"It was just wonderful, wonderful," she told the multitude of cameramen, reporters and curious neighbors gathered around her porch.

Bill Brown Named Boss Of Year At ABWA Banquet

The American Business Women's Association, a fairly new organization in Snyder has made a good showing in the community, and Thursday night held a "Boss Night" banquet at the Martha Ann Woman's Club.

Mr. Zip Button a representative of the Dale Carnegie School, and presently conducting a class in Snyder was guest speaker.

Button stressed the importance of human relations as an important asset in the business world. "To show sincere appreciation," he said, "is the best way to get back, creates good will and helps to promote better business relations."

"Confidence and leadership are not inherited," he said. "A person must have the desire and develop themselves to make this attribute a part of their character. The desire to become great leaders and working toward that goal is what has made our great leaders. Button added: It is important for each of us to develop ourselves in self expression, confidence and human relations so that we may better serve our community, our employers and have a fuller degree of satisfaction from our own accomplishments."

Highlight of the evening was the naming of the "Boss Of The Year." This honor went to Mr. Bill Brown of Texas Electric Service Co. The winning letter follows:

"I believe Bill Brown is the best boss in Scurry County."

"Our office is recognized by Texas Electric Service Company as one of the outstanding offices in the company and this is accomplished through good supervision."

"Bill believes in our company, its principles and the advancement of all concerned. He handles business matters in confidence and good taste."

"He asks each of us to be good company representatives by being good citizens. He sets a good example of this by taking part in all of our activities."

BEAUTY IS IN THE EYE OF THE BEHOLDER

Tombstone's Past Attracts Tourists To Mild Setting

BY INEZ ROBB
TOMBSTONE, Ariz. — If there were no real Tombstone, twelve would have been forged to invent this symbol of the Wild West at its wildest and wildest — the place where a man was as good as his draw and never mind his word.

Twelve, with a kind of misanthropic monotony, daily embroiders and enlarges on the legend of the town that was too tough to die. And, truth to tell, after a visit to Tombstone's greatest tourist attraction, Boothill Graveyard—its old-time burial ground—for a year almost as much blood was shed here as flows daily from the home screen.

It is twelve, too, that has canonized one of Tombstone's early and questionable residents. Wyatt Earp, the U. S. Marshal, who shot to kill anyone who might be itching to muscle in on Earp's widespread interests, throughout Arizona Territory, in the liquor, gambling and girl traffic.

The Oriental Saloon, in which Earp was a partner and in which he occasionally dealt fans, still stands at a corner of Allen and Fifth Streets. The saloon adjoins the old Wells Fargo office for which Earp was riding shotgun when he came to Tombstone and took over "law" enforcement.

Today the Wells Fargo office is the "Golden Ice Cream Parlor," now serving Hot Fudge Sundae, specializing in customers that life by pistols, at last.

"The Golden Ice Cream Parlor: Now Selling Hot Fudge Sundae," is the best capsule history of modern Tombstone available. Via tourism, Tombstone today lives on the senseless violence and bloodshed that distinguished it 80 years ago when it was the toughest.

toughest mining camp in the West. But its 1,230 citizens are models of rectitude in 1961. Its concerns are those of any other American community. FFA meetings, gatherings of the Business and Professional Women's Club, a grade-school dance to raise money for the town library, and a new street improvement program voted by the town council.

All this I have gleaned from reading "The Tombstone Epitaph," founded in 1880, the oldest paper in Arizona in point of continuous publication. There is a front-page story on the annual membership drive of the Auxiliary of the Tombstone General Hospital, surely one of the most unfortunate names in the history of hospital nomenclature.

And the angry editor, a hum-dinger, too, does not deny any

FAA To Propose Speed Limits

NEW YORK (AP)—The Federal Aviation Agency soon will propose a speed limit of 250 knots (about 280 miles per hour) for all planes approaching congested airports, says FAA Administrator Najeeb E. Halaby.

Halaby, speaking Thursday night at the 23rd anniversary dinner of the Aviation Space Writers Association, said the proposal for speed limits for all planes approaching congested airports would be posted, and public hearings held.

"In congested terminal areas, it's about time that we required very high speed planes to slow down," Halaby said, adding, "Unless we hear some very good arguments against it the proposal, we will impose it."

Elite Class Is Facing Grave Crisis

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—The upper classes haven't faced such a threat since the French revolution. It isn't the end of the world, but it may mean the end of a way of life for the favored few.

It brings the threat of doom to America's greatest postwar aristocracy.

I refer to the Kennedy administration's proposals to cut down on plutocrats' "expense account living." If Congress adopts this program, many expenditures now allowable as tax deductions no longer will be.

Salesmen no longer will be permitted to dine and drink with clients and entertain prospective clients—and themselves—at posh parties, night clubs, theaters, high-priced restaurants and company-owned hunting and fishing lodges.

Executives won't be able to throw $15,000 wedding receptions for their daughters at the country club and write them off as a necessary business expense. In fact they no longer will be permitted even to cuff their country club dues.

The proposed program also would limit "business gifts" to $10 a person a year, daily "business entertainment" allowances to between $4 and $7 a person, and "business travel" expenses to $30 a day.

Nothing has stirred the industrial world so much since the invention of the typewriter.

There'll be some startling changes if the program really becomes law.

For example: Businessmen will go back to closing deals in their offices instead of on the golf course.

Cirrhosis of the liver will decline. Nobody will be able to entertain himself into cirrhosis under the new expense account schedule.

Wives who have made a practice of serving all the family meals at the country club—with the government picking up most of the tab—will have to stay home and learn how to cook.

Coney Island may replace Atlantic City and Miami Beach as a convention center. Coney Island is about the only resort left in the country where a businessman can have a high old time on $30 a day.

Can't you imagine a grandchild of the future asking: "Tell me again about how life was in the old days. Grandpa, when everybody lived on an expense account except the government."

Brooklynites Are Stranded By Fire

NEW YORK (AP)—A manhole explosion and electrical fire in Brooklyn stranded thousands of rush-hour passengers on the BMT subway line Thursday.

The trouble broke out about 4:45 p.m. as about 300,000 riders headed for home.

Power was temporarily restored 15 minutes later, but in another quarter of an hour it went off again. Full service was not resumed until about 6:30 p.m.

Some 22,000 passengers had to be escorted from 11 trains stranded in tunnels. Four passengers suffered temporary shock, but required no hospital treatment.

At about the same time, a power failure on a branch of the BRT system in Brooklyn temporarily halted a number of trains.

The Snyder Tigers — diamond variety — end their regular season at Colorado City tomorrow when they engage the Sweetwater Mustangs in a 2 p.m. district encounter.

In another all-important regular season encounter at Colorado City, Lamesa tackles the C-Clay Wolves, where a Tornado victory would serve to give the Lamesans outright possession of the coveted 3-3A bunting, regardless of the outcome of the Snyder-Sweetwater fray.

Lamesa is currently the league leader with a 4-1 mark, while Snyder is the only nine still conceivably in the running at 3-2. Colorado City, after a dismal start which saw the team dropping its first three district engagements, has come back strong to win its most recent pair of contests over Snyder and Sweetwater, the latter representing the cellar occupant at 1-4.

For the season, the Tigers may boast of a 19-10 record, with the Pones from Sweetwater resting at 2-8.

A school choir trip has riddled the ranks of Coach Speedy Moffett's crew, with the result that starters Weldon Ware and Charlie Gladson won't see action tomorrow, ditto for reserve stalwarts Joe Fowler and Tommy Minton. As a result of those deletions, the Tiger lineup will be an "if-studied" one, and barely recognizable from previous contests.

Moffett's mound choice is still in doubt, but the nod will go to either right-hander Freddy Miller (9-2) or portlander Bonnie Greenfield (5-3). On a district scale Miller is 1-0, while Greenfield is 1-2.

The only positions assured include those of catcher Ronnie Wyle (2-4), third baseman Spencer Dyer (4-4), shortstop Steve Free (2-0), center fielder Mike Moffett (2-2), and right fielder Frank Moore (2-3).

Jerry Franks (1-2) will probably get the call in left field. Should Greenfield (2-3) hurt, then Kenny Wellborn (0-0) is the likely choice to sub for him at first. And if Miller (.220) pitches, chances are good that Tim Marcum (.143) will be called upon to assume his vacated second base slot.

Except for the top of the order, the lineup is wide open to conjecture. Indications are that Dyer will lead off, followed by Free, Moffett, and either Moore or Miller. From there on, however, the rundown remains a question mark.

Shaw, a southpaw, toiled the first four frames in the initial encounter between the two teams, giving up 7 earned runs and being charged with the loss. Gladson came on in relief of Greenfield to work the final four innings, relinquishing three earned runs in gaining credit for the 18-6 victory.

HELLO, AUSTIN—Above are the Snyder Tigers who will be shooting for top honors this evening and tonight in the annual state track and field meet. Jesse Crawford is a qualifier in the 100-yard dash, low hurdles, and a member of the 440-yard relay team; Bobby Brown is entered in the pole vault and broad jump; John Weaver will run the 220-yard dash and both the sprint and mile relays; Box Calloway and Mike Morris are to join Weaver and Crawford in the sprint relay; and Bubba Fleming, Ronnie Maroney, and Malcolm Bolger will precede Weaver in the running of the mile relay. Bolger was a member of the regional qualifying mile unit, but due to recent illness might be replaced by Mike Bailey. (Photos by Jackson)

'BEAT ANDREWS' IS THE WORD

Crawford Boomed In State Running

AUSTIN (AP)—The Class B boys, twice as many as any other division, set the Texas Intercollegiate League Track and Field Meet off and running today.

They are the first of an army of almost 800 youngsters who will be fighting for five championships today, tonight and Saturday, with Abilene favored to repeat for the Class AAAA title. Andrews to win again in Class AAA, Fort Stockton with Class AA, O'Donnell with Class A and Laredo with Class B.

Headliners of the big outdoor path show are the great Ted Nelson of Andrews, holder of the national 440-yard record of 46.5, Billy Porter, the mighty sprinter and broad jumper of Dallas Sunset; Jesse Crawford, the sprinter and hurdler from Snyder, and some of the outstanding relay teams of schoolboy history.

The mile relay in Class AAAA matches Abilene and Baytown, each of which has already bettered the state record with times of 3:16.5 and 3:16.6 respectively. The record is 3:17.9.

At least 24 records are due in the five divisions with possibly six overall marks.

Abilene and Andrews are overwhelming favorites to win their fifth state championships. Fort Stockton could get strong competition in Class AA (Laredo) Park, which was the Class A champion last year. O'Donnell has to win Class A with two relay teams and George West of Bloomington might edge the Laredo team out. Lubbock may find such schools as Lueders, Munster, Bangs, Cherokee and O'Brien harrasing the way.

Eight records are likely in Class AAAA with Foster going after the 100, 220 and broad jump marks. The two Abilene relay teams, Warren Brantford of Galena Park likely to take down the pole vault record of 13 feet 7 1/4 inches by about 10 inches. David Glover of Abilene to better the discus record of 124 feet 8 1/4 inches. David Bailey of Arlington aiming at the low hurdles mark and Wilbert Patterson of Freeport a potential at cracking the shot put mark of 33 feet 10 inches. He has shot 30-7 1/2.

Longden, 54, Eyes Derby

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Johnny Longden, who has been in the winner's circle more times than any other jockey, is leaving nothing to chance in a bid for his second Kentucky Derby victory.

At 54, an age when others would gladly retire to the rocking chair or shift to a less hazardous occupation, Johnny is as active as his youthful rivals who'll join him in piloting 15 finely-tuned 3-year-old horses over 1 1/4 miles at Churchill Downs Saturday in quest of fame and fortune.

Longden, winner of 5,500 races in his 34-year career, will be astride the well-regarded Four-and-Twenty when the field breaks from the barrier at 4:30 p. m. Eastern Standard Time. Four-and-Twenty is the better liked half of the Canadian entry from the Alberta Ranches of Frank McMahon and Max Bell. The other half is Flatterfly and both are trained by Johnny's son, Vance, 21.

Carry Back, three-time conquerer of Crozier in Florida last winter remained the 5-2 choice. But Crozier rapidly picking up support off his blazing 1:34 3/5 Derby-Tri-Mile Tuesday was held at 3-1.

Shirluck (6-1), Ethel D. Jacobs' stretch-running Dr. Miller (11-1), and Globemaster (12-1) were the only other horses given much consideration.

Between You And Me

By Jerry Jackson

Pennant Fever — a malady reserved not solely for the big leagues has reached the epidemic stage in Lamesa.

Just as it happened in Pittsburgh last year — and in Milwaukee in its 1957-58 heydays — it has most assuredly also happened out in our West Texas town of Lamesa.

Their Tornadoes, who leaped out to what may prove to be an insurmountable four victories in as many initial district starts, were sidetracked in their bid for an out-and-out crown Saturday, as Snyder rose up to upend them, 5-3, in an extra inning. Which didn't visibly dampen the enthusiasm of the townspeople who still figure that they've got an extremely "not number" going. The sad fact remains that all the Tors have to do to top the hunting is to outscore Colorado City Saturday, regardless of whether Snyder gets past Sweetwater or not.

The Tigers succeeded in dismantling the mantle of invincibility which has shrouded the Whirlwinds. Chapman here two is now in the hands of the C-Citizens, and our ardent hopes for a repeat defeat of the Tornadoes are riding with them all the way.

The Lamesa fans, unaccounted to such prosperity in the field of baseball, are enjoying that newfound prosperity immensely, and are turning out well in support of the team. Earlier in the campaign Lamesa hobbled through the non-district slate with two wins and five losses; the turnouts were understandably anemic. When the team perked up, so did the fans.

One of the more quotable quotes was heard to echo forth following Saturday's game, and was in reference to Mike Moffett's game-preserving diving catch in center, which ended the contest on a happy note.

Always the philosopher, team manager Sam Casey said it "Mike oughta get the Nobel Prize for that!"

The Nobel Prize, as you know, is awarded annually to individuals performing outstanding achievements in the interest of peace.

That's how it goes. Buried into a pair of the most renowned, revered, and respected politicians of our day as recognized within the Western Hemisphere down at the local bowling lanes earlier in the week. Jack Craft and L. A. McClanahan.

Casting aside their political differences temporarily — a bonafide testimonial — the large amount of sporting blood evident in the two — they were bowling up a storm.

After the smoke had cleared, I cornered Craft and asked him how the Big Match had come out.

"We had a hustler and seventy-four," he offered, smiling only slightly, characteristic of Craft.

"Oh, No, had tied, huh?"

"Nope, I had a hundred. He had seventy-four."

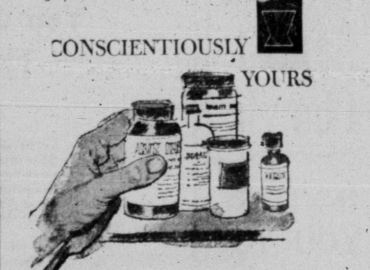

"Oh."

Queen Has Audience With Pope

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII today received Queen Elizabeth II in audience and told her that her visit crowned the friendly relations that have existed between the Holy See and Great Britain since the start of the century.

It was the second meeting between Elizabeth, who is temporary head of the Church of England, and a Pope of the Roman Catholic Church. Pope Pius XII received her and her husband, Prince Philip, in private audience in 1951, before she succeeded to the throne.

Philip accompanied her to the audience today.

The 79-year-old pontiff received the royal couple alone for 26 minutes in the Vatican throne room, then led them to his library, where other members of the queen's party were waiting.

What the Pope and the British sovereign talked about in private was not revealed. In the library afterward the Pope, speaking briefly in French, recalled other visits of British royalty.

"The Pope again expressed his hope for the realization of Christian ideals of peace, charity and fraternity, among men and nations."

At the end of the Pope's speech Elizabeth smiled fleetingly, nodded her head as though in approval, but made no reply.

JFK Signs Wage Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy signed today with "great satisfaction" the bill "putting another 3,624,000 workers under the minimum wage law, and increasing the minimum for those already covered."

The minimum for workers now covered by the wage law will rise to $1.25 an hour by 1963. Those put under the bill for the first time will receive a minimum of $1.25 an hour for the first three years and $1.25 in five years.

Kennedy signed the bill before a large group of congressional leaders and officials of the AFL-CIO headed by President George Meany.

Describing $1.25 as "a very minimum wage," he said "this does not finish the job but it is a most important step forward."

He predicted "greater gains in the months and years ahead."

Kennedy commented that this is the first time since the minimum wage law was first enacted under administration of Franklin D. Roosevelt that "we have been able to extend the coverage."

Passage of the bill was a major legislative triumph for the Kennedy administration, which had given top priority to the legislation.

The new law takes effect in 120 days.

School Board Group Set To Argue Status

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — In an era when everyone from giant steel corporations to lace manufacturers maintain lobbies and action committees, the 150,000 local school board members who manage the nation's public schools seem out of step.

They have a nationwide organization, the "NATIONAL" School Boards Association, but that organization has never been allowed to speak out for them on national issues in education. It has been restricted to service and information activities.

Today that amateur status comes up for debate in what promises to be a wordy and possibly bitter session of the NSBA's 22nd annual convention.

The delegate assembly, with two representatives from each of the 50 states, will take up two proposed resolutions.

The first, from the New Jersey state group, proposes that the NSBA program be extended "to include action on the nation's educational issues as determined under policies established by the delegate assembly."

The second, from California,

HAVE
GOD

Observe this Sunday as Christian Home Service Day. Let us aid our Laymen's Organization in applying Christianity to the Solution of Human Problems. Help remedy the tragedy of Adult Delinquency—the greatest reason for Juvenile Delinquency. The failure of parents has resulted in wrecking millions of young lives. Then Mr. and Mrs.—be sure your failure does not cost you and God the soul of your child.

Wake up! Get right! Make a move in the direction of the church and take you teen-agers with you! Just remember, the Church is the strongest dyke against evil. The Church is the greatest foe of the penitentiary. The Church is mighty important, because Christ died for it.

How can anyone afford NOT to support it—NOT to attend it—NOT to help propagate its teachings? Take your youngsters to church this Christian Home Week.
