

It's Almost Ready

Much remains to be done but a date has been set for the special historical edition of the Hart Beat. The bicentennial salute to Hart's early settlers will be mailed Thursday, Sept. 30.

The special issue will include biographical sketches of many early day families. It will not include all those courageous, stout-hearted people who settled in this Castro County area about Hart. It cannot include all because the whereabouts of some is unknown to us and we have not been able to locate descendants so that such information might be compiled.

Promising to be the biggest issue ever for a Hart newspaper, it will be one which persons will want to treasure for years to come. It will take the reader back to the yesteryears when the century was new; when Castro County was virgin prairie stretching far as eye could see.

With those pioneers who braved this world when new, you'll laugh and you'll shed a tear or two. We invite you to "remember when" through the pages of The Hart Beat.

Subscribers will receive the special paper without extra charge but only those whose subscriptions are current. Those who have received expiration notices prior to October 1 and not responded will NOT receive the paper.

Extra copies of the historical edition will be available for $1.50.

Says Longhorn Coach

'Play Them One At A Time'

"Our ultimate goal is state," Head Coach Bill Taylor told Hart Lions Monday. "But we're playing them one at a time." Taylor and his staff, coaches Kenny Barnes, Larry Cole, Robert Mears and Don Richters, were guests of the club at their regular luncheon meeting.

"We're extremely proud of the boys," Taylor reported. "We have 11 or 12 back from last year. We've got some experience but there are some loop holes we had to fill that were awfully big."

"Our inexperience, we've had some things happen - in our game with Anton, we had 16 penalties for 160 yards. That's astronomical. It was like playing 'Drop the Hanky,' every time I looked there was a flag flying."

Taylor cited new rule changes as part of the reason for the multitude of penalties and pointed out that Anton was similarly affected.

"Hopefully, by district we'll overcome some of this. Against Silverton, the kids were real aggressive. The defense played well and Coach Barnes deserves a lot of credit. Silverton had 60 yards total rushing."

"Friday night our offense looked real good at times but we had some sputtering. A lot of people thought Silverton was weak but they aren't as weak as

0-0 Tie Spoils Entry In Grid Guessing Game

A zero-zero tie in the Vega-Sunray clash Friday night resulted in at least one miss for every contestant in the Hart Beat football contest. That miss was the only mar on the entry of Everette Heller who claims the week's top money.

Four contestants missed just two games and the tie-breaker was used to determine second and third place wins. Weldon Jones and Danny Rice were still deadlocked after the tie-breaker figures were tallied and thus will divide second and third place money equally, receiving $2.50 each. They were 20 points off the Horns-Owls' score with identical predictions of 40-6.

Other contestants who missed two games were Bob Reed, 22 points off with a 48-0 guess, and Lonnie Joe Howell, 28 points away, with a 48-6 prediction.

Holcomb-Martin Vows Pledged In Home Ceremony

Marjorie Martin of Lockney and Melvin E. Holcomb of Floydada were united in marriage Friday, Sept. 3, in a double ring ceremony in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cox, south of Lockney. Holcomb is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E.H. Holcomb of Roaring Springs. The bride is a former Hart resident.

Rev. John C. Jenkins, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lockney, officiated.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. C.L. Record of Lockney, cousin of the bride furnished music on the accordion and played the "Wedding March" as the couple marched to the altar together.

Mrs. Max Marble served her sister as matron of honor. Marble served as best man.

Mrs. Holcomb wore a formal length dress of blue knit fashioned in princess lines with rhinestone accents at the neckline. She wore a corsage of white rose buds. "Borrowed" was a blue garter belonging to her sister, Mrs. Max Marble, that she wore at her wedding.

Mrs. Marble wore a long pink knit dress with long streamers at the back. She carried a long-stemmed red rose.

Mrs. Freddie Ivy of Mansfield, sister of the bride, registered guests.

A reception was held following the ceremony. A white cloth covered the serving table. It was centered with a blue floral candle on a brass candlestick with a large bow of blue, pink and yellow, from which flowed streamers inscribed with the couple's names.

The table held the traditional wedding cake of four tiers. It was decorated with blue rosettes and linking double wedding rings. The cake, made by Mrs. Marble, was topped with a ceramic bride and groom. Appointments of cut glass and silver completed the decor.

Mrs. Cliff Gilly of Floydada, assisted by Mrs. Ray Holcomb of Floydada, sister-in-law of the groom, served the cake. Mrs. Edith Marrs of Floydada served the punch.

Serving in the house party were Mes. Neva Smith, Hall Ferguson and Linton Pruitt, all of Lockney.

Mrs. Holcomb is employed in the Floyd County Tax Office in Floydada. The groom is employed at Baccus Motor Co. in Lockney.

MRS. JOE ALCORTA

Miss Cannon, Mr. Alcorta Pledge Wedding Vows In Olton

Myriad candles formed the background and lighted the altar area of Main Street Church of Christ, Olton Saturday, Sept. 4, for an exchange of nuptial vows between Miss Debora Lynnette Cannon and Joe Alcorta. Officiating the double ring vows was Rex Boyles, director of youth for the church.

The bride is daughter of Mrs. Sue Cannon of Olton. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Alcorta, Plains, are parents of the groom. Mr. Alcorta was formerly associated with Pay and Save Grocery.

Choral selections were presented as a prelude, and for the ceremony included "More", "Follow Me" and "The Wedding Prayer".

An arched candelabra was flanked by groupings of multibranch candelabra, all fitted with Cathedral tapers in a rainbow of pastel colors and entwined with English ivy.

Presented in marriage by her brother, Jimmy Cannon of Amarillo, the bride wore a romantic gown of white chiffon over bridal satin, designed by the bride and fashioned by her mother. The moulded bodice featured a wide V-neckline, and short sleeves formed by graduating lengths of flaring ruffles. Neckline and sleeve ruffles were outlined in lace. Matching lace traced the high rise waist line and culminated with a soft bow of self material at center back. The flaring A-line skirt was re-embroidered with flowerlets of matching lace, and swept into a full chapel train. Matching lace across the skirt front formed a tunic effect.

She wore a layered veil of silk illusion, also outlined in matching scalloped lace and held in place by a caplet of lace and chiffon. She carried a cascade arrangement of pink roses, interspersed with multi-color carnations and tied with a shower of pastel satin ribbons.

She carried pennies in her shoe minted in the dates of birth of both bride and groom, and wore the traditional blue garter.

Mrs. David Wiggains, Lubbock, served as her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Cindy Walden, Naomi Lewis and Alice Alcorta, sister of the groom. Little miss Janice Herrera, niece of the groom, was flower girl.

Feminine attendants were gowned in pastel shades of dotted Swiss. Styled along Empire lines the gowns featured V-neckline, short flared sleeve and A-line skirt terminating in deep ruffle. Belts of self material tied in bows of back interest. Mrs. Wiggains wore pink, Miss Walden, yellow; Miss Lewis, mint green, Miss Alcorta, blue and little Miss Herrera, orchid.

Each bridal attendant wore a picture hat matching her gown and carried a nosegay of pastel carnations tied with multi-colored streamers of satin ribbons tied in love knots.

Ray Rodriguez served as best man. Groomsmen were David Gomez of Plains, Gregg Cannon, brother of the bride, and Rudy Lopez. Pastel colors of their shirts were coordinated with the gown of bridal attendant escorted. Guests were seated by David Johnson and Efrian Rodriguez. Candles were lighted by Scottie Cannon, brother of the bride and Kerry Jones. Guests were registered by Miss Sharla Nicholas.

For her daughter's wedding,

Mrs. Cannon chose a formal length gown of apricot chiffon. The mother of the groom wore a gown of blue chiffon.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception held in Fellowship room of the church honored the young couple. Covered with a white cloth, the bride's table was centered with the bridal bouquet elevated upon a crystal compote, encircled with the bridesmaids nosegays. The traditional three-tiered wedding cake, touched with pastel flowers, was topped with an arch of flowers and doves. Pink reception punch was served along with the cake, pastel mints and nuts.

Presiding at the table were Misses Dana Houston, Laurie Herrera, Nina Spurlin and Sharla Nicholas. Members of the houseparty were Mmes. Buster Nicholas, E.J. Houston, Elmo Bryant, W.G. Green, David Howton, Cecil Smith and Don Jones.

For travel the bride selected a pink street length dress with jacket. She added the corsage of pink roses lifted from the bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Olton High School and attended Lubbock Christian College and South Plains College at Levelland.

Alcorta, a former Olton resident, is graduate of Plains High School. Employed in that city, they will make their home there.

NEWS OF HEALTH

How often should a parent take his child for an eye examination?

According to experts at The National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, the answer is: Shortly after birth and again by age 4, then on a periodic basis throughout his growing years.

Among the 3- to 5-year age group, one child in 20 has some kind of eye problem; after they enter school the incidence jumps to one out of every four. That's why repeated check-ups are essential.

To better understand the vision problems that can affect a child—and ways a parent can detect them—free booklets and tests are available by writing to The National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, SN, 79 Madison Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10016.

What's Afoot in Decorating

PRACTICAL IDEAS ON BEAUTY AND ECONOMY

Savings And Grace

Little things can mean a lot—without costing a lot—in decorating a dining area, now that a popular thing in home decor is smallness. The scaled-down look is high on the list of the latest decorating ideas, since it goes so well in smaller homes and apartments.

Now you can have it all of a single period or mixed and matched with modern for an electrifying eclectic look. Do over your entire home or just add a few perfect period pieces for an excellent accent.

Fortunately, today's delicate sophistication can be had in small pieces at small prices.

You can give your dining room the bamboo and Chippendale look of the gracious English Regency period with a minimum of furniture. Put in a small, round table that comes with extra leaves for larger parties and flank it with graceful chairs that display a rare delicacy of design and scale.

Set it off with a marvelous mobile server that has a Regency railing on top and bottom and a drawer for your silver. Complete the picture with a lighted, glass-fronted china cabinet that can let your casual tableware shine. These all come from the Allegro II collection by Thomasville, painted a pearly brushed white or a soft, creamy-lemon yellow. They also come with little extra touches—at no extra cost.

AN ELEGANT DINING AREA can be easy and economical to achieve.

For longer wear and easier care, the table sides are of metal and both the table and sideboard are topped with a high-pressure laminate for easy maintenance.

Bring out the beauty of the bamboo with an oriental accent in your accessories: memorable china elephants and a potted palm, and you've turned an under-used corner of anywhere into an attractive dining area.

MR. & MRS. VAUGHN ROSS & FAMILY

Hello From Africa

Editor's Note: The following letter is shared by friends of First Baptist Church. Ross is a former teacher in Hart schools.

Dear Friends,

We have been in East Africa for two months now. We arrived on the evening of May 20th and were greeted by several families of the Limuru mission station. We are located at Brackenhurst Assembly about twenty miles from Nairobi, 7,000 ft. up on a mountain. It is very beautiful and green here with flowers and flowering trees growing everywhere. July and August are the cooler months here at Brackenhurst. It gets quite cool and is rainy several days of the week. We have a fireplace in our apartment which feels good in the morning and evening hours.

We are living in an apartment next door to the language school. We have a good view of the coffee and tea estates and the green valley below, with a view of Nairobi in the background. A few days ago the clouds cleared enough for us to see Mt. Kilimanjaro. It was very majestic even from 200 miles away. The girls have lots of room to run and play, and there is a playground just a few yards adjacent to our house. There are several children our girls' ages so they have plenty of playmates. An "aya" stays with the girls while we are in school, struggling to learn Swahili.

We have classes Monday-Friday beginning each day at 8:15-3:00 P.M. In the evenings we have dialogues and vocabulary words to learn for the next day. We have two very good African teachers who are also very patient. Pray for us as we try to learn the language. Vaughn is anxious to master the language so he can begin preaching.

We have had the opportunity to visit Kisumu where our home will be located after language school. We have seen the house we will live in, and it will be a comfortable home. We are especially thrilled about the many different fruit trees that are growing in the yard. While we were there, Vaughn had the opportunity to go with Dr. Lorne Brown on a routine visit of his five clinics of which Vaughn will become administrator. He also saw the tremendous need for health education and community development in the many villages of the area. Through a U.N.I.C.E.F. community development demonstration the Lord has recently opened opportunities for Vaughn to gain new ideas: improved methods for rural people to dry and store their grain, for more effective ways of storage and purification of water, and food dehydration and storage using their own local materials. He is getting very excited and anxious to get busy in the work.

We are finding some areas of life very different here. The pace of life here is much slower. Also, we are finding that shopping is a long process. We don't run into a big supermarket here and get all we need. Instead we go to the grocery store for most food items then to a green grocery for fresh fruit and vegetables. We go to a butchery for our meat. We have found the beef to be very reasonable and quite good. However, they don't prepare meat cuts like they do in the States. Chicken and ham are the most expensive. We have especially enjoyed all the fresh vegetables and fruit which are reasonable and abundant. The country market at Limuru holds new experiences of sights and smells, and it is interesting to barter for each item.

We have found the African nationals to be very friendly and helpful. At Kisumu during our visit, the nationals who work in the clinics were very receptive to Vaughn and are anxious for him to arrive on the field and begin a health education program. Here at Brackenhurst we have been warmly received in the national Swahili church. The services are conducted in both the Swahili and Kikuyu languages. We have African informants for one hour each day of our language training. They have been friendly and very patient as we struggle to converse in Swahili. We know they must get a lot of chuckles from our mistakes, but they are very helpful. The girls are becoming quite fluent in greeting all the nationals with "Jambo" which means "hello" in Swahili.

Remember us as we study and as we are preparing to make our home here. We would also love to hear from you personally. Letters from there help to bridge the many miles of separation from home. God bless each of you as you continue to serve Him.

In Christ,
Vaughn, Johnene, Staci &
Renae Ross

TAYLOR PICKS TOP PLAYERS

By Charles Jones

Last Friday's whopping win over the Silverton Owls has boosted the Longhorn's spirit out of sight. Coach Bill Taylor feels that some players who exhibited exceptional excellence should be recognized as players of the week. Elizar Castillo was named outstanding offensive back and Bryan Irons was listed as offensive lineman. Johnny Newsom was awarded the defensive back honor with Glen Black capturing the defensive lineman award. The Big Stick award went to Cary McLain.

In the previous week, Kerry George showed himself as the best offensive back in the game against the Anton Bulldogs, with Gary Jackson as the best all around offensive lineman. On the defensive front, Lester Aven was the best back and Cary McLain came around as best lineman. On the overall game, Coach Taylor gave the Big Stick award to Bert Minjarez who got the contract of the game.

Homemaking Hints

For Safety & Economy

WATCH OUT FOR HOME HAZARDS

Did you know that more than 20-million Americans are injured each year by products used in and around the home?

You may be surprised to learn that bicycles rank No. 1 on the hazardous products list compiled by the U.S. Consumer Products Safety Commission. Stairs and ramps are common scenes of accidents. So are swimming pools, playgrounds and power lawn mowers.

The most dangerous household products are the cleaning agents often stored under the sink. These require extremely careful handling because misuse, accidental swallowing, or contact with the body can all cause poisoning or chemical burns.

So be sure to keep them in a locked cabinet, and if you can, avoid using them. Instead, look for products such as Drain Power, the drain opener that instantly opens clogged sinks and tubs with pressure instead of hazardous lyes and acids.

Liquid fuels such as gasoline, kerosene or even some of the fire starters for lighting charcoal should not be kept around the house. They constitute fire hazards or may explode without warning.

With a little caution and forethought, you will learn to spot other items that can cause accidents. Remember, when it comes to your family's safety, an ounce of prevention is truly worth a pound of cure.

School Board Approves Amended & New Budgets

In their regular meeting the Hart Board of Education approved the amended budget for the 1975-76 school year. The actual expenditures for the 1975-76 school year were $764,229 compared to a budget of $774,966 for the 1975-76 school year.

The board also approved a budget of $821,166 for the 1976-77 school year with 74.4 percent of this budget being for salaries for school personnel.

After visiting two apartments that were remodeled north of the Kindergarten building, approval was made. A report was given to the board on two Adult Education classes in Bookkeeping and Conversational Spanish that will be taught by Rita Upton and Elodia Rodriguez on Tuesday nights.

folks thought."

"Everyone will be out after us. Teams that ordinarily wouldn't hit a fly the week before is going to be after us because everyone wants to knock off the favorite," Taylor said in reference to the Longhorns being picked as pre-season favorites to take the district crown.

"It puts us on the spot. Our kids know they have to perform. I think they are equal to the task - if we can stay away from injuries, I think we'll have a fine club. They have a super attitude, and I couldn't be more pleased with my staff.

Speaking of the junior high athletes, Taylor said the main effort was to encourage desire in the players.

"Winning is secondary although everyone likes to win. But if we can build a desire to compete and build interest, by the time they get to high school they'll be competitors."

Cole reported 23 boys turned out for seventh grade football but they have yet to play. Neither Anton nor Silverton had seventh grade teams.

"We'd only worked out five days," said Mears of his eighth grade team which lost to Anton. "We played real good the first half but let down."

Richters said there are 21 on the JV roster. "We beat Anton 60 and a lot of what you see is 'want to.' We told them a play they'd never tried and they went after it and scored a TD."

Lion Boss Weldon Jones appointed Bill Rich, Bob Reed and Gene Huntsinger to a committee to work on an October 8th project.

Membership pins for 20 years were announced for Claude Cox, E.E. Foster and Ed Harris. W.T. Sanders accepted a pin for 20 years membership.

Wade Mills received a pin for 15 years membership. Others cited for 15 years were Joe Bailey and D.A. Bass.

Members cited for 10 years membership were Richard Franks, Frank Barnes and Bob Reed.

season standings to the top spot with 26 correct picks. Five persons are just one point back. Contestants with 20 or more correct guesses are listed elsewhere in this issue.

It's still early and standings can be affected each week as one person gets lucky and another has an "off" week. No contestant should give up trying to obtain the grand prize which goes to the one with the most correct guesses for the season (which lasts as long as the Longhorns are in competition).

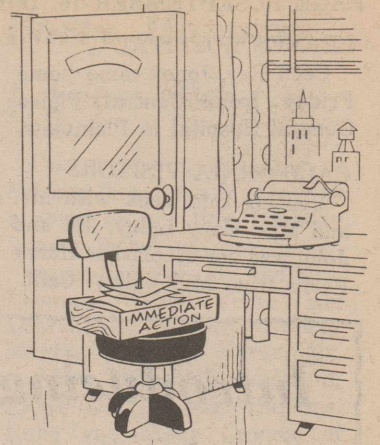

Even a contestant who has not yet entered this year could be the season winner. Any contestant may also be a weekly winner with the three best guessers each week collecting prizes of $5, $3 and $2.

It's fun and it's easy. There's no cost for entering and the whole family can compete. Only one entry per person is allowed.

Turn to the contest page in last week's Hart Beat. Select a winner for the games featured in the ads of sponsoring merchants who make the contest possible. Circle the corresponding number on the entry blank and fill in the blank with name and address.

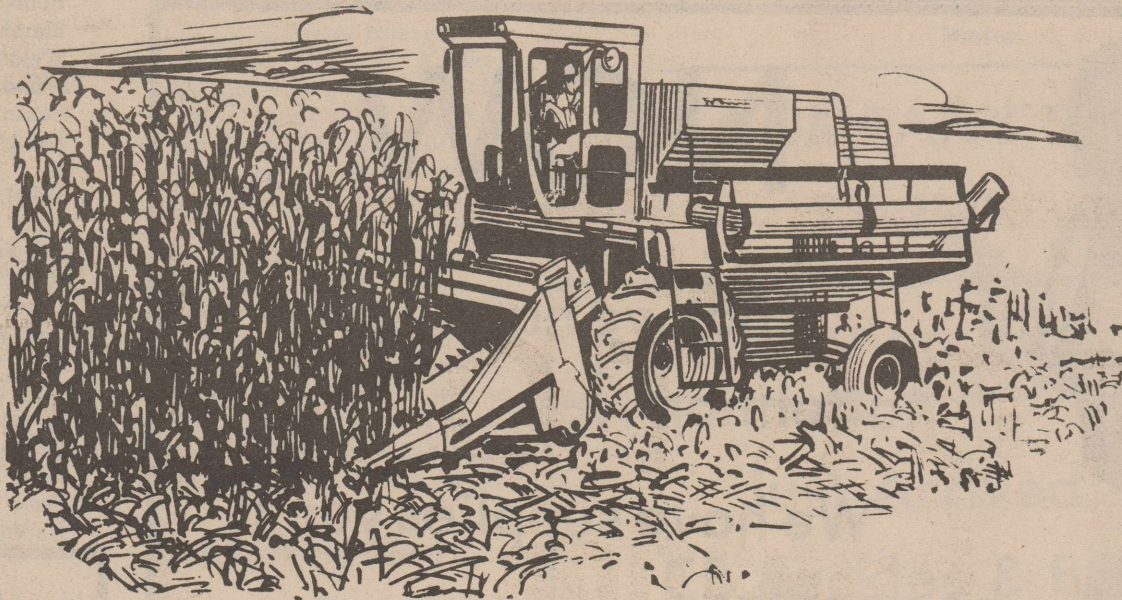

Entry blanks should be deposited with any of the sponsoring merchants before 4 p.m. Friday. While you're there, tell them you appreciate their making the contest possible. Trade with them, they're the folks who appreciate your business.

Hart Schools have fine Manpower Training positions for students this school term. We use these positions as maintenance helpers. These students work from 4-6 p.m. and are accountable to and paid by the Manpower Training Act. I am the supervisor for Hart in that I get the applicants, help with applications, keep time cards, pass out checks, and "iron out problems". We had nine students on the summer program. After having a good summer program, we were given one extra position for the school term. It has been good to help someone and in turn for them to help us.

At the TSTI organizational meeting, a bookkeeping class with nineteen students were enrolled by Rita Upton, the teacher. Also, a conversational Spanish class with eighteen was organized with Eldoia Rodriguez as the teacher.

If you were interested in some classes that did not materialize, perhaps there will be enough interest in them next year. It is a challenge to me to help the Adult Education program become successful and in turn serve our community.

May I express my appreciation to a local businessman who is certainly helping me to help some kids. MOST of the time it takes all of us!!

Longhorns Like Grazing, Whip Silverton At Home

By Monty Upton

Hart Longhorns and Silverton Owls met Friday night in Owl Stadium on a field better suited for grazing than for running. However, the over-grown grass did little to slow the Hustlin' Horns in their bid for a perfect season.

Hart's Bobby Allensworth set the pace of the night's kicking game with an opening kick-off to the Silverton 5-yard line. Owl Brent Bean returned the ball to his 29 and the first quarter settled into a defensive battle with neither team being able to sustain a drive.

After the Owls had been forced into punting, thanks to a quarterback sack by Glen Black, Hart failed to capitalize because of a delay penalty. Eliazar Castillo punted the first of only two for the Horns, sailing it forty yards.

On the next series, Silverton earned one of their two first downs against that tough 'Horn defense. However, the Owls' offense shuttered to a standstill on a third and six when Black got another key quarterback sack.

After the punt, Hart moved for two first downs before Donald Robinson bobbled the ball giving the Owls new life on their own 48. Offensively, the Owls had done about all they were going to for the night and after a net gain of 5-yards on these plays and 31 yards rushing in the quarter, they punted to the 'Horns. No one would have suspected that the Owls were destined to gain only 18 more yards on the ground and only 11 in the air in the next three quarters.

The Horns, after the Owl punt, started on their own 23 yard line and marched those seventy-seven yards to pay dirt on sixteen plays with Robinson getting the score on a 1-yard plunge with 6:19 of the second quarter left. Allensworth's kick was off the side, but he came back with another deep kick-off to the Silverton 11 which was returned 24 yards.

The Owls then earned, on three plays, the only first down they were to have. On a fourth and two, the Horns held and took over on their 41.

The first play saw Castillo drop back and throw a zinger to tight end Bryan Irons across the middle. Irons then rambled for 59 yards to score behind the key block of split end Johnny Newsom on a secondary man. Robinson's run around end fell short leaving 2:50.

Silverton returned the kick off 11 yards to their own 21 but Berto Minjares and Gary Jackson made QB Brent Brannon eat the ball for an 11 yard loss on the first play. The Owls never recovered on the next two plays and, despite a Hart 15 yard penalty, had to punt.

Hart had another penalty on the punt return but Castillo broke loose on the first play from scrimmage for 32 big yards. A dead-ball penalty against the Owls added another 15 yards.

Kerry George came in as helmsman for the Herd to rest Castillo and immediately hit Irons across the middle for 16 yards and the second score of the night for the big end. Following a Silverton offside on the point-after try, Robinson punched the ball across behind big blocks of Minjares, Lester Aven and Larry Marble. With only 41 seconds left, the Owls ran out the clock, trailing 20-0.

Following intermission, the Horns were on the receiving end of the kick-off and what a reception it proved to be! Owl Gary Turner booted it to the Hart 10 yard line right into the waiting hands of fleet-footed Castillo. The deep kick gave the Horns time to set up some blocks and Castillo's quick moves broke him through the main group of Owls.

Bobby Allensworth got a final block on the Hart 40 and there was no catching Castillo until he crossed the goal 90 yards later. The point after run of George was short.

The rest of the third proved to be a defensive struggle. Silverton offense was completely dominated and netted only 2 yards in the whole quarter because of the play of men like Gary McLain (13 tackles), Bryan Irons (12 tackles), Glen Black (8) and Johnny Newsom (8). Black got another quarterback sack and, on another occasion, caused a fumble which was recovered by Irons on the Hart 35.

Hart stopped itself three times in the third, twice with fumbles (Castillo to Robinson pitch and Black) and a touchdown saving interception in the end zone by Owl Brannon off the fingers of Castillo.

For the Owls, the fourth quarter was even more difficult than the third. Highlights of the quarter include a quarterback sack by Hart's Gary Jackson, a knocked down pass by the Horn's Mike Finch and then Finch's brilliant pass interception on the Silverton 26. The Owls netted 0 yards rushing.

The Horns also had trouble moving the ball. Castillo put up the ball 5 times with no completions and had another one picked off, again in the end zone and again by Owl Brannon.

George had two incomple- tions. A good tackle by a referee that got in the way stopped a touchdown run by Black after a well-timed pitch from Castillo on a gain of 13 yards.

For the night, Castillo had 102 yards rushing on 10 carries. He had that 90 yard kick-off return for the TD. He had 94 yards passing on three completions.

Another outstanding player was Bryan Irons, who, in addition to having 12 tackles and a fumble recovery, caught all four of Hart's completions for 110 yards and two touchdowns.

Friday night, there will be a revival of an old rivalry when Nazareth challenges Hart at Hart.

PUBLIC NOTICE

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS GENERAL ELECTION NOV. 2, 1976

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 49)

Repealing Sections 49-d and 49-d-1 of Article III of the Texas Constitution, S.J.R. 49 amends Section 49-c of Article III of the Texas Constitution to provide for and authorize an additional $400 million in Texas water development bonds that may be issued on approval of two-thirds of the members of each house of the Legislature for such water development purposes as the Legislature may prescribe.

The amendment contains a specific prohibition against the use of state funds for the development of water resources from the Mississippi River and also requires that before any single water development project may be undertaken requiring the expenditure of more than $35 million in bond proceeds, it must be approved by resolution of the Legislature.

The amendment removes the constitutional requirement that certain revenues must be used to retire water development and water quality enhancement bonds and removes the constitutional interest rate limit on such bonds.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing an increase of $400 million in the amount of Texas Water Development Bonds that may be issued on approval of two-thirds of the legislature; amending and consolidating provisions of Sections 49-c, 49-d and 49-d-1 of Article III of the Texas Constitution; and repealing Sections 49-d and 49-d-1 of Article III of the Texas Constitution."

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT (H.J.R. 99)

H.J.R. 99 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to increase from $100 million to $200 million the aggregate principle amount of Texas water development bonds which may be issued and outstanding by the Texas Water Development Board to provide grants and loans for water quality enhancement purposes as established by the Legislature.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"A constitutional amendment to increase from $100 million to $200 million the amount of Texas Water Development Bonds that may be issued for water quality enhancement purposes."
