American - Magnesium Plant Dedication Slated Wednesday

The SDN Column

The Texas Historical Survey Committee has announced that another meeting to discuss small museums will be held in mid - March in Fort Worth, and Hugh (Brud) Boren Jr. plans to be there.

"I've been going to these things for months and I hope I am gradually learning something about museums," said Boren, who heads the Scurry County Historical Survey Committee.

A museum is a definite goal of the committee here, but before any proposal is advanced Boren wants to have some specific ideas to present. The meetings of the type planned in Fort Worth are sponsored by the state historical committee as a service to county committees who are interested in establishing museums.

Many small museums have been established in recent years and many big ones have been expanding. The activity of the "big ones" puts pressure on smaller cities and towns who have not yet established their own county or community museums. The big ones usually are regional in scope and they are constantly on the lookout for relics and artifacts of an entire region.

Thus, items that would enhance a local museum often are obtained by the regional museums before the smaller cities are able to provide facilities to preserve their relics and artifacts at home.

Of course the type of exhibits available in the area usually determine the dominant features of the museum. There are a lot of possibilities here. One, which might not be appropriate in all communities, is art. Snyder likely has an above-average number of artists and art enthusiasts for cities of its size, and art shows here have become major attractions. Another one is coming up on March 31 when the Diamond M Foundation will sponsor a show open to all artists (both professionals and amateurs) within a 125-mile radius of Snyder. The Diamond M Amateur Art Show here last fall attracted over 300 entries and thousands of people during a week's run at the Scurry County Coliseum.

Special Drive Slated For Red Cross

Mayor M. L. Broman today proclaimed March as Red Cross Month and urged all residents of Scurry County to support the organization's month-long drive for funds. He reminded local citizens that the Red Cross seeks to raise $1,600 to continue its community services and to contribute its share to National Red Cross programs, and some that are worldwide.

The drive for funds became necessary when the United Fund failed to reach its goal.

Sis Jones, local Red Cross director, said she has received information from General William C. Westmoreland, United States Army Commander in Viet Nam, concerning the role the Red Cross plays.

The general stated:

"Telegrams to servicemen arrive in Vietnam at the rate of about 400 a day. A similar number of messages arrive daily by air mail. Last December, more than 15,000 messages were handled by Red Cross personnel — a number equal to the strength of a division of soldiers.

"Speaking for all commanders here — commanders who are vitally concerned with the morale and welfare of their men — I commend the Red Cross to you for its fine, unselfish and dedicated work. The outstanding performance of the Red Cross in support of our Armed Forces in Vietnam merits the wholehearted support of the American public. The men and women of the Red Cross go where they are needed — and they are needed in Vietnam."

Disorder Blamed On Racism Of Whites

By GAYLORD SHAW
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A presidential commission demands compassionate, massive and sustained efforts—perhaps costing more money than the Vietnam war—to end the destruction and bitterness wrought by racial disorder in America's cities.

"Our nation is moving toward two societies, one black, one white—separate and unequal," declared the President's Commission on Civil Disorders. It condemned white racism as a central cause and warned:

"If we are heedless none of us shall escape the consequences."

Unless immediate action is taken, the commission said, "large-scale and continuing violence could result, followed by white retaliation, and, ultimately, the separation of the two communities into a garrison state."

It reeled off scores of recommendations, including vastly expanded programs to provide 2 million jobs, 6 million housing units, drastically improved slum schools and overhaul of the welfare system designed to guarantee all Americans "a minimum standard of decent living."

The commission didn't estimate the cost of its proposals, saying only they "will require unprecedented levels of funding and performance." It seemed obvious, though, that the price tag could exceed even the $25 billion annual outlay for the Vietnam war.

New taxes must be imposed if necessary, the panel told President Johnson, but "there can be no higher priority for national action and no higher claim on the nation's conscience."

The White House had no immediate reaction to the report. Comment in Congress was sparse—probably because the document was released two days earlier than planned and most congressmen hadn't received a copy.

But even before its release, one major question was being raised.

"Where," asked Rep. George H. Mahon, D-Tex., "are we going to get the money?" He heads the House Appropriations Committee.

Northeast Lashed By Vicious Storm

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A vicious late-winter storm lashed the northeast today, dumping heavy snows in inland sections and pounding coastal commpnities with gale - force winds.

The storm swept the Appalachians and into New England after burying portions of Northern Georgia under 10 inches of snow Thursday. School closings and hazardous road conditions were widespread.

Heavy-snow warnings were in effect through the northeast. The Boston School System was ordered closed in expectation of 6 to 8 inches of snow by nightfall. Ten to 12 inches was forecast for inland portions of New England.

Heavy winds downed numerous power lines on Long Island causing widespread power failures that lasted hours. Schools on the eastern end of the island generally were ordered closed for the day.

Both rail and road commuter traffic in the metropolitan New York area was slowed and snarled by the storm with routine delays of up to an hour reported on Long Island Railroad trains.

Police in Long Island's Nassau County reported "So many accidents and abandoned cars that we can't even count them."

Power failures in New York City knocked out all the fire alarms in Queens as well as some alarms in the other boroughs.

ROMANIA WALKS OUT OF MEETING

New Rebellion In Communist Bloc

By HENRY S. BRADSHER
Associated Press Writer

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — A new rebellion has developed in the Soviet bloc, with Romania accusing the Kremlin of Stalinist tactics and walking out of the meeting of 66 Communist parties being held in Budapest.

A communique issued today after an all-night huddle of conference officials expressed regret over the Romanian action.

The Romanian delegation walked out Thursday night after failing to win acceptance for two demands: repudiation of a Syrian attack on Romania's position on the Arab-Israeli question, and a promise that there would be no more attacks on Red China or any other Communist party during the remainder of the session.

There was speculation that the split might prove as important as the break between Russia and Yugoslavia in 1948, when Tito rebelled against Stalin's dictatorial rule. Nikita Khrushchev made peace with Tito, but an even more serious split in the Communist world developed with the break between Peking and Moscow.

Romania has sought to steer a neutral course in the conflict between the Soviet Union and Red China. Since Nicolae Ceausescu became Romanian Communist party secretary-general in 1965, Bucharest has also challenged the Kremlin's domination of the Soviet bloc and asserted Romanian independence from Soviet economic, military and political control.

Romania has objected all along to Soviet pressure for a world Communist conference. The Romanians argued that since Red China did not want such a conference, to hold one would solidify the break. However, the Romanian party finally agreed to come to Budapest for the meeting to discuss the proposed world conference.

When Poland and then the Soviet Union broke a preconference agreement to refrain from attacks on any Communist party and criticized the Chinese, Romania sat silent. Attacks also came from East Germany and France.

Then Khaled Baghdash, the leader of the Syrian Communist party, accused the Romanians of being pro-Israeli because theirs was the only Communist government that refused to charge Israel with aggression in the June war.

The delegates worked for hours Thursday in an attempt to smooth over the dispute.

DEAR ABBY; I am going to have my first baby in six months, and both my husband and I are excited about it. A friend told me that if I let my doctor give me something to knock me out during the labor and delivery I will miss the greatest thrill a woman can know, — hearing her baby's first cry. She said when she had her baby, she knew what was going on every minute and she wouldn't have missed it for the world.

I talked to my doctor about this, and he said he gives his patients something to keep them as comfortable as possible, and for a doctor to deliver babies any other way is brutal and unnecessary. Now I don't know what to do. I hate to change doctors, but I don't want to cheat myself out of a woman's greatest thrill. My husband says it's up to me. Have you (or any of your readers) any experience in this line?

HAVING A BABY

DEAR HAVING: I have had two experiences. For Number One (a daughter), I was "knocked out." For Number Two (a son), I was wide awake. If I had it to do all over again, I'd elect to be knocked out, thank you.

Enjoy the 'thrill" of hearing your baby's ninth or tenth cry. It's the same as the first, and it won't take long before the crying loses its charm, and the novelty wears off.

DEAR ABBY: Not long ago a mother wrote to you complaining because a girl who looked to be "not much older" than her 17-year-old son was sent in by the doctor to stand by the table while her son had a lamp treatment for a skin ailment. The mother said the boy was embarrassed and refused to go back for another treatment because of this girl.

Then a REGISTERED NURSE wrote in saying the girl HAD to be at least 21 to be a nurse.

Who said she was a NURSE? I have worked in doctors' offices, have worn a nurse's uniform and a nurse's cap, and have been called "nurse," but I am not a nurse. And I think if you will inquire, you will find that this is true in many doctors' offices today. And dentists', also, Sincerely,

New Gold Rush Seen

LONDON (AP) —A new gold rush appeared to be building up in Europe today in an atmosphere of nervousness over the future of several major currencies, especially the British pound and th U.S. dollar.

Rumors from Washington, Paris, Tokyo, Ottawa and Johannesburg combined to excite the gold market, always sensitive to scare stories because gold buyers seek security from paper currency when its value seems uncertain.

The price on the London bullion market remained close up against the ceiling at $35.19 for the second day. This is one-eighth of a cent below the maximum price at which the U.S. Treasury will sell gold for dollars to foreigners.

The price of gold quoted in British pounds was up ¾ of a penny because the British pound was weak. It stood at only ¼ of a penny below the high set during last November's gold rush following devaluation of the pound. That rush cost the U.S. gold stock about $900 million.

Dealers agreed that trading today was the busiest since the last gold rush, but not near the same scale.

Absentee Soldier Is Cleared

FT. LEWIS, Wash. (AP) — Pfc. Charles W. Coffman, a 23-year-old soldier from Jacksboro, Tex., has been cleared of charges of being absent without leave but the Army said Thursday he will have to make up the 13 months of time he missed.

Authorities said the two-year hitch of the Texas draftee was to have expired Feb. 16.

Coffman said at his court-martial that his records were lost after he delivered them to the personnel section of his unit, the 339th Engineer Battalion. He said he was told to check back until they turned up.

Coffman checked periodically but the records were not there. The rest of the time he lived in nearby Tacoma, Wash. His wife, Linda, continued to receive $95.20 a month from her Army allotment check. She had a baby in May at Madigan Army Hospital.

The Army said Coffman would not have been required to make up the time if his absence had been "unavoidable." The army decided it wasn't in his case.

There has been no determination of whether Coffman will have to pay back the allotment money.

Trial Draws To Close

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) Final arguments were to be heard today in the trial of Walter Lee Tyler, 28, accused of the shooting death of a Port Arthur policeman.

Tyler is accused of shooting Policeman Paul Emerson during an Aug. 3 burglary.

The Galena Park man took the stand Thursday and testified that he did not shoot Emerson intentionally. He said that he was handing Emerson a gun that was taken in the burglary when it accidentally discharged.

Earlier a state gun expert had testified that it was impossible for the gun to have discharged in the manner that Tyler described.

The testimony before the jury of 11 men and one woman ended Thursday.

Tourism Grows Fast

LONGVIEW, Tex. (AP) — Tourism is the fastest growing industry in the United States even though 80 million Americans have never been on a vacation.

Zeno Wall of Myrtle Beach, S.C. told the East Texas Chamber of Commerce tourist conference Thursday that Americans spent $39.6 billion on tourism last year.

Wall, executive manager of the Myrtle Beach Convention Center, was the keynote speaker for the fifth annual convention of the tourist conference.

Host cities gained $1.3 billion from 22,000 conventions last year, Wall said.

He said the average couple on vacation in the United States spends a minimum of $36 a day. However, he said, 70 per cent of the population has yet to travel more than 200 miles from their home.

Shapely Blonde Questioned In Trial Of Alfred White

By MIKE COCHRAN

PALO PINTO, Tex. (AP) — A shapely Abilene blonde nervously testified today she met former state highway patrolman Alfred P. White several times, that he called her repeatedly and gave her gifts.

But, she declared, trembling, "He kissed me. That's all."

Miss Pat Lidia, 21, an employe of the Abilene Reporter-News appeared after strenuous defense objections in White's trial for the slaying last July 14 of his wife, Joyce, 38.

She first testified with the jury outside the courtroom when Dist. Judge W. J. Oxford ruled her testimony admissible, the jurors were returned and the questioning resumed.

She testified she met White, 37, two or two and a half years ago and that she had last spoken with the former highway patrolman "two or three weeks before all this happened."

Miss Lidia operates a machine which produces tape for casting lines of type for the newspaper.

What, the prosecution asked, was the subject of that last conversation?

"When he called me, he told me he thought he had been getting on my nerves and wouldn't call as much."

She said she last saw White some time in February, that they talked many times at a drive-in restaurant, and that, by prearrangement, they met on highways around the city.

They first met, she testified, when White stopped a car in which she was riding with friends.

What, the prosecution asked, did he say to you?

"He told me where I worked, what time I got off, where I lived, the color of my car, my license, my phone number."

And you had never talked with him before, she was asked.

"No," she replied.

Asked about the "intimacy" of their meetings, she replied: "He kissed me, that's all."

Were the meetings during the day or at night?

"We stayed in the car," she said.

She testified that he once gave her a box of Valentine's candy and previously bought her such gifts as perfume and a portable ash tray.

How frequently did White call, she was asked.

"He called me almost every day after I got home from work."

Asked if White ever had discussed his wife with her, Miss Lidia replied:

"The only statement he ever made was that she didn't understand him."

On cross examination, the defense asked if it were not true that she "knew every highway patrolman in Abilene... quite well."

"I know a few," she answered, "not quite well."

The defense sought to establish that perhaps the meetings were to discuss principals in certain cases in which White was involved and whom Miss Lidia might have known.

She said she knew of only one such person.

It was not a love affair, was it?

"No it was not a love affair." You were just good friends?

"We were friends, yes."

"The extent of involvement," she was asked, "was that he kissed you two or three times, and that was it?"

"Yes," she replied.

Earlier an Abilene pathologist, Dr. Jerrett E. Williams, testified Mrs. White "died from a massive contussion of the brain... this literally paralyzed the vital centers of the brain."

He said "gaping" head wounds suffered by the victim could have been made by a metal pipe such as the one introduced by the prosecution Thursday as the apparent murder weapon.

Robbery Revives Memory

ROWENA, Tex. (AP) — Justice of the Peace D. W. Turner denied bond Thursday night to one of two men charged with burglary of the First National Bank of Rowena.

Robert C. Talley, 47, was held in the Runnels County jail in lieu of $25,000 bond. Bond was denied Bill Newton, 77.

The bank burglary revived memories of old time outlaw activity.

Texas Ranger Rath Rohash of San Angelo said a gang called the Newton Brothers had been active and well known in the area. Asked when the Newton brothers had ceased to be active, he said: "They're still active."

Two men wearing western boots and gray coveralls were captured in the bank early Thursday. Two .38-caliber revolvers and a lever action rifle were found in the bank.

Police said a nearby resident, Butch Lisso, told them that he had heard something in the bank. When the law officers surrounded the bank and ordered the men to come out, they were answered by a shot, police said.

Sheriff Don Atkins then fired a shot through the rear door and one man came out. One man stayed inside, refusing to surrendered. Atkins then rushed through a hole that had been cut in a front door and scuffled with the man. He won easily.

Atkins said that an identification card indicates that Newton was jailed once for mail theft. He said he does not have the man's complete record yet.

Rohash said that he had talked with Newton after his arrest. Newton refused to say anything about the robbery in Rowena, but did admit that he had been in prison in 1932.

Clothing Thefts Increasing Here

"There have been several reports of theft of clothing from local washeterias during recent weeks," said Chief of Police Stephen Clark, and he urged area residents to watch their clothing when they have them at such establishments.

Persons often leave their laundry in the machines while they go elsewhere, said Clark, and the thefts occur when nobody is watching the clothes.

EXCITING NEWS for spring is a dainty lemon striped seersucker voile, a blend of Dacron polyester and cotton. This dreamy dress becomes even more feminine with the addition of orange and lime rick rack trim on the bodice and at the cuffs.

Paris Fashions Concentrate On The Feminine Look

By LUCIE NOEL
AP Fashion Writer

PARIS (AP) — Updating the '30 Paris fashions swing into springtime with swirling pleating, circular fullness, ruffles, flounces, frills and furbelows.

Photos of the latest Paris trends were released today. Red white and blue leads the color spectrum. White alone is a close runnerup and is used as trimming on most spring coat-dresses, suits and costumers.

Wool crepe and wool gabardine are favorite fabrics for daytime, with organza in plain and printed versions leading for after 5 and evening.

The shirt dress, Bermuda-legged, or with a multiple or box-pleated skirt, appears everywhere. Newest by Saint Laurent are in harlequin-printed silk with a contrasting navy, black or brown wool or alpaca jacket. Floppy pussy-cat bows adorn the neckline, while sleeves and suntan backs are optional for sportswear.

As for hemlines, there have been all sorts of trial balloons. But short skirts around the kneecaps, generally above, are at a status quo, and will breeze happily through the summer months. You may choose to drop your minis from midthigh to two to three inches above the knees, and just for fun wear a maxicoat or a maxiskirt.

Designers are concentrating on the feminine look. Fashions are seductive. Nostalgic flashbacks to the era of Marilyn Monroe, Rita Hayworth, Greta Garbor, and the stars of the silent movies and early talkies, have brought into the limelight a series of new hair styles from the tightly curled short hair to marcelle-waved shoulder-length locks. And Bonnie's beret and Clyde's fedora carry out the note.

This spring season will be remembered as one of many trends. They range from Mexican and Russian folklore, the Vietnam peasant, through Spanish toreadors, the Paris gamine, Baby Doll, and honest-to-goodness modern elegance for the woman of today.

The greatest impact was made in Paris by the new coat-dresses, some with cape sleeves, others partly tailored to resemble a suit, still others more of a cape than a dress.

Fabrics play a major part in the spring collections. The most popular fabric for city wear beside wool crepe is the shantung family. Come evening, organza, in plain and printed florals, takes its place.

Prints are less violently psychodellic, jungle florals in explosive colors and true to nature. The revival of dotted and pencil-striped fabrics is significant. Dior and Courreges like naive florals on a wool ground.

Belts are on everything, mostly in leather and placed at one of the three strategic levels: below the bosom, at the natural waist or at the hipline, all depending on the style of the model.

The revival of the "Sunday night" little dress, displacing the sleeveless "nothing" sheath of past seasons, is prophetic and a precious asset to anyone's wardrobe.

The spring suit is mostly on blazar or cardigan lines, mostly edged in white or if in the "classic tailored" mood, in a tweed with cutaway corners. The sequin evening suit imitates herringbone wool. Hippie-style jewelry in the "more the merrier" mood is fun.

All-In-One Supper Dish

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Mothers just love a main dish that's made all in one big skillet or rangetop casserole. At least that's what they tell us. And we can see why — just one cooking utensil to wash and put away.

So when this halibut, rice and tomato dish came our way, we tried it in our test kitchen. Now we're delighted to commend it to you.

It makes a lot — eight servings. Plenty for growing boy appetites and a friend or two who join you for an informal meal.

All you need to serve with this all-in-one dish is a green salad and crusty French bread and you'll have it made. If your family enjoys halibut, that delicious and substantial fish, as much as do the people around our house, they should be thoroughly satisfied. Just add dessert to this menu to round it out.

All-in-one Halibut and Rice

2 pounds halibut steaks, fresh or frozen
4 slices bacon
1 medium onion, peeled and coarsely chopped (½ cup)
½ of a small green pepper, coarsely chopped (¼ cup)
2½ cups boiling water
1 cup converted type rice
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon thyme
1 bay leaf
1 can (1 pound, 12 ounces; solid pack tomatoes, drained

If halibut steaks are frozen, let them thaw. Cut into about 1½inch chunks.

In a deep 10-inch skillet over low heat, fry the bacon until crisp. Leave fat in skillet but remove bacon; drain on paper toweling and set aside.

To the bacon fat in the skillet, add the onion and green pepper; cook gently, stirring often, until onion is transparent. Add boiling water, rice, 1 teaspoon of the salt, pepper, thyme and bay leaf. Bring quickly to a boil; cover tightly and over low heat simmer for 15 minutes.

Place halibut and drained tomatoes over rice; sprinkle them with the remaining ½ teaspoon salt; cover tightly and simmer until rice and halibut are tender—(about ten minutes) almost all liquid should be evaporated.

Sprinkled with reserved crumbled bacon and serve at once.

Makes 8 servings.

Note: This halibut, rice and tomato combination fills a deep 10-inch skillet — the kind that has a dome cover. If you like, you may substitute a wide rangetop casserole for the skillet.

ALL-IN-ONE MAIN DISH — Halibut, tomatoes and rice are cooked together in a range-top casserole or a big skillet.

Mrs. Boren Speaks To B&PW Club

Mrs. Travis Rhoades introduced Mrs. Wayne Boren from the appointed Scurry County Historical Committee at the dinner meeting of BPW, Tuesday at the Martha Ann Women's Clubhouse.

Mrs. Boren discussed the work of the committee and urged citizens of Scurry who have pictures of history value to contact the committee and let them make copies. She also said the committee was investigating the community interest in a museum, and stressed the fact that the Panhandle Museum at Canyon has procured several items from this county.

Mrs. Florence Leftwich, parliamentarian, quoted the Club Collect, from memory before the delicious meal. Vera Periman, hostess, greeted members and had decorated the table with daffodils and a unique bouquet made of burlap in variegated colors.

Mrs. J. C. Massingale, vice president, conducted the business meeting in the absence of Ethel Sturdivant. The group voted to aid the Scurry County Retarded Children's work, commend KSNY for its news coverage and community service, and participate in the national projects of Business and Professional Women's Organization.

Some of the easiest saving you'll ever do!

Just make one checkmark on your Federal income tax return, and you can be certain your refund—if you have one coming—will go into savings.

Here's how it works: You check the box on Line 25 that brings your tax refund to you in the form of a United States Savings Bond. Then, when you get it, just tuck the Bond away.

As easily as that you've saved money that otherwise could trickle away. As easily as that you've put something aside to be part of a down payment on a home, or added something to your children's educational fund, or provided a bit of extra security when an emergency comes along.

Another thing, when you choose to take your tax refund in a Savings Bond, your money grows. Bonds pay you back $4 for every $3 invested in only seven years.

It's nice to know, too, that every Bond dollar helps to keep our country strong, and shows our men in Vietnam that they have our support.

So think it over when you ask for your tax refund. Taking it in Savings Bonds is some of the easiest saving you'll ever do—and the most important for your country.

Bond facts: Savings Bonds pay you back $4 for every $3 in only seven years . . . are replaced if lost, destroyed or stolen . . . have special tax advantages . . . can be redeemed whenever the need arises.

PROBABLY NEVER, SAYS BOYLE

When Will You Grow Up?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) —"When will you ever grow up?" exasperated parents sometimes demand of their children.

The answer, if the truth be told, is—perhaps never and, in any case, probably rarely and only now and then.

People have been trying to grow up for centuries, but it is a difficult art. Growing up remains more of a journey than an arrival, a goal rather than an achievement.

Inside every adult, no matter how well adjusted he may be, is a child unreconciled to the fate he has found or the destiny he realizes he faces. The child he once was remains the eternal pilgrim and monitor of his being.

There is a curious, ironic and unbridgeable gap in the way different generations look at each other's situation in the world, and both are in error. Each thinks the other has the better of it, and each is wrong.

The adult looks back nostalgically on his childhood and remembers it as the only time in life he knew a careless freedom.

How wrong he is! A child doesn't feel free at all. He feels himself a midget overwhelmed in an oversized universe, the prisoner puppet of bigger and older people who incessantly issue orders—"Wake up! Wash your hands! Eat this! Do that! Study now! Go to bed!"

He wants his way, and he can't have it. So his biggest ambition is to grow up. Then, he dreams, nobody can tell him what to do. He will be his own master and do whatever he wants to.

How wrong he is! It is only as he gets deeper into it that he discovers adulthood, far from being a condition of freedom, is only a bigger prison than he knew before, one with more rules. Whether he is a railroad switchman or president of the United States, there is an endless line of people trying to admonish him what to do.

He has more fears than he did as a child because he recognized more dangers that can assail his safety or imperil his well-being.

The process of growing up is a steady and remorseless assassination of youthful daydreams and a tarnishing of fantasy. And for this the dismayed heart of childhood never quite forgives the world it supposedly matures in. And that is why it can hardly ever quite grow up all the way.

Experience and education are expected to help one mature, and, of course, to a considerable extent they do. But although they can tutor the mind to accept the blows of chance and circumcstance, they never quite console the emotional heart to disappointment and frustration.

The scars may not be visible, but they are there, still hurting though hidden.

At birth a child has a dim sense that he is the center of the universe, and age never quite takes that idea away from him. He wants what he wants when he wants it, and if he doesn't get it he throws a noisy tantrum.

As we grow older we tend to throw silent tantrums. If we don't have our way—if we don't get the job we wanted, or manage to marry the ideal mate of our choice—we often strike out at ourselves and others. We may make needless enemies or come down with unnecessary ulcers and other self-inflicted penalties.

Any doctor can list among his patients men and women who are slowly killing themselves with self-pity simply because they cannot adjust to the pangs of growing up. No medicine can heal the wounds they create in their own souls simply because time and life won't let them have their way in everything.

Perhaps only a god can be so grownup as to know utter serenity of spirit. But for us workaday human beings growing up will always consist of the hard task of making a yearning adjustment to compromised hopes, done with as much fortitude and grace as possible.

McCormack Plans To Retain Post

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — As far as most of his Democratic colleagues are concerned, Rep. John W. McCormack of Massachusetts can keep his post as speaker of the House as long as he wants—and as long as the Democrats retain control.

There have been suggestions that McCormack step down in favor of a younger man more closely in touch with modern times.

The speaker was 76 years old last December but seems in excellent health. Aides claim he has missed only one work day in the last eight years, and that was to attend a school dedication in Boston.

Because he abhors facial makeup and lacks a ruddy complexion, McCormack doesn't always look too robust on the television screen.

He won't publicly discuss suggestions that he step down from the House speakership to which he ascended when Sam Rayburn of Texas died in November 1961.

But those close to him say he has no intention of yielding the gavel so long as he feels able to handle the job.

At the close of the 1964 session of Congress which enacted much of President Johnson's "Great Society" program, the President described McCormack as one of the outstanding speakers of all time.

If an attempt were to be made to unseat him, McCormack would have two big things in his favor—tradition and a widespread friendship among his colleagues.

Never in the history of Congress as far as is known, and certainly not in the last 100 years for which records are available, has an incumbent speaker been denied re-election when his political party remained in power and he remained a member of the House.

Several speakers have died while in office; others have retired and some have sought other offices.

One, Joseph G. Cannon, Illinois Republican, was stripped of much of his authority in a revolt against his assumption of almost dictatorial powers. But he wasn't thrown out of his job.

McCormack's widespread popularity among his colleagues stems largely from his reluctance to say no to a legislative request from friends. He has scheduled and helped pass many pet bills of many members. He has the final say on what bills the House will consider.

He has helped obtain choice committee assignments for members and almost always is accessible when they have a problem to discuss.

There have been instances when House leaders have been deposed by their own party, but not when they held majority positions.

Republicans twice have ousted their leadership in the last nine years. In 1959, Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana replaced the veteran Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts as minority leader. And in 1965 Halleck was dumped in favor of Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, the current GOP leader.

Junior Editors Quiz on PARAKEETS

QUESTION: How do parakeets get their colors?

* * * * *

ANSWER: The color of a bird's feathers is determined in one of two ways, or a combination of both. Tiny grains of actual pigment may produce hues of black, brown, gray, red and sometimes orange and yellow. Or, a delicate structure of cells, constructed with tiny grooves or screens, overlays the feathers. Our diagram at upper left shows how white light, passing through a prism, is dispersed into the colors of the rainbow. In the same way, the cells on certain feathers act like a prism, splitting the light up and bringing brilliant color to our eyes. This is why the hummingbird flashes with jewel-like colors; why the peacock shimmers in vivid blues, violets and greens and why many birds of the parrot family, like the parakeet, appear so colorful. The parakeets in our picture are telling us about their particular colors (parakeets can be trained to talk.) Why not color them with crayon or water color paint so you can appreciate their attractiveness still more?

Bengal Nine Hosts Strong San Angelo

The Snyder High School baseball team gets its first taste of fire this afternoon when San Angelo's strong Bobcats invade the Towle Park diamond. The first pitch will cut across the plate at 4 p.m.

On the hill for Coach Speedy Moffett's host nine will be senior right hander Tony Suttle. Behind the plate will be senior Max Moreland.

Plenty of reserve strength will be available in juniors Leland Herod, Ronnie Lewis, Joe Greer (outfielders) and Steve Holder and Charley Johnson (pitchers).

Sophomores ready to answer Coach Moffett's call include catcher Randy Levens, first baseman Wesley Bishop and pitchers Merce Hernandez and Brad Morgan.

In a pinch, Patrick could be switched from first to the mound.

All of the hurlers are right handers, and pitching should be equal to or better than last season. The Tigers, with seven lettermen in the opening alignment, have the hitting ability and defensive prowess to contend for the 3-AAA crown.

But today's tussle against the Class AAAA club will be a stiff test.

Wrestlers To Work For MD Fund

Some of the hardest working athletes in the world will do something tonight at the Scurry County Coliseum for youngsters who will never be able to participate in athletics.

Don Slatton is bringing in a large professional wrestling show with a percentage of the proceeds to go to the Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America.

The wrestlers, all professional athletes who take a beating three or four nights a week before avid fans, provide their talents for the event.

Snyder is the fourth city in the Southwest to hold the benefit in a growing program which Howard D. Wright, district director for West Texas and Panhandle for MDAA, says has been very successful.

The brainchild of Dory Funk Sr., of Amarillo, the benefits have raised thousands of dollars. The benefit program has grown nationally with wrestlers from throughout the country participating in cities to raise funds for the youngsters who can do nothing but watch the matches.

Nationally the whole program is headed by comedian Jerry Lewis.

Pipers Stay Out Front

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Connie Hawkins and Charlie Williams poured in 32 free throws between them to keep Pittsburgh on top in the American Basketball Association's Eastern Division, but it was just a pair of foul tosses by Sam Smith that helped Minnesota keep pace.

Hawkins scored 40 points for the Pipers Thursday while Williams had 43 and each dropped 16 free throws in a 123-119 victory over Kentucky.

Smith's two free throws at the end of regulation play boosted the Muskies into a tie with Oakland and they went on to a 125-115 triumph to stay 2½ games behind Pittsburgh.

In the only other ABA game Thursday night, Houston beat Dallas 101-100.

In the National Basketball Association St. Louis beat New York 105-100 in overtime, Los Angeles defeated Chicago 117-107 and Cincinnati halted San Diego 120-114.

Pitburgh's victory was its eighth in a row. The Pipers went ahead to stay just before the end of the third quarter. Jim Ligon led the Kentucky scorers with 29 points.

Smith threw in two of three free throws to tie the Muskies and Oaks with 18 seconds left. Then with 2:10 left in the overtime and Minnesota ahead by two points, Smith scored two baskets to put the Muskies out of sight.

Jerry Pettway intercepted a Dallas throw in bounds with 29 seconds left, dribbled the length of the court and scored the basket that gave the Mavericks their victory margin. Wilbert Frazier scored 26 points for the Mavericks and Cincy Powell scored 22 for Dallas.

Volleyball Girls Trip Big Spring

The Lamar 8th and 9th grade volleyball teams defeated two teams from Big Spring yesterday.

The 8th grade girls tripped Goliad 15-5 and 15-9. The 9th graders bested Big Spring 2-15, 15-12 and 15-11.

Sally Reyes sparked the attack for the 8th graders with 11 points. Jana Bullard tallied eight points for the 9th grade, and Sally Tovarez scored seven.

Coach of the Lamar teams is Joyce Elrod.

TIGER TRACK TEAM READY

The format of the annual Canyon Reef Relays, which get underway with prelims at 9 a.m. Saturday, will be different this year. For one thing, the 24 team entries will be competing in a new event — the two mile relay.

For this reason, Coach Bill Hartsfield of the host Tigers, said that his team may not have any entries in some of the sprint and hurdles events.

"We'll need everyone we can get in the relays races," declared Hartsfield.

Inclement weather has hampered the Tiger training schedule, and Hartsfield did not know until after yesterday's drill who would be entered in many of the events.

"The boys were running against each other for berths in the various events," said the coach.

Starting on the sprint relay for the Bengals will be Willis Harrison, Tommy Hollis, Dwaine Boydstun and John Schiebel. The mile unit will include Schiebel, Dwaine Boydstun, Tommy Bullard and Preston Smith.

Hartsfield said he would not know until today who would be on the 880 relay.

Many Sophs

"Many of our boys are sophomores who could develop into top - notch competitors," said the coach, "but right now, we're a little short on experience." The Tigers were hurt seriously by graduation losses, and this year's team may be at least a year away from realizing its full potential.

Still, the Black and Gold surprised many folks with their fifth place, 40 - point showing at the Comanche Relays last week.

Leading the Bengal team are the distance runners. Eloy Benitez copped first place last week and he will be challenging three top runners — Midland's Ocheltree (4:32.3), Lubbock's Yeats 4:32.9) and Abilene's Hankins (4:35).

Local entries on the special 2 - mile relay will include Preston Lane, Tommy McDorman, Roy Lee and Tommy Bullard.

Since McDorman is entered in the distance relay, then he probably will not be used in the mile run, although he finished on the heels of Benitez for second place at Ft. Stockton.

Other Tiger entries include Ricky Arnold and Phillip Hill in the century, Larry Allen and Ray Ellis in the high hurdles and Harvey Browning in the mile.

Field entries find three good athletes in the pole vault — Drake Snyder, Steve Burney and Mark Gilstrap.

Schiebel and Dewey Grinslade are probable entries in the high jump, while Boydstun, Barry Park and Morris Smith will be entered in the broad jump. Ray Ellis will heave the shot and discus. Bill Baldwin also will be entered in this event, although he is competing in his first track season.

Close Races

Close races are foreseen in the century, the high hurdles and the relays where the Class AAAA teams seem to be evenly matched.

"The hurdles races probably will be close, but the field isn't as strong this year as in the past," said Hartsfield.

Lubbock Dunbar, with Charles Sims, Sidney Hall, Roy E. Davis and Wayne Davis doing the honors, will be pushing for a 42.0 in the sprint relay. The same unit runs on the mile relay, and the only substitution in the 880 finds Ed Johnson as replacement for Roy Davis.

The Panthers should be able to hold their own against the Class AAA schools in the re-

Travis Volleyballers Nipped By Runnels

Travis Junior High volleyball teams were defeated Thursday evening in matches with Big Spring Runnels.

The 8th graders bowed, 4-15, 15-8 and 6-15, while the 9th graders were decisioned, 9-15, 10-15.

For the 8th graders, Shirley Bruns scored 11 and Vickie Jones 7 for Travis, while Perez and Bryant had 9 each for Runnels. Nancy McGinnis had 8 points to pace Travis 9th, with Barbara Moffett accounting for 4. Wever paced Runnels 9th with 10 points.

TIGER GOLF TEAM TEES OFF

The Snyder High School golf team teed off against some 20 other teams in the annual Canyon Reef Golf Tournament this morning at Snyder Country Club.

Coach J. P. Ward's Bengals are out to defend their crown. Team members include Jay Kidd, Benny Ward, Mitch Rambin, Phil Ator and Johnny Powell.

There was to be 18 holes of play each day Friday and Saturday with trophies to be awarded to the first, second and third place teams and to the individual medalist and second medalist.

The Tigers also are defending champs in 3-AAA.

Indiana's football team won eight in a row last season to tie its streak of 1945. The 1945 captain was Russel Deal, father of 1967 defensive halfback Mike Deal.

Bullard Paces 3-AAA Scorers

Mickey Almond, Tommy Bullard, Frankie Grimmett, Jim Patrick and Mitch Rambin all finished the 3-AAA basketball campaign with more than 100 points scored in league games, and Bullard won the individual scoring crown.

Bullard, 5-9 senior and 3-year letterman nailed down the top individual honors by putting 111 field goals through the hoop and 110 free throws for a total of 332 points in district play. He hit at 44 per cent accuracy on field shots and an amazing 82 per cent at the free throw line.

Jerry January scored over 100 points in non - district play, along with Almond and Bullard, and he barely missed the 100 mark figure in district — getting 94.

Percentage - wise, Frankie Grimmett was tops with 71 per cent on 44 field goals. Gus Tovar only hit 11 field goals, but his 85 per cent was tops in this department.

Snyder outscored the opposition 996 to 855 in non district and held the upperhand, 1204-to-1025 in district tilts.

READY FOR SUMMER

Cities Bracing For Riots

WASHINGTON (AP) — In city after city across America, police are stockpiling weapons of war—armored vehicles, helicopters, high-powered rifles.

They are recruiting civilians as ready reserves.

They are training squads of sharp-shooters.

They are sending undercover agents into the slums.

Quietly but ominously, an Associated Press survey shows, they are preparing for summer and the riots they hope won't occur.

Even riot veterans are awed by some weapons developed in the aftermath of Watts, Newark and Detroit.

In Los Angeles, policemen watched the demonstration model of a 20-ton armored personnel carrier crush a barricade of abandoned cars.

The tank-like vehicle can carry 20 men in bulletproof safety. It can be equipped with a .30-caliber machine gun, tear-gas launchers, a smoke-screen device, chemical fire extinguishers and a siren which disables rioters with a curdling sound.

"When I look at this thing," said Deputy Chief Daryl Gates, "I think, my God, I hope we'll never have to use it.

"But then I realize how valuable it would have been in Watts, where we had nothing to protect us from sniper fire when we tried to rescue wounded officers."

"We might as well be prepared."

Police in most cities are tempering this show of firmness, however, with massive efforts to improve their relations with slum dwellers—"our first defense against riots," said Chief Thomas Reddin of Los Angeles.

Los Angeles police admit they are seriously interested in buying the armored vehicle. One drawback is the price: $35,000, without optional equipment.

The Los Angeles sheriff's office overcame the cost factor by purchasing a surplus Army M-8 armored car for $2,500, then outfitting it as a "rescue vehicle."

Five armored vehicles cruised Detroit's streets last summer during the riot that left 43 dead. Since then, Detroit police have stocked up on 100 pairs of binoculars 2,000 tear-gas grenades and 1,200 gas masks and have asked for 25 special antisniper rifles, 500 carbines, 300 shotguns and 150,000 rounds of ammunition.

In neighboring Monroe County, the sheriff is spending his $50,000 riot-control fund on a $13,500 armored truck, 15 walkie-talkies, 100 rifles, 15,000 rounds of ammunition, 500 tear-gas cannisters and flak vests.

Oakland County, a Detroit suburb, also is obtaining an Army half-track. Said Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson: "We have learned from mistakes made elsewhere in the country that there is no substitute for firmness."

A thousand miles to the south, Police Chief James G. Littleton of Tampa, Fa., put it another way: "We have taken off the kid gloves with those elements who cause riots."

The Tampa arsenal, he said, includes 162 shotguns, 150 bayonets, 5 sniper rifles, 25 carbines and M1 rifles, 300 gas masks. And State Atty. Paul Antinori has recommended that Tampa policemen "shoot to kill" persons observed committing or about to commit, felonies during a riot.

Easter Seal Letters Are Going Out

Easter Seal Appeal letters are being delivered this week in Scurry County according to Cecil Boren, the Easter Seal Representative of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas. As Representative, Boren serves as contact representative for disabled persons needing Easter Seal rehabilitation services and also as Treasurer of the Easter Seal Appeal in Scurry County.

The Easter Seal Society offers physical and occupational therapy, speech and hearing programs and special equipment loans to enable disabled persons to make the best use of their abilities to overcome handicaps. These services are financed by the annual Easter Seal Appeal.

The Society also provides for research into the causes and cures of crippling conditions, finances public education programs, and provides scholarships for training of professional personnel to staff rehabilitation centers.

Boren pointed out that all these programs are important if Texas is going to continue to provide the best in rehabilitation servicces for its own disabled citizens.

During 1967, the Texas Easter Seal Society provided treatment and services to 17,622 children and adults who were on need of rehabilitation services. These services are available to any disabled person who can benefit from help provided by the Easter Seal Society, Boren added.

The Easter Seal Campaign will run through Easter Sunday, April 14.

"We are more than conquerors through him that loved us." Romans 9:37.

It is a truth as old as man:
We conquer when we know we can,
And we march to win from the start
When we believe with all our heart.
Nought shall obstruct with God at our side—
No fears, no worries, no doubts, no pride!

A CONTRACT

A contract is a promise... a compact... an agreement between two or more persons. It simply binds the contracting parties to abide by the conditions set forth therein. It could be a marriage contract, or a business contract. It may be a contract with your church and your God. A contract is a serious piece of business. Do you fulfill the terms of the contracts you make? You promised to be true to your life partner until death. You signed to discharge your financial obligations on a certain date. You contracted to be a faithful member of your church... to attend regularly and support its work. Are you doing that? Do you honor your contract... your word? The integrity of your own soul determines the value of all the contracts you make. They are as good as you or as bad as you. Church attendance will help you prove yourself worthy of the confidence of both man and God. Attend every worship service.
