94 Ballot Hospital Election

All four candidates were elected without opposition to Colorado City Hospital District board Saturday.

Ninety-four ballots were cast at the Courthouse and Rex T. McKenney of Westbrook, incumbent, received a vote on every one for a perfect 94 total.

With 93 were W. M. (Willie) Landau, Prestor Morris and Wayne Shaw.

Election Judge R. B. Baker said the number of ballots would have been considerably less if numerous voters had not appeared at the Courthouse thinking that was the place for the school board balloting.

"Then they voted in the hospital election before going on over to the school tax office," he said.

Community's Effort Praised

Leaders Cite Cooperation For Industrial Prospect Visit Here

Officials of Colorado City Chamber of Commerce and Industrial Team Inc. Saturday praised the community for its cooperation and effort Wednesday and Thursday when the city was host to a major industrial prospect.

"It was a splendid effort by everyone from start to finish," said Don Benson, Chamber president, "and I believe we got the point over plainly and sincerely that our community is a friend of industry."

"Whether this particular prospect decides to bring his manufacturing to Colorado City or not, we have gained in experience and we will be better prepared to meet the next prospect."

Charles C. Thompson, president of Industrial Team Inc., declared just before leaving with Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Kirk Taylor for a vacation in Hawaii, that "we are on the way."

"The cooperation and attitude and preparation for this prospect is convincing evidence that we want industry, will be good partners to industry and are capable of getting the message across," he emphasized.

"Every citizen responded in a manner that was impressive as well as reassuring."

"When we are working in this manner - all together - Colorado City is certain in reasonable time to obtain new industrial payrolls.

"We must understand, however," Thompson emphasized, "that the competition is strong and that we must keep preparing and working all the time to attract industry. If we do this, then we will be successful - if not with this one, then with the next or the next in the weeks and months ahead."

Heading up the arrangements for the visit here Wednesday evening and Thursday were members of the industrial contact and prospect committee. This group includes Willie Landau, Charles Root, County Agent Bobby Lemons, Jay Adams, Jim Kelley, Buzz Majors, Bob Ratliff, G. D. Foster, Larry Kinard, Trevlyn Kelley, Jeff Taylor, Charles Godwin and Joe Bell.

Receiving special applause from Thompson and Benson for their roles in the visit were Mayor John Chinn, County Judge Elmer Martin, Supt. James McMath, City Manager J. A. Sadler, Dave Hutchins, J. C. Britton, Ralph Lee, Farm Bureau President John Tiller, Farmers Union Director Warren Anderson, Ben Sparks, Jim Maddox and Father Jim Foelker.

Also with key roles were W. A. Findley Jr. of Rogers Seed

Delinting; Mrs. David Bridgeford, head of the new computer program at Colorado High; District Judge Elmer Martin, and the staff and board for Mitchell County Library.

Benson revealed Saturday that the Go-For-Industry program of the community is moving ahead on various fronts with preliminary negotiations now with at least four firms, including the one whose president was here this week for a personal visit.

"This is a continuing program," Benson said. "It does not stop with one or a few prospects."

"We are expanding our effort

every day and we believe the experience and know-how we gain from each new task will move us toward increasing success.

"The important factor is that we remain united in attitude, effort and determination."

At least seven full-time committees busy in the Go-For-Industry program had a helping hand in the industrial prospect visit Wednesday and Thursday.

They worked out of the Chamber of Commerce office in Civic House in organizing the visit, compiling data, preparing programs and tours, arranging visits and events.

This planning group included approximately 60 volunteer citizens assigned to the key committees. Some were behind the scenes all the time, others were in more public roles.

"Every one of our workers reported enthusiastic cooperation from every business and every individual contacted," said Kinard, chairman of the Chamber's industrial committee.

Among the events hosted for the visiting executive were a steak supper with a few key-contact personnel, a breakfast with a cross-section of 65 community citizens including Commissioners Court, City Council and School Board; a small luncheon with 25 merchants and officials, and a tour of key points within and around the community, plus a conference with Industrial Team and Chamber representatives.

PCA To Celebrate 35th Anniversary

More than 800 members of the Sweetwater Production Credit Association are joining stockholders of associations throughout the United States this year in saluting the agriculture credit organization on their 35th anniversary, to be celebrated at the Nolan County Coliseum, Sweetwater, April 18, 1969, starting at 10:00 a. m.

"It is a great pleasure to have the opportunity to serve the farmers and ranchers of this area," announced R. B. Baker, manager of SPCA's Colorado City Office. "We look forward to more years of pleasant service and association with our friends and neighbors in agriculture."

"Organized in 1933 to provide adequate short-term credit for the nation's farmers and ranchers, the 35 Production Credit Associations in Texas have provided billions of dollars in credit to Texas farmers and stockmen," he added.

"Home owned and operated, the Production Credit Association offers complete credit service to persons engaged in farming, ranching or dairying," Baker said. "All types of agriculture credit are available."

"The steady growth of our association, as well as the other 34 associations in Texas, is due chiefly to the fact that each loan application is studied and passed on by people intimately acquainted with the problems faced by their fellow farmers and ranchers," Baker said.

"Every borrower becomes a stockholder in his local PCA and has an equal voice with every other stockholder in conducting the affairs of the association."

"Our business is owned and controlled by farmers and ranchers not only acquainted with agricultural problems of the area, but who, through their own experiences as borrowers, have valuable knowledge of the operation of their association."

"All PCA loans are made from private capital, either from the individual association's capital and reserves or by means of funds borrowed from the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston," Baker said.

Payne, Anderton Engagement Announced at Friday Tea

Engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Arla Jo Payne to Norman S. Anderton III of Arlington were revealed Friday afternoon by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Payne of 1111 Walnut Street.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Laura Crites of Arlington and the late Dr. Norman S. Anderton Jr. of Houston.

Wedding for the couple will be June 7 in First United Methodist Church.

Announcement of the couple's betrothal was made at a tea honoring the bride-to-be in the Payne home.

Guests for the announcement were greeted by Mrs. Payne, who introduced the honoree and her fiancé.

Miss Mary Ann Lipps registered guests. Mrs. E. H. Winn and Mrs. Francis Winn presided at the serving table. Others in the houseparty were Miss Sidney Smith of Arlington, Miss Becky James of Grand Prairie, Miss Elaine Winn and Mrs. S. A. Palmer of Colorado City and the bride-elect's aunt, Mrs. Homer C. Lovell of San Diego, Cal.

For the occasion Miss Payne wore an A-line dress of white cotton ottoman and dacron with sheer choir boy sleeves.

Her costume was complemented by a corsage of white gardenias.

Registry table was marked with a silver tray of miniature wedding rings and bells tied with streamers of the honoree's chosen colors of blue and green revealing the nuptial date. A nosegay of blue and green carnations complimented the setting.

Another table in the entertaining room featured a reflector with a miniature wedding party including the bride couple, minister and flower girls.

Tea table featured the bride-elect's chosen colors. A white organdy cloth with silver gray border and appliques covered with table which was centered with a large arrangement of white and blue Dutch iris and yellow tulips in a silver shell.

Silver appointments were used.

Tea refreshments included spiced punch, petit fours with blue and green decorations, sand tarts and mints.

Miss Payne was graduated from the University of Texas at Arlington where her sorority was Delta Zeta. She was also active in both the music and science departments through Tau Beta Sigma, Sigma Gamma Epsilon and Phi Kappa Theta, honorary fraternities.

She received the Col. Irons Award as outstanding band member one year and was elected to Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges

HEY, THERE..... CABLE TELEVISION VIEWER Make A TV Channel Selection For Us!

FRONTIER ELECTRONICS, your Abel Cable TV, needs your assistance in deciding what TELEVISION STATION has the Channel 2 spot on your Cable T.V. Dial.

Cable Channel 2 has been allotted to Midland TV-2, but there are complaints of the quality of reception here. We are concerned about this problem and desire you to help us solve it to the best of our capability.

Beginning immediately, Frontier Electronics will switch stations on Cable Channel 2, alternating KMID-TV Channel 2 and KRBC TV Channel 9 at that dial spot. We ask you to note the reception and programming of the two stations—both are NBC—and let us know which you like the best.

Write your choice with your name and address, please, and mail it to Frontier Electronics, P. O. Box, 886, Colorado City, Texas, 79512, or stop by Frontier Electronic's Downtown Office, 256 Walnut, and tell us your choice.

Frontier Electronics desires to bring you the best Cable TV reception possible. However, please, keep in mind that we obtain both Midland and Abilene channels by direct signal to our 500-foot Colorado City tower and not by microwave signal in the manner Dallas TV stations are brought to your homes.

Ruth COFFEY's

CONVERSATION CORNER

TIME WAS when people loved to quote the favorite old lines, "In the spring a lliweller iris changes on the burnished dove. . . In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love," about this time of year.

Not THIS spring, if the style show for young men on the Merv Griffin Show is any indication.

This spring, a young man's fancy seems to turn to thoughts of the way-out wardrobe, royal raiment for bedecking himself, my goodness!

Couldn't go to bed for watching the pony fur coat, the mink double-breasted number, the velvet vest, the leather vest with satin back, and the scarfs worn to keep the bell-bottomed pants up.

IF YOU missed Merv Griffin's all-male style show, then you don't have to believe that there were see-through shirts. . . embroidered shirts, widely striped silk shirts, and flop hats like Garbo used to fancy.

Compared to Merv's models, Liberace and his jeweled jackets would look like a monk doing penance.

What brought this about? This and the short skirt for his at-home hours one designer showed in Paris last week?

COULD it be in retaliation for our slacks and pantsuit addiction? Or our mini-skirts?

Are they trying to get even with the female sex because in recent seasons we've been dressing like pre-teen boarding school girls going on an art tour?

'Course it's all a matter of taste, you can keep telling yourself, trying to keep calm about this matter.

You can try to be logical about it by remembering the tall, stalwart, fierce-fighting Scots in kilts.

You can remember pictures of the Father of His Country wearing a powdered wig, knee-breeches, and lace ruffles at the throat.

Nothing "sissy" about George Washington, you can remind yourself. And he wore buckled shoes.

STILL AND ALL, even when you reason that American Indian tribal chiefs wore feather war bonnets and beads there seems to be some significant difference here.

The American Indian lent dignity to his moccasins and long braids, somehow.

Young men of this era who let the hair grow and don chains and sashes and such look more like ugly girls who forgot to shampoo their tresses before the concert.

SO? So decided to stop brooding and go on to sleep. Average American wife need lose no sleep over the trend.

Okay, okay so the man has as much right to furs and velvets and sequins and scarfs as the woman does.

Long as the man of the house can't afford a $3,250 pony fur coat to wear to work it's really no problem, is it?

HAPPY EASTER! Know where our Charlie and Emmabeth Thompson and his sister Mattie (Mrs. Kirk) Taylor of Loraine are spending Easter?

In Hawaii, that's where. The trio left Abilene Friday with the Abilene Reporter-News Hawaiian tour being directed by Kathryn Duff, editor who writes the Page One column for her paper.

SEEN LATELYS included Dorand Jackie Benson. . . District Judge Austin McCloud. . . Perry Adams. . . Martha Earnest.

George Womack and Shirley DeLaney were office visitors. . . Kent Womack, too. . . and Don Banta.

Shana Noble Bassinger, wife of Hubert, and her cute children Jana and Ray stopped by a minute. Lona Pritchett was on the downtown scene.

BRIEF ENCOUNTERS brought little chats with Mrs. Willis Tilley, mother of a recent bridegroom, Riley. . . and with Mrs. Wilma Reynolds.

Saw Polly Kayser (nee Pauline Jones) on the shopping scene looking gorgeous. She's at home from her college teaching post spending Easter with her parents Otto and Myrtle Jones of Renterbrook Ranch.

Spied Mary Jo and J. D. Hill sharing a Down Town table with Inez Hock. . . Ruby Cawthron. . . Mae and Glenn Dunn. . . Johnny Tiller. . . Pretty Christy Stubblefield.

LOOKED UP to see two familiar faces. They were Philip Berman and his brother Max Berman, longtime C-City merchant who lives in Big D now.

With them was a handsome young man who turned out to be Freddie Rudnick, first son of the former Phyllis Berman and her husband Albert Rudnick, also of Dallas.

Hear tell Phyllis and her parents the Max Bermans spent the Easter holidays here.

OFF THE CUFF - If Bob Reilly hadn't been a coach and then an insurance man have a feeling he might have turned to law.

Another former C-Citizen, Betty Bert Noble, daughter of Rubilee, won the role of a 10-year-old girl in the drama "The Crucibles," next production for the Permian Playhouse at Odessa where Rubilee teaches now.

Asked Sammy Majors how come he calls himself Lee Majors when he's announcing out at KVMC. Know what he said? "It's easier to say," said Sammy Lee whose official title is Sam L. Majors III.

Bill and Nettie Doss are Eastering in Tyler with daughter Grace, her husband Bob Shelton and their sons and daughters.

Expected at the Bill Coffey house for Easter Sunday are his sister Mary Frank (nicknamed Bill) and her husband Hank Meyer of Ft. Worth.
