That it would be over and done about 7 o'clock. A complete list of the winners and sales is expected to be available this week-end for the press.

Braving the winds and the dust, much worse further up the line toward Amarillo, were Harry Hoare of the Amarillo Daily News and Garland Cotton of Radio Station KONG.

Raymond King, of Lubbock, and Johnny Mitchell, of Ralls, were the judges of the live stock.

Missionary To Report Sunday on China Reds

Dr. O. J. Goulter, recently returned missionary to China, will speak at the First Christian church Sunday night at 7:30. During his 30-year ministry to China, Dr. Goulter served many months in a Japanese concentration camp, after he was taken prisoner at his mission station in Hanoi, China.

DR. O. J. GOULTER

In China, Dr. Goulter lived in the territory over which the nationalist armies retreated and through which the communists advanced to the conquest of Nanking and the southern part of that country. Thousands of curious Red army soldiers, students and officials insisted on coming into his home in order to see how a "capitalistic, imperialistic, anti-communist aggressor" lived.

Hence he has talked with large numbers of ardent Reds and has had an unparalleled opportunity for seeing and experiencing at first hand, just what the communist movement now sweeping over Asia and Africa really is doing and what its intentions are.

Since the beginning of the Korean war, Dr. and Mrs. Goulter were in almost constant danger of their lives. It was only after several months of danger, and some 2000 miles of travel through the interior of China that they were able to escape into the free world.

At the conclusion of Dr. Goulter's message, there will be an opportunity for questions and discussion. Everyone is welcome.

Heart Attack Puts O.W. Kirk in Hospital

Ohmer W. Kirk was slightly improved late Wednesday afternoon, after suffering a heart attack at his home at 504 South Wall street early Wednesday morning. He was removed to Peoples hospital and a heart specialist from Plainview and Dr. H. H. Bess were in attendance at his bedside.

Mr. Kirk had not been well for the past few days. However he worked at his store, Kirk & Sons until about 9:30 on Tuesday night. His son David reported his father slightly improved yesterday but still under oxygen.

Box Supper March 21 at Dougherty

A box supper at the Dougherty school house will be held Friday, March 21 at 7:30 p.m. Proceeds will go toward buying a piano for the school. A program is planned by the school children.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

HARRY STANLEY HOME AFTER TWO WEEKS IN HOSPITAL

Harry Stanley who has been a patient in the Peoples hospital for the past two weeks was so much improved on Wednesday that his family were able to remove him to his home at 320 West Kentucky street. Mr. Stanley suffered a heart attack about two weeks ago. He will probably have to remain quiet for about six weeks or longer.

LIGHT EXPANSION BONDS WIN SEVEN TO ONE IN LISTLESS VOTE

As was anticipated the double-barreled election Saturday to provide funds with which the city will enlarge its light and power system carried by a majority of about seven to one.

The proposition to refund $116,000 in outstanding revenue-bearing bonds was canvassed by the council, Monday night as 117 for, 17 against.

The proposition to issue additional revenue-bearing bonds in the sum of $279,000 carried by a vote of 119 to 16.

The total issue will be $395,000.

According to the plans made the new money put into the system will furnish an additional power unit, build an addition to the power house, provide the electric panels and other equipment and accessories incident to the new plant and provide funds for extensions and betterments throughout the distribution system.

Little active opposition was indicated either before or on election day to the council's proposal for the bond issue.

New bonds will bear an interest rate one-fourth of one per cent higher than the bonds that are being retired.

The council estimates that the new power plant will be installed and will be putting power on the line within the year 1953.

Standard Crew Down 100 Feet on Adams Test

Crew of the Al Buchanan Drilling company, contractors on the Standard of Texas oil test on the Adams lease, had drilled 100 feet yesterday noon, with high winds hampering operations, a report late yesterday said.

The well was started in at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, after several days delay rigging up and getting a water well ready to serve the test. Water well was reported sanded down and water hauled to start the drilling operation.

The test is officially known as the Minnie Adams No. 1, Standard of Texas. Its location is a mile and a half due west of Lakeview school eight miles southeast of Floydada.

The test is projected to 8,000 feet where it is expected that the Pennsylvanian formation will be picked up. Standard of Texas has a considerable block of leases surrounding the well and extending over the greater portion of the Lakeview district.

Early Reports For Red Cross Campaign Good

Yesterday afternoon slightly more than a fourth of the county's quota of $3,350 for the Red Cross had been reported raised, with eight communities complete and one-Floydada-incomplete, said J. B. Bishop, fund drive chairman.

These returns represent approximately one-fourth of the communities in the county and about one-fourth the amount needed to meet the assignment accepted by the county chapter officials, he pointed out.

Cedar district had the unique record of being 100 per cent complete Monday night, with 100 per cent contributions to the fund-every family of the district being represented in the amount raised. C. W. Ginn and Mrs. Albert Mize made the fund drive there.

Other districts reporting were Almon, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Byrd, $60.80; Center, Mrs. Mal Thomas, $31; Dougherty, Mrs. C. A. Caffee, $100; Harmony, Mrs. Everett Miller, $137.92; Pleasant Hill, Mrs. Verlon Wright, $25; Ramsey, Mrs. N. O. Wright, $16. Total of these reports is $470.22

Floydada Business District

Only report from Floydada is in the business district where the committee had received and accounted for $435.80 to Tuesday night.

The fund drive chairman said that assignments for work in the residence areas of Floydada would be made by Mr. and Mrs. Edd Johnson, Mrs. Mary Shaw and N. W. Williams, assisted by Lorin Leibfried. This committee will be sure that everyone has a chance to contribute. Mr. Bishop said, adding that householders may expect someone to call or knock on their doors within the next 10 days.

"Your fund chairman is well-pleased with the returns to date," said Mr. Bishop. "We want to express the thanks of the committee and myself to the willing workers and for the cooperation of donors to a good cause. Our total goal is $3,350 and we have a long ways to go, with less than a thousand dollars reported, but we confidently expect to get the job done."

Mayor's Protest Holds Up Compromise Settlement of Telephone Company's Demand for Higher Rates

City council of Floydada and representatives of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company Monday night arrived at a compromise agreement representing an increase of about 35 per cent in telephone rates for Floydada exchange, but were warned by Mayor J. A. Patterson that he would be unwilling to sign the ordinance making the agreement effective. He asked for an over-night study of the matter. Tuesday morning he announced he was of the same opinion still.

The council and the telephone company have been sparring for several weeks over a heavy increase in rates sought by the company.

The understanding reached Monday night had the basic rates for residential service set at $4 and for business telephones at $7.50. The lowest residential rate on the exchange for service within the corporate limits was indicated at $3. This is for four-party service. Cost to the patron would be as above with the Federal tax added.

The ordinance as passed by the council without the mayor's signature, together with the mayor's objections indicated below it are given in another column. The mayor's principal objection was registered in the statement that he believed the increase of 35 per cent "is not justified."

Point of view of the members of the council who favored the compromise is that some kind of an increase in rates appeared to be justified, and that a rate structure about in line with other communities of like number of telephone patrons would likely be about right. Canyon and Shamrock were taken by the council as examples in this connection. J. C. Wester, member of the council, said in his opinion it would be impossible for the council to know what was the right rate.

"One thing for sure," he said, "we are not going to get any money spent by the telephone company for badly needed extensions over town unless there is an increase in rates."

A gentleman's agreement with A. O. Thomas, district manager, in connection with the increase voted to be granted is about $35,000 needed to be spent for new cable and lines to take care of outstanding service demands in the city will be made soon.

Thomas made the agreement with the council subject to approval by higher officials overnight. He was in town Tuesday morning ready to confirm the arrangement when he was advised by the mayor that he would not sign the ordinance. This will entail a delay at least 30 days if the council is still of a mind to go ahead with their understanding with the company. Thomas said he was agreeing with the council on the new rates, considerably lower than the rates sought by the company, with the understanding that he would have to be back to see them "again" about the same thing. "The increase is not what we ask nor what we think ought to have to carry out our obligation to the stockholders, but it is the right direction. We are not critical of the people's representatives but we are disappointed in what they are granting us. Whatever else is right, it is right that increased costs have caught up with us, and until the inflation spiral halts the end is not in sight."

Mr. Thomas incidentally told the news reporter Tuesday that Floydada is growing. He realizes it better, in town five or six times a year, than does a resident who sees it taking place under his eyes. This remark was made in line with another that in the telephone business you have to keep growing. "There isn't any stopping place," he said. "And any time the thing 'busts wide open' at Floydada like it could do, the telephone company has got to be ready to meet the emergency. To be ready we've got to have people who are ready to invest their money with us. However, we are accepting the lower rate than we need in belief that the people and the authorities will do the right thing in the 'long run'."

What the council apparently has done is to take a median between complaining patrons who demand better service before any increase is granted and the urgent cry of the "many for more revenue" to get them out of the red in their local operations. The mayor's attitude seems more to the side of those who believe the company can and should "bust more and better service and that the increase already granted three years ago is adequate."

Keystone Puts Exploration Crew Here, Third in Area

FIRST NATIONAL IS 'GROWING UP'

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 10 —The First National Bank of Floydada, which reported deposits of $7,867,422 on December 31, gained 452 places in its standing among the 2,500 largest banks in the United States during 1951, and now ranks as the 2,436th largest in size compared with 2,888th place at the end of 1950.

This is revealed in the 1952 annual roll call of the larger banks in the United States published today — March 10 — by the Daily American Banker of New York, which is the trade newspaper of the banking business.

Plainview aspirant for the job of state representative of the new 89th district is J. W. Walker, Jr., above.

Hospitalization Plan Offered

The Commercial Travelers Casualty company with headquarters in Reserve Loan Building, Dallas, has arranged to send an especially trained crew of enrollment officers to Floyd county to spend a period of three weeks, to enroll citizens of this county in a voluntary county-wide hospital, medical and surgical plan.

The enrollment officers expect to give a complete analysis of the plan to each person contacted in order to render a beneficial service to the persons enrolled.

Interest in group hospitalization plans has been growing in Texas, and thousands of persons have enrolled in this and similar plans to provide for themselves benefits that enable them to finance as they so desire, to pay hospital, medical and surgical expenses.

This week's issue of The Hesperian carries a full page announcement of the formation of the group plan for Floyd county. Representatives of the company say that wherever the plan is put into operation, arrangements are made with the local hospitals to accept patients under the terms of the policies which they hold.

Letters from local people are published in a page ad appearing elsewhere.

Leeman Norman to Bank in Colorado

E. L. Norman, Jr., who has been with the State National Bank at Big Spring since the fall of 1949, has resigned as assistant cashier of that bank to take a place as auditor for the First National Bank of Pueblo, Colorado. His resignation of the post at Big Spring is effective March 15.

Before going to his new position in Colorado Mr. Norman and Mrs. Norman will spend two or three days here with home folks. Mr. Norman advised his father, E. L. Norman, here this week. Mrs. Norman is the former Jane Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Clark.

T. M. Bartley Rites at Waco Last Thursday

Thomas Mitchell Bartley, 83, who hung out his shingle as a practicing attorney in Floydada in the fall of 1933, and was prominent in affairs of this county for 15 years, died at his home in Waco at 4:40 o'clock Wednesday morning of last week. He would have been 84 years of age on March 23. He had been ill for sometime.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning at Wilkerson-Hatch chapel with Dr. A. Norman Evans and Dr. Arthur Stout officiating. Burial was in Oakdown cemetery there. Honorary pallbearers were members of the Masonic fraternity.

For 32 years Mr. Bartley served the Grand Royal Arch chapter of Texas as Grand Royal secretary prior to 1945, when he resigned.

Surviving Mr. Bartley are his widow and five children: Thomas M. Bartley, Jr., of New York, Henry Bartley of West Palm Beach, Florida, Howard Bartley of Quanah, Mrs. Louise Clairmont of San Antonio, Mrs. Fred Pickens, Jr., of Newport, Arkansas, and Mrs. Frank Meaders of Ada, Oklahoma. There are four grandchildren. One step-niece of Mr. Bartley lives in Floydada. She is Mrs. Bob Smith, J. B. Bartley, Jr., of Amarillo, former Floydada resident, is a nephew, and Mrs. Marivena Kemp, of Midland, is a niece.

Assistant Postmaster W. B. Henry, of Floydada, was among those who attended the last rites for Mr. Bartley. Mr. Henry is Mrs. Bartley's brother.

The surviving wife of the prominent West Texas Mason was Erin Henry, daughter of the late Judge P. P. Henry and his first wife. They were married in the Henry home two miles northwest of Floydada on December 25, 1905.

Moved Here in 1890

Mr. Bartley was born in Fannin county March 23, 1868. He attended school at Baylor university. After he was licensed to practice law he and his brother, John B. Bartley, opened a law office in Floydada in (See T. M. Bartley, back page)

Dan C. Day Rites Held Yesterday in Lakeview Church

Daniel Custer Day 79 of Lubbock, died at Lubbock Tuesday afternoon at 5:15 o'clock after an illness of two weeks. Mr. Day had been in ill health for the past two years.

Funeral services were conducted in the Lakeview Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Elder P. J. Ausmus of Lubbock conducting the service. Interment was in the Lakeview cemetery.

Mr. Day was born on July 1, 1872, in Alabama. He formerly lived in Floyd county where he was a farmer in the Pleasant Hill community for many years. He was manager of the Lakeview general store at one time before moving to Lubbock.

Mr. Day was a brother of Mrs. Harve Thomas of the Lakeview community, who spent much of her time during the past two weeks at her brother's bedside in Lubbock.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Mollie Day, two sons, P. P. Day of Lubbock and Clyde, the latter in Guam with the armed forces of the United States, one daughter, Mrs. M. B. Brown of Canyon, four brothers and five sisters.

Pallbearers at the service were Bill Hambright, Henry Bloodworth, W. H. Bunch, Floyd Wilkes, Fred Wattle, Orville Custer, Wayne Wright and Riley Teague.

Keystone Exploration company, of Houston, which set up offices in Floydada last week to carry on geophysical tests for the Sinclair Oil and Gas company, makes the third crew now operating with Floydada as a base.

Wm. G. Allen, superintendent of the operations for Keystone here, said yesterday their stay in Floydada is an indefinite one, depending on instructions they get from Sinclair. Keystone's headquarters are in Houston. They have been exploring for Sinclair for a number of years under contracts.

Keystone's crew here is composed of 15 men of whom four are family men. They are housed and settled down to their routine. They are operating at the present south and east from Floydada. They are here from Plainview where they headquartered for 13 months.

Their office is at 329 West Missouri street, where they took an apartment from the owner, J. G. Wood, converting it into an office. "We do not have dealings with the general public and do not need a downtown location to carry on," Allen said, explaining their reason for taking quarters in the residence section.

Magnolia and Humble

Biggest exploration crew to operate out of Floydada in a number of years is that of the Humble Oil company, which took up quarters here last fall and is running tests on the vast acreage of the Matador lands. At that time it was reported the Humble crew might require a year or two to finish this job. They came here from Throckmorton after investigating the housing situation in four or five communities adjacent to the area where they are working.

Shortly after beginning of the new year Magnolia Petroleum company stationed a crew here which had some difficulty in finding quarters but are now fairly well pleased. It has been indicated. They also are working an area in the east part of the county, it is said.

Principal difficulty in finding quarters locally is for the men with families. Single men are reasonably sure of good living conditions, one of the men said, but some of the places they have been offered for family men are "impossible." Generally rents are viewed as "mighty high" by the men of the various crews.

Amburn is New J. C. President

Glen Amburn will serve Floydada Junior Chamber of Commerce as president for the term beginning April 1, succeeding W. H. Tanner. He was elected at the annual meeting Tuesday noon at the American Legion dining hall.

With him the staff of officers for the coming year are B. B. Henry first vice-president, Ed Wester second vice-president, Clarence A. Guffee, secretary, O. R. McIntosh treasurer, and Enos T. Jones parliamentarian.

The board of directors for the ensuing year is composed of Fred Cardinal, Kenneth Tate, Parnell Powell, W. O. Newberry, Perry Smith, W. B. Winn, Kenneth Bain, Jr., Jim Word and Bill Tanner.

April First Banquet

Installation ceremonies will be held at the annual awards banquet on the night of Tuesday, April 1, which will be ladies night.

Popular Salesman Leaves for Service

Louis Anderson, popular clerk at Hale's Department store for the past five years, left Monday for induction center for the armed forces of Uncle Sam.

Mrs. Anderson, who is employed at the REA office, will remain here until he is assigned to a camp and will possibly join him later.

Mr. Anderson is the son of Mrs. A. W. Anderson and the late Mr. Anderson. He was reared here.

Louis Anderson called his wife from Albuquerque New Mexico, that he was on his way to San Diego, California to enter the marine naval training base. Out of the 20 boys from this area who gathered in Plainview on Monday for induction, five of them were drafted into the marines and Louis was one of the five. He told his wife he would get a three week leave after finishing boot training and would be home then.

S. J. Latta Takes Nash Dealership

S. J. Latta, east side M-M dealer, this week announced that he had contracted for the Nash dealership in Floydada which will be operated in the name of the S. J. Latta Nash Company.

Nash 1952 models will be on display, according to Latta's present plans, sometime next mid-week.

FRANK L. MOORE COUNTY JUDGE, FLOYD COUNTY

Floydada, Texas, March 12, 1952

Commercial Travelers Casualty Co.,
Dallas, Texas.

To Whom It May Concern:

In as much as the health of the residents of Floyd County is one item of primary interest to all concerned;

And WHEREAS; Hospitalization insurance has become a part of the everyday life and experience of the people as a whole, making it possible for many, many persons to have treatment, and that would otherwise become a burden on themselves and their families, the County, and the City;

THEREFORE: As County Judge of FLOYD COUNTY, I hereby urge that every person in this county seriously study the offers of insurance companies, and ask that they consult with their physicians to determine the worth of such insurance. We should take advantage of the plans being offered.

This statement may be used in the program of the COMMUNITY ENROLLMENT now in our county in any form that in the company's belief may help the people protect themselves against hard to pay bills connected with sickness and accidents, causing hospital expenses.

County Judge, Floyd County, Texas

PITTS HOSPITAL

208 West Houston Street

Floydada, Texas, March 11, 1952

J. M. Howard,
Commercial Travelers Casualty Company,
Dallas, Texas.

Dear Mr. Howard:

The Pitts Hospital gladly endorses your plan for a county-wide Hospitalization Insurance program.

It is estimated that one in ten individuals require hospitalization each year and only thru such a measure can the expense be budgeted so that the average individual more easily may meet today's high cost of hospitalization.

You may use this letter in your enrollment campaign.

Respectfully,

DONALD H. PITTS, M. D.

PLAINVIEW HOSPITAL AND CLINIC FOUNDATION

Plainview, Texas, January 4, 1952

Mr. James M. Howard,
State Manager Hospital Division,
Commercial Travelers Casualty Co.

Dear Sir:

The Plainview Hospital and Clinic Foundation is happy to learn of your plans for a county-wide hospitalization Insurance Enrollment.

We anticipate that one out of nine people of our community will be hospitalized this year, and only thru some method of medical budget care can the average member of the community meet today's cost of hospitalization.

This letter may be used in your enrollment campaign.

ARMCHAIR DRIVER

A husband drew up his chair beside his wife's sewing machine. "Don't you think you're running too fast?" he asked. "Look out! You'll sew the wrong seam! Mind that corner, now! Slow down, watch your finger steady."

"What's the matter with you, John?" said his wife alarmed. "I've been running this machine for years."

"Well, I thought you might like me to help you, since you help me drive the car."

WARNING NOTICE TO PARENTS

We have been the victims of pilfering and misbehavior at the Capada Drive-In theatre until our patience is exhausted. Three more boys were caught this week and added to the list of those now on good behavior. A number of them have been stolen and we now offer a reward of $25.00 to one who catches a thief in the act of taking one of our speakers in his possession.

We are trying to be reasonable but cannot continue to operate our business and put up with this kind of behavior. So, parents, please be advised that the next time we will prefer and push charges for the protection of our property.

PUSHED AROUND Common Cold Mankind's Most Usual Ailment

The common cold, one of mankind's oldest, and most prevalent afflictions, gets shoved around more than any other disease, not only from one "Kerchoo" to another but also by the written word. Beams of material have been written about the cold, millions of dollars have been spent by the public to cure the cold and by scholars to find a cure. Everything about the cold is stupendous, colossal, gigantic. And not a whole lot more is known about it than was a century or two ago.

They've changed the name of it, even, trying to pin it down to something else. Catarrh, which meant a flowing down (quite graphically), must have been a bit too broad for some noses because the cold now goes by the name of "the common cold" in most circles, though it may masquerade as an acute upper respiratory infection, rhinitis, or coryza (which sounds like a sneeze).

The very first sign of a cold is felt in the nose or back there at the top of the throat. It may be an itchy or tickling feeling, a dryness or rawness, but if you're real observant, you'll take that as the signal that you've got a cold coming on. And you feel a little chilled or a bit irritable along with that tickle or itch. If you'd tuck your self in bed, drink lots of water and take an aspirin at this point, you probably would nip that cold in the bud. Chances are you won't or can't, however, so about 24 hours later you can expect that cold bud to burst into full bloom.

A full bloom cold is not a pretty posy. There is sneezing, sometimes much and strenuous sneezing. Your eyes water, as does your nose. You drip. Your nose is a one-way street with traffic only moving out, no air going in, so you breathe through your mouth, making your throat feel rough and dry. You are weak, ornery, chilly, headachey and feel feverish but usually can't even have the satisfaction of finding any fever registered on the thermometer.

If you'd tuck yourself in bed, drink lots of water and take an aspirin at this point, you probably would get rid of the cold within 24 hours. Chances are you won't or you can't however, so about 24 hours later you can expect that cold to make you feel even worse—but you most likely will have company because someone else has probably caught your cold by then.

About the third day of your cold, your nose quits dripping, it starts getting tighter with a heavier discharge congesting the nasal traffic even more. You may add a cough at this period and your throat may get quite rough and itchy. Despite that, you may start feeling better and progress, minus sneezes and chills, back to good health, except for that nose which might stay thickly clogged for days or even weeks. Eventually the congestion may clear up or it may be the ringleader in your cold developing into something more serious. At which point you will HAVE to tuck your self in bed drink lots of water along with much medication and wish that you had taken to your bed back there in the early stages.

You can't get around rest in bed is the best treatment for a cold. There is no pill, saline, nose drop, gargle, rubbing remedy, ointment, or vaccine known to the medical profession which is reliable in preventing or curing the common cold. If you have many allergies, which seem in some way connected with susceptibility to colds, you may build up your resistance to the allergies by the anti-histamine tablets when the allergic manifestations appear. Aspirin is often advised for a cold to make you feel better while you're "laying out" the cold in bed. Whiskey has no known medical value for a cold though it is claimed by some that it makes you feel better. Gargling warm salt water might make your throat feel better when too much mouth-breathing has roughened it up a bit. Inhaling steam to have a soothing effect upon the congestion in the nose. You usually are thirsty during a cold because you're losing so much fluid by the drip of your nose, so you drink fluids as your thirst tells you to.

But first and foremost, tuck yourself in bed. You reduce the severity of your cold, limit its spread to others and cut down the possibility of complications by simply going to bed when you have a cold. If the cold still gets worse, call your doctor and follow his advice, but bed rest is the first treatment for the common cold.

Library News

The steering committee for the Floyd county libraries met in the county library room Monday, March 10, at 3:30 p.m. The Commissioners' court met with the committee and asked that a petition be circulated to be signed by a majority of the interested citizens of the county. Such a petition makes it mandatory for the commissioners to act in regard to the library movement.

Mrs. Jim Barnard, chairman of the committee, read letters from librarians who have visited the committee in the past and are giving Floyd county all the assistance possible in making the library movement successful.

Mrs. Lucille Wilson, extension director of the Texas State Library, plans to visit Floydada and Lockney in late May. Also, the Carson County "Bookmobile" will be on display for inspection in Floydada during the old settlers reunion on May 28. Several members of the Floyd county committee are planning to attend a workshop to be held in the Levelland county library on March 28.

HARTSELLS VISIT DOWNSIDE

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hartsell returned home on March 2, from a visit in Bridgeport with her parents. While there they attended a birthday celebration for her father who was 86 years of age. Others attending the birthday party from Floydada were Mr. and Mrs. Blanton Hartsell and children and Mrs. Roy Burrows of Lubbock.

SERVICEMEN'S CORRESPONDENCE FILLS THOUSANDS OF MAIL SACKS

Mail sacks to and from the Far East carry tons of letters and parcels every week in the interchange of correspondence between the American Armed Forces in Korea and their friends at home, and throughout the world.

Letter writing in the present conflict is declared to be carried on to greater extent than in World War II. This is said to be due to the increased efficiency of the Army and Fleet postal services and the more general use of air mail, bringing letters across the Pacific and into the hands of correspondents on both sides of the water in a matter of a few days.

Here is a picture of a soldier writing home—a photograph that could be duplicated hundreds of times every day along the fighting front in Korea, and with slight variation as to background, among the men on the ships, or on the airstrips.

Pfc. Dwight W. Eke, of Minneapolis, Minn., in a sand-bagged dugout is catching up with his letters to the folks at home during a break in the action against the Chinese Communist forces in the rugged mountains of Northern Korea. He is a second gunner on a 75-MM recoilless rifle with the 1st U. S. Cavalry Division. He writes left-handed, but is equipped with a fountain pen and seems to be pleased with the message he is inditing. He hopes that before another week rolls by it will reach its destination and bring happiness and comfort to his friends over here. (Army photograph released by the Department of Defense.)

LEON MISSES Floyd County Spelling Entry Places Second

Forgetting for the moment his coach's oft-repeated warning to "ask for the root word when you don't understand the pronunciation," pint-sized Leon Wiley tripped on "virulent" and placed second in the regional spelling bee at Amarillo Saturday afternoon. His opponent of the last round was an Amarillo youngster, representing Potter county. Leon knew how to spell "virulent" but he couldn't understand what the pronouncer was saying.

Leon missed the trip to Washington, D. C., but he returned home with a $20 prize, the promise of a round as a guest of the civic clubs this week in Floydada and the praise of his coach, Mrs. H. G. Barber. Leon is an eighth grader. Accordingly this is his last shot at the coveted trip. His opponent spelled virulent and one more word to win the championship of the region.

Master Wiley was accompanied to the regional spelling bee by Mrs. Barber, his mother, Mrs. J. R. Wiley, his high school sister Mary, and by Jay Johnson, who placed second in the Floyd county contest this year.

The contest staged by the News-Globe Publishing company, of Amarillo, was held in the high school auditorium before a big audience of people. There were 43 contestants from Oklahoma, Kansas, Texas and New Mexico. According to the rules 48 counties constitutes a "region." Thus 43 of the 48 county region were in the contest. "They fell fast for the first few minutes and before long the standing spellers were down to six," Mrs. Barber reported. "Then shortly it was a duel between Leon and the youngster from Amarillo. Leon could walk under the arms of most of his opponents. He spelled three hours," she said.

Jay Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Johnson. He was second in the county contest, and Mrs. Barber gave him the Amarillo trip because he is a good prospect for next year's contest. If he should win in the county he'd be familiar with the setting at the regional contest and more poised in the pressure of the big spelling bee.

seems to be indicated by a provision of the statutes governing towns incorporated under the general laws of Texas. The mayor cites a provision which reads:

"All ordinances and resolutions adopted by the council shall, before they take effect, be placed in the office of the city secretary; and the mayor shall sign those he approves."

Such as he shall not sign, he shall return to the city council with his objections thereto. Upon the return of any ordinance or resolution by the mayor, the vote by which the same was passed shall be reconsidered. If, after such reconsideration, a majority of the whole number of aldermen agree to pass the same, and enter their votes on the journal of their proceedings, it shall be in force. If the mayor shall neglect to approve or object to any proceedings for a longer period than 3 days after the same shall be placed in the secretary's office as aforesaid, the same shall go into effect.

This instance is the first in the history of Floydada that this provision has been invoked.

W. E. Brand Rites Tuesday Afternoon

Funeral services for W. E. Brand, 57, of the Cedar Hill community, were conducted on Tuesday afternoon in the First Baptist church with the pastor, R. Earl Allen officiating. Burial was in Floydada cemetery under the direction of the Harmon Funeral home.

Palbearers were Aldine Williams, C. F. Lemons, Homer Cyfert, Andrew Jettison, Rene Yearly and Pete Calloway.

Willie Ernest Brand was born in Denton county, Texas, on June 17, 1894. He joined the Baptist church at the age of 19 in Denton county. He was married to Miss Roxie Stanley at Toga, Texas, on August 5, 1917 and moved to Floyd county in 1928, to the Cedar Hill community, where the family have since that time made their home. Mr. Brand was a prominent farmer in that community.

Mr. Brand suffered a stroke at his home and was removed to the Peoples hospital two weeks ago. He succumbed Monday morning at 9:45 o'clock.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. W. E. Brand, two sons, Louis D. Brand of Amarillo, and Noland B. Brand of Floydada and two daughters, Mrs. James Love of Decatur, Illinois and Mrs. Alvin Husky of Amarillo. Five grandchildren, his mother, Mrs. Ben Brand of Denton, Texas, and one brother, Louis Brand of Denton, also survive. All of these were present for the funeral service with the exception of his mother who was unable to make the trip here.

Many out of town relatives and friends were present for the funeral on Tuesday.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. R. C. Watson Sunday were her daughters, one son and her granddaughters and families. They were Mrs. Joe R. Evers of Crosbyton, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Batten, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batten, O. M. Watson, Mrs. Orville Custer and little son, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Warren and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Cook and children of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen White, who have been on the west coast during the winter, returned this week to spend some months during the spring and summer.

Recognition for Three Floydada Students At All-College Service

Three students from Floydada will be honored at the All-College Recognition Service at Texas Tech Wednesday, March 19.

Pauline Denison and Homer G. Kennamer will receive Individual Honors for scholastic achievement during the spring and fall semesters of 1931. In addition, Homer will be recognized as winner of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers Award and the Phi Psi Certificate Award. The son of Homer G. Kennamer sr., he is a senior in the Division of Engineering. Pauline, a sophomore in the Division of Arts and Sciences, is the daughter of Paul A. Denison.

Leonard Wilson, a senior in Agriculture at Tech, will be recognized as winner of a Plant Industry Club Award. He is the son of Walton B. Wilson.

Tech pauses one day a year to give recognition to students who

Irwin Twins Leave Tech for Air Force Base at Lackland

Floydada's identical twins, Herbert David Irwin and Herschel Samuel Irwin, sons of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Irwin of the Pairview community, have joined the Air force. They have been inducted and now are at Lackland Air Force base at San Antonio.

Herbert and Herschel graduated with the 1930 class of the Floydada high school. They played right and left tackle on the whirlwind football team. For the past semester they were enrolled at Texas Tech and left the school to enroll in the Air Force.

Herbert and Herschel were inducted thru the Army and Air Force Recruiting station at Amarillo. They were sworn in the Air Force by Captain Robert L. Gilliam, recruiting officer.

The boys visited with their brother, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Irwin in the Pairview community, before leaving for San Antonio.

Many Masonic Honors

In recognition of his many years of service in the Chapter Mr. Bartley was made Honorary Grand High Priest by unanimous vote of the Grand Chapter in 1941. He served the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Texas, as Grand Commander in 1932. He had held numerous committee appointments in the Grand Lodge of Texas and was Grand Orator in 1942.

For about a year after he retired as Grand Secretary of the Chapter Mr. Bartley served as Grand Recorder of the Grand Encampment, Knights Templar, USA, in Indianapolis, Ind.

Mr. Bartley was made a Mason in 1892 in Floyd City Lodge No. 712 and was a Past Master of that Lodge and Tahoka Lodge. He moved his membership to several West Texas Lodges and when he went to Waco to reside he affiliated with Gurley Lodge.

Baptists to Hear Missionary Sunday

Howard R. Shoemaker, missionary on furlough from Columbia, South America, will speak at the First Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. It was announced this week by R. Earl Allen, pastor of the church.

Rev. Shoemaker, a former Texas pastor, is a graduate of Howard Payne college and of Southwestern Baptist seminary.

Guest Speaker March 19

Another missionary, home from the foreign fields, will be heard at the church Wednesday night of next week, March 19. This is Dr. Jim Graham, whose ministry to China and Formosa has been supported out of the personal means of Billy Graham, the evangelist. The missionary and the evangelist are not related, the pastor of the church said.

An admission of 50 cents and 30 cents has been decided upon for the show which begins at 7:30 o'clock.

Acapulco Gets The Nod of Vacationers

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Guthrie and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hagood are at home following a delightful vacation spent in Florida and Cuba, and in Old Mexico.

Florida and Cuba are good places to vacation but Acapulco, the west coast resort in Old Mexico made the headlines in the conversation of the returning vacationers.

Each of the men landed a sailfish at Acapulco and brought home moving pictures of the fish. Mexico was not as hot as they thought it would be at Dallas they flew to Acapulco and then to the resort.

AN ORDINANCE REGULATING THE RATES OF THE SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY IN THE CITY OF FLOYDADA, TEXAS

WHEREAS, The Southwestern Bell Telephone Company has appeared before the City Council and has shown that it has increased its investment devoted to rendering local exchange telephone service since the rates now in effect were established and is now confronted with substantial increase in taxes and other operating expenses, and

WHEREAS, the Company has further shown to the City Council that its earnings from presently authorized rates are inadequate to meet the increased costs of operation and provide a fair return upon the present fair value of its local exchange investment in Floydada, and

WHEREAS, continued operation of the Company's property in Floydada with insufficient earnings will not justify the investment of additional capital needed to provide the additional facilities required to meet the growing demand for service in Floydada and to maintain the Company's high standards of service, and

WHEREAS, the Company proposes to adjust its schedule of rates in keeping with the larger investment and the general increased costs of doing business under present conditions, and

WHEREAS, the Company has shown to the City Council that said adjustment of its rate schedule will not under present conditions produce more revenue than is sufficient to provide a fair return upon the fair value of its local exchange property in Floydada, and

WHEREAS, under the circumstances, said proposed schedule appears to the City Council as reasonable and just, and necessary to insure the continued expansion and improvement of telephone service to the citizens of Floydada,

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT OR-DAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF FLOYDADA:

Section 1: That the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company is here by authorized to place into effect on April 11, 1952, the following schedule of rates:

Authority to charge for certain miscellaneous services and equip- ment the rates set out in the Sched- ule of Miscellaneous Rates and Charges attached hereto and made a part hereof is also granted.

Section 2: That nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed as in any manner, now or here after, limiting or modifying the right and power of the City Council under the law to regulate the rates charged by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company for its service within the City of Floydada.

Passed and approved this day of _____, 1952.

Mayor, City Council
City of Floydada, Texas

ATTEST:
City Secretary

TO THE MEMBERS OF
THE CITY COUNCIL:

As mayor of the City of Floydada, Texas, I cannot with good conscience approve the ordinance raising the rates to be charged by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Floydada, Texas, which was passed by the City Council at the regular meeting on March 10, 1952.
For specific reasons for disapproving the ordinance, I cite as follows:

I.
The ordinance as passed grants to the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company an increase in rates of something over thirty-five per cent, which in my opinion is not justified.

II.
An ordinance effecting the economy of all the citizens, as this one does, should not be adopted without the full membership of the Council being present. One member of the Council was absent on March 10th and did not have an opportunity to register a vote with reference to the ordinance.

III.
No definite commitment was made by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company as to when their expansion program might be put into effect and telephones extended to those in town who have been waiting for telephone service for some time nor was any commitment made in writing as to the improving of the existing service.

My disapproval of this rate ordinance should not be construed as reflecting in any way upon the intercity or good faith of the members of the council. They have given this matter serious consideration and acted with the utmost good faith.
BUT I cannot agree that an increase in telephone rates of thirty-five per cent is justified at this time, especially in view of the fact that the telephone company was granted a substantial increase rates in August, 1948, a little more than three years ago.

A copy of the above and foregoing has this day been mailed to Mr.
John B. Stapleton, District Attorney, attorney for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, and to Mr.
A. O. Thomas, District Manager, at Amarillo, Texas.

J. A. Patterson
Mayor, City of Floydada, Texas

THUMB NAIL BIOGRAPHY

WHO: Stephen Collins Foster

WHAT: American songwriter

BORN: July 4, 1826—Pittsburgh, Pa.

DIED: January 13, 1864—New York City

WORK: Foster has been enshrined in the hearts of Americans as a writer of songs which express the native folklore of the simple people. He led a very different life. He married in 1850, but his wife left him ten years later. He died in poverty, in a charity hospital. In his later life he became a victim of heavy and uncontrolled drinking.

Some of his most famous songs are Swanee River, My Old Kentucky Home, Old Black Joe, O Susanna, Nelly Was A Lady, and the song that became famous as a Confederate marching song, "Dixie." He was evidently working and thinking to the moment of his death. A sheet paper was found by his bed, on which he had written "Dear Hearts and Gentle People," evidently a theme for a new song.

Special emphasis has been placed on indicating various recreational, scenic, and historical spots. All U. S. and state highways are shown. The more important farm and ranch to market roads which serve the cross-country motorist are also shown. The travel information reflected on the map is designed to supply motorists with guidance needed for safety, comfort, and pleasure while traveling Texas highways.

The back side of the map is jam-packed with factual and pictorial Texas history. The story of Texas is unfolded with the map. Many famous milestones and landmarks are described and portrayed. There are 26 pictures in full color of the more popular historical points of interest in the State with a full caption explaining each scene. A panorama is used to introduce some of the more popular historical characters in a "passing parade" of Texas history. Included also for the first time is a map of Mexico, incorporated with the small U. S. map, showing the principal highways and cities, however, it is primarily for geographical purposes.

This new map can be obtained by mailing the map card distributed by the tax assessor-collector's office with the sale of license plates, or by writing directly to the Texas Highway Department, Austin 14, Texas. Copies are also available in any highway district office or the highway travel information bureau.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(Nellie Witt Spikes.)

The Dream Home

Mrs. D. H. Criswell

What sort of a place is your dream home?
Perhaps you have drawn a plan,
With rooms and halls and storage space,
For a dreamy maid and her "man."

That home will be what you make it,
Not only from wood and stone,
For so many things not bought or sold
Go into a real Dream Home.

Will it be a place where you each can rest
In understanding and love?
Where you share life's joys and face
life's trials
In the grace of the Father above?

Will you seek to shut out all strife
and hate?
As you would the sand and wind?
By giving soft answers will you create
A sweet atmosphere within?

Will you work with your hands
Your heads and your hearts?
To provide the things in kind, that are needed by body and mind and soul
By each one this home shall bind?

Will all be for each and each for all
And resentments cast out with the draft?
Will you each be willing to sacrifice
To make this home what you ought?

No one can build it. It surely takes two
Or as many as in it shall dwell.
You see in a Dream Home
Its up to you and you and you
To make it a Heaven or hell

Thank you, Mrs. Criswell for this inspirational poem which I am passing on for others to profit by and enjoy. Hope you have fully recovered from your recent illness.

I wake up each morning and give thanks for another day ahead. What it will bring I do not know but I am sure that along with all the discomforts and sadness will be much joy and pleasure and a bit of adventure.
"For me the diamond dawn is a set

In rings of beauty,
And all my ways are dewy wet
With pleasant duty."
And when the curtains of night are pinned together with a star I wonder if I will have to say with the poet:
"Lost, yesterday, somewhere between sun rise and sunset, two golden hours, each set with sixty diamond minutes. No reward is offered for they are gone forever."
So in the morning when you awake give thanks for another dawning day of blue. Do not let it slip uselessly away.

We were made happy with the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey of Carr's Chapel. And also by Mrs. L.

C. McDonald and Mrs. Bell Henry coming to see us.

Across the street the light did not shine out clear and bright the last few nights. We did not hear the sound of pickup tires down the street at a very early hour. We did not hear the sound of Mac's and Linda's childish voices in play. We will not see little Sarah Jane grow and grow and grow. The Jimmy Wilson's have moved. It is strange how a vacant house takes on such a sad look after the last household thing has been moved out. The windows stare as if looking in vain for the coming of the ones who have looked out of them. Even the doorbell has a muted sound.

But the new owners, the K. Terrells, will move in and the light will shine from the windows again.

A ruminant is a cud-chewing animal.

"How many friends do you have who would help you out of a tight spot?" an article in a recent magazine asked. Then you turned to page 66 to find out how you rated. Seemed if you could name three, you could consider yourself average, if not above par.

We think a better question might be, "How many friends do you have whom you would help?" For the important quality in friendship is an unselfish give-and-take.

We know one woman who can always find time to help a friend in need. She does all of her own housework, makes most of her own clothes, and is a good wife. But she's the one who shows up to help paint blinds for a new home, who brings a hot lunch when a neighbor has the flu; who keeps all of her daughter's friends when their parents leave town. Once she overheard us fussing about having no help for a tea. At a quarter of the hour, our back doorbell rang and there she stood in a crisp little apron, all set to keep the coffee pot-filled.

We know another thoughtful person who hasn't time for such kindnesses as that. But she never fails to bring a few fruit blossoms or a pan of rolls when you are ill. When she sees a friend's name in the paper, for some little honor that may not amount to a thing, she remembers to mention it the next time they meet. Even though she is always busy, she succeeds in making her friends feel that she is there to lean on if they should have the need.

Here are at least two women who help scores of others say with confidence: "I'm sure I have one friend!" We'll wager that neither of them has ever thought that she's giving more than she takes.

News of Harmony

(By Mrs. Mather Carr)

HARMONY, March 10. — The Womans Society of Christian Service met in the home of Mrs. Everett Miller Tuesday, March 4, with Mrs. Miller as hostess.

A monthly business and program was presented. The business was by Mrs. Sherwood Ramsey and the program was given by Mrs. Everett Miller. The opening prayer was given by Mrs. E. W. Turner. Members present were Mmes. Sherwood Ramsey, M. D. Ramsey, E. W. Turner, Marvin Smith, Zant Scott, Everett Miller, Mather Carr and a guest, Mrs. R. S. Gary.

Refreshments were served to all present.

We are still having prayer services and choir practice at the chapel on Wednesday night. There were 36 present last Wednesday night. Mrs. Don Finkner brought the devotion.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Martin and son, of Abilene, spent the week-end in the home of Mrs. Martin's cousin, Zant Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Scott, of Lubbock, visited Mr. Scott's parents over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller, of Lubbock, visited over the week-end with Mr. Miller's son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Tipton have returned home from Arkansas, where they were prospecting. They did not buy, as they have been ill and have returned to their daughters home, Mrs. Sherwood Ramsey.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Williams of Amarillo visited in the home of their son and family over the week-end. Well, they said there was no use to put any news in about the fish supper Friday night at the community center, as everybody was there. We know everyone was not there, but there was a full house as well as full stomachs. We never fried so much fish at one time and believe me, we had plenty and fish left.

This was a wonderful supper and the best of all to some was the slides showed of the Holy Land, which was so wonderful for people who will never get to go. Dr. Malone is a wonderful speaker and everyone enjoyed it so much. People were present from Amarillo, Lubbock, Plainview, Lockney, Floydada, Petersburg, Cone and surrounding communities. The program was opened by singing "America," led by Mrs. Everett Miller with Mrs. M. D. Ramsey at the piano. Prayer was led by Rev. Cookrell of Petersburg. The closing prayer was by Rev. Krebbs.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Ramsey and children and Wright Scott attended the spelling contest at Amarillo

Saturday. Sherry Ramsey was the Hale County girl, who won in the contest at Plainview. Sherry did not win, but did mighty good as she was the fifteenth left on the floor. Wright Scott was interviewed, as he was the winner of Hale county last year at Amarillo. He was selected to go to Washington D. C. Wright is the son of Hal Scott.

Our fourth quarterly conference was held at Carr's chapel Sunday. Rev. Krebbs preached and Rev. Boyd preached afternoon and held conference. This was a very good conference. Mrs. Everett Miller was elected a delegate to annual conference, which will be held in Lubbock, May 28.

M. D. Ramsey accompanied Bill Finkner to Dallas Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eyerly and daughters of Springlake attended church, Sunday school and conference quarterly conference at the chapel Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Martin and son of Abilene attended all the services at the chapel Sunday.

Miss Doris Elayne Snodgrass, who is in college at Canyon, spent the week-end with home folks and attended services at the chapel.

Mrs. Rueben Rutherford of Plainview attended services at the chapel Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Pool spent the week-end in Dallas with relatives celebrating Mrs. Pools fathers, 70th birthday.

YOU CAN'T SERVE 21 MEALS on a Few Weekend Specials

Could you feed your family 3 meals a day — 7 days a week — on two, three (or a dozen so-called "Specials"? Of course you couldn't! Delicious, nutritious, appetite-interesting meals call for a variety of foods. And that's why it's the TOTAL COST of your food bill — not the few "Specials" — that determine how much money you save. So, for real economy — for better meals and bigger savings — shop where everything is a low price every day. Shop at PATTERSON'S GROCERY AND MARKET and save all along your food list.

Views and Comment

For those who didn't get their income tax worries behind them in January this is the last week for handling the job. Most businesses operate on the basis of gross income less gross expense to arrive at their net, make their computations of tax due and remit on or before March 15. For most farms operating on an accrual basis the returns are due in January with an estimate of what the anticipated income will be for the year to follow. For those to whom this week is the last it is consoling to know that if you lack a little of having your report ready when Saturday hits you have another day to finish. Saturday is a holiday for all the federal folks and the presumption is that you couldn't file your report if you wanted to do so the "office" not being open. Then Sunday follows, of course, and you couldn't file that day. But Monday you must.

Every spring it comes about that people seek a short way out to rid their areas of flies, to battle the pests with every means available. To which problem State Health Officer Cox has already addressed this statement: Nothing takes the place of cleanliness in the fight against these disease carriers. More and more we realize that flies, and to a less extent, mosquitoes are the carriers of deadly germs that are incident to a large number of the diseases which plague the human race. Flies first, then mosquitoes, fleas, rats and mice.

Cash balances of the 277 accounts in which the State of Texas keeps its money was one hundred seventy one million, three hundred seventeen thousand, six hundred eighty-six dollars and forty-nine cents. Number One fund is the unallocated clearance and Number 277 is the Jim Hogg State Park building fund. Seven of the "funds" have no money in them, one has five cents. They run from that up to twenty-six million. We wish we had a lot more things like this we could copy off right snappily this week and save the trouble of thinking up something.

Middle age is the time of life when a man stops wondering if he can escape temptation and begins to wonder if he's missing any.

The measure of a man's real character is what he would do if he knew he would never be found out. — Thomas Babington Macaulay.

Over at Ralls the Banner is getting into the local campaigns for school trustee and for city officials. Notice that the newspaper would "take sides" was given last week. This week it is to announce who it is "for" and who "against." The Banner editor thinks the board has made the mistake of not taking the public into confidence about the public's business. Why a good, fair, honest, intelligent citizen who gets elected to a school board job begins at once to "operate in the dark of the moon" is the query the editor propounds to forecast his attitude. There are rare occasions when any local authority has good reason to handle the people's business in star chamber sessions. The affairs of a person's private business are his own, but those of a public trust belong to the public, operated out in the open. It is a peculiar twist of human nature that when one becomes a trustee or some such he often forgets this and becomes suspicious of the very neighbors who turned their public trust over to him. In our philosophy, however, the value to a community of the newspaper "taking sides" is quite doubtful except in extreme cases.

How far science is getting ahead of the layman is told well by a paragraph we find in a house organ which comes to the editorial desk. To give you an idea of what a world full of things there are that you know totally nothing about it is given below, with this parenthetical point, that there are men and women by the thousands in our country to whom the paragraph makes sense: "Blank company is now offering N, N for the first time in trial lot quantities. It is a reactive, bifunctional monomer which undergoes reactions typical of its vinyl and amide groups. It copolymerizes with such monomers as ethylene sulfonic acid, acrylic acid and chloromaleic acid to yield cross-linked, insoluble resins. Products having similar properties may also be obtained by reaction with polyester resins."

Four Candidates For City Council

LOCKNEY.—The deadline on filing for a place on the city ballot last Saturday at noon found four new names listed for three vacancies which will occur on the city council in April. Names filed were George Webster, Claude Hammond, C. E. Childers and J. D. Wood.

The terms of J. H. Cooper, Lloyd Woodford and Austin Meriweather all expire this year. None of the men would consent to run again.

The election will be held Tuesday, April 1, at the city hall. Election judge will be Mrs. Henry Model with Mrs. E. L. Woodburn and Frank Dodson as clerks.

KITCHEN NEWS

(by Nancy Morckel Electrification Advisor Floyd C. Rural Electric Cooperative, Inc.)

Manager Melvin Henry has gone to Chicago to attend the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association convention. He was accompanied by W. C. Snodgrass, president of the board of directors; Oliver Harmel, vice-president; Herman King, secretary and treasurer; and John Key West, board member. The convention will be held March 10-13.

The tailoring class met Wednesday afternoon 1:30 p.m. Some beautiful new suits are in the making for Easter.

Some from the co-op office attended the "fish supper" at Harmony community center last Friday night. It was a very nice affair. The supper was delicious and the program was wonderful. Dr. Malone of Lubbock brought the same program for the employees and directors Christmas party that was held in the kitchen last December. Those who saw the pictures for the second time enjoyed them as much as the first time they saw them.

Work is being done on the cook book material getting it in shape for the publisher within the next few days. Everyone is looking forward to the books that are to be finished by the annual meeting, April 19.

Don't forget the annual meeting date—April 19, at Floydada, Texas. This will be an all-day meeting. The annual meeting planning committee is working hard on a full day's program. Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ola Moore, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thomas, and Mal Jarboe Committee members visited in Plainview last Wednesday afternoon.

Attendance prizes will be given to members attending the annual meeting. More than 100 articles to be given away are already in the office.

The baby chicks out-grew the display window. Sherman Smith, Route 4, Floydada, bought the electric brooder and the chicks last Wednesday. They were 3 weeks old, but there was still 100 of them.

Gum Drop Cookies

4 eggs 1/4 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoon water 1 teaspoon cinnamon

2 cups brown sugar 1 cup gum drops, cut in small pieces
2 cups flour 3/4 cups chopped English walnuts

Beat eggs with water until light; add sugar and mix well. Add sifted dry ingredients. Stir in gum drops and nuts. Bake in 9x13 inch pan in moderate oven 350° for 20-25 minutes.

While warm spread with Orange Butter Frosting. When cool cut in squares.

Orange Butter Icing:
1/4 cup butter, 2 cups confectioners' sugar, 2 egg yolks (may be omitted) 2 tablespoons orange juice. Add a little orange rind if desired.

GAME KID

Club member (to caddy): "Well, how do you like my game?"
Caddy: "I guess it's all right. But I still prefer golf."

Mongole Funeral

Rites at Clarendon

Mrs. J. D. Colville spent several days in Clarendon at the bedside of her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Mongle, who passed away at her home there on February 27. Mrs. Mongle had suffered a series of strokes during the past few years.

Mrs. Mongle was 76 years of age and had lived in Clarendon for the past 32 years.

Funeral services were held in the First Presbyterian church there last Friday. Survivors of Mrs. Mongle are two daughters, Misses Edna and Mable Mongole, both of Clarendon and five nieces and nephews.

Attending the funeral from Floydada were Mesdames Glen Amburn, R. C. Henry, Jr., J. C. Covington, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beedy, Mr. and Mrs. George Beedy and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Colville. Mrs. Colville's sister, Mrs. L. L. McDermott and Mr. McDermott of Ralls, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Beedy of Fort Worth, also attended the funeral.

Arthur, George and Bill Beedy acted as pallbearers with Carl Smith, Ralph Zachary and Archie Maness.

Mrs. Mongole was a sister of the late Mrs. A. A. Beedy of Floydada.

MRS. METCALF HOSPITALIZED FOR TREATMENT IN HOUSTON

Mrs. Mildred Wood Metcalf of Seminole, is in Henderson hospital at Houston where she is receiving treatment for a throat and gland ailment, before having surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wood accompanied their daughter and her husband, Gerry Metcalf of Seminole, to Houston last week. Mr. Wood returned home on Thursday night.

The Floyd County Hesperian, Floydada, Texas, Thursday, March 13, 1952

Mrs. Wood will remain with her daughter for an indefinite time. Mrs. Metcalf's address is 2706 1/2 Helena Street, Houston, Zone 6, Texas. She would be glad to here from her friends here, the family said.

We're often judged by the way we use telephone service. Good telephone technique and good telephone manners are important to a winning personality... and help you get the most from your telephone service.

Of all the many questions I'm asked about good party line manners, probably the most frequent one is "How long should my telephone conversations be?"

Answer: The length of your conversations will vary, of course. But purely for a selfish reason, it's a good idea to avoid long, drawn-out conversations. No incoming calls, however important, can get through to you while your telephone is tied up. And your party line neighbor can't make OK receive a call. You're displaying good party line manners when you hold conversations to a reasonably short length—consideration that folks on your party line will appreciate and return.

Recently, a friend visiting at my home noticed a small booklet titled "LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE NUMBERS" lying beside my telephone. My guest asked "Is there any advantage in making long distance calls by number?"

Answer: Indeed, there is. Long distance calls go through faster—often twice as fast—when you call by number. The smart, well-informed telephone user takes fullest advantage of today's fast long distance service by placing out-of-town calls by number whenever possible. Incidentally, if you don't already have one of those convenient booklets for listing out-of-town telephone numbers, you can get one free at the telephone company business office. That's where I got mine.

Here's another test of good telephone technique. When in doubt about a telephone number, should you look in the telephone directory... or call information?

Answer: You will usually save time if you look in the directory first. Chances are, you'll find the number there. The telephone company people tell me their records show that 3 out of 4 calls to information are for numbers listed in the telephone book. Why make two calls when one will do, three out of four times?

You're off in a Swirl of Power!

WE'RE willing to wager that not one person in a hundred knows what really goes on inside an automobile engine—so let's take this by easy stages.

The instant you nudge Buick's Fireball 8 Engine into action—a whole string of things starts to happen.

Eight sparks begin to crackle in well-timed sequence. Eight pistons start gliding up and down with rhythmic precision. Eight pairs of valves dance open and closed—to let fuel charges in, exhaust gases out of cylinder after cylinder.

All right, you say, what's so complex about that? Can't anyone build an engine that does this to perfection?

Well, we'd better add, these things happen at the rate of more than 10,000 times per mile—and that's 100 times per second at 35 miles an hour!

So—it's important to know that Buick uses a deep-breathing valve-in-head design that shoots a fuel charge in—cleans exhaust gases out—in a hurry.

It's important to know that all the power released by the fuel concentrates its driving force right on the head of each Buick piston. (Everyone who has recently built "new" high-compression engines copied this "Buick first.")

But most important of all—Buick adds one more twist which others still haven't copied.

Every charge of fuel rushing into a Buick engine becomes a twisting, swirling, high-compressed ball that flashes with sudden, consuming completeness the instant the spark sets it afire.

And to add this all up: clean, complete combustion—10,000 times per mile—is the secret of getting more power—more miles—from each gallon of gasoline.

So we're not simply using picture words when we tell you that Buick—and only Buick—has a FIREBALL ENGINE—or that you're off in a swirl of power with one of these high-powered performers under the hood.

1952 has brought a lot of sparkling new improvements which you'll want to see and admire when you come to our showrooms.

But the thrill of thrills is still what you and a Buick—and a Fireball 8 Engine—can do out on the road. When do you want to try a sample?

Tulia Futures Drop Floydada 29-32

The Tulia Hornets' next year's team clinched their basketball season by dropping Floydada 29-32 Friday night.

The game was played on even terms with the score being tied 16-16 at the end of the first half. Tulia commanded a 27-26 lead at the end of the third quarter. The game was won in the final minutes when Tulia pulled away from the hounding "Wanda."

Bobby Ashton scored high points for the losers garnering 8 points.

tall. I am sure Guy has several likes but among them are wrestling matches, Mrs. Cooper, cigarettes, and shows.

His few dislikes are snooty people and Lockney. Guy's hobbies are swimming, table tennis, and collecting money (Paying bobbie, anyhow).

Guy's favorite movie was "Desert Fox" and his favorite actor and actress are Humphrey Bogart and Virginia Mayo.

When asked what his ideal girl would be like, he replied, "She'd have dark hair, blue eyes, stand 5' 2" tall, weigh 115 lbs., and have a nice personality and like to do the things I do."

Guy's most exciting moment was the day he was chosen by the American Legion to represent Floydada at Boy's State.

There are several things Guy wouldn't mind being, but his ambition is to graduate from college and open a business of his own.

Guy, with your personality and determination we know you will make good in everything!! Luck to ya!

SNOOPER

Well, have you guys and gals done much these past few days? We won't see!! What happened to our report cards? Low grades!! Come on kids let's beat it next time. Say now, what happened to Gail Brown and Glen Wood? Why can't you kids tell us all about it instead of just enough to get our curiosity aroused?

Wow! Whomever putting calls from a guy in far off Houston. Could I borrow your formula for making a man do that, get? What has Johnny W found over at grade school that interests him so. Pat H. maybe? You had just as well send the rest of it Johnny. I'll find out. Who is this mysterious boy that is admiring Wanda La Grange? Did I see him wink at her the other day or did my eyes deceive me? (Again) Say Darlene, do you really want to be a cowgirl, or is it because Mark Nickerson wants to be a cowboy to him? Pat G. who was your old flame that visited you over the week end. Fun?? An old romance starting again. Barbara Bullock was you with R. W. Smith Saturday night? Come on. How was the Drive-In Nat-night, K. King? Some dish!!!! Several foot-loose, fancy free boys roaming around at open house Friday. Some didn't stay free it seems. Say something, Gerald???

Tanya,

have you been keeping close watch on Frank? Greener pastures over yonder. Jo Clark and Barbara Mc. seem to know good men when they see them. Dixie Day or... You've heard of the Dalton Bros, the James Bros, and the Younger Bros. Well no resemblance except that he is one of the Dalton Bros. Who? The guy dating our own Ray Nell Irby!!! Slumber parties, good times, and sleepy eyes all seem to go hand in hand. Eh, girls. Say Darlene Darling, is "Harvey" real or is he a six foot rabbit? Bet you know "Got a date with Christine," says James W. Dorman Turner seen ??? at ?? with ???

Dane, it would seem best to let old age do away with your hair... not be scalped by jealous boy friends. Plain-view we hear you calling, says Sammie and Buena. Kinda seems that Pat R. shares those sentiments! "Cookie," is it the girls or the Wrestling matches that you like so well every Tuesday night? What's this latest I hear about "Hot Lips Trague?"

"Don't rob another man's Castle," Norman — grade school or no! Well, Deadline, is here so I'd better go. See ya, around, "Fudders."

Just the Other Day

The other day, March 7 to be exact, I was walking down the halls going to the assembly behind the mob, when suddenly I was stunned senseless. (This was quite unusual, being stunned I mean!) I was speechless. (This was very unusual.) I was scared stiff. (This wasn't unusual though). It was awful.

There, at the end of the hall, just passing Coach Watson's room was a three ton Pershing Tank!!! I couldn't believe it. I pinched myself "Ouch" to see if I were dreaming. I wasn't. And the tank kept getting closer and closer. I turned around to run, but coming through the South doors was a three-headed flying-horse. (I'll never eat sauerkraut and ice cream together again.)

I bolted for the front door, (locked) and just outside the door was a two-wheeled flying saucer with a radar equipped steering wheel. I was amazed.

I didn't hesitate any longer. I jumped in the flying saucer, pushed the button marked start, (for the tank and flying-horse were right behind me) but it did not move. I pushed it again. Nothing happened. The tank and horse were getting closer. Harry!!! I noticed another button marked stop. I pushed it. Immediately I started going up 30,000 feet a second.

After about 45 minutes the saucer stopped and started to fall. Down and down I went. Falling faster every second. The earth grew closer. I looked like the End. It was! Mrs. Cooper woke me and told me the movie was over.

My Kind of Woman

This week several of our male students were asked what their views were on the subject of women character, appearance, personality. These were some of the answers:

Norman Murray: "I like a good looking woman that is very neat in appearance and likes to talk about different things. She should be someone that everyone likes. I like a woman who acts as if she's having a good time, even if she isn't. I like a woman who will tell you she had a good time at the end of the date, and one who sympathizes with me and who is interested in things which interest me."

Gerald Hall: "I'm somewhat like God in regard to girls. I love them all—nearly."

Weldon Hargis: "I like a woman—who opens her own door when we go places—Who pays her own way to the show and helps me buy the gas—One who is jealous of other girls over me, and one that is ugly so that no other boy will go with her." (Weldon, it would appear that you are kidding!)

David Raper: "I like a girl with a nice personality. One who is friendly with everyone. And I love them all if they are nice."

James Freeman: "I like a woman who waits for me to perform the little courtesies that are expected, one who will keep up the conversation, but will not monopolize it, and one that is neat, has a nice personality and does not keep me waiting."

Larry Gasmeyer: "My kind of woman would be neat, prompt, and well educated. Also she would be a woman with lots of money and understanding parents. She must be cool tempered, a good conversationalist, (doesn't talk too much and definitely not about other boy friends), has mutual interests with me, and thinks me and no one else.

One To Another

HUBERT: Don't you think I'm rather good-looking?

GARY: In a way.

HUBERT: What kind of a way?

GARY: Away off!!

Absent-minded Professor POSTER: (going around in a revolving door) "Bless me!! I can't remember whether I was going in or coming out!"

DON Mc.: Why do you always take your hat off when I tell a joke?

DENNIS: That's just my way of greeting an old friend.

NEW YORKER: That is a skyscraper.

KAREN: Oh!! I wish I could see it when it's working.

MISS SWEPSTON: "A ticket to NEW YORK, please."

TICKET AGENT: "Do you wish to go by Buffalo, madam?"

MISS SWEPSTON: "Certainly not! By train, if you please."

Teacher Says:

We now glance at our Speech and Dramatics teacher, Mrs. Graves. She is known over this section of the state as one of the most intelligent and well learned women in the dramatic and speech field. She teaches three classes of Speech as well as Play Practice.

Since Mrs. Graves has been teaching dramatics in Floydada, she has not lost a district contest and has won second place in Austin twice.

We can usually find Mrs. Graves wearing tailored dresses or attractive suits. A few of her words could probably be heard in the words. You will have nearly dressed in clothes and always smile for everyone.

Cooking, sewing, and basketry and teaching the things which keep busy. Among her lessons are these: Get that head up!! Everitt!!

Mrs. Cooper we are you in our school and it as much as we do go to it.

SPRING FEVER

During these warm spring-like days, many students have had mild attacks of spring fever. The attacks have been characterized by listlessness, sleepiness, and general inactivity.

The wanderlust has begun to hit many of the students. They find it pleasant to sleep in study halls, and attempt to just "get by." "Getting by" is a fatal disease for students—the worst result being flunked out on a course and having to do the entire thing over.

It would be a good idea if the student would try harder. As the saying goes "A person gets out of any project about what he puts in to it." Perhaps some of our students don't put enough into our projects.

CANDID CAMERA

Way back in 1934 on a windy March 1, James Lee Freeman came bustling into the small town of Floydada. James stands about 5 feet 11 inches tall, has blue eyes and attractive blond hair. His well-built physique is composed of 190 pounds.

James especially likes sport shirts, flashy clothes, high-powered cars, friendly people, to travel and run around at night.

He dislikes: Lockney, snooty people, home-work, spinach, and turnip greens.

His favorite foods consist of fried chicken, mashed potatoes, gravy, hot rolls, banana-nut cake, chocolate pie, cranberry sauce, and ice tea.

When asked his favorite movie, he wasn't very hesitant with the reply "Little Egypt" (I wonder why?).

James enjoys John Wayne's and Rhonda Fleming's acting.

He said his ideal girl should be 5' 4" tall, weigh 115 lbs. (with the lbs. in the right places). She should have dark hair and an outstanding personality.

James said he was most excited when he was elected vice-president of the Senior Class. Someday he hopes to own a ranch in Colorado, and to really make something of his life.

James, we sincerely hope your dreams for the future will be fulfilled, because you are very deserving.

The cameraman snaps this week a fast moving picture of our personality of this week, Guy C. Roy. Guy was born on May 28, 1934 and his proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Roy.

Guy has light brown hair, grey eyes, and weighs 132 lbs. He is 6'1"

NOW! THE AMAZING NEW MASSEY-HARRIS "27" COMBINE GIVES YOU MORE OF EVERYTHING THAT MAKES HARVESTING EASIER, FASTER, MORE PROFITABLE

★ Capacity is the answer! Capacity that covers more acres per day... capacity to separate faster, surer... capacity that gets all of your grain... and capacity that results in ease of operation because of many new convenient features.

And mighty important in the "27" is Balanced Separation... the amazing new Massey-Harris principle that assures full control of the grain and straw through every step of harvesting. There's balanced relation between every unit... in the cutting, feeding, elevating... in the complete threshing of the rasp bar cylinder... the open handling of the straw... the saving of more grain. Every job is done smoothly, evenly... no lazy units, no over-worked units.

Those 24 controlled speeds are accomplished with only one change of gears. You can move at a crawl or up to 7½ miles per hour. It's a constant speed that helps you get your grain in on time.

There's balance in the construction of "27" itself. It's built low... streamlined... with the engine and grain tank counter-balancing one another. There's more stability, greater efficiency and safety on hill-sides.

Here's a bonus advantage for difficult conditions—extra large traction wheels. You get sure footed performance because the "27" takes a good firm grip. Ground conditions are less of a problem.

Look into the sensational new Massey-Harris "27" Self-Propelled... own one and enjoy the easiest most successful harvest you've ever had.
