Odds And Ends

Well, the Broncs won their first conference game and a better game we've yet to see. Not only was it a hard-fought game but it was as clean a game as any set of fans and officials could desire. The competitive spirit was very much alive among players and spectators but all in all thought we sensed that the old "grudge" was replaced by a friendlier rivalry. We would like to see this "Ozona Night" extended to include all home games. It's a friendly gesture that reflects the traditional hospitality of West Texas.

Rex Lowe reported a total sale of 2,272 tickets. This included reserved seats sold here and in Ozona. Adult ticket sales were 1,568 and student sales amounted to 704. Gross gate receipts were $1,857.45 and the net amounted to $1,590.25.

That picture in last week's paper of Monroe Thurman and the live wolf was an example of the artistry of John Eaton. We know John collected pictures—he's "collected" a few of ours—but we didn't know about his skill as a photographer.

Thanks, John, and here's your credit line:

Broncs Trample Lions 25-8 In First Conference Game

Bobby Sosa (Number 31) plunges over the Ozona line to score the second touchdown against Ozona. Johnny Fields (Number 21) and Primo Gonzales (Number 10) are pictured also. Carl Montgomery is the only identifiable Lion.

Sonora's Broncs took their seventh straight victory of the 1960 season by downing the Ozona Lions 25 to 8 here Friday night. The game was a close one all the way with Broncs turning in their finest performance of the year, functioning as a unit of eleven men each playing at his best.

The first quarter was scoreless and found the Broncs facing a stiff wind. In the second period, halfback Lester Schmidt climaxed a drive by the Broncs by plunging over from the four yardline for the initial score. The conversion attempt failed. Ozona's only tally came as back Tony Parker made good a Lion drive by driving over from the two. Back Jim Freeman ran the two bonus points to put the Lions in the lead 8 to 6.

Sonora's second touchdown came minutes later after Tackle Steve Fish recovered an Ozona fumble of a Sonora punt. The Broncs recovered on the Ozona two yardline from which point Back Bobby Sosa plunged across the goal stripe.

In the third quarter Back Johnny Morris intercepted an Ozona pass on the 20 and the succeeding downs found Back Primo Gonzales making the necessary ten yards on a quarterback keeper. Gonzales' kick for the extra point was good and the Broncs led 19 to 8. In the final two minutes of the game Back Ram Castillo carried an Ozona punt to the 30 yardline and Sosa made the touchdown on the 15.

Statistics: First Downs, Sonora 16, Ozona, 10; Yards Gained Rushing, Sonora 196, Ozona 119; Yards Gained Passing, Sonora 0, Ozona 36; Passes Completed, Sonora 0, Ozona 3; Passes Intercepted, Sonora 4, Ozona 0; Fumbles Lost, Sonora 3, Ozona 3; Penalties: Sonora 3 for 35 yards, Ozona 3 for 35 yards; Punts: Sonora 5 for an average 33 yards, Ozona 3 for an average 36.7 yards.

Other district play found Eldorado defeating Junction 42 to 14.

Members of the Sutton County 4-H Club and the 4-H Parents Club elected officers for the coming year at their October meeting last Wednesday night at the 4-H Center.

Named to head the 4-H Club was Jack Baker. Cleve T. Jones III was elected vice-president, Betty Jack Cooper secretary, Johnny Merck reporter and Johnny Fields, parliamentarian.

Gene Wallace was named president of the Parents Club. Mrs. Alice S. Jones was elected vice-president, Mrs. V. J. Glasscock secretary, Mrs. Dorothy Baker treasurer and Mrs. Marie K. Ellis reporter.

FCC Grants Microwave TV Permit

Service Expected Within About 60 Days

Word was received last week by Edwin Sawyer and Jack Mackey of Sonora TV Service Company, Inc. that the firm has been granted a Federal Communications Commission permit to microwave San Antonio Channel 4 to Sonora.

The microwave will come via Uvalde, Brackettville, Carta Valley and the Mayfield White House Ranch to Sonora. Reception will be of the same quality as in San Antonio itself and will

Sonora Travels To Junction Friday For Conference Battle With Eagles

Coach Jerry Hopkins and his Sonora Broncs will face their second conference opponent of the season Friday night when they travel to Junction to battle the Eagles there.

The Junction eleven suffered their sixth defeat of the season last week at the hands of Eldorado 42 to 14 but proved their strength by scoring 14 points against Eldorado. Junction also surprised their opponents by scoring the first touchdown of the evening. Fourteen of the 28 points scored against Eldorado were amassed by the Junction team.

Favored in pre-season polls for the district championship, Junction has met up with some of the top scoring teams in this area during pre-conference games and has shown improvement with each game. They are big and have three real threats in the persons of Roy Modgling, a strong fast runner, Vernon Lewis, a passer, and James Hodges who is always good for a few yards on drives.

In previous games Junction lost to Eden 28 to 8, to Llano 46 to 0; to Fredericksburg 30 to 0; to Sabinal 38 to 0; to Mason 22 to 0; and to Eldorado 42 to 14. Their single win was a 2 to 0 victory over Menard early in the season. The Eagles have scored 24 points to their opponents' 206.

Probable starters for the Broncs will be Charlie Howell and Augustin Chavez at ends, Steve Fish and Douglas Wood at tackles, Jimmy Cahill and Domingo Gutierrez or Bob Nevill at guards, Curt Schwiening at center, and Johnny Fields, Primo Gonzales, Lester Schmidt and Bobby Sosa in the backfield.

Elsewhere in District 8-A Ozona meets Big Lake and Eldorado is idle.

GOP Headquarters To Open Monday

Sutton County Republicans will open their headquarters here at nine o'clock Monday morning, October 24, according to Ralph P. Mayer, county chairman. Coffee and doughnuts will be served during the morning of opening day.

The headquarters will be located in the old post office building on Main Street and will be open from nine o'clock until noon each morning and from three until five o'clock each afternoon.

William G. (Bill) Stacy, GOP candidate for State Legislator, 78th District, will be on hand during the opening day.

Local GOP members will be on duty at all times at their headquarters and will have information for all voters who are interested in learning more about the issues in the forthcoming general election. Coffee will be served at all times during the day.

Everyone is invited to come by and visit.

Major storms that dumped heavy rains at Eldorado, Rocksprings and other areas failed to develop by midweek.

Good rains were measured, however, in the north, west and south portions of Sutton County. The sediment pool at Site 1 on the R. D. Johnson ranch south of Eldorado filled, catching some 200 acre feet of water. None of the other flood prevention structures received runoff.

Representative rainfall totals collected by SCS technicians included Joe Logan 1.30; Ed Shurley (Byrd) 3.00-home 1.45; Preston Love (Mayer) 1.30; V. J. Glasscock 2.50; Sim Glasscock 1.50; Bryan Hunt (Edwards) 1.50; Jym Wheat 2.00; Ben Mittei 1.20; Clarence Valliant .50; Sam Karnes 1.90; W. L. Davis 1.28; Ben Cusenbary 2.55; Frank Bond 1.00; G. H. Davis 1.30; Herbert Fields .45; W. F. Berger (O'Leary) 1.80-home 1.35; Sonora Woolhouse 1.07; Hospital Ranch 1.45.

General rains are badly needed to get winter growing grasses and weeds off to a good start. Many areas of the Edwards Plateau SCD are much below normal rainfall for the year.

The government gauge registered an additional .79 for Tuesday.

Devil's River Philosopher Finds Neighbor Who Has Novel Idea For Solving Problem Of Castro

Editor's Note: The Devil's weed ranch on Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter- covers a wide range of ideas this week, his letter indicates. Dear editor:

The way it looks to me, the United Nations is an organization of disunited leaders, but what I started out to say was I was sitting around with a bunch of people out here the other afternoon discussing politics. I tell you, after a week or so of reading how much Khrushchev and Castro love each other and hate the United States, a general discussion of American politics is as refreshing as finding out you've got more money in the bank than you thought.

At any rate, the question came up-which man can handle the world situation, Nixon or Kennedy?

One of the men, who has four kids, eight installment payments a month, and a 10-year-old pickup, said: "I don't know, both of em I guess, at least both of them claim they can, each one better than the other, but even if either of them can handle the world situation, I don't believe either one of them is equal to the job of handling my situation."

The trouble is, he went on, his budget is in worse shape than Washington's, without near the resources.

"All it takes to raise the debt ceiling for Washington is an act of Congress," he said, "but it takes an act of a banker to raise mine, and bankers don't have to run for re-election. Kennedy or Nixon might talk Congress into voting more money, but they wouldn't have much luck with my banker. Maybe Nixon or Kennedy can solve the education problem for the country as a whole, but I'm still gonna be faced with the bills for my boy in college. Maybe they can bring our defenses up to date, but I don't believe they could do much with my 10-year-old pickup."

I tried to explain to him that there are some things he's supposed to do himself, but he had me there. "Where does it say so in the platforms?" he asked.

I couldn't answer him, so I took the natural step a man takes when he's cornered. I asked him what he thought we ought to do about Castro.

The only thing he could suggest was that if we kept on firing off test missiles, maybe doubled up on them, maybe one of them would go in the wrong direction and the problem of Castro would be eliminated. I don't think this is a good idea.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

NIXON FOR PRESIDENT:

Experience And Stature Fit America's Needs

RICHARD M. NIXON does not subscribe to the political subterfuge of tailoring the nominee's policy avowals to suit the given audience, or of double-talk accommodating his tenets to the factor of regional preference.

That forthrightness is the mark of the man. It bespeaks integrity, and the courage of convictions, whether they relate to domestic issues or transcendent questions of foreign policy and security. It is not altered by the blowing of circumstantial winds, by political climate or national geography.

Thus it was that at Greensboro, N. C., his first speech in the South since his nomination for the presidency, Dick Nixon spoke with the candor of courage and conscience; with the utmost respect for the intelligence of every listener, and reliance or reason above prejudice or emotion.

That it was a welcome and refreshing event—a strong, clear voice sounding above the babble of partisan confusion—shows in the Carolina reception. It could not have been mere political curiosity that drew an overflow crowd of 14,000. It was the desire of a concerned and mature electorate to see and hear for itself. To evaluate nominees by both their stature and their treatment of issues is the essential process in this year of crucial decision. North Carolina, as all sister states, obviously intends to do that.

The Vice President dodged neither issues nor questions. His discussion of "civil rights" adhered to the views with which he and his party—in its platform—are identified. To have pussyfooted on that would have been rank duplicity, as alien to this man as would be alignment on foreign policy questions with the apostles of appeasement.

HIS REFUSAL to play the demagog sustains America's faith, for that also would be foreign to the character of a man who has won every battle to date by honest address to the issues confronted; who has slugged it out toe to toe not only with political foes, but with the NATION'S chief enemy.

How does one attain the stature requisite to the responsibilities to be conferred in November? By GROWING into it; by maturing through experience. And that is what North Carolina saw and heard.

In all the terms of measurement, for the heaviest task within the power of the American people to assign, Dick Nixon is supremely fitted. With his running-mate, Henry Cabot Lodge, this nation has a team equipped with both knowledge and courage for those responsibilities whose capable discharge can decide its destiny.

Without reference to parties, he is the man best qualified for the job; and we believe that on the basis of his record hundreds of thousands in Tennessee, and millions in the South, feel the same way.

NO CHANGING OF THE GUARD

IN AMBASSADOR HENRY CABOT LODGE, the United States has had a valiant spokesman in the United Nations—the most effective representative to date in courageous expression of Free World policy; a statesman, informed, dedicated, unafraid.

His resignation from that role—necessary in his assignment as vice presidential nominee—would leave a void in that post of vital responsibility were it not for the availability of another able man, James J. Wadsworth, to succeed him there. America can rejoice that there will be, in point of stature, no changing of the guard.

As was emphasized when Lodge was picked as Richard M. Nixon's running-mate, it was a selection designed to maintain the usefulness of the vice presidential office as more than a supernumerary of the Executive branch. As one already experienced in diplomacy and world affairs, Lodge would bring experience into it, in the same pattern of preparedness for responsibility that is accentuated in the case of Nixon.

YEARS PAST

Devil's River News
Sonora's Fourth of July celebration and barbecue was one of the most successful ever held.

The day was fair and clear and not quite so warm as the two days previous. The arbors and grounds had been put in excellent shape and everything that could be was done for the comfort of the people.

The dinner was managed scientifically. The meats, bread, coffee, etc., were done to perfection and if there was any dissatisfaction your reporter did not hear of it. There was abundance of everything and it is estimated that over 500 people partook of and enjoyed a first class barbecue dinner.

The court house was decorated with flags and bunting and being well lighted presented a brilliant appearance. The ladies were never more beautiful and their dresses of mull, nuns veiling, muslin, crape de chene, and other soft stuff made the boys wish for a dress reform movement that would permit the men to wear such cool garments at summer dances.

The attendance of ranchmen was not as large as might have been expected. A great many ranchmen had to stay at home and pump water.

I Give You Texas

By Boyce House

When it comes to being lucky, I haven't been. I've won only twice on "chances"—and one of them really didn't count, exactly. Then there was the time that I came close to winning. To help a patriotic organization in our town, they raffled off a $2,000 car at a dollar a chance. On the appointed day, a shot was fired at a board with the numbers on it and mine was missed by just two.

In Waco back about 1940 the Harley Sadler show was appearing at the Cotton Palace. Between acts, they would sell candy—you know, the special introductory offer. You paid twenty-five cents for a package; wasn't much candy, five pieces or maybe four but a prize with each and every package. Usually, the prize was a tin whistle or a pocket comb but, occasionally, the award would be a fountain pen or a pair of silk stockings or something like that.

Well, my prize was a blanket. I don't want to mislead you; the blanket was not in the package of candy but there was a slip of paper which called for the blanket.

After, I "accused" Harley, who was a good friend, of arranging for me to be handed one of the main-prize packages but he said that wasn't the case at all—that I had actually won on my merits; that the vendors used to know which packages were the most valuable but they got to handing them to relatives and friends in the audience so now they didn't know, any more.

The other time that I won was on "country store night" at a Los Angeles movie house; but, when the number on my ticket stub was called, I didn't go forward. Wouldn't I have looked silly, lugging a big basket of groceries on a street car at 11 o'clock at night to hotel in Culver City? (What's that? Did somebody say I look silly, anyhow?)

Back to the blanket—it was a quiet little number: blue and yellow. Premonition—intuition—instinct—or something told me that this would be my only time ever to win anything; therefore, I decided to make the most of my moment.

So when I got back up town, I draped it around me, entered the lobby of the Raleigh Hotel, raised my right hand and said "Ugh!" I was sensational.

In commerce, as in art, it is rare indeed that a creation emerges so inspired in concept and so flawless in execution that it is destined, from the very beginning, for certain greatness.

And yet, it seems not too soon to say that the Cadillac car of 1961 will take its place among the most memorable of the peak achievements of the automotive craft.

Its clean, classic form introduces a new look for the world's motor cars to emulate. There's a new proportion of glass to steel . . . a new "oneness" of contour and shape . . . an entirely new relationship of interior to silhouette.

Inside, the story is equally remarkable. Here is new roominess in every dimension. Head room, seat height, and entrance room, for example, have been notably increased with impressive results in greater comfort and luxury.

And as its beauty is . . . so its performance does—incredibly nimble and quick . . . smooth and floating . . . quiet and obedient in operation.

Cadillac's new engine is the very essence of controlled power . . . steering is feather light and sure . . . and its new ride seems to make the roadway vanish beneath the wheels.

This is one car you must see and drive for yourself. The facts are simply too numerous and too exciting to accept second hand.

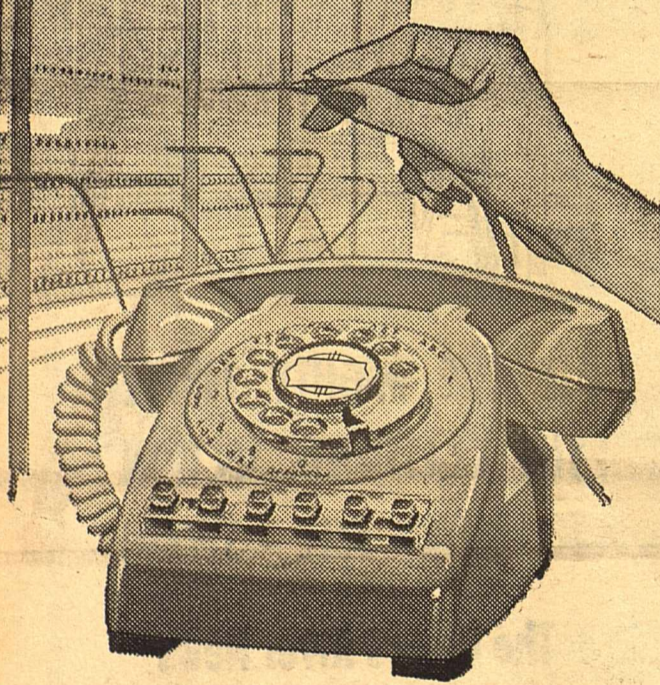

It's the 1961 Cadillac—and we know you'll agree that greatness is written all over it.

Phone with the built-in switchboard

Here's a phone designed to play a big role in business offices. Right in this single instrument are all the conveniences of a telephone switchboard. Six push buttons give you complete control over all incoming and outgoing calls. You can select any of five lines—talk on one while holding calls on others—"buzz" your secretary—or use the phone as an office intercom. Lights in the buttons tell you which lines are busy, which are free.

Our "phone with the built-in switchboard" is another example of how General Telephone works to make the telephone a more convenient and valuable instrument of communications for everyone. Call or visit our Business Office and learn how little it costs to have the "switchboard" service of a push-button phone.

AN OPEN LETTER TO:

MY FRIENDS OF SUTTON COUNTY:

May I open this letter by saying that I am not a professional politician; in fact, I have never run for a public office of any kind before—but I feel, in the light of the coming election, compelled to speak out on the issues at hand. I doubt that my running for a county office will have much bearing in our national election, but I do not feel that there is any harm done in one's stating their position firmly and putting it before the public, whether the office they are seeking is city, county, state or national.

I am a Republican, I am a Texan (not by birth, but by choice) and I am deeply concerned with the problems that face our country, our state and our county.

Since moving to Texas (March, 1956) I have had a wonderful opportunity to meet and know many of the people of Sutton County, to learn their ideals and motives, and to get a true perspective of the principles for which they stand. But I can scarcely believe that the Democratic Platform of 1960 adopted in Los Angeles in June of this year, is what the people of Sutton County, or the people of Texas, believe in, or stand for. To ask Federal assistance to the point of near socialism shall sound an end to free enterprise, to freedom of local and state governments and shall ultimately destroy individual initiative. The people that control the national Democratic Party in this election are not the Democrats of old—these new people are striving for New Frontiers in the form of out and out Socialism! Examine the platforms of the parties. Read them in their entirety! (We shall have copies of both platforms at the Republican Headquarters Building.) Come in and see us at the Republican Headquarters which will be in the old Post Office building and let's talk about the coming election. Inform yourself. The most important thing that we can do this year is Vote and to know Why we are voting the way we do. Do we ultimately want complete Federal controls? A welfare state? or do we want individual freedom, state and local control? and a nation that can stand on its own feet under the power provided by free thinking and free acting individuals with individual initiative?

Most Respectfully,
 Your candidate for county Commissioner (Precinct 1)
 Norman W. Rousselot

By Nancy Reed

"Parnassus On Wheels", by Christopher Morley, is the story of a marvelous man, small in stature, wiry as a cat, yet overflowing with a gracious manner. Roger Miffin, Olympic in personality, is part pixie, part sage, part noble savage, and all God's creature. With his traveling book wagon named Parnassus, he moved through the New England countryside of 1915 on a mission of knowledge. Miffin's delight in books and authors is infectious and with his unusual outlook on life, he comes to represent the heart and soul of the book world.

Also, "Parnassus On Wheels" is a roaring good adventure tale, spiced with fiery roadside brawls, the history of Yankee cookery, heroic escapes from death, and a rare love story. In the course of his adventures, Rodger Miffin shows how he makes bookselling one of the world's highest callings, dispelling ignorance and causing constant delight. When this book originally appeared, the Boston Evening Transcript said: "To read 'Parnassus On Wheels' is to be glad there are books in the world."

Historic Red River Crossing
Six million cattle and horses forded "Doan's Crossing" during the great cattle drives from Texas to Kansas in the latter 1800's.

A small monument at this Red River crossing now reads: "You don't need much monument if the cause is good. It's only those monuments that are for no reason at all that has to be big. Good luck to you all anyhow."
Yours,
Will Rogers"

Doans, Texas, is located on the Red River, just west of Wichita Falls and 20 miles north of Vernon, in Wilbarger County.

Mass Grave at Leander
The terrible story of the Webster Massacre is now written in stone above its victims, in a cemetery at Leander, in Williamson County, north of Austin.

In 1839 the Comanche Indians attacked John Webster and his party of about thirty settlers. They were trapped by the Indians in the open prairie after attempting to escape under darkness.

Mrs. Webster and her 2 children were imprisoned, but all others were killed. Victims were buried in one box, about the size of a wagon body. Their remains still are there.

Rangers Battled Indians
Bird Creek Battlefield is located in central Texas, just north of Temple, in Bell County.

This is the spot where Captain John Bird valiantly died in battle in 1839.

A highway marker, erected at the site in memory of Captain Bird, reads: "With only 34 Texas Rangers he met 240 Indians at this point, and routed them."

It was against such odds as this that our brave forefathers settled our now proud state. The more you see of Texas the more you will love it.

Beautifully proportioned to the CLASSIC FORD LOOK

An honor to be proud of, this is the medal presented by the international fashion authority, Centro per L'Alta Moda Italiana, to the 1961 Ford for functional expression of classic beauty.

A magnificent view... the '61 Ford Galaxie Club Victoria... the Villa d'Este near Rome.

BEAUTIFULLY BUILT TO TAKE CARE OF ITSELF

You are looking at the trend-setting car of our times, the '61 Ford... a car whose clean and classic profile is unmatched by any other in the world. Just one glance at the Big Circle taillights and sculptured rear deck, one look at the crisp, fresh front-end design and you'll know the '61 Ford is the classic style of the Nineteen Sixties.

Here is a Ford that is not only new in looks and ride and comfort, but new in its entire concept. The '61 Ford is actually built to take care of itself! It lubricates its chassis... cleans its own oil... adjusts its own brakes... protects its own body.

Indeed, here is a car that will save you valuable time and money by doing away with many stops for service.

HERE'S HOW THE '61 FORD TAKES CARE OF ITSELF... THE FIRST 1961 CAR DEALER-WARRANTED FOR 12,000 MILES OR ONE FULL YEAR

Lubricates Itself. You'll normally go 30,000 miles without a chassis lubrication.
Cleans Its Own Oil. You'll go 4,000 miles between oil changes with Ford's Full-Flow oil filter.
Guards Its Own Muffler. Ford mufflers are double-wrapped and aluminized—normally will last three times as long as ordinary mufflers.
Adjusts Its Own Brakes. New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves automatically.
Protects Its Own Body. All vital underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion, even to galvanizing body panels beneath the doors.
Takes Care of Its Own Finish. New Diamond Lustre Finish never needs wax.
Warranty. The '61 Fords are built to meet three principal goals: finest quality, greatest durability, most reliable operation. Expressing their complete confidence that this has been accomplished, Ford Dealers led the industry in extending their warranty on '61 Fords to 12,000 miles or one full year, whichever comes first. See this warranty at your Ford Dealer's now.

A group of local ranchmen saw a real "eye-opener" when they recently viewed results of 12 years deferred rotation grazing studies at the Sonora Experiment Station. Frank Fish, Bobby Martin, Bob and Jo Hardgrave were present, accompanied by Howell Whitsitt, SCS range conservationist, and Dr. Leo Merrill, Experiment Station range specialist. The group first looked at a pasture stocked continuously with 48 animal units of cattle, sheep and goats per section. It is characterized by short grass—primarily curlymesquite and red grama—with no reserve feed and a total absence of good weeds. An ad-improvement throughout the drought. Merrill estimates that the carrying capacity has increased about 25 percent. These pastures have an excellent stand of high producing vegetation, including sideoats grama, blue-stems, Texas cupgrass, vine-mesquite grasses and many good perennial forbs. The visiting ranchmen were amazed that the deferred rotation grazing system could cause so much improvement over the continuously grazed pastures. As Jo Hardgrave put it "You just have to see it on the ground to believe it."

joining pasture stocked at 32 animal units of cattle, sheep and goats per section yearling "has shown little if any improvement in forage" Merrill said. Livestock have done a little better than on the 48 animal unit pasture. The real "eye-opener" was the deferred rotation grazing system on four pastures. Three pastures are grazed at the same time, with the fourth pasture resting. Each pasture is grazed 12 months, then rested 4 months, and the rest periods are staggered to cover spring, summer and fall periods. Stocked at 32 animal units of cattle, sheep and goats per section, these pastures made steady

Lions Receive Special Award From Boys Ranch

Charlie Trigg and Morris Craig of Boys Ranch of West Texas were guest speakers at this week's meeting of the Sonora Lions Club at the Methodist Church. Trigg presented to the club a special Boys Ranch award for services rendered by the local club.

Craig, executive director of the Ranch, spoke on operation of the ranch, reporting that donations are used for actual care for the boys. This year is the first time, Craig said, that they have been able to buy new clothing for the boys. Donations also go for such basic needs as food. Many of the boys who come to the ranch have not had enough to eat, he reported.

The Ranch was founded to fill a specific need of West Texas. The boys who come to the ranch, Craig concluded, lack love, acceptance, understanding and supervision. The Ranch tries, and is succeeding well, in supplying this lack.

Guests present were Dennis Martin of Arlington, John Sowell and Bob Coleman of San Antonio and E. J. Hardgrave of San Angelo.

FREE VOTE

Too many Democrats have the mistaken notion that if they voted in the 1960 Democratic primary, they cannot vote Republican in the November general election.

The Constitution of the U. S. protects the right of every citizen to vote in free elections, by secret ballot.

In recent years political parties have tried to bind the vote of the people by incorporating "loyalty pledges" on their primary ballots. The recent State Legislature passed a law requiring poll tax receipts to be stamped at the party primaries. These are attempts to create the impression among voters that once they vote in a party primary they are required to vote the same way in General Elections.

These so-called "loyalty pledges" and stamped poll tax receipts ARE NOT, I repeat, ARE NOT legally binding on any voter.

You are entitled under the Constitution to VOTE for whomever you feel is the man for the job, regardless of party. You may vote a "split ticket" if you feel that by so doing our country will be benefited by strong men from each party.

Exercise this right as a free, unbound American citizen. Paid Pol. Adv. 4 to 1
