DEMOCRACY WINS

WOODROW WILSON ELECTED PRESIDENT
BY BIG MAJORITY

In the general election Tuesday national politics took on a new phase. After 16 years of defeat Democracy is once more at the helm of the nation, after a great fight and a notable victory. Though returns are yet incomplete, there no longer remains a doubt that Gov. Woodrow Wilson is our next President and Gov. Thomas R. Marshall Vice-President. According to latest returns, of the 581 votes in the electoral college Gov. Wilson has 400, Roosevelt, the Progressive candidate, has 100, while the Republican standard-bearer, our present President Wm. H. Taft, must content himself with 11 votes.

Overturning Republican majorities in states never before captured by Democrats in a presidential election, the Wilson-Marshall ticket swept into office Tuesday on the wave of a victory that carried with it state offices, congressional seats, and control of a number of legislatures. The tidal wave of Democracy, the first in two decades, carried with it Democratic governors in most of the states. With an overwhelming Democratic majority in the house of representatives, returns indicate a probability of the success of sufficient number of Democratic senatorial candidates to give the Democrats control of both branches of Congress. However, the indefinite returns make this still uncertain.

Kimble polled a light vote. The boxes that have come in show the following vote: Junction, 108; London 34; Segovia 19; Copperas 15; Bear Creek 15; Gentry 9.

Following shows the "straight tickets" voted in the boxes turned in:

| DEMOCRATIC       | REPUBLICAN | PROGRESSIVE | SOCIALIST |
|------------------|------------|-------------|-----------|
| Junction.....83  | 6          | 9           | 10        |
| London.....24    | 0          | 5           | 4         |
| Bear Creek.....6 | 8          | 1           | 5         |
| Segovia.....4    | 3          | 0           | 0         |
| Copperas.....4   | 4          | 2           | 2         |
| Gentry.....2     | 2          | 2           | 1         |

The other parties had no support in these boxes. Returns from boxes received show the following total votes for and against the amendments:

For amendment to Section 5, Article 11 of the Constitution of the State, authorizing cities of more than 5000 inhabitants to adopt their charters by vote of the people, 42.

Against the above amendment, 26.

For a six year term for Prison Commissioner, 34.

Against above amendment, 38.

For amendment of Article 15, of the Constitution of the State of Texas regulating the term of office of the Board of Regents of the State University, and other Boards of Trustees for Managers heretofore or hereafter established by law; 46.

Against above amendment, 21.

For the amendment to Section 51, Article 3 of the Constitution relating to increase of Confederate pensions, 58.

Against above amendment, 21.

All four of the above amendments carried by a large margin in the State.

Wilson's majority in Texas is approximately 150,000.

The Demons of the Swamp

are mosquitoes. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follow the chills and the fever. The appetite flies and strength fails; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters kill and cast out the malaria germs from the blood; give you a fine appetite, and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "three bottles drove the malaria from my system and I've had good health ever since." Best for all stomach, liver and kidney ills. 50cts. at J. A. Heyman's.

Little Willie was missed by his mother one day for some time, and when he reappeared she asked:

"Where have you been, my pet?" "Playin' postman," replied her "pet." "I gave a letter to all the houses on our street. Real letters too."

Where on earth did you get them? questioned the mother in amazement.

They were those old ones in your wardrobe drawer, tied up with ribbon," was the innocent reply.

Helps a Judge in Bad Fix

Justice Eli Cherry, of Gillis Mills, Tenn., was plainly worried. A large sore on his leg had baffled several doctors and long resisted all remedies. "I thought it was a cancer," he wrote. "At last I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was completely cured." Cures burns, boils, ulcers, cuts, bruises and piles. 25cts. at J. A. Heyman's.

MASSA CHUSITZ MAKES TROUBLE FOR JUDGE

After Interpreter Is Called He Convinces His Honor That He Is Not a State.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 4.—"What is your name?" asked Justice Levinson of a prisoner in the Southern police court.

"Massachusetts," came the answer.

"I do not want to know where you came from! I want to learn your name—your name, do you understand me?"

"Massachusetts," came the reply a second time, and again a third time.

"I guess the fellow does not understand me," replied the magistrate. "Get an interpreter."

The interpreter "got busy."

"Well, what did he say?" inquired the court, after the prisoner and his interpreter had been talking in a foreign tongue for several minutes.

"That's his name," replied the interpreter—"Massachusetts."

"If that's his name, then spell it for me," said Justice Levinson.

The name was spelled and entered on the court and police docket as "Massa Chusitz."

Sgt. Ernest Schulte stated that Massa Chusitz was in a helpless state, due to overindulgence in intoxicants when he took him in charge. Although he wore red stockings, Massa Chusitz denied that he was celebrating the victory of the Red Sox baseball team, which has made the state whose name he bears famous for several weeks.

DUCK MAKES GOLD STRIKE

Lump as Large as a Pea Is Found in Salt Marsh.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Nov. 4.—Miss Jennie Robinson has asked a marketman to find where a duck she bought at his place was raised. In the gizzard of the duck she found a lump of gold as large as a pea. Whenever the duck came from Miss Robinson believes there is more gold and she intends to turn prospector.

BUYERS CHEAT FARMERS

R. F. Younkman Urges a National Marketing Association.

DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 4.—A national marketing association for farmers, is advocated by R. F. Younkman. In an address before the convention of the Southwestern Growers' association, he said that the farmers of the United States something like $150,000,000 annually interest on their loans, which is $200,000,000 more than it should be.

He said that a committee of watermelon in Oklahoma sold for five cents each, but in Minnesota the melons retailed for fifty cents. The land owner, said this was untrue, because the melons were sold on the ear of melons brought to only 7 1/2 cents a melon.

A man always has well trained children—if his wife attends to it.

"El Merito" Coffee is packed by Decker & Co., Inc., 1115 W. Houston St., San Antonio. That's why its good. Ask your dealer.

All remains that Texas should share in the harvest. The benefit to the state from such a stupendous sum expended within its borders cannot be estimated in dollars, but the actual cash for the present generation is all going to syndicates of financiers who have the faith in the growth of Texas to invest their money here. There are thousands of Texas who have the means at their disposal to develop the state to an extent as any other nation can develop, but they are afraid to attempt development on a scale of such magnitude as the above-mentioned their profits from what investments they do make are smaller than they would be if they had the resources to hold as our British cousins are doing. If such men were to develop their own property to the extent that it would stand Texas would grow richer and the general prosperity greater than ever before.

VILLAGE IS FOUND AT BOTTOM OF BAY

HUNTERS OF LONG AGO MADE IT A STATION.

Discoveries Show San Francisco Has Sunk Twenty-six Inches Since Their Time.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 4.—Under the waters of San Francisco Bay, where the Panama-Pacific Exposition buildings will shortly rise, scientists of the department of anthropology of the University of California, have discovered traces of an Indian village which lay there between 1600 and 1200 years ago.

When the discovery was made, the dredgers of the Exposition Company were stopped long enough for the scientists to complete observations that traced in at least meager outline the conditions of life there 600 years before the discovery of America.

The ancient shell heap that covered the spot is now forever blotted out. A few moments after the university's excavators withdrew, the giant exposition dredges began to pump bay mud over the site a yard deep. The investigation proved that the deposit consisted of a three-foot layer of shell and bone, all dropped there by human hands, and extending more than 600 feet each way.

The exhibit relics.

The age of the mound has been computed by the anthropologists to be most recent as such antiquities, being only some 1100 years, though even this brings it in advance of the earliest Spanish pioneers. It could hardly have been a metropolis, even of aborigine Indians, as their graves and usual implements were missing.

It apparently served as a station for the sea lion hunters of the ancient peninsula. This is proven by the large quantity of seal, porpoise and whale bones found among the mass of mussels shells. The finds have been incorporated in the University of California Anthropology museum, where they will no doubt be of particular interest in 1915.

Visitors who tread the ground from which human beings first looked out over the Golden Gate will be able to compare the memory relics of these first occupants of San Francisco with the magnificent achievements of the modern occupants in the exposition that surrounds them.

One very interesting fact is pointed out by Professor Kroeber in his report of the discoveries. It shows that San Francisco has sunk twenty-six inches into the ocean since the early Indian hunters frequented this spot. The mound is now submerged to this depth below mean water level. The subsidence is evidence of great antiquity, for such changes of relative level of land and sea take place with extreme slowness, from an inch to a foot a century being the rate usually allowed.

LIFE TERM FOR 'AX WOMAN'

Negress Found Guilty and Sentenced in "Sacrifice" Case.

LAFAYETTE, La., Nov. 4.—Clémentine Barnabé, a negress, who murdered nineteen persons with an ax within a few months, all as they slept, has been convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment. She was found guilty of killing the wife of Norbert Randall. All her victims were negroes. The record of this woman is a follower of the "church of sacrifice."

DRUNKARDS TO FACE MIRRORS

To See Themselves As Others See Them in Court.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 4.—So drunkards and street fighters can see themselves as others see them, a large mirror has been placed in the court room of the southwestern police station. This plan is the brain of Justice Usher. A man was brought in and looked badly. The magistrate thought his image in a mirror would go far to reform him.

The name-relatives a man has the easier it is for him to appreciate his friends.

BODY DEAD; HEART ALIVE IN JAR

SURGEONS AMAZED BY SUCCESS OF EXPERIMENT.

Mysteries of Life and Death May Be Solved As Result of Remarkable Operation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Having kept alive for 104 days a heart removed from its organism, Dr. Alexis Carrel now has added to the wonders of his surgery the transfer of a heart, stomach and kidneys from their case of death to the vessels of his laboratory, where they are now living and performing their normal functions.

The experiment is in progress in the Rockefeller Institute. None of the organs, of course, is that of a human being.

Dr. Carrel told the story to an audience of physicians and surgeons who sat amazed under the narrative. As he finished, Professor August Gaertner of the University of Jena, said he believed it heralded the foundation of a new science, destined to solve some of the mysteries of life and death.

The general discussion was remarkable for the number of nationalities represented in it, including French, German, Japanese and Spanish.

They all agreed that a long step had been taken by this experiment in furtherance of Dr. Carrel's theory that surgery may yet be the means of prolonging life, by the transplantation of vessels and tissues. The organs were taken from animals.

"The heart is beating," Dr. Carrel said. "The stomach is digesting, the kidneys functioning as well as ever, while the body that contained them is long since dead and discarded."

The man who sets a good example preaches a sermon without words.

FIVE SISTERS DIED IN ORPHANAGE FIRE

NUNS NOBLY GIVE THEIR LIVES IN RESCUING THE ORPHANS.

BISHOP AIDS IN THE RESCUE

Mother Superior Rushed Back Into Burning Building to Rescue Child, and Appeared at Window With Infant When Floor Collapsed—All But 2 of 87 Orphans Are Rescued.

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 1.—Seven persons perished in a fire which destroyed St. John's (Catholic) orphanage at 4:30 o'clock this morning, and one boy is missing and believed to be dead.

MOTHER MARY OF THE CROSS, who was Katherine Rossiter, 51 years old, a native of Dublin, Ireland.

MOTHER MARY FRANCIS PAS. TEUR (Sylvia Simpson), 65 years old, native of Lyons, France.

SISTER MARY LEOCADIA (Catherine Nolan), 35 years old, native of Dublin, Ireland.

SISTER MARY PETER CLAVER (Catherine Slevian), 29 years old, native of Dublin, Ireland.

SISTER MARY MONICA (Martha Monte), 49 years old, native of Chihuahua, Mexico.

GEORGE YORK, orphan, 12 years old.

FRANCIS O'BRIEN, orphan, 2 years old.

CHARLES MATLOCK, an orphan, is missing and thought to be dead.

The nuns gave their lives to save their charges. The death of Mother Mary of the Cross was as heroic as the death of the other nuns. She had come down from her room in the orphanage to the chapel on the first floor. There, mustering her little pupils when the fire broke out, she attempted to count them and learned that Francis O'Brien, a baby, was missing.

Without hesitation, she went back upstairs, found the boy and struggled to a window with him in her arms. When about to be rescued by firemen, who were mounting ladders, she was overcome, fell back and she and the little boy were seen no more until their blackened bodies were taken from the ruins.

Sister Monte reached a window and jumped toward a net held by policemen. She missed the web and dashed to her death.

The origin of the fire has not been determined, but is supposed to have been due to defective wiring.

Funeral services of the victims will be held in Santa Rosa Informary tomorrow. Funeral will be in San Fernando cemetery.

"HANGED"; STILL LIVING

Sexton Says Rope Failed to Do Its Work and "Corpse" Walked Out of the Cemetery.

WALKERTON, Ontario, Nov. 4.—That John Hagg, supposed to have been hanged on Dec. 15, 1868, for the murder of a Bruce county farmer, did not die but is living in Detroit, Mich., is a story that has caused a sensation here. After having been taken from the gallows the body of Hagg was given to Geeson, caretaker of the cemetery, for burial. The sexton is now reported to have said that the rope did not do its work and that the body had come into his hands alive. An empty coffin was lowered into the grave, according to the story, and the supposed corpse walked out of the cemetery.

"FIRE WAY" CRIES SLAYER. AND DIES

SMILES AS GUNS ARE TRAINED UPON HIM.

Third Man in Year to Pay Penalty in Utah By Being Shot—Law Gives Victims Choice.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 4.—"Fire away. The quicker you shoot the better it will be for me!" cried Thomas Riley, accomplice of Harry Thorne in the murder of George Fassell, grocer, last August, when facing his executioners in the yard of the state prison. The condemned man could see only the ends of the guns of his executioners, but knew that men were hiding behind a screen, and at the drop of a handkerchief in the warden's hands four triggers would be pulled and three bullets would pierce his heart.

Joking with the prison officials and other persons, who had gathered in the gray dawn to witness the execution, Riley went to his death with a smile on his face, and even at the last moment refused to allow a cap to be placed over his head.

The warden asked the prisoner if he was prepared to die, and he said, calmly and unconcerned, "Why not?"

"Very well, then," said the warden as he dropped his handkerchief. Three of the four bullets entered the heart in a space that could be covered with a half dollar. The law giving a murderer his choice of shooting or hanging is the result of an early afteraction among the Mormons, many of whom believed in blood atonement, that the blood of any one guilty of shedding another's blood, he should also be shed. They finally settled it by enacting the present statute.

Thomas Riley was the third man this year to pay the death penalty for murder in this state by being shot. The two others, Julius Sirmay, who also was executed for the murder of Thomas Karriell, a schoolboy, and Harry Thorne, Riley's partner, and the actual slayer of George V. Fassell, who met his fate September 26.

 Jury Learns Attack Was Not Made by Women and Causes Arrest of Six Orphans.

NORWALK, Ohio, Nov. 4.—Indictments returned by the grand jury here as a result of the attack made upon Miss Lavoy at West Clarkfield several weeks ago, show that the grand jury disbelieved the story that women, dressed as men, decoyed the girl from her home and tarred her. Six from West Clarkfield men have been arrested on indictments charging them with having attacked the girl and a seventh is charged with having falsely testified before the jury. Evidence obtained by the jury indicates that the men did not tar the girl, but tarred red paint on her after having removed her clothing. Some of the men are married and one of them is a constable.

The Lavoy girl left town after the attack and is now in seclusion in Cleveland, Ohio. When it was reported that women had tarred her it was said that they believed the girl's beauty had made too strong an impression upon their husbands.

TO TAX AUTOS FOR CHURCH
 Every "Gasoline" Baptist Should Keep a Missionary.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 4.—"Every Baptist who owns a motor car is able to support a missionary," Dr. J. T. Love of Dallas, Texas, told delegates to the Missouri Baptist General Association here.

"The cost of maintaining a motor car," the Texan continued, "is much more than the cost of maintaining a preacher in the less settled districts of this state. Unless those gasoline Baptists come to the assistance of the cause we cannot expect to progress."

LAST TRIP FOR NOTED SHIP
 Farragut's Frigate Will Be Dis-mantled and Roofed.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 4.—The old wooden ship, the Hartford, Admiral Farragut's flagship at Mobile Bay and New Orleans in the Civil War, has started for Charleston, S. C., where she will be the station ship.

For a number of years the Hartford has been used for the instruction of the midshipmen in practical seamanship, but her career has been taken by the old cruiser Reina Mercedes, captured from the Spanish, and the brigantine Boxer. It is understood that she will be the last voyage of the Hartford, as it is expected that she will be dismantled and roofed when she reaches Charleston.

COURT IS GUARDED FROM GUNMEN ATTACKS

DEATH THREATS FOR JUDGE, JURORS AND LAWYERS IN BECKER CASE.

BET THAT INFORMER WILL GO. Gambler Wager That Former Pal of Convicted Lieutenant Will Be Next Victim.

New York, Nov. 4.—Armed guards are protecting the men who did their duty in the trial of Police Lieutenant Becker, convicted of the murder of Herman Rosenthal and sentenced to death in the electric chair. The judge of the court, the jurors and the witnesses are in fear of their lives. All have been threatened since Becker's case ended.

Justice John W. Goff, who presided at the trial, never leaves his home alone. Whenever he goes he is accompanied by his assistant secretary and a guard. He has been threatened by letter and over his private telephone. The threats were made before the jury returned its verdict.

Threats that he will not live to prosecute another case have been received by District Attorney Charles S. Whitman. He now has a detective near him when he is not in his private office or in his home.

Threaten Becker's Lawyer.
 John McIntyre, chief counsel for Becker, makes no secret of the belief that his life is in danger. Toward the close of the trial and while he was standing just outside of the courtroom, a gangman muttered in his ear that his comments about Jack Rose's wife would cost him his life. Mr. McIntyre has carried a revolver since then.

Rose, Webber, Vallon and Schoppa, the informers, have received messages in the West Side court prison that if they have any property to dispose of they might as well make their will. The threats are supposed to emanate from the friends of the gunmen, "Gyp the Blood," "Lefty Louie," "Dago Frank" and "Whitey Lew." The informers are chilled with fear.

Shapiro, the chauffeur, who turned against the gunmen and announced that he was ready to identify them as the murderers of Rosenthal, has told his lawyer, A. J. Levy, that he fears he will be shot or stabbed as soon as he is let out of the West Side prison. Shapiro has been threatened with death as a "squealer."

Another Lawyer Alarmed.
 Aaron J. Levy, lawyer, believes he is no longer safe because he permitted his client, Shapiro, to testify against Becker and because he had advised Shapiro to testify against the gunmen when they came to trial. Levy receives venomous threats daily.

Friends of the jurors who convicted Becker have been getting anonymous letters threatening calls, some of which have been very alarming. The utmost precautions are taken to safeguard the lives of Rose, Webber, Vallon and Schoppa, as well as the lives of Shapiro, Thomas Coupe and other witnesses.

Justice Goff, the district attorney, and others who dislike sensationalism, have sought to minimize the facts that indicate that men who hire out for assassination and assaults seek an opportunity to cap the Rosenthal case with a crime more atrocious even than the killing of Rosenthal.

Despite their reluctance to admit that the situation is as dangerous as stated—that vicious threats have been received and that precautions are being taken by the men threatened.

Bets are being freely offered among the sporting fraternity that "Jack" Rose, formerly Becker's confederate in graft and one of the principal witnesses against the police lieutenant and the "system," will be the next to die. The gunmen are not expected to wait long before they "get" him.

GROWING BOY HAS BEARD

Legs of 12-Year-Old Have Not Grown Fast Enough and He Often Tumbles.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 4.—Harold, son of W. H. Williams, who was not quite 12 years old in April, now has a beard and a full head of hair. A month later he began to grow at a phenomenal rate, losing all appearances of boyhood.

Measuring in April 4 feet 8 inches in height and weighing ninety pounds, he is today 5 feet 9 inches in height and weighing 160 pounds while his face is covered with a long black beard.

The legs of the boy have not increased in size with the rest of his body, and they are barely able to hold up the excess weight, and he waddles in an unsteady manner and often tumbles backward. He complains that his feet feel "smashed" when he walks.

The doctors say this is due to increased weight on the young bones which have not had time to harden.

PREACHER DEFENDS SUICIDE

Los Angeles Man Declares Circumstances Could Justify It.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 4.—Rev. C. Ellwood Nash, surprised his congregation at the Universalist church when he declared suicide and declared that there were conditions under which self destruction could be "justified" and applauded.

We're Not Joking About This:
WANTED—27 loads of wood on subscription.—CITIZEN

In City Building good followers are as necessary as good leaders.

Definite details are absolutely necessary to the success of any plan or action.

Halfway measures will never do in town development. You must settle on a practical plan and follow it to the end.

Diversification of thoughts is as necessary to the growth of a city as diversification of crops to the success of farming.

Yes, Junction is some pecan market! With 75,000 lbs as one day's purchase—and that's very ordinary. The world's greatest pecan market promises to crowd her record this year after all. Kimble's a dandy.

The marvelous growth of the larger cities in Texas should remind the smaller towns that very little can be accomplished in the way of increased population with out adequate transportation facilities, for you will find very few commercial centers that are not located on several railroad or interurban lines.

*Dear Delinquents:

A delinquent subscriber on his deathbed lay, his subscription had long since "expired." His life was fast ebbing away. "My work is done," said he, "and I'm tired. I soon shall be gone. I feel death's chill hand already upon my brow." The editor at the bedside had made a faithful stand, during all the man's sick days, and now bent over to ask, "How is it old boy, how does the future appear?" The dying man's face lit up with joy as he said, "I have no fear, the way grows brighter as I go, brighter and brighter it seems; 'tis not far to Heaven I know. Oh, how the brightness beams!" The editor was kind and made no replies, but waited till death fixed the man's gaze, before he said, as he closed the string eyes, "Poor fellow, he did not know 'twas I—his bliss that made his future so brightly appear, 'twould have been cruel to tell the poor guy the truth, he's there by now—with other subscribers in arrears—'Hades' hottest booth." The editor wrote an obituary next day, in it truth was omitted again, as he told of a noble man's passing away from the weary walks of men, to be with the angels in bliss forevermore. People read it and thought it was so. (The man's soul in fact is midst Torment's roar—where all delinquent subscribers go.)

P. S.

For fear some of our readers may think the cause of this "spasm of horror" is our need of coin—"the think"—we declare 'tis not so! But please borrow a dollar or two right away for that subscription—don't procrastinate! This is merely a warning that comes today to save you from an awful fate! 'Tis not that we need the petty cash—no editor ever uses that, all inklingers live on wind and hash—but what we're trying to get at is that you may some day "expire," and we'd hate for you to "go below" for lack of warning of the "great fire" where delinquent subscribers go.

A Few Reflections

—Contributed—

The question often arises with in me, "Am I living the life that has been laid out for me—the life God intended I should?" Well, it seems so, so far as I can, but do I look for something else that I might do to help someone some way? Well if I had just thought of it or had the mind to do it, might I not have helped that child, or have given that widow a mite, which I'm sure would have been appreciated; could I not have spoken more kindly, with more respect to that dirty, uncouth person about doing a piece of dirty work for me, work that I did not care to soil my hands with. Or is it just as well? Do we say he or she has no feeling, no care, no pride? Probably their financial affairs, or sickness, has brought them to this. It may be that by rights they are better off than I, then why should I feel so important? Whom am I, anyway?

It seems that in going on in just the old casual way that I am bringing the best I can, but when I look around me I find that I am letting many chances escape in which I might brighten my own life as well as to let my light shine into the life of others, brighten their pathway and lighten the burden which may be so hard for them to bear.

Are we as mothers constantly praying God's guidance in the bringing up of our sons and daughters? Do we dedicate our children to God who has kept us; or have we turned them loose in the world, or on the streets, to grow to manhood and womanhood to suit themselves or to suit the fancies of someone else who is in no way interested in the welfare of their lives. I ask you, mothers, fathers, are we blind to what is before our boys and girls? We are sure to know, if we are the true man or woman that we should be and are fit to be the fathers and mothers of intelligent boys and girls, that a constant pulling down or pressure on a twig will cause it to bend and grow just as it is impressed. Am I doing what I can for my children? If I am not, let me get right with God, realize my responsibility, and put forth greater effort in this which is to mean so much in the molding of their lives. We have the promise "Train up a child in the way it should go, and when it is old it will not depart from it."

Sometimes a mother says to me, "Why does your boy use such beautiful language; you have half a dozen boys, all along like stair steps, and they are not rude, they do not swear, they do not fight, they seem to get along so well; why is it? Well the 'why' is it because I haven't turned them loose with all kinds of company, and when they are in my sight and out of my sight I am depending on the Lord to help take care of them."

Someone says, "Have you no girls?" Yes, I have, that is an honor to any mother to possess. My girls are beautiful characters, her face doesn't make so much difference.

My home I consider a very happy home. Why does any home not seem so dear to its inmates as mine does to me and mine? There is a cause for it; oh, can we not find the cause and help to get obstacles out of the way? (Can we not forgive and forget?)

What Texans Admire
is hearty, vigorous life, according to Hugh Taitman, of San Antonio. "We find," he writes, "that Dr. King's New Life Pills surely put new life and energy into a person. Wife and I believe they are the best made." Excellent for stomach, liver or kidney troubles. 25 cts at J. A. Heyman's.

LET ME SHOW YOU HOW TO DO AWAY WITH THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

Will you trade a few minutes of your time for some good hard American dollars?

If you will, we'll tell you how. Some of your neighbors are supplying their table from my store.

Look at my goods, compare prices, and you will find that you not only get the best, but save money at my store.

Largely due to waste is the high cost of living. My policy is large volume, small profits and elimination of waste.

How can you complain of hard times and high costs and never look around and make comparisons?

Are you willing to compare prices and quality in buying your supplies? If so we can trade some.

Nothing worries you more than the high cost of living. I can help you reduce it. See me about it.

Keep your eye on this space for bargains for cash. If you want to reduce expenses, give me your orders.

I make a large difference in prices on cash orders. On prices I drop with the market—not a month later.

Nowhere else will be found more of real value for every dollar expended than at my store. QUALITY TELLS.

So if you want to reduce the high cost of living, come around and let me talk the matter over with you.

A Nervous Woman Finds Relief After Many Years

Women who suffer from extreme nervousness, often endure much suffering before finding any relief. Mrs. Daniel Kintner, of Defiance, O., had such an experience, regarding which she says:

"I had stomach trouble when I was eighteen years old that broke down my health, and for years I suffered with nervousness, headache, indigestion and nervous spasms. The spasms got so bad I would have them three or four times a week. After trying nearly every remedy recommended, I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and I must say it helped me wonderfully. I have had no severe nervousness for several years."

MRS. DAN KINTNER,
1602 Pleasant St., Defiance, O.

Many remedies are recommended for diseases of the nervous system that fail to produce results because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. Dr. Miles' Nervine has proven its value in such cases so many times that it is unnecessary to make claims for it. You can prove its merits for yourself by getting a bottle of your druggist, who will return the price if you receive no benefit.

MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

Kerrville Sanitarium and Hospital

Very satisfactory temporary quarters for surgical work have been fitted up at the St. Charles Hotel and will be used until the new hospital is completed.

Dr. Secor's office and treatment rooms are as before in the hospital building.

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE THE CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women. Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.

America's Greatest Weekly

THE TOLEDO BLADE

TOLEDO, OHIO.

The Best Known News paper in United States
Circulation, 240,000
Popular in Every State

No Whiskey Advertising

The seventy-eighth year of its existence finds the Toledo Blade more popular than at any period during its long and successful career. It is read each week by more than a million people. The Blade's field is national and it goes into every state and territory in unquestionable right of claiming the greatest national weekly newspaper published in America.

The Weekly Blade is distinctly a family newspaper. The one object of its publishers has always been to make it fit for the American home, for the fireside and of interest to every member of the family. To fulfill this purpose it is kept clean and wholesome. The news of the world is handled in a comprehensive manner and the various departments of the Blade are edited with painstaking care. The household page is a delight to the women and children; current affairs are treated editorially without prejudice; the serial stories are selected with the idea of pleasing the greatest number of fiction lovers; the Question Bureau is a scrap book of information; the farmstead columns are conducted with the purpose of giving the patrons a medium for the exchange of ideas and information on farm topics. No department is neglected but every feature is taken care of with the idea of making The Blade worth many times the price of subscription—one dollar a year.

The reputation of this old, reliable medicine, for constipation, indigestion and liver trouble, is firmly established. It does not irritate other medicines. It is better than others, or it would not be the favorite liver powder, with a larger sale than all others combined.
