Mrs. Delbert Bivens Succumbs at Tulia

Mrs. Myrtle Bivens, 46, wife of Delbert Bivens of Tulia, died unexpectedly in the Swiss County hospital Tuesday afternoon, following a brief illness.

Mrs. Bivens was born in Floyd county on September 27, 1905. She attended West Texas State college at Canyon. She was married to Delbert Bivens in 1923. Since then the couple had made their home on the Bivens ranch two miles west of Tulia.

Mrs. Bivens was one of the Tulia community's most active citizens in civic and charitable work, having been an active worker in child welfare and Red Cross, both county and state work for a number of years. She was a member of the Baptist church in Tulia.

Funeral service for Mrs. Bivens is being held today in the First Baptist church with Reverend Neil Record officiating, burial in Rose Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Bivens is survived by her husband, a daughter, Mrs. Frank Henry Cullum of Tulia, her mother, Mrs. Bertie Yates of Portales, New Mexico, a brother, Elbert Muncy of Portales, and by two grandchildren.

The rainfall over the week-end was only a quarter of an inch and even less in some portions of the county. It brought heavy frosts every morning this week, however.

Gins Continue Around the Clock Runs as 57,000-Bale Mark Passed

Survey count of the cotton ginned at 14 Floyd county gin plants, made by County agent Robt. H. Gibson, had reached 57,643 bales as of Tuesday afternoon. This is an increase over the count the week previous of 10,326 bales.

Despite a sharp drop in temperature Friday night, accompanied by dripping showers that froze on the ground before daybreak Saturday gins kept their 24 hour schedules intact. Except for the Sunday close-down there was no let up. When cotton began rolling again Monday afternoon gins still had cotton on their yards and were rolling the trailers under the suction with monotonous regularity. Doing their capacity the gins were turning out about 830 bales every 24 hours. At the same time, with strippers and hand pullers stiffly competing in the job of getting the cotton out of the fields, scores of contract haulers are reaping a harvest in seed cotton hauls to gins out of the immediate area. Highways leading east, south and west are rolling daily with staple moving to gin plants in half a dozen adjacent counties. Also, hundreds of bales of cotton have been stacked in the field to be picked up and ginned in leisurely fashion later. Some of the cotton is being stripped a bit green and may make a better sample after it has gone through the sweat on the ground.

Mrs. Bill Norman Hurt as Car Turns Over on 'S' Curve

Mrs. Bill Norman, of Dougherty, is in Lubbock Memorial hospital this week as a result of a highway mishap at Morton Sunday night about 9:30. Mrs. Norman has a broken arm, a broken leg, multiple stitches on one hip, and is suffering from bruises and cuts.

Conscious when picked up by passing motorists, Mrs. Norman said she failed to make the turn on an "S" curve. Her car, a new Cadillac sedan, turned over three times and was demolished.

Mrs. Norman was driving alone. She had been to Roswell, New Mexico, to visit her son, Weims, who is a student in New Mexico Military Institute.

Tuesday members of the family reported that Mrs. Norman is rallying from the shock and resting well.

Several Floyd county friends have been in Lubbock at her bedside this week.

Buy Nance Cattle

Three Floyd county people were among the buyers when the big George Nance Hereford sale was held east of Canyon last week. Several others from this county attended the sale.

The buyers from here were John E. Lewis, who brought home eight head of young steers, Bill Goode who acquired a heifer, and Miss Barbara Barnard, who bought a young cow and calf.

Dale S. King takes work in Buffalo Lake office. AMARILLO—Roy C. Childers of Tulia will assume his duties as concessionaire at Buffalo lake December 1. Childers replaces Glen McKenzie.

Dale S. King, Children's son-in-law, will work in the office at Buffalo and will move to the lake next week to be ready for full time duty.

King will graduate from West Texas State college in May with a BA in English. His wife Reta is also attending WTSU. King is a Marine Corps veteran, serving during 1946-1948.

It was advantageous to wheat in the ground.

Despite the heavy movement of cottonseed from the county to oil mills in the area, competition for cottonseed meal and cake has been strong and not much of either is being put in storage by local dealers and none of the cattlemen have a supply to carry them through the winter. The demand from the area south and west is so great that six-wheelers are backed up to the mills every hour, hauling the highly potent feed to live stock over a third of Texas, New Mexico and Arizona. There had been no radical changes in the markets for cotton or cottonseed as of yesterday noon.

Salvation Army Drive Started

The annual drive for funds for the Salvation Army is on this week, with the big push due to hit in the next few days. A quota of $1,000 was set by the local work unit this week, and Dr. Perry M. Smith was named general chairman.

A committee of special gift solicitors who are working in advance of the general drive under the leadership of J. M. Willson, Jr., are Walter Collins, James H. Word, W. E. Brown, A. H. Kreis, Cecil Hagood and J. A. Patterson.

W. E. Grimes, chairman of the work unit, called a meeting of his executive committee Tuesday morning to get the ball rolling for the annual drive. This committee set the goal, which is the same as for the last year. It is composed of J. H. Word, C. H. Bedford, J. M. Willson, W. E. Brown, Walter G. Collins, Tom W. Deen, Lorin Leibfried, Homer Steen, J. C. Wester, J. W. Reue, James Willson, Jr., and Jewell Elza.

Dean Williams field representative of the Salvation Army, promised the committee which set to work that direct personal solicitation of the tambourine type will be discontinued.

One-third of the funds obtained will remain in the hands of the local work unit, with two-thirds going to state headquarters. The Salvation Army has been beset by the same general rise in operating costs which have affected other lines of endeavor. At the same time the calls for disaster and home service aids have grown in the year, Williams told the group.

Williams is organizing both the Floydada work unit and the Lockney work unit for the drive. The unit at Lockney is due to complete their organization this week. A goal of $500 has been set there. Bob Miller is chairman of the work unit there and M. W. Wiley is treasurer.

Four Injured In Crash on Highway

Four were injured, none seriously, Sunday morning on Highway 70 west of Aiken about 10:30, when a car driven by W. H. Hilton of Floydada hit a car from the rear driven by Mrs. Carrie Bostick of Lockney. Both cars were badly damaged, and Hilton is recuperating at his home with severe cuts about the head and bruises about the knees.

Mrs. Bostick and two passengers, Mrs. L. Y. Woolsey of Floydada and Mrs. Lena King of Lockney, had bruises and cuts.

Dan Saunderson of the highway patrol investigated the wreck and George Sherrill went to the scene to bring Mr. Hilton home. Mrs. Woolsey said the Bostick car had slowed down when the women saw a man on the right-of-way apparently helpless, being helped by two other men.

Hilton was enroute to Amarillo and the three women were on their way to Plainview to attend church. Both cars were badly damaged.

Tomorrow afternoon when Santa Claus and his real life north pole reindeer reach Floydada, it is expected they will be greeted by the biggest crowd of people to throng Floydada streets since the visit of General Wainwright six years ago. "The news is spreading and the idea is growing. If the weather man is kind the parade is going to be viewed by thousands," said O. M. Watson, jr., secretary-manager of Floydada Chamber of Commerce.

Not only is the forecast of the attendance growing but also the probability of the size of the parade itself. Announcement was given out this week that the Floyd County Sheriff's posse will ride in numbers in the parade, their first home appearance. President Leland A. Hart is asking the members to gather Friday morning at 11 a. m. at the rodeo grounds and ride in a group to the point where the parade will form on South Main street between Tennessee and Kentucky. The posse will ride in full uniform.

Santa Claus the Prime Show Santa Claus, his reindeer and helpers will be the big attraction, of course, with Prancer and Dancer, Dunder and Blitzen, real live reindeer from the frozen tundra of Alaska as the prime show.

Floydada High school band will lead the parade, beginning at 1 o'clock sharp tomorrow (Friday.) They will be followed by the sheriff's posse, the Brownies float and by commercial and organization floats. Next in line will be Santa Claus and his entourage and bringing up the rear will be the Southwestern Public Service soundtrack.

Here are the details of the parade as announced by the Chamber of Commerce:

Forming on South Main it will proceed to the square, circle the square, thence west on California to Fifth street north to Missouri, and east to Main, coming to a halt on the square again, where the show off of the reindeer and their trappings will be staged.

Floydada School students will have the afternoon out of school at 12:00. School lunch room will serve at noon. Buses will not leave until after downtown parade, said I. T. Graves.

Santa Claus will have candy for the youngsters. And Chamber of Commerce helpers will see that the youngest boys and girls get their share of candy.

Arrangements for the visit of Santa Claus to Floydada was made by the C-C retail trades committee composed of T. P. Collins, Hershel Sanders, Cecil Hagood, H. O. Cline, Ray Johnson and Baird Bishop.

Christmas Lights Twinkle Christmas lights began to flash on over Floydada's business district last night as the city's crew of linemen completed the greenery-entwined wiring across the streets and turned on the energy.

Yesterday Al R. Fuchs said the light department had every expectation of finishing the job so that all the business section would flash the Christmas welcome for those visitors who remain over in Floydada tomorrow night from the big Santa Claus parade Friday afternoon. Good weather with little wind Monday and Tuesday made it possible for the linemen to make good time.

Views and Comment

Our Nation is engaged in a mighty effort at a defense build-up, we must not forget in our critical view of federal matters. The fact that with more than a hundred billion already spent in three years for things all around the globe and another $90 billion in prospect to be taken off of the people in federal taxes this year is a matter for grave thought. It is a specially grave matter to those who are beginning to learn that their men in the Korean "police action" are fighting with obsolete weapons for the most part. What we are having to do is have faith in our leaders. Since they are getting no results that are apparent to the average man, this becomes, an increasingly difficult task, this business of having faith. It has come to the point where one can only have hope. Hope that our critical viewpoint is not well taken and that, after all, there is patriotic efficiency and economy, hope that the racketeers are not sabotaging the gigantic effort, hope that your tremendous taxes and mine are not going down the drain, hope that our boys in Korea are not dying in vain, hope that somewhere somebody is keeping the faith.

What we shall do for bragging purposes in view of the thousands of bales of Floyd county cotton that are being ginned in other counties is a problem that has us stumped. Tough on the Chamber of Commerce-minded citizen, on the statisticians, and also on those who have bounded on a certain number of bales of cotton. Now we'll not get to gin all the crop on our own gins, busy as they are, the county agent will lose his "bound" of a steak dinner with that friend and the county newspapers will have to content themselves with complaints about how we got cheated out of our just dues by the unusual circumstances.

The likelihood is that next year will not see as big an acreage of cotton in Floyd county as this year, since a great deal of the crop of this season was planted on land which had failed to develop a wheat crop last spring. But at that the demand is going to be such that acreage will be considerably higher than the average for the past 10 years. The aggregate yield in the United States was considerably below the 17 million bales sought and there seems to be no doubt that the supply will still be too low by the time farmers are ready to pitch another crop.

When the Korean truce actually will be signed seems to be wholly up to the whim or the judgment of the Kremlin. This is the cruel fact that must gall the men who are carrying on for America and the UN officially. Certainly the delay keeps many thousands of mothers and fathers on suspense. Americans have been ready for a real truce all the time, the Kremlin for their own kind of truce. Doubtless the people of North Korea would sign most anything now to get the fighting stopped, and the Chinese, fighting the puppet war for Russia, doubtless would do the same. So the truce signals are not being called by anyone except the men who form the Politburo. In the weeks and weeks since July when the armistice talks began the Kremlin forces have been strengthening their lines. Doesn't it appear that when they get ready there will be a truce and until they do get ready there will be none?

Generally the markets signal a major change in a war situation. But the first of this week there was no marked change. What slight changes occurred in cotton or the other basic commodity markets could be explained by conditions outside the truce talk. Cotton, for instance, instead of sliding downward on Monday's talk, closed slightly higher. Cotton growers with staple still in the field dreaded to hear the news confirmed by the break they expected in prices. Instead the market looked up and closed in the fourth highest position since the November cotton estimate was made.

Bank Your Turnips is good advice for right now before a hard freeze which may or may not make its early appearance. What we mean is advice for those who are not too busy to remember how good turnips are when dug out of your own bank along about the day that you didn't want to go to town for a good vegetable for the meal. Of course, this is meant for the women folks. In case a man should read it, however, what we mean is holler back at her, as you leave to go see about the cotton on the lease, and tell her to bank the turnips as soon as she gets home from wherever it is that she is going shortly after you leave. Of course, if you did not throw out a few turnip seed in the latter part of August and don't have any turnips to bank this is all wasted effort.

The Hadacol Bubble has burst at last, it seems. Newspapers and radio stations are the big losers in the bankruptcy of this meteoric concern that flashed across the business sky and dominated the comic conversations of the nation for a brief time. The syndicate which purchased the business in August for eight millions told the court in the bankruptcy proceedings that assets total two million six hundred thousand, the debts four million two hundred thousand. The financial difficulties were due to over-extended promotional affairs and manipulations, the court was told.

Frys on Caribbean Sea Journey View Central America

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Fry left Floydada on November 1 and went to Natchez, Mississippi, to visit the anti-bellum homes and then to New Orleans to attend the convention of the Southwestern Life Insurance Company. Agents, also extended their trip by steamship into Caribbean waters and to interesting points in central America. They sailed on the S. S. Contessa, a Standard Fruit and Steamship company ship to Havana, Cuba, then to La Ceiba, Honduras and to Guatemala.

At the last two ports the ship took on 40,000 stems of bananas and 12,000 bags of coconuts.

The Frys took an inland train and river boat in Honduras and saw monkeys in jungles and "enough growth to graze a million cattle," with a very few there to do the grazing. They returned to New Orleans on November 20 and picked up the car, which had been stored. Mr. Fry said they were exceedingly glad to set "foot on terra firma" again and we mean Firma, as we had about 30 hours of stormy seas on leave in the Caribbean to enter the Gulf of Mexico. And, said Mr. Fry, "The more we saw, the better we love our home and Floyd County's citizenship, we think the finest people on earth."

1. WHAT IS A PARAPLEGIC?

Answer to Question No. 1:

A paraplegic is a person who is paralyzed in the legs and lower part of the body, usually as a result of a spinal injury.
Exercises, training, new surgery, and drugs are proving so helpful that a high percentage of paraplegics can now get well enough to lead useful, happy lives.

Answer to Question No. 2:

It is believed that a child sucks his thumb because of some emotional need. The best cure is for parents to make him feel loved and secure. Sometimes the habit persists after the emotional difficulty has disappeared. To break the habit, parents try harmless bitter substances or bandages on the thumb, but doctors sometimes advise letting the child outgrow the habit.

Answer to Question No. 3:

About one-fifth of all women cancer victims die from breast cancer. Most of such deaths can be avoided if the cancer is detected early and treated surgically or with x-ray. Any slight irregularity or lump in the breast calls for prompt inspection by a doctor. Every woman over 40 years of age should have her doctor examine her breasts at least once a year.

November rolls around I remembered these special things that that November 1, 1887, was the day that my parents, two sisters and I landed in Floyd county. Next this is the month in which our president designates one as a special day of Thanksgiving. It is that on or about the same date is the anniversary of a marriage, having married November 28, 1872. This seemed to be a sacred day. Our 25th anniversary was about the time that we were permitted to move onto our own dugout on the land that my father had bought during the summer. I don't remember them having a special celebration of this day. Their golden wedding anniversary. On this occasion many relatives and friends gathered with them for a time of fellowship. Others of the occasion came up to their home which was as many were called, November 28, 1937. My father, J. S. McLain, passed away in June of the next year.

Home Was Uncommon

As most people in those days considered marriage as a sacred thing that should and would be as long as both should live. It was uncommon in those days that these many people should celebrate their 10th anniversary, would have to be the two or three years of a companion, the few days or days with another and thirty years after my father was united in marriage formed another union. My father was united with Christ by accepting his free salvation. In return they promised to live for and obedient to the demands of the Father's power. This they endeavored to do. A difference in the marriage contract, which I grew up until death, as my part, was that they were to live until death. When it was that the real union was between Christ and to continue as with as eternity lasts. When we moved here our neighbors showed these plains to the Great American desert. First it was. God made this country back we do not just when, and fixed it that the grass would grow there mostly decay, adding slowly the fertility of the soil. The birds and other animals along the red man roamed these plains since we know not when.

Red Men Disappear

Early some brave men, filled with adventure, curiosity and desire for financial remuneration for their life, killed out the buffalo a lot of the Indians, making it finally impossible for the red man to hunt at will here. Next they had a big cattle and sheep ranch and used this for free grazing on the warm part of the year. When the water supply in lakes dried up for their needs, they came along in the 1890's a few were located here to form homes where they were called. The cowboys looked upon these as intruders and a rule gave no encouragement to them. These people reminded of a quotation about Moses. When the time came years he refused to allow the son of Pharaoh's daughter choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season. These early settlers had no friends and reasonable in more developed parts of the other states where they had no reasonable comfort, but had a desire to open up to achieve something better and easier to the betterment of their country and their welling this about it they were willing to go through a few hardships, made easier by a faith that something better was down the line.

First Dugout Homes

There were a few comparisons then and so far as I can recall, our dugout which was near the center of the county was the first one in a state of 12 to 15 miles. The box house under construction 4 miles away. A few others were the caprock and along the water draw and the Blanco. Perhaps a dozen in all. Do you see now? Then when a man wanted to come along, we and our neighbors of which were some a few, and all gathered into a dugout to hear him present.

I know of the many nice homes and full-time pastors. I know to God that we had the 90% attendance and undivided attention that those rugged pioneers of the gospel had at those rugged pioneers. A literary school, such had been known in our country. In the second year, 1888, the 15 school had the privilege of a three day school in a borrowed building, who by a fine, well educated lady who received $30 per month for her efforts. The next year, 1889, 20 scholastics and others had the advantage of a month's school taught by W. M. Massey for so many months at Floyd. For this service he received $40 per month. Think of some come contact here. And then turned by plow. It could have been found as far as 10 acres in the county of difference today.

On a seasonal big herds of cattle, from thousands the year. From now hogs to what they. Our necessities freighted on horse power from the Falls or Colorado City. The distance to speak of days or even months. No your car will take you to any part of the United States in a very short while and the airplane in a few hours. Then any kind of communication was very slow. Now just use your phone and just about any part of the world is at your ear. Just turn on your television and see just about anywhere. Speak over the radio and millions may hear you.

Then if you chanced to get sick or a baby to be born, someone mounted a tough cow pony and away he rode the 10 or 40 miles for the doctor, who regardless of the weather, was to see you as soon as horse flesh could bring him. Now just use your phone, say have a bed in your hospital ready and in a few minutes your car or the ambulance is there. Then people usually lived through all kinds of afflictions. Now many die in the very best hospitals and many die before the telephone can be reached.

My parents, by chance or otherwise landed in the central plains, which is the very heart of this wonderful country. To the north is a fine wheat region, to the south a fine cotton country. Here, our county, on many occasions has been shown to the world a little of what we can do as a wheat county. This year above all others has demonstrated to some extent our ability to grow cotton.

It has been known from the beginning something of what can be done on the line of grain sorghums. Just think of the alfalfa and so many things too numerous to mention.

Whose Dollar Is It Now?

Back then if we had a dollar or a hundred dollars, it was ours. Now if we have our thousands or hundreds of thousands, whose is it and how much of it can we retain? Then we felt that our government was for our protection, but now how do we feel? Let us hope and pray yes, and vote that again we may be the land of the free and the home of the brave. This change in our government has been under the name of democracy. I sometimes wonder if it is not more a Democracy. Whatever it is our votes permitted it so why not lift our heads and vote in the kind of rulers that a free America once had.

This plains country is a wonderful land made so by God himself and waited here for centuries for the cooperation of men. We might think that we have just about reached the limit, but here I have mentioned just a few things that have come to pass in one short lifetime.

I was nine years old when we landed in Floyd county and hope to have a few more here before going to my long home, where there are no hardships, heart aches, no burdens of any kind.

May God bless everyone who reads these scattering remarks and if anything mentioned brings a pleasure to you in any way I will be well pleased.

J. T. McLain.

South Plains News

(By Mrs. Murray Julian)

SOUTH PLAINS, Nov. 25. — Much cotton on the ground and a lot left in the fields had farmers worried as the week-end of rain kept the men out of the fields. The gins are all rushed and yards filled with cotton conveyances. Some of the farmers are hauling their cotton many miles away to gins where the cotton harvest is almost finished. Another week or two of good weather is what the farmers are wishing for, and most of the harvest will be finished if the weather stays nice.

Rev. and Mrs. John Allen arrived home on Saturday from Fort Worth, and they brought Mrs. Allen's small sister, Arlene Houkema, home with them to stay a few months here. She will enter school at South Plains on Monday.

Community Club December 7 — The Community club of South Plains will meet at the school house at 7:00 p.m. on Friday, December 7. Everyone is urged to be present, so plans for the Christmas party can be made. Bring your tables, dominoes, and a package of doughnuts. Come one and all.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wood and Jaunel left last Wednesday for Tucumcari, New Mexico, where they plan to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with Mrs. Wood's mother, Mrs. S. C. Waller. The Woods are expected home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Grigsby Milton, Jr., and girls were dinner guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown of Lockney. Mrs. Brown planned the dinner as a celebration in honor of the Milton's thirteenth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Cummings are the proud parents of a big baby boy born Friday, November 23, at Lockney. The boy weighed eight and one half pounds. Sterling is giving cigars in honor of their first child. We send best wishes to the parents, and the grand parents.

Miss Dorothy Elam, teacher at Brownfield, came on Wednesday to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with Carol Reeves, who is home from the seminary this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sim Reeves.

Mrs. Rene Yeary's mother, Mrs. W. T. Weaver, from DeQueen, Arkansas, arrived last Monday to spend several weeks with Mrs. Yeary and family. She will remain here until after the Christmas holidays, at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reeves returned home Friday night. On Sunday Mrs. Bob Reeves' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hays, and daughters, Bert and Jo, from Plainview, were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sim Reeves and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Menard Field of Floydada were hosts to their children and their families and other guests on Thanksgiving day. A delicious dinner was served at noon to Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson and children, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Stanforth, Jr., and children, Mr. and Mrs. Adron Field and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Stanforth, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortenberry and Elmo went to Amarillo on Sunday and spent the day visiting Mrs. Fortenberry's brothers, who reside in Amarillo.

Martha Lee Sanders, who is a student at Denton, came home on Tuesday to spend the Thanksgiving week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otho Sanders and her three brothers. Mr. Sanders went to Denton and brought Martha Lee home. They didn't celebrate their Thanksgiving until Saturday when Martha Lee's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bartlett came and spent the day with them. Martha Lee had to be back to college on Monday for classes. On Sunday Mr. Sanders and Roger took her back to school.

Mr. and Mrs. Rene Yeary and Mrs. W. T. Weaver were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Phillips of Lockney on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Hub Austin and Gary spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. Sim Reeves and family.

Mrs. B. P. Sewell was happy to have most of her children home with her on Thanksgiving day. She prepared a special dinner in honor of her grandson, Carol "Buck" Wilson, who was home on furlough from the navy, and who has been stationed at San Diego, California. Children at the dinner and their families were, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Armstrong, of Clovis; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson, Canyon, C. L.

Bridal Shower for Mrs. Robert Reeves

A pretty bridal shower was given at the home of Mrs. John Smitherman, Saturday, November 24, for a recent bride, Mrs. Robert Reeves, who was Janelle Hays of Plainview. Mrs. John Smitherman received the guests, and they were registered in the bride's book by Mrs. Murray Julian. Mrs. H. L. Marble and Mrs. Walter Wood presided over the silver service. They served the guests hot coffee and cake from a lace covered dining table. Fall decorations of bright berries and golden fruit made a lovely centerpiece. The yellow and white scheme was carried out in the flowers which were presented to the bride and her mother, Mrs. Hays, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Sim Reeves, by the hostess. ## Defense Bond Drive Figures Released

Floyd county's sales totaled $26,000 during the first U. S. Defense Bond drive, Nathan Adams of Dallas, state chairman, has informed J. Wilson, local county chairman. The drive was held from September through November 13.

Special sales figures showed that Series E bonds, accounted for $26,000 and Series F and G for $74 of the county's total.

Series of $27,778,453.25 in Texas drive were almost 50 per cent more than normal, Mr. Adams said. Normal sales for this period would have been about $18,000,000 or $19,000,000," he said, "and the fact that sales were so much higher is definite proof that the people of Texas are responding, as they always do, to the country's need in national emergencies."

The sales total for the state included $22,459,665.25 in Series E bonds and $5,318,788 in Series F and G. There were no state or county quotas, the goal being the "largest possible" volume of sales.

Mr. Adams expressed appreciation to the thousands of citizens who served as volunteers in the drive, but urged that they continue their efforts.

"The need for buying defense bonds still exists," he said. "With our country engaged in a gigantic preparedness program, these bonds form an important economic link in our defense."

Stanley Conner and Grace Muncy, students at Baylor University at Waco, were here to spend Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Conner and Mr. and Mrs. Edd Muncy.

Public Indignation at the Root of Traffic Responsibility Law

AUSTIN November.—Public Safety Director Homer Garrison, Jr., reminded Texas tonight that their licenses to own or operate an automobile will be suspended if they are involved in a traffic accident and fail to meet damage claims up to $15,000 when the state's new Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Law becomes effective on January 1.

Declaring it "will greatly affect the personal safety and economic security of every man, woman and child in the state," Director Garrison gave the public its first official analysis of the new law since its adoption by the last session of the legislature. He spoke from Austin over a state-wide radio network and announced that during the next two months the Texas Department of Public Safety will fully acquaint the people with the purpose and requirements of the law through the press and radio and by means of an official leaflet that may be obtained at any service station.

Director Garrison pointed to the rapidly increasing number of traffic accidents and public indignation over the failure of motor vehicle owners and operators to pay for the damage they cause through negligence as the reason that prompted the legislature to enact the law, which closely follows safety responsibility statutes in 34 other states. He declared the law's primary objectives were to deny all motoring privileges to owners or operators who do not meet just damage claims resulting from accidents and to put chronic accident causers off of the highways permanently.

In a careful summarized explanation of the law's principal features, Director Garrison explained its operation as follows:

The operator of every motor vehicle that is involved in an accident resulting in death or injury to a person, or property damage to any one person exceeding $100, must file with the Texas Department of Public Safety a new report in addition to the regular accident report that is now required by the state's Uniform Traffic Law. The regular accident report must be filed within 24 hours, but motorists have up to 10 days to file the new report form. Both reports are mandatory regardless of who causes the accident.

The law does not apply, except with respect to filing the new report form, to insure owners or operators, provided the insurance covers possible damage claims resulting from a traffic accident, up to $15,000. Uninsured motorists will receive a notice from the Texas Department of Public Safety that they must deposit sufficient security to cover the damage they caused, as determined by the Department. This may range anywhere from $101 to $15,000, and the collateral may be in the form of cash or negotiable securities. The deposit must be made with the Department within a maximum of 60 days after the accident report was filed.

An uninsured motorist will not be required to deposit security, however, if he files satisfactory evidence, within the 60-day period, that he has been released from liability, been

AEC Member Says Man Must Adapt His Thinking to Changing Times

(Thomas J. Hutchins, Floyd County PMA)

Dr. R. H. Montgomery, member of the Atomic Energy Commission and professor of economics at University of Texas addressed a joint two District gathering of Production and Marketing Administration and Soil Conservation Service workers at Big Spring recently. Dr. Montgomery has made major contribution to the development of the Atomic bomb, and had a voice in directing its use at Hiroshima. As full of plain old-fashioned West Texas cowboy wit and humor as one of his bombs is full of destruction, for almost two hours Dr. Montgomery drove his contention that the world's problems are not created by wicked men, but are a direct consequence of science's technological growth. The only solution for our problems, he said, lies in the ability of man to adapt his thinking to mechanical progress.

"Man is conservative," he commented, "and wants the human relationship among which he grew to be maintained, he wants them to remain as he has always known them."

But these racial customs, laws and business practices, cannot be maintained, the professor commented, unless man is willing to refuse to accept technological progress, and so far mankind has not refused to accept such things as the electric light, the radio, the telephone and the automobile.

Thus did Dr. Montgomery approach the subject of our relations with Russia. On this point he said we may not find it possible to live with the Russians, and that they may not find it possible to live with us.

"But, warned the speaker, 'unless we go learn to live with the Russians and unless they learn to live with us, one thing is certain—neither of us will continue to live at all.'"

This power that man controls is so great, the atomic scientist said, that five Hydrogen bombs properly detonated 500 miles west of the California coast would wipe out every trace of the life on the North American Continent, and that no life could return to this continent for at least 7,000 years.

Among those from Floydada who heard Dr. Montgomery were Thomas J. Hutchins, James C. Ginn and Buck Sams of the Floyd County PMA, Ralph Cogdell of the SCS and Robert Gibson, County Agent. More than 150 workers of these organizations heard the address before the adjournment of the two-day meeting which was held to discuss the state's 1952 agricultural conservation program.

NEW BUILDING NECESSITY

LOCKNEY.—The board of trustees of Lockney School District will ask voters to approve a $250,000 bond issue on January 12 for the purpose of constructing a new school building. ## FUN AT POSTOFFICE

It's easy to pick on the Post Office when we're busy as bees mowing up; shoving out-of-town mail local slot and local into the out-town, gumming up the works, cause we're in a hurry to get it and finish that article ridiculing Post Office. "Have you any suggestions?" we asked the Post Man. He gave us a few:

1. Separate your stuff into in-town and out-of-town. Hand big batch in at the window with express drop little batches of singles in right slot.

2. The completest address there quickest; put on the street number, zone if city, post office if known. Big people go to boxes; they don't wait for the man to bring their peck of mail.

3. Separate out-of-town mail states; at least, also by cities. Illinois is 90% Chicago, separate Chicago tell somebody at the receiving down what you did. This gets stuff out of the local office faster handled faster in transit, delivered faster on arrival.

4. Riffle your outgoing mail see that all stamps are in the right-hand corner facing you, surprising what a mess, month, time, envelopes in a chaos of side back, leftside right, down, stamps consequently in old corner either side.

Post Masters, being public vants, have to "take it," but if they would have the Post Office unto them, their mail might through in jig time.

Now we gotta get back to our article ridiculing the Post Office. —Ech
