Offer Employment

Three Hundred Men May Work

ONLY LUBBOCK RESIDENTS TO GET JOBS

B. C. D. DIRECTORS TO CLEAN UP VACANT LOTS IN CITY

A relief plan, designed to furnish employment for approximately 300 men in the City of Lubbock was adopted by directors of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and Board of City Development meeting this morning.

The plan, as announced following the meeting, will only aid those men who have been bona fide residents of this city for the last six months. Emphasis was made on the fact that no newcomers will be given employment or charity assistance.

The proposed action is being built around the fact that there are approximately 6,500 vacant lots within the corporate limits of the City which are badly in need of cleaning. The cleaning of these lots would furnish from two to four weeks labor for about 300 men. Directors are of the opinion that by such action that number of men and their families would be made self supporting.

Meet This Afternoon

All details of the project will be handled through the emergency employment committee of the Lubbock chamber and a meeting of the executive group of that body is being held this afternoon to outline these details. The executive body is composed of J. O. Jones, W. B. Atkins and C. A. Simmons. A meeting of the entire committee will be held

DROUTH LOANS CONSIDERED

COUNTY COMMITTEE IS MEETING TODAY ON APPLICATIONS

More than 30 applications for federal production and crop loans are to be acted upon by the Lubbock County Central committee at its session today, J. B. Shannon, in charge of the work here, said this morning.

"We have now well over 200 applications approved," Mr. Shannon added. "I am holding all that have been approved lately until I hear definitely that the state office is operating at Fort Worth.

Mr. Shannon said he was now making out four or five applications a day, the number having fallen off recently. The Slaton office is handling about as many as here in Lubbock, although more of those made out there are sent to other counties than are sent to Lubbock.

Checks for farmers come to D. F. Eaton, county agent, together with the mortgage and other papers. These have to be filed with the county clerk before the checks can be given the farmer who is to receive them. This is done in order to permit the government to have recorded its claims on the crop.

Mr. Shannon said he was of the opinion that as soon as other checks begin arriving here, that more farmers will make application for loans.

"Up to the first of this week Garza county had had in checks, one fifth of all the money sent out of the St. Louis office," Mr. Shannon said. "Crosby county received several checks and I have not heard of their receiving any since."

LONGWORTH IS RENOMINATED

REPUBLICANS PREPARE TO CARRY OFFICERS TO POSTS AGAIN

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27—In harmonious mood the house Republicans last night decided to support Speaker Longworth and the present slate of officers for re-election next session.

But away from the party caucus stayed fifteen members who refused to commit themselves, by attending, either to candidates or policies. Five of these were Kansas regulars, incensed at the final refusal, delivered yesterday by Chairman Hawley of the ways and means committee to consider oil embargo legislation at this session.

The rest were members of independent tendencies with various demands for legislation and further recognition of their group. United, this group can hold the balance of power in the next house, for the membership is almost equally divided between the parties.

BRYAN MILLER RESIGNS AS MANAGER

ACTION IS RESULT OF FRICTION AMONG CITY OFFICIALS HERE

Resignation of J. Bryan Miller as city manager of Lubbock was announced late Thursday, following a regular meeting of the City commission at which time the resignation was presented verbally before the body. The resignation probably will be acted upon by the commissioners within the next two days.

Mr. Miller's action culminated a division in opinion concerning policies of the city government, according to statements made by himself and by Mayor J. J. Clements last night.

Makes Statement

"No city manager," Mr. Miller said in quoting from his resignation, "can serve efficiently without united support of city officials. Due to the fact that the commission is divided in regard to policies, in fairness to the citizenship as a whole, the city commissioners, individually and collectively, and to Authorities feared outbreaks of disease due to lack of sanitation throughout the stricken area.

The robbers scooped up the money in the till and ran out to the waiting automobile without trying to enter the vault.

LEROY, Kas., Feb. 27. (AP)—Three men, one masked and all armed, robbed the First National Bank here of an estimated $5,000 in silver and currency today and escaped in a motorcar headed west.

As they left, the trio took with them George Sims, assistant cashier, but released him at the edge of town.

County officers and Coffey county vigilantes were notified and pursuit of the bandit car began.

L. D. Watson, cashier, said the bank had been open for business about 30 minutes when the men entered and ordered the three bank employes, and four customers, to lie on the floor. Al Capone Gets 6 Months In Jail

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Al Capone was convicted of contempt in federal court today and sentenced to six months in county jail.

Judge Wilkerson in announcing his decision declared it was evident the affidavit which attempted to show Capone was ill and in bed when he was wanted by the government two years ago, was "glaringly false."

The effect of the affidavit, the judge declared, was to "hamper the administration of justice," and that "this court is not to be tampered with."

FIGHT BETWEEN THREE STATES FOR DIVORCE BUSINESS FEATURED BY MAIL-ORDER DIVORCE PROPOSAL IN NEVADA

(By The Associated Press)

RENO, Nev., Feb. 27.—Rivalry among states to break Nevada's quick divorce monopoly continued today with the signature of Arkansas's governor on a 90-day divorce bill and Idaho's house of representatives indorsement on a similar measure.

In the face of this external attack, a "mail order divorce" bill prepared by Senator Duane Bush of Humboldt county (which receives little of Nevada's divorce business) brought embarrassment to Reno's legislators at Carson City.

Another Bill Up

Determined to maintain Nevada's pre-eminence, the latter have sponsored a bill which would make six weeks residence sufficient for the filing of a divorce petition.

"If the purpose," said state Senator Bush, "is really to bring speedy comfort to the unhappily married, let us go the limit. My bill provides the divorce seekers need only write a Nevada district judge of his or her intention, retain an attorney by mail and present evidence by deposition."

Not Lawyer or Hotel Man

Senator Bush is not a lawyer. Neither is he interested in Reno hotels.

Montana apparently dropped out of the spirited race to speed severance of marital ties, the senate summarily refusing to concur in a house measure which would reduce the state's residence requirement to 90 days.

The Arkansas bill, signed yesterday by Governor Harvey Parnell, will become effective June 12.

Idaho's house of representatives passed the "quick divorce bill" by a vote of 38 to 29 and sent it to Governor C. Ben Ross, whose signature will make the state's divorce law the same as in Nevada.

Opponents in the Arkansas' legislature characterized the divorce measure as an attempt to enter Hot Springs into competition with Reno.

JURORS STILL DELIBERATING IN FLOYDADA

OUTCOME OF TRIAL IS WATCHED WITH MUCH INTEREST TODAY

(Special To The Journal)

FLOYDADA, Feb. 27.—Still out after more than 14 hours of deliberation, the jury in the Floyd county district court had not returned its verdict in the case of the state vs. Joe Hawkins, of Crosby county, charged with the slaying of his aged father-in-law, "Uncle Sam" Walker, up to noon today.

The 12 men had received the case at 9:40 Thursday night after the close of argument by counsel for state and defense. They retired for the rest of the night and this morning after breakfast resumed their deliberations of the case.

No Indication Given

No indication has come from the jury room as to the probable stand on the question of guilt or innocence of Hawkins.

R. H. Templeton, of Wellington, well known attorney and chief defense counsel, made the closing argument for his side at the opening of the night session last night. He made a brilliant plea for mercy for his client.

A. P. "Jack" Folley, district attorney for the 110th district, closed for the state. Mr. Folley summed up the state's case in a plea for justice and the upholding of the law.

DEPORTATION OF TONY "MOPS" VOPLE IS ORDERED BY IMMIGRATION HEADS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27—Secretary Doak today ordered the deportation of Tony "Mops" Volpe, known as a bodyguard of Al Capone, Chicago gang chief, and labelled as a public enemy by a Chicago civic committee.

The order came at the end of an inquiry which led to the determination that Volpe was an alien unlawfully in the United States.

Proceedings were instituted against him some time ago, but after the preliminary finding by immigration tribunals at Chicago that he was liable to exile, his counsel appealed both to courts there and to the labor department here.

Volpe's association with Capone has been intimate and he is in addition, brother-in-law to the late "Diamond Joe" Esposito, whose death occurred in one of the gang struggles. Volpe was placed third on the list of "public enemies" which the committee formally named months ago.

OPPOSITION OF PRESIDENT IS IGNORED

BONUS MEASURE IS NOW A LAW; 50 PER CENT CAN BE BORROWED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The veterans loan bill was enacted into law today over the veto of President Hoover.

The senate voted decisively to override the presidential opposition. This action, coupled with a similar decision yesterday by the house put the law into immediate effect.

The act authorizes world war veterans to borrow up to half the face value of their adjusted compensation certificates—and estimated average of $500 being made available to each of the 3,498,000 ex-service men who hold the insurance.

As in the house, the senate flaunted the veto with little ceremony. With two-thirds votes required, the house count was 328 to 79.

Vote Is 76 to 17

The senate vote was 76 to 17.

Sixteen Republicans and one Democrat voted to sustain the veto.

Thirty-six Republicans refused to support Mr. Hoover's veto and joined in passing the measure.

Veterans' Administrator Hines was at the White House when the senate acted. As he left, he said the bureau could make the first loan under the bill within five minutes.

Vets In Line

At the veterans' bureau some ex-soldiers were in line to apply hours before the vote.

Although General Hines has not given an official opinion on the question, it was said at his office the "accepted opinion" was that the certificates would have to be two years old before being eligible for loans, as under regulations governing loans heretofore. This would affect numbers of holders.

Word of the new law went forth quickly to the 54 regional offices of the bureau so applications could be

Four Bridge Parties Hold Interest Of Society Here On Thursday

DR. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.
Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

CULTIVATE TOLERANCE OF OLD FOLK'S VIEWS

We are accustomed to complain of the intolerance of some parents toward their children. There is another side. It occured to me for the first time one day while I was out in Arkansas. One of the charming women of that state, a mother, put this notion into my head.

Now don't get worried, please. She was one in a large group of beautiful women. Arkansas has lots of them. And what beautiful voices they have! She was participating in a round table discussion at a state conference of P. T. A. workers, in Pine Bluff.

Some one in the group referred laughingly to the "foolish notions which the parents of some of us once had. How differently we think today!"

Up rose the lady with the idea which I wish to pass along. "It is all very well for use to laugh at the old fogies which our fathers and mothers were. To many of us their standards do seem to have been very rigid. But they had convictions, they believed in them, they lived by their convictions.

"What have we? What overwhelming beliefs do we really have and live by? What similar standards do we set before our children which we would grimly hold to, even until death?

"We who call ourselves modern have gone pleasure mad. Power, money, excitement seem to be our gods.

"Suppose that our children, when they are parents, ridicule us as old fogies and their children's children do likewise; and I guess they will.

"My point is, that whereas we boast about our tolerance, are we not most cruelly intolerant toward the parents of the past? Suppose we go on boasting of our own broadmindedness, go on laughing before our children, at the narrowness of our forefathers. What will happen then? What effect will our intolerance toward our forebears have upon our children?

"Shall we, as we generally seem to do, look down upon them as benighted wreches to be pitied by us lords perched on our lofty pinnacles? Shall we ignore their sturdy consciences and their convictions which to some of them were far more dear than life itself?

"I wonder whether it would not be a stronger sign of character in us if we were to be more sympathetic and more tolerant toward our parents and their parents. I wonder if it were not well for us to try to get their point of view and to put ourselves back occasionally into the social atmosphere in which they lived, and to ask ourselves what virtues and what traits of character they had which we might try to emulate and to hold before our children."

I must confess that her challenge has stirred up in me many questions. Just what do we mean when we say that we are modern? What have we in mind when we compare our tolerance toward our parents with their tolerance toward us? How fast may we safely move? What are we putting in the place of the standards and convictions of our parents and grandparents, which we ridicule and throw upon the scrap heap?

GUESSWORK REMOVED BY ROASTING COFFEE IN SMALL QUANTITIES

Patented Process Invented by Hills Bros. Insures Delicious, Uniform Flavor Always

When coffee is roasted in the ordinary way, which is in two or three hundred pound lots, it is a problem to get an even roast. Some of the berries may be overdone, some underdone. What is more, one batch may vary from another in color. All of these variations prevent a uniform flavor.

Hills Bros. overcame this problem by inventing and patenting a roasting method that automatically regulates the amount of coffee roasted and the degree of heat. By a slow but continuous process, only a few pounds at a time pass through the roasters. So exact is the control, that every berry is roasted evenly and gives a matchless, uniform flavor in every cup.

No other coffee can taste like Hills Bros. Coffee because no other coffee is roasted the same way. The continuous process, Controlled Roasting, that means so much in flavor and strength is Hills Bros.' exclusively.

When you buy Hills Bros. Coffee it is as fresh and rich in flavor and aroma as when it comes from the roasters. Air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is completely excluded from the vacuum cans in which Hills Bros. Coffee is packed. Coffee packed in ordinary air-tight cans does not stay fresh. Ask for Hills Bros. Coffee by name and look for the Arab—the trade-mark—on the can. Sold everywhere.

Pineland, Texas—"I suffered from stomach trouble ten years, was treated by many doctors but grew worse. My constitution was rundown and I took the 'flu', was totally confined to bed for four months. I could eat but very little. I was so discouraged I had almost given up hope. I wrote Dr. Pierce and he advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and the 'Favorite Prescription'. Hoover Children Play According To Approved Educational Way Of Times

BY FESS FURMAN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (AP)—In one of the country's bigger back yards, Peggy Ann and Herbert Hoover, 3rd., get plenty of play in the approved educational way.

At 11 in the morning, and again at 3 in the afternoon, their nurses bring them from the third story playroom to the White House grounds and lucky loiterers glimpse them through the shrubbery.

They wear bright-colored play suits with caps all-of-piece, the kind the Bureau of Home Economcis advocates as an aid in teaching children how to dress themselves.

About the curving, cinder paths they pedal on tricycles, exercise recommended as muscle-building by child health experts.

Often they bring down their durable, purposeful toys and play with them in the brilliant sunshine that late February has brought to Washington. The playthings are of the type endorsed by the Child Research center, which delves into child psychology, with Rockefeller funds.

Peggy Ann has a washable, unbreakable doll, beautiful as any bisque baby and far more educational. Taken into the morning bath, a washable doll is an aid to inculcating health habits. Dressing and undressing, valuable for mastery of finger co-ordinations, has no terrors for an unbreakable doll.

Herbert, 3rd., is fondest of a play chest which he packs and unpacks. Packing and unpacking, the child psychologists say, is one way to train the eye to fit things to their right-sized spaces. He also likes a substantial wooden barn in which belong 16 animals of carefully-graded sizes. The old Noah's Ark has been criticized by the moderns because the animals that went in two by two were all the same size—lions as big as elephants. More logical is Herbert's barn.

Local Men Attend Swisher Meat Show

Three local delegates left here early today for Tulia where they will attend the Swisher county Fat Calf, Pig and Meat show being held in that city today and Saturday to stimulate interest in the Panhandle-South Plains calf, pig and meat show to be held here March 27 and 28.

Those attending the affair were W. O. Daniels, Dr. F. G. Harbaugh and Garnet O. Reeves. Dr. Harbaugh, who is assistant professor of animal husbandry at Texas Technological college, will judge the meats exhibited at the Swisher county show.

Miss Ruth Stockton, Lubbock county home demonstration agent, and R. H. McClain, assistant county agent, probably will attend the affair Saturday.

Creager In Favor Of McMillan As Judge

BROWNSVILLE, Feb. 27. (AP) — R. B. Creager, Texas Republican leader, issued a statement today favoring R. J. McMillan of San Antonio as successor to Duval West as United States judge for the western district of Texas. Judge West is to retire soon.

"I have learned with regret," said Creager, "of the declared intention of my long-time friend, Duval West to retire as judge of the western dictict of Texas. I hope to see the Hon. R. J. McMillan of San Antonio succeed Judge West. No lawyer in the district stands higher, personally and professionally, than Mr. McMillan. His appointment would unquestionably be popular with both the bar and the public."

"GREAT HELP IN RAISING FAMILY"

That's What A Texas Lady Says About Black-Draught After Years of Use.

Austin, Texas.—An interesting story of how Thedford's Black-Draught has proved valuable in her home life was related here recently by Mrs. T. C. Laws, of 1704 Willow Street. She wrote:

"During my childhood, my mother used Thedford's Black-Draught in our home frequently. She gave it to us children for little spells of sickness. Whenever we would complain of not feeling well, she would give us a course of Black-Draught which straightened us right out.

"Since I have been married, I have found Black-Draught to be a great help in raising my family. It is a handy medicine to keep in the house. I give it to my children and I take it myself. It is splendid to treat constipation and colds with. I also use it when I have spells of indigestion.

"Sometimes I suffer with bad, sick headaches and gas pains. Black-Draught always gives me relief, and after I have taken it I feel fresh and energetic.

"I give it to the children in form of a tea. They do not object to taking it."

KEEP COOL PLEASE!

IF YOU notice that your hands are not staying as smooth as they might, ask yourself the cause. The answer is that washing in hot water is the greatest single destroyer of skin beauty in existence.

Of course, if you use ordinary soap, you won't get clothes and dishes clean without hot water. But with White King Granulated Soap, made from pure vegetable and nut oils, you can get complete and thorough cleansing in lukewarm water. It will spare your hands, and, at the same time, save your colored ginghams and prints from an untimely end.

White King is economical too. Because it's condensed, a little goes a long, long way. It's the safest and yet the most effective soap you can buy. And it's ideal for hard water. Try it today. At your grocer's.

UNCLE SAM'S WARDS OF THE PACIFIC, MILLION FUR SEALS, ARE ON WAY TO SUMMER HOME IN WATERS IN ALASKA

BY WILBERT A SANDERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27 (AP)—Uncle Sam's wards of the Pacific, a million fur seals valued at more than $35,000,000, are leaving the warm waters of the south for their annual migration to their Alaskan breeding grounds.

The leaders of the valuable herd have been sighted off the California coast and the United States coast guard is planning to escort the seals from the mouth of Columbia river to the tiny Pribilofs, the "treasurer islands of the north," 300 miles west of the Alaskan mainland in the Bering sea.

To Be Guarded

When the seals reach the Pribilofs they will be guarded by the bureau of fisheries under whose watchful eye the herd has increased from 250,000 to 1,000,000 since the killing of seals on the high seas was prohibited by treaty in 1911.

Under the treaty Great Britain, Japan and Russia granted the United States control of the herd until 1926. The agreement is still recognized.

Before palagic sealing was prohibited, the seals were nearing extinction. During the latter part of the eighteenth century the herd included about 5,000,000 seals. Killing on the high seas and at the Pribilofs reduced the number to the 250,000 taken over by the United States.

Only Indians Kill Them

Under the agreement only Indians of the Pacific coast are allowed to kill seals. These slayings, made during the northward migration, must be at least three miles from shore and with primitive weapons and boats. Coast guard and fisheries craft guard against the use of power boats and guns to prevent excessive loss.

The bureau of fisheries has obtained a steady revenue from furs, without endangering the herd, by killing three year old males at the breeding grounds. Enough three year olds are left to assure growth of the herd. The young seals are killed because of their finer fur.

The seals leave the Pribilofs in late summer and early autumn to stay until spring in the deep and warm waters of the Pacific off Southern California and Mexico. Although most of their time is spent in the open sea the United States was given control of the seals because their breeding grounds are a part of Alaska.

ROBBERIES ARE CONFESSED

CHARGE OF BURGLARY IS FILED AGAINST BUSTER JOHNSON

As result of his arrest here late Wednesday, Buster Johnson, 25, Thursday confessed to the burglary of the B. E. Needles residence at 1811 Eighth street early in January and of three Dallas homes, according to George Eubanks, police identification officer.

A charge of burglary was filed late Thursday against Johnson. Another man also is being held in connection with the burlaries.

At time of his arrest Johnson had a suitcase containing articles which officers believed had been taken from homes. The loot included several watches, watch bands, rings, lockets, pens and pencils, purses, a .38 automatic pistol and a quantity of foreign coins. Owners are asked to call at police headquarters and identify the property.

PUPIL OUTSTRIPPING THE MASTER

PRINCE GEORGE IS ATTRACTING ATTENTION OF CHILEAN GIRLS INSTEAD OF H. R. H.

(By The Associated Press)

VINA DEL MAR, Chile, Feb. 27.—Now that the Prince of Wales is an old gentleman of nearly 37, a new feminine generation in South America is turning the spotlight of its admiration on his younger brother, George, and the pupil is outstripping the master.

Here in Chile the Senoritas who attended dances for the royal brothers flash their most enticing smiles on "that dear, tall, blonde Prince," and only those more mature ladies who met the heir when he was here before cling to the memory of him as the soul of romance.

All this attention used to embarrass the younger Prince, but when the beauty of Chile surges about him these nights he seems to be enjoying himself and the blush of shyness which used to come occasionally is not so frequent.

Men like George, too, and there is not a little sentiment in favor of an informal suggestion that he be regarded as Chile's adopted son, a relationship hitherto reserved for his brother.

Recently George had danced frequently with Miss Anne Chilton, daughter of the British ambassador, but he has shown interest also in several Chilean girls and the gossips are divided in opinion as to who has received his greatest attention.

LAREDO PHYSICIAN HONORED

AUSTIN, Feb. 27 (AP)—Adjutant General W. W. Sterling announced today the appointment of Dr. James A. Simpson of Laredo to the medical department detachment of the state staff corps, with the rank of Lieut. Colonel. General Sterling said his selection of Dr. Simpson was made on the basis of Colonel Simpson's unusual military record and of his own close personal friendship with Simpson for many years.

During a fire at Sunderland, England, recently, two men stood on the ground, two on their shoulders, and two others made the third tier, their interlocked arms forming rungs of a human ladder down which women climbed to escape the flames.

CHARTS PROBE IS DISCUSSED

RESOLUTION CAUSES ROW IN HOUSE; TO CONSIDER MORE

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Feb. 27.—A resolution calling for broadcasting the scope of the investigation of circumstances surrounding placing the "Hope of a Nation" series of character charts on the required list for public schools, receiving state aid for three consecutive years, evoked a stormy session in the house Thursday.

The resolution, under which the house committee on education made a preliminary investigation, was brought up on special order and the debate was hot when the house recessed.

Did Not Want

The preliminary investigation showed Representative Holder of Lancaster, stated, that unless it was continued the schools would be forced to pay $65,000 for something they did not want.

The character series was placed on the required list last fall by S. M. N. Marrs, state superintendent of education. They cost $27 per series. Holder charged the actual cost of the series was $3. The charts were distributed by the C. R. Jackson Company of Dallas.

Amendment Offered

Much of the discussion centered around an amendment offered by Representative McGregor of Austin to strike out of the resolution any further reference to an investigation of Marrs. McGregor said that Texas political actions often were animated by jealousies and that he looked with disfavor on legislative investigations.

McGregor declared the law gave Marrs the right to prescribe the charts for state aid schools and that any fault, if any, was in the law. He said Marrs' reputation was above stain and that his acts should be above suspicion.

Holder, however, said the committee, so far, had been working in the candle light and wanted authority of the house to turn on the searchlight to dig to the bottom of the chart incident and others that had been brought to the attention of the committee.

Holder asserted Marrs' reputation and honesty were unimpeachable but that he wanted the investigation to continue.

In the last year members of the Leicestershire, England, Aero Club flew 100,000 miles without an injury.

SUFFERED FOR 50 YEARS

If you suffer from constipation, read this enthusiastic letter from Mr. R. J. Foster, 108 Broadway, West Plains, Mo.

"I have been constipated for the last 50 years—taken all kinds of drugs with only momentary relief. I have been using your ALL-BRAN six weeks. It has given me permanent relief. I can heartily recommend it to be a certain remedy for constipation."

This lady asked for "A Magazine"

Of course, the shopman couldn't tell what she wanted—he might have brought her copies of all the different magazines he had. Next time she'll do what you would do—ask for her favorite magazine by name. Then she'll get just what she wants.

Do you buy bread that sensible way, too—by name? It's much more satisfactory to say Butter-Nut Bread because then your grocer knows exactly what you want and can fill your order to a "T." Butter-Nut Bread is such a pleasant, appetizing food that you're sure to want it every day. Its taste tells you that wholesome ingredients have been used, and that good bakers made it.

Get this sensible habit: Say Butter-Nut every time you buy bread. Just try it and see how much more satisfactory it is!

DR. ROY CHAPMAN ANDREWS WILL SEEK GOBI "PLAINSMAN" DATING RACE BACK TWO MILLION YEARS; PLANS EXPEDITION

BY F. B. COLTON
(Associated Press Science Writer)

NEW YORK. — Bones of "the first of the plainsmen," who had to beat his enemies to the nearest tree instead of beating them to the draw will be hunted this year in Mongolia.

The hunter will be Dr. Roy Chapman Andrews. He will sail about April 1 for China to organize the sixth expedition of the American Museum of Natural History to explore the interior of central Asia.

If the expedition finds traces of the prairie-rover believed to have lived on the Mongolian plains two or three million years ago, they will be the oldest human relics ever discovered.

Many archaeologists believe the human race originated on the high, level plateau of central Asia, and spread from there throughout the world. The man whose remains Dr. Andrews hopes to find was the ancestor of the cave-dwelling Peking man, whose million-year-old skull was found two years ago in China.

The early plainsman, unlike Buffalo Bill, roamed the Mongolian prairie on foot. Cow ponies were unknown although an ancestor of the modern horse lived there.

Today the Mongolian plain is a desert, but two million years ago it was a grassy country, with clumps of trees scattered over it and a temperate, invigorating climate, Dr. Andrews says.

Life was not easy for "the first of the plainsmen." He ate roots, nuts and grubs when he could find them, or rabbits and other small animals when he could kill them with a tree branch used as a club.

There were no buffalo hunts or big game round-ups for this remote ancestor of Buffalo Bill. When any sizeable beast approached he took to the nearest tree. Wolves, rhinoceri and huge mastodons roamed the country, as well as antelope and deer.

Living the strenuous life on these plains greatly stimulated man's development, says Dr. Andrews.

Formerly man had lived in the woods, where existence was too easy to compel him to develop his brain or his body. But when changes in the climate thinned the woods to prairie land, life became much more difficult.

Dr. Roy Chapman Andrews (right) this year will explore the Gobi desert of Mongolia (above) for evidences of "plainsmen" who lived two or three million years ago. Last summer in that region he found bones of shovel-tusked mastodons (lower left.)

New England Mills May Be Closed Down

LAWRENCE, Mass., Feb. 27 (AP)—The three mills of the American Woolen company here, employing 10,000 workers, many of the latter on strike, will be closed indefinitely, Moses Pendleton, vice president, announced today. Not until the strikers decide to accept the terms offered by the company last Monday will work be resumed, Pendleton said.

REPLACEMENT BULL BOUGHT

PLAINVIEW, Feb. 27 — (Staff Special)—A replacement bull for the Hale County bull circles has been purchased from T. L. Bausseaux, of Meadow. The animal is a 2-year-old, of Masterman of Oaklands and Nonie of Oakland and is for the Sybil Tycoon circle. The animal first goes to J. R. May and from there to E. W. Bradley, J. F. Morrison, J. W. Day and E. M. Stephenson.

Last year the dam of the bull, as a three year old, produced 499 pounds of butterfat in 305 days to win a silver medal. This year the animal, as a four-year-old, has made 587 pounds of butterfat in 255 days.

AGREEMENT ON BILL REACHED

NAVAL APPROPRIATION NOW READY TO BE ACTED ON

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Congressional conferees reached an agreement today on the terms of the naval appropriation, the last of the supply measures.

President Hoover had urged a break in their disagreement at a breakfast conference today.

Dispute Settled

The senate and house conferees a short while later, came to a quick settlement in their dispute.

The conferees agreed to the senate's provisions of $10,000,000 for the construction of 11 destroyers.

On the point that brought on the difficulty—whether the construction was to be confined to private or government shipyards—the conferees agreed it should be done in government yards, time and facilities permitting.

Senator Hale, Republican, Maine, chairman of the conferees, immediately reported the agreement to the senate. Early adoption of this last of the regular supply bills will be sought.

Dr. John Caylor, former president of Burleson college at Greenville, now state B. S. U. secretary, will preside at the conference.

Dr. W. R. White state secretary and former pastor of the First Baptist church at Lubbock, will be the principal speaker. The conference idea was originated at Texas Tech and it is the first regional B. S. U. conference held in the state. Recognition has been given the local college on the program.

The Texas Tech quartet, composed of Fred Hinger, Fred DeLashaw, M. P. Vannoy and B. L. Manire, will be on the program on two separate occasions. NEGRO CONVICT ESCAPES

HUNTSVILLE, Feb. 27 (AP)—Henry Hooper, negro under 99-year robbery sentence at the Central State prison farm has escaped in some manner, presumably by "walking away," Colonel Lee Simmons, general manager of the prison system, announced today.

Hooper was one of a gang of convicts engaged in construction work on the new manufacturing plant at the Central farm. He was convicted in Gregg county.

COCHRAN SENDS IN 44 APPLICATIONS ON DROUTH LOANS

Cochran county has 44 applications for federal farm production loans all completed and ready to be sent into the district office as soon as the official notice is received that the county is included in the area entitled to receive federal aid, J. B. Shannon, local committee representative, said today.

The first of the week Mr. Shannon visited Morton at the request of the county committee and filled out application blanks for farmers who are asking help. He instructed members of the committee on methods of filling out the blanks.

"Cochran county has done as much as any one county, in my opinion in helping secure the federal aid," Mr. Shannon explained. "They got busy early, wrote to the congressmen and senatros and to others and helped put over the bill. They got busy, interviewed farmers, secured statistics and forwarded them to Washington to show what the actual needs were.

"It is a fact that in some sections of Cochran county the farmers are in as bad shape, if not worse, than in parts of Lubbock county. Some of them really need help."

Mr. Shannon stated that he had not had official notice of the inclusion of Cochran county in the drouth list but that he was expecting it soon.

HOW TO READ Your Gas Meter

There is nothing mysterious about the reading of a gas meter. The ability to read a meter will acquaint patrons with the rate with which gas is being consumed on their premises. A meter also is valuable in detecting leaks.

The accompanying illustrations shows what is known as a four dial meter, such as is in common use in Lubbock. The small dials at the bottom are disregarded in reading meters.

EASY TO READ A METER

To read the above meter, first take the dial at the left marked "1 million". It is divided into 10 parts of 100,000 each. Look at the pointer. It is between the numbers "1" and "2". So put down the number "1" which the pointer has just passed.

The second dial is marked "100 Thousand," having 10,000 to each division. The pointer is just past the cipher, so put down the cipher after the "1" from the first dial, and you have "10".

The third circle is marked "10" Thousand," each division representing 1,000 cubic feet. Put down the number the pointer has just passed, which is "8" and you will have the number of thousand feet consumed, 108.

The last dial to the right is divided into 10 sections of 100 each. The pointer has just passed "4", so the complete reading is 108,400.

The West Texas Gas Co., however reads the meters for billing purposes in even thousands, so you would be billed for the month for the difference between 108,000 and the previous month's reading. You can check your gas consumption at any time during the month by comparing the previous month's reading given on your gas card with the present state of meter.

LOWER DIALS ARE USEFUL

The lower dials will help you determine whether there are leaks in your gas pipes, or in finding the rate at which any of your gas appliances is consuming gas.

To find leaks, turn off all gas outlets tightly and then note whether the hand on one of the lower dials move. If it does there is a leak somewhere. But DONT LOOK FOR THE LEAK WITH MATCHES. Use a heavy soap suds on the connections, and see whether the gas bubbles through. Then, if you dont know how to mend the leak yourself, call a plumber—for gas leaks are dangerous and expensive.

The rate of any gas appliance may be determined by shutting off all other outlets and then noting how long it takes the appliance to consume a certain number of cubic feet of gas.

The West Texas Gas Co., Service department always is glad to cooperate with consumers to the end that they may obtain the greatest possible heat return from the gas which they purchase.

Why Buick Was Chosen for Lubbock's Motion Picture Classic

Mrs. Jean Howell Modeled For Us In The Style Show

Never before has the effort of Buick and Fisher culminated in such outstanding masterpieces as the new Fisher bodies for the 1931 Buick Valve-in-Head Straight Eight. Chassis and body have been designed as a unit. At point after point extra strength has been added; at point after point improvements and advancements have been made. As a result, the new Buick Bodies by Fisher are not only graceful and colorful in appearance but are also scientifically adapted to the extra power and swiftness resulting from the new Buick Valve-in-Head Straight Eight engine.

Luxurious beauty is the dominant impression given by the new Fisher Bodies for Buick. And this beauty, impressive as it is at first glance, becomes even more apparent upon study and examination of all the factors that combine to create it. Their matchless beauty of design, spacious interiors, distinctive colors, downy comfort, rich upholstery, and their charming appointments are not only interpretive of the finest in motor car body construction, but are completely worthy of the great Buick tradition—"When better automobiles are built, Buick will build them."

Love

A WRITER in the March issue of Harper's Magazine complains that romatic love has lost its power over the imagination of the race. Young lovers don't go in for poetry much nowadays. Magazines find in love a topic for cynical humor. The wise-crack has replaced the time-honored sonnet. Love is no longer considered sacred, and the ancient belief that the world can be well lost for love finds few adherents.

All of this, if true, is rather unfortunate; for while romantic love occasionally brings a good deal of suffering to those whom it possesses, it has added greatly to the world's store of beauty and loveliness, and we should have a hard time finding a substitute. But surface indications can be very misleading, and one is entitled to doubt that people today are much different than their grandparents under the skin.

To be sure, there is a great deal of jesting about love these days. There is also a great deal of analysis and dissection, and there are ominous statistics about divorce to make the sky look dark. But does it all really mean anything?

To get the answer, probably, one should not go to writers or students at all. One should forget all about books and magazines and plays and collegiate jokes, and go to the original sources—to the people, in other words, who really are in love.

That would not be hard to do. Any wanderer in any city can find them on every side. Whence come these silent couples that stand in doorways, prolonging a good-night kiss, oblivious of the passersby in the street? Whence come these couples on park benches, who forget about the glare of the lamps that throws their joined heads into relief, and find in each other's nearness something that can blot out the whole city? Whence come those strange, mystic glances that one is continually glimpsing on faces that drift by in a crowd, as if boys and girls by the myriad were going to meet a glamorous and ecstatic destiny?

All of these people could tell you. But they are not given to the traditional modes of expression. The modern girl may be as distracted by some boy's smile as her sentimental grandmother ever thought of being, but she doesn't moon about the house and drape herself listlessly over a sofa for hours of dreaming. She goes about her regular routine, and usually no one but the boy himself knows just how she feels about it. And the boy fails to go into those trance-like states common to an earlier day, and he fails to write atrocious poetry when he should be sleeping; but are there no longer any young men who act like simpletons because of some girl's shining eyes? Their name is legion, now as of old.

There are many things in the world today about which one can worry. But the imminent disappearance of romantic love is not one of them.

Dismaying

The sidelights which big-city politics throw on the workings of democracy in America are sometimes rather dismaying.

In the Chicago mayoralty campaign, for example, we have the two leading candidates openly accusing one another of being "nutty" and "imbecilic," and tossing epithets at one another in a way more reminiscent of a bar-room brawl than a supposedly sober political race.

Chicago has had plenty of trouble in recent years; and when the leading contenders in a race for the mayoralty indulge in cheap personalities of that kind, instead of confining themselves to a serious discussion of the important issues involved, the spectacle is discouraging beyond measure. Does one have to be something of a clown to carry an election in a large American city?

THE PLAINSMAN Says:

That Girl on Broadway says her little brother is so bright that his teacher has to look at him through smoked glasses.

* * *

A Tech student failed to pass an important examination. Wishing to break the news gently to his parents, he sent the following wire to his elder brother:

"Flunked Dean Miller's midterm quiz. Prepare father."

To which the brother replied:

"Father prepared. Prepare yourself!"

The Plainsman is in receipt of a letter dealing with a most important civic problem—one which has faced Lubbock for the past four or five years and on which nothing has been definitely settled.

The letter, signed by David D. Powell, 2306 16th street, reads as follows:

Dear Plainsman: I am a native of East Texas and as I was reared in what I consider the most beautiful part of this state. I am an admirer of beauty in nature. Perhaps you have seen some of the even small towns back there and noticed the beauty of most of them in that trees are growing on all sides.

Have you ever noticed that most all progressive towns, such as Lubbock is, are doing what they can to beautify their streets? There is not an attractive or beautiful place in all of this town that is conveniently located. What the population of this town needs is someone who can wake them up to this idea—why not improve Lubbock's appearance?

Here is what I am driving at. The unpaved sections in the center of Broadway, Avenue Q and Texas avenue are purely a drawback to this town. Why couldn't the town of Lubbock plant some kind of shrubs or even grass in these useless, ugly, hazardous places. A few years ago a vote was taken (if I have not been misinformed) to settle the question about planting trees in these places. It was not a city-wide vote but something of the sort. Some of these people who know nothing and care less for beauty said that if this was done it would obstruct the views of Tech. That was perfectly ridiculous—foolish. It really makes me angry. I think you could use your influence in your column if you wanted to. You could at least set the idea before the Lubbockites in that method.

Sincerely,
David D. Powell,
2306 16th street.

ALL The Plainsman has to offer in rebuttal is that Mr. Powell, while somewhat brusque, has the right idea basically. And as far as the influence, if any, of this column is concerned it was exerted to no avail when the parkways first came up as part of the paving plans on the streets mentioned.

* * *

The Plainsman spent last week-end in Abilene and couldn't help but compare Sayles boulevard with Broadway, Texas avenue and Avenue Q. There is a beautiful parkway on Sayles boulevard—nicely kept grass and shrubs, protected on either side by curbings—and The Plainsman was careful to ask how the parkway was kept. For the information of those who have seen the Abilene thoroughfare, or may see it in the future, the city of Abilene, through its street, parks and alleys department, keeps up the parkway which makes Sayles boulevard the most beautiful street The Plainsman has seen in West Texas.

One thing is certain. The Broadway, Texas and Avenue Q parkways should be improved, either by grass and shrubs, or by hard-surfacing. It may be that funds are not immediately available for either and that they haven't been available since the need for revision arose. But as soon as they are, there is no gainsaying that the improvement of the parkways would be a decided improvement in the appearance of Lubbock.

* * *

SOME folks insist that the traffic demands on the streets mentioned have become so heavy, or in the future will become so heavy, that the improvement once suggested by planting grass and shrubs is now impracticable. These people prefer paving the middle strip, thus offering more driving space. However, if the grass-shrub plan is practicable, it certainly would be an improvement—not only over the present condition but also over paving the 'leave-out' in the center of three of Lubbock's busy thoroughfares.

That Man on Avenue Q says honest confession is not only good for the soul but several magazines offer to pay ten cents per word for them.

The lady down the street has a real system.

"Honey", she said in her most loving tones, "I simply must have a new fur coat."

Hey! What do you mean?" the old man returned. "You've just worn the one you have for two seasons".

"Yes, I know", she reasoned, "but the fox wore it three seasons before I got it!"

Senator Morrison Of North Carolina Leads Fight To Keep Down Proposal That Democrats Become Wet In 1932

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27—The drys picked up a valuable new champion when former Governor Cameron Morrison of North Carolina was appointed to the Senate to succeed the late Lee Overman.

Morrison is the only senator on the Democratic National Committee which meets here early in March and he appears to have assumed leadership of the heretofore rather feeble opposition among politicians to the proposal that the Democrats become the wet party in 1932.

He is an able fighter, although explosive and impulsive. And he is very sincerely dry. He has been a teetotaller all his life and always an advocate of prohibition, state and national. He even contends that prohibition is reasonably well enforced all over the United States, except in some of the largest cities.

It takes no political courage to be dry in such a politically dry state as North Carolina, but the point is that Morrison is not merely one of those southern politicians who drink and who don't care a hoot about prohibition except as an issue on which votes may be gained or lost.

He's Convincing Orator

While a half dozen other new senators—including such strong wets as Morrow of New Jersey and Bulkley of Ohio—have remained silent, Morrison, who has been here more briefly than any of them, has been positively noisy in defying the wets to take over his party. Already he threatens to become one of the Senate's more interesting figures and is likely to become one of the most important in the southern Democratic group. He is a fiery, eloquent orator and knows how to convince "the people" that he really loves them.

Morrison is 61 years old now. He was born a poor country boy, the son of a Republican and studied law in an office at Greensboro.

He is a kind-hearted and charitable man, despite his impetuosity, and they say he would travel across North Carolina to help someone in distress. He is rather good-looking gray-haired, of medium height and build and always wears a black English cutaway coat with a wing collar and black cravat. People call him "Cam."

Made Good His Pledges

Governor O. Max Gardner of North Carolina, who appointed Morrison to the Senate, was one of the men Morrison defeated when he himself was elected in 1925. Morrison had gone into Democratic politics and had finally become one of the chief cogs in the famous Simmons machine. He campaigned on a platform that called for good hard-surface roads and a large building program for state educational and charitable institutions.

After being nominated and elected, he put his promises into effect. North Carolina took a spurt forward as a state with a fine modern highway system, modern school buildings and a famous university for which Morrison, although he had had no college education himself, recommended liberal appropriations.

During the 1928 pre-convention fight Morrison fought the efforts of Senator Simmons to obtain an anti-Al Smith delegation from the state and subsequently became Simmons' political enemy. He will soon become North Carolina's senior senator, although only appointed in December, because Simmons, denied renomination after 30 years in the Senate because he bolted Al Smith, leaves the Senate after March fourth to be succeeded by Josiah W. Bailey.

Despite their political enmity, Morrison worked for and voted for a close friend of Simmons, Frank R. McNinch, when McNinch was appointed recently to the Federal Power Commission.

Democrats who deplore Morrison's vigorous dry speeches and his promise to keep on fighting the wets in the Democratic party get some satisfaction in the thought that "he has always been regular." He was no bolter in 1928. And in the Senate the other day he referred to National Chairman Raskob as "the monumental mistake of our great candidate, Alfred E. Smith."

So perhaps Morrison will be careful not to injure the party in his attempts to keep it dry, even though he proves to be the Democratic dry who makes the ablest and sincerest fight until the demand for "regularity" overtakes him.

CHRONIC INVALIDISM IN FAMILY DISCOURAGED AS BEING UNWHOLESOME

There are a great many people, indeed a great many families, who should go en masse to Miss Katharine Cornell's play, "The Barretts of Wimpole Street." If they do not happen to be in New York or any other city where it is playing, they should get the book of the play and read it.

I recommend this as a method of treatment. It is a very pleasant kind of dose, I should say, because the play is one of thrilling interest, and the mere sight and sound of Miss Cornell is a kind of glory in itself.

"The Barretts of Wimpole Street" concerns itself with the household of Edward Barrett, the father of the poetess Elizabeth Barrett, at the time when Robert Browning proposed marriage to her. Miss Barrett had always been supposed to be an invalid. She spent most of her time on a couch in a semi-darkened room. She was alleged to have something the matter with her spine. She was guarded against all shock, all excitement, all the incidents of the outside world.

This myth that she was unable to endure the experience of life was fostered largely by her father. He was a curious sort of domestic tyrant, common enough, well meaning enough perhaps, and convinced of his own rightness, but in reality as cruel as if his heart had been made of flint. Elizabeth was constantly reminded that she was too weak or sickly for ordinary activities, of the dreadful consequences which might follow breaking her imprisonment.

She lived, as Chesterson says, in that "most poisonous and degrading of all atmospheres—a medical atmosphere." I thoroughly agree with him. Everyone must know twenty or more families who breathe such an air—homes where medicine botttles litter the cupboards, where aloes and aspirin are consumed by the hogshead, and death and disease skulk about the furniture. Medical man though I am, I believe that for such people the doctrine of our brothers, the Christian Scientists, would be a wholesome thing.

In the case of Elizabeth Barrett, the proof of the pudding is known. She threw off the miasm of her father's house, she left her couch and her darkened room, and eloped with Robert Browning. For sixteen years she lived a free and healthy life, she bore him a child. Never once in all those crowded years was there any suggestion that her "spine" was any worse than anybody else's, or that it was in any way necessary for her health to be confined to bed in Wimpole Street.

Hint gently to some of your friends who live in a medical atmosphere that they go to see this play. Of course it cannot be guaranteed how much good it will do them. The tenacity with which some people cling to a life of invalidism is a perpetual wonder. I understand the suriving members of the Barrett family protested violently when the play was produced in London. So I gather they are still at it, and in dank corners of silent English houses they meet and complain in whispers that Spirits of Ammonia are not mixed as strong as they used to be.

QUESTIONS FROM READERS

Mrs. E. R. J.: "Please advise concerning the success of X-ray treatments for uterine hemorrhage."

Answer: In many cases X-rays are completely successful in uterine hemorrhage. They are always worth trying first as a primary method of treatment. If not successful, there is no reason why surgery cannot be employed afterwards.

Plumber Shot Over Radio Program Dies

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 27 (AP)—William Welch, a plumber shot last Thursday, police said, in an argument with his wife over the merits of a radio program by Rudy Vallee, died last night.

Police said Mrs. Welch told them her husband was killed in a struggle for possession of a revolver she had borrowed from a neighbor after he criticized her for listening to the crooning tenor.

Welch, he asserted, had just returned after an unexplained absence, demanding: "why don't you get a good program for a woman to listen to?" The widow is held.

The senators, after session-long delay, yesterday confirmed overwhelmingly President Hoover's recess appointment of Meyer as Governor of the federal reserve board.

In Barbary With Gilbert Swan

SWAN

MARRAKECH, Morocco, Feb. 27—And so, since this seemed to be a slightly modernized version of the Arabian Nights, it was—we shall suppose—the thousand and second night.

Having come from a more literal world, my wife had asked me to bring her home a bracelet. Not another bit of hammered silver, but a real Arab bracelet that could boast of some slight pedigree.

Thus did I discover mass production where all else has an untouched individuality that links itself with true antiquity. For, going from soup to nuts—as it were—I had found each craftsman turning out the same design, or something strangely similar. This applied whether the article was of silved, gold or leather. Finally I noticed in one place a crate filled with several hundred assorted articles. Selecting one or two by way of souvenirs for friends, I asked the price.

"Oh, you cannot buy those," a salesman explained in hybrid French. "They're going to Chicago." He mentioned the name of a nationally known department store.

Whereas I wrinkled my brow a bit more than it is already wrinkled.

So I recalled Omar. That wasn't his name, but I prefer it to Ali and Abdullah. Omar was a smart Arab lad who was discovered one morning beating rugs in front of the Mamounia Hotel.

Like Hajj, the beggar of "Kismet," Omar rounded the cycle of experience in the course of his working day. He might start out beating rugs, but within a few hours he was commanding hack drivers and, with a handsome cloak of lavendar shade, was steering tourists about; then he might be found exacting a commission from tourists in the sarlous souk shops.

Later in the night he could tell you where to get German beer, he would direct you to the dancing girls at so much per person and wind up by taking you through the reserve district. Omar was a young man who would get along very well under any civilization.

Being at the mercy of a cab driver, I was fortunate enough to encounter him. I explained that I was tired of mass production and wanted something different.

"Ah," said Omar . . . and then, in rattling Arabic, he gave instructions to my guide. So, we drove through lanes that were open and lanes that were partly covered with a sort of roofing. We drove past places that smelt sweet with the perfumes of the Orient and those which caused one to press the nostrils.

Finally the carriage stopped and we went on foot through a passageway and other mysterious passageways. Finally we came to a door. My guide rapped. A child came out. After a few words she disappeared and returned with a huge key. We retraced our steps and came to a locked gate. The child unlocked it.

We went through darker passageways and up an ancient steps, made of lovely antique tiling. More rappings and the door opened—and there we were, in the very midst of the Arabian Nights again. For here in a gorgeous room of mosaic work sat the merchant—he sat upon a throne of pillows, each more elegant than the last. Upon his head was a turban of gold and rose-colored silk.

Bracelets glistened from his wrists. In front of him was a huge show space, a veritable acre of couch two feet from the floor and covered with purple silk stuffs. Upon this his wares were spread—anklets, bracelets, earrings, belt hooks, amulets and jewels; such a display of splendor as I never have seen.

I began to think of the windows on the "avenoo" . . . of the gasps this sight would bring to shoppers. And when it was all over I went back into the daylight with two bracelets. They had cost slightly more than 100 francs—or about $5, to be exact.

A physicians' art exhibit is not to be taken too lightly. Some of the medicos are probably famed for their iodine paintings.

Edna Best, English actress, left Hollywood flat to join her husband in New York. But perhaps that's the best way.

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

THE big giraffe seemed rather pleased. For once he wasn't teased and teased. The Tinies treated him real nice, which was the thing to do. Upon his neck wee Clowny clung and round about he soon was swung. Each time the animal would move, 'course Clowny would move, too.

Said Scouty, "Gee, I wish he'd run. I'll bet 'twould be a heap of fun for Clowny 'way up in the air." Then came a big surprise. Perhaps the beast heard what he said, because he promptly went ahead and started running right before the startled Tinies' eyes.

"Hey! Stop him! Stop him!" Clowny cried. "I am afraid that I will slide right down his neck and take a spill. It's hard to hang on tight. Who put him up to tricks like this? I knew that things would go amiss. Won't someone try to help me? I am in an awful plight!"

The trainer of the big giraffe looked on and then began to laugh. "You sure look funny," he exclaimed. "But I'll come to your aid." He stopped the beast from running 'round. Then Clowny slid down to the ground. The others started kidding him and claimed he was afraid.

The Travel Man cried, "Don't tease, boys. You only make a lot of noise. Let's go now to the monkey cage. Some more fun is in store." They found the monkeys full of tricks and Clowny soon was in a fix, because he teased one monstrous monk and made the whole bunch roar.

The monkey suddenly jumped out, ere Clowny knew what 'twas about, and grabbed his hat and scampered off. He chattered very loud. Poor Clowny started in to chase, but found it was a losing race. "Go get him! Try and get him!" came the shouts from all the crowd.

BARNARD SEES HOT RACE FOR AMERICAN FLAG

IN THE REALM OF SPORT

With Collier Parris
Journal Sports Editor

Texas Tech is going in heavy this spring for intramural sports. The call is out this week for boxers and wrestlers. Del Morgan, who is not a bad scrapper himself, certainly built like one, will handle the fighters. The sluggers, maulers and grunt and groan men will have their first meeting this evening at 5:30.

Some pretty fair fighters are enrolled at Texas Tech. In the heavyweight class you find quite a number of potential pokers and wrangling wrestlers. There are some fair middleweights, too. In the last two open house programs for men at the college several of these have appeared for ring battles and the result has been well worth watching, especially in this state where boxers went out like corsets and six-gunned cowboys.

Attention is called to one Al "Cowboy" Simmons, a regular tackle on Cawthon's Matador grid team last fall and a promising lineman for the 1931 season. Simmons has fought twice before large crowds and has come out with the body intact, leaving his opponent, at one time, to be carried off. "Strong Man" Frizzell, a freshman and every inch a man, appeared against Simmons last week and the outcome of that scrap was little better than pitiful. The fans left declaring that, as a boxer, Frizzell is a fine spike bender and blower up of automobile tubes.

But the mighty Frizzell will have something to say about that. He had misjudged his opponent, and before the gong stopped echoing in the gymnasium, Frizzell was lying flat on his back. He was revived some minutes later and assisted off the floor. It seems that he squared off for a terrific left, leaving his chin exposed. There was a flash that might have been lightning, but it was Simmons' mighty right, and Frizzell's stiff frame bounced on the ring floor. Yes, this Simmons boy is quite a scrapper. He'll find plenty of competition in the intramural race but he ought to end up somewhere near the top. Frizzell is going to start training soon for a comeback.

Then there's a lad named McGrady, slender and agile, who is due to make a good showing in the middleweight class. He has fought twice in the Tech ring, twice to draws, and his last fight was so much better than the first that he looked like a different man. His feinting is a bit awkward yet, but he'll snap out of it with a little training and sparring. Toby Greer is another, almost a heavyweight, whose opponent will find tough going.

"Terrible" Tribble, a wrestler in the middleweight class, looms as one of the best grunters on the campus. Last week he won a close decision over "Tuffy" Carr, local wrestler, who outweighed him nearly 20 pounds. Tribble is a center, playing as a freshman last fall with Dutchey Smith's best.

Skipper "Crip" Golightly will have charge of the basketball program this spring. At present he is away with his Matador cagers who wind up the 1931 season tomorrow night in El Paso and break training in Juarez with the Texas Miners. As in the campus football program, each school will submit a team, each team to meet the others three or four times during the spring. Other campus organizations may be represented. It is probable that as many as 200 men will enter the cage contests.

Track will also be on the basis of intramuralism only this spring at the local college. The sport was eliminated from the athletic budget last week by the wise athletic council, but an extensive campus program is planned.

The Tech Matadors open their final series tonight with Mack Saxon's Miners. They return here Sunday.

Amarillo athletic fans and all other Panhandle lovers of the mat game will flock tonight to the city auditorium where Cal Farley, famous wrestler, headlines in a match with Billy Hallas. The fight should be well worth watching. As wrestlers go, Farley and Hallas are two of the cleanest and most entertaining of the day. Farley gave Jack Reynolds, the welterweight title holder, one of his worst scares last June at Amarillo, and Cal is back after several months of non-activity outside the training camps for another try at the title. Several Lubbock sportists have planned to see the scrap tonight, Dutch Mantell, 50-year-old mat artist, will also appear on the program.

Tommy Lovelace Is Signed With Sports

DALLAS, Feb. 27 (AP)—Tommy Lovelace, outfielder, who makes his winter residence in Dallas and who played last year with Canton, Ohio, in the Central league, said today he had come to terms with the Shreveport Sports, to whom he had been sold by Canton. He said he mailed his signed contract to Tom Hickman, president of the Shreveport club.

East Indians employed on British ships now number 33,371, or 26.3 per cent of all seamen employed.

LEAGUE PRESIDENT IN FLORIDA FOR ANNUAL VISIT AMONG TRAINING CAMPS; McGRAW SAYS GIANTS ARE STRONGER

(By The Associated Press)

FORT MYERS, Fla., Feb. 27—President E. S. Barnard, of the American league, was here today to watch the champion Philadelphia Athletics train. He said nearly all the American league clubs were stronger this year and he looked for a close pennant race.

Manager Connie Mack appeared particularly pleased yesterday with the work of Hank McDonald and Jim Deshong, rookie pitchers. McDonald is 6 feet, 4 inches tall and comes from Santa Monica, Calif. Deshong is from Hafrisburg, Pa.

PHILLIES DIVIDED ON NEW BALL

CY PERKINS STILL SPRY BEHIND THE BACKSTOP

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 27 (AP)—Cy Perkins has touched the 35-year mark but you'd never know it to watch the veteran catcher perform his daily chores for the New York Yankees. He has as much zest for the game now as he had when he broke into the game back in 1914. Perkins got his release from the Philadelphia Athletics not because he had lost his value but because the A's had a fairly good receiver in Gordon Cochrane.

JAWN SEES HIS TEAM 25 PER CENT BETTER

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 27. (AP)—The New York Giants, in John McGraw's opinion, will be 25 per cent stronger than a year ago.

"The Giants will have Lindstrom in center field," said John without a smile. "A good collection of left handed batsmen led by Bill Terry, a better balanced pitching staff and a fast young infield."

HIS CHANCES DO LOOK PRETTY SLIM

CLEARWATER, Fla., 27. (AP)—Young Al Cohen, a promising looking rookie from Macon, doesn't think so much of his chances of breaking into the Brooklyn Robins' outfield at present.

"It's like trying to break into a bank with a penknife," he commented. "I've been looking up the averages and I see Herman hit .393; O'Doul .383, and Frederick .334 and they tell me Frederick had a bad year. Why another Ty Cobb could hardly break in here."

THEY CAN'T CALL BILL SPIDER ANY MORE

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 27. (AP)—Bill Cissell used to be so thin they called him spider, but the Chicago White Sox infielder, who reported for training yesterday, came in from Iowa weighing 185 pounds.

Cissell's arrival gave Donie Bush enough material for an infield, including Ray Radcliff, rookie first baseman, Irving Jeffries, infielder recalled from Toledo, with Vic Siegel, a catcher, to fill in at shortstop. Bush welcomed the opportunity to get started with Radcliff who appears to be the Sox' only hope for first base.

REDS TO MEET OLD TEAMMATE WITH DODGERS

TAMPA, Fla., Feb. 27. (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds are looking forward to a meeting with a former team mate eight days hence, when Manager Wilbur Robinson brings the Brooklyn Dodgers here for an exhibition. "Uncle Robbie" has promised to send Adolf Luque, former Red, to the box, with Lopez, another Cuban, behind the bat. The Redleg batterymen have been taking two workouts each day with a little more fungo hitting thrown in with each one.

CRAGHEAD LOOKS GOOD IN EARLY TRAINING

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 27. (AP)—Howard Craghead is the first recipient of the early spring enthusiasms in the Cleveland Indians' camp. The 23-year-old hurler up from Oakland of the Pacific coast league has a world of natural ability and looks like the most certain of the rookie moundsmen to stick, the Tribe's unofficial observers report. Two infielders, Bill Hunefield and Carl Lind, have arrived and the rest of the Indians are due over the week-end.

HORNSBY PREPARING FOR FIRST PRACTICE GAME

AVALON, Calif., Feb. 27. (AP)—Manager Rogers Hornsby is rushing the Chicago Cubs along at such a clip that he believes they will be ready for their first practice game Sunday.

The batterymen have had nearly two weeks of work and are about ready, and the infielders and outfielders, most of whom reported in good condition, are expected to be primed for a six-inning test two days hence.

BIG FUTURE PREDICTED FOR CAROLINA COLLEGIAN

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Feb. 27. (AP)—Charles Kennon Marrow, who won four sports letter at Davidson college, North Carolina, is a Detroit Tiger pitching recruit this year. Camp followers have predicted a big league future for him. He is a right hander and measures six feet four inches. He played with Beaumont, in the Texas league, after leaving school last June.

ANOTHER TRACK MEET ON SLATE FOR PIRATES

PASO ROBLES, Calif., Feb. 27 (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates indulged in another track meet today. So tickled was Manager Jewel Ens with yesterday's foot racing—something new in Pirate spring drills—that he announced the stunt would be repeated every day in camp. The sprints replace the old daily jogs around the field. Batting practice also was extended today.

GABBY STREET EXPECTED TO TAKE OVER CARDINALS

BRADENTON, Fla., Feb. 27. (AP)—Manager Babby Street of the Cardinals expected to take over direction of the Redbirds' training here today after a day's absence because of a stomach disorder. Outfielder George Watkins arrived yesterday, five days ahead of schedule. He was accompanied by Outfielder Joel Hunt, last year with Houston.

SAMMY GRAY EXPECTS TO STAGE COMEBACK

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 27. (AP)—Sammy Gray, whose pitching record with the Browns last year was a decided disappointment, believes he'll have much better luck this season. Gray, one of the first to report for training, already was in condition to pitch, having limbered up his arm in Texas. Yesterday Gray spent some time throwing them up to batters.

TUT TO BATTLE PETROLLE

TWO WARRIORS MEET FOR 6TH TIME IN RING TONIGHT

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—King Tut and Billy Petrolle, two hard-punching lightweights, renew their rivalry in Madison Square garden tonight.

Five times these warriors have clashed before with Tut holding a slight edge over the "Fargo Express." Petrolle won the first two encounters, then Tut captured two decisions and evened the score. Petrolle went into the fifth battle with plenty of support. He had climaxed a brilliant come-back campaign by giving Jimmy McLarnin the worst beating of his career. But Tut, not a bit intimidated by Petrolle's sensational series of triumphs, knocked out the Fargo slugger in half a minute of the first round.

Now Billy threatens to quit the ring for good if he fails to hurdle his Minneapolis nemesis tonight. He's on the short end of the betting which, in view of what has happened at the garden in recent months, should be a good omen. Short-enders have been consistently successful up Eighth Avenue way since the current indoor season began. Tut, in view of his decisive triumph over Petrolle at St. Paul, naturally is the logical favorite.

Bi-District Games To Be Played Today

AUSTIN, Feb. 27 (AP)—Games scheduled in bi-district play for the basketball championship of high schools were announced as follows today:

Austin vs. Bryan at Bryan; Sidney Lanier of San Antonio vs. Bloomington at San Antonio; Mathis vs. Weslaco.

Plainview, Big Spring and Locker already have become bi-district champions.

New Yorker Plays In 3 States Thursday

JOPLIN, Mo., Feb. 27 (AP)—Ralph A. Kennedy of New York, fanned the turf of four states to play 36 holes of golf yesterday.

Kennedy, who claims to have tested the hazards of 899 different courses in the United States and Canada, started at Miami, Okla., played another nine at Baxter Springs, Kas.; carded another nine at Joplin and wound up by going around the Bellavista, Ark., course.

HOPPE MOST SPECTACULAR

NEW YORK, Feb. 27 (AP)—Welker Cochran of Hollywood sets the pace for the four cue masters in the international 18.2 balkline billiards tournament but the most spectacular playing has been contributed by Willie Hoppe of New York.

Hoppe, in winning three of his four matches, has needed only 38 innings to compile 1452 points for the average of 40 15-38 points per inning. Cochran, who has won four games in a row, has an average of 25 25-68.

TEXAS MINERS OPPONENTS TONIGHT

GOLIGHTLY'S CREW TO TRY TO STAVE OFF BORDER ATTACK

(Special To The Journal)

EL PASO, Feb. 27—Coach Crip Golightly and eight Texas Tech Matadors arrived here today to wind up their 1931 basketball season with the Texas School of Mines quintet in a two-frame stand tonight and Saturday night. The Techsters came here from Albuquerque, N. M., where they split a series with the University of New Mexico that heralded the beginning of athletic relations between the two schools. On the present trip, the Matadors defeated the New Mexico School of Mines at Socoro before meeting the Lobos.

Due to their superior showing over the Miners in Lubbock early in the season and to the loss of a pair of good men by Coach Mack Saxon since then the Matadors are favored to win the series here. Unless the Miners have a burst of ability and enthusiasm that has not been seen for several weeks, the Crimson-clad youths of the South Plains will find the going not too rough.

The stage here, however, is set for a pair of interesting games. The teams are old rivals and they always put up a good battle, whether it be on the gridiron, basketball court or checkerboard. Coach Saxon has pointed to the Tech series and is hopeful of at least a split. The teams fought hard at Lubbock and the Matadors won by a single point in the game and by two in the second.

Both had asked more money and were the last of the holdouts to sign.

BIG BILL TILDEN LIKES TENNIS, THE STAGE, MUSIC AND BRIDGE; HE FORMS STRONG FRIENDSHIPS, BITTER ENEMIES

BY ORLO ROBERTSON

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (AP)—He says his name is William Tatem Tilden II but it really isn't. He is William Tatem Tilden, Jr. They called him "Junior" to distinguish him from his father and his elder brother, Herbert Marmaduke Tilden and he hated it. So as soon as he could, "Junior" Tilden became William Tatem II.

To complicate the matter further he is "Will" to his aunt, Miss Hay, and a cousin, Miss Selina Hay, who took his bringing up in charge after the death of his mother. He calls Selina "Twin" so they are about even.

Has Four Interests

Big Bill has four great interests—Tennis, the stage, music and bridge. He played baseball and hockey at prep school in Philadelphia and was rather good. His brother Marmaduke taught him to play tennis, beat him consistently, but died before Bill became great.

Bill long ago reached the professional stage but he isn't considered a good actor. He knows the technique, can memorize the lines of everyone in the cast but he becomes self-conscious. He has a high pitched dramatic voice. He probably never will be a good actor.

"But I don't care," he says. "I love the stage. I love to act. It pleases me and—let's say I'm selfish about it."

Music Next

Music ranks next in his devotions. He has attended so many operas that he knows most of the lines. Bill plays no instrument but he has one of the largest collections of phonograph records—all of singers—in the country. Every record Mary Garden ever made is in the collection.

He plays them for hours at a time.

"If I had to give up either tennis or music," he said at the height of his career, "I would give up tennis."

Big Bill is full of mannerisms. The same tricks, gestures, voice inflections and attitudes that caused so much comment on the courts are part of his every day actions. They annoy most of his friends. The closest ignore them.

Plays Bridge Well

He plays bridge as well as he plays tennis and almost as much.

Bill has never married. All his real devotion to women he saves for aunt and cousin Hay. He is self-willed, argumentative but never pugnacious, and rarely admits he is wrong. He forms strong friendships and makes bitter enemies. Sometimes these are interchangeable.

GOVERNMENTAL INTERFERENCE IN COTTON TRADE BITTERLY ASSAILED BY GOV. STERLING OF TEXAS

Exclusive Interview Reveals Feelings of Governor of Largest State

TOO MUCH GOVERNMENT

"We Have Gotten Away from Democracy," Says Governor Sterling

AUSTIN, Tex., Feb. 20.—Scoring the advance of paternalism throughout the nation, Governor Ross S. Sterling, of Texas, in an exclusive interview with Cotton Trade Journal's correspondent today assailed the cardinal principle underlying the activities of the Federal Farm Board—government in business.

"Texas is first in cotton as she is first in everything else"—said the Governor, 'and I view with concern the continued invasion of the rights of the Texas cotton interest by governmental agencies. Texas is the largest cotton producing state. Millions of dollars are also invested in gins and warehouses. From her ports Texas sends forth to the world hundreds of thousands of bales of cotton to be used in the mills of all lands. Cotton is the foremost export of the United States and we in Texas are vitally interested in the welfare and progress of this industry. I, personally, take an interest in the cotton situation because it affects so many of our people, and I would gladly do anything within my power to assist the industry.

"It seems to me that the Federal government under the Republican Party, has been on a long debauch of paternalism. There is too much government. There is too much government interference. There are too many governmental commissions. There are too many tax-gatherers and there are too many people who want the government to take care of them. In this connection I ask what is to become of the government if the people do not take care of it?

'Gotten Away From Democracy"

"We have gotten away in our national government from the tenets of Democracy. Jefferson, statesman and sage, laid down what I believe to be the first principle of Americanism when he said 'that government is best which governs least.' To my mind this should be the underlying principle in both national and state affairs. But the Republican Party, a class organization, ever working for privilege and for the chosen few, has consistently ignored this principle—with the result that we find ourselves under the heaviest burden of taxation in the nation's history.

"The Federal Farm Board is only one of the fruits of Republican policy. There can be no question but what the farmers of this country are entitled to an equal share of all things the government has to give. Relief of the farmer, however, does not necessarily mean that the government should take the funds of all the tax-payers and go into business in competition with private agencies. Government in business sets a bad precedent—for once the principle is established there is no limit to which it may be carried.

Gov. Ross Sterling, of Texas, who has a few things to say about the Federal Farm Board and the Agricultural Marketing Act.

"Formation and operation of the Federal Farm Board, or any other agency operating with government funds in competition with private interests, represents to my mind gross error. It has been established by incontrovertible evidence—that economic problems cannot be solved by political means. In every case where government has undertaken to compete with private industries the results have been disastrous. Brazil, with her coffee, tried it and failed; Cuba, with her sugar, tried it without success; Chile made the experiment with heavy losses attendant. These are only examples I select at random. The results is the same in every case.

"Farmers Should Be Aided"

"No one could possibly object to adequate aid for the farmers—and under my administration in Texas the welfare of our agricultural interests has my unceasing attention. There is a vast difference between helping the farmer and creating a great marketing organization, whether that organization be in cotton, tobacco, or any other product.

"The remedy, it seems to me, for our present ills rests with the Democratic Party. The nation should return to sanity—to the teachings of the founding fathers who believed in the right of men to go forward in business or in the professions according to their ability. The men who founded the Democratic Party were firm in their determination that the functions of the Party should be the establishment of a just government, bringing that government in closest touch with the people, and the performance of such governmental function as would make for the happiness and progress of the ordinary citizen.

"The multiplicity of Federal commissions and regulatory bodies which have sprung up have come as a result of the desperate effort of the Republican Party to in some way cover up its years of misrule. Instead of getting better—the situation is rapidly growing worse. The present situation is one which demands thought and action on the part of every citizen who has in mind the welfare of our country."

DAILY MARKETS

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (AP)—Stocks fluctuated irregularly in a narrow trading range today. Prominent industrials and utilities moved up and down erratically to the extent of about a point in each direction.

A few specialties showed consistent strength. Warren Bros. rallied 3, while Macy, Borg Warner, Kroger, Lehn and Fink and Pullman rose 2 to 2 3-4. General Motors was firm, ruling moderately higher. U. S. Steel, General Electric, American Telephone, and American Can eased slightly. Radio was sold in the early trading, but regained part of its 2 point drop.

Call money renewed at 1 1-2 per cent.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 27 (AP) — Cotton was quiet at the opening today. As liverpool cables were favorable first trades here were 2 points higher. The market soon eased off, however, on long liquidation, May dropping to 11.37 and October to 11.88, or 5 to 6 points down from the opening figures and 3 points below yesterday's close. At the end of the first hour the market continued quiet but 2 points up from the lows. Trades appeared to be waiting on the wekly statistics and on a private report on the intentions to plant which would show the probable acreage.

The market gradually eased off during the morning. The selling was induced in the first place by disappointment over a private report meaning the probable reduction in acreage of 15.1 per cent. Later the weekly statistics proved disappointing, particularly mill taking which was smaller than expected. May traded down to 11.27 and October to 11.79, or 15 points down from the early highs and 12 to 14 points below yesterday's close.

Around noon the market was quiet and 2 points above the lowest.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (AP)—Cotton opened steady 1 point lower on March but generally 2 to 4 points higher in response to steady Liverpool cables and continued favorable reports from the cloth markets.

May sold at 11.41 and October at 11.92 on the initial demand, but the market was comparatively quiet and prices eased off shortly after the call under realizing which was probably combined with a little southern selling and some selling for a reaction. May eased off to 11.36 and October 11.85 by the end of the first half hour when the market was about 2 to 4 points net lower. A private report on planting intentions in the south pointed to a decrease of 15.1 per cent in acreage but the figures appeared to be without any immediate effect of importance on the market.

The market worked off later in the morning under further realizing and continued local or southern selling which was promoted by the easier ruling of the later Liverpool cables and some selling here for Liverpool account. May declined to 11.28 and October to 11.80, or about 8 to 10 points net lower and the market was quiet at about these figures around midday.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Feb. 27. (AP)—Grain prices displayed notable steadiness early today, contrasting with sharp setbacks which followed first announcement of proposed stop loss export selling of government sponsored wheat. A majority of traders acted on opinions expressed that moves to dispose of American seaboard stocks of wheat would be helpful in avoiding congestion later.

Opening 1-2 off to 1-8 up, wheat afterward held near to the initial range. Corn started 3-8 lower to 3-8 higher and subsequently showed little change.

Wheat closed firm, unchanged to 1-4 cent higher, corn at 3-4 decline to 1-4 advance, oats 3-8 to 7-8 off, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 10 cents.

JURY STILL OUT ON BANK ROBBERY CASE

EASTLAND, Feb. 27. (AP)—The jury was still deliberating the case of Robert Hill, last survivor of the Cisco Santa Claus bank robbers, near noon today. BRYAN MILLER myself, I deemed it to the best interests of Lubbock to tender my resignation, subject to the action of your honorable body."

The city manager further stated that he would continue to hold the post until the commission agreed upon and closed with a successor who, in their opinions, would be a capable, suitable man.

Seek Successor

Such a man probably will be employed by May 1 of this year, according to Mayor Clements who stated that the commission would bend every effort to find and employ another city manager. The mayor reported that the auditor's books showed the city to be firmly entrenched financially, pointing out that during the first ten months of the present fiscal year the city had operated on $63,000 less than its budget of approximately $300,000. He also said that cash on hand totalled more than $80,000.

Whole Commission Present

The entire commission was present at the meeting, which got under way at the City hall at 1:30 p. m. Thursday and ended at 5 o'clock. A number of routine matters were acted upon by the commission, composed of D. N. Leaverton, fire and police; George E. Benson, streets and alleys; John F. Bacon, finance, and John Roach, utilities.

When differences of opinion concerning the city's policies were voiced Commissioner Roach entered a motion asking the resignation of the city manager. Commissioner Benson seconded the motion. At that point City Manager Miller entered his resignation without a vote and Commissioner Roach, with the consent of Commissioner Benson, withdrew his motion. The records were exponged and no vote was taken.

"I have been in city work long enough to know that the city comes first," Mr. Miller said last night. "For that reason, regardless of how the other commissioners might have voted, I elected to take the step which I am sure is best for the city, the commission and myself."

Here From Bryan

Mr Miller, a graduate of Texas A. and M. college in the Class of 1918, came to Lubbock as successor to G. W. McCleary. During the six years prior to coming to Lubbock he served as city manager at Bryan, Texas and prior to that was at Electra for two years. Before going to Electra he did municipal work in Nacona, Jacksboro, Wichita Falls and Dectaur. Since moving here he has been active in the First Presbyterian church and the Rotary club.

He is the fourth city manager to serve Lubbock in the past five years, his successor, G. W. McCleary, having succeeded Bill Perkinson, who died while in office.

Mr. Miller said last night that while he had several plans in mind for the future, he was not at liberty to divulge them at this time. His connection with the City of Lubbock was made through the previous administration, headed by former Mayor Harley D. Wood.

Continuation at less frequent intervals of service on a city bus route opened last September was sought in preference to discontinuance of the line as proposed by the operator, the City commission decided Thursday afternoon.

Installation of traffic signals lights at Avenue H and Broadway and Avenue H and Main street was ordered by the commission.

After hearing a petition by W. A. Izard, operator of the city bus lines, for permission to discontinue service on the route, the commission suggested that City Manager J. Bryan Miller confer with the bus operator in an effort to effect a plan for continuation of the service.

At present, buses on the route make a roundtrip each hour, arriving at Texas Technological college on the hour and at the city bus station at 35 minutes after the hour.

The route is as follows: From the city bus station, 1100 block of Broadway, west on Broadway to Avenue Q; south on Avenue Q to Fourteenth street, north on Fourteenth street to Avenue T, south on Avenue T to Twenty-seventh street, west on Twenty-seventh to Avenue V, north on Avenue V to Twenty-fifth street, west on Twenty-fifth to College avenue, north on College avenue to Twenty-second street, west on Twenty-second street to 3100 block, north to Twentieth street, east on Twentieth street to 2800 block, east on Twentieth to college campus. The same route is followed on the return run.

MUD CARPET IS LEFT IN NORTHERN SICILY

PALERMO, Sicily, Feb. 27 (AP)—Torrential rains which flooded the towns of northern Sicily during the devastating wind storms of the early part of the week have subsided, leaving a mud carpet over cities and ravaged farms.

Fifteen persons, it is estimated, lost their lives and the property damage will amount to several million dollars.

EARTH SHOCKS ARE TERRIFYING MEXICANS

GUAYMAS, Sonora, Mex., Feb. 27 (AP)—Frequent earth shocks in the last five weeks have alarmed inhabitants of this city. A strong temblor, the fifth in a period of 40 days, was experienced yesterday morning.

B. C. D. DIRECTORS

tonight when plans will be presented and approved.

The plan in brief is to give the work to married men first who are now receiving charity and after they are provided for, to put other idle men on that are really in need of work.

Can Be Self Sustaining

Opinion of BCD directors today was that employment is needed more than charity. Employment will make those now receiving charity self sustaining rather than dependent on public aid.

A sub-committee from the emergency employment committee suggested to the City commission several weeks ago that this project be adopted by that body. The commission did not act. The employment committee again appeared before the commission Thursday to urge that the project be adopted and a conference was asked by the commission with the BCD.

To Finance Project

Without further ado the BCD directors this morning took the project upon its own shoulders and will finance it and handle it throughout.

In addition to the beenfits to unemployed, it was pointed out that health conditions and sanitation will be greatly aided while a number of conventions are scheduled during the year and the appearance of the City will be enhanced.

L. B. Sandoloski, of Dallas, assistant passenger agent of the Texas and Pacific railroad, appeared before the directors this morning to request that Lubbock withdraw its protest to the proposed schedule of train No. 7 from Dallas to Sweetwater with which their present train No. 5 will be consolidated if they can secure such a permit from the Texas Railroad commission.

The matter will be taken up with other towns on the branch line of the Santa Fe which will be effected by the schedule of mail service and Lubbock will agree to an 8:20 arrival if other cities of this area are agreeable.

UNEMPLOYED WARNED NOT TO GO TO DAM

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27 (AP)—From east, west, north and south, unemployed men are pouring upon the reclamation bureau requests to help build the $109,000,000 Hoover dam and power plant.

Thousands of applications for jobs, piling up before Commissioner Mead in Washington and field officials at Denver and Las Vegas, as well as other branches of the bureau, have caused Mead to order a form letter of reply telling them the bureau does not employ labor for the job.

The commissioner repeated today his recent warning that there was more than enough labor already on hand at Las Vegas, Nevada, about thirty miles from the dam site, to meet the need.

Many persons, trained and untrained labor, engineers and draftsmen, along with others, apply in person at the reclamation bureau daily.

Negro Is Improved After Gun Affray

Nathan Brown, negro, critically wounded late Thursday as result of a shooting which occurred in the 1700 block of Avenue A, this morning was reported by attendants at the West Texas hospital as greatly improved. Brown suffered a bullet wound in the abdomen.

Hugh Jordon, another negro, was arrested by local officers shortly after the affair and is being held in jail today pending definite reports on Brown's condition. Charges probably will be filed late today or early Saturday, according to authorities.

Motive for the shooting had not been determined by officers this morning.

Investigation of the probability that rabbits carry tuberculosis germs and infect milk cows is to be undertaken by a farmers' union at Dumfries, Scotland.

PLAINS WORK TO BE LET

FOUR COUNTIES ARE TO BE INCLUDED IN BIDS LET SATURDAY

Contracts for highway construction in Lubbock, Crosby, Motley and Hall counties are expected to be awarded at a meeting of the state highway commission in Austin Saturday, according to information received here.

Definite assurance that the 17.2 miles paving job on highway No. 9 north from Lubbock to Abernathy will be included in the letting has been made by the state highway department. Possibility that the 12.2 mile slab south from Lubbock to the Lynn county line may be deferred to the March letting have been indicated.

To Use Present Route

The Crosby county project of seven miles is from the east side of the Crosbyton road district, four miles east of Crosbyton, through the town to the top of the caprock. It is not planned at this time to build a new road down the caprock but to use the present route down the west side of Blanco canyon.

The Hall county project is a 10.5 mile grade and drainage job on highway 18 from the east side of road district No. 4 to Hulver. This will connect with the paving in that highway from Turkey to Estelline.

The Motley county project is a 16-mile grading job from Matador south through Roaring Springs to the Dickens county line. The Dickens county section of No. 18 is paved from the county line into Dickens.

The highway commission is to let between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000 in contracts at the letting Saturday which will continue through March 2 and 3.

loose money on the counter, locked Watson, Grant Eighorn, bookkeeper and the customers in a vault, took Sims with them and drove away.

The First National is the only bank here. Watson said it had never been robbed before.

WISCONSIN BANK IS BURGLARIZED

BLUE RIVER, Wis., Feb. 27, (AP)—The Blue River State Bank was looted about 4 a. m. today by a gang of burglars who blew open the safe and escaped with an undetermined amount in cash and securities.

POSSES SEARCH FOR TRIO IN OKLAHOMA

TUSKAHOMA, Okla., Feb. 27 (AP)—Hunted by posses of two states in the wilds of the Klamichi mountains, three men who robbed the Tuskahoma First State Bank of around $1,800 yesterday sought to make good their escape today.

The automobile in which they fled was recovered by a posse led by Sheriff Sam Stephens about 55 miles east of Tuskahoma late last night after a running gun fight. It was driven from the road about midway between Sewell and Ludlow, where the bandits took to their heels.

A Polk county, Ark., posse joined in the chase.

Two newspapers were found in the car, one a copy of the Shawnee Morning News and the other of the Maud Enterprise addressed to a box holder at Asher.

The sheriff's posse was swelled by addition of most of the male inhabitants of the sparsely settled region armed with assorted fire arms from small squirrel rifles to single-barrel shot guns.

A. A. McReynolds, county attorney, said he believed the three had "holed up" for the day in a cabin in the hills.

Afoot, the robbers would have difficulty making their way out of the mountain country. There are scores of miles in this part of the state without a house, he said.

The automobile was believed stolen in Asher, Okla.

MAN AND WOMAN TO BE CHARGED

HASTINGS, Neb., Feb. 27. (AP)—County Attorney Herman Schroeder today said he would file charges this afternoon against the woman and man in jail here in connection with the $27,000 robbery of the Hastings National bank, last Wednesday.

He said both would be charged with kidnaping in connection with the abduction of Patrolman William Woods during their dash for freedom and that the man also would be charged with bank robbery.

Woman Identified

Officers said the woman was Velma Creighton, wife of one of the three robbers. The man, who was wounded in a gun fight during the bandits' dash for freedom, gave his name as Robert Hendricks. Officers said he had been identified as Jim Thomas who is wanted in Texas for robbery of the First State Bank of Canyon last January.

Physicians said the wounded man probably would recover. Both he and the woman have refused to talk, the woman even declining to reveal her identity.

Two Others Sought

Meanwhile, officers continued their search in Kansas and Oklahoma for the two other bank robbers, one of whom they said was known as Jimmy Creighton. The other robber was tentatively identified from a photograph at Wichita, Kas., as Jimmie Woodruff of that city. Police here said both Creighton and Hendricks (Thomas) had prison records, the former in Texas and Creighton in Oklahoma.

The woman expects to become a mother again in a few weeks. Her year-old-son, Bobby, accompanied her and Thomas in the dash for freedom after the robbers had abducted Woods and Police Captain Frank Yetman. After Condit was wounded the robbers forced a group of officers to drop their guns under threat of death to the young bank association investigator. Woods was bound to a fence post near Grafton, Neb.

Tied In Schoolhouse

The two other robbers took Yettman in their car and tied him to a chair in a schoolhouse near Sylvan Grove, Kas.

The woman last night kept calling for her baby boy and this morning Bobby was permitted to visit his mother in the city jail. He is in custody of the local Red Cross chapter.

Police chief John Bramble and Captain Yettman left here in an airplane this afternoon for Amarillo, Texas. They declined to reveal the nature of the trip.

Thomas this afternoon was removed to a hospital from the jail. Two officers are on guard at his bedside.

Mystic Order Of Mickey Mouse Is To Meet Again On Saturday

EXECUTIVES of the Mystic Order of Mickey Mouse met in special session yesterday! As a result the Morning Avalanche was instructed to announce to the membership of the largest single organization of Lubbock that the club would meet in regular convention at their spacious club house, the Palace Theater, for an extra special program of entertainment Saturday morning.

The doors of the theater will be thrown open at 9 o'clock so that there will be no jostling of the crowds when the show starts promptly at 9:30. All members of the Mickey Mouse club are asked to present their membership cards and pay the weekly dues, one dime each, at the door. It is essential that the dues be paid by all charter members and by all candidates for membership this week.

As an extra attraction Saturday morning, the Palace theater presents one of the spookiest moving pictures, an all-talkie, yet to be filmed. "The Bat Whispers" is the name of the feature picture. Mickey Mouse and Minnie Mouse and all their barnyard friends will again appear on the silver sheet as part of the club rituals.

The theme song of the club will be shown on the screen to the accompaniment of orchestral music twice during the program so that the members may become familiar with the words and tune.

A cracker-eating contest with girls as the participants, special song and dance numbers by talented members of the club, announcements and business discussions will follow the grand opening of the program as all of the members rise and sing America while facing the United States flag.

All Lubbock juveniles who have not joined the club are invited to Saturday's meeting where they will be initiated into the joy-giving rites of the organization.

MUCH HIGHWAY WORK TO LET

CONSTRUCTION TOTAL OF $7,856,000 TO BE AWARDED

(By The Associated Press.)

AUSTIN, Feb. 27 — Construction estimated to cost $7,856,000 will be awarded at a meeting of the Texas highway commission, scheduled to open today and last through Tuesday. Forty projects have been included in the construction program.

In addition to the construction, maintenance contracts aggregating $575,000 will be awarded.

Most Ambitious

The program is the most ambitious ever undertaken by the highway commission. A majority of the projects will be carried out with federal aid funds to utilize the $5,000,000 appropriation advanced by congress to Texas as an employment aid during the business depression.

All contracts will specify the use of local labor as much as possible.

Heavy Bidding Expected

Highway department officials said they anticipated the heaviest bidding in several months, despite the fact bidding since early last year has been exceptionally heavy and close. It was believed likely the contracts would be awarded at prices considerably below the estimates.

Successful bidders will be announced as soon as the bids have been tabulated.

Projects on which bids will be received:

Comanche county — Bridge over Leon river on highway 10. Ellis county — Ten concrete bridges between Garrett and Ferris on highway 14. Brazos county—Seven reinforced concrete bridges between Bryan and the Navasota river on highway 6. Liveoak county—Bridges and aproaches across Ramerina creek on highway 145. Brown county—14.2 miles concrete paving from Brownwood to Comanche county line on highway 10. Henderson county and Kaufman county—18.6 miles concrete paving from Athens to Maybank on highway 40. Leon county—17.3 miles concrete paving from Centerville to Freestone county line on highway 32. Victoria county—16.6 miles concrete paving from Victoria to Calhoun county line on highway 29. Gray county—7.3 miles concrete paving from Carson county line to Pampa on highway 33. Kerr county—10.6 miles caliche base course on highway 41. accepted at once.

HOOVER GIVES HIS ARGUMENT ON VETO

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27 (AP) — President Hoover advanced the following arguments against the veterans loan bill in his veto message:

It would force the government either to sell $1,000,000,000 of reserve fund securities or to impose further taxation to make the loans.

Needy In Minority

The number of veterans in need of such relief is a minor percentage of the whole.

Its usefulness as a relief measure is less than pictured and it would lead local committees and employers to assume that some needy veterans who do not fall under it had been cared for, thereby threatening "them with greater hardships than before."

Many Caring For Selves

It would require the federal government "to provide an enormous sum of money to a vast majority who are able to care for themselves and who are caring for themselves."

"It can be of no assistance in the return of real prosperity."

It would bring an increased rate of interest for the government to pay on all long term issues.

It would retard the speed of the recovery of employment by diverting savings from industrial and commercial investment to securities the government must sell to make loans.

By stimulating loans, it would lessen the protection of veterans and their dependents, since both loans and interest must be deducted from the certificates.

It adds to the tendency to open the federal treasury to "a thousand purposes," threatening "burdens beyond the ability of our country normally to bear and breaking the barriers of self-reliance and self-support in our people."

Lower Prices And Better Values For 1931

Of course it's easy to give you lower prices—just offer cheaper goods.

But this isn't that kind of a store.

We believe in fine quality—so does Hart, Schaffner & Marx. And we've both maintained quality—better in most cases and have lowered prices.

The Gordian Worsted suits are an example. They were the finest suit that $50 could buy. Now they are $45. You save $5 on the price and more than $4 on the finer quality you get in the clothes. More than $9 saving in all.

And so it goes whether you pay $28.50 or $75. Stick to quality—it's always cheapest.

For three months my thumb would not heal and nail would not grow on it. After trying several prescribed treatments to no avail, I purchased Resinol Ointment.
