

Three of Six School Candidates

Pictured above are three candidates for election to the Colorado Independent School Board. They are, from left to right, Fred McKay, Curtis Latimer and A. M. Holman. Also in the race for the two posts to be filled on the board are R. Y. Hammond, seeking re-election, Jim Maddox and Forrest Yancey. Election date is Saturday, April 4, when voters will name two of the six to school board terms.

FOR TWO POSTS

School Board Ballot To Offer Six Names

Two new school board members for the Colorado Independent School District will be elected here Saturday, April 4.

Voters in the district, which takes in all of Mitchell County except Lorraine and Westbrook districts, will choose two men from a field of six candidates.

Only one incumbent is making the race. He is R. Y. Hammond, who lives at Buford and Hammond, and operates the Hammond Carpet Co. in Colorado City. Hammond seeks election to a third term. Joe L. Black and the other school board member whose term expires in April, does not stand for re-election. He seeks, instead, election as Mitchell County Commissioner, precinct 1.

Names will appear on the school board ballot (by drawing staged March 5) in this order: Curtis Latimer, A. M. Holman, Jim Maddox, Forrest Yancey, R. Y. Hammond, Fred McKay.

Latimer, a former school principal here, was twice elected to serve on the school board after he left the field of teaching to become a stock farmer. His previous board terms were served from 1951 to 1956. He is chairman of the Mitchell County ASC committee, active in Men's Fellowship at First Christian Church, a veteran of World War II. He is the father of three sons and lives at 149 West 11th St.

Holman, second name on the ballot, is a Looney community farmer-stockman and was a leader in that community for consolidation of Colorado Independent School District. He is active in First Methodist

ASC PROGRAM

Friday Deadline Day For Grain Signups

Friday, March 27, is the last day for filing an application to take part in the 1964 feed-grain program, Lester Finley, chairman, "C" Community, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said Saturday.

He urges growers who are interested in the program to call at the ASCS County Office as soon as possible.

"Time has a way of slipping up on us even though we think we have plenty," Chairman Finley pointed out.

"Actually, there are only a few working days left in which to sign up for this year's program. The office is open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. from Monday through Friday. We don't want anybody to be disappointed because he waited too long," Finley said.

As it did last year, Finley explains, the feed-grain program covers corn, grain sorghum, and barley. Minimum diversion under the 1964 program is 20 percent of the individual farm's total feed-grain base. For diverting more than the minimum acreage from feed-grain production to a conserving use, the diversion payment will be figured at a higher rate. If the diversion is 40 percent or more, the higher rate applies to the whole diversion.

Besides the diversion payments (part of which may be paid in advance if the farmer requests it), a participating grower also earns price support payments on the normal production of the acreage planted to one or more of the three feed grains in 1964, and he is also eligible to put his crops under the regular price support loans or purchase agreements.

The chairman reports that farmer interest in Mitchell County is higher than last year. Indications are that 1964 participation will run well ahead of that under the 1963 feed-grain program.

Finley pointed out.

Sunrise Services Here Easter Morn

Sunrise Easter services, sponsored by the Ministerial Alliance, will be in First Christian Church here at 6:30 Easter Sunday morning.

Rev. Fred Brewton, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, announced that special Easter music will be sung by soloists from the various congregations.

Sermon for the service will be preached by Rev. H. W. Bartlett, pastor of First Baptist Church.

Invocation will be said by Rev. Kiel Quesenberry, pastor of St. Luke's Methodist Church.

Rev. Rush Barnett, pastor of the host church, First Christian, will read the scripture. First Methodist Church pastor, Rev. Darris Egger, will say the pastoral prayer and Rev. C. C. Beck will speak the benediction.

All members of all churches and citizens throughout the town and county are invited by the Ministerial Alliance to attend and take part in the all-town observance of Easter at dawn. Sunrise services are, by tradition, an annual part of the morning's celebration in Colorado City.

WORSHIP TOGETHER THIS WEEK

Somewhere in your town a man you may have never seen waits hopefully for you.

He is a minister. A priest. A rabbi. A man used to speaking out... making decisions... taking action for himself, for his congregation and his community.

But where you're concerned, he can only wait and hope you will come.

He holds something in trust for you—the powerful, crucial first introduction to Faith. And he is anxious to pass it on.

The strength and confidence of Faith can mean many things to many men... and to the families who count on them. So together with your family start to find that Faith this week.

SELF CULTURE CLUB MEETING

Mrs. Reed Reviews Book For Texas Day Program

Mrs. C. P. Gary hosted the self-culture club for the annual Texas Day program. The program was a book review of "An Informal History of Texas" by Mrs. R. M. Reed. The book is a history of Texas from the time of the first Spanish explorations to the present. It is a well-written, informative book that is suitable for both the general reader and the student. Mrs. Reed is a native Texan and has lived in Texas for most of her life. She is a well-known author and has written several other books. The book review was held at the home of Mrs. Gary. Mrs. Reed gave a brief history of Texas and then read from the book. She pointed out the many interesting facts and events in Texas history. The book is available at the Colorado City Public Library.

Preside at Tasting Tea

Members of the Colorado City Garden Club presiding at the annual tasting tea Friday afternoon were Mrs. A. H. Jocks, Mrs. R. J. Wallace and Mrs. A. A. Herrington, left to right above. Tea was attended by a large number of local residents at the Community Center from 4:30 to 7 o'clock. Club members sold books of recipes of each dish served. The tea is an annual fund-raising project of the club.

the Texas Revolution was a flunk. It couldn't possibly have happened, yet happen it did. Austin's colonies should have failed, but they did not fail; the Texas Republic could not exist, yet it did exist ten years and then joined the United States on its own terms.

"There never was or never will be another Alamo, so futilely heroic—another Go-lad, so futilely tragic—another San Jacinto, so triumphant, so superficially important," Mrs. Reed said, as she quoted the author's own words.

During the business meeting, the club voted to grant their scholarship fund to Janie Faye Reed McNair, a student at Hardin-Simmons University, majoring in education. Plans were also made to attend to the Mesquite District Federation of Clubs Convention in Haskell on Saturday.

Mrs. Post Speaks To HD Clubs

The Good Neighbors' Home Demonstration Club hosted a joint meeting with the Spade Home Demonstration Club Monday in the Medallion Room when Mrs. Mary Post, county treasurer, bought the program entitled, "When Mitchell County Gets Its Money and How it is Spent."

Some of the various ways in which the county assesses its taxes are ad valorem tax, registration of vehicles, fines and fees, she explained.

Under the ad valorem tax the state allows the county to collect 80¢ tax on each hundred dollars and property value. County residents have voted an additional 40¢ on the limited and 15¢ on the hundred, thus making the Mitchell County tax $1.05 on each hundred dollars. Twenty-two percent of the actual market value of property is used in figuring tax assessment. Example: On a $5000 property, 22¢ or $1100 would be the amount on which the tax would be figured. Taxes for the example would be $11.55 annually, Mrs. Post said.

Complaints from county taxpayers are taken before Board of Equalization composed of the four commissioners, the speaker told members.

In 1963 Mitchell County received $70,900 in fees and $8,300 in fines, making the total collection for the year $458,000, which is handled through the county clerk's office, she said. Another source of income for the county is the registration of motor vehicles, she said.

Mitchell county spends its money through the precinct funds and the general fund, she said.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Wendell Thomas and Mrs. C. E. Evans of the Good Neighbor Club and Mrs. Harvey Dockery and Mrs. J. C. Northcutt of Spade. Along with the nine members of the host club and five members of the Spade Club guests attending were Mrs. Post and Miss Idalia Wood, home demonstration agent.

Marjorie Pickens Weds In St. Louis

Mrs. J. M. Pickens is announcing the marriage of her daughter, Miss Marjorie Pickens, to Robert Kolman of St. Louis, Missouri.

The wedding took place Saturday in the pastor's study of the Compton Heights Christian Church in St. Louis. The Rev. Hugh Wilson officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Colorado City High School. She received her bachelor degree from Texas Christian University, and completed work on her masters at Tulane University. She is an instructor in the graduate school of Washington University, St. Louis.

Kolman is in the insurance business, and is a long-time resident of St. Louis.

The couple plan a wedding trip to Miami, Florida, during the Easter holiday. They are making their home at 5834 Westminster Place in St. Louis.

CONVERSATION CORNER

THERE are no two or three ways about it. You do not need a family Bible record, a birth certificate or even a mirror, mirror on the wall to help you count the silver threads which "shine upon your brow today."

You can be jolly sure they're gleaming there, with or without a color rinse to cover, when you check certain reactions you've acquired now.

The fact doesn't have any connection whatsoever with deciding you must be a reactionary, now, either.

BUT, when you decide you'd rather live in absolute silence—even in total darkness—than to hear the Beatles just one more time.

When you no longer get excited about swim suit season. When you start reading editorial sections first.

When you'd rather settle for the late show's 20-year-old movie than go to any midnight matinee on earth.

When you lose your glasses and the light bill as often as you put them down. Well, let's face it. That's when your years are showing. That's what.

IT MAY come as little shock to spot that first snowy eyebrow, but that's only a minor inconvenience and easily remedied.

It's when you try, again—after several decades—to help a lad learn long division that you fully realize the mischief done by years.

THE STATE of Texas has played the very dickens with education for today's children. Some smarty educators have completely reorganized long division. Next thing you know, they'll be making up a more modern multiplication table.

Well, that's one way to keep an ever-lovin' grand-mother from helping with the homework. Which could be the whole idea of this new school trend known by the fancy name of "comprehension."

HECK, Anything more complicated than counting on ten fingers has yet to appeal to the comprehension in some of us.

Never minded not knowing what algebra was all about—or geometry, trigonometry or something nearly flunked called calculus. It was absolutely fantastic. All of it. The head of the math department lived in the upper stratosphere, anyhow, and never spoke co-educational language.

BUT LONG division was our long suit in the fourth grade. Liked it nearly as much as ratio and proportion.

Division was as sure and as unchanging as adding 2 plus 2. Just how could this generation of textbook writers make something so complicated out of what used to be plumb easy?

Kids today may solve pages of long division by "comprehension." And that's all very well. What the average grandma feels after peeking at the problems is better known as "apprehension." Or plain panic in the dividend.

SEEN LATELYS were nice Glenn Nolte . . . Parnesa Hart (Mrs. Chester) and Mona Scott . . . Also Doyle Kiker doing a coffee break at the Corner.

Saw, too, a longtime F. P.—(Favorite Person) named Pearl Watson (Mrs. Lester) and a recent acquaintance named B. D. Mason . . . Lou Landeros (Mrs. Joe) of Farm Bureau office . . . Lona Pritchett (Mrs. Travis) wearing purple but sounding blue because the first day of Spring brought in a real norther . . . Max Caswell of the T&P station bracing himself in the wind . . . Ditto Roy Davis Coles, the county superintendent.

And that reminds us to say that Alice Coles (Mrs. Roy D.) was saying the other day that Roy D. Jr. and his family will be here for a vacation visit in April. They live in Bakersfield, California.

TALKED to Mrs. J. Ed Richardson who was one of 756 women to attend the Northwest District conference for Women's Society of Christian Service (Methodist) in Plainview Tuesday and Wednesday. Mrs. Bill Jackson attended the conference, too.

TO HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUBS

Dr. Rhode Talks Of Useful Drugs

Dr. W. S. Rhode was guest speaker for a joint meeting of four home demonstration clubs Thursday afternoon in Medallion Room.

Plainview HD Club members were hostesses to members from Spade, Looney and Fairview clubs. Forty-eight members attended the meeting.

Dr. Rhode spoke on the subject "Are Useful Drugs Harmful?"

He warned members that certain drugs can not be taken along with other substances. He named one in particular which was not to be taken with caffeine or cheese.

Of antihistamines, the doctor said that they are useful in cases of hay fever, as they stop running nose and watering eyes. They also may one slightly drowsy and help to control itching of the skin, he said.

In reference to the high cost of drugs, Dr. Rhode called attention to the fact that doctors, chemists and others often spend long years of costly and tedious research to perfect a certain drug.

He said that he did not think doctors and druggists should ban the use of drugs simply because a few persons had serious reactions, or because of the careless use of some of the useful drugs.

A short question and answer session followed the doctor's talk.

Business session for each club followed the speaker's talk.

Garden Club Hears Mrs. Buchanan

Final study of chrysanthemum culture was program topic for the Colorado City Garden Club meeting recently in the Community Center.

Guest speaker was Mrs. W. H. Buchanan of Abilene, a plant specialist and state chairman of chrysanthemums. She said that summer care is the really important key to correct chrysanthemum culture.

Chrysanthemums should be planted in late March or early April, in a place where they will get sunshine two-thirds of the day, have free air circulation and good drainage.

The speaker said plants should be set eighteen to twenty-four inches apart, using one cup of a starter solution of one tablespoon of complete fertilizer to one gallon of water in each hole, she continued.

"A mulch will conserve moisture and lower the soil temperature as much as ten degrees. Roots are near the surface and tender, so they need a mulch of hay, leaves, any material that does not pack," Mrs. Buchanan said.

Mrs. Ben Elliot presided at the meeting. A letter of resignation from Mrs. L. L. Comer was accepted and Mrs. Dan Pritchett was appointed to fill her place as secretary. Mrs. Ruth Aihart will fill Mrs. Comer's office as Civic Committee chairman, with Mrs. E. M. Owen to take her place on the yearbook committee.

Club voted to postpone their next regular meeting until April 15, one week later than scheduled in the yearbook.

Mrs. Jack Long, a new member, was introduced. Flower arrangements were made by Mrs. A. H. Jackson and Mrs. Leon Jenkins.

Members attending were Mmes. Elliot, C. S. Martin, Pritchett, R. F. Fee, Jackson, Aihart, A. A. Herrington, Jenkins, Floyd Shepherd, Will Berry, John Brown, L. J. Taylor, Roy Davis Coles, S. A. Palmer, Louis Watson, Earl Brown, Owen, Guy Elliot.

Mrs. Oliver Hears Former Pastor

Mrs. Sophia Oliver, a visitor in Dallas, attended services in the Waxahachie Baptist Church of the Rev. Bill Austin recently with her son and family. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Oliver. The Rev. Austin is a former pastor of Oak Street Baptist Church here where Mrs. Oliver is a member.
