RANGERS GUARD STRIP BETWEEN ARKANSAS AND TEXAS

(By The Associated Press)

TEXARKANA, Ark., Oct. 23.—The meandering Red river, scene of the recent "battle of the bridges" between Oklahoma and Texas, threatens to precipitate another interstate controversy.

Two Texas rangers have set up headquarters on 4600 acres of land near here to enforce Texas' claim a change in the river's course some fifteen years ago left the land in Texas and not in Arkansas, as Arkansas contends.

Signs Posted

The rangers arrived late yesterday from Gladewater and were accompanied by five Texas game wardens who posted "no trespassing" signs.

With the rangers in possession, the two states awaited a conference tomorrow between State Representative R. M. Hubbard of Texas, acting as Governor Ross Sterling's representative, and Governor Harvey Parnell of Arkansas at Little Rock.

"We may be here two days and we may be here six months, but we'll be here until this thing is settled," the rangers said as they took up their assignment of holding the disputed strip in the name of State of Texas.

Settlement Seen

Rangers were acting under instructions of Governor Sterling who in a statement at Houston said the land rightfully belonged to Texas. Governor Sterling said, however, he believed the dispute would be settled quickly through conference between Representative Hubbard and Governor Parnell.

From official sources in Austin hope was expressed that settlement would be reached through a friendly court suit.

FAILS TO ARRIVE

Scheduled to arrive here with a United States marshall from Chicago by train late this morning, Wayne Rodgers, arrested in Chicago for driving a rented automobile there from Lubbock, was not on the train when it reached here. J. P. Edgar, United States deputy marshal here, said Rodgers and his escort evidently "had missed connections somewhere."

BOY HELD FOR TWO CRIMES

16 - YEAR - OLD LAD IS CHARGED IN MURDER AND ATTACK

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 23—A 16-year-old boy was charged by police today with fatally shooting Mrs. Agnes Lavander, 38, Feb. 18, 1930, and attacking Mrs. Jane Meyers, 52, last Tuesday night.

Both crimes, to which police said the boy, Vernon Royals, confessed, took place on lonely spots near a Forest Glen railroad station.

Boy Identified

Royals, a six-foot lad who weighs 170 pounds, was arrested Wednesday night near the scene of the crimes. He stubbornly maintained his innocence, police said, despite the fact Mrs. Meyers, who is under the care of a physician, identified him yesterday.

Two hours later he was taken to the scene of the attack on Mrs. Meyers and confessed, police said, not only to the attack but also to the alleged slaying.

"I needed some money," he was quoted as saying in describing the slaying, "and was waiting at the railroad station. Mrs. Lavander got off the train alone. I followed her and asked her for a dime. When she opened her purse, I saw some bills.

"Then I drew my gun and ordered her to walk down the tracks. She did for a short distance. Then I put the gun against her head and fired."

AGED FARMER SHOT

DENISON, Oct. 23 (AP)—N. J. Woods, 72, a farmer, was shot to death in bed at his home today. His widow, sleeping beside him, was awakened by the shot. She found a shotgun beside the body, she told officers Woods had pulled the trigger with his toe. He had been in ill health.

WILL AID WIFE

* * *

This is the husband of Mrs. Winnie Ruth Judd, who today repeated an appeal to his wife to surrender for trial on a charge of murdering two young women whose bodies were found in a trunk and a suitcase arriving at Los Angeles. The husband, Dr. William C. Judd, Los Angeles and Phoenix physician, already has engaged attorneys to defend his wife.

HUSBAND ASKS HIS WIFE TO SURRENDER

DR. JUDD TO PROVIDE LAWYERS FOR TRUNK SLAYING SUSPECT

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23—A renewed appeal to Winnie Ruth Judd to surrender and face charges of murdering the two women whose bodies were found in trunks here Monday night was broadcast today by her husband, Dr. W. C. Judd, who promised to provide legal defense.

Two attorneys were engaged by Dr. Judd to represent his wife in the event she is found alive. They are Richard H. Cantillon and Louis P. Russill. Cantillon was an attorney for William Edward Hickman who was convicted and hanged for the murder of Marion Parker.

In revealing the engagement of the two attorneys, Dr. Judd said he had "every confidence" in his wife.

"I want to assure her that if this comes to her attention that she will have every support and assistance I am able to give her," he said. "I am in deep fear that she is no longer living, but if this comes to her attention I earnestly beg and implore her to come to me or these attorneys at once and with every possible assurance that she will be protected in every possible way."

The inquest into the deaths of Miss Hedvig Samuelson and Mrs. Agnes Le Roi, both of whom, police charge, were slain by Mrs. Judd in Phoenix, Ariz., was called for today. It promised to be a perfunctory affair, concerning principally the identification of the bodies.

Police said it was their belief Mrs. Judd was still in Southern California.

Man And Wife Die In Suicide Pact

TEMPLE, Oct. 23. (AP)—Tom A. Neal, 59, and his wife, 50, were found dead at their home south of Temple late yesterday.

A verdict of suicide by poisoning was returned. A note saying, "this tragedy was done by our own hands" and signed by Neal and his wife was found.

Neal was a large land owner and known not to be in financial distress. His health was considered good.

Sentencing Of Capone Delayed One Day

GANG CHIEF TO KNOW FATE TOMORROW

FEDERAL JUDGE SAYS HE WILL DISPOSE OF INCOME CASE

(By The Associated Press)

FEDERAL BUILDING, CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Sentencing of Alphonse Capone for violating income tax laws was delayed at least one more day when Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson announced at the close of legal arguments today, "I will dispose of this case at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning."

The announcement of the court followed long arguments on the legality of the indictments and the jury's finding. The defense again intimated the case would be taken to the supreme court.

Arguments were on the defense motion for a writ in arrest of judgment. Judge Wilkerson said he would rule on that motion and any others the defense wished to present tomorrow, indicating that if he should deny the motions, he would sentence Capone at that time.

Defense attorneys contended that the indictments charging Capone with evasion of income taxes were insufficient, indefinite and unclear. Their motion, if granted, would force the government to bring new indictments against the gang leader and retry him.

DON'T SAY "CAPONEY"

CHICAGO, Oct. 23 (AP)—It's "Capone" (silent e), not "Caponey," his own attorneys to the contrary notwithstanding.

Alphonse Capone, sometimes called Brown, Ross, Phillips, Snorky and Costa, likes to have his real name pronounced in the Americanized way, with only two syllables. Government prosecutors respected his wish in the matter throughout his income tax trial, although the despised nickname "Scarface" cropped in now and then.

But Attorney Albert Fink, representing the gang chief for the first time, constantly pronounced the name as if it rhymed with "baloney." Michael Ahern, who has been a member of the gangster's legal staff for years and should know better, was led astray by Fink. He pronounced it both ways.

AGENTS START MEET HERE

INSURANCE MEN ARE IN LUBBOCK FOR DIST. CONFAB

When a district No. 12 meeting of the Texas Association of Insurance Agents convened at the Lubbock hotel at 10:30 o'clock this morning, about 21 agents from towns on the South Plains and in adjoining counties were present. Others were expected by afternoon.

A. D. Langham, state association president, of Houston presided. Jess D. Carter, deputy state life insurance commissioner, of Austin; D. A. Clark, district No. 12 vice president of the state association of Sweetwater, and D. F. Forman, state association secretary, of Fort Worth, are here.

Talks on phases of the insurance business, discussion of a new licensing law for fire insurance agents, and a general roundtable were on the program. The meeting will adjourn at about 4 o'clock this afternoon. It is one of series of district assemblies throughout the state.

DEMOCRATS IN LEAD AS GOP SOLON DIES

REPUBLICAN MEMBERS ARE OUTNUMBERED IN THE HOUSE

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23—The Democrats for the first time in 13 years today outnumbered the Republican in the house.

Democrats 214; Republicans 213; Farmer Laborite 1; vacancies 7.

Not since November 1918 when Woodrow Wilson appealed dramatically to the country for a return of a Democratic congress and saw a Republican majority elected have the Democrats been in the ascendancy, even temporarily.

Not To Last

The present lineup, however, will not last until congress convenes in December.

Five special elections already have been set for November 3 to fill vacancies caused by death. Two are in districts normally Democratic and three are usually Republican. Should they go as in the past, the house lineup would be divided, with each major party holding 216 votes. Representative Kvale of Minnesota, the Farmer-Laborite, would retain the balance of power.

The other two vacancies present more difficulties, but Governor Larson of New Jersey has called a special session of the legislature in an effort to supply another Republican vote for house organization.

Lindberghs Rushing Home To See Junior

ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo., Oct. 23 (AP)—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh took off from the Rock Springs airport at 6.12 a. m. Mountain Standard time today on another leg of their trip from Victoria, B. C., with hopes of reaching New York tonight. There was a light wind but skies were clear.

The colonel said he would take the shortest route available, and would not necessarily follow the air mail line. The two are hurrying to their home from a vacation tour of the Orient cut short by the death of Mrs. Lindbergh's father, Senator Dwight W. Morrow.

Both expressed eagerness to see their baby son, Charles A. Lindbergh, jr., who is just 15 months old.

Troops Guard When Negro Given Death

LIBERTY, Miss., Oct. 23. (AP)—While a large detachment of national guardsmen stood with riot guns about the courthouse of Amite county, Emanuel Jackson, negro charged with the murder of a white planter, was brought into the court this morning and heard a jury return a guilty verdict.

Judge R. L. Colburn immediately pronounced the death sentence. The hanging date was set for Nov. 27.

Jackson was charged with slaying Bramlett Bates, 51, in an argument over work on crops last Aug. 26.

Canadian Theater Destroyed By Fire

CANADIAN, Oct. 23. (AP)—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the two-story Queen theater building here this morning, and for a time threatened an entire business block. Firemen battled the flames more than an hour. The fire was one of the worst experienced here in years. Damage was estimated at between $25,000 and $30,000.

HUNGER STRIKE CALLED

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 23. (AP)—A hunger strike has been declared here by 104 teachers, men and women, who have been without jobs for more than two months. The teachers struck two months ago, demanding back payment of salaries and they were dropped off the payrolls.

U. D. C. Conclave Will End Today

DIVISION FINANCES DISCUSSED AT SESSIONS OF CONVENTION; DANCE SLATED TONIGHT

Discussion of division finances was the principal matter that came before the state convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy this morning. The afternoon session, the final meeting of the body, is being devoted to additional business and the election and installation of officers.

Arguments that drew applause and laughter filled some of the morning hours.

Vote For Memorial

The body decided to cut the size of the division annual in order to make the expense less, and voted to place a memorial of Robert E. Lee in a Cathedral that is under construction in Washington, D. C.

A pages dance at Hotel Lubbock this evening will officially close the convention.

Reports of chapters and officers consumed most of the day Thursday.

Scholarships and loan funds that the state division maintains were discussed through the reports and the body voted to create a loan fund of $150 at Southern Methodist University out of a portion of a $6,000 memorial fund there for the first president of the state U. D. C., Mrs. Katie Cabell Muse, a Dallas woman.

The Albert Sidney Johnston U. D. C. chapter of Austin, through two members, Mrs. Forrest Farley and Mrs. Robert F. Bacon, offered to present a plaque of Robert E. Lee to Texas Technological college, the gift to be presented through the Texas division of the organization. The body voted to place a wreath of flowers on the grave of the late E. P. Earhart, Confederate veteran who died here recently. This wreath had been made of red and white flowers during the memorial service in the morning.

Laval Pays Tribute To Unknown Soldier

FRENCH PREMIER TO BEGIN TALK WITH HOOVER TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23—Premier Laval bowed his head in reverence before the tomb of the unknown soldier in beginning this day that will end in discussion with President Hoover of ways of easing the world's burdens.

On the cold white slab in Arlington cemetery, the spokesman for France gently placed a wreath to speak for him—words told in red roses, chrysanthemums, oak leaves and ferns.

Pays Respects

In the forenoon, too, he visited the capitol and paid respects to Vice President Curtis.

Short calls on Chief Justice Hughes and Secretary Stimson also were on his morning program, followed by luncheon at the French embassy. Then he and his daughter were invited as guests beneath the White House roof for the night.

No formal agenda is set for the talks between the president and the premier. While the visitor was making the rounds this morning Mr. Hoover spent his last time available in preparation. His regular Friday cabinet meeting was the shortest for weeks.

As well as conferring with the pesident, M. Laval wants to exchange views with Chairman Borah, of the senate foreign relations committee. He made arrangements for this with the Idahoan last night at the White House. They will meet at Secretary Stimson's home Saturday night.

When The Blind Lead The Blind

LONDON, Oct. 23 (AP)—A blind man, leaving the national institute in great Portland street, touched the arm of another man.

Thinking he was being offered a helping hand, he took the arm and stepped off the walk to cross the street. After a few steps he was struck by a car.

The other man was blind, too.

Two Farmers Hurt Fatally In Crash

MIAMI, Okla., Oct. 23 (AP)—Henry Wallace, 65, and his son, Aaron, 36, farmers, were injured fatally last night when their wagon was crushed by an oil truck, the driver of which apparently blinded by the lights of an approaching automobile.

The wagon was driven by Edgar Robinson, son-in-law of the elder Wallace. The Wallaces were walking behind the wagon. Neither Robinson nor Salsman were hurt.

Pacific Coast Is Swept By Storms

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23 (AP)—From the northern part of Washington to the central sections of California and as far east as western Nevada, the first storm of the winter season held the Pacific coast in its grip today.

Rain, snow, wind and other aspects of winter arrived to end one of the longest drouth periods for California in many years.

RAIN RECORD BROKEN

ABILENE, Oct. 23. (AP)—Rainfall measuring 2.89 inches yesterday ran this section's total for October to 10.19 inches, bettering a record of 45 years' standing.

JAPAN AGREES TO PROPOSAL OF BRIAND

BASIS IS GIVEN FOR RESTORING PEACE IN MANCHURIA

(By The Associated Press)

GENEVA, Oct. 23—Dr. Alfred Sze, China's representative on the League of Nations council, informed his colleague this evening that his government accepts the draft resolution presented yesterday by Aristide Briand as a basis for restoring peace in Manchuria.

The Briand proposals requested the Chinese and Japanese governments to begin direct negotiations with a view to arranging details of evacuation of Manchuria by Japanese troops.

Security Asked

It recommended also that China pledge the security of Japanese lives and property in Manchuria and suggested establishment of a permanent conciliation committee through which both governments could deal with problems arising from the present difficulty.

Kenkichi Yoshizawa told the council yesterday his government could not accept any time limit on the evacuation of Manchuria although M. Briand proposed that all Japanese troops be withdrawn to the railway zone by Nov. 16 when the council will meet again.

Today, however, word from Tokyo said the Japanese government was willing to withdraw troops from outside the railway zone within three weeks if China would agree to put an end to anti-Japanese agitation.

Breach Between Judges Is Widened

GROESBECK, Oct. 23. (AP)—The breach between the 77th and 85th district courts widened last night as Judge W. C. Davis avowed he would not appear before Judge M. S. Kirby here to face a contempt charge.

Judge Davis was cited to appear before Judge Kirby of the 77th district for contempt in dissolving injunctions against enforcement of the truck regulatory law.

Judge Kirby contended Judge Davis was in contempt since a 10 day notice was required before an injunction could be dissolved.

Judge Davis made plans to remain within the confines of his district stating he did not recognize any authority Judge Kirby might have with which to cite him for contempt.

Three Are Charged In Chicago Blaze

CHICAGO, Oct. 23 (AP)—A rejected suitor and two youths were held responsible by police today for a rooming house fire which took two lives. Three others suffered burns.

Henry Thompson, machinist, confessed, police said, that he engineered an arson plot to avenge himself because his former housekeeper, Mrs. Mary Arnold Boehm, rejected his attentions for those of Aubrey Lay, her new employer and proprietor of the rooming house.

Lay and Doris Boehm, 5-year-old daughter of Mrs. Boehm, were burned to death. Mrs. Boehm and two other lodgers were in a hospital with burns.

Carlsbad Cowboy Slain By Officer

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (AP)—A cowboy who went taxi riding lost his life early today in an argument with a policeman over a 15 cent cab bill.

Owen Crosby, of Carlsbad, N. M., resented Patrolman John Quigley's order to pay the bill. He struck the policeman across the face with a riding crop. Quigley tapped him on the head with his nightstick and two more cowboys ran out of a nearby restaurant and rallied to Crosby's aid.

The policeman drew his gun and fired once, striking Crosby in the heart.

FIVE LUBBOCK BANKS WILL COOPERATE

INSTITUTIONS TO AID IN HOLDING 10,000 BALES OFF MART

Co-operating with the cotton holding plan of the Federal Farm board and the banks of the South, the five banks of Lubbock county, working under the direction of the Lubbock Clearing House association, will aid farmers in holding 10,000 bales of the current crop until prices rise appreciably or until July 31, 1932.

That announcement was made this morning by Walter S. Posey, vice-president of the First National bank and president of the Clearing House association, and by John D. Mitchell, cashier of the Lubbock National bank and appointed as 'key banker' for Lubbock county by the Texas Bankers association. Mr. Mitchell represented Lubbock county banks in a meeting at Dallas last Tuesday, when 300 Texas bankers gathered to discuss and approve the holding movement.

Plan Explained

Under the local holding plan, each of the Lubbock banks, the First National, the Citizens National and the Lubbock National, will advance holding funds covering 3,000 bales of cotton—or a total of 9,000 bales. The First State bank of Idalou and the First State bank of Slaton will each advance funds for holding 500 bales, making the county's total 10,000 bales. That figure was reached upon predicate of the farm board urging at one-fourth of the unpicked and unsold cotton be held over the South.

Cotton held will be continuously held until July 31, 1932, or until the price goes to 12 1-2 cents per pound, it was announced today. The Dallas meeting, Mr. Mitchell stated, was enthusiastic over the proposition and was the "most optimistic meeting Texas bankers have held in two years", he stated.

Holding already financed over the South has resulted in the crop's value being increased by fifty millions of dollars, Messrs. Posey and

CYPRUS IS UP IN REVOLT

BRITAIN SENDS ARMY, TO QUELL UPRISING IN ISLAND

(By The Associated Press)

LANARKA, Island of Cyprus, Oct. 23—The military and naval power of the British empire was hastening today to quell a revolt in Cyprus, ancient Mediterranean island over which Alexander the Great squabbled with an Egyptian ptolemy, and where St. Paul, St. Mark and St. Barnabas preached early christianity.

For more than a day most of the island has been in control of revolters who are demanding union with Greece, which aided Cyprus in the struggle against Alexander 2,000-odd years ago.

The revolt developed after weeks of growing resentment against a British imperial order imposing tariffs which the Cyprian legislative council had rejected.

Late last night a group of revolutionists stopped motor trucks carrying rations for British soldiers at Limasol, the ancient town where Richard the Lion-Hearted married Berengaria of Navarre in 1191. The drivers of the trucks were forced to abandon them.

The mob then overpowered the police and attacked and burned the district commissioner's house.

It Was Safe Place For Pedestrians

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 23 (AP)—The safest place for pedestrians was Traffic Officer Ferdinand Finchum's corner here yesterday.

With a new semaphore, Finchum took his post near the auditorium where 15,000 school teachers were to gather in convention. As soon as he set up his sign, automobile drivers on both streets brought their cars to a halt.

While pedestrians scurried across the pavement in safety, he switched the signal for east and west traffic to move. None did. He blew his whistle and shouted at the drivers. None budged.

Finally some one told him. His sign was a four-direction stop signal. A careless stenciler had omitted the word "go."

TRADITION SAYS THAT WOMEN CHANGE MINDS, BUT JUST CONSIDER THIS ONE

(By The Associated Press)

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 23—Tradition may have it that women change their minds but consider Mrs. Genevieve A. Clark.

For seven days, unconfirmed report said, she has clung to her opinion in the face of an opposite view taken by eleven men, who with her form the jury in the trial of W. B. Foshay and six co-defendants on mail fraud charges.

She has resisted oratory, pleas and cajoling; alone she has maintained her position against their combined and individual entreaties. As a result, the jury appeared hopelessly deadlocked as, homesick and weary of it all, the panel today resumed deliberations.

The panel had instructions from the trial court to make every effort to reach an agreement and bring to an end the trial which began more than eight weeks ago.

Mrs. Clark is near middle age, slender and small, the wife of a Minneapolis real estate man. Her colleague mostly are farmers. Whether she favors acquittal or conviction remained a secret with the jury.

LACQUERED WIGS TO TOP MILADY'S PATE IS LATEST STYLE CREATION

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 23—Antoine, Antoine the second, and Jeu Jeu, Antoine's seven months' old bear cub, are here from Paris to show American women something new in hair styles.

Antoine, whose surname is Cierperlikowski, is a Polish sculptor and one of the leading hair stylists in France. Antoine the second, who dresses exactly like Antoine, is the latter's secretary. Jeu Jeu is just a pet.

Lacquered wigs is Antoine's newest creation. Fashioned with curls, puffs, fan-shaped pieces, and bangs, they are especially smart for evening. They have the molded beauty of a sculpture. Wind and water can not spoil them and Antoine has done a few of them for sports wear.

Not only for these lacquered wigs has Antoine gained a wide reputation on the continent, but he dresses the most aristocratic heads of nearly every country. The queen of Spain, Sorel Lady Fellows, and Mrs. Cole Porter as well as numerous other well known women are among his clientele.

Tea For Visitors, Dinner And Theater Party Are Features Of Society Here

College Society Is At Evening Affair

Several social occasions have enlivened the week-end here. Among these was a dinner party attended by members of Las Chaparritas social club and several other guests Thursday evening.

A tea for delegates to the state convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and a routine club party were other events.

The college club affair, Las Chaparritas party, was given at the Hilton hotel, after which the party attended a local theater.

Club Seal Used

Hand-painted cards bearing the club seal were at each place and dainty corsages in orchid and yellow were favors. Flowers in the club colors centered the table.

Guests were Misses Jerry Durham, Ada Mae Gilbert, Pauline Warren, Melba Gilbert, Mary Earle Lofland, Dorothy Hall, Melba Watson, Mary Elizabeth Hogan and Ima Baker.

Club members present were Misses Mary Lois Gamel, Beth Wulfman, Camille Stobaugh, Sylva Wilson, Glyds Grimsley, Cecile Horne, Maxine Clark, Jean Shelley Jennings, Gertrude Standefer, Sue Barton, Virginia Murray, Zella Riegel, Johnnye Gilkerson, Polly Barrow, Harriette Roach, Frances Ford, Gail Quinlan and Voncile Gilkerson.

Delegates to the state convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy attended a tea in the home management house at Texas Technological college Thursday afternoon late. The college was host at this affair and guests were given an opportunity to see the institution.

The receiving line was composed of active division officers in the Texas chapter; Mrs. Mary W. Doak, dean of women at the college; Miss Delia Wilkinson, local U. D. C. president; Mrs. W. H. Meador, and Miss Margaret Weeks, dean of the school of home economics.

In House Party

Others in the house party were Misses Vivian Johnson, Mayme Twyford, Dorothy McFarlan, Eunice Walker, Donna Vaughn, Irene Jackson, Hazel Lee, Joyce Teague and Mrs. A. H. Leidigh.

A color scheme of gold and black was used in appointments for the dining table where refreshments were served. Black candles in brass candelabra lighted the table and tea was poured from a brass samovar. Mrs. Roscoe Wilson and Mrs. James M. Gordon presided at the table.

Autumn flowers decked the receiving rooms.

Is Bridge Hostess

A bridge party was given Thursday afternoon for members of the Ace-Hi club by Mrs. Paul Reed in her home. The Hallowe'en motif was featured.

Mrs. Dick Abbott cut high and Mrs. Allan Webb made high score in the games.

Other guests were Mesdames M. S. Cole, Charles Files, Hugh Norman, J. D. Shaw, M. L. Walker, E. Paul Carter, C. A. Nowlin, V. R. Plummer, Lola Shuey, Bill Watson, C. G. Farr, J. F. Anthony, Garnet Reeves and H. C. Ragland. The last three named were visitors and others are club members.

"Racketeering" annually costs the American people between $12,000,000,000 and $18,000,000,000, the New York State crime commission reports.

Discuss Homemaking As Profession

Discussing homemaking as a profession, members of the Wolfforth Home Demonstration club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. C. Peelers and Mrs. Henry Ross in the home of the former. A social hour followed the program.

Those who attended were Mesdames D. C. Beebe, B. Landers, R. L. Gaines, Wiley Gates, Edd Schroeder, O. L. Sims, H. A. Williams, W. H. Dixon and O. F. Corley.

Cooking Expert Is Carefully Selected

Miss Christeen Chitwood of the famous Chitwood School of Cookery will supervise the annual free school of cookery next week. Of all the lecturers and demonstrators available in the United States, she was selected as the one best qualified for conducting these classes; best suited, not only from her experience, but from her personal charm and her thorough knowledge of the art and the interesting and instructive manner she has of imparting her knowledge to her audience.

Ranking as one of the foremost authorities on food and a cooking expert, Miss Christeen Chitwood comes to Lubbock to conduct the cooking school under the auspices of the Avalanche-Journal Publishing company.

Has Dallas Laboratory

Eight years ago, the Chitwood School opened a laboratory in Dallas, for research work. Here they conduct many tests, working out problems that develop from time to time, ascertaining the contents of the various articles and their worth for giving strength and health, of reducing those who seek loss of weight or for those who are seeking more weight. Many startling and new facts in food results have come from these laboratory tests and studies.

Preparation of food today is a science. No longer is the family meal thrown together haphazardly. Study is given to foods and their contents. Recognition is given to the importance of health through proper feeding. Many interesting features will be demonstrated and explained and every person interested is cordially invited to be a guest during the four days of the school: Tuesday through Friday of next week.

Methodist Pastor Talks Before PTA

Mrs. Fiske Miles was hostess to teachers and officers in the primary department of the First Methodist Sunday school Thursday evening in her home. Mrs. Miles is assistant superintendent of the department.

Games were directed by Miss Elizabeth Montfort. Mrs. Miles was assisted in serving a light refreshment plate by Miss Gladys Straeder.

Officers present were Mrs. C. L. Donaldson, who is superintendent of the department, Mrs. Ethridge Eagan, pianist and Miss Loydel Hill, secretary. Teachers in attendance were Mesdames J. F. Hawthorne, R. B. Fairly, John T. McClain, Misses Mary Roberson, Mary Collins, Helen Aycock, Grace Johnson, Lucille Houston, Betty Grimsley and Montfort.

Plans were made for a Hallowe'en party for members of the primary department to be given in the church parlors next Saturday afternoon.

Methodists Guests At Informal Party

Rev. J. O. Haymes, pastor of First Methodist church, talked on co-operation of the home and school in character building for children Thursday evening at a meeting of the Junior High school Parent-Teacher association at the school. This program followed the general theme for the year on character building.

There was an opening chorus in which all those in attendance took part. Mary Elizabeth Herd, and Louise Fortenberry gave readings and J. W. Day played several violin selections. Mrs. J. T. Shaver's room had the largest attendance of patrons. More than 100 attended.

College Man Makes Talk Before PTA

Dr. A. W. Evans, head of the department of education, Texas Technological college, lectured on "Teaching Children to Study" at a meeting of the K. Carter Parent-Teacher association Thursday afternoon.

Miss Blanche Garner played a piano solo and children in the room taught by Mrs. O. N. Baucom presented a program on health.

There was a good attendance.

FREE ON BOND

TEXARKANA, Ark., Oct. 22 (AP)—Mett Larrey, 27, was at liberty today under $5,000 bond in connection with the fatal shooting of Claude Pilgreen, 35. He was bonded over to the Miller county grand jury at a preliminary hearing yesterday.

Delphian Club Has Program Thursday

Thirty-seven women attended a meeting of the Lu Beta Delphian chapter Thursday afternoon at the Hilton hotel and heard a program led by Mrs. J. H. Hankins. The topic was "Measured Music and Secular Singers of the Middle Ages" and Mrs. Hankins was assisted in her presentation by Mesdames Roscoe Cowart, G. P. Kuykendall, W. T. Milam, F. A. Kleinschmidt, Richard White, Fred Standefer and H. F. Godeke. Mrs. J. C. Powell directed a musical program.

This society will change meetings dates during November and December because of the annual convention of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs and others events. Meetings during the two months will be on the first and third Thursdays, instead of the second and fourth.

Duncan Speaks For Ward School Club

George M. Hunt Parent-Teacher association members heard a talk on duties of parents and teachers Thursday afternoon at a meeting in the school. M. H. Duncan, superintendent of city schools, made the talk.

Attendance awards were to the rooms of Miss Gladys Pryor and Miss Ava Frazier. Room programs were given by the children in rooms of Miss Pryor and Mrs. R. W. Wright.

Two Entertain On Thursday At Party

Mrs. Tommie Phillips and Mrs. Anna Dodson entertained with a party Thursday afternoon, complimenting Mrs. Dodson's daughter, Mrs. Luther Blagg. The party was in Mrs. Phillips' home at 1807 18th street.

Games of bridge and hearts were played by Mesdames Jack McCreary, Wade Anthony, Martin Graves, Ray Gibson, Bill Blagg, Dan W. Powers, Vivian Whitworth, H. Denham, Stewart Champlin, T. T. Garrard, S. Williamson, Mattie Blagg, E. E. Bailey, Rufus Sullivan and Fred Hines.

Every graduate in ceramic engineering at North Carolina State college has been employed in the industry.

UNDER-ROASTING AND OVER-ROASTING PREVENTED

Controlled Roasting, Hills Bros.' Patented Process, Roasts Coffee to Uniform Goodness

Just as the flavor of foods can be spoiled by under-cooking or over-cooking, so the flavor of coffee can be spoiled by under-roasting or over-roasting. Realizing this, Hills Bros. invented and patented a marvelous process. It insures perfect roasting—all the time! It is called Controlled Roasting.

As the accuracy of the hour-glass depends upon an even, continuous flow . . . a little at a time . . . so the uniform flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee is produced by Controlled Roasting—the patented process that roasts evenly, continuously . . . a little at a time. Automatic control of heat insures an even, perfect roast for every berry. Naturally, the resulting flavor is uniformly delicious.

Ordinary coffees are roasted in bulk—several hundred pounds at a time. Therein lies the cause of a faulty roast. For it is impossible to always roast each big batch to the same degree.

Hills Bros. Coffee is packed in vacuum cans. Air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is removed and kept out of these cans. Ordinary, "air-tight" cans won't keep coffee fresh. But Hills Bros. Coffee is always fresh! Order some today. Ask for it by name, and look for the Arab trade-mark on the can.

Real relief from CONSTIPATION

WHENEVER digestive distress follows mealtime, you can suspect an acid condition.

Acidity affects the appetite. What food you do eat sours in the stomach. The tongue becomes coated. The breath is bad. Sick headaches become frequent. You are constipated.

These are danger signals which should never go unheeded. Your system is fairly shouting its need of help; something to help remove the acid waste and restore alkaline balance. An anti-acid to offset the effect of too rich a diet, nervousness, excitement, etc.

Men and women who meet this need promptly with Phillips' Milk of Magnesia do not suffer. They eat well, and their food doesn't ferment in the stomach. Every trace of over-acidity soon disappears. All sour gas is dispelled. Stomach, liver and bowels have a better chance to function.

If there is the least hint of too much acid, just take a spoonful of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia today, and for several days. Feel this sweeten your stomach. Note how appetite improves. And elimination. You will wonder how anything so pleasant-tasting can be so promptly effective. 25c and 50c bottles at drug stores everywhere.

Prohibition Agent Charged By Witness

HOUSTON, Oct. 23 (AP)—J. C. Hicks, operator of a cafe, testified in federal court yesterday in the trial of George H. Wilkins, former federal prohibition agent charged with extortion and bribery, that Wilkins made several attempts to get money from him after he sold the agent a quart of whisky in 1926.

Questioned for the government Hicks said Wilkins at that time came into his place to eat and sometimes brought his wife.

3 RULES

big help to BOWELS

What a joy to have the bowels move like clockwork, every day! It's easy, if you mind these simple rules of a famous old doctor:

1. Drink a big tumblerful of water before breakfast, and several times a day.
2. Get plenty of outdoor exercise without unduly fatiguing yourself.
3. Try for a bowel movement at exactly the same hour every day.

Everyone's bowels need help at times, but the thing to use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You'll get a thorough cleaning-out, and it won't leave your insides weak and watery. This family doctor's prescription is just fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin, and other helpful ingredients that couldn't hurt a child. But how it wakes up those lazy bowels! How good you feel with your system rid of all that poisonous waste matter.

DR. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D. Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

P. T. A. WORK DISCUSSED

"DEAR DR. MYERS: Your article on P. T. A. programs was interesting. You ask for a list of successful programs. To my mind, our most successful programs have been those held within school hours. Within school hours parents can co-operate better with teachers and pupils. By providing the children with a bazaar, a gala day, a motion picture, a program of music, an instructive speaker, by visiting the school when it is functioning, the parents contribute their best. I have found, after 10 years of P. T. A. that evening meetings, or meetings after school has been dismissed, lose contact with the pupil and allow meandering programs. If the children are not present, time is lost wondering what to do next or repeating unprofitable activities. I do not say that one or two evening meetings a year would be futile, but generally speaking daytime programs are more practical and even these should be limited in number to avoid strain.

"I have heard many teachers and several school principals criticize adversely the adult-centered program. Ten years of experience have convinced me that this trouble can be averted through daytime programs limited in number, with children present. A movement so important as the parent-teacher movement should take every precaution to avoid futility and boredom. In the long run it is not popular optimism and strained planning that keep an organization going; it is a realization of what is practical and sensible. This view needs honest recognition. Sincerely, John G. Wolcott, principal Glenhaige school, Lowell, Mass."

* * *

My dear Mr. Wolcott: For your letter I am grateful. Parents always are glad to get the viewpoint of the principal and teachers. It looks as if you and your teachers were peculiarly active and interested in P. T. A. work.

It may be, however, that some parents would not entirely agree with your point of view. Certainly the afternoon program cuts off the father from the meetings, and I am sure you will agree with me that the father is an important member of the parent couple; that, therefore, his active interest in the P. T. A. is very desirable. If school children always are to participate, the afternoon is better. Whereas many P. T. A.'s overlook the contributions which school children have to give, is there not also a danger in loading the program too heavily with demonstrations by the school? The broad concept of parent-teacher work considers community problems and home problems, particularly parent problems and the family.

* * *

The school principal has a rare opportunity to suggest to the program committee capable speakers on subjects of vital interest to parents; the opportunity, moreover, to stimulate parents to organize study groups with a view to understanding their children better, making their family happier and co-operating more effectively with the school. There could be a profitable evening program in which the principal might point out to the parents definite ways whereby they might make their children more successful at school. Then if this address were followed by a forum, the parents might ask questions about matters of the school which had not been clear to them, provided, of course, the whole discussion were carried on in a happy, unemotional fashion.

VETERAN ASKS INSURANCE

SUIT FOR COLLECTION OF POLICY FILED BY FLOYDADA MAN

Collection of a war risk insurance policy totaling $14,000 is sought by James W. Teal of Floydada who Thursday filed a suit in United States district court here against the United States. Teal described himself as totally and permanently disabled as a result of illness, gas, and shell-shock suffered in the world war.

In his petition, Teal says he entered the army January 2, 1918, and was honorably discharged with a surgeon's certificate of disability on July 8, 1919. He says he spent several months in the war zone and was gassed and shell-shocked. While in France he also suffered an attack of influenza and pneumonia, he said. During the last few months he was in the army his physical condition prohibited him from participating in the active duties of his detachment. Since leaving the military service he has developed pulmonary tuberculosis as the result of injuries suffered overseas, he says. The petitioner alleges his condition makes it impossible for him to support himself and his dependents.

BREACH OF CONTRACT IS CHARGED IN CASE

Suit for a judgment of $2,928.50 for alleged breach of contract was filed in 72nd district court Thursday by A. L. Brannon and J. K. Rogers against B. H. Ashley, H. A. Weir and S. A. Weir, cited as partners in the Penn-Sentinel Oil company of Dallas.

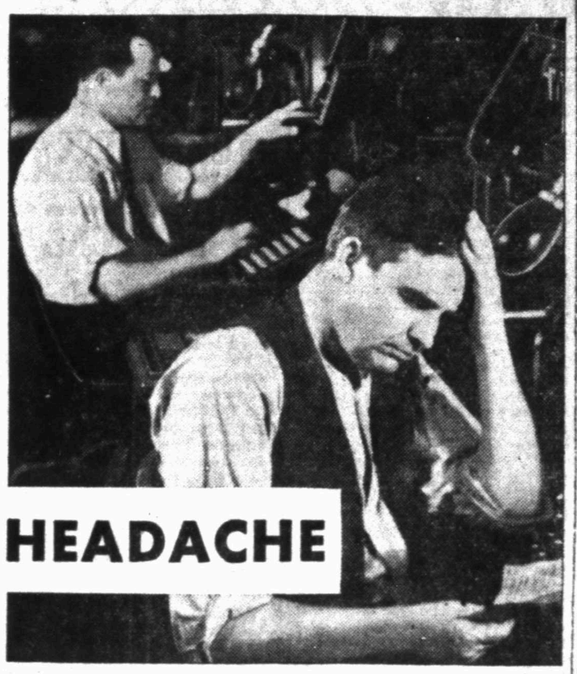

The plaintiffs allege they entered into an agreement with the defendants in 1928, whereby Brannon and Rogers were to be wholesale distributors in West Texas for Penn-Sentinel oil products. The defendants defaulted in the payment of $2,928.50 allegedly due after the plaintiffs had lived up to their agreement, the petition says. A judgment for that amount was obtained in 99th district court against the Penn-Sentinel Oil company on January 23, 1930. After the judgment was granted, the plaintiffs found that the company had no permit to operate in the state of Delaware, which necessitated the filing of a suit against the operators of the co-partnership firm, the petition says.

Coal produced by British mines in a recent week totaled 4,199,600 tons.

Pilot Killed When Airplane Crashes

CORSICANA, Oct. 23 (AP)—Kenneth Parker, 23, pilot, was killed instantly and Tom Westbrook, 36, was injured seriously near here yesterday when Parker's plane plunged from an altitude of about 200 feet and burst into flames.

There was an explosion as the plane struck the ground in the vicinity of Parker's home.

HEADACHE

Nerves on edge. A head that throbs. You can't stop work, but you can stop the pain—in a hurry. Bayer Aspirin will do it every time. Take two or three tablets, a swallow of water, and you're soon comfortable. There's nothing half-way about the action of genuine aspirin. If the box says Bayer, you will get complete relief.

These tablets should be in every shop, office, and home. Ready to relieve any sudden ache or pain, from a grumbling tooth to lumbago. Don't suffer with that neuralgia, neuritis, rheumatism, etc; or lose any time because of colds or sore throat. Get some Bayer Aspirin and just follow those proven directions for instant relief.

Get the genuine tablets, stamped with the Bayer cross. They cost very little, especially if you buy them by the bottle. Any doctor will tell you they are harmless. They don't hurt the heart. They don't upset the stomach. So take them as often as you have the least need of their quick comfort. Take enough for complete results.

MATADORS TO MEET COLORADO MINERS UNDER LIGHTS TONIGHT

WESTERNERS, HARVESTERS FACE PRACTICE GAMES

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

FOOTBALL TONIGHT AT MATADOR FIELD. Texas Tech vs. Colorado College of Mines. Game starts at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, any grandstand seat $1, any bleacher seat, four bits.

* * *

They want five thousand fans out at the football field tonight. They won't let but that many in, so if you're not early you may not be accommodated. Oh, there will be seats for about 10,000, but they want only half that number. Be sure and wear your number.

* * *

Friday again, and time to call some games. You, of course, will place your wagers just opposite, but you won't win in the long run. Since it looks like a lot of games will be played on muddy fields, we're just going to bunt today instead of slug. Those in caps are today's and tomorrow's winners.

* * *

Slaton's Tigers go to Amarillo tomorrow to meet the Sandies in what should result in Amarillo's first, perhaps the first of only two, victory this season. It is the only championship game in the district.

Pampa's Harvesters meet the Brownwood Lions, coached by Gene Taylor, in a practice game tomorrow. Lubbock should down Odessa in a practice game here. Down in District 2, which was formerly a part of District 1, Vernon and Electra meet in what should be a victory for Vernon. They play at Electra. Wichita Falls, stronger than last year, should take Quanah without excess trouble in the other district game.

* * *

District 3 sees a couple of good games today when Ranger meets Abilene in what should be a victory for Mahew's Elephants. Breckenridge ought to topple Cisco. Way down east, Tyler's Lions, state winners last year, meet Lufkin at Tyler. Lufkin has been going good this season and last week Tyler dropped a non-conference tilt to Marshall, which does not speak so good for the title defenders. Tyler should win, but not by much.

* * *

Art Shires has been sent to the Braves for Catcher Al Bool, plus cash, in case you wanted to keep up wit hthe naughty boy from Texas. As Friend O'Goofty would say, "An eye for an eye and a Bool for some bool."

In the heat of excitement over the Lubbock-Pampa game next week and the special train to run north, it should not be forgotten that the Tech Matadors step into some classy football a week from Saturday when they meet the Baylor Bears at Waco. It is not likely that a special train will run, but low rates will be available and there is a highway, you know. We're pulling for a big crowd over at Pampa, but at the same time it would be shameful neglect if the Matadors were not accorded some support against the Southwest Conference team.

CONTEST WILL BE ON TECH GRIDIRON

INTERSECTIONAL TILT IS FIRST EVER TO BE PLAYED HERE

The first intersectional game of college football ever played in Lubbock and one of the bigger games appearing on the 1931 schedule for the Texas Tech Matadors at home will be played tonight with the Colorado School of Mines team from Golden, Colorado, furnishing the opposition.

The game will start at 7:30 o'clock on the Texas Tech field.

Suffering slightly from the inevitable smashes and scratches and bruises sustained in the game last week at Dallas with the Haskell Indians the Matadors are not in the best of shape for their game tonight, but Coaches Pete Cawthon and Dutchey Smith have spent time and overtime this week with reserves and the several regulars who were not injured and the announcement came last night that Tech would be ready to go with a strong team.

Price Shifted To End

The only major injury suffered in the Haskell game, a broken leg by Bill Teal, regular end, has resulted in the shift of Yancy Price, former Lubbock High end, last year a regular end on the Tech freshman team, from fullback to left wing. Price has been playing full on the regular lineup so far this season, but will revert to his natural position for the balance of the season.

To take Price's part in the backfield, Harold Crites, former halfback, has been groomed this week, but is not quite ready for the regulars' lineup. Crites is named on the starting lineup, Coach Cawthon preferring to start his "shock troops" or "wearing down" team before sending in the regulars, as has been the starting manner all season.

Use Notre Dame System

George Allen, former star at Dartmouth, is head coach of the Miners from Colorado, Elmer Wynne, Notre Dame's regular fullback in 1927, is assistant. The club uses the Notre Dame shift system on the offense which is identical in fundamentals with the Tech style. It will be, therefore, a game which only the fittest may survive when the clubs tangle tonight, each knowing what to expect from the other.

Three seasoned linemen, Captain Michealson, Preston and Martin, form the nucleus of the Miners' forward wall. McClave, understudy of the all-Rocky Mountain Conference Burrell in 1930, is scheduled to hold down the pivot position in the Tech game.

Strong Backfield

In the Orediggers' backfield, Eddie Bond, Harris and Schnars are all letter men, Schnars being considered one of the best backs in the loop. With these experienced backs, two sophomores are being alternated in the quarterback position. They are Daggett and Billy Rump. These men are light, but fast.

The Miners come determined to uphold their reputation and the prestige enjoyed by the Rocky Mountain Conference, and they realize that Tech would like nothing much better than to polish off a team from that district. They come to Lubbock prepared to meet stiff opposition.

HASKELL, TEMPLE TO MEET TONIGHT

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (AP)—An intersectional clash between the Haskell Indians and Temple at Philadelphia heads tonight's football program in the east.

The Indians has split even in four games thus far, beating Kansas and Texas Tech but losing by one touchdown to Washburn and taking a 39-0 beating by the Oklahoma Aggies. Temple turned back Mt. St. Mary, Albright and Penn State before running into a strong Bucknell team which held the Owls to a scoreless tie.

Other games tonight involve Western Pennsylvania small college [illegible] at Beaver Falls; Davis and El[illegible] unbeaten in five games, and [illegible]ancis of Loretto at Johnstown, [illegible]oyola of Maryland against St. [illegible] of New York; at New York; [illegible]orehead of Kentucky against Harvey at Huntington, W. To Renew Aggie, Baylor Rivalry

TEXAS-HARVARD AND S. M. U.-CENTENARY TILTS ALSO FEATURED ON SOUTHWEST GRID MENU

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, Oct. 23 (AP)—The renewal of football rivalry between Texas A. and M. and Baylor; the first eastern invasion of the University of Texas to play Harvard, and Southern Methodist's bid for her fifth straight victory feature the Southwest conference gridiron schedule this week-end.

In 1926 athletic relations between A. and M. and Baylor were severed. Tomorrow the ill feeling will be forgotten and these two schools will resume athletic relations in the only Southwest conference championship game.

Aggies At Pinnacle

Baylor, tied with Southern Methodist and Texas Christian for the conference leadership, employed a fine passing game to beat Arkansas last week, 19 to 7. A. and M. lost a stubborn battle to Texas Christian, 6 to 0. The Aggies will be at the pinnacle for the Baylor game since all regulars are free of serious injuries.

Having won two Southwest conference championships in four years, the University of Texas invades Cambridge to play Harvard with a passing attack prepared especially for the Crimson eleven. This game will be one of the outstanding intersectional tilts, with Harvard the favorite, but due to get a superb battle from the Texans.

Southern Methodist, one of the few undefeated 1931 teams in the country, will take on Centenary tomorrow at Dallas. The Southern Methodist team has scored four consecutive wins, registered 103 points and held opponents to 28 points. In 1927, Southern Methodist lost a 21 to 12 battle to Centenary. Tomorrow will mark their first meeting since 1927, and like the Mustangs, the Gentlemen will enter the game with a 1931 undefeated record.

Frogs Meet Cowboys

Tonight at Abilene, Texas Christian will play Simmons university. Coach Schmidt plans to use reserves in this game, saving his regulars for next week's conference game against the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville. Texas Christian and Simmons played a 0 to 0 tie last year on a rain drenched field.

Victorious last year, 21 to 0, Rice institute is at Tucson, Ariz., to play the University of Arizona tomorrow in what is expected to be an easy game for Rice's brilliant running attack.

The University of Arkansas, defeated in two conference games this year, takes on Louisiana State at Shreveport. Louisiana whipped Arkansas 27 to 12 last year, and is favored to repeat tomorrow.

BIG GAMES IN MIDDLEWEST

NORTHWESTERN MEETS OHIO STATE IN ONE OF HEADLINERS

CHICAGO, Oct. 23 (AP)—A lot of light probably will be let in on the middlewest football situation tomorrow.

Ohio State sprang into a menacing position last week by trouncing Michigan. Tomorrow the Buckeyes' brightest hopes or darkest suspicions will be verified when they tackle Northwestern's powerful Wildcats at Columbus. Co-champions of the Big Ten last year and rated as just as strong this season, Northwestern rules favorite.

Notre Dame has mauled Indiana and Drake and played Northwestern to a scoreless draw in a game that proved nothing, due to weather conditions. Tomorrow Rocknes' heritage to Hunk Anderson will meet Pittsburgh, which is described as having the best line in the east, if not the best eleven. According to reports, the Notre Dame line is not all Coach Anderson wishes but the Irish will be favored to win as long as they can recall defeats no more recent than 1928.

Minnesota Meets Iowa

Minnesota will meet its first Big Ten opponent in Iowa, and in spite of a 13 to 0 defeat by Stanford two weeks ago, figures to win over the Hawkeyes. Michigan's disappointed eleven will meet Illinois at Champaign, with the old rivalry the chief attraction. About the only thing to be decided when Indiana meets Chicago, is which is the better team.

LUBBOCK HIGH AND ODESSA PLAY HERE

Odessa High school sends its football team to Lubbock tomorrow with the hopes of knocking off the Westerners before Pampa gets a chance at them. The game, designated as a practice game as a part of the Lubbock preparations for the Pampa conflict next week, will start at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Natural favorites to win, the Westerners are expecting no set up tomorrow, reports having come from reliable sources that Odessa will be hard to hold.

Handicapped by a schedule that called for no hard games until they run up against a Tartar, the Westerners will go to Pampa next week armed with a desire for vengeance, a lot of spirit, a bid for District 1 honors and the support of a Lubbock populace. On paper, the Westerners do not look quite the equal of the Harvesters, and that is the only way they may be judged thus far. Pampa is conceded the upper hand next week and a victory for the Harvesters will cinch the district championship for them. They were all-powerful in their 13 to 6 victory over Amarillo last week, and they were pointing to Lubbock even before the Amarillo game.

With all his men in good shape physically and mentally, Coach Weldon Chapman has stressed blocking and tackling in this week's practice. Defensive work, rightly applied, will stop the Harvesters, but it will take plenty of it. Apparently satisfied with their offense, though it, too, is coming in for considerable consideration, the Westerner coaches have dwelled especially on blocking and tackling plays.

New taxes imposed on motor vehicles in Peru have caused many automobile owners to store their vehicles.

TECH PICADORS OPEN BELATED DRIVE BUT LOSE TO TERRILL SCHOOL, 31-19

DALLAS, Oct. 23—(Special)—[illegible]ing good.

Coach Del Morgan's Texas Tech Picadors from Lubbock unleashed a belated offensive and galloped through the shadows of night for three touchdowns in the fourth period of their game with Terrill School of Dallas this afternoon, but lost. The rally was too late and Terrill won the game, 31 to 19.

The freshman offensive began to click with reckless abandon in that last quarter, but it was only a heroic gesture of a losing club, the handicap being too much to overcome although they crept to within five points of Terrill.

Darkness Shrouds Field

When the final whistle sounded players were unable to recognize their teammates in the darkness.

Gastmeyer broke the crust for Terrill as he took a looping pass and skirted the left wing for 30 yards and a touchdown.

Long passes gave Terrill two more counters. Heaves to Harris and Meyers, a substitute back be-

Gilmore Scores

Gilmore accounted for two Tech touchdowns in the fourth period. He nabbed a pass to count his first one and then knifed through the Terrill line to recover a bad pass behind the goal line.

Gastmeyer then grabbed a kick-off and scampered through for 80 yards and a touchdown.

Mandell Will Seek Return At Chicago

CHICAGO, Oct. 23 (AP)—Sammy Mandell, former lightweight champion of the world, will return to the Chicago stadium where he defended his title in 1929 as a preliminary boxer.

Mandell has been signed to meet Ralph Lenny, clever Jersey City welterweight, in a ten round preliminary to the championship battle between Bat Battalino, world featherweight titleholder, and Earl Mastro, Chicago's contender.

LIONS ARE TO MEET PAMPA IN TILT

OIL BELT TEAM WILL MEET REAPERS AT PAMPA TODAY

PAMPA, Oct. 23.—(Special)—The Harvesters of Pampa High school, headed toward a district football championship after defeating Amarillo's Sandies last week, 13 to 6, meet the Brownwood High school Lions, Class A outfit from the lower end of the Oil Belt, here today in a "practice" game that promises to be packed with plenty of football.

Scheduled to play Childress today, the Harvesters were asked to call that game off, and for a time it appeared that rest was in store for the Reapers, who have only to polish off the Lubbock Westerners next week to lay claim to the District 1 title.

Gene Taylor, coach of the Brownwood Lions, is well known in the Panhandle as a producer of powerful teams. Last year his class B Spur team almost held the Harvesters at bay in the first game of the season and then swept through an undefeated season.

This year Taylor has built a hard fighting team at Brownwood, the former home of the doormat team of the Oil Belt. Cisco just managed to defeat Brownwood two weeks ago and last week the Abilene Eagles had their hands full to beat them.

The Harvesters came out of the Sandie game last week in good shape with the exception of an injury to Joe Freeman, tackle. Freeman will not get in the Brownwood game. Coach Odus Mitchell preferring to let his knee heal completely for the Lubbock battle. Fullback Hill, Martindale and the rest of the boys who nursed minor injuries before the Sandies game are back in shape and will be ready to go Friday.

During the ten-year period from 1920 to 1930 there were about 600,000 cases of smallpox in the United States.

Pampa Favorite In District One As Sandies Lose

BRECKENRIDGE FACES CISCO AND ABILENE TO MEET RANGER

The defeat of the state finalists of last year featured last week's play in the Texas schoolboy grid race. Pampa's victory over Amarillo was impressive enough to establish the Harvesters as favorites in the district. Tyler lost a non-district game to the Marshall Mavericks as the 1930 state champions went down.

Scholastic football this week offers two outstanding games in District 3, Ranger opposing Abilene and Cisco meeting Breckenridge. The Tyler Lions will start their district race against Lufkin. Amarillo entertains Slaton in District 1.

Thompson Defends His Title Tonight

BOSTON, Oct. 23 (AP)—Boston's first championship bout since 1920, slated for the Boston Garden tonight, appeared today to resolve itself into a battle between stamina and experience.

Young Jack Thompson of Chicago, welterweight champion of the world, had the experience and cleverness on his side of the ledger. The challenger, Lou Brouillard of Danielson, Conn., seemed physically the more fit.

Brouillard, who has yet to take part in a 15-round fray, was the favorite before the weigh-in. His victory over Thompson here several months ago had much to do with the way the odds went.

Charity Fund Given $65,000 By Races

CHICAGO, Oct. 23 (AP)—Hawthorne has dumped approximately $65,000 into Gov. Emmerson's fund for relief of the unemployed, boosting the total charity offerings by Chicago tracks beyond the $100,000 mark.

A crowd of nearly 20,000 attended Hawthorne's charity card yesterday and admissions, along with money saved in reduced purses and a cash donation by the Chicago Business Men's Racing association, made it the biggest charity day in Chicago this season.

"BULK," VITAMIN B, IRON All in Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

If you suffer from ordinary constipation, you will be benefited by Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Millions have found it brings relief.

Scientific tests show ALL-BRAN supplies "bulk," Vitamin B, and iron. "Bulk" promotes elimination. Vitamin B tones the intestinal tract. Iron helps build blood.

In the package, ALL-BRAN has a shredded appearance. But within the body, it changes to a soft mass, which gently cleanses the intestines. It is much like the "bulk" in lettuce or spinach.

Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Try two tablespoonfuls daily for a week. ALL-BRAN is natural — far better than pills or drugs, which may cause too strenuous action.

ALL-BRAN is already cooked, flavored and krumbled — bran in its finest form. Serve as a cereal or try the delicious recipes on the package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

ASKS THIRD OF BIG ESTATE

FORMER CHORUS GIRL CLAIMS SHE WAS MAN'S WIFE

NEW YORK, Oct. 23. (AP)—Three women and a man went to the witness stand yesterday in an attempt to back up the contention of Charlotte Fixel, former chorus girl, that she was the common law wife of the late Abraham L. Erlanger, theater producer, and should receive a third of his $75,000,000 estate.

They said they considered the pair husband and wife because "they behaved like it," because Miss Fixel wore two wedding rings because she introduced the producer as her husband, because she called him "bunny," and because they lived together.

"During my visits to Mrs. Erlanger, she always called Mr. Erlanger "dear" and "bunny" on the telephone and in person," Mrs. Elizabeth Conger, Atlantic City, testified, after relating she had known the plaintiff 25 years.

"Before you were married did you ever address any man as "dear" or "bunny"?" the witness was asked by Isidor J. Kresel, counsel for the Erlanger estate.

"Well," Mrs. Conger replied hesitatingly, "maybe as 'dear' but never as 'bunny.' I consider that nickname very intimate."

Such greasy hands!

Hard water won't clean them

HARD water can't do much with greasy hands. Of course, you use lots of soap. You try to get a thick lather. But the water is too hard; it combines with the soap and forms a scum. How can you expect to clean greasy hands in that water?

There is a way. Use Mel'o. Sprinkle a little in the basin. Water softened with Mel'o makes a wonderful cleaner, with or without soap. Soft water and soap and lots of lather; grease won't stay long on your hands. Get a can of Mel'o at your grocer's today.

American Woman is "Lady Bountiful" to French Children

It's due to the generosity of an American woman that children in many French villages have playgrounds and kindergartens. This picture shows Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, member of a wealthy New York family, with some of the boys and girls who enjoy the recreational center she has provided for them at Augerville-la-Riviera. In the school-house which she has donated to the community, the pupils are taught sewing, basket weaving, singing and games. She also gave the children the white suits which they are seen wearing.

CITY MANAGER IS CHOSEN

W. H. RODGERS NAMED TO POST; HOLT IS VOTED SECRETARY

City commission in executive session Thursday afternoon voted unanimously to make W. H. Rodgers city manager and James L. Holt city secretary-treasurer. The meeting was at City hall.

Rodgers and Holt officially November 1 will assume permanent titles of posts at which they have served since last April 15, when Rodgers became acting city manager after the resignation of J. Bryan Miller.

Because of the absence of E. L. Klett, city attorney, a hearing on a proposed ordinance which would fix Lubbock's natural gas rate at 55 cents a thousand cubic feet, was deferred until next week. George W. Dupree and C. C. Crenshaw, counsel for the West Texas Gas company, and City Attorney Klett will confer and set a date for the hearing.

Saving Effected

D. N. Leaverton, police commissioner, made the motion and George E. Benson, commissioner of streets and alleys, seconded that "acting" be erased from Rodgers' and Holt's titles.

Under the setup of the new municipal organization, a saving of $3,000 for the year in expenditures will be effected as compared to the total outlay for the preceding year, according to announcement made by Mayor J. J. Clements following the meeting.

Prior to taking over the city manager's duties last spring, Rodgers had been city secretary-treasurer for five years. Holt had worked under Rodgers two years before his temporary appointment to the position the latter vacated.

To Purchase Car

A small roadster will be bought for the use of Fire Chief W. E. Twitty and his Assistant at a cost of $460, City commission decided. The decision to buy the automobile was made on the bid which was lowest net after allowance was made for a tradein of the car now used by the fire chiefs.

City Manager Rodgers will write the Lubbock Loyalty council and ask that it make recommendations to City commission, as a result of a vote by the commissioners Thursday

OIL WORKER KILLED

HENDERSON, Oct. 23 (AP)—Arthur Riley, 25, an oil field worker, was killed on the highway six miles west of here Wednesday night by Deputy Sheriff Ralph Watson. Watson and another officer said they were trying to question Riley when he drew a pistol. Watson shot Riley through the head and body.

BIG SPRING MAN DOESN'T WANT TO PROSECUTE GIRL

BIG SPRING, Oct. 23. (AP)—W. R. King, a prominent business man, informed authorities that he had no desire to prosecute Miss Fritzi Staples, 20, a waitress on charges of theft from person. He asked that the charges be withdrawn.

Miss Staples was arrested at Dallas shortly after her flight from Big Spring in a specially chartered airplane. She had $2300 in her purse, which she was charged with taking from King at a party.

She was released under bond of $750 after a preliminary hearing.

Waco Man Elected Head Of Druggists

CORSICANA, Oct. 23. (AP)—A. L. Stolte of Waco was elected president of the Central Texas Retail Druggists association at the close of the business session of the fall convention Thursday.

Other officers elected included: K. S. Black of Kosse, first vice-president; F. E. McPherson of Corsicana, second vice-president; J. Louis Marsh, of Waco, secretary-treasurer.

A move to secure the next meeting of the Texas Pharmaceutical association at Marlin in 1932 was started with the appointment of a special committee.

Negro To Be Tried On Robbery Charge

WICHITA FALLS, Oct. 23 (AP)—Richard Brown, 19-year-old negro charged with murder, criminal assault and robbery with firearms will be tried first on the robbery chage upon application of state attorneys. Brown's trial was set for Nov. 9 in Graham after his attorneys had successfully argued a change of venue plea.

Richard Johnson, 31, indicted with Brown for killing Ted Nodurft, assaulting his fiancee and robbery here on Sept. 9, yesterday was sentenced to death for murder.

DOCTOR FILES APPEAL BOND

WOODS IS FINED FOR ALLEGED BUILDING CODE VIOLATION

Appeal bond of $200 was posted by Dr. A. F. Woods, Lubbock optometrist, Tursday afternoon on appeal to county court from a $100 fine just dealt him by a corporation court jury for alleged violation of the city building code by allowing a swinging sign over the sidewalk at his office in the Cotton Exchange building, Texas avenue and Thirteenth street.

The optometrist is the first person in Lubbock to be prosecuted under the sign provision of the new building code, which became effective April 1, of this year, city officers said. The sign provision stipulates that no swinging signs were to be erected over sidewalks after the ordinance went into effect. It also provides that persons or firms must obtain permits for the erection of signs outside of buildings. City Prosecutor Jess Levens told the jury Thursday.

Schlag Is Witness

D. J. Schlag, city building inspector, was the chief witness for the city. He testified that Woods erected the sign in July without obtaining a permit to do so. The defendant was accused of failing to remove the sign after city officials had repeatedly asked him to comply with the city ordinance.

The defendant testified that the building officials were discriminatory in the enforcement of the law. He contended that other firms near his establishment had been allowed to erect swinging signs and had not been molested. He said he was willing to take down the board when his neighbors did likewise.

Levens On Stand

Levens took the witness stand to testify about an agreement with the defendant. A complaint was filed against Woods two weeks ago in connection with the alleged offense, but was held in abeyance when the defendant promised to remove the sign he said. The article was taken down at that time but was replaced a few days later, he said. Levens denied that the officers were being discriminatory in the enforcement of the ordinance. He said all others approached had agreed to comply with the measure, but in case the other offenders failed to remove signs after a reasonable time complaints would be filed against them in corporation court.

L. C. Jones, a negro, pleaded guilty Thursday in county court to a charge of shoplifting and was sentenced to five days in jail and assessed court costs by Judge E. L. Pitts. The negro admitted taking two sweaters and a pair of pants from a Slaton store.

D. W. Stansell was fined $1 and $12.15 costs Thursday by Justice of the Peace H. K. Porter on a charge of operating an overloaded truck on the highway. A. L. Harris was charged with operating an automobile without proper license plates.

WIFE BEATER IS GIVEN LASHES AT WHIPPING POST

BALTIMORE, Oct. 23. (AP)—For the third time in a year Maryland's whipping post was used yesterday for a wife beater. Charles Lemley was given five lashes on his bare back in the yard of the Baltimore city jail.

Lemley was sentenced earlier in the day by Judge Eugene O'Dunne, who has passed two of the last three whipping post sentences. He was convicted in criminal court on testimony of his wife, who declared he had beaten her for the last 15 years. She pleaded that the lashes not be administered.

Two of Baltimore's evening papers, after the sentence was pronounced today, printed editorials on page one, decrying the practice. One printed an interview with Mrs. Clara Waters, superintendent of the Oklahoma state reformatory, the only woman warden in the nation, in which she condemned the whipping post as "barbaric."

"Dub" Golfers To Help Unemployed

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (AP)—The unemployed of New York are to benefit from the ever-rising hope of the golf "dub" to do better next time.

A new style tournament has been arranged by the Metropolitan Golf association to bring about this result. For three days, Oct. 31, Nov. 1 and 2, any player who has a metropolitan handicap may play as many rounds as he desires, paying a dollar a round. He may apply his handicap to the best score he makes and when the results are tabulated, the player who turns in the best net score at each club will receive a silver medal autographed by Bobby Jones. Special prizes will be given for the best two scores in the district.

SIMILAR MURDERS ARE RECALLED BY DISCOVERY OF TWO BODIES IN TRUNK

CHICAGO, Oct. 23 (AP)—Discovery of the bodies of two women in baggage trunks at a Los Angeles railroad station recalled to Chicago police veterans today many similar killings in the past 50 years.

Murderers often have sought to hide evidence of crimes by shipping the bodies of their victims to non-existent addresses in distant cities, the police said, but capture has resulted in many instances.

Ease with which shipments by rail or water can be traced to the sender was given as one reason for the captures. In other instances, ownership of the trunk or other container was traced and the killer apprehended.

Perhaps the most widely recalled of the so-called "trunk murder mysteries" was that of Elsie Sigel, a beautiful, young missionary worker in New York's Chinatown in 1909.

The trunk in which her body was found was trace dto Leon Ling, a Chinese laundry owner.

Miss Sigel had been engaged to marry Leon Ling and, police said, he killed her when she attempted to break the engagement.

Then there was the case of Mrs. Katherine Jackson Leroy, a young wife whose mutilated body was shipped from Detroit to a fake address in New York City. She had been tortured with surgical instruments, police said, and placed in the trunk to suffocate.

Suspects were arrested in practically every large city of the United States, and also in South America, England, and France. No conviction ever was obtained in connection with her death, but her husband was traced to South America where he fled shortly after she disappeared.

One of the most notorious murderers of all time, "Dr." H. H. Holmes, of Chicago, was apprehended through a body he shipped to Philadelphia in a trunk.

Holmes subsequently confessed to killing 27 men, women and children, and was hanged in Philadelphia. A house which he constructed in Englewood, a Chicago suburb, became known as "the murder castle."

Everybody Happy Wh en This Bank Closed!

T. B. McGrath, Jr., at extreme left, president of the Mayfair State Bank of Chicago, decided there was no money in banking and decided to quit, but depositors having $100.000 in his institution refused to draw their money out! McGrath invited all depositors to come and get their money—100 cents on the dollar—and some of them came, as seen above, but as for the others, he'll have to deliver it to them for they have faith in McGrath and want him to continue.

SHOPS CLOSED

TO FINANCE QUOTA

DALLAS, Oct. 23. (AP)—Reports to J. W. Hodges, president of the State Banker' association, yesterday indicated bankers would finance more than their quota of cotton in the 7,000,000 bale holding program.

Cherokee county reported it would withhold 40 per cent of its 1931 crop from the mart instead of the suggested 25 per cent.

One bank, which Hoopes declined to name, promised it alone would finance or refinance 15,000 bales.

HAMILTON UNCHANGED

Attendants at West Texas hospital at noon reported Martin Hamilton's condition remained virtually unchanged except that he was more comfortable than yesterday. Also Phillips 66 Ethyl at the regular price of Ethyl gasoline

THANKS to the splendid American habit of giving "praise where praise is due," drivers all over town are talking about Phillips 66 . . . the greater gasoline.

Veteran motorists and novices, too, unite in applauding the virtues of this sensational, performing gasoline. They tell how it snaps up pick-up, peps up power, adds mileage, and gives sweeter running.

The reason is simple. Phillips 66 is honest high test. (See figures above.) Made that way by the world's largest producers of natural high gravity gasoline. Made to deliver more value for the money.

And it does! Prove for yourself the difference it makes in your car, by stopping for a trial tankful at the Orange and Black 66 shield.

Thought For Today

And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.—Mark 4:19.

* * *

There is not a fiercer hell than failure in a great object.—Keats.

Romance

A chance phrase in a newspaper, now and then, can provide dreams and memories; and surely there must have been a good many people who slipped into a pleasant bit of musing when they read a recent press dispatch saying that gunboats were patroling the north coast of Cuba because two sailing vessels "of doubtful character" had recently cleared from the Bahamas.

Not that there is anything about Cuba's present troubles to set romantil notions adrift anywhere. But who, having been brought up on the tradition of pirates in the Carribbean, can fail to feel a warming glow when he learns that "sailing vessels of doubtful character" are lurking in that sun-warmed sea once more?

There are certain spots on the globe that are under the spell of a tradition, and always will be until men stop reading tall tales and mulling over the adventures of dead years. The Shenandoah Valley is Stonewall Jackson and his foot cavalry, England's Devonshire ports are Drake and his swaggering seamen, and the waters about Cuba are pirates and privateers, the black flag and the poised gangplank.

Of course, one must have a hair-trigger imagination to be stirred by a chance phrase of this kind. But that, after all, is a common possession. And the mere fact that these particular vessels are probably sneaking gun-runners under charter to Cuban rebels is not discouraging. We have to make the best of what we can get, these days.

And to do that we have to be able to re-dream the old dreams. When we were youngsters, the world was a glamorous place. There were pirates off the Carribbean islands, we knew full well; and in the back of our minds there was always the notion that some day, if fortune broke properly, we could go there and join them.

It did not take us long to find out the truth. But when we did, the world lost something of color and freshness. The Carribbean waters today are as safe as those of Lake Erie, and at bottom we secretly wish that it wasn't so. When we read that the warships are out to hunt "vessels of doubtful character," we can go back, for a moment, to the time when high adventure was waiting for us just beyond the horizon.

Foibles

It is always interesting to read about the fads and hobbies of great men; and it is pleasant, somehow, to learn that Dr. Dayton C. Miller, the physicist who is world famous for his studies of ether drift, makes a hobby of collecting flutes.

Dr. Miller recently returned from Europe. He did this and that while in Europe, and talked with various famous people; but what seemed to please him most was the fact that he had been able to acquire 54 new flutes for his collection, including two rare ones made of glass.

Now if an ordinary mortal should take to buying glass flutes on that scale his neighbors would wag their heads sadly and look meaningly at the booby hatch. But great scientists are entitled to their foibles; and this collection of flutes by a man who ranks not far below Einstein adds a likable human touch to his portrait.

JUST by way of enraging the local intelligentsia, The Plainsman takes pleasure in admitting that he's getting a big grin out of the flounderings of the League of Nations, the Kellogg Peace pact and the rest of the high sounding, expensive anti-war societies in the Sino-Jap trouble.

It has always been and still is the opinion of this column that that kind of slush sounds good, but won't work.

* * *

We still say Uncle Sam will do better to paddle his own canoe, to speak softly but carry a big stick.

If the Japs and Chinks want to go to war—and the Japs, at least, apparently do—we'll be saving a lot of time, money and effort by minding our own business, studying our own problems and letting them 'have at it'.

A LUBBOCK woman was out in her new car with the salesman who was teaching the proud, new owner how to drive. After they finished the first lesson she had one last question.

"But how", she exclaimed, "can I think of just what to do?"

"That's easy, madam", the salesman returned. "Just imagine your husband is driving!"

* * *

Too many people live beyond their means to impress their neighbors who are living beyond their means to impress them.

* * *

THE Plainsman is no more a weather prophet than he is an expert on 'mad stones' but an old-time West Texas friend of his claims to know considerable about 'the signs'.

A wet fall, says this oldtimer, means a mild winter.

And considering the moisture we've been having, this winter ought to be a tough one on the manufacturers of winter underwear.

* * *

If you remember correctly, last winter was mild and was preceded by a rainy fall. As a matter of fact, rain was frequent throughout the whole winter and that occurrence is given credit for the bumper crops over the area.

The spring and summer did not net any great amount of rainfall.

* * *

SO mark this weather prediction down on your cuff and we'll see what we'll see before spring rolls around again. Another mild winter would be very much appreciated by stockmen and by people who don't want to spend any more money than necessary on fuel.

* * *

This same West Texas weather prophet gave The Plainsman another tip not long ago and so far it's working like a charm.

"If it rains after sundown it will rain again within three days", he declares.

The Plainsman has checked rains carefully and has found that so far the prediction works out.

What do you oldtimers say about this?

* * *

THE Plainsman nominates for Lubbock's Hall of Fame those happy but unthinking souls who insist upon propelling their motor cars along side streets at a rapid clip and, when they come to a cross thoroughfare, heavy with traffic, never think of slowing down.

As a class, these drivers are ones who make motoring in Lubbock a precarious and nerve-wracking duty, indeed.

* * *

To make matters definitely worse, in many instances streets intersect at points where trees and shrubbery partly conceal cars approaching from a right angle.

Especially is this true along 16th street, 13th street and Broadway—where one approaches the latter thoroughfare from the north or south.

All in all, danger lurks at many intersections—at too many of them for our drivers to bust on through traffic lanes without essential vision and care.

* * *

THE Plainsman has been informed by Mayor J. J. Clements that comparative statistics show Lubbock's motor accident toll is below the average and the writer has no desire to enter into an argument with Hizzoner in this regard.

It may be, that there are more accidents per square inch in York, Pa., and Terre Haute between the hours of 8:16 a. m. and 2:22 p. m., daylight savings time—but be that as it may, it takes but a brief perusal of the daily papers to discover that we have quite a few smashups right here in our own city.

* * *

Here's the point, as we see it: even though Lubbock's accident figures may be below average, that's no reason why we shouldn't try to make 'em even lower—and heaven knows, if our figures are under par it's only because we are lucky and not because our drivers are any better or any more careful than those in Kalamazoo.

Let's all keep a better eye on the streets and cross-streets. It doesn't cost anything and it might save a lot of wear and tear on the citizenship.

Swamped By Job Seekers, Civil Service Gives "Horse Sense Tests" To Learn If Applicants Can Use Heads

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last of two stories on the effect of the depression on the Civil Service. This story give a clue to what is expected of a stenographer.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23 —Uncle Sam doesn't want any stenographers who can't correct mistakes the boss makes in dictation.

With 40,000 young women applying for some 2,500 federal jobs as stenographers and typists he can afford to be choosey and he is. The Civil Service Commission has devised what it calls "horse sense tests" which are supposed to determine a girl's ability to use her head.

DUTCHER

Proficiency at dictation, transcription and spelling are essential, of course, for stenographers. Dictation in the examinations is at 120 words a minute for senior stenographers and 96 for junior stenographers. But, as Herbert E. Morgan, the commission's director of recruiting, says:

"Everybody who dictates stuff and gets interested in his subject and off on a long, involved sentence may forget the tense, person or number. A good stenographer will correct that, but lots of them give the letter back without change. A lawyer who dictates something about a partition suit doesn't want his secretary to ask him if that's something like a divided skirt.

• • •

"The typists we want are those who, when copying, will have sense enough to correct obvious errors or palable misprints. Sometimes you feel like throwing a cuspidor at them when they explain that 'That's the way it was in the copy.'"

The commission established the "horse sense" test experimentally last year when an unprecedented number of applicants took a stenographic test. Only a third of the girls passed the exam. About half the typist entrants usually pass. This year the "horse sense" test has been improved.

It does seem as if the dumb, gum-chewing type of stenographer has been the butt of at least a fair share of jokes, but the commission says solemnly.

"Stenographers differ more in judgment, knowledge of spelling and ability to use English than most people believe."

A general idea of the government's intelligence test may be gained from such simple questions as these, the commission advises.

"Read the next paragraph and answer the question that follows it:

"'Just as the procedure of a collection department must be clear-cut and definite, the steps being taken with the sureness of a skilled chess player, so the various paragraphs of a collection letter must show clear organization, giving evidence of a mind that, from the beginning, has had a specific end in view.'

"According to the statement, which of the following should be true of a collection letter? It should: 1. Show a spirit of sportsmanship. 2. Always be divided into several paragraphs. 3. Express confidence in the debtor. 4. Be brief, but courteous. 5. Be carefully planned."

• • •

Or trys this one—

"Which of the following is the chief value of a good mimeographing machine in an office? 1. It afford a quick way of getting out form letters. 2. It give the 'personal touch' to each letter. 3. It is not as large as the multigraph. 4. It gives the office a business-like appearance. 5. Mimeographed matter is more effective than typed or printed matter."

Or again—

"The saying 'If you know positively what you are about, your work is half done, means most nearly: 1 Work which is not planned is seldom half done. 2. An optimistic attitude is half of success. 3. Complete understanding of a task is a big part of its accomplishment. 4. By the time your work is half done, you should know what you are about. 5. The attitude of the worker is more important than his skill."

Your answers to those three sample tests would be five, one and three or you would be suspected of being dumb.

Besides the "horse sense" questions the stenographer examinations include tests on dictation and transcription, vocabulary, spelling and grammar.

Diet and Health

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets and six articles by Dr Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 3 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1438 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining," "Feminine Hygiene," "Indigestion and Constipation," "The Care of the Hair and Skin," "Infant Feeding" and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are: "Normal Diet," "List of Books for Mothers," "Bed Wetting," "Diet of the Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

BATHS WON'T REDUCE FAT

THERE is something irresistibly attractive about the idea of reducing weight by hot baths. Dissolving away the fat.

Dr. Clendening

It seems logical. The bath seems to burn the fat off. You are lighter, as a matter of fact, because you have lost about a pound of water. You are very thirsty and water isn't fattening you've been told, so you drink three glasses of it. Then you don't weigh yourself again. If you did you would find that the pound was back. The pound of an overweight is much more likely to come back than the British pound sterling. (That wasn't so good, but it will do as a period of depression joke, and as far as I can see it's just as good as most of the depression jokes nowadays.)

As a matter of fact, bathing of any kind does absolutely nothing to reduce weight. The physiology of the situation is all against it. If the bath did not call out any perspiration there might be a chance of its accomplishing some reduction, but when the perspiration comes out weight reduction possibilities fade.

This is because there are only three ways weight can be lost. One is by reducing the intake of food; the second is by using up more body tissue by exercise and the third is by increasing the internal combustion and heat of the body. The bath is obviously directed toward the third of these methods. And since the evaporation of perspiration is nature's method of keeping the temperature of the body at the proper level, the fact that there is profuse perspiration after a hot bath keeps down any weight loss by internal heat. The bath does not increase internal combustion perceptibly whatever.

Medicated baths are equally futile. The ingredients of most of the bath salts designed for reducing are simply borax or epsom salts or a combination of similar simple materials. Their action, if any, is to open the pores and relax the skin. Mostly their action is nil.

Part of the psychology of the reduction bath is the feeling of lightness one has after the bath. This is due to the relaxation of the circulatory system the reduction in blood pressure, and especially the reduction in blood pressure in the blood vessels of the brain.

And there is an element of danger in this. I was not long ago called in on an emergency call at a neighbor's. One of the members of the household had taken a medicated bath for reduction purposes and had fainted afterwards. For nearly an hour she was in a distinct state of shock.

QUESTIONS FROM READERS

E. W.: "I would like to ask advice with regard to varicose veins. What do you recommend for them?"

Answer: This question has been answered several times at length in this column. The best modern treatment for varicose veins is the injection treatment. It is simple and requires no stay in the hospital. It can be taken while the patient is at work. Nearly any surgeon or general practitioner nowadays has had experience with it.

Amarillo, Texas

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—As I walked across Thirty-third street this very day headed for my office, my path was blocked by a crowd of paraders forming in a large arcade.

They were bearing baners carrying such slogans as: "Tom Mooney Is Innocent" and "Tom Mooney Must Be Freed!"

Men and women, boys and girls, they made their way down the street—people of the garment industry giving their Saturday afternoon to a far-away cause. And I thought: "These people do not even know Mooney—why don't they ever say anything about Billings? —Or Weinberg?—Or Nolan?—And what has become of all the others: of Fickert and Cunha and the rest?"

For all these names had been written large on my youth. And as the autumn sun fell upon the banners, the years seemed to sweep away. And I was a lad again; a city editor of a struggling newspaper which now is one of the two leading journals of San Francisco. The office of the newspaper was an old grocery store. The shelves had never been removed. We had sawed sections away so that typewriters would fit in a little square space. The city desk and copy desk was an old poker table borrowed from a defunct press. Tom Laird, a prominent western sports writer, doubled as office boy and as the "advice to the lovelorn."

The little paper was devoted to the cause of the downtrodden. We were out to save the world, as what young newspaperman hasn't been at some time or another. And into the office would drift a rosy-cheeked Irish gent by the name of Tom Mooney. The Labor Temple was but a short distance away. And labor's fights were our fights. Tom would walk in with his raven-haired, flashing-eyed wife, Rena.

Poor Tom! Just a big dreamy Irishman who, I have no doubt, meant well. Well his car strike was a bluff as were many other things about Tom. He adored the spotlight—and I've often wondered whether he isn't today paying the price of his own imaginative ramblings. For there can be no doubt in the mind of any reporter who was on the spot that Tom Mooney had no more to do with the Preparedness Parade bomb outrage than you, or you, or you!

• • •

Coming through Thirty-third street, I could see Tom again leaning against the bar at the little beer place along side the Labor Temple. At the time the I. W. W. activities ranged from the Pacific northwest to the Sacramento valley. Tom would stand whispering to his cronies—

"Hear about that little turn up in the valley—I could tell you somepun."

Poor Tom! How he liked to talk! He would soon have the attention of a dozen ears. Small wonder that when the cops got busy they heard lots of tales about him. Yet I doubt that he ever did anything much more dangerous than lift a stein of beer from the bar to his face—and then talk, and talk and talk.

I've read books about Tom. I've seen plays about Tom. I know the story from beginning to end and covered almost every chapter. But I doubt if even his most sympathetic supporters know him as well as I do. Because, I knew Tom—when!

A speaker says Americans' faces reveal insanity. Nope! Hay fever.

THE PLAINSMAN GETS SOME MAIL

'MAD STONES' CONTINUE TO DRAW COMMENT

GIVES PERSONAL TESTIMONY

Dear Plainsman: Anent your invitation as regards 'mad stones' I will say that I grew up on a ranch 28 miles south of Amarillo and on the Old Cattle Trail-Stage and Freight road, from all points on the south to Amarillo, Dodge, Kansas, etc., in the care of whom was known from the Texas and Pacific on the south to "No Man's Land" on the north as "Uncle Tom and Aunt Lou", Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Foster.

Late one afternoon, 1890, mother and I were out around the corrals doing the chores and were attacked by a mad cat, which bit mother twice and in such a manner that we readily concluded that something was radically wrong with the animal.

In those days we were intimately acquainted with the belongings and holdings of our neighbors for fifty miles in every direction. We knew that a man south of Clarendon, or east of where Turkey now is, off the Cap had a so-called 'mad stone.'

You can to some extent feature our horrible feelings, as a few years previous we had lost a kinswoman by hydrophobia. My father witnessed her death in which she died trussed to her bed, yapping and snarling just like a rabid dog. This occurrence was freguently discussed in the family circle.

An older brother made the trip day and night on horseback after this 'mad stone' and the owner accompanied him home.

It became my duty immediately after their arrival to corral a cow and milk a small amount of milk at regular intervals of about once every hour, about one gill in a small tumbler or glass about twice that capacity.

When the stone was first applied it adhered equal to a leach and at the end of possibly one hour, it fell off of its own accord, as explained by the owner as being full. Then we placed it in this gill of warm fresh milk and watched it boil to the point that it nearly filled the glass with foam for sever l minutes, at the expiration of which time the agitation ceased and the amount of liquid reached its norual amount of grass green liquid.

I, myself emptied this glass, cleansed and refilled it with fresh milk direct from the udder a number of times and each time it was poison green. After several applications, in which the agitation in the glass became less and less and the color decreased, it positively refused to adhere. The owner then declared the poison was all removed.

Again try to feature my relief—I being the baby of a large family—and highly desirous of always having one and only one mother.

Mother died several years ago in Canyon at the ripe age of 92 years and never again felt any effect of her contact with a mad cat.

There are scores of old settlers on both the North and South Plains who will bear witness to these facts, as well as some who actually witnesed the use of the stone, besides all the members of a large family.

The owner made the same identical statement of the origin of this stone as the one which the 'Old Timer' used and I am firmly of the opinion that it was the same, as the only traffic from the East and Middle Plains followed the same trail into Childress by way of what is now Turkey and Estelline.

George D. Foster,
O'Donnell.

OLD TIMER WRITES

Dear Plainsman: Now about the 'mad stone'—boo hoo.

I am 78 years old, raised in Arkansas (if you please) and in my boyhood or young manhood I personally know of and did see what was known as a 'mad stone'.

While I never used or saw it in operation, I do know this stone was successfully used in extracting poison from the bite of some poisonous animal or insect. This stone was said to have come from a white deer and I personally knew the man who killed the deer.

Those stones will do the work and if you have any doubt and should ever have an occasion to need one, just hunt one up, if one can be found, and see for yourself.

Even the doctor might profit by using one if it should be necessary.

Yours for how little this might be worth.

J. T. May.

P. S.: I am really surprised at our Plainsman, 52 years old, more or less, never hearing of a 'mad stone'. I know one man in our town who says when he was a boy his father owned three of these stones. J. T. M.

A PHYSICIAN WRITES

Dear Plainsman: 'Mad stone': A stone about the size and shape of a hen egg, which is kept by some superstitious people in the United States with the belief that it will absorb snake venom and cure hydrophobia. See Winston's Loose Leaf Encyclopedia.

Just how far back in our history the use of 'mad stone' had its origin I am unable to say, but when I was a small boy persons who were suposed to be bitten by a rabid dog took long journies to a 'mad stone' and usually came back cured. It is a well known fact to physicians that nine out of ten, possibly more, recover without treatment even from bites and stings of known venimous insects and reptiles. We witness this in the lower animals that have no more natural immunity than human beings.

I have personally witnessed the application of so called 'mad stones'. Those seen by me were of oval shape and very porus and after being applied to the wound were soaked in sweet milk and, as related in the article, bubbles escaped which, to those in attendance, was believed to be the poison escaping. In fact, it was nothing but the liquid displacing the air in the porus stone.

All kinds of tales were told as to where or how the stone was obtained. I remember one that was said to be taken from the body of an eagle, another from a white deer. However, the white deer was not a myth. In 1872 or 73 there was one in a park at Waco with other deer. It was white with the exception of a brown spot on its face. The owner was named Barnard and some of his descendants still reside there, I think.

'Mad stones' finally became plentiful and were much used up until Pasteur's discoveries put them to sleep.

The 'mad stone', though useless as a remedy for rabies, served a useful purpose in relieving the minds of those who believed they were facing certain death.

It belongs in the same category with "faith cures." All have effected cures.

Very truly yours,
J. D. Moorhead, M. M.,
Meadow, Texas.

NOTICE OF BANKRUPT'S PETITION FOR DISCHARGE
In the District Court of the United States
For the Northern District of Texas
The Matter of Hugh L. Robinson, Bankrupt. No. 108 in Bankruptcy.
OFFICE OF REFEREE
Lubbock, Texas, October 21, 1931.
Notice is hereby given that Hugh L. Robinson of the County of Hale, Texas, first aforesaid, did, on the 20th day of October, 1931, file in the Clerk's office of this Court at Lubbock, a petition praying that he has been heretofore adjudged a bankrupt under the Acts of Congress approved July 1, 1898; that he has fully surrendered all his property rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said Acts and of the orders of the Court touching bankruptcy, and praying for a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate in bankruptcy, save such as are excepted by law from such discharge.
And it appearing from the above mentioned petition, it is ordered that any creditors who has proved his claim, and other persons in interest, if they desire to oppose the discharge prayed for in said petition, or before the 23rd day of November, 1931, file with the Referee in charge of the above entitled cause, their specific written objections thereto.

REDUCED RATE IS GRANTED

COTTON BEING HELD IN WAREHOUSES AS SLASH ALLOWED

Cotton amounting to more than 5,000 bales was held in warehouses in the Lubbock vicinity awaiting a reduced freight rate scheduled authorized Thursday in a supplemental order by the Texas railroad commission, E. Kancher, division freight and passenger agent of the Santa Fe lines here, estimated last night.

The reduced carrier rates on cotton from Lubbock and other South Plains towns to Houston, Galveston, and Texas City will make possible a saving of from $1.25 to $1.50 a bale, cotton brokers and railway officials here said.

Points and respective rates a 100 pounds to the three port cities, as designated in Thursday's order, Kancher reported, included:

Effective Thursday, the rate from Lubbock, is 72 cents per 100 pounds on uncompressed, or compressed in transit domestic cotton on intrastate shipments. The former rate was 95 cents. Although the confirmation was not received by agents of the two railroads here, the new rates applied to all cotton tendered for shipment Thursday.

Tulia, 81 cents; Kress, 78 cents; Plainview, Hale Center and Lockney, 75 cents; Floydada, Abernathy, Ralls, Crosbyton, Lubbock, Slaton, Anton, Littlefield, Levelland, Brownfield, Lamesa, Tahoka and Post 72 cents; Seagraves, 81 cents; Amherst, Sudan and Muleshoe, 78 cents, and Bledsoe, 87 cents.

The rates are based on mileage zones and are the same for shipments over either the Santa Fe or Fort Worth and Denver from towns served by both roads, it was pointed out.

daughter of Col. R. A. Sheed, a past commander of the United Confederate Veterans, was introduced to the assemblage.

In addition to the discussion of scholarships and loan funds that the organization holds in Texas schools, amounting to approximately $3,000, there were reports of other activities of the organization Thursday, principally the marking of the Jefferson Davis highway and the location and naming of state parks.

Congressman Marvin Jones of Amarillo made the principal talk at the evening program, observing historical evening and presided over by Mrs. A. L. Ridings of Sherman, historian for the state organization. He spoke of the glory of Southern heroes and of the principles for which they fought, saying that these principles, states' rights, are receiving favor again. He added that "we have a common country now and think not in terms of North and South."

Medals for poems, essays and the collection of manuscripts were awarded earlier in the evening by Mrs. Ridings. Prize poems were read by Mrs. C. C. Cameron of Dal-

AL CAPONE

Chicago Capone made a desperate 5 minute effort today to stave a penitentiary sentence for violating income tax laws.

As the big scarfaced gangster watched Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson, apprehensive lest the court interrupt at any time and pronounce sentence, Attorneys Albert Fink and Michael Ahern pleaded for a writ in arrest of judgment on a writ which would set at naught not only the trial in which he was convicted, but also the indictment which accused Capone as an income tax evader.

Held Inconsistent

Attorney Fink said he thought it was plain that the indictments were not specific and that the verdict finding Capone guilty on five counts and not guilty on 18, was inconsistent, that he doubted that it would be necessary to argue the point.

"You may proceed," said the court.

Capone, dressed in a black suit with a gray stripe, arrived early and paced the corridor waiting for the courtroom to be opened.

DALLAS, Oct. 23. (AP)—One man was killed and four other persons were injured on the highway near Kirkwood early today when an automobile collided with a truck.

H. Herndon, 36, a gravel contractor living in Dallas, died of a broken neck and fractured skull.

Guy P. Moore, 21, an employee of Herndon, was severely cut about the body and head.

Mrs. Mattie Venable, 50, of Irving, and her son, Mathew Venable, received minor injuries, as did B. Green, 19, of Edgewood.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 23 (AP) — Cotton opened very steady today and fairly active. Liverpool came in better than due and sterling exchange was easier. First trades here showed gains of one to six points and prices continued to improve after the start on trade buying and shorts covering. December advancing to 6.67, January to 6.74 and March to 6.92, or 5 to 9 points above yesterday's close.

This early bulge attracted hedge selling and prices eased about 7 points to 6.60 for December, 6.73 for January and 6.85 for March. As soon as the hedges were absorbed however, prices rallied again, 4 to 7 points from the lows and 5 to 8 points above yesterday's close.

The rally was attributed largely to a firmer opening in stocks.

The market ruled rather quiet all morning. Prices fluctuated narrowly and mostly within the early range until near noon when the market rallied on bullish weekly statistics, particularly favorable mill takings for the week.

December advanced to 6.69, January to 6.78 and March to 6.94 or 10 to 12 points above yesterday's close.

Around noon, prices eased 4 to 5 points on some week-end realizing.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 —Cotton opened steady today, unchanged to 4 points higher on a fair demand from the trade. Offerings were light for some months while active months showed net gains of 6 to 8 points during the early trading.

Trading in current October contracts ends at noon today. Notices representing about 2,400 bales were reported and caused some liquidation in that position but after opening unchanged, the price worked up to 6.59 or 6 points net higher. There was some bullish comment on the rains reported in the west and there may have been some buying on reports of a steadier tone in the stock market. A private report was issued estimating ginnings prior to Oct. 18 at 9,050,000 bales.

Liverpool cables said hedging had been absorbed by trade buying and calling on easier sterling and reported a good cloth business with China.

Trading was quiet later in the morning and after working up to 6.70 for December and 6.94 for March or about 9 to 11 points net higher, the market sagged slightly under comparatively light selling promoted by reports of an easier turn in the stock market and failure of the early advance to bring a broader demand. Trading was dull and the market was fairly steady around midday with December at 6.65 and March at 6.90, or some 4 to 5 points off from the bet. The last sale of current October contracts in which trading ended at noon at 6.54, or 1 point net higher.

NEW ORLEANS OPEN

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 23 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady today: Oct. 6.58; Dec. 6.64; Jan. 6.75; March 6.85; May 7.06; July 7.25.

NEW YORK OPEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady today: Oct. 6.54; Dec. 6.62; Jan. 6.71; March 6.88; May 7.04; July 7.22.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Oct. 23. (AP)—Grain prices sagged today after an irregular start. Corn market weakness had a general bearish effect, the impending movement of the new crop being unaccompanied by any adequate demand. Opening at 1-4 cent decline to 3-8 advance, wheat afterward receded all around. Corn started 1-4 off to 1-8 up and subsequently underwent a general setback.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (AP)—The stock market lost its courage after a fairly brisk upturn in the early trading today, and gains of a point or two were lost or subsequently reduced by midday.

The downturn came after announcement of the suspension of a small out-of-town investment house but trading was very dull on the decline. Advances of a point or two in American Telephone, U. S. Steel, American Can, Allied Chemical, New York Central, Southern Pacific, and Baltimore and Ohio were lost, and other advances substantially reduced. Nickel Plate dropped 5 points. U. S. Industrial Alcohol, however, was a buoyant feature, rising 4 points, and holding most of its gain.

John Convicted

HARRISBURG, Pa. — John Jackson was on trial for stealing a ham from a pot of boiling sauerkraut. The court charged the jury thusly: "The ham was there the defendant was there; the ham was gone; the defendant was gone." John was convicted.

Knows Mussolini

ROME — John Esposito of Province, R. I., who is a member of the Balilla a world wide fascist boys' organization, has a new motorcycle. He won it by answering the question, "what is Italy?" with the statement, "the country where Mussolini was born."

Turn To Cards

WASHINGTON — Folks seem to be playing cards at home these days instead of going to clubs and theaters. Internal revenue figures show an increase of $25,000 in the playing card tax during the third quarter while club dues and theater admission taxes have decreased $90,924.

Favors Curtailment

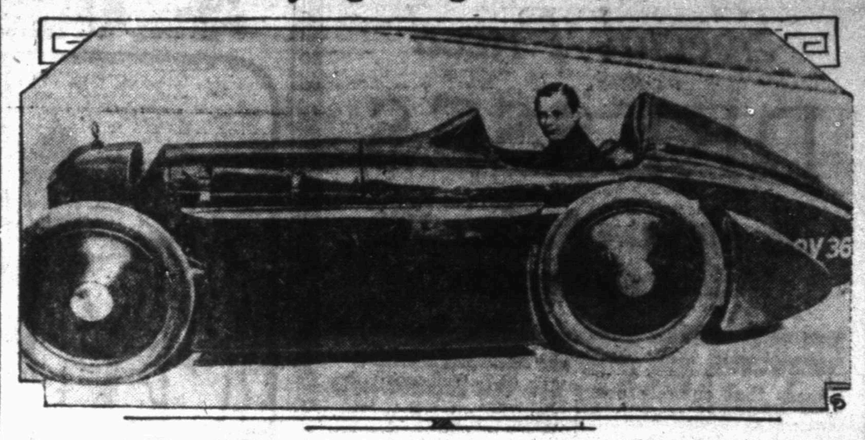

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich.—Robert F. Sellar, director of the Animal Rescue League of Boston, wants cats curtailed. He says the only reason there are not 2,100,000 cats prowling about the alleys of Boston is that his league reduced the supply of potential ancestors by some 60,000 last year.

Realistic Drama

NEW YORK—When David Baratz fell to the stage during the performance of a play in a Second avenue theatre the audience applauded what they thought was realistic acting. Then the curtain was rung down and fellow actors carried Baratz's body off stage. Death had been caused by heart disease.

She is Mrs. Gwenda Stewart, and her hobby is speed. Recently Mrs. Stewart set a world's record for small cars with the astounding speed of 109.13 miles an hour, at the Montlhery Track, near Paris, France. She is shown above in her specially streamlined bantam car after her creditable feat.

TECH STUDENTS WILL PARADE PRIOR TO MATADOR-MINER CLASH TONIGHT

Texas Technological college's football-minded rooters will parade through the downtown district shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon in their last appearance before the Tech Matador-Colorado Miner game tonight.

More than 900 students attended the first workout last night, a pep rally, at the college gymnasium. Jay Timmons, chief coach of the rooters, announced his section would be in tip-top condition tonight, judging from the showing made at the practice.

The meeting was termed as "the biggest and best pep rally in the history of Texas Tech." The Matador band furnished the music. Inspirational talks were made by Coaches Pete Cawthon, Dutchey Smith and Weir Washam, Jack Durham, captain of the football squad, George W. Dupree and C. C. Lindsey.

Cheer Leader Timmons and his assistants, Joe Harter and Rob O'Hair, directed the activities, which included a "Double T" stunt, which is to be presented on the football field tonight. The stunt was presented by an all-freshman cast.

Special effort was exerted by upper classmen to obtain a representative body of freshman for the rally. A select group of sophomores canvassed the city and invited the first year students to attend the meeting. Later a committee of seniors and other upper classmen reemphasized the invitation. Very few freshman were absent, due to the painstaking effort of the upper-classmen, cheer leaders said.

REPORT ON ROADS

This report is furnished daily by the South Plains Automobile club, local branch of the American Automobile association.

In accordance with reports received at the Automobile club at 10:30 a. m., Thursday, roads over the South Plains in general are rough, however, in most cases are passable.

New road between Hereford and Canyon very rough.

Fourteen mile detour from Lubbock to Lynn county line, between Lubbock and Tahoka, very bad on account of rain.

Road after you leave pavement out of Anson to Hoby very bad.

Route recommended to Oklahoma City, due to detours on U. S. Highway 66. Follow State road 53 to Dickens, State road 106 and 24 to Seymour, No. 277 from Seymour to Wichita Falls, State road 79 to Devol, Oklahoma, same road to Waurika, Oklahoma, U. S. highway 31 to Chickasha, going to Oklahoma City by way of Amber, Tuttle and New Castle. Paving east to Chickasha, detours most gravel.

Best route to Dallas: Follow Highway No. 7 to Snyder, 92 and 18 to Anson and Breckenridge, U. S. No. 80 to Dallas.

POLICEMEN HOLD ANNUAL BALL ON THURSDAY NIGHT

Lubbock residents assembled at the Uptown Dance palace last night for the third annual policeman's ball, more than 300 of them attending the affair which the bluecoats conduct both as a departmental tradition and as a means of paying for uniforms.

Dressed in full uniform, members of the force attended almost to a man. Most of them participated in the dance. In order that the law enforcement officers might have the night off a squad of special policemen were sworn in yesterday afternoon to handle police business during the night.

Lubbock's criminal element observed the annual affair reasonably well, it was reported. A prowler in the 2400-block of Twenty-fifth street and a stolen bicycle were only reports recorded on the station blotter up until midnight.

Four Convicted Of Kidnaping Charges

NEW YORK, Oct. 23. (AP)—Four men convicted of kidnaping Charles M. Rosenthal, youthful Wall Street broker for $50,000 ransom, were sentenced today to terms of sixty years each in prison.

The kidnapers were Marcus Blumenthal, alias Jack Markham, Albert Sileo, alias John Rocco; Theodore Adanolfi, alias Harry King, the latter two both from Newark, N. J., and Nicholas Rutigliano, manager of the Hotel Vendig.

A mulatto girl, known as Betty Green, was tried with the kidnapers but was acquitted by the jury which found the four men guilty.

It is said that 40 per cent of recent German marriages are childless.

The Travel Man said, "I'll just bet that some of this meat I can get. In fact there is a place nearby where we can buy a meal. You Tinies hang around and I will saunter over there and try and hurry up a supper that I'm certain will taste real."

It wasn't long till he returned and then the Tinies promptly learned that everything was ready. They could sit right down to eat. Said Scouty, "Well, that sounds just right 'cause I have quite an appetite. Most anything they serve to me will be a lovely treat."

As they sat down the Travel Man said, "Eat as slowly as you can. It isn't right to eat too fast. 'Twill only make you ill." So they all followed his advice. "Gee," Clowny said, "this sure tastes nice, but I am going to have to quit. I know I've had my fill."

The others, too, had had enough. They used good sense and didn't stuff. "And now let's get some exercise. 'Twill do us heaps of good," said Scouty. "If we walk around some sights of interest may be found." And so they trudged along a while, as slowly as they could.

They reached a little winding street. "Oh, look whom we are going to meet," cried Coppy. "It's a native girl. She has a wee pet cat. Let's walk right up and say hello and find out where she's going to go." And that's just what the Tinies did. And each one tipped his hat.

The little girl smiled nice and sweet and then she said. "I'm glad to meet a band of little strangers. You can meet my kitty, too. And, listen, I will show you how I make the little thing meow. This kitten almost always does whate'er I tell it to."

Good Reason For Hunting Brother

Under the will of his mother, her estate of nearly $12,000 goes to charity if he fails to find him. If Patrick is located he gets $8,000 and Edwin receives $500 in cash and a home valued at about $3,000.

GIVEN TWO YEARS

DURANT, Okla., Oct. 23. (AP)—E. J. Berry, Oklahoma City, was convicted of manslaughter by a district court jury here yesterday and was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary. Berry, whose first trial resulted in a hung jury was charged with being the driver of an automobile which stuck a car in which Mr. and Mrs. Earl O'Hara, Sherman, Texas, were riding, causing their deaths.

let's all go to Turkey

Where Turkish tobacco comes from

Eastward ho! Four thousand miles nearer the rising sun—let's go! To the land of mosques and minarets—so different from our skyscrapers, stacks and steeples.

Let's see this strange, strange country. Let's see the land where the tobacco* grows in small leaves on slender stalks—to be tenderly picked, leaf by leaf, hung in long fragrant strings, shelter-dried and blanket-cured. Precious stuff!

Let's taste that delicate aromatic flavor—that subtle difference that makes a cigarette!

In every important tobacco-growing center of Turkey, Chesterfield has its own tobacco buyers on the spot

XANTHI . . CAVALLA . . SMYRNA . . SAMSOUN . . famous tobaccos!

*Turkish tobacco is to cigarettes what seasoning is to food—the "spice," the "sauce"—or what rich, sweet cream is to coffee!

You can taste the Turkish in Chesterfield—there's enough of it, that's why. Chesterfield has not been stingy with this important addition to good taste and aroma; four famous kinds of Turkish leaf — Xanthi, Cavalla, Samsoun and Smyrna — go into the smooth, "spicy" Chesterfield blend.

This is just one more reason for Chesterfield's better taste. Tobaccos from far and near, the best of their several kinds—and the right kinds. And pure, tasteless cigarette paper, the purest made. The many requisites of a milder, better smoke, complete!

That's why they're GOOD—they've got to be and they are.
