Candidates Awaiting Day Of 'Judgment'

JIMMY CARTER

By DONALD M. ROTHBERG
AP Political Writer

Gerald Ford and Jimmy Carter wind up their campaigns tonight barely 100 miles apart in the President's home state of Michigan. And if the poll takers are right, the candidates are approaching Election Day in a virtual dead heat.

Too close to call is the forecast coming from most quarters in the hours before Americans go to the polls in the nation's bicentennial presidential election.

One major national poll gave Carter a one point lead. Another gave Ford a one point lead.

But it's the electoral vote rather than the national popular vote that will determine who occupies the White House starting next Jan. 20.

The electoral votes for each state are equal to the state's representation in Congress, the two senators plus the number of House members. And the candidate who carries the state gets all the electoral votes.

It takes 270 electoral votes to win the election and few surveys show either candidate with a firm lead in enough states to make him feel certain of victory.

In his final day of campaigning for the office he now holds through appointment, the Republican President was in Ohio and planned to go on to Michigan for a closing rally in his hometown of Grand Rapids.

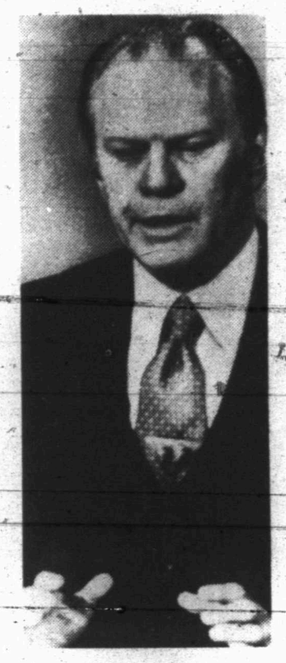

His Democratic challenger campaigned in California and then planned to wind up his two-year quest for the presidency with a rally in Flint, Mich., before flying to his Georgia home.

The Michigan stop was inserted in Carter's schedule at the last minute, an indication the candidate believes he still has a chance to carry Ford's home state with its 21 electoral votes.

Of uncertain impact was an incident Sunday at the Plains, Ga., Baptist Church. The church canceled services after a black minister from Albany, Ga., who had applied for membership in the church, attempted to join the worshipers.

Carter, a member of the church's board of deacons and a regular teacher at its Sunday school, learned of the incident while campaigning in Texas and said he believed "anyone who lives in our community who wants to be a member of our church, regardless of race, ought to be admitted." Carter later said he would "seek action" to provide that guarantee to those "who share our religious faith."

The Rev. Bruce Edwards, pastor of the Plains church, said he believed the effort of the Rev. Clennon King to join the church was politically motivated.

NEW YORK (AP)—Jimmy Carter and Gerald Ford will each be seen for a half an hour on each major network tonight at an estimatd cost of $300,000 apiece, aides say.

Carter will get to lead off-at 8 p.m. EST on ABC; 9 p.m. on NBC and 10 p.m. on CBS. Ford will be on at 8:30, 9:30 and 10:30 with a combination film and talk show that media adviser Phil Angell describes as "inspirational."

Bell Proposal Excessive

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Atty Gen. John Hill said today Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.'s proposed $298.3 million rate increase is grossly excessive.

Hill told the new Public Utilities Commission that his office has the benefit of an independent study of the proposal and also the advice of rate experts for many Texas cities.

"We have concluded as a result of this study .. that this increase represents a fantastic exaggeration of the revenue needs of the applicant."

Market Pauses For Vote

NEW YORK(AP)—The stock market was mixed today, pausing to await the results of Tuesday's presidential election.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks was down 3.49 at 961.44, but gainers clung to a slight lead over losers in the over-all tally of New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

Brokers noted some disappointment that the market had failed to follow through this morning on last week's gain of 26 Dow points.

Candidates, Kin In Texas

By The Associated Press

President Ford and the Jimmy Carter family swarmed over Texas during the weekend, searching for votes in a state where Democrats outnumber Republicans almost as much as the Carters outmanned Ford.

Ford was the first contender to arrive as he landed at Houston Friday afternoon and attended a high school football game in Baytown that night.

The President, with a hoarseness in his voice that probably wasn't helped by his stint at the damp football contest, spoke at a rally Saturday to over 6,000 persons in Houston.

He told the cheering crowd he will "win overwhelmingly" on Tuesday.

Carter Has Edge In Texas

By TOM DeCOLA
Associated Press Writer

Jimmy Carter holds a slight lead in Texas over Gerald Ford but 22 per cent still are undecided about who they will vote for in Tuesday's presidential election, according to a random telephone sampling by The Associated Press.

Out of 30 persons in several parts of the state, nine, or 39 per cent, said they would vote for Carter; six, or 26 per cent, said they would vote for Ford; and five, or 22 per cent, said they were still undecided. Two said they would not vote at all, one said she would vote for Eugene McCarthy, and seven said their vote preference was their own business.

The Texas Associated Press mini-poll coincides with AP's national poll which shows Carter in the lead for the state's 26 electoral votes.

Among the Carter voters, Ann Hines, an Irving housewife, said her enthusiasm has been slightly dampened since Carter was nominated, but that she would still vote for him. "It (the election) could still go either way," she said.

Greg Aguilar of McAllen said he will vote for Ford because of the president's experience. "Carter sounds a bit hypocritical...besides, if you have a Democratic Congress and a Democratic president, there will be no way to stop their spending."

Russell Miller of Beaumont said he never votes. "There are three kinds of people in politics," Miller said. "Thieves, liars and egomaniacs."

Undecided couples in Amarillo and Corpus Christi asked that their names not be used, but Mrs. Oscar Neel of Waco said she is undecided, too, as did Mrs. H.M. Hart of Gainesville. "I just don't know," Mrs. Hart said.

Among the Ford voters are Marshall automobile dealer Murray Conley and Doc Henry, retired, of Gainesville. "I just have no confidence in Carter," Conley said. "I think Ford's the better man," Henry said.

Glenda Payne, a supervisor at a Brownwood manufacturing firm, said she wouldn't vote this time, although she normally does. "I don't think either of them is any good," she said.

Dallas nurse Maureen McDonald and an Amarillo couple said they would vote for Ford. "He has had to deal with many and varied difficult situations," Mrs. McDonald said. "I think he deserves a chance to finish them"

Mrs. Carlene Price of Lampasas, a civil service worker, said her vote will go to Carter. "Mostly because I'm a Democrat," she said. "I think we need the Democrats in there for awhile."

The Rev. Arthur Anderson of Lampasas, a Methodist, said he will vote for Carter. "I like his setup," Rev. Anderson said.

Mrs. Buster Lewis of Del Rio, Mrs. David Lee of Waco and Wayne Harrison of Fort Worth said they had no particular reason, but would vote for Carter.

Joe D. Pennell, a machine operator from Brownwood, said Carter is his choice. "I just like him a little better," he said.

POLLS OPEN AT 7 A. M.

Three Contested Races Are On Scurry's Ballot

Scurry County voters will find only three contested races on the ballot Tuesday when they go to the polls in the general election, but two of them involve high federal offices.

Candidates of five parties are on the Scurry Coundy ballot for president, while four parties have candidates for the U.S. Senate listed, and four are represented in the race for a place on the Texas Railroad Commission.

The polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

Presidential and vice presidential candidates on the ballot here include Jimmy Carter and Walter Mondale, Democratic Party; Gerald R. Ford and Robert Dole, Republican Party; Thomas J. Anderson and Rufus Shackelford, American Party, and Peter Camejo and Willie Mae Reid, Socialist Workers Party. Eugene J. McCarthy is on the ballot as an Independent without a vice presidential running mate.

Contesting for the Railroad Commission are Jon Newton, Democrat; Walter Wendlandt, Republican; Fred Rodriguez Garza, Raza Unida, and Pat O'Reilly, Socialist Worker's Party.

To vote for a candidate, the voter must put an X in the box beside the candidate's name. However, for those who wish to vote a "straight" ticket for either party, there is a box by the party name which may be marked with one X that will suffice for the entire ballot. But those who wish to split their ticket, must mark each individual box.

A write-in campaign has developed in the race for Associate Justice of the Texas Supreme Court, Place 2, where Don Yarbrough is the only candidate listed on the ballot. District Judge Sam Houston of Denton and Attorney Tom Lorance of Houston are avowed write-in candidates for that post, both having announced after Yarbrough became embroiled in litigation following his nomination last spring. The bar association here has endorsed Houston for the post and recommended that his name be written in the column for that purpose at the right side of the ballot.

In addition to the federal, state, county and precinct offices to be filled, Texans will make a decision on two state consitutional amendments. One would authorize an increase of $400 in the amount of Texas Water Development Bonds that may be issued on approval of two-thirds of the legislature, and the other would increase from $100 million to $200 million the amount of Texas Water Development Bonds that may be issued for water quality enhancement purposes.

Scurry County will have 13 polling places in operation Tuesday. They include Precinct 1, Northeast Snyder, on the north side of the Scurry County Coliseum; Precinct 2, Loyd Mountain, at Northeast Community Center; Precinct 5, Fluvanna, at the Fluvanna Community Center; Precinct 6, Union, at the Union Community Center; Precinct 7, Bison, at the Knapp Community Center; Precinct 9, Ira , at the Ira Community Center; Precinct 10, Dunn, at the Dunn Community Center; Precinct 13, Hermleigh, at the Hermleigh Community Center; Precinct 15, South Snyder, at the school administration building; Precinct 17, Northwest Snyder, at the Snyder City Hall; Precinct 18, Southwest Snyder, at the El Paso Avenue Fire Station; Precinct 19, Crowder, at the Union Community Center; Precinct 20, Southeast Snyder, south side of the Scurry County Coliseum.

PREPARING FOR ELECTION—Van Meador of the Scurry County Courthouse staff prepares a ballot box for Tuesday's general election as Jenna Vee Miller, deputy clerk, and Beverly Ainsworth, County Clerk, check the supplies. Scurry Countians will vote in 13 polling places tomorrow. (SDN Staff Photo)

Briscoe Urges School Aid Hike

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Gov. Dolph Briscoe today recommended a massive increase in state aid to local school districts, tied to a ceiling on local school district taxation.

The approximately 3,000 schoolmen who packed Municipal Auditorium applauded enthusiastically when Briscoe said his recommendations would reduce by an average of 60 per cent the local shares of the Foundation School Program cost.

Briscoe told the educators from school districts around the state that he would ask the legislature to pump $850 million in additional state funds into public education over the two fiscal years that begin Sept. 1, 1977.

"The level of local fund assignment would require approximately nine cents for $100 (of property value) in effective tax effort, compared to the existing 35 per cent rate," the governor said.

At the same time, Briscoe's office of education resources laid out market value figures on property in all school districts, which would be used as the basis for determining each school district's share — or "local fund assignment" — of Foundation School Program cost.

The governor's recommendations, if adopted by the 1977 legislature, would not necessarily mean tax reductions within the districts because most districts fund their schools at levels higher than the foundation program. The foundation program is designed to provide a minimum standard of school funding.

At the end of his prepared text, Briscoe added his recommendation that the school finance package be accompanied by additional legislation placing a ceiling on local school district property taxes.

He commented that the possibility is "remote" that Texas will continue indefinitely to build up big surpluses in the general revenue fund.

The governor said he would not approve a school finance package "unless its ceiling or cap is part of that legislation."

The governor's plan to increase school aid breaks down thusly:

—A $640 million increase in the state's share of the Foundation School Program, raising it from 75 per cent to 90 per cent of the total cost.

—A $50 million increase in state funds for routine maintenance and operating expense, raising the amount per pupil from $95 to $105 per year.

Group Proposes Tennis Courts

A proposal for a three-agency project to provide additional public tennis courts here was presented to the Scurry County Commissioners Court this morning.

A group of local citizens renewed a request of several months ago that the county, the city and the Snyder Independent School District join in financing construction of 10 new tennis courts of the Snyder Junior High School Campus, with lighting, bleachers and restroom facilities. The group estimated the cost at $150,000.

Presenting the request to county commissioners this morning were Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Sterling, Mr. and Mrs. Max Grosshans and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Watlington.

They suggested a formula for funding that would call for the City of Snyder to assume 20 per cent of the cost, with the county and school district assuming 40 per cent each.

Members of the commissioners court expressed interest in the proposal, but said they felt that the cost should be split equally between the three agencies.

All agreed that the additional tennis courts were needed. The group proposing the project noted that 148 junior high students signed up for competitive tennis, with only two courts available. There also is a heavy demand for tennis courts among adults throughout the county.

The proposal is due to be carried to the city council at its meeting tonight, and to the school board at its meeting on Nov. 9. Commissioners informally expressed approval of the project, provided it is financed on an equal basis by the three agencies.

Texas Election Law Is Upheld

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today upheld a Texas law requiring candidates for most political offices either to pay a filing fee or file nominating petitions.

The justices let stand without comment a decision of a three-judge federal court in Dallas that the fees are not unduly burdensome since the nominating petitions provide "a reasonable alternative means of access" to the ballot.

The law was challenged by G. L. Howell, an Oak Cliff, Tex., insurance man who attempted to file as a candidate for Democratic Party nomination to the State legislature in Texas' May 1 primary.

The Dallas Court of Civil Appeals had ruled that Howell's name could not appear on the ballot because his candidate petition did not carry affidavits required by law attesting to the validity of the signatures.

The Supreme Court refused to hear arguments of the Human Life Amendment Group against a state court order permitting the withdrawal of life supporting equipment from Karen Quinlan.

The court turned down a request by Stephen Garger and Richard Gallagher, representatives of the organization, for review of the New Jersey Supreme Court decision.

Goodfellows To Organize Tonight

The Snyder Goodfellows are scheduled to organize tonight for their 1976 Christmas activities.

The organizational meting has been set for 7 p.m. at the courthouse. Anyone interested in the Goodfellows work is invited and organizations that participate each year have been asked to have representatives at the meeting.

First Milestone Near In School Evaluation Work

Teachers and administrators in the Snyder Public Schools are approaching the first major milestone in the evaluation of their local school programs.

Beginning in August, the Snyder Schools staff has been probing into the effectiveness of each school's instructional programs, staffing patterns, and facilities. The results of the investigations will be summarized and reported upon during a meeting of the district's professional staff on Jan. 24.

In the meantime, teachers and administrators continue to delve into areas of study which will reveal both strengths and weaknesses of the schools' educational programs and facilities. The staff is conducting this study not only during scheduled early afternoon dismissal periods, but also during conference periods and evening hours when teachers are able to come together and function under specific committee assignments. Currently, each staff member is serving on two to

Carter To Seek "Church Action"

By WILLIAM SCHULTZ
Associated Press Writer

PLAINS, Ga. (AP) — Jimmy Carter, whose Baptist Church canceled services rather than admit four blacks, says he will "seek church action" to guarantee that "those who share our religious faith" are allowed to worship there.

The confrontation outside the Plains Baptist Church on Sunday, just two days before the election, prompted allegations that the incident was staged in an attempt to embarrass the Democratic presidential nominee.

But the Rev. Clennon King, a 60-year-old black minister and political activist who once sought the presidency through the Republican and Afro-American parties, denied that political motives caused him and three other blacks to seek entrance to the church.

The church's pastor, the Rev. Bruce Edwards, blamed the incident on "Republican politics," and he said, "I am sure it is an attempt by enemies of Gov. Carter to sabotage his campaign."

Spokesmen for President Ford denied any involvement in the incident, but they used it as an occasion for criticizing Carter.

Meanwhile, the church deacons, who had decided to enforce a 1965 resolution excluding "Negroes or other civil rights activists," voted Sunday to recommend that the Rev. Mr. Edwards be fired, a published report said today.

The pastor, who said he disagreed with the resolution, had told reporters at a news conference earlier in the day that the phrasing of it banned "niggers and civil rights activists" from joining the church.

The deacons were upset because the quote had been publicized throughout the nation, the Atlanta Constitution reported. The newspaper said the move to fire the pastor would be made at a church prayer meeting Wednesday.

The Rev. Mr. Edwards was not immediately available for comment on the report.

Carter and his family have expressed opposition to the 1965 resolution, which reads, according to a typewritten copy the deacons gave to reporters:

"The ushers refuse to admit any Negroes or other civil rights agitators to all worship services in this church."

Carter's mother, Lillian Carter, said later in Washington, D.C., that she had invited blacks to worship in the church "and given them a seat on the front row." She said she wished they could become members.

When the Rev. Mr. King — no relation to the late Dr. Martin Luther King — showed up with his companions at the church on Sunday, the Rev. Mr. Edwards told him that "There will be no services today."

four committees.

This comprehensive evaluation study is proceeding under the direction of Bill H. Hood, Superintendent of the Snyder School District, Dr. Tom Scannicchio, Assistant Superintendent for Instruction, and Dr. Dwight Kirk, Southern Association of Colleges and Schools evaluation consultant, are guiding an coordinating the total evaluation effort.

A district-wide steering committee composed of local professional staff provides assistance and monitors all evaluation events. Members of this group include Mrs. Barbara Bigham, Mrs. Mary Faver, Mrs. Elizabeth Jenkins, James Stehley, Horrace Bostick, Charles Anderson, Jack Gorman, Bill J. Hood, and Dr. Tom Scannicchio.

All eight Snyder Schools are involved in the evaluation project. Under the direction of the local administrator, a building steering committee operates to give the various committees and teachers additional assistance and monitoring.

One of the major highlights of the evaluation will occur following the completion of the study phase. A visiting team of approximately 30 educators representing universities, colleges, and schools, will be invited to Snyder in March, 1977, to review the Schools' evaluation efforts. The teams' major assignment will be to compare the information reported by the Snyder Schools' evaluation with a personal on-sight study and investigation in each of the areas previously examined by Snyder staff.

Before the end of the school year, the visiting team's finding will be given to the Snyder Schools Board of Trustees. These findings will include recommendations which would lead the way for the district and its individual schools to take the necessary steps toward reinforcing its instructional programs and facilities. These findings will also enable the Snyder Board of Trustees to plan for future improvements in its instructional programs.

Texas Counts 13 Deaths

By The Associated Press

A two-car accident in Central Texas claimed four lives Sunday as The Associated Press count of weekend violent deaths reached 13, with nine in traffic. Three persons died in shootings and one drowned.

The tally began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

Dead in a crash on Texas 317 near McGregor were Glenn Edward Lockett, 21, and Clarence Johnson, 21, both of Temple; and Dwayne Edward Robinson, 18, and Nathaniel Quinn Kelly, 18, both of McGregor. Officers said the impact of the crash was so great it could not be determined who was driving either car.

Here is how some others died:

Two persons died early Sunday in the collision of two pickup trucks on Texas 21 near Chireno in East Texas. They were identified as Wiley White, 65, of Chireno, and Robert Sullivan, 20, of Broaddus.

Clint Zimmerhanzel, 15, of El Campo, died late Friday when he was struck by a pickup truck on Texas 71 at El Campo.

Billy Wayne Jones, 25, of Greenville, Miss., died late Friday when his car ran off a bridge into Spring Creek near Victoria.

Billy Dean Spears, 22, of Grangerland, died Saturday of a gunshot wound he suffered Friday night.

Two Killeen residents died Friday when the automobile in which they were riding struck a tank truck on a Dallas freeway. They were retired Army Maj. Joseph Franklin Bohn, 60, and his wife, Dorothy, 56.

An unidentified woman was shot to death in a grocery store at Abilene. Officers said a man came to the store, asked the woman to go on a date with him and shot her several times when she refused.

Frustration Replaces Fervor On Election Eve

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — On the eve of a unique and perplexing presidential election, something is missing. Instead of fervor, there is an air of frustration. At the hour of decision, there is indecision.

At the fringes of the campaign crowds, in suburban living rooms, after the PTA meeting, conversation again and again brings a request for simple, compelling reasons to cast a ballot on Tuesday for President Ford or for Jimmy Carter.

But after this long campaign, the question answers itself by the fact that it is so often asked. For it has been a campaign with few hurrahs and no overriding issues. Neither Ford nor Carter has found the theme or the argument to put his imprint on the wavering, undecided voters who hold the key to Tuesday's outcome.

This has not been a good year for slogans, for either candidate or—perhaps more important—against him.

The choice was made far in advance by voters who would not have bought a used car from Richard M. Nixon long before Watergate, or feared Barry Goldwater's finger on the nuclear button, or saw George McGovern as the candidate of amnesty, acid and abortion.

That kind of built-in opposition did not always determine the outcome, but it did draw clear lines of opinion.

Neither President nor challenger has ever before run in a national election. And while Ford is a familiar figure after 27 months as president, he is in a new role now.

Neither man carries the baggage of past elections, the foes of past campaigns. Neither can successfully depict the other as extreme, or dangerous, or unacceptable to a significant bloc of the electorate. There is less to be against than in elections of the recent past — but neither candidate has been able to convince decisive numbers of voters that he offers them something to be for.

The public opinion analysts detect an unusually high, and persistent, level of indecision among the voters. They find also that there is a lack of intensity in the support for both candidates.

And by every indicator, the contest is close, this election to restore the seal of voter approval to a White House run since Aug. 9, 1974, without benefit of ballot.

Both Ford and Carter have been criticized—and have assailed each other—for the conduct of the campaign, with its diversions into trivia and name-calling. Both have acknowledged mistakes.

Union Baptist Revival Begins

There will be a revival at Union Baptist Church beginning today and continuing through Sunday, Nov. 7.

There will be preaching nightly at 7 p.m. by evangelist Jim Moseley. The Gloryland Two, Nilah and O.A. Kinnison, will provide singing nightly.

The church is located five miles west of Snyder. Everyone is welcome, and a nursery will be provided. Pastor of the church is the Rev. Gerald Langdon.

Council Post Up For Consideration

The Snyder City Council is due to consider making an appointment tonight to fill Place 4 on the council. The council's regular meeting is set for 6:30 p.m.

That position on the council became vacant when John Fagin was appointed mayor following the death of W. A. Vestal. The appointee will serve until the next city election, which is scheduled for April.

The council also is scheduled to confer with a group proposing a city-county-school project to construct 10 tennis courts here, and consider bids for the purchase of three automobiles for use by the police department.

Bids also will be considered on a highway sign and appointment of four members to serve on the city's Board of Electrical Examiners. Other appointments up for consideration include the posts of mayor pro tem and city health officer. A request from the Chamber of Commerce for city Christmas decorations to be installed and operational by Nov. 22 will be presented, and the council will be asked to authorize the city manager to apply for a $24,754 Criminal Justice Council grant for a second year of funding for the juvenile officer's program in the city police department.

Pranksters Are Out In Full Force

Halloween pranksters were out in full force over the weekend, according to police reports. Incidents of criminal mischief and petty vandalism abounded in the reports.

Bricks were thrown through the windows of four cars and there was a report of an attempted brick throwing at another car. Police officers reported there were also incidents of parked cars being smeared with shoe polish and of bushes and trees in yards being draped with toilet paper.

Sunday night, a vending machine at Bailey's Truck Stop was burglarized. Bill Bailey, owner of the truck stop, told officers that $5 to $10 was taken from the coin box of one of the machines.

A minor traffic accident occurrred at the parking lot of Furr's Supermarket. Involved in the mishap were a 1972 Chevrolet driven by Richard D. Welch and a 1967 Chevrolet driven by Peggy Lynch Medford. The collision occurred Saturday at 7:15 p.m.

Wheeling into the Kent Service Station, a 1971 Chevrolet driven by Ruben Saenz collided with a gas pump. Minor damages were reported to both the car and to the gas pump. The accident occurred Sunday at 2:09 p.m.

Minor damage resulted from the collision of a 1969 Ford driven by Robert Marvin Cole and a 1975 Oldsmobile driven by Charles Michael Merket of Colorado City. The mishap occurred in the 900 block of Twenty-sixth Street at 2:10 p.m. Sunday.

"NEW VERSION OF OLD STORY"

The following version of the well-known fable of The Little Red Hen was written by William P. Drake, chairman and president of the Penwalt Corporation.

Once upon a time, there was a little red hen who scratched about the barnyard until she uncovered some grains of wheat. She called her neighbors and said, "If we plant this wheat, we shall have bread to eat. Who will help me plant it?"

"Not I," said the cow.

"Not I," said the duck.

"Not I," said the pig.

"Not I," said the goose.

"Then I will," said the little red hen.

And she did. The wheat grew tall and ripened into golden grain. "Who will help me reap my wheat?" asked the little red hen.

"Not I," said the duck.

"Out of my classificaton," said the pig.

"I'd lose my seniority," said the cow.

"I'd lose my unemployment compensation," said the goose.

"Then I will," said the little red hen. And she did.

At last it came time to bake the bread.

"Who will help me bake the bread?" asked the little red hen.

"That would be overtime for me," said the cow.

"I'd lose my welfare benefits," said the duck.

"I'm a dropout and never learned how," said the pig.

"If I'm to be the only helper, that's discrimination," said the goose.

"Then I will," said the little red hen.

She baked five loaves and held them up for her neighbors to see. They all wanted some and, in fact, demanded a share. But the little red hen said, "No, I can eat the five loaves myself."

"Excess profits!" cried the cow.

"Capitalist leech!" screamed the duck.

"I demand equal rights!" yelled the goose.

And the pig just grunted. And they painted "unfair" picket signs and marched around and around the little red hen, shouting obscenities.

When the government agent came, he said to the little red hen, "You must not be greedy."

"But I earned the bread," said the little red hen.

"Exactly," said the agent. "That is the wonderful free enterprise system. Anyone in the barnyard can earn as much as he wants. But under our modern government regulations, the productive workers must divide their product with the idle."

And they lived happily ever after, including the little red hen, who smiled and clucked, "I am grateful. I am grateful."

But the neighbors wondered why she never baked any more bread.

MANDARIN LOOK—Make a flattering pants suit in the vein of a Chinese peasant outfit, quilted for an authentic mandarin look. This particular design is in a multi-colored border-printed Dacron polyester.

Chinese Peasant Look Fits Fall Mood

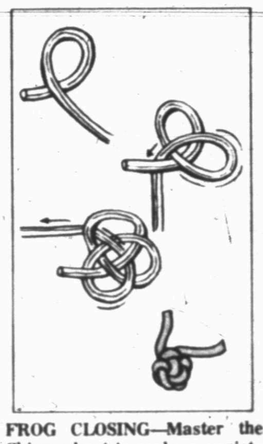

By JOANNE SCHREIBER

As Chinese politics make headlines, the Chinese peasant look grows as a with-it way to dress this fall.

A quilted mandarin jacket with side slits and turnback cuffs, plus the slim pants, to make from a pattern puts you in the fashion forefront. But instead of making your Chinese peasant outfit of rough blue cotton, choose one of the many pretty and practical Dacron polyester fabrics. An interesting one is a beautiful multi-colored border print of Loomskill's Kashin, with the border showing a the bottom of the pants and the over-all print quilted with Dacron fiberfill for the authentic Mainland China look.

The quilting is easy. You will need a quilting bar attachment for your sewing machine just to help you keep the lines straight. In addition to the 2 and three-fourth yards of fabric for the jacket, you will need 2 and three-fourth yards of Dacron polyester batting and 1 and one-half yards of lining material. Quilt the whole piece of fabric, with the filling sandwiched between the fashion fabric and the lining. Then pin the pattern pieces to the quilted fabric and cut out your jacket.

The jacket is fastened with Chinese frogs. These can be bought ready made or you can make your own. To make a Chinese frog, cut true bias strips about one inch wide and 15 inches long. Fold in half lengthwise, wrong side out and stitch one-half inch from raw edges, stretching the strip as you stitch. Turn the strip right side out, using a special turning tool available at notions counters, or simply working it over a long bodkin. A simple frog is made so that one side has a loop and the other side a knot to serve as a button. The loop side requires about 12 inches of tubing and the knot side requires about 14 inches. The knot is simple.

FROG CLOSING—Master the Chinese knot to make a variety of frog closings.

This outfit is completely machine washable. Kashin is 45 inches wide, and retails at about $4.50 per yard. The total cost of this outfit is about $29.40, plus pattern:

2 and three-fourth yards for jacket	$12.40
2 yards for pants	9.00
2 and three-fourth yards fiberfill	5.00
1 and one half yards lining	3.00
	$29.40

The pattern is Sue Burnett No. 1415, in sizes 8 to 18. To order your Chinese Peasant pattern, send $1.25 to Stitchin' Time, care of this newspaper, Box 503, Radio City Station, New York, N.Y. 10019. Ask for Patter No. 1415 an be sure to include your own hame, address and zip.

Oswald: "There's nothing in bridge ethics that requires declarer to look unhappy merely because he sees that his contract is not likely to make. Why tell your opponents anything they aren't entitled to know?"

Jim: "South wasn't at all happy with three notrump and felt that his partner should have bid three spades instead of raising to three notrump, but South didn't mention the matter at all. Instead he took the diamond and promptly led a club toward dummy. East ducked the first and second club leads, whereupon South went after spades and made his contract with four spades, one heart, two diamonds and two clubs."

Oswald: "If South had stopped to tell his partner that he did not like his bidding, East might well have grabbed the first or second club and defeated the three-notrump contract."

Jim: "Actually, a very alert East would have grabbed that second club and beaten three notrump. The fact that South said nothing and just went about his business left East in a slightly somnolent state from which he did not quite recover."

Oswald: "Incidentally, the four-spade contract is not all wine and roses. If West opens his singleton club, the defense can score two aces and two club ruffs and beat four spades."

Ask the Jacobys

We recently answered a question as to which side wins the rubber in a manner to confuse some readers.

The answer is that the side that wins two games is given a rubber bonus of 700 points for a two-game rubber or 500 points for a two-out-of-three game rubber, but if after adding that bonus to their other points they still have less points than their opponents, they have collected the bonus, but lost the rubber.

Marketbasket Bills Decline In October

By The Associated Press

October brought relief to consumers in the form of lower supermarket bills, an Associated Press marketbasket shows. But there was continued bad news for coffee drinkers.

The AP drew up a random list of 15 commonly purchased food and nonfood items, checked the price at one supermarket in each of 13 cities on March 1, 1973, and has rechecked on or about the start of each succeeding month.

Among the highlights of the —Over a 12-month period, the marketbasket bill increased at latest survey:

—The marketbasket bill declined during October at the checklist store in 11 cities and increased in two. The average drop was 2.5 per cent, and the average increase was 1.9 per cent. On an over-all basis, the marketbasket bill at the checklist store dropped 1.8 per cent last month. During September, there was an over-all increase the checklist store in nine cities and decreased in four. Over-all, the bill at the start of November was 2 per cent higher than it was a year earlier.

—Many of the savings came at the meat counter. The price of a pound of chopped chuck decreased at the checklist store in six cities, pork chops were down in eight cities and frankfurters dropped in six cities. The good news may not last, however. There are fewer cattle in feedlots now than there were at the start of the year, and the government has predicted higher beef prices this winter.

—Higher prices at the wholesale level boosted the cost of coffee again. The price of a pound of coffee went up at the checklist store during October in six cities, with increases ranging from 5 to 19 per cent. The price of coffee was unchanged in four cities and decreased in two. The requested size and brand of coffee was not available at the checklist store in the 13th city. The retail price has now topped $2 in almost every city. Exceptions generally are due to special promotions.

—Milk prices, which went up in nine cities during September, rose at the checklist store in eight cities during October. The increases have been only a penny or two, but have been fairly steady in boosting the cost of the staple to an average of about 45 cents a quart in one-quart containers.

A look at the over-all number of items in the AP survey showed fewer increases during October than in September. Here are the percentages of increases and decreases:

	Sep.	Oct.
Up	30.3	25.6
Down	22.6	21.5
Unchanged	44.6	50.3
Unavailable	2.5	2.6

The items on the AP checklist were: chopped chuck, center cut pork chops, frozen orange juice concentrate, coffee, paper towels, butter, Grade-A medium white eggs, creamy peanut butter, laundry detergent, fabric softener, tomato sauce, chocolate chip cookies, milk, all-beef frankfurters and granulated sugar.

The cities checked were: Albuquerque, N.M., Atlanta, Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Detroit, Los Angeles, Miami, New York, Philadelphia, Providence, R.I., Salt Lake City and Seattle.

Miss Amato Is Nominated For Honors

SAN MARCOS—Angelina L. Amato of Snyder is among the 126 Southwest Texas State University students who have been nominated for Gaillardian honors. Gaillardians—all-university favorites—are traditionally selected as a part of SWTSU's homecoming celebration.

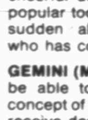

Named after the Gaillardia, a flower native to the region, the honor is bestowed in formal presentation ceremonies held in conjunction with homecoming.

Twelve Gaillardians—six women and six men—will be elected in campuswide balloting Oct. 27-28. They will not be announced until Friday, Nov. 5, during "Sounds of SWT," a musical revue and awards presentation program.

Gaillardians will share the Homecoming spotlight along with Distinguished Alumnus Award recipients, the Homecoming Queen, former Gaillardians and former L.B.J. and Sallie Beretta Award recipients.

Sponsored by the residential house, Butler Hall, Miss Amato is also a member of the SWT Marching Band, holding the position of drum major.

A 1975 graduate of Snyder High School, she is now a sophomore music education major. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Amato.

KNOW YOUR FOOD

Because family food buying is a never-ending responsibility, shoppers have enthusiastically welcomed Unit Pricing as a guide to smarter buying. If you shop where it's available, use this guide to shop better and save more. Unit Pricing was installed in Safeway stores as a consumer service to make it easier for you to fit purchases to your needs and your budget. Next time you're in our store, take time to acquaint yourself with these tags and their meaning. The savings can be impressive. Seasoned shoppers are already making extensive use of this aid. But for new homemakers and those who are new to the guide, here's what it can mean to you.

Unit Pricing: While many factors affect buying decisions, a primary one is price. Unit Pricing makes cost comparisons simple because it's just what its name implies. That is, the cost per pound, per ounce or whatever unit of measure is being used. The tags which show this information are usually placed directly below the item in question. For instance, let's say you want to buy canned peaches. Unit Price tags for various brands of peaches will tell the per-measure price. If quality and appearance are vital, you may want to choose from the top brands. But if peaches are to be used for pie, you can choose the lower priced because appearance isn't important. Unit Price tags will also help you determine which size is the best buy for your needs.

Cereal is a good example of items in different weight packages with varying total prices. How do you decide among the vast array of packages? Look at the Unit Price tags! They provide helpful quantity-cost information. Study the tags and then make your choice based on price, taste preference and the amount you need. Buy the larger sizes only if they will be consumed while still fresh. Make your buying decisions by using the Unit-Price tags and you'll be a better shopper.

Staubach Leads Cowboys To Victory Over Skins

By TOM SEPPY
AP Sports Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Combine Roger Staubach, injured pinky and all, with the Dallas defense and that could only spell trouble for a National Football League opponent. As a matter of fact, it could be bad news for the entire NFL.

Staubach, who played with the little finger of his throwing hand taped because of a broken bone, led the Cowboys to a 20-7 victory over Washington Sunday, cementing Dallas' lead in the National Conference East and diminishing the Redskins' playoff hopes.

"This was not a good day offensively," said Staubach, "other than we didn't have any turnovers. It was the defense. They gave us great position."

Middle linebacker Lee Roy Jordan also was pleased with the Cowboys' defensive performance, which saw them make seven quarterback sacks, two interceptions, one recovered fumble and shut out the Redskins until the final seconds of the game.

"I think we have the best defense we ever had," said Jordan, a 14-year veteran with Dallas. "It has more ability to do things, more size, more speed, more everything.

"I don't think we are nearly as good as we are going to be in eight or 10 weeks," he said, obviously referring to a return to the playoffs and the Super Bowl.

The victory gave the Cowboys a 7-1 record. Washington is 5-3. St. Louis now is in second place in the NFC East with a 6-2 mark after beating San Francisco 23-20 Sunday.

"This is a real big step," said Dallas Coach Tom Landry. "If you get to thinking in a positive way, that's the way you will play. If you get to thinking you will lose, that's what is going to happen to you."

At no time did it appear the Cowboys were thinking about losing to the Redskins, despite dropping five in a row in the nation's capital since 1971.

After threatening early in the first quarter without scoring, the Cowboys took advantage of an 18-yard punt return by Butch Johnson which put the ball on the Redskins 20. Five plays later, Doug Dennison bulled over from the three for a touchdown.

In the second quarter, a Redskins threat was snuffed out by Charlie Waters, who intercepted a 19-yard pass by Bill Kilmer to Jean Fugett in the end zone.

"If only we could've gotten a field goal before the half, it would've been a big lift," said Washington Coach George Allen.

Staubach, who completed 13 of 23 passes for 152 yards, including six of 10 from the Cowboys' spread formation for five first downs, started picking up the Washington blitz in the second half and drove the length of the field before taking the ball over himself from the one.

"They took away our running game," he said. "So I had to go to the pass. We didn't expect them to blitz so much. They gave us a lot in the first half but we didn't take advantage of it until the second half."

The Cowboys also got field goals of 37 and 21 yards by Efren Herrera in the second half, the first after Ed Jones recovered a fumble and the second following an interception by Mel Renfro.

In the final minutes of the game, Washington's Eddie Brown returned a punt 59 yards to the Dallas 20 and three plays later Joe Theismann threw a seven-yard touchdown to Roy Jefferson with 45 seconds remaining.

Raiders, Porkers Head For Showdown

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
AP Sports Writer

Circle Nov. 27 on your calendar. That's when Arkansas and Texas Tech collide in Little Rock for what shapes up as the Southwest Conference shootout of the year.

Arkansas and Texas Tech were the only October survivors of the SWC wars which claimed preseason favorite Texas, newcomer Houston, and dark horses Baylor and Texas A&M.

Tech's explosive offense cut the Longhorns down a peg Saturday with a come-from-behind 31-28 victory and Arkansas outlasted Rice 41-17 to give both teams 3-0 ledgers.

Both the sixth-ranked Red Raiders and the Razorbacks trailed closely by Houston (4-1) and Texas (2-1).

Houston and Texas meet in an elimination joust at Austin Saturday.

Arkansas puts it perfect mark on the line against a well-rested Baylor team which has been idle two weeks.

Tech, which is bruised and battered from the physical matchup with the Longhorns, plays winless Texas Christian at Fort Worth and SMU is at Rice in the other game.

Texas A&M, which blasted SMU 36-0 Saturday, is idle.

Houston has jockeyed itself into the position that the Cougars could go to the Cotton Bowl New Year's Day if they win the rest of their games.

Tech Coach Steve Sloan said "The win over Texas really helps because Arkansas has to play both A&M and Texas and it's tough to beat both those teams.

"The schedule is with us now in that we have only to play TCU and Arkansas on the road."

Sloan added "I feel the Cotton Bowl team might have a loss. I don't feel who wins it will be undefeated. I thought for a time two losses might have a chance."

Houston secondary coach Clarence Daniel said he was happy that the Texas game had finally arrived.

"They (the players) were thinking about Texas all week and now they can do it legitimately," said Daniel.

Houston gained 443 yards passing against TCU and Bill Yeoman said "Nebraska nor anybody else ate those people (the Horned Frogs) up on the ground."

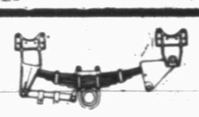

In the A&M-SMU game in Dallas, dazed Mustang Coach Ron Meyer noted that emotion doesn't help when you play a bigger team that also has it.

"Emotion is important, but it helps to have emotion with big, fast people who knock you down," said Meyer.

TEXANS — "THE CHOICE IS YOURS"

WHAT — WHAT IS THE RIGHT TO WORK LAW?

It is part of the Taft-Hartley Act passed by Congress in 1947 authorizing states to pass laws guarding the individual freedom fo working people by guaranteeing them the right to hold their jobs without being compelled to support an UNWANTED UNION. These laws are a check-rein on the power of Union Bosses to force workers to involuntarily join a Labor Union under the oppressive standard of "Union Security" provisions. Will Rogers placed this idea into sharp focus with his quote: "When you force love, it isn't love".

WHY — WHY IS IT AN IMPORTANT ISSUE IN THIS COMING ELECTION?

It is a VERY important issue because the Democrat candiate, Jimmy Carter, has promised George Meany, head of the AFL-CIO, that he will help destroy the Right To Work law if he is elected President. These two men are placing extreme pressure on a Democrat-controlled Congress for repeal of this law in 1977. Labor has a near veto-proof Congress and pulls the strings on a majority of weak-kneed, appeasing "Quislings". Organized labor contributed $5,758,780.00 to Congressmen who voted for passage of the Common Situs Picketing Bill. Of this amount, $5,322,272.00 or 92.4% went to Democrats with a mere $436,508.00 or 7.58% collected by Republican Congressmen. 287 Congressmen were recipients of Labor's contributions. Is any further proof needed to show whether Big Labor OWNS a majority of Congress?

WHO — WHO WILL BENEFIT FROM THE RIGHT TO WORK LAW?

You — Your rights and privileges not now available to citizens of States which do not have this law.
You — Your right to JOIN or REJECT union membership without fear of losing your job.
You — Your right to hold a job without paying dues to a union to finance activities or excessive salaries of Union Bosses. For example, in 1974, the 17 top officers of the Teamsters Union averaged annual salaries of $167,897.00 each. By any standard, these officers could be classed as the "bloated rich". As of the present October 8th, United Auto Workers on strike were receiving a mere $46.00 union benefits weekly. The union leaders however, continue with full salaries.
Everyone — Employees and employers alike, because it, the law, promotes industrial peace and helps create a progressive business climate.

WHERE — WHAT STATES HAVE RIGHT TO WORK LAWS?

TWENTY States, including TEXAS have Right to Work Laws. Every State of the South including Jimmy Carter's State of Georgia. A poll conducted earlier this year by Opinion Research Corporation revealed that more than 70% of all southern voters favored Right to Work. Mr. Carter's position is a COMPLETE SELL-OUT of the South. He has counted the Southern vote as being in his "pocket", but, putting principle above regional pride and understanding Right to Work Laws are more important than seeing a sometime Georgian in the White House.

HOW — HOW DOES THIS CONCERN ME?

Here are some facts to think about for those of us who live in the South. Between 1964 and 1974, the Right to Work States achieved a NET INCREASE of 1,587,900 manufacturing jobs and more than $14 Billion in Texas in wages for 1974 alone. The other 30 States with SEVENTY PERCENT of the nation's total population had a gain of only 1,165,600 jobs. TEXAS was SECOND among the leaders during this decade. More than 100 new employees were hired in the Lone Star State, EVERY WORKING DAY in this 10 year period. TEXAS had new jobs for 288,000 workers as compared to New York State, a Non-Right to Work State which suffered a net loss of 213,600 manufacturing jobs. The figures cited above are the most recent compiled by the U.S. Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics and the U.S. Commerce Department. The Labor Department's latest figures for July, 1976 of areas of unemployment of more than 10% show that ONLY ONE of 32 listed is in a right to Work State.

WHEN — WHEN CAN I DO SOMETHING TO PREVENT REPEAL OF THIS LAW

NOW — You can write to both Senators, your Congressman, the Governor, State Senator and Area Representatives with a reminder, that you, as a Voter, want to retain Right to Work for TEXAS, the SOUTH, and make it the law for ALL STATES. Jimmy Carter's oft-repeated statements about being for the common man and that he owes no favors to anyone, are belied by his embracement of Congress, Big Labor leaders, Ralph Nader and leftovers from Senator McGovern's 1972 fiasco. You can also write to the American Civil Liberties Union and ask why they have ignored the matter of compulsory Unionism, which is a violation of the 13th Amendment of the Constitution of the U.S. The ACLU has ignored this matter, probably because of the financial support they have historically received from Union officials.

NOW! — IT'S YOUR DECISION TO MAKE!

A grave danger of compulsory unionism is that if individual rights are violated in this vital area, their precious liberties may soon be lost. It can be so gradual that we will not realize the danger until it is too late. With stunning truth, Pastor Neimoller of Germany said it all: "In Germany, the Nazis came for the Communists, and I did not speak up because I was not a Communist. Then they came for the Jews, and I did not speak up because I was not a Jew. Then they came for the Trade Unionists, and I did not speak up because I was not a Unionist. Then they came for the Catholics, and I was a Protestant, so I did not speak up. Then they came for ME. By that time, there was NO ONE LEFT TO SPEAK UP FOR ANYONE".

FARM PRICES DECLINE

Middleman Continues To Dominate Grocery Costs

By DON KENDALL
AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government figures show that lower farm prices for major commodities this year continue to be the main reason consumers have seen increases in retail food costs slow down dramatically from their soaring pace of 1973 and 1974.

For all of 1976, according to the Agriculture Department, retail food prices are expected to climb an average of 3 per cent, the smallest gain since 1972. Food prices soared 14.5 per cent annually in 1973 and 1974 before easing to an 8.5 per cent gain last year.

The moderate 3 per cent climb in food prices is expected to continue at least through mid-1977, according to department experts.

A USDA analysis of a market-basket list of food items originated on U.S. farms shows that middleman charges for transporting, processing and selling food continue to dominate consumer grocery prices.

The market basket list includes 65 items bought at retail grocery stores. It does not include seafood or imported products such as coffee, bananas and most of the sugar used by American consumers. Neither does it take into account what families spend for food away from home.

Thus, the market basket analysis does not embrace the entire food price spectrum faced by consumers. But the market basket list does account for most of a family's food spending and so provides a perspective to the prices that consumers pay for selected items what farmers, on the average, get for them in the first place.

In September, the most recent month checked, the retail cost of the 65-item market basket average one-tenth of 1 per cent lower than it did in August. Compared with a year earlier, the September cost also was down one-tenth of 1 per cent.

But the farmer's share of the market basket retail cost dropped 2 per cent from August and averaged 13.7 per cent below September 1975, the department said. Meanwhile, the middleman portion of the market basket price — which averages about 60 per cent of what consumers actually pay for food — declined only three-tenths of 1 per cent from August to September. Compared with September 1975, the middleman share was 9.3 per cent larger.

Meat prices offer an example of what has happened. Cattle and hog prices at the farm are well below what they were a year ago, and this has had an impact.

The September average price of beef in retail stores, for example, was slightly more than $1.34 a pound on an all-cut basis, down 1.1 per cent from nearly $1.36 a pound in August. Compared with Sept. 1975 when beef was a near record of almost $1.53 a pound, a drop of more than 12 per cent in a year.

According to the USDA analysis, the farm value of beef sold in retail stores in September was 72.6 cents a pound, down slightly from August but almost 28 per cent below what it was a year earlier. That is not what farmers get for live cattle — it takes nearly 2.3 pounds of steer on the hoof to make one pound of supermarket beef — but it does represent the farmer's share of what consumers pay.

Cash Is Moved Quickly, Quietly

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — How do you move about $752.5 million in cash and securities? As quickly and quietly as possible, Bank of Oklahoma officials say.

That's how they moved $2.5 million in cash and $750 million in securities Sunday afternoon. They had the help of about three dozen persons, including nine employes of Brink's, Inc., eight off-duty policemen and seven uniformed policemen in patrol cars.

It took about three hours to move the 357 sacks and boxes of cash and coins and the 192 boxes of securities from the old bank vault to the new bank a block away, said W. W. Foster Jr., the bank's vice president of operations.

The "goodies," as Foster called them, now are safely stashed behind a foot-thick solid steel vault door with a 72-hour time clock. The vault has 18-inch walls of concrete and reinforced steel mesh.

All streets and alleys around the bank buildings were sealed off for the three-hour move.

Last Two American Billionaires 'Dropouts'

NEW YORK (AP) — Daniel K. Ludwig lives in a New York penthouse, running his shipping empire and overseeing the creation of a timber plantation in the Brazilian Amazon.

John D. MacArthur, an insurance company executive, holds court at a corner table in the coffee shop of a Florida hotel.

Though miles apart, the men share a bond: They are the last two living American billionaires, according to Fortune magazine.

Both MacArthur and Ludwig were born in 1897, dropped out of school after the eighth grade and "operate through an intricate web of private companies about which there is only limited public information," the financial magazine says in its November issue, to be published Tuesday.

There the parallel ends, according to Lewis Beman, Fortune associate editor who wrote the article on those he termed "magnificent relics of an earlier age of capitalism."

MacArthur and Ludwig took different paths to become billionaires in a nation that now boasts about 180,000 millionaires. They outlived the three other men who until recently shared their status as billionaires: Howard R. Hughes, J. Paul Getty and H.L. Hunt.

Fortune estimated each man's financial worth at more than a billion dollars, but said it did not have access to figures on their exact holdings.

MacArthur, whose late brother was playwright Charles MacArthur, is the only stockholder of the Chicago-based Banker's Life and Casualty, the nation's 44th largest insurance company.

Fortune describes MacArthur — the fourth son of an itinerant preacher born in Pittston, Pa. — as looking "less like a billionaire than a retired postal clerk."

He wears a rumpled shirt and baggy wash-and-wear slacks, lives in a room overlooking a parking lot, has "quit smoking three or four times a year" and drives a five-year-old Cadillac with "erratically functioning windows."

Ludwig is less accessible, Fortune said, and hasn't spoken to a journalist since 1963.

Born in South Haven, Mich., the son of a real estate agent, Ludwig started out with a tug boat fleet. After pioneering a new system for financing tankers in 1936, his fleet grew to the current 50 ships totaling nearly 7 million tons, making him what Fortune describes as "one of the world's major independent shipowners."

Fortune says Ludwig, 79, occasionally walks to work at about 8 a.m. from his home in a Fifth Avenue penthouse. There are luncheon meetings at the Warwick Hotel and "21" restaurant.

In the mid-1960s, Ludwig got the idea to raise commercially an Indian tree called Gmelina arborea, which produces wood for pulp and lumber at about 10 times the rate of ordinary trees.

On the 3-million-acre tract he bought for $3 million in Brazil, he's backing the planting of the plantation—and the community to do the work.

"But according to present plans," Fortune says, "by the end of the project's 'first stage' in 1983, the total investment will amount to $1 billion."

Dr. Lamb

Try heat on leg cramps

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB—I am 63 years old. At night I have leg cramps. I was wondering what might cause this and if I can do anything to help. Sometimes I have to get up five to six times a night and walk. I am overweight and have your weight losing diet. I have lost 14 pound but need to lose 20 more pounds.

DEAR READER—Leg cramps at night can often be helped by making extra efforts to keep the feet and legs warm. You can wear some warm heavy long socks to bed at night. The legs cool off faster than any other part of the body because they are farthest from the heart.

You should have an examination of your legs to see if you have a circulation problem. When the arteries to the leg become obstructed with fatty-cholesterol deposits the circulation can be seriously compromised. If that is the case and the condition is causing severe problems many people can get relief from surgery. A graft is put in to detour the blood around the local obstruction.

The catch is that the obstruction must be localized so it can actually be detoured. If the entire length of the artery is clocked like a dead end street, there are no normal open arteries to detour to.

Losing weight will help in most circulation problems if a person is overweight. Weight loss helps clean out obstructed arteries, lowers blood pressure and decreases the work the body must do with normal physical activity. Others who want the same diet you have lost weight with can send 50 cents for The Health Letter, number 4-7, Weight Losing Diet. Send a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

DEAR DR. LAMB—I am presently confined in a penitentiary. My problem is that for the past three months I have had a very high pulse rate (100) and after heart tests and X rays the doctors say that my heart is not bad and to stop worrying about it. What I would like to know is why the sudden change after having a pulse rate of 72 for the past 30 years?

I have been wondering if it could be because of how extremely nervous and uptight I have been for the past three months. Please, I'm begging you to give me any information pertinent to this problem.

DEAR READER—I am glad you have had a good examination. That helps to rule out many problems that could cause an increase in heart rate.

Yes, real anxiety, which your letter suggests you have, can really cause the heart rate to increase suddenly. Many people with anxiety have fast heart rates when there is absolutely nothing wrong with the heart. Of course, the anxiety needs to be dealt with. Just knowing that and being reassured that your heart is O.K. may help some.

There are some other causes for fast heart rates that could apply to your condition. Smoking a lot of cigarettes will often increase the heart rate around 10 beats per minute. If you drink coffee or smoke I suggest you quit.

Also, lack of physical activity can lead to a progressively higher resting heart rate. Eliminating coffee and cigarettes as well as getting started on a good physical fitness program may help you a great deal.

Stalled Man Swipes Battery

CLEVELAND (AP) — Nobody at Cleveland's Central Police Station had a pair of booster cables handy, so an unidentified man apparently took things into his own hands.

The man walked into the station over the weekend and said his car, parked a block away, wouldn't start. The men on duty suggested he get booster cables somewhere else.

About 20 minutes later, a second man walked into the station and said his car, also parked a block away, wouldn't start.

He didn't need booster cables, though — someone had stolen the battery from his car.

Economy Pause Disputed On Eve Of Election

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — On the eve of the elections, several commentaries are being circulated here that there isn't any economic pause but that the economy is in fact moving ahead at an accelerating rate.

"Chances are the 'pause' we've heard so much about never existed at all," states the Conference Board in an article published in its magazine, Across the Board.

The comment, which is fairly typical of several other advisories by economists here, concludes that what is called the pause might be a consequence of reporters seeking headlines and of consulting economists seeking "tidbits."

Others claim politics are to a large degree responsible for repeated claims during the past two months that the economy has slowed perceptibly.

Many of the commentaries, mainly from the financial community, base their no-pause conclusions on statistics showing that final demand or final sales have continued to grow throughout the year.

This statistical series, which is determined by excluding inventory changes from readings of real Gross National Product, grew at 3.7 per cent in the first quarter, and by 4.2 and 4.4 per cent rates in the second and third quarters, respectively.

Followers of these final demand figures argue, therefore, that the true nature of the recovery has been distorted by the sharp accumulation of inventories early this year, and by the subsequent flattening out of that activity.

In other words, much of the boom atmosphere that prevailed in the early part of the year was caused by businessmen rebuilding their depleted stocks of goods for sale. But throughout the period, actual sales were no stronger than now.

Argus Research, which supplies much of the economic thinking for many stock brokers, contends that the final sales series is "probably the single most important piece of data that suggest an upbeat for the economy."

It's Easy To KILL YOUR BUSINESS

Don't Advertise

Just pretend you don't have anything to advertise this week. Forget the thousands of items you have on the shelves of your store, or the service you have to offer. Don't let potential customers know about them. IT'S A GOOD WAY TO KILL YOUR BUSINESS!

Don't Advertise

Say you don't have the time to fix up an advertisement this week. Just let opportunity after opportunity to promote your business pass by-it will take less of your time And you'll be less busy serving customers if they don't know what you have to offer. IT'S A GOOD WAY TO KILL YOUR BUSINESS!

Don't Advertise

Assume everybody in the trade territory knows what you have for sale, that you've been in business so long you don't need to advertise since the customers will come to you without it. Forget that there are new potential customers coming into the community, that you have new and better products to offer. Forget that you have to keep reminding your established customers to trade with you. Forget you have Big City competition trying to attract more customers. IT'S A GOOD WAY TO KILL YOUR BUSINESS!

Don't Advertise

Tell yourself it costs too much to advertise-that you don't get enough out of it. Overlook the fact that advertising is an investment in selling-not an expense. Be sure you don't provide for an adequate advertising budget for your firm. IT'S A GOOD WAY TO KILL YOUR BUSINESS!

Americans Signup For Prepaid Legal Insurance

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer

A growing number of Americans are signing up for prepaid legal insurance, and the number of plans is expected to increase sharply next year, thanks to a provision in the recently passed tax bill.

The programs are designed to provide legal services to middle-income Americans who do not qualify for public defender plans and cannot afford expensive lawyers' fees.

There are two basic types of group legal arrangements — those providing a minimum of service, such as advice and consultation, and those offering substantial benefits in both civil and criminal cases.

Among the states where legal plans have been established are Alaska, New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Arizona, Louisiana, Ohio, California, Maine, Michigan and Wisconsin.

Most of the comprehensive plans are linked to labor unions and have been set up as a result of collective bargaining agreements. Philip J. Murphy, a California attorney, said there are about 125 or 150 such plans across the country.

Murphy, who is the American Bar Association expert on prepaid legal plans, said that between 1.5 and 2 million persons, including union members and their dependents, are covered by the programs.

Until now, there was a question as to whether employers' contributions to legal plans and the value of any legal services received under the plans were considered income for the individual.

If the Internal Revenue Service decided that this money should be reported as income, it would be taxable. That would have meant that a participant in a legal insurance plan who received services for which a lawyer normally would have charged $3,000, would have been required to report the $3,000 as income and pay tax on it. He also would have been required to pay tax on his employers' contribution to the plan.

The legal insurance plans vary from area to area. Some plans limit participants to a small group of lawyers; others allow individuals to choose their own lawyer, who then bills the program, much in the way a doctor or a hospital bills a health insurance plan.

Statistics on the legal plans are difficult to find since the programs are relatively new. The oldest prepaid plan still operating, involving laborers in Shreveport, La., did not start until 1971.

Murphy said the number of union members using legal services in Shreveport doubled after the insurance plan went into effect. He said about 15 to 20 per cent of those covered by most collectively bargained plans use some legal service during the year.

The amount of coverage provided varies from plan to plan and ranges up into the thousands of dollars. In Shreveport, for example, the insurance plan provides up to $1,685 per year for legal expenses.

A plan sponsored by labor unions and the construction industry in Alaska collects 13 cents an hour from an estimated 4,000 members. In exchange, participants get up to $7,500 worth of legal services per year for each covered family member. As in most legal insurance plans, contingent fee cases — where a lawyer takes a case with his fee depending on if and what he wins — are excluded.

Glass Gains Larger Share Of Market

WASHINGTON (AP) — Glass is gaining a larger share of the container market, the Glass Packaging Institute says.

For the first time in over 15 years, in 1975, glass container shipments rose nearly 2 per cent while the packaging industry's total container shipments declined more than 3 per cent, according to U.S. Department of Commerce statistics.

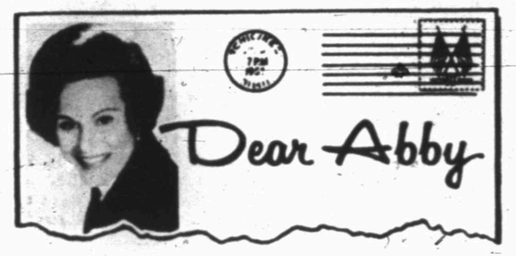

President Ford Is Best For Texas!

If you're undecided how to vote, just remember that President Ford is on the right side of the issues important to Texas, while his opponent is on the side of George Meany, Cesar Chevez and the big labor unions. President Ford doesn't doubletalk. He's a man we can trust.

Give A Short Toot To Show Your Love

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1976 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I don't think loving the Lord is anything to joke about, so when I saw this bumper sticker on the car ahead of me that said, "HONK IF YOU LOVE JESUS," I honked my horn. I guess maybe I overdid it because the next thing I knew I had a motorcycle cop alongside me, asking to see my driver's license. I showed him it fast and asked him what I did wrong, and he asked me why I was honking my horn.

When I said, "Because I love Jesus," he asked me if I had been drinking.

Well, Abby, he didn't give me a ticket; he just chewed me out for disturbing the peace, and told me not to do it again.

My question: Was I wrong to honk?

LOVES JESUS

DEAR LOVES: Maybe a short toot would have been enough to let Jesus know you love him, but in the future you'd better do your heavy praying in church.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a gal, nearly 20, and a sophomore in college.

Last summer I met a kid at the beach. (I'll call him Brian.) We dug each other right away and have been going together ever since. (We're really in love.)

Brian said he was 18, and I told him I was also 18. He's 6 feet tall, weighs 175, is very well built and LOOKS 18. I'm small and have always looked younger than my age.

Brian dropped out of high school to take a construction job until the Navy calls him for training for some special kind of job.

Abby, I accidentally saw his driver's license and learned that Brian is only 16 years old! When I told him I knew, he said he hated lying to me, but was afraid I wouldn't date him if I knew his right age.

Then I told him my right age and he said it didn't matter. Do you think he's too young for me? Now that I know he's only 16, I feel that he is, but before then, I didn't. We've even talked about marriage.

AGE DIFFERENCE

DEAR DIFFERENCE: If you didn't feel that Brian was too young for you until you accidentally found out, you're probably well-matched, regardless of your ages. But for your sake as well as his, defer marriage until his future is more clearly defined.

DEAR ABBY: My son is married to a girl who doesn't like to cook. They brag that in the two years they've been married they haven't eaten anything but breakfast at home—and on Sundays they usually go out for Sunday brunch!

They both work and don't have any kids (thank the good Lord, or they'd be dragging the kids out to eat every night), but I think it's a disgrace the way they live in restaurants and drive-ins.

I once expressed my opinion on that subject, and they both gave me an argument about how much money they "saved" by eating out because groceries were so expensive.

I'll leave it to you, Abby. Are they right or are they wrong?

HIS MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: As long as they aren't asking me (or you) to pick up the tab, it's none of my (or your) business.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Burglar Clears His Conscience

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The man who burglarized Donald H. O'Bannon's apartment 14 years ago has set his conscience at rest by repaying $75.

"I was home with a cold and a man called from my office," O'Bannon said in an interview. "I thought he was a salesman, but he said, 'I've got something for you, and it's a very personal matter,' so I gave him directions on how to get to my home."

O'Bannon invited the 32-year-old California real estate broker who asked that his identity be kept secret into his home "and we shook hands and introduced each other, and I invited him to have a seat."

O'Bannon said the man handed him a $50 bill, a $20 bill and a $5 bill and said, "I feel like this makes restitution."

O'Bannon, a former traffic engineer, said someone had broken into his apartment in 1962 and stolen six rifles, a pistol, two fifths of whisky and $15. He said he got the guns back later that year.

The man told O'Bannon that he blamed his stealing on heavy drinking, but he said that he hadn't touched a drink in six years.

Paul Newman Wins Trophy

FLOWERY BRANCH, Ga. (AP) — Paul Newman is a winner, and he has a trophy to prove it.

The blue-eyed actor piloted his Triumph TR6 to a first-place finish in Sunday's national championships for the Sports Car Club of America's D Production division.

"I feel terrific," said Newman, 51. "On a spectrum of 10, this ranks in the high nines."

He added: "This is one of those things where your ambition is greater than your talent. It's the same way with acting."

'Toehold' Is Established Against Cig Smuggling

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal officials say they are "establishing a toehold" in the fight against cigarette smuggling.

The Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, in a report issued Sunday, said officials in seven states that are part of a pilot program "may be making inroads against" the cigarette smuggling gangs that are costing the states hundreds of millions of dollars per year in lost taxes.

The smugglers buy their cigarettes legally in states which grow tobacco and levy low taxes on it. They are North Carolina, where the tax is 2 cents per pack; Virginia, 2½ cents; and Kentucky, 3 cents.

Legislators in the tobacco-producing states are loathe to raise the taxes for fear that high sales taxes will decrease the demand for tobacco and hurt their tobacco-growing constituents.

"You can see the tremendous profits to be had in buying them in those states and bootlegging them in Minnesota, with its 18-cent tax; Connecticut, with a 21-cent tax; New Jersey, 19 cents; or New York, with a 15 cent tax," said George Stewart, executive director of the Interstate Revenue Research Center in Indianapolis.

The center has received $787,000 from LEAA to coordinate investigations of smuggling in the seven-state pilot area of Missouri, Michigan, Ohio, Florida, Illinois, Minnesota and Indiana.

To date, the investigations have resulted in 38 arrests, with 54,000 cartons of cigarettes confiscated.

The stakes are high. Stewart estimated that five states in the group of seven, not counting Florida and Missouri, will lose a combined total of $100 million this year in taxes that would have been collected on cigarettes legally imported into them. An industry group has predicted that New York alone will lose $110 million on 44 million cartons expected to be smuggled in this year.

The smugglers are not standing still, according to the LEAA. Some are stealing or forging legal tax stamps for the states in which they operate. Others are mixing smuggled cigarettes with legitimately shipped and taxed ones. Still others are trying to take over legitimate retail businesses as outlets for the smuggled cigarettes.

Texas Is Clear, Cool

By The Associated Press

Fair skies and crisp temperatures were reported around the state today and forecasts indicated the good weather would remain through Tuesday's general election.

Only a few clouds were reported in the Lower Rio Grande Valley and along the coast to blot an otherwise perfectly clear morning.

Temperature extremes early today ranged from 32 at Marfa in Southwest Texas to 62 at Brownsville in South Texas. Other early morning readings included 36 at Amarillo, 42 at Wichita Falls, 38 at Texarkana, 43 at Houston, 47 at San Antonio, 41 at Lubbock and 50 at Del Rio.

Presidio had the state's high reading Sunday of 79.

Forecasts call for skies to remain clear and daytime temperatures to be mild.
