SIXTY SEVENTH YEAR | Sonora, Texas, Friday, November 30, 1956 | NINTH WEEK

SONORA, TEXAS, THANKSGIVING 1956— Again it is the season for observing the uniquely American day of Thanksgiving.

We all know that Thanksgiving Day was originated by a handful of men and women who, despite being thousands of miles from home, family and friends, despite bereavement and illness, despite hunger and hardship, found the need to set aside a day of thanks and praise to God for his intangible blessings of courage, determination and faith in mercy and goodness.

In the year of our Lord, 1956, let us really pause with our families to thank Him for His many gifts to us. Today we enjoy the true bounty of goodness. We are a free people with greatest of all freedoms-the freedom for each man to exist as an individual.

It is true that we have been in the midst of the worst drouth within the memory of any living person, yet we are none of us hungry as are so many in countries where the individuality is non-existant. That is in itself worthy of a day of Thanksgiving.

This year let us make Thanksgiving Day a true Day of Thanksgiving.

Hospital Gets Patient Radios From Auxiliary

Lillian M. Hudspeth Hospital last week received a gift of three radios for use by patients. The radios are all-transistor portables particularly suited to use in hospitals where radio reception is ordinarily poor.

The radios were presented to the hospital by the Lillian M. Hudspeth Hospital Auxiliary and were purchased with memorial fund money for the enjoyment of patients.

There is a slight rental charge for use of the radios with the money used by the auxiliary for repairs and upkeep of the radios.

MELVIN GLASSCOCK WINS 10-YEAR SAFETY AWARD

Melvin Glasscock, Sonora agent for Alamo Motor Lines, last week received the company's 10-year safety award. The award, in the form of a gold pin, commemorates Glasscock's perfect safety record for his ten years association with the firm.

TRAILER DAMAGED IN FIRE FRIDAY NIGHT

The house trailer occupied by Jess Barker was almost a total loss as the result of a fire Friday night. The fire occurred shortly before 7:00 when Barker was attempting to light a gas stove in the trailer.

ODDS & ENDS

No one seems to be able to think or talk about anything but football. And it's no wonder-with the team we've got! The principal virture of this team is its unwillingness to yell calf-rope. They've kept going against teams that should have beat them, if size and experience count for anything. But they haven't been beat yet, and Merkel is not the team to stop them.

Our fair-haired friend who writes an occasional sports story for the Standard almost wept when he wrote that his beloved Broncos may reach the end of the line Friday night. We are neither touched nor moved by his laments because we know these Broncs and we know that nothing less than a steam-roller with jet-propulsion can stop them. They've got a jet-propelled steam-roller in that line and four guided missiles in the backfield, one with an atomic warhead.

We herewith express our thanks to Mrs. Bill Lee who served as emergency cartoonist for "The Devil" Monday afternoon. Efforts by our staff artists, aided and abetted by Louis (Rembradt) Davis, failed to produced the desired results so we ran up to the courthouse and prevailed on Mrs. Lee. For the results of her handiwork, see the Booster Page.

The sportive Bronco who makes his first appearance in print this week feels frisky and confident.

Sonorans Winners In UT Contest

Martha Jean Valliant and Robert L. Hardgrave, Jr., University of Texas students from Sonora, were finalists in the Oratorical Association's Intramural Impromptu Speaking Contest recently.

Miss Valliant, freshman dramatics student, tied for fourth place. She is a member of Curtain Club and recently won first place in the Poetry-Reading Contest. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Valliant.

Hardgrave, freshman government student, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hardgrave. He recently placed second in the Wilmot Freshman Declamation Contest and the Campaign-Speaking Contest.

New FM Road Slated For County In '57

The Texas Highway Commission has taken the first step to inaugurate a new two-year Farm-to-Market Road Program for Texas. Funds for this 1957 and 1958 program are derived from federal-aid highway funds, matched with state highway funds on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

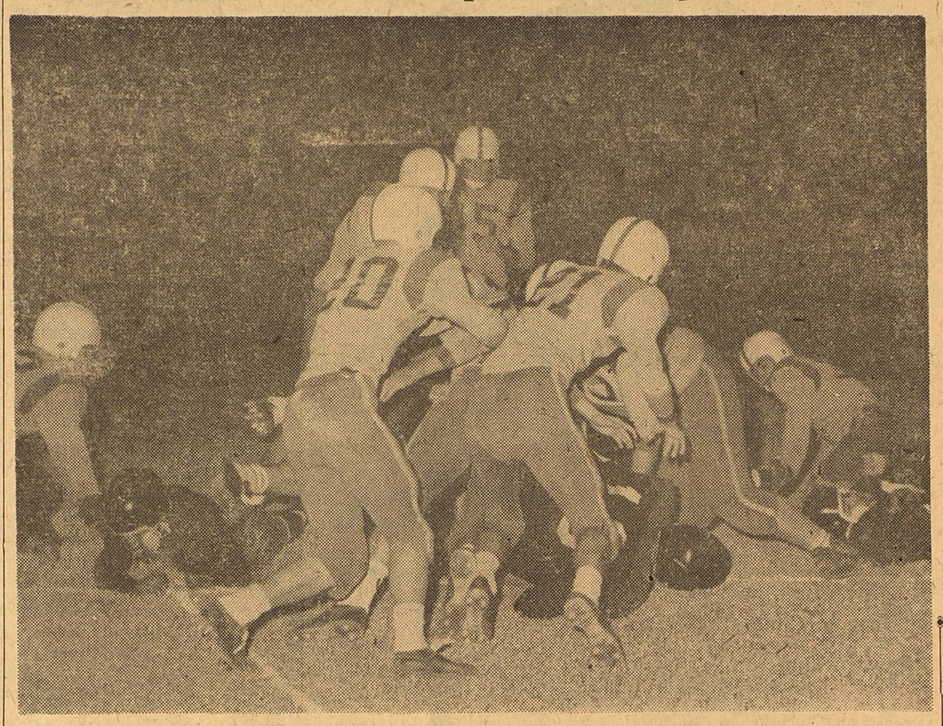

The following farm-to-market road in this area is scheduled for work under this program: From end of F. M. Road 1691, 5.2 miles Southeast of Sonora, Southeast a distance of approximately 4.0 miles.

The Commission has authorized the development of some area roads which will serve the dual purpose of providing service to the adjacent land as well as aiding in the development of the entire state.

It was announced that work will begin on this project as soon as final planning is completed and necessary right of way secured. Resident Engineer R. A. McCulloch will be in charge of the work in this area.

Broncos Down Owls 23-13 In Breathtaking Bi-District Championship Thriller

Expert line work and drive brought bi-district victory to the Broncos here last week as they downed the Reagan County Owls from Big Lake 23 to 13. George Johnson drives over from the five yard line in the picture above to widen the Sonora team's lead.

Coach Joe Turner's Broncos won their battle for the Bi-District Championship here Friday night 23 to 13 in the hardest fought game of the season. The Broncos went into the game giving away more than 10 pounds per man to the Reagan County Owls from Big Lake. But it was their unwillingness to give way in any other respect that saw them emerge victorious.

The Owls drew blood first with back Howard Johnson and his sidekick Matlock alternating in a 42-yard drive to the Bronco goal line. Johnson's conversion attempt failed and the Owls led 6 to 0.

Big Lake got off a shortkick to the 50. Wall and Love carried for short gains and Johnson completed a 37 yard pass to Ratliff on the 12. Then George took over carrying for gains of four, seven, and the necessary two to even the score. George's try for extra point was good and the Broncos took the lead which they never lost again.

Johnson's kickoff following the touchdown was returned to the 48 by the Big Lake team who started their push to the Bronco 22 where the Sonora line tightened up and the ball went over on down. From this point Johnson carried for two and again for 20 and a first down. Two of George's passes were incomplete and Wall rushed for a four-yard gain. Here Johnson toed off a 40-yard punt to the Big Lake 21. Matlock followed up a 6-yard pass by the Owls with a five yard pass by the Owls with a five yard gain and a first down. Mills carried for 11 and another first, but the drive was short-lived when Tommy Adams intercepted an Owl pass on the 49.

From the 49, Baker carried for six, and Johnson racked up necessary yardage for a first down from the Big Lake 39. A pass from Johnson to Baker was complete to the 20. Johnson then racked up another first rushing and then set up a field goal from the 20 which was right between the uprights to widen the Broncos' lead to 10 to 6.

Taking over on their own 38 the Owls were unable to make any yardage and were forced to kick. Here the first half ended with the Broncos in the lead.

As play resumed, the Broncos received the kickoff with Johnson returning it to the Sonora 38. Baker carried on a reverse for 15 and a first. Johnson and Wall gained the necessary yardage for another first and the Broncos began their drive which ended with a five yard run by Johnson across the goal stripe. His conversion attempt was good and the Broncos led by 17 to 6.

Big Lake received on their own 31 and managed to rack up one first down before being forced to kick. The Broncos took over on the 11, tallying one first down before Johnson quick-kicked to the 50. Taking over on the 46, the Owls began a drive with Matlock, Johnson and Lofton carrying, inches shy of the goal line, Howard Johnson scored and Mills carried for the extra point which narrowed the Bronco lead to 17 to 13.

From their own 40, the Broncos started their push with George Johnson running off tackle for 20, and again for five and seven. A pass to Ratliff was incomplete and Johnson and Wall rushed to the 13 from which point Johnson took it up the middle for the touchdown. His try for the extra point was no good and the score read 23 to 13.

After a 46-yard drive by the Owls bogged down against tremendous line play on the part of the Bronco line, the Broncos took over on the six and the game ended on a 15-yard run by Johnson, the Sonora team winning 23 to 13.

Statistics: First Downs: Sonora 19, Big Lake 18; Yards rushing: Sonora 244, Big Lake 210; Yards Passing: Sonora 57, Big Lake 47; Passes completed: Sonora two of six, Big Lake five of fourteen; Pass interceptions: Sonora two, Big Lake none; Penetrations: Sonora four, Big Lake three.

MRS. DULLNIG OPENS NEW BEAUTY SHOP THIS WEEK

Mrs. Dorothy Dullnig has announced the opening of her new beauty shop to be known as the Beauty Bar, located in the Humble Building on Pecan Street. The shop is decorated in pink and charcoal and the equipment is all new and modern.

Broncos Put On Feed Bag Tuesday Night

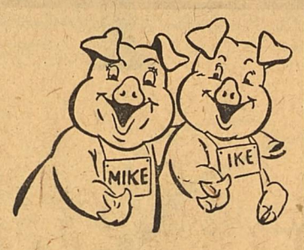

West Texas Utilities Co. and H. C. Saunders, Jr., were hosts to members of both the A and B Bronco football teams Tuesday night with a supper at the school cafeteria. Barbecued kid, pinto beans, potato salad, milk and peach cobbler a la mode were served.

Members of the Downtown Quarterback Club served as waiters.

Maxwell has been manager of the Sonora district of the company and will be manager of the Suburban San Angelo District which will include the following towns: Barnhart, Big Lake, Blackwell, Bronte, Carlsbad, Christoval, Eden, Eldorado, Forsan, Mertzon, Miles, Ozona, Robert Lee, Rowena, Sonora, Sterling City and Texon.

Welfare Council Gives Local And Transient Aid

Merchants in Sonora have been receiving letters this week from The Reverend Alanson Brown, President of the Community Welfare Council of Sonora, explaining the purposes and working of the Council and asking their cooperation in dealing with both transient and local welfare needs.

The Council is made up of and supported by these groups: Sonora Lions Club, Sonora Woman's Club, City of Sonora, First Methodist Church, First Baptist Church and St. John's Episcopal Church.

The Rev. Brown's letter says in part: "These clubs and churches are banded together to cope with all immediate welfare needs that may arise. This is the manner in which we operate. Please refer all requests for transient aid to the Sheriff's Office. Investigation will be made by the Sheriff or his deputies on duty and aid will be given according to the need. The Council uses a voucher system for payment. The transient seeking aid is given a voucher made out to a local merchant for a specified amount, and for specific items. On receiving one of these vouchers please fill out as directed and present to Clayton Hamilton, Council treasurer, for payment. PLEASE DO NOT GIVE MONEY OR AID IN KIND IN RESPONSE TO TRANSIENT REQUESTS.

"By presenting a united front we already have been able to cut down on the number of requests. We solicit your cooperation in this effort.

"We in no way take the place of other regular and duly organized charitable institutions. We are not set up to put anybody on pension. Our purpose is to take care of immediate needs both transient and local and get permanent aid elsewhere when necessary."

Monday Deadline For Filing For ASC Hay, Grain

Monday, December 3, is the final date for filing for Hay and Grain available under the Emergency Feed and Hay Program, according to Mrs. Marie K. Ellis, local ASC office manager.

Applications are for hay and grain to carry eligible livestock through and including December 31, 1956.

LIONS ROAR

At their regular luncheon meeting Tuesday at the Methodist Church, members of the Sonora Lions Club heard a program by members of the Sonora High School coaching staff.

Head Coach Joe Turner gave a brief rundown on the prospects for the game with Merkel in San Angelo Friday night, November 30. Turner stated that it will be a real contest but that, sports "experts" to the contrary, he believes his boys can win.

The Downtown Quarterback Club presented a gift to Coaches Turner, Oliver Wuest, Charles Lamb and Royce Franklin.

1956 Soil Bank Deadline Is November 30

All conservation reserve contracts for the 1956 year must be completed by November 30, 1956, according to Mrs. Marie K. Ellis, local ASC office manager. Producers having eligible acres must apply for the 1956 year before this deadline. The 1957 filing period begins November 30 and extends through March 1957.

All producers who have signed conservation reserve contracts are being mailed riders to their contracts which must be returned and attached to the contract by November 30, 1956.

General provisions of the conservation reserve contracts are: 1. Practices must be carried out on the conservation reserve and

Undefeated Broncos To Meet Merkel Friday Night

The Sonora Broncos travel to San Angelo tomorrow night to meet the Merkel Badgers in San Angelo's new high school stadium. Sonora fans will be streaming into San Angelo as they continue to follow the Broncos' forays into state championship playoffs.

The Badgers have a perfect conference record and only one pre-season defeat, that at the hands of Winters, a Class AA team. Merkel plays from a T formation and boats an outstanding back in the person of Robert McLeod, a 6 foot 4 inch 200-pound back who has racked up quite a reputation as a passer. Other stand outs on the Badger team include Jackie Russell, Kermit Rutledge, Carl McKeever and Manley Denton.

However, the Sonora team has laid up for itself an even more impressive record with no defeats in their 11-game season. Their line-play has continued to build up and in the last two games they have shown tremendous drive and holding ability. The line has held against odds which have been almost phenominal in the matter of weight and experience. Observers believe that if the team can continue to play the brand of ball they have played against Eldorado and Big Lake, Merkel will be eliminated from state playoff tomorrow night.

SHE KNOWS... IT'S FEEDING TIME!

This cow's telling you something you probably know . . . it's time to start feeding. Grass is brown, tough, and doesn't have much food value. If her owner wants her to drop a husky calf come spring, then he'd better start supplementing her range.

She'd like Purina Range Checkers. They're easy to feed, tasty, contain a variety of proteins and carbohydrates and carry vitamins and minerals that the tough grass doesn't have. Cows must have these materials to build the unborn calves

Next time you're in town, drop in and let us tell you more about Purina Range Checkers. They're proved right, made right, priced right.

Looking Through The Windows Of Life

By W. H. Marshall

More than three centuries ago a Pilgrim colony reached the shores of America. They had wandered far and given much to obtain freedom of conscience. In the generations that followed, the heroic achievements of this nation have justified the sacrifices of the early Fathers and all the patriots who have followed them. Through divine Providence truth-loving men and women have reared a nation mighty and respected in all the world-a land of plenty and a land that has a future as well as a past. If, this day, and in this land, there be those who are discontented, such discontent is of man's own devising and comes not of the Lord. The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof, and of that fullness men may be partakers only insofar as they give obedience to the laws of righteousness. There is at hand a fullness of things spiritual and things material if we will but set our houses in order and prepare ourselves for the enjoyment of all good things which life holds for those who live faithfully and well.

May we speak of one of those things for which all the thankfulness we have is yet not adequate-thankfulness that our fathers kept faith with us and counted no sacrifice too great to bequeath their children a right to freedom in a free land. There were many things they could not achieve in their day, but they did not destroy the future by any unwillingness to meet and to solve and to pay for their own problems and perplexities. We have learned one of the greatest lessons of life when we learn to live not only for ourselves but also for those who follow. Some of the greatest satisfactions men ever achieve, come not directly to them, but to their children. Those things which we would have liked for ourselves and which we have reached for but fallen short of, we often realize with greater joy by making it possible for our children to achieve them.

And a man has never known one of the greatest compensations in life until he has had the surpassing vicarious experience of seeing himself and his plans projected into the next generation. That is how the race was builded. That is how civilization has grown-by the debt each generation pays to those who have gone before. And so we are grateful that our fathers kept faith with us, and we ask for strength and wisdom of foresight to pass on to our children and our children's children a free and unfettered heritage, unburdened by any compromising ways of ours.

Let us be thankful that we are alive and in good health. Too, if we have been blessed with health and material things, let us be thankful for the opportunity to share our blessings with others.

There is too much selfish living on the part of many people. We never visit or care for the sick; we never have time to spend with those in trouble or sorrow. What are we living for? Do we have no obligations to others? How can we spend so much time on ourselves with no thought of doing for others who need us?

Surely our day calls for men and women of great heart, of great appreciation and of great courage.

God bless our people and our nation!

Most of the window panes in the building were broken and doors from rooms on the west side were blown about 30 feet from the building. The two -story rock structure built in 1891 was damaged once before when the tornado of 1927 tore off the roof and blew out the windows.

Cadillac

Surpasses its Own Great Reputation!

You're looking at a mighty surprised man.

Almost all of his adult life he has owned and driven Cadillac cars. And so, when he decided to take an hour out from his busy schedule to see and drive the new 1957 Cadillac, he thought he knew about what to expect.

Well, here he is—barely under way in the city—and already he is learning the startling truth.

He is learning that nothing could adequately prepare a man for the new "car of cars"—not even Cadillac ownership itself!

He suspected it, in fact, the instant he stepped into the showroom and caught his first glimpse of this newest Cadillac creation. This was an entirely new kind of Cadillac beauty—brilliantly fresh in line and in contour.

And then he opened the door and swung into the driver's seat—and found added evidence all around him. On every side were new miracles of interior beauty and comfort and convenience.

And when he turned the key and put his foot on the accelerator, his sentiment grew to conviction. The car was incredibly nimble and quiet and smooth of ride.

Surprised, did we say? Just wait until he hits the open highway and receives the final verdict.

No question about it—this is the Cadillac that literally surpasses its own great reputation!

* * * *

We suggest that you come in soon to see and drive this most surprising new Cadillac in fifty-four years. It's an experience you shouldn't postpone—and one you'll not soon forget.

Texas Cattlemen Lean Toward Free Enterprise

Faith in what we are doing and confidence in our ability to do it are two prime requisites for success in any endeavor or enterprise, whether undertaken individually or as a group.

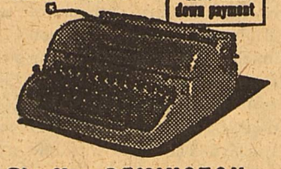

Long hailed as strong believer in this positive philosophy-expressed in the story of the little freight locomotive, pulling up a long grade, panting, "I know I can, I know I can," -are the rugged, hard-working individualists who make up the Texas cattle industry.

Several years ago, the cattlemen, concerned over beef surpluses, nettled by talk of price supports and subsidies and angered by proposed federal buying programs, gathered together and decided to tackle their problems in the good American free-enterprise way. The cowmen decided they didn't believe there was over-production of beef-just under-consumption. Banding together under the banner of the Texas Beef Council, the industry set out to persuade Texans to eat more beef.

Pausing this week to observe "Beef Week in Texas" -the third such state-wide event to be proclaimed by the Governor-cattlemen are pointing to a recent survey of meat retailers strongly indicating Texans tend to agree with the Council's widely-circulated slogan, "Texans Eat Beef EVERY DAY." Over 700 stores contacted report Texans are purchasing 16 per cent more beef this year than last, when we ate 17 per cent more than in 1954.

Equally important is a second survey which points out that overall meat production during the next few months will just about equal demand. This is good news for everybody. It means the consumer gets a price break and the cow folk are building a stable, year-round market for their product.

Sonora, Eldorado Ministers Observe Conservation Practices At Station 14

By E. B. Keng

A group of ministers from Eldorado and Sonora visited the Experiment Station Monday to obtain first hand information on soil, water and plant conservation problems.

The sonora ministers included Rev. Alanson Brown, St. John's Episcopal Church; and Rev. W. H. Marshall, First Methodist Church. Eldorado ministers included Rev. Russel Heaner, First Methodist Church; Rev. James Spencer, First Presbyterian Church; Rev. J. C. Hancock, First Baptist Church; and Rev. Harralson, Congregational Methodist Church. The Eldorado ministers were accompanied by Bill Rountree, SCS; W. C. Godwin, County Agent; and A. G. Burk, Vocational Agriculture teacher. Gary Douer, forester from Haifa, Israel, who was studying range management on the Station, accompanied the group, also.

The group observed the range management experiments conducted by Leo Merrill, range specialist during the past seven years. One of the outstanding observations was the effect of different types of stewardship or management on vegetation, bearing out the fact that most effects of drought are man made rather than of Divine origin.

For example, in a pasture stocked continuously during the past seven years with 48 animal units of sheep per section, the group saw evidences of drought at its worst. Bare soils, weak and dying vegetation, bitterweed, and soil erosion reflected seven years of extreme drought. In another series of four pastures, stocked at 32 animal units of sheep, goats and cattle per section during the past seven years, the group saw comparatively little evidence of drought. An abundant stand of choice grasses and forbs have lived through the drought and produced sufficient growth to feed the 32 units of livestock per section, plus adequate cover left to protect the soil and hold the rainfall.

The difference in the two systems is unbelievable and the group agreed that more ministers as well as ranchmen should see the work. Gary Douer observed that we have "aged" our country during the past 50-80 years almost as much as the Israeli's have during the past 4-5,000 years. He added, however, that we still have seed sources of our better plants and can make a quick recovery through proper management. The Middle East civilization has so thoroughly destroyed the plant cover, and induced erosion, that recovery will be exceedingly slow and expensive.

The group saw convincing evidence that conservation of our natural resources is closely allied to man's stewardship of the land and involves management of God's Creation. Douer pointed out that in looking at his country the briefness of one man's life became more evident, and the necessity of preserving resources to sustain future generation. The group agreed that conservation must become a way of life, and that stewardship of the land involves far more than quick monetary returns. Merrill pointed out that the conservation problem is too big for conservation agencies alone, and that the influence of Churches and all the people would be necessary in the ultimate solution of the problem.

Backstage With "The Savage"

By Shannon Ratliff

This week has been full of interesting incidents backstage. Working energetically on flats, Pat Garrett stopped suddenly and walked quietly over to Mr. Robbins. Calmly but urgently she said, "Mr. Robbins, will you please remove this tack?" Turning around, Mr. Robbins saw Pat's thumb extended toward him. Driven neatly and well in the center of her nail was the tack meant for the flat. Mr. Robbins removed the tack gingerly for it seemed to be driven almost to the bone. "Thanks," Pat said and went right back to work.

Following one of the night practices a group of girls ganged up in one car and headed for Casey's. When Vicki Archer returned to the school she found a note on the steering wheel of her car which said, "Practice in the morning at 7:00. Mr. Robbins" Sleepily she made it right on time the next morning. Apparently everyone else was late. It seems Roger Fawcett had called Vicki to a solo rehearsal. Not Mr. Robbins.

Seriously, these two incidents show just how diligently and willingly the Seniors are giving their efforts to the play. What's a little blood-or the loss of that extra shuteye?

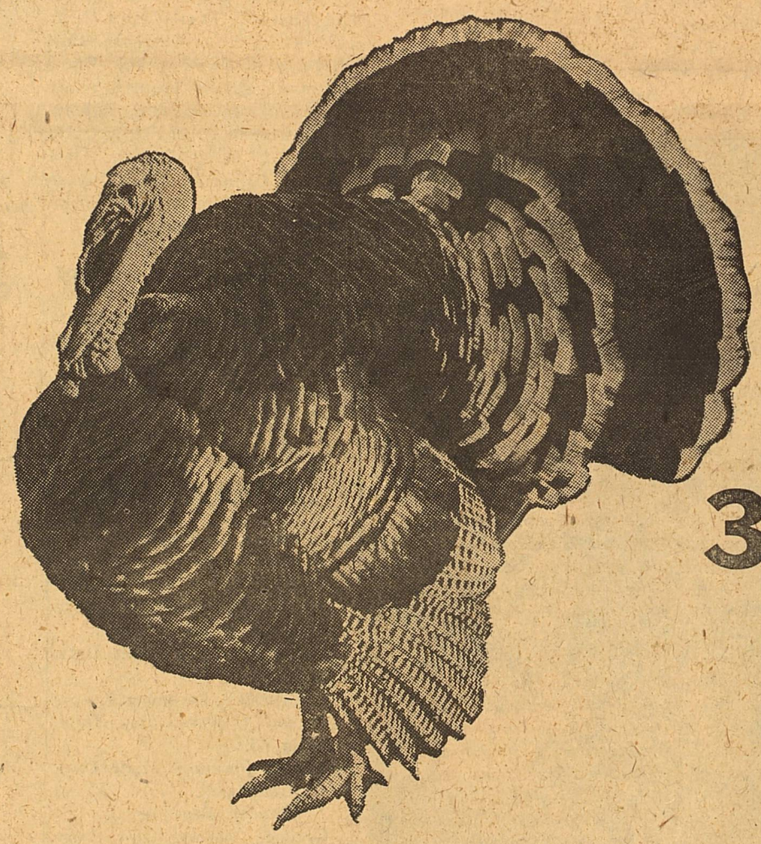

The walls of the set have been completed and put into place. We believe this to be the most beautiful set yet erected for a Sonora dramatic production. The new "raked" stage has worked out well and has added lively interest to the play.

It appears that the Broncos are determined to play ball right up to Christmas. If they do, the play will have to be postponed. However, if this is necessary, we will include such a notice in this column.

Until next week-that's all from the "Savage."

Meet the magic of the new kind of Ford!

An Action Test will show you that Ford's newness just begins with its longer, lower, wider beauty. It's a completely new car—right from the wheels up!

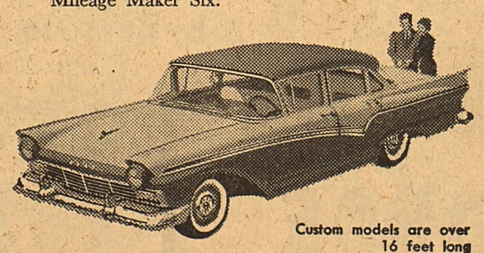

Out on the open road, Ford's magic really takes over! Ordinary stretches of road become special. In fact, every trip's a treat. And it's no wonder, with the all-new "Inner Ford" melting the miles. The revolutionary new frame, for example, is a full foot wider at the center. You ride lower, with more inside room : : : full road clearance.

And this longest of all low-priced cars is a cinch to handle! With a lower center of gravity, wider rear tread and new easier steering, even tight turns and rutted roads come easy.

And talk about "big-car power"! This new kind of Ford offers you your choice of Silver Anniversary V-8's with a wide range of horsepower to suit every need.* Or if you prefer, you may choose the world's most modern "Six" : : : the new Ford Mileage Maker Six.

The new Ford is easier to enter—roomier than ever

Custom models are over 16 feet long

*A special 270-hp. Thunderbird 312 Super V-8 engine available at extra cost. Also, extra-high-performance Thunderbird 312 Super V-8 engine delivering up to 285 hp.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

The Kid's Learned to "Take Charge"

I was down at Buck Benson's store the other day when a fellow came in with a six-year-old boy—obviously his son.

While the fellow was looking over some stuff on the counter, Buck handed a free peppermint stick to the boy, who promptly tore off the wrapper and went to work on it.

The father seemed quite put out about his son's lack of manners and held up his hand to stop him. "What do we say when Mr. Benson gives us something?" he demanded. "Charge it," replied the kid without hesitation.

From where I sit, children aren't the only ones who "repeat things" without knowing what they're talking about. For instance, I'm convinced that many of those who speak out against the old American custom of enjoying a glass of beer after work are just parroting what they've heard others say. It's better to get the facts—then make up our own minds—and permit our neighbors to do the same.

may not be approved on acreage set aside under a contract of less than five years.

2. The producer must comply with acreage allotments for the duration of the contract. 3. The acreage of soil bank crops on the farm must not exceed the permitted acreage for the duration of the contract.

4. Beginning January 1 of the first year of the contract, no crops may be harvested from the conservation reserve acreage for the duration of the contract, except wild life such as wild game, fish, native berries, etc. which do not increase supplies of food for domestic animals, and timber in accordance with sound forestry management, as authorized by the county committee.

5. Beginning January 1 of the first year of the contract, the conservation reserve must not be grazed for the duration of the contract, except by special authorization by the Secretary of Agriculture. 6. The acres set aside under the Conservation Reserve Contract must be planted to a vegetative cover crop (or maintained if established) as set up in the Conservation Reserve Handbook.

Band Boosters Tend Store To Buy Instruments

With the 1956 football season drawing to a close it is fitting and proper to pay tribute to a seldom-heralded organization- officially known as the Sonora Band Boosters Club. The group is composed of parents of band members, and is organized to provide financial and other help to the Sonora Bronco Band.

Bands are expensive to operate. Instruments are expensive, and new horns or drums must continually be added to keep our band improving.

The Band Boosters Club operates the two concession stands at the football field, and profits are used for the benefit of the band. In 1955 the Club paid $1,000 on the new band uniforms, and purchased a new French horn. The Club recently contributed $600 to the School to buy a bass trombone and base saxophone. More instruments are needed, and your support at the concession stands will benefit a good cause.

Few people realize the amount of work that must be done before game time to have the concession stands in smooth working order for the game. Drinks must be bought and iced, coffee and hot dogs made, and countless other time consuming chores. Earl Smith, current Club president, deserves outstanding credit for his work in preparing concession stands before game time. Ted Letsinger, Hix Hall, W. T. Hardy, Carl Harris and E. B. Keng are often present to lend a hand. Hix Hall donates popcorn, oil and sacks to the Club. Local merchants sell chile, hot dogs, etc., to the Club at cost.

Superintend E. A. Brodhead has been very cooperative with the Band Parents Club. In addition to making the concession stands available to the band, he and school employees have cleaned the concession stands after each game.

Parents of the band members work in the stands during games, without charge. It is quite a sacrifice to miss a ball game, besides contributing several hours of hard work.

The bi-district game, members of the Club's telephone committee: Hix Hall, J. M. Vander Stucken, Stanley Mayfield, W. T. Hardy, Louis Davis and Lem Eril Johnson- each contributed $5.00 to hire help to work in the stands. The band is small this year and all band parents have worked in previous games- some have worked twice. The Club appreciates the support of all who have helped in the concession stands, and who have helped support the band. Sonora people are proud of the fine showing the band is making.

Present Band Booster Club officers include Earl Smith, president; Mrs. W. T. Hardy, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Ted Letsinger, 2nd vice-president and E. B. Keng, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. W. H. Dameron spent last weekend in San Antonio visiting her son-in-law and daughter and grandson, Mr. and Mrs. John Murray and John Green, Jr.
