SWC Chase Tightens Up As SMU Wins

By The Associated Press
Little Max Williams, who wasn't supposed to play much if at all, led Southern Methodist to a 29-7 victory over Texas Christian Wednesday night and tightened up the Southwest Conference basketball race like a wet hat.

SMU scored into a tie for first place with Texas A&M and it set up a Saturday showdown that could produce a winner for the lead.

SMU and A&M have 41 records while Arkansas, Texas, and Texas Tech are 3-2 Saturday. The Aggies play Texas Tech at College Station. Arkansas meets SMU at Fayetteville. TCU journeys to Austin to battle Texas and Baylor and Rice clash at Houston.

Texas Tech, Arkansas and Texas victories would make all five of the teams read 4-2.

Williams, the peppery playmaker of SMU, had been worrying with an ankle sprain and it was doubtful that he could do more than spot duty. But the little fellow went 13 minutes and his scoring field goals in the last half brought SMU victory.

Four Methodists scored in double figures with Williams making 19 and Jan Linderholm 18. Tommy Meacham led TCU with 20 points but didn't get as much help as Williams.

Texas beat North Texas State 88-72 in a nonconference game, putting on a six-minute stall to dampen a North Texas State rally. The Eagle full-court press brought too many fouls and North Texas faltered after narrowing the Texas margin to six points.

Jim Mudd played in 36 points for North Texas State Jay Arnette led Texas with 21.

Junior High Teams Don Travel Togs

Snyder's Junior High quints swung into the "home stretch" this afternoon, as they hit the road for games in Lamesa and Ira.

The Snyder 8th Graders and Freshmen team were slated for action against Lamesa starting at 2:30. Lamar 7th also is scheduled to meet the Lamesans at 3:30, while the Travis 7th Blue Devils tangle with Ira in that city in a 5 o'clock game.

The local Fresh stand 12-7 for the season, and edged Lamesa by 7-35 in a previous meeting between the two teams. The Snyder 8th grade five is currently straddling a three-game winning straddle and are 13-4 for the year. The tilt this afternoon against Lamesa represents the "sugar" game of the series, as the Blue Devils have won one and dropped one against that team in previous meetings.

Lamar 7th will have the revenge motive to spur them on, as that team lost a 21-22 heart-breaker to today's opponent in an earlier clash here in Snyder.

Following a shaky start, which saw them losing their first three games, Travis 7th has since come back to post an 8-4 mark, dropping only one contest since that ill-fated beginning. They shipped the Ira quints handily in their only meeting of the season, winning by 31-17.

BOWLING SCORES

Holt Music Co. and Rainbow Market are staging a tournament for the top spot in the Couple Bowling League following play of this week.

Holt holds a shaky one-point edge however, as that team rolled the high series of 181 for high team series, while Okies and Tenpens trailed with identical 173-7.

High individual series went to Mitch Jackson (Holt) who marked up a 381. Jack King (Okies) was next in line with 348, while Pete Howard (Tenpens) was third with 337.

Jackson rolled individual games of 221 and 201, with King and Howard in a 210.

For the women, Betty Tatum (Rainbow) was credited with the high series of 417, while Doris Minton (Holt) and Johnnie Tipping (Eastman Oil Well Survey Co.) were close behind with 413 and 411 respectively.

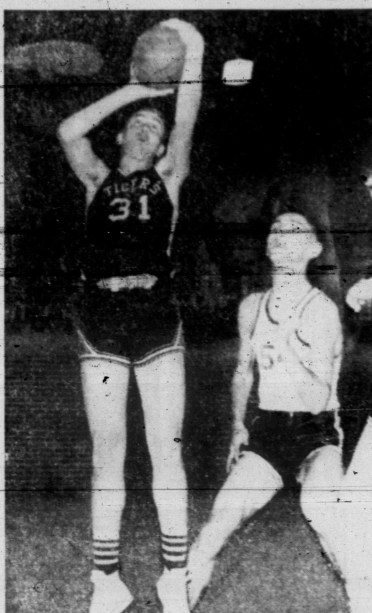

Betty Tatum had the high women's game of 121 with Joyce Green (Rainbow) and Johnnie Tipping deadlocking for second place honors in that category with 144 each.

Split pickups were made by Jackson 5-10 and Betty Tatum 3-7, while Vida McCune and Margaret King (both of Stewart's Service Station) picked up the 47-16 and 2-7, respectively.

The standings follow:

Team	Won	Lost
Holt Music Co.	19	9
Rainbow Market	18	10
Okies	14	14
Tenpens	14	14
Eastman Oil Well	7	17
Stewart's Serv	8	20

American-league batting champion Harvey Kuenn of Detroit hit .307 in 46 games against the Boston Red Sox last season.

LYNN LEAPS—Snyder's Lynn Herndon is pictured grabbing off a rebound in an authoritative manner during action which sped Tuesday's encounter with Colorado City. Jerry Haley, (54), stellar C-City point-maker who leads the district in scoring and contributed 26 points in Tuesday's clash, comes up too late to grab off a piece of the rebound. Herndon came from behind to win the game, 48-45, and boosted himself into a tie for second place in the district along with Sweetwater and Colorado City. The Tigers play host to Sweetwater this Friday in Tiger Gym in an important district tilt, and will be seeking to even the score with the Mustangs, who downed them in a prior meeting. Tickets For Spikes Day Still On Sale

Ticket sales for Saturday's Jack Spikes Appreciation Day program have been brisk during the past few days, reports Jake Phillips, chairman of the committee in charge of sales.

Between 200 and 300 people are expected for the event, which will be held in the National Guard Armory starting at 7 o'clock Saturday night.

Mr. Martin, head coach at TCU, will be the principal speaker, while others appearing on the program include John Conley, Snyder High Coach; Dutch Meyer, TCU Athletic Director; Leland Hunsicker, owner of the Dallas Texans and founder of the American Football League; and Spikes himself, who will offer a response.

In addition, a film, "TCU Highlights," will be shown.

Word was received here this morning that tickets will remain on sale through Saturday, in that a fair estimate of the number to plan for has not been arrived at. These tickets may be purchased at Texas Electric Service Co., the Chamber of Commerce office, Thompson's Shoe Store, Bennett's Office Supply, or from any Quarterback Club member.

Jones To Broadcast
Dallas Texans Tilt

DALLAS (AP)—Charles N. Jones, general manager of radio station KFWB in Fort Smith, Ark., will be "the voice" of the Dallas Texans in the American Football League.

Don Rossi, general manager of the Texans, announced today that Jones would broadcast the Dallas games this fall.

Oilers Sign Assistant

HOUSTON (AP)—Mac Speedie, former star end for the Cleveland Browns, has been added to the coaching staff of the Houston Oilers of the American Football League.

Speedie is the fourth assistant to be picked, by Coach Lou Rymkus, who is probably will select one more within a few days.

Tigers Elect Tri-Captains

In a recent election held among Tiger squad members, a trio of captains were chosen for the current season.

Lynn Herndon and Alex Cross, both seniors, and Charles Gladson, a junior, were recipients of the honors, with Herndon being elected on the basis of his leadership and Gladson counting out ahead in a runoff with junior Jim Robinson.

"The newly elected threesome will present the basketball sweetheart during the halftime of Friday's Snyder-Sweetwater game, with choice being kept 'under wraps' until that time," said Herndon.

Gladson, who was forced to miss school Wednesday due to illness, but is expected to be ready for action in Friday's game.

By scoring 42 points during 1959 New York Giant halfback Frank Gifford moved to within 17 points of 55.

Mexican Fighters In Bouts Tonight

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two world championships go on the cards tonight as Mexican fighters take on Memorial Cup bouts.

The betting line favors Ortiz at 19-2 to retain the heavily favored 140-pound division title. He is a former champion of the Americas and has won the title twice.

Ortiz, 23, a native of Guadalajara, is a solid 10-6 favorite over the dapper 25-year-old French Algerian.

The July Becerra-Halimi match was a great one, with Halimi of point or so ahead on his boxing. Becerra exploded and knocked him silly in the eighth round.

There is no radio or television broadcast in this country.

The Becerra-Halimi fight is scheduled to start about 9 p.m. PST, as the first of the two main events.

Thousands of Mexicans, perhaps more than for any fight involving their countrymen, are here. Many have come from Mexico City.

Charley Conery of the New York Giants threw 14 National Football League passes for touchdowns during 1959.

Track Trio To Run In ACC Meets

ABILENE, Sp. 1—Bobby Morrow, Bill Woodhouse and Eddie Southern—candidates for Uncle Sam's 1960 Olympic Team—will run in special open races at Abilene Christian College on March 26 and April 16.

Each member of this trio Texan has completed his college eligibility. Morrow and Woodhouse are excellent sprinters for the 100 and 200-meter sprints and Southern took a second place medal in the 400-meter hurdles. Woodhouse is a co-holder of the world 100-yard dash mark of 9.1.

The special races in Abilene will be extra attractions at ACC's two 1960 home meets. On March 26 the Wildcats will host Texas and Michigan universities and on April 16 have invited Kansas, Missouri, North Texas and New Mexico.

Specific events have not been selected for the open races, but possibilities are 100, 200, 300 and 400-yard sprints or the 400-meter hurdles. Each member of the trio will participate in one or more events at both meets. ACC Coach of Abilene, Oliver Jackson also hopes to line

YOU HAVE TO ADMIT HE HAS NERVE

By INEZ ROBB

Dear Fritz Kreisler:
Undoubtedly you have become accustomed through the years to love letters from ladies of indeterminate age. So on the occasion of your 85th birthday anniversary, will not matter much one way or the other. For what I am writing you is a love letter. I fell in love with you when I was twelve. My deep affection and gratitude for your superb artistry has never wavered.

What a great event it was, during my childhood in Idaho, when we acquired a Victrola and, gradually, a collection of Red Seal records. Your recording of your own "Caprice Viennois" was the first of our Red Seal. I cannot tell you how its beauty ravaged my young soul.

Then in the early twenties, during my first year at the University of Missouri, you came to Kansas City to play your initial post-World War I concert. By serendipity and a little tutoring, I managed to scrape together enough money for a round trip ticket to Kansas City and a balcony seat to hear you play.

There was considerable speculation that perhaps you would be ill-received because you had been an officer in the Austrian army during the war. I felt, with the intensity of youth, that if anyone in the audience hissed or booed you, I would simply die.

But from the moment you appeared on the stage, it was obvious that I was not going to have to die. Everyone in the huge audience loved you as much as I did. It gave you an ovation.

That concert and our first Red Seal record are great landmarks in my life. So is another of your concert, this time played in Carnegie Hall a few weeks after my marriage.

As a surprise, my bridegroom took me to hear you play. I was enraptured until I realized that my bridegroom, the man with whom I was pledged to spend the rest of my life, was sound asleep and rather audibly so. My life collapsed under the realization that I was married to a booby! You, dear Mr. Kreisler, were the occasion of the first and only bitter quarrel of a marriage that now has lasted slightly more than 30 years!

I wonder if you remember the best performance of Alban Berg's Opera, "Wozzeck," at the Metropolitan, about 25 years ago? It was produced by a Philadelphia group and conducted by Leopold Stokowski.

For the occasion, Vincent Lopez added Add and me to sit in his box in the Diamond Horseshoe. As if that were not sufficiently exciting, you had the next box on the left.

My cup raneth over until Vincent's other lady-guest turned out to be allergic to music, especially Berg's. Beyond that, she was in satin, and everything slipped off her lap—gloves, handkerchief, opera glasses, fan, evening bag and ermine cape. I don't think Vincent saw half the opera—he was always on his hands and knees, retrieving madam's knickknacks.

In addition, she talked incessantly. I was in agony lest she disturb you. I gave considerable thought to strangling her. In the opera's final scene, with the drums and cymbals at crescendo, she was still equal to the challenge. "My God, what's that noise?" she yelled above the tumult on stage.

You turned to look at us, perhaps to annihilate us with a word. Maybe you saw the saw in my face, because you smiled at me as the lights went up and the opera ended. In the years since, I have seen you only at a distance. And I have never exchanged a word with you.

You wouldn't know me from Adam's of ox. But you introduced me to a world of great beauty and I have been indebted to you all my life. I have loved you for many years. It is high time I told you so—as I wish over many, many more happy returns of the day in a world you have so generously enriched with your genius.

Personal Issue Developed By Ike

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has reduced the argument between the Democrats and his administration over American defenses to an argument between him and the Democrats.

So hereafter, when Democrats question the country's power to discourage or overcome a Soviet attack, the public will have to choose between Eisenhower's knowing what he's doing and the Democrats' knowing what they are saying. Eisenhower recently said he thinks he probably knows more about the defense problem than anyone else.

Actually, there is nothing new in this Eisenhower-Democratic relationship. Every year, when Eisenhower sent his budget to Congress, he was taking full responsibility for the quality of American defense when he asked for just so much and no more money.

Where Man Shows True Personality

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the best places to study human nature is in an office washroom.

The white-collar worker at his desk wears a mask. He is on guard. You can't tell what kind of a person he is.

But in the washroom he quits acting. He shows his true personality and the real man comes through. He feels free there to be himself.

Look around you in your own office washroom. You are bound to recognize some familiar characters.

1. The crusader. He complains the grade of washroom soap is ruining his skin and is eternally circulating a petition demanding that the company put in linen instead of paper towels.

2. The fastidious soul. "Why do people insist on throwing their cigar butts on the floor here?" he asks, shuddering. "They don't do it at home do they?" Then why here? Isn't this their home away from home?

3. The thrifty junior executive. He is so anxious to make a name for himself by saving the company money that he carefully tears off only half a paper towel to dry his dripping face. The result is he has chapped cheeks all winter.

4. The angry wastrel. "If this chincy outfit won't pay me what I'm worth, I'll get even with 'em some other way," he growls, holding by ripping off three paper towels when one will do.

5. The scholar. He never comes to the washroom without at least two newspapers and a copy of Reader's Digest.

6. The master of ceremonies. This guy is a frustrated Grover Whalen. He feels it his duty to give everyone who wanders into the washroom a cheerful greeting and a friendly farewell.

7. The ambusher. He lies in wait and as soon as you enter, he sidles up next to your wash basin and whispers, "By the way, can you lend me 10 bucks until payday?"

8. The office snitch. He creeps around listening to everyone's conversation, and if he hears anything derogatory about the company he gallops out to tell the boss. This male mata hari never realizes that the boss, as well as everybody else, despise him.

Junior Editors Quiz on MYTHOLOGY

QUESTION: Who was Icarus?

ANSWER: Icarus was a legendary figure whose ancient Greek mythologues used as an example of a man who aspired to heights that were beyond his reach and lost his life because of it.

He was the son of Daedalus, who was a master craftsman at sculpture, architecture and other things. When Icarus and Daedalus were taken to prison by the king of Crete, Daedalus fashioned two sets of wings from wax and feathers and the two flew away.

But, in the thrill of flying, Icarus lost his head. He called higher and higher until he got too close to the sun. The sun melted the wax in his wings, they fell apart, and Icarus plunged into the sea. Daedalus wept.

Duck Takes His Place In Family

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—George appears convinced he's a full fledged member of the Al Thomas family of Phoenix. But he's not.

He's a duck that won't go near the water. He's a he.

It all began last November when Leslie Thomas, 9, won the duck in a coin tossing game at the Arizona State Fair. Lots of kids did. Most of the ducklings were short-lived. Not to George.

He grew. First he grew out of small cardboard boxes. Then out of a parakeet cage. Given the run of the yard, he started long into the house through a glass door.

His odd, mental quack showed up this week when the family, with hard won consent from Leslie, tried to dip him in the lap of a city park. There are lots of other ducks there.

"Go on, George," said Mrs. Thomas, as she, her daughter and the reluctant duck arrived at the water's edge. "This is your new home and these will be your new friends."

George wanted no part of it. Mrs. Thomas gently placed him in the water. George flew out as though he were propelled.

Mrs. Thomas tossed him out into the lagoon. George sank for a moment, then clumsily clawed his way back to shore. The performance was repeated.

"Mother, daughter and slightly bedraggled duck returned home."

Now George has a fenced off section of the yard all to himself. "I guess we're stuck with him," said Mrs. Thomas. "We can't give him away. We can't eat him."

Nudists May Go To Court

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Texas nudists may have a charter where they need new clothes may go to court to get their charter. Their request for a charter was turned down by a second time Wednesday by Secretary of State Zolie Steckley.

Steckley said such an organization would violate laws against lewdness and indecent exposure. Rep. Don Gladden, Fort Worth attorney, said the main error in Steckley's decision is the presumption "that the mere absence of clothes constitutes lewdness and indecency."

Gladden asked the secretary to reconsider his first denial, Jan. 26, "before we take action" in court.

Graham Crusade Shaking Africa

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — The old-time religion in Africa has had a severe shaking-up since Billy Graham pitched his first pulpit in Monrovia late in January and then headed south through the palm trees.

Oil Income Not Rising

MIDLAND (AP) — Domestic oil production last year "failed to increase its income—revenue per barrel of oil sold declined while costs were rising on every hand," an industry leader said Wednesday night.

This report came from Minor S. Jameson Jr. of Washington, executive vice president of the Independent Petroleum Assn. of America. He addressed a regional meeting of more than 250 Permian Basin oil men.

IPPA President Alvin C. Hope joined Jameson in urging strong support for the organization's survey seeking the causes and possible cures of oil industry ailments. Jameson asserted domestic production lags while there is dynamic expansion in the rest of the country's economy. Revenues failed to gain in 1959, he said, despite higher production and import restrictions.

"Under present conditions," he said, "the domestic petroleum industry is in a process of creeping liquidation. Obviously no single problem is the cause of present conditions. The trouble stems from a combination of factors which need to be analyzed singly and totally."

Marathon In Bridge Ends

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — The marathon craze has returned and this time it has invaded the line old game of bridge. Four University of New Mexico students claimed a world record Wednesday of 75 hours and 5 minutes of continuous bridge playing.

The four, Sam Gray Jr. of Santa Fe, N.M., and John Pink, Jim Brown and Terry Duffy of Albuquerque, said they broke the record of 72 hours set recently by a foursome at Cambridge University in England.

They played 687 hands at a table in a downtown hotel lobby. Parents and girl friends brought them food. Gray almost fell asleep at the 40-hour mark saying, "I don't remember how to play bridge."

A quick shower and a dozen candy bars furnished a second wind. Gray grabbed the shower while he held the dummy hand.

Evangelists is spreading the gospel in this turbulent, primitive continent as it never has been done before. Old-time missionaries—plagued by slow river boats, long jungle hikes and malarial fevers—wouldn't believe it.

Every major meeting of most every prayer, has been planned in advance with a precision that would challenge general.

The American evangelist wound up his crusade in western Nigeria Wednesday night before a crowd of 40,000. About 850 came forward to embrace the Christian faith, including Moslems and animists—a primitive religion, whose followers believe all objects possess souls.

The Graham organization said in the first eight days of his African tour 2,306 persons were converted and about 7,000 Christians rededicated.

He has run into some hostility but the over-all reception has been antithetical.

Much of the credit for the crusade's smooth operation goes to two associates, Jerry Beavan, 41, of Bethesda, Md., and Charles Riggs, 43, of Nashville, Tenn. Beavan is a former teacher, news broadcaster and sports editor. Riggs worked seven years in the Texas oilfields and spent four years in the Army before he joined Graham.

Last May, the Rev. Howard Jones, an American Negro and Baptist minister from Cleveland, visited Africa. He went down the West Coast and up the East Coast and recommended meeting places. Beavan and Riggs then took over.

They spent seven weeks last fall flying all over Africa, arranging for local committees, making hotel and airline reservations for a tour which started at Dakar, extended as far south as Bulawayo in Southern Rhodesia and then proceeded up to Ruanda-Urundi, Tanganyika, Kenya, Ethiopia and finally Egypt.

They checked the food and water at dozens of hotels. They tried out the hotel beds and looked out for air conditioning.

They also made accommodations for Graham's associate evangelists, the Revs. Grady Wilson, Joseph Blinco and Leighton Ford, to reach each stop about a week or 10 days ahead of Graham to hold preliminary meetings.

One important element of the crusade is known as "Operation Andrew." It is so called because it is based on the 41st and 42nd verses of the first chapter of St. John's Gospel, where it is said of Andrew: "He first findeth his own brother . . . and he brought him to Jesus."

Operation Andrew is an organized effort among Christians in the community "to bring their uncommitted friends under the sound of the Gospel by making certain that they are in attendance at the campaign meetings."

ANXIOUS MOMENTS — Mrs. Jane Harrison watches anxiously from inside while rescuers work to free her from an overturned auto in Kansas City. Water Conversion Plants Are Slated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government plans to convert brackish water to fresh will be located at Webster, S.D., and Roswell, N.M. Secretary of the Interior Fred Seaton said Wednesday.

Seaton, who made the announcement in an address to the National Assn. of Soil Conservation Districts in Louisville, Ky., based his decision on recommendations by a special site selection board.

The plant at Webster will utilize an electrodialysis process designed to produce fresh water at a rate of 250,000 gallons a day. A forced-circulation vapor compression distillation process plant designed to produce the same amount of fresh water will be built at Roswell.

Both cities had offered considerable assistance to help defray the federal investment in the plants. The Interior Department said. The site selection board considered 10 cities in the Southwest and six in the Northern Great Plains from an original list of 75 cities.

The Southwest cities were Wichita Falls, Stamford, Ballinger, Monahans and Pecos, Tex.; Carlsbad, Roswell, Alamogordo and Santa Rosa, N.M.; and Safford, Ariz.

Life Of Parole Violator Is Crumbled By Knock On Door

GARDENA, Calif. (AP) — Irene Marie Robbins knew there'd be a knock on her door someday.

It came Wednesday. She opened the door and told the sheriff's deputies outside. "I know who you are. I am Ruth Robbins. I lived in fear and terror all these years. In a way, I am glad it's over."

With those words, 18 years of Mrs. Robbins' life started crumbling.

To her neighbors, Mrs. Robbins, 45, is the wife of accountant Franklin L. Robbins, the mother of four children and a leader in school and community affairs.

But authorities in Cook County, Ill., know her as a convicted felon who violated her parole. She said she never told her husband about her past.

In 1938, police said, Ruth Crut sat in a car in Havana, Ill., while male companion committed a burglary. She pleaded guilty to the charge although she maintained she didn't know the man's intentions when he left the auto.

After three years in a reformatory, she tried to make a new life by hiding her past. Authorities said she violated her parole by getting married and leaving Illinois. She was traced through fingerprints taken here last New Year's Day after she was involved in an auto accident and held for investigation.

"I loved my husband but I feared to tell him about my past," she said.

"I always brooded over this problem. I turned to religion and told my troubles to my spiritual advisor. He assured me that I could live in society and that there was no need to tell my husband or any of our children as they began to grow up."

"I always wanted to tell," Wednesday she phoned her husband and told him: "Frank, you'd better come home — my past just bettered me."

Major Blood Vessel Of Man Replaced

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Santiago Corona, 60, remained in critical condition Wednesday night after a team of surgeons equipped him with an artificial aorta.

The doctors gave him a fair chance of survival.

Physicians and surgeons at Robert B. Green Hospital, replaced about 30 inches of Corona's aorta, a major blood vessel, with a braided dacron tube.

Victim of aneurysm in the arch of the vessel, Corona underwent a refrigeration process before surgery was possible. His aorta ruptured after he entered the hospital.

Three surgeons and five doctors performed the operation.
