Baseball Program Needs Boost

Give Olton A Lift

Inflation has struck a blow to the summer baseball program with Olton Baseball Association finding itself out of money and a number of bills yet to be paid.

Summertime baseball is made available to Olton youngsters through the generosity of local folks. Sponsors of ball teams pay a fee and each player is asked to provide $8 to cover the insurance protection which is required for all participants.

This revenue could not begin to underwrite the program for a season so this year, as last, a number of mothers made door to door solicitaions. Response was good by the increasing cost of operating has Olton Baseball Association in financial distress.

Most persons have no idea of the cost of operating the summer baseball program. Even those families who have boys participating in the different leagues sometimes seem unaware of the high costs.

Some equipment is carried over from year to year and uniforms are worn as long as possible and yet each year more and more is needed.

Cost of operating last year was $6,000 although $200 was left over to begin this season.

An indication of the expense reflected with the cost of some items. Wooden bats, this season cost $5.25 each; aluminum, $8.50. A surprising number of bats are needed. (Bob Lacy, coach of High Plains Senior Babe Ruth team says, "We average one broken bat per game.")

Balls are $25 per dozen and are "short lived."

Caps purchased for every team each year, cost an average of $2.50 each.

Players furnish their own gloves except for catchers. Catchers' mitts, replaced this year, cost $20 for pee wee league and $30 for the fellows in Little League or Babe Ruth.

A least two projects are slated to help meet the financial needs. A queen's contest is planned for both Little League and Junior Babe Ruth. Each team will be represented by a candidate. Each one dollar donation counts as a vote. Little League Queen will be "crowned" at the final game, July 3, along with announcements of All Star players. The queen's selection will be determined by the number of votes.

Queen of the Babe Ruth League will be revealed July 3 also, prior to the announcement of All Stars.

A cake auction will be held at each park on those evenings. Mothers of players, and any other person wishing to help, will bake the goodies which will be offered to the highest bidders. A good number of "buyers" are urged to attend.

Dedication of local people who want summer baseball offered for young Oltonites has been tremendous through the years. Many hours from busy schedules are poured into the success of the program because it is for the boys of Olton. Dedication and hard work is not enough, however, money is a vital ingredient.

Baseball Schedule Changed

Little League and Babe Ruth baseball games slated Thursday, July 3 have been re-scheduled for an earlier starting time. First games of double-headers will begin at 5:30 p.m. rather than 6 p.m. as previously scheduled.

All Stars will be announced in both leagues following the conclusion of the second games. Coronation of a Little League Queen and Babe Ruth Queen will be held and a cake auction is slated at both parks.

Activities Planned For July 4th

Happy Birthday, America! Oltonites will be celebrating July 4, each in his own way.

Activities at Olton Recreation Center throughout the day are planned with families in mind, and offer attractions for all ages.

Two golf tournaments are slated for the day. At 9:30 a.m. Free Throw Foursomes will tee-off for the morning play. For afternoon golfers a 'Florida Scramble' is scheduled to begin at 2:30 p.m. Both tourneys are open to anyone who wishes to play. Fee is set at $5 per couple, for each event.

Also for golfers plans are made for a 'club throwing' contest and a putting contest. All contests may be entered that day, but participants need to get their names in to Harold Pay at the Pro-shop well in advance of tee-off time.

Swimming contests will be conducted through the day, further information may be had from the pool manager, Jim Bob Edwards. Sign-up for the swim events need to be made in advance of the day of competition.

Volleyball contests will be staged through the late afternoon. Local teams need to organize and call Melinda Smith for a place in the bracket. She may be reached at 285-3326.

The un-usually good plate of Bar-b-que beef and all trimmings will be served for the un-usually low price of $2 per plate, men, women and children. Advance ticket sales will be handled by the sponsoring organization, Olton Women's Golf Association.

Bar-b-que tickets may be purchased at Olton State Bank, Sherman Insurance Agency, Loveless Appliance, Golf Pro Shop or from any member of the Olton Women's Golf Association.

Immediately preceding the serving of the meal, a color guard will make a flag presentation and 'Old Glory' will be hoisted for the first time on ORC's brand new flag pole.....a fitting salute for Our Nation's 200th Birthday.

Flag Pole Erected At ORC

Four city residents have stepped forth as the first patriots to 'Offer Loyalty To Our Nation, newly chosen theme of the Bicentennial Planning committee.

A brand new flag pole has been installed at Olton Recreation Center, and the Stars and Stripes will be flown over that acreage for the first time, Friday, July 4.

The community is indebted, for this contribution, to Sherman Insurance Agency for furnishing needed materials and to Basil Sherman, in particular, for pushing the project through to completion in record time.

For assistance in placing the pole in its prominent positon 'on the Hill' indebtedness is also acknowledged to Durward Price and Tommy Hancock.

For the brand new nylon flag, the 50-star spangled banner, gratitude must be expressed to D.M. (Bub) Holt, donor.

A Color Guard will present and hoist the colors Friday, July 4, at 7 p.m. immediately preceding the serving of the Bar-B-Q dinner.

Enterprise Vacation Time

It's vacation time for The Olton Enterprise. The newspaper office and Enterprise Studio will be closed next week so that employees might have a few days off with their families. The Enterprise will be mailed Thursday, July 3 rather than Sunday, July 6.

The Enterprise office will re-open Monday, July 7 at 8 a.m.

Bookmobile Will Not Run

Scheduled stops for the High Plains Bookmobile have been cancelled because of the Fourth of July holidays.

The traveling library will not be stopping in Hart Camp, Fieldton and Olton Friday and Saturday as previously scheduled.

Donkey Baseball Game Slated For July 8 Here

Hilarity is in store for baseball fans Tuesday, July 8 when members of Olton's Senior Babe Ruth baseball teams take on local "outsiders" in a donkey baseball game. The event, slated for 8 p.m., is sponsored by Young Homemakers.

Advance tickets are on sale for $1.75 for adults, 75 cents for children. Gate admission will be $2 and $1. Proceeds of the game will be used to purchase park equipment.

The event is to be staged in Little League Park.

K.Y. Givens Is Director

K.Y. Givens was unanimously elected District Babe Ruth (13-15) Director for the coming year at a meeting Wednesday night in Dimmitt of officials from the representative towns.

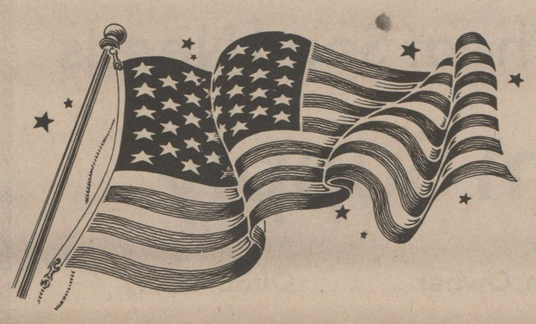

Active supporter of youth baseball and past president of Olton Baseball Association, Givens was appointed by State Director Joe Sevens of Brownfield. He filled the unexpired term of D.M. Holt who resigned the post he had held almost two years.

Wednesday's meeting also included tournament plans with the 13-year-olds tourney scheduled for Olton beginning July 7 and the 14-15 tournament play to be staged in Dimmitt the following week.

Tennis Tourney Now Underway

Some 146 tennis enthusiasts are this weekend competing in the annual Tennis Tourney at Olton Tennis Club.

According to Mrs. Betty Koontz, director of the tournament, 76 adults are registered for play along with 70 high school students and younger.

Freda Worley Retires

'I'll Just Stay Busy'

Raised lettering of polished walnut spell out the name "Freda Worley" on the gleaming plaque presented to a petite elementary teacher at an honor luncheon held at the end of the school year. The engraved brass plate of the plaque reads, "Loved by children, teachers, parents. Gratefully presented by Olton Public Schools 1975."

Presentation of the plaque to Mrs. Worley was made at the end of the 1974-75 school year in recognition of her "retirement" after 23 years of service in Olton schools.

Retirement policy of local schools provides teachers with the opportunity to continue serving in the role of substitute teacher.

"I don't ever intend to retire," Mrs. Worley says. "I'll just stay busy, doing substitute teaching when I can and visiting the sick and shut-in." There will be more opportunity now to visit with her son, Bennett, who lives in Houston.

Official retirement for Mrs. Worley marked the completion of 37 years in the calling she dreamed of as a child.

"Ever since I was a child, I wanted to be a primary school teacher," she explains. She began teaching in a small two-room school in Hill County in 1930 after earning a teaching certificate with two years of college. That first teaching certificate is still a treasured memento.

Two summers found Freda completing the work needed for her degree while she continued her teaching career.

"Teaching and education have come a long way since 1930," she recalls. "When I started, we had a school term of six months (November through April) and my salary for the year was $450. I built my own fires, did my own janitor work, carried my lunch and walked three miles to school."

Freda recalls some of that Depression days' pay was in script. She recalls, too, the "luxury" of finally having a school lunchroom.

Curriculum of schools has made great strides, she notes. "Way back then, we did the teaching, we had none of the helps available today. The 'three R's' were just about it, too. Today the children have so much more offered, education is so stepped up."

MRS. FREDA WORLEY

"Back then, we'd go all out to prepare programs to present to the parents--at Christmas time and the end of school. Every child had a part and we worked hard to get ready. We enjoyed it though and everyone in the community came. Today we're so busy, busy with all there is to do there's no time for things like that."

Freda taught 13 years in Hill County before "retiring" to become a full time homemaker as Mrs. Bob Worley. "I never thought I'd teach again."

The Worleys moved to Seymour where Freda taught one year "because they needed teachers so badly."

Moving to Olton in 1952 when Bennett was a second grader, Freda went back to teaching. Smilingly she relates the loving teasing of Bob, "Mother and Bennett started the second grade together. Bennett finished second grade, then grade school and high school, went on to college and got a degree and Mother was still in the second grade."

Worley, affectionately dubbed "Mr. Bob" by Freda's students, died in April.

Only two others in the local school system have as long a tenure of continuing service as did Freda. Superintendent Joe Turner was new coach Freda's first year at Olton. Jewel Brogden also holds the same service record.

Freda holds another impressive record as a teacher in the local school system. Throughout the entire 23 years, she was never absent more than one week at a time because of personal illness. That one week came several years ago during an outbread of "London flu."

"They made me go to the doctor and put me in the hospital or I might have just kept on teaching," she says. "I guess that indicates a pretty strong constitution. Freda has always encouraged her students to strive for perfect attendance.

Memories implanted by the multitude of little ones through the years are stockpiled in Freda's heart. With pleasant recollections are some that still recall apprehension.

Never-forgotten will the days when threatening storm clouds prompted the teachers to line their young charges in the hallways when there were threats of tornadoes. Well remembered, too, is that day when a tornado did strike the town.

Unforgettable also is the time when one of Freda's little boys narrowly escaped choking to death. "He had swallowed a little wheel but he couldn't tell me what was wrong. I was able to figure out that he had swallowed something. The school nurse wasn't there, I can't remember why. It was frightening. He had to be rushed to Lubbock to the hospital but everything turned out fine."

That same young lad, as a junior high student, came up to Freda in the hallway near the end of school one year and placed his arm about her shoulders.

"Mrs. Worley," he said. "I haven't ever got around to telling you this but I wanted to. You're still the best teacher in the school."

Happy times also include many occasions when a youngster came into her room with a grin and a paper bag clutched in a small hand.

"Mrs. Worley, I've got something for you but you have to guess what it is."

"Then we'd all play the guessing game to find out the surprise," she explains.

"If I've been a 'successful' teacher, the biggest part of the credit goes to the wonderful parents I've had to work with. If you have outstanding people back of you, it's easy."

"When a child wants to learn and parents want to co-operate, then you feel ready to teach."

As with many others who have faced retirement with a sense of regret, Freda says her last year was made both happy and rewarding by her principal, Ray Kinnison.

"He's one of the finest persons. He's been so understanding, it's been easier."

"What a joy through the years it's been to me every morning to see happy little faces coming into my classroom."

"And what a thrill it is," she beams, "to be walking down a street and hear, perhaps from way down the street, little voices call out, 'Hi, Miz Worley!'."

Area Wide Search On For Flag Poles

A diligent search is being made for the flag poles necessary to fly some 16 flags once used by Boy Scouts for Olton merchants during holidays.

Flags are in possession, at this time, of Jaffar Zakka, president of Retail Merchants Association, but poles are urgently needed before the July 4 holiday.

Anyone with information leading to the location of these flag-staffs is asked to call the Chamber office or Mr. Zakka, as soon as possible.

13-Year-Olds Tourney To Be Hosted By Olton

It's almost tournament time again for baseball fans in Olton. The local Babe Ruth Park will be the site of the 13-Year-Olds District Tournament with "Play Ball" to be called at 6 p.m. Monday, July 7.

The double elimination tourney will be a double elimination event with teams from Olton, Muleshoe, Dimmitt, Littlefield and Plainview.

Plainview drew a bye and will not be involved in Monday's action. Game One, slated at 6 p.m. will send Muleshoe against Dimmitt. The host team will meet Littlefield in an 8:30 battle.

Tuesday's play gets underway at 6 p.m. also with the losers of game one facing the losers of game two in the competition which will eliminate the first team. Game time at 8:30 will find Plainview taking on the winner of the Muleshoe-Dimmitt clash.

Play will continue throughout the week.

Dimmitt will host the District Babe Ruth Tournament for 14-15 year olds with play beginning Monday, July 14 and running through Saturday, July 19.

Muleshoe will take on Littlefield in the opener at 6 p.m. Monday with Olton and the host team playing the 8:30 p.m. nightcap. Plainview also drew a bye in this age bracket and will meet the winner of game two Tuesday at 8:30 p.m.

Little League tournament play will begin Monday, July 14 in a round-robin play-off at Plainview. Plainview National League, Muleshoe and Olton will vie for the right to advance to district competition. Should Olton win, the next tourney play might be held in the local park.

TODAY'S LOGIC

By James W. Phelps

World War III Is Over

It lasted three decades. The free world lost it.

The battles were fought on paper in some cases, on the battlefield in others. But we lost virtually every one of them.

In 1945 we lost the battles of Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania and Moldavia.

Then we lost the battles of Yugoslavia, Albania, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Rumania, Hungary, Bulgaria, and East Germany. We won the battle of West Berlin.

We lost the battles of China, North Korea, Cuba, and North Vietnam.

More recently we lost the battles of Cambodia, South Vietnam, and Laos, not to mention the small countries of Africa and the Middle East now ruled by Communist puppets.

The next battles may not even be noticed now that we have laid down our arms and walked away. Those are the battles in Thailand, Portugal, Finland, Austria, and Panama. Perhaps also South Korea, Israel, Formosa, Malaysia and Indonesia. Perhaps even the Philippines.

In three decades Communism has expanded to where it now controls 26 percent of the earth and 35 percent of its population.

Detente is to give our enemies breathing space. It is to give them time to chew that which they have bitten off.

Trade with the Communists is to fill their larders so they can more easily control their slaves.

We skip blithely along seeing our world through rose colored glasses. Those rose colored glasses dim our view of the millions being executed, starved, tortured, sent to slave camps, etc.

The enemy plays with us as a cat plays with a mouse, but we don't even know we're being played with. We think the world is at peace, the dangers gone.

But ask any child what comes after one, two, three.

World War IV will be in the lifetime of almost everyone reading these words. And many of our children will be too young to fight in it – but not too young to die in it.

What A Day!

By Rex Boyles

Monday was a good day! We took a little time off and went to my home. It is always good to go home, back to the farm and family. I had a chance Monday to get back in the groove of some good old home-type farm work.

There was a little shoveling, a little hoeing, and a little tractor driving. There was lots of good family-type loving too. There was some kidding, some wrestling, some arguing and lots of hugging.

Monday was a good day, a present from the Father. It was a special present, and he topped it off with a special display of wonder.

He built a lightning-flashing and thunder-crashing storm for us. It began on the horizon in the west and began to roll toward the east. As it picked up speed, it began to swirl and tumble, stirring up a little dust and lots of excitement. It was magnificient! It roared in bringing a refreshing breeze and a reviving rain.

As those clouds rushed over the house in such an overwhelming display, I tried to imagine what it will be like when Jesus comes to take me home.

As those clouds boiled in, I remember the words of a "pop" song of a few years back, "...when those mighty clouds of joy come rolling in..." That fella was right. The clouds upon which Jesus will ride will be filled with all kinds of joy. There will be the joy of having all the wrongs righted...the joy of sharing in the glory of that moment... the joy of going home to meet the Father...

Those clouds will not carry joy only, for they will also bring judgement. Besides peace they will bring punishment. Besides happiness they will bring horror.

Listen as the Lord, himself, paints his own horrifying description of that day of days, "...at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from heaven with the angels of his power in flaming fire, rendering vengeance to them that know not God, and to them that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus; who shall suffer punishment, even eternal destruction from the face of the Lord..."(2 Thessalonians 1:7-9).

That day will either be a day of victory or vengeance.. a day of joy or judgment...a day of honor or horror...a day of deliverance or damnation. What kind of day will it be for us? The answer to that question will be determined by our answer on the next question.

Have we obeyed the gospel? The answer to that will determine whether we have secured for ourselves freedom from sin by the grace of the Cross, or whether we have determined to accept the wages (deserved payment) for our crimes, thereby securing for ourselves the fires of destruction. (Seeing the importance of such an action, I would like to hear from you.

Share with me the gospel you obeyed. Send me a note, or let's get together and check out what we obeyed and see if it is the gospel of Jesus. It is a matter of life or death isn't it. Please let me hear from you).

Jesus will come as either friend or foe. As a friend to those who have obeyed the gospel, he will carry them home in glory. As a foe to those who have not obeyed his gospel, he will be forced to render unto them everything they deserve, eternal destruction and suffering. Monday was a good day...what about that day?

TEXAS TALK

By Billy Davis

Sorghum planted in a field of plastic? That's one of the possibilities being studied by research groups now taking a hard look at a variety of water conservation programs. Experiments have actually been done in the Oklahoma Panhandle whereby plots were covered by large plastic sheets . . . holes cut in the plastic for the plants and irrigation water supplied under the plastic. Results . . . less than half the normal water required. Costs . . . terrible. So the search goes on with new attention focused on special breeding for water retention and imroved plant utilization. Tests at Oklahoma State University reportedly indicated that as much as 2 inches of water a year can be saved by planting sorghum in rows running north and south rather than east to west. Direction of rows, spacing of furrows and development of new breeds are all subjects the sorghum producer will be hearing a lot more about . . . especially if the weather forecasters are right.

Double Ring Wedding Vows Recited In Garden Ceremony

Wedding vows were exchanged Saturday, June 21, by Miss Marsha Parker and Eddie de la Garza. The Rev. John E. Lewis, pastor of First Baptist Church, directed the double ring vows spoken near day's end in the home garden of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cornelius.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Parker of the city, Rudolph de la Garza of Brownsville and Mrs. Merla de la Garza of Houston.

Traditional nuptial selections were presented by Harold Dean Carson, at piano, who also accompanied Misses Ginger and Linda Cox of Lancaster as they sang.

The ceremony was performed before a backdrop formed by a garden trellis interlaced with English ivy and scattered with garden flowers. Flanking baskets of mixed flowers completed the setting.

When the bride was presented in marriage by her father, she was wearing a formal length gown of ivory chiffon. The portrait neckline, dipping into a slight vee, was outlined with a deep ruffle of Irish lace which formed cap sleeves and swept to a cape-effect in the back. The waist was encircled with a wide satin ribbon, revealing a sweetheart bow in center back.

She wore a necklace of carved ivory, gift of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius when they returned from a 'camera safari' in Africa. 'Borrowed' was a charm belonging to the late Miss Janie Jones, she wore the traditional 'blue.'

Her headpiece was formed of a variety of dainty fresh flowers, nestled in a background of gypsophila. She carried an 'old fashioned' bridal bouquet of a variety of pastel flowers.

Mrs. D'Lyle Selman of Corpus Christi was matron of honor. Little miss Janet Miller was flower girl. Feminine attendants wore identical pastel floral print voile dresses styled along the lines of the bridal gown. They wore headpieces of fresh flowers. Mrs. Selman carried a long stemmed bouquet, and Miss Miller dropped rose petals from a basket.

Joel Jorden of Lubbock served as best man. Guests were seated by Kim, Jimmy and Scott Parker, brothers of the bride, and Steve de la Garza, brother of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Parker chose a formal length gown of powder blue voile, styled with high neckline and short sleeves. She added white accessories. The mother of the groom wore a formal length gown of salmon pink, styled along Empire lines. She wore white accessories.

Immediately following the ceremony, the young couple was honored with a reception held in the Cornelius home. The bride's table of gleaming oak, was laid with a green runner. It featured a variety of fresh flowers arranged in an antique silver wedding engraved June 21, 1775, a bicentennial date. The basket is property of Mrs. G.H. Bley. The three-tiered wedding cake, frosted in white, was touched with mint green, pink and yellow. Crystal and silver appointments were used to serve yellow reception punch, cake, mints and nuts. Presiding at the table were Misses Betty Staglic of Houston and Sammie Riley, Abernathy.

Laid with a white cloth, the groom's table was centered with a yellow candle in a cradle of ivy leaves and yellow daisies. Chocolate cake and coffee were served by Maggie Reeves and Kathy Staglic both of Houston.

Assisting as members of the house party were Mmes. Robert Sivley, Robert Edwards and Dewayne Wilks.

Guests were registered by Miss Gail Ramsey of Guests registered by Miss Gail Ramsey of Plainview, were from San Jose, Calif., Pampa, Odessa, Dimmitt, Corpus Christi, Lake Jackson, Houston, Brownsville, Abernaty, Lubbock, Sunray, San Antonio, Dallas, Midland, Amarillo and Los Alamos, N.M. and the local vicinity.

The bride, a graduate of Olton High School, holds a degree from Texas Tech University and has been teaching in San Antonio. In the fall she will be assigned to the department for the deaf in Lubbock Public Schools.

The groom is a graduate of a Brownsville High School and Texas Tech. He is presently studying as a graduate student in Chemical Engineering in Texas Tech. Following a wedding trip to Colorado the couple will be at home at 4415 46th, Lubbock.

Let's ask Henry Hamilton, Plant Manager

"We're building this coal plant to offset the dwindling supply of natural gas, which has become very expensive. This way we hope to balance the lower cost of coal to offset the higher cost of gas . . ."

MRS. GENE CHANEY

Cook Of The Week

Selling advertising is her job; but for Enterprise staff member Mrs. Gene Chaney it is work that is fun and stimulating.

Janis has been advertising manager of the Enterprise since September, 1973. She also sells advertising for The Hart Beat, working in Hart each Monday.

The Chaneys moved to Olton in 1968 when Gene and his brother, Bill, purchased a pump service and operated it as Olton Pump Company five years. Both Chaneys are now engaged in farming.

Janis and Gene have two little daughters; Melissa, eight, and Tifanee, three. They are members of First Baptist Church.

Born and reared at Marmaduke, Ark., Janis came to Texas the summer after her high school graduation and worked that summer for her brother-in-law and sister at the Earth News-Sun. She returned to Arkansas to attend Arkansas State University and came back the next summer to work. It was during that summer that she met Gene.

Majoring in elementary education at Arkansas State, Janis has always thought she would love teaching at the elementary level. Her interest in children has led her to be active in PTA.

Cooking hold first place among Janis' hobbies. She loves to cook and thoroughly enjoys preparing some special dish to take to friends and neighbors. She likes to try new recipes and enjoys sharing recipes with friends.

Janis also finds satisfying pleasure in canning and freezing and finds time to prepare for her family's future meals despite the busy schedule of combining work and homemaking.

Busy people find time for work they enjoy, it has been said, and Janis proves the statement. She is "Girl Friday" for her husband; running errands and helping out at the farm.

Janis likes boxing and, when Gene was a little boys' boxing coach, was the team's most ardent supporter.

Off The Top Of My Hat

By Murdell Shipley

This weekend you will find a few new things around town. (Hearts and flowers to Mr. Price and the Silver Belles). These are the containers for aluminum cans. Being red, white and blue, they fit right in with the Bicentennial idea but also they provide a needed service for our town.

Do your part -- use them.

Another thing that is bound to be noticed all over town are the bumper stickers. These will be advertising - Rodeo - can you imagine that?

They are being sold by the Silver Belles and members of the Olton YRC Inc. If we miss you, call us. There is a limited number so, first come, first served.

The campaign for land is coming right along! Several local owners have been contacted with very heart-warming results. It is always a fine feeling when someone shares the same basic ideas as you do. Namely, that kids are worth the giving - one of the better things of life.

The Rodeo at Plainview was most enjoyable. Good riding and an expert performance by the clown.

It doesn't seem like we will be able to make our tentative performance date. But we are still aiming for a show this summer. So until we do, take advantage of the ones we are having around here.

Either take your girl (wife or grandmother) and see them or ride in the rodeo yourself.

Is there an accepted formula for determining how much life insurance I should carry?
There are several . . . one of which was derived in the Institution of Insurance Marketing: An individual should own from 3 to 5 times his annual income in life insurance and should pay premiums of 5% to 15% of his income. This allows enough flexibility to suit everyone. Once, President Lincoln was asked how long his legs were, he replied, "Just long enough to reach the ground." One should own enough insurance to provide a basic financial foundation for his family in the event of premature death and himself should he live past retirement.

He can make you a bonus offer.

The top pros get the bonuses. And, the tops in the Army are the Armor, the Infantry and the Artillery. Right now, when you enlist to serve in one of these elite outfits, the Army will pay you a generous bonus. It pays to go with the best. You choose the branch and the station. Besides you earn good pay and a lot of other benefits. See your Army recruiter.
