The 'Jeanne' Label Becomes A Community Tag

First Day

First Workers Start Dress Production For New Plant

First machine operators reported to work Wednesday morning at Colorado City manufacturing Company.

They immediately put the community into the garment industry.

The work force for opening day of dress production small, according to plans of the company, an affiliate of Jeanne Manufacturing Company of Dallas.

Twenty-two persons were busy in the air-conditioned plant, which has been vacant since discontinued as a National Guard Armory.

However, approximately 15 more workers are expected to be added to the production line Thursday, followed by about 15 or 20 more Friday.

These initial employes are expected to be experienced with a build up of the payroll in future weeks by a steady training program for those who have not previously worked in garment manufacturing.

Fabric and other materials were trucked here Tuesday for the hurry-up opening of the plant, which was announced for Colorado City less than four weeks ago.

Initial shipments from the Colorado City plant -- one of eight in the Jeanne production -- will be with fabrics cut in the Dallas factory.

However, a 103-foot cutting layout table already has been erected in the new plant and the initial process -- cutting from patterns -- will be initiated in Colorado City just as soon as a local cutter completes training in Dallas.

Izy Freudenreich, Jeanne executive, and Bill Gentry, maintenance engineer for Jeanne, and other male workers were busy until 1:30 a.m. Wednesday preparing for the first production work. They were back in the plant at 5 a.m. and opened the door to female employes at 7:30 a.m.

Here with Freudenreich to set up the production was Mrs. Connie Ashour of Dallas, who is in charge of production at all eight of Jeanne plants.

She has been in the forefront of Dallas dress manufacturing for 10 years and only recently returned from an extended tour of Europe and the Middle East.

Manager for the Colorado City plant is Mrs. Wayne Denson of Hermleigh. Assisting her as floor women on the production line are Mrs. George Watts of Snyder and Mrs. Lupe Moreno of Loraine, both of whom were the top production workers of a Sweetwater factory.

Freudenreich is hopeful that the production line of employes will build steadily to more than 100 workers within a few weeks.

He left Colorado City late Wednesday for a stopover at his Dallas office before continuing to New York on business. He will return here early next week.

County Voters Say 'Yes' To 6 Issues

Mitchell County voters Tuesday supported six of their state's proposed Constitutional amendments.

They provided whopping majorities for the Texas Water Development Plan amendment (No. 2) and for increasing maximum amount which may be expended from state funds for public assistance payments to needy aged, disabled, blind and needy children (No. 5).

This had been predicted before the election just as had been the light vote. Only 838 Mitchell citizens cast their ballots less than 25 per cent of the potential.

Biggest majority was for the water plan 627 to 191. Increased assistance to the needy had the largest Mitchell "for" votes, 495 to 246.

The county also voted heavy for No. 4, tax exemption for non-profit water supply corporation, 421 to 339, and for No. 8, assistance for survivors of those suffering death in hazardous employment, 452 to 273.

Three proposed amendments were defeated here in the county. Local voters were decisive, 244 to 533, is saying 'no' to Amendment No. 3 which would provide for higher salaries of legislators, lieutenant governor and speaker of the House.

They also voted against No. 6, which would allow bonds and other public securities to be sold at higher interest rates and No. 9, which would start annual sessions of the Legislature.

Mailman Brings Valor Award

Son's Bronze Star

It came in the mail just like all the other citations and medals.

Sealed in the usual big tan envelope with military address on the outside.

That's the way it is at home for the Clarence N. Cloud family on Sherman St.

And that's the way their son, Specialist 4th Class Clarence E. Cloud, wants it.

The Purple Heart grenadier of 101st Airborne Division is not a talker. He doesn't use time or words talking about his heroism in Vietnam.

But the brown envelopes keep coming and his folks continue learning of his valor.

Only a couple of months ago, after their soldier had been home on furlough following his return from the Vietnam battles, the envelopes began to appear.

Sure, he had mentioned fleetingly that he had been wounded. He said something about an award, too, but he dwell on either with any special words or emphasis.

Nothing he said, however, prepared 'em for what showed up. A purple heart. . .Air Medal. . .Army Commendation Medal.

Now, more.

The Bronze Star Medal with first oak leaf cluster, by executive order of the President of the United States, specifically cites the 22-year-old Colorado City soldier with heroism in ground combat in Vietnam Setp. 26.

Cloud, now assigned to duty at Fort Hood, will be home this weekend for a visit. His folks, you can be sure, will have plenty to question him about.

Clarence E. Cloud

But the Army already has told them plenty. Here is the way the official citation accompanying Bronze Star says it:

"For heroism in ground combat against a hostile force in the Republic of Vietnam on Sept. 16, 1968. Specialist Cloud distinguished himself while serving as a grenadier in Company D, 3rd Battalion, 187th Infantry, on a combat operation at Fire Support Base Pope."

"On the evening of the cited date, the fire base came under an intense 8-hour ground and mortar attack by two battalions of the 101st North Vietnamese Army Regiment."

"Specialist Cloud," the citation continues, "was painfully wounded in the wrist and arm by shrapnel from one of the initial incoming mortar rounds. Though in great pain and weakened from loss of blood, he refused medical evacuation in order to help his embattled comrades defeat the numerically superior enemy force."

"During the attack, several men near his position were wounded by incoming mortar rounds. He leveled heavy retaliatory fire outside his sector of the perimeter with high explosive M-79 rounds to suppress the hostile fire. On several occasions, he took unprotected positions with complete disregard for his own safety in order to locate enemy soldiers firing on his sector of the perimeter."

"As a result, medical aidmen were able to more safely reach and evacuate the wounded. Later, he spotted and silenced an enemy 60 millimeter mortar, wounding several of the enemy gunners."

"After the enemy were forced to break contact at dawn, he went on a short patrol outside the perimeter where numerous blood trails and several 60 millimeter mortar and rocket propelled grenade rounds were found in front of his position."

"Specialist Cloud's personal

Burleson: "Vietnam Realism"

At the risk of sounding like a broken record, it is time to refer again to our situation in Vietnam. As has been mentioned a number of times in this space, the argument as to whether we should or should not be in Southeast Asia at all can go on and on. As a matter of fact, it has and does.

The fact also remains that we are there. The question all along, and continues to be, is how to get out with honor and how we keep all the sacrifices made from going down the drain.

Negotiations to end the Vietnam conflict have taken on tragic aspects, if it was ever anything else. Among our people the debate goes on as the the number of troops to be withdrawn. At the same time, there is not the slightest sign of response from the communist government of North Vietnam.

During President Nixon's visit to Southeast Asia, vague references were made to "optional measures" which might be found necessary if agreement is not reached at the Paris Conference. It is anyone's interpretation as to what this means. There is a hope it means that the hands of the military commanders of our forces in Vietnam will be untied to use the forces at their command to being the enemy to terms. The Conflict cannot be won by trying to satisfy every critic in the Congress and what is theorized to be public opinion throughout this Country.

Appeasement has never worked. It has always resulted in bigger wars. It is easy to say, "Let's use the money for domestic purposes," and it would be a great thing if we could.

History proves otherwise. Indifference as to what was happening in Asia in 1939 made possible the attack on Pearl Harbor.

Virtually the same thing happened in 1916 when President Wilson won re-election on the slogan "He kept us out of war." The enemy at the time was encouraged to believe that the United States would not enter a war in Europe. Unarmed ships were torpedoed in 1915. In an exchange of notes, the Germans promised not to do it again. By 1917 German submarines were preventing American vessels from traveling on the high seas and finally there was no choice buy to enter World War I.

But the British and the United States tried again to appease Hitler by the well-known representation of Neville Chamberlain.

While thousands of American boys were being killed and wounded, the enemy in Vietnam continues to thwart all peace efforts. Their talks appear to be meaningless and without purpose.

Because of the Communists ambition to yield power everywhere in Asia is apparently motivated by the same ruthlessness of purpose as the recent increase of Soviet armies in communist bloc countries in Eastern Europe and the emerging threats to the independence of West Germany, make these questions highly pertinent.

One does not have to be militaristic or a so-called "hawk" but only a realist to view the present situation with the deepest concern.

The United States has the airpower to impress Hanoi with the necessity of seriously seeking terms for peace. Such action would inform the World that America had not made the sacrifices in vain but intends to get this business over with and get out.

Since we are there, and everyone must ardently wish we were not, it seems our choices are narrow. In fact it appears there are only two. We either continue to bog down and lose American lives or we do what we are there to do. The latter, simply put, is to say to the aggressor that if he pulls his troops back in his own country, the Conflict will be over. Otherwise, the "optional measures" mentioned by the President on his visit to Southeast Asia means the use of our air-power to the extent necessary to stop the enemy's aggressive capability.

CONVERSATION CORNER

GOT introduced the other day by a well-meaning acquaintance at the "writer of a gossip column."

To say that the term "gossip column' startled the column writer is the understatement of the season. Taken back. Chagrinned, she was.

That's because the word gossip, as we use it usually, has an unsavory connotation.

Most people use it to mean the spreading of ugly rumors. . . the telling of tales. . .the repeating of stories reflecting on the doings and undoings of other people.

In current slang, to gossip is to "bad-mouth" somebody. . . usually, if not always, somebody not present to deny or defend.

FIRST reaction to the introduction using the term "gossip column" was to deny and to defend. . .to plead not guilty, fast.

Seeing the wide grin on the face of the man who said it, knew he was just having fun so decided not to kick him in the shins.

Came away feeling sorta like Mehitibel, the cat made famous by the late Don Marquir. Remember? After a good fight she proclaimed herself to be "Always the lady, Archie. A lady in spite of—."

DECIDED, after mulling the matter over, to consult the old tired and true friend, Webster's Dictionary, to settle the point.

Webster is always full of surprises, especially when you're so sure you know more than you really know.

Know what? Webster says the noun gossip means friend or crony. Second meaning is an idle tattler, a newsmonger. Third meaning as a noun is a gossip's tattle, groundless rumor, also chatter. Archaic meaning was a godparent.

SO? So, like so many common English words, gossip does not necessarily mean gossip, does it?

Always thought a gossip column, if it lived up to or down to—the term, had to be full of what people used to call "dirt-dishing." You know, the old "What wife of what famous TV star is hitting the bottle?" That sort of guessing game.

AFTER due deliberation, it would seem a gossip column can be chatter. . .friendly chatter, maybe.

Chatter I DO. It's doing what comes naturally. Have, too, on occasion been a newsmonger—which Webster says can mean a spreader of news.

At least three times, in seven years, have scattered little teasers such as "What tall, dark and handsome bachelor is about to wed?"

Trouble with that was that even when the bachelor was Jamie Anderson, now of Austin, everybody in town started asking George Womack, City National VP, personal questions.

Experience, that not-so-dear teacher, has shown that as a sure 'nuff gossip columnist I am a total flop.

But when it comes to chatter, chatter—
That, dear friends, is another matter.

FRIENDLY CHATTER—If you read the sports pages, you're seeing much news of Truman Nix, CHS head coach and athletic director.

Coach Nix is in Dallas coaching the North team for the all Star Classic in the Cotton Bowl. Game is Thursday, today by now. His wife, Mavis, is visiting Big D with him.

Assisting "Coach' are Dell Riley, Don Adair, Buddy Everett, Doug Chitsey, and Cullen Davis.

And on the North All Star team is our Dan Steakley, CHS Wolf star who enters University of Texas at Austin this fall.

SEEN LATELYS include Thelma Harrison, Lora Lady, Louise (Mrs. Paul) Logsdon, Blanche Bell (Mrs. Willie) and Elizabeth Elliot (Mrs. Lewis B.) at the coffee counter.

Also spied Otho Rice, Billie Henderson (Mrs. Don) and Cheryl Watson. A little later, saw Mayme May (Mrs. Ell) and Margie Treadaway, wife of Kelly.

Tom Rees, local attorney, was combining lunch with reading. Ann Halbert, wife of Lynn, was on the shopping scene, talking a book recommended in a letter from her student niece.

CLOUD NINE is pink this time! It is blessing two C-City homes at once.

They are the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl James, 221 East 6th St. and the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. (Shorty) Pace, 1021 Locust. The couples are proud new grandparents.

Dois Pace and his pretty wife Jimmie (nee James) are parents of a baby daughter, Pamela Dawn, born to them Saturday in Jackson Memorial Hospital at Altus Oklahoma, where Dois teaches band music.

Pamela Dawn weighed seven pounds, two ounces.

FAMILIAR FACES here and there places belonged to Faye Marcom, wife of Buddy, and her mother Mrs. A. F. Ruth.

Ellon Burson, wife of Guy, was saying that second son Tim and his wife Karen (Fugate) have moved to the San Francisco area where Tim will be in US Navy school for the next year. Burson first son Mike has been promoted to the rating of Specialist 4. He's on duty in Germany.

Mrs. Newt Miller was getting beautified. . .Ida Kirschbaum (Mrs. Maurice) was grocery buying.

HEAR TELL that Barton Smith (the Rev.) and his attractive wife Ann, were touring Egypt early this week. They live in Dallas now where Barton, Methodist minister, is coordinator of youth ministries for the North Texas Conference.

Letter to his parents Rochelle and Arnel Smith are filled with joy at all the sights they are seeing.

Ann and Barton are part of a Holy Land tour directed by Dr. and Mrs. James Hares. They have toured Italy, Greece, and Egypt.

Next on the tour itinerary are Lebanon and Israel, after that, they'll visit Switzerland, Denmark, and England. They left July 30 and are due back in the States August 22.

DID YOU KNOW that Roger Grimes and his wife Ola plan to open a new "eatery shop' next door to the law office of Joe Earnest on Walnut St.?

They expect to be open for business August 11 and will specialize in doughnuts, cakes and pies, plus coffee and cold drinks.

(Now that's known as good newsmongering!)

Did you know that Ruth Grantland is back from a visit with son James, his wife and children in Big D? And that Gillian McEntire is there as guest of daughter Gillian Jr. (Dobie) her husband Howard Kenyon and their four children?

Temperatures Are Measured in Kilowatt-Hours, Too

The number of kilowatt-hours used in the home in any summer month and the size of the electric bill are good measures of just how hot the weather has been.

That's why nearly everybody has been using more kilowatt-hours this summer . . . because July, 1969, was the hottest month in this area in recent years, with temperatures of 100 degrees or higher day after day.

This was in sharp contrast especially with July temperatures in 1967 and 1968 when averages were among the lowest on record here.

With electricity working harder for you, bills are higher, even though the folks we serve are buying kilowatt-hours of electricity for use in the home at lower average prices than ever before.

We are making every effort to see that your electric service will continue to be your biggest value in year-round living.

Beaches Began New Year With New Home

By LENA BAUMANN,
Record Women's Editor.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Beach and their 19-year-old daughter, Mary, celebrated the beginning of 1969 by moving into a new Plainview Community home.

The Beaches, who lived in Colorado City until their home was completed, moved into the red bark brick residence New Year's Eve.

The house is centrally heated and air-conditioned, has acoustial "blown-on" off-white ceilings with gold flecks and a lovely collection of Early American furnishings as well as "early marriage" pieces, (description by Mrs. Beach).

Living room area and kitchen is built in a L-shape with a brief wall separating the kitchen proper.

Fern green acrylic carpet covering the living area is complimented by matching draperies hung by antique gold hangers from black square rods with fleur-de-lis finials.

Gold, brown and beige furniture are used in the room. Light switch plates and electrical outlets in paneled areas are of antique gold filigree.

A large amber ball lamp with brass chain extends from the ceiling to light the piano area. The lamp was a house warming gift.

Kitchen cabinets, stained to match paneling, feature built-in double ovens with black glass doors, brush chrome sink, cook top and hood.

Pull out shelves in pantry make any item in "easy reach". Cabinet under the double sink is also constructed with pull out drawers for trash container and cleaning aids.

Vinyl flooring in beige tones of pebble design contrasts the formica counter tops. A walnut dinette suite with fern green chair cushions complete kitchen decor.

Just off the kitchen is a utility room, second bath and double garage. Storage cabinets are built above the washer and dryer. More storage is found in the bath, which has a corner shower, dressing table and white fixtures. The frosted window is covered with orange and yellow bead drapes.

Hall leading to the bedroom area has two closets, one for out-of-season clothes and a six by three foot storage enclosure.

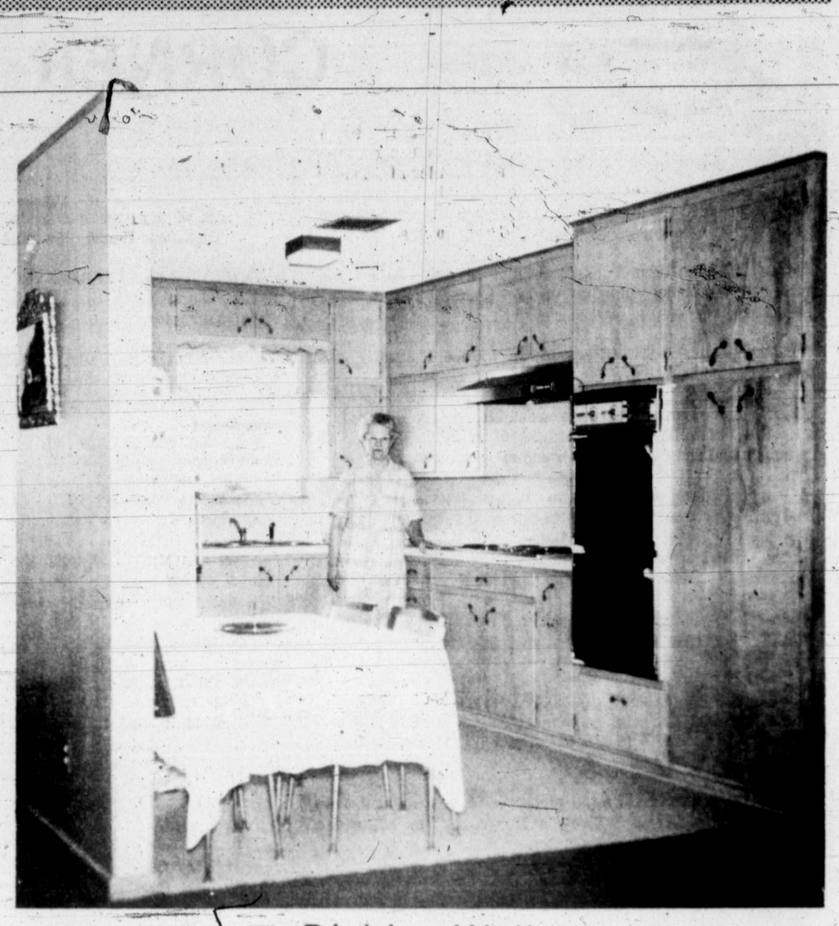

Master bedroom has a large walk-in-closet, originally planned for a sewing area, now being used as an office for farming business.

Natural colored fiberglass drapes are bordered with gold, rust and brown, blending with off-white walls and gold bedspread.

Divider Wall

Brief wall at left separates the kitchen from living room in the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Beach. Mrs. Beach, shown in picture, designed pull out shelves for the pantry (at right) for easy access to any item and roll out drawers under the sink for trash and cleaning aids.

Bath for the bedroom area has a long dressing table backed with gold and white tile and blending formica top. Green beaded drapes accent the pale green and light beige inlaid linoleum.

White fixtures are accented by fern green bath accessories and gold and white French Provincial door and drawer pulls.

Mr. Beach is an employee of Col-Tex Refinery and is also engaged in farming.

Personality Plus

Bright, cheery red carpeting and a very red bedspread set the mood for Mary Beach's bedroom in her parents' new home in Plainview Community. A tiffany hanging lamp compliments the room's Early American furnishings.

Morgan Is Grad For Vocational Program

John Frank Morgan of Route 1, Colorado City, will be one of more than 200 graduates taking part in commencement exercises at James Connally Technical Institute Aug. 7 at 8 p.m. in Waco.

He will receive a certificate for successful completion of the one-year vocational program in construction equipment mechanics. He is a 1968 graduate of Colorado City High School.

Speaker for the event will be E. D. Redding, assistant to the president of Brown and Root, Inc. Aside from his business duties, he is chairman of the 21-member Governor's Advisory Committee for vocational and technical education in Texas.

Dean Morris Webb will present the certification of the graduates, and Dr. Roy W. Dugger, director of James Conally Technical Institute, will confer diplomas for graduates of the two-year technology programs and certificates for those completing one-year vocational programs.

The school will begin its fourth full year of operation Sept. 2. Through an act by the 61st Texas Legislature, James Connally Technical Institute will be known after September 1 as the Connally Tech campus of the Texas State Technical Institute. Previously, it was a part of the Texas A & M system. Also under the new system will be the Rio Grande campus in Harlingen and the Mid-Continent campus, which is being developed in Amarillo.

J. F. MORGAN

Morgans Visit Parents

Mrs. David Morgan and twin daughters Julie and Jerri, of Huntsville are here with her mother, Mrs. Virgil Moser, while Mr. Moser is hospitalized in Root Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Morgan, the former Laurene Moser, and her husband are both students at Sam Houston College.

Westbrook Families Return From Summer Vacations

By MRS. W. A. BELL,
Record Correspondent.

WESTBROOK - Vacations are over for four Westbrook Community families this summer.

Returning from trips have been Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rice, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Messimer, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Oden and their families.

Vacations for the families included visiting relatives and touring scenic points in New Mexico, Minnesota, Canada, Arkansas, South Dakota and Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Rice and children, Julie, Debbie and Charles, returned recently from Cloudcroft and White Sands, N. M.

In Stanton they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rallos Hopper.

The Rogers family, including daughter, Angela, returned Saturday from a two-week trip.

They were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Brawley in Gatzke, Minn., en route to Canada. On their return trip they visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Brawley in Mena, Ark.

The Messimers visited their home place near Strawn and visited points of interest in Austin and San Antonio Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Oden and sons, Junior and Tim, returned Friday from a trip to Davis Mountains and Big Bend Country.

In Stanton they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Blalock, and in Balmorehea they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Pruitt.

HIGH COTTON

Naturally, just about everything for us this week is in the glow of Colorado City Manufacturing moving into actual work production as Izy Freudenreich and his staff hurry, hurry, hurry.

But how about our sports side, too?

Up there in Dallas Truman Nix, his entire staff and Dan Steakley in the Cotton Bowl with the North in Texas' annual high school all-star classic.

And coming up soon is the Greenbelt Bowl football classic with two more Wolves -- Randy Parker and Johnny Matthews selected for all-star duty.

That's pretty high cotton for our bunch, don't you think?

Rev. Hartley To Lead First Baptist Revival

Rev. Lenard A. Hartley of Odessa will be visiting evangelist for revival services beginning Sunday at First Baptist Church.

Music director will be Ty Morris Jr., former minister of youth and music of the church.

Revival will run through Aug. 17 with services at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., according to Rev. Glenn Roenfeldt, church pastor.

Nursery will be open each evening and transportation will be available by phoning the church office, 728-3442.

Rev. Hartley, a former pastor of Loraine's First Baptist Church, attended Wayland Baptist College and was graduated from Hardin-Simmons University. He also attended Southwestern Theological Seminary.

He has served as a pastor for 18 years and is presently pastor of Sherwood Baptist Church in Odessa.

He has served in various positions in associational work district activities, Baptist State Executive Board, Board of Director for Texas Alcohol and Narcotics Education, Baptist Student Union pastor-advisor; Christian Education Commission of Baptist General Convention of Texas and Executive Committee of Southern Baptist Convention.

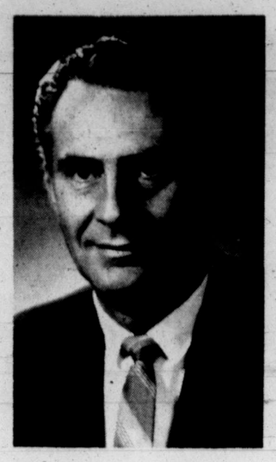

Rev. Hartley has preached an average of five revivals a year for the past 13 years, served in Asian New Life Movement, participated in preparation rallies for Indonesian Crusade in 1967 and visited 17 countries in the Far East, participated in Dayton New Life Crusade and preparation for Crusdae of Americas.

Morris, now visiting in his parents home in Garland, will go to Wetzler, Germany this fall to teach in public schools.

He will be an instructor for music and English conversation in Wetzler, north of Frankfort, and also serve as a private tutor.

An invitation to the public to attend all services was extended this week by Rev. Roenfeldt.

Eastwood Films Begin

A special double bill including two films starring Clint Eastwood will begin Thursday for a three-day showing at Palace Theatre.

They will be "A Fistful of Dollars" and "For a Few Dollars More."

Billed as "the man with no name," Eastwood has attracted an enormous world-wide following with the two films because, it has been explained, he's the very antithesis of the standard western hero.

Raking In The Bargains With Value. . .

Sure, rake in all the savings you can get. Read the advertisements and make your dollars last longer, buy more.

This is the day of free coupons, saving stamps, extra bargains and discount prices.

These are all important, at least, in relationship to your job or home or family. Even to your future.

There is more, though. Something that is lasting . . . that keeps on going even when coupons and price tags become yellowed and out of date.

This is the thing called religion -- that one special relationship a person has just himself with God.

It outlasts everything, through good times and bad, through happy times and sad. It is that lasting ingredient for true strength and peace.

See if you can't latch on to it for the sake of your and your family. You can find it in church, if you seek.

bravery," the citation concluded, "and devotion to duty were in keeping with the highest traditions of the milirary service and reflect great credit upon himself, his unit, and the United States Army."

There is more.

From Major General Melvin Zais, commander of the 101st Airborne Division, a special letter and the Brave Eagle Coin, a traditional award for members of the famous Screaming Eagle division who distinguished themselves with valor.

"The history of the 101st Airborne Division from World War II to Vietnam," the general wrote, "is rich with valorous efforts of some of the bravest men who have ever fought in battle. As recipient of an award for valor, you have personally made a significant contribution to this history, and have added greatly to the successful accomplishment of the Screaming Eagle mission."

"As special recognition of your valorous actions, you are presented with a Brave Eagle Coin, symbolizing your willingness to give above and beyond the call of duty," the commanding general stated.

Cloud, who graduated from Wallace High in 1965, attended Howard County Junior College before completing a nursing course in the Job Corps at San Marcos. He entered the Army in fall of 1969, then was 12 months in Vietnam action.
