Break Looms In Argentine, Cuba Squabble

HAVANA (AP) — A bitter exchange between Fidel Castro's Cuba and Argentina sparked predictions today of a diplomatic break between the two Latin American countries.

Cuba's Foreign Minister Raul Roa brought the issue to a head Monday night. In a sharp note to Argentine ambassador Julio A. Amodeo, he flatly rejected Argentina's protests over his recent attack on the government of President Arturo Frondizi before the Organization of American States in San Jose, Costa Rica.

Roa also sent a note—milder in tone—brushing aside Brazil's protests against his attack on Foreign Minister Horacio Lacer.

The exchange was prompted when Roa launched a biting attack on Argentina and Brazil at San Jose after they joined 17 other OAS nations in a censure of Cuba for agreeing to accept Soviet military aid in event of a U.S. attack.

In last year's Labor Day holiday period, also covering 78 hours, there were 438 traffic deaths, 29 persons were killed in boating accidents. The over-all toll of 613 compared with the record of 653 set in the 1961 Labor Day weekend.

70 Dead In Hurricane

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Donna, leaving 70 dead in its wake, whirled west northwest in the Atlantic today, still a threat to the U.S. mainland.

Donna slowed her forward movement to 10 miles per hour but still packed winds up to 125 miles per hour over a small area near the center.

Early today the season's fourth tropical storm was about 200 miles east-southeast of Turks Island in the Bahamas and 800 miles east-southeast of Miami, the nearest mainland point.

TAKES CASE TO PARLIAMENT Lumumba Holding

By LYNN HEINZELING LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Premier Patrice Lumumba called for an emergency session of Parliament today to seek a vote of confidence in a showdown fight for power with President Joseph Kasavubu.

Lumumba acted after a rash of events in which Kasavubu went on the air in a dramatic move Monday night and announced the fery premier's ouster. The latter countered by taking over the network and announcing he had fired Kasavubu as chief of state.

Claiming they have the support of the Congolese army, Lumumba's supporters issued the call to both houses after an all-night cabinet session.

Lumumba was plainly determined to keep his job despite Kasavubu's charge that under the premier's leadership the Congo was plunging into fratricidal strife and sliding toward the Soviet bloc.

East Germans Make Threats

BERLIN (AP) — Communist East Germany warned today that its recent travel ban against isolated Berlin was only a taste of what it could do, and there was a veiled threat to cut off the air corridors to Berlin.

Spy Policy Denounced

Moscow (AP) — Two young code clerks from the super-secret U.S. National Security Agency turned up in Moscow today, with tales that the United States is spying even on its allies under a policy they feel will lead to World War III.

There was no indication how soon another Congo emergency session of the Security Council might be called. The situation in Leopoldville is just too fluid for us to say anything at this time, a spokesman for the secretary general said.

Say Trawler Transported Defectors

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Russian trawler is reported to have smuggled two defecting American code clerks to the Soviet Union after picking them up secretly in a Cuban port.

This was disclosed today by the White House, Pentagon, and State Department met with a somewhat embarrassed official silence, the news Moscow had unveiled the pair at a news conference with a flood of spy accusations.

Responsible authorities, who reported how Bernon F. Mitchell and William H. Martin got to Russia, said government agencies knew about the voyage shortly after the trawler left Cuba.

Kennedy Attacks Foreign Policies

By JACK BELL
POCAHONTAS, Idaho (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy, continuing his attack on President Eisenhower's foreign policies, complained anew today that Soviet planes bound for the Congo are being allowed to refuel at a NATO base in Athens, Kennedy urged a raft of attacks on Eisenhower's leadership and foreign policies as he pushed his Democratic presidential drive into the mountain and Pacific Northwest states.

Under the kind of leadership we have had... Kennedy's speech, he scarcely gave more than five minutes to a technique he is employing in his wide-ranging campaign. About 150,000 people, including a fair proportion of children and babies in strollers, got a glimpse of him or heard him at rallies in Detroit, Pontiac, Flint and Muskegon before he boarded his plane to fly west.

Violence In State Claims Lives Of 48

Highway accidents, drownings and other violence claimed at least 48 lives in Texas during the 78-hour Labor Day holiday period, highway accidents killed 28 persons. Eight persons drowned. Hangings, shootings, fires and other violence took 12 lives.

Carl Greasing of Valley View near Gainesville died Monday when his shotgun discharged as he was dove hunting.

Railroad Awaiting Answer By Unions

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad awaited an answer today from two striking unions on its offer to submit to "final and binding arbitration" three issues which it says are blocking settlement of a six-day strike which has shut down the nation's largest rail carrier.

PRR officials announced at a news conference Monday night they had sent telegrams to the Transport Workers and System Federation unions that the railroad would be willing "provided the strike is called off immediately, to sign up on the 23 issues tentatively agreed upon" and to settle three issues by arbitration. Immediately after the news conference a spokesman for non-unions said they had not received the telegrams which were read later on a television show by management officials.

It is not correct and yet more absolutely incorrect that 23 issues had been tentatively agreed upon the spokesman said. Michael J. Quill, president of the Transport Workers, which has some 15,000 nonoperating employees on strike, said he would have no immediate comment on the offer.

Kennedy Heading Northwest

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Democratic Presidential nominee John F. Kennedy is expected to leave Washington for the Northwest today for Labor Day attacks on the Republican economic and foreign policies.

His GOP opponent, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, was cheered by the word that he may be able to leave Walter Reed Army Hospital, Saturday instead of Sunday. Doctors reported he was making a fine recovery from the knee infection that hospitalized him a week ago.

Nixon, who has been working on campaign plans from his hospital bed, plans to leave next Monday on a 9,000-mile campaign swing.

Kennedy campaigns today in Pocatello, Idaho, Spokane and Seattle, Wash. He will make speeches Wednesday in Oregon before leaving Portland by train for a two-day whistle stop tour through California.

In an address prepared for a Pocatello rally, Kennedy said that "to assert leadership abroad requires that we assert leadership at home. It requires that we move ahead on every front and on every frontier. And we have not been moving ahead in recent years."

Thousands turned out Monday to greet Kennedy at Detroit, Flint and Muskegon, Mich. He contended the Republicans were stifling economic growth and failing to provide proper leadership.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, Kennedy's running mate, spent the weekend at his Texas ranch near Austin. He will speak Thursday in Boston and campaign Friday in Hartford, Conn., and New York City before returning to Washington on Saturday.

Henry Cabot Lodge, Kennedy's running mate, makes the first formal speech of his campaign today in the high school at Abington, Pa. Accompanied by New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Lodge campaigned over the holiday weekend at beaches in the New York area. Thousands of bathers greeted them as they toured by helicopter — shaking hands, petting babies and munch-

Heart Assn. Session Set

DALLAS (AP)—Scientific sessions at the 25th annual meeting of the Texas Heart Association here Friday will be aimed at helping to keep Texas doctors abreast of the most recent advances in the diagnosis, treatment and control of heart disease.

Dr. Robert Leslie of El Campo, association president, said the meeting is "another important phase of the Texas Heart Association's expanding professional education program."

Research investigators and experts in the field of heart disease presenting papers at the convention include Dr. A. Carlton Ernste, Cleveland, president of the American Heart Association; Dr. Oglesby Paul, Chicago, president of the American Heart Association; Dr. Carleton Chapman, Dallas, professor of medicine, University of Texas Medical Branch; Dr. Raymond Pruitt, Houston, professor and chairman of the Department of Internal Medicine, Baylor University College of Medicine; and Dr. William Fields, Houston, professor and chairman, Department of Neurology, Baylor University College of Medicine.

Spending By Business Dips

WASHINGTON (AP)—Business spending for new plants and machines now is expected to fall short of earlier estimates for the year, although it still is 12 per cent above last year.

The new estimate came Monday from the Commerce Department and the Securities and Exchange Commission based on a survey of business plans during late July and August.

It showed October-December capital spending plans unchanged from the $36.9 billion annual rate of the current quarter, and put the estimated 1959 total at $36.37 billion instead of the $37 billion that had been forecast officially earlier in the year. The 1959 total was $32.5 billion.

Capital spending has been rising each quarter for the last two years. The lack of a gain for the final quarter of the year added a new note of uncertainty to the business outlook. An increase would have helped to boost the economy.

A hailstone weighing 1 1/2 pounds fell on Potter, Neb., in 1928.

'B' Team Bracing For Sweetwater

Stehley And Gafford At Team's Helm

Coaches Dutch Stehley and Jim Gafford will field a team which is for the most part untried, untested, but eager. This Saturday, as their Snyder "B" team hits the trail for their opener against always tough Sweetwater.

The team is composed primarily of sophomores, with a sprinkling of juniors gracing the squad. Also, seniors are ineligible to play on the team which at present numbers 32.

Last year's "B" team was mentored by Stehley and V. V. Shearburn. The latter coach has since been elevated to varsity line duty, however, with Gafford having been obtained the past month as a replacement.

The formation which the team will stick with will be the straight "T", with flankers used to a maximum. The most effective offensive weapon to date has been the screen pass, which Stehley wryly brought out as "the only thing we've scored on yet."

In a recent scrimmage against the Lamar Ninth Grade team, that particular gimmick was used to good advantage, the speed and deception of the plays keeping the Lamar defense "honest."

Both Stehley and Lamar mentor Ace Amos steadfastly claim victory in that practice outing which transpired the past week. Neither coach is of a conceding nature. In the area of early injuries to team members, the scene is bright with only Dutch Browning sidelined at the present with a wrenched knee sustained in early practices. However, he is expected to be ready for action again by next week. Concerning injuries, Stehley relayed a tongue-in-cheek "We just haven't hit anybody hard enough yet to get any bruises."

To date, only eight contests grace the team's schedule, but there is a possibility that an additional one or two will be added in the future. The slate at present reads: Sept. 10—Sweetwater there; Sept. 17—Big Spring there; Sept. 24—San Angelo home; Oct. 1—Sweetwater home; Oct. 8—Lamesa there; Oct. 22—Abilene there; Nov. 5—Lamesa home; Nov. 12—Big Spring home. All are night games beginning at 7:30 with the exception of the San Angelo and Abilene encounters, which have starting times of 2 p.m.

Chinaman Presses Heralded Johnson

Olympic Decathlon Sports
By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

ROME (AP)—The pressure was on pace-setting Rafer Johnson of the United States today as the Olympic decathlon field plunged into the final half of the grueling 10-event program.

Johnson's California buddy, Chuan-kwang Yang of Nationalist China, trailed Rafer by only 25 points and was in an excellent position to beat out the touted American for the games' most coveted gold medal.

After Monday's storm-interrupted competition in the 100-meter dash, broad jump, shot put, high jump and 400 meters, Johnson had 4,645 points and Yang, a supple 173-pounder, had 4,592.

The decathlon warfare became a two-man scrap when the Soviet Union's heralded Vasily Kuznetsov faltered to a fifth-place total of 3,999. Third with 4,077 was Germany's Klaus Grogorenz and fourth with 4,031 was Finland's Seppo Sutari.

Unless Johnson does at least as well in the five remaining events as he did in setting his current world record of 8,693 in the Olympic trials last July, Yang may overtake him.

Only in the discus does the little, 200-pound Johnson have a distinct edge over Yang. In the other four events on the final decathlon program—110 meter hurdles, pole vault, javelin and 1,500 meters—Yang compares favorably with the Yank from Kingsbury, Calif.

Yang, 27, who will be a sophomore at UCLA this fall, displayed more stamina and bounce Monday night when the decathlon program was delayed more than an hour by a flash Mediterranean storm.

The Chinese athlete shared high jump laurels at 6 feet, 2 1/2 inches with India's Guabashan Randhawa and whipped Johnson in a head-to-head 400 meter heat by two meters. Johnson cleared 6 feet, 3/4 inch in the high jump. Yang's 400 meter clocking was 48.1 against 49.3 for Johnson.

Of Monday's five events, Johnson had the superior performance in only one event—the shotput with a 51-10% loss. Yang led the broad jump with 24-3/4, compared with Johnson's best of 24-0/4. Best time in the 100 meters was Yang's 10.7 against Johnson's 10.9. America's Phil Mulkey ran Memphis, Tenn., was rapping 11th with 3,750 points entering the decathlon windup. Uncle Sam's third contender in the exhausting competition, Dave Edstrom of Sherwood, Ore., had to quit after three events because of an old leg injury. He had 2,107 points.

AAAAARGH!—It's grunt, groan, and do it again for the Snyder Tigers, as they go through their strenuous paces in preparation for Friday's invasion of the Berger Bulldogs. Due to yesterday's holiday, they went through a lengthy morning workout rather than the regular afternoon session. One of the features of the hard-hitting workout is illustrated above, as a group of linemen lower the hammer on a set of tackling dummies. Blocking, tackling, play run-throughs, and maneuverability drills were the items receiving the most attention yesterday. Today's workout will begin at the regular time—approximately 4 o'clock this afternoon. (Photo by Jackson)

SWC Elevens Keeping Noses To Proverbial Grindstones

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Labor Day was just what the word implies for Southwest Conference football teams as they pushed into the second week of practice sessions Monday.

Coach Frank Broyles sent his Arkansas Razorbacks through two drills, exclaiming that "things have got to pick up if we're going to improve any because this is our last week of rough work."

At Waco Baylor Coach John Bridgers shifted his personnel around considerably, attempting to fill a gap at guard Robert Burk, 200-pound sophomore from Andrews, was shifted from a share of the No. 4 left guard slot into the No. 2 right guard position. He replaced Cleo Proctor, who is expected to be out with a bad knee for several weeks.

Texas Tech, preparing for its first shot as a full-fledged league member, stressed defense in its double workouts at Lubbock.

Sophomores Dennis Grimes of Seagraves and Nathan Armstrong of Sweetwater drew praise from Coach DeWitt Weaver for their outstanding play.

The Rice Owls centered their attention on pass defense and punting, although a mid-afternoon shower stirred things up a little. Four players—Boyd King, Ray Alborn, Max Burnett and Wes Stokes—were sidelined by mild injuries. All were expected back Tuesday.

At Austin, Coach Darren Royal sent his charges through two strenuous drills. With one exception, the team escaped injury. Halfback David Russell of Amarillo sprained an ankle, but the injury was not believed serious.

SCOTCH FOURSOMERS

Wilson, Rosser Top CC Golfing

The Snyder Country Club links were a beehive of activity here yesterday, as the Labor Day holiday was commemorated with a Scotch Foursome tournament.

The characteristic of this type of play is for teams to be drawn made up of a man and a woman on each, and they make their shots alternately throughout the round.

Copping top honors in the tourney were the team of Glen Wilson and Rachel Rosser, their nine hole total of 35 being low for the day. Just a stroke behind at 36 was the Bob Henderson-Rachel Rosser twosome. The latter lady served "double duty" during the meet, in that there was one lady short-and she was thus allowed to enter twice.

Four pairs finished in a dead heat for third place with carbon copy 37s.

They included the teams of Harold Lack-Jody Raines; Johnny Boren-Francis Stevenson; Gail Dean-Rada Black; and Ross Carroll-Boots Shaw.

Grid Parade Set Tonight

Topping the local sports slate tonight is the annual Pigskin Preview which will be uncapped in Tiger Stadium beginning at 8 o'clock.

In the spotlight will be each and every gridder on the junior high and high school teams and their respective coaches. All players and coaches will be introduced individually as the highlight of the program.

The yearly function is sponsored by the Snyder Quarterback Club and will take the place of the regular Tuesday night meeting of that organization. There is no admission, and the public is cordially invited and urged to attend.

McCall, Baylor's athletic representative, criticized the Sooners for wooing Richard Inman of Belton to Oklahoma, after the all-state football and basketball player had signed a Baylor letter of intent.

"Incidents such as this, where no legal rules have been broken but moral ones certainly have, reveal a lack of responsibility among those involved," he said.

"And it's the kind of situation where I have more criticism of the temptor than the tempted. It's natural to expect more of adults than of students."

McCall told Tommy Turner of The Dallas News that Inman's defection is a black eye for collegiate football, but that it ultimately may help the game by hastening adoption of a national letter-of-intent.

McCall, Baylor's executive vice president, Abner McCall, aimed some sharp remarks Monday at Oklahoma's recruiting program.

Long Bros. Magicians In Politics

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Editor
WASHINGTON (AP)—Earl Long's country bumpkin compared with Huey but the two Long brothers who died 25 years apart, almost to the day, had the secret of political magic.

They were for something—just being against isn't good enough—and they gave those who voted for them a sense of direction, or of belonging, or of being wanted, or of someone being identified with them.

Earl had been a three-time Louisiana governor. When he died Monday at 65 he had just won the Democratic runoff primary for a congressional seat after losing a fight for lieutenant governor and ducking in and out of mental hospitals.

When Sen. Huey Long died Sept. 19, 1935, after being shot, he had become bigger than Louisiana politics. He was a national figure, getting bigger and, from the long-range view, perhaps more dangerous.

This writer never believed that Sen. Joseph McCarthy, despite such support as he had, would ever go further than the Senate, or that he would remain there long after his crusade simmered down.

McCarthy wasn't for something. He was against something—Communism. Most other Americans were against it, too. But this in a sense was negative. It never gave voters the feeling they were going any place with McCarthy.

McCarthy had only one string to his bow, and it snapped. By the time he died in 1954 he was in eclipse. Even Hitler knew politics better than that. He was against Jews. But he was for a bigger Germany, a richer German people, he said.

Nobody knew the political magic better than the old Tammany Hall politicians. They were for something—a better life somehow for the tenement poor in New York.

By finding them jobs, helping them in distress, providing food, they gave the poor a sense of belonging, particularly the children of immigrants.

The edge was knocked off Tammany's appeal—but not the basic nature of its appeal—when the government under the New Deal stepped in with Social Security, public assistance, unemployment compensation.

It was Franklin D. Roosevelt more than any president in this century, who had the opportunity, with a nation in the despair of depression, to give the masses a new sense of direction and of being wanted.

His New Deal was so broad it was easy for the millions who re-elected him time and again to identify his success with their own and him with them.

President Eisenhower did it another way when the country was torn by McCarthyism and the Korean War. He met the national desire for quiet and peace and restored both. No wonder he was re-elected overwhelmingly in 1956.

When Huey Long became governor in 1923, Louisiana was one of the poorest and most illiterate states in the nation. Children had to buy their own schoolbooks. The roads were gravel from border to border.

The mass of French-speaking Cajuns in the Acadian country in the south and the red-necked Anglo-Saxons in the north had a right to feel neglected and unwanted. The comforts of the rich were something they didn't have and couldn't know.

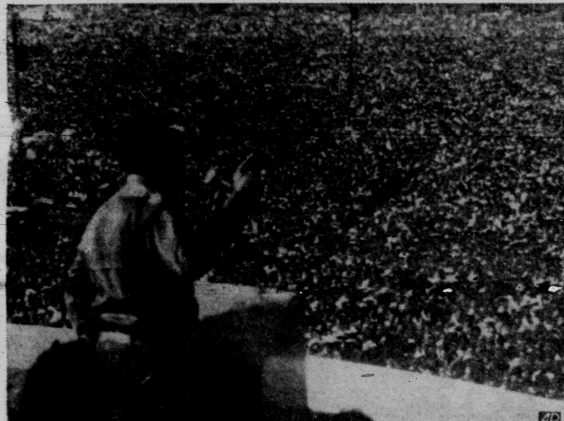

Long blasted the rich, identified himself with the more numerous poor, and promised them a new and better life, a new direction. He made good on a lot of his promises.

The new Capitol he built at Baton Rouge was a visible monument to the new life he talked about. The secret of his political philosophy and his appeal was summed up in the title of the book he wrote, "Every Man a King."

This writer knew both Huey and Earl. Huey was far the smoother. He had far the bigger vision of the two—at least for himself. And he was undoubtedly the more ruthless, as his death under gunfire showed.

But if he had been exposed to Earl you would have had no doubt he was in earnest in wanting to do things for the masses, even if tied up with that desire was his own desire for power.

What Earl represented, in essence, was a continuance of Huey's philosophy.

New Hampshire Democrats Hoping To Elect Governor

By JOSEPH D. KAMIN

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)—Politically hungry New Hampshire Democrats are hopeful a bitter Republican wrangle may enable them to snatch the governorship for the first time in 38 years.

Two powerful GOP wings are backing separate candidates in the Sept. 13 primary. A third GOP candidate is campaigning on a "plague on both your houses" theme and warning that the split could help the Democrats.

The Democrats here aren't just hungry. They're starving. Even while New Hampshire was favoring Democrat Franklin D. Roosevelt in three presidential elections, the state continued to choose GOP governors.

The latest, Gov. Wesley Powell, has two opponents in his bid for re-nomination to a second two-year term. They are former Gov. Hugh Gregg, whom Powell defeated by an eyelash in the 1958 primary, and State Rep. Wayne Crosby, who opposed much of Powell's controversial legislative program last year.

Powell is demanding abolition of county government and taking potshots at both his rivals.

The return match between Powell and Gregg represents the second round of a long struggle for control of the Republican party in New Hampshire.

Powell is leading a fight against what he terms the GOP machine. His supporters have pinned the label "Concord Gang" on the party regulars who fought Powell two years ago and were jolted by his victory.

Gregg is a Nashua industrialist and former New England Council president. He is backed by many Republican politicians who have never forgiven Powell's admirers for conducting an unsuccessful election write-in drive after Powell's defeat in a 1950 GOP senatorial primary.

Powell, a Hampton Falls lawyer, says "the basic issue is whether we shall continue a program of progress or return to machine politics."

Such statements are "an insult to those who have worked faithfully in support of our party to keep a Republican administration in Concord for 36 years," retorts Gregg.

Crosby, a veteran state legislator from Hillsboro, claims the Powell and Gregg camps are so busy feuding that they lose sight of a possible Democratic victory in November.

But the Democrats are not without their own disagreements. Three former mayors are candidates for the party's gubernatorial nomination. They are Bernard L. Boutin of Laconia, who lost to Powell by less than 7,000 votes in the 1958 election, and John Shaw and Robert W. Watson, both of Rochester.

Shaw was the unsuccessful Democratic gubernatorial candidate in 1954 and 1956, and lost to Boutin in the 1958 primary.

Asian Nations Skeptical Of Soviet-Red China Division

By RELMAN MORIN

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Government officials of a number of Asian nations are generally skeptical about reports of a serious split between the Soviet Union and Red China over the question of future relations with the non-

"There isn't any sign of it in North Korea," says South Korean Foreign Minister Chung Yil Hyung. "Does anybody really believe Khrushchev wants peaceful coexistence?"

A highly placed Indonesian official noted that Moscow had remained neutral in Indonesia's clash with China, brought about by restrictions on Chinese merchants in Java and Sumatra.

"But we do not take that as a sign that the Russians are with us and against the Chinese," he said.

The foreign minister of South Viet Nam, Vu Van-mu, said there are pro-Soviet and pro-Chinese factions in the government of Communist North Viet Nam.

British officials in Hong Kong—one of the most sensitive listening points in the Far East—tend to downgrade the seriousness of any dispute between the Soviets and Red China.

Another observer, stationed close to the Communist satellites in Asia, suggested that Moscow and Peking may be working a doubleplay to hookwind the non-Communist world.

"Khrushchev doesn't want to be held responsible for what the Chinese do," he said. He referred to Red Chinese actions on the border of India and the earlier events in Nepal and Tibet.

"They hardly come under the heading of peaceful coexistence," he said. "It's possible that the newspaper articles on the interpretation of Communist doctrine were published deliberately to promote the illusion of a split."

The Soviet premier is scheduled to visit Peking, capital of North Viet Nam in the next few weeks.

Officials in the anti-Communist countries adjoining them attach little significance to the visits. They do not believe his trip has any connection with the supposed ideological controversy.

In East Asia, the struggle against the Communists is by no means theoretical.

Between 5,000 and 6,000 Communist-guerrillas are operating in South Viet Nam. Huge Communist forces are poised on or near the line of demarcation in Korea. Asian government officials do not consider that these are the result of the policies of Red China alone.

Two Objects Fall In Yard

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Two objects that fell flaming from the sky and plowed into the back yard of an apartment house will be sent to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration in Washington, police said.

Police said the small chunks landed with a hissing sound Sunday night.

Prof. Robert L. Brown of Southern Connecticut State College said: "There's a reasonably good chance that this particle may be a fragment from an orbiting satellite, possibly Sputnik IV, which broke into many particles after its launching earlier this year."

A woman told police she saw a brilliant object passing overhead about the time the objects came to earth.

Brown ruled out the possibility the objects might have been fragments from a meteor or something launched locally. He said the particle he examined was apparently some lightweight metal, possibly an alloy containing aluminum or magnesium.

Earl Long Going Back To Capitol

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Earl Kemp Long returns today to the state Capitol he alternately dominated or tried to dominate for almost 30 years.

His seemingly boundless energy stilled forever by a third heart attack Monday, the 65-year-old patriarch of the state's first political family was to be borne from Alexandria, where he died, to the Capitol he ruled during three terms as governor.

There he was to lie in state 24 hours, until noon Wednesday. Funeral services were set for 2 p.m. Wednesday at the First Baptist church.

Racial plans were tentatively announced for his Winfield home but members of the Long family clung to the hope that would be able to satisfy one his last wishes. That was to be buried on the Capitol grounds alongside his brother, Huey P. Long, felled by an assassin's bullet 25 years ago this Thursday.

There will be eight pallbearers at the funeral, among them Earl Long's nephew, U.S. Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., son of Huey P. Long.

derburk said it was likely Rep. Harold McSwain, defeated for re-nomination by Long, Aug. 27, would be mentioned.

In Alexandria Monday crowds of supporters who had stuck with Long even when he was called crazy, flocked to see his body in the back room of a funeral parlor.

The man they came to see had had a remarkable political career, even by Louisiana standards.

In and out of the executive mansion and several mental hospitals, he had capped his long years in the limelight just 10 days ago, when he defeated McSwain by 4,000 votes in a Democratic runoff in the 8th District.

Girl Gets Chance To See Kennedy

DETROIT (AP)—Mary Ellen Maurer got her wish to see Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the Democratic presidential nominee, Monday.

Mary Ellen, 15, wrote Kennedy last month telling him she had been told "what a wonderful person you really are."

She said she got her information about the senator from her uncle, Ed Maurer, who served as quartermaster on Kennedy's PT boat which was sunk in the Pacific in World War II. Maurer now lives in East St. Louis, Mo.

Kennedy took time to talk briefly with Mary Ellen and posed with her for pictures.
