Showdown Is Set By Demos

(By The Associated Press)

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 11—Five southern governors will go to Washington Feb. 22 for a showdown conference with Democratic party leaders over Truman's civil rights program.

A Memphis Commercial Appeal dispatch from Little Rock quotes Gov. Laney of Arkansas as stating he also intends to propose a mass meeting of congressional delegations from the southern states to discuss the program.

To Seek Showdown

Gov. Laney said the five southern governors intend to "lay the cards on the table" in a meeting with Howard McGrath, national Democratic committee chairman.

Laney said the five heads of southern states intend to "set him (McGrath) straight on southern opinion."

The five governors comprise a committee named last weekend by the southern governors conference in Tallahassee, Fla.

To Demand Concessions

The conference formed the committee to demand concessions on the President's proposed 10-point program.

The Arkansas governor said the five men who will go to Washington "are in accord on one thing—we don't want any part of the President's so-called civil rights program."

"We will attempt to iron this thing out with McGrath and other party leaders," Laney said. "We will lay our cards on the table first and see if they intend to do anything about it."

Threaten Drastic Action

Laney said that "if McGrath wants to run back and talk to Truman before giving us an answer, that's alright with me."

The Arkansas governor added, "if they decide not to do anything, then we will take our strongest action."

Gov. Laney did not elaborate on his "strongest action" state-

Shooting Starts In Costa Rican Capital

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica, Feb. 11 (AP)—Shooting broke out tonight in San Jose following a demonstration by members of the government Republicano Nacional party.

The first shots were heard at 10:05 p. m., (CST), and machine gun fire then began to rattle throughout the city.

Supporters of the government party, apparent losers in Sunday's presidential election, ran through the streets shouting "victory."

Government troops stationed at the Bella Vista barracks began firing machine guns toward the center of the city. Rifle and pistol bullets whizzed by the United States embassy.

Otilio Ulate Blanco, the apparent winner of the presidential election, had predicted that the Communists and some military elements plotted a coup d'etat to deprive him of the office. It was not determined immediately what faction began the shooting.

Earlier, outgoing President Teodoro Picado told a news conference "the government is prepared to repell a coup d'etat if one is attempted tonight."

Labor Leader Welcomes Taft-Hartley Test

CIO Is Indicted For Endorsing Candidate

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11—Philip Murray and the CIO he heads were charged by the government today with violating the Taft-Hartley act ban on union political spending.

Murray said he welcomed the indictment. He said it will test what he called an attempt by Congress to curtail the "vitally important freedom of the press."

A federal grand jury accused the 61-year-old Murray and the CIO of intentionally printing in the CIO News, a publication financed by union funds, an endorsement for Democratic candidate Edward Garmatz last July in a Maryland congressional election. Garmatz won.

Law Is Defended

The indictment said the endorsement was made in deliberate violation of the Taft-Hartley law's prohibition of political spending by labor organizations and corporations.

Attorney General Tom Clark, announcing that additional prosecutions are being prepared, said he is trying to enforce the law "as written."

Senator Taft (R-Ohio), co-author of the new labor law, said in a speech at Gary, Ind., that the political spending ban "probably requires clarification." He defended the law, however, as providing a "bill of rights for the working man."

Labor Plans Political Action

The legal question involved is important; it may determine the degree of political activity permitted labor groups in the 1948 campaign. The CIO and its branch CIO political action committee helped elect the late President Roosevelt to a fourth term in 1944.

Labor groups generally are planning their biggest political splash in history this year.

Murray will be arraigned Friday, Feb. 20. The CIO at that time is expected to ask the court to quash the indictment on the ground the Taft-Hartley act infringes on freedom of the press. The government could appeal any dismissal of the indictment directly to the Supreme court.

If Murray and the CIO go to trial and are convicted, he could be fined up to $1,000 and jailed for a year and the organization fined up to $5,000.

Negroes Seek To Enroll In Amarillo

AMARILLO, Feb. 11 (AP)—Three negro boys whose pre-medical schooling at Wiley college, Marshall, was interrupted when the school went on strike against the teaching staff have filed applications to enroll at Amarillo college.

Dr. R. P. Parcells, president of the Amarillo school board, declared that if the three boys could interest enough qualified colored students special night classes might be set up to provide educational facilities for them. The applications did not ask admittance to regular classes.

All Amarillo Residents

The three are Robert and Loyd Smith and Robert Wilson, all of Amarillo. Each has an outstanding scholastic record, having started in school together and graduating from junior high school in Amarillo and going on to Sherman High school for negroes.

All three submitted applications as pre-medical students. They claimed to have 13 negro boys qualified to enroll for courses and expressed the hope of having 25 when the school board takes action on their applications Monday night. Amarillo college is a two-year junior college.

Twelve Persons Hurt In Train Accident

DENVER, Feb. 11 (AP)—Twelve persons were injured today when a snowslide struck a Denver & Rio Grande Western railroad passenger train in Toltec gorge between Durango and Alamosa, in southwestern Colorado.

George Dodge, public relations officer for the railroad, said he was told only one person was injured seriously. Two coaches and the observation car of the narrow gauge train were overturned by the avalanche.

The coaches rolled 300 feet down an embankment and the observation car tumbled about 75 feet.

Dodge said he understood the train brakeman was still trapped in the observation car. A special train was sent from Alamosa to render assistance.

Russia Miscues Blamed For Indian Communists' Failure

(By The Associated Press)

BOMBAY, Feb. 11—Miscues by Moscow have prevented India's midget Communist party from capitalizing on the confusion following the Gandhi assassination, in the opinion of political observers.

The Communists admit they have a party membership of only 75,000 in the Indian dominion which has a population of 300,000,000. Yet they talk of organizing the vast sub-continent in a federation of Soviet states "in five or ten years time."

At present they are demanding a "government of the democratic front," which means the Communist party and any other political elements willing to cooperate with it.

When Mohandas Gandhi was slain by a non-Communist Hindu, the Indian Communist press and politicians sprang immediately into action. While they had fought his philosophy during his lifetime, they immediately acclaimed him for having shown India the way to "mass resistance to imperialism:"

But the handling of the news of India's tragedy in Moscow quickly embarrassed Communists here.

Market Drop In U.S. Felt Over World

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Feb. 11—Major commodities continued their marathon price plunge today. Reverberations were felt in markets around the world.

A new crash in grain, which gave the Chicago Board of Trade the sharpest weekly price drop in its history, appears to have broken the back of inflation in the view of many market analysts.

New retail price cuts were announced in some cities.

Wheat Drops Limit Again

Temporary price rallies took hold in several commodities, but in many cases they were bumped rudely aside by skidding values. The decline, however, was not as severe as on yesterday nor as widespread.

Wheat for May delivery again plunged the permissible 10 cents daily limit in all United States markets. The cereal closed at $2.37 a bushel in Chicago today—49½ cents under last Tuesday and 69½ cents below the Jan. 16 peak for this year.

All other grains slumped in all North American markets. Rye fell the limit in Minneapolis and Winnipeg, Can. Corn declined the limit in Chicago and Kansas City.

Many other commodities continued on the price skids, but New York stocks showed some recovery after an early dip. The market was irregular at the close but most losses were limited to $1 a share or less.

Security markets slumped in London, Manila, Sydney and Copenhagen, but stocks later recovered virtually all their losses in London.

The Swiss National bank asserted in its annual statement published in Bern today that there is "every indication" the world business cycle has passed its peak. Swiss industry already is feeling the effects of a break in the seller's market abroad, the statement said.

As prices continued their swift

Name Of 'Big Trader' Bared

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11 (AP)—A "leading speculator" who made a killing of $200,000 or more when grain prices slumped was named today as E. T. Maynard of Chicago.

His identity was disclosed to Congress by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson, who had revealed that Maynard sold 1,000,000 bushels of wheat short, but had withheld his name.

Meanwhile, some legislators predicted today that plunging prices on the commodity markets may force Congress to alter its tax cut plans, if not scrap them altogether.

Mass Speculation Blamed

Both Senate and House investigators demanded identity of the "leading speculator." Rep. Andresen (R-Minn) contended that the size of the operation indicated possible use of inside information, but this Anderson and Maynard stoutly denied.

Congressional turmoil stirred up in the wake of the skidding grain markets also brought these developments:

1. Anderson told the Senate Agriculture committee that the "boom and bust" on commodity markets is due to mass speculating by small traders. He said this could be controlled by a bill permitting the Agriculture department to fix margins (down pay-

Russian Officers Halt U. S., British Trains In Germany

BERLIN, Feb. 11 (AP)—Russian officers halted two military trains, one American, the other British, at the Soviet zone border for a short time today. The Russians appeared to be tightening up travel restrictions through their zone.

The U. S. military train "Berliner," which travels daily between Frankfurt and Berlin, was stopped for 35 minutes at the Russian checkpoint, Marienborn. Three Soviet lieutenants insisted on seeing international permits of five Germans who were aboard.

The Russians detached a coach for Germans from the British military train at the same checkpoint. The rest of the train was allowed to proceed. The Russians insisted on checking the German passengers although all had inter-zonal travel passes.

No Trace Is Found Of Mystery Blast In Borger Section

(By The Associated Press)

BORGER, Feb. 11—Sheriff Hugh Anderson said late tonight he could find no trace of the mysterious explosion which was felt in Borger today.

"There might have been some type of explosion somewhere in the vicinity," Anderson said, "but I checked all of the area and could find no trace of one." Anderson said the explosion was definitely of a minor nature, since there was no evidence of destruction or casualties.

Earlier a mysterious explosion which rocked Borger early this afternoon was believed to have been caused by exploding nitroglycerine. The blast was felt in Borger around 1:30 p. m. It reportedly shook some buildings and jarred furniture in some homes.

The explosion was believed to have occurred near the Panhandle-Borger highway, about five miles south of the Gulf oil corporation camp site. Several nitroglycerine dumps are located in the rough country south of Borger.

Allies-Nazi Pacts Claimed

(By The Associated Press)

MOSCOW, Feb. 11—Russia, replying to the American publication of papers on Nazi-Soviet relations, charged tonight the western European powers encouraged Adolf Hitler to turn his war machine against the Soviet union.

The Soviets, releasing the second installment of documents which they said the Red army captured from the Nazis, said France and Great Britain made non-aggression pacts with Hitler aimed at isolating Russia.

Charges Continued

The statement said that as far back as 1937, it became clear Hitler hatched the war with the direct connivance of Britain and France.

(Tonight's statement and Monday's first installment were the Russian reply to the U. S. State department's publication of a 362-page record which showed that Hitler and Prime Minister Stalin conspired to carve up Poland, divide the Baltic states, dominate the Balkans and wreck British and French influence throughout Europe.

(American officials said in Washington after Moscow's Monday declaration that Russia evidently had been dealt a powerful propaganda punch by the U. S. revelation.

Russia's initial reply promised the publication of the captured documents which, the Soviet information bureau said, would prove the Western Allies paved

Norther Roars Over Texas, Nears Coast

(By The Associated Press)

WIND driven snow whipped West Texas from the Panhandle southward toward San Angelo Wednesday night as a norther pushed through the state to the Gulf coast.

Rail and bus travel was disrupted and highways were dangerous in the blizzard area. The West Texas Gas company asked closing of all non-essential businesses and schools in 44 South Plains towns it serves. It said it wanted to assure a fuel supply for homes and hospitals.

Gas Use Curtailed

Some schools already had closed. Seven West Texas cities in the Abilene area reported a shortage of butane gas for fuel. A heavy loss of new-born lambs and some lambs two months to 10 weeks old was feared in the San Angelo section.

At Dallas, in North Texas, the Lone Star Gas company announced that service would be curtailed today to "some of the larger industrial users" in anticipation of extreme cold weather.

Before midnight the norther's frontal area had pushed past Texarkana in northeast Texas, and cut deep into the central Texas area. Its southwesterly edge had reached the Del Rio section.

Freezing Rain Reported

The Weather bureau said snow, and much colder weather should reach the Rio Grande valley of West Texas today, with not quite so cold weather in the Panhandle.

The frontal edge of the norther showed a belt of freezing rains. By 9 p. m. Wednesday snow had reached Harpersville, near Fort Worth. Fort Worth and Dallas had freezing rain, and Waco, in central Texas, reported freezing rain. The Dallas Weather bureau predicted the rain would turn to snow there before morning.

Snow Pummels Colorado Area

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Feb. 11 (AP)—A wind-driven snowstorm pummeled the Rocky mountain region today and thrust an icy front into the Texas Panhandle.

Seven persons, including three school children, were reported missing for hours in desolate eastern Colorado farm country which was paralyzed by a blizzard in 1946. Later all were found safe in isolated farm houses.

Army weasels—tracked vehicles — were used in the Pueblo, Colo., area to take some school children to their homes and to check safety of others.

Livestock Losses Feared

Trains and busses were delayed or their runs cancelled in much of the area hit by its worst general storm of the winter. Automobiles and buses were stalled in some sections as screaming gales piled snow across the roads.

U. S. highway 40, a transcontinental route, was blocked by snow near Elk Springs in western Colorado. Several road cuts were filled with snow that in places drifted to depths of 14 feet.

In that same area James Garreeto, about 40, grocery owner, was unreported since yesterday when he left Rock Springs, Wyo., on an 80-mile drive alone over a

MERCURY TO SKID BELOW ZERO

Cold Wave With Strong Winds, Snow Moves East Over Nation

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Feb. 11—A cold wave bolstered by snow and strong winds dropped temperatures in the midcontinent tonight and moved eastward.

It will hit the east coast tomorrow night, forecasters said. The cold mass moved northeastward from central Texas today, covering the plains states.

It was expected to turn rain, falling in the area south of central Illinois, to snow, and to send temperatures throughout the Midwest to near zero tonight and in the northern plains states to 10 to 15 below.

The area of cold will extend southward to the Texas Panhandle.

Forecasters said the interior of southern California would have below freezing weather tonight and that the mercury would drop along the West Coast, where fair weather but below normal temperatures prevailed today. Spokane was to have zero readings, and Seattle 25.

The eastern section of the country had a brief rise in temperatures today, but New England re-

Mercury Again Plunges Near Zero; No Immediate Break Is Forecast

THE WEATHER FORECAST

The Weather bureau station north of Lubbock at midnight forecast continued cloudy and cold weather today, with a low of from zero to five degrees early this morning, a maximum of around 15 degrees during the day. Continued cold was forecast for Friday and Friday night, probably a few degrees warmer than today. A definite rising trend in temperatures is expected Saturday.

AN emergency business holiday today, closing down all non-essential businesses and schools in Lubbock and 43 other South Plains towns served by the West Texas Gas company, was asked Wednesday night by gas company officials in order that fuel needs of homes and hospitals might be met.

With temperatures standing at 11 degrees at 1:30 o'clock this morning and expected to sink near zero before dawn, the paralyzing cold wave brought the area its second emergency shutdown because of a natural gas shortage in two weeks.

At midnight, it appeared that all non-essential business firms in Lubbock and over the South Plains, in addition to all public schools, would comply with the shutdown request. Just how long the emergency would last was a matter for conjecture. A maximum of not higher than 15 degrees was seen for today. A definite break in the weather is not forecast before Saturday.

Effect Is Widespread

Immediate effects of the near-blizzard were:

Mayor C. A. Bestwick issued a proclamation asking all non-essential businesses to close in Lubbock. It was later explained that drug stores and restaurants were excepted. Similar proclamations were issued by other South Plains mayors.

Supt. R. W. Matthews of Lubbock public schools announced that all schools will be closed until Monday. Other South Plains schools were closed, some of them closing Wednesday.

Transportation and communication facilities were hampered though not to the extent of two weeks ago. Airlines were grounded.

No town served by West Texas Gas company had been without gas at midnight.

Only minor traffic accidents were reported.

Mayor Asks Co-Operation

Mayor C. A. Bestwick announced shortly after 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night that West Texas Gas company, following a meeting of company officials and others, had asked him "to declare an emergency holiday in order that sufficient gas supplies could be kept in homes and hospitals."

Mayor Bestwick said that he had issued the emergency proclamation and felt "that all business firms and individuals should cooperate by closing."

The gas company also requested business firms and schools in the South Plains towns it serves to observe the emergency holiday, C. I. Wall, a vice president of the company, said Wednesday night.

The mayor of each town had been requested to issue an emergency proclamation, Wall said.

Supt. R. W. Matthews Wednesday night announced that all Lubbock public schools will be closed until Monday. Earlier, it had been announced that only elementary schools would close, with Senior and Junior high schools remaining open.

Texas Technological college will not be affected by the emergency, since it has facilities for switching to fuel oil for heating purposes.

Wednesday's maximum temperature of 36 degrees occurred shortly after the day began. A steady decline to a 9-degree minimum

Quick Co-Operation Pledged In Crisis

WHOLEHEARTED co-operation with requests of city and gas company officials for voluntary business and school shutdowns in Lubbock and over the South Plains was voiced in all quarters late Wednesday night after announcement of the new emergency was made.

The shutdown was the second within little more than two weeks. An unprecedented cold wave from Jan. 23 through Jan. 29 caused a

Indications late Wednesday night were that efforts would be made to conduct the first of two programs at Lubbock Senior High school auditorium tonight, presenting Alec Templeton, famed pianist, with the Lubbock Symphony orchestra. business and school holiday in Lubbock and on the South Plains on Wednesday, Jan. 28. The emergency was ended on Thursday, Jan. 29.

Most Businesses Affected

Affected by the latest emergency declaration was virtually every type of non-essential business in the city and over the area served by the West Texas Gas company. Restaurants and drug stores will not be affected by the emergency order, it was announced.

John Kattman, president of the Lubbock Restaurant association, asked Mayor Bestwick whether restaurants would be expected to close. He said Bestwick's reply indicated restaurants and drug stores were considered essential to the public welfare and would not be expected to close.

Grocery stores were likely to be closed part of the day, although employes of Furr Foods and Piggly Wiggly as well as some others were to report this morning for a definite decision.

Theaters To Close

Finish Stilwell, assistant manager of Lindsey Theaters, Inc., said last night that all theaters in their group would be closed today and tonight in accordance with the Mayor's request. Preston E. Smith, owner of three theaters, was out of town last night, but an employe who was in charge during Smith's absence stated that the Smith owned theaters would also close. Joe Bryant of Midway theater indicated that his theater would follow the lead of the others and remain closed today.

Closing order, as before, was expected to affect all service stations, with possible exception of

ECONOMISTS CONFIDENT OF FUTURE

Inflation Is Checked By Drop; No Depression Indicated Now

BY HARRY T. MONTGOMERY
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Feb. 11—The post-war inflation has had its back broken, and the American consumer can sit back today and say to himself, "so far, so good."

This is the big conclusion to be drawn to date from the spectacular break in commodity prices which began just a week ago. Now there are other things to think about.

Is a recession at hand? Will it be brought on by panic selling? What will check it? How far can these commodity prices plunge and still leave us with just a healthy readjustment?

The top business brains of the country pondered these questions today, and most analysts viewed the situation with confidence.

Price Drop Overdue

First it must be recognized that wherever there is room for panic, wherever people act in the mass as they do on the nation's great trading markets, then anything can happen. The psychological factor is the joker in the economist's deck of cards. It is the big unknown which most frequently upsets his predictions.

After allowance is made for this, however, the economists find plenty of room to view the situation calmly.

This is what they see:

The shakedown in commodities was overdue. Now it has come. But the nation's economy as a whole is too strong to be stampeded at this time into a severe recession or depression. There are too many jobs yet to be done, too many things that people need and won't be able to get for some time.

The farmer has seen his best prices. Food must be cheaper, now that the rest of the world is beginning to take care of itself. With food cheaper, other retail prices should come down gradually, or at least stop going up.

But we still can't get enough steel, or enough of many of the things made of it. Nor enough oil, which in recent years has become the lifeblood of our industrial machine.

All we have to do is to leave the ultimate consumer with enough money to buy these things. The speeding inflation of the past six months was draining the consumer of money. Too much of it would have spelled the disaster of an economic crash.

But—barring panic—that crash now can be avoided. The world as a whole is far from over-producing, and it has 10 per cent more inhabitants than it did before the war. There should be plenty of work for everyone.

Further Decline Seen

Since we have all wanted an end of inflation, we shouldn't mourn events that are killing it. What we want is stabilization—we want prices down where we can continue the record prosperity we have been building up since the war.

We don't want prices to go down too fast or too far, however, and there are some dangers that they might.

A danger lies in our gray markets and in large inventories of goods which people had been holding while the price spiral was running upward. Now that it has turned, we can expect goods to be thrown into the market for what profits can still be had. This thrusts prices further down.

So far, however, the situation seems to be in hand. The consumer has his gains, and can expect more. Just what he ultimately gets from the price break—a healthy stabilization or some kind of a recession—will depend on developments. The next few days should tell him much.

THEY COMPLAIN—Screen Actor Robert Mitchum and his wife Dorothy testified in a Los Angeles Superior Court that Mitchum's former business agent, Paul Behrman, had doled out 30 dollars a week to them as spending money, and had withdrawn $9,000 from the actor's bank account without Mitchum's knowledge. New Engineering Formula Is Devised For Testing Ships

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Feb. 11 (UP)—A new engineering formula for computing the force necessary to push a ship through the water has been devised by a Notre Dame faculty member.

The formula, originated by Dr. Karl E. Schoenherr, dean of the university's college of engineering has been adopted officially by the Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers.

Vice Adm. Edward L. Cochrane, USN (ret.), president of the society, said Schoenherr's formula puts the calculations of ship resistance and ship power on a common basis in all model testing establishments in the United States and Canada for the first time.

The new method also may be adopted by Great Britain and Holland, Cochrane said.

Grandson Of John D. Rockefeller Making Plans For Marriage Soon

OKEECHOBEE, Fla., Feb. 11 (AP)—Winthrop Rockefeller, 36, grandson of the late John D. Rockefeller, and Mrs. Barbara Sears of Chicago and New York, applied here today for a marriage license.

Rockefeller, an official of the Socony-Vacuum Oil Co., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., of New York. He attended Yale university and entered the Army in 1941 as a private.

He served with the 77th division in the south Pacific and was wounded at Okinawa in April, 1945. He was discharged from the Army in 1946, with the rank of lieutenant-colonel.

Rockefeller was aboard a Boston-to-Miami airliner which crash-landed last Saturday at Bunnell, Fla. He was not injured.

Mrs. Sears attended Northwestern university and made her debut in Chicago in 1933. Her former marriage to Richard Sears, of New York, ended in divorce. She is the daughter of Mrs. Peter Neveckas of Chicago.

Portable Drilling Rig Cuts Oil Well Cost, Firm Reports

HOUSTON, Feb. 11.—The ever-rising cost of drilling an oil well has received a temporary setback with the invention of a portable drilling rig capable of boring a hole two miles deep.

Shell Oil Co. officials announced that the portable rig, costing $250,000, can be transported on ordinary trucks. It is powered by a 900-horsepower electric motor.

The twin towers, high as a 12-story building, can be set up within a few hours. Shell said the rig was adapted particularly to drilling in hilly regions.

Vets Will Be Taught Business Methods In Special Course

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 11 (U.P.)—Wisconsin veterans with an eye on the business future will get a boost from a special two-year program started by the University of Wisconsin extension division in Milwaukee.

A four-semester course that teaches the veteran how to approach business problems of the day with practical, usable knowledge is being offered. The program is designed so that the veteran will be able to work part time while attending school.

Regular monthly subsistence payments by the government are available to the veterans, as well as tuition fees and book costs.

Train Carrying Ashes Of Gandhi To River

CAWNPORE, India, Feb. 11 (AP)—Jostling thousands crowded the stations all along the route today as a special train carried the ashes of Mohandas Gandhi to Allahabad for dispersal.

The people cheered, saluted and threw garlands of flowers and money into the train window. At Aligarh Moslems presented wreaths.

Here in Cawnpore the largest crowd so far encountered attempted to rush military and police lines.

At almost every station men and boys clung to doors and windows of the slowly moving train until whacks on the knuckles from the military shook them off.

At New Delhi, where the 400-mile journey began at 6:30 a. m., an unruly crowd almost broke through police lines.

The urn was placed on a table at train window level in the glow of six spotlights and under a canopy of the national colors.

On arrival at Allahabad tomorrow morning, the remains will be received by Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru and other officials. A 79-gun salute will be fired.

Gandhi's son Devadas will take the ashes in a small boat to the confluence of the three sacred rivers, Ganges, Jumna and Sapaswati. He will immerse himself and disperse the remains.

Uniformity Of Traffic Laws, Signs Urged By State Group

AUSTIN, Tex., Feb. 11. (AP)—Uniformity of traffic laws, ordinances, signs, signals and markings was urged today by the governor's committee on laws and ordinances.

The committee was appointed by Gov. Beauford H. Jester and will present its recommendations to the governor's highway safety conference at Dallas March 19-20.

A program was adopted, including a suggested law which would make drivers financially responsible for damages resulting from traffic accidents.

SEATTLE, Feb. 12 (U.P.)— Rev. O. L. Haavik has ended more than 26 years in the pastorate of the Ballard Lutheran church here.

Haavik said although he will no longer step up to the pulpit, he will continue to officiate at the Fishermen's Festival.

Desperate Britain Fights For Voluntary Freezing Of Wages

LONDON, Feb. 11 (AP) — The British government, fearful of going broke in six months, fought today to get trade union backing for its voluntary wage freezing program.

Prime Minister Attlee, who proposed voluntary freezing of some wages and profits last week, faced rebellion by 20 labor members of parliament and some trade unions. They oppose his program. He met late today with leaders of the Trades Union Congress. The congress is composed of eight million members, the backbone of the Labor party.

Sir Stafford Cripps, chancellor of the exchequer, said yesterday there is a dangerous gap between Britain's export income and import expense. If it keeps up, Britain's monetary reserves will last only six months, he said.

Many believe Attlee will rely heavily on Cripps' statement to whip labor into line.

More export is required to close the import-export breach, and the government contends that rising wages here would make it more difficult to dispose of British exports in a fading sellers' market.

The TUC is expected to demand firm price and profit controls in return for support of wage pegging. The wage freezing would not apply to special workers in vital industries. This was to attract them to such employment.

Amendment Offered

The amendment sought to reject the plan on the ground it "perpetuates anomalies in payments, earnings, conditions and the state of the people." It called for a "constructive economic policy based on the layout of a national and industrial plan that will lead to increased output, the preservation of collective bargaining, the insuring of price stability, limitation of profit and the avoidance of inflation."

Leaders of the shipyard workers' union, with 2,750,000 members, are reported ready to demand substantial wage boosts Shipyard union officials met at Newcastle today to draft a statement.

Lubbock Soldier Stationed In Japan Extends Army Enlistment

FIFTH AIR FORCE, ITAMI, Japan — Master Sergeant David L. Woods, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Johnson of 2320 Thirteenth street, and husband of Mrs. Mona Woods, who expects to join her husband soon in Japan, has recently extended his period of enlistment in the Air Forces from three to four years.

The oath of enlistment was administered at Itami Air base, Itami, Japan, where Sgt. Woods is currently assigned with the Fifth Air Force.

He entered the Army at Fort Wayne, Indiana, in February 1943, and was graduated from the Aviation Cadet Training program at Lubbock, Texas, in May 1944. He was commissioned a Second Lieutenant with a pilot rating.

Woods served in the European theater from October 1944 to July 1945. After his discharge from the service at San Antonio, he reenlisted. He was alerted for movement to the Pacific theater in February 1947.

Sgt. Wood has extended his enlistment in keeping with current War Department policy which requires all enlisted personnel in the Pacific theater who are expecting their dependents, or whose dependents have already arrived, to remain on active duty with the Air Force for at least one year following the date of arrival of their dependents.

The Woman's Angle
By Margaret Turner

ABRAHAM LINCOLN spoke publicly of "the necessity for constant vigilance in the preservation of our Democracy. He stated clearly his ideals and set forth in no uncertain terms his responsibilities and ours to maintain "one Nation, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all."

Today, amid world chaos and political unrest, the words of our former great leader ring true and vibrant as they did more than a century ago.

When we visited the national shrine at Gettysburg, Pa., in 1946 and saw rare Linconalia we gained a new sense of historic values and wrote about it last year. Some readers have been kind enough to ask for a re-print which follows:

Gettysburg National Military park lies entirely within the limits of Adams county Pennsylvania. Gettysburg is located about eight miles from the Mason Dixon line, the southern boundary of the state; was founded in 1780 and named for its founder, James Gettys.

Of the 83 cemeteries in the United States dedicated exclusively to the burial of soldiers, that at Gettysburg was the first. The battle of Gettysburg had lasted from June 1863 through July and a few days after General Meade's troops had won a victory over the Confederate army, Gov. A. G. Curtin of Pennsylvania came to Gettysburg and appointed David Wills, a leading attorney, to act as his agent in the establishing of a cemetery. War records estimate the Union casualties killed, wounded and missing at 23,000 of the 94,000 troops. Approximately 10,000 bodies were left for burial.

THE grounds were selected and purchased from Pennsylvania and plans made for erecting a suitable monument to the memory of the dead, with expenses to be borne by each state having dead upon the field. It is interesting to note that, according to historians, until two weeks before the dedication, Nov. 19, 1863, the only invitation extended to the president was one of the printed circulars mailed to all national officials, congressmen and others.

A guide in the old Wills' home, where a number of Lincoln treasures are housed; says it has been proved that Mr. Lincoln walked from the station to the Wills' home, carrying his own carpet bag. When he arrived a number of governors was so busily engaged in conversation it was several minutes before someone thought to get a chair for the Chief Executive. The next day he rode to the cemetery on a horse, his long legs almost touching the ground. On the walls of the museum rooms hang three pictures made that day, but they are of the crowd and none shows Lincoln.

THERE were no secret service men, no bullet proof cars, no press conferences. From accounts, Mr. Lincoln was treated much as one of the folks, which perhaps is what he liked most about the entire trip.

The room in which he slept the night before the address has been kept intact. There is the table with the marble top where he sat to scratch his final draft of the speech which he said was to be "little noted, nor long remembered." There is the large bed, with canopy and the original pillow shams are there which were removed the night the covers were turned down for the sad-hearted, war-weary president; the wash stand and other simple furnishings.

Before leaving the museum, we stepped to a case and once more read that magnificent address which had been such a disappointment to its author. As we walked out into the blinding sunlight, we thought when our nation was founded it was the product not only of a political theory, but of spiritual convictions and a deep faith in Almighty God. None can read the Gettysburg Address and fail to recognize over and again the religious dynamic which undergirded the thinking of the one who wrote it.

And it is because of the founders of this republic and men such as Lincoln, whose birthday we observe today, looked to Him for guidance in human undertakings and relationships that we have a government which please God "shall not perish from the earth."

Latin-American Nations May Not Welcome Latest Aid Buying Plan

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

The Latin-American countries have reacted without hat-waving to word from Washington that something like one fifth of the Marshall Plan money will be spent among them in the next 15 months, mostly for foodstuffs.

They need the dollars, all right, but are worried over what such a buying program will do to their already inflated economies.

When they realize that the United States also intends for the buying program to stand in place of the South American "Marshall Plan" for which they had hoped, there is likely to be an outburst of great bitterness.

Have Own Problems

Each of the countries has its own problems, but in general what they want is loans for development of transportation and industry.

The urgency of the European situation in the U. S. pattern of security probably is little understood to the south. Explanation of that will be a big part of Secretary Marshall's job when he goes to the Bogota Inter-American conference next month.

The Latin-American countries wanted to bring up their economic needs at the Rio Conference last year but the United States succeeded in having them concentrate on the hemisphere defense pact. The other countries got the firm impression, however, that something would be done at Bogota.

Then came the Marshall Plan, and the South American impression that they were being left out. Now the State department, in reporting to Senator Vandenberg just what the administration thinks must be spent for aid to various world areas in the next 15 months, has again omitted any mention of Latin-America.

Loan Program Possible

The possibility that a loan program may yet be worked out is not entirely eliminated by exclusion of the western hemisphere from the aid program.

Even if this should develop it would not be entirely satisfying to Latin-America. To them it would be more like a strictly business deal than the partnership into which we are entering with the Marshall plan countries and China.

Also, there are indications that Secretary Marshall may not take any money at all to Bogota, perhaps with the idea that whatever financial arrangements are made with Latin-American countries will be on an individual basis.

The howl that this will most surely produce may be why Marshall plans to go to Bogota himself, rather than delegate the job of quieting it to others. But it's going to be a very difficult situation unless the outlook changes beforehand. The money from the Marshall Plan purchases will almost certainly go, in the main, to only a few countries which can export needed supplies. It will mean practically nothing for the others.

Two Navy Airmen Killed, Eight Others Hurt In Florida Crash

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 11 (U.P.)—Two navy airmen were killed and eight others escaped death last night when a navy PBM amphibious plane crashed and burned on the bank of the St. Johns river near here.

Of the eight survivors, two were hurt critically. The six others suffered minor injuries.

Navy authorities planned to question the survivors to determine the cause of the accident. The plane was not in radio contact with the control tower at Creen Cove Springs and rescue parties began a search for the craft only after it failed to arrive and land on schedule.

Rescuers in crash boats patrolling the St. Johns river found the wrecked plane near Doctor's inlet, partially burned on a high hummock about 100 yards from the water's edge amid oak, magnolia and hickory trees in a heavily wooden section.

Brief Bits Of Local News

Jim Boles, born and reared in Lubbock but currently of New York, played a featured role in "The Big Story," presented last night at 9 o'clock over NBC network. He portrayed a publisher whose newspaper printed the story of a train robbery before the crime occurred, KGNC radio station at Amarillo reported.

A charge of forgery of alteration was drawn Wednesday morning against Frank Jurecka, 17, by Assistant District Attorney E. G. Pharr, accusing the youth of "raising" a check for $1 issued by E. M. Kratzer to $10. C. E. Lynn, justice of the peace, set bond for Jurecka at $1,000, binding him over to grand jury investigation. Dep. Sheriff Tom Cannon made the arrest.

J. A. Hampton of 510 Sixteenth reported to police Wednesday the theft of a family wash, valued at $30, from a clothes line.

A fine of $50 and costs, carrying an automatic, 6-months suspension of drivers license, was levied against Duel Dewitt Burden, 43, in Judge Walter Davies' county court Wednesday afternoon after a jury brought in a verdict of guilty on a drunk driving charge. County Attorney John Steele and Assistant County Attorney Tom Gordon, representing the state, called one witness, City Detective Lee Rice. The defendant took the stand in his own defense, with one other witness called for the defense. C. H. Tisdel, foreman of the jury, returned the verdict about 4:45 p. m., Gordon reported.

Theft of eight cartons of cigarettes, two boxes of candy and two boxes of gum in the burglary of A. G. Durrett grocery, Forty-third and Ave. H, was reported Wednesday to the sheriff's department.

A judgment of County Judge Walter Davies in drunk driving conviction of Joe Maurice Moore, Lubbock insurance adjustor, was affirmed by the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals Wednesday, the Associated Press announced from Austin. The judgment was based on a county court jury verdict, County Attorney John Steele said.

Texas Girl Visits State Capitol In Mississippi Tour

(By The Associated Press)

JACKSON, Miss. Feb. 11. (AP)—A young Texas girl who wanted to learn something about Mississippi received her schooling in the state capitol today.

She is Ofelia Perez of Mission, Tex.

Sometime ago she wrote the Greenville, Miss., chamber of commerce for information on the state. She also invited Greenville folk to visit Mission during the citrus festival.

The Greenville trade body recipocated with an invitation for her to visit Mississippi.

After being feted last night at Greenville, she came to the capitol. Smiling, she signed the visitors' register in the office of the governor.

Later she was presented to the house of representatives, where she made a very brief remark. "I am glad to be here," she said.

With her was her teacher, Miss Fay Tene Zumwalt, who, while posing at the microphone with her protege for the benefit of photographers, said she had never known teaching could be such a pleasant profession.

They were introduced to the house by Rep. Larry Prior of Washington county.

Earlier, Ofelia told newsmen of her trip from Mission to Memphis, Tenn., by plane and said her principal experience was that "I was a lettle beet seek."

Her principal impression of Mississippi, she sadi, was "its big buildings."

Others in her party included Mrs. John Gannon, of Greenville, and Bob Peck of the Greenville chamber of commerce.

Ofelia was scheduled to leave here tonight for Vicksburg and Natchez.

Housewives Buying Fewer Groceries, Survey Indicates

By JOHN RAINEY
United Press Staff Writer

CHICAGO, Feb. 11 (U.P.)—Housewives are buying fewer groceries but are using more spices in home menus, a survey by Northwestern University disclosed.

The "pantry poll," which has just finished its second year, found that a tendency to stock fewer groceries began on V-J Day and has continued downward in many categories.

Charles L. Allen, assistant dean of Northwestern's Medill School of Journalism, is conducting the continuing poll.

Allen said he had not determined whether the trend was the result of using up long-stored supplies or an increasing resistance to high prices.

Less Canned Goods

"At any rate, our poll indicates that families are stocking less and less canned goods," he said.

A major decline was found in the number of persons stocking white and dark bread. In August, 1946, 85 per cent of the families polled stocked white bread, while the percentage dropped to 62 in the same month of 1947. A summary of dark bread showed a drop from 35 per cent to 18 per cent over the same period.

The survey indicated that more women were baking at home, however.

Among the few grocery items which enjoyed purchase increases were cake flour, regular flour, baking powder, cornmeal, flour mixes and cracker meal.

Taking Life Easier

The survey, which covered families from all socio-economic population groups in a large metropolitan area, showed a trend toward "taking life a little easier."

Regular coffee and tea purchases dropped about eight per cent, but "instant" coffee doubled and tea bags rose from 32 to 50 per cent.

In sharp contrast was the buying of spices. In August, 1946, just six per cent of the pantry shelves were stocked with spices, but in 1947 the figure was 88 per cent.

Fats and shortenings also suffered considerable declines in percentage. Butter dropped from 76 to 62, margarine from 37 to 23, vegetable shortenings from 67 to 63, and lard from 37 to 21.

Shopping habits were investigated by the pollsters also. It was found that Friday is the big shopping day and Wednesday was the low point. The largest percentage of housewives shop in "independent" stores, the survey showed.

GAME OF TAG

MILWAUKEE, (U.P.)—When Mrs. Thomas Sheahan returned from a visit to Ireland, she found she had left one of a pair of shoes overseas. She gave the odd shoe to a charitable society. When the other shoe arrived weeks later, she sent it along to the society, hoping it would catch up with its mate.

Approximately 85,000,000 tons of freight move in and out of New York City every year.

Grayson Town Has Boast Of Unusual Health Record

HOWE, Tex., Feb. 11. (AP)—Here's Howe, a town with no kidney stones and too many lightning rods.

Dr. J. L. Shelley, the Grayson county town's only physician and city health officer, today said:

"I've been here since 1909 and I've never caught a citizen of Howe with a kidney stone. I don't know the reason—the fine soft water supply may have something to do with it."

The city draws its supply from a 900 foot well in the Woodbine sand. Shelley said the average death rate of Howe is far under the national death rate for all causes except old age.

"We have an exceptionally high death rate from old age. We have 20 citizens older than 80."

The town has a population of 660.

About the lightning rods: many homes have a half a dozen or more. The 74-year-old physicion's home has seven.

"I've been intending to take them down every day for 39 years. Before the interuban wires and power lines ran through here, homes had no protection from lightning. So everybody bought plenty of lightning rods."

Two Men Are Sentenced For Beating, Robbery Of Jeweler

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 11 (AP)—Two men who pleaded guilty to beating and robbing a jeweler last October today were sentenced in quarter sessions court.

Earl Donaldson, 18, of Franklin, Tex., was sentenced to two to four years. Edmund Guzik, 25, Utica, N. Y., received 10 to 20 years.

U. S. Relative Of Families In Germany Has Relief Program

FORT DODGE, Ia., Feb. 11 (U.P.)—Mrs. Otto Zimmerman, farm housewife, is operating a one-woman organization for European relief.

For the past 18 months she has been sending food and clothing to 25 families in the Russian, English and French occupation zones in Germany. She mailed her 200th package recently.

Recipients are the families of her five sisters and three brothers and of nephews, nieces, grand-nephews and grand-nieces. However, she also sends parcels to several families not related to her.

Mrs. Zimmerman heard nothing from her relatives during the recent war. But in August, 1946 she began receiving letters from her brothers and sisters relating their hardships.

She began sending food parcels through CARE. More than $300 of her butter and egg money went for the packages. Then she began making up her own bundles of food and clothing. In the past year, she has spent more than $1,000 on the packages. Her husband and son, William, 17, a high school student, help pack and mail the 22-pound parcels, which are turned out in assembly line fashion in the Zimmerman home.

Britain, France Failed To Get Soviets On Their Side In 1939

Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11 — The British and French governments soon may come through with an official account of events of the summer of 1939 — especially of their ill-fated negotiations in Moscow.

Throughout that spring and summer, British and French missions in the Soviet capital sought desperately to induce Russia to join their "peace front" against Hitler. Turkey and Poland had come in and Romania was willing, but without Russia the odds were against peace.

Hitler, it was pointed out, had said that Kaiser's biggest blunder was to wage a two-front war and that he would not make the same mistake. Thus it was a good bet that an entente between Britain and France in the West, and Russia and Poland in the East would curb Hitler.

Why They Failed

Small wonder, then, that the British and French struggled in Moscow to win Russia over to their side. Success almost certainly would have meant peace. Failure, it was equally certain, would have spelled war.

That they failed is history. Why they failed remains only half told. Publication of the Moscow-Berlin notes leading up to the Hitler-Stalin pact makes clear that particular part of the tragedy, but the official account of the Franco-British efforts — which were going on at the same time and place —remains missing.

In 1940, the British published their White Book giving the diplomatic history of prewar events. And the French put out their Yellow Book. But both observed almost total silence regarding Moscow.

Sir Stafford Cripps was Britain's chief envoy in Russia that summer. He and Hitler's ambassador, Count Von Schulenburg actually passed each other as they entered and left Foreign Minister Molotov's office. Doubtless the French Ambassador had the same experience. Yet they were as dumbfounded almost as any outsider when they discovered they had been duped.

Russo-German Pacts

In the French Yellow Book it is seen that not until Aug. 30, 1939 — just 48 hours before the war broke out — did the Western Allies smell a mouse. The French Ambassador to Berlin then informed the Paris office, not of something he had learned officially, but what the Berlin newspapers were saying. It looked, he said, as if Berlin and Moscow had come to some important understanding. "We cannot," he concluded, "in my opinion watch too closely the development of Russo-German relations."

Nothing could reveal more dramatically how completely Ribbentrop and Molotov pulled the wool over the eyes of the peace-loving West.

For the past nine years the story in diplomatic circles has been that the British and French failed because Hitler outbid them. They could not meet Russia's price — Germany could and did.

Russia, it was said, demanded a free hand in Eastern Europe — in Poland, Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, Finland and Romania plus other "compensations." And the western powers were not in a position to acquiesce. Whereupon Hitler sent Ribbentrop to come to terms with Molotov while the British and French diplomats sat outside, waiting.

Now that the battle of the documents has begun, a full account of how this was done may be forthcoming.

LOST 47 POUNDS WITHOUT DIETING

The following remarkable story shows conclusively that Barcentrate DOES take off fat.

It contains nothing harmful. In fact, it contains ingredients that make you feel better. No starvation diet—no weakness—no hunger.

Barcentrate, the original grapefruit juice recipe, takes off fat quickly, safely and you can eat plenty.

Here is Proof

"When I started taking Barcentrate, I weighed 212 pounds and wore size 46 dresses. Now I wear size 18 and weigh 165 pounds. I started taking Barcentrate in March and by June I had lost 47 pounds. I would have lost more weight had I left off fattening foods, but I was anemic at that time and afraid to diet. People who knew me before I started taking Barcentrate are amazed at the weight I have lost. My flesh is firm; I have never become flabby or wrinkled and I am 40 years old.

"Before taking Barcentrate I couldn't do my house work without becoming exhausted; had dizzy spells and my head and back hurt me constantly. I was so short winded, I was miserable. But now all those things have gone and it is really a pleasure to do the chores I once dreaded.

"Three years ago I nearly died with Typhus fever and it left me anemic and I could never get my blood count up again or get back my energy. After taking Barcentrate my blood count started up and is now normal. So you see why I praise Barcentrate so highly and recommend it. Any praise I can give Barcentrate is small compared to the relief and happiness it has brought me."—Mrs. Eula Whitehead, 509 Harmon, Corpus Christi, Texas.

At All Druggists

The above is one of hundreds of amazing endorsements we have received.

If you are overweight and want to take off ugly fat, just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls twice a day. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, safe, easy way to take off weight, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Bill Henderson, J. D. Kirkpatrick Win; Earl Pollard Loses On Unpopular Decision

Petersburg Puncher Scores Knockout In Second Round

By JOE KELLY
Avalanche Sports Editor

WILL ROGERS COLISEUM, Fort Worth, Feb. 11—Featherweight Champion Bill Henderson, the Levelland Larruper, and Light Heavyweight J. D. Kirkpatrick, the Petersburg Puncher, advanced to the second round in the state Golden Gloves championships here tonight, while Earl Pollard of Lubbock fell a casualty to the decision of the judges.

Henderson had his hands full beating Cleve Steed, a 16-year old, 126-pounder, from Wichita Falls. Bill never was able to get going in the fight and seemed to be bothered by Steed's long left, which the youngster continually held out in front of him.

Crowd Boos Lustily

Bill scored one knockdown in the first round, Steed taking a count of seven after being on the receiving end of a short right. Again in the second round Steed went down for a seven count after taking a short lick from Bill, who delivered a quick left-right, his best flurry of the fight.

The final round was even, with Henderson doing no more than holding his own.

Pollard fell victim to the worst decision of the evening, one which sent the crowd into a prolonged boo that was halted only after the next fight had started.

The fancy welterweight from Dallas, using the same neat footwork that had taken him along in Lubbock, also mixed it up with Jack Woodruff of Dallas and held his own. Pollard clearly outboxed Woodruff in the first round, while getting no worse than a draw on the occasional slugging.

Pollard then carried the fight to Woodruff in the second round, landing several solid lefts and rights throughout the heavy going. He staggered Woodruff once and kept that flicking left jabbing Woodruff steadily.

The final round probably went to Woodruff, who realized that he was losing the fight. He landed one solid blow and two or three that neither staggered nor hurt Pollard, but the Lubbock boy outboxed his opponent and never was in danger.

Sportswriters Shocked

When the decision was announced, the crowd broke into the only sustained booing of the evening, voicing its protest against the obvious misjudgment of the fight. Sportswriters covering the fight could not believe the decision and Pollard was sick at heart in the dressing room.

Kirkpatrick redeemed honors for the night with a knockout of Harold Williams, a 19-year-old from Port Arthur (Beaumont), at 1:28 of the second round.

The Petersburg slugger was in perfect form and boxed his opponent beautifully in the first round, beating him to the punch and consistently blocking Williams' blows, and Kirkpatrick delivered one short right to the head in the first round that hurt.

In the second round, Williams came out and made a mistake. His mistake was in trying to outslug Kirkpatrick, a fact that landed him on the canvas in short order from a wicked short right that traveled no farther than seven inches. Seconds had to help Williams from the ring and there was no question on that he was out cold.

All Locals Fight

Second round fights Thursday night will feature debut of Lightweight Frank Telles, Middleweight Lonnie Balch and Heavyweight Gene James while Featherweight Bill Henderson and Light Heavyweight J. D. Kirkpatrick have their second bouts of the tourney.

James apparently will have a fairly good test in Relius Broussard of Temple, while Kirkpatrick will fight Norman Theis of San Antonio, who looked like a good boxer, but no slugger, in beating Inept William Coughlin of El Paso.

Balch, as he did in the interregional bouts between Lubbock and Amarillo, will meet the stiffest test of the Hub City fighters, going against top seeded Tommy Barron of Dallas, the defending middleweight champion. Balch is in good shape and ready for the fight, which could do much toward sending Lubbock's team on its way to the team trophy.

Telles is recovering from the fast and sweat treatment that caused him to shed 12-pounds in five days to get into the lightweight division. Trainer Bert Kahn calls him ready to go now and Telles says that he has retained his power. Considerable food is making him stronger and he is given a good chance of helping the Hub City team.

The Texas Tech slugger will meet Weldon Arbuckle of Wichita Falls, who is an unknown here.

Henderson, who didn't look at all good in winning his bout tonight, will take on Howard Van Winkle of San Antonio. The Santone boy also is an unknown.

SPORTS Spotlight
By Bob Cone

This letter from Rev. Randall Hinkle, now a Wayland college student, is self explanatory:

"Dear Mr. Cone:

"I am very sorry that I had to go to bed and could not box in the Golden Gloves tournament.

"I have a little cousin who was burned, and I am giving blood to him. Then that cold spell hit, and I went under.

"I want to thank you for the nice things you said about me. I am sorry that I disappointed you and the people over the South Plains as well as other places.

"I have had letters from all over the nation addressed to "The Punching Pastor." The title you gave me has really caught on.

"If Lubbock is planning an AAU boxing meet let me know and I will be glad to enter. I would want to enter from Tahoka under Coach Foust though."

The last sentence in the letter ties in well with something this corner had in mind to write about even before Randall's message arrived.

It stresses the loyalty of all those Tahoka athletes to their school and their coaches . . . Therein is the secret of the successes of Jim Foust's and "Jake" Jacobs' Bulldogs in football, and now basketball . . .

Only Tuesday night another Bulldog team came through to win a title . . . It was only the championship of District 4-A's south zone . . . But it was a championship . . . And Sudan and Levelland will do well to watch these Bulldogs . . . The Bulldogs, like the Leveland Lobos, are aways championship minded, and when you score on them, or barge into a lead, well, that just stings them to actioon . . . Not too many teams have been out front, and ahead, of the Bulldogs in cage games this season, though . . .

We believe the good people of Tahoka will agree with us when we say that Tahoka is into a new, and highly successful, era of athletics under the present coaching setup . . .

Coach Damon Hill of the Dunbar Negro High school Panthers saw one of his plans become reality Tuesday night when Pinky Lowrey handed out sweaters to all those Dunbar grid players who last season won seven games and lost only one to hang up the greatest record in the school's history . . .

Damon is a solid citizen . . . He coaches football well . . . He has a fighting ball team, and a team which puts sportsmanship ahead of everything else . . .

LaVern Roach and Marcel Cerdan have completed all the paper work necessary for a Madison Square Garden go March 12 . . .

One sports writer, in speaking of Roach, said he "displayed a rapier left, a ne right cross and a willingness to mix.

"In Cerdan he will meet an opponent with the same eagerness to swap punches. The Casablanca clouter moves forward all the time, tossing leather rapidly with both hands."

That was obvious to all of us who got a few looks via newsreel at Cerdan dropping an Italian fighter with a heavy right near the heart . . .

There are 300 sweat glands in each square inch of a man's palm.

AA District Cage Leaders Launch Stretch Drives

(By The United Press)

The state Class AA schoolboy basketball trail neared the end of regular season play today with favorites firmly established in most districts but with the field open in others.

Here's how the situation looked, by districts, as of today:

1—Amarillo, with a 8-0 record, has clinched tie, meets Borger Friday and Pampa, the only other team with title chance, Saturday.

2—Graham has won six, lost none and appears certain winner, although Vernon, with 5-1 record, has slim chance.

Austin Best Bet

3—Big Spring out in front and favored.

4—Austin of El Paso, with 4-0, district record, seems best bet and can clinch tie this week by beating El Paso high, last year's state champion which isn't up to par Bowie High still has chance.

5—Bonham, undefeated to date in district, favored, but Sherman could tie it up by winning their game Friday.

6—Denton undefeated in six starts and has clinched crown.

7—Arlington Heights won first half race, but Polytechnic and Paschal leading in second half.

8—Crozier Tech clinched tie last night by downing Sunset, but Woodrow Wilson still has mathematical chance.

9—Brownwood looks like probable winner with 7-1 record.

10—Temple, with 9-0 record, is virtually in.

11—Texarkana took stranglehold on lead last night by downing contender Henderson.

Lufkin Undefeated

12—Lufkin undefeated and a shoo-in.

13—Milby, the state's only full season undefeated team with 24 straight.

14—Beaumont and Baytown tied with 9-1 records.

15—Jefferson high clinched a tie by downing San Antonio Tech.

16—Harlingen setting pace with 11 victories against no losses.

Cold, Rain May Slow Valley Golf Tourney

HARLINGEN, Feb. 11 (AP)—One hundred and eighty one golfers start firing at the Harlingen Municipal courses 35-36—71 par tomorrow in the opening round of the Lower Rio Grande Valley Open with the field to be cut almost in half after the first 18 holes.

All the stars of the winter tour except Sam Snead and Lew Worsham will be in the field. Snead did not come here for the tournament after winning the Texas Open at San Antonio. Worsham has an infection on his leg and said he didn't think he would be able to start.

After tomorrow's round the field will be cut to 100 and after Friday's 18 holes will be reduced to the low 60 and ties for the final 36.

The star spangled field is ready to battle not only against par over the 6,045 yard course but the elements as well. A high wind today did things with golf shots and a few of the pros played full rounds. Sixteen of them participated in a clinic that drew a large gallery.

Prospects for tomorrow are cold high wind and rain. The wind today was from the south and ranged from 28 to 38 miles an houn. It will shift to the north tomorrow but be just as strong.

Raiders, Sun Devils In Cage Go Tonight

By EARL SCUDDAY
Avalanche Sports Writer

Texas Tech's rebounding Red Raider cagers will seek revenge for the disastrous January invasion of Arizona at 8 o'clock tonight at the Tech gymnasium when they battle the Speedy Sun Devil quint from Arizona State at Tempe.

The Raiders hold the runner-up position in the Border conference basketball title chase, as a result of recent victories over Texas Mines and Hardin-Simmons, and a win over Tempe tonight would put the Techsans on the heels of the leading Arizona university Wildcats. The Tech quint has a record of five triumphs in conference play, against three defeats.

Tempe Is Revamped

Coach Polk Robison will depend on a group of veterans for a win over the Sun Devils, with William (Whistle) Banks and Eugene Gibson at starting forward posts, big Don Grove at center and Ardis Barton and James (Wimpy) Hill at guard slots. Grove is expected to continue to carry the brunt of the Tech offense, as he has done all season, with point-making assistance from Banks and Gibson.

The Tempe five has been revamped since the first tussle with Tech, but two stellar players—Forward Verl Heap and Carl Heath—are sure to get starting assignments. Both cagers have copped high scoring honors in numerous tilts this year and are ranked as two of the best hardwood artists in the Southwest.

Approximately 200 seats will be available for Lubbock fans, Tech officials announced last night, and will be sold on a "first come, first served" basis at the athletic office.

A special curtain-raising clash of special interest to South Plains cage fans has been carded at the gym at 6:15 o'clock, with the Texas Tech frosh battling the strong Wayland college Pioneers

In the last meeting of the two quints the freshmen edged the Pioneers, 53-52, on a last second field goal by Lonnie Balch; but Balch is now participating in the state Golden Gloves tourney at Fort Worth and will not be with the home five tonight. Rangy Verdell Turner and Ed Wilson, former Westerner cage stars, will head the starting lineup for the freshmen, with Charles Pinnell of Andrews, George Belcher of Portales, Ike Stuver of Ysleta and Bob Steely of Clovis competing for the other posts.

D. W. Harkins, the Levelland shotmaker, and Leon Burch will probably provide the offensive spark for the Wayland team. The Pioneers hold first place in the west zone of the Texas Junior college conference, with a season record of 15 games won and five lost.

BOWLING SCORES

Southwestern Public Service keglers retained top position in the Ladies Commercial Bowling league by defeating Grollman's pin-topplers in two of three games Wednesday night at Lubbock Bowling club. Norma Crossland paced the Southwestern squad with a 195-551 series, while Frances McDowell topped Grollman's with a 144-402.

Hemphill-Wells jumped to the third spot in the loop race by drubbing the Westerner cafe five in two games as Artie Galloway tallied a 147-435 series. Pic Christensen led the cafe crew with a 151-441.

Larrymore Dance studio bowlers entered the win column with two victories over Hackel's. Billy Hover rolled a 188-456 for the winners and Gail Tyson chalked up a 160-394 for Hackel's.

Home Lumber and Supply defeated Glassman's by default.

The league standings:

Team	Won	Lost
Southwestern	37	20
Home Lumber	31	26
Larrymore's	30	27
Hemphill-Wells	30	27
Westerner	28	29
Hackel's	26	31
Glassman's	26	31
Grollman's	20	37

BUFFS BEAT SUN DEVILS

CANYON, Feb. 11 (AP) — West Texas State Teachers college Buffaloes tonight defeated Arizona State of Tempe, 45-39, in a Border conference basketball game.

Cold Threatening To Postpone Golf Meet Second Time

Blizzards and West Texas pro-amateur golf meets seem to have become traveling companions.

Such a pro-amateur event was scheduled for Big Spring last month, and January's blast of icy weather caused postponement.

The 18-hole Medal play meet was reset for Friday, Feb. 13.

Herb Schroeder of the Country club, who Wednesday received a reminder from Morgan Hampton, chairman of the tournament committee, that the meet's reset date was near at hand, scratched his head, and wondered.

No golfers, in a large radius, had to be reminded that winter had again laid ice encrusting hands over the South Plains and West Texas.

Schroeder was one who couldn't believe the weather would favor the Friday meet. All he could say was:

"Just watch the papers for any announcements about it."

Citation Wins Easily In Hialeah Handicap

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 11 (AP)—Calumet farm's winter book favorite for the Kentucky Derby, Citation, won his 10th race in 11 starts today when he copped the $10,000 Seminole handicap at Hialeah.

Citation's stablemate, Armed, second leading money winner, ran third with Woolford farm's Delegate second. Citation has been beaten only by stablemate Bewitch, and then he was second. He ran the seven furlong distance in the good time of 1:23 flat.

Armed showed considerable improvement over his recent appearances. Trainer Jimmy Jones said "he ran an improved race and really closed ground."

General Manager Ben Jones, Jimmy's father, added, "Armed ran much better today but still doesn't seem quite himself yet. We'll see how he comes out of today's race before deciding on what we'll do about the McClennan and the Widener."

Citation's victory was the fourth straight on today's card for Jockey Al Snider who had previously copped the third, fourth and fifth races.

Calumet's third entry in the nine horse event, Faultless, ran fifth, with A. F. Plock's Tavistock fourth.

Unbeaten Bears, Longhorns Meet In Crucial Joust

(By The Associated Press)

The Southwest conference basketball lead will be at stake Thursday night when Texas and Baylor tangle at Waco.

The two leaders match undefeated records and the victor will be a heavy favorite to finish the race on top.

Texas' defending champion Longhorns haven't lost a conference game since 1946 and have dropped only one game this year.

The fast-moving Baylor quint last week knocked Arkansas out of a share in the lead on a double victory. It was the first time since 1940 that the Bears had swept an Arkansas series.

Jack Gray's "Mighty Mice" will have a slight advantage in speed over Baylor, but may not be able to match the fine defensive style the Bears employ.

The Bears' have Jackie Robinson, Don Heathington and Bill Johnson for an offensive punch, while Texas has Slater Martin and Tom Hamilton.

Two conference games are scheduled Friday. Texas A. & M. meets Rice at College Station and Arkansas is host to Texas Christian at Fayetteville.

Saturday, Arkansas and Texas Christian play again in Fayetteville.

Dory Funk Defeats Getz In Headliner

Dory Funk of Hammond, Ind., provided one of the major upsets of the year at Sled Allen's wrestling arena Wednesday night by downing tough Al Getz, Southwestern junior champ, in the two of three falls feature main event.

Funk surprised Getz by copping the first fall in just 13 minutes with a "figure four," but the durable Dutchman from Pittsburgh rebounded to take the second fall in 17 minutes with a cradle split. Funk amazed the local mat fans by downing Getz in the decisive third fall with a series of drop kicks and body press.

Ace Freeman of New York City grabbed top honors in the second main bout by defeating Karl Gray, Milwaukee grappler, in two of three falls with the assistance of Referee Billy McEuin. Freeman took the initial encounter with a body scissors, then Gray evened the tally with a second fall victory using a body press. Freeman was awarded the third fall when Gray was disqualified for throwing the referee out of the ring.

Salvador Flores, the Mexico City battler, gained a decision over George Lopez in the preliminary bout with a face lock.

Abernathy, Sundown To Vie In South Zone Cage Playoff

A playoff between Abernathy high's Antelopes and the Sundown high Roughnecks for second place in District 4-A's south zone has delayed the district's annual championship tournament in which the two top teams in each zone meet for the cage title.

Abernathy and Sundown school officials Wednesday were working out plans for the playoff. Both schools appeared to favor sending their teams afloor Tuesday night to break the deadlock with the winner of the single contest accompanying Tahoka to the district tourney.

Tahoka has won the championship of the south zone while Sudan and Levelland are definitely in as the winners in the north zone.

O. W. Marcom, superintendent of Levelland schools, and District 4-A chairman, has called a Saturday afternoon meeting at the Hilton hotel here to set the dates and the site of the annual tournament.

Abernathy will not be able to meet Sundown in the playoff before next week since its Antelopes are scheduled to meet the Post five in a postponed game Friday night.

Representatives of the Tahoka, Abernathy, Sudan, Sundown and Levelland schools will attend the Saturday meeting here.

The 1947 tournament was held at Sundown.

Tahoka, Abernathy, Levelland and Sundown all have large gymnasiums.

The Tahoka Bulldogs moved into the championship of the south zone Tuesday night by turning back the Abernathy Antelopes, 36-25, in Abernathy.

Sudan is unbeaten in conference play in the north zone, and Levelland trails with only one loss, that to Sudan.

Coach "Jake" Jacob's Bulldogs got themselves into the category of "the team to watch" when they began knocking off the area's stronger teams. Now the north zone, where Levelland and Sudan are perennial favorites, have begun wondering about this sharp-shooting quintet to the south.

Sudan and Levelland tangle in Levelland Friday night in their last District 4-A conference game of the season. The Levelland gym, which has a capacity of about 1,400, is expected to be packed past elbow room.

Cold Weather Nips Fight Tournament

TAHOKA, Feb. 11 (Special)—Frigid weather and a close down of public schools here and at Lockney have caused postponement of a boxing meet scheduled for Thursday night between the Tahoka and Lockney High school fight teams.

The tourney has been tentatively reset for Friday night, and if weather conditions continue bad Friday another postponement will be ordered, Coach Jim Foust of the Tahoka team said.

The teams will meet in the Tahoka High school gym.

Building Industry Is Warned To Solve Own Labor Problems

DALLAS, Feb. 11 (U.P.)—A high federal labor official said today the government will dictate settlement terms in the construction industry unless labor and management solve their own jurisdictional problems.

Robert N. Denham, general counsel for the National Labor Relations board, asked a group of industry officials here to get together with 19 major AFL building unions and work out "some joint procedure" for the "final and binding" settlement of jurisdictional disputes without strikes.

Plan Proposed

Denham and the labor board reportedly have discussed with the industry and the 19 building unions a specific plan for settling the disputes.

The plan, it was understood, would set up a labor-management panel with an impartial umpire from the public to make binding decisions on all jurisdictional questions. Under the plan, labor and industry would refrain from strikes and lockouts while the board investigated the dispute.

In an address to the Associated General contractors, Denham said.

"Jurisdictional strikes in your industry have been the source of something more than mere annoyance and have been the cause of substantial money losses to you, to the workers and to the public as well as slowing down much-needed production."

Labor Law Applicable

He said the old labor board, operating under the Wagner labor act with "discretionary powers," frequently stayed out of disputes involving the building trade industries and their approximately 2,500,000 employees. But, he added, there is no question that the industry is covered by the Taft-Hartley labor law.

Denham warned that if the government is forced to step into jurisdictional squabbles in the building industry, "there is a reasonable chance that the results would not be satisfactory" to either labor or management.

The Taft-Hartley act provides an elaborate machinery for settlement of the kind of jurisdictional disputes which have long plagued the building industry. Under the act if the parties fail to settle the issue, the labor board must solve it and its decision can be enforced with court orders.

Denham also disclosed that the labor board is working on a huge program to conduct union shop elections among the building trades workers. He said he is convinced most of the industry's labor leaders would accept the union shop in new contracts in place of the traditional closed shop which was outlawed by the Taft-Hartley law.

HOUSTON, Feb. 11 (AP)—Henry W. Dew, 71, one of the founders of the Houston Fat Stock Show and Livestock exposition, died shortly before noon today in a Sugarland hospital after several years of declining health.

Funds In Sight For U. T. Medical Center

HOUSTON, Feb. 11 (U.P.)—Construction of the University of Texas projects in the $100,000,000 Texas medical center was fast becoming reality today with the announcement that sufficient funds were in sight.

This was revealed in a report made to the directors of the Houston Chamber of Commerce by Col. George A. Hill, jr., chairman of the University of Texas development board.

Col. Hill said the $6,250,000 goal was near since terms of a $2,500,000 gift from the M. D. Anderson foundation had been relaxed and since the tentative approval of a $1,250,000 federal appropriation.

The report disclosed that the trustees of the Anderson foundation agreed with the university board of regents to make the entire pledge of $2,500,000 available on a "contemporaneous expenditure" basis matching other funds dollar for dollar.

Along with legislative appropriations, public donations, a gift from the Rosalie B. Hite estate, Texas Dental college property value and cancer hospital equipment, the total available is just $1,225,000 short of the goal.

Coverage of the deficit was being sought from the federal government which makes available $1 for every $2 pledged under the hospital survey act.

Drive For Veteran's Bonus May Result From Rally At Austin

AUSTIN, Tex., Feb. 11 (U.P.)—A state-wide drive for a veterans' bonus may come out of a bonus [illegible] the University of Texas Thursday night, a student leader predicted today.

Pat Maloney, student assembly member, pointed to a campus poll which showed 83 per cent of university veterans favored a bonus. The poll was conducted last week.

State Rep. Roger Q. Evans of Denison, Texas, commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, will address the meeting tomorrow night, explaining the provisions of a bill he sponsored which failed to pass during the 50th Legislature.

Rep. R. E. (Peppy) Blount of Big Spring also was scheduled to state his reasons for advocating a bonus. Veterans groups at A. & M. college, Baylor and Southwest Texas State Teachers college are expected to attend.

January Freezes Seen As Both Bad, Beneficial For Feeds

AUSTIN, Feb. 11 (AP)—January freezes were both good and bad for Texas range feeds.

Sleet, snow and ice, according to the United States Department of Agriculture, sharply deteriorated winter range feeds and held practically to a standstill new growth of winter weeds, grass and clovers.

The resulting moisture, however, was seen as "very beneficial" toward bringing along new green feed as soon as temperatures moderate.

More rain was said still needed on most ranges in the western half of the state.

USDA reported condition of all range feed at 70 per cent, a four point decline in the past 30 days. Normal seasonal drop at this time of the year is two points.

Unprotected cattle and calves were said to have suffered heavy shrinkage during January's winter weather but losses appeared to be light. Condition was reported at 74 per cent, a five point drop in 30 days and four points under the 10-year average.

Condition of sheep was reported at 76 per cent, a two-point decline from a month earlier and five points under the 10-year average.

Two Pipe Dealers Are Charged With Swindling Houston Man

DALLAS, Feb. 11 (AP)—Harry Hargett of Dallas has been released on $2,500 bond as one of two defendants facing charges of swindling Tom Turner, Houston, out of $36,516 in an oil pipe deal.

The second defendant, Clyde Winslow, 43, of New York City, is being returned to Dallas from Pittsburgh, Pa., where he was arrested yesterday.

Both men are metal pipe dealers. They are charged with telling Turner they owned a carload of oil pipe en route from St. Louis to Dallas last December. The charge says they did not own such a carload of pipe.

Business Firms, Schools Close Over Area To Meet Emergency

was accompanied by winds that rose to 40 miles an hour. The winds had declined to 26 miles per hour at midnight.

The winds will diminish today but will remain "fresh" at approximately 15 miles per hour, the Weather bureau said.

Occasional dry snow is expected to fall today, but will end this afternoon. Only a trace of moisture had been received from Wednesday's snow.

The latest paralyzing cold wave, which swept in over the Panhandle and South Plains shortly before midnight Tuesday, quickly sent temperatures plummeting. Late last night, the norther had covered most of the upper portions of the state and was roaring on toward the Texas Gulf coast.

Other areas, such as Dallas and Abilene, also reported fuel shortages.

Southwestern Public Service company at its Tuco plant also has facilities for switching its natural gas engines to fuel oil.

The city power plant has only partial facilities for switching to fuel oil, but those diesels capable of using fuel oil had been switched Wednesday night.

Southwestern Bell Telephone company lines were affected in only a few instances, and some of those were not attributable to the weather, a spokesman said Wednesday night. Two circuits to Oklahoma City were out, and there was line trouble east of Amarillo, but service from Lubbock was not affected.

All Planes Grounded

The storm had not interrupted Western Union facilities, except that lines to Levelland were temporarily disrupted when a telephone cable fell across them and broke them. Western Union employes said the traffic both to and from Lubbock was "slightly heavier than normal."

No commercial airliners landed at or left municipal airport Wednesday.

Rail transportation had not been affected by the storm, and all passenger and freight trains were running on schedule, it was said at the Santa Fe depot last night.

Employes of Texas New Mexico and Oklahoma coaches said no buses were running to Amarillo or Clovis last night—whether they will this morning will depend on the weather today. The buses to those points were held back not so much because of the bad condition of the roads as to the fact that connecting buslines were not operating north and west, an official explained.

Grocery Stores May Open

Whether grocery stores would open at all today seemed to depend on further instructions from Mayor Bestwick. All the city's grocery firms indicated willingness to comply with his requests.

H. B. Teal, president of the Lubbock Retail Grocers association, said last night that his understanding of the situation after a talk with Mayor Bestwick was that all grocery stores were asked to remain closed the entire day today.

Further plans for allowing stores to open for a limited time on Friday if the emergency continues are to be discussed today, he said. He indicated that he plans to contact member firms of the association this morning concerning the mayor's request, and stated that he expected to receive wholehearted cooperation with the request.

A spokesman for Furr Food stores said employes will report for work as usual. If the gas situation permits and approval is given by the mayor, they will open for as long as permitted. If not, they will remain closed.

A spokesman for Piggly Wiggly stores said that they would follow the lead of other grocery stores in the city on closing for the business holiday today. Whether or not they would close, he said, would be decided definitely early this morning.

Six Accidents Reported

Five minor traffic accidents and one collision occurred in the Lubbock area Wednesday, according to police records, but no injuries were reported.

The Texas highway patrol said a 1947 Ford coupe driven by Claude L. King, jr., 2206 Twentieth, Tech student, was in collision about 4 p. m. with a 1935 Ford coach driven by Dolfus Vereo, Lubbock Route 4, six miles south of Lubbock on Highway 87.

Both vehicles were going south when King attempted to pass the other vehicle on the right side and the cars collided, the highway patrol said.

Area Communities Hit

Reports from other South Plains localities indicated weather conditions similar to those at Lubbock.

Plainview-All roads were reported open to travel, although fine snow had fallen all day. High winds caused slight snow drifts in ditches. Temperature at midnight was about five degrees.

Crosbyton-Some ice on the sides of highways was reported, but strong winds had prevented further coating. Snow fall had ceased during the night.

Seagraves - Slight snow in a high wind was sweeping the area at midnight, and temperature was reported at ten degrees above zero. All roads were reported dry and open to travel.

High Winds At Muleshoe

Muleshoe - Very high winds reported with light snow, but roads all right for travel. Temperature at midnight was said to be five degrees.

Clovis, N. M. - Dangerous conditions for travel were reported on all roads out of Clovis, but they were 'open' as far as Roswell. All other roads west were closed by heavy snows. The temperature was reported at five degrees below zero.

Man Rides Through Blizzard To Rescue Spearman Youngster

GRUVER, Feb. 11 (AP)—Roads impassable to wheeled traffic today were mastered by a solitary horseman who plodded through deep snow and gales to rescue a little boy. Recovering here is Billy Seitz, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Seitz, Spearman, and giving high praise and gratitude to Pike Cluck of Gruver, who spent three hours in the teeth of a blizzard to ride three miles to Billy's rescue.

Billy and Chester Barnes of Perryton spent the night in a truck trapped by the blizzard at 10 o'clock Tuesday night. Mr. Barnes left the boy in the truck, warmed by an exhaust heater, at noon today to walk to Gruver. Mr. Cluck left immediately after Mr. Barnes' arrival. He found a tearful, frightened and frostbitten boy, who explained the motor of the truck had stopped shortly after Mr. Barnes had left for Gruver. He was well on the road to recovery from frostbitten feet tonight.

a few which might be heated by fuel oil.

The same conditions as those existing in Lubbock were expected to prevail over the South Plains, several mayors and city officials in towns contacted by the West Texas Gas company late Wednesday calling in to say that they would co-operate wholeheartedly in the effort to save fuel for homes and hospitals and other essential needs.

Towns supplied by the West Texas Gas company are Hereford, Canyon, Happy, Friona, Bovina, Dimmitt, Tulia, Kress, Quitaque, Turkey, Silverton, Floydada, Lockney, Plainview, Hale Center, Abernathy, Lubbock, Idalou, Lorenzo, Ralls, Crosbyton, Slaton, Southland, Post, Petersburg, Tahoka, Wilson, O'Donnell, Lamesa, Midland, Stanton, Odessa, Seagraves, Seminole, Brownfield, Anton, Littlefield, Levelland, Amherst, Sudan, Muleshoe, Ropesville, Meadow and Shallowater.

FARM FAMILY PROGRAM AT BECTON POSTPONED

A Farm Family Night meeting, originally scheduled for tonight in the community center at Becton, has been postponed because of the current cold weather, Dave Sherrill, county agent, has announced.

A similar program held Tuesday night in the New Deal school gymnasium at Monroe was attended by approximately 80 persons, Sherrill said. Speakers on the program included W. O. Fortenberry, B. M. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Creel, and representatives of the Soil Conservation service, the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, Rural Electrification administration and other agricultural agencies.

Refreshments were provided by the Lubbock County Farm bureau and First National bank, Sherrill said.

EDITOR'S TALK AT FLOYDADA POSTPONED UNTIL LATER

The cold wave caused cancellation of a speech in Floydada tonight by Chas. A. Guy, editor of The Avalanche Journal, and a preceding banquet there of Junior Chamber of Commerce members and their wives. The Jaycees of Floydada were sponsoring Guy's appearance there and the engagement has tentatively been reset for Thursday, Feb. 26. Guy was to have spoken on current conditions in Europe, which he personally observed during a recent overseas tour as the guest of the U. S. Army.

DEMOLAY DANCE PLANNED IN CITY TONIGHT OFF

The DeMolay dance, which had been scheduled tonight at the Hiltnn hotel, has been postponed because of the business holiday, it was announced last night.

The dance likely will be conducted sometime next week, John Bradford, sponsor of the group, said. The new date will be announced later. The DeMolay organization is sponsored by the Yellowhouse Masonic lodge.

the way for World War II. American dollars and French-British diplomacy launched Hitlerite aggression, it charged.

The dossier captured by the Russians showed, tonight's statement said, "that essentially, Anglo-French policy was aimed not at mustering the forces of the peace-loving states for a common struggle against aggression, but at isolating the USSR and directin Hitlerite aggression towards the east against the Soviet Union, using Hitler as a tool for their own ends."

CHARGE IS MADE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11 (AP)—The United States charged today that Russia flouted Hungary's independence by the "abduction" of two American army officers. Vigorous notes to both Moscow and Budapest denounced as unwarranted and arbitrary the arrest last month of Lieutenant Colonels Bernard Thielen and Peter J. Kopcsak by Soviet Troops on Hungarian soil.

Two Lubbock Victims Of Plane Accident Remain In Hospital

BROWNFIELD, Feb. 11 (Special)—Two Lubbock residents who were plane crash victims near here Tuesday night continued under treatment for fractures at Treadway-Daniell hospital tonight. They were Mrs. Adele Baca, of 3211 Twenty-fifth street, who suffered two broken ankles, and Mrs. Velma Jenness, 908 Ave. M, who suffered a broken knee.

The pilot of the four-place light plane, Aubra Cromer, 37, of 2413 Twenty-eighth street, Lubbock, left the hospital after treatment of a split lip and bruises.

The plane crashed into a field eight miles west of here near Gomez community about 10 o'clock Tuesday night when the three had become lost after leaving Big Spring. They were enroute to Lubbock from Corpus Christi.

Cromer said a faulty altimeter contributed to the crash. The plane was badly damaged.

Speculator Named

ments) on speculative purchases.

2. Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex), often a critic of administration policies, once more demanded that Anderson resign. He blamed government grain purchasing operations for consumer price rises. He said the administration just wanted to make a case for price controls and rationing.

This attack on the Senate floor brought a snort of "tommyrot and poppycock" from Senator Lucas (D-Ill). He said Anderson bought wheat under "a mandate of the Congress."

"Politics" Charged

3. Rep. Andresen, who has charged that information of government grain operations leaked out in advance, again was accused of playing politics. Yesterday it was Secretary Anderson who fired back at him. Today it was three Democratic members of the investigating committee which Andresen heads. They are Reps. McCormack (Mass.), Rains (Ala.) and Carroll (Colo.)

Andresen came back with another volley. He said a statement that Anderson is trying to cover alleged leaks with a "smoke screen."

In Chicago, Maynard said the formula for his quick cleanup is as simple as this:

Speculator Gives Formula

"All you had to do to know prices were going down was to read the newspapers."

Maynard, a well-known trader who is a member of the Chicago Board of Trade, said his was an ordinary market operation. He questioned an estimate by Anderson that his grain profits in the last few days were between $300,000 and $400,000.

Maynard said $200,000 "would be nearer correct."

Inside Information Denied

"A market position of a million bushels on the short side is not unusual," Maynard told a reporter. (The short side means that grain has been sold at prevailing prices for future delivery in the belief the price will drop before the order has to be filled.)

Anderson asserted that Maynard "had no information from us" and that "no corruption" was involved in his trading. He said Maynard had shown an uncanny ability to scent out market movements, and added:

"We wish we had him on our staff."

Lucas, Senator Brewster (R-Me) and Senator Byrd (D-Va) were agreed that the price plunge may affect tax cut plans.

THEFT REPORTED

Joe Burn of Amarillo reported to police last night theft from his car in the 600 block Texas avenue of a number of stapling machines valued at approximately $100.

Market Drop

rollback, these were the major developments in the price picture:

Labor Studies Prices

1—A survey of AFL and CIO union leaders showed they generally regard current price drops as not enough to cause them to reduce their wage demands. However, a spokesman for the AFL Meat Cutters union in Chicago said the commodity price slump "undoubtedly will" affect labor's wage demands.

2—Senator Lucas (D-Ill) said that if the commodity market price slump continues it might "eliminate all possibility" of income tax cuts this year. A protracted slump, he said, would cut national income and tax receipts.

New Retail Cuts Reported

3—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson blamed mass speculation by small traders for the "boom and bust" market.

4—Food chains announced new retail price cuts in New York and Detroit. At Cleveland Durkee famous foods division of the Glidden Co. announced a three cents a pound cut to wholesalers in the price of margarine. Flour prices declined again at Minneapolis, 100 pound family size sacks dropping 25 cents down to $6.95. Flour for non-family use fell 15 cents, down to $6.25 a hundred pounds. The price of family flour compared with the peak of $8.40 reached Dec. 11 and bakery flour was $1.25 lower than the high point reached Jan. 15.

Pork Prices Lower

The American Meat institute at Chicago said wholesal hams are down as much as 14½ cents a pound from the January peak in many cities and that nearly all wholesale meat prices had experienced a continuing decline.

Bacon, the institute added, has dropped from 51 to 39 cents a pound wholesale, loins for roasts and chops as much as 6½ cents in many localities and sides of dressed beef of varying grades are off 3½ to 6 cents a pound.

"A spot check around the country indicates that already many of these declines are being reflected in retail stores," the institute said.

Cotton Decline Slows

The Associated Press wholesale index of 35 basic commodities fell from 188.64 to 187.78. A month ago the index was 207.74.

Cotton at New York ended $1.65 a bale lower to 50 cents higher but at New Orleans, where the market remained closed yesterday, final prices were down $9.90 to $13.10 a bale.

Hogs at Chicago were 50 cents to $2 a hundred pounds higher, but lamb prices sagged and beef cattle were mixed in price. However, wholesale meat prices continued to go down at Chicago and New York and wholesale butter also declined at both cities.

Wheat at Chicago closed 5¼ to 10 cents lower. Corn was 7¼ to 8 cents down at the close, the May delivery at $2.05¼ and oats were ⅛ to 4¼ lower, May 98½ to ⅝. Soybeans fell the eight cents limit, March $3.41, while lard was 10 to 35 cents a hundred pounds lower, March $20.10.

ment. He indicated, however, that a break with the party would be the alternative if the governors' demands were not heeded.

Laney said the governors "are committed to fight this proposal because it is merely another step the federal government is taking in violation of the principle of states' rights."

HST IS CONGRATULATED

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 11 (AP)—James Roosevelt, Democratic state chairman, congratulated President Truman today on his civil rights message. He said he acted on behalf of the Democratic party of California.

How Good Is An Opinion?

That depends on who gives it. And on what it is based.

Certified Public Accountants give opinions on whether company financial statements fairly show assets, liabilities, profits. The OPA's opinion is based on an independent audit—which means an extensive financal examination.

In this examination he tests a wide variety of the concern's transactions, enough to satisfy him that its records in their entirety are reliable.

This kind of opinion is an informed and expect judgment by a responsible professional man. Naturally, the investor, banker, or creditor is reassured by this independent appraisal of a company's accomplishments.

Indian Delegation Cancels Flight For Further Debate

LAKE SUCCESS, Feb. 11 (AP)—India's delegation suddenly cancelled plans to fly homeward tonight and declared it would answer "unjustified suspicions" directed at India in the Kashmir dispute.

India and Colombia clashed in spirited words at a tense meeting of the United Nations Security Council which was capped by the Indian delegation decision to remain here.

N. Gopalaswami Ayyanger, Indian minister without portfolio, had informed the council his government had called him back to New Delhi for consultations. He said he had changed his plans.

Ayyanger spoke after Dr. Alphonso Lopez, of Colombia, declared in blunt language that India had decided to summon her delegation home when the council did not immediately call upon Pakistan to stop the fighting in Kashmir state, as India wanted the council to do.

Indian Communists

Many Indian left-wingers were humiliated when they learned that the Soviet Union's largest newspapers confined their reports of the assassination to a few lines.

In contrast to deeply emotional tributes to Gandhi from statesmen of the western world, Soviet government figures kept silent.

Reports of a movement to erect a Gandhi statue in Washington received wide attention in this country. Moscow did nothing to match it.

Red Organization Outlawed

Communists also have sounded a sour note in lumping Prime Minister Nehru with Britain's Prime Minister Attlee and France's Socialist Leon Blum as "traitors to the working class."

Nehru now is regarded as the best-loved personality in Indian political life. He has a longer record of resistance to former British rule than any native Communist leader.

The Bombay government yesterday outlawed the Communist "red guards" organization. The "red guards" office was raided today, and P. B. Dowde, the organizer, was arrested.

Narayan Vinayak Godse remains incommunicado in the New Delhi jail where his head is still bandaged from the injuries he received at the assassination scene. In three days he must appear before a magistrate who will determine whether the evidence justifies holding him for the assassination any longer.

mained cold, with sub-zero readings recorded in Maine and Vermont.

Below zero weather also hit parts of Minnesota, the Dakotas, Colorado, Wyoming and Montana.

Ice, sleet and snow clogged roads in Oklahoma and forced the closing of several rural schools.

Drifting snow piled up on Colorado roads and highways, and piled up to 14 feet in some spots.

The nation's warmest spots today were Fort Myers, Fla., with 83, and Miami with 79.

Four transcontinental highways cross Arizona east and west, while the Canada to Mexico highway crosses it north and south.

Storm Sweeps South

Plains, and Abilene, farther south, for lows of zero to 5 above. Houston, on the coast, expected 27 degrees; San Antonio, a low near 20, with rain, snow or sleet.

Other minimums forecast were: El Paso 15; Big Spring 14; Dallas-Fort Worth 15 to 17; Brownsville 46; Laredo 32; Beaumont, near freezing; Shreveport, La., on the northern Louisiana-Texas border, 27.

Snow last night touched Wink and El Paso. Sleet glazed highways at Electra. Sleet, mist, and a touch of snow fell at San Angelo. Brady reported sleet with roads almost impassable.

Fraley-Roberts, Colorado City butane dealers, said unless supplies could be replenished their customers "face suffering."

Low supplies were reported in Haskell and Aspermont said the shortage there was "acute."

Coleman and Rotan reported shortages while Knox City and Albany dealers said they were rationing butane to all customers.

Train Is Delayed

A Fort Worth and Denver passenger train carrying President Ralph Budd of the Burlington and his party arrived in Amarillo Wednesday an hour late. The party, enroute to Chicago, was snowbound at Amarillo indefinitely by track-blocking drifts between Texline and Trinidad, Colo.

The state highway department set up road blocks at several Panhandle points to stop all road travel possible. A chief danger was from low visibility. The snow, drifting before the winds was dry and light, sometimes mixed with dust.

Snow Plows Used

North and west bound runs through the Panhandle were cancelled by Greyhound and Continental bus lines. A number of automobiles were reported stalled between Vega and Adrian.

The Rock Island railroad's main line, crossing the northwestern tip of the Panhandle, was kept open by snow plows.

All freight trains on its line from Tucumcari, N. M., to Oklahoma City were cancelled. Traffic was halted on its stub line from Amarillo to Liberal, Kas. Railroad officials said snow, drifted back into cuts almost as fast as snowplows could throw it out.

Trains Are Held

The Santa Fe's main line through Amarillo operated with slight delays. Trains on its Spearman, Tex.-Shattuck, Okla., branch line were cancelled.

The northbound Zephyr of the Fort Worth and Denver railroad was held at Amarillo because of snow conditions reported in southeastern Colorado. A southbound Fort Worth and Denver train was held at Trinidad, Colo., and a train was made up at Amarillo to take its place on the run to Fort Worth.

Colorado Area Hit

Livestock losses were feared in the Texas Panhandle, lashed by a 50-mile per hour wind. The temperature hit two below zero last night at Dumas, severe weather for that region.

Relief Bus Sent

A blizzard pounded northern New Mexico and long-time residents decided this has been one of the worst winters of all time. Visibility was limited to a few feet on some roads.

A relief bus carrying a driver and a mechanic was unreported after leaving Albuquerque for Tucumcari, N. M., to pick up passengers of a stalled vehicle.

It later was found to have completed the journey without mishap and proceeded east toward Amarillo.

Belgrade, Mont., with 32 below zero, was the coldest point reporting in the mountain states. It was 8 below at Denver early today.

Families Feared Marooned

A score of farmers stalled in Colorado Springs by snow-blocked roads east of there appealed to El Paso county commissioners to help them reach their families they fear are marooned by the storm.

Some expressed anxiety they might run short of food if the roads are not reopened soon. Condition of livestock also was a cause of concern.

Nearly all of the country roads east and south of Colorado Springs were reported impassable. U. S. highway 24 was closed today three miles west of Calhan, a village 30 miles east of Colorado Springs.

Loaded Freight Cars Plunge Into Creek

MT. PLEASANT, Feb. 11 (AP) — Eighteen loaded cars of a St. Louis-Southwestern freight train plunged 15 feet from a trestle into a creek bed at Saltillo, Tex., today. No one was injured.

The railroad gave no immediate explanation of the accident but W. H. Cade, a newspaper photographer from Mt. Pleasant, said the trestle apparently had been weakened by rains.

One car plunged through and the others followed.

Cade said some of the cars were tank cars loaded with cooking oil and that the others were loaded box cars.

Traffic was rerouted from Pittsburg, Tex., to Greeneville, Tex., over the Louisiana and Arkansas railroad.

Saltillo is between Mt. Pleasant and Sulphur Springs.

Grave Communist Threat To Central China Claimed Ended

NANKING, Feb. 11 (AP) — The grave Communist threat to Central China has been erased, a government military spokesman declared today.

Most of the marauding forces of one-eyed Gen. Liu Po-Cheng, which disrupted Yangtze river shipping and forced U. S. missionaries to flee, have been dispersed, the official added.

The spokesman, Lt. Gen. Teng Wen-Yi, told his weekly news conference the civil war now was favorable to the government everywhere but in Manchuria. He said a lull had fallen over the Manchurian front.

Clues Sought In Armed Robbery

Three men were being sought last night by West Texas officers in the hijacking of Vernon Harris, 28, of Slide road, at 1:30 a. m. Wednesday two miles south of the Lubbock-Lynn county line. Harris is a driver for Baldridge bakery.

The loss, according to Raymond Burford, manager of the bakery, was approximately $350 in currency and cash and two checks totaling $28. Insurance covered the loss, Burford said.

A description was given to authorities of two of the hijackers, and of the 1940 black Ford two-door sedan in which the three men fled.

Large Checks Refused

The bandits declined to take two large checks, totaling $350, after "looking them over," Burford quoted Harris as saying.

Harris said he was returning to Lubbock from a run to Midland and Big Spring when the bandits drove alongside and, pointing a .32- or a .22-caliber rifle at him as the car and truck were in motion, forced him to the side of the road and to a stop.

They demanded his money. He attempted to convince them he had only tickets, and said his other customers had deposited monies to the bakery's account.

They Got Tough

"We want that Tahoka money," one of the men was quoted as saying. "He don't deposit it."

The three "got tough then," it was related, and threatened to take Harris and his truck to a "side road."

Harris told Burford he then decided he'd better give up the money—that the bandits might damage the truck if it were taken off the highway.

He surrendered the money.

But, he told Burford and police investigators, he took one last chance in efforts to prevent monetary loss to the company.

"I believe I recognize you," he

ICC Gives Final Okay To Bus Line Merger

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11 (AP)—The Interstate Commerce commission today gave final approval to the merger of ten motor bus company operations into the Trans-Continental Bus System, Inc., of Dallas, Tex.

Consolidation was originally authorized last December by the ICC's division four, consisting of three commissioners, which frequently acts for the commission in finance cases.

The authority was protested by American Bus Lines, Inc., and Burlington Transportation company, competing carriers who asked for re-argument before the full commission of 11 members.

COWS HAVE CORN, TOO

FORT WORTH (AP)—Pity the poor cow, says a Fort Worth veterinary, for she has corns, too. Dr. I. B. Nye reported that corns often appear between the toes of cattle and are known in stockman's lingo as "quittors." The heavier the animal, the more severe its corns are apt to be.

California's 1940 population was only one-third native born.

Market Slump May Help Aid Program

China Aid Plan Is Under Study

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11—State department experts are studying the break in U. S. commodity markets to determine whether European aid funds can be cut as a result of lowered prices here.

Secretary of State Marshall told a news conference today he does not know yet how the drop will affect the proposed outlay of $6,800,000,000.

Decision Is Awaited

Marshall said he will have to hear from his economic advisers before reaching a decision on possible alteration of the figure.

These were other developments on the foreign aid front:

1. Marshall said the $570,000,000 China aid program will be outlined in a few days. It still has to be approved by the budget bureau before submission to President Truman.

2. An expanded military aid program is under study, Marshall said, but he did not indicate how much more would be required.

3. Nelson Rockefeller, former assistant secretary of state, said American gifts to Europe should be limited to "essentials of life" and be distributed free. He said this country should ask payment in European currencies for all other supplies shipped under the Marshall plan. Rockefeller recommended also that granting of dollar loans be confined to the World Bank and Monetary fund, the Export-Import bank and private banking firms.

Tentative Allotment Is Made For Airport

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11 (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics administration today tentatively allocated $340,000 to the city of Fort Worth, Tex., to start work on a proposed international airport between that city and Dallas.

A CAA spokesman said actual disbursement of funds will be made after certain plans and specifications have reached Washington from the agency's regional office in Fort Worth and been approved here.

The money would be the first installment of $5,700,000 to be provided by the government toward the $11,500,000 airport, if and when the project receives final approval.

Now known as Midway airport with a class three rating, with runways between 3,700 and 4,700 feet in length, the improvements would bring it to class six with runways between 6,500 and 7,500 feet.

Masonic Building Action Delayed

It would cost $217,111.84 to construct a modern two-story Masonic lodge building as proposed in plans and specifications recently drawn, a building committee found upon study Wednesday afternoon of low base bids.

Since the Masonic bodies, which are equally represented on the building committee, had estimated Masonic financial resources at not more than $200,000, the commitee voted to defer action and to ask the architect and the general contractor who submitted the lowest base bid to confer and determine what amount could be reduced by adoption of alternate plans.

Various Changes Possible

Such alternate construction, for instance, could dispense with plans for an elevator; could change exterior trim; could affect materials of partitions, and the like.

The committee, of which C. E. Maedgen is chairman, indicated it would reassemble after the building cost is re-figured on a basis of possible changes.

It is made up otherwise of H. B. Bryan, Charles Duncan, Neil H. Wright, Homer D. Grant, Burton S. Burks, Durwood H. Bradley, Parker F. Prouty, and Hubert L. Allen.

Tom G. McAbee's base bid of $192,813.84 was lowest of five offered for the general contract.

Bell Plumbing company's base bid of $7,524 was lowest of four submitted for plumbing work.

Peeples Electric shop's base bid of $8,350 was lowest of five submitted for the electrical contract.

John R. Hall's base bid of $3,200 was lowest of four submitted for the painting contract.

Lydick Roofing company's base bid of $5,224 was lowest of three submitted for the roofing contract.

Bidders Attend Ceremony

An anteroom to the lodge hall was crowded with bidders, committeemen and lodge officials when the sealed bids were opened.

Maedgen, presiding, informed the audience that the lodge had "hoped for about 25 years to construct a new lodge hall."

After preliminary figuring upon basis of low base bids, Maedgen simply announced that, "It looks like we may not get a new lodge hall yet."

However, there was an air of hopefulness that something may yet be done to make the picture brighter. Some of the possibilities to be explored were discussed, but no announcements were ready for publication.

Bidders were thanked by Maedgen, and were assured that complete tabulation of bids as they affect alternate construction will be made, whereupon the building committee might wish to study some of them further.

The building, as proposed, would have units on the lower floor for commercial rental. It would be constructed of concrete and steel and brick.

Site of the construction would be on property owned many years by the lodge. A parking lot uses the property now.

The lodge years ago outgrew its present quarters, on the top floor of Citizens National Bank building.

California spends more than any other state on a per capita basis for education.

W. L. Wright, Lamesa Pioneer, Is Claimed

LAMESA, Feb. 11 (Special)—W. L. Wright, 68, a resident of Lamesa for about 30 years, died this morning about 9 o'clock in a local hospital, Higginbotham Funeral home reported.

Funeral arrangements are pending the arrival of a daughter from Florida, but the funeral home said that services and burial would probably be held in Lamesa.

Survivors include his wife, Virl, and four daughters, Mrs. C. M. Gay of Moran, Irene Wright of Odessa, Billie Wright, Miami Beach, Fla., and Ila Wright, Lamesa.

Prison Situation Again Under Fire

DALLAS, Feb. Feb. 11 (AP)—B. A. Stufflebeme, Grand Prairie, banker and member of the Texas Prison board said here today that conditions are so bad at Darrington prison farm that he believes most convicts would prefer to die rather than serve out their sentences.

"I firmly believe," Stufflebeme said in an interview, "that if the men at Darrington farm were told that they had their choice of being gassed to death or staying on the farm and serving the rest of their sentences, 80 per cent would choose the gas chamber."

New Manager Praised

The board member stated that physical properties of the prison system have been allowed to deteriorate in the past to the point that they long have been unfit for use in a modern penal institution.

He praised O. B. Ellis, the system's new general manager, saying: "In Ellis we have a manager as well equipped by knowledge and experience as anyone in the United States to operate the Texas prison system, but without the help of everybody in Texas . . . governor, legislature and citizens, . . . his hands are tied."

A delegation from the Lubbock Republican club was to go to Amarillo this morning to attend Republican party conferences there this afternoon and the party's Lincoln Day dinner tonight in the Crystal ballroom of Herring hotel.

Three hundred persons are expected to attend, said M. D. Temple of the Lubbock organization. The dinner is on the order of a statewide rally, since most of the party leaders of the state will be there.

BREAK UNLIKELY THIS YEAR

Southern Support For Truman In 1948 Predicted By Pepper

(By The Associated Press)

Senator Pepper (D-Fla) said today the Solid South really may be breaking up.

But if so, he told a reporter, it will be too slow a process to do the Republicans any good in 1948.

"There is no question about it," he declared, "President Truman will carry every state in the South again this year."

Pepper said recent angry protests against the President's civil rights program, however, may mark a shift away from solid southern Democratic support in future years.

GOP Attacks Truman

"After all," he said, "we find there is not much difference often between the so-called southern conservative Democrats and the northern Republicans."

Meanwhile Gov. Fielding Wright of Mississippi said he is determined to keep the southern protest alive. He told a news conference there will be a meeting of southern Democrats to decide how party leaders who back "anti-Southern legislation" can be punished.

Republicans hammered at President Truman on a wide front last night. Lincoln day dinners furnished a forum for most of the GOP orators.

Senator Taft of Ohio carried his campaign for the GOP presidential nomination into the corn belt with a speech at Bloomington, Ill.

He repeated charges that the administration is trying to keep prices high so that the Republican Congress may be blamed for it during the campaign.

Labor Maps Campaign

President Truman's request for wage-price controls and rationing power, Taft said, was an attempt to get "a strangle hold over all industry, agriculture and commerce."

Other political developments:

1. The AFL appointed Joseph D. Keenan, secretary of the Chicago federation of labor, to organize the AFL's league of political education "as a powerful force in the 1948 campaign." The league will concentrate on electing congressional members who oppose the Taft-Hartley act.

2. CIO President Philip Murray said at Cleveland he is against a third party this year because all it can do is "splinter, split and divide" the labor vote. CIO general counsel Lee Pressman, who disagreed, has resigned to assist Henry A. Wallace's third party presidential campaign.

3. Wallace renewed his attack on administration foreign policy in a radio address at New York. He said it supports "kings, reactionaries and Fascists all around the world."

Report On Rent Boost Notices Asked By Local Control Office

Tenants who have recently received notices of rental increases or notices to vacate premises are asked to communicate with the Lubbock area rent control office, Roy B. Carnes, director, said Wednesday.

Carnes' request came after the national office of the housing expediter, rent control, had received reports that "wholesale notices of rental increases and notices to vacate premises are being served on tenants, effective Feb. 29."

State Supreme Court Splits On Decision

AUSTIN, Feb. 11 (AP) — The Supreme Court split 5 to 3 today over the question of whether a nervous disorder was compensable under the workman's compensation law.

The majority of five in an opinion by Chief Justice J. E. Hickman said it was. The minority of three in a dissenting opinion by Associate Justice G. B. Smedley said it was not.

The split came in a case from Corpus Christi styled Owen B. Hood versus the Texas Indemnity Insurance company.

The record showed Hood had received injuries to the left foot and elbow when he fell after his foot was caught in an elevator door.

On trial of his appeal from an Industrial Accident board finding in district court, Dr. William B. Cline, a psychiatrist, testified his opinion was Hood's continued disability was due to a neurosis, or nervous disorder. The district court adopted this theory and granted Hood $1,244.93.

The civil appeals court reduced the judgment to $69.24, and supreme court's majority said this in effect was a reversal. The majority opinion said that the trial judge had adopted the phychiatrist's opinion and "our view is regardless of how Dr. Cline's testimony should be interpreted, the Court of Civil Appeals should not have rendered a judgment thereon contrary to the trial court."

The supreme court's majority upheld the trial court.

The minority sharply dissented, saying that the neurosis was not compensable, and that the majority was wrong in its interpretation of Dr. Cline's testimony.

Brownwood Church Of Christ Gets New Building For $1,000

DALLAS, Feb. 11 (U.P.) — The Melwood avenue Church of Christ at Brownwood bought a $26,000 church building for $1,000 today to replace one destroyed by fire January 29.

The sale was made through the War Assets administration real property disposal office at Grand Prairie.

The surplus chapel was located at Camp Bowie and a waiver of official priority applications was obtained within 15 minutes after the pastor, W. A. Record, and Elder R. L. Hardin appeared at the WAA office.

WAA's speedy action will "keep the church going by enabling us to purchase about $40,000 worth of property at a total installation and overall cost of $1,500," Record said.

Move Over, Gents!

DALLAS and Oklahoma City have become involved in a somewhat heated dispute in which both must make way for Lubbock. Neither is even in the same class with this city in the matter of controversy.

Dallas started the ruckus by claiming the worst public library facilities in the world. The chief argument supporting this boast was that Dallas spends only 36 cents per year per capita for its library.

Oklahoma City heatedly retorted that it spends only 32 cents a year. Therefore, said the Sooners, their library was the sorriest.

True, both claims have obvious merit. But actually both cities are rank amateurs. If they want to see library facilities which really are lousy, they'll have to come to Lubbock.

Both cities do have city libraries. The city of Lubbock does not have. This city's needs are served by a tiny library supported exclusively by the county.

Both Dallas and Oklahoma City have library buildings. The Lubbock library is crammed into a courthouse corner where it has been mistaken for practically everything, including a ladies' powder room.

But here is the clincher: Dallas lavishes 36 cents per capita on its library, and Oklahoma City 32 cents. Lubbock spends 14 cents. If that won't make a lousy library, frankly we don't know what would. If our library isn't as lousy as it might be, it is because the staff in charge does as good a job as possible with the pennies doled out.

Happily, the City of Lubbock has voted $500,000 in bonds with which to build a library worthy of this community. It probably will be built within the next two or three or, maybe, 50 years. But until it is completed, Lubbock need not take a back seat to Dallas, Oklahoma City, or any city when discussions concern sorry libraries. If Lubbock isn't at the head of the class, it certainly is far ahead of Dallas and Oklahoma City.

Lincoln And Today

DIFFERENCES of opinion are justified as to the view Abraham Lincoln might take of most national and world problems if he could return to earth on this 139th anniversary of his birth.

But, beyond any doubt, he would be working with might and main for all reasonable efforts to heal the wounds of World War II, just as he worked, even before the end of the Civil war, to ease the recovery of the defeated South. Southerners should be the first to admit their plight would have been infinitely better if Abraham Lincoln had been spared.

No one knows whether Lincoln would support the Marshall or any other specific recovery plan today. But it is a dead certainty he would be trying to do something to prevent on a global scale the horrors of the reconstruction he foresaw for the South.

It is idle to say that Lincoln would have done this, or that, about most things. But, assuredly, this nation will be doing as Lincoln would have done when it extends a helping hand to any victims of war. And no nation could go far wrong if it followed the path toward which the product of American free enterprise pointed so clearly.

Many a man thinks he is blowing off steam when he is only letting off hot air.

It costs Uncle Sam about as much money to win a war as it does the average nation to lose one.

Murder At My House

By Rene Ryerson Mart
Distributed By NEA Service, Inc.

(THE STORY: My party breaks up early and Jeff offers Liz a lift into town, Avis and Art leave together. Shortly after their car pulls out of the driveway, I hear a crash. I dash from the house. There's a commotion down the road. A car has gone over the cliff. The police arrive, climb down into the canyon, finally come up bearing a woman's body. It is Avis Vaughn dead!)

I THINK I would have done something foolish like fainting if Jimmy Peters hadn't given me something more urgent to do.

It was a funny choked sort of sound that made me look over my shoulder and there was Jimmy Utter horror had wiped all youthfulness from his face. He stumbled like a drunken man as he lurched forward and tried to get through the ring of men who were carrying Avis. They laid her down on the side of the road, and one of the policemen ran to the cruiser and brought back a gray blanket and put it over her.

"There's another one down there—but we can't get him out," one of the men said. "He's dead, too."

Jimmy Peters quit trying to reach Avis. He staggered over and held onto the broken guard railing. He was deathly white. I went over to him quickly. "Jimmy—Jimmy. Take it easy, boy. Here, sit down."

I made him sit down on the guard rail. I rubbed his icy hands. He grew a little less limp.

"Here, Jimmy," I said. "Put your arm around my shoulder—let's go up to my house. There's nothing we can do here." I led him away without anyone noticing us.

In the living room I made him lie down on the davenport and went over to the bar to get him a drink. There wasn't a thing left. Liz Leyden had used up everything in mixing our drinks. So I went down to the kitchen and made some strong coffee.

JIMMY was still lying there looking very sick and wretched when I came back. He drank the coffee I had fixed for him, looked at me with dumb misery shining in his eyes, and then after a little he began to cry. In the tortured way that a man cries.

I just let him cry, sitting there beside him with my hand on his shoulder, patting it occasionally. And wanting desperately to comfort him—to tell him that she wasn't worth it.

But, of course, I didn't. Because I knew he wasn't in love with the real Avis Vaughn—the Avis with the soft, beautiful body and the morals of a cat. He was in love with what he thought she was. With the image of her he had built up in his heart. And there wasn't anything I could do about that.

After a while he quit sobbing. He wiped his eyes with a damp handkerchief, blew his nose, and mumbled something about me being very decent.

I patted his should again. "That's all right, Jimmy."

I remembered something else. "I should call Jeff—shouldn't I?"

"Yes," Jimmy said. "You'd better."

I dialed the phone with stiff, cold hands. It rang and rang and rang. I had almost decided he wasn't there when he answered. His voice sounded thick and heavy with sleep.

"Jeff—this is Holly. Something terrible has happened. Avis and Art are dead. Their car went over the canyon wall just below my house here."

There was a long pause as if he didn't understand, and then he said clearly—"Oh my God!"

THAT was all for a minute. Finally he added, "I'll—I'll come over to your place."

I said "All right" and hung up and went back and sat down by Jimmy again on the couch. I said miserably, "They were here, Jimmy—all evening. Avis and Art, I mean.

"Yes," he said. "I know."

"You—how do you know?"

"I saw them through the window there." He pointed to the front of the room where a wide mullioned window above a window seat gives a clear view of the living room as you come up the outside steps to the entrance. "I saw your house was all lit up when I was driving home and I remembered that invitation you gave me this morning to stop in for a drink," Jimmy said. "I saw them in here as I came up the steps."

I looked my surprise. "But why didn't you come in, Jimmy?"

He flung the words out angrily. "Don't you think I've seen enough of them together at the studio—she and Art? Do you think I wanted to come in here and watch them neck with each other all evening?"

I looked at him sadly.

Jeff arrived in just a little while. His face was white and he looked as if he had dressed in the dark. He had a tie on but it was knotted loose, and his shirt collar was unbuttoned. He seemed a little surprised to find Jimmy Peters there in my living room, but accepted my story that we had both been drawn to the scene of the accident by the sound of the crash and that we had come back here to talk it over. We told Jeff all we knew about the accident, which wasn't much. Except that both Avis and Art were dead.

He shuddered. "I saw the place . . . the car's still down there. But they've taken—the bodies—away. It—it—" He dropped his head in his hands and ran his trembling fingers nervously through his hair. "I can't believe it—yet."

I guess we all felt that way.

The doorbell rang again and when I opened the door a couple of uniformed police stood there and some keen-eyed lads with the marks of newspaper reporters all over them.

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

AM I going crazy?

This is the last column I am writing in California.

The temperature is 75.

I am in my shirtsleeves.

A warm sun is shining and all windows in my room are wide open.

On the roof of the adjoining building a man is taking a sunbath--dressed only in a pair of shorts.

BRANDEIS

It's heavenly. Paradise could not be lovelier.

But I am homesick.

Our train will be leaving in a few hours.

In three days we will be back in Connecticut.

According to the weather report which I just heard on the radio, the temperatures back home are below zero.

A blizzard is howling through New York and New England, and the snow is knee-deep.

Here in California the flowers are in bloom. The trees are green. People sit on the park benches and ride in open cars without overcoats and hats.

In Connecticut there are no flowers, only snow and icicles heavy overcoats and hats.

In Connecticut there are no flowers, only snow and iccycles and heavy coats and mufflers and overshoes and earmuffs.

But I am homesick, and so is my wife.

We wonder how the chickadees and the nuthatches and the woodpeckers and, yes, even those voracious squirrels are getting along without us.

She left stuff in all the feeders—but three weeks is a long time and maybe those little things are hungry by now.

Then there is Misty, that shaggy old black poodle, who comes around for his breakfast every morning, and Spunky from next door, who is used to his tidbits, and Grumpy from down the road and Peter the cocker spaniel from across the road, and all the other pets and pests my wife looks after.

Will the anti-freeze in the car be sufficient for this awful winter weather? Will any of the water pipes have cracked from the cold?

Will the field mice have got into the house?

Will we be able to get in at all, or will the snow in the driveway be so high that it will make it impossible to get through?

It's awful, that Eastern winter.

But how nice it will be to be back in it!

WE will turn up the thermostat, and in an hour the house will be nice and warm.

There will be the old clothes—including my favorite sweater with the hole in it—there will be our books and our own beds—and above all, there will be home cooking again!

Oh, we have eaten some mighty fancy dishes here in California. Cracked crab and Celery Victor, Rex Sole ala something. California Turkey with fancy dressing and sauce and whatnot.

But in a few days there will be my wife's very own hamburger again, cooked just the way I like it, and her corned beef and cabbage, and my breakfast eggs and bacon done just the way I like them.

There will be no tips and no bellboys and chambermaids, no suitcases to live out of.

Snow? Ice? Blizzards? Zero temperatures?

Who cares? It's home.

Luxury Items In Aid

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — The proposed shipments of luxuries to Europe under the Marshall Plan—cigarets, wines, grains for liquor—have precipitated the most violent protests against the program even from elements which favor its basic purpose and philosophy. Members of Congress, the White House and the State Department have been flooded with letters from all sections of the country.

The opposition does not stem alone from temperance groups, church organizations or from the anti-nicotine folk who detested F.D.R. because he was a "chain smoker." It is based on the theory that only the most basic essentials of food, clothing, building materials, agricultural aids and machinery should be shipped to nations which are wholly dependent for recovery upon American contributions and sacrifice.

TUCKER

President Truman and Secretary Marshall recognize the merit of these complaints, but they do not subscribe to this theory of austerity. Not only because they are rather red-blooded in their design for living, but because they realize and have been so informed by European economists and politicians that the "little extras" rank with the necessities in maintaining morale among people who have suffered so many deprivations almost since World War I.

TOBACCO: The present schedule contemplates the export of more than 2,000,000,000 pounds of tobacco to the sixteen Marshall Plan nations during the next four years. That is a far smaller amount than the forty per cent of the crop which is exported to foreign countries in normal times, but it represents a sizeable investment.

Aside from its psychological boost for the recipients, it will be a boon to the states in which the weed is an important crop. It will undoubtedly corral a few votes among members of the House and Senate who might otherwise be opposed to the plan. It accounts, in part at least, for the fact that Dixie's Congresional representation has been the most sympathetic of all geographical groups toward the program on Capitol Hill.

EXPLANATIONS: Two sharply contrasting explanations for inclusion of cigarets in the Marshall Plan package—one economic and the other human—have been advanced here and abroad. Basing its conclusions on the sixteen-nation canvass of Europeans needs, the State Department submitted this statement to Congress:

"Western European countries customarily import large quantities of tobacco, and the per capita consumption is relatively high, with a pronounced upward trend when sufficient tobacco is available . . . All countries participating in the ERP program, with the exception of Greece, Italy and Turkey, must import either all or a large percentage of their tobacco requirements.

"The Committee for European Economic Recovery recognized the importance of tobacco in the European Recovery Program for its part in international trade, and in the balance of payments of a number of countries."

LUXURIES: When Secretary Marshall finds it necessary to explain or defend shipments of "smokes" he puts it this way:

"Tobacco is another staple that will be shipped to Europe in considerable volume. It is not as essential as food and clothing, of course, but even under austere living conditions it is found advisable to make some concessions to human nature.

"Incidentally, I don't smoke. I did, but now I don't."

In short, it is the official belief that the little luxuries which enrich and warm everyday life for some people will rate with bread and butter in checking the spread of Communism. The theory is based on the fact that Stalin's hungry soldiers, on spilling over into American areas after Germany's defeat, showed keenest delight in such things as cigarets, wrist watches, fountain pens, jack-knives, finger rings etc.

BITTERNESS: The almost unprecedented bitterness prevailing among the leading Republican candidates for the presidential nomination—few of them are on speaking terms at the present moment—proves a serious handicap to National Chairman B. Carroll Reece and to his highly paid staff of publicists at headquarters on Connecticut Avenue. It is impossible to be even a "Charley McCarthy" for so many feudin' and fussin' political ventriloquists.

If the Tennessean upbraids President Truman for his domestic program, especially his demand for a return to rationing and price controls, he will anger the Flanders-Morse faction in the Senate. Should he praise the Marshall Plan, he runs up against the Taft bloc, which was responsible for his selection.

In short, he cannot utter an old-fashioned, resounding political statement without going into hiding for the next few days. After several spankings for controversial and provocative blasts, he has virtually closed up the oratorical shop.

PROGRAM: His dilemma hurts the party as well as himself. It accounts for the growing belief that the opposition has no definite and broad program of its own, if it should be entrusted with charge of the government after next January.

His only consolation is that, with the recent death of Charles Michelson, the Democrats lack a publicity ace. They have made hardly any attempt to capitalize on the G.O.P.'s silence, blunders and confusion. Not in many, many years have both the major parties been so deficient in the important field of partisan propaganda.

With neither the Republicans nor Democrats likely to nominate a stirring or picturesque or rabble-rousing figure—there is none in sight on either side—the 1948 presidential campaign will probably be the dullest show since the Coolidge-Davis sham battle of 1924.

MISTAKE: "I cannot understand President Truman," writes R.O.V. of Sacramento. "Almost immediately after the war, he did away with high corporation taxes. He removed controls over prices, wages and materials, and he stopped rationing. Now, he wants them back. Why were these controls eliminated so soon?"

Answer: The Administration's economic "experts" made almost every possible mistake in their future calculations, but President Truman and his principal advisers had faith in them. The prophets anticipated unemployment running as high as 8,000,000 within a year or more. They feared deflation rather than inflation. They looked for surpluses rather than scarcities.

Many a girl thinks the best way to retain her youth is to remain constantly with him.

Most of the present day fighting is around the peace table.

A profit is always honored in any man's country.

CANDIDATES PUSH CAMPAIGNS

Interest In Politics Hits High

BY THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

ON TOUR WITH SENATOR TAFT—Senator Taft of Ohio is out on the road again in earnest quest of the Republican presidential nomination. His trip will include Illinois, Minnesota, Nebraska and Colorado.

It is just another bit of evidence of what has become almost a phenomenon. This is how early the presidential campaigns started for this most important political year of 1948, how much interest they attract as manifest by the number of newspapermen who go along, and how far advanced this business is already. It is perhaps a bit late, even amid the snow and ice of February, to observe how it all began.

STOKES

For it started in the heat of last summer, nearly a year before the conventions of both major political parties, when Senator Taft and Governor Dewey of New York took to the road. Each was trailed through the west by groups of newspaper correspondents.

Stassen Leads Parade

Long before that, as a matter of fact, another contender for the Republican presidential nomination, Harold Stassen, was beating about the country on his own, making speeches. When the Taft and Dewey processionals made it evident that the campaigns really were on, then Mr. Stassen also attracted an escort of newspaper chroniclers on an extensive airplane jaunt to the west and south last fall.

Mr. Stassen was first out in the new year, with an airplane trip that took him again to the West. Southwest and South, followed up quickly by a foray into New England—all to excite wonder about what a man will endure to try for a four-year lease on that big, draughty house at 1600 Pennsylvania avenue in Washington.

The "strenuous life" once advocated by Teddy Roosevelt is the fashion this year for men who want to be President.

And now Senator Taft is back on the road to prove that, and to testify to the ambition that consumes some men. For the Ohio senator works ordinarily like the legendary beaver, day in and day out just as routine, directing policy for his party in the Senate. To make the current trip he took advantage of the customary lull in Congress at this time of year to permit Republican leaders to go hither and yon to make speeches in connection with the birthday of the party's founder, Abraham Lincoln. Twenty-seven newspapermen are accompanying the senator on his trip, including two representing British newspapers and one a Swiss newspaper. This reflects European interest in his political fortunes.

Taft Making Bid

Senator Taft is on the move in what looks like a critical stage of his candidacy, judging from the polls that indicate that he, among leading Republican aspirants, would run least well against President Truman. He has, however, strong backing among organization leaders which often translates more readily into convention votes than does popular favor.

All of the activity, and so far in advance, is a healthy sign for our Democratic process. This is a year when our people are called on to make some of the most vital decisions of their history. This year, more than usual, people have been able to learn the views of the principal candidates ahead of the conventions. That should mean something. It should prevent a pig-in-a-poke selection.

Significant, too, has been the public interest aroused if one may judge, for instance, from the way people ventured out in zero and sub-zero temperatures in New England to hear Harold Stassen on the most recent of these tours. Also, from the intelligent questions they asked about all the current issues.

Interest has been intensified, too, by two rather extraordinary political events of recent weeks. One was the announcement by Henry Wallace, just on the eve of the new year, of his third-party candidacy, and the other was the withdrawel of Gen Dwight D. Eisenhower from the contest. Both caused complications, of which the result can not yet be forecast.

FORECAST: NOISY.

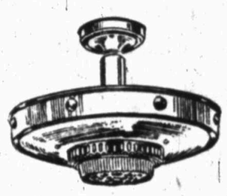

ROCHELLE, Ga. (U.P.)—John D. Sutton counts on a train which passes every day about 12 miles from his home as his infallible weather barometer. He said he and his neighbors have found that when the noise of the locomotive is plainly heard, it's a sure sign of rain within the next 36 hours.

Annual U. S. fire losses of timber and lumber are enough to build 200,000 houses.

Hopes For 'One World' Fading Three Years After Allied Pact

BY R. H. SHACKFORD
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11 — Three years ago today, the Allied world — near victory over Nazi Germany—soared to unprecedented heights of optimism that the basis for a peaceful, friendly "one world" had been established by the Big Three.

That was the day the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, Josef Stalin and Winston Churchill signed the Yalta agreement at the end of their nine-day secret conference on the shores of the Black Sea.

World Now Divided

Not until nearly 14 months later did the world know all the decisions reached there. But on this third anniversary of that second historic wartime Big Three conference, not a shred of the 1945 hopes remain.

Today the world is divided between east and west. The statesmen say none wants another war. But there is talk of war and the danger of one.

The trend is now toward greater division of the world. There is more formal acceptance of the fact that there are two worlds, with little prospect that they can be united in the foreseeable future.

Diplomatic relations among the Big Three still exist. But they are a far cry from that "unity of purpose and action" to which the three wartime leaders pledged themselves at Yalta.

Hopes Now Faded

After the Yalta conference, which came before the atom bomb complicated international relations, the late President Roosevelt told Congress:

"It spells the end of the system of unilateral action and exclusive alliances and spheres of influence and balances of power and all other expedients which have been tried for centuries—and have failed."

But those hopes were short-lived. A survey of the various Yalta agreements today disclose that not one of them has been carried out as envisaged then.

The agreement which probably held the most hope for "one world" was the "declaration of liberated Europe." It pledged the three powers to "concert" their policies in all of liberated Europe and "to solve by democratic means their pressing political and economic problems."

The United States and Britain have sought time and again to invoke this "agreement" in the Balkans where they charge the Soviet Union with imposing Communist regimes. But the Russians have always rejected the efforts. The declaration has become a scrap of paper.

The other agreements have met with similar fates, whether on four-power occupation of Germany, German reparations or Poland.

The Yalta agreement also called the San Francisco conference to draft a United Nations charter. But the Big Three agreed on the big power veto which has since been used extensively by the Russians and is blamed today for the ineffectiveness of the UN, which had been envisaged once as a principal instrument for achieving "one world."

PEACE CONFERENCE—The friendship worked up between one of Ed. Linthicum's hounds and a fox Linthicum caught in a trap three months ago is only a sample of the trouble farmers around Cambridge, Md., have been having. The foxes have multiplied so rapidly and become so bold they're even chasing the hounds and romping with them in back yards. Mayor Dorsey Davis has issued a call for a "Pied Piper" to rid the town of the nuisance.—(AP Wirephoto.)

How To Keep Ike Out Of President's Race Is Problem To Army

By WILLIAM F. McMENAMIN
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11 — Army officials were wondering today how to help Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower say "no" to those who want to draft him for president.

Maj. Gen. Floyd L. Parks, army chief of public information, shook his head in amazement at the persistence shown by admirers of the retired chief of staff and said it looked like a tough job.

Two Boston mortgage bankers, Walter Gallagher and James Alphen, provided the latest flurry when they announced their belief yesterday that Ike can be drafted despite his strong "no politics" statement on Jan. 22.

Gallagher said he and Alphen had asked Eisenhower to reconsider his decision that he is "not available for and could not accept nomination to high political office."

They received this reply, verified by the army:

"Thank you for your cordial letter. I am most grateful for your kindness and highly flattered by the qualities you ascribe to me. Be assured that whatever strength and talents I possess will be fully available to the nation in my capacity as a private citizen."

Gallagher interpreted this as meaning that Eisenhower was back or could be pulled back into the presidential race.

But Gen. Parks said nothing could be further from the truth.

"Eisenhower's (no politics) letter to Leonard V. Finder, publisher of the Manchester (N. J.) Union-Leader of Jan. 22 is still final," Parks said.

"Nothing he said to Gallagher should be construed as reopening the question."

Parks said what Eisenhower meant was that he would serve his country in any way short of politics.

"I don't care how you word it," Parks said, "any way you want to say it is all right just so it adds up to 'no.'"

Eisenhower turned over the post of army chief of staff to Gen. Omar N. Bradley last Saturday. He will report to Columbia university in May and take the presidency June 6.

Tech Employment Service Lists Approximately 75 Job Seekers

The student employment office at Texas Technological college has received approximately 75 applications for work by students since the beginning of the spring semester and they are still pouring in, James G. Allen, dean of men, has announced.

The majority of the applications for jobs state that the student is interested in any part time work that will help meet expenses while in school, but there is a great variety of experience represented among the applicants.

Conditions at present are in direct contrast to conditions last fall when there were far more jobs than there were applications for employment. Part of this is due to the fact that many of the students who were employed through the service during the fall semester are staying with their jobs and partly due to employers being unaware of the number and experience of applicants, the employment office stated.

"Some employers are prone to think that because a man is studying engineering he would be interested in only that one field of work, but that is seldom the case and most of them are interested in any type of part time job that will augment their income," Francis Beardon, assistant to the dean of men, said.

Archaeologists say that the Indians found in Maine when the white men came had replaced an ancient and different people who were distinguished by the fact that they placed quantities of red paint in their graves.

Boy Scouts Presents Program At Rotary Club Meet Wednesday

A group of Boy Scouts from Troop 103, sponsored by Overton Methodist church, presented a program depicting fundamental principles of scouting before the Rotary club luncheon Wednesday noon in Hilton hotel ballroom.

Directed by Claude Brown, scoutmaster, the boys presented a skit showing a British Scout's good turn to an American visitor that led to introduction of scouting in America in 1910, then staged a tenderfoot investiture ceremony. Boys in the group were Jerry Swain, Earl Fauner, James Carter, Jerry House, Johnny Alford, Sidney Simmons, and Bruce Willis. The program was part of local observance of national Boy Scout week.

The club voted unanimous approval of action by the board of directors in accepting sponsorship of a treatment center for cerebral palsy here. The project was presented by Dr. William Gordon, who explained purposes and needs of such a clinic.

Lawrence Evans was in charge of the program, and Rex Webster, club president, presided. Invocation was given by Dr. Clifford B. Jones.

Swerome Court Dismisses Case Of Railroad To Avoid Suit

AUSTIN, Tex., Feb. 11 (U.P.) — The Texas Supreme Court today dismissed a case brought by the Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad of Texas, which sought an injunction restraining Ralph P. Ridgway from suing for damages for injuries suffered while a switchman for the railroad.

The court reversed judgments of the Court of Civil Appeals and the district court in Tarrant county declaring the case "moot."

Ridgway charged he suffered injuries on Mar. 11, 1946 in performance of duties for the railroad. On Jan. 24, 1947, he brought suit in U. S. District court in New York against the railroad.

The M-K-T filed suit in 96th Judicial District court in Tarrant county, seeking a restraining order and injunctions halting Ridgway from prosecution of the case. The railroad maintained that no proper service of process had been made, and that it did not operate in New York.

Dance Studio Students Appear At Exchange Club Luncheon

Students of Larrymore Dance Studio presented a dance program before members of the Exchange club at the club's luncheon meeting Wednesday noon at Hotel Lubbock.

Miss Peggy Lou Snyder introduced three dance numbers presented by Karo Tubbs, Jan Griffin, Lynda Bryant, Butch Young, and Jerry Mahoney. The numbers were Mother's Pride and Joy, A Buck A Dance, and Home on the Range.

Joe Manicapelli was program chairman, with club President Warlick Carr in the chair. Dr. Glen Gay was announced as a new member. Visitors included Oran Wilson, jr., and Glenn Lattimore.

MARKET DEALINGS STEADIES

NEW YORK, Feb. 11. (AP)—The stock market steadied today, virtually ignoring commodity weakness.

Although narrow declines continued to dominate the share list, many leading issues regained their balance and closing with gains ranging to around a point.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite was unchanged at 69.3, its lowest level since last May 27. Of 1,103 stocks registering, 396 were up on the day and 566 down.

The session was the fastest of the new year, 1,490,000 shares changing hands. The exchange closes tomorrow in observance of Lincoln's birthday.

Commission houses noted that many important Wall Street sectors have regarded the drop in commodities as a healthy anti-inflation sign, although conceding traders are cautious in view of uncertainty over extent of the current adjustment move.

Holding gaines at the close were Santa Fe at 86, Youngstown Sheet at 97¼, Great Northern preferred at 38, Gulf Oil at 59, Union Carbide at 98, Chrysler at 83½, Douglas Aircraft at 81, Schenley at 36¼, American Can 77½, Westinghouse Electric 35½, Public Service of N. J., 25, U. S. Gypsum 94½, United Air Lines 17⅝ and Dow Chemical 36.

Prominent losers included American Telephone at 149⅛, down ⅛ and active in the final hour; Anaconda Copper 31, Kennecott 49¾, General Motors 51⅝, American Tobacco "B" 69¼, International Paper 46 and Glenn Martin 18.

Grain

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Feb. 11 (AP) — Selling again swept grains sharply lower on the board of trade today despite a mid-session rally which cancelled part of early losses. The rally failed to hold and prices again dropped before the close.

All wheat, corn and soybeans contracts were off the daily permissible limit at one time, acounting to 10 cents in wheat and 8 cents in corn and soybeans. Oats acted somewhat better than other grains, but the May contract fell the 6-cent limit at one time.

Prices rallied when some short-covering and new buying came into the market. Some traders felt the market was due for at least a technical correction. They pointed out new crop contracts were not far from government support levels, based upon the latest parity prices.

Analysts estimated 1948 crop loans, on a national basis, of $2.00 on wheat, $1.45 on corn and 90 cents on oats. These loans are in effect support levels, analysts said. But they pointed out that parity might be lower at the time the loan program is announced, which would reduce the loan.

Loans for 1948 will be calculated on June parity for oats, July for wheat and October for corn.

Wheat closed 5¼ to 10 cents lower, May $2.27, corn was 7¼ to 8 cents lower, May $2.05¼, oats were ⅛ to 4¼ lower, May 98⅛-⅝.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Feb. 11 (AP) — Wheat—basis exchange of options No. 1 hard, 8-17c over Chicago May; flat price several cents discount under basis.

Corn No. 2 yellow 2.24¼-27¼; No. 2 white 2.47¼-49¼.

Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo, per 100 lbs. 3.08-15.

The market will be closed Thursday, Lincoln's birthday.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 11 (AP) — Cotton futures rallied sharply following an early sell off as mill buying and short covering met only limited offerings.

In initial dealings heavy general selling depressed the market with losses extending to more than $7.00 a bale. There was considerable buying for cotton mills and tire manufacturers. Some traders believed the market had been oversold on outside influences.

Cotton closed steady.

New Church Organ Recalls Feud Over Use Of Such Instruments

KOKOMO, Ind., Feb. 11 (U.P.)—Seventy-seven years make a lot of difference.

When the North Indiana Methodist conference meets here in May, one of the items the Grace Methodist Church will exhibit with pride is a new organ, the gift of Mrs. Cressy Thomas Havens.

When the conference first met in Kokomo 77 years ago controversy arose over the use of an organ in a house of worship. Some churchgoers who thought the organ was "an instrument of the devil" filled one instrument with pepper, setting the choir and congregation to sneezing and coughing and playing havoc in general.

After several years, however, the progressive element which favored music won out. The organ was accepted by all.

Armed Robbery

said he told one of the hijackers.

For that, he was struck once in the face.

The husky, 185-pound driver, turned quickly and the fist blow was glancing. His right cheek was bruised and he had a "sore nose" a few hours later, Burford said.

Harris, head of a family, has been employed by the bakery approximately two and a half years.

The money was in two bags, he said.

"Wait ten minutes before you drive on," one of the men said.

Harris said he waited just a few minutes, after observing the men drive off northward in the direction of Lubbock. Then he started his truck, a long-span transport, and continued to the bakery, where police were called. Patrolmen Ben Cummings and Eldon Coats went to the bakery in answer.

One of the bandits was described as about 6 feet 2 inches tall, wearing a leather jacket, but no hat. Another, described as about 5 feet 11 inches tall, wore what Harris said he believed was an Army-issue overcoat. He also wore no hat, the victim said.

NO SLEUTHING NEEDED

CARLISLE, Pa. (U.P.)—A man broke into a house where 11 state policemen were quartered, upset a pile of dishes in doing so and left behind a jacket bearing his name and address. He was arrested promptly.

BURGLAR GETS STUNG

TULSA, Okla. (U.P.)—A haul of $500 from the office of W. L. Herring won't do the burglar much good, Herring, an independent oil man, explained the currency was Confederate money and a family keepsake. The burglar overlooked $1,000 in jewelry.

If the waters of Lake Superior were spread evenly over the New England States they would be over 200 feet deep.
