Fatal Car

This is the car J. Roy Sprött, 16, was driving when he was fatally injured Thursday afternoon. The car flipped over once, and landed in the position shown. The fatal wreck happened about 5 miles south of Colorado City on a dirt-and caliche surfaced road leading to Seven Wells. Two 13 year-old youths, who were riding in the back seat of the vehicle, were injured, but not seriously. They were going fishing.

SCREWWORM PROBLEM ATTACKED

County Said To Benefit From Sterile Fly Release

Sterile screwworm flies will be released in Mitchell County at the present time. Francis Winn, county chairman of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, said Friday that Mitchell County has not experienced a large number of screwworm infestations in livestock this year.

However, he said county livestock producers have already benefited from fly release in South Texas, and "the real payoff will come with final eradication."

Flies are now being released within a 60,000 square mile area in Texas, plus a 7,000 square mile area in southern New Mexico. This is below a line that runs from Del Rio northeast to Coahoma, east to Comanche, and southeast to Fort O'Connor.

"Producers funds are being used for eradication of this pest that has cost Texas producers $100 million a year, not for a temporary control program," Winn said.

"In order to free Texas of screwworms, cold weather must do the job outside the overwintering area of Texas and a concentrated release of sterile flies must do the job within the overwintering area, completed with the artificial barrier made up of sterile fly release astride the U. S. — Mexican border, and control

"Once screwworms have been eradicated from the overwintering area and the winter kills them back below this line," he added, "there will be no spread into Mitchell County. Eradication will come quicker and cheaper through this plan."

Winn said county livestock producers are already dollars ahead because their contributions made it possible to get the program underway last spring, and to complete the sterile fly plant at Mission

Funeral services for J. Roy Sprött, 16, were at Oak Street Baptist Church Friday at 2 p. m.

Sprött was killed in an automobile accident Thursday afternoon near Colorado City.

Sprött was born in Runnels County, January 24, 1946. He came to Colorado City with his parents about 7 years ago. A star athlete in Colorado City Junior High School, he would have been a high school freshman this fall. He had been employed part time at Safeway grocery here. Sprött was a member of the Oak Street Baptist Church.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sprött of Colorado City, two sisters, Carolyn and Linda Gay Sprött, both of Midland, his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Tountet, of Ballinger, and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. J. L. Martin, of Cameron.

Rev. E. V. Brooks officiated. See SPROTT Pg. 7

Sight-Seeing Suitor Blinded by $100 Fine

Lack of a name cost a Colorado City man $100 Friday. He wanted a date with a local lady. But he didn't know her last name. He told police that he had seen the lady with no name once before—had given her a ride.

The man told police he knew the general area in town where "Miss X" lived, but not the exact address.

So he went to the area, and began to look in windows. Someone called the police, who took the frustrated suitor downtown.

He was charged with window-peeping. Police said the lady confirmed the prior meeting. Corporation Court Judge J. D. Jones fined the man $100 anyway, but police said Saturday that wasn't too bad—he could have been fined $200.

CITY HAS .30 INCH RAIN

High Winds, Hail and Rain Batter Parts of County

The weather played hopscotch over Mitchell County this week, leaving crop and property damage in the wake of high winds, and hail and depositing some rain.

High winds and hail in the Seven Wells area Thursday afternoon caused heavy damage to 300 acres of cotton on the C. E. Welch farm.

Not far distant from the Welch farm, the Dewey A. Turner farm received no hail and no crop damage.

Turner said Saturday that high winds ripped the roof from his carport, heavily damaged a trailer, and blew water through louvers in his home. He said the wind through the rain "through the vents and across three rooms."

About 1/2 inch of rain fell at Turner's farm Friday night.

J. E. Tiller, who farms near Seven Wells community, said the Thursday winds and hail caused some damage to his crop. His barn near the Champion Creek Lake was uprooted.

He estimated the winds' velocity at 75 to 80 miles per hour, in gusts. "I have seen winds that high in the Guadalupe mountains, and some of the gusts Thursday were at least that," Tiller said.

Chicken houses were ripped apart and scattered over the south of Colorado City. Several 5-bale capacity cotton trailers were blown over and heavily damaged by the winds, Lindsey said. There was no crop damage, though.

A barn was unroofed, and cotton was damaged by the winds on the Ed Roach farm near the Texas Electric power plant southwest of the city. Loraine received 4 inch rain.

Thursday afternoon, but escaped the winds, as did Colorado City.

City Manager Earl Keaton reported Friday that the concession stand at Champion Creek Lake was damaged by high winds Thursday. He said the roof was damaged and the

Vacation's End — School Open Soon

Summer is almost over. Schools will open for the 1962-3 school year this month. Superintendent of the Colorado City Independent School District Frank Wilson said Saturday that the first full day of classes for all Colorado City schools will be August 29.

Buses will make their regular runs, the school cafeteria will be open, and sunbathers will slowly begin to fade. But the fun begins August 15. That's the first day for the final registration checkup for junior and senior high school students.

High school seniors and freshmen will register the 15th. Seniors in the high school and freshmen in junior high.

High school juniors, and eighth-graders, will register August 16, in their respective buildings. Sophomores, and seventh-graders, will register August 17, again in the proper buildings.

All registration will be on a "come-and-go" basis — no school that day.

Job to Take Two Weeks

Construction will begin this week on resurfacing of Highway 80 — 2nd St. — from one mile east of Colorado City through the downtown district to the west city limits.

That's the report from Ben R. Wilkinson, resident Texas highway engineer.

The project is tentatively set to begin Tuesday. Wilkinson estimated paving will be completed within two weeks, although several factors could delay the work, wet weather being the most likely.

Plans were made at a Friday morning meeting between highway officials, contractor, and city officials, on the steps each would take in the paving.

V. L. Montgomery, project manager for Collins Construction Co., said his plans are to level a stretch of the road on the east end of the city, and then begin to prepare for paving in strips, on one side of the road at a time.

He said the paving could be done with traffic still moving over the road, although parking would have to be restricted at certain times in order to allow traffic to flow around the strips under construction.

City Manager Earl Keaton, and Leon Yeager, chief of police here, agreed that construction with moving traffic would be the most feasible.

All agreed that moveable barricades and flagmen would be sufficient safeguard for construction with traffic. Traffic lights in the downtown area will remain on during construction, but an intersection being paved will be controlled by flagmen during construction.

Montgomery said he would have flagmen placed at either end of the city during the process.

Wilkinson estimated that the Interstate 20 construction, including the 2nd st. paving, should be completed by early November.

CITY MEN RETURNING

National Guard Unit Due Home Tuesday

Colorado City's National Guard unit will be home Tuesday.

That's the report from Msgr. Earl D. Taylor, who arrived here Wednesday to reopen the armory.

The unit, Battery A, 3rd Reconnaissance Battalion, 132nd Artillery, has been on active duty at Fort Polk, La., since last October 20. It was only one of many Texas National Guard units in the 49th Armored Division recalled to active status during the 1960 Berlin crisis.

Taylor said that the group will not return together. Most of the men will arrive at Big Spring, as part of a convoy Tuesday afternoon, where a celebration will be held.

Members of the group will arrive here by private automobile, at different times. Two of the men will arrive a week late, as they are part of the rear guard of the returning units.

The 14 local guardsmen are: 1st Sgt. Roy E. Sweatt, Msgr. Earl D. Taylor, Sgt. Joe L. Clark, Sgt. Bud Windham, Sgt. Donald Eile, Cpl. Perry Mitchell, Cpl. Bud Hart, Sp4 Lloyd Mitchem, Sp4 Jerry Cannon, Sgt. Fred McDowell, Sp4 Larry Curberton, P.F.C. Jimmy Browne, P.F.C. Gerald McCannon, and P.F.C. Floyd Vanehey.

Major General Harley B. West, commander of the 49th Division, recently said that the returning men should be shown appreciation by their neighbors for the service they rendered, the time spent away from their work and families, "during a national crisis."

The 4,000 individual reservists who were recalled to active duty to bolster the division's strength were released concurrently.

Local Group Returns From Tyler

HOME TOWN

Talk

By PEGGY BELVIN

CAN HARDLY WAIT to meet the new foreign exchange student when she makes her appearance here next week. MISS SURAIYA AKHTAR, a 16-year-old student from PAKISTAN, will begin her studies here in Colorado City High School at the beginning of the fall term.

Our first foreign exchange student, THORUNN JONSS-ODOTTIR KJERULF, of ICELAND, proved to be quite an ambassador of good will to our town from hers. She taught the local youngsters more about her native country and city than they could ever learn from a geography book and she learned more about ours to teach in turn to the natives of her country.

NATIVES OF FOREIGN COUNTRIES offer endless subjects for conversation. Met and talked with a foreign student of the US Air Force recently from Berlin, Germany.

One of his most awesome discoveries when he reached this country was that the American women did not age nearly so quickly as the women in his country. As if by some magic, they stayed youthful-looking and vigorous much longer.

Now what true blue female citizen of America would tell an unsuspecting foreign gentleman that a great deal of the magic of the American woman's beauty and youthfulness came from frilly pink jars?

The foreign-born student pilot continued to say that his commanding officer and his wife were parents of a teen-aged girl. Yet, you could hardly tell which was the mother and which was the daughter.

"But I have found a sure-fire way to tell the young from the not-so-young women in America. Always look at their socks. . . American school girls all wear white socks.

Poor man . . . we hadn't the heart to tell him that American women from 6 to 60 sometimes wear bobby socks.

Males deserve to be duped when it comes to women's ages. It should teach them not to try to figure out if a woman is past her teen-aged years, into her twenties, past her thirties or knocking on the door of her forties.

Women's ages are their most closely-guarded secrets. Young girls want to hurry and grow into women and women want to disguise themselves as young girls. So, from the age of 13 to 18, a girl is always 18; from 18 to 21, a girl is always 21.

But when a girl passes that 21st birthday, it's high time she slowed down a bit. So, for every three birthdays after her 21st, only 1 year is added to her age.

This is the secret of the American woman's age problems. She loses so many birthdays between the ages of 21 and 41, that by the time she is 41, she has convinced everyone that she is 28. To keep up this disguise of age, she must work rigorously on beauty programs, exercise and cosmetic experiences. She works at ways to make her look younger and prettier, she grooms herself to look younger and prettier and . . . woe and behold, she does look younger and prettier . . .

In this country of ours, the proverbial land of milk and honey, so long as a woman looks young, feels young and lives young . . . and for as long as she can convince people that she's young, a woman IS young . . .

Almost an Orchid

This iris is a gorgeous flower, so beautiful that one feels that it is almost an orchid. But on the flower market the iris brings no premium; it is no substitute for an orchid. There are substitutes for many things in life, but as there is none for the orchid, just so is there none for Christianity. Only the real thing gives life and that abundantly. Go to Church this week and partake of the blessing God offers to you.

Is something wrong with your life—an inner restless dissatisfaction? The answer to every human problem comes only from God our Maker. He alone can forgive and reassure.
Through the church God has committed the provision and proclamation of His forgiveness and redeeming love. Without a church relation no one is securely related to God.

Powledge, Morris Married In Double-Ring Ceremony

Double-ring rit read Friday night at 7 o'clock in the First Methodist Church in Midland United Miss Jane Ellie Powledge and Russell Leonard Morris marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Powledge, 1111 W. Illinois St. in Midland and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Morris, 30 W. 4th St., Colorado City.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Timothy Cutler before an altar flanked on either side by baskets of gladioli and mums and candelabra with nine green candles.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned of white silk organza over tulle. Tiny pearls and sequins trimmed the lace bateau neckline of the bodice which buttoned down the back from a deep V. The sleeves were bracelet length. The off-the-shoulder skirt fell in a short sweeping train held by a double row at the waist. A cloud of illusion veil fell from a Juliet hat with dainty scallops of lace and silk organza, jeweled to match the neckline of the dress. The bride's bouquet was a group of showy white roses surrounding a white orchid. The bouquet was tied with long white satin streamers.

Wedding music was furnished by Camella Morrison, soloist from Midland. She sang "Wedding Prayer" and "Oh, Perfect Love" accompanied by George DeHart at the organ.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Wayne Fogle of Midland, sister of the bride. She wore a dress fashioned of sheer organza over tulle in a light green. A princess bodice with bracelet length sleeves was tailored from a waistline bow. A full skirt of unpressed pleats was cut to a flat front. Maid of honor was Miss Jan Elise of Littlefield. She wore an ensemble identical to that of the matron of honor.

Members of the house party were Mrs. Judy Uhrig of Midland, Miss Nancy Sewell of Midland and Mrs. S. L. Morris of Snyder, sister-in-law of the groom.

The registry table was clothed with a white cover and was centered with the bride's book. Mrs. Shelly Harper of Lubbock presided at the registry.

For a short honeymoon trip, the bride chose a navy-blue tuxedo ensemble. The sheath dress was fashioned with a rounded neckline and sleeveless bodice. The tuxedo coat was styled with a rounded neckline and 3/4 length sleeves. She wore white accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Church Ceremonies Unite Miss Stone, Lary Sullivan

Rites read in the First Methodist Church in Westbrook Saturday night at 7 o'clock united Miss Carroll Ann Stone and Rev. Lary Lee Sullivan in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stone, Route 2, Westbrook, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Budd Sullivan of Midland.

The double-ring rites were read by Rev. Tommie Beck, of Trent before an arch covered with greenery and flanked with baskets of white gladioli on either side.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown styled with a fitted bodice which tapered to a point just below the front waist. The neckline was scalloped in front and dipped to a V in back. The long fitted sleeves tapered to points above her wrists.

The fitted bodice was overlaid with white Alencon lace and a matching panel fell down the front of the floor-length skirt. White tulle flares bellied over the skirt from each side of the panel. Her shoulder-length veil cascaded from a white satin head piece.

The bridal bouquet was an arrangement of white palms with long white satin streamers atop a white Bible that was a gift of the bride's sister.

Donna Bryant, soloist, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because," accompanied by Vickie Jarratt at the piano.

Patsy Rees of Westbrook was maid of honor. She wore a dress fashioned of mint-green antique taffeta. The full street-length skirt fell from a fitted bodice with a bateau neckline and 3/4 length sleeves. She carried a bouquet of white palms. Gene Bruce of Abilene was best man.

Laveria Sullivan of Westbrook and Buenger Dickson of McCamey were ushers.

A reception following the wedding was conducted in Fellowship Hall of the church. A white wedding cake was served with punch from crystal and silver appointments.

An arrangement of white gladioli centered the table.

Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Anita Lea, sister-in-law of the bride and Mrs. Wanda Smith and Mrs. Carla Foster, sisters of the bride. For a wedding trip to San Angelo, the bride chose a 3-piece yellow ensemble accented with black patent accessories.

The bride will be a senior student at Westbrook High School this fall. The groom is a senior student at McMurry College in Abilene, where he is a member of Kiva Fraternity. He is minister of the First Methodist Church in Westbrook. The couple will reside in Westbrook.

OF COUNCIL OF CHURCH WOMEN

District President Speaks At Meet

Mrs. Norman C. Conner of Abilene, district president of the United Church Women, was guest speaker at the Monday meeting of the United Council of Church Women at the parish house of the All Saints Episcopal Church.

The meeting was opened by prayer led by Rev. Rush Barnett.

Mrs. Conner spoke on the subject, "Projects of Councils Throughout the District." She closed her speech with a solo, "I May Not Pass Again This Way."

During the business session, the members voted to thoroughly investigate the possibilities of organizing a day-nursery available to all working mothers. Also this year, a canning program will be organized. This program will prepare the surplus of armer's vegetables and melons for distribution to the needy. Another project is organized visitation to the city rest homes.

Plans are in progress for a welcome center downtown for migrants and braceros.

Mrs. Frances Gary is chairman for the visitation project. Other chairmen will be announced later.

The meeting was closed with prayer led by Alan Conley, vicar of the All Saints Episcopal Church. The women of the host church served coffee to those present from a table clothed with a white lace cover. The centerpiece was an arrangement of red and white zinnias. Other decorations used were modern arrangements of grasses. Conley led a tour through the church after the refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. D. White, chairman for Rural Community Day, presented a report on the meeting to be conducted October 29 at the First Methodist Church. She listed projects for the meeting. Members are asked to bring sewing kits, fabrics, saris, blouses or cash. These will all be sent to Church World Service to be distributed in Southeast Asia.

CROWN BOWL TIPS

By Lonnie Bounds

Urge to Murder

Many bowlers have the urge to murder the pins, under the illusion that throwing an extremely fast ball will "mix" the pins up resulting in more strikes.

Actually, a medium or medium-fast ball is far better than a mixer. It is better for two reasons:

• For one, you have better control over your ball with a slower speed. After all, control and timing are the chief factors in good scoring.

• Second, you won't tire nearly as fast. Keeping cool and calm will allow you to bowl several good games in one evening, while a murdering-the-pins ball may limit your games to one or less than one.

CONVERSATION CORNER

By RUTH COFFEY

THINGS HAVE COME to a pretty pass here and there across the globe. The National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) trial examiner, William Seagle, ruled this week against the downtrodden. He ruled that it's all right for an employer to fire a woman employee who "loafs on the job, then sticks her tongue out at her boss behind his back."

If his back was properly turned, just how did he know the gal was making faces at him?

AND SOME literally-minded expert has announced that by 1970 we can all go to the moon and back for about $10,000,000 for each return-trip ticket.

With ten million dollars, who's gonna need the moon? People with that much cash on hand must be out of this world, already.

AND IN ENGLAND, some London news commentators made snide remarks about reports in the British press that Mrs. Kennedy went water skiing with Col. John Glenn. Seat-of-the-scorers objection was the fact that our lovely Jackie was having a very gay time swooshing around in her bathing suit.

What was she supposed to wear water-skiing? Boots and English tailored riding habit?

DON'T KNOW about the rest of y'all, but we, personally, have never quite trusted people who are always being "shocked" at other people.

Cite only the hilarious fact that the pride of Clyde and the peril of Pecos, one B. S. Estes, has always been so full of virtue that he's self-righteously "horrified" by "mixed bathing" even among children.

"Course it's only natural that he'd be first to take a strong stand against exposure."

LONG AS there are children, though, life can continue to be an adventure blessed with gay, amusing, endearing spots. Like the other day when Jay Burney spotted that sign near the reception desk in Bridgford Clinic.

Jay, son of the Sid Burneys of Silver, is eight and a beginning reader. "All professional services cash," he read out loud with help from his mother when he got to the fancy word "professional."

"Unless other arrangements are made in advance," he finished with some aid on "arrangements."

"Mother," he said then, puzzled, "Where in the world is the country called Advance?"

YES, JAY, there is such a country—only it should be called a state. Its capital is widely known as down payment. You can find out how to get there by reading its numerous tricky slogans and sub-titles like travel now, pay later; nothing down, 36 months to pay; credit cards honored; and just say "Charge it!"

"Made in advance" sounds a lot like "Made in Japan," of course. The main difference is that "Arrangements made in advance" is actually an American slang term for "Sign on the dotted line."

OUR DENTAL CLINIC, by the way, is minus the flashing smile and camaraderie of Dr. H. Jene Steakley for about 10 days. Jene, his beautiful wife Bobbie, and their three sons, Topper, Rusty, and Dan departed Friday of this week for a vacation trip by car. They'll see Mount Rushmore in South Dakota, then cut back by Wyoming's Grand Tetons, Yellowstone National Park, and make the return drive through the mountains of Colorado.

PAUL BOYD HUNTER, his ranch-reared wife Dortha (Merket)—their daughter Debbie, and son Glenn, left Friday for Colorado, too. They'll be guests of friends at Mancus, Colorado, which is about 45 miles northwest of Durango. Their Mancus friends and hosts own a ranch. That figures. Or have you forgotten how Dortha of the China Grove Merkets used to shine at Frontier Round-up time when she rode in parades and barrel races?

THURSDAY, was take-off day for Henry and Luna Bilberry who are headed for San Francisco. They'll meet younger daughter Judy in Frisco August 7, next Tuesday. Judy's just completed six weeks of summer study and fun at University of Hawaii. The Bilberys will then drive to Seattle to visit the World's Fair. They'll be gone two weeks.

HERE as guests in the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dockrey, 504 Chestnut, is the former Mary Ethel Dockrey, her husband H. D. Garrett and their sons of Pasadena (Texas). Mary-Ethel's a '42 CCHS grad, completed Texas University, and did graduate work at the University of Maryland. Her husband teaches in the Business Administration school at the University of Houston. Their sons are David, 7, Mark, 5, and Stephen, who is two.

SUNDAY, that's today, is the day Addie V. Payne (Mrs. James E.) drives to Dallas with our band twirlers who'll attend the five-day twirling school at S. M. U. CCHS twirlers going with her are Janie Lee, Jan Williams, Jodie (Arla Jo) Payne, Helen May, and Terry Myers. Addie V. plans to take the group to see Kaye Ballard in that Big D summer musical "Gypsy." They'll return here next Saturday.

THAT REMINDS us to tell you about the Girls' Combo. All summer, the combo-for-fun has been having practice and jam sessions at the Payne house with Mrs. Payne as director. Last Sunday the Combo played at Big Spring for the patients at the State Hospital, and this past Tuesday they entertained for Kiwanis Club.

Members are Mary Ann Montgomery, piano; Jeanie Wood, flute; Debbie Hunter, clarinet; Dona Hammond, alto saxophone; Linda Ross, tenor sax; Jan Williams, string bass; and Jodie Payne, on the drums. Sounds like a catchy combination for a combo.

RONALD WALLACE, I-C-3 USN, is to be here visiting his parents Rip and Mollie Lou Wallace (nee Rice) while his ship the Hyades is drydocked in Brooklyn. His home port is Norfolk, Va. . . . Mollie's sister Mary and her husband R. J. Lloyd visited his relatives in California the early part of July. . . . And a glad little letter from Comanche says, among other things, that the John Hayes Reeses and Bob Price, of Lubbock spent their vacation together in Colorado. Letter was from Mary Reese, former C. Citian, who sounds—busy, happy, and Comanche-civil-minded.

Round 'n round all this traveling goes—Time enough to stay home, the first time it snows.

Baptist Youth Study At Retreat

A group of young people from the First Baptist Church here left last Saturday afternoon for the Youth Retreat at Baptist Encampment near Stanton.

The group returned yesterday (Saturday). Bible study, worship services, Bible panels and recreation was on the agenda of the encampment activities.

The church's summer youth director, Ty Morris, a student of Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, accompanied the group.

Members of the youth department who made the trip were Jimmie Louise James, Judy Carter, Meredith Moore, Judy Wood, Lynn Gray, Wayland Moore and Winston Smith.

Longleys Visit Relatives Here

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Longley of Dallas visited his aunts, Mrs. Claudia Longley and Mrs. J. C. Hooker, 638 Elm St., Wednesday.

The family was enroute to Andrews to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Longley and family and also to tour the Carlsbad Caverns.

Church Circle Conducts Meeting Here

The Arnette-Wulfjen Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church met Wednesday morning in Fellowship Hall of the church. Mrs. J. Ed Richardson, chairman, presided at the meeting.

Devotion was presented by Mrs. Richardson. Mmes. A. A. Herrington and Lon Strain presented the program, "Making A Living Witness."

It was reported that 17 shut-in visits had been made. The meeting was closed with the members repeating "The Lord's Prayer" in unison.

Those present were: Mmes. Joe Armstrong, Sam Armstrong, Ross Hargrove, C. G. Harkins, Herrington, Richardson and Strain.

Next meeting will be Sept. 5 in Fellowship Hall of the church.

C-CITY CALLED "WONDERFUL TOWN"

City Residents Aiding Injured Midland Woman

Colorado City residents are coming to the aid of a critically injured Midland woman here. Mrs. Rosa Nadine Wofford, who was seriously injured in a traffic accident near Colorado City 12 days ago, is the object of the support.

Mrs. Wofford's neck was broken in two places. She also received broken ribs and other injuries in the wreck.

She is required to have special nurses at her bedside in Root Memorial Hospital at all times, and has received large amounts of medication, according to hospital officials. She is in traction, and still is considered to be in quite serious condition.

According to Martin Weaver, business manager of the hospital, Mrs. Wofford, a divorcee, has no insurance of any kind. She had been selling cosmetics before the accident.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jones, of Tyler, have been with her since shortly after the accident. Mr. Jones, a concrete contractor, has been out of work for three months. He has worked three days at the construction site of the Root Nursing Home, according to Charles Root, hospital administrator.

BEGIN AUGUST 13

Wolf Band To Begin Practice Sessions

High School Band rehearsals begin Monday, August 13, according to Dwight Tomb, Wolf Band director.

The rehearsals, initiated in anticipation of the football season, will be from 8 o'clock to 10 o'clock a. m.

Tomb said Saturday "all handsmen registered for the Wolf Band this coming year will be present at that time."

The Wolf Band will be more than 100 strong this season.

ahead of schedule. Cold weather will dictate the size of the release area, but officials of this program believe eradication can best be achieved by release of flies in the overwintering area.

Then, Winn said, it may be possible to extend the release area.

Winn said that livestock producers in the county should follow general screwworm management practices.

He said this includes a regular spraying program, observation of all animals, pre-treatment of wounds before infestation, and early and frequent treatment of infested animals.

"Producers should also continue to collect 10 worms from each wound for positive identification," Winn said.

Worms collected should be delivered to the county agent, vocational agriculture teacher, livestock inspector, or mailed direct to Box 969, Mission, Texas.

ing to Charles Root, hospital administrator.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones said Saturday that for the past 3 and one-half years, they have, along with her mother's other three children, been helping to pay for nurses for her 82-year-old mother, who they said requires constant attention.

The Joneses are also caring for Mrs. Wofford's 10-year-old son, Dennis. They are staying at a friend's cabin on Lake Colorado City, when not at the hospital.

Mr. Jones said "the people of Colorado City have been more than nice. I have never seen a town like this - it's a wonderful town."

"We didn't ask for anything. People - complete strangers - just came to us with food, sympathy - some asked us to stay with them."

"We were so afraid of being alone," Mrs. Jones said, "but we weren't from the first day. Hospital patients' families ask us to come live in their homes."

"If I had a million dollars, I'd give it to all these wonderful people."

Tomb said, but will use "only"

95 in marching - the remainder being used as alternates.

The majorities are at a school in Fort Worth this week, Tomb said, but should be back in time to begin practice.

The band director, who teaches more than 300 Colorado City school children in instrumental music every year, said "present enrollment has every indication of being the Wolf Band's greatest season."
