Bob Seeds, former major league outfielder, now a Collingsworth stock farmer, holds a framed caricature of his days in baseball. He will be installed as the third member of the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame on January 22 in Amarillo. A native of Shamrock, he returned to the area in 1950, after he sold the Amarillo Gold Sox, which he organized in 1939. Besides his farm in the north part of the county, where he lives, Seeds owns land in the Kelton community.

Collingsworth Stock Farmer

Seeds Named to Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame for 1961

The third member of the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame is Bob Seeds, former major league baseball player and now a stock farmer in Collingsworth county.

Well known to Wellington through his years with the nation's top teams, Seeds moved to the county two years ago and with his wife and son live on their farm in the north part of the county.

He spent ten years as a major league outfielder, playing with the Cleveland Indians, Chicago White Sox, Boston Red Sox, and New York Yankees from 1930 through 1940.

Now 53 years old, he was named to the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame by its sponsors, the YMCA's Men of Amarillo.

Seeds will be installed at a banquet at 2 p.m. Jan. 22 at the YMCA. All sports fans are invited, and tickets will be on sale later.

Seeds started his rise to the major leagues, playing with Amarillo in the Western League in 1928. He founded the Amarillo Gold Sox of the West Texas League in 1939 and owned the team until selling out in 1950. He returned to the Shamrock area, where he was born, at that time. Seeds had grown up on a farm east of Shamrock.

Two years ago, he bought the Elmo Riley farm and began raising hogs for the market. Principally they are Tamworth and Hampshire, with registered stock forming his basic breeding herd. He has around 400 now and his plans call for hog raising on an even larger scale.

Jan. 19 in the Quail vocational ag building.

County Bank Assets Pass Seven Three-Quarter Million Jan. 1

Collingsworth county goes into 1961 with more money in its bank account than at any time in recent years, nearly half a million more than a year ago.

The local figures were revealed at the time of the calls of the Federal Reserve Bank and State Banking Commission December 31, but since then, deposits in Collingsworth's three banks have gone up and loans have dropped.

At the year's end, the three banks combined assets were $7,876,194.34, a figure $573,000 above the asset figure at the beginning of the year.

Deposits showed a similar increase, reaching $7,352,876.51 on December 31. At the beginning of 1960, the three banks had combined deposits of $6,819,696. Of this year's high figure, $6,321,843.82 was in demand deposits—money on deposit in the banks which the depositor can spend at any time he wants to. The remaining one million dollars in the deposit figure represents money on time deposit, deposits made by federal, state and local governments, including the schools, water districts, etc.

Loans and discounts are also above those of a year ago, now reaching $3,635,811.16 as compared to $2,812,894.27.

Undivided profits are $148,517.85, compared to a figure of $119,585.58 at this time last year.

Bankers explained the rise in deposits during the first 10 days of January in this manner:

With part of the good cotton crop already on deposit, many farmers stopped selling completely during the last week of December. At the same time, Christmas spending continued at a rapid pace.

Cotton selling was resumed immediately after January 1, and on the first, at least a quarter million dollars in cotton was sold.

Linda Jenkins to State Wool Contest Friday

Linda Jenkins, Quail junior, will compete in the State Make It Yourself with Wool Contest on the campus of Texas Women's University, Denton, Saturday at 2:30 p.m.

A winner in the district contest at Lubbock, Linda was thereby eligible to enter state competition.

She will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. L. Jenkins, and her homemaker teacher, Mrs. Monty Mitchell. They will leave here Friday.

Contestants will be judged not only on the workmanship of their entries, but on the style and suitability of the garments.

Miss Jenkins will wear a pale beige dressmaker suit with harmonizing accessories.

Miss Willis on TSTA Group

Miss Bonnie Willis, elementary supervisor for Hall county schools, has been appointed to a three-year term as member of the committee for improving educational services of the Texas State Teachers Association.

The appointment was made by Richard Bowles, president of TSTA, and her term will begin this month.

Miss Willis makes her home in Wellington and commutes to her work in Hall county.

Southern Association Approval

Elementary School Accepted by School Body for Accreditation

The Wellington elementary school has been accepted for initial accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, J. L. Harper, high school principal, has been notified. It is one of the first group of schools in the 11-state area served by the Association to qualify for elementary school accreditation program.

The approval was granted Dec. 1 by the cooperative program in elementary education at the annual meeting of the Association in Memphis, Tenn. Local school authorities were notified last week by Durrell Ruffin, coordinator of the program, in a letter praising both the school and the community.

"The personnel of the school system and the citizens of Wellington Independent School District are to be commended not only for the achievements that made accreditation possible, but also for being in the first group of systems and schools in the 11-state area served by the Association to qualify for elementary school accreditation by the Cooperative Program and approval by the Association."

"The Wellington Independent School District has demonstrated the quality of its elementary schools by meeting the regional requirements for initial accreditation. The task now is to maintain that quality and to make the continuing improvement necessary for continuing accreditation. iWithout professional alertness and continuous community support, today's excellent institution can become the mediocre institution of tomorrow. The Association's Cooperative Program is confident that Wellington Independent School District possesses the qualities necessary for growth. It stands ready to assist its accredited member schools in any professional way possible."

The Wellington school was evaluated for accreditation and application was made in the spring of 1960.

Funeral Tuesday at Dodson for Mrs. Hightower

Mrs. O. N. Hightower, a leader in Dodson church work and active in many activities of that community, died at 12 a.m. Sunday, Jan. 8, shortly after she was admitted to St. Joseph's Hospital.

She had been in ill health for about ten years, suffering from a heart ailment, and less well recently, but her death was unexpected by her friends.

Mrs. Hightower moved to Wellington from Dodson about five months ago and made her home at 1309 Arlington. Prior to that she was in California about two years with her daughter.

Mrs. Hightower was the former Jewell James, the daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. W. S. James. Her father was one of the early Nazarene pastors of the area, and the family has been prominent in that church since its organization here. She was born in Fannin county Nov. 16, 1894 and came here with her family in 1907, living east of town in the Bowen community until her marriage to Mr. Hightower Aug. 10, 1914 and moved to Dodson.

She had been a member of the Nazarene Church since early life. A pianist, she gave liberally of her time to the (Continued on back page)

Rockets and Rockettes

Open Home District Play With Shamrock

The Skyrockets and Rockettes will play their first conference home game against their traditional rivals, the Shamrock Irish and Lassies on Friday night, Jan. 13, Coach E. W. Clement said. The first toss-up comes at 7 p.m.

All scheduled games to be played during the remainder of the season will be conference games, Coach Clement pointed out.

On Tuesday, Jan. 17, both boys and girls teams will go to Perryton to meet the Rangers and Rangerettes.

The Irish are considerably stronger than last year, when they tied with the Rockets for third place in District 5-AA. Coach Gene Stevens has one exceptionally tall boy and a couple of fine shooters around whom the team is built.

Clement described Coach Kelley's Lassies as "definitely good. They worked their way to the finals in our tournament and they'll offer quite a bit of competition."

Both the Rockets and Rockettes have met the Shamrock teams in tournament play, the (Continued on back page)

Action With Cuba Must Be Firm, for Communism is too Near

The communism that has come to our own door step is darker each day, and more menacing. It makes clearer the fact that it can happen to us and so quickly.

There are still those around to whom San Juan Hill was a real experience. Many more of us in recent years have gone as friendly visitors to the lovely island. It is irony that we must break off relations with the nation which we freed from Spanish domination less than one lifetime ago.

Already the hatred of home-made communism, backed by international communism, has turned on the church, the school, the free press and most certainly on individual freedom. Again totalitarianism is making its old, old appeal to youth, and with success. To date, no country that has gone under communism has ever come out from it. Few countries that communism has attacked have warded it off.

Our course of action with Cuba, the nation that was our friend, must be firm and stern. We must not believe the words of Cuban communism, just as we cannot believe the words of Russian communism. And at no time can we afford to forget that two miles west of the islands that form part of our most northwestern state lies communist Russia. Ninety miles south of our most southeastern state lies communist Cuba.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

I see where Senators Smith wants to nominate and elect our presidents with just common votes instead of using political conventions and presidential electors.

But my coffee-crat neighbor says it would be a shame to do away with our national nominating conventions, on account of in the field of politics they are about the best run-around we get for our money.

Says, though, this system might work out so us people could take turns with the Democrats and Republicans having a man in the White House who was on our side.

I note that some folks say our to-be Secretary of Agriculture, Mr. Freeman, hadn't ought to get the job because he don't know much about farming.

But my ruralistic neighbor says it's un-American to want a job-seeker to know the business, as long as he qualifies as to age, color, and political and college connections.

Says knowing how to plant corn won't fit a man to manage agriculture anyhow; and he wouldn't tackle the job himself, even after learning all about farming by going broke at it three or four times.

I see where State and Federal tax extractors are pained on account of compact cars and compact pocketbooks are cutting down on the gasoline tax intake.

But my pessimiserable neighbor says if we use less gallons, they will just raise the bite per gallon, on account of taxpayers can't win.

Unless, he says, it might be considered as kind of a back-handed victory for the tax turnip to know that no matter how much blood the people-squeezers get out of him, they won't ever find happiness because they keep on wanting more.

I see where a Mr. James Landis has written a letter about what a mess our federal meddleratory agencies are in and Mr. Kennedy has hired him to delouse them.

My forward-looking neighbor says this will leave an opening later on for some job-hungry citizen to write a critical letter and get appointed to regulate the regulatory commissions' regulator.

Says it would cure unemployment hurriedly to set up a National Buddy System, where the whole population would be paired off and each one of us paid to regulate his partner.

I see where a bunch of movie actors and writers have sued the studios for not hiring them.

They claim the producers colluded to blacklist them from working, just because they got accused of being leftwingskys, which it seems like violates the anti-trust laws, the Democratic platform and the Spirit of Camp David.

But my squeamish neighbor don't think this is a case of conspiracy against actors and writers; it's just that when making alley cat situation movies, studios likely get their help cheap and don't much need good actors or scripts.

I see where the Chineste Reds are telling a very sad story about this has been a bad crop year for them and some of their workers are going to get hungry.

My brother-keeper neighbor says it looks like these people are determined to indulge in war with us some time, and it would be mighty unsportsmanlike of us to let them get in a weakened condition when we have got food to spare.

Says the fair thing to do is to send these poor folks a few shiploads of food; and since the Red wheels would get most of it, we could maybe spike it with some good tranquilizer, such as strychnine.

miles between lubrications

30,000 is the most famous number of the year. It's every '61 Ford owner's license to save. How can Ford do it? Conventional chassis lubrication fittings have been replaced with metal plugs that help protect each lubrication point against abrasive mud, dirt and dust. And then, for only about $4 and about 20 minutes your Ford is ready for another 30,000! This is just one of the many ways the '61 Ford is built to take care of itself. Your Ford Dealer can show you more.

HERE'S HOW THE '61 FORD TAKES CARE OF ITSELF

Lubricates itself—You'll normally go 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications (which cost only about $4.00 and take about 20 minutes) because Ford has replaced conventional grease fittings with a sealed-in lubrication system.

Cleans its own oil—You'll go 4,000 miles between oil changes because Ford's Full-Flow oil filter gives you filtration through fibers... trapping more dirt than any other type of filter made.

Adjusts its own brakes—New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves—automatically.

Guards its own muffler—Ford mufflers are double-wrapped and aluminized to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers.

Protects its own body—All vital underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion, even to galvanizing the body panels beneath the doors.

Takes care of its own finish—Just wash and clean Ford's new Diamond Lustre Finish and it continues to glisten like new. It never needs waxing.

Mrs. Jim Ray Frost

Former Student Here Weds Xmas Eve in Wichita Falls Ceremony

Perkins Chapel of the First Methodist Church in Wichita Falls was the scene of the Christmas eve marriage of Miss Nancy Lee and Jim Ray Frost, both of that city. The ceremony was performed at 10 o'clock in the morning by Dr. Howard Hollowell, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of L. B. Lee of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Gordon Neubauer of Littleton, Colo. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Joe Wilson of Dodson, with whom she made her home and attended Wellington high school during the last semester of her junior year, 1959. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frost of Wichita Falls are the parents of the bridegroom.

The nuptial setting featured a large arrangement of white chrysanthemums and holly on the altar, with chapel tapers burning in the background. Pre-nuptial wedding music was presented by James Fillmore of Denton.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin, which tapered from ballerina length in the front to floor length at the back. The moulded bodice of white Alencon lace had a scalloped neck and long tapered sleeves. Accenting the back of the waistline were white roses trimmed in seed pearls, to which were attached white satin cords with rosebuds at the end of each. Her shoulder veil was attached to a satin rose headpiece. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls. The bride carried a single green orchid, encircled by lilies of the valley, atop a white Bible presented her at birth by her great grandmother, the late Mrs. A. F. Huskinson of Munday.

Mrs. W. A. Lee, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Linda Lee, the bride's cousin, was bridesmaid. They wore dresses of green velvet, with headpieces of green velvet bows and carried nosegays of white carnations and holly.

Edwin Farabee of Lubbock was best man, and ushers were Don Frost, brother of the bridegroom, and Tom Burden of Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lee, aunt and uncle of the bride, were hosts at the reception which followed the ceremony. In the house party were Mrs. Clarence Muehlberger, W. O. Kimmell, Edwin Farabee and Homer Lee, and others assisting were Mrs. Ralph Millburn, Howard Howle, Roger Humphrey and Frank Robinson.

The bride was graduated from Wichita Falls high school in June. Prior to attending school in Wellington, she attended private schools in Germany and Switzerland for five years and was active in many winter sports.

She was presented as a debutant by the Woman's Forum of Wichita Falls.

The bridegroom, a 1957 graduate of Wichita Falls high school, is a sophomore in Midwestern University where he is majoring in business law. The couple is at home in Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Bob Hightower directed the program, "Meet Britain Today."

Of all countries in the world, no two have stronger ties than Great Britain and the United States, she told the group. "We are associated with Britain in games and literary work." The ideal way to get acquainted is to visit Britain, as thousands of Americans do each year, she continued.

A salad plate was served to Mrs. E. F. Bartlett, A. B. Clark, Bryan Denley, Cicero Gulley, Hightower, O. D. Holton, Wilton Ketchum, H. B. Lowrie, S. B. Owen, Howard Riggs, Stowell, Thomas, and the hostess, Mrs. Hatch.

Early History of Wellington and Collingsworth Retold for Club

A public affairs program was presented for members of the 1924 Study Club Thursday, Jan. 5 by Mrs. John Coleman, member of the Wellington city council.

Mrs. Gene Nelson was hostess and Miss Hattie D. Wells had charge of the program and introduced the speaker, whose subject was "City Government and Women in Government."

"Throughout history, the city has been man's natural form of government, and the city is the oldest form of government," Mrs. Coleman told the group. "Today, three out of every four Texans live in an incorporated city. It is estimated that by 1970, eight out of every 10 Texans will live in cities."

Mrs. Coleman then turned to Collingsworth county's own government.

In looking through old records, she found that a map setting aside section 99, block 14, was presented to Collingsworth county May 6, 1891, by John McConnell and John Swearingen of Childress. This instrument was notarized by the late Judge A. J. Fires, father of Chester Fires of Wellington, and notary public in Childress county. It was filed May 11, 1891 by J. W. Anderson.

TEXANS POLL TAXES DUE BEFORE JAN. 31

Texans have until Jan. 31 to pay the poll tax that will enable them to vote in 1961 elections.

Despite 1961 being an off-year, a major election will be held this year. U.S. Senator Lyndon B. Johnson ended his 12-year career in the Senate by submitting his resignation to Gov. Price Daniel on the opening day of Congress.

Daniel appointed William A. Blakley of Dallas to serve until a successor is elected this spring. A special election to fill the office for the remainder of the term will be held April 4. If no candidate receives a majority in the first election, a run-off will be held from 30 to 40 days later.

In the last special senatorial election in April 1957, there were 23 candidates. Same sort of crowded field is expected this year with enough activity to give every poll tax payer his $1.75 worth.

GAS DISPUTE BEFORE TEXAS SUPREME COURT

Texas Supreme Court is considering three related cases involving whether a certain gas drilling process steps on the toes of neighboring property owners.

Also at issue is whether the decision can be made in the Courts or by the Railroad Commission.

In all three suits, Delhi-Taylor Oil Corporation charges that operators using the sand-fracturing process in drilling are removing gas from beyond the limits of their lease. In sand fracturing, acids and liquids are forced into the ground to open crevices to permit escape of the gas.

Number of Older People on Increase

College Station.—Texas' population now includes more than half a million persons over 65 years of age. This, according to Reagan Brown, extension rural sociologist, represents about 7% of the total population or about 1 out of 11. The ratio is even higher in rural areas, he adds.

The sociologist says the increase has caused leaders in many towns and rural communities to take a longer look at the situation. Interest is growing in programs aimed at helping these senior citizens. Brown points out that research studies have and are furnishing valuable information for planning work.

The older persons prefer to live as independently as possible and in familiar surroundings among their friends and associates. They like to be near married children or grandchildren, but live to themselves. Elderly persons like to be where they can watch adults work and children play instead of with aged people only.

Most older farm folks like rural surroundings with open spaces, room for animals, or where they can garden and watch things grow says Brown. But they don't want to be isolated. They'd like to be in walking distance of relatives, friends, church, and shopping facilities; have help if needed and be out of doors when weather permits.

Whether in cities, towns or rural areas, older folks have much in common when living facilities are discussed. Brown says they want a safe home—one floor level with few steps to the outside. They don't like hazards which could mean a fire or fall but express a desire for automatically controlled heat for the winter months, adequate lighting, windows that open and close easily and a comfortable place for a day-time nap.

But most important, Brown emphasizes, older folks want to feel needed and have an opportunity to carry on a useful, pleasant day to day schedule of activity.

FARMERS WORK CHEAP

The farmer's income is about half that of his city brother. Average net income per person of the farm population from all sources in 1958 was $1,066. This figure includes $298 received from non-farm sources and the value of products consumed on the farm and the rental value of the farm dwelling. By comparison, the average non-farm person's net income amounted to $2,066. To show the trend, the farm person's net income has risen 25.2% from the 1947-49 average, while the non-farm individual's rose by 39.6%.

Lt. Crosby Praised on Maneuver Test

First Lt. James C. Crosby, commanding officers of Headquarters and Headquarters Battery of the 4th Armored Division Artillery, Nurnberg, Germany, recently received a letter of appreciation from his commanding officer, Brig. Gen. Selwyn D. Smith Jr., following the 4th Division tests program carried out at Grafenwoehr.

Lt. Crosby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crosby of Wellington, and was graduated from high school here. He received his degree from West Texas State College.

He has been in Germany a year, and was joined in April by his wife, Joan, and small daughter, Linda.

The letter read:

"During the past two months you have contributed much to the successful completion by Division Artillery of the annual battery training tests program.

"New to the job as Headquarters Battery Commander, you successfully moved the Headquarters & Headquarters Battery to Grafenwoehr and opened and maintained a fine headquarters for the Division Artillery. Under your leadership, the Headquarters Battery met the many increased demands of field operations as well as the normal garrison life. Often on short notice, you produced the right vehicles, personnel and equipment to meet unexpected demands.

"This training period ended with a Division Mounted Review, in which your battery participated not only as a march unit, but also by furnishing many personnel, vehicles and radios in the necessary control net. This review received many complimentary remarks from the Reviewing Officer, General Waters, the Commander of Troops, General Pattison, and from the visiting combat command commanders.

"Please accept my thanks to you and your battery for your sterling performance during this Grafenwoehr training period."

There were 1,761 names of people of the Wellington area in the last issue of The Wellington Leader — a number that is somewhat above average but is not at all unusual for this newspaper.

It is a well known axiom that names make news and that news makes circulation. The Leader has been outstanding in its coverage of local news throughout the years.

Experienced advertisers know that reader interest is as important as circulation in making their advertising profitable and The Leader has both to a remarkable degree. For greater profits in 1961 use the columns of this newspaper regularly.

Nazarenes Set Recall Date of Pastors

Members of the Wellington Church of the Nazarene will vote Sunday, Jan. 15, on the recall of the Rev. Kendall S. White, pastor. This is the date for recall voting in churches of the Abilene district, as set by the district board and superintendent, the Rev. Raymond Hurn of Lubbock.

The Rev. Mr. White said that in his original call as pastor of the local church, the time was extended over the assembly year of 1960 to May of 1961, therefore the church here is asked to vote on a recall for the pastor, who has served the church since September. If he is recalled, he will serve the church through the year of 1961 and to May 1962.

Two Trucks of Paper Sold for Baseball

Two truck loads of old newspapers, collected by young baseball players and their mothers, were taken to the Bestwall Gypsum Company plant at Acme on Monday, Jan. 9.

Weighing 22,470 pounds, the papers netted the boys $202.23 to be added to the summer Little League baseball program fund, Eli Wolf, commissioner, reported.

Hezze Jones and Claude Carlson furnished the trucks, which were loaded and weighed by Jake Leach, Buster Hughes, Milard Brown, Richard Bailey and Wolf.

Police Chief Troy Marsh and

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davidson were in Paradise last week to attend the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haralson. They came back by Bridgeport and visited with Miss Blanche Groves and on to Wichita Falls where they visited with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Wissbaum.

SNEEZING? DO THIS QUICK!

It takes just ONE HOUR to use BQ-1-6. Take two tablets (one white, one brown) each half hour until 8 doses are taken. Then in another hour, if not pleased, get your 69c back at any drug store. Today at Parsons Drug.

Jerry Nix drove the trucks to Acme.

This represented about four months work on the part of the boys and their mothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Belew and children took his mother, Mrs. Fannie Belew, to Houston last week, where she will visit several weeks in the home of two sons, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Belew and family and Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Belew and family. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Belew and children did some sight-seeing in Old Mexico before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Swift of Borger were here Wednesday, Jan. 4 to visit her mother, Mrs. Estella Cocke, and attend the funeral of her uncle, Rufin Cocke.

Recharging Wells for Irrigation Growing Practice

Conserving water for future irrigation by draining the playa lakes into the underground Ogallala sand through recharge wells is an increasing practice on the High Plains. The surface water drained by gravity into the sand is thereby stored for future use rather than being lost by evaporation, if permitted to remain in the lake.

One of the problems encountered in recharging is the silt in the lake water. Several filtration systems are being tested at the High Plains Research Foundation to determine the most efficient and economical method of silt removal, James Valliant, water engineer, announced.

One system will use 13 sections of porous concrete pipe capable of taking up to 5,000 gallons of water per minute. Each section is 12 inches in diameter and 36 inches long, with an intake of 385 gallons of water per minute. Sand and gravel covers of different thickness will be used to cover the porous pipe to study the effects of silt in clogging the microscopic holes in the porous pipe.

The second filtration system will use perforated well casing 16 inches in diameter, eight feet long wrapped with fibre glass filter one inch thick.

A third method to be used for silt removal will be an eight foot circular cage of ¾ inch expanded metal with a 7 foot cylindrical cage inside. Plastic screen will be placed inside the 8 foot cylinder and outside the 7 foot inner metal circle with 6 inches of gravel between the two cylinders.

The use of chemical flocculant will be continued to precipitate silt in the lake before the water enters the recharge well. A new chemical, M-1883, designed for use in soft water produced by the Dow Chemical Company, is now being tested. This testing will be continued through 1961.

Daniel Vestal

Baptist Youth Group Formed

A new organization for the Baptist young people of this area will hold its first meeting at Shamrock Sunday afternoon, Jan. 15 at 2:30 p.m. The organization will be known as the North Fork Association Youth Rally.

The North Fork Association is comprised of churches in Collingsworth and Wheeler counties. Plans are for the young people, ages 13 and up, from these churches to meet monthly for a religious rally planned and presented by the young people.

Speaker for the first meeting will be Daniel Vestal, 15 years old, who is an outstanding youth evangelist, having conducted over 100 revivals in Southern Baptist churches.

At a recent organizational meeting at Shamrock, Gary West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oris West, was elected temporary vice president of the organization.

"All the Baptist youth of this area are invited to be present at this meeting," West said.

WATER PROGRAM TARGETS SET

Reorganization of the State Board of Water Engineers after the pattern of the State Highway Commission has been proposed by Gov. Daniel.

Daniel advocated separating the engineering services under a chief engineer from the semi-judicial functions of the Board. He made the proposal before a pre-legislative meeting of the State Water Committee in Austin.

Committee, composed of laymen to help in development of a state water program, endorsed broader lending authority for the State Water Development Board. At present, the Board can grant loans to subdivisions for one-third the cost of a water project or $5,000,000, whichever is less. A $15,000,000 maximum is recommended by the committee.

NEW INSURANCE BOARD CHAIRMAN

Former Dist. Judge Thomas C. Ferguson of Burnet has been named chairman of the State Insurance Board by Gov. Daniel.

Ferguson succeeds another district judge, Penn J. Jackson, who has returned to his bench in Cleburne.

New board chairman is also a former newspaperman, deputy district clerk, member of the Texas House of Representatives, mayor of Burnet and county judge. As he begins his service on the Insurance Board one of the most pressing problems before it is whether to raise auto insurance rates.

Fire ranks third behind falls and autos as the major cause of accidents in the U.S.

Dr. Trussell to Sing for Revival Here

A revival singer well-known to Baptists of this area, Dr. Joe Trussell, is to return for the revival services of First Baptist Church, Jan. 22 to 29. Dr. Trussell has conducted music previously for the revival meetings of the church in 1950 and 1953, and has endeared himself to many in this area, according to the Rev. Glenn E. Hickey, church pastor.

Special activities have been planned in connection with the revival services. Children's choirs for all age groups are being planned in connection with the meeting. "Sunday school classes are being asked to set attendance goals for a total of 400 present for Bible study on January 22 and 450 for January 29," Sunday School Superintendent Elmer Carter said.

New Legislation Would Benefit Greenbelt Dam

It will take $166,000,000 to dam all of the surface water in Texas that is needed within the next ten years, it was reported by Dr. S. H. Townsend, of Childress, a member of the Governor's Statewide Water Committee, who attended a meeting of the committee in Austin and returned Saturday.

Dr. Townsend is also president of the Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority.

Dr. Townsend is of the opinion that any water legislation that is passed by the state legislature, which will convene Jan. 15, will favor the Greenbelt.

One bill that is expected to be proposed will allow the state to participate 100% in any project up to $15,000,000.

"If such legislation is passed, it could mean that the state may underwrite the entire Greenbelt project which may cost as much as $10,000,000," Dr. Townsend said.

However, the cost of the Greenbelt will depend entirely upon the number of cities that participate.

The dam itself is not expected to cost over $1,000,000.

The remainder of the money will be spent mostly on pipelines, and filtration.

Should only two or three or four cities participate in the project, the costs will drop accordingly.

Sam Breedlove of Quanah, vice president of the Authority, attended the meeting with Townsend.

First Federal Savings & Loan Reports on '60

Despite a general levelling off in home building in 1960, First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Childress had an excellent year, with assets increasing to $3,185,787.72, or 40% above the figure of 1959, Russell V. Jones, executive vice president, reported.

Writing in that institution's annual report, Jones said the year was marked by record gains in savings and savers, with many individuals and families stepping up their savings programs. "In part because of caution, but also because they have developed systematic savings habits."

The high savings level, coupled with ever increasing repayments of outstanding mortgages, assures an ample supply of home mortgage money for home buyers in 1961, Jones said.

He listed highlights of First Federal Savings and Loan Association's 1960 operation as follows:

1. Net savings increased by $838,923.16, or 44%, boosting total savings capital to $2,749,521.13 at year's end.

2. Savers increased by 317, or 42%, and total savings account holders now stand at 1077.

3. Dividend payments to savers totaled $95,490.88, 61% above the 1959 figure, and an all-time high.

4. The dollar value of the home loan portfolio increased to $2,628,523.43 at year's end, or by 31%.

Looking ahead, Jones predicted even greater gains as First Federal continues its ex-

Bank deposits are the highest they have ever been in the history of the county and there is still a lot of cotton to be ginned and even more for which the money has not been received. The snow in December which halted the harvest seems to have improved the grade by bleaching the cotton.

Since we are an agricultural community there is more solid opposition here to the establishment of a $1.25 an hour minimum wage law than almost anything that is being proposed in Washington. The increase in farm wage rates has increased twice the increase in the cost of living in the last ten years. Young people should not be deprived of the opportunity of learning a trade or business, but that is what would happen on the farm and in the stores and shops. Grocery stores would not pay a sacker $1.25 an hour, yet that was the start of a number of successful businessmen. The same thing applies to drug stores, dry goods, machine shops, farms and ranches.

The Elementary School of Wellington has received its initial accreditation from the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. This is a high honor. The next nearest school on the list of elementary schools so classified is at Throckmorton.

This is the time of the year to put PDB crystals around your peach and plum trees to eliminate borers, according to the farm magazines. In case you do not know what PDB crystals are, which I don't, moth balls will do just as well. Dig a circle about two inches deep around the trunk of the tree and cover up the moth balls. For good measure I generally dig another shallow trench about a foot and a half away from the trunk. The ground is wet enough now to dissolve the crystals, but in dry weather the ground should be watered.

Drove out to Marella Sunday, and on north to take a look at the new bridge and on up in the Abra-Dozier country. The bridge looks fine and the road north is in shape for paving. It is going to be a wonderful asset for the people in that part of the county when it is completed. After leaving Dozier we turned north west of Samnorwood and went by the Robert Baxter and Polly O'Neil places. Some of the most beautiful scenery in the Panhandle can be seen about the Dozier mountains and along Elm. Last fall I went out toward the Baptist encampment but turned north to go by the Hill and Ike Emmert places and on to the county line. It is worth taking time out to make either of these drives.

Brotherhood to Honor Wives

The Brotherhood of First Baptist Church has scheduled its annual quail fry and ladies' night for Monday evening, Jan. 16. The supper will be served by the men beginning at 7 p.m. with wives of the Brotherhood men as special guests, Dee Burba, Brotherhood president announced.

The program chairman for the month, Elmer Carter, has planned a program on evangelism. The speaker for the occasion will be the Rev. Dan Cameron, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Borger.

Trees will be secured through the Soil Conservation Service and set out on the course. These will be set out so that when they attain growth they will not interfere with the use of Marian Airpark, Sanford said.

Membership in the club is open to anyone interested in playing golf, and farmers as well as business men are urged to join, Sanford said.

Free throws in the last few minutes of play decided the winner in both boys and girls divisions, Coach E. W. Clement reported.

In a game that was much closer than the score indicated, the Rockettes got off to a 10 point lead over Shamrock in the third quarter, but the Lassies had pulled to within four points at the beginning of the fourth period. The margin remained about like that until late in the game when Wellington began freezing the ball and Shamrock began fouling, giving the Rockettes the needed free throws to end the game eleven points ahead, 59 to 48.

At half time, the Rockets led the Altus boys two points, and at the third quarter, the teams were tied. The game was nip and tuck until about two minutes before play ended, when Altus began freezing the ball and the Rockets fouled in attempting to get possession, giving Altus its badly needed free throws.

Other games had their thrills. In the consolation finals, when Panhandle boys won over Memphis 65 to 41, Memphis was cold getting started, but they went on to play a good game. In the girls division of the consolation finals, Quail Bobwhites and Altus played it nip and tuck all the way to the end when Quail was ahead 44 to 39.

Another of the better games was that of Altus over Shamrock, which ended in the Oklahomans' favor 39-32.

What looked at first like another close game was that of Panhandle and Wellington. Then in the second quarter the Rockettes pulled away from their opponents and there was never any further doubt as to the outcome, which rested at 46 to 25 when the whistle blew.

Coach Clement expressed satisfaction at the good crowds that attended the night performances. The Skyrocket Band, twirlers and cheer leaders were on hand to perform between halves.

Trophies to the first and second place winners and consolation winners were presented by Robert Weir, Student Council president and forward on the Skyrocket basketball team.

In the first go-round of the girls division, Wellington defeated Altus 42 to 31; Panhandle won over Memphis 32 to 27; Lakeview over Quail 32 to 28; and Shamrock over Dodson 41 to 5.

In the second round of the winning bracket, Wellington defeated Panhandle 46 to 25 and Shamrock won over Lakeview 52 to 26, putting Wellington and Shamrock in the championship finals.

On the consolation side, Altus won over Memphis 45 to 29, and Quail over Dodson 39 to 15, with Altus and Quail going into the consolation finals.

In the boys division, first round, Shamrock defeated Dodson 66 to 12; Altus won over Panhandle 44 to 34; Quail over Memphis 44 to 40 and Wellington over Lakeview 79 to 15.

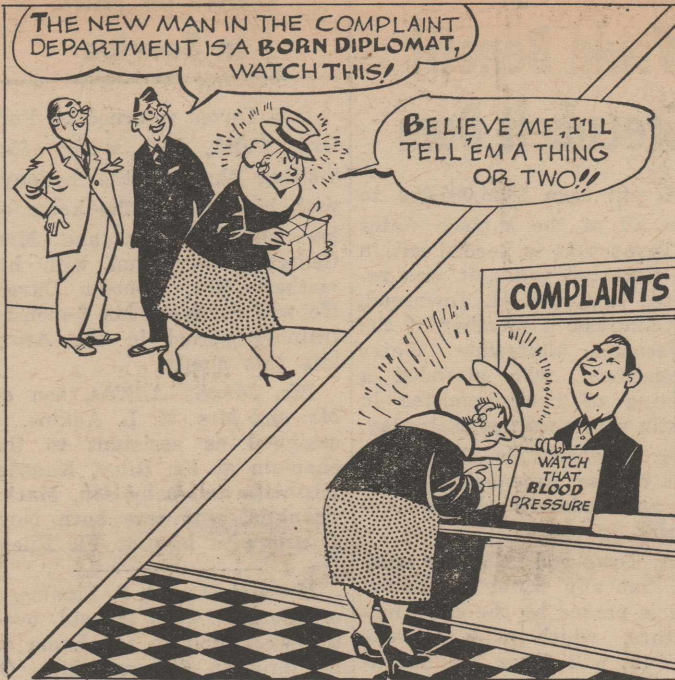

Second round play in the winning bracket saw Altus defeat Shamrock 39 to 32 and Wellington win over Quail 51 to 40.

In second round consolation play, Panhandle won over Dodson 75 to 19 and Memphis over Lakeview 63 to 14.

Officials were Bill Lackey and Bobby McAlister.

Four Boys Admit Five January Burglaries

Five burglaries during the first nine days of January were cleared up with the arrest of four boys, 10 and 12 years old, Sheriff Rainey reported Tuesday, Jan. 10.

Burglarized Sunday night, Jan. 8, was Pete Chandler's laundry. The boys told Sheriff Rainey the four of them drank 13 king size bottles of pop. They also took a small amount of money and candy.

Monday evening, the Wellington Ice Co. office was entered and again a small amount of money was taken; and Monday night, soda pop was taken from Phipps Conoco station, Brown Service station and Gilmore Locker were entered Sunday night, Jan. 1. Change and candy were taken.

Phipps, on discovering the burglary Tuesday morning, notified the sheriff's department and described two young boys who were hanging around the station Monday evening. Sheriff Rainey recognized them from the description as youngsters he has handled earlier on burglary charges, and they were taken in custody about 9:30 a.m.

Two of the quartet are Mexican brothers, 10 and 12 years of age, who are here with their family for cotton pulling.

baseball, however, probably never will be.

"I'm not associated with any club. I work independently as a spotter," Seeds explained. "A club may call me and ask me to check on some boy in this part of the country they are interested in."

His wife, Rosalie, is office secretary for the National Farm Loan Association in Shamrock.

There is pride in his voice when he talks about his 7-year-old son, Billy Bob, a third grade student at Samnorwood.

Asked if the youngster is interested in baseball, his father replied, "You bet." But when the question was put if he intended to make a player out of him, Seeds replied:

"No, he'll have to make a player out of himself."

Seeds has two grown daughters, Mrs. Vernon Rue, who teaches at Fort Worth, and Mrs. Bill Cross. Cross is the son of Dr. Wm. L. Cross, president of the University of Oklahoma.

Preceding Seeds in the Hall of Fame were Joe Fortenberry, named in 1959, and Blair Cherry, installed last year.

Fortenberry was an all-America cager from West Texas State and Phillips 66, and Cherry was a standout football coach at Amarillo high and the University of Texas.

8th.

White, who was just outside the lumber company office when he was struck, received injuries to his right ankle and left elbow and shoulder. He was treated at St. Joseph's Hospital and dismissed. No bones were broken, Chief Marsh said.

Both Marsh and Leach were skinned and bruised.

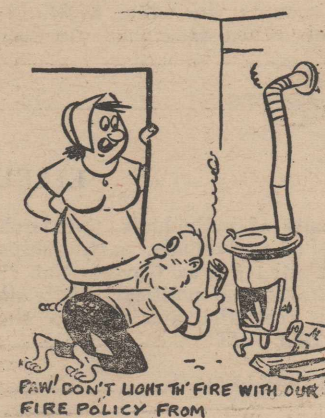

The police chief estimated damage to his car, a 1961 Chevrolet 4-door sedan, at around $500. No check had been made of the damage to the city pickup, he said.

The fire to which the two vehicles were going, was at a unit of the Negro housing project occupied by Logan Bailey, Johnny Cagle of the Fire Department reported.

The blaze started in a clothes closet. Firemen had to make a second trip to the scene when the fire blazed up again about 12:15 p.m. All clothing belonging to the family was destroyed, Cagle said. The cause of the fire has not been determined.

Dr. and Mrs. Charlie Jones were in Fort Worth over the week end, visiting in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Langford and family.
