December Oil Allowable Set At Five-Year High

31.4 Percent Of Potential

By ERNEST STROMBERGER

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Railroad Commission, granting a traditional December increase in oil production set next month's ceiling at the highest for any December since 1958.

The increase over November's production factor of 30 per cent will allow 1965 production to total about 930 million barrels. This will be the highest since 1960, when production totaled 892 million barrels, a drop from previous years.

The commission set December production under a 31.4 per cent of potential factor, allowing a maximum production of 3,084,545 barrels daily.

The last time a monthly allowable totaled more than 3 million barrels daily was in February of 1960. The December allowable is the highest since 1958's 3,147,506.

The percentage factor also is the highest factor used since the commission inaugurated the percentage system in 1963.

The increase was sought by four of the 13 major purchasers of Texas oil appearing at the monthly proration hearing.

Pre - hearing nominations called for purchases totaling 2,603,861 barrel daily. The U.S. Bureau of Mines estimated December demand for Texas oil at 2,890,000 barrels daily.

Commission Chairman Ben Ramsey cited an impressive list of statistics to indicate the position of the Texas oil market is what Ramsey called "in the best condition it's ever been in since these three members have been on the commission."

The latest appointee to the commission was Byron Tunnell, Tyler, who took office last January after resigning as House speaker.

Nominations, in barrels per day, by percentage:

38—Texaco, 161,000.

31—Mobil, 257,900; Humble, 423,755; Gulf, 220,600.

30—Sun, 110,942; Atlantic, 79,000; Standard of Texas, 38,700; Cities Service, 69,000; Continental, 28,000; Shell, 177,600; Pan American, 264,415.

29—Sinclair, 101,800.

28—Phillips, 119,746.

LBJ Urges Priority For Rights Bill

By SEYMOUR M. HERSH

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has announced a new priority for the 1966 session of Congress: passage of a civil rights bill "to prevent injustice to Negroes at the hands of all-white juries."

The President, in his most sweeping civil rights speech since June, also told a meeting of 200 civil rights leaders Tuesday night he has alerted all federal agencies that racial justice must be sought actively as "a positive purpose rather than a distant goal."

To this effect, Johnson said, he will ask the Civil Rights Commission today to make a broad study of the problems of race and education in the nation in hopes of aiding local governments to "build a school system that is color blind."

"We must do more. We will do more," the President said.

The rights leaders begin a two-day planning session today with government officials to lay the groundwork for next spring's White House Conference on Civil Rights.

The President told them, "The tide of change is running with the Negro American on this mid-November evening. Neither the ignorant violence of the Klan nor the despairing of Watts can reverse it."

The President's jury proposal received almost imediate endorsement from Rep. Emanuel Celler, head of the House Judiciary Comittee which handles civil rights legislation.

"It's a drastic step," the New York Democrat said. "However, it's become essential. I think President Johnson is on the right track."

But Atty. Gen. Richmond Fowers of Alabama described the President's proposal as "somewhat of a disappointment."

"Every lawyer recognizes that legislation that would affect the jury system is indeed an extreme measure," Flowers said in a statement, "and strikes at the very foundation of our judicial processes."

James Farmer, head of Congress of Racial Equality, urged the government to go even further and make it "a federal crime to commit violence against a person for exercising federally guaranteed rights."

The President's address spelled out a list of specific steps, he said the government must take to translate the laws on statute books "into better lives for all Americans — this year and next year and for as many years as it takes to get that job done."

On a new jury bill, the President said he has asked the Justice Department "to prepare jury legislation that is clear in its purpose and specific in its aim."

Rep. Mahon, Wife Here Tomorrow

Snyder area residents are making plans to welcome their former Congressman back.

Rep. and Mrs. George Mahon are scheduled to arrive in the city Thursday morning in time to attend an informal coffee beginning at 10 a.m. in the Snyder Savings and Loan Association Community Room.

The general public is invited to drop by the community room and renew acquaintances, or meet for the first time Rep. and Mrs. Mahon.

The coffee will be concluded at around 11:15 a.m. after which Rep. Mahon will address a joint meeting of service clubs at a luncheon at the First Methodist Church. The Snyder Rotary Club, which has its regular weekly luncheon meeting on Thursday, will be host to other service clubs in the city during the noon hour.

The events Thursday will be a sort of "homecoming" for Rep. and Mrs. Mahon.

Elected to the Congress in 1934 as a resident of Mitchell County, Rep. Mahon served as Scurry County's Congressman continuously until a shift in district lines occurred in 1958. At that time Scurry County was moved into Rep Omar Burleson's district.

The new redistricting plan for Texas will put Scurry County back into Rep. Mahon's district.

Rep. Mahon, long one of the most influential members of Congress, is probably best known for his duties on the powerful House Appropriations Committee. He is now chairman of this 50-member committee and served for many years as chairman of the vital defense sub-committee, which still gets his personal attention.

Ike Allowed Out Of Bed

FT. GORDON, Ga. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was allowed out of bed today for the first time since his heart attacks.

At the 11 a.m. medical briefing the Ft. Gordon information officer, Capt. Wallace Hitchcock, reported that there had been no further heart muscle damage since the attacks began.

"This morning," Hitchcock said, "the general was lifted from his bed and placed in a chair. He is sitting in a chair at this moment. Doctors say this procedure will be repeated this afternoon if the general tolerates it well."

Aerialist's Fall Broken

HOUSTON (AP) — "If it hadn't been for him, I wouldn't be here at all — I would have been splattered all over the coliseum," joked little Beckie Loter, 13, from her hospital bed Tuesday.

A seventh generation circus aerialist, Beckie fell 25 feet and broke her back Monday night during a Shrine circus performance in Sam Houston Coliseum.

She was talking about Moroccan acrobat Maimoum Sidali, 22, who was credited with saving the Houston girl's life. He held out his arms to catch her and broke her fall.

"I'm going up again as soon as I'm able," Beckie said, "and I want to do the 60-foot high wire act" without a net.

UN Votes No Seat For China

By DON HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The General Assembly closed the door once more today to the seating of Red China in the United Nations, but by a much closer margin than in the past.

The vote was tied at 47 to 47 with 20 countries abstaining.

Even if the Peking government had received a simple majority it would not have gained a seat. The 117-nation assembly had voted moments earlier that a two-thirds majority was required.

The vote was 56-49 with 11 abstentions.

The U.S.-sponsored move reaffirmed a similar decision taken in 1961, but by a wider margin.

The 119-nation assembly acted before a vote on a resolution calling for the expulsion of Nationalist China and the seating of the Peking regime.

U.S. representatives have insisted that Peking won't get even a simple majority. They said they called for reaffirmation of the two-thirds rule only to speed up a decision.

Informal polls have indicated, however, that Peking might have enough votes to get in if only a simple majority was required.

The United States has asked to speak just before the vote, apparently in a last effort to bolster its case. U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg, who has been ill with a virus, planned to make the final argument.

U.S. delegate Charles W. Yost went before the assembly Tuesday night with the plea that the China representation issue is a vital one which should not be decided by a simple majority. He declared that peace in Asia is involved in the decision and the two-thirds rule is therefore mandatory.

Old-Timers Find New Common Interest

HAYWARD, Calif. (AP) — Tom Hambaugh and Rosa McDonald found a common interest. Both liked to hear radio broadcasts of the San Francisco Giants baseball games.

"Oh, dear, what will we talk about now?" Rosa asked after the season ended.

"Let's talk about getting married," suggested Tom.

The Rev. Joseph Fouquette married them at a rest home Tuesday.

Tom, who is blind, is 92. Rosa, nearly blind, is 91.

SINGLE WINNER AGAIN IN FOOTBALL CONTEST

There was plenty of competition, but once again a single entry stood out above all others last week in the Snyder Daily News [illegible] Contest.

C. W. Berryman, Route 2, Box 352, Snyder, took the first prize of $10 by missing only four of 20 selections.

Four others finished in a deadlock for second place, missing five selections each. That automatically carried the second prize money over for still another week.

In the tie for second were Lester C. Liggett, Carl Force, Frankie McCravey and Tommy Bullard.

Another contest gets underway today and the list of games for this week's selections may be found in sponsors' advertisements on the football contest page of this issue of the Snyder Daily News.

Evergreen Spectacular Is Planned

Plans for a "Christmas Evergreen Spectacular" were mapped this morning at the Snyder Chamber of Commerce.

A trade promotion sub-committee of the Chamber's merchants for the event which will involve awarding of cash prizes on four consecutive weeks just prior to Christmas.

The top prize each week will be $100. The amount of other prizes will be determined as detailed plans for the event take shape.

Participating merchants will furnish the funds for the event, and each participant will have a receptacle for entries in the weekly drawings.

The first drawing will be held on Saturday, Dec. 4 and succeeding drawings will be on Saturdays, except that the final drawing will be on Friday, Dec. 24.

Participating merchants will identify themselves to shoppers by displaying placards with a green Christmas tree emblem on their doors or in their show windows.

Jay Rogers, chairman of the merchants' committee, presided at this morning's session. The group hopes to enlist widespread participation among business firms throughout the city in staging the event.

North Viets Push Attacks

By RONALD I. DEUTSCH

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—North Vietnamese regulars pressed attacks on regrouped U.S. cavalrymen in the Ia Drang River Valley today while B52 jet bombers ripped at nearby hills.

Near the coast, a Viet Cong battalion overran a government district headquarters and its 150-man garrison at Hiep Duc, 28 miles south of Da Nang. U.S. military sources said every building there was reported destroyed. An aerial survey showed no signs of life. The Viet Cong were reported to have left several of their victims impaled on stakes.

Four U.S. planes — three Marine and one Navy — were lost on a bombing strike against a bridge on the railway line linking Hanoi, North Viet Nam's capital, with its port of Haiphong.

Of the four pilots, a spokesman said two were rescued, one was killed and another is missing.

The battle of the Ia Drang Valley, which newsmen were told already had cost the Communists 890 dead and the greatest American losses in any single engagement of the war, shifted to a new field north of the river.

It was three miles from the helicopter landings site in a jungle clearing 220 miles northeast of Saigon that two battalions of the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Division had defended for three days against repeated North Vietnamese attacks.

The Americans pulled out early today. One battalion shifted back by helicopter to the encampment of supporting artillery, about three miles southeast of the helicopter site. The other hiked out, heading north across the river.

Peter Arnett, an Associated Press writer who was on the scene, said the cavalrymen were maneuvering in an attempt to wrest the initiative from the Red forces in the heights.

A U.S. spokesman in Saigon said the cavalrymen had "adjusted their positions" to avoid being hit by the tons of bombs dropped by the B52s.

FOR RUSK, KENNEDY

Unpleasant Incident Mars South American Reception

By JOSEPH L. BENHAM

CONCEPCION, Chile (AP)—Spitting South Americans gave a rude reception Tuesday night to Sen. Robert F. Kennedy in Chile and to Secretary of State Dean Rusk in Uruguay.

About 100 pro-Communist students spat on Kennedy at the University of Concepcion, threw eggs, rocks and money at him and drowned him out when he tried to speak to a student crowd of several thousand. It was the only unpleasant note to an otherwise enthusiastic reception in an area where Chilean Communists and Marxist Socialists have their greatest strength.

The eggs and stones missed the New York senator, but spittle fell on his forehead and [illegible]

Rusk was the target of a 25-year-old man who slipped up and spat at him in Montevideo just after the secretary had placed a wreath at the monument to Gen. Jose Artigas, Uruguay's national hero. State Department press officer Richard I. Phillips, accompanying Rusk, said the secretary was not hit.

The man shouted "This in the name of my people" as he spat. Police seized him and took him away. In his pockets were leaflets with the words "Fuera Rusk (Rusk get out)."

Rusk was making a side trip to Argentina and Uruguay before the opening today of the inter-American foreign ministers' conference in Rio de Janeiro. Arriving in Rio Tuesday night, he said his reception during his trip had been "extremely hospitable" [illegible] of one young individual whose welcome seemed to be a little unconventional."

Kennedy, who is on a South American tour, insisted on going to the university despite warnings of a hostile reception. He waited calmly on the stage of the gymnasium for 20 minutes while the small group of leftists sang the national anthems of Cuba and Chile and screamed "Assassin" and "Yankee go home" at him.

When the senator finally started to speak, the jeerers drowned him out. He asked if they would come forward to discuss matters with him and the leftists shouted back that he should come to them.

Kennedy started toward them. As he approached, some tried to kick him, others spat at him and [illegible] U.S. flag in a corner of the gymnasium.

Numbing Cold Keeps Grip On Midwest

By The Associated Press

Deep snow, accompanied by lashing winds and numbing cold, struck the northern Midwest today for the second straight day.

Snow and hazardous - driving warnings were posted for Upper Michigan, where 2 to 6 inches of additional snow along with high winds were expected.

Temperatures fell to near zero, or above, from Montana to Minnesota early today. Readings in the teens were reported as far south as Nebraska. Overnight lows included 2 below zero at Havre, Mont.; 1 above at Bemidji, Minn.; 7 at Bismarck, N.D., and 17 at Omaha.

International Falls, Minn., on the Canadian border, had 10 inches of snow Tuesday, with 4 inches falling in 6 hours. Four inches of new snow fell in Houghton, Mich., giving the area an accumulation of 9 inches.

Gale warnings were up for Lakes Superior and Michigan, where winds of 55 to 72 miles per hour were expected. Lakes Huron, Erie and Ontario were posted for winds up to 54 m.p.h.

Violent thunderstorms struck Ohio Tuesday night. All roads were blocked temporarily in Attica near Tiffin in northern Ohio by fallen roofs and trees. Frederick H. Arth, 37, Canton, was killed while visiting at a Louisville, Ohio, house trailer when it was wrecked by high winds.

Woman Killed In Traffic Mishap

A one-car accident about [illegible] mile southwest of Ira on S.H. 350 resulted in the death of a Scurry County woman and injuries to another. Their car left the highway and flipped over several times.

Dead on arrival at Cogdell Memorial Hospital was Mrs. W. C. (Sarah) Kincaid, 44, a waitress at the 66 Cafe. Injured was Mrs. Linda J. Ainsworth, an employe of the same firm. They were traveling together in Mrs. Kincaid's 1963 Model Ford. It was demolished in the accident.

Investigating officers said both women were thrown from the vehicle as it rolled off the highway. They were taken to the hospital by Bell-Seale ambulance. Mrs. Ainsworth was released after receiving treatment for multiple lacerations.

Funeral services for Mrs. Kincaid will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at Bell-Seale Chapel. The Rev. J. H. Skiles will officiate. Burial will be in Hillside Memorial Gardens, under direction of Bell-Seale Funeral Home.

Mrs. Kincaid is survived by her husband, W. C. Kincaid of Camp Springs; two daughters, Mrs. Neva Harbin of Snyder and Nina Kincaid of the home at Camp Springs; her mother, Mrs. R. B. Bailey of Rotan; two sisters, Mrs. Ross Hale of Rotan and Mrs. [illegible] of El Paso; three brothers, John Bailey of Abilene, Harry Bailey of Lampasas and Everett Bailey of Rotan. Three grandchildren also survive.

Mr. and Mrs. Kincaid were married on June 14, 1948 at Albany and had made their home in Scurry County since then.

Royal Pair Visit School

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Princess Margaret and Lord Snowdon chatted with handicapped children at a special school in Washington today—that is, when the children weren't going right along with their games.

The royal couple spent nearly an hour at the Sharpe Health School, a combined elementary and secondary institution for children with physical handicaps.

Most of the pupils are Negroes and about half have cerebral palsy.

The princess is president of three British institutions for aid to children.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Our eldest daughter has just married a rather crude man of whom we are ashamed, but rather than hurt her we've accepted him as gracefully as possible. Our middle daughter, who is away at college, has written to tell us she'd like to bring two of her college chums home for Thanksgiving, but if her brother-in-law is going to be there she'll not bring them, as she doesn't want her friends to get a bad impression of her entire family. We've already invited our eldest daughter and her husband for Thanksgiving dinner and hate to revoke the invitation. But isn't it unfair to deprive our middle daughter of having guests because of this awkward situation?

WEST HARTFORD MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Tell your college daughter that if she wants to bring her friends, to bring them! Her brother-in-law can disgrace only himself, and his crudeness will reflct on the sister who chose him, and no one else. In my opinion, maintaining good family relations with your married daughter makes more sense than locking the skeleton in the closet in order to present a more pleasing family portrait for your younger daughter's chums.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I am being married soon and I am going into my fourth month, but nobody knows it. I already have my wedding dress, which fit me when I bought it two months ago when I wasn't sure of my condition. If I tell my mother, it will upset all our plans, which I don't want to do. Would it be bad for the baby if I wore a tight corset? Thank you.

SKIP MY NAME

DEAR SKIP: ASK YOUR DOCTOR! But I warn you, it will be like trying to smuggle dawn past a rooster.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: After reading your column about the lady who had so many baking failures and then she found out her one-cup measuring cup was one-fourth of a cup too large, I went and measured the new one-cup I recently bought at my supermarket. And to MY amazement, MINE was also a fourth of a cup off! So I want to say thanks for printing that letter.

MRS. K. S. IN ELKHART

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Those measuring cups that are not accurate could be "off" because they were manufactured in Japan or somewhere in the world where OUR standard of measuring is not the same as theirs. In Canada and England, they use the "imperial" gallon, which is not the same as four quarts in the USA. If I am not mistaken, the imperial gallon has five "quarts," but they call them "fifth"; hence, the "fifth" of liquor which looks like our "quart" but isn't.

Too Late For Reds On Texas Ballot

AUSTIN (AP) — It's too late for the Communist party to get a column on the 1966 Texas general election ballot even if the party has a slate of candidates, Secretary of State Crawford Martin says.

Martin was asked about the possibility of Communists in the ballot after Monday's U.S. Supreme Court decision that the party cannot be forced to register. A party spokesman in New York said it would begin immediately to offer candidates for public office.

"Nov. 8 was the deadline for political parties which did not hold primaries the past year to file their intentions to offer a slate for the 1966 general election," Martin said.

"The Democrats and Republicans did not have to meet the deadline, and the only new parties filing were the liberal and conservative parties."

Martin said the only way a Communist could seek office next year would be to file as an independent candidate before the Feb. 7 filing deadline.

"But he would be on the ballot as an independent, not listed in a column under the Communist label," Martin nsaid.

Communist candidates ran token races in the 1920s, 30s and 40s, election records show.

MD Drive Tuesday Nets $525 Here

The Fireman's Auxiliary collected $525 Tuesday night for the Muscular Dystrophy Association during a door-to-door campaign.

Mrs. Lois Allmand, spokesman for the group, expressed appreciation to the Iota Psi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha for their aid in collecting the money and to everyone who helped make the campaign a success.

Lubbock Man Will Head Association

Gordon Willis of Lubbock was elected president of the Permian Basin Water and Sewage Works Association last night at the organization's banquet meeting in the Stanfield Elementary School cafeteria.

Willis, who is now vice president of the association, will succeed Brice Cook of Seagraves as the 1966 president.

Other officers elected at last night's session include Meryl Walton of Midland, vice president; Fred Overman of Big Spring, secretary, and Glen Martin of Seminole, assistant secretary.

Willis was in charge of the banquet program, which featured film on "Sand Plains Hydrology."

The visitors were welcomed by Snyder Mayor M. L. Bromar, and Wallace Jones of Andrews responded.

The Permian Basin Water and Sewage Works Association is composed of personnel in water and sewer departments of cities and towns throughout the region. Membership in the association this year totals 291 and 105 attended the banquet Tuesday night.

The association holds monthly meetings. The next session will be held Dec. 13 at Denver City.

Says Ruling 'Unfortunate'

HOUSTON (AP)— Evangelist Billy Graham describes as "very unfortunate" Monday's U.S. Supreme Court decision holding forced registration by Communists was a form of self-incrimination.

"Communists should be incriminated," he told newsmen Tuesday. "I don't like to aid the Communists."

Graham also said "draft card burning borders on treason" and self-immolation is "a violent means to protect violence."

He criticized people who want to donate blood to the Viet Cong, observing: "Would they have given blood to the Nazis 20 years ago? It would have been unthinkable."

By MARJORIE MATHIS

The autumn and fall season of the year means many things to many people. To some the long - awaited football events mean everything. To others it may be a trip to relatives in order to observe the Thanksgiving holidays. To some it means the realization of a long-awaited hunting [illegible] others the nice weather known as Indian summer that we have been experiencing is an invitation to prolong work in the garden, planting of a few extra bulbs and the raking of many, many leaves. To the youth of the area it is an excuse for one last picnic or weiner roast. To so many in our area it is a time of harvest and crop gathering.

One area group recently made one of those memorable fall hunting trips. To Colorado for a ten - day stay, lots of comradeship and some successful deer hunting were Dee Pylant, Billy Pylant, Rex Pylant, Jackie Pylant, James Stansell, Bud Coonrod of Hermleigh and Lindy Merket of Colorado City. The group stayed at the Pine River Lodge at Bayfield, Colorado, where they saw plenty of snow during their stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Pylant's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wink of Spur, visited with them Sunday afternoon and evening after visiting in Robert Lee.

Mrs. Pylant also reports a total and very happy surprise of last Monday night when sixteen members of her family dropped in to remember her birthday. They brought the birthday cake, too.

Making plans for their annual Thanksgiving dinner were members of the El Catorce Bridge Club when they met last Tuesday at the Community Center with Mrs. Joe Landrum as hostess. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Don Jones and Mrs. Dick Jones. The dinner will be at the Community Center Friday night, November 19. Hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Beaver.

A Harvest Thanksgiving Festival is planned by members of the Fluvanna Methodist Church for Wednesday night, November 17. The dinner will begin at 7 o'clock, and guest speaker for the service afterwards will be Dr. Hubert Bratcher of Big Spring.

Always making plans are members of the Young Farmers of Texas Chapter at Fluvanna. Members of this busy group journeyed to Sterling City last Thursday and met with a group of interested men there who desire to start a chapter. Local men in the group do not necessarily wait for a time, place or season to carry on the work of the YFT. Attending the meeting in Sterling City from Fluvanna were Don Jones, James Jennings, Bill Jones, Buddy Drum, Don Wills and Orval Mathis.

Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] McDonald took advantage of the sunny weather to visit their son and family in Gainesville recently. They are Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Sam McDonald, Jana and Joni. During the trip both families took time to pursue one of their favorite hobbies — antique hunting.

Fall pecan gathering, a custom once enjoyed by so many families in the fall of the year, took the Dean Ball family to Ranger Sunday where they renewed old acquaintance with Mr. and Mrs. Junior Alderman and also enjoyed a picnic lunch. Enroute home they stopped to see Mrs. Ball's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jake McCammy at Rice, and her mother and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Morgan and boys at Sweetwater. Accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Ball were daughter, Zenda, and son, Dennis Wayne, home from college for the weekend.

In the fall of each year, school annual pictures are taken, and now students at Fluvanna school are eagerly awaiting the return of these pictures for exchange with their friends. A local custom also is the [illegible] tures of preschoolers, therefore many parents of little ones will be glad to see the pictures again this year.

Students are making their plans, too, for Thanksgiving holidays. Fluvanna School will dismiss at 2 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, November 24. Students will return to school on Monday, November 29, according to L. M. Dawson, superintendent.

Marsha Mathis was hostess for a Halloween party in October. Guests enjoyed old - time games like bobbing for apples, marshmallow on a string, as well as a spooky treasure hunt around Fluvanna. Refreshments were served to Joe Thell Belew, Bobby Hall, Victor Contreras, Johnny Dunnam, Johnny Stansell, Paula Turner, Charlotte Toombs, Nanette and Rinda Bruner, Donna and Cindy Patterson, Sue Smith, Donna and Randy Potter, Paul Belano, Robert Miller, Linda Daugherty, Sandra Stansell, Gary Sage, Pete Head, and Debbie Mathis.

'Roses' Reaches Investment Cost

NEW YORK (AP) — After 15 months of struggle, "The Subject Was Roses" paid off its $51,000 production cost.

The drama, which received a set of strong opening night notices and later won both the Critics Circle and Pulitzer prizes, opened with an advance ticket sale of $162 and never developed into a box office smash. Budget-trimming and determination kept the play going for 11 months during which the weekly gross averaged $14,300. After the awards, the weekly take jumped to a $20,000 average.

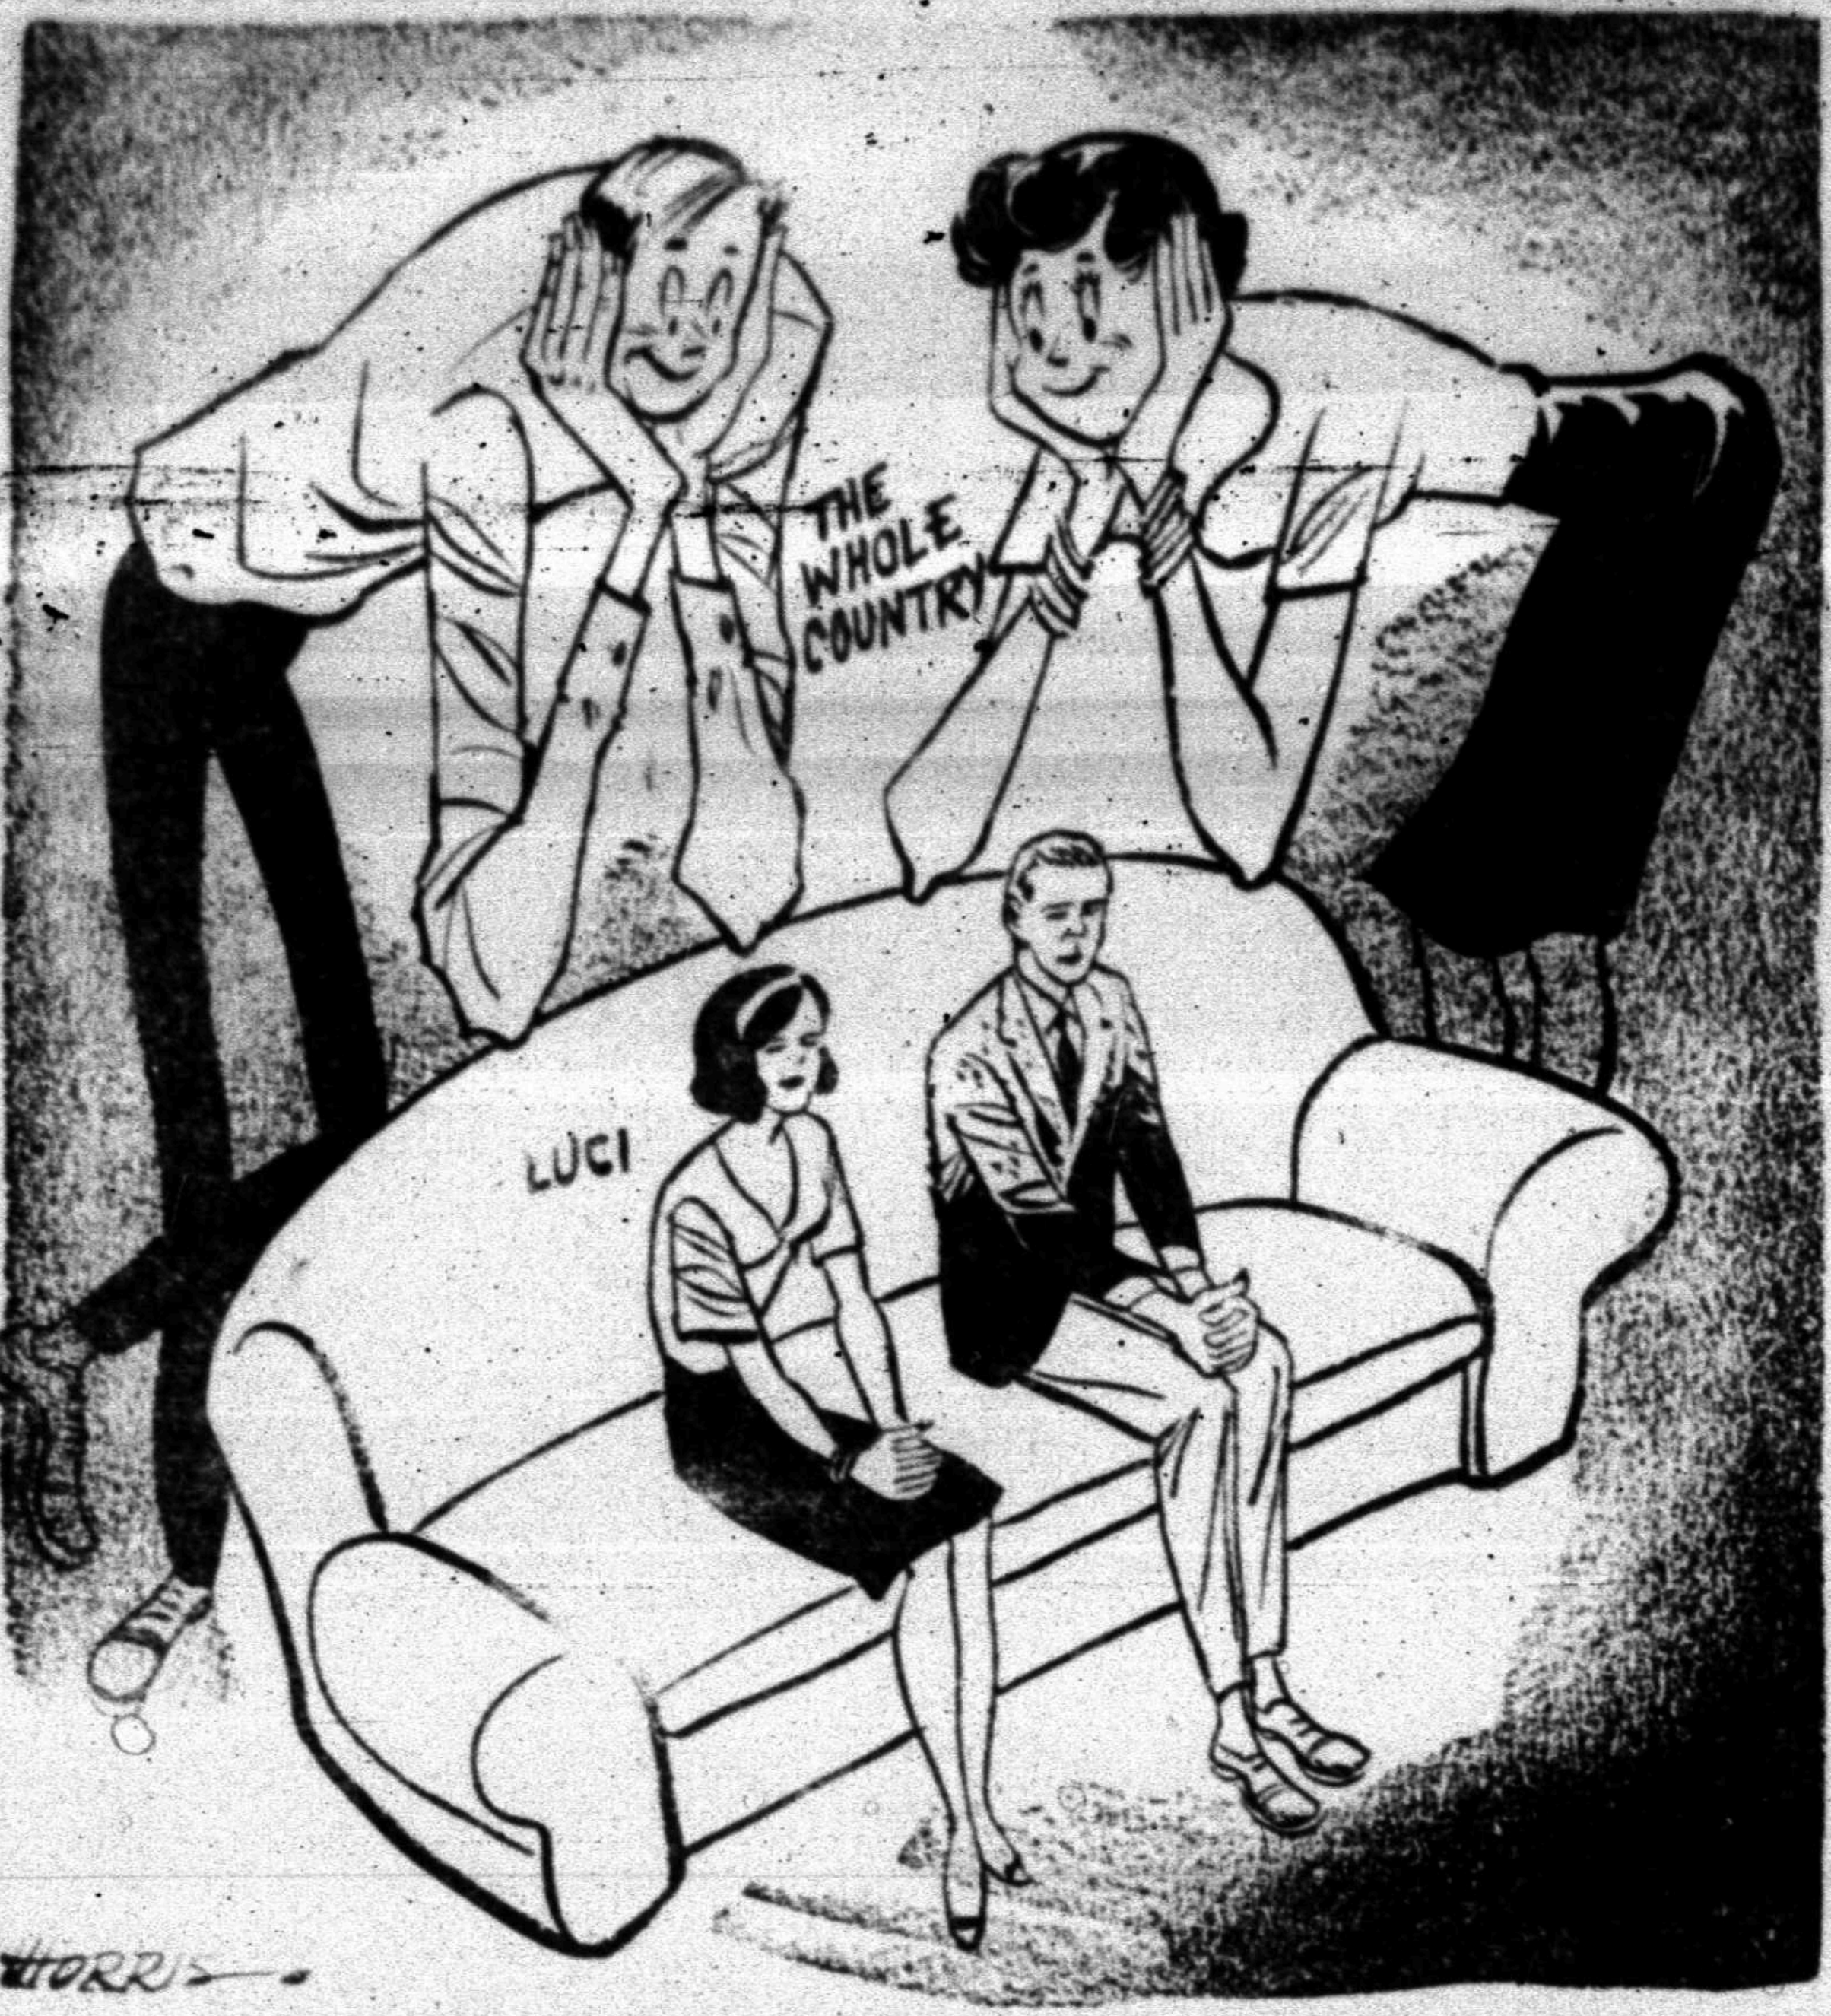
WHO SAID CHAPERONES WERE OUT OF DATE?



More Trouble Is Brewing On The Civil Rights Front

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The whole civil rights front will be boiling in 1966.

President Johnson gave a taste of it Tuesday night when he said he will ask Congress in January for legislation "to prevent injustice to Negroes at the hands of all-white juries."

No doubt he will ask for other legislation in the civil rights field. Thus those who may have thought that things might quiet down after the congressional battles over the Civil Rights Acts of 1964 and 1965 were wrong.

In addition, in the spring there will be a civil rights conference at the White House on how to make equal rights a national reality.

Today civil rights leaders, representing groups from conservative to radical, began a two-day session to prepare for the spring meeting.

Even before the two-day meeting could get under way the American Friends Service Committee and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People released recommendaions on speeding school desegregation.

They noted that the Southern Regional Council had found "fewer than 6 per cent of the Deep South Negro pupils are in desegregated situations" and that "this is not just a statistic, this is a human tragedy."

Over the past weekend the U.S. Civil Rights Commission asked for new federal laws and full enforcement of old ones to stop racial violence and injustice in the South.

The commission urged Johnson to send more federal officers to racial trouble spots and to authorize them to make on-the-spot arrests. The Justice Department has been very restrained in the use of federal police power.

Further, the commission wants a law making it a federal crime to threaten, intimidate or punish persons engaged in civil rights activities. This would include holding trial in federal court in an area where it is decided racial prejudice is too great to permit justice.

The commission said that in some Southern communities officials have defied the Constitution and repudiated their oaths by denying protection of the laws to Negro citizens.

Johnson, to whom the commission sent its 188-page report, said Monday night, "We intend to make the jury box, in both state and federal courts, the sacred domain of justice under law."

He pointed out the government already has moved to join in three suits which, he said, challenge a biased system of jury selection. Johnson said, "We must do more, we will do more."

Meanwhile, the Justice Department is pushing a number of civil rights cases in the courts.

Johnson called attention to something else. He said he will expect immediate results from a letter just sent out by Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach calling on all agencies to ferret out discrimination in every assistance program.

The Supreme Court is fed up with delays in school desegregation. In a unanimous ruling the court said Monday, "Delays in desegregation of school systems are no longer tolerable."

Junior Editors Quiz on MOUNTAIN SNOW

QUESTION: Why does snow cover the tops of high mountains where it's actually nearer to the sun?

• • •

ANSWER: You will understand this when you realize that air is not just nothing, as it appears to us, but is a combination of actual substances in a gaseous state, which form a blanket around the earth. Air has weight. As a result, the upper layers push down on the lower ones, and so the lower ones become more dense. There are more air molecules in these lower layers. If you will realize that these air molecules pick up and retain heat from the rays of the sun, you will understand that the air is much warmer at the bottom of the atmospheric layer than at the top. So the air particles at the top of a really high mountain, thinly spaced, create a climate of cold up there which more than makes up for the fact that the mountain top is very slightly closer to the sun. With a cold mountain top climate, the snow that falls does not melt away but remains as a snowy crest during the whole year. Meanwhile, [illegible] our picture, people may be moving around in the warmer [illegible] air layers, wearing shirts with sleeves rolled up. The snow-topped mountain shown in this picture is beautiful Mount Rainier, in the state of Washington. It rises to a majestic 14,410 feet.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: See if you can find some pictures of the most spectacular snow-capped mountain in the world: Fujiyama in Japan. Notice how the magnificent white crest of Mount Fuji soars over a countryside below where often no snow will be seen. 11-17

(Jill Johnson of Rochester, Minn., wins today's combined prize of Compton's Illustrated Science Dictionary plus $10 cash for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this [illegible]

Omar Sharif Ready To Leave Camel

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Omar Sharif, the most famous film sheik since Rudolph Valentino, think it is time the public let him down off his camel.

The young Egyptian-born actor, who won an Academy Award nomination for his portrayal several years ago of Sheik Ali in "Lawrence of Arabia," remarked:

"Many think I always wore robes and rode a camel. This is untrue. I hardly ever saw a camel before except on a cigarette box.

"It's hard to shake the image created by your first success. Most of the time one doesn't succeed in shaking it. But that is better than to have to try to shake he image of your first flop."

Slender, still in his early 30s, Omar is good-natured, somewhat shy in manner. As Michel Shalhoub, son of a Syrian lumber importer, he was reared in Cairo and graduated from an English college there. A year later he turned to acting after he found the lumber business left him with a wooden feeling.

He made a couple of dozen films in Cairo, became a star in the Arab world, and married Faten Hamama, Egypt's best-known actress. They have a son, Tarek, 8.

He picked the name Omar Sharif — which means "the honorable Omar" — because of its sound. But when he first appeared on the "Lawrence of Arabia" sets, Irish actor Peter O'Toole objected:

"Nobody could be called Omar Sharif. I'm going to call you 'Cairo Fred.'"

The nickname stuck.

"Orientals are violin people," he remarked. "They are emotional and sentimental and self-indulgent.

"In Egyptian melodramas your success was judged by how much you could make the audience cry. Since then I've had to learn emotional restraint — to realize that the most moving thing is not someone actually crying, but someone who wants to cry and is fighting it."

Sharif, a cultured man who speaks six languages, said that as an Oriental he had met with some difficulties in adjusting to the Western tempo.

"It is so speedy," he observed drily. "I try to sleep as long as possible because it is the slowest thing I know.

"An Oriental, as long as he has food enough for this day, neither works nor worries about tomorrow.

"But I suppose speed is necessary in the large cities of Europe and America because life there is so tough and competitive. If you don't keep at it, someone will take your place."

Thirty-Eight Cranes Counted At Aransas

WASHINGTON (AP)—Thirty-eight whooping cranes have arrived at the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge on the Texas coast, their winter home.

The Interior Department received a report that three more adult whoopers had been spotted on a lake west of Panhandle, Tex.

The birds—31 adults and 7 young—were counted in an aerial survey Tuesday.

A record 42 cranes left the Texas refuge last spring for nesting grounds in Northern Canada.

Dutchman Returns To Coach Vikings

By The Associated Press

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — Peace was restored Tuesday in the Minnesota Vikings' family after a tempestuous 24 hours during which stormin' Norman Van Brocklin, the head coach, quit, reconsidered and humbly returned.

The question today became what effect the tornadic episode will have on the Vikings, who return to the National Football League wars Sunday against the Green Bay Packers, runners-up to Baltimore in the Western Conference.

Has the insecurity of Monday, when Van Brocklin quit in a fit of depression over four defeats this season, hurt team morale and delayed preparations for the Packer game?

Or will the Vikings' players, relieved and happy to have back the only coach the team has ever had in 4 seasons, rise to the heights and go after the Packers like a pack of Northern wolves?

Everybody connected with the Vikings — players, coaches and front office alike — insist the stormy 24 hours will either have no effect on Sunday's game or will, indeed, inspire the Vikings.

Whatever the effect, Van Brocklin was a relieved man Tuesday after, he said, he "came to his senses."

"There is no explanation," the volatile, 39-year-old Dutchman said of his original decision said of his original decision to quit.

"I just became depressed, but I later realized I didn't want to quit, I've lived a life of not being a quitter.

"I just wasn't being rational. I couldn't think straight. I was feeling so sorry for myself that I made this great mistake.

"I apologize to everyone. I'm very sorry that I embarrassed myself, my family, and my friends. I'm grateful to be back."

Seminar Tonight For Skiing Enthusiasts

Snow skiing enthusiasts will have Harold Holmes of Lamesa as guest speaker in an equipment seminar this evening.

Mount McKenzie Ski Club will hold its monthly meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the Snyder National Bank community room.

All members and other interested persons are invited. There will be plenty of ski talk, movies and refreshments.

Balboa Wins Bout

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Unbeaten Severo (Go-Go) Balboa of Corpus Christi ran his winning streak as a professional to 19 in a row by defeating Jose (Pollo) Gabino of Reynosa, Mexico, on a split decision in the 10-round main event of Tuesday night.

GRID MOTHERS MEET THURSDAY

The Football Mothers will meet at 7 p.m. Thursday in Room 118 at Snyder High School. The purpose of the meeting is to make plans for the annual football banquet. All football mothers are urged to attend.

Lake View Chiefs Will Be Out To Scalp The Tigers

"The Wildcats were tough and fast,' said coach Horrace Bostick, "and would have won if we hadn't played our best game of the season." He spoke Tuesday night at a meeting of the Snyder Quarterback Club.

In discussing the Littlefield-Snyder game of last week, the head Tiger mentor said Steve McMahon looked especially well on downfield blocking. He also said tackle David Holt and end Ray Kizer turned in outstanding performances.

Coach Bill Hartsfield gave the scouting report on this week's foe—the Lake View Chiefs. The Chiefs and Tigers both will close out the season here Friday night in a 7:30 p.m. match.

Hartsfield, in his report, said the Chiefs "looked like they could beat anybody the other night." He had reference to the 32-26 decision Lake View won over Levelland. The Chiefs swept 55 yards in four plays in the final one minute, 57 seconds to win the game.

Hartsfield said the Chiefs do not have an impressive record, but that they looked impressive in their last two games (Lamesa and Levelland) and "might give us a kicking." He said he thinks they control the ball well and do a good job on the option play. They like the off-tackle drive play and frequently put the slotback in motion.

Lamesa held only a 12-7 lead over the Chiefs at halftime, and the Injuns beat Levelland. They had one touchdown called back in that game.

All things considered, the Snyder coaches look for a rough opponent in Lake View.

During the showing of game films of the Littlefield-Snyder tilt, Coach Bostick said he thought the Tigers contained Schovajsa (Larry) well except for one play. He added that Jackie Rice played perhaps his best game.

All of the coaches in the school system gave reports on last week's games. The Lake View game will conclude the season.

Top Teams Eye Playoffs

By The Associated Press

The district campaign winds up this week in the upper divisions of Texas schoolboy fotball with 17 champions to be named in the last go-round.

Class AAAA, which has decided only six district representatives to the state playoffs—Odessa Permian, Lubbock Monterey, Wichita Falls Rider, Fort Worth Arlington Heights, Texarkana and Nederland—must name 10 more this week.

Class AAA has decided nine, with seven more to be determined. Already on the line in AAA are Dumas, Odessa Ector, Lamesa, Weatherford, Conroe, Bay City, Dickinson, San Marcos and Donna.

Among those already in the playoffs are Texarkana rated No. 1 in the state, and Dumas, which has a similar ranking in Class AAA.

Also in the playoffs is San Marcos, unbeaten and untied in 10 games with an average of 31.6 points per contest. San Marcos was the state runner-up last year and looks like a good bet to repeat.

Here is the lineup by districts in the two classes:

CLASS AAAA

1. El Paso Bowie vs. Ysleta Bel Air at El Paso Saturday for championship.
2. Odessa Permian champion.
3. Lubbock Monterey champion.
4. Wichita Falls Rider champion.
5. Fort Worth Arlington Heights champion.
6. Dallas Woodrow Wilson vs. Dallas Hillcrest Friday night for championship.
7. Denison can win by beating Paris Friday night; loss would hand title to Highland Park if it beat Carrollton.
8. Texarkana champion.
9. Houston Jones vs. Houston Lee Friday night for championship.
10. Spring Branch vs. Spring Branch Memorial Friday night for championship.
11. Nederland champion.
12. Freeport Brazosport can win by beating or tying Texas City Friday night; loss would hand title to Pasadena Rayburn because of point advantage.
13. Austin Travis vs. Corsicana at College Station Friday for championship.
14. Corpus Christi Miller vs. Alice at Corpus Christi Saturday for championship.
15. San Antonio Lee vs. San Antonio MacArthur for championship Friday night.
16. San Antonio Harlandale can win by beating San Antonio Brackenridge. If Brackenridge wins or ties, championship will go to San Antonio Burbank, which has finished season.

CLASS AAA

1. Dumas champion.
2. Odessa Ector champion.
3. Lamesa champion.
4. Brownwood at Vernon Friday for championship.
5. Weatherford champion.
6. McKinney can win by beating Mt. Pleasant Friday; otherwise could be triple tie among McKinney, South Garland and Gainesville if South Garland beats Greenville and Gainesville beats Lake Highlands.
7. Nacogdoches can win by beating Carthage; otherwise four-way tie likely among Nacogdoches, Carthage, Pine Tree and Kilgore.
8. Athens can win by beating Duncanville; otherwise Lancaster could win by beating Terrell.
9. Bridge City at West Orange Friday for championship.
10. Conroe champion.
11. Bay City champion.
12. Dickinson champion.
13. Gatesville at Austin Lanier Friday for championship.
14. San Marcos champion.
15. Del Rio can win by beating San Antonio Marshall Friday at Del Rio; loss would give title to Kerrville if it beats South San Antonio.
16. Donna champion.

Fluvanna 'Buffaloes' Rotan

FLUVANNA—Fluvanna flailed Rotan in a basketball doubleheader Tuesday night with the girls taking a 40-13 decision and the boys posting a 74-36 triumph.

Rinda Bruner paced the Fluvanna girls with 17 points while Sandra Stansell managed 14. Frances Baugh was high point girl for Rotan with five points.

The boys of Fluvanna took a 30-4 lead in the first quarter, and Coach Geral Greene called off the first string as everyone got into the game. The halftime margin was 44-11, and the Buffs led, 59 to 19, going into the final frame.

Three Buffs finished in double figures: Bobby Hall (23), Joe Belew (24) and Henry Conterras (12). Sorell meshed 13 points to capture scoring laurels for Rotan.

The Buffs will journey to Klondike Monday for a twin card beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Fluvanna—Bobby Hall 8-7-23; Henry Contreras 5-2-12; Joe Stansell 3-0-6; Victor Contreras 1-0-2; Joe Belew 8-5-21; Johnny Dunnam 1-2-4; Johnny Stansell 2-0-4; Paul Bilano 1-0-2.

GOOD NEWS FOR HOGS?

The Associated Press announced today that it will take its poll for the national football championship after the bowl games instead of at the end of the regular season.

Last season Alabama was named National Champion prior to the bowl games, then lost to Texas in one of the post season classics. The final listing of Top 10 teams will be given after the bowl games.

Rickey In Coma

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — The coma into which Branch Rickey lapsed when he had a heart attack is in its fourth day.

The Boone County Memorial Hospital reported his condition unchanged and still critical today.

The 83-year-old organizing genius of major league baseball collapsed Saturday night at the speaker's stand as he acknowledged his election to Missouri's Sports Hall of Fame.

Sayonara Kazuo

TOKYO (AP) — Kazuo Kageyama, 38, newly appointed manager of the 1965 Pacific Baseball League pennant-winning Nankai Hawks, died today.

Death was attributed to an overdose of sleeping pills.

Health Plan To Raise Standards

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Needy elderly persons can look forward to improved medical care after the new Social Security health program starts to operate next year.

A basic reason, of course, is that the program will provide a floor of health protection for indigent persons over 65 as well as the better-off segment of the elderly.

But, equally important, the 1965 Social Security Act contained far-reaching provisions requiring a much higher standard of health care in most states for the needy aged.

These provisions have been overshadowed by the new Social Security program in the bill, popularly called medicare, and by the increases in most states for the needy aged.

Benefiting from the provisions will be 2,144,000 persons on the old age assistance rolls and 264,000 who receive help under the medical assistance for the aged program known as Kerr-Mills.

These 264,000 elderly persons have sufficient income to keep them off the welfare rolls but not enough to handle their medical expenses.

There was some expectation that the need for Kerr-Mills would diminish when the Social Security health care program gets under way.

But, to the contrary, congressional sponsors of the 1965 Social Security bill and officials of the Health, Education and Welfare — HEW — Department expect Kerr-Mills to expand considerably.

This will happen, they say, because the Social Security health benefits probably will cover only 50 to 60 per cent of the aged person's medical expenses, and because of provisions in the bill requiring greater benefits under Kerr-Mills.

One important side effect of the new program, they point out, will be to leave the states with more money to put into health care for their needy aged since the new program will provide for at least half of their medical needs.

HEW officials emphasize that Kerr-Mills so far has not come close to meeting its potential even under the original 1960 law. Seven states still do not participate; and some of those which do, offer only nominal benefits.

The two plans under the new Social Security health care program become operative July 1, 1966. They will include these benefits:

Plan A — Hospital, nursing home and home health care as well as out-patient diagnostic services.

Plan B—Doctors' services in the hospital, clinic and home, along with a variety of other benefits such as wheelchairs, braces and laboratory tests.

The needy aged, along with all other persons over 65, will be covered under Plan A as a matter of right.

Plan B is voluntary. Aged must sign up for it and pay $3 a month for it.

Viet Nam Christmas Will Be Brighter

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. servicemen in Viet Nam are going to get more than their usual quota of Christmas goodies.

Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa., says the Defense Department will start airlifting candy, cookies and cake this week.

Schweiker says the gifts are being prepared as an expression of support for the military, and "in Pennsylvania alone, more than 75 tons of baked goods are being produced and wrapped by high school students."

US Strategy Aimed Toward Steady Erosion Of 'Cong

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — At this stage of the Vietnamese war the United States is counting primarily on military successes rater than diplomatic appeals to persuade North Viet Nam to enter into peace negotiations.

A fresh bid by U.N. Secretary-General U Thant for concessions from all sides in the conflict to promote the prospects for peace failed today to arouse any outward enthusiasm here.

Administration officials said the United States is ready to talk but they see no interest in talks now on the part of the Vietnamese Communist leadership.

The current visit to Moscow by Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, a close associate of President Johnson, may produce some U.S. peace approach to the Soviet government. Officials here will not say what — if any — instructions Mansfield had from Johnson on this point.

But they do expect that if Mansfield urges Soviet peace pressures on North Viet Nam, which is receiving Soviet military aid, he also will stress Johnson's determination not to yield South Viet Nam to Communist conquest.

The fact is, however, that U.S. policymakers are generally pessimistic about the outlook for negotiations at this time. They believe the North Vietnamese and guerrilla leaders in South Viet Nam, though their confidence of victory may be shaken, are not yet persuaded they face eventual defeat.

There is some opinion here, moreover, that the war may never end in a negotiated settlement. Those who think this is a serious possibility say that after a time the fighting may simply die down as larger areas come under control of U.S. and South Vietnamese forces. North Viet Nam, according to this theory, could just quietly give up the struggle.

American strategy is now aimed at progressively destroying or wearing down the Communist military forces on the ground in the South and wrecking their morale, while maintaining aerial bombardment of targets in the North. An important new element of this strategy apparently is to press offensive operations against the North Vietnamese regular troops in the South wherever they can be found.

The big battle this week in the Ia Drang Valley of South Viet Nam, near the Cambodian border, is said here to fit into this pattern. U.S. strategists reason that if American and South Vietnamese forces succeed in destroying crack units from North Viet Nam, they will shake the very foundations of Communist confidence and move the conflict closer to conclusion.

The United States now has 160,000 troops in South Viet Nam and is building up to 200,000 as an immediate target with no limit on increases beyond that point.

Road Plan Approved

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Highway Commission has approved a $350 million two-year consolidated highway program, more than half of it devoted to safety projects.

The 1967-68 program includes work on 9.4' miles of road.

Gov. John Connally called plans to devote 52 per cent of the program to safety projects "extremely gratifying."

"This is particularly significent in light of a recent report showing a decrease in traffic accidents and deaths on U.S. and state-numbered and interstate highways," he said.

"I am hopeful that this trend will continue as more highways with built-in safety features are constructed."

State highway engineer Dewitt Greer said the program includes 1,809 miles of construction and reconstruction on U.S. and state highways at an estimated cost of $262.8 million; purchase of 587 miles of right-of-way at an estimated state cost of $19.3 million; improvement work on 3,143 miles of highways at a cost of $24.1 million and improvement of 3,930 miles of farm and ranch roads at a cost of $31.6 million.

BILL MASEY

New Manager At Furr's

Bill Masey of Odessa has been named manager of Furr's Super Market here.

He succeeds Charles White, local Furr's manager for the past nine years. White has been transferred to a Furr's store in Santa Fe, N. M.

Masey has been with Furr's in Odessa for the past six years. He is married and is the father of two sons. He is a member of the Baptist Church.

The neat, well - kept streets of Maldive Islands' capital, Male, are paved with white sand.

Auctions To Be Probed

AUSTIN (AP) — Five state representatives from rural areas have been named to investigate the operations of livestock auction companies.

Speaker Ben Barnes appointed them Tuesday under a House resolution adopted during the 1965 legislative session.

He named Reps. Nelson Cowles of Hallsville, E. M. Edwards of Pattonville, Roy ledge of Stamford, Charles Jungmichel of LaGrange and David Howard of Uvalde.

"The experience of these members and their representation of the rural districts have familiarized them with the problems of livestock auctions in Texas," Barnes said, "and their combined efforts should provide the 60th Legislature with guidelines for corrective and remedial legislation."

Republicans Slate Kansas City Meet

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans from 25 states will meet in Kansas City, Mo., Friday for a national research conference.

GOP Chairman Ray C. Bliss said today the three-day affair will be devoted to discussing ways and means of conducting political research.

Search Continues For Girl's Grave

By RANDY COLLIER

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — In a stretch of desert just outside southern Arizona's biggest city, a search goes on for the body of pretty Alleen Rowe.

The 15-year-old girl's mother, Mrs. Norma Rowe, identified two metal hair curlers uncovered at the spot Tuesday as those of her daughter's. Alleen was wearing the curlers when she disappeared May 31, 1964.

Two young people charged with murdering Alleen helped officers in the search, but their attorneys said they would not allow John Saunders, 19, and Mary Rae French, 18, to go back today.

Alleen reportedly was wearing two rings, and Sheriff Waldon Burr said he would use a metal detector today to hunt for her shallow grave.

Officers said the grave may be deeper now because of an unusual amount of rain that fell in Tucson last year. Rains could have moved a large amount of sand from higher areas to where the grave was dug.

The possibility that the girl's body could have been moved by one of her attackers also was being considered, officers said.

Although the girl's mother said her daughter had told her of a teen-aged sex club which she refused to join, police discounted this.

"There is nothing to substantiate her belief at this time," Police Chief Bernard Garmire said.

An informer told police that Alleen was killed by Saunders, Miss French and Charles Schmid, 23, Garmire said. All three were charged with murdering her and were jailed without bond.

Schmid, a former gymnastics champion, also has been charged with murdering two other girls. The bodies of Gretchen Fritz, 17, and Wendy Fritz 13, daughters of a prominent Tucson surgeon, were recovered last week after the same informer had led officers to the scene.

Miss French, according to Tucson police, said in a written statement that she, Saunders and Schmid took Alleen to the desert. The statement said Saunders and Schmid led the victim away from the car and beat her with rocks until she died.

The girl said she heard Alleen screaming. Shortly afterward, Schmid came back for a shovel and Miss French followed him to the body. After burying the body, the three left the site.

No motive has been disclosed by police.

1965 Congressional Statistics Complete

WASHINGTON (AP) — The final Congressional Record of the 1965 session is out, its pages filled with statistics.

Among the figures listed Tuesday:

Some 16,882 bills were introduced with 349 becoming law.

The Senate spent 960 hours an 50 minutes in session; the House 798 hours and 25 minutes.

The record itself included 34,311 pages, printed at an estimated cost of $3.3 million.

Finding Folks After 20 Years 'Just Like Being Born Again'

By DAVID SKOLFIELD
St. Petersburg Times

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — A 39-year-old deep-sea diver who says he lost his memory when he was beaten senseless at the end of World War I has found his family and his past after a search of two decades.

"It's just like being born again," said Robert Sheridan, who was 19 and heading for San Francisco to be discharged from the Navy when the amnesia began. "You have something of your own again."

Although investigations by the Navy, the FBI, the Red Cross, state troopers, state senators and insurance companies failed to turn up a trace of Sheridan, his mother never gave up hope.

His father, John J. Sheridan, a retired post office worker from Albany, N.Y., had searched, but less aggressively. "I was a little afraid of what I might find," he said.

Sheridan gave this account:

It was 20 years ago when he was found severely beaten along a road outside Craig, Colo. His wallet was gone. His silver identification bracelet read: "Robert Sher...." The remainder was illegible.

A few feet from him lay a pistol.

Then he began his years of wandering.

"I bumed around all over. The casinos in Reno, the police department in Reno, all over."

Several times he met girls he [illegible], but he never did.

"I didn't know whether I had a wife or children. And then there was that gun. I didn't know what kind of person I might have been.

"You are afraid to tie yourself to anyone when you don't have a past."

Finally, about a year ago, while working as a diver in Los Angeles, he decided to go to a psychoanalyst.

One day, his childhood street address in Albany popped into his mind. He went to Albany, but his parents had moved to Florida 11 years before.

"I talked around the neighborhood but I didn't remember them."

He was discouraged. But in searching the phone book the name of his uncle struck his eye.

The uncle directed him to a sister, Marjorie Benvento of Fayetteville, N.Y. She told him one brother had died. The other, John Jr., rushed from St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore and went with him to Florida.

First they visited a sister in Largo, Lillian Watkins, and then last week all three came to Indian Rocks Beach, outside St. Petersburg.

Sheridan plans to live with his parents. He has already set up a deep-sea diving company here.

But the past is still far from complete.

"Little bits and pieces are coming back all the time," he said. "It makes life worth living."

CRMWD To Get Reports On Project

Directors of the Colorado River Municipal Water District are scheduled tentatively to meet in Big Spring at 10 a.m. Nov. 23, Charles Perry, Odessa, president, said today.

The board will get a progress report on preparations for the dam across the Colorado River above Robert Lee. At this stage, surveying is approximately one-third complete, and the appraisals are being started with first contacts with landowners due soon.

At the meeting, groundwork for contracts with Midland regarding water from district facilities will be reviewed. If and to what extent Midland wishes to participate will have to be considered before the district forms its financing and pipeline plans.

The board is due to formally adopt the budget for 1966. Previously a proposed budget was approved and since the 30-day interval for bond holder reaction has passed without any objections, the budget likely will be finally adopted.
