City Paving Program Nears Reality With Passage of Ordinance

Expect Work To Begin In Few Weeks

Plans for Perryton's paving program took another step toward reality Tuesday night when the city council had its final passage.

This ordinance makes assessments against city lots that have had no previous financial arrangements made for paving. It permits the city to levy paving assessment against non-homestead lots.

This is the first time that Perryton has ever attempted a paving program under this procedure, although it is being used in other cities.

The paving assessment ordinance was drawn up and passed after the council had received petitions from residents on Colgate and Eton streets asking that it be done.

Non-resident property owners on these two streets had blocked paving for several years by refusing to pay their part of the paving.

The next step is the issuance of work orders, directing the contractor, Ray Boswell of Pampa, to go to work. It is expected that the paving will be started around June 1.

There are 27 city blocks in the paving contract at the present time, and city manager J. B. Whigham believes another 10 blocks will be added by the time the work is to begin.

Cost for the paving ranges from $3.50 to $3.92 per front foot, with See No. 2 Page 8

HE'S A MEMBER—Charley Taylor, member of the Chamber of Commerce board of directors, displays the attractive new green and gold membership decal which are being distributed this week to business members of the Chamber of Commerce. The decals have original designs showing wheat, cattle and oil as the foundation of Perryton's economy.

Heavy Response to Chamber Of Commerce Questionnaire

Heavy response has been reported to the Chamber of Commerce questionnaire mailed out to more than 1,500 residents of Perryton and surrounding area last Thursday, according to Chamber manager John Mayfield.

Nearly 400 questionnaires had been returned by Wednesday, Mayfield said.

While a composite report will be made from these questionnaires, several results can be noted rather easily.

Most of the people seem to think Perryton treats newcomers at least average and most of those returning questionnaires like living in Perryton.

There is some criticism of the schools, the police department and the fire department, but most of the returns have been favorable.

Among the greatest needs of Perryton, according to these questionnaires, are more stores, with clothing and food stores leading the list; more policemen and cars; downtown public rest rooms; more rental property; another motel or hotel; better telephone service; more parks and facilities.

The majority of those returning questionnaires think Perryton's newspaper and radio station are doing a good job of informing people of local happenings.

Most seem to think that prices are higher in Perryton than in other cities and the selection of merchandise is not as great as it is in larger cities.

In response to the question, "Why do you believe most people go out of town to shop?" the answer leading the list is "Because they can buy for lower prices."

New Locations Are Staked In County

Four more locations were staked in Ochiltree county during the week, two in the south Farnsworth area and two in the Harbaugh field south of town.

The J. M. Huber Corp. has staked the Huber-Fulton No. 9 Stump-Grabeel in Sec. 31, Blk. JTM, five miles south of Farnsworth. This is in the same section as eight other producers.

The Texas Co. has staked the No. 1 L. Shrader in Sec. 42, Blk. 13, T&NO Survey, five miles southeast of Farnsworth, also near oil production.

The M. A. Machris No. 34-141 P. A. Harbaugh, located 22 miles south of Perryton, is in Sec. 141, Blk. 13, T&NO Survey, near production.

The Texas Co. has staked the J. L. Flowers "A" No. 2, in Sec. 143, Blk. 13, T&NO Survey, 23 miles south of Perryton. This is in the same section as a producing oiler that has been pumping since 1952.

In Hansford county, near the Ochiltree county line, the Shamrock O&G Corp. has completed the No. 1 C. B. Barber in Sec. 8, Blk. 2, WCRS survey for 113 barrels of oil. This well was completed on Feb. 19, 1957, but the official test was just recently announced.

The Civil Service Commission announced today a clerk-carryer examination for the post office in Perryton. Applications may be secured at the post office and must be filed before June 3.

This is the first examination offered in Perryton in more than a year, stated Postmaster Irvin Hergert. This will be probably the last examination offered in Perryton for two years, Hergert added.

All persons interested in this type of work now or in the future should submit an application.

The entrance pay for these positions is $1.82 per hour, with job security, liberal retirement, life insurance, paid sick leave, paid vacations, automatic pay raises, promotional opportunities, 40-hour, 5-day week and uniform allowance. Hergert pointed out.

Two Injured In Car Crash West Of Perryton

Two persons were injured in a collision Saturday morning on SH 15 just east of Waka when a car driven by Julia Anderson West crashed into the rear of a pickup driven by Ira W. Parks, with both vehicles traveling west. Both drivers live in Perryton.

Mrs. West was driving a 1955 Pontiac sedan owned by Edward Himes of Perryton.

With her were Mrs. R. B. Anderson, her mother, Mrs. Murphy, her sister, and two-year-old Mary Ann Murphy.

The crash threw Mrs. Anderson and the Murphy child into the windshield and cut a deep gash in Mrs. Anderson's head. The child had her nose completely severed, but it was replaced and sewed back at the hospital.

Other injuries were minor. State highway patrolman Bob Loving, who investigated the wreck, said that Parks, driving because a large truck was parked on the highway while the driver was putting on chains.

Mrs. West failed to slow in time and hit the rear of the pickup. Damage to the Pontiac was estimated at $700 while the pickup was estimated at $300 damage.

Nation's Second Largest Circus Is Booked Here

The Al G. Kelly and Miller Bros. Circus, the second largest in the nation, has been booked for a date in Perryton on Saturday, June 8.

The Jaycees are sponsoring the appearance of the circus in Perryton and will conduct an advance ticket sale.

This will mark the first appearance of a big circus here in nine years. This same circus appeared in Perryton in 1949 and there have been a few smaller outfits in the past few years.

The Al G. Kelly and Miller Bros. Circus is the largest show under canvas, now that Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey are playing only indoor dates.

This is a wild animal circus and will bring to Perryton giraffes, hippopotamus, rhinoceros, elephants, lions, tigers, pumas, leopards, monkeys, apes, several varieties of bears, hyenas, kangaroos, and a wide assortment of almost every kind of animal ever shown in a zoo.

Tim McCoy, famous Western movie and TV star, will be seen in person at each performance.

The circus will set up at the northeast corner of the county fairgrounds.

The schedule calls for a two hour show, with the FFA boys taking care of most of the arrangements. There will be experienced adult rodeo officials on hand for both shows.

Contestants are expected from Laverne, Gruver, White Deer, Spearhand, Canadian, Follett, Panhandle, and other points in the area.

AUSTIN, Texas—Texans will be a long time cleaning up from one of the greatest flood disasters in the state's history.

Nearly 10,000 persons were forced out of their homes and some 35,000 square miles were affected, according to official estimates. State, national and private agencies are cooperating to help the flood victims. At the request of Gov. Price Daniel, Pres. Dwight D. Eisenhower designated the flooded counties as "major disaster areas." It brought an immediate flow of funds, equipment and supplies to aid State Disaster Relief Headquarters.

Governor Daniel also asked the Legislature for $20,000 to replenish the National Guard's fund for emergency work.

As waters receded in most areas, people began to take stock of the future. Though crop damage was estimated as high as $30,000,000, most farmers took a long range view.

Many missed the corn planting season and will have to switch to sorghum or some other crop. Others have put cattle back on dry feed after seeing the best pasturage in years ruined by floods. "But they say, 'at least it's wet.'"

Water conservationists point to the flood-ridden areas as "Exhibit A" in the case for more dams and lakes. Rampaging rivers could be held in check, they say, saving top-soil and water for future use.

IT'S GOVERNOR LOCK NOW—Sen. Otis Lock of Lufkin became Governor for a day and received all the honors customarily paid on such occasions.

May 3 long will be remembered by the 48-year-old lawyer who has served 18 years as a state official.

He issued a proclamation designating the day as Texas Interscholastic League Day; addressed the high school journalists assembled in Austin; served coffee and cake in the reception room of the Governor's office; and attended a banquet given in his honor by his many Lufkin friends.

As president pro tem of the Senate, Lock became Governor for a day when Governor Daniel and Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey left the state on official business.

LONG TALK—Longest filibuster in Texas Senate history brought only a "moral victory" for opponents of school segregation bills.

Sens. Abraham Kazen Jr. and Henry Gonzalez teamed up to talk 36 hours and 2 minutes against a bill to allow school boards to assign pupils to certain schools. When they finally quit, their colleagues passed the measure and sent it back to the House for concurrence on a minor amendment. Proponents agreed to delay for a few days taking up other segregation bills.

Previous filibuster record was 31 hours and 25 minutes set in 1949 by opponents of a medical bill.

Kazen and Gonzalez were aided by prolonged questions from other anti-segregation minded senators. Those who opposed the bill included Sens. R. A. Weinert, Bruce A. Reagan, Hubert Hudson, Charles Herring, Carlos Ashley and Frank Owen III.

ICT REPORT—Senate ICT Committee's voluminous report had no kind words for those who had been connected with the $4,000,000 failure.

It said the company was founded contrary to law and operated in a negligent, haphazard and downright fraudulent manner. It sharply criticized Ben Jack Cage, onetime ICT manager, and labor leaders who had helped Cage sell union people on investing in ICT.

Union officials, it said, had been compromised by "lavish entertainment" or payment of money. Their attitude was called "negligent or at least complacent."

Committee made 20 recommendations for tightening laws to prevent future ICTs. One would make insurance company officials criminally liable for false statements. Another would place insurance securities under supervision of a securities commission.

NATUROPATHS SET BACK — Naturopaths are in a worse quandary than ever now that State Supreme Court has ruled their licenses to practice are no good.

This upheld a lower court ruling that the 1949 licensing law was unconstitutional.

Texas Naturopaths will be in court again next week when Ex-Rep. Cox again next week when Ex-Rep. James E. Cox of Conroe comes to trial. Cox is charged with consenting to accept a bribe from TNA member in return for killing a bill outlawing naturopathy.

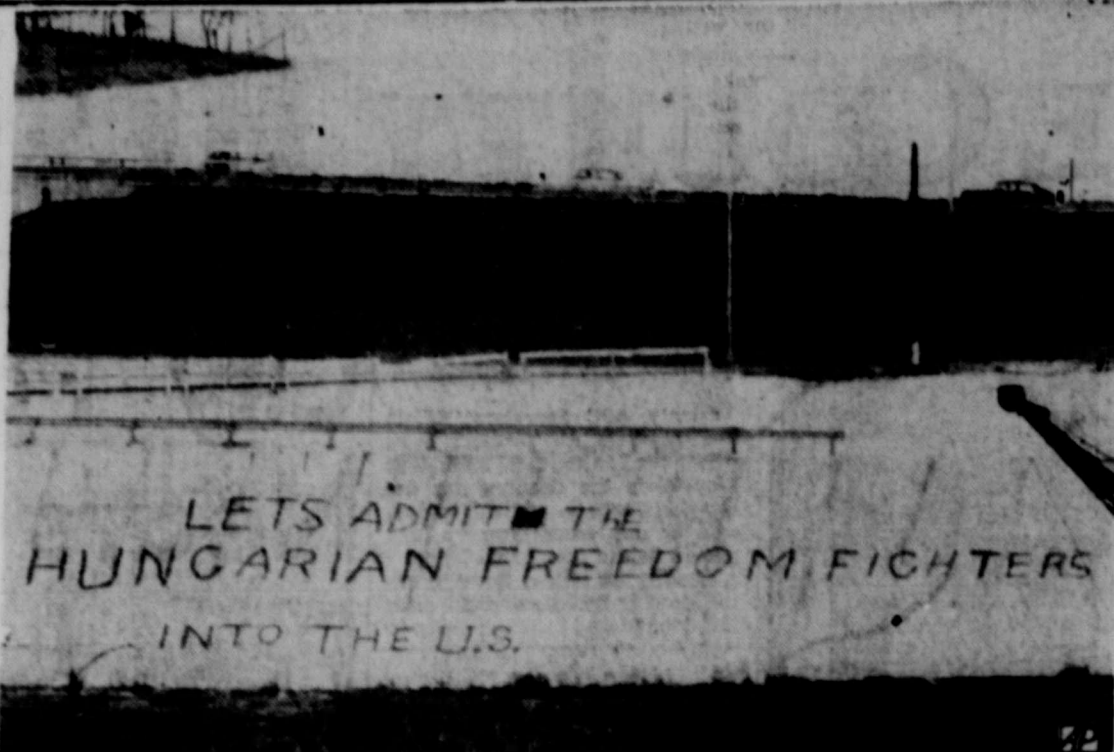

INSURANCE REORGANIZATION—Governor Daniel is riding a crest of triumph after House passage of his plan to reorganize the Insurance Commission. After weeks of wrangling and nip-and-tuck committee votes, final approval was by a lopsided 109 to 25.

House version calls for a three-man, full-time board all to be appointed by the governor. Senate already has passed a similar bill calling for a part-time board.

Both versions would remove from office John Osorio, the present commission chairman, and Member Mark West. Opposition by their friends in the Legislature was one of the main obstacles to Gibbs, the third member of the commission, was appointed recently to serve temporarily.

THUMBS DOWN—In the push to re-organization passage, Joe P. clear the Legislative calendars, a lot of bills are falling by the wayside. Measures which already have hit the dust include those to: Abolish the property tax on automobiles and substitute higher registration fees; provide for re-districting of county precincts; require county judges to be lawyers; allow cities on local option to elect officials for four years instead of two; raise the minimum age for the senators from 26 to 30 and the minimum for representatives from 21 to 25; require persons over 60 years of age to obtain an annual exemption certificate to vote; prohibit cities from annexing property across county lines; and allow cities to issue bonds to build municipal parking lots.

APPROVED — Measures which apparently have made the grade: Allow use of tax money to advertise the state of Texas; levy penalties for tossing litter on public roads, parks and beaches; make it unlawful to carry a switch-blade knife; permit skipping of jury trials in lunacy cases; create a new Securities Commission to han-

Danger Lurks In Fad Diets, Doctor Warns

Newsfeatures
The yen to be slimmer is causing anguish and agony in youthful circles, exemplified by the unfortunate starvation diets many youngsters employ.

This, says Dr. Glen King, executive director of the Nutrition Foundation "is just another good illustration of the absurdity of people going to extremes without proper counseling."

Dr. King blames much of our misinformed conception of diet on stories appearing in magazines and elsewhere giving ill-advised information on diets. There are the diets, too, that people pass from one to another, falsely attributing them to important organizations.

There is only one way to diet safely says Dr. King, and that is on advice of your family physician. If not, the counseling of dieticians and other informed sources may be sought.

"The goal should be to gain the ideal body weight for the person dieting," says Dr. King. "The family doctor—the tendency to overweight, familial trends such as cultural ones and imitative food habits. Genetics apparently are involved in over-weight problems also. This counseling is the only way to diet without risk to health."

Any young modern interested in maintaining good looks, a strong body, a clear alert mind, a good complexion should be especially alert to the necessity of following a good eating pattern, even when not trying to reduce. A strict diet deprives the body of nourishment so that a girl on a rigorous diet is likely to sacrifice good looks for fewer pounds. Whereas you can reduce and look well eating the right foods.

Fad diets are recognized easily for what they are, because they do not contain the wide variety of foods necessary to good nourish-

FARMERS COOPERATIVE
Perryton

By VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN, Texas—Texans will be a long time cleaning up from one of the greatest flood disasters in the state's history.

Nearly 10,000 persons were forced out of their homes and some 35,000 square miles were affected, according to official estimates.

State, national and private agencies are cooperating to help the flood victims. At the request of Gov. Price Daniel, Pres. Dwight D. Eisenhower designated the flooded counties as "major disaster areas."

It brought an immediate flow of funds, equipment and supplies to aid State Disaster Relief Headquarters.

Governor Daniel also asked the Legislature for $20,000 to replenish the National Guard's fund for emergency work.

As waters receded in most areas, people began to take stock of the future. Though crop damage was estimated as high as $30,000,000, most farmers took a long range view.

Many missed the corn planting season and will have to switch to sorghum or some other crop. Others have put cattle back on dry feed after seeing the best pasturage in years ruined by floods.

"But they say, 'at least it's wet.'"

Water conservationists point to the flood-ridden areas as "Exhibit A" in the case for more dams and lakes.

Rampaging rivers could be held in check, they say, by saving top-soil and water for future use.

IT'S GOVERNOR LOCK NOW—Sen. Otis Lock of Lufkin became Governor for a day and received all the honors customarily paid on such occasions.

May 3 long will be remembered by the 46-year-old lawyer who has served 18 years as a state official.

He issued a proclamation designating the day as Texas Interscholastic League Day; addressed the high school journalists assembled in Austin; served coffee and cake in the reception room of the Governor's office; and attended a banquet given in his honor by his many Lufkin friends.

As president pro tem of the Senate, Lock became Governor for a day when Governor Daniel and Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey left the state on official business.

LONG TALK—Longest filibuster in Texas Senate history brought only a "moral victory" for opponents of school segregation bills.

Sens. Abraham Kazen Jr. and Henry Gonzalez teamed up to talk 36 hours and 2 minutes against a bill to allow school boards to assign pupils to certain schools.

When they finally quit, their colleagues passed the measure and sent it back to the House for concurrence on a minor amendment.

Proponents agreed to delay for a few days taking up other segregation bills.

Previous filibuster record was 31 hours and 25 minutes set in 1949 by opponents of a medical bill.

Kazen and Gonzalez were aided by prolonged questions from other anti-segregation minded senators. Those who opposed the bill included Sens. R. A. Weinert, Bruce A. Reagan, Hubert Hudson, Charles Herring, Carlos Ashley and Frank Owen III.

ICT REPORT—Senate ICT Committee's voluminous report had no kind words for those who had been connected with the $4,000,000 failure.

It said the company was founded contrary to law and operated in a negligent, haphazard and downright fraudulent manner. It sharply criticized Ben Jack Cage, onetime ICT manager, and labor leaders who had helped Cage sell union people on investing in ICT.

Union officials, it said, had been compromised by "lavish entertainment" or payment of money. Their attitude was called "negligent or at least complacent."

Committee made 20 recommendations for tightening laws to prevent future ICTs. One would make insurance company officials criminally liable for false statements.

Another would place insurance securities under supervision of a securities commission.

NATUROPATHS SET BACK — Naturopaths are in a worse quandary than ever now that State Supreme Court has ruled their licenses to practice are no good.

This upheld a lower court ruling that the 1949 licensing law was unconstitutional.

Texas Naturopaths will be in court again next week when Ex-Rep. court again next week when Ex-Rep. James E. Cox of Comroe comes to trial. Cox is charged with consenting to accept a bribe from TNA member in return for killing a bill outlawing naturopathy.

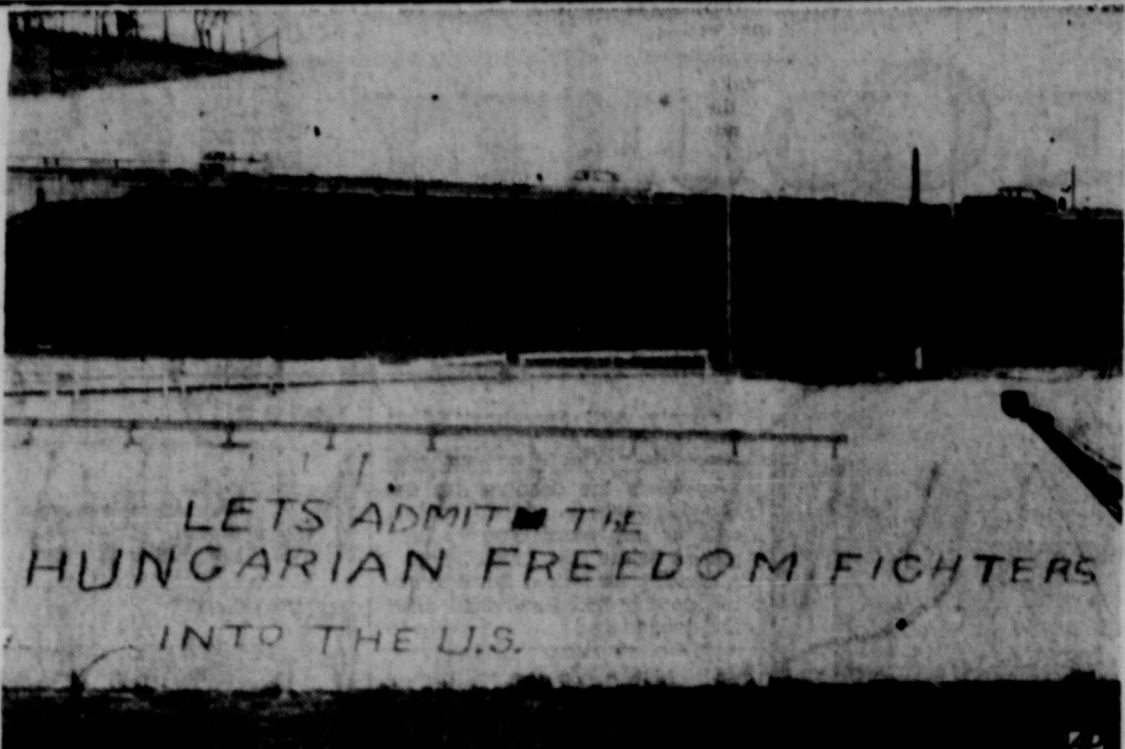

INSURANCE REORGANIZATION—Governor Daniel is riding a crest of triumph after House passage of his plan to reorganize the Insurance Commission. After weeks of wrangling and nip-and-tuck committee votes, final approval was by a lopsided 109 to 25.

House version calls for a three-man, full-time board all to be appointed by the governor. Senate already has passed a similar bill calling for a part-time board.

Both versions would remove from office John Osorio, the present commission chairman, and Member Mark Wentz. Opposition by their friends in the Legislature was one of the main obstacles to the commission, was appointed recently to serve temporarily.

THUMBS DOWN—In the push to re-organization passage, Joe P. clear the Legislative calendars, a lot of bills are falling by the wayside. Measures which already have hit the dust include those to: Abolish the property tax on automobiles and substitute higher registration fees; provide for re-districting of county precincts; require county judges to be lawyers; allow cities on local option to elect officials for four years instead of two; raise the minimum age for the senators from 26 to 30 and the minimum for representatives from 21 to 25; require persons over 60 years of age to obtain an annual exemption certificate to vote; prohibit cities from annexing property across county lines; and allow cities to issue bonds to build municipal parking lots.

APPROVED — Measures which apparently have made the grade: Allow use of tax money to advertise the state of Texas; levy penalties for tossing litter on public roads, parks and beaches; make it unlawful to carry a switch-blade knife; permit skipping of jury trials in lunacy cases; create a new Securities Commission to han-

Danger Lurks in Fad Diets, Doctor Warns

Newsfeatures

The yen to be slimmer is causing anguish and agony in youthful circles, exemplified by the unfortunate starvation diets many youngsters employ.

This, says Dr. Glen King, executive director of the Nutrition Foundation "is just another good illustration of the absurdity of people going to extremes without proper counseling."

Dr. King blames much of our misinformed conception of diet on stories appearing in magazines and elsewhere giving ill-advised information on diets. There are the diets, too, that people pass from one to another, falsely attributing them to important organizations.

There is only one way to diet safely says Dr. King, and that is on advice of your family physician. If not, the counseling of dieticians and other informed sources may be sought.

"The goal should be to gain the ideal body weight for the person dieting," says Dr. King. "The family doctor is aware of the family history—the tendency to overweight, familial trends such as cultural ones and imitative food habits. Genetics apparently are involved in over-weight problems also. This counseling is the only way to diet without risk to health."

Any young modern interested in maintaining good looks, a strong body, a clear alert mind, a good complexion should be especially alert to the necessity of following a good eating pattern, even when not trying to reduce. A strict diet deprives the body of nourishment so that a girl on a rigorous diet is likely to sacrifice good looks for fewer pounds. Whereas you can reduce and look well eating the right foods.

Fad diets are recognized easily for what they are, because they do not contain the wide variety of foods necessary to good nourishment. Sometimes the dieter merely dehydrates herself, gaining back the weight loss over night when normal diet is resumed. If normal intake of foods is not resumed after the diet period health may be affected.

Poppy Program Had Its Origin In France Immediately After World War I

The poppy worn to honor America's war dead has its roots in France. The seeds of today's poppy program were sown there as the First World War was drawing to a close. Then hostile men faced each other from trenches which ran from Switzerland through Belgium and France to the North Sea. Destruction and devastation and death were everywhere on the battlefields, and a plague seemed to hang over the land.

But as American soldiers fought along the rivers and on the hills and in the valleys they often wore little red poppies in their helmets. The poppies were the only living things that had survived, and indeed appeared to thrive, in the midst of war. These hardy reminders of better times were also reminders of the many comrades who had given their lives in bringing the war so close to its end.

They seemed to grow where all else was dead and decaying. Along the trenches, near jagged shell holes, beneath the tangled masses of barbed wire, and over the fresh graves of recently fallen comrades the valiant little flowers sprouted their brilliant red petals and gave promise of better days to come.

It was only natural that the poppy should take on an almost sacred significance for the men who were fighting for America in 1918. It became, appropriately, the flower of remembrance for the men whose blood had colored the soil that nourished it in the battle-scar-

Here's How to Speed Mail

Postmaster Irvin Hergert gave pointers today on how mailers may speed mail and take advantage of postal services. The suggestions, which follow, also will help the Post Office Department operate more efficiently, the postmaster added.

Separate local and out-of-town mail: If you are mailing a quantity of mail, separating into local and out-of-town will speed their departure time.

Mail early: Too many people wait until their 5 o'clock closing to mail their letters. This throws the post office into a rush at the close of their day and sometimes makes it impossible to make the departing mail truck.

Don't overstuff envelopes: Too fat envelopes sometimes burst and the contents are lost.

Identify Mail: Put labels or otherwise identify "Air Mail" and "First Class" mail when there is a chance for confusion.

Check collection times: Get your mail to the collection box ahead of the schedule and it will leave on time.

A Word About MOTHER LOVE

Mother's Day is MAY 12

"One morning God looked down from the windows of Heaven upon the world, meditated for a moment, and bade an angel come near. 'Go down upon the earth and dwell there for ten hundred years,' said God, 'and when that time shall come to pass, gather unto thy bosom the seven most precious things thou wilt have seen and return them to me in paradise'.

'And forthwith the angel did God's bidding. When ten hundred Junes had painted the meadow green and ten hundred Novembers had blanketed the hills in snow, the angel made ready to carry out the bidding of the Lord, and return whence he had come. He gathered unto him a white flower, a raindrop, a bar of bright gold, the marble figure of a Greek boy, a pomegranate, a piece of purple and a Mother's love.

"Across the field of years this angel sped in a chariot more fair than pearl, and swifter than the flaming tresses of a comet, and at last he came unto the gates of Heaven, and amid the trumpeting of several Archangels who rejoiced, bore unto the throne of God the seven most precious things of earth. But lo! The white flower was dead! and the raindrop had vanished! . . . and the bar of bright gold had fallen to dust! The statue of the Grecian lad was shattered . . . and the pomegranate shrunken out of color and form! . . . The piece of purple was faded and torn! Only a mother's love remained unchanged.

"Seeing this, God smiled and was exceedingly happy, and said unto the Angel, 'Verily, thou has chosen wisely. For there are not seven most precious things, but only ONE, and it IS a mother's love.'"

Grain Growers Meet Thursday

Harlan Hawk, president of the Ochiltree Certified Grain Growers Assn., has called a meeting of that organization for 2 p. m. Thursday afternoon in the office of county agent Delbert Timmons.

Members will be asked to sign up for the wheat acreage they intend to certify this year. There will be several other items of business to be discussed, Hawk said.

Fort McNab was built in the harbor of Halifax, Canada at a cost of $24,000 which was paid for by British profits from the Suez Canal in 1888.

WALKER ROGERS, Representative of the 18th District.

The Important Issue Yet To Be Determined

Although Congress has done a great deal of work this year on various and sundry matters, it has yet to tackle the really tough issues. Of course, the leading one of these is the Civil Rights bill which is now pending in the Rules Committee of the House. It has been pending in that Committee for some time and efforts are being made now to have it reported out. In fact, one Member of Congress has introduced a discharge petition to discharge the Rules Committee from further consideration of the bill so that it may come before the House of Representatives forthwith. This discharge petition will require the signatures of 218 Members before it will be effected. Chances are the bill will be reported out of the Rules Committee before a sufficient number of Members sign the discharge petition.

A number of Members have asked to be heard on the bill before the Rules Committee finally acts on it. Most of these are in opposition to the measure.

In any event, it is anticipated there will be a hot fight on the Floor of the House when it comes up. It is a bill on which there is no middle ground. Those who are opposed to it are one extreme while those in support of it are at the other. The reason for this is that the bill has been advertised by the proponents as a "Civil Rights" bill. The people generally have never been given information explaining the various whys and wherefores in the measure. This situation places many Members of Congress who hail from districts populated by various nationalities, on somewhat of a spot. They are not asked to discuss and explain the bill but are merely asked the question, "Are you for or against Civil Rights?" Of course, everyone is for the right of each American citizen as guaranteed under the Constitution, but it is impossible to assume that the bill in question would serve to protect or preserve those rights. In fact, a statute does not have the effect of a provision of the Constitution. Therefore, if the rights guaranteed under the Constitution are not protected by the Constitution, how in the world could such rights be protected by a statute? The truth is that the rights due every American citizen are guaranteed under the Constitution and are so protected and so preserved. There is no need for a bill such as that now pending before the Congress as the "Civil Rights Bill." This bill was designed in the minds of those who are intent upon prying into the personal affairs and business of others, to invade the right of privacy of more. Although I would not charge the proponents of these measures were prompted by desires to bring about federal dictatorship in this country, I would hasten to warn that one of the necessary tools to an effective dictatorship is the right to invade the privacy of the home and to encroach upon private and business affairs of free people. I would warn the advocates that they weigh very carefully the tools with which they profess to save so-called minority groups, lest they destroy the rights of all people in this country.

Other matters yet to be decided include housing legislation which may prove highly controversial, but which must be forthcoming at an early date if many segments of our economy are to be stabilized. Also to be considered will be the highly controversial federal aid to schools program. Of course, the appropriation bills that have been passed by the House, but not acted upon by the Senate, will be returned to the House after Senate amendments have been added. This will undoubtedly cause much controversy in the closing days of this session of the Congress. Most of the controversial issues which require the expenditure of money (and practically all of them do) always come up for double treatment. First, they are hotly debated on the authorization legislation; secondly, on the provision of funds to administer them. We are also without agricultural legislation this session, but hope that something can be worked out to correct this. Several veterans bills of importance are yet to be heard and the Congress has not yet faced the perennial Alaska-Hawaii statehood matter.

The bombshell that was dropped into this session of Congress, and slowed things down considerably, was the President's $72 billion dollar budget. As soon as this hit Capitol Hill the battle was on, and incidentally it still is. The great clamor from the grassroots for a measurable cut in the budget increased the mail of Congress several times. This situation also focused the minds of the people of this country on the fact that a tax cut would be in order for those who needed it most and who have not received it. The insistence for a cut in the budget and a tax cut took precedence over numerous other matters in the minds of many Members of Congress. I was very happy to see this because I have felt for a long time that it would take a drastic move on the part of the populace as a whole to awaken government officials to what the people were actually thinking. Especially was this true with relation to a tax cut. I am deeply encouraged by the statements that have been issued by many in the Executive Branch of this government, as well as the Legislative, that a tax cut was in sight. In fact, a number in the Legislative Branch have advocated the program I have been supporting since coming to Congress; that is the increase in the individual and dependents exemption allowance. Several more bills to bring about this result have been introduced recently.

HURRY UP!—Miss Fancy, a two-week-old toy Manchester pup, can hardly wait for feeding bottle offered by Susan Gaye, a secretary at station KTRK-TV Houston. Feeding the pup, whose mother couldn't handle the chore, posed a problem for owner Nita Renfro, switchboard operator at the station. So, Miss Renfro bundled up the pup and took her to work where members of the station staff take turns every 3 hours handling the bottle detail. (L.P. Wirephoto)

Housewives' Utopia Totters

LISBON — Union wages and rules for maidservants. This is the latest plan of Corporations Minister Dr. Viegas de Macedo. It is a revolution which is likely to spell the end of Portugal's old patriarchal system of service, and has already caused alarm and despair in the hearts of housewives.

For apart from low wages, Portugal has been for years and still remains the paradise for servants (and for housewives).

For the sum of 25 to 30 escudos a day (between 75 cents and a dollar) you can get a daily scrubwoman who will do all your cleaning, and often your marketing and laundry in the bargain.

For 300 to 400 escudos a month (9 to 12 dollars) you can get a living-in maid and for very little more an expert cook. And there is at the moment no lack of applicants when anyone puts an advertisement into the papers.

Relationship between mistress and maid hitherto has remained on a rather feudal footing. The maid has no government scheme at the moment to protect her against illness, unemployment and old age; but it is taken for granted that the family she works with will look after that. The old Portuguese families nearly all support one or more "old pensioners" on their monthly budget.

Progress, however, is nibbling at the system. Under the new implementation of the Corporative System here, a Housemaids' Syn-dicare is planned. This will mean minimum wages, proper contracts and other advantages.

At the same time there is a "gold rush" of Portuguese girls for service in houses abroad—particularly England, where they must be paid a weekly minimum wage of two pounds—about 7 dollars.

Since supply is short of demand, they may get four or five pounds

Weeds Mean But Provide Game Cover

AUSTIN—The blankets of weeds rippling in the gentle breezes over most of Texas, favored by recent substantial rainfall, are giving lawn enthusiasts, gardeners and farmers a hard time.

But these skyrocketing growths are helping along mightily with the wildlife comeback, according to the Assistant Director of Wildlife Restoration for the Game and Fish Commission.

He said that with moisture reaching normalcy in at least two thirds of the state, the weed growth presages widespread assistance to practically every form of wildlife.

The Assistant Director said deer thrive on many of the weeds, especially the tender kinds, until more substantial food is available. He added that the weeds growth likewise provides food and cover for bird life.

The Assistant Director qualified his optimistic comment about the heavy soil cover by saying he was "just like everybody else with a yard to keep up—the weeds grow faster than I can cut them down."

The Assistant Director said the present extraordinary blanket of weeds in the wet areas particularly covering East Texas, Central Texas, and some parts of north and south Texas, are the natural result of the prolonged drought.

"During protracted dry weather," he explained, "the extreme temperatures and general aridity usually denude the surface of the soil. This acute condition is further intensified by overgrazing when

FFA Judging Team Is High At State Meet

The Perryton FFA livestock judging team won a banner at the state FFA judging contests in College Station Saturday, ranking in the top 10 teams in the state.

The team, composed of Neal Flathers, Freddie Smith and Earl McKinley, had 1,319 points to finish in 10th place, behind Fredericksburg, the winner, with 1,393 points. Monterey of Lubbock and Happy were also among the top 10 teams in the state.

There were an estimated 600 livestock judging teams that started the judging season this year. These were narrowed to 90 teams at the state meet and six of these were disqualified at the state meet making 86 participating.

FFA advisor Josh Hopkins took the team by Fort Worth on the way to College Station and they spent a day at the stockyards, working with a commission company in judging commercial cattle.

For the Files

COLUMBIA, S. C. — State Penitentiary officials here insist that any cake sent to prisoners from the "outside" be sliced.

As one official explained, "It's harder to conceal anything in the cake if it's sliced. Besides it saves the prisoners the trouble of trying to cut it."

James Madison, 5 feet 4 inches tall, was the shortest President of the United States.

Moose Led Mickey In Exhibitions

NEW YORK — Bill (Moose) Skowron, first baseman for the New York Yankees, led the world champions in hitting during the exhibition games with a .350 mark. He had 21 hits in 60 trips to the plate.

Mickey Mantle finished second with 20 hits in 62 trips for a .323 mark. Mantle led the team in home runs with seven. In the final exhibition, third baseman Andy Carey moved into the 300 bracket. He batted .304 with 21 hits in 69 efforts. Catcher Yogi Berra was fourth in hitting with .293.

Although some areas have rice surpluses, some of the rice-eating peoples may go hungry because price and political struggles prevent their getting it, says the National Geographic Society.

Although golden eagles graze, some birds remain stantly in the same territory.

To Attend National Red Cross Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cox are making plans to leave Wednesday for Washington, D. C., where they will attend the National Red Cross Convention, which opens May 20. Mrs. Cox is the executive secretary of the Ochiltree Red Cross chapter.

This is the first time Mrs. Cox has had an opportunity to attend the national convention and she says she has been saving up since last year to make the trip. The chapter bears none of the expense. Attacker Is Hunted In Two States

Officers from southwest Kansas and the Oklahoma Panhandle are still searching for a man who trailed two Liberal women from Perryton north into Oklahoma and attacked one woman before fleeing early Sunday morning.

According to the reports from the Beaver sheriff's office, Mrs. Gladys Fuller and her daughter, Mrs. Ronald Wares, and three small children had stopped in Perryton at a service station before driving to Liberal.

A strange man trailed them, bumper to bumper, until the frightened women stopped at the Chester Bartel home, a few miles south of Bryan's Corner, where Mrs. Wares dashed into the house for help.

The man jumped from his car, grabbed Mrs. Fuller, tore her clothes off, and proceeded to beat her.

Bartel, roused from slumber at 2 a. m., raced from the house with a shotgun and says he is certain he planted buckshot in the rear of the fleeing car.

Mrs. Fuller said her attacker never said a word while he was tearing off her clothing, jumping in her stomach, and otherwise beating her.

She was not seriously injured.

"Because they can obtain better selection of merchandise," is close behind. Other leading reasons given are advertising by other merchants and because a trip often combines entertainment with shopping.

The questionnaires that have been returned indicate that Perryton's merchants do not keep their customers as well informed through advertising as do merchants in other cities, although their merchandise is priced and displayed as openly as in other cities.

The leading city for out-of-town shopping is Amarillo, followed by Liberal, Borger, Pampa and Oklahoma City.

Deadline for returning the questionnaires has been set for Tuesday, May 14. After that date, all the results will be compiled and made the subject for an intensive study by the retail merchants committee.

Education Has Its Rewards

Along about this time every year, spring fever hits the school children, and some of the high school students sometimes wonder if it is worthwhile to stay in school. Wouldn't it be more fun to be "outside" and making money? . . . A lot of them apparently do drop out of school. In fact, across the nation last year, only 60 out of every 100 high school students finished high school. . . . After they drop out, comes the rude awakening. . . . Young people soon find, as Labor Secretary Mitchell has said, "A high school diploma is fast becoming the young job seeker's minimum credential. A basic schooling in math, English, natural science, and civics, is necessary for those who expect to get a job. Those who quit school early only hurt themselves. . . . Machines are taking the place of ditch diggers. Self-service is snipping the number of ribbon clerks. Educated workers who can become specialists are the need of today and tomorrow. . . . It is not the fashion any more to scoff at the educated man—it is too apparent that he has things the uneducated doesn't have, and probably never will.

No Shortage of Dogs

If you wonder why it is necessary to have an annual stray dog roundup in Perryton, listen to these figures: . . . In our country there are at least 90,000,000 dogs and cats, according to the Humane Society of the United States. There are 35,000,000 puppies and 50,000,000 kittens added to the domestic animal population every year. . . . This figures out to a quarter million a day, 10,000 an hour, 165 a minute. . . . You can see that if we didn't do something about killing off some of these dogs and cats, we would be standing here knee-deep in pets right now. . . . Another thing that is overlooked is the human aspect of this problem. A lot of folks are too chicken-hearted to drown puppies and kittens. So the city folks load them up, drive to the country, then let them out near a farmhouse. . . . The farmer loads up his puppies and kittens, drives into town and lets them out in a residential area where they will find some children to play with. . . . In the process, with animal's meeting each other enroute to and from the farm to the city, there is bound to be some intermingling. This, in turn, produces more dogs and cats. . . . You see, this stray dog and cat problem is nothing to be sneezed at.

Hindsight

FORT MADISON, IOWA, — One parolee from the Iowa State Penitentiary managed to parlay his prison occupation into a business when he was released. . . . Warden Percy Lanson said the man, O. S. Swigert, operated a broom making machine for most of the 35 year term. About the time he was released, the prison got a new machine. Swigert bought the old one for $1. . . . Now he earns his living—making brooms.

From the SIDELINE

with HAROLD HUDSON

They say nothing shatters complacency like criticism, and if so, most Perryton merchants are going to be jolted out of their complacency when they read the results of the survey sent out recently by the Chamber of Commerce retail merchants committee. There are about 300 questionnaires back now, practically all of them carefully filled out, both pages.

Of course, we were especially interested in the answers to the question, "Do you think the local newspaper does a good job of keeping you informed as to local news events?" Most of the people answering the questionnaires think so, and in fact a few are so kind as to say the Herald does an outstanding job. There are others who think differently.

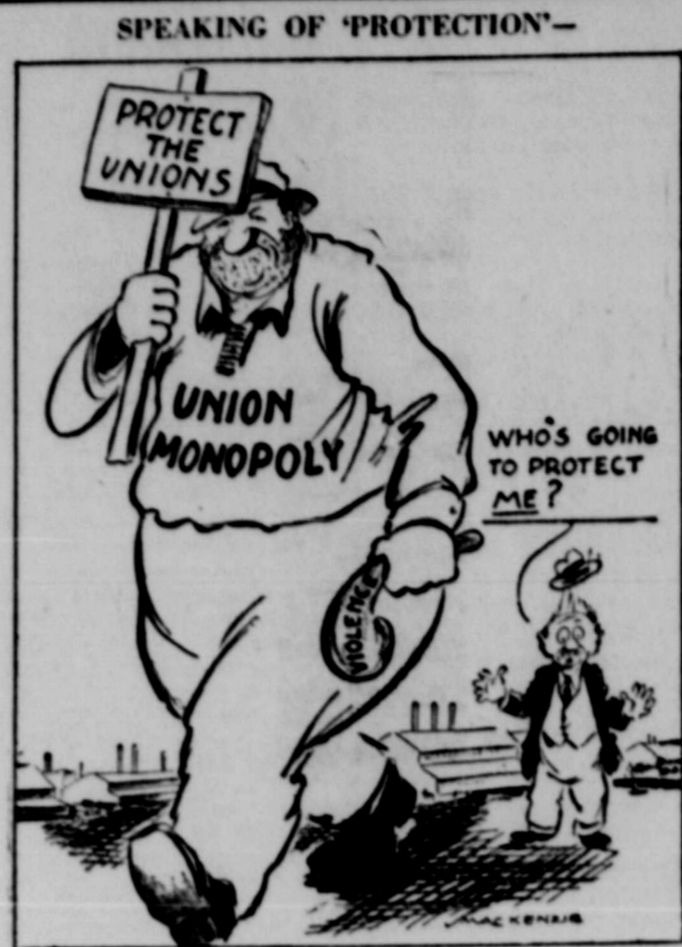

For instance, one person said the Herald didn't carry society news on an individual unless that individual had a lot of money. Another response said the Herald didn't do much of a job covering news, but did a good job of muddling. Several said we have a pretty crummy weekly. Several commented that the radio station did a better job of covering news than the newspaper.

And, as may be expected, several said the newspaper does better than KEYE in covering local news. In fact, some of the comments in answer to the question, "Do you think the local radio station does a good job in keeping you informed as to local news events?" were as embarrassing and as unexpected to the KEYE staff as the other questions were to us on the Herald.

But the Herald and KEYE got off light. A lot of these comments reminded us of the old "B-Bag" letters that used to be in Stars and Stripes overseas. They really lower the boom on a lot of local merchants. These people returning the questionnaires seem to be generally agreed that prices should be lowered, that some of the clerks could improve their outlook on life, that the parking meters generally don't work, that the kids are too noisy in the show, that Perryton needs chain stores like Penneys, Anthony and Furr Food that there ought to be at least one public rest room downtown for shoppers, that local merchants don't advertise their wares.

This will make an interesting report when the returns are compiled. We plan to publish the results, but we will withhold the comments about individual merchants. Some of these are brutal, probably stemming from some personal grudge.

The recent heavy rains have already had an economic effect on some lines of business. The muddy roads have put such a strain on automobiles that local garages have been doing a good business repairing and replacing transmissions torn up by the muddy roads. And the county has a tremendous job ahead in repairing the deeply rutted roads.

gashed out by heavy equipment en route to a drilling rig.

We went down to the Wolf Creek Dam Friday to see if it were holding out and it was doing fine. As a matter of fact, practically all of the rain which fell during the week seemed to soak into the grassland around the Wolf Creek watershed and as a result the creek wasn't high at all. The dam is supposed to be ready in several more weeks, but we wouldn't depend upon it if we were you.

We glanced at a copy of Look magazine while waiting for Lions Club to start last week and saw an interesting paragraph. There is a church in Southern Rhodesia where men attending services kiss all the women to show brotherly love. Services are so popular they are building a larger church.

It's been a long time since the depression, but the folks over in some parts of Oklahoma are getting a taste of one. At Henryetta, where the town has been supported principally by a mine and smelter, about half of the breadwinners in that city of 8,000 were thrown out of a job when the smelter closed down last week. A total of 750 were laid off one day. The mine lost its market for the product and had to close down.

You can imagine what a jolt the community received from this action. If half the workers are without a job, it is a cinch that business houses will be forced to close down in rapid order. It looks like Henryetta is in for a tough time.

Al Miller, advance man for the Al G. Kelley-Miller Bros. Wild Animal Circus, was in the office Monday making arrangements for a stopover show of the circus in Perryton on June 8. His visit was especially pleasant to us because he laid out a five week advertising schedule to promote the circus. Miller thinks the circus is not dead despite the fact that Ringling Bros. folded their tent and will play only indoor dates this year. Miller says that it is getting tougher all the time, though, it takes 2,500 persons at a performance to pay ex-

Wolf Creek Philosopher Same Price Is Not Monotonous

(Ed. note: The Wolf Creek Philosopher discusses the cattle business this week, a subject he's as much an authority on as he is the international situation, if you follow us.)

Dear editor:

I didn't have anything to do the other afternoon, or rather I had plenty to do but wasn't interested, and went into town to sort of break the monotony and while I was there I borrowed a newspaper off the cafe counter and the first thing that caught my eye was an article about a proposal an agricultural expert has for stabilizing, as he calls it, the cattle business.

According to him, if the oil industry can prorate oil production, which as I understand it means control of the amount of oil anybody with an oil well can take out in any one month, and thus maintain the price of oil at around $3 a barrel, then farmers and ranchers can prorate the cattle business, control the number of calves being raised, and hold the price of a steer at 33 cents a pound.

However, he went on, this might get awfully monotonous, selling cattle at 33 cents a pound year after year, and might detract from the present system whereby a man doesn't know when a calf is born what it'll be worth at selling time. He said it might take the adventure out of cattle raising.

Well, now, I'll tell you, getting 33 cents a pound for a steer might get monotonous to some people, but as far as I'm concerned it ain't near as monotonous as getting 15 cents one year, 12 the next, 18 the next, etc.

To some people, raising a calf to market age may be an adventure, but as far as I'm concerned the adventure comes after you sell him for a profit and start figuring what you'll do with the money.

I know from experience that there's a certain amount of adventure in raising cattle, even scrub your check, and one monotonous thing on top of one smaller than that. If this fellow can't guarantee me a price a pound for calves, you tell him to go ahead, under the monotonous of Yours truly

REV. A. B. COCKRELL
Pastor, First Methodist Church
Baylor at S. W. 4th Ave.—Perryton

Rev. A. B. Cockrell, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Perryton, brings the message of the week in this latest of a series of meditations prepared by ministers of the area. This being National Family Week, Rev. Cockrell has fashioned his commentary around the "sanctity of marriage", the message follows.

NATIONAL FAMILY WEEK

Since this is National Family Week, let us think of the sanctity of marriage. In Mark 10:9 we find: "What, therefore, God hath joined together, let not man put asunder."

The national percentage of broken homes has decreased in the last few years. It is still alarmingly high. Some of this is due to a small number of people with a record of several marriages. However, there are not only many men and women whose lives have been greatly upset by divorce, but there are also a great many children whose lives have been warped by the insecurity of broken homes.

A part of the weakness of marriage is the lightness with which those who are being united take it. Some seem to enter it with the feeling that the divorce courts are always open. It is on a sort of trial basis. God and the deeper values are ignored. If young people would look upon marriage as a sacred institution, many of the weddings that end in the courts would never have taken place.

There is the type of union that forgets God. Concerned with success in business, acceptance in society, and with a multitude of activities, couples often crowd God and the church out of their lives. They lose their sense of true values. Finally something is gone from them that has actually held them together.

For the family, as for the individual, the true and lasting values are spiritual. True, some who never seem to consider the spiritual are able to have permanent homes, but the chances of the home that recognizes God as the head of the house, and that gives time to the church and to spiritual development, are much greater. There is much truth in the adage, "Families that pray together, stay together."

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health, HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner

The Big Three in America are reserpine, chlorpromazine and meprobamate. These tranquilizing drugs—so-called "happy pills." And as more people take them for real nervous tensions, they are being used in household words. Last year spent well over a billion dollars for various types of tranquilizers. The drug company reported that in the first 10 months of 1956, and in the first 10 months of 1957, the sales were expected to reach $1.5 billion. Studies indicate that the greatest value in the use of some types of mental sedatives is for the relief of nervous tension rather than that they are used for the treatment of mental illness met to discuss tranquizers and some of the problems their wide usage had raised. The conference concluded that the drugs do evidently relieve tensions in mentally disturbed persons, but for every research team reporting positive results, another reported failure in trying to duplicate those results.

Certain tranquilizers influence the release of a body chemical called serotonin—a hormone found most heavily concentrated in the brain. What the chemical does is not yet fully understood, but present belief is that it acts as a switch to turn moods on and off by sending impulses of good or bad feeling along the pathways of the central nervous system. Enough serotonin in the brain might actually be a factor in sanity. When the role of this hormone is fully known we may have the final answer as to how certain tranquilizers produce their effects.

More than a dozen tranquilizers are already on the market. Some are used very beneficially in hospitals; others by private physicians in their practice. All are potentially powerful medical tools. But it will take time—perhaps years—to test them thoroughly. Until that day comes, all of us would do well to remember that a certain amount of tension and anxiety is a part of normal life. Peace of mind and zestful living do not yet come in pills. It comes from facing our problems and working to solve them. In any event the so-called tranquilizers should only be taken under the direction of a physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Sumpter and family of Borger spent the week end visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Sumpter and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Allen.

William Holden Seen as Pilot Of Rocket Ship

"Toward the Unknown," a saga of man's quest toward outer space, comes to the Ellis Theatre on Sunday and Monday, May 12-13. This marks William Holden's debut in the twin roles of producer and star. He's a gentleman who appears equally at ease sitting behind an executive's desk or standing on the flight line at the Edwards Air Force Base, California, ready to climb aboard a rocket plane.

This is Holden's first picture as a producer. He recently purchased a couple of television pictures, has formed a music publishing company and is planning further movies.

The picture concerns the battle of this nation's top scientists and a group of adventuring men to surmount the obstacles of space travel.

Piersall's 6 for 6 Scrim Holds

BOSTON — Jim Piersall, fleet centerfielder for the Boston Red Sox, still is proud of the hitting record he tied on June 10, 1953. He made six straight base hits to tie the American League record for consecutive hits in a nine-inning game. One of the hits was a double, the rest singles. No major leaguers accomplished the feat before Jim had his hot day.

Starring in the production is Hugh O'Brian, better known to the small fry as Wyatt Earp of TV. "The Brass Legend," tells of an eleven year old boy who accidentally discovers the hideout of a desperate outlaw, tells the sheriff, who swears the boy to secrecy, knowing the desperado's friends desire for vengeance, and the actual execution of that violence when the town's newspaper gets a tip and runs the story. Stepping out of (but not too far out of) his TV Wyatt Earp character, Hugh O'Brian plays the sheriff who rounds up the outlaws. Lovely Miss Gates has the feminine lead and Reba Tassel, another

Cadillac

Third Generation at the Wheel!

"Like father, like son", the poets say. And never was it truer than in the case of a great many fine Cadillac families.

For there are, in our land today, a number of families that currently boast as many as three generations at the wheel.

We mention this simply to underscore a great and dramatic truth about Cadillac—that, of course, is its unchanging goodness and quality.

For fifty-five years, the Cadillac name has signified one and the same thing to motorists everywhere—a motor car created at the highest level that automotive science would permit.

Over that time, Cadillac has attracted to the ranks of its owners the finest list of names to be found anywhere on the American motoring scene.

And, those who have followed the path to Cadillac in 1957 are enjoying the most abundant blessings of this ceaseless crusade for quality.

The new "car of cars", with coachcraft by Fleetwood, is beautiful and luxurious to an unprecedented degree. And its performance and handling ease are a revelation!

Certainly, the Cadillac car has now become an even wiser investment for an even wider circle of America's motorists.

If you have yet to acquaint yourself with these brilliant Cadillac virtues for 1957, your dealer will be delighted to tell you how easily you can make Cadillac a fine family custom of your own!
