Westbrook Bonds Sell For 6.0425

Westbrook Rural School District's school board met Monday night and opened bids on $400,000 in bonds issued by the district to finance construction of a new auditorium and remodeling of the existing building.

Ten bids were received. The best bid, an interest rate of 6.0425 per cent, was accepted from Russ Securities Corporation of San Antonio. Next best bid was made by Fort Worth Bank, bidding an interest rate of 6.12 per cent. First Southwest of Abilene bid the highest rate of 6.5793.

The school district received an A rating on the bond issue from Moody's Rating Service of New York City.

The good credit rating of the district is the reason that bids were so good and so close, ranging from the 6.0425 to 6.5793 interest rate figures.

L. M. Dawson, Westbrook superintendent, said that the board is hoping to get started on construction by the first of the year.

Dawson also said that the bonds are to be delivered to American Bank in Austin, October 15. They will then be transferred to the school district's depository, City National Bank of Colorado City.

City National Bank will reinvest the money in treasury bills until it is needed for paying the construction schedule at the school, Dawson said.

Building plans call for a new 6,638 square-foot auditorium with 398 seats, stage, lobby, dressing rooms with restrooms and public restrooms. About half the money will be spent on the auditorium. The remaining half will be used to add office space to the present office area of the school and to remodel classrooms, including carpet and central air conditioning. Restrooms, library and gym will get special attention in the remodeling program, as well as ceilings throughout the building.

Putman Appointed To School Board

Westbrook school board members appointed Jerry Putman to fill out the term of former board member Rex McKenney, who resigned recently.

The appointment was made during Monday night's monthly board meeting.

Putman, a Westbrook resident, is manager of Farm Bureau Insurance in Colorado City and for Mitchell County.

Putman joins E. A. Oden, Claburne Rich, Jerry Webb, James Dorn, T. A. Whitesides and Floyd Ritchey on the board.

Screwworms Confirmed Here

The county's first case of screwworms has been confirmed through a sample sent to the Mission Screwworm Eradication Center.

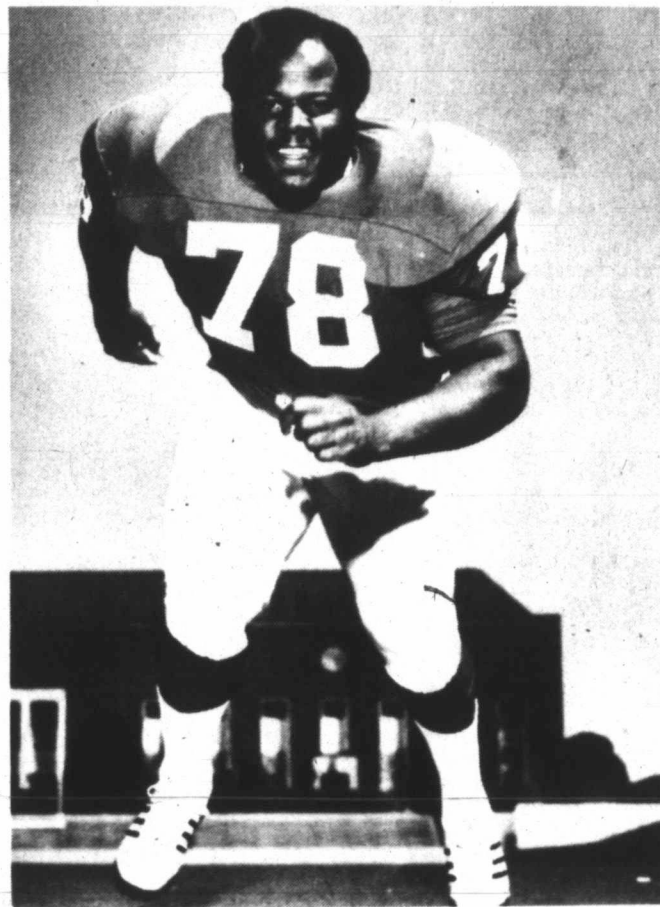

The confirmed sample was taken from the wound on a cow's udder on Roy Henderson's ranch at Hyman, in the far southwestern part of the county.

Bob Benson, county extension agent, received notification of the positive identification of screwworms from the veterinarian in charge of the eradication program at Mission, Dr. James Noy.

Cases have also been confirmed in counties bordering Mitchell: Nolan, Coke, Sterling, Glasscock and Midland counties.

Benson urges farmers and ranchers to closely inspect their livestock and take samples from any suspicious wounds on animals. Vials for taking the samples are available from Benson's office in the courthouse annex.

OSU Cowboy

Carl Devorce, 1971 graduate of Colorado High School, is playing nose guard-tackle for the Oklahoma State football team this year. Devorce is the son of Assistant city police chief L. C. Devorce and his wife, Verna Mae. He weighs in at 253 pounds and stands 6-feet, 1-inch. Devorce is a senior student at the university and has lettered in football for two years. He was on the all-state team in high school and won state competition in shot and discus, as well as lettering in basketball. Coach Jim Stanley rates Devorce as one of the best defensive tackles on the OSU team, saying "He's a quality player with a good attitude."

Arena Use O. K. Needed For Pull

Alton Raschke, chairman of the Agriculture Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, who is working with the Chamber and county fair committees to have a good fair this year, will meet with the Western Riding Club group tonight and ask for permission to use the club arena for a tractor-pull contest during the fair.

Western Riding Club meets today at 8 p.m. in the Medallion Room of Lone Wolf Electric.

Raschke said that he intends to meet with the club and seek their permission to hold the tractor-pull in the riding club arena. The tentative schedule calls for the tractor contest to be held Saturday afternoon, October 5.

A group of Lamesa area men who have agreed to organize the entire contest, bringing a heavy sled, measuring off distances and judging the event, met with the Chamber of Commerce board of directors Monday night to discuss details of the contest.

The Lamesa group then learned that the arena is the only feasible place to hold the contest and permission to hold it there has not yet been granted.

Raschke and Murrell Blassingame, director representative of the agriculture committee, are trying to work out an arrangement with the riding club group.

The county's lease of the arena to the riding club expired as of September 1 and was renewed during Tuesday's meeting of the commissioner's court.

Raschke said that during his meeting with the Western Riding Club tonight, he will point out the advantages of holding the contest here in an area that has seen the tractor-pull sport grow in popularity, as many people from Mitchell County participated in the Snyder contest on the Fourth of July and in the recent contest held during the West Texas Fair in Abilene.

To allay fears of some directors of the club, Raschke said that the arena would not be damaged but would benefit from having tractors on hand to deep plow the arena and get it in top shape.

One possible source of conflict could be club plans to hold some sort of activity in the arena during the fair.

Vice president of the riding club, Lance Walker, said that it's possible that finals for the West Texas Cutting Horse Association would be held here in conjunction with the fair. Final arrangements have not been made, he said.

Club secretary Sue Guelker also said that Western Riding

Club had discussed the possibility of holding a steer roping and jackpot barrel race during county fair weekend. The club is currently working out plans for both events with a Lubbock group, she said.

According to Mrs. Guelker, the club's plans were to use the arena for riding events Saturday night, October 5, so that maybe the Chamber's Agriculture Committee and the Western Riding Club can get together and make plans to hold a number of activities for the enjoyment of people attending Mitchell County Fair.

Drag Racers Caught

Eleven citations for drag racing were issued here Saturday night after highway patrolman Marvin Keenan, assisted by sheriff's deputy Randy Wilkinson, were alerted to the drag racing east of Buford on Farm Road 1908.

Keenan said that the eleven drag racers were brought into the police station in order to straighten out the paper work involved and also to notify parents of the three minors in the group.

Any speed race on a public road is against the law, Keenan said, and subject to from $1 to $200 fine.

Citations are to be presented before Mary Lee Moore's Justice of the Peace court within the next ten days, he said.

School Board To Settle With Cox

Two people representing Colorado City's Masonic Lodge appeared before a meeting of school board members for the city's school system Monday night and requested permission to hold a dedication ceremony and lay the cornerstone for the new high school building.

Charles Godwin and Joe Boyd, representing the Masonic Lodge, explained to school board members that the Texas Masonic Lodge has a tradition of supporting the Texas public school system since 1835 when the Lodge was founded in the state. Public buildings throughout the state have had cornerstones laid by the Lodge, Godwin said. In order to complete arrangements with the Grand Lodge in Texas, he said that the local Masonic Lodge was requesting permission from the board to lay the cornerstone.

Permission from the board was granted by unanimous vote.

The school board also learned that Jack Cox, who sold some land to the school district for the new high school and granted easement for laying the sewer line to the construction site, was seeking damage for cotton destroyed recently during laying of the line.

The city agreed to lay the sewer line, J. S. Craddock Jr., the school district's business manager, was contacted by Cox

Spade's Highest At $45,000

The second annual Simmental female production sale for Spade Ranches was held at Rendonbrook-Spade Ranch south of Colorado City last Saturday.

Highest priced lot was lot #1, bought by Bill Roden of Midland, with a bid of $45,000. This was the widely advertised "8 in 5" package of a bred half-Simmental cow, her three 3/4 Simmental daughters, two bred, and a 7/8 Simmental bull calf produced by the oldest daughter.

Gross proceeds from the auction amounted to $520,600, said foreman of Rendonbrook-Spade, Bob Northcutt.

A total of 106 lots were auctioned for an average of $4,911 per lot.

Next highest selling lot was $25,100 paid by Silver Simmentals of Silver for a 3/4 Simmental cow with 7/8 Simmental heifer calf at side.

Commissioners Renew Contract

County commissioners learned from auditor Joe Morren, Colorado City certified public accountant, that their records of money taken in and expended are in good order.

Morren appeared before the court during Tuesday's monthly meeting to present his audit of 1973 records and commended the county for a good bookkeeping system.

Morren's contract was extended for a 3-year period to audit the county's books for $1,000 payment per year.

Commissioners Marcus Vest, Drue Cawthron, Paul Hunter and Moody Richardson also approved the proposed budget for 1975 presented by county auditor Dwayne Feaster and set the tax rate at the same basis as for this past year's budget--95¢ per $100 of valuation, based on 25 per cent of value.

7th Red vs. 7th Black

Red vs. Black--the first game of the season for seventh grade football players--will be held at Wolf Field Saturday morning.

Kick-off is set for 9 a.m. as the tough 7th graders battle out an inter-squad rivalry.

If Saturday morning's kick-off time is as usual for this 7th grade battle, then a lot of parents and fans will be on hand to watch this first game of the year for the young players who are playing their first game of football.

Kent Starts Cannon Fund

Kent Oil Company has announced that a memorial fund in the memory of Homer Cannon, the local manager of the Kent Oil service station in Colorado City, who died last Saturday, has been started by the Kent Oil Company.

In making the announcement to create the memorial fund in the memory of Cannon, who was associated with Kent Oil Company for 17 years in the same location in Colorado City, and for another 7 years with the company's predecessor, Reed Oil Company, Jim Kent, the company's General Manager announced that all the profits from Cannon's Kent Station in Colorado City for the month of September would be contributed into the memorial fund in Cannon's memory.

Contributions made be sent in to Colorado City Record, Box 92, Colorado City, Texas or come by the Record Office.

Tonight At Opera House

The two pictures above and at right were taken by George Womack during his summer trip to Afghanistan. He will present a slide showing tonight at 7:30 in the Opera House, sponsored by the Cultural Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Top picture is of Trich-mir mountain, a 25,204-foot giant of the Hindu Kush range of the Himalayas in Chitral, Pakistan. A mosque is pictured in the foreground. At right is a Kuci girl from a nomadic tribe, taken near Gazni in Afghanistan. Kuci means "folk who wander" in Persian, the prevalent language of the country.

Wolves Go To Sweetwater

The Colorado City Wolves will travel to Sweetwater Friday night to take on a Sweetwater team that features a tough defense.

Kick-off is at 8 p.m. in Mustang Bowl.

Last week, the Mustangs kept Abilene scoreless until the fourth quarter when Abilene scored two touchdowns, one on a punt return and the other after a Sweetwater fumble deep in Mustang territory.

Sweetwater is loaded up on defense, says Colorado High Athletic Director Mike Farda. They probably have the best defensive line, averaging 192 pounds a man, that the Wolves will play all year, Farda noted.

On offense, Sweetwater runs the Houston Veer and they like to throw the ball, said Farda.

The Wolves this week have been working on moving the ball and also pass defense has been stressed, the coach said. The team had a good workout Monday, Farda added.

Roger Roenfeldt is ready to play after getting out of a cast for a wrist bone separation, Farda said.

Tuesday night, the varsity squad was guests of the Quarterback Club. A good number of QB Club members were present for the meeting which featured showing of the game film against Slaton.

Also this week, Wolves "B" team will play Hamlin here at 7 p.m. Thursday. Also Thursday the Colorado Junior High eighth grade team will play Sweetwater here at 5:30 p.m.

Saturday night, the Wolves Junior Varsity will play Loraine in Loraine at 8 p.m.

Addition

Museum directors Mrs. Lois Burns, left, and Mrs. R. P. "Pete" Ainsworth, inspect the new multiplex recently purchased by the city for display of historical photos. The two mul-tiplex units greatly reduce the amount of space used for display of the rare photos as well as making them easily accessible for viewing.

During the business session time for the Christmas luncheon was changed to December 3 at the home of Mrs. Mable Givens.

Mrs. Mike Givens brought the program for the afternoon. She told of being bitten by a Recluse spider and gave some information on this spider which is one of the most poisonous and after being bitten no cure is known, but it runs its course, eating out the flesh to the bone. When this begins to heal, in about six weeks, the victim has even more pain. Others have found this spider around their places this summer and it is well to be very cautious and on the alert for this grey-brown spider which has the shape of a violin across his neck and back.

The hostess served strawberry ice cream and cookies to the guest Mrs. Givens and members Mmes. Bernice Hallmark, L. E. Crutcher, Floyd Griffin, Pauline Smiley, Vada Preston, Willis Cornutt, Mable Givens, Harvey Leach and Miss Fern Coon.

JV Loses To Coahoma

Colorado City's Junior Varsity football team met a strong Coahoma bunch last Saturday night in Wolves Stadium and lost the game, 14-0.

JV coach Lonnie Ellis said that both Coahoma touchdowns were made in the first quarter before the young Wolves could get untracked but after that, they played good defense.

"Our boys played excellent defense throughout the second half," Ellis said.

The JVs threatened to score twice in the game but were stopped both times, once by a strong Coahoma defense and once by a penalty.

Defense standouts were Ray Ritchey, Kevin Herm, Santos Reyes and Drex Grisham.

For the offense, good efforts were made by Benny Arispe, Ray Ritchey, Gerald Hill, Freddie Rivera and Ralph Castillo.

Junior Varsity plays the Lorraine varsity team in Lorraine's Bulldog Stadium, 8 p.m. Saturday.

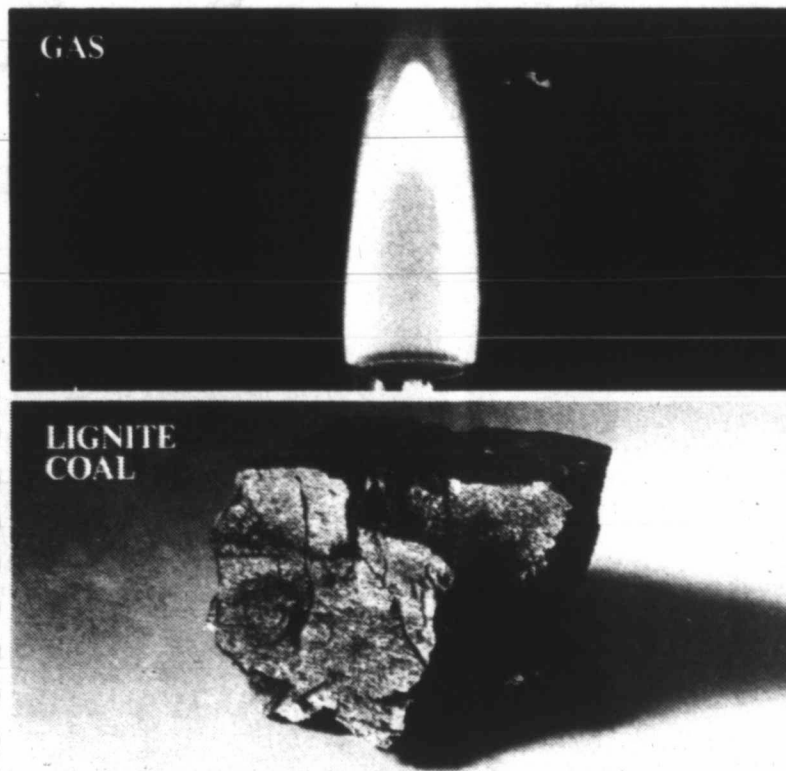

Ellis said that he won't make any changes in offense or defense sets but he expects the Bulldogs to be a good size ball club.

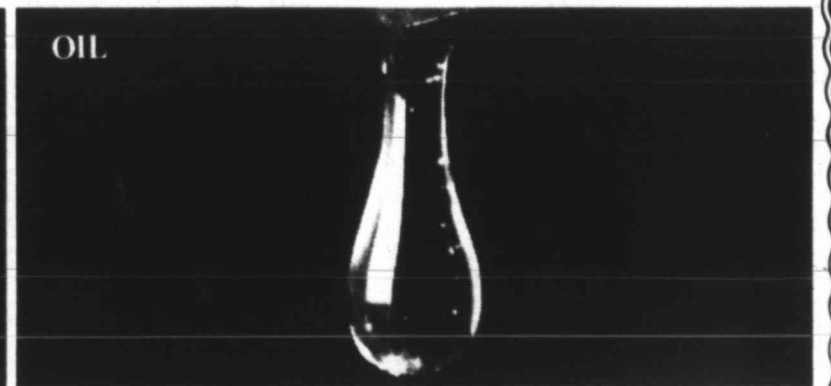

Yea Wolves

NUCLEAR

We're building power plants that use different fuels so you'll continue having the electricity you need.

Natural gas is the major fuel we use in our generating plants, and will be for several years. Oil is used on a standby basis.

But new supplies of these fuels are extremely difficult to obtain and increasingly expensive. To reduce our dependence on them, we've begun using lignite coal. We now have one lignite plant in operation, and two others under construction.

We have adequate supplies of lignite for the operating life of these plants and for some additional planned units. Even so, we will need another dependable fuel source for the future. That's why we're planning to have a nuclear-fueled plant in operation by 1980.

The use of lignite and nuclear fuels is necessary to provide enough electricity in the years ahead. Supplies of these fuels are more abundant and neither is being used extensively for any purpose other than the generation of electricity.

But building plants that use these fuels is a difficult and expensive job. Lignite and nuclear plants cost much more to build than gas/oil plants. While this means electricity will have to cost more in the future, the cost won't be as much with lignite and nuclear fuels as it would be with natural gas and oil, even if adequate new supplies were available.

We're continuing the orderly development of our power system so that you'll continue having the electricity you need.

City Water Project

City crews last week laid new 6-inch water lines on 10th and 12th Streets between Oak and Pine and also set two new taps on 11th Street from Oak to Chestnut. City Manager J. A. Sadler Jr. said that the City of Abilene brought a 6-inch tapping machine to the new water line locations and set three new 6-inch taps for the City of Colorado City at a cost of $225.

line construction, Craddock, Cox and city manager J. A. Sadler Jr. inspected the damage. Craddock estimated the area affected to be between a half acre and an acre of cotton. The work affected an area about 30-feet wide and 1,200-feet long, Craddock estimated. Although the board felt that Cox's prior grant of easement was sufficient to cover the damage to his crop, they nevertheless agreed to pay $200 to Cox for the crop damage if Cox will sign a full release for any subsequent work on the sewer easement.

Superintendent Lloyd McKee presented an informational item to the board about school enrollment figures. The present enrollment is 1,541 students, only two short of last year's end of school enrollment of 1,543. Kelley has an enrollment of 324, compared to 344 at the end of school last year; Hutchinson, 363 compared to 380; Wallace 127 compared to 131 last year; Junior High, 266 to 282 when school was out in May and Colorado High School has an enrollment of 461, an increase of 55 students over 406 at the end of school last year.

The board also learned that the school district will have earned $129,100 by November 1 in interest on money invested from the sale of school bonds for the high school construction. The strike by construction workers on the new high school was settled last week, McKee said, and work is continuing. Craddock informed board members that tax statements are to be mailed October 1 to residents in the school district. Taxes were increased for construction of the new high school. Craddock also reported on the cafeteria operation in the school system. Lunches served the last week in August were down from last year's average of 1,100 as only 900 lunches were served daily.

McKee said that season ticket sales for Wolves home games increased this year to 161 season tickets, compared to only 103 last year.

All board members were present for the meeting, including board president Tom Rees, S. L. (Mac) Morris, Bob Motley, Drew Ballard, Edward Roach, Truman Bodine and Jimmie Bolin.

Board member Jimmie Bolin reported to the board that the Quarterback Club is discussing ways the booster organization can plant a ground cover on sides of the stadium which have recently been reworked and cleared of weeds. Bolin said that the club is working with Neff Nursery on the best plant cover to use and on financing purchase of plants. He asked the board if they objected to the club's work in getting a ground cover started and the board approved.

Bob Motley pointed out that kids sliding down the sides of the stadium have already done some damage and erosion results when it rains. The board recommended placing a sign at the stadium asking people to stay off the sides.

The City Council of Colorado City met in regular session Monday night and discussed a number of city projects and was asked by another group to take on another project.

James Bobo and Buddy Marcom, representing the Colorado City-Little League, asked the council to give the Little League $1,548.40 to help construct a new concession stand at the Little League park.

The stand at the field was almost totally destroyed in a fire this summer. The two Little League officials pointed out to the council that the County Commissioners have said they might give $2,348 towards the construction of a new 12.5 x 23 foot building. Marcom and Bobo asked that the city give the remainder of what is needed for the construction.

City Attorney Dell Barber advised the council that it would be difficult to give the Little League money to build something on city owned property. The city cannot delegate authority on such a matter, he noted.

Members of the council said they want to help but will have to study the matter in order to come up with a way to make the help legal.

Faculty Art Show At Western Texas College

Watercolor paintings by Warren Cullar and ceramics by Mike Thornton will be exhibited in the annual faculty art show at Western Texas College Sept. 9-Oct. 4.

The show will be in the Fine Arts Building and will be open from 8-12 noon and 1-4 p.m. Monday through Friday. There is no admission charge.

Cullar will be showing 25 transparent watercolors, most of them done during the past summer while he was in Massachusetts and Maine. This was Cullar's first trip to that area, and he spent 10 to 12 hours painting each day. Many of the paintings depict seascapes and ocean crafts.

Thornton will be exhibiting about 15 ceramics works done in the past year. The pieces include some traditional wheel-thrown pieces but the show is primarily devoted to whimsical sculptured pieces. "It's a demonstration of fun with art," he said, "while also showing the contemporary trend in ceramics."
