PRESENT ANNUAL CANTATA

"The Dawn of Christmas"

Methodist Choir to Give Cantata Sunday

The chancel choir of First Methodist Church will present its traditional cantata Sunday evening, Dec. 13, again opening the religious observance of Christmas in Wellington.

Preceding the cantata, Mrs. L. E. Ward, organist, will present a prelude of Christmas melodies, beginning at 5:45 p. m.

The service will begin at 6 p.m. when the robed choir forms a candlelight procession to enter the sanctuary.

This cantata, as do all others for this season, tells in song and with words the story of the First Christmas and this year's presentation is "The Dawn of Christmas," explained Mrs. Jack Davis, choir director.

In addition to the choir singing, there will be solos, duets, trios and ensembles by the various choruses within the choir.

There are three speaking parts, and alternating at telling the Christmas story in Choralog will be Miss Regina Ferguson, Jimmy Campbell and Bill Spillman.

Solos will include "The Virgin's Lullaby," sung by Mrs. Orville Vaughan; "Fear Not," by Miss Karen Richardson; and "At the Cradle of Jesus," by Mrs. E. F. Bartlett.

The Samnorwood Lions Club is sponsoring a community-wide Christmas program Wednesday evening, Dec. 16 at the school gymnasium. It will begin at 7 p.m.

Violin music will be provided by a group and the program will close with the singing of Christmas carols.

Then Santa Claus will put in his appearance to distribute the treats.

There will be a treat for everyone attending, Knoll said.

Not only is this for schoolage children, but the preschoolers are especially invited. Older members of the community also are urged to be there.

Christmas Event

Massed Bands, Choir, Give Concert Sunday

The combined 140-piece band of the Wellington schools will be presented in their annual Christmas concert Sunday, Dec. 13. Joining them will be the high school choir, organized only this year. James Larson is director of both groups.

The concert will be held in the high school auditorium beginning at 2:30 p.m.

There is no admission, and the public is invited, Larson said.

This year's high school band of 60 pieces is the largest the school has had in recent years.

In addition to winning praise at home, it has distinguished itself in competition with other bands.

The WHS band was chosen as the outstanding band of its class and received a superior rating at the Mangum, Okla., band festival earlier this year. It followed this by a performance in Interscholastic League competition at Canyon and again received a superior rating.

Appearing first on the program Sunday will be the Elementary school band, which has a membership of 25. These children will play three traditional numbers.

The 55-piece junior high band will then play "What Child Is This" with variations and "Golliwog Meets Mr. Bones" by Conley.

The choir, with a membership of 40, will sing "Christmas Bells" by Norlin; "Santa Claus Is Coming to Town," by Gillispie; "Carol of the Bells" by Leontovich, and "Winter Wonderland," Bernard.

The voices and instruments of the high school groups will be combined in the presentation of "White Christmas" by Irving Berlin and three traditional carols.

More difficult music of Christmas will be presented by the high school band, including "Christmas Suite" by Walters; "Children's Prayer" by Humperdinck; selections from the "Nutcracker Suite" by Tschaikowsky; "Rudolph's Christmas Concert," Marks; and "Jingle Bells Rhapsody" by Walters.

Mrs. Raburn at St. Joseph's

Mrs. O. B. Raburn, who broke her right leg in a fall Tuesday, Dec. 1 was returned to St. Joseph's Hospital from Amarillo Sunday, Dec. 6.

Mr. Raburn said she was doing as well as possible.

Surgery, which was first planned, was not necessary, and she was placed in a cast. Mrs. Raburn will be hospitalized for about eight weeks, her husband said.

Saturday Night

Appreciation Banquet to Honor WHS Band

Members of the Wellington high school band will be honored at an appreciation banquet Saturday night, Dec. 12 in recognition of their accomplishments and hard work this year.

This is a public affair, and anyone wishing to attend may buy a ticket. The banquet will begin at 7 p.m.

The guest speaker will be Dr. Don Morton, chairman of the fine arts department of Tarleton College at Stephenville. Dr. Morton was an instructor of WHS Band Director James Larson.

Entertainment will be by the brass choir from the Memphis high school band, directed by Ronnie Wells.

Band awards will be presented, with jackets going to senior students with four years of band work and sweaters to juniors with three years.

"If the people in the community have appreciated what the band has done, and the recognition it has brought to Wellington, we'd like to sell you a ticket," Larson said.

This is not a money-making project, he pointed out. No charge is being made the band members for their dinner, and money from the $2.50 ticket sales will pay for the meals of both the band members and ticket purchasers.

Santa Arrives Here at Three o'Clock Friday

Santa Claus will arrive in Wellington Friday, Dec. 11 at 3 p.m., riding his western style coach, pulled by Shetland ponies, and preceded by the Wellington high school 60-piece band.

The time of Santa's arrival has been changed from that originally set, parents were told, and part, if not all the schools will dismiss the younger children so they can attend.

It's the big event of the pre-Christmas season as far as the children of the Wellington trade area are concerned, and every one of them is urged to be in town to welcome Santa.

He will not come empty-handed, for his sack—several of them, in fact—will be weighted down with candy and other treats for his youthful fans.

His visit, anticipated for weeks, is sponsored by the Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce, and the event itself will be carried out much as it has been in the past.

Lively holiday band music will herald his approach to the courthouse square. Then there will be the first glimpse of his carriage, Santa's sacks high on top, and finally, Santa Claus himself can be seen inside.

Santa's caravan will ride around the square to give everyone an opportunity to see him, then he will stop and the distribution of candy will begin.

Finally, every child will be given the opportunity to tell Santa Claus his Christmas wishes. There will be plenty of time for every child to visit with him.

This is how it will be for the boys and girls.

For their parents, Wellington merchants have outstanding stocks of holiday merchandise of every description. A survey of local stores reveals that the owners have kept pace with what is new in Christmas giving this year, in addition to full lines of standard merchandise kept regularly in stock.

Parents were reminded, too, that only 13 shopping days will remain until Christmas Day.

Letters Sent County-Wide

Hospital Auxiliary to Open Drive for Beds

St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary this week launched its 1964 fund drive by which it will finance its continuing program of adding new equipment to Wellington's St. Joseph's Hospital.

For the first time, the Auxiliary seeks to reach every family in the county, carrying its appeal in approximately 1,000 letters mailed this week, Mrs. John Sherman, president of the Auxiliary, announced.

Money brought in during the drive will be used to buy high-low beds for all rooms in the hospital, except two already equipped with them, Mrs. Sherman said.

"If we raise enough money, we will finish the project this year, or if not, we'll carry it over for next year," she continued.

These beds, explained Sister Adele, hospital administrator, can be raised to standard hospital bed height or lowered to normal bed position, according to need. Most patients prefer the lower position.

Hospitals throughout the country are changing to this type of bed, Sister Adele explained. The cost is approximately $275 each.

Post Office Open Saturday Until Christmas

The Wellington post office will be open Saturday afternoons, Dec. 12 and 19, to sell stamps and receive Christmas packages and cards for mailing, L. B. Bratten, postmaster, announced this week.

The postmaster also said that the ZIP code should be included on the address of all packages, and he suggested that Christmas cards carry the return address, along with the Wellington ZIP code, 79095.

The postmaster had one other suggestion:

Those receiving Christmas cards should note the ZIP codes of the senders and list these for next year's mailing.

"We will greatly appreciate the cooperation of all our patrons in this," Bratten said. At the same time, he emphasized that all mail, both packages and cards, should be sent as early as possible.

New Pastor Comes to First Christian Church

Members of First Christian Church have chosen the Rev. Floyd O'Donnell of Commerce, Okla., as pastor, succeeding Min. Hiram Cassel, who is entering Fort Hays State College in Kansas for graduate work.

Rev. O'Donnell is 25 and has been in the ministry about five years at Commerce.

He is married and has two children, a son about 4 and a daughter a year old.

The family will move in the parsonage late this week.

Rev. O'Donnell preached at the church here Wednesday evening, Dec. 2.

He was reared in Ohio and attended Minnesota Bible College, members of the church here said. Mrs. O'Donnell is from Iowa.

Harper Gives Holiday Dates

J. L. Harper, superintendent of the Wellington schools this week announced the dates for the Christmas holidays throughout the system.

G. T. Austin Retires

Post Office at Loco Closes After 75 Years

G. T. Austin, postmaster at Loco 15 years, has retired, and with his retirement last week, that post office was closed.

This was one of the oldest post offices in this part of the country, an estimated 75 years old, and much of its early history is dim.

Technically, the Loco postoffice is not officially terminated, said L. B. Bratten, Wellington postmaster, but no one has been found to operate it. The records and other things pertaining to the office are in custody of the postal inspector, but stored in a vault in the Wellington post office at present.

Fortunately, the building identified by Loco community residents as the first post office, remains. It was a half dug-out on the R. R. Crawley farm, which was acquired by his father in 1910.

Mrs. Laura Joiner was postmaster for a number of years.

A corner of the front room of the half dug-out was partitioned off, but the mail was kept in the kitchen and handed through a small window in the wall, which remains.

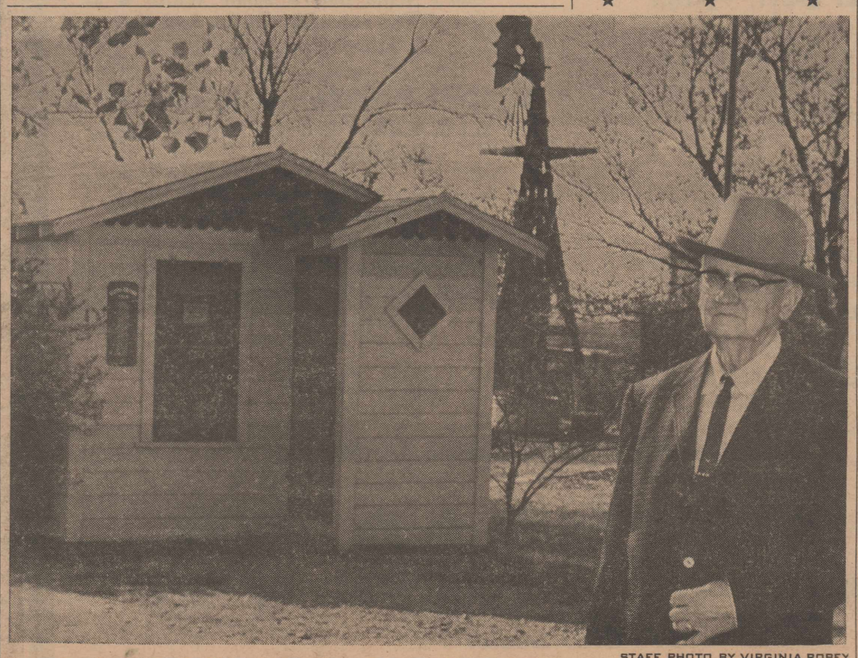

The last post office was a small frame building which Mr. Austin built at Loco.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin will move to Childress. He is a native Texan and came to Collingsworth county in 1917. He later lived at Plainview and Olton, then returned to Collingsworth county in 1929. He farmed and carried the mail on Route 5, Wellington, eight years, then in 1949 became postmaster at Loco.

In looking back, he recalled the many kindnesses the people of the Loco community extended him.

He recalled, too, that when he became postmaster there were 40 patrons. When the office closed last week, there were eight.

Towns have problems and concerns to be met with solutions, and these solutions should be the objectives of a Kiwanis Club, he told them.

These included donation of $50 toward the building of a prayer room for the state legislature in Austin, the annual Easter egg hunt, the past presidents' banquet, sponsoring two boys at Boys State, contributions toward the baseball program and purchase of glasses, milk and other items for underprivileged children, and the pancake supper.

Cotton Harvest Again Halted by Weather

The USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service in Memphis reported that cotton classed for growers during the week ending Dec. 4 was again lower in grade, staple length and micronaire readings than in the preceding week. The weather and the method of harvesting accounted chiefly for the lower quality.

K. E. Voelkel, in charge of the Memphis classing office, stated that sample receipts during the week were the largest of any week this season. Thru Friday a total of 18,000 were classed, bringing the seasonal total to 45,000 samples. This compared with 94,000 a year ago as of the same date.

The receipts during the week required the employing of a second micronaire crew, a full staff of classers and other personnel. However, the freezing rain and light snow on Thursday over most of the classing territory again stopped harvesting operations. Agricultural leaders stated that this season's crop was the latest in this section in many years.

Weather permitting, harvesting should be under way again this week. The classing office is prepared, with eight classing tables in operation, to give the farmers prompt classing service.

Based on samples classed last week, White grades decreased from 40% to 30%, and Light Spotted and Spotted grades increased from 60% to 70%. Strict Low Middling was the predominant grade in the White cotton with 16%, and Middling Light Spotted prevailed in the Colored cotton with 38%.

About 2% of the cotton classed was reduced in grade because of Bark, and the same proportion was reduced in grade because of Preparation. Preparation denotes the smoothness of the sample, and the below normal preparation this week may be attributed to the harvesting of green and immature bolls.

The staple length ranged from 7/8 inch to 1 3/32 inches. The predominant length continued to be 15/16 inch with 76%. Other lengths were: 29/32 inch and shorter, 13%; 31/32 inch, 9%; and 1 inch and longer, 2%. Only a few samples were classed as Wasty.

The micronaire readings were lower than any week this season. However, 86% of the samples classed still read in the desirable range of 3.5 to 4.9. Other readings were: 2.7 to 2.9, 1%; 3.0 to 3.4, 9%; and 5.0 and above, 4%.

The latest figures released by the Cotton Division, in cooperation with the Cotton Research Committee of Texas, continued to reflect strong and very strong Pressley results, with 55% testing 85,000 and above pounds per square inch.

Cotton prices, the latter part of the week, were slightly lower than last week, and cotton was a little more difficult to sell, according to some of our trade sources in the Memphis market. The average prices for cotton having a mike reading of 3.5 to 4.9 were: Strict Low Middling, 15/16, 27.15; Middling Light Spotted, 15/16, 27.85; and Strict Low Middling Light Spotted, 15/16, 26.85. These prices were based on uncompressed mixed lots in warehouses.

Cottonseed prices remained steady and were $45 and $47 per ton at gin points.

Rockettes Win Two

Rockets Come Alive to Down Dragons 71-29

Wellington Skyrockets exploded in a fury of scoring and turned in their best offensive night of the season to down the Paducah Dragons 71 to 29 in Rocket gym Friday night, Dec. 4.

This followed a Tuesday night that was never meant for the Rockets when they played Shamrock and came up on the small end of the 43-29 score.

The Rockettes took two victories, an easy 65-24 over the Irish Lassies and 61-51 over Paducah.

The Rockets started out with the Dragons showing lots of spirit, they hustled real well on defense and took advantage of Paducah's defensive mistakes to score easily.

Wayne Barton was high scorer with 16 points and made 8 of the 9 field goals he attempted for a 88.8 shooting percentage. The team overall had a 49.3 percentage and this is better than they have done at any time this year.

Freddy Peters made 12 points and the others from 2 to 7.

Gary Moran was the Dragons high man with 19 points. At half time he had scored 16 and that was all the score the Paducah team had. Wellington defensed him a little better in the last half and held him to 4 points.

Paducah had a poor night as for as shooting was concerned, and couldn't hit the basket. Both coaches played second teams much of the time and the Rockets was considerably stronger of the two.

The score by quarters:

Wellington	14	28	48	71
Paducah	10	16	23	29

Rockettes-Dragonettes

The Rockettes won over the Dragonettes 71-61 in a fairly close game with both teams playing aggressive ball and doing lots of fouling.

The Wellington girls played one of the better games of the season, both offensively and defensively.

"I feel like the girls are hustling real well and they are beginning to smooth out and look like a ball club," commented Coach James Stavenhagen. "The team spirit was definitely improved over the games in the past. Paducah has a real scrappy ball club, a little inexperienced yet but before the season is over they are going to win lots of games."

Betty Courtney with 27 points was high scorer for the Rockettes; Joyce Holton had 20 and Beverly Singley 12.

Paducah's Paula Rogers scored 29 and Shirley Rekita 16.

Paducah was held to 11 field goals and made 29 points on free throws.

The score by quarters:

Wellington	14	38	53	61
Paducah	14	30	38	51

Rockettes-Lassies

The Wellington girls victory over Shamrock 65-24 was one of the largest scores they have run up this year. The Rockettes dominated the game all the way, as Shamrock's team is weaker this year than those in the past.

Betty Courtney's 29 points was high for the Rockettes, while Sally Coffman had 10 for Shamrock. After the first quarter, Coach Stavenhagen played his second team most of the time.

The score by quarters:

Wellington	19	38	49	65
Shamrock	3	11	15	24

Rockets-Irish

The Rockets had a cold night from the field, shooting less than 20 per cent of their field goals and only about 40 per cent of their free throws. Neither did Shamrock have a very good night but the Irish were able to preserve their record of seven victories without a loss.

Bill Spillman was high scorer with 14 points, while Phillip Hughey was next with 5 and others ranged down to 1 point.

Clell Tarbet made 14 as high for the Irish, with Billy Don Rives and Dickie Reeves adding 7 each.

The game by quarters:

Wellington	2	10	22	29
Shamrock	11	25	37	43

Firemen Flush Away Blaze

Firemen literally flushed away this blaze.

Someone, possibly youngsters built a fire in the commode bowl in the bathroom of a small vacant house in the north part of town Friday, Dec. 4, Fire Chief Buster Hughs said.

The bowl broke and the fire fell on the floor, which also caught fire. Neighbors saw the smoke and the fire department was notified, the fire chief continued.

The house was vacant and the door unlocked. The owner has not been determined, said Hughs.

There was only minor damage, he continued.

Lose in Irish Tourney

Norwood Teams Win Over Gould, Okla.

The Samnorwood Eagles and Eaglettes played host to Gould, Okla., Tuesday, Dec. 1. Both the Samnorwood boys and girls won.

The Eaglette-Gould game was close throughout, with never more than 10 points separating the teams. Norwood, however, was never behind after the opening minutes of play.

Kay Purkey scored 23 points as high for Norwood, while Suzy Bentley had 16. Marilyn Colson, Judy Martindale and Eunice Stice did commendable jobs on defense for the Eaglettes. The scoring for the Gold girls, mostly sophomores, was evenly spread with Shumate's 14 points as high.

The boys game saw Samnorwood take an early lead and hold it throughout the game. The Gould boys were cold from the floor and could never muster much scoring punch.

Leading scorer for Samnorwood was David Kindrick with 26 points, while Jimmy Leathers led the Oklahomans with 16.

The score by quarters:

Gould girls	9	17	25	34
N'rw'd girls	11	23	27	41

Shamrock Tourney

The Samnorwood girls and boys entered play in the Irish tournament in Shamrock during the week end but saw themselves eliminated by the second round Friday.

The boys fell in their first game to Clarendon in a close match. They were then defeated by a strong Briscoe team in the second round on Friday. This game saw Samnorwood leading in field goals but losing the game via free shots.

The Samnorwood Eaglettes opened the tourney with a hard fought victory over Shamrock. The margin of victory was deceiving, as the game was much more exciting than the score indicated.

The Shamrock girls never gave up and fought hard until the final buzzer. The leading scorer for Samnorwood was Suzy Bentley with 21 points, and Kay Purkey with 20.

The Norwood girls then lost to Briscoe in the second round of action. After opening a 10-point lead in the first half, the Eaglettes watched it disappear and Briscoe came on to win 50-42. Samnorwood scoring was led by Jo Nell Breeding with 16 points, followed closely by Kay Purkey with 15 and Suzy Bentley with 11.

Mickie Fulks led Briscoe's scoring with 32.

The score by quarters:

Shamrock girls	6	11	19	30
Norwood girls	18	32	40	53
Briscoe girls	8	24	36	50
Norwood girls	15	25	34	42

Samnorwood placed David Kindrick on the all-tournament boys team and Kay Purkey and Eunice Stice made the all-tournament girls team.

Ag Census to Update Farm, Ranch Facts

The 1964 Census of Agriculture, now being conducted by the Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce, in Collingsworth county, will bring up to date the farm and ranch statistics last collected in 1959.

Here are a few of the many facts recorded in the 1959 agricultural census for this county:

There were 710 farms and ranches in 1959, compared with 856 in 1954. The average size of farm and ranch was 932.4 acres in 1959, compared with 549.9 acres in 1954.

The value of products sold by the county's farmers and ranchers in 1959 was $9,119,972. The value of all crops sold was $6,379,456. The value of all livestock and livestock products sold was $2,740,516.

The 1964 national Census of Agriculture is the 18th in a series which began in 1840. Because of the rapid changes American agriculture has been undergoing in recent years, Census Bureau officials regard the current census as one of the most significant ever taken. They ask every farmer and rancher to cooperate in compiling an accurate record of these changes by filling out the census form he receives in the mail and holding the completed questionnaire until a census taker calls for it.

October Wedding of Miss Tidwell and Ronald Boehning Announced

By Mrs. G. T. Stephens

The October 30 wedding of Miss Almeda Tidwell and Ronald Eugene Boehning of Canyon has been announced here.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tidwell of Hedley, while the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Boehning of Canyon.

The couple was married in the parlor of the Canyon Methodist Church, with the Rev. Newton Starnes, pastor, officiating. The altar was covered with a white linen cloth, and on it lay an open white Bible, with golden candelabras at each side. An arrangement of red roses was in the background.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Pat Micklen of Canyon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white metallic two-piece, sleeveless suit with white accessories. Her flowers were pink sweetheart roses.

Miss Kathy Crawford of Canyon was maid of honor and James Seals of Amarillo was best man.

A reception followed the ceremony.

The bride's table was covered with a white French lace cloth over pink, with a centerpiece of pink and white chrysanthemums. Members of the house party were Miss Marilyn Lambert, Mrs. George Younger and Miss Suzanne Baker of Canyon.

As the couple left on their wedding trip, the bride added a white wool coat with a mink collar and beige accessories.

Mrs. Boehning is a graduate of Quail high school and is a senior in West Texas State University, Canyon. She is a member of Phi Alpha Theta, a national honor society.

A graduate of Canyon high school, the bridegroom is employed by the Texas Highway Department in Amarillo.

Mrs. Richardson Speaks at Club

The 1954 Study Club met on December 3 in the club room of the Greenbelt Electric with Mrs. Lynn Courtney, Mrs. Leon Hartman and Mrs. R. L. Templeton as hostesses.

Federation was the theme of study given by Mrs. James Richardson. She gave the background of the organization of the first woman's club organized in 1889 by Mrs. Jennie Croly. This was an opportunity for all women to join together for knowledge and self-improvement.

In 1890 she was responsible for the organization of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and next year will be its 75th anniversary. The theme will be Diamond Jubilee of Service for Freedom and Growth. The many departments and projects of GFWC were discussed.

"GFWC has helped bring about many reforms and supported the formation of many government agencies, among which was the establishment of a Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Mrs. Richardson said.

She pointed out that membership in the Federation brings broader contacts, diversified interests, worthwhile service, opportunities for stimulation and growth, trains for leadership, helps to mold public opinion, and friendship and understanding. In the words of Mrs. Dexter Arnold, a past president of GFWC, "This is the largest, most vital force of organized womanhood in the world."

Members attending were Mrs. A. J. Fires, Mrs. L. B. Bratten, Mrs. Bill Hatch, Mrs. Don Lacy, Mrs. Sam McGill, Mrs. Denzil Lacy, Mrs. E. W. Clement, Mrs. Calvin Hurst, Mrs. Paul Spillman, Mrs. Richardson and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Palo Cummings Observe Their Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Palo Cummings observed their golden wedding anniversary quietly Sunday, Dec. 6, with their two children and three of their six grandchildren.

At their request, there was no celebration, but the children, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lacy and Mr. and Mrs. Palo Cummings Jr., were hosts at the family dinner.

Mrs. Cummings is a life-long resident of the county, born in the Buck Creek community where she lived, except for one year, until the couple moved to Wellington in 1958.

She is the former Grace Goodnight, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Goodnight, who were among the first to settle in the county. She attended school at Buck Creek and Wellington.

Mr. Cummings was born at Plano, in Collin county, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cummings. He came here when he was 14, and this has been his home continuously except for one year in Coleman county.

Elder Scott Crawford married the couple at the Goodnight home, and also married their daughter in 1935 and their son in 1941.

Mrs. Cummings recalls that she cooked her own wedding dinner, as her mother was ill. For it she baked a white cake, and she had made the same kind for each anniversary since then. After a year in the Lillie community, Mr. and Mrs. Cummings moved back to Buck Creek.

When they moved to town, Mr. and Mrs. Cummings moved their house with them, and while it is similar in style to many others built around 1928 it carries a footnote of history, for part of the lumber is that used in the hotel at Collingsworth's ghost town of Pearl, nearly 75 years ago. When the town disbanded, the hotel was sold to Smokey Bonner, who moved it to his farm on Buck Creek and later sold it to Mr. Goodnight, who moved it up the creek to his place. Later the Cummings' acquired it and used the lumber in their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Cummings are active in Friendship Baptist Church and he served many years on the Buck Creek school board.

Mary Helen Langford in Choir Chosen to Record Christmas Album

The Sacred Heart Academy Glee Club and Ensemble, of which Mary Helen Langford is a member, has been selected by Delta Record Co., to make a Christmas album which that company will use as a display record and example of an excellent girls' chorus. The record was processed by Columbia and is now ready for distribution.

Sacred Heart Academy in Springfield, Ill., is operated by the Dominican Order, whose mother house is in that city.

Mary Helen is the daughter of Mrs. Rosemary Langford and the granddaughter of Dr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Jones.

She will be in Wellington about Dec. 23 for the Christmas holidays.

The album, "It's Time for Christmas," includes popular Christmas melodies, as well as traditional hymns and carols, such as "O Come All Ye Faithful," Handel's "Glory to God," "Silent Night," and "O Holy Night."

Mary Helen will have the solo part in the calypso carol, "Mary's Little Boy Child."

She is a member of the ensemble which will sing "White Christmas," Silver Bells," and "Bring Your Torches."

The director of Sacred Heart Choir is Sister Therese Martin. The album cover was designed by a Dominican nun.

The Nuns of St. Joseph's Hospital are members of the Dominican Order whose mother house is in Springfield. Sister Mary Lucy formerly taught in the Academy and was Mrs. Langford's history instructor.

New Easy-Care Cotton Marketed

COLLEGE STATION.— Many easy care qualities mark the all-cotton simulated leather fabric on the market.

An Italian textile technician "made a mistake" and created the new fabric. It was discovered when a silicone finish was applied to the napped surface of a cotton fabric, says Lynn Parks, Extension consumer education specialist in textiles and clothing.

The fabric has the luxury look and feel of real leather, but is water-repellent, comfortable, supple at temperatures from -40 degrees to 340 degrees F.; crease-resistant, and is dry cleanable and machine washable.

Many Infants Still Have Poor Pre-Natal Care

COLLEGE STATION.— Modern medicine has not done much to assure that today's babies get off to a good start in life. However, not all Texas' babies have the opportunity for as safe and healthy a start as medical science can now provide, says Patsy Reynolds, Extension specialist in family life education.

There were 10,809 midwife deliveries made in Texas in 1962, the study reveals. In one county, more than 50% of the deliveries were made by midwives.

Texas to Spend $18 Million on FM Road Work

AUSTIN.—The Texas Highway Commission recently acted to protect the investment of Texas taxpayers in their 37,000 mile Farm and Ranch to Market road system by approving $18,090,200 for betterment in 1965.

A total of 3,305 miles of these all-weather roads will be improved under the 1965 Farm to Market road improvement program, to be executed in coming months by the Highway Department.

Commission Chairman Herbert C. Petry, Jr., said traffic increase and heavier loads, coupled with the age of many of the rural roads in Texas, are big factors in the need for periodic "resoling" of many of the F-M roads.

Under the budget approved, 353 F-M miles will be reconstructed with new grading, structures and surfacing; 338 miles will be widened, reconditioned and resurfaced; 679 miles will receive additional surfacing, and seal coat improvements will be made on 1,924 miles.

Extensive bridge widening and shoulder improvement work is also included in the list of improvements scheduled for F-M roads under the 1965 program, Petry said.

This improvement budget is in addition to a $23 million Farm to Market road construction budget approved by the Commission in May for new F-M road construction.

The Highway Department will spend about $22 million next year for routine maintenance—in addition to extensive betterment covered in this week's action—on the F-M system.

Of the total completed F-M road system in Texas, 35,560 miles are rural and 1,085 miles are within city limits. An additional 2,469 miles are under construction at this time or financed for construction in coming months.

Since 1948 the Texas Farm to Market road system has grown from 3,060 miles to the designated system of about 37,000 miles today. An ultimate F-M system of 50,000 miles is envisioned for Texas by the Highway Commission.

Mental Health Plan Important

A mental health plan, drafted by a 110-member committee appointed by Gov. John Connally is of vital importance to every Texan. So says Committee Chairman Judge C. L. Abernethy of Plainview.

Reason is that every person —Texan or not—has, at one time or another, been a "troubled person." Committee defines "troubled" as "anything from a transient inability to make a necessary decision to a severe psychosis."

One segment of the committee is called the "Services to Troubled People" task force. It has written recommendations for state and community services to troubled people. All recommendations by all committees will be in the spotlight as suggested legislation during the 1965 Legislature.

Committee reports that there is an endless supply of services to meet some fragment of the needs of the troubled. These include pastoral counselors, medical doctors, social workers, and psychologists. Some community information centers must be set up so troubled people can find out where to go for help they need WHEN they need it.

New Chemical Controls Several Cattle Pests

COLLEGE STATION.—A new Ruelene "pour-on" formulation, Ruelene 8R, is now available for controlling hornflies, lice and grubs on cattle, report M. A. Price, associate professor, Department of Entomology, at Texas A&M University, and P. J. Hamman, assistant Extension entomologist.

The ready-to-use formulation has been approved by the Pesticides Regulation Division, Agricultural Research Service, of USDA, and has not been known to cause burning or severe scurfing of the hide, says Price. It employs an oil base that facilitates close adherence of the toxicant to the skin and lessens the run-off problem.

Ruelene 8R should be applied in a backline application at the rate of one fluid ounce per 100 pounds of body weight to animals weighing up to 800 pounds. Price warns, however, that no more than eight ounces should be applied to any animal weighing more than 800 pounds.

A single treatment as soon as possible after heelfly activity ceases will control grubs, hornflies and lice, Price points out. Hornfly reductions may be obtained for as long as three weeks following treatment.

Cattle treated for grub control may be re-treated in the fall, winter or spring months when lice become injurious.

Price says that Ruelene 8R should not be applied during October, November and December to animals not previously treated for grubs.

Restrictions concerning use of this material include the following:

Do not apply within 28 days of slaughter.

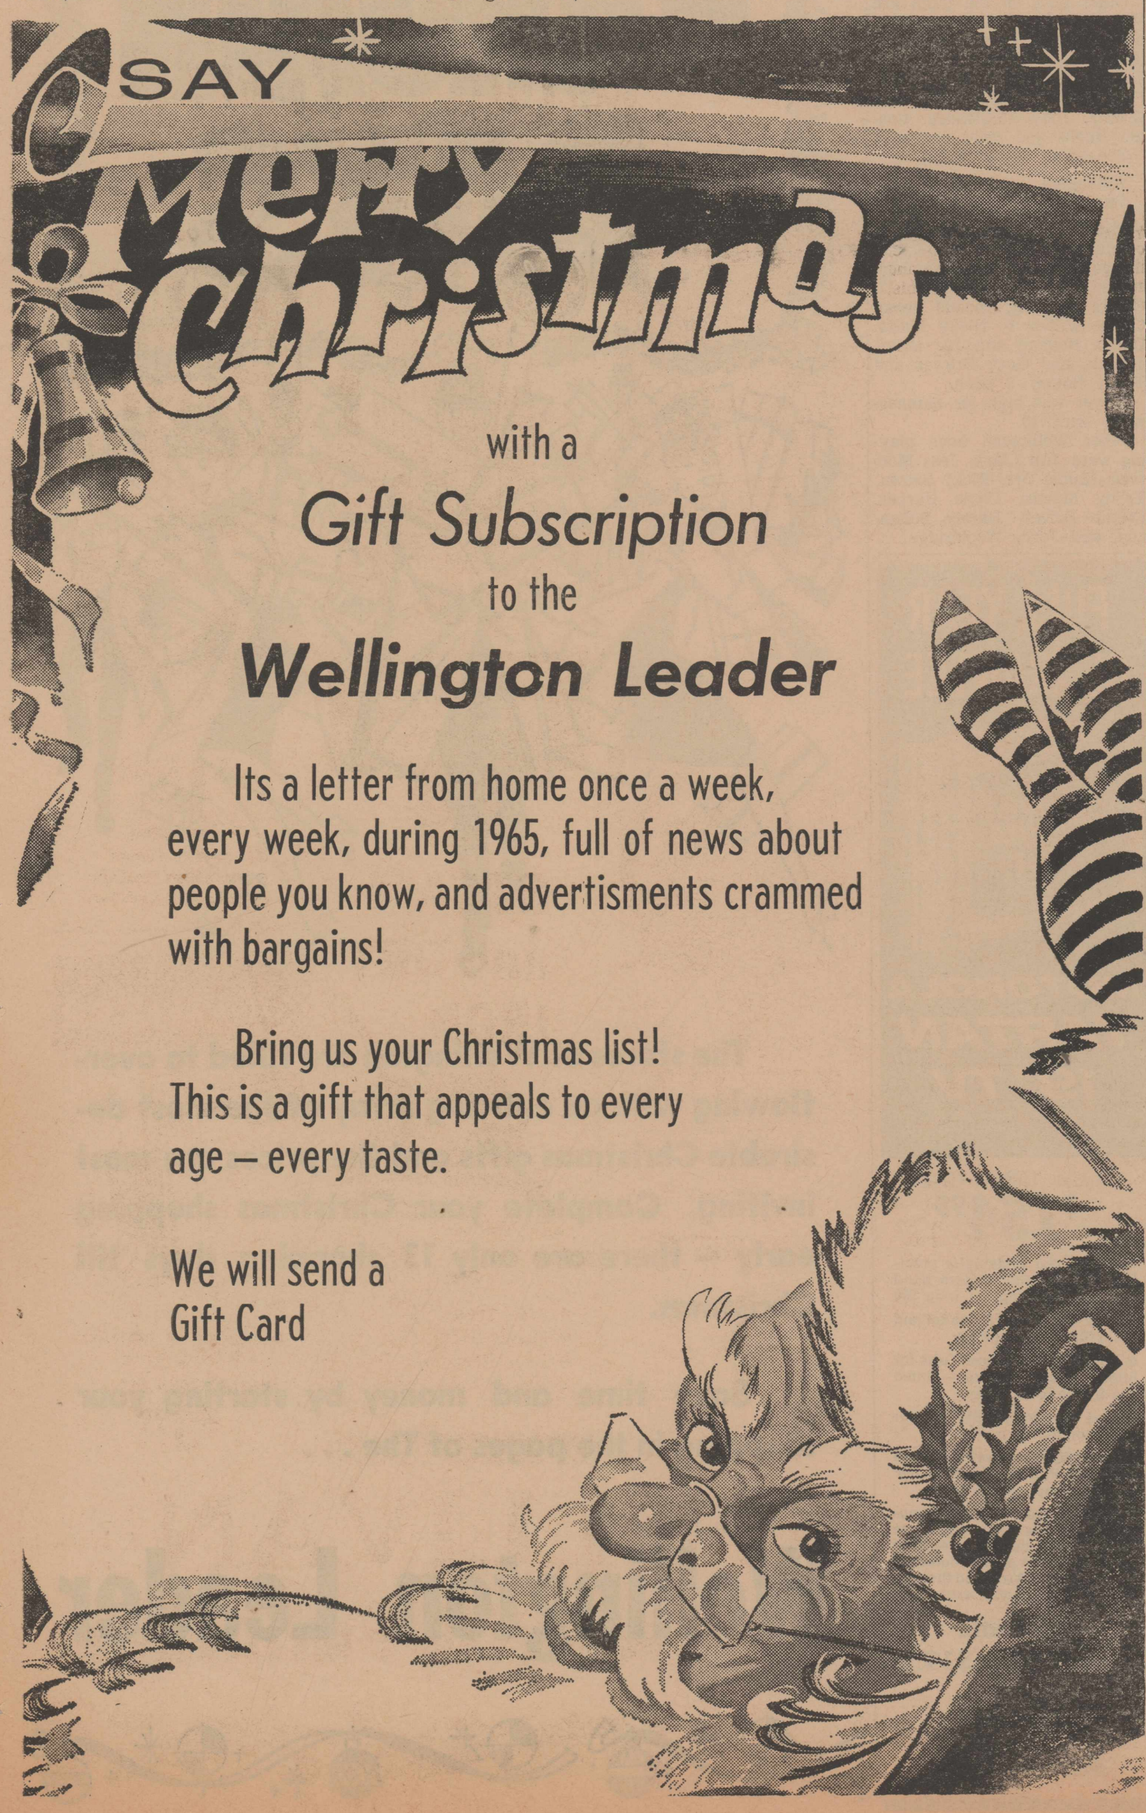

Do not apply to lactating dairy cows or dry cows within 28 days of freshening.

Do not treat sick animals or those under stress due to castration, dehorning, disease, over exertion or excitement; nor within 10 days after shipping, weaning or exposure to disease. Such animals may suffer toxic side reactions.

Cattle should have free access to water and feed before and after treatment. If cattle react normally, encourage exercise. Should abnormal conditions persist, consult a veterinarian.

When branding at treatment time, brand first; then treat with Ruelene 8R to avoid the possibility of hair catching fire.

President Jefferson had Congress authorize the first survey of the coasts and harbors of the U.S. in 1807.

In Hunting Industry, We Need to Look at Ourselves

Those who look longingly for industry for Wellington would be encouraged at the serious work being put out toward that end by business leaders in our town.

All that has been done so far is ground-work, and a vast amount of this must be done before anything tangible is apparent. But it is safe to say that probably more men are digging into their own pocketbooks and taking time from their businesses in behalf of the community that at any time in the recent past.

In the meantime, it would be well for us to look at a recent report of the Texas Industrial Development Council.

"A community's future is closely tied to the brand of people who make up its real character. This includes the business leaders and the local governments' elected officials," the report read.

As a guide line for community consideration and action, the Council lists these as being rated important by industrial prospect.

First on the list is community attitude. "Industry seeks a location where the community attitude is one of welcome."

Next. Industry expects fair and equitable enforcement of all federal, state and local laws. Industry expects economy in spending and fair treatment in tax levies.

Building, electrical and plumbing codes, modern and up to date, are expected.

Redevelopment of 'blight" areas with private capital is encouraged.

Look at these, then look at the operation of Wellington. You will find the comparison favorable.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

People who know all about such things say that slum housing is mainly to blame for juvenile delinquency and our awful high crime rate.

Obviously, the old timers who raised their families in dugouts and sod shack when they were setting up some new country didn't know about the character-building qualities of wall to-wall carpet.

And it's sad to think, for instance, about what a real great man Abe Lincoln could have been if that log cabin had just had an electric dishwasher and two bathrooms in it.

I see where school children are fixing to get taught what is called Modern Math, in the place of old out-dated Arithmetic.

My mathmoron neighbor says this is a necessary move, because old-order Arithmetic just won't work with the new-order principle that the more we owe the richer we are.

Says he can handle this Modern Math all right, though, after all his years of dealing with different types of math, such as loan sharks' math, politicians' math, statisticians' math, and liars' math.

My religionary neighbor says the big drive to outlaw any collaboration with religion in our schools is aimed at teaching our kids to look to Washington for all blessings.

In fact, it appears to him that government is jealous of any Higher Power, and is trying to take all of the blessings business away from the Lord.

But he is going to keep on doing most of his blessings procurement and will recommend that his children deal extensively with the Original Benefactor, Whose service is more dependable and Who is not always raising His prices.

A scientist says to the papers that he has found a spot in an animal's brain which, if you cut it out, it takes all of the fight out of him.

And it's figured that humans can also be dociled by operating on them and taking out the rather-fight-than-switch area of their brains.

My calculative neighbor says this surgical break-through might save Washington billions of dollars over the present system of keeping people's resistance down by giving us a little of our money back.

LOCO'S FIRST POST OFFICE

NEWS LETTER from Congressman WALTER ROGERS

THE PRESIDENT'S PROGRAM

I thought you might be interested in a brief look at recommendations the President possibly will make to the 89th Congress when he delivers his State of the Union and other messages early next year.

Spending

President Johnson has announced he is determined to keep the budget below $100 billion for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1965. The Bureau of the Budget is completing work on the budget he will submit, but, as you know, no funds may be spent unless Congress grants the appropriations.

Education

The President is known to favor extending federal aid to education at all levels. One of his proposals may call for expanding government grants for teacher training and school construction.

Farm Programs

Several programs formulated by the Department of Agriculture are being reviewed by the Bureau of the Budget. It is likely that the President will urge a continuation of present commodity programs, although he has made it clear that he wants to search our present feed grains, cotton, wheat and other programs for those elements which need to be improved and strengthened. President Johnson has said the Administration will emphasize the importance of the choice farmers have in regard to commodity programs, to continue and improve them or eliminate them altogether. He said he means for the choice to rest with the farmers.

Defense

Continued strengthening of the Nation's defense posture will be urged by the President and certainly supported by the Congress. About the need for strong defenses there is no argument. Our strength now is mighty; by mid-1965 it is expected the United States will hold a lead of more than 5 to 1 over the Soviet Union in the long-range missile race. Our military capability is designed to meet Communist aggressive challenges in whatever form they develop. That is the way it will be maintained.

Taxes

President Johnson will urge Congress to repeal the excise taxes on cosmetics, furs, jewelry, luggage and handbags—with an estimated saving to consumers of approximately $524 million per year. In addition, the President is expected to ask Congress to cut many of the excises on manufactured goods and the tax on theater and concert tickets. Being reviewed for possible repeal are taxes on such items as automobiles, cameras, radio and television sets, appliances and sporting goods. Part of the purpose in revising excises is the same as that behind the 1964 reduction in personal and corporate income taxes: To return capital to the private sector of the economy to increase the rate of business investment and consumer spending.

"Medicare"

President Johnson has said that he will recommend some form of tax-supported system to provide health care for retired persons. The form of the proposal is not as yet clear.

Foreign Affairs

President Johnson will advocate a "tough line" as the Cold War continues — strengthening the Western alliance, further isolating Cuba militarily and economically, continued support for South Viet Nam and possibly a step-up of our military involvement there, a review of foreign aid with the possibility that he will advocate dropping assistance to so-called "neutral" and "non-aligned" nations.

Natural Resources

The President is expected to recommend expanded efforts to de-salt sea water and brackish water ,several large multiple-purpose reclamation projects in Western states, stepped-up water resources planning with Federal-State cooperation, several new units in the National Park system, and, possibly, an expanded exploration program to determine the extent of mineral resources of all types in areas of the United States where exploration has been at a minimum.

NE-WHO?

Malaysia's parliament was stunned recently when the prime minister likened his bitter enemy, Sukarno of Indonesia, to a "modern Nehru." When he realized he had used the name of India's late leader, he hastily added, "I mean Nero, that Roman scoundrel."

Turkey Shoot Set at Childress

A turkey shoot will be held at the Childress Airfield Sunday, Dec. 13 from 10 a.m. until dark.

The American Legion and the Senior Rifle Club are sponsors.

A large number of area marksmen are expected.

ASCS Announces Cotton Vote Poling Places

Cotton growers will vote in the Dec. 15 marketing quota referendum in the knowledge that 1964-crop prospects have increased since the Secretary of Agriculture proclaimed the quotas in October.

According to W. C. Harwell, chairman of the Collingsworth County ASC committee, crop yields at that time were expected to average around 522 pounds per acre, which would have been a record high. Prospects as of Nov. 1 however indicated a 1964 yield of 528 pounds per acre. This compares with the 1963 yield of 516 pounds, the previous high, and the 5-year 1958-62 average of 454 pounds.

Supplies for the current marketing year have been estimated at 41% more than normal. The normal supply is the level beyond which the Agriculture Secretary is required to proclaim marketing quotas.

Growers eligible to vote in the Dec. 15 referendum on marketing quotas for the 1965 cotton crop are all those farmers who engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1964. Approval by at least two-thirds of the growers voting is necessary to make the quotas and the "domestic allotment program" effective.

Voting boxes will be located as follows:

Farmers Co-op Gin office for Community A, North Wellington.

Farmers Co-op Gin office at Dodson for Community B, the Dodson area.

C & H Drug Store for Community C, South Wellington.

The Dozier Gin office for the west part of Community E, and Samnorwood gym for the east part of Community E.

Girls Break Even

Quail Boys Beat Estelline and Arnett

The Quails Quails won both of their basketball games this past week by beating Estelline 71-36 in a game played there Dec. 1 and then defeated the Arnett Indians 81-53 on Dec. 4 at Arnett.

The Bobwhites were not so fortunate as they lost to the Estelline girls 74-54 but then beat the Arnett girls 61-24.

Quail at Estelline

After a slow start, the Quail boys broke the game wide open in the second half to defeat the Estelline Bear Cubs to the tune of 71-36. The Quails were only 7 points ahead at halftime but held the Cubs to 4 points in the third period to widen the margin to 16 points as the fourth period opened. Both teams played their reserves most of the final period.

The Bobwhites played a much better game than the score would indicate as they got real close to the Estelline team in the second half only to have four starters foul off. The Bobwhites really never got started until the second half as they trailed by 19 points at halftime. The Quail girls gradually cut the margin until they got within 7 points midway in the final quarter when the fouls caught up with them.

The starting guards, Patricia Kimbro, Dianne Moseley and Mary Conner did a real fine job especially in the last half. Lonetta Neeley led the scoring for Quail with 25 points while Sue Breedlove had 20 and Shirley Horton 9. Cherri Rapp, Estelline's 5-foot freshman forward ,scored 32 points.

Dale Morris led the Quails with 33 points followed by Bruce Ward with 11. Dale Ward and Jodie Rapp each had 8 points to lead the Estelline team.

Quail at Arnett

The Bobwhites had little trouble with the Arnett girls as they did not allow Arnett a field goal in the first half and only 8 points on free throws while they were adding up a total of 37 points at halftime. The second half was similar to the first with all nine Bobwhites alternating positions.

Lavern Bennett, who played the first half as a guard, scored 10 points to lead the Arnett girls. Shirley Horton scored 19, Lonetta Neeley 16, Judy Campbell 15, Linda Peters 7, and Patricia Kimbro 2 for the Bobwhites.

The Quails built up a good lead midway in the second quarter and the second team took over until the last quarter and the third team played most of this period.

Dale Morris scored 25 and Bruce Ward 22, most of which were scored in the first half, to lead the Quail scoring. Duewayne Dodson had 18 for Arnett.

"I am very pleased with the way our girls are coming along. Our guards are playing as good as any in the country and our forwards have finally decided they can score. I am especially pleased with the performances of Patricia Kimbro and Lonetta Neeley, the Bobwhite captains. They have been showing the type play and leadership necessary for a winning team," said Coach Don Lacy.

"Our boys didn't play a lick of defense at Estelline, but came back with a very strong offense against Arnett," Lacy continued. "I think Joe Harris is the toughest defensive man I have seen this year. Smokey Mitchell has really been playing the way I knew he was capable of playing. Don Morris is the most improved player on the team and he, with Joe Harris, are a real tough pair of guards. I think we have the two outstanding forwards in the country in Dale Morris and Bruce Ward. They can rebound and shoot with the best and both have finally decided to really get after that defense."

"Paul Gollihugh," the coach continued, "has been in a mild slump but when he snaps out of it, he will be one of the best ball players around."

The Quails now have won 13 and lost 1, and the Bobwhites have won 8 and lost 6.

The score by quarters:

Bobwhites	12	21	38	54
Estelline	20	40	54	74
Quails	17	32	45	71
Estelline	8	25	29	36
Bobwhites	15	37	46	61
Arnett	1	8	14	24
Quails	30	50	70	81
Arnett	11	18	33	53

Governor Sets December 13 "Safety Sunday"

AUSTIN.—Sunday, Dec. 13, has been proclaimed "Safety Sunday" in Texas by Governor John Connally, it was announced today by Quincy V. Tuma of Houston, president of the Texas Safety Association.

In making the announcement the Association president praised Gov. Connally for his interest in the welfare of the people of Texas.

"The governor's interest in the welfare of the people of Texas is evidenced by this action," Tuma said. "The purpose of 'Safety Sunday' is to focus public attention on the moral obligations and responsibilities of vehicle drivers to protect their own lives and the lives of others."

"Safety Sunday" is observed each year during one Sunday in December to give further emphasis to the need for accident prevention during the Christmas-New Year's holiday season.

In his proclamation, Governor Connally said, "It is essential that every Texas driver realize that safety for himself, his loved ones and his friends, as well as other drivers and passengers is a matter of moral responsibility, and that useless infliction of human injury is an abuse of God's most precious gift—life itself."

He noted that 2,729 persons were killed and 161,543 injured on Texas streets and highways in 1963 despite an intensive and continuing campaign by both official State agencies and citizen-support groups.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

Last Saturday was the busiest day the merchants have had so far. The Christmas shoppers were making up for lost time and you could see that gift list look on the faces of the people as plainly as if they were holding a piece of paper in their hands. There will be more such days before the holidays arrive.

In other times we have written about the Harvest Moon and the Hunters Moon: but the moon in winter is also beautiful and has been a source of wonder through the ages. This year the last full moon of the year will rise on December 18 to paint another heavenly picture in the eastern sky exactly one week before Christmas; but the filling of the moon in December in 1964 will bring a rarer visualization for the earth-bound creatures who live on this planet. A total lunar eclipse will be visible throughout the United States early in the evening on December 18. By our time in the central zone it will start at 6:59 p.m. and the eclipse will be total at 8:07 and one hour later the bright December moon will be shining again, obscuring the lustre of Jupiter and Saturn which are evening stars at this time of the year, with Venus, Mercury and Mars having become the morning stars.

All of this will be happening even if a blue blizzard should sweep down from the north and obscure the celestial phenomena. I predict a clear bright night and suggest that all the merchants stay open until 9 p.m., and this might be a good suggestion for all the other evenings until Christmas. I make no other weather predictions except that of the date of the full moon.

Out of a clear blue sky you sometimes learn something about an old acquaintance that you never knew before—almost opposite of the image you had built in your mind of the man. Over a cup of coffee, I mentioned the subject of football to George Shadid, and he said: "I do not like football—I never understood the game and I don't go to see them or watch them on TV." This astounded me since George reads a lot and takes quite an interest in community activities.

Perhaps George is by football like I am by Picasso, the abstract painter who is rated the greatest painter of the last two generations. I do not understand the man. Some of his earlier works made sense to me; but his latter day paintings leave me with a blank space in my mind and a tormented feeling over the blind course civilization is pursuing on its road to destruction.

There has been a new book on Picasso laying around the house for weeks and I have not opened it. It was written by a former mistress who bore him two or three children out of wedlock. That means very little to me from the standpoint of prejudice. I simply do not understand his paintings. On the other hand there is a book on Goya in my library written by Lion Feuchtwanger which I have read two or three times. I can understand Francisco de Goya because his paintings have meaning to me. He was the Court painter of Spain at time time the Napoleonic wars were starting and he painted the nobility in such a way that posterity wonders why people so common, so brainless and so lacking in decency should be doing ruling a once great nation. History does repeat itself.

I have been receiving some letters from the Literati in the last few days. The first is from Loula Grace Erdman of West Texas State University which mentions local people:

"Belatedly, I have decided that I am indebted to you for the most excellent review of Mrs. Warner's book, 'Selected Editorials.' I quite agree with your evaluation of the book: she was a remarkable woman and years ahead of her time. At first I had thought my young friends, the Eddie Slays, had sent the clipping, but today after talking to your cousin, Burkella Ochsner, I knew that you were the one to thank.

"Would it be possible to have another copy? I want to send it to Maurice Crain, my agent, and (I believe) your friend of many years. He also knew Mrs. Warner.

"Better still—why don't you mail it directly to him. His address: 18 East 41st St., New York 17, N.Y."

The second is from Professor Olin E. Hinkle of The University of Texas, who recently received the Excellence in Journalism Award from the Incarnate Word College in San Antonio:

"I appreciated your thoughtfulness in sending me the clipping on Dr. Penick. He tottered down the aisle of the University Presbyterian Churc University Presbyterian Church to the very last Sunday. A wonderful man—sweet but tough—a rare combination.

"I wish you might have been at Incarnate Word College for the Excellence in Journalism Award. I got a beautiful engraved plaque.

"Over the years, I have taught Catholic nuns, most of them fine students. I also have spoken at the annual journalism workshop for Catholic students many time. I hope all is well with you."

DEFENDING 2-A CHAMPIONS

Opens Thursday

Plans Complete for Norwood Tournment

Wellington Rockettes and the Shamrock Lassies will open the annual Samnorwood Invitational Basketball Tournament Thursday, Dec. 10, playing at 9 a.m. Next up will be the Wellington Rockets and the Samnorwood Eagles, who meet at 10:30 a.m.

Plans for the tournament were completed this week, Coach Loyd Stephens said.

The tournament will continue through Thursday and Friday, with the finals played Saturday afternoon and night.

Sixteen teams are entered—8 boys and 8 girls, the coach said. There will be four sessions Thursday and Friday, at 9 a.m., 12:30 p.m.; 4 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Consolation finals begin at 2 p.m. Saturday and the championship finals at 7 p.m.

First, second and consolation trophies will be awarded in both divisions, and there will be a sportsmanship trophy for the boys and girls teams best representing that quality.

First round games, besides the two openers, are: Clarendon girls vs. Quail, 12:30 p.m.; Memphis boys vs. Clarendon, 2 p.m.; McLean vs. Kelton girls, 4 p.m.; Shamrock vs. McLean boys, 5:30 p.m.; Samnorwood vs. Shamrock girls at 7:30 p.m.; and Quail vs. Shamrock boys, 9 p.m.

Coach Stephens, along with Samnorwood Superintendent Robert Dwight and other school officials have invited basketball fans of the area to attend.

Two Accidents Occur Friday

Two car accidents, both occurring Friday, Dec. 4, at street intersections, were reported by Police Chief Donald Nunnelley.

The first occurred about 11:45 a.m. at the intersection of Amarillo and 10th streets, when the car driven by Mrs. Wilda Marie Johnson, wife of Frank Johnson, and one driven by B. F. Chance, collided. Mrs. Johnson was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital for treatment of a severe laceration over her right eye and later released, Nunnelley said. He estimated damage to both cars at about $325.

At 3:50 p.m. vehicles driven by Norman Murdock and Mrs. Sam McGill collided at the intersection of 15th and Amarillo streets. The police chief estimated damage at approximately $2.50.

Hospital Auxiliary

for the beds, Mrs. Sherman said:

"More of our senior citizens are using St. Joseph's Hospital now than ever before, and these beds are especially needed for them.

"This is the first time the Hospital Auxiliary has attempted to reach everyone in the county in one of its fund drives, but people throughout Collingsworth feel that this is 'our hospital' and we want to give everyone an opportunity to participate.

"Many out of county agencies make their fund appeals at Christmas time, but a gift to St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary for this drive will remain at home," Mrs. Sherman continued.

Former residents as well as those now living in the county are being appealed to.

The Auxiliary president emphasized, however, that anyone who is missed with a letter should consider themselves automatically invited to participate.

Mrs. Harold Watkins, Auxiliary treasurer, will receive the money.

Members of Mrs. Sherman's committee to prepare and mail the letters were Mrs. J. W. Wells, Mrs. Edd Henard, Mrs. James Stavenhagen, and Mrs. Jones Singley.

While this project may appear big, and is big, it's one taken in stride by St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary, which has won state-wide recognition for its work.

Although it is the smallest member of the state association of hospital auxiliaries, it is doing everything auxiliaries of big hospitals are doing, and more than most.

It is in fact older than the state organization, having been founded in 1938.

In recent years it has paid for electrical wiring of the hospital, piped oxygen to the 26 patient rooms, provided modern furniture for several rooms, set up a nurse's scholarship fund, purchased incubators for the nursery, and air conditioners for patient rooms, and it has bought other equipment.

The Christmas 1964 Drive is just another example of this small Auxiliary that thinks big!

LOOKING AHEAD

by Dr. George S. Benson

SOME CONSTANTS AMID CHANGE

The uncertainties about us when one looks at the changes and prospective changes in the world power structures, are staggering.

Turnovers among the ruling personalities have been tremendous in the past year. A list of erstwhile decision makers of barely more than a year ago includes names no longer significant in global affairs nor even the national affairs of those respective nations.

Our destinies were shaped by men now pushed aside by death or other change: President Kennedy, Prime Minister Macmillan, Chancellor Adenaur, Prime Minister Nehru.

Other names, like Diefenbaker, Goulart, Betancourt, Diem, and Khanh, etc., are no longer headlines.

When in mid-October on a single day the ruling power in two of the world's great nations changed hands, one could feel that the tumbling events of history were destroying his picture like a child jumbling a jig-saw picture puzzle. New and untried men were in charge in Britain and Russia, and if one should look further he would find the list grown to include more than a half-dozen other important nations.

In all the changes of political leadership, it is difficult to say how many and which ones are for good or ill. When power is altered or passed to new and untested hands, one can only ask what differences remain and what differences may be produced by new emphases and weakening or growing alliances.

We can be thankful that the changes in Britain and Russia were not accompanied by blood shed. Yet, they were no less serious, lacking purges, beheadings or assassination. We must hope that the differences so vast and obvious have been apparent to thoughtful persons throughout the world. In England, the citizens went to the polling places to select which party would have the balance of power, while in Russia the people waited to see who should be selected for them.

Predictions in Britain called it a close race between the Conservatives and Labor. In Russia there were no predictions, for very few even knew about it.

One of the most engaging pictures of the Soviet changeover was that of the crowds waiting outside the Kremlin before Lenin's tomb during the celebration, to see who would emerge on the balcony above the tomb to greet the Soviet people. In Britain, it was a tally of seats in the House of Commons and the losing party would become "Her Majesty's loyal opposition" officially recognized as the leader of organized criticism toward the new regime.

In Russia there would be no criticism. There was mostly dishonor for the deposed leader, regardless of his contributions to his country.

All this suggests to us that such deeds of darkness truly are anachronistic in this era of knowledge and reverence for science. When men must await in fear what is done behind the grim walls of state, where is the freedom of humanity?

How is it that some of us who enjoy unprecedented liberty along with the next man can be so careless as to suggest various "rapprochements" with such governments as this?

How it it, too, that we can increasingly tolerate the advance of these anti-freedom ideas throughout the world and stand by voiceless?

What kind of helplessness afflicts free men today?

If in this world of conflicting ideologies, men must in fear stand awaiting deeds done in darkness, such a loss of humanity affects us all.

If anywhere there is the dogma that men exist to serve the state, the danger is very real that such darkness could spread to engulf us all. The effectiveness of secrecy, the surprise of sudden-change, the limits placed upon minority opinion—all may appear "scientific" and "utilitarian" in reaching national goals or safeguarding an ideology. But these tactics, even when we practice them, are anti-freedom.

America, too, had a public accounting. While the roly-poly Khrushchev was being toppled as suddenly as he came to power, we were having an election. Some aspects of our choosing process could stand improvement, to be sure; the bandwagon effect of extensive polling, the carnival atmosphere of some campaigning, the lack of dignity in the conduct of candidates, the bitter bias of commentators and their communications media, etc.

But there are constants here despite the turmoil of change. America must remain an open society, regardless of the world drift to darkness.
