out.

VANCE RETURNS HOME

CLEARWATER, Fla., Mar. 16 (AP)—If the Brooklyn Robins want to do any more arguing with Arthur (Dazzy) Vance on his unsigned contract they'll have to do it at Homosassa. The dazzler, who thinks he's worth $25,000, left the Robins training camp last night for his "estate" at Homosassa prepared to repeal all official offers of less than that amount.

ROOKIES WORK HARD

FORT MYERS, Fla., Mar. 16. (AP)—Connie Mack's intimation that he will carry two reserve outfielders with the Athletics this season had aded a lot of snap to the work of a half dozen rookies all of whom hope to land a job.

Just now Jimmy Moore, Bob Johnson and Roger Cramer look "pretty good" to Mack, although Lou Finney and Jim Lessley are given equal opportunity to show their worth.

BIG SEASON SEEN

SAN ANTONIO, Mar. 16 (AP)—If the new National league baseball really is appreciably deader, the New York Giants and their "master mind" manager are counting on a big season this year. The Giants have had trouble holding up their end in the days of long distance slugging but they all believe they will do better with a slower game in which base running and clever bunting play a big part.

VISIT HOLLYWOOD

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 16 (AP)—The Chicago Cubs today took time out to go to Hollywood to watch movies made.

They will go back to work tomorrow, however, in another game with the Los Angeles club, which yesterday absorbed a 25 to 6 beating from the National leaguers' bats. The Cub assault was led by Cuyler and Bell who hit safely five times each, and Hartnett, whose three hits included a pair of home runs.

COUNTRY CLUB COURSE IS SELECTED

EVENT TO BE HELD MAY 21 TO 24; MEET HERE

The Lubbock Country club golf course will be the scene of the 1931 West Texas Golf association's annual championship tournament, beginning May 21 and continuing through May 24.

Directors of the association met in Lubbock yesterday and after playing an inspection flight over the Country club course and hearing arguments by four club officials from as many West Texas cities, voted 3 to 2, in favor of the Lubbock course. The Wichita Falls Country club, represented at the meeting here, drew two votes. Fort Worth and San Angelo were the other bidders for the 1931 tournament.

First Time Here

This is the first time in the history of the association that Lubbock has been chosen for the annual championship tournament, though Lubbock golfers have participated in all previous tournaments, sending a winner to the 1929 joust. The tournament last year was held at Brownwood and at that time Lubbock presented its bid for the 1931 play-off.

Dennis Lavender of Abilene is the defending champion, having won over a large field at Brownwood last year. Lavendar is twice a winner of the tournament, winning in 1928, but losing to Clinton Bussey of Lubbock in 1929.

The committee meeting in executive session at the Lubbock hotel yesterday afternoon following the inspection flight in the morning and a luncheon in its honor at noon passed a resolution asking that E. T. Daniels of Idalou, member of the board of directors, be named as chairman of the tournament committee, with authority to direct the championship joust. The board of directors also requested the local club to make certain improvements over the course and to continue renovations already begun.

The Lubbock hotel was chosen as headquarters for the tournament.

Members of the committee began to arrive in Lubbock Saturday night, and Sunday morning seven directors were here. Allen Guinn, president of the association and serving his third year in that capacity; F. M. Jenkins, secretary of the organization in his third consecutive year of service, both of Mineral Wells; C. A. Qualls, Post; E. T. Daniels, Idalou; Fred Robertson, Brownwood; Fred Bonner of Wichita Falls; and C. R. Polk of Abilene were officials here.

The dates for the various American zone ties, announced today by the United States Lawn Tennis association, call for the first round matches to be played in Mexico May 1, 2, and 3. The winner is slated to meet Canada at Montreal May 21, 22, and 23 for the right to play the South America winner in the America inter-zone final.

MANAGER PREDICTS HIS SQUAD WILL BOB UP FIRST OF SEASON

BY RUSSELL J. NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16 (AP)—Detroit's Tigers are not trying to win the American league pennant before the season starts, but Manager Bucky Harris wants the baseball world to know his team will have to be considered when it comes to exchange baseballs for springtime oratory.

The 34-year-old, black-haired whip of the Tigers, whose teams finished sixth and fifth respectively since he took over the reins in 1929, believes he has assembled a squad that will end up where the

MORE THAN THIRTY GOLFERS QUALIFY IN MEADOWBROOK TROPHY TOURNEY

A field of more than thirty golfers turned in qualifying scores yesterday at the Meadowbrook Golf club course toward the ten-way trophy tournament play entering its second day of play today. The tournament continues today and tomorrow, though there will be no match play during any of the days.

The tournament consists of as many Lubbock golfers as is possible to play the 18-hole course during the three days, each player trying for individual low score. To the ten low scorers go as many gold and silver miniature golf balls. The five lowest scorers receive gold balls, and the second five are to get silver balls. The trophies are not given as permanent possessions, though if a player winning a ball continues to keep ahead of his competitors in match play following the three days of medal play the trophy in time will be his permanently.

In matched play following the three-day tournament players not receiving trophies may challenge winners of the balls and win the latter by defeating one of the ten low scorers.

STEERS CHEERED AFTER VICTORIES

CORSICANA, March 16. —(AP)—Optimistic over their two victories against the New York Nationals in Dallas during week-end, the Dallas Steers had returned here today to open their third week of spring training. Harrell, shortstop, who was ill last night, was better today.

Nine inning intra-club contests have been ordered by Manager Happ Morse who said veteran flippers would see service this week. Morse was extremely well pleased with the way his rookie hurlers tossed against the Giants. Exhibitions against Wichita Falls, Southern Methodist and semi-pro teams will consume next week.

Chief of Police John Lemond pledge co-operation with the Silvertown Safety League

"Let me urge every citizen to lend his support to this very worthy crusade to reduce the fatal accidents on the highways."

The callous disregard of life and limb by reckless driving . . . the menace to the safety of his family and himself has stirred the indignation of every conscientious driver and citizen.

Singly and alone he couldn't do very much about it.

But, together we can do something about it!

When you realize that more people were killed last year by automobiles than were lost by the American Forces during the World War and that the number of deaths is growing year by year . . . then we believe you will want to join in this crusade against recklessness and unsafe equipment.

Only an aroused and militant public opinion can change these conditions. Your help, your example, are needed.

The Silvertown Safety League is your means of expression. Read the pledge . . . nine common-sense rules . . . ning commandments of safety. Are you willing to take this pledge along with the prominent people of this community and abide by it? If you are . . . if enough people will do it . . . thousands of lives can be saved in 1931.

We have a pledge ready for your signature . . . we will see that the beautiful emblem of the League is installed on your car and give you a recognition button for your lapel.

There is no cost . . . no obligation to buy . . . we simply welcome you as another soldier in the war against recklessness.

Sign up! This crusade needs you.

My Pledge as a Member of

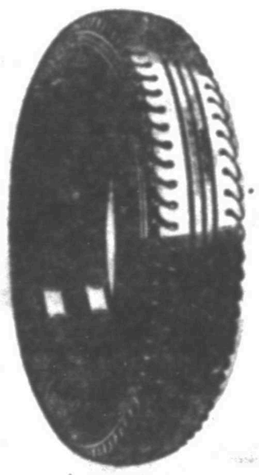

THE SILVERTOWN SAFETY LEAGUE

I agree

1. To drive at speeds in keeping with the safety of others as well as myself.
2. To keep on the right side of the road, except when passing.
3. To pass only when I know there is ample time and space—never on blind curves or when nearing the crest of a hill.
4. To go through intersections only when I have the right of way.
5. To observe all traffic signals.
6. To give signals myself that can be clearly seen and understood, before turning or stopping in traffic.
7. To drive only when in full possession of my faculties.
8. To keep my brakes, lights, and horn in good condition.
9. To operate my car on tires which assure a positive grip on the road—safe traction—and freedom from hazardous tire failures.

Robbers Steal Hog After Owner Dresses It

CANYON, March 16 (AP)—It is not often that the unusual happens, but in this case it did. A farmer living near here heard a suspicious noise in the vicinity of his hog pen a few nights ago. Upon investigation he discovered that a fine meat hog had been knocked over and stuck with a knife, the blood yet flowing from the fresh wound. He decided to save the porker. Water was heated for the scalding, the hide was scraped, the animal was dressed and left hanging up for the night.

The hog was gone next morning! Hog thieves rarely have such luck, but watchful waiting paid in this instance, the owner unwittingly doing them a service they did not expect.

Income tax collections in the Chicago district during 1930 were $227,500,000, or $42,000,000 less than in 1929.

Eat Everything without Fear of Indigestion

Are there lots of foods you can't eat—for fear of gas, bloating, pains in the stomach and bowels?

Do you have to pass up favorite dishes—while the rest enjoy them?

That's a sign you need Tanlac! For more than ten years Tanlac has restored to vigorous health thousands who denied themselves their favorite foods just as you have to.

Mrs. Arvena Bowers, of 1220 Jackson St., Topeka, Kans., says: "Five years I was troubled with gas, bloating and dizzy spells. But Tanlac toned up my whole system and increased my weight 10 lbs."

If you suffer from indigestion, gas, dizziness, headaches, constipation or torpid liver—give Tanlac a chance to help you! The first bottle often brings the needed relief.

Tanlac is a good, pure medicine, made of roots, barks, and herbs that are recognized by the United States Pharmacopoeia. Get it from your druggist today. Your money back if it doesn't help you.

DAILY MARKETS

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, March 16 (AP)—The stock market moved quietly higher in early transactions today in continuation of the recovery which set in at the close of last week.

The movement lacked vitality, however, and most of the so-called pivotal shares moved only fractionally higher, including U. S. Steel, American Can, General Motors, General Electric and Radio. Trading was dull and listless.

A few sold up a point or two and Case moved up 3. Issues up 1 or more included American Telephone, Standard of N. J., American Water Works, Byers, Eastman, Fox, Westinghouse Electric, Kroger, John Mansville, Allied Chemical, Union Carbide, Air Reduction Drug and Lambert.

Week end news still left the speculative outlook rateher foggy. Further gradual improvement in many lines includin gsteel, motors and retail trade, were stressed but with nothing appearing to improve the still unsatisfactory outlook for corporate profits generally, bullishness was at a low ebb.

The money market will be watched with interest during the next few days. While today's income tax payments will impose a large burden on bank balances, the government has anticipated these payments by paying out large sums borrowed from day to day from the reserve banks. These borrowings will be paid off as the income tax checks are cashed.

KONJOLA VERY REMEDY NEEDED

Day By Day, Everywhere This Medicine Is Known New Victories Are Reported

"Konjola is the medicine I should have had in the first place". Tens of thousands of men and women have said that. Profit by their experiences; be guided by what these thousands say of this medicine of 29 ingredients 22 of which are the juices of roots and herbs.

Mrs. Ada E. Carman

Read the statement of Mrs. Ada Carman, 801 Houston street, Fort Worth: "I suffered for years with rheumatism in my lower limbs. Kidney and bladder weakness worried, and constipation brought on headaches and dizziness. In my experience there is no medicine to equal Konjola, for I have not a trace of rheumatism or constipation."

And consider what Konjola did for Mr. William Davenport, 912 Monroe street, Fort Worth: "This splendid medicine gave me relief from rheumatism after I had about given up hope. I had stomach and kidney disorders too, and I could not find anything to help me. Konjola was recommended, but I was skeptical. But results were amazing. In less than a month all pain vanished, and today I feel better in every way".

Mr. William Davenport

And is there not encouragement in the statement of Mrs. James F. Ferguson, 504 E. Rippy street, Ft. Worth, who declares: "For thirteen years I suffered dreadfully with stomach trouble. Pains followed the simplest meal, while heartburn, dizziness, nausea and headaches were daily occurences. But today I am like a different person. All trace of illness is gone, and I eat heartily."

Mrs. James Ferguson

Konjola contains no alcohol, no nerve-deadening drugs, no heart-depressing chemicals. It needs no such ingredients. Buy Konjola in any drug store, and do not accept a substitute.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, March 16. (AP)—Cotton had a steady opening today in sympathy with better Liverpool cables than due and first trades here showed no change to two points up. As New York opened higher than here, prices soon rallied, July trading up to 11.15 and October to 11.44, or two to five points above Saturday's close.

The undertone was very steady, owing to a sharp advance in Egyptian markets, said to be due to lower water in the river Nile, which would make for a short Egyptian crop.

At the end of the first hour the market was steady and at the highs.

The market ruled firmer during the latter part of the morning, owing to reports from the early sections of South Texas, stating that torrential rains over the week-end had washed out cotton, forcing extensive replanting. This news caused considerable short covering and there also was more or less trade buying, and May advanced to 10.98, July to 11.24 and October to 11.55, or 12 to 14 points up from the early lows and about the same amounts above Saturday's close.

At noon the market was quieter and prices had eased off one to three points from the top on profit-taking.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, March 16 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today 3 to 6 points higher in response to relatively steady Liverpool cables and higher prices for Egyptian cotton in Alexandria.

There was buying here by houses with foreign trade connections as well as covering and the market sold up to 10.91 for May and 11.47 for October or about 6 to 8 points net higher. The demand was supplied by some southern and local selling and the volume of business tapered off after the first few minutes but prices held steady and within a point or two of the best at the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables reported covering and continental buying supplied by American selling at the advance in that market and said there was a sustained demand for cotton cloth and yarns. Egyptian cotton futures in Alexandria were 19 to 61 points higher and the Indian spot quotation in Liverpool showed an advance of 7 points.

The market continued steady later in the morning. Trading was not active, but offerings were relatively light and after some hesitation the market developed renewed steadiness late in the morning with May advancing to 11.00 and October to 11.55. Prices were within a point or two of these figures at midday or about 15 to 18 points net higher.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, March 16. (AP)—Wheat slid down early today to a fresh low price record for the season. Liverpool reported Canadian and Argentine offerings were cheaper and for the first time in a considerable period Liverpool wheat stocks showed an increase. Opening 1-8 to 3-8 cents off, wheat afterward held near to the initial limits. Corn started unchanged to 1-2 up, and subsequently displayed little change.

Mr. Ford practices what he preaches. At the schools at Dearborn, where his plant is located, youngsters are paid enough to live on for the work they do in school from the time they are 12 years old. The boys divide their time between the classroom and the technical work.

The burden of the technical education should fall on the shoulders of industry, Mr. Ford states.

ing crowded during the morning session.

The state presented the question of scruples against the death penalty in the first questions, indicating that the prosecution would seek the extreme penalty for the slaying. The defense queried prospective jurymen regarding their attitude on self defense, revealing that Graves' plea of not guilty is to be based on self defense. The first venireman was chosen as a juror.

Defendant Pallid

Graves appeared rather pallid from his two months' confinement in jail. He smoked incessantly throughout the morning, lighting one ciraget after another.

Practically every venireman questioned stated that he had read an account of the shooting in Lubbock newspapers but had formed no opinion regarding the guilt or innocense of the defendant.

Graves is facing another murder charge for the fatal injury of Robert Averitt in the shooting in which Smith died. He also faces charges of intent to murder for the wounding of another man, a woman and Smith's little daughter. The shooting took place at a dance here on the night of January 11.

The case is the second double slaying case in the county. On October 19, 1912, William E. Taylor killed two men here and was acquitted after evidence was presented that he was fulfilling his duties as city marshal.

include a large number of out of town buyers.

By automobile and train buyers from all sections of the Plains country were coming in early in the afternoon.

Sunday visitors from towns as far north as Perryton, as far south as Odessa, east to Lockney and northeast to Miami. Plainview, Lamesa, Clovis, N. M., Hereford and many other nearby towns, also were represented in the buyers.

Lower Prices Seen

A general price decrease, or rather a readjustment of values, was reported. Salesmen declared that "better values for the same money" is the rule, with the new styles giving better merchandise for the same money as other seasons.

Most of the displays are expected to hold over until Wednesday with a few planning to leave soon after the style show Tuesday night.

Attendance Sunday was placed at several hundred out of town buyers.

Monday morning's attendance was nearly as large as for the entire day Sunday, with prospects that the total for the day would be in excess of 500.

OIL COMMISSION

penies, thereby resulting in monopolistic control of the entire industry, rather than in a desired state of reasonable competition."

Says Laws Adequate

"Texas has on its statute books adequate conservation laws under which regulations can be prescribed for the production and the waste of oil and gas. The laws are complete and adequate. The railroad commission at present is charged with the duty of enforcing these laws.

"Not only so, but the commission is charged with the duty of regulating rates of railroads, motor busses and trucks and it seems certain that under bills now pending before the legislature the further regulation of trucks and busses will be required, thus putting on the commission a heavy burden in the administration of these various duties and rendering it practically impossible for the commission to give our present situation the attention which is so urgently needed.

"The oil states advisory committee, in its study of the important problems involved, reached the conclusion that a conservation commission should be created for the sole business of enforcing the laws of the various states as to the conservation of oil and gas, adopting and enforcing rules for the reasonable carrying out of such laws by such commission."

Hagen, Ciuci Win In Miami Matches

CORAL GABLES, Fla., March 16. (AP)—Walter Hagen and Henri Ciuci were $350 richer today by their victory in the Cables-Miami Biltmore open championship. The Haig and Ciuci tied for first honors in the events with 36 hole scores of 149 topping a field of 120 over the difficult Miami Biltmore course. Ralph Guldahl of Dallas turned in a 147 that was worth $50.

GUN BATTLE

Crews—were not hit by any of the bullets.

From three young Wilmington women who rode with Roberts on the truck from Goldsboro to Wilmington as passengers, the jury heard a slightly different version of the shooting.

Elizabeth Hines said she took the wheel when Roberts complained of a severe headache at Tin City, 40 miles from Wilmington, and was driving when they reached the bridge.

Roberts told her to stop when he saw the men on the bridge, she testified. Several men ran toward the truck, she said, and the shooting began. She did not know the men were officers or who fired the first shot, she added.

Betty Gibson, who testified she was a relative of Starling, said the officer ran up with a gun in his hand, and that Roberts said:

"Don't you girls get excited. I will take care of this."

"Mr. Roberts got out of the car," she continued, "and Mr. Starling ran up until they were right together, and the shooting began.

"I do not know who fired the first shot, because I turned my head. It sounded like a new war had started."

Dorothy Jackson, the third girl, corroborated the testimony of the other two.

No charges had been preferred against any of the officers last night.

THREE SLAIN IN ARREST ATTEMPT

MONTICELLO, Ind., Mar. 16. (AP)—A sheriff's attempt to arrest two brothers for bank robbery resulted in death to all three from gunfire at the home of the suspects' mother north of here yesterday.

Ray Fisher, 40, sheriff of White county, was shot in the head and instantly killed by Scott Talbutt, 43, as he started to read a warrant of the Tippecanoe county circuit court.

Then, officers said, Talbutt shot to death his brother, William Talbutt, 34, and committed suicide.

The warrant carried by Fisher charged participation in the $1,400 robbery of the Battleground, Ind., state bank last Feb. 6. A neighbor of the Talbutts, William C. Taylor, is under arrest at Covington, Ind., as a suspect in the robbery, in which three men took part.

The three men killed were boyhood friends and neighbors. Scott Talbutt was one of Fisher's strongest supporters in the political campaign last November which elected the sheriff to his second term.

are members of the league, which includes all of the state's 36 largest cities, of which Lubbock is one, Mr. Draper said.

The Texas league is affiliated with the American Municipal association. There are 30 state leagues in the United States and 10 in Canada. Mr. Draper last year was president of the American association.

Purpose Cited

"The purpose of the league," Mr. Draper said, "is to exchange ideas and information, and seek better municipal governments."

Slogan of the league is "substituting facts for guesses in local government," he said.

Mr. Draper will remain here through Tuesday. He came to Lubbock from Fort Worth.

Officers of the League of Texas Municipalities include:

President, City Attorney J. Boudin Rector of Austin; vice-president, Mayor M. H. Dreyer of Raymondville; vice-president, Mayor F. W. Hayden of Pilot Point, and immediate past president, City Manager E. E. McAdams of Waco.

City Manager J. Bryan Miller of Lubbock was president of the Texas City Managers association in 1928.

City Manager Lee H. Powell of Tyler now is head of that organization.

a striped candy cane, with the red stripes representing the knocks.

By removing the red stripes, only white candy would remain, the gas is surprisingly pure, the candy cane is one representing knock gases exist at all levels. They are as sharply defined as the red and white stripes.

For example, one "fraction" which can be obtained by distillation at 116.1 degrees knocks almost four times worse than another one which boils at only six-tenths of a degree cooler.

At 171 degrees the world's record big knock was discovered, a "fraction" knocking so hard it blew the steel pistons of its test engine into elliptical form. Samples only 8 degrees lower were almost normal.

Pennsylvania straight-run gasoline, said Dr. Pemke, for years of premium quality, received a setback with development of high compression engines and discovery of the knock in motor fuel.

But now, said Dr. Whitmore, there is prospect of converting about 65 to 80 per cent of Pennsylvania gasoline into anti-knock fuel.

JAIL BIDS TO BE RECEIVED TODAY

Bids for construction of Lubbock county's new jail were to be received today by the County Commissioners court at the courthouse here.

The building, which will replace the old jail already razed, will be erected on the northeast quarter of the county block. It will be immediately north of the old jail site, which is to be occupied by a federal building.

Plans for the new jail structure were drawn by S. B. Haynes, Lubbock architect, and provide for a three-story fireproof building of about 85x53 feet in size. Capacity will be 100 prisoners.

Estimates were that the building would not cost more than $100,000. Approximately $32,000 is in the jail fund. Warrants will be issued by the County Commissioners court for the rest of the cost.

Bell Tailors, Inc., brings you chain store buying power — big shop production power, and big sales power.

In our stores it has been our experience that the 2-for 1 sales policy further increases the savings that result to the customer from CHAIN STORE BUYING POWER and MASSIVE SHOP PRODUCTION the 2-for-1 selling plan effects a big savings by cutting two suits to the same measurement The increased sale volume under the 2-for-1 plan slashes the usual overhead and profit taken by every merchant on the original suit. The second suit being part of the original order requires no profit because you take it at the same time of the original purchase. Consequently, you will be convinced that you receive two suits of the season's newest materials with guaranteed tailoring for one regular price. All our merchandise is new. You will not find any shelf-worn or cheap goods in our store We would not have it. BAN LIFTED ON FIVE CLASSICS

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP)—Five literary classics once tabooed by Uncle Sam have obtained official sufferance in this country under liberalization of censorship effected by the 1930 tariff act.

The Arabian Nights, the Memoirs of Casanova, Rabelais' "Gargantua and Pantagruel," The Decameron of Boccacio, and Apuleius' "The Golden Ass" have been recognized by the treasury as classics and admitted for importation. Under this decision, faithful and unexpurgated translations have a clean bill of health. Certain editions, as those containing illustrations deemed obscene, still may be excluded.

Soon the admissibility of books dealing with birth-control is to have a test in a New York federal district court. Marie Stopes' British viewpoint on "Married Love", is the point of contention and the outcome will set a precedent.
