

Walter Johnson Delegation Named by Democrats

Wester Again Heads County Polio Chapter

The Floyd County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis named officers for the coming year on Friday. At a meeting of the executive committee held in the county court room at 2:00 p. m. the following were re-elected to serve: County chairman, Edward Wester; vice-chairman, Joe Wilson; treasurer, W. J. Adams; secretary, J. M. Wilson Jr.

The remaining members of the executive board are Edgar Hays, Barry Barker, Kelton Shaw and Mrs. M. W. Wylie of Lockney, and Wayne Russell, Kenneth Rimmer, C. L. Minor Jr., B. B. Henry, Dele Blain and Mrs. Leonard Maitser of Floydada. Medical advisors are Dr. Geo. V. Smith and Dr. W. J. Mangold.

Fund drive chairman for the next March of Dimes campaign will be named at a later date.

The officers named are the same that served the county in the year just passed when it met its quota of over $300 in the March of Dimes drive in January.

McCoy Young People Plan Special Worship Service on May 19

Young people of the McCoy Baptist Church will hold a worship service "God's Saturday Night" on Saturday May 19 at 8:00 p. m. at the church. All youth of the area are invited to attend.

Mrs. Brice Allen of Mt. Blanco will be guest speaker on the program, which will include special music and refreshments.

Guffee Is Candidate For Superintendent

TO THE CITIZENS OF FLOYD COUNTY: I am asking to be re-elected as your County School Superintendent for another term. I enjoy the work with the schools and try to do whatever is necessary and possible for the help and betterment of all of them.

I appreciate the confidence that you have shown me and I will strive to fulfill this confidence and trust in the future as in the past.

Thanking you for your vote and influence, I am Sincerely yours, Clarence A. Guffee

PANCAKE SUPPER WILL BE HELD SATURDAY AT LAKEVIEW

The Lakeview Home Demonstration club will sponsor a pancake supper Saturday evening at the Lakeview school house.

Serving will start at 7:30 o'clock and admission will be 50c for adults and school children and 25c for pre-school children.

Those that attend the supper will be given numbers as they arrive and door prizes will be drawn during the evening.

Following the supper an evening of musical entertainment will be given by Willie Dean Powell and his East Plains Play Boys from Crosbyton.

SISTER OF FLOYDADA MEN SUCCEUMBS AT BRECKENRIDGE

Funeral service for Mrs. Lena Kizer of Breckenridge, sister of Monroe and W. H. Harrison of this city, was conducted yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Breckenridge.

Mrs. Kizer passed Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock in a Breckenridge hospital, following an illness of several months.

Those attending the service from Floydada were Monroe Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Harrison.

BAKE SALE SATURDAY

The Dougherty Home Demonstration club will sponsor a bake sale Saturday at Bishop Motor Company starting about 10 o'clock a. m.

They will have homemade bread, cakes and pies. The proceeds will go to carry on worthy activities of the club.

District Attorney Stapleton Is Seeking Re-Election to Office

District Attorney John B. Stapleton this week announced his candidacy for re-election.

Stapleton was reared in Floyd County and is a graduate of Lockney High School. He received his legal training at the University of Texas and the South Texas School of Law, graduating from the latter institution with a law degree in 1937.

Vegetable Growers Elect Probasco on Area Board

Gene Probasco of Barwise was named representative of the Floyd County District on the board of the West Texas Vegetable Council at the meeting of vegetable and prospective vegetable growers here last Thursday night, and W. C. Whiteley, of Lockney, was named alternate.

About 25 growers were in the meeting which was held in the county court room.

Ronald Davis, of Lazbuddy, area president, told the group that reasonably good progress is being made on the marketing survey by experts of the Extension Service. He confidently expects the survey to be completed by the first of July.

THE INTEREST of the farmers of the high plains, with thousands of acres of fertile land, which they would like to have producing profitable crops, has resulted in the as-ignment of two Extension Service men to the area in recent weeks. Those farmers who are going ahead with various types of vegetable growing will have available their expert advice on troubles which may develop from insects or disease.

In round table discussion during the evening it also was developed that most of the vegetable growers expect to have one or more buyer representatives in the area during the marketing season, although there is no contract market forecast.

There are also two and probably three processing plants due to be set up, an onion grading and marketing plant at both Floydada and Barwise and a cucumber grading plant at Lockney.

Biggest acreage of any kind of vegetable will be in onions, which are now already in the ground on about 500 acres.

Cucumber acreage will be about 125 acres.

CABBAGE, TOMATOES and bell peppers are the other three vegetables which definitely are planned for by some farmers and report has it also that some carrot crops will be planted.

The meeting of the vegetable growers was called jointly by the (See Vegetables, back page)

Collins Heads Co. Delegation

Floyd County Democrats in precinct and county conventions Saturday and Tuesday gave overwhelming support to Senator Lyndon B. Johnson to head the Texas delegation to the national convention and as well endorsed him as "favorite son" nominee for president of the United States.

Nineteen out of 21 precincts participating, the county convention Tuesday afternoon cast 39 votes for Johnson, nine for Shivers and elected W. G. Collins to head the county delegation of four to the state convention in Dallas, on May 22.

Other members of the county delegation to the state convention will be J. M. Willson Jr., R. H. Ford and John B. Stapleton. Alternates selected are B. A. Robertson, W. L. Davis, Sid Thomas and E. L. Thomas.

The delegation is bound under the unit rule to cast the county's four votes in the state meeting for Johnson.

Only two voting precincts in the county had no voice in the county convention Tuesday. They were Providence, with two convention votes and Baker with one.

There was little fireworks in any of the precinct conventions Saturday and none at all in the county convention Tuesday. The county convention, called to order by County Chairman Ben P. Ayres, was soon organized.

Naming W. G. Collins permanent chairman and J. M. Willson Jr., permanent secretary, the convention adopted the Johnson resolutions and proceeded to name their delegates and alternates.

Vote on the Johnson resolution brought an emphatic no from the West Lockney delegation, but every other precinct represented voted favoring the action.

It was a complete reversal of the attitude of the county Democratic organization of four years ago, which voted to go along with Governor Allan Shivers. The changing attitude became apparent two years ago when the anti-Shivers forces gained control of the county committee, sent a dissenting delegation to the state convention and got steam rolled there.

The action of Southwest Floydada, Precinct No. 1 was typical of the county interest and attitude. In the first test vote the Johnson faction won 70 to 30. The senator was going somewhere and Texas was going along with him seemed to be the attitude of the majority.

It was the biggest attendance recorded in recent years in a local precinct convention.

At several boxes the voting was close, with the majority, however, going to Johnson save and except at West Lockney. At Fairview the vote was 6 to 5 in favor of the Johnson program.

Shortest List Of Candidates Ever Is Issued

Saturday brought only two last-minute entries into the political lists in Floyd County Democratic circles.

Judge H. A. C. Brummett, of Dickens and Floydada, applied for a place on the ballot as a candidate for county attorney of the 110th Judicial District and Edgar Hays, publisher of the Lockney Beacon, entered his name for county chairman of the Democratic party.

Brummett will oppose John B. Stapleton, incumbent in the district attorney's office, and Hays opposes Ben P. Ayres, who is in his fourth year as county chairman.

Hays' entry into the county chairman's race will mark the second time in the history of the county that there has been a contest for the county chairmanship. Two years ago James H. Word was petitioned on the ticket seeking the honor.

Judge Brummett said this week he would have a statement for the press later. He has been active in the practice of law in the district for many years. He moved to Floydada from Dickens 18 months ago and set up a law office here.

With the exception of the precinct chairman candidates, which will appear on the ballots of 13 precincts, the list of district, county and precinct candidates made up by the county chairman Monday was as shown below.

The county committee will hold their next formal meeting on Monday when they will check the list of applications of candidates, make their plans for the first primary vote on July 28, determine whether or not a majority primary will be held, and assess the candidates for the costs of the primary election.

Candidates will have until Saturday night, May 19, to pay the assessments.

Following is the list of candidates who have applied for places on the ballot, as issued by County Chairman Ben P. Ayres. The change from the two-year to the four-year term for county and precinct officers makes the list the shortest ever issued for a Democratic primary in the county.

Concrete Slab To Take Place Of Dance Floor

A. T. Sweapston and R. I. Bennett of the Pioneers Reunion dance platform committee this week got approval for laying a concrete "platform" for the old settlers annual dance on the southeast segment of the court house grounds, and work has been started on the 30 by 150-foot piece of masonry.

The platform is not being constructed out of the reunion funds and they are asking financial help on the job. Mr. Sweapston said. Donations for the fund can be left with Mrs. Hollums at Duncan Abstract Company office.

The concrete platform to be finished in green, will take the place of the wooden platform usually put together from borrowed lumber and torn down again each year.

Wayne Bennett has contracted to do the work.

Serving with Sweapston and Bennett on the annual dance platform committee this year are J. M. Willson, Ham Smith and C. L. Anderson.

Meanwhile Mrs. Maud Hollums, president of the pioneers Reunion says that two more prizes have been added to the prize list for this year's reunion.

One added prize will be for the best and prettiest sun bonnet worn by a woman at the old settlers gathering on May 28. It will be judged along with other pioneer entries immediately following the parade. Prize will be $5.

The other added prize is for children's square dance team. $10 is the prize offered for the best in this class.

Interest continues to mount in the forthcoming event as time draws nearer, with less than three weeks yet to elapse before founders day, May 28.

MRS. C. A. CAFFEE, chairman of the Antiques Committee for Old Settlers Day, announces that anyone with antiques to be displayed is to take them to the office of Margaret Collier, county clerk, in the county court house.

The antiques are to be labeled with the owners name and date of the antique. Any other pertinent information is also to be included.

Any persons not able to get their antiques to the court house are asked to contact any member of the committee to have them picked up.

On the committee are Mmes. C. A. Caffee, E. L. Norman, Troy Leonard, Kinder Farris, Ruth Van Wickel and Mrs. Ned Bradley.

IN LUBBOCK HOSPITAL

J. M. Massie of Massie & Bond, was no longer in Methodist Hospital surgery yesterday, expected to be in the hospital for several days. No report was available yesterday.

The operation was not of an emergency nature.

Leak Develops In Well Tubing

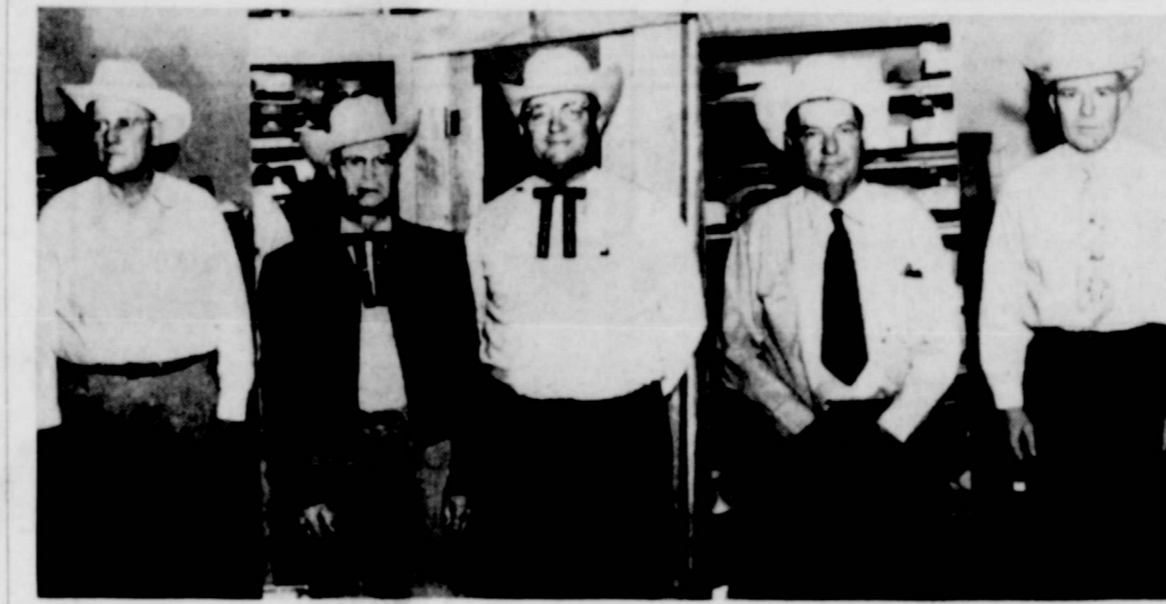

A new pump was set at the Adams Oil well, Lakeview, over the weekend, a pump of 70-barrel capacity, which was expected to solve the problem of widely varying production from day to day, according to reports.

However, this mid-week the pump and tubing is again being removed. Dee Adams, one of the members of the family, who is employed as pumper said he was told the tubing had developed a leak, and was being pulled to remedy the trouble.

MRS. GOEN CONVALESCES FOLLOWING APPENDICITOMY

Mrs. M. P. Goen was due to be home this mid-week from Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, where she underwent surgery for appendicitis Wednesday night of last week.

She was very ill when she entered the hospital. She has been convalescing satisfactorily, members of the family said the first of this week.

Rotary Club Executives-Elect To Meet In District Assembly

Presidents and secretaries-elect of 40 Rotary Clubs in northwest Texas will gather in Floydada Tuesday and Wednesday of next week for the 123rd District Assembly. It was announced this week by President Jimmy Wilson of the host Floydada Club.

Sessions will be held at the First Baptist Church chapel.

The assembly is a day of intensive study and preparation on the part of officers-elect for the duties which will become theirs on July 1. Registration will begin Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at Builders Mart, 111 North Wall Street, with Jimmy Wilson in charge.

Wednesday morning's program will start at 9:00 a. m. in the chapel of the Baptist Church. Rigdon Edwards, district governor, will open the session with his address "Why We Are Here."

During the morning and afternoon sessions forums with question and answer periods will be directed by the past district governors. They are Jerry Debenport, Odessa, Roy Wells, Lubbock, Alton Chapman, Floydada, Grady Habert, Crowell, Lloyd Wicks Sr., Ralls and J. M. Willson Sr., Floydada.

At the noon hour a luncheon for the Floydada Rotary Club and the district assembly will be held. Grady Habert will deliver the address "The Shoe Fits."

At 3:30 o'clock Wednesday group work will begin with Edwards, Debenport, Wells, and McLoughlin of Ralls in charge.

The closing address will be at 4:35 o'clock by Rex Webster, district governor elect.

Faces Getting That New Look

Interest is still mounting in the Floyd County Beard growth, as men are beginning to get more attention daily. Women are actually taking a second look, and it takes a second look sometimes to see who it is.

"You must continue wearing your tie each day or be subject to a 25c fine and a crutch will be produced that day's exemption," says the Lions committee.

Any Lions Club member will have the crutches. Proceeds will go to the Lions Club sponsored Crippled Childrens Camp. All Lions members must wear their ties along with their beard, or be subject to fine and crutch, is the rule.

Stress C of C Support; Need More Members

Marking Chamber of Commerce Week in Texas the Floydada Chamber of Commerce opened its annual membership campaign on Monday.

Through mail and personal contacts the local organization hopes to add enough new members this week and next to meet a proposed increased budget and to more adequately finance present Chamber of Commerce activities.

The small increases proposed for 1936 include aid to Floyd County Girls' 4-H Club projects, an area trade survey, a small fund for park improvements and summer recreation, and more financial backing for the annual Christmas program and community decorations.

Projects already on the chamber's program of work include:

Backing for the annual Floyd County 4-H and FFA Junior Pat Stock Show, the fall Floyd County soil tour barbecue.

A COUNTY-WIDE First Bale of Cotton prize.

And a boy's summer baseball fund.

Work on trade promotions, farm labor, highways and farm to market roads, community and county beautification, street paving projects, and aid to industrial development of the county also plays an important part in the chamber's program.

Since the first of the year the Chamber of Commerce has sponsored a community clinic in February, was one of the sponsors for the three-day Junior Pat Stock Show and held the annual membership banquet in March.

It also sponsored a beautification campaign in which over one thousand water melon red grape myrtle were sold in Floydada and surrounding communities and brought the Texas Fine Arts Association Circuit Art Exhibit to Floydada in April.

Numerous committee meetings in planning the chamber's work on a summer recreation program, civic improvements, agriculture and livestock, retail trade, industry and new business, and health and safety, have been held in recent weeks.

E. C. Carter is president of the 1936 Board of Directors elected by the 175 Chamber of Commerce members in January. Mitchell Parrish is vice-president. Gene Collins Jr. is treasurer.

Other board members include Tate Jones, Everett Perry, Clinton Pyffe, Olin Bryant, Fred Martin, Carl Minor Sr., Cecil Hagood, Arthur Wylie Jr., Gene Arwine, W. E. Grimes, O. M. Watson, J. M. Willson, Lewis Norman and T. L. Holland Jr.

Jet Plane Crash Fatal to Brother Of Mrs. Roberson

Henry T. Parsons, 29-year-old brother of Mrs. Emory Roberson of Floydada, died in a jet plane crash in South Carolina Tuesday. Parsons was pilot of a jet which crashed head on in the air with another jet which had two men aboard.

The deceased was born at Kalgary in Crosby County on January 19, 1927. He was a first lieutenant and was stationed at Shaw Air Force Base in South Carolina near where the crash occurred. He had been in the military service for 12 years.

The airman was survived by his wife and father J. L. Parsons, his stepmother, two sisters, Mrs. Joe Pierce of Albuquerque, N. M., and Mrs. Emory Roberson of Floydada, four stepbrothers and one stepniece.

J. L. Parsons, father of the deceased, lived in the Cedar Hill community in the years 1946-47. Services are pending.

Floydada FFA Members Seek State Degree

Seven members of the Floydada FFA Chapter are candidates for the state farmers degree and have applications already submitted to the district headquarters in Lubbock.

These boys are Pete Johnson, Norman Davis, Jim Womack, Alton Higginbotham, Gene Lowrance, Joe Noland and Steele Deavenport.

Applications of these candidates, if approved in Lubbock, must then go to Austin and if approved there the boys will be eligible for a trip to Dallas to be honored with a program and receive their degree. Only a limited number of FFA boys receive this honor.

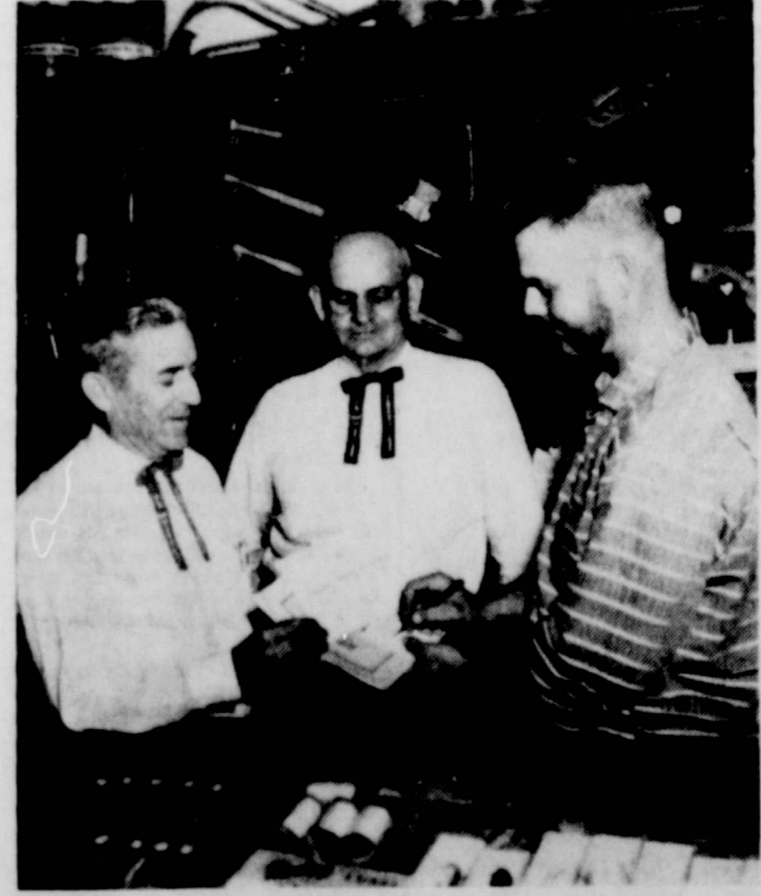

Instructors in the agriculture department of Floydada High School are Henry Barber and James Carroll.

May 25 Named As Graduation Day At Andrews Ward

Graduation day at R. C. Andrews Ward School, which had been announced previously as May 28, will instead be May 25, principal A. W. Coltharp, said this week.

The exercises will be held at the high school auditorium as planned and will begin at 8 o'clock, as formerly announced. Only change is the date.

The change in graduation day at the school came about because the date conflicts with Founders Day in Floyd County, celebration for which is being planned for Monday, May 28.

Membership Drive. Floydada Chamber of Commerce, in a concerted drive for new members, is celebrating Chamber of Commerce week. Here is seen J. B. Bishop, left, as he takes a membership pledge from Johnnie Roberts, a new business man in the community. Center, looking on, is Harmon W. Roberts, father of Johnnie.

Mrs. Alpha Booth of Amarillo, one of the week and stated that she had not received any word as to when their son's crash home.

Cheryl's Chatter
(about events at Floydada High)

What a time everyone had in Austin! The play did very well to win second and they should all be congratulated. Joe Smalley, Vanda Carter and Fontaine Fowler were chosen to be on the All-Star Cast. Our play (Class A) was Thursday, Class B on Friday, and Class AA on Saturday.

The plays on Saturday night were wonderful, and everyone who went to see them had some real entertainment.

Beth Crawford, Nancy Jenkins and Fontaine Fowler did not place in typing, shorthand, and declaiming, but we're proud of them for going STATE!

Friday morning all the boys in the play cast got their hair shined. They also wore "Bermudas" and what fun they had swimming. Virginia Taylor, Beth Crawford, and I also had fun at the track meet — Beth is slightly blistered!

The band is having elections for officers of the coming year. There will be four officers: Captain (senior), 1st Lt. (junior), 2nd Lt. (sophomore), and Sgt. at Arms (freshman). Saturday is the day for another trip to Leveland! Good luck!

The Seniors will leave on their trip Friday afternoon. They will go to the Ozarks in Southern Missouri. The Seniors will be back in school next Wednesday. All the seniors are really looking forward to this! The Senior Edition of the "Whirl" will be published Friday, so bring your money.

Beth Crawford and Carolyn Williams are already busy making plans for the annual and school paper for next year.

Daters at Austin were Snow Drop Dunn and Elva Lawrence, Vanda Carter and Caroli Gouza, Fontaine Fowler and Robert Stovall. Seen around P.H.S. were Judy Jackson and Gary Hackabee, Sherre Darden and Windred West, Gaynelle Boothe and Jerry Chapman, Nancy Tye and Norman Davis, Nancy Meredith and Weidon Pruitt, Kay Callaway and Bob Weik, Kay Robertson and Randall Jones, Susan Johnson and Billy Keeling, Ann Jones and David Mount, Donnie Young and Lynn Raley, Bethie Wilson and Don Barber, Virginia Day and Harvey Allen, Gene Lawrence and Thelma Ferguson.

LaJuana Womack is in the hospital recovering from an appendectomy. Get well soon! Keith Armstrong is also back in school. He went to Minneapolis last week to be with his parents.

Well, that winds it up for now! About 11 more school days! —Cheryl Coming Sunday Morning. The chapel choir of the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary will sing for the First Baptist congregation Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock hour, it was announced last week before his departure for Tyler by Dr. R. Earl Allen. The group is talented and widely in demand throughout the southwest.

The Mothers Day program of the First Baptist Church will be held Sunday evening under the auspices of the Training Union instead of Sunday morning with the Sunday School in charge of the planning.

The change in the hour for the Mothers Day observance is due to changes after commitments had been made for the appearance of the Golden Gate Seminary singing group and the date for the high school baccalaureate. Dr. Allen, the pastor, said.

Dr. Vernon Shaw will bring the message for the evening, and the service will emphasize the influence of the Christian home.

Dr. Allen will be in a revival at Trinity Baptist Church in Tyler for the week beginning Monday, May 17, and extending through the May 17, Mothers Day. He and his family will leave Floydada Sunday afternoon by plane to keep that appointment.

MRS. H. L. MARBLE arrived home from her sisters, Mrs. John Burnett, of Weatherford on Wednesday afternoon by bus. She reports her father's condition remains about the same. H. L. Marble also came home from the hospital that day, where he had been with a severe bout of the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortenberry went to Vigo Park to have dinner and spend the afternoon with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hutton, last Sunday. Her mother, Mrs. N. C. McCain came home with them to spend the week here visiting in the Fortenberry home.

CHURCH ITEMS: Due to final examinations at Wayland College for Rev. Larry Paus, the Baptist revival has been postponed tentatively until June 24 - July 1. Vacation bible school will be held two weeks after school is out, which is May 25. Paus is the meeting place for the Workers Conference on May 18, at 9:00 p. m. on Wednesday next Sunday is Mother's Day, and the offering will go for hospitals and assistance to the aged.

Mrs. H. S. Calahan Jr. was hostess in her home on Thursday morning at 9:30 for a Stanley party with Mrs. K. Crouch of Floydada in charge of the games and showing of the Stanley products. At the close of the party Mrs. Calahan served refreshments of cinnamon rolls, coffee cake, coffee to Misses Thomas Pierce, John Key West, Zach Cummings Jr., Kendall Cummings, Chester Hidalgo, Loyd Deavenport, Sylvie Kinnibrugh, Murray Julian, Zach Cummings Sr., Carl Smith and Hilburn Casey.

Bryan Karr kept Vassie Beth Faus a few days last week while she was ill. Her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Larry Paus attend Wayland college and could not take her while she was suffering with a bad throat.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClure went to Snyder Monday evening to spend the night with her mother, Mrs. R. W. Newman. They all plan to leave for Dallas on Wednesday. There Mrs. Newman will go by train to Greenboro, N. C., to visit Mrs. McClure's sister, Mrs. R. L. Younts and family. The McClures visited on Thursday in Crosbyton with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don McClure and girl.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS by Mrs. Milton was a feature of the South Plains Parent-Teachers meeting on Friday afternoon, with a musical program given by Mrs. Yeary's pupils, Barbara Sue Milton, Yvonne Karr, Eddie Parks, Louise Pritchett, and Sharon Taylor. Officers were installed as follows:

Mrs. Roy Bledsoe, president; Mrs. Kendall Cummings, vice-president; secretary, Mrs. Sylvie Kinnibrugh; treasurer, Mrs. Murray Julian. Mrs. Bledsoe announced the following: Mrs. J. K. West, publicity chairman; year book, Mrs. Bryant Hagginsbotham; hospitality, Mrs. John Wilson; and program chairman, Mrs. O. T. Hewitt.

The last of school picnic will be held in Plainview at the park on May 25, and all those going should be at the school house by 9 a. m. with a lunch basket and drinks for his family.

Mrs. Albert Stewart was unanimously elected lunch room dietitian for the coming year. We all realize that the work of feeding the body of growing children is as important to physical development as teaching is to the development of the children's minds.

Room count was won by Mrs. Smith's room. Twenty-six were present for the meeting. Mrs. Wendell Johnson was a new P-TA member.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pierce and children were hosts at Sunday dinner after church to friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Calahan Jr., Diane, Vicki and Cathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClure were hosts after church on Sunday to their pastor, Rev. Larry Paus, Mrs. Faus, Vassie Beth and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Grigsby Milton and Barbara Sue; Mr. and Mrs. Murray Julian, Terry, Kendis and Bruce, and Jimmie Pritchett. They all spent the afternoon enjoying a bountiful chicken dinner at noon and looking at movies the McClures had taken on previous trips.

MRS. GEORGE WEAST went to Amarillo on Friday to take her granddaughters, Sandra Smith and Sharon Evans on an educational tour of Dallas. Several cars of sixth grade pupils from Texline, Dalhart, Dumas and Amarillo left by train at 11 o'clock on Friday night from Amarillo, arriving in Dallas Saturday where their itinerary included bus trips to the amusement park, museum, Dallas News Building, zoo, state park, best residential district of Dallas, cinema and SMU campus where they were all served refreshments.

Mrs. West was in charge of four girls. They arrived back in Amarillo Sunday morning. She drove home on Sunday evening. George Weast spent the week end at home, and had dinner on Sunday with the Robt. Lee Smiths of Sterley.

LIBRARY NEWS

(By Mrs. Lee G. Goughly)

"Make your own outdoor sports equipment" by John Lacey, contains step-by-step diagrams and full instructions for twenty varied projects. The information in each project is clear and easy to follow, and the author provides hundreds of hints for economical building. There are instructions on how to make a pogo stick, four kites, sidewalk scooter, sidewalk sail boat, simple row-boat and other sports equipment.

Also new in the library is "Over His Own Signature" by Leslie D. Weatherhead. Taking the passages of the New Testament in which Jesus is reported to have said "I am . . .", Dr. Weatherhead presents a biography of Jesus Christ.

Defense Might Is Major Issue For Decision

WASHINGTON, May 10 — Congress passed on Thursday of this week the $33 billion military appropriation bill, the largest money bill in many ways the most important piece of legislation of the entire year.

The bill, authored by Rep. George Mahon of the 19th District of Texas, who is Chairman of the House Subcommittee on Military Appropriations, provides the funds for defense of the United States for the fiscal year which begins July 1. Mahon has presided over continuous hearings on the defense budget since Jan. 23. The testimony gathered from top Defense Department officials and others runs over 6,500 pages.

In debate on the bill on the floor of the House of Representatives Wednesday, Mahon said, "By reason of the fast-growing, long-range Russian heavy jet bomber fleet and other factor, this country is subject to the greatest peril that it has ever been subjected to in its history."

He told the Congress the United States is standing on the threshold of a desperately important decision. "What we must decide in the next few months is whether we are to engage in a greatly expanded all-out arms race with Russia or are we to permit the Soviets to overhaul and surpass us in military might. If we do not step up our present program, Soviet Russia will overtake and pass us in the next two or three years."

THE STORM surrounding the Defense appropriations bill this year centers on the giant B-52 jet bomber program and the development of the deadly intercontinental ballistic missile. The ICBM, as the missile is known, when perfected, would be capable of delivering an atomic warhead within a 5,000 mile range in a matter of minutes. Defense against it is questionable.

Mahon told the Congress there is at least a 50-50 chance the Russians will beat us to the draw in producing the first ICBM; however, the military bill provides all the money the Defense Department can properly spend on the missile program in the forthcoming year.

"While Russia may produce the first such missile, neither country will probably be able to perfect, develop and produce the ICBM in quantity within five years," Mahon said.

Air Force Secretary Donald Quarles told the Subcommittee during the course of the hearings that the U.S. has the know-how and the skill to produce the ICBM and that success is largely a matter of time.

A TOTAL of $5 billion, which includes funds previously appropriated, has been provided for the B-52 program which has been the subject of a great deal of recent controversy. Mahon pointed out that Boeing Aircraft Company, which makes the planes, now has some $2 billion in backlog orders, and he did not favor funds in addition to those carried in the bill at this time.

Concerning the bill, Mahon said, "It is vital that we must stay ahead of any potential enemy in quality." He indicated it was his feeling that the U.S. is slightly ahead, but he agreed the Soviets are ahead of America in ground forces and are in the process of surpassing us in the number of planes on hand. The 400 Russian submarines pose no small threat to the United States, he added.

"We are moving toward a greater reliance on the quality of our weapons rather than on the matter of matching the Soviets in the matter of numbers," Mahon said.

THE CONGRESSMAN, who has a major role in controlling the purse strings of our armed forces, pointed out in House debate that funds in the bill were not adequate to guarantee that the Soviets would not surpass us in the arms race. He said Defense officials insist that, unless even larger sums are appropriated next year for the Defense Department, we will lag behind the Russians.

"We have to make up our minds in the next 12 months whether we want to concentrate on a smaller and what we hope will be a more effective force and permit the Russians to surpass us in numbers of planes," he said.

The appropriation bill is on the list of legislation which Congress passes each year. In other words, it is "must" legislation. Its next step will be to the Senate where modifications and amendments will be made and then it will be taken up by a joint House and Senate Committee before it goes to the White House.

Share The Fun Contest Held Tuesday Night

A team of three South Plains girls, members of the Floydada Senior 4-H Club, ranked highest of four teams in a Share the Fun Festival contest held Tuesday night and was awarded first place and the right to represent the county in a district meet to be held Saturday.

This team, composed of Donita Milton, June Marble and Juanell Wood, made 91 points out of a possible 100.

Judging was done on talent, showmanship, audience reception and costumes.

The second place team, representing Lockney Grade School 4-H Club, scored 86 points. On this team were Cheryl Rucker, Jonita Ferguson, Karen Aston, Jane Reynolds, Carolyn Belt and Judy Anderson.

Lockney Senior 4-H Club, with a score of 83, ranked third. This team had Keith Carthel, Jimmy Howell, Patricia Buchanan, Sonna Baughman, Max Marble, Dan Smith, O-yama Buchanan and Patricia Gray as entertainers.

Scoring 76 points out of a possible 100, was Lockney Junior 4-H Club, with Raye Watson, Joy Morrison, Linda Mae Elam, Virginia Hardgrove, Linda Cooper, Verna McDonald, Judge Thomas, Patsy Elam, Anita Cooper and Judy Smith.

The contest was held in the county council room of the court house, with Fred Johnson of SCS work unit, and Mrs. Elaine Reid as judges.

The Extension service was represented by Mrs. Harriette Brummett, Bill G. Rodgers, Lynn P. Pittard, and adult leaders, Mrs. Henry Bollman, Mrs. Raymond Rucker, Mrs. Ray Aston and Mrs. Raymond Watson of Lockney.

Charter Lockney Toastmaster Club
LOCKNEY — District Governor W. C. Scott of Lubbock presented the charter to the Lockney Toastmasters Club in a ladies' night meeting of the club the last Thursday evening in April at the high school auditorium.

In a candle light setting, President John Powell, presided over the meeting attended by some 60 members and wives and out-of-town guests.

The Extension service was represented by Mrs. Harriette Brummett, Bill G. Rodgers, Lynn P. Pittard, and adult leaders, Mrs. Henry Bollman, Mrs. Raymond Rucker, Mrs. Ray Aston and Mrs. Raymond Watson of Lockney.

Ladies may also register for a free dress to be given away at 3:30 p. m. on the same date. Registrants need not make purchase or be present to win.

One-Act Cast Places Second
The Floydada one-act play was awarded second place at the 46th annual state interscholastic league meet held on the University of Texas campus last week-end.

Elected to the all-star cast from Floydada were Vanda Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carter, Fontaine Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fowler and Joe Smalley, son of Mrs. A. W. Coltharp.

Besides the all star cast winners in the play were Dennis Whitfill, Elvis and Melvis Lowrance, Max Crawford, Jerry Coltharp, Virginia Taylor and Darlene Dorrell.

Softball Mgrs. Meet Again On Friday Night

Encouraging indications point to the formation of a softball home and home game league for the area soon, but there are no definite announcements to be made in regard to the matter at the moment, save and except that the managers of Silverton, Farmer, McCoy, Floydada Merchants and City of Floydada teams will confer here Friday night and see what the developments have been in the week.

The talks at last week's meeting were round table in nature, said Wayne Cooper Monday. He said Lone Star, Lockney, Halls and South Plains teams are considering whether they will make a bid for inclusion in the league.

Several lighted fields might make it possible for the formation of a Crosby-Floyd-Briscoe League.

Friday night's meeting will be in the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock. This meeting is likely to have an important bearing on the manner in which softball activity shapes up for the area this summer.

SOMETHING NEW Live Models Grace Windows
Rush Wheeler of the local J. C. Penney Store announced something new for Floydada this week. Live models will grace the Penney store windows on Saturday afternoon from 2:00 until 3:30 when six beautiful young ladies will model sports wear and dresses.

Included in the group will be Darlene Laminack, Pat Hickerson, Mary Cogdell, Sonja Beth Wilson, Gayle Baxter and D'lene Witkowski.

Ladies may also register for a free dress to be given away at 3:30 p. m. on the same date. Registrants need not make purchase or be present to win.

Job Safety Week At Post Office
Postmaster Edward Wester said this week that the local postal forces have been alerted to the necessity of safety consciousness in their work by a letter from Postmaster General Brownell, calling attention to Job Safety Week, May 12-19.

"The Post Office Department as the country's largest employer must not only safeguard our own employees, but serve as an example to others," said Mr. Brownell. "By one week of concerted effort, constant alertness and safety consciousness let us leave no room for any doubt that occupational injuries in the Postal Services Service are as unnecessary as they are unwanted."

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cook returned Tuesday night from Lawton, Okla., where they had been since the week end with Mr. Cook's father, O. I. Cook, of Snyder. The elder Cook was stricken with a heart attack Saturday and was hospitalized at Lawton. Apparently he had survived the first crisis and was in fair condition when the Floydada family left the hospital.

Early printers got mad when rivals stole their trademarks. When an imprinter copied his famous Dolphin device, Aldus Manutius (1450-1515) paid his respects to the offender by saying, "His type characters are defective, his consonants do not align with his vowels." But the most unkind cut was contained in these words: "His paper is inferior and even has a foul odor."

In 1972 a man named "R.H." got out a book titled "GHOSTS AND GHOSTLY TYPING BY NIGHT." It was a typographical error, but a bad one for the printer. He accused the printer of being an honest man. In the end, the printer was here, pardoned. The Cople was somewhat "tender." Oh, that all authors be fair!

Spe

Stage Contest Of Teen-Agers With Tractors

Bob Dempsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Dempsey of Floydada, won the 4-H club tractor operator contest held Saturday. Dempsey is a member of the Floydada Senior 4-H Club and finished the event with a score of 253 out of a possible 300.

Dempsey won over 10 boys entered. He drove a Case 300 to the championship. The driving school was made possible by the cooperation of Floydada implement dealers and the County Agricultural Agent. Dealers taking part along with their tractors were King Tractor and Motor, Ford, S. J. Latta, M-M, L. C. McDonald, A-C, Stansell-Collins Co., John Deere, Witkowski Implement Co., Case, Floydada Implement Co., Massey-Harris, and Martin & Co. International.

Boys participating in the meet were Johnny Witkowski, Dale Newberry, Billy Don Colston, Curtis Sanders, Warren Mitchell, Dove Stephens, Bob Dempsey, Ray McDonald, Maurice Ginn, and Don Smith.

Judges were Pete Nash of the Soil Conservation Service and Lynn P. Pittard, Assistant County Agent.

CONTESTANTS WERE scored on three phases of work in determining the winner. Covered were tractor inspection and safety, written test on tractor care and maintenance, and a driving test which included backing a two-wheel trailer into a narrow marked lane. Dempsey literally backed himself into the championship with the skillful maneuvering of tractor and trailer.

Finishing in second place was Dove Stephens with a score of 250, and close behind him were Johnny Witkowski and Curtis Sanders. Only one contestant failed to score more than 200 points.

Dempsey will enter the Lubbock meet at Texas Tech on May 12. The champion of this meet will go to state sometime in June where the winner will be eligible for a trip to Chicago and possibly a valuable scholarship or some other worthwhile prize.

important of having served you in this important office and the cooperation which you have given me and all the officers of the district. Together we have all made a record of which we can be proud; crime has not increased these last few years in the four counties of this district as it has throughout the rest of the State and the nation. For a number of years now crime has been at its lowest level of history in our district, and I think that is a record in which we can all take pride.

I admit to you in complete franchise that I have tried harder to salvage young men and boys and make good citizens of them than I have to make convicts of them. That is a policy which I know you have wanted me to follow, and that is a policy which I shall follow if re-elected.

I AM HAPPY to report to you that in almost every case we have succeeded; in a few cases we have failed, of course, and those cases have broken my heart, but I am still glad that we have tried. The many, many cases where we have succeeded make the effort more than worth while. But I have prosecuted vigorously where the circumstances demanded it, and I shall continue to do so.

I feel that I am now in my prime as a lawyer and that that fact, together with the experience I have had in the office, enable me to serve you better in the future. I shall appreciate from the deep of my heart all that you may do in my behalf.

Sincerely,
John B. Stapleton.

Floydada Boys Win Second At Tule Camporee

Boy Scout Troop 57 of Floydada took second place in the district camporee at Lake Tule. The meet was held Friday night and Saturday with 13 or more troops taking part. Matador Troop was the only one to score higher than the local boys.

Gayle Mayo, Jewel Elm, and Johnny Moss accompanied the boys to Lake Tule where the outing was held. Twenty-one members of the troop attended.

The boys took two blue ribbons, one for scoring over 700 points and the other for excellence in performance of the events.

The troop was judged on 10 events: fire with flint and steel; signaling; first aid; nature; judging height and distance; tent pitching; compass reading; swimming safely; boiling water in 8 minutes; knot tying.

The Floydada and Matador troops will enter the council camporee at Lubbock Friday and Saturday as the second phase of competition.

Convention Held By Grain Dealers

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edwards, Carl Nelson and Troy Leonard attended the 49th annual two-day convention of the Panhandle Grain and Feed Dealers Assn. held at the Caprock Hotel in Lubbock.

Monday morning's session opened with J. C. Ledwig, of Groon, association president, presiding. The grainmen heard addresses by two Washington officials, Lloyd Case, director, grain division of the Commodity Stabilization Service, spoke on some of the problems in handling and moving commodity stocks in reference to the export of grains and W. L. Brooks, executive secretary, National Grain Trade Council, spoke on the grain situation today.

On Tuesday morning the group heard T. J. McFarland, district manager, High Plains Underground Water Conservation District, speak as well as Frank White, traveling representative for Burrus Mills.

Mrs. Edwards attended a women's brunch and program Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Picklin, enroute from Florida to a new home at Tacoma, Wash., were here for a short time this past week, guests of her mother, Mrs. Bob Smith and Mr. Smith.

County Ranked 7th In State In Dollar Income

Floyd County ranked seventh in the State of Texas in the value of farm products sold in the year of 1954 and five other high plains counties ranked in the first 10 in the state, a dispatch from Washington, D. C., the latter part of last week revealed.

The figures are based on a preliminary report issued by the Bureau of Census of the Department of Commerce.

Floyd County's 1184 farms sold $28,397,872 (millions) worth of products in that year, census figures show.

These figures include $26,855,466 for field crops, $659 for fruits and nuts, $64,420 for vegetables and $35,500 for horticultural specialties.

The value of all live stock and livestock products sold was $1,502,438 and included $74,510 for dairy products, $70,663 for poultry and poultry products, and $1,357,263 for livestock products.

The report covers each county in the state. It reveals the fact that only Hidalgo and Cameron Counties in the Rio Grande Valley and Nueces County on the coast got into the first 10 for production.

Hale County leads the state with $50,826,307 grand total, Lubbock is second with $48,862,502. Lamb takes fifth place with $37,347,131.

Eighth, ninth and tenth places went to Haskell, Parmer and Castro Counties.

Of the Gulf Coast and Rio Grande Valley counties, Hidalgo placed sixth, Cameron fourth and Nueces third.

Coffmans Sell Barwise Gin

H. G. Watts of Blanco and the new owners of the Barwise double gin plant at Barwise.

Negotiations for the purchase of the gin, which had been going on several weeks, were closed Wednesday night of last week. It was announced by Watts and Jack Coffman, the latter with his father established the plant at Barwise and have been operating it. The capacity of the gin plant was increased by the addition of a second complete gin three years ago.

Watts will move from the farm he has operated at Blanco since 1947 to the gin residence within a short time when it is vacated by the Jack Coffman family, he said last week.

The Coffmans will still have extensive farming interests here but Jack Coffman said he did not plan to do any farming himself. Probability is that they will return to Goce, where the family has a gin and elevator plant.

Coffman said last week that they are also getting out of the gin business at Tahoka. They recently traded their plant there for a dairy at Gainesville.

Watts of the new firm is already extensively interested in the gin business at Lockney.

Join Up Vegetable Council

Floyd County has elected Gene Probst as its first president. The next step is to organize the county vegetable council. Everyone interested will wish to be a member of the county council. It is for help in the vegetable business. If we are to have a plant free of disease and with a large yield of selection, we must have a vegetable council. years by a Dr. Joe Fulton of Fayetteville, Ark. One of the three growers of the plants is the Conner Co., Augusta, Ark. You can order your plants direct from them. The blue tag plants are $12 per thousand from Augusta.

There is no profit to me on this deal. I am only trying to help farmers get the best plants. The sooner they are set out now the more plants you will grow for next May harvest.

If any other information is needed contact me and I will be glad to be helpful.

I WOULD BE GLAD to see some farmer plant five acres and get nearly rich. Then others could see what I mean.

He should be able to sell one thousand dollars worth of plants per acre, besides the berries.

He could keep a picking crew employed continuously. They must be picked about every other day.

He does not eat anything better than strawberries and cream or shortcake and they sell at a big price. Fifty cents per quart retail.

Our long look for Floyd County is a quick freeze plant for marketing vegetables and berries.

You are for this kind of program for Floyd County as soon as you understand.

(By Mrs. Clyde Bagwell)

FAIRVIEW, May 8 — Some of the farmers who have irrigation wells have planted cotton. Others are planting this week. All dry land farmers are hoping it will rain in time to plant.

Word was received in the community Sunday of the death of Ralph Zauchery at his home in Santa Paula, Calif., Friday night. Ralph at one time lived here. His wife is the former Ouida Crabtree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Crabtree, formerly of this community. The community takes this means of expressing sympathy to the family in their time of sorrow.

Everyone in the county was shocked Monday to learn of the sudden passing of J. G. Wood, a Floydada business man, who died at his home Sunday night. Our sympathy is with the loved ones in their hour of great sorrow.

Mrs. G. M. Bullard returned home Sunday from Lubbock where she had been for a week visiting relatives. Her son Gordon accompanied her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Benton Ritchey of Lubbock were in the community Sunday and visited in the C. H. Wise home.

Mrs. C. W. Payne and Mrs. S. H. Tackett along with several other ladies from the City Park Church of Christ in Floydada visited the children's home at Lubbock last Tuesday. The ladies also had their Bible study while at the home. One of the ladies there taught the lesson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Denison and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Walls and granddaughter Brenda visited Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bagwell Friday night.

Assembly of God Church Announces Revival Meeting

Sunday night May 13, Rev. M. H. Mooberry will begin a revival meeting at the Assembly of God Church in Floydada. Rev. Mooberry is a graduate of Southwestern Bible Institute, located at Waxahachie. He will be speaking on subjects that will be of interest to all people.

This meeting in cooperation with the general council of the Assemblies of God Church, with general offices in the city of Springfield, Mo., in which there will be a simultaneous revival in the Assemblies of God Churches over this great nation of ours.

As a church movement we are praying for a revival to sweep this great nation and over the entire world.

The public is cordially invited to attend this revival meeting and to come and worship with the Assembly of God Church in their new building.

Several days last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Walls and with her cousin, Larry Jean Walls.

All who are not attending mid-week services at the church are missing a real treat. The pastor, Rev. Albert Hinckley is leading us in a real interesting study of the book of Romans.

A precinct convention was held Saturday afternoon at the parsonage.

The convention was called to order by Lee Rushing who is precinct chairman. The voters present elected Lee Rushing chairman for the convention and Mrs. Clyde Bagwell as secretary. Shirley W. Irwin was elected delegate and Lee Rushing as alternate to go to the county convention today (Tuesday) held at the county court house at 2 p. m. Voters at the convention Saturday voted to endorse Senator Lyndon B. Johnson to head the Texas delegation and as favorite son candidate.

There were 11 voters present Saturday at the meeting here.

Rural Mail Box Improvement Week Also Cleanup Date

"Rural Mail Box Improvement week, May 21-26, will also be used by the Floydada Post Office as cleanup week by making the post office as clean and attractive as possible," said Acting Postmaster Edward Wester, this week.

He said the week will be used as general cleanup by disposing of obsolete forms, unserviceable equipment, trash, waste materials and personal property items surplus to our needs.

Continuing Wester said: We will continue the painting of relay and collection boxes that we were unable to finish in the fall.

Clement McDonald is cooperating in the cleanup and beautification program by water-proofing the planter box and planting shrubbery, one Japonica, 4 Nandinas, 4 Phytolias and one Dwarf Juniper, which will beautify the building the year around.

IEWS AND COMMENT

Kids Are Interested. Maybe Floydada kids won't be so sold on organized play when they get a little older, but they certainly are jumping at the chance to play ball at the tender ages 9 to 12. This was evidenced last Friday when nearly 200 of the youngsters flocked to the playing field to talk it over and get in a few preliminary practice plays. It was at the call of the adults. Boys like action and doing things. Their elders have come up with a good idea.

Somewhat doubtful is the status of the newspaper when a political advertisement is submitted for publication, except directly from the candidate himself and signed by him. Whether or not the newspaper is responsible for checking records and the office of the Secretary of State to see if the person offering the advertisement is authorized by a campaign manager or his assistant to do so is a question not yet answered by the courts. The Texas Press Association, just off the hook on a proceeding that also jeopardized its secretary, says to members "it is only fair to warn you" to be careful. There is no likelihood of "getting in a jam" unless somebody becomes disgruntled over the outcome of an election and picks the publisher up on a technicality. Things like that happen. The doubt applies to all kinds of elections, amendments, charters and other "issue" elections, the same as to personal politics. Generally it is the hurry-up, last minute ad from a zealous partisan that gets the newspaperman in Dutch.

Action on Farm Bill in the past 10 days, so far as a vote on the floor of the congress is concerned has been delayed by the fact that numerous senators and representatives have been in political battles back in their home state primaries. Half a dozen or more important state primaries have been fought out in the past week or will be this week. Work is continuing in committees on the bill, however, and the Congress will present the president with some kind of a bill soon. One of the areas of contention at the moment is the big disparity in the support that is indicated for corn as contrasted with the support of grain sorghums. The Farm Bureau Federation and other organizations interested in the southwestern picture think the disparity is too great and are insisting that something should be done about it before the bill becomes law.

Showers Did Help. Wheat men and row crop people in general declare the showers of two weeks ago did help. The changed outlook for wheat is pronounced in many fields. Not to say that dry land wheat is going to make a big crop it is encouraging to see that some fields are heading nicely and should do well.

Wild Flower Crop. Come old settlers day the wild flower crop will be important to the decorations for the dinner that is given to honor the oldsters. Whether the April showers were sufficient to bring May flowers is to be seen. Out on the prairies nature has a way of doing much with little when needs be, and the old settlers may see the wild flowers on their tables as usual.

That spring had arrived definitely was seen several days ago when the mesquites and the red ants made their appearance. Native to the area neither is often wrong. Another interesting thing about mesquites that is being learned is that the species is aggressive and will "take" an area if allowed to do so. There are millions of acres once a part of the open prairie when the Indians left the country that the mesquites are battling successfully to take in the last quarter of a century. The cattle people will tell you it has been an expensive, uphill fight they have been making against the mesquites on the ranges.

The turn that politics in Texas may now take is yet to be unfolded by the march of events. The team of Rayburn and Johnson is well in the saddle and will have their own way in the presidential state convention. The hand of Speaker Rayburn will be greatly strengthened in the national convention of the party. He already has been cast in the major role of chairman of the convention. Chief difficulty of Texas Democrats will be in the majority rule which gives the splinter groups a club to use in deliberations of the leaders and in the vote on the floor. Perhaps neither Mr. Johnson nor Mr. Rayburn expect their jobs to be anything but difficult in the next several months. They do have the backing of a hard core of supporters from their home state, which is important to their success.

Governor Shivers has often said that "they don't pay for second place" in a political battle and bowed himself out of the picture, so far as politics is concerned for the immediate future. He will not attempt any elective office nor accept any appointive political office this year. This relieves Price Daniel of any implied entangling alliances so far as his race for governor is concerned. This spikes the charge that he will appoint Shivers United States Senator if and when he is successful in his race for governor.

Under the unit rule, which most county organizations in the Democratic party use in conventions, Senator Johnson should have upward of 1,200 committed votes in the state convention. Only a vote or two difference marked the majority of the Johnson-Rayburn faction in many precincts over the state. The unit rule serves the useful purpose of consolidating the winner's support.

Why In Texas Only? In Texas Democratic circles we don't persuade them, we make them. It was that way 40 years ago, is now, and probably will be 40 years hence. Why do we have to be that way in our state? How one could be expected to bind his November conscience in May or July we do not know, especially when one does not know what he is being bound to do. We'd like much better the persuasion of men's minds. It doesn't mean anything in law to take the pledge. But the myth is being carried on and will be. Many honorable men consider it a reasonable thing to do. But everywhere else in the free world they do have to persuade people.

Potatoes would be good property to have this week. Wholesale price is somewhere above the seven-dollar mark. Last summer the growers took less than two dollars. Who ever had the facilities and the capital reaped a pretty fair harvest for carrying the tubers eight or nine months. Or did they? Was the expense too great, the shrinkage or loss too heavy? The point is that one can grow potatoes until the world looks level on the high plains. If one could figure out a good way to save them until the public is ready for them he'd have it made. Same is true of onions, is it not?

Latest Supreme Court ruling told a New York state school board they could not fire a teacher for refusal to answer questions as to his former association with the Communist party. One would think county, city or school district officials could hire and fire anybody they were big enough to hire and fire. Not so, says the high court. Now if we can get a dog catcher case up to the august gentlemen of the black robe we'll pretty well know where we are.

Disorder ranks second only to poor judgment as a cause of accidents. Farms and homes can be made safer and living conditions more pleasant by giving them a thorough spring clean-up. Get rid of accident and fire hazards.

Texas Citrus Has Clean Health Bill

After an intense survey of Rio Grande Valley and Winter Garden Area Citrus, Texas has been given a clean bill of health from the dread burrowing nematode, microscopic parasite which gradually destroys its victim.

The burrowing nematode (Radopholus Similis) is now clearly associated with "Spreading Decline," a gradual but fatal illness which has plagued the Florida citrus industry for 25 years.

Severe damage caused by the 1951 valley freeze is still apparent throughout most of the citrus area, and would mask spreading decline symptoms as they are known in Florida. Thus as a practical matter Texas and United States Departments of Agriculture plant experts conducted a spot survey all over the Texas Citrus Belt, with particular attention to stock originally imported from Florida. In final laboratory analyses, results were negative.

Sampling procedures were the same as those developed in Florida surveys. Samples were collected from near the drip line of the tree at a depth as far as roots would normally be found. Roots from one tree or one location constituted a sample.

Texas citrus is generally grown in a heavy-type soil in which roots do not penetrate to near the depth common to most Florida fruit. Consequently, samples were collected from an average depth of two feet or less by use of a special-built mechanical auger.

No means of combatting the burrowing nematode is known other than complete destruction of infested plants. It is discernible only under careful examination under laboratory conditions and could become widespread before any decline is noted, particularly if plants are suffering from any other natural setback.

Similar tests will be conducted in other citrus growing states to determine if infestation has spread either from Florida or other possible sources. The burrowing nematode is believed present in Fiji, Jamaica, the Hawaiian Islands, Philippine Islands, Formosa, Southern India, Dutch East Indies, Java, Brazil, Puerto Rico and Central America.

Appeals Court Throws Out Penal Provisions In Advertising Code

AUSTIN, Tex., May 2 — The Court of Criminal Appeals today threw out the penal provisions in the Texas Election Code which limited expenditures by individuals toward the election or defeat of a candidate for public office.

In issuing its opinion the court dismissed charges against Vern Sanford, general manager of the Texas Press Association, who had been indicted by a McLennan County Grand Jury on the charge that he had spent $76 for political advertising with two Waco newspapers during the 1954 campaign.

Pointing out that one state law makes excessive expenditures by individuals a felony, while another law makes such expenditures both a felony and a misdemeanor, the court held that this direct conflict between the two laws rendered both laws invalid.

Thus, in the absence of any applicable law on which to base the indictments, the court dismissed the charges against Sanford.

The question of constitutionality of the limitation of expenditures, a point which had been raised by the Texas Press Association on the ground that it infringed upon freedom of speech, was not decided by the court's ruling. In order to rule any law unconstitutional, it is necessary first to have a law. Under the court's opinion, there is no valid penal law on the Texas statute books which governs a person's right concerning such expenditures.

Better Cultivation Pays Off in Yields

The CHAMPION Rotary Cultivator is the best insurance toward a bigger, safer harvest. The flexible sections, with off-set, cross-cut action knocks out weeds, breaks up crust and clods, and saves the moisture for growing crops.

End sections fold up. Coupling is adjustable for close turns. Hitches can be reversed for transport and crust breaking only. Construction is rugged, for years of trouble-free service.

Come in and see for yourself how this CHAMPION Rotary Cultivator will make money for you. It's the cultivating tool that gives your crops a faster, cleaner start to the biggest yields ever.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Melvin Potts, who farms 320 acres in the Irick Community in Floyd County is a firm believer in Soil Conservation practices.

Potts began conservation farming in earnest in 1954. He planted his first vetch crop in the fall of 1954 and followed it with grain sorghum in 1955. Grain sorghum following vetch produced 1369 to 2090 pounds more grain per acre than grain sorghum on land that had no vetch.

He accomplished this with less cultivation and irrigation. He planted grain sorghum when he plowed up the vetch and left most of the vetch residue on or near the surface.

He uses a rotation of one-third vetch. Planting about 100 acres of vetch each year. He interplanted vetch with grain sorghum last year, but plans to use soybeans this year.

He allows the vetch to grow until June 1 and follows it the first year with grain sorghum. He believes vetch should be allowed to grow until June, if maximum benefits are desired. He sows vetch on listed land and, if rain comes in May he plants grain sorghum when he plows up the vetch. He plans to run a tandem disk over the vetch and plant it before planting if no rain is received in May.

Potts follows vetch ground with cotton the second year and expects to get an increase in production. All residues are left on or near the surface to protect the land from wind and water erosion.

In the fall of 1954, Potts did his first 86 acres of field leveling, with the assistance of Soil Conservation Service technicians. He field leveled 45 acres in 1955 and plans more leveling in the future.

To improve his irrigation, by eliminating ditch loss and evaporation, Potts installed 6,940 feet of underground concrete pipe.

The quantity of water used for each irrigation is determined by the needs of the crop and the water holding capacity of the soil.

The water is applied at a rate that crops can use most efficiently. In doing this Potts has achieved irrigation water management on 130 acres of land. In addition he has improved water application on an additional 150 acres by irrigating to meet the needs of soils and crops, and adjusting row length.

Potts plans to continue his conservation program and with the help of Soil Conservation technicians, completed a basic plan of operation for his farm. He uses the plan to guide him in using his land within its capabilities and treating it according to its needs.

News of Dougherty

(By Mrs. W. J. Ross)

DOUGHERTY, May 7 — With the arrival of the planting season, farmers are extra busy. A few have already planted cotton but the majority are waiting for higher soil temperature.

While no one is willing to be quoted as to the wheat at this date, opinion seems to be that dryland wheat is fair with a few fields that are good. Also irrigated wheat is good.

Sue Ring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ring, has been named honor student of the graduating class of the Andrews Ward Grade School. This seems to be a tradition in the Ring family as each of the children were honor students when they completed grade school.

Mrs. Dames Daniel and Cates accompanied their daughters, Julia Ann and Jan to Lubbock May 1 when the girls participated in the National Music Festival. Both girls achieved Superior ratings at this event. They are pupils of Mrs. Pearl Fagan.

Mrs. Katie James of Matador spent the weekend with her grandchildren while her son, Raldo and Mrs. James were on a business trip to Van Horn.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ring and Sue were Sunday dinner guests in the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barbee of Lubbock.

Highlights And Sidelights From the State Capitol

(By Vern Sanford, Texas Press Association)

AUSTIN, Tex. — Texas is buzzing with activity.

Although political squabbles take the headlines, the state's general prosperity affects the average Texan's life more significantly.

In almost all areas — industry, construction, retailing and employment — the graphs are pointing up, up and up. General business activity hit a new record high — 4 per cent above 1955 and 6 per cent above the first quarter of last year.

Texas also is out in front in national comparisons. Estimates of gross national production show a 3 per cent rise for the first quarter of '56. Texas rose 4 per cent.

Retail sales in Texas were up 3 per cent over the first quarter of 1956. Department stores led with 5 to 10 per cent increases.

Texas' increase in industrial activity is regarded as the most significant factor in the overall picture. Business research experts believe that Texas will receive more than its proportionate share of the $34,000,000,000 which industry is expected to spend nationwide on new plants this year.

Contractors are confident they are headed for a record year. April construction totaled $28,000,000 — an increase of $21,000,000 over April of '55.

Employment followed the general upward trend. This, despite drought-crippled farm activity. Latest figures show 2,346,200 wage earners in March. That is 115,000 more than for March of last year.

POLITICS IS BOILING — In bitter precinct battles, Gov. Allan Shivers lost the first skirmish of his long political career. Sen. Lyndon Johnson led all the way in the rural areas. He also won in San Antonio, Houston, Fort Worth and Austin. Of the metropolitan centers, Dallas alone went for Shivers.

Just as the rural vote cost Ralph Yarborough the governorship in 1954, so did the small towns defeat Shivers in 1956. In the final analysis, it was the Country Boy's vote that was the hub of victory.

FARMERS GET NEW HOPE —

Farmers over wide areas of Texas are full of optimism. Long-awaited rains, the heaviest in years, fell in North, Central and East Texas.

However, even where it rained, substantial moisture deficiencies have not been wiped out. But to many farmers the wonderful rains that finally came made them look forward to a good year.

SANFORD CLEARED BY COURT — A decision with far-reaching effect on political advertising expenditures has been handed down by the Court of Criminal Appeals.

The decision was made in connection with an application of Vernon T. Sanford, Texas Press Association manager, for relief from two indictments returned against him by a McLennan Co. Grand Jury. Indictments charged he had violated the Texas Election Code by spending more than $25 for political advertising in behalf of Ben Ramsey for Lt. Governor in 1954.

Sanford and the TPA Board of Directors contended that any law which limits an individual to a $25 expenditure prohibits freedom of expression and therefore is unconstitutional.

In reviewing the matter, the court found that two laws on the same subject were in direct conflict. Each limited advertising to widely different amounts and set different penalties. Therefore both were declared invalid.

Result: Charges against Sanford were dismissed and Texas now has no applicable law regarding political advertising expenditures by an individual.

LABOR LAW AT STAKE — Atty. Gen. John Ben Sheppard was forced into the role of apprehensive spectator in the fight to have Texas' right-to-work law.

He asked, but was refused, U. S. Supreme Court permission to be heard. He did, however, find moral support and advice as Nebraska's attorney general argued in the high court for his state's law.

Nebraska, like Texas and 16 other states, has an anti-closed shop law which unions contend is in conflict with the National Railway Act.

Reason for Sheppard's apprehension is the general belief that Nebraska's case is weaker than Texas' case, which still is tied up in state court.

VEHICLE TAX VOIDED — Special local automobile taxes to finance big city freeway projects are unconstitutional. So ruled the Texas Supreme Court in a case involving Harris County's auto registration tax.

Such taxes must be levied by general laws, said the court.

Dallas County made two tries for such a tax, but voters turned down the proposals.

HUGE ROAD PROGRAM PLANNED — A whopping $150,000,000 road program for 1957-58 is planned by the State Highway Commission.

Anticipation of substantially increased federal funds is behind the ambitious project. Since House passage, approval of the new federal aid bill is regarded as virtually certain.

About half of the 2,161 miles of highway designated for construction work will be of the "super highway" type — four, six and eight lanes.

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer said plans were released early so projects could be placed under contract quickly after final congressional action on the aid bill.

HIGHWAY PATROLMEN sought — Careers as state highway patrolmen are now open for men between 22 and 35 years of age.

A 200-man increase in the patrol was authorized by the last Legislature. State-wide examinations of candidates to bring the corps up to full strength will be held in June.

Applicants must have lived in Texas for a year, have a high school education or equivalent and be in perfect physical condition.

Application forms may be obtained at any district office or by writing W. J. Elliott, chief of the Texas Highway Patrol, Austin.

SHEFFIELD TRIAL MOVED — Brady Land Dealer B. R. Sheffield won the first round in his fight against the veterans land sale charges against him. Dist. Judge Charles O. Betts agreed that Sheffield could not get a fair trial in Travis County and granted a change of venue.

News of Harmony

(By Mrs. Mather Carr)

HARMONY, May 7 — The rain we had last week was really nice. Just what we needed. We had 9 that was fine where the land had been watered. But those who had cotton planted are afraid they will have to plant over or some of it at least.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Turner arrived home Tuesday from Hot Springs, Ark. They were Mrs. Marvin Smith, president, Mrs. Chloema Williams vice-president, Mrs. Chloema Williams recording secretary, Mrs. M. D. Ramsey treasurer and Mrs. R. O. Morris secretary of student work. Mrs. Joyce Davis secretary of children.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hale took Jimmy and Barry to Lubbock Wednesday for the Music Festival. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Zant Smith and Mrs. Chloema Williams took their children Thursday for the festival. Mrs. Williams and Sue were accompanied by Judy Wilson. All the children made good grades.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gary spent the weekend in Amarillo visiting relatives. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ernest Gary of Petersburg.

Marvin Smith went to Silverton Lake Saturday fishing. Some boys from Petersburg accompanied him. Marvin said no luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Chloema Williams and Sue spent Sunday in Amarillo guests of relatives.

Harold Chapman Asking for Office

Harold Chapman, Lubbock real estate man, is a candidate for the state legislature, he announced last week-end. He is running for state representative from the 97th District, Place 2.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chapman, he was a resident of Floydada during his school years, graduating from high school here in 1934.

He has been in the real estate and insurance business with his father and brother since serving in the army for five and a half years.

Thirty-six, he is married and has two sons, Johnny, 8, and Joey, 4. It will be his first experience in politics.

He was a member of the G. O. P. and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Turner spent Saturday night in Clovis, N. M., guests of Pervia Miller. They were accompanied by Mr. Miller's mother, Mrs. Onie Miller and his sister, Mrs. Florene Cox of Paragould, Ark. The Turners came to the Fred Hyster's Sunday and spent the day with them. The Hyster's have moved on a ranch 13 miles west of Hale Center.

G. L. Snodgrass received 1-day treatments at Lubbock several days last week. Mr. Snodgrass is suffering from Neuritis.

Guests in the Mather Carr home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burrows of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. Lou McDaniel of near Petersburg and Wesley Carr.

Mr. and Mrs. Joyce Davis were hosts to Sunday dinner to Mr. Davis' relatives of Combe.

Jimmy Hale was a guest Sunday of Charles Mather Carr.

NEWLY SEEDING FIELDS make good feeding grounds for true and false wireworms and other soil insects. If there is not enough moisture in the soil to permit quick sprouting, seeds are vulnerable to insect attack for several days. But the threat of wireworm damage should be recognized at all times.
A dieldrin preventive seed treatment is a sure way to protect small grain seeds until they sprout.
LOW-COST PROTECTION
It costs just pennies per acre to treat seed with dieldrin, but dollars per acre to feed the wireworms untreated seed! A dieldrin seed treatment prevents "spotty" stands... eliminates the expense of time and money for re-planting or sowing extra seed for the wireworms to feed on... assures you of a longer grazing period. And dieldrin does not stunt plant development.
COMPATIBLE WITH FUNGICIDES
Dieldrin is compatible with fungicides and can be applied at the same time to save expense and work of a double treatment. You can buy dieldrin-treated seed from the dealer, or treat the seed yourself. Dieldrin can be applied as a slurry, dry, or in a granule. A convenient method is to apply dieldrin to the seed in the grain drill as you follow directions on the label for the particular formulation you buy.
LESS WORK AT PLANTING TIME
Seed can be treated now and stored until planting time. Dieldrin eliminates the need for treating seed and planting within a few days. Dieldrin formulations are available in all the small grain growing areas. Contact your local supplier.

Make a Note of This! NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING IS A CAREER WITH A FUTURE!

The newspaper is the most wanted and most depended upon of all media of information. It is desired to the extent of being invited into 55 million homes daily at the expense of the reader. It follows that a person versed in newspaper advertising looks to a good job future.

WHAT DOES A CAREER IN ADVERTISING OFFER TODAY'S GRADUATES?

The vast majority of retail purchases are induced at the local level where and when newspaper advertising informs millions of readers about a product, its cost and where it may be purchased. This is the basic reason why newspaper advertising as a career offers the positive promise of a very interesting, informative and challenging experience and an opportunity to learn the fundamentals of attracting buyers to all types of business and products. We invite you to come in and find out more about advertising as a career.

SCHOOL INQUIRIES INVITED
Schools and colleges wishing to acquaint students with any phase of the newspaper business are invited to communicate with us. We will be glad to assist teachers and instructors in any classroom activity pertaining to any phase of newspaper advertising.

Tech Couple Plan Wedding In June

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Taylor, 2424 28th St., Lubbock, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn, to Jack Sloan Badgett of Wichita Falls, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Badgett of Floydada.

Miss Taylor is a recent graduate of Texas Tech with a degree in music education. Her sorority is Kappa Alpha Theta. She is now employed as a teacher in the Lubbock Public Schools.

Badgett is also a recent graduate of Texas Tech with a degree in petroleum geology. His fraternity is Sigma Alpha Epsilon. He is presently employed as a geologist for the Pure Oil Co., in Wichita Falls.

Wedding vows will be exchanged June 3rd in the Fairview First Baptist Church.

Miss Wilson is at present teaching Spanish at Bowie Junior High School in Odessa. Mallard is a student at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

Honored With Birthday Party

Mrs. Jack Stansell honored her daughter, Jill Ann, on her fifth birthday last Friday afternoon with a birthday party.

Cake and ice cream were served and plate favors were eye glasses.

Those present were Craig Gilly, Max and Jennifer Yeary, Kathy Gilly, Johnny Bill Ware, Ricky Biggs, Johnny Lee Lackey and the honoree, Jill Stansell.

Floyd County 14 Years Ago

(Taken from the files of the Hesperian, issue dated May 14, 1942.)

Some are planting, some are not. That's the story as to Floyd County cotton farm operators this week.

"America For Me," is the theme of the commencement program which will be presented by honor students this evening at Andrews Ward School at 8:30 o'clock when 47 students will be graduated from the eighth grade.

Jim Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Simpson, is scheduled to give the valedictory address tomorrow night when Floydada High School graduates of the class of 97 young people will be presented in commencement program. Miss Mary Frances Jones, daughter of Mr. and

Mrs. W. O. Jones, is salutatorian and will deliver an address entitled "Planning Your Life."

R. S. Wilkinson Jr., was chosen president of the Floydada Lions Club Tuesday, to serve for the year beginning in July.

Saturday is Straw Hat Day in Floydada and all men are asked to put up their felts and come in to the department stores for a new straw
