SENATE VOTES TO ACT ON TAX BILL

Saved Flier

Diplomatic red tape is a barrier Mrs. Harold Dahl, pretty, blond wife of Harold Dahl, American aviator whom she saved from the firing squad as a Madrid spy when she induced Spanish rebel General Francisco Franco to reprieve him, can't hurdle to rejoin him, French and U. S. officials refused to permit her to enter war-torn Spain.

'MASSES' WILL CONTROL DEBT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (AP)—A significant and substantial transfer of America's huge public debt from "the masses" to "the masses" has begun under the operation of the social security act.

Unless that statute is fundamentally revised, the movement will make American workers within a few years the chief creditors of the government, replacing the banks and wealthy investors in that role.

It will not be an individual ownership in which a worker will hold a government bond, but a group ownership under which old age pension and unemployment insurance reserve funds will hold the bulk of outstanding federal bonds.

The transfer of ownership will have two direct effects. It will transfer the huge interest payments on the public debt to the workers. It also will permit the connection of taxes on some of the wealth now invested in tax-exempt bonds.

The extent to which this shift has suddenly begun to take place was disclosed in President Roosevelt's revised budget statement this week. He estimated that more than $1,000,000 of treasury obligations would be sold to the special reserve funds during the year.

SWEET POTATO FETE FEATURES 200 ENTRIES

GILMER, Oct. 21 (AP)—The East Texas yam came into its own today.

Patterned along the lines of celebrations held in honor of the onion, rose, grapefruit and cotton, a two-day Yamboree is being held here this morning with eight counties offering for display its best specimens of sweet potatoes.

There were nearly 200 entries from Harrison, Marion, Cass, Titus, Hopkins, Camp, Gregg, and Upshur counties and tonight the winners will collect $2 cash awards. An old-fiddlers contest will entertain the crowds during the afternoon. There will be dancing tonight.

I HEARD ---

A couple of Borger fans announcing that the "Big Three"—Amarillo, Lubbock and Pampa—would get a shock this year and that the Borger Bulldogs would be the team to do the job. They were confident that Borger would beat Lubbock tomorrow night. A few reserve seat tickets are available for Pampa fans if they call John Keckbusch at the Borger high school. General admission will be 50 cents and reserve seats 75 cents.

LOYALISTS LAY DOWN ARMS IN GIJON SECTION

IRUN, SPAIN, Oct. 21 (AP)—Hundreds of war-weary government troops, beaten back to the sea by insurgent Generalissimo Francisco Franco's relentless army, laid down their arms to surrender the port city of Gijon at noon today.

News that this last important government-held city in all of north-west Spain had capitulated spread quickly through government forces in other sectors of Asturias province and squads of Austrian miners who had been besieging near by Oviedo for more than a year marched north to throw themselves at the mercy of the insurgents.

(The miner's army for more than a year had laid siege to Oviedo, held firmly by an insurgent garrison.)

Insurgent control of Gijon left the Valencia government troops holding only a tiny bit of bay of Biscay coastline from Gijon west to a few miles the other side of Aviles.

Border reports were confusing regarding the situation at Gijon itself. Officers of six government planes which landed at Biarritz yesterday said Basques and Asturias fought in the streets before the city's surrender. Belarmino Tomas, Anarchist Governor of Gijon, was reported to have fled to France.

Although the mass entry of insurgents into Gijon was not expected until tomorrow morning, officers said it was possible for the advance guard to penetrate the city tonight.

ROAD BODY TO WIDEN KINGSMILL PAVEMENT

Pavement on highway 33 through Kingsmill will be widened 20 feet under an appropriation granted the state highway department at Austin today.

Amount of the appropriation was $3,730.

Employees of the local office of the state highway department said today they had had no previous notice that the widening of the road had been planned. They estimated that the road would be widened for a distance of not more than 700 feet, based on the sum allotted for the work.

J. C. Dingwell, resident engineer, is in Austin this week, where representatives of the 25 divisions of the state highway department are studying flexible road bases.

AUSTIN, Oct. 21 (AP)—Construction of a toll-free international bridge over the Rio Grande at Laredo today was two steps nearer realization.

The Texas highway commission yesterday approved its engineers' report the span should be built four blocks below the present bridge and moved to arrange legal procedures between Mexico and Texas by state and national legislation.

LAKE MAY BE DRAGGED FOR BLANTON'S BODIES

RAYMONDVILLE, Oct. 21 (AP)—Texas Ranger Ernest Best said he expected to tackle a new angle today in the Blanton disappearance case.

Best was one of four Rangers who came here yesterday from Austin on a report the bodies of John and Luther Blanton, missing since a year, could be found in a lake on a ranch near here. No trace of the bodies was found.

The information, it was reported here, was obtained from a secret court of inquiry at San Perla, which is investigating the case. The information was that the bodies were thrown into a well, recovered four days later, wrapped in canvas and wire and dropped into the lake.

George Scarborough was sentenced to a three-year term in prison for passing a forged instrument.

Slim Wells was sentenced to 60 days in jail and suspension of driver's rights for six months. Wells had been indicted for operating an automobile upon a public highway, while he was intoxicated.

The grand jury met at 10 o'clock this morning. It will probably finish the week's business today, then adjourn, and not return until November 2.

An indictment against Jessie Day, who is charged with driving while drunk on a public highway, was returned yesterday.

VERDICT AWAITED IN LOCAL DAMAGE ACTION

District court was at a standstill this morning as a verdict was awaited from the jury on the damage suit of F. N. Reynolds vs. Harry Wofford. The case went to the jury at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Later the jury adjourned for the day, then reassembled this morning. No verdict had been returned two hours after the court went into session today.

The case of James H. Bramer vs. Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., a compensation suit, is scheduled to follow the Reynolds-Wofford case. This will probably be the last suit tried in district court this week. Judge W. R. Ewing said.

F. M. Bralley and E. T. Miller, both of Amarillo, represent the plaintiff. Bonner, King and Darrow, of Wichita Falls, attorneys for the defendant, are represented by Walter Rogers, local lawyer.

Both had divorces from previous mates.

The pair was brought to Portales and then taken to a carefully shielded place of custody in Roosevelt county.

HOLDUP VICTIM FAILS TO IDENTIFY MONTAGUE

ELIZABETHTOWN, N. Y., Oct. 21 (AP)—Kin Hana, diminutive Japanese victim of a 7-year-old $700 holdup for which the state seeks to send Hollywood golfer John Montague to prison, told a jury today that he could not describe any of the robbers "very well."

The witness, first called in Montague's trial before an all-male jury of workmen here, did not identify Montague, but said the leader of the four men who held up his Jay, N. J., roadhouse was "heavy set, and about five feet, six inches tall."

Speaking in broken English, the bespectacled Hana described how the masked quartet threatened him with guns on Aug. 5, 1930, and bound himself, his wife and three daughters after emptying the roadhouse safe.

Defense Counsel James M. Noonan's cross-examination brought out Hana's professed inability to identify the quartet definitely.

MEASURE SET FOR SPECIAL ORDER FRIDAY

AUSTIN, Oct. 21 (AP)—The Senate voted today by an overwhelming majority to start considering tomorrow its highly important general tax bill.

It voted 21 to 7 to set the measure for special order at that time after somewhat vitriolic charges had mingled with raillery and laughter during debate.

Senator Joe Hill of Henderson, one of those seeking to expedite floor consideration of the bill, estimated to raise up to $400,000 additional revenue, interpreted the vote as very favorable to chances for final passage.

He asserted the two-thirds majority of those present voting for the special setting indicated a tax bill would be passed.

I also predicted the provision legalizing sale of liquor by the drink will be removed," he said.

The Senate State Affairs Committee, which reported the bill favorably, had attached a sale by drink amendment which led many, both in the House and Senate, to fear the entire bill might be jeopardized.

Various members of the House voiced opinion the lower legislative branch would not accept the bill with the amendment although a few days ago it passed a separate drink sales measure.

Senator Wilbourne B. Collier of the Eastland commented that if the matter were submitted to "the old folks and teachers themselves an overwhelming majority would oppose obtaining taxes at such a price."

Revenue from higher taxes on liquor would be allocated to old age assistance and teachers retirement.

OIL FIRM AND UNION IMPOLED TO AGREE

ARDMORE, Oct. 21 (AP)—Faced with Gov. E. W. Marland's charge that state troops will patrol 60 strike-closed stripper wells until peace is restored, arbitrators pleaded today with C. I. O. union and Jones Oil Co. officials to end their deadlock.

The company has accepted seven of the union's nine demands, but declined union recognition and reinstatement of discharged workers.

Gov. Marland, who called out the national guard at the request of Sheriff Floyd Randolph, warned both sides the 80 troopers would keep the wells closed "until you get together."

No violence was reported at the 10 Jones leases in the nearby Healdton field. The strike was called Sunday after 12 union workers were dismissed. Troopers disbanded 200 pickets yesterday.

A citizens' arbitration committee of three, appointed by Marland, a committee for the union and one for the company began discussions today of the two workers' demands rejected by the company.

The company agreed to other union demands, including minimum pay of 50 cents hourly for rousters and $100 monthly for pumpjacks, a day off each week, time and a half for overtime, withdrawal of criminal charges filed by the company against strikers, and work payment for a full day on all called to duty.

American Beauty

Lovely and blond, Doris Nolan, young motion picture star, is the epitome of glamor—that elusive quality that so many words are bandied back and forth about these days. She has beauty—real beauty, a good deal of charm, ability and, of course, sex appeal, apparently the fundamental of glamor. Notice her widow's peak, the fullness of her lips how wide her eyes, how perfectly shaped her nose.

Mothers! Treat Children's Colds This Proved Way

More mothers use VapoRub than any other medication of its kind—they have proved it by use in their own homes. It was further proved in the world's largest cold-clinic. No "dosing"—just massage VapoRub on throat, chest, and back at bedtime. Almost at once, its poultice-and-vapor action starts to loosen phlegm, relieve irritation and coughing, help break local congestion. Of ten, by morning, the worst of the cold is over.

NOVEMBER OIL FLOW SLASHED NEW ORDER

AUSTIN, Oct. 21 (AP)—Texas oil operators except those in the famed East Texas Field reconciled themselves today to another cut in their production, effective November 1.

The Railroad Commission late yesterday fixed the November basic production allowance at 1,351,677 barrels daily, 54,167 barrels a day under the state's allowance at the start of this month and approximately 120,000 under current output.

If the commission should leave its order unchanged, the allowable on November 1 would be 61,622 barrels daily under the demand for Texas oil as estimated by the United States Bureau of Mines. In recent months, however, the proportionality agency has been approving increases after promulgating the order.

The commission surprised some persons by continuing the East Texas proration factor of 2.32 per cent of hourly potential. That will give the world's greatest pool an allowable of 484,008 on November 1. Its output is being permitted to increase with completion of new wells notwithstanding its bottomhole pressure has dropped rapidly the last four months.

East Central Texas, West Texas, the Gulf Coast and Southwest Texas will bear the brunt of the November reduction in that order. East Central was slashed from 106,440 to 88,020 barrels daily. West Texas from 183,565 to 167,758. The Gulf Coast from 189,871 to 178,916 and Southwest Texas from 240,594 to 229,708. November 1 allowances in the Panhandle, West Central Texas and North Texas will show little change from those of October 1.

The Texas part of the Tri-State Rodeo field was cut from 28,053 to 21,856. Van was reduced from 24,496 to 20,716. Talco from 30,324 to 26,775 and Sulphur Bluff from 6,100 to 3,341. Yates was trimmed from 25,819 to 23,781. South Ward from 18,091 to 13,155. Conroe from 38,840 to 34,620. Loma Novia from 18,192 to 16,239 and Cayuga from 8,610 to 6,841.

At the statewide proration hearing yesterday which preceded issuance of the November order by only a few hours, engineers reported 606 well completions in Texas in the first 19 days of October. Completions have been averaging more than 1,000 a month since last January.

ITALIAN PEACE MOVE GRATIFYING TO EDEN

LONDON, Oct. 21. (AP)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, addressing Commons at the opening of the fall session, today thanked Italy for making at the "eleventh hour" her new and "very welcome" contribution to Europe's program of non-intervention in Spain by agreeing to preliminary steps for withdrawal of foreign fighters in insurgent armies.

Eden reiterated, however, Britain's determination "to maintain a right of way on this main arterial road" to the Mediterranean.

Turning to the far eastern situation, Eden pledged Britain's determination to "do everything in its power to insure success" of the Nov. 30 nine-power conference in Brussels which will attempt to mediate the Chinese-Japanese war. He said Italy would send a delegation and that French Foreign Minister Yvon Delbos would represent France.

G-MAN WILL CONTINUE MYSTERY DEATH PROBE

EDIN, Mo., Oct. 21 (AP)—Sheriff Charles Frank of Knox county, Mo., said this morning R. L. Johnson of the Federal Bureau of Investigation had decided to investigate further the mystery of an embalmed, charred body found in a burned automobile Wednesday morning near here.

Frank said ashes found in the car revealed early this morning that a suitcase apparently containing articles belonging to a woman had been in the car when it burned. He listed beads, hairpins and a powder box.

No personal belongings of the dead man were found, he said. The sheriff indicated the government's interest was the possibility the body might be that of Charles Ross, Chicago kidnap victim, but that nothing had been found to connect the case with Ross' disappearance.

HELP KIDNEYS PASS 3 LBS. A DAY

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste. Frequent or scanty passages with astringent and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pain, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, headache and dizziness. Don't wait—ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

PRICE LETTERS STIR HEARING

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 21 (AP)—Three letters from the purchasing agent of two defendant companies to his superior, submitted by prosecutors as reflecting alleged efforts to manipulate prices, were in evidence today in the federal government's gasoline price-fixing case.

Federal Judge Patrick T. Stone, over the strenuous objections of defense attorneys, permitted Special Prosecutor John Henry Lewin to read the letters yesterday to the federal court jury trying 23 oil companies, three trade publications and 46 executives on charges they conspired to fix gasoline prices.

The court instructed the jurors to consider the letters at this time as admissible only against 13 companies mentioned by Walter Paul Jacobi, purchasing agent for Socony-Vacuum and Wadham's oil companies at Tulsa, Okla., said he wrote the letters to A. G. Maguire, chairman of the board of Wadham's, and that they were circulated among Socony division officials.

Jacobi had previously testified he served on a three-man committee which recommended prices to be paid by the major companies in a buying program.

Grandview's carnival will be tonight and a large number of Pampans will be present. They will leave from the city hall at 7:30 o'clock under leadership of the goodwill committees of the chambers of commerce.

GREEN HEARING WILL SHIFT TO NEW YORK

FORT WORTH, Oct. 21 (AP)—Attorneys for four states squabbling over $6,000,000 inheritance taxes on the estate of the late Col. Edward H. R. Green are girding for another round, following the close of a nine-day hearing in Texas.

John S. Flannery, special master in chancery for the U. S. Supreme Court, said a hearing would open in New York City Jan. 8.

Litigation has been in progress many months following Green's death in July, 1936. Texas, Florida, New York and Massachusetts each contend Green's legal domicile was in their state.

The last witness in the Texas hearing was 84-year-old Mrs. R. Jarvis of Terrell, who testified Green paid her $5 per month rent for three years on a room he never used.

TWO BROKERS SENTENCED TO FEDERAL REFORMATORY.

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 21 (AP)—Federal Judge R. J. McMillan today had sentenced two operators of the Southern Brokerage Company to four-year terms in federal reformatory at El Reno, Okla., and had assessed $3,000 fines on execution. The defendants, Charles M. Hair, and Floyd M. Jones, pleaded guilty last week to indictments charging fraud in connection with brokerage transactions from Oct. 15, 1934, to Sept. 1, 1937.

WORKER SEEKS AMENDMENT OF BOARD RULING

Asking that an Industrial Accident board award of October 11 that fixed his average weekly salary at $17.30 and his rate of compensation at $10.38 be set aside, W. W. Roderick Wednesday filed suit against the Maryland Casualty company in the 31 district court.

Plaintiff asks a judgement of compensation for 401 weeks at 60 percent of his average weekly wage, which he alleges should be calculated as $24, payment of all past due compensation installments, with 6 percent interest, and the balance to be paid in a lump sum.

Roderick states that on June 14, while working on and greasing a car at the Culberson-Small Chevrolet company, he attempted to straighten a wheel by placing his foot on a grease rack and pushing and pulling on the wheel.

This act resulted in a double hernia, he alleges.

In the Industrial Accident board's ruling on the case, the Maryland Casualty company was ordered to pay $10.38 a week for a period of 26 weeks, beginning June 14.

Kouri and Parish of Wichita Falls are attorneys for the plaintiff.

The state affairs group recommended the bill after 13 hours of steady bombardments by opponents in a public hearing. It then revised some sections and eliminated others, including a proposed increased tax on carbon black production and levies on radio stations, salt and gypsum, currently untaxed.

Briefly, it stipulates the following new or increased taxes: Corporation franchises—increased 50 per cent with certain exceptions and credits in figuring capitalization upon which the tax is laid.

Hard liquor sales by the drink—10 per cent gross receipts. Oil—raised from 2 3/4 to 3 per cent of value.

Sulphur—raised from $1.03 to $1.10 a ton.

Telephone companies—2 1/4 per cent of gross receipts compared with 2 in cities of more than 10,000 population.

Gas, light and water companies—new rates graduated from 8 to 11-2 per cent compared with present graduation from .7 to 1.3-8.

Accident Hazards in Home and on Farm Cause Greatest Annual Death Toll

IF YOU live on a heavy traffic corner in a great city, it may be hard for you to believe that the bedroom in which you lie vainly trying to sleep while automobiles hoot and crash on the corner, is less safe than the busy traffic lane.

If you live on a farm you consider your cool barn a safer place than the machine room of the city factory where lathes and belts whirl all day long.

But in both instances you are wrong. Public attention, concentrated on automobile deaths and injuries, is being directed by the American Red Cross to the fact that accidental deaths in the home claim a greater annual toll. Automobile fatalities last year for the nation numbered 37,800; while people killed by accidents in their homes totalled 38,500. Safety drives in industries and utilities have reduced accidents until the deaths last year were 2,300 while on the farm, where safety is only now being taught by the Red Cross, annual death toll was 4,500.

The bedroom is shown by safety experts to be the most dangerous room in the house, largely due to falls and walking in the dark. On the farm, machinery causes the greatest number of accidental deaths, with injury by animals ranking second. The American Red Cross launched its third annual Home and Farm Accident Prevention campaign this fall. More than ten million check lists showing hazards were carried home by school children, including members of the Junior Red Cross. Parents were asked to check these lists against conditions which might exist and from which accidental death or serious injury might result. Can-opener are cheap. Right, combination of a wet hand and body and broken electric wiring will result in a complete electric circuit and death. Safeguard electric appliances in kitchen and bath. Pacific Fleet Parades Prelude to Navy Day

Looking down through a cloud-banked sky at the U. S. fleet during recent Pacific maneuvers, the ships appear like tiny flames of light, while overhead one lone plane cruises. In this picture, taken at 5000 feet, the speedy destroyers lead the parade of naval strength, with the cruisers next in line and bringing up the rear are the "big boys" of the fleet—the battleships.

DARE-TO-DIE CHINESE DESTROY 24 JAP SHIPS

SHANGHAI, Oct. 21 (AP)—Chinese bombers flew over a new route today to avoid the international settlement in before-dawn raids on Japanese positions about Shanghai. Semi-official Chinese reports said a Chinese dare-to-die battalion raided a Japanese airfield at aYungpingpao in northern Shansi province and destroyed 24 planes. One hundred Chinese were reported killed.

In previous raids the planes had crossed over the settlement and Japanese anti-aircraft shell fragments had sprayed foreign areas. Yesterday United States Ambassador Nelson T. Johnson made representations against this practice to the Chinese government.

The Chinese foreign office spokesman said unofficially of Johnson's request that Chinese airmen again were ordered to take every precaution to safeguard foreign areas.

He declared, however, that Japanese primarily were responsible for the situation since they were operating from some sections within the settlement. The spokesman added that while precautionary measures were being taken, China is forced to take military action against Japanese as long as they occupy Shanghai.

Japanese at Peiping denied Chinese reports of victories in Shanghai province but admitted the Chinese have established a 50-mile line of trenches in the mountainous district north of Tsinan, the provincial capital. Japanese officers said their troops were meeting stubborn resistance.

Drinking Scenes In Films Opposed

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 21 (AP)—Retaining the organization approved at its previous meeting at Corpus Christi, the West Texas conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, opened their 1937 meeting here today. Business today included balloting on the proposal to consolidate the three Methodist church bodies in the nation.

Resolutions were adopted last night against drinking scenes in motion pictures and against legislation of liquor sales by the drink. At the organization meeting last night, Dr. Sterling Fisher, although unable to attend the conference because of illness, was elected secretary. Assistants chosen were the Revs. Fisher Simpson, Olin Nall and R. F. Curl. Bishop H. A. Boaz of Fort Worth is in charge.

GLASS CLOTH MADE. NEWARK, O., Oct. 21 (AP)—Glass cloth made from threads so fine that 140,000 yards of them weigh only one pound took form here today in a new Owens-Illinois Glass Co. laboratory and company officials predicted commercial marketing of the new product within a year. The filmy strands can be woven into pliable fabric impervious to moisture and capable of withstanding normal chemical action on organic matter.

OCC AT FULL STRENGTH. WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (AP)—Sufficient applications have been filed to bring the Civilian Conservation Corps to its full strength of 300,000 men, Director Robert Fechner said today. This means, he said, that 133,000 new men will have been brought into the corps by Oct. 31.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (AP)—A late rally in the rally stiffened a wavering stock market today as rumors reached brokerage quarters a favorable interstate commerce decision on the carriers' plea for increased freight rates was imminent. The list whipped up a fast recovery push at the start, with blocks of 1,000 to 5,000 shares changing hands on the upside. The ticker tape leaped throughout the entire first hour and at one time was 6 minutes behind.

Steele quickly weakened, however, and profit selling in other categories soon halted the forward swing. The pace slowed as bids were lowered and early advances of 1 to 3 or more points were reduced or transformed into losses.

Share transfers were around the 4,000,000 mark.

FOOD FELT LIKE HEAVY WEIGHT. Stomach So Gassy Pains Followed Every Meal; Relieved by Van-Tage.

Many druggists of this section say they never saw anything like the way Reliable People praise Van-Tage. This is the amazing new medicine which is being sold in great quantities here in Pampa. Recently Mr. Edward Lepker, of 2318 N. Richland St., Phoenix, Ariz., endorsed it.

"I had all kinds of trouble with an upset stomach because of gassy indigestion. I could hardly eat a thing without suffering terrible pains afterward. After my meals, it would seem like there was a heavy weight in my stomach. Bitter gas would press up around my heart. It seemed like I couldn't find anything to help me, but finally I read about the good Van-Tage was doing, so I got a bottle. I BEGAN TO FEEL BETTER. I BEGAN TO ENJOY MYSELF. I BEGAN TO LIVE WITHOUT BITTER GAS, heartburn or stomach pain. I FEEL LIKE A NEW MAN and have gained weight. I am glad to lend my name to an endorsement of Van-Tage."

VAN-TAGE contains over 30 ingredients, so it is like taking several medicines at once! Brings forth gas and bloating, helps cleanse bowels and invigorates sluggish kidneys, so that people declare it made them feel different ALL OVER. Van-Tage is NOT expensive, so get it TODAY—at the Gretna Drug Store, next to LaNora Theatre.

Four-Fifths Of State Budget Spent On Education, Highways

By RAY NEUMANN.
AUSTIN, Oct. 21 (AP)—The cost of Texas' state government in 1930 was $8,000,000.
By 1936 it was $125,000,000 or nearly 15 times as much.
The largest single items in the state budget last year were education at $45,000,000 and highway construction at $33,000,000. Together they totaled four-fifths of the entire cost.
Additional expenditures loom for a tax-paying public in social security measures it voted. The legislature faces the alternative of boosting taxes or economizing in older phases of the government to provide the money.
In one generation Texas has doubled in population, a large factor in governmental expansion. The more than 6,000,000 people living in Texas have made increasing demands on their government. The state's business has mounted proportionately. New agencies for regulation of industry, enforcement of laws and protection against calamities such as the depression have mobilized "state" armies of bookkeepers, inspectors, policemen and collectors.
Growth of the educational and highway systems has dwarfed other agencies. An articulate public has instructed its elected representatives to supply free "book learning" for its children and wide, smooth drive-ways for its automobiles. The lawmakers spotted growing industries and a wealth of natural resources and taxed them to pay the bill.
Right now, over-all governmental outgo has exceeded the income by some $15,000,000.

School Costs Double.
When the century was young, the per capita student apportionment was $4. It now stands at $22. Increased population, the necessity of a more thorough education for the man in the street, elaborated teaching methods and higher salaries for instructors were responsible for the growth of the free school system.
Cost of public schools doubled the past 13 years, standing at $18,000,000 in 1923 and $37,000,000 in 1936. Last year rural school aid, an attempt to equalize opportunities between boys and girls in "little red schoolhouses" and those who live in the city, amounted to $4,000,000. A dozen years earlier only $991,000, or less than one-fourth that amount, was spent. The aid transports rural children daily to larger and more modern education centers where their tuition is paid and specialized teachers are available.
The bill for college education alone last year was approximately $8,500,000. Twenty years ago it cost but $2,500,000 to operate 10 institutions of higher learning, half the present number.
The University of Texas affords an example of expansion. That people now-a-days regard college training almost as essential as the "readin', 'ritin' and 'rithmetic" of a generation ago is shown by the fact that shortly after the turn of the century only $150,000 was given the state school to run on for a year. This year the appropriation was $1,600,000, more than 10 times that figure.

Salaries Hiked.
In 1916 a teaching staff of 150 sufficed. Now it approaches 600. Professors then received $1,100 to $3,500 a year; currently they get $3,200 to $6,000. Bottom pay for instructors in those days was $900. It is now $1,800.
The school president received $5,000 two decades ago and now may draw in the neighborhood of $17,000 for a year's work. Partially responsible for the legislature's more than doubling the "prexy's" stipend last spring was the regents' hiring of Dana X. Bible, football coach, at $15,000 a year with a 10-year contract. His predecessor got $5,000. The mentors are paid out of funds originating from gate receipts at grid contests.
Thirty-odd years ago there was little, if any, state road building. The counties worried it out by themselves and roads zig-zagged sharply around sections of land. Then came the automobile, accelerated speed and demands for highways without corners.
Taxes on gasoline in 1924 produced prodigious amounts and the $9,000,000 or so spent that year was but one-sixth of the total of last year's improvement and maintenance program. Federal aid, furnished also by revenue from a gasoline levy, contributed more than half the $53,000,000 spent.
Today, engineers, estimators, accountants, and other experts work at an ever-increasing net-work of traffic arteries and laterals which facilitate travel and transport over the broad expanses of Texas.

AFL and CIO to HAVE WIDE GULF TO BRIDGE.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (AP)—American Federation of Labor and C. I. O. leaders will have a wide gulf to bridge when they start talking peace next Monday. All sides agree the first conference probably can accomplish no more than a few preliminary steps toward reunion. The caution with which each side will proceed was forecast by the recent exchange of telegrams arranging the conference. In both camps, leaders agreed that the conference's first job would be to adjust the size of the committees. They said either the A. F. of L. would have to enlarge its committee to ten or the C. I. O. reduce its to three.

HITLER BACK OF MOVE TO WITHDRAW WARRIORS

LONDON, Oct. 21 (AP)—British officials began work today on proposals for sending an international commission to tabulate the number of foreign warriors in Spain and see that they are withdrawn.
The plan will be submitted to the Spanish neutrality sub-committee tomorrow.
At the same time the committee is expected to decide whether the first withdrawals shall be in equal numbers from each side of the civil war.
There was more than suspicion in London that Chancellor Hitler of Germany was responsible for the change in Italy's opposition to evacuation of the outsiders from Spain—a development yesterday which was viewed widely as easing a serious threat to general European peace.
Some London newspapers suggested that Hitler—since he was not ready to risk war—had told Premier Mussolini of Italy to moderate his stand after Joachim von Ribbentrop, German ambassador to London, flew to Germany Monday and apparently reported that France and Britain meant business.

GUERRILLAS TO PLAY AT ALANREED; WELLINGTON AT M'LEAN TOMORROW

QUEEN TO BE CROWNED-BIG CROWD LOOMS

McLEAN, Oct. 21.—Miss Lavy Donaldson, McLean high school senior, will be crowned as football queen preceding the McLean-Wellington football game on Tiger field Friday night, at 7:30 o'clock or 30 minutes before game time.

The selection of Miss Donaldson as queen was the result of a contest among the four high school classes.

The queen will be attended at the coronation by Dorothy Sue Young, junior; Opal Thacker, sophomore, and Yvonne Ploy, freshman.

An overflow crowd is expected to fill Tiger field for the game which may decide the district championship. Only Shamrock remains as a stumbling block and the Irish are strong again this year.

Fifteen hundred reserve seats were sold in less than two days. Fans were on hand from Pampa, Amarillo, Alanreed, LeFors, Shamrock, Wheeler and other cities to secure seats for the game between two undefeated eleven.

In Estes and Austin, Wellington backs, fans will see two of the fastest ball toters in the Panhandle, including Class A teams, it is reported from Wellington and other cities where the boys have appeared.

McLean also packs dynamite in the backfield with Watson, Braxton and Bogan all ace ball toters.

It is defensively, however, that McLean packs power. Only one first down has been made on the ground against the Tigers. This week Coach Bill Allen worked long on a pass defense and on methods to stop Estes and Austin.

Wellington has a record of 169 points to 6 for the opposition in five games played this season. McLean has scored 93 points against 18. McLean, however, has had the tougher schedule. Each team defeated Mobeetie and Lakeview by large scores.

So strong are Wellington citizens behind their Skyrockets that a special train will carry them to McLean for the big game.

The Tigers will have a weight advantage, especially in the line where Coach Allen has a formidable array of stars, many of them back from last season. Both teams are strong in reserves.

The probable starting lineups, with weights, follow:

TULSA, Okla.—From college football publicity: "Football tradition, mixed with 25 blaring bands of 1,500 members and two bugle corps, royalty and homecoming will be the full menu offered for the University of Tulsa-Oklahoma A. and M. gridiron classic." What a Mickey Mouse?

MILWAUKEE—They've had to make an exception to the rule that sophomore reserves of Marquette's football squad must travel in upper berths during the team's rail jumps. One second year back is enjoying a "lower" because the coach found out he's a sleep-walker and those second story sports aren't just the thing for somnambulists.

MINNEAPOLIS—Coach Bernie Bierman is wishing his little "Jack-of-all-trades," Rudy Gmitro, was quintuplets—or twins at least. Rudy played such a whale of a game at various posts in early battles this season, that Bernie came right out with the announcement, "It's tough that I can play him in only one position at a time."

COACH OF FORDHAM WORRIED LEST TCU PASSES BEAT HIM

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT.
DALLAS, Oct. 21 (AP)—Loquacious Jimmy Crowley, coach of the publicized Fordhams, has begun to worry about the Texas Christian game in New York City Saturday.

Says Crowley: "Davey O'Brien might be the difference between an undefeated season for Fordham and a Rose Bowl. We haven't had a real test against such passing as Texas Christian uses and I can't say we'll be able to stop it."

Sports Editor Weldon Hart of Austin quietly and simply explained the record of the University of Texas football team to date with six words in his able collyum: "There is no substitute for experience." Editor Hart explained that Charlie Haas, Beaufort Bryan, Glenn Jackson, Butlet Gray, Lew Ford, and other young men of the class of '40, hadn't burned down any stadia, as predicted, because sophs, as a rule, don't go around igniting the premises... it takes time.

Coach Leo Meyer plans to unleash one of the deadliest downfield blockers in this section against the Fordhams Saturday, one Earl Clark, a sophomore who has been laid up with boils... One of the roughest of the Christians, Clark is majoring in music... He draws a mean bow across the fiddle... Ziggy Sears Jr., son of the National league ump, is first string center on the Alabama football team.

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS, Oct. 21 (AP)—A glittering array of championship battles sends the Texas Interscholastic League football race into its crucial stage this week.

From panhandle to gulf there are games of title significance, four districts having contests due to bear heavily on the ultimate pennant winners.

Quannah plays at Vernon in a game many critics predict will be the decisive turn in district 2 where the favored Wichita Falls Coyotes have fallen in their follower's estimation due to a succession of ties and a loss to Classen High of Oklahoma City.

Paris goes to Gainesville and Denison to Sherman in games involving the big four of district 5. Each team has a fine record and Paris is among the state's unbeaten and untied.

Cleburne and Temple, both undefeated and tied with Waco for the lead in district 11, clash as Cleburne in the Central Texas feature. From this contest will come the challenger of Waco's favored Tigers.

Critics consider the Harlingen-Edinburg scrap at Edinburg to be the game that actually decides the Rio Grande valley championship. They have been ranked as the top teams all season.

Thirty-six conference games, four inter-district encounters and three of intersectional nature make it the biggest week-end of the campaign. Standing out will be the battle at Port Arthur between Amarillo's State Champion Sandies, and Tom Dennis' always powerful Yellow Jackets. Incidentally it will show the relative strength of the Panhandle teams, Port Arthur already holding a decision over Pampa, which is considered a strong district rival for the Sandies. It will also show the true strength of Longview and East Texas power.

McLean lined up with: Kelley and Comes, ends; Sharp and Harris.

North Side of Fort Worth plays at Kosciusko, Miss., in the feature intersectional game of the week.

The week's schedule by districts:
1—Friday: Lubbock at Borger (conference), Hereford at Plainview (conference), Graham at Childress (conference), Electra at Ohney (conference), Quannah at Vernon (conference).

3—Thursday: Big Spring at Ranger (conference); Friday: Sweetwater at Abilene (conference), Eastland at Breckenridge (conference), Cisco at Brownwood (conference).

6—Friday: Highland Park (Dallas) at Denton (conference), Mineola at Sulphur Springs, Masonic Home (Fort Worth) at McKinney.

Borgans Have Feeling They'll Beat Lubbock

PEEWEEES BEAT M'LEAN JUNIOR HIGH 13 TO 0

A little halfback with twinkling toes, working behind nice interference, scored two touchdowns in the first half to give the Pampa junior high Peeeweess a 13 to 0 victory over the McLean junior high youngsters yesterday afternoon at Harvester field. The little touchdown artist was Joe Moses and his touchdown plays were called by a heady little quarterback, Kenneth Lard, nephew of the famous Albert Lard of past days.

The first Peeeweess touchdown came in the opening quarter when Moses went through the line for six yards and a touchdown. Tillery, fullback, added the extra point on a plunge. Moses staged the prettiest run of the game in the second stanza when he broke off tackle, cut to the sidelines, and raced 50 yards. He had beautiful interference until well in the McLean secondary when he took command.

With their lead tucked away, the little fellows forgot blocking in the second half and failed to make any decent gains. They tried hard but were unable to get going. Coach W. Leggett sent in a few subs but the play of the opening half was never renewed.

McLean presented a tall end, a taller tackle and an even taller fullback. The future Tigers, however, failed to show the blocking necessary to produce a touchdown. In Mutt Graham the Tiger pups presented a promising fullback while Comes, right end, was hard to take out of a play.

Sanders and Tillery helped Moses and Lard in the Peeeweess backfield. At ends were Mitchell and Martin. Snyder and Shaw took care of the tackle assignment with Proper and Arthur beside them at the guard slots. Burge, was at center. Reserves included Monroe, Johns, Roberts, Marton and Lard.

McLean lined up with: Kelley and Comes, ends; Sharp and Harris.

MATHEMATICS GIVEN CREDIT FOR UNDEFEATED NEGRO TEAM

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21 (AP)—A mathematics professor turned coach, who works out "plays like equations," has brought Morgan College for Negroes through six years of football—44 games—without a defeat.

"It's all a matter of timing," coach Edward P. Hurt said. "In science you won't be satisfied with anything less than exactness. You need exactness in coaching a football team."

He doesn't talk about his plays, but he was ready with his pencil to draw diagrams of them. He hasn't any favorites—he says he likes anything which will gain ground.

Like the "round robin" he used against Bluefield State Teachers in 1935. The fullback threw a forward pass, a halfback scooped it in and lateraled it to another half. The second man lateraled again—to the fullback, who had come wide around end. Then the fullback made a touchdown. Things like that, Hurt said, account for six-year totals like: Morgan, 933 points; all opponents, 82.

Hurt likes an open game, emphasizing speed and teamwork. "Colored boys are springy in their runnings," he said. They're good broken field runners because of their natural speed.

He played end for Howard University in Washington before he (Houston) vs. Austin (Houston), conference.

14—Friday: Beaumont at Orange (conference), Amarillo at Port Arthur, Livingston at Goose Creek.

15—Friday: Galveston at Corpus Christi, Laredo at Robstown (conference), Kingsville at Beeville.

16—Friday: Rio Hondo at Mission, Mercedes at Donna (conference), McAllen at San Benito (conference), Brownsville at Pharr-San Juan-Alamo, Harlingen at Edinburg (conference), Weslaco at Raymondville.

BORGER, Oct. 21.—With their minds centered on one date in the calendar, Friday, Oct. 22, and a win feeling in their breasts, Borger High's Bulldogs yesterday afternoon swept through a snappy workout, first in this week's preparatory campaign for the battle with Lubbock Westerners here Friday night.

The Borger-Lubbock clash will set the District 1-A grid pot boiling, as Plainview engages Hereford, Amarillo travels to Port Arthur, and Pampa enjoys an open date.

Evidently Moulden, and his assistants, "Catfish" Smith and Frank McInnis, are striving to put a touchdown team on the field to entertain the Westerners—one that can score more than 7 points in 90 minutes of play.

Determined To Run Up Scores
The Bulldogs have piled up enough yardage in the four non-conference tilts to have tallied several times more than they have. They chased Childress Bobcats and Quannah Indians up and down the field but could count only once against each team.

Coaches and players alike are determined that this time things will be different, that touchdowns will be in direct proportion to first downs and yards gained.

Adrian White, letterman halfback, will not play against Lubbock, Moulden said. White, regular backfielder last year, dropped out of game competition after the Ft. Worth Poly bruiser, in which he suffered a severe injury to his leg that has lagged in recovery.

Bomar, Kendrick—??
Whether Bomar, first string center also hurt in the leg in the Parrot smash-up, and Kendrick, one of the better endmen, will get into the fray remains doubtful, depending on their ability to convince their coaches of their fitness by Friday.

Otherwise the Bulldogs get an A-1 rating on a physical check-up. Allen, ground-gaining quarterback, gave teammates and coaches a start when the Quannah game when a swollen ankle spelled a possible fracture. However, no bones were broken, and Allen is chasing about in as good form as ever.

tackles: Ledbetter and Roth, guards: J. Jones, center: Cook, quarterbacks: Campbell and Dwight, halves: Graham, full: Stubs—D. Dwight, McMullen, Quarles, Sullivan, Smith.

RAIDERS WILL SEEK REVENGE AT FAIR GAME

Visitors at Gray county's only fair this year, at Alanreed tomorrow will see the Pampa Guerrilla football team in action against the Alanreed Longhorns. Game time has been set for 3 o'clock.

Coach Bob Curry put his future Harvesters through a "resume" workout yesterday afternoon. The youngsters reviewed all plays, worked on defense and discussed Alanreed plays in a huddle.

The Guerrillas will be out to avenge two losses against one victory during the 1936 series: when the two teams were gridiron enemies in a series. The Longhorns have several boys back from last season.

With his full lineup ready for duty, the Guerrillas will present a razzle-dazzle type of play, mixing ground plays with passes and laterals. Doyle Auds will do the passing with Salsbury and Miller mauling in ball carrying. Word, halfback, and the Clemmons brothers, ends, will also be the pass snatchers.

The Guerrilla line has been functioning more smoothly in practice this week and better charging and blocking is expected in the game with Alanreed.

Reapers to Play Borgans Oct. 29

Coach W. C. Hucksba and his Junior High Reapers will spend this week trying to recover shreds of an offense lost in their past two encounters with Amarillo junior teams.

Defense will also be on the list of work as the Reapers prepare for a trip to Borger on October 29 when they meet the Borger Bull Pups, a team they defeated here 19 to 0.

The Reapers have no game this week within the conference and Coach Hucksba has decided to work on offense instead of matching an exhibition tilt.

Opening the season with a flash, the Reapers looked like a coming aggregation until they stumbled up against Buchanan and Sam Houston of Amarillo. The boys tried hard but experience told as the Amarillo eleven, with weight and experience on their side, crashed through.

JILL

BY MARY RAYMOND

Copyright, 1937, NEA Service, Inc.

CHAPTER 1
"Silly of me not to have cabled," Jill Wentworth decided.

She was one of a gay crowd that had surged down the gangplank onto the docks, and out into the sunshine—a crossing from Europe just behind.

During the year of study and travel she had not felt even one little twinge of nostalgia, she thought. And now here on home soil she was definitely, terribly homesick. In all the big crowd milling about her—kissing, patting, shaking hands or rapturously hugging—there was not one welcome for her.

A red cap stacked her baggage down beside her and made off with a generous tip while Jill stood casting bewildered looks about her. Surely, Davis, the chauffeur, should be arriving by now, anyway, very apologetic about the delay.

Other luggage was being piled near the curb as shining motors and taxis contested for vantage positions. In the jumble of travel impediments Jill saw her own smart luggage rubbing noses with several shabby bags which bore, nevertheless, as many foreign stamps as her own.

Not far away the owner of these was arguing with a porter. The young man appeared much concerned about one very large and battered case. There was a belligerent squaring of his shoulders. And then Jill gasped. The young man turned. It couldn't be... But it was, the same young artist who had persisted in cropping up in her pathway over all Europe.

But how had he reached the United States at the very moment of her own arrival? He couldn't have come over on the same ship. If he had, she couldn't have missed him.

Jill's speculations were cut short. A taxi swung into place at the curb. "Taxi, Miss?"

Jill gave another hasty glance around. Where was her family? Evidently no one was meeting her. Even at this hour.

"That one, that one. All those with the broad green stripes. That one and the hat box." Gracious, how many bags had she brought beside her trunks?

There was a step beside her. "And this one," said a voice.

The young artist standing beside her with his hat off, the wind ruffling his wavy, light brown hair.

"I'm sorry, but isn't this your bag also?" he queried again.

"Yes—but how?"

The young man smiled a little. "I didn't have a very discriminating red cap. He should have realized that a smart suitcase didn't match the rest of my luggage. I assure you that I don't as a rule go about grabbing off other people's things."

The smile revealed even white teeth and brought a humorous light to his eyes. He was much nicer in this mood, Jill decided. Every time she had seen him in Europe, he had seemed in a perfect frenzy.

She had decided that he had painted all Europe. It had been ridiculous—running into him in three widely separated places. And she had never forgiven him for not really seeing her any of those times.

If he didn't remember, that was worse than being rude. He should be punished. Jill proceeded to punish.

"It's quite all right," she said. "I can understand how the mistake occurred, with our luggage so stuck-up with stamps. I got my stickers at a funny little shop where they sell them wholesale to people who want to spend all their time in Paris, yet who also want to dazzle the folks at home with the aura of several continents! Quaint idea, bootlegging travel stamps, don't you think?"

The artist was regarding her gravely. "Your mother didn't send you

ed to the young man, "there's a string of hotels around this section—on Park Avenue, on Lexington."

"I'm not looking for a hotel, but a more permanent place to park."

The driver concentrated on going nowhere, dashing recklessly in and out of traffic in a manner that left no doubt that the age of miracles had not passed. Beside maneuvering expertly, he was ruminating about a

"Eternally fussy," the young man answered.

"She was quite right to be fussy," Jill retorted, "when you practically ordered us off your premises every time we saw you. 'Madame,' you said, 'if you would only come back with your pupils later in the day or earlier in the day. How can you expect me to paint that gateway with the sun slanting across it,' and then Miss Benedict answered, 'I don't expect you to paint it, young man,' and then painted herself, there firmly."

"So I painted her stout presence in," the young artist went on. He was smiling, too. Very broadly.

"Did you?" Jill breathed. "I don't believe it."

"Taxi, miss?" the driver spoke again, a patient but bored note in his voice.

As Jill nodded he began tumbling both her luggage and the young artist's cases into the taxi.

"Here, wait—" began the young man, protesting.

"There's plenty of room," Jill spoke quickly.

"Well, thanks. I'll be dropping out soon."

"Just drive, Jill told the bewildered cab driver, adding as she turned queer world. Plain goofy, these young people.

Jill was also thinking about a queer world. Queer and wonderful. Here she was sitting in a taxi with a young man whose image she had carried with her for thousands of miles. An engrossed and very handsome young man.

How angry he had looked shouting at Miss Benedict that day when they were "doing cathedrals" in England. It had been a beautiful old gate that he wanted to paint. Hoary with age, with an ancient beauty in its moss-covered stones and hand-hewn grill.

She had sympathized with him when Miss Benedict refused to budge, assembling an endless array of cultural facts to carry away. She remembered that she and Elizabeth Endsley had wandered away from the scent of battle, leaving Miss Benedict standing in the gateway—a picture of injured pride!

All around Jill and the young artist roared the big city. Big and glorious, Jill thought, and golden with sunlight today. Noisy clanging for attention because it was young and lusty. Not a bit like those gray, staid old English towns the young artist had revelled in painting.

But this was her city. It was not his, she knew. The English accent was unmistakable. She hoped he would like here. Surely, he could find something paintable in this vast panorama.

"I am wondering why a brass band didn't meet you," the young man spoke, suddenly.

Jill smiled. "I don't like brass bands. But I do like families: It's really my fault that nobody met me. I think I wrote that I'd be saying hello to Lady Liberty when our ship went by her, if I didn't change my mind. And then I didn't cable to tell them whether I had changed my mind or not. You wouldn't call that being very definite, would you?"

"Not very. It's nice that you have a family at home waiting to welcome you."

Jill thought there was a rather wistful sound to his voice.

She spoke impulsively. "Yes. But of course we're not the regular kind of family. You see my father is only my stepfather. He had loved my mother before she married first time. And after her husband—my father—died, then dad married mother. He's been exactly like a real father to Jack—my brother—and to me, too. And to Barry, also. All of us took the Wentworth name."

"Who is Barry?"

"I suppose he's a sort of step-step brother. You see, after mother died, dad married again. Another widow, with a son, Barry, who is just a little younger than Jack. We're rather mixed up, aren't we?" "Now about you?"

"I came over on the same ship. Tourist," the young man replied simply. "It's much cheaper. After a summer of travel, there wasn't much left. But I had been cooped up so long, I had to move about, if I starved afterward."

"Cooped up?"

"In a studio in Paris. And before that—"

"Before that," Jill prompted. "Oxford, the Sorbonne, the Beaux Arts."

"Oh!" There was a world of respect in Jill's exclamation.

"There were some places I'd always wanted to paint. So I went off and painted them. I had a practical purpose back of it all, of course."

If Miss Benedict were here now, Jill thought, I'd strangle her. He had travelled a long distance just to paint that gate.

"And now," the young man concluded, "I'm here."

His voice carried. "You want out here, sir?" the driver called back. "Just as well here as anywhere," the young man replied. "Drop me off at the next corner by the subway entrance."

At the next corner! Why that meant he was dropping out of her life. That meant she would never know where this amazing young man would stay. And she wanted to know!

On Capital Hill

By HARRELL E. LEE

AUSTIN, Oct. 20 (AP)—Some persons at the capital believed the main reason for Gov. James V. Allred's statement he would keep "hands off" in the 1938 Attorney General's race was to scotch rumors he had made a trade with Lieut. Gov. Walter P. Woodul.

These rumors, which gained considerable circulation among members of the "third house," or lobbyists, had Woodul agreeing to use his influence for Allred's tax program in return for the Governor supporting him for Attorney General next summer.

Several of Allred's close friends may be in the Attorney General's derby. They include Robert W. Calvert of Hillsboro, whom Allred backed twice for speaker of the house, Gerald Mann of Dallas, Allred's first secretary of state, District Judge Ralph W. Yarborough and Everett Looney of Austin, Assistant Attorney General under the present Governor, Clyde Smith of Woodville, who was an assistant secretary of state during Allred's first term as governor, has said he may run.

Officials of the comptroller's department quoted the management of a major as telling them the big show probably would spend 30 days in Texas next year if its taxes were not increased.

The circus was in the state 15 days this fall. Its customers paid $25,000 in admission taxes. It handed over to the state and the various counties and cities in which it played $7,100 in occupation and franchise taxes.

Persons who should know say circus officials very much regret they broke a custom of giving passes to members of the legislature. They fear the bad will create among the lawmakers, who have the power to increase taxes, may at some time react against them.

Reports were heard here that the reason the circus refused passes for the first time in years was the omnibus tax bill of last fall placing an admission tax on its patrons. Picture shows were exempted from that levy.

The sub-group of the house revenue and taxation committee which prepared a new omnibus bill at the current session sought to modify the picture show exemption. It proposed that admissions to shows charging more than 40 cents be taxed ten per cent. That would affect only the better shows in the larger cities.

There possibly is a chance the legislature will give Gov. Allred the new taxes he desires but his pushing of revenue-raising bills through the lawmaking body is much slower work than the achievement of race betting repeal in the special session four months ago.

A repeal proposal encountered no trouble in the house and came up in the senate within a few days after passage by the lower chamber. The senate still had not received a tax bill from the house, however, when it adjourned at the close of the second week of the current session.

Some in the house said there was no hurry about sending a tax measure across the hall because the senate would "take its own good time" on the issue. The house passed four major tax bills in the regular session but the Senate would have no part of them.

With the extraordinary session called for the sole purpose of increasing revenue, the house's first move was in the opposite direction.

A bill proposing to broaden the note tax was amended to provide the levy would not apply to debts of less than $2,000. That was almost the same as repealing the tax. After adoption of the amendment, the bill's author moved to send it back to committee.

William B. Sanson, 25-year-old representative from San Antonio, is the new chairman of the board of directors of the Texas fraternal congress, which will hold its next meeting at Mineral Wells Nov. 10 and 11. He is Texas vice president of the Woodmen of the World.

Return of the legislators would not have been so hard on capital newspapermen attempting to keep up with what is going on if the state's three high courts here had not started grinding again at about the same time.

At its first meeting day after summer recess, the supreme court acted on 136 cases.

"The lions and the lambs lay down together" to a large extent in the house division over whether to return to omnibus tax bill to committee.

Many members of the anti-tax bloc voted for recommitment since any delay was to their advantage, chance existed of tacking a liberalization amendment to the bill as numerous old age pension liberalizations joined with them because no originally reported from committee.

Rep. Joe A. Keith of Sherman, opposed to liberalization of the pension law, said the "strange" coalition was "unsound."

RANSOM CASH DUE TO SOLVE ROSS KIDNAPING

CHICAGO, Oct. 21 (AP)—Solution of the Charles S. Ross kidnaping hinged largely today upon a nationwide watch for the appearance of $50,000 in ransom money.

A public appeal to be on the lookout for the $250 ransom bills went out after federal agents disclosed the kidnapers had doubled the Ross family by failing to release their wealthy and aged victim.

Lack of any known communication from the 72-year-old retired manufacturer since he was abducted 25 days ago led the investigators to consider a number of theories as to his fate.

There was widespread belief the victim, who suffered from heart disease, died from shock or was slain by his captors to eliminate the risk of being identified by him later. Investigators also theorized Ross might still be held captive while the kidnapers make plans for a flight.

The first theory was in line with the belief of some investigators that the Ross case would prove a parallel to the Lindbergh kidnaping—with the victim dead before the collection of ransom and the case solved through detection of the ransom money.

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 21 (AP)—Mrs. Clara S. Ramsey, 65, of Joquin, Texas, died at a hospital here late yesterday from injuries suffered when she was struck by a freight locomotive.

INJURIES FATAL.

First Lady Tackles Prison Problems

Prison problems pushed their way to the top of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt's crowded calendar when she stopped off at Philadelphia to address the American Prison Association's convention. Besides urging a more highly trained prison personnel, backed by community understanding, the First Lady also did some visiting. She is shown at right chatting with Mrs. George H. Earle, whose husband is New Deal governor of Pennsylvania.

politics in a way which will give no one a headache. This is a brief digest of their summary, which attempts to tell what the "dissatisfied nations"—Japan, Germany, Italy—want, the extent to which their demands are justified and what can be done about it. Search for economic solutions and peaceful change, the authors say, shows that the crux of the whole problem is "the question of trade and markets, and the factors which limit the purchasing power of consumer nations." How to achieve conditions of justice which will make possible the maintenance of peace by diminishing the "have-nots" demand for new territory, raw materials and markets? It is admitted that some leading economists and political scientists contend there is little justification for the demands from the dissatisfied countries.

World Agreements Needed

Ability to buy is just as vital in the case of nations as individuals. If nations are to have equal access to raw materials, those who produce them must be willing to sell at a fair price, and those who wish to buy must have enough purchasing power.

But it has become more and more difficult to transact business between nations because of large walls of export restrictions, international cartels, tariffs, trade preferences and discriminations, quota and exchange controls and other trade barriers growing out of economic nationalism. World production has scooted far ahead of the volume in world trade, with an intensified scramble for markets. After asking, "Is there a way out?" Stone and Eichelberger cite such suggestions as an international agreement providing that export duties should in no case discriminate between consumers, some international supervision of cartels and monopolies, an open door principle for colonial areas—admitting all goods on an equal footing, mandate supervision over primitive and undeveloped countries, international planning for the exchange of goods some plan for coordination of national economic policies, currency stabilization with temporary gold credits to such nations as Germany and elevation of labor standards by international agreement so that reduction of trade barriers wouldn't cause fear of unfair competition.

Will Nations Pay Cost?

"Economic and military disarmament must be achieved together if any solution is to be found," and two prime requisites are "a will to permit change, and machinery to provide adjustments." The United States must play its part if co-operation is to become the normal method of conducting world affairs. Admitting enormous and possibly insuperable difficulties, the authors conclude by quoting the National Peace Conference platform.

"Are you willing to make as the price of peace a fraction of the sacrifices you would make for war? Countless citizens have sacrificed their sons for their country in time of war. Are nations willing to make an adjustment of economic policy so that war will not occur?"

'Haves,' 'Have Nots' Must Cooperate, Says Group Seeking Peace

By RODNEY DUTCHER
Pampa Daily News Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Official repudiation of the theory that isolation and neutrality acts could save this country from war has disturbed many peaceful dreamers and probably there have been few times when so obvious a demand existed for some fellow with a feasible recipe for world peace.

There is a large school of thought, including many of the heaviest thinkers on the subject, which holds that "quarantines" and other overt actions designed to curb aggressive militaristic nations are dubious instruments for curing the world's insanity and are likely to cause just so much more hell. This school believes there is no promising path away from world chaos except through economic co-operation between "haves" and "have nots."

Peaceful Way Proposed

The most able and simplified summary in this field of study has just been brought out by the Foreign Policy Association in the form of a small, illustrated booklet, "Peaceful Change—The Alternative to War," by William T. Stone and Clark M. Eichelberger. Stone is known here as one of the country's best-informed students of international affairs, in or out of the State Department. He and Eichelberger present a survey, prepared for the National Peace Conference for World Economic Cooperation, which sketches world economics and

CHAPEL BOMBED 69TH TIME BY JAP FLIERS

By JAMES A. MILLS.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 21 (AP)—Chapel was mercilessly bombed for 15 hours today while I made a survey of this historic Chinese residence section on the northern edge of the International Settlement.

This is the sixty-ninth successive bombing Chapel has endured without yielding to the might of Japan's war machine. I found Chinese forces strongly entrenched and in high spirits.

Whole square miles of wrecked homes, looted shops and shattered factories, interspersed with debris-strewn alleyways, told a grim story of the frightful ordeal Chapel's million inhabitants endured. Aside from the hosts of soldiers living below earth like ground moles, the only sign of life was starving cats and dogs, roaming through streets and alleyways, whining for food and water.

I saw many animals wounded by shrapnel. Dead canary birds, parrots and other feathered pets lay in their cages. Here and there were mangled forms of dead soldiers and civilians.

As I dashed from house to house, the death-like silence was broken by the sinister drone of squadrons of Japanese planes overhead. They dropped a number of bombs but most of them fell wide of their marks.

TAX ON COIN-OPERATED MACHINES INVALIDATED

AUSTIN, Oct. 21 (AP)—The Third Circuit of Civil Appeals today invalidated the state occupation tax on coin-operated vending machines. It upheld a Travis county district court's ruling restraining collection of the tax and destruction of machines for failure to pay the levy. The ruling was in a case brought against the Comptroller by F. E. Giebel, Jr., of Austin and other operators.

"Uncertainty and ambiguity both as to who was the proper person to pay the tax, or in case it was not paid, who would be subject to criminal punishment" was given as the Appellate Court's reason for its ruling.

The case in question specifically concerned coin-operated phonographs. In its appeal the state had contended that although the law because of its wording might not apply to coin-operated phonographs it was applicable to other "service" type machines but the court held vagueness of the law made the entire statute invalid.
