Fair termed success

By STEVE BELVIN

The Mitchell County Fair was held last Thursday thru Saturday and it had something to offer for everyone. The amusement rides were furnished by Jest Amusement Company of Anson.

There were such rides as the carousels for the children, and the sizzler, Ferris Wheel, Tilt-A-Whirl, and Trabit for the adults with strong hearts.

There were also a number of eating, display and game booths for those who were not so fond of the rides. Various booths were sponsored by H and H Systems, Colorado City Optimists, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Colorado Savings and Loan and Mary Kay Cosmetics.

Other booths included House of Lloyd, Mitchell County Soil and Water Conservation, Colorado City Business and Professional Women's Club and C-City Lake Home-makers.

Also Sundown Lions,

The Cube, Mitchell County Homemakers, Wood Stoves of Roscoe, and paintings by local artists which included Ida Baird, Benita Smith, Billie Patterson and Frankie Cummings.

The number of exhibits were about the same as last year with the exception of agriculture; which was down, according to fair co-chairman Ronnie Feaster. "This was because of the hail," said Agriculture co-chairman Alton Raschke. But the Mitchell County Fair could be termed a success thanks to the fine job by co-chairmen Feaster and Travis Turner, and the help of all the others who helped make the fair possible.

The results of the RECORD Bake-Off were not finished by the time of deadline. They will be posted in Thursday's edition.

Results of the exhibits are listed below.

Council passes zoning change

The Colorado City Council held a quick meeting Friday afternoon to approve a deviation in the zoning code for R. B. Golden.

The change is for a residence at 709 E. 6th, and changes the property from single family residence to local retail. Golden told the council that his wife plans to operate a fabric store at the spot, which already houses a beauty shop. He said that other sewing aids will be offered at the store.

The change had been approved by the zoning board and by Golden's neighbors. City Manager Rick Crowley, who was absent, left the council a note stating that nobody had called in expressing disapproval.

The council also voted to hire two men to act as gatekeepers at the local dump grounds.

The reading of a proposed garbage ordinance was postponed. See COUNCIL, Page 2

No duplexes for Westridge Addition

The proposed duplexes that were to be built in the Westridge Addition will not be erected after all.

Guy Van Dell, the developer, said that in light of the "continued opposition," he felt that it was advisable not to continue with his plans.

"I won the battle," he said, "but I couldn't make anybody happy." According to Van Dell, the deed restrictions mentioned at the meeting of the Planning and Zoning Board are not applicable to the property he had bought, but an error in describing lots exempt from the restrictions could tie the project up for several months. He noted, "It would cause more difficulties and problems than it's worth."

Van Dell has not "given up" on Colorado City, though. He is currently looking at some other property on which to build the originally planned quadruplexes or duplexes.

"I'm not taking any chances this time," he laughs. "I'm checking the zoning ordinances myself."

Allison Haggerton will reign as Colorado High School Homecoming Queen until this time next year.

The honor was bestowed on the lovely blonde senior at half-time of the Colorado City-Wylie game. Miss Haggerton was escorted by her dad, Bill Haggerton, to the middle of the field where she was crowned by Superintendent Charlie Useton and class president and Wolf football player James Blackwell.

The newly crowned queen was then escorted around the field in a shiny new red Corvette. The other contestants were Pam Wilson, Loretta Morris, Cheryl Bradbury and Janice Glascock.

The crowning of the queen and the homecoming dance after the game capped off a week full of festivities.

All though the week, Colorado High School had spirit week, this is where students wear appropriate costumes for that day. Monday was "Sock it Bulldogs" and everyone wore funny socks.

Tuesday was "Lasso a Bulldog" and everyone wore cowboy outfits. Wednesday was "Dazzle Bulldogs" and everyone wore sunglasses.

Thursday was "Hats off to the Wolves" with everyone wearing funny hats. Friday was "Color us number One" and everyone wore red and black.

Special woman shows strength, courage

Vera Carpenter

Vera Carpenter is a woman of rare strength and courage.

Like many widows, this Loraine resident lives alone and spends the day cooking, cleaning, reading and keeping up with her favorite "soap operas."

What makes Mrs. Carpenter's situation so unusual is the fact that she is totally blind.

After contracting glaucoma many years ago, she lost her sight. "If the doctors had known then what they know now, they could have done surgery and relieved that pressure in there, then that eyeball wouldn't have gotten so hard and I wouldn't have had to have it removed."

Without bitterness she adds, "They just didn't know things then like they do now."

The loss of her sight 33 years ago was a great blow to Mrs. Carpenter. She says, "I really put my family through the mill when I first lost my eyesight because I just thought I didn't have anything to live for. I thought my family would be ashamed of me. I had teenage children and I thought they wouldn't want to bring their friends in to meet a blind mother and I thought Murray would get tired of being confined with a blind wife."

Her brother, Claud Woods, who also lives in Loraine, helped her take the first step in resuming her life. Mrs. Carpenter continues, "I really took it hard for about six months and then Claud came up one Saturday afternoon and said, 'We're tired of you sitting around. You've got to get up and get around doing some-

ing. Come and go with me.' He took me down to his house and showed me the keys on the typewriter."

"He took my hands and ran them over the keys and I memorized the keys to that typewriter. The next Monday morning I wrote a letter on that typewriter and I've been typing ever since."

Mrs. Carpenter can also read and write in Braille. After four learning sessions with a friend in Colorado City, she learned the rest by herself. Something else she taught herself was how to cook: "I learned that just by doing it and by feeling."

Quite often friends and family members bring already cooked food by and she can just put it in the oven and warm it up. However, she always fixes her own breakfast. She says, "I have coffee and juice and sometimes I have toast and a poached egg. Sometimes I have pancakes."

Mrs. Carpenter has plenty to do after she has cooked, washed the dishes, made her bed, swept, mopped and dusted. The state has provided her with a record player and tape player that she uses frequently. She gets books that are printed in Braille, including a copy of the New Testament, and she has her TV set.

She has some favorite programs that she "watches" regularly. "I watch 'As the World Turns,' 'The Guiding Light,' 'Tic Tac Dough,' 'Lawrence Welk Show,' and 'Little House on the Prairie.'"

Another of her favorite activities is traveling. She often goes on trips with family and friends, but if they can't go, that doesn't stop Mrs. Carpenter. She explains, "I flew to Houston by myself last summer to visit with my son (Merle Carpenter) and his wife for two weeks."

"Several years ago, I went to Dallas on the bus by myself to attend my grandson's wedding. If I get ready to go somewhere and some of them can't go with me and I make my mind up to do it, then I just do it."

Mrs. Carpenter had a fleeting hope of returned eyesight in 1971. She received a cornea transplant and for about two months she was able to distinguish shapes and colors, but her body rejected the transplant and the eye had to be removed and an artificial one put in.

This was a great disappointment to her but she managed to overcome it with characteristic courage.

In 1973, tragedy struck when her husband died. He had suffered from multiple myeloma.

None of these setbacks and sorrows has shaken her faith in God, though. She attends church regularly. She says, "I'm a member of the Church of Christ. My daughter and her husband (Mr. and Mrs. Ace Lee) come by and get me if someone else doesn't do it." After the church services are over, Mrs. Carpenter stands near the door and chats with anyone who wants to pass the time of day.

Living alone is something Mrs. Carpenter does by choice. "My children wanted me to break up housekeeping in August," Mrs. Carpenter says, "but I wasn't ready to do that. I'll stay by myself as long as I can. When I get to where I can't do by myself, then I'll have to do something different."

Mike Burt explained changes in the ACS service and rehabilitation program presented at a recent meeting held in Abilene.

Mrs. J. D. Gibson was presented a certificate for long, dedicated service.

President Uselton introduced the following new board members: Mrs. A. W. Rowe, Mrs. Lain Beaty and Mrs. L. D. Maines.

On November 13, the members will meet at the Villa for lunch and business.

Mrs. Carpenter's strength and faith gives light in a world that is often as dark as her own.

Couple celebrates 70th wedding anniversary

Sam and Alma Hale celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary Wednesday afternoon, September 22 with a party in their home on Dallas Street. Married in 1912, Mr. and Mrs. Hale enjoyed a stylish, though simple, wedding ceremony. Mrs. Hale explains, "We were married at Seven Wells. We drove up to a friend's house in a buggy and a preacher came out from town and married us. We sat in the buggy for the ceremony."

She was 19 and Mr. Hale was 20 at the time. She recalls, "he had to ask his daddy."

Morgan Hale remembers that his father, Mr. Hale's brother, often told of the conversation that took place when Mr. Hale announced his intention to marry. Mr. Hale's brother tried to talk him out of getting married because he felt that he was not financially ready to take on the responsibility of a family. Mr. Hale told him, "I didn't ask you if I could, I was just telling you that I was."

"They thought Sam couldn't make a living," Mrs. Hale says, "but we did pretty good."

"The first year after we were married," Mrs. Hale says, "we stayed with Sam's folks until January so we could get a house to live in."

In the fourth months they stayed with Mr. Hale's family, the couple paid for their share of the groceries and Mrs. Hale notes that the total amount they paid was $53.

The house they found was on a farm three miles south of the old cemetery on the Robert Lee Highway, where they lived from January of 1913 to 1955.

Since he was a farmer, Mr. Hale didn't ever have to go to war. He says jokingly that "I out-talked them on that, I didn't think I'd like to go."

Mr. Hale has had farming interests all these years, but says he retired in 1919 and maintains, "I think it's a good idea yet."

Mr. and Mrs. Hale have traveled extensively in the last several years. They have visited all but seven states and all of those are New England states except one; "I didn't go there where they gamble," Mr. Hale says.

They went to the Chicago World's Fair in 1933. Mrs. Hale went with Mr. Hale's brother and his wife and son because Mr. Hale was already there.

The only thing Mrs. Hale has missed, she says, is a trip to Mexico City. "After we thought we might get to go to Mexico City, we heard that it had something afoot and I thought, 'Well, I don't want to go down there now.' So, now I'll never get to go to Mexico City."

Although Mr. Hale is a native Texan, having been born in Erath County, Mrs. Hale is originally from Alabama. Mr. Hale's family moved to Mitchell County in 1905 because "It was growing. People were coming West about that time. Where we were, there wasn't anything."

Mrs. Hale's family moved to Greenville in 1900 and then to Mitchell County in 1906.

They met one another at a party in the home of Mrs. Hale's family.

Mr. Hale warns, "these women coming from Alabama—you better watch 'em." Mrs. Hale placidly replies, "These people from Erath—they're not so bad."

Mrs. Hale says they managed to stay married 70 years "by being careful, I guess."

Snyder drops middle school

The Colorado City seventh and eighth grade volleyball teams went down to defeat last Monday at the hands of Snyder.

Playing on the Tigers home court, the seventh grade "B" team fell 5-15, 7-15. Leading scorers in the two matches were T. Holguin with seven, and M. Moreno with three.

The seventh grade "A" team was downed 6-15, 18-8, and 6-15. Leading the way for the Wolves were Yolanda Salazar's 10 points, and M. Molina's four points. Coach Debbie Goforth said that Salazar played an excellent game and that the players were improving with every practice.

The C-City eighth grade "B" team was downed 15-10, 10-15, and 10-15. In the opening match the Wolves jumped to a 9-0 lead behind the serving of Jennifer Selvera and Andra McKinney.

Leading scorers for the "B" team were Selvera with nine, Becky Westbrook and Kellie Beights had six each.

The eighth grade "A" team was defeated by scores of 3-15, 12-15. It looked like the Wolves might "easily" take the second match as they jumped to a 12-2 lead. But the Tigers scratched and clawed their way back into the game to take the victory.

Leading scorers for the "A" team were Holly Hicklin, seven, and Robin Edwards with four points.

L.V. holds off netters

The C-City Wolves varsity volleyball team dropped a contest to San Angelo Lake View last Tuesday night in San Angelo.

The first match was "no contest" all the way as the San Angelo squad never let the Wolves up for air, by taking an easy 15-1 victory. "We just stood around, didn't have any concentration and we just were not ready to play," said head coach George Martin.

A determined group of young ladies jumped to an early lead in the second match against the Chieftettes. Thanks to the timely serving of Kerry Spivey and Pam Wilson, C-City had a 5-3

Jackson leads 8th grade

The Wylie Bulldogs came to town last Thursday for three middle school games and the Wolves came away with the upper hand. The first contest on the agenda was the seventh grade "B" game as the Wolves and the Bulldogs fought to a 12-12 tie. The Wolves scores came on touch-down gallops of 10 and 15 yards by running back Dwayne Jones.

The seventh grade "A" team used some stingy defense and some good running by Tom Davenport, Ken Norman, and Israel Davila to skunk the Bulldogs 16-0.

The Wolves scored after the Wylie punter was tackled on his own seven. On the next play, Davenport went in untouched. Midway in the first quarter, a Wylie back was tackled by a host of Wolves for a safety, this upped the lead to 8-0.

In the second half, Davila took a fake punt attempt and rammed in for the score. The try for two was good, which ended the scoring for the night.

In the eighth grade contest Wylie struck first in the first quarter. A Wylie back broke a run for 81 yards before he was hauled down from behind at the four by Wolf cornerback Terry Jackson. The Wolves made a good goal line stand three times before Wylie scored on a fourth down pass. The try for two was no good, Wylie 6, C-City 0.

Midway in the second quarter, the Wolves starting a drive from mid-field, utilizing the running of halfback Jackson, and drove in for a score. Fullback Ralph Gonzales got the honors as he picked up a fumble exchanged between quarterback Michael Swann and Jackson and ran one yard in. The two points were good as the Wolves led 8-6.

Late in the second quarter, the Wolves started driving again when Jackson ripped off two runs netting 35 yards down to the Bulldog five. Following a timeout the Pack caught Wylie napping as they scored when the Bulldogs were getting set up. Jackson ran in the two points as C-City took a 16-6 lead into halftime.

In the third quarter, the Wolves reeled off a 70 yard drive that ate up five minutes of the clock. Jackson again got the scoring honors as he went in from 10 yards out. This ended the scoring for the night as the Wolves took a 22-6 victory.

A Timely Message...

For or Against the Church?

It is amazing how many people are for the Church, rather than against it. If you don't believe it, just ask them! Ask those around you how many of them would vote to close all the churches in our community. Ask how they would like just to tear down the buildings, build parking lots or apartment buildings, disband the congregations, direct the portion of our town's economy elsewhere.

Very few, I assure you, would answer in the affirmative, and yet many of those same persons do absolutely nothing—other than their words—to support the Church! And it is in this doing nothing, or in this kind of hollow lip-service, that we do, indeed, vote to close the Church.

Somehow we take so for granted this bulwark of our society that we stand in danger of completely losing it. We want the morals and values which it upholds in our culture, yet we rarely darken the doors to partake of them ourselves. We want our children taught religion, but only by dropping them off at the Sunday School and letting "them" (whoever that is!) do the teaching, provide the classrooms, purchase the curriculum, etc. We like the "image" which churches give to our community as long as they don't poke their noses into our own personal lives. We're glad "somebody" (meaning the churches) is helping take care of the poor and down-and-out of our society so we don't have to do it, but don't ask us for financial support to make that possible! We certainly want "them" to bless our babies, marry our children, and bury our dead, but for the times in between please leave us alone!

You see, it is amazing how many are for the Church, yet even more remarkable how few are really participating, supportive, part of the Church! Yet God's presence and guidance among his remnant people has and will assure its life. The Church continues as a struggling group of very human sinners who have come to know love and forgiveness, who accept one another as they are because God has accepted them, who seek to share that Word which makes life worth living and living worthwhile!

You are encouraged to vote FOR the Church with more than just your words!

Wolfpack clinches Homecoming victory

All the eyes were here, the stands were full on the home side, and the fans came to see a Wolf victory Friday night.

And that's just what they got, as the Wolves, behind Larry Hamilton's 185 yards rushing, captured their first victory of the year as they "put the bite" to the Wylie Bulldogs 23-14. Hamilton had his best night ever as he toted the pigskin 27 times, including a 70 yard dash in the final quarter.

The fierce wolf rush all but stopped a Wylie passing attack that had produced over 600 yards in the last two games. James Blackwell, Bennie Arocha, Fred Dakan and Donnie Davenport combined to sack Wylie Quarterback Bobby Lilljedahl eight times, and limit the signal caller to eight of 25 completions for 119 yards and two interceptions.

Following a Wylie recovery on the Wolf 27, Safety Stacy Tarter picked off a Lilljedahl pass at the two. The Wolves made two first downs before the drive stalled. But lady luck was with the Pack as Wylie had too many men on the field, as the Wolves got a first down at their own 44.

Larry Hamilton then proceeded to chew up yards as the Wolves drove to their first touchdown of the season. Gerry Hamilton got the scoring honors from 10 yards out, but younger brother Larry gained 44 yards in the drive. Tip Chaney's PAT was good, and the Wolves had their first lead of the season 7-0.

The Wolves second scoring drive came in the second quarter when Chaney booted a 24 yard field goal. The score was set up by a 19 yard pass from Doug Chitsey to Stacy Tarter, and some nifty running by L. Hamilton and Chitsey.

The half ended with the Wolves in control 10-0.

Disaster struck the Wolves on the third play in the second half when Bulldog defensive back Todd Redwine picked off a Chitsey pass and ran it in 10 yards for the score. The try for two was good. This cut the Wolf lead to 10-8.

But this didn't phase the Wolves as they ran the ball right at the Bulldogs, starting from their own 20. It was nothing complicated, quick openers and quarterback keepers as the C-City offensive line took control of the game.

But facing a fourth and fifteen from the Wylie 35, the Wolves got another good break as a penalty gave them first down at the Bulldog 20. From there it took the Pack seven plays to cross paydirt. L. Hamilton got the honors from one yard out. Chaney's PAT was good, Wolves 17, Wylie 8. Wylie scored with six minutes left in the game on a twenty yard pass play from Lilljedahl to receiver Keith Glover. The try for two was no good and the score was 17-14.

On the next play, Hamilton thrilled the crowd as he burst up the middle and headed down the sideline, and from there it was a footrace. And the speedy scatback wasn't about to lose, to complete a 70 yard run. Chaney's PAT was blocked.

Wylie had one other chance to score in the fourth quarter, but a Frank Torrez interception killed the drive. Chitsey had 71 yards on 16 carries while completing three passes to Stacy Tarter for 57 yards. The win improves the Wolves record to 1-3, while Wylie falls to 0-4.

TALKING IT OVER-Wolf Head Coach Tom Ramsey and Wide Receiver Mike Luera discuss things over before Ramsey sends in another play.

Loraine Bulldogs drop 3rd game, 28-0

The Loraine Bulldogs old Nemesis hurt them again Friday night at Johnson Field, "no offense"; as the Bulldogs were skunked by the Miles Bulldogs 28-0.

The first quarter was all defense and mistakes as neither could get anything going. The Loraine team had a pass picked off, and Miles lost a fumble. Adam Merket, Tony Morris, and Rodney Blankenship all sacked the quarterback in that stanza.

Miles, behind the running and passing of Quarterback Joseph Kalina, moved the ball for a score right before halftime. Kalina hit brother Paul for a short scoring pass. The two point conversion was good and the halftime score stood Miles 8, Loraine 0.

In the third quarter, Miles heated up as they generated two drives that produced touchdowns. Joe Cavazos and Junior Sallings both scored on runs as Miles upped their lead to 21-0. Sallings' 34 yard run came after an eight yard Loraine punt.

Miles scored one more time in the final quarter when Paul Kalina went over again. The loss drops Loraine to 1-3, and Miles moves up to 3-1.

Comments

Wolf Coach Mel Gierhart—"We did a good job the first half, but they picked up our defense in the second half and started getting some men open. Our defensive line did a super job, they sacked him more than anyone has this year. We ran alot of nickle defense (five defensive backs) and I don't think they were prepared."

Running Back Larry Hamilton on his 185 yard performance—"It took alot of dedication, everyone was hanging in there. The line was blocking excellent. When I crossed the goal line on the long run I just closed my eyes and thanked God."

Defensive End Donnie Davenport who had five quarterback sacks—"We were more aggressive, I'm certain this is my best game of the year. We didn't change our game plan that much."

Place Kicker Tip Chaney who kicked a 24 yard field goal and two extra points—"I just started kicking this year. I started kicking soccer style because they didn't have a size 13 kicking shoe. It feels real good to win."

Defensive Lineman Fred Dakan who had two sacks and numerous tackles—"We wanted to beat them. On some plays I was lowering my head and going because you could tell pass by the offensive lineman's stance."

Quarterback Doug Chitsey who had 128 yards total offense—"The lead keep was working because the end was ignoring me. We executed better, but we still need to cut down on our turnovers."

Offensive Tackle James Blackwell who played an important role in opening up huge holes for runners—"Their line wasn't as good as we thought would be. We just fired out and kept driving. We ran 93 quick on the long touchdown run. The linebacker was coming, so I yelled down block to Fred (Dakan) and we just rode our men down. Next thing I know, Larry was gone."

After the Win

"Labor of love"

Margaret Latimer

Margaret Latimer does not feel that cooking for her family is a chore, but rather a labor of love.

She says, "The attitude toward food reflects a philosophy of life. It's basic, but it involves an aesthetic sense. It's one thing to throw a pot of beans on the table and let everybody help themselves, but it's something else to serve it with a flair."

"I think a feeling of loving, of caring, comes through here—you're important enough for me to put some time in on this; you're important enough for me to put some flowers on the table."

Mrs. Latimer has loved cooking for as long as she can remember. She explains, "Good cooks are a family tradition with us. It just had to be, I wouldn't dare not have accomplished."

"I think I was loving cooking before I was even in school because I can remember cooking on facilities that were not as convenient as we have today. As a matter of fact, when I first started cooking, we had a wood stove. My mother cooked on a wood stove and I took my first lessons on that. That's an art in itself."

The recipes Mrs. Latimer has chosen to share are not for the working wife and mother on a tight schedule, she says; these are ones you use when you have the time to show your family you care.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Publisher:

You previously received a letter from my Office regarding the statewide voter registration drive proclaimed by Governor Clements for the November 2, 1982 General Election covering the period of August 11, 1982 through October 3, 1982.

Since October 3, 1982 is the last day to register to vote for the November 2, 1982 General Election, I wanted to take this opportunity to encourage you to remind your readers that they have until that time to register to vote if they have not already done so.

Again, Your full cooperation and assistance in this endeavor is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
David A. Dean
Secretary of State

To the Editor,

October 15, will be observed as Poetry Day throughout the world. This day is set aside to honor those poets of the past and present who enrich the lives of so many people.

Poetry Day observance was organized in Texas in 1947 and has grown since that time to a worldwide event. It is celebrated throughout the United States and in 40 foreign countries.

It has been said that today poetry is an absolute necessity. The world needs it for its vitalizing strength. Poetry came into being because of this need, and it is perpetuated for the same reason.

Much of the poetry has come to us in the Twentieth Century as a cultural heritage, passed down from the past, giving tone and character to the culture of today. The poetry of this generation will give similar impetus and strength to the lives of coming generations.

Our State is proud of its poets and of the poetic expression which have originated here, and in recognition of their contributions to our cultural life it is fitting that we should set aside a day to honor those poets of the past and present.

Therefore, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate October 15, 1982 as Poetry Day in Texas, and call upon all citizens to join in its observance.

W. P. Clements Jr.

Dear Editor:

I am not sure you will print this but I want to write anyway.

In one week we have had three people call us telling us they represent insurance companies, but not telling the company, and they will be in Mitchell County soon and want to sell us insurance.

I just want to say that most of these companies are rip-offs. They never tell you the complete truth. Then when you need to use your policy, it won't pay a thing.

They tell you they pay what Medi-Care don't pay. You know Medi-Care only pays part. Say your bill is $1,600, Medi-Care allows $1,200, but only pays $800. Then your new insurance takes it up and pays from $800 to $1,200 and you still have $400 to pay. Many don't pay any kind of office calls nor outside hospital work.

Please beware when these men start working your county. Many oldsters get took through these companies. If you don't have a clear understanding or you are in doubt—just don't buy it.

This is intended to help and not hurt. Just think it is time for some of us to speak up.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Elmo Dunn

VOD Script Contest is now underway

The Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies' Auxiliary are sponsoring the 36th annual Voice of Democracy National Broadcast Scriptwriting Scholarship Contest. This year's theme is "Youth—America's Strength."

The contest is designed to give students an opportunity to voice their own opinion and in their own words the meaning of their responsibilities.

The scripts are judged at four different levels: Post, District, State and National. The State winner will receive a five-day, all expense paid trip to Washington, D.C.

and an opportunity to compete for one of the six National Scholarships which total $32,500.

Student Voice of Democracy Scholarship Information brochures were recently handed out to all 10, 11 and 12 grade students in Colorado City, Westbrook, and Loraine by representatives of the Wilson Wyatt VFW Post 9178 and its Ladies' Auxiliary.

Booster Club met Tuesday

The Loraine Booster Club met last Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the school library.

Sixteen members were present, and according to club president Tex Blankenship, 68 new members had signed up in the membership drive.

After Coach Fine and James gave reports on the upcoming games, it was decided that a booster club section be painted in the stands. This was done last Wednesday.

The stadium seats, which were donated by Corky and Gay Houston of Whites Auto in Colorado City netted the club $39.50 in the raffle. Jackie Walker was the lucky winner.
