Contract Let on Building Repair

Sam Adams has been awarded the contract for remodeling portions of Bura Handley Community Center on a low bid of $33,904. Mayor Bill Hatch made the announcement.

This covers principally the panneling, carpeting and lowering the ceiling of the club room, new doors and an entry at the club room front door. Halls will be improved and there will be certain other improvements.

Several members of the council and the mayor plan to attend a meeting sponsored by Congressman Bob Price pertaining to federal aid and grants and to the Rural Development Program. This will be held Saturday, February 23, at the Big Texan in Amarillo.

Council members also voted to raise the salary of night officer Wilson Porter $25 per month.

Four File For Posts on City Council

Four candidates have filed for places on the City Council in the upcoming election to be held Saturday, April 6, according to City Manager Lyman Daniel.

They are Garner Altom, administrator of Collingsworth General Hospital; Tommy Thomas, owner of Thomas Nursing Home; and Bob Goforth, owner of Cherokee Inn and Restaurant.

Loyd Vines, who is completing his first term on the City Council, has filed for re-election. Mr. Vines farms.

Terms of Ralph Owens and Loyd Vines expire this year and Mr. Owens has said he will not seek re-election. There is one vacancy on the council, created when R.L. Mabery resigned. He also would have gone off the council this year.

Candidates have until March 6 to fill for places on the ballot.

Holdover council members are Tom Wilkins and Lynn Jenkins.

Two Seeking Re-Election to School Board

Two members of the Wellington School Board have filed for re-election, Supt. Thayne Amonett announced.

They are Billy Mac Sims and V.K. Orr, Jr., whose terms expire this year.

The election was called in a meeting of the school board Monday evening, February 12.

It will be held Saturday, April 6, and the last day for candidates to file if their names are included on the ballot is 30 days prior to the election, or March 6. Only the two places are to be filled this year.

Candidates may file with Mr. Amonett at the high school.

Hold over trustees are Tiny Taylor, David Baumgardner, Richard Nall, William O'Rear, and Art Kane.

Faculty-Senior Game Postponed Due to Illness

The benefit basketball game between the faculty men and athletes of the senior class has been postponed to Tuesday, February 19.

This is due to the heavy percentage of illness among the student body which forced the closing of the Wellington School, and illness among basketball fans as well, according to Basketball Coach Robert Hicks.

Game time will be 7:30 p.m. at Rocket Gym.

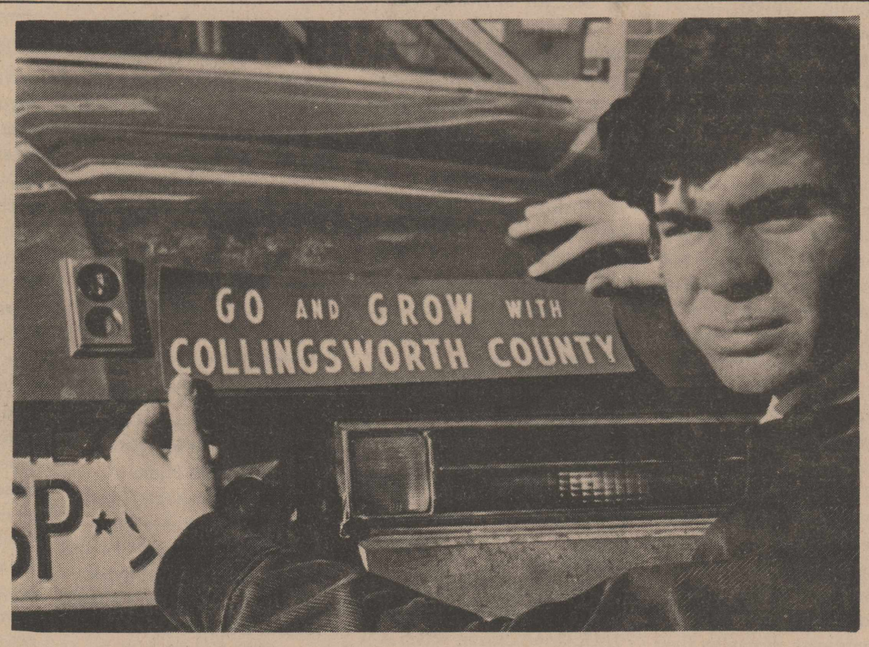

Faculty men from high school and junior high will compete with senior boys participating in the various high school sports, according to the coach.

Coffee Planned For Ray Ruffin

An informal coffee and get-acquainted evening is slated to honor Ray Ruffin, candidate for Congress from the 13th District, and his wife, Paula. This will be held Tuesday, February 26, at 7:30 p.m. in the Greenbelt Electric Co-operative Inc. Hospitality Room Hostess for the coffee will be Mrs. Edd Henard, who is Mr. Ruffin's campaign manager for Collingsworth County.

"We want everyone to come out and get acquainted with Ray and Paula Ruffin," said Mrs. Henard. A question and answer period will be held during the evening.

PUBLICIZING COLLINGSWORTH
Scott Gassiot displays the new bumper stickers bearing the county's official slogan, and sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Proceeds will go into the C-C Youth Activities Fund.

Blood Pressure Clinic Slated Here on Saturday

A Blood Pressure Clinic in which all county residents may have their blood pressure taken without cost, will be conducted Saturday, February 16.

It will be held in the RSVP Senior Citizen Center on the west side of the square from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. under the sponsorship of the 1924 Study Club.

"Anyone wishing to have their blood pressure checked is welcome to stop by. There is no charge," said Mrs. B.M. Sims. She and Mrs. Ralph Owens are in charge of all arrangements.

This blood pressure clinic is being held in conjunction with Heart Fund Sunday which will be the following day, since high blood pressure and heart disease are both classified as cardiovascular diseases.

Because of the importance of this clinic to the people of the county, anyone in Wellington not having transportation will be picked up and returned home. Those wishing a ride should call Mrs. Sims or Mrs. Owens.

Two nurses from the staff of Collingsworth General Hospital, Mrs. Ernest Harwell and Mrs. Tommie Murdock, will be in charge of taking the blood pressure.

"We ask all residents of the county to stop by and help us kick off our Heart Campaign for 1974, and at the same time, get a much needed check on your health," said Mrs. Bobby Gronewald, Heart Fund chairman.

"Blood pressure is a leading cause of death. One in every six adults has high blood pressure. It can result in a stroke, congestive heart failure, and kidney failure, and is a major risk factor in coronary artery disease. It is a major cause of death in Black Americans," she continued.

"Surveys of various population groups indicate that only 10 to 20 percent of hypertensive patients are currently receiving preventive treatment. "Approximately half of those with high blood pressure do not know they have it."

"It is for this reason that we urge everyone who possibly can to come by our Pressure Clinic and have your blood pressure taken. Early diagnosis can prolong your chances for a long life."

Rev. Collins Returns To First Baptist Church

The Rev. Roy Collins, former pastor of First Baptist Church, has accepted a call to return as its pastor. The church has been without a regular pastor since June 1973, and the Rev. Clayton Day of Ft. Worth is now serving as interim pastor.

Rev. and Mrs. Collins will move here from Big Spring next week and he will preach his first sermon as pastor on Sunday, February 24, according to Raymond Hodges, chairman of the pulpit committee.

Rev. Collins was pastor of First Baptist Church two years, leaving about two years ago to become pastor of West End Baptist Church in Houston. For the last year he has been in evangelistic work. He also has an interest in a cotton gin at Big Spring and has been working there this fall, Mr. Hodges said.

He and his wife, Glenda, have three children, Lori, Jim Bob and Tim.

We are certainly fortunate to have them come back to Wellington" said Mr. Hodges. "Rev. Collins was one of the more popular pastors this church has had."

He was guest preacher for both morning and evening services Sunday, February 10, and members said the new sanctuary was fuller than it had ever been.

During his pastorate, Rev. Collins increased membership in the church and increased its financial condition by about one-third to one-half, Mr. Hodges explained.

Rev. Collins also started the First Baptist Church TV ministry in Wellington, still available over Channel 5. He also secured a youth director for the church, began bus service for those who do not have transportation to services, and organized First Baptist Church Kindergarten, which operated until that grade became a mandatory part of the public school system.

"Go & Grow" Bumper Stickers Go on Sale

"Go and Grow With Collingsworth County!"

Bumper stickers with the county's slogan are now being sold by the Chamber of Commerce to raise funds for its youth projects.

In red, white and blue, the bumper stickers are colorful and tell something of the activity now encompassing the area.

All money derived from the sale of the 2,500 bumper stickers will go into the C-C Youth Project Fund. Out of this will come the premium money for the youth divisions of the county fair, the winter livestock show, and other youth activities sponsored by the Chamber, explained Charles Floyd and Pat McAlister, co-chairmen of the bumper sticker project.

Assisting the C-C in the sale of the bumper stickers are the 4-H Boys and Girls of the county, and the Future Farmers of the Wellington, Samnorwood and Quail chapters.

Also selling the stickers are the officers and directors of the chamber and the two Wellington banks. They are also on sale at the C-C office.

Replies Requested On Apartments

More replies are needed to the questionnaire regarding apartment living in Wellington, according to Billy Moseley. He is chairman of a Chamber of Commerce committee seeking an apartment complex for Wellington.

Mr. Moseley said that response to the published question= naire was good, but additional reples are needed to show justification for the project.

These replies are sought from persons who would be interested in living in good apartments if such a complex is built.

Town-Wide Religious Service To Focus on Brotherly Love

Brotherly Love will be the theme of religious services sponsored by the Ministeral Alliance Sunday, February 17, with pastors and members of member churches participating.

The service will be at the First United Methodist Church at 6:00 p. m. Plans were announced by Charles Waugh, president.

The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Ervin Emmert, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene. It will be built around the evening's theme.

Tom Wilkins, choir director of First Baptist Church, will lead the singing, and special music will be by a choir composed of Mr. Wilkins, Hugh Bledsoe, Truett Holland and Joe Lennon of Dodson.

Mrs. Kyle Lindley will be the pianist. The congregation will sing several numbers.

Mr. Waugh, minister of First Christian Church, will welcome the congregation and the Rev. Jim Boswell of First United Methodist Church will give the invocation.

The Rev. J. R. Wooten of Hedley, pastor of Faith Baptist Church will read the scripture; the evening prayer will be by the Rev. Clayton Day, interim pastor of First Baptist Church and the offertory by the Rev. Windol Robbins, of the Assembly of God. George Howard of the Full Gospel Church will give the benediction.

"This service is one of three or four which the Ministerial Alliance will sponsor during the year," said Mr. Waugh. "This is done with the desire of bringing about greater fellowship among all Christians in Collingsworth County. Therefore, we invite all residents of the county to worship with us."

Heart Fund Campaign Covers County Sunday

Heart Sunday 1974 will be conducted in Collingsworth County on Sunday February 17, when volunteers carry the fund drive into all communities, Mrs. Bobby Gronewald, chairman, has announced. is sponsored by the Wellington Young Homemakers, and co-chairmen with Mrs. Gronewald are Mrs. Leamon Bawcom, Mrs. Sherri Hiett, Mrs. Mike Smith and Mrs. Joe Wood.

In Wellington, the Heart Sunday drive will begin at 2:00 p.m., as the women and girls begin their street-to-street coverage of the town. Community workers will set up the schedule most convenient for their own area.

Approximately 60 women and girls from Ko-Shari will be working.

Mrs. Rudie Tate is drive chairman in the Samnorwood area, and at Quail, donations may be left with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Alston at the Quail Store.

"We ask that all the people of the county welcome the volunteers with open hearts and please give generously," said Mrs. Gronewald.

"Heart Fund dollars are spent on research and education in order to decrease the number of lives taken by heart disease each year. Help us to help you live a longer, healthier life with a good heart.

"Cardiovascular disease claims more American lives than all other causes of death combined," Mrs. Gronewald reminded.

"In 1971, an estimated 1,021,630 persons died from heart and blood vessel diseases. Of this total, heart attack was responsible for 675,580 deaths; stroke 207,920; rheumatic heart disease, 14,130; hypertensive disease 21,240; and congenital heart defects 7,500.

Mrs. Gronewald said that Heart Fund headquarters are in the Heritage Room of Wellington State Bank. All volunteers will pick up their kits and receive instructions there at the beginning of the drive.

They will return to the Heritage Room for coffee and cookies when they have completed their streets.

Assisting in packing the kits were the students at the Satellite Training and Work School, directed by Mrs. Hiett and Mrs. Ed White. The work involved sorting and counting various items to be placed in the kits.

Administrators and Coaches Re-Elected

School administrators and coaches were elected for the 1974-75 school year by board members in a meeting Monday night, February 12.

The contract of Supt. Thayne Amonett was extended so that it will expire three years from the end of the present school year.

Also extended were the contracts of E.W. Clement, high school principal, and Bob Copeland, Elementary school principle.

James Williams, athletic director and head coach, now in the first year of his contract, had it extended for a year. Robert Hicks, head basketball coach, and Phil Bailey, assistant coach, were re-elected.

Dick Hamilton, junior high principal, had tendered his resignation to the board in order to enter another field of work. His plans will be announced shortly. He and his family will remain in Wellington.

Schools Close Due To Student Illness

Wellington Schools were closed Tuesday and Wednesday, February 12 and 13, due to high absenteeism brought about by student illnesses. This is the second consecutive week that classes have been dismissed because of illness.

Classes at Quail School were dismissed Monday and Tuesday, and a count Wednesday was to determine if school will be reopened that day.

Dr. Carter Holcomb, county health officer, called this an epidemic of sore throat and flu, with the sore throat more prevalent among the young people and children. While there is some illness among the adults, he said the percentage was not anything like that in the students.

He warned all residents to avoid large gatherings, where the incidence of exposure would be high.

Wellington Superintendent Thayne Amonett said 150 students were absent out of the 690 enrolled. He added that if the absenteeism remains this large Thursday morning, classes may be dismissed again.

The illness is scattered throughout all grades.

Wellington teachers reported for an in-service training session Tuesday, making up one which was scheduled Monday, March 18 at Wheeler. School will be in session that day to make up one of those missed. Four days were set up at the beginning

Plans for New Year Motorcycle Club Set

A film "Fun in the Hills," entertained members of the Motorcycle Club Friday, February 8, followed by a business meeting in which plans were made for the coming year.

Prepared by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, it showed the hill country around San Antonio and Kerrville, with one segment concerning motorcycling in that area.

Pat McAlister, the new president, presided at the meeting and members voted to meet every three weeks during the 1974 administrative year, with the next meeting set for March 1.

Mr. McAlister succeeds Jack Needham in the top office. Other new officers are Leon Martin vice president and Lynn Derryberry, secretary-treasurer.

"Anyone who has a motorcycle or is interested in motorcycling is invited to the meetings, which are open to the public," Mr. McAlister said.

When weather is warm enough club members plan several week end trips and in summer there will be a longer trip to a rally, either in Kansas or Ruidoso, N.M. Several family pcinics will be held.

Junior Beta Featured in Club Magazine

Wellington Junior High Beta Club is featured with the cover picture of the February 1 issue, The National Beta Club Journal, Junior High Edition.

Information accompanying the picture read:

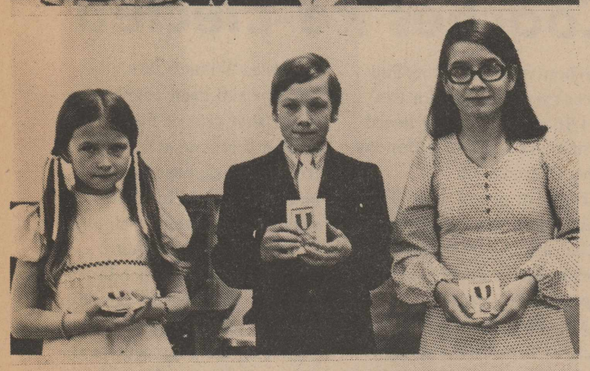

The Wellington Junior Beta Club at Wellington, Texas, had a busy and active year. Some of the activities include a "Cracker Crier," a Beta newspaper published each month. The football players are "Firecrackers," hence the name. With the money, they bought clocks for the school.

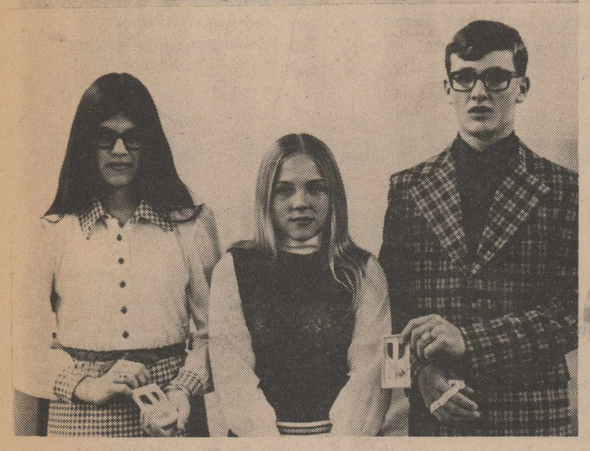

A sign for the schoolyard, advertising the "Firecrackers" is being planned. They decorated the halls for Christmas. The material needed for the bulletin boards are paid for by the club. They meet monthly for a program, picnic or party. The members are looking forward to another good year and are very enthusiastic. Mrs. Rufus Sweat is the sponsor and Dick Hamilton the principal.

The Junior Beta Club Journal is published at Spartanburg, South Carolina. The National Junior Beta Club is a non-secret, non-profit leadership service club for students between the elementary and high school grades.

Mrs. Earl L. Bartlett, vice regent, presented the "Good Citizenship Medals" and stressed they were not prizes, but the chapters recognition of the effort put forth by students in the field of American Citizenship. The American History Essay Contest is open to 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th grades in all schools who wish to participate when contacted by DAR members. Each year there is a national theme for the written essays.

One of the highest awards that the society offers is the DAR Good Citizen which is given annually to an outstanding senior girl, chosen on the basis of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism. Mrs. Melvin Seale, Chapter Chaplain, gave the closing prayer.

Students, parents, friends, and school faculties were invited to attend this Awards Program.

of the school year for closing due to weather and illness. The School was closed three days in January due to icy weather and two days last week due to the illness.

Mr. Amonett explained that such high absenteeism could lower the school's Average Daily attendance enough to cost the system a teacher if classes were continued.

Since seniors complete their work three days ahead of other classes, Mr. Amonett pointed out that students in the 11th grade and below can be in school up to graduation day, May 24.

Quail School had 31 absentees Monday, out of an enrollment of about 95. School was dismissed, but teachers remained for an in-service training session, according to Supt. Sonny Arthur.

Samnorwood closed part of last week due to student illness, but remained open this week.

High blood pressure is a silent, mysterious killer . . . silent because if has no characteristic symptoms; mysterious because, in more than 90 per cent of the cases, the cause is unknown and there is no cure.

It is suggested that everyone in the county over 12 years of age have a blood pressure check. The test is free, painless, and takes only a few minutes, including registration time.

Those who attend the clinic will receive a card with their blood pressure reading.

If the reading shows to be above normal range, it will be suggested that the person see his own physician.

WHERE THE OIL COMES FROM

Whether or not the oil embargo is lifted soon or several months from now, one thing is certain. The embargo is not effective because we are receiving much more oil than we should under a complete embargo. However, the world's hunger for oil will not diminish for several years until alternate sources of fuel are developed and Americans in particular, change their individual habits and living standards when it comes to fuels.

Since the price of oil isn't expected to drop much below present levels, the earnings of oil companies will depend on just how well they increase output and where that output comes from. The big push now is away from the Mideast and into countries where embargos are unlikely, even though the cost of crude produced in those "safe" countries will rise with worldwide crude prices. "Safe" producing areas would be the North Sea, Nigeria, Canada, Venezuela, Peru, Colombia, Ecudor, Trinidad, Australia, Indonesia and West Africa. The Mideast, with the possible exception of Iran, would be "unsafe."

But remember, "safe" means only that production is assurred, not that it is secure from the threat of higher prices as the price of crude goes up. There are numerous ways the producing country can jack up the price to the oil production at the expense of the producing oil company.

The only "safe" country in the Mideast today as far as production is concerned, is Iran. But it is high-risk in terms of taxes or other means of getting the maximum share of revenue out of the oil produced. Indonesia is regarded thus far as reasonable both as to production and price. Venezuela, however, put through a severe price increase in the form of a tax of 70% of the price it sets for oil produced in that country. The current price is $14.08 per barrel with the producer paying the county $9.86 per barrel. This means that the oil company has to get $11.00 or more to produce a profit on Venezuelan crude. But Aramco (owned by Exxon, Texaco, Standard of California and Mobil), which has the oil concession in Saudia Arabia, pays royalties and taxes on the posted price of $11.65. This means that Aramco starts making a profit above $8.50 per barrel.

The highest known price anywhere was $20 for Libyan crude shortly after the embargo was imposed.

Arab oil supplies a substantial part of the oil produced by the largest U.S. oil companies, but not all of it. For instance, Mobil, Standard of California and Texaco get much more oil from the Mideast than they get from the Western Hemisphere and the balance from the Mideast. Standard of California and Texaco also obtain substantial amounts of oil from Indonesia.

Those companies getting the bulk of their production in the U.S. are Cities Service, Shell, Skelly, Getty and Union of California. Amerada, Continental and Marathon are heavily dependent on Mideast oil.

Heart Disease to Take 50,000 Texans

More than 50,000 Texans are expected to die with cardiovascular disease in 1974 -- a rather grim outlook so early in the year.

Ready for another shocker? Deaths in the United States from cardiovascular disease (heart and blood vessel diseases) are forecast to exceed one million persons, 53 percent of deaths from all causes.

The State Health Department is aware of this frightful loss and joins with other government agencies and volunteer organizations in public awareness campaigns designed to cut into this annual toll. February once again is designated as National Heart Month.

It is estimated that Texas has 1.2 million of the almost 28 million persons in the United States afflicted with some major form of heart and blood vessel disease. Hypertension afflicts more than 22 million persons; coronary heart disease almost four million; rheumatic heart disease another 1.7 million; and stroke an estimated 1.6 million. Some victims have more than one disorder.

This is the bad side of the ledger. Now, what can be done to help balance the books?

In many illnesses there are cures wrought by modern medicines. In others there are preventive methods such as immunizations. There are no injections to ward off heart disease, but some steps can be taken to lessen your chances of becoming a statistic.

Nine risk factors are listed by physicians and medical scientists which make man more susceptible to a heart attack. One of these -- heredity -- is beyond our control. But, by decisive action, you may be able to cut down on your chances of heart problems due to the other eight: high blood pressure, high levels of cholesterol in the blood, overweight, excessive eating, too little exercise, diabetes, cigarette smoking and tensions.

If you are beset by any one of these risks, your chances of a premature heart attack are boosted to six times above the risk of the person free from such a burden. With a combination of factors, your risk is far higher. A man's chances of having a heart attack before age 65 are only about one in 20 to one in 50 if he is normal in these nine risk factors. If you are overshadowed by two or three of these risk factors, such as high blood pressure (hypertension), high blood cholesterol or obesity, your chances rise to one in two, or 50 percent.

A regular checkup, as prescribed by your private physician, may provide some advance notice of the impending danger of a cardiovascular problem, says the State Health Department. You and your doctor can chart a course of action to eliminate some of those nine factors so powerfully implicated in causing heart attacks. Or, you can choose to do nothing and await the consequences.

One of the simplest problems to uncover is hypertension, which afflicts some 22.3 million Americans and leads to strokes, heart failure, serious kidney problems and often to early death. It is called the silent killer because only half its victims are aware they have it. Of those, only about half are receiving any treatment.

While everyone needs blood pressure to move blood through the circulatory system, too much pressure is bad. It's a simple matter to check blood pressure, and it's quick and painless. Your physician, his nurse or trained aide places a blood pressure cuff around your upper arm to determine the force of blood as it comes from the heart and hits the artery wall. A guage attached to the cuff allows the operator to measure the pressure as the cuff is inflated to close off the blood circulation. A high reading -- registering the "systolic" pressure from the pumping action of the heart -- and a low reading, "diastolic" pressure while the heart is relaxing, are recorded. Your physician knows the normal blood pressure levels and can say immediately if your level is high.

Early detection means early treatment -- and a better chance for a longer life. It's your life, so why take chances with hypertension or any of the other risk factors?

Lone Star Gas Drills in Greece

DALLAS -- Lone Star Gas Company has agreed to participate in its first Mediterranean exploration venture when two wells are drilled in Greece early in 1974 through a subsidiary, LSG Greece, Inc.

The operator, with a 75% interest, is Anschutz Overseas Corp. of Greece, a wholly owned subsidiary of The Anschutz Corp. of Denver, Colorado. LSG Greece, Inc., is subject to approval by the Greek government.

Two wells will be drilled on two separate concessions of about 1.4 million and six hundred thousand acres respectively, both located near the large industrial city of Salonika, bordering the Aegean Sea. The first well was spudded on the smaller concession on January 26, 1974, and is currently drilling toward an objective total depth of 8,700 feet. Plans for additional drilling are pending until after evaluation of the first two wells.

Drilling contract for the project has been awarded to Saipem SPA, Milan, Italy, a division of ENTE NAZIONALE Idrocarburi.

6 WAYS TO CONSERVE AND SAVE

FOR THE HOMEMAKER

1. Let Nature help you to save on operating costs.
   (a) Let the sunshine in during winter months to help cut heating costs.
   (b) Shade your home with trees and shrubs to help cut down on summer cooling costs. Draw draperies against afternoon sun.
2. Be prudent when using appliances. Wash full loads of dishes and laundry, and follow manufacturer's owner-manual for best results.
3. Proper insulation helps secure your home against dirt and noise and defends it against outside heat and cold, offering year round comfort and savings. Insulation can pay for itself in the savings from operating cost in about 1½ years.
4. You purchased fine-home comfort when you bought your air conditioning and heating units. Properly maintained, they offer you years of efficient service. A once-a-year check-up by your dealer pays dividends in savings on operating and break-down costs.
5. For savings on energy, set the thermostat on the temperature setting that provides adequate comfort (the President suggests 68°). Don't continually switch it up and down. Remember, the lower you set the thermostat in the winter the more money you save on energy.
6. Adequate lighting is essential for creating a safe and pleasing environment in every room of your home. Dust and dirt alone cause substantial losses in the amount of light produced. Systematic cleaning is important. Clean lamp bulbs (when they are cool) with a damp cloth. Conserve and save energy by turning lights off in rooms that are not needed.

Cates Seeks Third Term as Representative

State Representative Phil Cates has announced that he has filed for re-election to a third term in the Texas House of Representatives.

The Lefors Democrat announced that he would continue to serve the people of District 66 fairly and honestly. "Both the district and the Capitol offices are open daily during the week," Rep. Cates said.

"I am seeking a third term to the Texas House and pledge my continued support for (1) the development of a sufficient water supply for the Panhandle-Plains region, (2) frugal fiscal practices at all levels of state government, and (3) making good government subservient to the people, rather than the people being slaves to government red tape," Cates said in his announcement.

Rep. Cates is currently serving as a delegate to the history making Constitutional Convention of 1974. At the Convention, delegate Cates was appointed to the committee on the executive by Convention President Price Daniel, Jr.

Rep. Cates has served as Vice Chairman of the Human Resources committee during the past legislative term as well as Vice Chairman of the sub-committee on water within the Natural Resources committee. Rep. Cates also has a seat on the Agriculture Committee in the House of Representatives. He was appointed to the special interim committee on state economy by the Speaker of the House.

Rep. Cates has sponsored legislation against persons involved in child abuse, the bill to allow spraying instead of dipping of cattle for scabies protection, and he supports the concept of the right-to-work law.

Rep. Cates is the only graduate of West Texas State University now serving in the State Legislature, although there have been others in the past. Cates served as Assistant Dean of Student Life at WTSU prior to his election to the 62nd Legislature in 1970.

Cates is married to the former Nancy Kay Holt of Pampa. He represents ten Texas counties which include Gray, Wheeler, Collingsworth, Floyd, Armstrong, Childress, Briscoe, Hall, Motley and Donley.

After filing with the State Democratic Executive Committee in Austin, Cates stated: "Nancy and I are grateful to the Panhandle Plains area for allowing us to represent them in state government. We feel even greater need for good government in the future since we are looking forward to the birth of our first child in September."

PRICE DANIEL, JR. and MAX SHERMAN

Sherman Receives Convention Gavel

State Senator Max Sherman of Amarillo is shown here receiving a gavel from Constitutional Convention President Price Daniel Jr., significant of his position as Chairman of the Committee on Style and Drafting for the Convention. Delegate Sherman was appointed by Daniel during the first week of the Convention to serve in the chairmanship position of the committee.

"These committee appointments recognize the expertise of individual delegates regardless of legislative seniority," said Daniel. "However, the chairmanships and vice-chairmanships of the committees reflect a great deal of legislative expertise and know-how."

Sherman, a Democrat from Senatorial District 31 said he is "proud to serve the State in the re-write of its basic document, the Constitution, and especially honored to be chosen to fill one of the prime leadership roles of the Convention by serving as chairman of the Style and Drafting Committee."

Col. and Mrs. John T. Alexander of Augusta, Georgia, were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Alexander and other relatives and friends this week.

Wide Ranging Community Loans Due

Small rural communities will soon have increased federal support to update or develop needed facilities, according to announcement today by J. Lynn Futch, Director of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Farmers Home Administration programs in Texas.

State Director Futch said FHA can make credit available to small rural towns for a wide range of community facilities such as industrial parks, streets, fire fighting equipment, ambulance services, community centers and even for community recreation.

The new program authorized under provisions of the 1972 Rural Development Act, supplements the Farmers Home Administration's water and waste disposal loan program.

"We are constantly striving to improve the quality of life in our state's small towns and outlying communities," Mr. Futch said. "Our water and sewer loan program has financed over 763 sustems with more than $134 million and benefitted 532,000 rural people since the start of the program. Now we are in position to assist with more diverse projects."

Most of the loans are expected to be made to public bodies such as towns up to 10,000 population, counties and some special purpose districts, Mr. Futch said. Some assistance may go to nonprofit corporations, provided they prepare plans for adequate repayment.

Mr. Futch pointed out that priority will be given to municipal borrowers in communities smaller than 5,500 people to improve a deteriorating water supply or to enlarge or modify a water system or an inadequate sewer system. Proposed plans must be consistent with areawide development plans.

Borrowers may use funds to acquire land and/or water rights, to construct buildings of modest design, size and cost essential to the operation of the community facility, and to provide for a larger variety of other needs.

Additional information is available through any of Texas' 143 county FHA offices, usually located in county seat towns.

JOHN KIMBRO

Kimbro Wins Company Honor

A former Wellington man, John Kimbro, recently was elected a representative on the 1974 Kirby Division of the Scott and Fetzler Company Council. The election campaign closed Dec. 31.

Other privileges for Kimbro and his wife, Katie, go with the place on the council, since that body plays an increasingly more important role in the Kirby Organization, a company representative pointed out.

"Many of the programs and promotions benefitting Kirby men and women today at the direct results of recommendations and proposals of previous Kirby Councils," Kimbro said.

A 5-day, all expense paid trip for the Kimbros will take them to the 24th Kirby Council Conference at the Macuto Sheraton in Caracas, Venezuela, February 24 to 28. A similar mid-year trip will be to the 25th conference at the Chateau Frontenac in Quebec City, Quebeck Canada, August 15

Area Cotton Ginning Now in Final Stages

Clear weather allowed cotton ginning to continue into the final stages over the Memphis, Texas area according to W.E. Cain, In Charge of the USDA, Agricultural Marketing Service, Cotton Classing Office in Memphis, Texas. "Most of the cotton being ginned is ground stored, or ricked, cotton," said Cain.

The Memphis, Texas Office classed 16,200 samples this week to bring the season total to 265,200. This compares to 192,200 on the same date a year ago.

The predominant grade classed this week was grade 32 with 53 percent followed by grade 42 with 22 percent, grade 41 with 10 percent and grade 31 with five percent.

The predominant length classed this week was staple 32 with 58 percent followed by staple 31 with 38 percent.

Micronaire readings showed 69 percent miked in the desirable range of 3.5 to 4.9, 25 percent mided 3.0 to 3.4, and five percent miked 2.9 and below.

Pressley tests showed 87 percent tested 75,000 psi or higher. The average for the week w was 81,000 psi.

The cotton market was moderately active over the Memphis, Texas area this week. Prices were lower early but responded to a rising Futures market later in the week and closed one and one-half to two and one-half cents per pound over early week quotations. Some average prices paid on Friday were: grade 41, staple 32-57.00 to 59.00 cents per pound; grade 32, staple 31-53.50 to 55.00 cents per pound; and grade 42, staple 31-52.50 to 54.50 cents per pound. This was for cotton miking 3.5 to 4.9.

to 18. A handsome recognition award plaque for all council members will be awarded in Caracas.

Kimbro joined the Kirby organization in January 1966 as a salesman in Wichita Falls, where he won many awards as a dealer. He also served as manpower specialist and for three years as general sales manager. He was promoted to a direct factory distributor in July 1973 and the couple opened the Kirby office in Mineral Wells August 13.

Kimbro is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Kimbro.

Questions People Ask About the Catholic Church

Q. Why don't you ever respond to criticism, or argue about your column?

A. This column is written purely to inform people about the beliefs of Our Lord's Holy Catholic Church. It is simply an information vehicle, and not a forum for invective and argument. I will respond to any question of a serious nature, whether written or phoned in to me. All abusive or insulting letters will be immediately filed in a pretty red wastebasket by my desk.

Q. What are the Dead Sea Scrolls?

A. A collection of manuscripts, also called the Qumran Scrolls, all but one of them in Hebrew, found between 1947 and 1956, in caves in the Desert of Juda west of the Dead Sea. They are still the subject of intensive study by the Catholic Church.

Two Activities Aimed Against Our No. 1 Killer

Everyone who has ever wanted to "do something" about America's No. 1 killer will have that opportunity in the coming week.

A group of energetic young women are conducting the Heart Fund Campaign, and in association with it for the first time, a blood pressure clinic.

Every cent you donate to the Heart Fund will go into some phase of its work. Much of the money is used for research and education. Funds from past years have accounted for a number of decisive steps in treating and preventing heart disease.

Every time we attend a public meeting in Collingsworth County, most of the occasions when we sit with a group of friends, we are face to face with someone suffering from a cardiovascular disease. Some are not aware they are victims, for like some of the other major killers, they come upon us unnoticed.

Cardiovascular disease, which includes the various heart and blood vessel diseases, account for the deaths of more Americans each year than do all other diseases combined.

This week end, you can help yourself by attending the Pressure Clinic. You can help others by supporting the Heart Fund.

Other Editors Say . . .

Amazing Americans

The genius of America continues to astound us. The whining and blaming and threatening in Washington become an embarrassment by comparison.

The sheer inventiveness of people who have always found ways to make-do and improve is pretty heartening.

For instance, heating experimental greenhouses at the University of Arizona's Environmental Research Lab is done with waste warm water channeled through long plastic tubes.

In Springfield, Ore., fruit and nut trees sprayed with warm water, which would have otherwise gone to waste from a nearby power plant, prevented trees from being damaged by frost.

The idea for raising oysters 12 months of the year was developed when a Long Island power company consulted the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation on the possible effects of warmed sea water on marine life. The result - an oyster hatchery on the discharge lagoon.

People are wonderful. Left alone they find ways to cope with almost anything. The impossible things to deal with are government set prices and controls, along with government's ideas of allocation and distribution.

The fuel shortage has stirred architects in America to look to our ancestors for some forgotten methods of insulation.

Architect Richard G. Stein says, "We're looking with renewed interest at the ingenious ways ancient builders used natural forces. The thick walls of an adobe pueblo soak up the heat from the sun during the day while keeping the interior cool. During the evening when the temperature drops, the walls release the heat, warming the inside. By sunrise, the walls have cooled and the whole cycle begins again. This is an effective and subtle form of solar heating."

We do a lot of foolish things and make a lot of mistakes, but so varied are our talents, so steady our perseverance that we can always beat our way out of the wilderness. If only lesser men would be still and let us get at the job.

State Capital News

By Bill Boykin

AUSTIN, Tex. — Plenty of action for the May 4 Democratic primary developed just before last week's filing deadline.

Mrs. Frances "Sissy" Farenthold got into the governor's race against Gov. Dolph Briscoe, and promptly filed a $3 million lawsuit, alleging he accepted illegal campaign contributions.

Houston lawyer Donald B. Yarbrough filed against State Treasurer Jesse James. Herbert "Peanut" Schroeder of Columbus challenged Agriculture Commissioner John C. White; and C. A. Kelly of San Antonio took on Railroad Commissioner Mack Wallace.

A three-way Democratic race of comptroller was on schedule long before the filing deadline, with Bob Bullock and Howard Edburg of Austin and Buddy F. Kirk of Houston the candidates. Comptroller Robert S. Calvert is retiring.

Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, Attorney General John Hill, Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong, Railroad Commission Chairman Jim C. Langdon and top appellate judges escaped Democratic opposition. But all incumbent statewide officials (except the judges) will get Republican opposition in November.

Republicans have contests for governor: Hank Grover of Houston, Jim Granberry of Lubbock and Odell McBrayer of Fort Worth; for lieutenant governor: Gaylor Marshall of Dallas and Troy Skates of Austin; and for railroad commissioner: Dale W. Steffes of Houston and John Hall of Weatherford.

Other Republican statewide candidates include Tom Cole of Houston for attorney general; Nicholas Rowe of McAllen for comptroller; Mrs. Mary Lou Grier of Boerne for land commissioner; Robert G. Holt of Amarillo for treasurer; Zack Fisher of Memphis for agriculture commissioner and Joe Cain of Houston for railroad commissioner against Langdon.

Raza Unida Party fielded Ramsey Muniz for governor and Fred Garza for Railroad Commissioner.

CONVENTION MOVES ON — Constitutional Convention delegates are making major decisions in committees as their work product nears the floor voting stage.

One of the big votes in the Education Committee was for retention of the $680 million permanent University Fund for use of the University of Texas and Texas A&M University.

Voting rights (postponed due to a last-minute committee hangup) and education proposals are expected to be considered by the full convention late this week.

Presiding Officer Price Daniel Jr. said the convention probably will be voting every day next week, and committees which have not finished their work will have to hold night sessions.

TRUCKERS IRATE — Unhappy Texas truck drivers called on Governor Briscoe for aid in getting diesel fuel prices rolled back.

In an effort to end their strike, Briscoe dispatched an aide to Washington to confer with Federal Energy Administrator William Simon on the situation.

The governor's aide, James Rose, said his mission was "simply to convey (the truckers') position to federal agencies and congressmen."

Texas truckers also demanded an increase in the speed limit between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m.

COURTS SPEAK— The State Supreme Court affirmed a trial court verdict that the City of San Antonio does not owe hotel operators damages because a parking garage hampered access to their hotel.

Former House Speaker Gus Mutcher's appeal from a bribery conspiracy sentence (five years probated) will be heard by Texas Court of Criminal Appeals April 10 or 17.

The Supreme Court threw out a 150-day sentence for contempt of court assessed Jody Martin Parr, wife of Duval County Judge Archer Parr, because the punishment was increased without hearing.

Testimony about a previous assault led to a Dallas man's winning retrial on rape charges.

AID URGED — Federal Aid has been urged for 10 Southeast Texas counties hit by rain, winds and flooding last month.

Governor Briscoe called on President Nixon for assistance through Small Business Administration, Farmers Home Administration and the Corps of Engineers.

Counties are Angelina, Hardin, Jasper, Liberty, Nacogdoches, Newton, Orange, San Augustine, San Jacinto and Shelby.

VEGETABLE SEASON DISAPPOINTING — Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said a winter freeze, strong competition and fall rains lowered prices on winter vegetables in South Texas.

The growers' loss is the consumer's gain, however, White said.

Spinach is an exception, Cabbage growers, said White, have been hit unusually hard — with prices dropping to seven cents a pound.

The truckers' strike threatens further complications, according to White, and shipments are not being accepted for delivery east of the Mississippi River due to trucking problems.

LOBBY BILL CHALLENGED — Austin District Attorney Robert O. Smith has called on Attorney General Hill for a ruling on constitutionality of the 1973 lobby control act.

Smith said the act may require lobbyists to incriminate themselves by reporting expenditures which could be held as bribery under a new statute effective January. The bribery law outlaws holding out "any benefit" to an official to influence his decision.

Custer's Gold

Gen. George A. Custer was indirectly responsible for the first documented discovery of gold in South Dakota, now the third most important gold-producing state in the Union. Two miners attached to a Custer expedition found gold in gravel bars in the Black Hills and their discovery touched off a series of claims throughout the area.

A house full of ways to save on your gas bill....

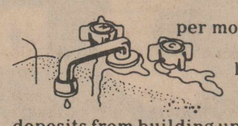

There are many ways you could be adding to your gas bill, and not be aware of it. Take a few minutes and: Check:
- Insulation, weather stripping and/or caulking around doors and windows.
- Fireplace damper for tight fit.
- For holes and leaks around window air conditioning units and roof-top ventilators.
- For clean filters regularly.
- Gas appliances periodically for proper adjustments.

Do:
- Close drapes on sunny days and open them on dark ones, when using gas air conditioning. Reverse this process when using gas furnace.
- Leave thermostat at comfortable setting.
- Drain approximately one gallon of water per month from water heater to prevent mineral deposits from building up.
- Repair leaky hot water faucets.
- Use lids for pots and pans to reduce need for higher flame.

Don't:
- Run partial loads in dryers, washing machines or dishwashers.
- Block air conditioning vents, or in the case of heating, the hot air vents.
- Cool or heat unused rooms.
- Use higher flame on range than required.
- Pre-heat the oven any longer than necessary.

These tips will not only help you to reduce your gas bill, but help you to conserve our country's energy too.

Neeley Announces Easter Seal Appeal

Jack Neeley will head the 1974 Easter Seal Appeal in Collingsworth County, it was announced by Thomas N. Jenness, Jr., Fort Worth, President of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas.

Residents of Collingsworth County will receive the annual Easter Seal Appeal letters in the mail beginning March 1. The Easter Seal Appeal, conducted yearly to provide treatment and services to disabled persons and their families, will continue through Easter Sunday, April 14.

Neeley is one of 223 men and women throughout Texas who are serving in this capacity. The cost of the statewide Easter Seal program is over one million dollars, financed mainly by the Easter Seal Appeal. Almost 90 percent of all funds raised by the Texas Easter Seal Appeal remain in Texas to support the growing needs of the disabled citizen in the County who may need assistance and not know where to obtain it. Any disabled person can contact Neeley at Wellington State Bank to receive the request form for a determination of the extent and type of assistance needed and the most efficient means of obtaining that assistance. Arrangements for qualified treatment or services will be made by the Texas Easter Seal Society.

School Transfers Due by May 1

AUSTIN -- Parents who wish to transfer children from their home school district to another area for the 1974-75 scholastic year should make necessary application to the receiving district by May 1, 1974, Leon R. Graham, Texas Education Agency assistant commissioner for administration, announced January 31.

The May 1 deadline for requests will enable school districts to file summary reports with the Texas Education Agency by May 15, Graham points out.

These reports will be reviewed by the Agency to make sure none of the transfer requests violate U.S. District Court Order 5281 issued by Judge William Wayne Justice in Tyler on April 2, 1971. Under this order, any transfer of students from one school district to another must not change the racial or ethnic balance in either the home or receiving district by more than one percent.

If the balance is altered by more than one percent, the transfers will be denied, Graham adds.

Life With the Rimples

Deck's DIDACTICS

—by Deskins Wells

UP TO the present, people in Texas towns such as ours have not been forced to line up for gasoline which is a benison for which we can be thankful.

OBTAINING sufficient gasoline for essential needs is not so easy in the metropolitan cities of Texas. Our niece works for a realty firm in Houston and a car is indispensable since there is no bus line or other means of transportation from her apartment to the firms place of business, a distance of some miles. She must get up before 7:00 to get to work on time and formerly bought gasoline in the evening when needed. Now pumps are empty by afternoon so her only day to buy gasoline is on Saturday and obtaining gasoline on that day is becoming increasingly difficult.

OUR SON lives in Washington D.C. He has no car problem getting to work since he walks a few blocks, rides a bus, then walks several blocks. He does have a car and he also buys gas on Saturday. Last week he spent two hours finding a station that was open and then waited in line another hour to get his $4 worth of gasoline.

WASHINGTON had a big snow last Friday. Here is Henry's partial account of how one of his co-workers reached the office five hours late. The young woman rode to work in a car pool of five people ordinarily. On the morning of the storm three backed out. After the delay of going back in the car she and a male companion caught a bus. The bus ran into a parked car. When it was finally disentangled from the car, the bus ran through a guard rail and stalled in a ditch. Following more delay the young people walked over to another street and waited for a bus that finally took them to work. There was one bright spot in the story. The young woman's husband said he would drive over and pick her up at the end of the day.

FOR YEARS I have been saying that this is not a bad place in which to live. It is not a bad place to get to work in either. Only those who have done it over a period of time know what a strain driving 15 to 30 miles in traffic can be.

FEW of you read the Houston papers. Neither do as many of you read The Dallas Morning News and The Fort Worth Star Telegram as you did. You did read them enough when you got to the stock shows, fairs and football games to know what is happening in the way of crime.

HOUSTON has a deplorable record for murders of all kinds; but murders in connection with armed robbery have taken an alarming increase in Dallas in recent months. Neither of these cities has the worst record for rape among the large cities of our part of the nation. That doubtful distinction belongs to Denver, Colo. On a percentage basis it ranks the highest in this evil, above New York, Detroit or Washington.

Wells & Wells Honored by Insurance Co.

Wells & Wells, the town's oldest insurance company, has received a plaque in recognition of 50 years as a representative of Fireman's Fund American Insurance Companies.

It was addressed jointly to the three owners, Calvin Hurst, Jack Sanford and Harold Watkins.

It further read "and in appreciation of the Loyalty and Integrity with which you have served your clients, the Company and the American Agency System. Tendered in accordance with a resolution by the Board of Directors.

In a letter to the partners, Stuart D. Meinst, president of Fireman's Fund American Insurance Companies, noted:

"The past 50 years have witnessed many changes in our economy and in the business to which we have dedicated our careers. The fact that we have maintained our long association in the age of these tumultous decades is firm evidence that where understanding of mutual problems and the desire to intelligently solve them exist, the company-agent partnership is equal to the challenges of change." He also added:

"May I extend my personal appreciation for the significant contribution you have made to our growth and progress throughout the years."

Wells & Wells was established by Lee O'Neil, now of Lubbock, and the late Morris Wells. Later, after Mr. O'Neil had other business interests, Mr. Wells was joined by his younger brother, the late J.W. Wells.

Six Hundred Attend OK Tire Celebration

Approximately 600 friends from Collingsworth and surrounding counties attended the three-day open house held by Jim's O.K. Tire Store on its 25th anniversary in Wellington. This was held Thursday through Saturday, February 7 through 9.

"The response was overwhelming," said the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Martin.

Here to join them during the celebration were Harry Martinson of Dallas, regional manager of B.F. Goodrich, Co.; Bill Morris of Dallas, district manager for the company; Bill Atkins, president of American Tire Company, Amarillo; Carl Wilcox and Buster Banes, of that company's sales staff.

Winner of the color TV was David Phipps; of the four car tires, Mrs. Nicky Watts, and of the mud and snow tires, Mrs. R.T. Savage.

Joining Mr. and Mrs. Martin in staging the 25th anniversary celebration were their three children, Mrs. Billy Morris of Olton, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Martin, Greg and Brent of Spearman, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Martin and son of Weatherford, Oklahoma.

Store firends came from as far as Mangum and Wheeler especially to attend the event.

Hightower Asks Amendments on Land and Water

AUSTIN -- Senator-delegate Jack Hightower (D-Vernon) has introduced two Constitutional amendments to assure fairness to farmers and ranchers in the assessment of taxes and the appropriation of underground water resources.

Hightower proposes that the finance section of the new Constitution include a provision that "the Legislature may provide methods of assessment that will promote the preservation of existing uses of land devoted to commercial agricultural purposes or which should be preserved as public recreation areas, scenic resources, nature preserves, or greenbelt areas or that will promote the preservation of historic sites."

He said the main purpose was to assure that rural land will be assessed on its production capabilities rather than its actual market value.

"There are just too many farmers and ranchers who are paying more taxes than they are earning income from their land," he said. "The production of food and fiber becomes more important every year to the American people for their own consumption and for trade overseas. We should not permit tax policies which discourage people from engaging in agriculture and meeting this great need."

Hightower's second proposal would exempt underground water districts from having to elect governing boards from separate geographical areas within the district under the "one man, one vote" requirement.

"This is totally unfair and impractical in rural areas, as we would have people who live on farms and ranches and use the water," he said. "Those who create the district know best how to regulate water use."

If you don't need it any longer, sell it through a want ad in The Leader.

Johnson Tapes Now at UT

AUSTIN, (Spl.) -- A project that is tape recording recollections about President Lyndon B. Johnson shows he had an "awesome" knowledge of the workings of government, says a University of Texas Historian.

Prof. Joe B. Frantz, who directs the LBJ Oral History Project, says the tapes are rich in "anecdotal depth" and will provide a "world of understanding" about LBJ.

Dr. Frantz reports that about 1,100 persons -- friend and foe alike of LBJ -- have been interviewed thus far. The tapes are being placed in the LBJ Library as they are completed.

WT Offering 50 Valuable Scholarships

AMARILLO -- Fifty $500 scholarships will be available for entering West Texas State University freshmen for academic year 1974-75. Called the "WTSU Residence Hall Scholarships," the awards consist of funds derived from rentals and services available in WT residence halls.

Recommendations from the applicant's superintendent, principal or counselor should also be included. Other criteria considered will be demonstrated student and community leadership, and extra-curricular activities and honors received.

Applications, supporting data and three character recommendations should be submitted by April 15, 1974, to the Scholarship Committee, WTSU, Box 728, WT Station, Canyon, Texas 79016. Incomplete or late applications may be considered by the committee at its own discretion.

WTSU R H Scholarships recipients shall be notified by May 1, 1974. These awards will not be renewable.

and in appreciation of the Loyalty and Integrity with which you have served your clients, the Company and the American Agency System."

This half-century of association by Wells & Wells, Wellington's oldest insurance agency, with Fireman's Fund American Insurance Companies, has been of mutual benefit to us, to our customers, and to that company.

We are proud indeed to have been one part of this enduring relationship between this, an independent agency, and a major insurance company of the U.S.
