Make It A Habit To Check Customs

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

European travelers who love to shop would do well to display "An antique in the Trade and Foreign Things" explains Anthony Simonetti, chief assistant approver of merchandise at U.S. Customs, New York City.

"At the customs office you must pay duty on any article made since 1830. Only artistic antiques, produced before that date, are duty free," he explains.

"It happens, however, that thousands of people return each season with objects that they claim are duty-free because 'the man who sold it to me said so,'" he says.

Many antique dealers use the hundred-dollar rule in estimating antiques, says Simonetti, and their "antiques" invoice doesn't mean a thing when you are in the presence of custom experts.

Every year a large assortment of agricultural products from foreign countries are stopped at entry points. More than 63 per cent of all plant materials intercepted for violation of plant quarantine regulations last year were taken from luggage. The remainder was found in quarters and stores of vessels, cargo and mail.

Some of the 55,000 pounds of prohibited meat and meat products taken from passenger baggage last year came from countries known for foot-and-mouth disease or rinderpest, reports the Department of Agriculture.

It's amazing what some people attempt to bring in from abroad. Two travelers from Europe were found to be bringing in oranges, pears, grape cuttings, tangerines, lemons, ears of corn, ham, sausage, fava beans, fig, citrus and plants in soil.

Even if its main prize sausage give up the idea of trying to smuggle it in. It's better to get the recipe and make it yourself, say the custom men. There are restrictions on salmon, hognose, and bacon. You may bring in dressed poultry, however, providing the heads and feet have been removed.

When it comes to bringing in live birds, the U.S. Public Health Service takes over. Parakeets and parrots are suspect until examined, and then may only be brought in as pets if the owner signs a statement that the bird has been in his personal possession for four months.

Giraffes have tongues up to 18 inches in length.

ANOTHER ROCKEFELLER PHILANTHROPY

'Conversation Pit' May Be Yen For Two-Story Return

By INEZ ROBB

There are those citizens who believe that the barbecue pit has ruined suburban life beyond recall and will, eventually, lead to mass returns to metropolitan living.

In fact, such adherents are convinced that the barbecue pit will do more for urban renewal than the gradual disappearance of commuter train service, traffic congestion and Saturday nights at the country club. And these prophets cannot simply be fobbed off as visionaries who are fed up with too much smoke and barbecue sauce on all the vittles.

But as disillusionment with the barbecue pit sets in, a pit of another kidney is rising on the horizon to the sweet acclaim of all those 50-to-75-cent slick paper mags that specialize in gracious living. I refer to the "conversation pit," which is the latest architectural development in home building.

The plus ultra in living or drawing rooms today is a pit say 10 feet in diameter or 12 feet square, smack in the middle of the landscape and sunk from two to three feet below the level of the rest of the living-room floor. (If you are planning on remodeling, any competent bulldozer can handle the job.)

Two or three steps lead down into the excavation whose sides are usually surrounded by luxurious banquettes, the better to stimulate conversation. Probably the thoughtful host will furnish a Momen lung for easy access.

Anyway, this is where host, hostess and guests assemble in the home moderne for conversation. Chat-chat is on the upper level. But world affairs, national problems and community matters, such as algae how to get rid of in the swimming pool, are discussed ed in the pit. Such a dedicated spot is no place to rehash bridge games, golf scores or why Lulu is leaving Freddie after having given him the best years of her life.

As I look back over the architectural fashions of my time, it seems to me that the "dropped living room," the last word in gracious living just before World War II, was the beginning of what has grown the postwar split-level look and now the split-level living room.

The old dropped living room was the first sign of the split-level craze, come to think of it. In the beginning, the careless hostess who forgot to warn her guest that the hall or foyer dropped a couple of feet into the living room was apt to be confronted with a guest who flew through the air with considerable ease, made a threepoint landing and wrecked both himself and the furniture.

It seems to me that the owner of a conversation pit faces the same hazard. I have seen pictures of a dozen fashionable living rooms with such pits but none boasted a guard rail, which is the most elemental precaution as well as a fine place to hang nylons to dry overnight.

If I were the guest in a home with a yawning and no aspersions intended in re the conversation pit in the middle of the living room, I am entitled, it seems to me, to expect my host and hostess to equip me with a parachute or else some kind of protective barricade around the hole. Or, anyway, an accident insurance policy.

Can it be possible, that all this split-level living, beginning with the dropped living room, is a hidden yen to return to the big old two-story family-house on which Americans turned their back when they embraced the one-story ranch house?

Is the conversation pit, with two or three steps down into its recesses, just another indication that the United States is ready for the revival of comeback of the old staircase? Who knows—maybe within the next year or so some bright young architect will invent a new wrinkle, the second story, and gather all those split-level steps into a single flight of steps.

Few, if any, major firms actually list any such title as "junior executive" on their command roster.

Here are a few definitions of the junior executive, gleaned from a random poll of Manhattan office employees:

"A junior executive is what a guy tells his mother-in-law he is to explain why he doesn't make more than $85 a week."

"He's the assistant bookkeeper who was put in charge of office parties and picnics when the automatic computing system came in."

"He's the fellow who buys a $15 attache case to carry his lunch in."

"In our office he's the joker who married the boss's niece."

"Anybody under 35 too proud to belong to a union and too poor to belong to a country club."

Junior Exec Is Today's Mystery Man

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The mystery man of today's business world is the "junior executive."

"Who is he? What is he? Where is he?"

The junior executive appears to be a post-war phenomenon. Now, it seems, he has become the second lieutenant of industry. He is fresh from the ranks but still far, far from the command post.

In the insurance and clothing ads it is easy to tell the junior executive. He is young and eager and has his cordovan slip-on loafers prominently on the leader of success.

He has an Ivy League air of studied neatness. His hair is two sizes too small for him, his suit looks as if it had been shrunk to fit him. His tie is as slim as his wallet.

Both his chin and shoulders are as square as he is. He lives in a small white house with a small white mortgage, a neat blonde wife and two neat children—a pretty blonde daughter, and a mischievous freckle-faced son.

In the ads there is no doubt about who or what where the junior executive is. He is the young fellow on his way up. He is a clean-cut, crew-cut go-getter.

But in real life the picture isn't clear at all. The question, "What is a junior executive?" is about as puzzling as the older business mystery, "Just what does a vice president do?"

Few, if any, major firms actually list any such title as "junior executive" on their command roster.

Here are a few definitions of the junior executive, gleaned from a random poll of Manhattan office employees:

"A junior executive is what a guy tells his mother-in-law he is to explain why he doesn't make more than $85 a week."

Russia, Red China Stir Jap Discord

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia and Red China are believed by authorities here to be making a desperate and well-financed drive to convert the political turmoil in Japan into a cold war disaster for the United States.

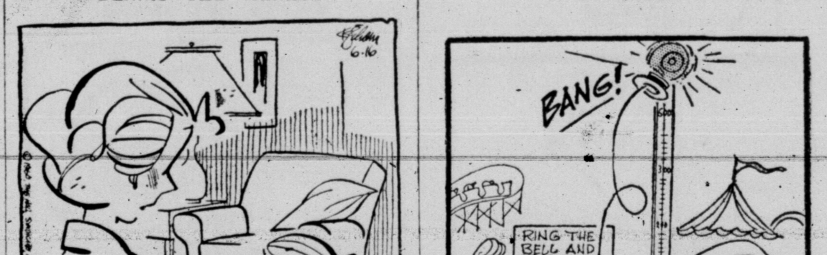

Highly placed Washington officials say privately they are convinced that Communist money has been pouring into Japan along with anti-American propaganda. Similar views have been expressed by Japanese government officials.

Hard-core Communist agitators are believed to have worked around the clock to force Premier Nobusuke Kishi to cancel President Eisenhower's visit, as Kishi did today after a hurried Cabinet meeting.

The Eisenhower trip was a major target. The cancellation was likely to be acclaimed by the Reds and student and labor groups aligned with them as a major victory. In their view, Eisenhower and the United States stand to lose prestige not only in Japan but over the world.

The more vital aim for the Communists however, is to defeat U.S.-Japanese security pacts through which this country undertakes to protect the vulnerable island empire and to continue its own air and naval bases there.

If the treaty is now defeated the Communist powers will have strong basis for hope of a neutralist Japan, pulling away from the United States and moving toward closer ties with the Soviet Union and Red China. Because of Japan's strategic position with industrial wealth this sequence of developments would constitute a fatal blow to United States and Allied policies in the Far East.

Softball Loop Set To Open

Snyder's newly established church-sponsored softball league will "test its spurs" here Monday night as a twin bill is lined up to get the infant loop of the launching pad and into orbit.

Tuesday night saw the election of officers and the setting up of league rules and bylaws in a meeting attended by the six managers of the member teams. Will Cleveland was chosen to head up the league as president, with "Nig" Barnett named vice-president and Dean Medina secretary-treasurer.

The league has been good with Colonial Baptist, Greenhill Baptist, First Presbyterian, and Mount Olive Baptist set to field teams in the loop.

It is not mandatory that the players be members or attend the churches sponsoring their respective teams, but it is desired that the majority of the participants be in that category. "Recruiting" of performers from neighboring cities or outlying areas will not be permitted, as all players must be Snyder County residents.

League Still Open

Epiphany has also been placed on the calendar for the league, but additions, if made to the league, and any church so desiring may enter by contacting Cleveland prior to June 30 in order to enter prior to however.

The setup calls for all games to be played at night exclusively, and they will be reeled off at North Park, located just off 13th Street. League play will be confined to Monday and Friday nights with two games each Monday, having starting times of 7 and 9 o'clock and a single game being scheduled each Friday beginning at 8 o'clock. Any non-league games lined up at later dates against outside opposition will be played on Saturday nights.

The league-inaugural will be this Monday, June 20, as Colonial Hills and First Presbyterian meet in the first game of the night.

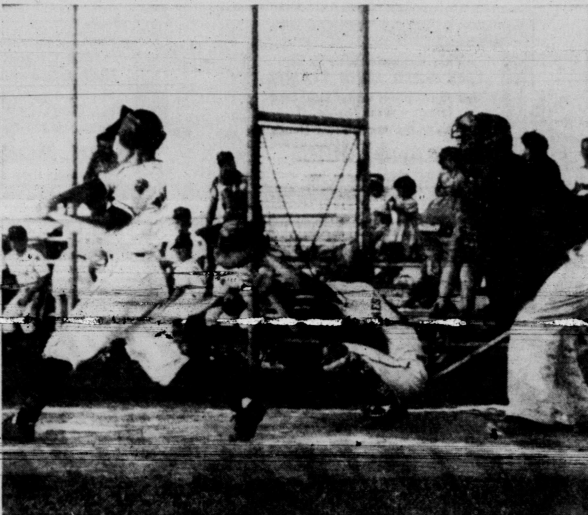

and Mount Olive First Methodist and Greenhill Baptist Friday, June 24, in other early league action.

Features Split Slate

Plans call for a 10-week slate of activity which will terminate August 27, with the season being split into two divisions in order to determine the league champ.

A double round robin slate of games will be utilized over the ten week span, with each member team playing each of the other participating nine teams.

Tentative plans also call for the setting up of a concession stand at the playing field to help in the financing of the purchase of trophies to be awarded at the season's end.

MICKEY MANTLE SWING—An unidentified Little League slugger takes a bodacious cut at the stitched sphere during action of the post Monday evening merrill on its way, as Athletic catcher Keith Noble crouches behind him. The Athletics won the game handily, 14-2, to bring their season record to 4-4, while the Indians slipped to 5-4 as a result of the loss. (Photo by Thomas Boyd.)

YANKS FLUSTERED

Hector Flubs As A's Pull Into Tie

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Because what should have been a sacrifice fly was converted into a doubleplay, the New York Yankees have only a share of the American League lead instead of being all alone on top.

The boo-boo came in the third inning of Wednesday night's game at Kansas City. Hector Lopez led third base "too soon" on a fly ball to center field.

In the National League, home run deficits and held the Yankees to a 7-7, 12-inning tie.

When rain finally called a halt the Yankees were all square with Cleveland. And the Baltimore Orioles, who split a twin-night pair with the Indians, were just one percentage-point back.

The Chicago White Sox regained fourth place with a 6-4 decision over Washington. Boston spilled Detroit to fifth place by beating the Tigers 4-3 in 10 innings.

In the National League, the Pittsburgh Pirates gained a three-game lead—largest of the season in either league—by walling second-place San Francisco 14-6.

Third-place Milwaukee slipped five games behind by splitting a twonight doubleheader with Chicago. The Cubs won the second game 8-5 after losing 5-4. St. Louis defeated Cincinnati 6-0. Los Angeles clubbed Philadelphia 14-2.

That third-inning run that never got home kept the Yankees from an eighth straight victory. Home run by Yogi Berra and Cleo Boyer sent them into the last of the ninth with a 4-1 lead. But the A's then went to work on starter Ralph Terry and relievers Bob Shantz and Johnny James, scoring three for a tie on Norm Siebern's sacrifice fly and a pair of bases-loaded walks.

The Yankees scored three more in the 12th, capped by Roger Mar-

Ryne Duren, a single by Jerry Lumpe and a triple by Whitey Herzog.

An eight-run eighth inning did it for the Orioles in the second game after home runs by Al Platerik and Gus Triandos had overhauled a 5-0 Cleveland lead. Jim Busby, just back from the minors, doubled twice and drove in two runs in the rally. Jim Grant (4-2) was the loser. Hoyt Wilhelm (3-4) won it.

The Tribe took the opener with four runs with two out in the first inning against Steve Barber (5-3). The first of Johnny Romano's pair of two-run homers settled it. Jim Perry (7-2) put away his sixth in a row.

Roy Sievers drove in four runs for the White Sox with two homers against his old mates. The second cracked a 4-4 tie in the seventh and beat Pete Ramos (3-8). Gerry Staley (7-2) was the winner.

Consecutive singles by Pete Ramos, Ted Williams and Frank Malzone did it for the Red Sox. Tom Morgan (3-1) was the loser and Mike Fomelle (4-1) the winner, both in relief.

Between You And Me

By Jerry Jackson

Being a simple man with simple tastes and a simple mind, alas! I can neither sympathize nor rejoice with Little Mike Muffet, as I have never knowingly sat on a tuffet and wouldn't recognize a curd nor a whey should one stop me in the street. It is a source of extreme consternation to me how a guy like Jake LaMotta can be allowed to go scot-free.

LaMotta, the pug-nosed Bronx Bull of the '40s and onetime middleweight titleholder, has told all to a Senate investigating committee, giving professional boxing still another black eye. But the would-be prosecutor's hands are tied very nearly behind his back, and even if they weren't LaMotta couldn't be touched with a ten-foot pole.

Some hide conveniently behind the Fifth Amendment, but LaMotta used a safer "out"—the statute of limitations. This questionable statute allows a guilty person to go his chosen way after a specified period of time provided that he is able to escape the long arm of the law up until the stipulated termination date. And as such, it represents the granddaddy of all "escape" clauses.

FIXED-EX-MIDDLEWEIGHT boxing Champ Jake LaMotta told Senators in Washington, D. C., his 1947 losing bout with Billy Fox was fixed. He repudiated a statement naming the alleged fixers in his testimony before the Senate Monopoly Committee. LaMotta said he was offered $100,000 to lose the fight but rejected the cash and agreed to throw it in exchange for a guaranteed shot at the middleweight title. (AP Wirephoto.)

He's Only a Boid In A Guilty Rage

THUS, LaMotta not only has admitted to the committee that he was guilty of being a party to a fixed fight back in 1947, but also admitted lied in previous investigations so as to protect his own skin.

His testimony, of course, implicates others, and some of those "others" had indicated that his life would be in jeopardy should he confess all. In answer to those telephoned threats he proclaimed:

That, "...I'm not afraid of none of them rats." Whether their rats will call his bluff and follow through with their threat of extermination remains to be seen.

It looks as though he would be safer in the hoosegown than he is in his present state, however. He would do well to steer clear of all dark alleys for a while, to say the least. Or even light alleys, for that matter.

And Switching To The "Sport Of Kings" ...

CARELESS CURL came home first at Ruidoso Downs Sunday, and Cinch showed in the fifth the Friday previous. Both horses belong to LeRoy Spire, a Snyderite.

Careless Curl's purse amounted to $722.53, the third richest of the day for the twelve races run. Looked to be heavily favored, too, as the win paid only $3.10—the lowest of the day.

Cinch paid $2.90 to show, and earned a purse of $64.40.

Full Field To Be Featured At Ruidoso

A pair of sprinters, one for Thoroughbreds at four furlongs, and a AAA Quarter Horse event at four hundred yards, have both attracted a full field on Friday's card at RUIDOSO DOWNS as the result area track moves into its fifth weekend of horse racing.

The Thoroughbred feature, headlined The Smokey Bear, and fashioned for 3-year-olds and upward at the half mile distance, has 10 of the most feet-footed Thoroughbreds in the Allowance class, including the hard-hitting Saucy Sissy. This 4-year-old, chestnut speedster sired by the great Spotted Bull—Saucy Sissy, was almost unbeatable at the short distances last year and should be sharp in this one, with the advantage of number one post position making her hard to handle.

Her strongest contention, could come from Otto Harbort's Beaula Faye, a four time winner last year, and Black Julia, a strong contender in all outlets.

'ROTTEN FROM TOP TO BOTTOM' Ingo, Floyd Also To Be Called Up

By G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators said today they are watching for any moves by racketeers to cash in on the Johansson-Patterson heavyweight championship bout next Monday.

Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) told a reporter he had authorized this scrutiny.

Kefauver heads the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee now investigating underworld influence in professional boxing. Two days of public hearings which ended Wednesday concluded the first phase of the study.

John Dixon, the subcommittee's chief counsel, charged that boxing is "rotten from top to bottom" and needs federal regulation.

The subcommittee already had disclosed that Ingo Johansson, the Swedish world heavyweight champion, and Floyd Patterson will be witnesses in later hearings on alleged irregularities concerning the promotion side of their first bout a year ago.

Kefauver said he felt it was only logical that, "if we look at the first Johansson-Patterson bout, we should also look at the other."

John G. Bonomi, Dixon's associate counsel, added that "all aspects of every important bout are under scrutiny.

During the two days of hearings:

1. Former middleweight champion Jake LaMotta related that he had lost a fixed fight in 1947 to Billy Fox. He said he turned down a $100,000 bribe offer, but agreed to lose in return for the promise of a future chance at the title he finally won in 1960.
2. Irving Mitchell, a convict and former money lender in the underworld, swore he has been threatened with harm if he tells what he knows of money deals in the boxing business. He invoked the Fifth Amendment.
3. New York police detective Frank Marrone, a specialist in boxing rackets, testified that racketeer Frankie Carbo is the undisputed overlord of professional boxing. Marrone said Carbo has delegated iron hand powers to mobster Frank Blumy. Blumy is to run the sport until Carbo finishes a two-year prison sentence for undercover activities in boxing.

Washington's Camille Pasqual won six of seven decisions against Kansas City last season.

Palmer Still Man To Beat At Denver

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

DENVER (AP) — Despite a course tabbed so easy that even the boys have as good a chance as the men, Arnold Palmer rides a solid 4-1 favorite today as first-round play begins in the National Open golf tournament at meek and mild-high Cherry Hills Country Club.

Even a somewhat balky putter, the absence of his trademark charm, and some fantastic practice rounds by many of his challengers failed to dampen the enthusiasm for the husky, handsome 29-year-old Masters champion from Lagonia, Pa.

Palmer, who meets a challenge like an old friend, tees off at 1:12 p.m., nearly six hours after the first threesome in the select field of 110 professionals and amateurs gets this 60th Open under way. He has good company, playing with 1949-1950 Winner Cary Middlecott of Memphis, Tenn., and the 1955 champ, Jack Fleck of Los Angeles.

Eighteen holes today and another 18 Friday over the deceptively short 7,044-yard, par 35-37, Cherry Hills course will cut the bulky field to the low 50 and ties for Saturday's 36-hole wind-up.

Fry Inks With ACC

ABILENE, Tex. (AP)—Abilene Christian College Coach N. L. (Nick) Nicholson announced Wednesday that Danny Fry of Liberty will enroll here next fall.

Fry, 190-pound all-district selection, won three letters in football, one at Jasper and two at Liberty.

Prior to 1933 only six states had legalized parimutuel betting.

DANGER, BRIDGE OUT!—Supports have rotted and fallen away, railings have disappeared with the years, and there is no longer any solid structure on which to put repairs on the old county bridge over Deep Creek on Twenty-first Street. With no possible way of making repairs and making the bridge safe, the city council decided that with the help of Precinct 2 Commissioner Bill Herring, the city would construct a new bridge. Above, City Engineer Bill Kimzie and City Manager Roy Dunlap look over the structure in preparation to starting tearing it down. The bridge has been closed for weeks.

Storms Move Into Parts Of Midwest

By The Associated Press
A line of thunderstorms powered by strong winds moved into parts of the Midwest today.

Northwest Missouri and eastern Kansas were particularly in the line of bad weather, the Chicago Weather Bureau reported.

The bureau forecast winds of up to 65 miles an hour for the storms evidently peeled off a series of front weather that raked parts of the Midwest Wednesday night.

Tornadoes, real and unconfirmed, hit Nebraska and Michigan, winds up to 80 m.p.h. hit some communities along with heavy rain and hail.

One man was killed and three others injured east of Holdrege, Neb. when a tornado toppled a grainery.

Utility lines collapsed, windows crashed as heavy rain and hail hit a score of towns in central and south central Nebraska. A small tornado hit Lincoln, causing some damage to buildings on the State Hospital grounds.

Ten persons were injured when a tornado hit several trailer homes near Elkhorn, Neb.

Powerful winds toppled out buildings, trees and utility lines in south central Michigan.

Hail, wind and rain also struck Iowa communities. The Weather Bureau reported 3.50 inches of rain in 1 1/2 hours at Keosauqua, Iowa. Des Moines had winds of up to 55 m.p.h.

Early temperatures today ranged from the 40s in the Colorado Rockies to the 50s and 60s in the East, Midwest and Pacific Coast, the 80s in the south and 90s in the desert southwest.

Nonsubversive Affidavits For Students Are Dropped

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has voted to repeal a requirement for nonsubversive affidavits from college students receiving loans or grants under the 1950 Defense Education Act.

Senators voted to drop the requirement for affidavits from the act which provides for a maximum imprisonment and $10,000 fine for anyone who applies for a loan or grant under the act while he is a member of a subversive organization. Past membership within five years also must be disclosed.

Left unchanged was the law's requirement that any student seeking to qualify must take an oath of allegiance to this country.

The law provides scholarship and fellowship aid to college students.

Action on the long-disputed repeal measure came suddenly Wednesday night as the Senate accepted a compromise amendment by Sen. Winston L. Prouty (R-Vt.).

The original bill by Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) and others would merely have repealed the affidavit provision.

After hours of sharp debate, the sponsors' decision to accept the amendment came so hastily that many senators were out of the chamber and missed the voice vote passing the measure.

Sen. Spessard L. Holland (D-La.) one of those said he wanted to study the revised version overnight and entered a motion to reconsider. This blocked the bill from going to the House.

Kennedy said he would have preferred the straight repeal, but would go along with the compromise, particularly because he believed it meant a better chance of winning House passage.

Mysterious Voice Gone

LIBERAL Kan. (AP)—The dogs in the dog catcher's truck have stopped talking and no more are strange voices heard in the county jail.

Several days ago dog catcher George Helms radioed that he heard voices under the hood of the truck from the dog house in the rear and from the sidewalks outside the jail.

Police Chief Ralph Smith said prisoners continually heard voices calling to them from outside the cells.

The mysterious voices disappeared when Martin Dwyer, 42, of Sayre, Okla., was released after working out a fine for drunkenness by helping the dog catcher.

Police learned Wednesday Dwyer was a ventriloquist.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hagins, 2108 Fortieth Street, are the parents of twin sons weighing 4 pounds 14 ounces and 5 pounds 7 ounces born at 10:03 a.m. Wednesday in Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Mario Ramirez, Ninth Street and Avenue R, are the parents of a son weighing 8 pounds 8 ounces, born in Cogdell at 12:03 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Nobles, 510 Twenty-eighth Street, are the parents of a son weighing 6 pounds 14 ounces born Wednesday at 6:55 p.m. in Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sels, 707 Twenty-eighth Street, are the parents of a son weighing 7 pounds 8 ounces born in Cogdell Memorial Hospital Wednesday at 6:20 p.m.

Examinations Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Service Commission said Wednesday it will conduct examinations for the 45,815 job as postmaster at Athens, Tex. Applications must be received or postmarked not later than July 12.

The examination will determine which applicants are eligible for the job.

Files Own Papers For Commitment

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Emery T. Newbern, 32, will have plenty of time to read law now. He committed himself to Camarillo State Hospital Tuesday.

Newbern, arrested nearly 200 times for drunkenness, was 74-riety as a jail cell barrister by drafting numerous appeals. On one of these, the California Supreme Court ruled a section of California's common drunk law unconstitutional.

The merchant seaman filed his own commitment petition in Superior Court after another branch of the court declined to order him to Camarillo.

Says Rocky Left Without A Party

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) said today Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has become "a man without a party" because of criticism from his fellow Republicans.

In an address prepared for a luncheon of the Women's National Democratic Club, Symington—a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination—said:

"Those of us who have been trying to show the people the true course of events under the current Republican leadership, were joined last week by a new and powerful voice.

"Like a well-placed scalpel, Gov. Rockefeller's statement opened up his administration and laid bare its policies of weakness, of drift, or economic stagnation, of neglect for the aged and the poor, of indifference toward human dignity and civil rights.

"The newspapers said his remarks would stimulate discussion within the Republican party. They were too optimistic.

"The cannons of the Old Guard fired a volley of contempt. When the smoke had cleared, the governor was left standing in the middle of the field, discouraged disillusioned, a man with a party."

"The New York governor, in recent statements, criticized part of the Eisenhower administration's program and asked Vice President Richard M. Nixon to spell out his view on key issues."

"Nixon—in turn—defended the Eisenhower program and stated

Grass Fires Plague Many Texas Areas

By The Associated Press
Widely scattered grass fires plagued Texas Wednesday as temperatures soared past the 100-degree mark in many areas.

One of the biggest fires was in Concho County where an estimated 3,000 to 5,000 acres of rangeland burned.

Fort Worth counted 39 grass fires during the day. On a ranch at nearby Aledo 360 acres were burned.

Other grass fires were reported around Austin, Bastrop, Ballinger and Medina.

There was no report of damage to homes or other buildings.

Prisoner Takes A Walk For Himself

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Robert F. Boyle, 19, a trustee of the county jail, took an officer's dog for a walk Wednesday night.

Later he took a walk for himself. Officers said they thought Boyle may have wanted to see his first child, born shortly after he began Feb. 10.

Prices Can Still Skyrocket, Despite Signs Of Deflation

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Prices can still go up despite the belief of many economists that the threat of further monetary inflation is linked for the time being.

The men who figure out the consumer price index in Washington say there should be little rise in the over-all cost of living for awhile, with seasonal changes in the price of food affecting the index most.

But here and there prices continue to creep higher, and the business activity gains up in the fall index, as now indicated the trend will be higher prices are expected in some areas, notwithstanding the easing in interest rates, the greater and often surplus capacity to produce, the keener sales competition.

Men's clothing is expected to be a bit dearer in the fall. Makers say the prices will reflect wage increases.

The average cost of cars is low, that wage increases are set for the fall. But that is mainly because of the advance of the automobile market.

Eastern railroads are talking about a hike in freight rates. Railroad wage rates are going up.

Costlier freight would hit manufacturers and merchants first, and trickle down later to consumers.

Wage scales are expected to rise in several important industries this year, and some increases will be automatic under old contracts.

The most that is now expected for food prices is that they will change with the seasons. But there are other factors here.

In the case of basic crops, there is government support of prices. And in that big factor in the final price of food—the cost of processing, reducing home labor, and distributing—the trend is still upward.

'Blanket Sunday' Observance Set

Next Sunday, June 19, will be "Blanket Sunday" at most churches in Texas.

Purpose of the observance is to collect blankets for millions of people in the world who will be facing winter weather in a few months without blankets.

Many churches will send blankets and quarters through the Church World Service for distribution to refugees throughout the world. Estimates are that over one million blankets are needed immediately if they are to be distributed in time to prevent suffering.

The Church World Service is asking "a blanket and a quarter" from each donor. The quarter is used for processing and transportation costs.

The Rev. Harry Vanderpool, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Snyder, which is one of the churches planning to observe "Blanket Sunday," said the need for blankets is acute.

"As chairman of the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church for Northwest Texas, I was in a position to learn the other day that many people in distressed areas of the world have no mattresses to sleep on, and no cover," Rev. Vanderpool said.

Local area residents are urged to bring spare blankets to the church of their choice for shipping to needy people overseas.

Grace Lutheran Church here will observe "Blanket Sunday" as a part of the Lutheran World Relief, while many other churches will send their blankets through the Church World Service.

Several organizations adopted a resolution calling special attention to the need for blankets.

"Recognizing the constant need for clothing—and the emergency need for blankets—we challenge the churches to new and vigorous efforts to obtain blankets and other desperately needed items of clothing," the resolution said. It was adopted by a clothing conference sponsored jointly by Church World Service United Church Women, United Church Men, the United Christian Youth Movement, the National Student Christian Federation, and the Office for Councils of Churches.

DeGaulle Tries To Soothe Algerians

By HARVE HUDSON

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle made another conciliatory gesture toward the Algerian nationalist rebels Tuesday night, but it was too early to tell whether his move would lead to a break in the fighting.

First reactions to the president's radio-TV speech were generally favorable—except from the right wingers who want France to maintain her firm hold on the Algerian administration.

De Gaulle reaffirmed his policy of self-determination for Algeria after the fighting ends. He again asked the nationalist leaders to come to Paris to discuss a cease-fire.

He promised that "everybody

yes everybody" will be able to take part in "discussions which will fix the conditions of the referendum, the electoral campaign and the control of the vote."

This has been one of the touchy points with the Algerian nationalist leadership. They have been unwilling to order their troops to stop fighting without assurances they would be able to help set conditions for the self-determination referendum.

The Algerian government in exile issued a statement in Tunis Monday saying "the guarantees of a free vote of the Algerian people cannot be fixed in a unilateral fashion. The guarantees should necessarily be arranged by the two parties to the conflict."

Some formidable differences of opinion still must be overcome. But the first unofficial reaction from the nationalist leaders in Tunis was cautiously favorable.

De Gaulle was vague on the timing of events.

"Once more I turn in the name of France toward the leaders of the insurrection," he said. "I declare to them that we are awaiting them here to find with them an honorable end to the fighting which is continuing to settle the destination of the weapons and to assure the fate of the combatants. After that everything will be done so that the Algerian people will be able to speak in peaceful conditions."

This left open the question whether the cease-fire must become effective before talks are held on the details of the self-determination vote. In the past the rebel leaders have insisted that these conditions must be set before they could order their fighters to lay down their arms.

Sentence In Beating Case Is Upheld

AUSTIN (AP)—The maximum 15 year sentence given an Abilene man for brutally beating his infant daughter was upheld Wednesday by the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Joseph Leroy Hignett was convicted of assaulting Barbara Lynn Hignett, three months old Jan. 8, 1959. He was sentenced to 15 years.

Hignett was tried once before and given 10 years, but the conviction was reversed because the state had called Mrs. Hignett as a state witness.

A doctor, who examined the baby, testified she had a fractured thick bone, bone separations or fractures of both legs below the knees, fractures of the left arm, fractures of four ribs and multiple bruises. The child remained in traction six weeks.

Hignett claimed she fell off a chair. Later he said he was alone with the baby and struck his finger down her throat when she burped.

"I just hit her and hit her a lot of times," Hignett said later.

His wife, called by the defense, testified the baby was yanked off the bed by a three-year-old boy.

The court held that the state was properly allowed to cross examine her after saying the child was hurt in a fall from the bed.

"It would be difficult to envision a set of facts showing an adequate cause for such an assault by a same man upon a three months old baby or showing a purpose of the person—without inflicting such injury by an assault other than to take the life of the baby," wrote Judge K. K. Woodley in the court's opinion.

Young Convicts Not Seeking Gunplay

OTTAWA, Kan. (AP)—Two heavily armed young convicts said they didn't want to shoot anyone as officers surrounded their hiding place Tuesday.

"We didn't want to get shot ourselves, either," said Carl Roy Chase, 19.

Chase and Jay Lea King, 20, had the four guns they took in escaping from a Kansas prison guard last Friday. The fugitives, hiding in a children's playhouse, didn't touch the guns when three officers crashed through the door.

Asked where they spent their five days of freedom, Chase said, "We just roamed around seeing the country."

Chase and King escaped while being transferred from the state reformatory to the penitentiary. They were serving terms totaling 35 years.

Whoopers Endangered

TORONTO, Canada (AP)—A rail line to the Great Slave Lake in the Northwest Territories is threatening the extinction of the last 49 whooping cranes.

The Audubon Society of Canada said the railway would run through the northern portion of the Wood Buffalo National Park, the only known nesting place of the birds in Canada.

In an appeal to Northern Affairs Minister Alvin Hamilton, the society stated, "We in Canada have a responsibility to protect nesting grounds and when one considers the immensity of our Northwest Territories, it is a shame to have a handful of hard-pressed birds very modest indeed."

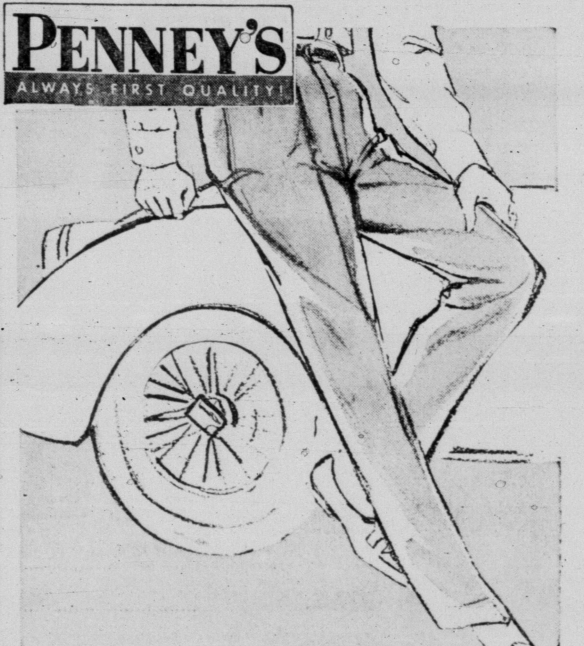

The society urged the minister to make the crane's nesting ground a sanctuary to save them from extinction and suggested the railway use an alternative route farther west.

ROTAN BOUND—The Scurry County Sheriff's posse set off today for the Fisher County Junior Rodeo at Rotan just rarin' to bring back another trophy to add to the growing collection of the young organization. They are spreading goodwill among other riding clubs and at the same time inviting them to come to the Snyder Rodeo in July.

Hollywood Losing Grip, Says Hunter

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — As if things didn't look gloomy enough, here's Tab Hunter with the observation:
"I'm afraid Hollywood is losing its position as movie capital of the world. Everything seems to be shifting toward Europe. The strikes didn't help—both the actors' and the writers'—and production is getting lower and lower."
"But even without the strikes, it looks as though Hollywood is losing out. Movies are making more money in foreign countries than they do in the United States. So why not shoot the pictures abroad?"

"Americans are too lazy to go to the movies as a habit anymore."
"They'll go out for 'Ben-hur'—that kind of attraction—but otherwise, they'd rather stay home and watch TV."
If he's right, it's a pity. Hunter sounds like a convert to TV—he is. And so the movies lose another promising star.

His detractors might argue that Tab never won any awards with his acting. Maybe not, but he is an attractive personality of the kind that Hollywood used to build into household names. He has appeared creditably in top films and has a wide following among the younger set.

Now TV will reap what the movies have sown.

"I like the picture business," he declared. "But an actor just can't rely on it any more. Sure, I could work all the time in cheap cheap pictures or else go to Europe for films. But I don't want to."

"TV is the coming thing—in fact, it's here. So I decided to join it." He'll be busting through in a show called the Tab Hunter show. The gimmick has him playing a cartoonist who lives in a Malibu Beach house. It just happens that all kinds of beautiful babes keep trailing or swimming to his door.

Regime Fails To Understand Mood Of A Turbulent World

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Until this spring President Eisenhower's last months in office looked like a series of triumphs in a world that stank him for helping to make it calm. This was the grand illusion.
The world was not calm. The national disaster He will leave office perhaps the most humiliated president ever lived, and one of the most baffled.
For reasons not yet clear but which need explaining Eisenhower and his administration bumbled into repeated humiliations because of failure to understand the mood and reactions of friend and foe.

When Japanese Premier Nobusuke Kishi today called off Eisenhower's trip to Tokyo, under the violence and passionate protests of his people it was only the latest of the disasters.
A few months ago this was the prospect.
A summit conference with Premier Nikita Khrushchev and then a triumphal tour of Russia followed immediately by wild acclaim in the Philippines, Formosa, Korea and Japan.

In Korea and Turkey — two pivotal nations in American military alliances in the East and West — the presidents of those countries were overthrown because they had degenerated into dictators.
There is no evidence the Eisenhower administration in any way had been prepared for these overtures or had in any way sought to avoid what happened.
When the American U2 spy plane was brought down over Russia the administration in which Eisenhower at the time seemed to take no leading or even very active part began a series of almost incredible stumblings.
First it stalled, then it alibied, then it confessed to the spying. This was all done so clumsily it left the United States embarrassed before the world.

The Eisenhower administration had had four years of aerial spying on Russia to prepare for such an accident as the capture of one of the planes.
When the time came it was totally unprepared.
Worse, the had handling drove Khrushchev into violent opposition. The Russian wrecked the summit conference, humiliated Eisenhower before the world, continued to belittle him later, and called off his trip to Russia.
At this point Eisenhower, or his advisers, could have called off his Asian trip because already thousands of left-wing Japanese — ranging from Communists to radical and neutralist students and laborers — were in violent opposition to the new American-Japanese defense agreement.
Nevertheless, the decision to visit Japan remained unchanged. Once Eisenhower set out upon his journey, it was too late, or so it seemed, for him to call it off.
Now he has had to back down without even the free choice of doing so. The bloody rioting of Wednesday forced the Kishi government to tell Eisenhower to get away.
Once again the United States had lost face around the world.

DAIRYING IS FUN for these two youngsters especially when it comes to feeding this brand new four-day-old Holstein that will grow up and join their daddy's dairy herd and help send them to college. Mark Mathis watches sister Lou Alice give the calf milk fresh from the cows. Their father, Wayland Mathis, is one of the eight dairy farmers left in Scurry County. Mathis estimates that among them they bring in between $125,000 and $150,000 annually. Before the oil boom there were 32 dairy farms in Scurry.

Texas Republicans Take Slap At Sen. Johnson In Session

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Republicans slapped at Sen. Lyndon Johnson frequently at Tuesday's state GOP convention, both from the rostrum and in a resolution.
A resolution adopted by delegates declared:
"Whereas, Lyndon Johnson's voting record has been rated 90 per cent liberal by the Americans for Constitutional Action, non-partisan research study of congressional voting records; and
"Whereas, he was elected to Congress in the '30s on an ultra liberal New Deal platform from which he has rarely varied; and
"Whereas, in 1938 Lyndon Johnson supported the infamous Supreme Court 'packing' bill such that no lawyer or judge who honors his profession can view Johnson without suspicion; and
"Whereas, Johnson's support of welfare state and massive spending measures illustrates that he goes right down the line with the big labor bosses; and
"Whereas, Johnson voted against every significant attempt to strengthen the weak Kennedy-Eisenhower reform bill and finally even voted against Sen. McClellan's 'labor bill of rights' which was designed to give rank and file workers protection from the oppression of their union bosses; and
"Whereas, Johnson has never initiated a single piece of major legislation as a congressman or senator but on the contrary his main claim to fame has been power gained through compromises; and
"Whereas, in these crucial times America's leaders must not be men of compromise but of known and tested convictions and principles in the fight with communism and socialism; and
"Whereas, no Texan who respects honor and justice can be very proud of Johnson's questionable primary nomination to the Senate in 1948, or the irregularities in infamous ballot box 13;

Fired Prof To Appeal

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—A biology professor fired for airing unorthodox views on premarital sex and turned down by the University of Illinois board of trustees in a bid to keep his job, now will appeal.
His attorney, Don Moore, also says Leo F. Koch, 44, currently is looking for a job. Moore said Koch has "a classic case of free speech" and predicted he will be upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court. Moore said the appeal will be filed either in Champaign or Chicago.
At a meeting Tuesday, the trustees turned down a plea by Koch's attorney that he be reinstated. They approved the recommendation of university President David Dodds Henry that Koch's contract be terminated at the end of summer school, Aug. 31.
Koch became a center of controversy when a letter he wrote to the Daily Illini, student newspaper, was published in the paper March 18.
"There is no valid reason why sexual intercourse should not be condoned among those sufficiently mature to engage in it without social consequences and without violating their own codes of morality and ethics."

Peeking Okay, But Staring Dangerous

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Men, it's all right to peek at that pretty girl on the sidewalk as you drive past, but don't stare.
"It's all a part of correct eye movement," says William Burnett, Iowa state safety education director.
"A good driver keeps his eyes moving, glancing quickly right and left as well as looking ahead. If your glance happens to catch a pretty girl walking along the street, how can you help it?"
But, added Burnett, married and the father of five sons, staring at an object while you drive—even if it's an approaching truck—can be dangerous.

Dies In Accident

JACKSBORO, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. Wayne Lynch of Frederick, Okla., died Tuesday night when a grain truck in which she and her husband were riding overturned 14 miles north of here. Lynch, 30, was critically injured.

Barricades Are Ordered Removed

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—Dist. Judge Paul Martineau signed a temporary injunction Tuesday ordering removal of barricades on Padre Island in Nueces County.
The injunction prohibits further obstacles until a permanent injunction request is tried.
The order states the barricades, erected last week, must be removed so cars may pass between the water and the loose sand area.
The companies involved, the Padre Island Land and Cattle Co. and the Padre Island Development Co., said they would appeal.

Heavy Rains Delay Planting On Plains

AUSTIN (AP)—Heavy rains held up cotton and sorghum planting and cultivating in the Plains last week, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports.
Wheat combining, especially in the northern low Plains, was slowed.
Growing crops in southern, south central, and coastal counties were hampered by dry weather. Corn and sorghums in these areas need rain badly.
Crops continued steady growth in the Cross-Timbers, Blacklands, and parts of Northeast Texas. More rain will be needed soon, however.

Mounting Costs Of Hospital Stay Learned By Americans

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—The mounting costs of a stay in a hospital are being learned daily by ailing Americans. The mounting costs of maintaining hospital service at the desired standards are fretting their administrators increasingly.
They contend that most costs can't be cut without impairing the care of patients.
But some are making a big effort to cut down the costs of their housekeeping needs, which it is estimated totals around a billion dollars a year.
And about 250 hospitals with a total of 62,000 beds use a nonprofit association to buy such supplies at a saving averaging from 10 to 15 per cent on various items through large volume purchasing and bargain hunting.

find what products give the best value in relations to cost and quality—and it isn't always the one with the lowest price tag—and to test products against rigid standards that hospitals demand.
The Hospital Bureau has as members voluntary nonprofit hospitals throughout the nation, in small towns and the largest cities. Some are as small as 40 beds. Some as large as 1,500 beds. Membership costs are based on size and range from 66 cents to $2 a day, covering personnel, operative and research outlays.
Paul E. Widman, chairman of the bureau's purchasing agents committee, explains that the buying is based on contracts, agreements and jobbing arrangements. The agreements are flexible.

contracts worked out with manufacturers who guarantee a fixed price for a specific time. Most afford an annual refund, proportionate to the amount of business done, to members buying under those agreements. In 1958, refunds to members came to $273,000.
The bureau admits that its savings, big as they seem, are only a drop in the bucket of total costs. Only a fraction of the nation's hospitals use the bureau. Others seek their own ways of saving.
To balance their books, the hospitals have turned to raising patients' fees for rooms and for various services. When this doesn't often—they turn to private donors for support.

Hoover Declines Party Nomination

SAN ANGELO (AP)—J. Edgar Hoover, the FBI chief, declined Tuesday the nomination as the Constitution party's candidate for president.
Thirty members of the Texas Party, shouting for repeal of the income tax, tentatively scheduled the party's national convention for Dallas Aug. 45.

Mrs. R. Says Adlai Wants Presidency

MIDDLETOWN, Conn. (AP) Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt says Adlai Stevenson, whom she hosts for the Democratic presidential nomination, wants to be president.

But, the former first lady said Wednesday night, Stevenson isn't the type of person who would accept the nomination.

Stevenson has indicated he would accept a nomination for the nomination, but Mrs. Roosevelt made her remarks to newsmen during a visit here to address women's groups at Wesleyan University.

As for Adlai, John Kennedy, D-Mass., Mrs. Roosevelt said she did not think his primary victories meant that he is the candidate most Democrats want.

She said her son, Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., played a major role in Kennedy's victory last month in the West Virginia primary.

"My son reminded the voters there of my husband and created a whole new image for Kennedy," she said. "Don't forget, there is still a picture of my husband in nearly every miner's cabin in the state."

Sawmill Owner Is Killed In Mishap GREYBILL, Wyo. (AP)—An eight-foot plank was hurled over a sawmill and through the chest of a man standing on the other side of the building Wednesday.

S.H. Hood, Grisham, 54, the sawmill owner, was killed when impaled by the plank. A sawmill worker said the plank somehow caught on the saw and was hurled from his grasp.
