JFK Says Action Not Required Now

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy says U.S. military action against Cuba is not now "required or justified."

But he told his news conference Thursday that if the United States should ever have to take action, "All of Castro's Communist-supplied weapons and technicians would not change the result or significantly extend the time required to achieve the result."

At the same time, the President admonished critics urging the administration to use military force against the Communist outpost.

He said he finds it "regretable that loose talk about such action in this country might serve to the Communist pretense that such a threat exists."

The President said, as he has said before, that Cuba poses no serious threat to the Western Hemisphere.

However, should the Castro regime — with Russian backing — ever endanger the security of the United States in any way "this country will do whatever must be done to protect its own security and that of its allies," he said.

He made it clear the President declared, should Cuba ever threaten any nation in this hemisphere or should it ever develop into an offensive base for Russia.

He said the United States will intensify its watch over the Caribbean area. But he said Washington is aware of what goes on in Cuba and is "fully capable of dealing swiftly" with any genuine threats.

Kennedy opened the nationally televised and broadcast conference with a statement on the situation in Cuba, which has prompted demands in and out of Congress for stiff action. Cuba remained the dominant topic.

Kennedy did take the opportunity to condemn the burning of two Negro churches and the shooting of two Negroes during voter registration in the South. He called the actions "cowardly as well as outrageous" and said the right to vote and freedom of worship are hallowed and will be protected.

"If it requires extra legislation and extra force," he said, "we shall do that."

The President said Castro had committed himself to a Soviet takeover in hope of preventing his own collapse.

The chief executive said he discussed Cuba, among other subjects, with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower Monday but did not seek any agreement from Eisenhower to bar Cuba as a congressional campaign issue. Neither, he said, would he suggest that Republican shots at his Cuban policy were politically motivated.

Kennedy said he and the Joint Chiefs of Staff will analyze all available intelligence to determine whether or when Cuba does present an offensive threat. In the meantime, he urged North Atlantic Treaty allies to give a second thought to allowing their ships to carry supplies to Cuba and called on Latin American governments to be on the alert. He said the United States will pay no heed to Soviet threats of retaliation to a U.S. attack on Cuba—that it does not need Moscow's help in making decisions.

"ISN'T THAT FINE!"—With those words Mayor John Hamblen spoke the sentiments of the large group of students on hand last night at the dedication of the new victory bell and new activities bus. The mayor is shown pulling the black and gold streamers which went to the top of the bell tower. In introducing Hamblen, William Schiebel, school board president, said he and the board were "real proud of the student body in getting the bell by their own efforts." The bell will ring tonight for every Tiger touchdown.

Vaccine Review Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—An advisory committee on oral polio vaccine will meet here Saturday to review use of the Sabin vaccine in this country in view of Canada's suspension of its use.

The session is expected to produce a statement of recommendations to the head of the Public Health Service.

This will be the third review by the committee this year. It had a meeting scheduled for Sept. 27, but this was moved up because of the Canadian action.

Public Health Service spokesmen said no new cases of polio with any suspected possible link to vaccine use have been reported in this country since the committee, on Aug. 16, considered data on 12 cases outside epidemic areas in which onset of the disease came within 30 days of oral vaccination.

Surgeon Luther Terry said on Aug. 22 that the committee had concluded, after two meetings, that it was not possible to establish that the vaccine virus had caused any one of those cases.

At that time, more than 38 million doses of the oral vaccine had been given in this country within a year.

Medical authorities say the incubation period of polio is about 14 days. Thus if a person is discovered to have the disease within 14 days of taking Sabin vaccine it is considered that he had the disease before taking the vaccine.

In Texas, no cases are known where a person contracted polio after 14 days after taking the Sabin vaccine.

The original total of 12 cases presented to the committee has now been reduced to 11, a spokesman said, because one originally reported was withdrawn from consideration later as not having been polio.

The 11 cases were scattered. Four in Oregon, which originally had listed five, two each in New York and Michigan, and one each in Ohio, Washington, and Massachusetts. Seven of the 11 cases were Type III polio.

Health officials in Washington state, Michigan and Mississippi have issued cautionary statements regarding use of the Type III vaccine, a service spokesman said.

He also said Canada uses a different system from that used in this country in giving the vaccine. In Canada, all three types of the live virus vaccine are fed at one time, while in this country the different types are given at spaced intervals.

The Canadian suspension of use of the oral vaccine, announced Thursday, was accompanied by a report that at least four persons who took the vaccine developed paralysis.

United Fund Okays Change In By-Laws

Over 30 members of the United Fund met Thursday afternoon and approved a change in the by-laws of the organization.

Ernest Sears, president of the local fund, explained that the change would permit contributors to designate those organizations to which they wanted their donations to go. Undesignated receipts would be prorated according to the predetermined ratio, and then the designated gifts added to the totals for the various participating organizations.

Previously, designated funds were given the various organizations before the other distribution, and undesignated funds were used to balance out the needed amounts in each fund.

The change was passed unanimously. However, Lyle Deffebach questioned whether the participating organizations would accept the method he tried for one year and then reconsidered. Johnny Boren agreed that it would be all right to reconsider it, but noted that "Beggars shouldn't be choosers."

The United Fund drive will begin in Snyder on Oct. 13.

50 Donate Blood Here

More than 50 Snyderites donated blood to the accounts of friends and relatives or to their own "insurance" account when the Southwest Blood Bank mobile unit was in Snyder yesterday.

The blood bank in Lubbock sent four of their personnel to Snyder, leaving only one person on duty in Lubbock to handle emergencies.

According to reports the blood bank workers were well pleased with Snyder's turnout, and also with the facilities which were made available to them by Cogdell Hospital.

No date for a return visit has been set, but since the response was considered so good, a return visit is certain at a later date.

Storm Celia Kicking Up

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—Tropical storm Celia was kicking her heels 600 miles east of Puerto Rico today with winds whirling up to 60 miles an hour.

Celia's forward speed had diminished to about 12 miles an hour. Forecasters expected no appreciable change in size and intensity of the storm before tonight.

It moved northwest to west northwest.

Three planes probed the storm. Early reports from one hurricane plane placed the eye of the storm at latitude 19.3 north, longitude 56.7 west, or about 1,620 miles east southeast of Miami.

Weathermen said that Celia was expected to pass Puerto Rico at a considerable distance to the north. As a result, strong winds were not expected to lash Puerto Rico, the Leeward Islands and the Virgin Islands. A precautionary hurricane watch was continued.

Dutch-Indonesian Pact Ratified

THE HAUGE, Netherlands (AP)—The Dutch Senate completed parliamentary ratification Thursday of the Dutch-Indonesian agreement transferring authority over West New Guinea to Indonesia.

After Queen Juliana signs the ratification papers, they will be sent to United Nations headquarters in New York. Indonesia has ratified the agreement.

First Negro Student Is Enrolled At SMU

DALLAS (AP) — Paula Elaine Jones, 17, registered at Southern Methodist University today to become the university's first Negro freshman.

The girl was an honor graduate from the Harwood Girls School in Albuquerque, N.M.

She will not live on the campus but will make her home with her parents in south Dallas.

JFK Says Congress Looks Alive Again

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy told his news conference Thursday amid laughter that the present Congress "it somewhat like Lazarus. It has revived. It is moving."

He said he now has high hopes for a good trade bill, a tax bill, aid to education and other measures.

Lazarus was a citizen of Bethany who, according to the Gospel of St. John, was raised from the dead by Jesus.

Kennedy did not say who resurrected Congress.

Doctor Surrenders To Face Charges

NEW YORK (AP) — A Queens County physician surrendered Thursday to face homicide charges in the abortion death of a Florida divorcee.

Dr. Mandel Friedman, 53, is charged in the death last Thursday of Barbara Clark Covington, 35, daughter of a deceased Florida fruit packer and rider of D. D. Covington Jr. of Dade City, Fla., Democratic nominee for the state senate.

Over 400 Tickets Sold For Banquet To Honor Teachers

The ticket sales campaign for the Teacher Appreciation banquet scheduled here 8 pt. 25 has gone "over the top."

A final report this morning showed 406 tickets sold for the event. Each $3 ticket will defray expenses for two banquet plates, one for the purchaser and one for a teacher guest.

A goal to 400 tickets had been set for the sales campaign.

There will be no further solicitation, said Herbert Feather, chairman of the ticket sales committee. However, tickets will still be available at the Snyder Chamber of Commerce office.

The banquet, sponsored by the Merchants Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, will honor all teachers in Scurry County Schools. The teachers and their spouses will be guests of local merchants and others at the affair.

Principal speaker at the banquet will be John Ben Shepperd, Odessa attorney.

The sale of over 400 tickets sets the potential attendance at over 800.

The following ticket purchasers were listed in the final sales report:

Gladson and Odstrcil, Medical Surgical Clinic, George Killam, E. J. Richardson Jr., Humble Oil and Refining Co., Easden's Dairy Queen, Roe's Furniture and Appliance, Retail Merchants Association, Dr. Robert Pierce, Doug McGlaun Gulf Service, Barron Furniture, S&H Green Stamp Store, Forrest Builders, Scurry Butane Co., Scurry County Tractor Co., Work Clothes Rental.

Also, Paymaster Gin, Batchley Nursery, W. H. Baldwin, Clark Lumber Co., Neal Machine Shop, Knollenberg Garage, Joe Scott Insurance, W. C. Snider, Herman Doak Oil, Pal-O-Mar, Dupree Motors, Patterson Used Cars, Ed Neves Humble Service, Sunbeam Rogers, Bell's Flowers, Sunbeam Cash Food, Dr. H. P. Redwine, Mrs. H. G. Towle, T. E. Shelburne and Sons.

Also, Texas Electric Service Co., Dr. B. J. Weaver, Snyder National Bank, Gray's Style Shop, Snyder Heating and Air Conditioning, E. H. Williamson, Weles Jet Service, Roy J. McCloskey, Grimmett Bros., Dr. R. J. Kidd, Lake Thomas Lodge, Snyder Co-Op Gin, Jim Wadleigh, Jones and Laughlin Supply, O'Rear Furniture Co., Safeway, Little Mexico Cafe, Noble Brake Service, Gerald W. Johnson, Wilbert Norton Humble Service, Joe Graham Cleaners.

OVER THE TOP—These workers put the Teacher Appreciation banquet ticket sales campaign over the 400 mark this morning. Birdie Barron, Chamber of Commerce secretary, takes reports from R. C. Patton, Bud England and Joe Cargile.

"LET'S KEEP THIS BELL RINGING" said Johnny Mitchell, president of the 1960-61 Student Council which was responsible for the idea of the victory bell. Mitchell said although his class had graduated, they wanted to hear the bell as much as anybody. Tommy Shelburne, left, 1961-62 council president said he and all the student body could take pride in their new bell, their new bus, and most of all in the 1962 Tiger football team.

Over 1,500 Persons Take 'Makeup Dose'

Another chapter in the success story being enjoyed by the Jaycee-sponsored Sabin Oral Vaccine drive was written here yesterday when 1,530 persons took advantage of the makeup for Type I immunization which was offered at the Scurry County Health Unit.

That total—along with the number receiving the dosages last Sunday—brings to approximately 15,000 the number having received the anti-polio vaccine here.

Types III and II doses will be given here on October 21 and December 2.

Heat Wave Due To Continue In State

By The Associated Press

Summery weather held on throughout Texas Friday.

A light shower fell at El Paso in early morning. Skies were clear to only partly cloudy elsewhere.

Forecasts called for no major changes for at least a couple of days. Isolated thundershowers were predicted along the coast and in Northwest Texas.

There wasn't enough rain to measure anywhere in the state Thursday. Afternoon temperatures ranged up to 102 degrees at Presidio and 100 at Laredo and Wink.

Readings early Friday varied from 67 at Dalhart to 83 at Galveston.

Panel Okays Reserve Call-Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Armed Services Committee gave unanimous approval today to President Kennedy's request for stand-by authority to call 150,000 Reservists to active military duty.

The action clears the way for a House vote Monday on the resolution which the Senate passed unanimously Thursday.

If that timetable is followed, it would be one of the fastest moves Congress has made in recent years on a major bill. Kennedy made his request just last Friday. The House procedure would bar any amendments that might slow down the bill's progress and force it back to the Senate. It also would require a two-thirds vote for passage, but leaders have no doubts on that score.

Kennedy was asked Thursday at his news conference why he has requested special mobilization authority since he has the power to call up a million Reserves by declaring a national emergency.

Kennedy replied there are several stages of possible crisis and "The call of a national emergency, I would say, is near the final step of a crisis. But there may be increased threats which would require us to call some reservists, particularly in the air, maybe at sea, possibly on the ground."

VISITORS FROM PLAINVIEW—Mrs. Earl Donaldson, left, chairman of the Scurry County Welfare Board, visits with Miss Marjie Crow and Judge C. L. Abernethy of Hale County. The visitors discussed with local citizens the operation of the Child Welfare Unit in Plainview. The units are operated as joint efforts of the county and state.

Local Group Told Of Hale County Child Welfare Unit

About 75 interested citizens met last night in the district courtroom to discuss a child welfare program for Scurry County.

The meeting was called by the Scurry County Welfare Board to get more information on the program. Hale County Judge C. L. Abernethy of Plainview, and Miss Marjie Crow, case worker from the Plainview unit, met with the group.

Judge Abernethy was introduced by Mrs. Earl E. Donaldson, chairman of the Scurry County board. Judge Abernathy said that the need for a child welfare program was "more widespread and more prevalent in all economic groups than we'd like to believe."

The child welfare unit in Hale County staffed in March of this year. At that time there were 12 cases being investigated. The Unit is now handling 103 cases the judge said. He attributed the increase not to increasing need, but rather to the fact that knowledge of the service and its availability were becoming known.

Hale County has a population of 38,000. According to statistics of the state welfare department, one-half of one per cent of children aged one through 16 are in need of help by an agency such as a child welfare unit.

Scurry County had a count of 8,249 children in that age group in the 1960 census. Fred Davis, chairman of the Welfare Advisory Committee, reported that the committee had information on 120 cases presently in the county which would benefit from the services of a trained worker.

Judge Abernethy and Miss Crow told of many Hale County cases of starving children, children whose parents were in the hospital, unwed mothers of 16 and under, and homes where the children were neglected.

"If you don't have any of these problems in Scurry County, you don't need a child welfare worker" Judge Abernethy said. "But you do and you know you do" he added.

It was stressed that the child welfare worker is in no way a law enforcement or probation official, nor is he to administer relief. Improving conditions in the home is the largest concern of the case worker.

The welfare board hopes in the near future to present a detailed report to the Scurry County commissioners.

Optimist Club Hears Bostick

Tiger coach Horrace Bostick and starting guard Pete Greene were guests of the Optimist Club at noon yesterday during the club's weekly meeting held at Sallie's Dining Room.

Carl Herod introduced both to the membership, and Bostick summed up the team's status on the eve of their opening conflict of the season here against Andrews. He noted that even though the varsity and "B" teams are lacking in size, that more boys than ever before in recent history have turned out for the sport.

Bill Wood, recognized a guest of the organization—Gene Thompson of Midland.

Presiding at the meeting was president Claude McCormick Jr.

Prisoner To Get More 'Good Time'

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The weather began to look threatening. The foreman of a prison road detail hurried his prisoners into a truck and headed for the prison camp.

He forgot Cortez Barnes, 21, serving three years for auto theft and breaking and entering.

Barned shouldered his shovel and started walking back to camp, five miles away. Deputies found him trudging through the rain four miles from camp.

Warden Lynwood Watts said Barnes, a trusty, has 90 days to serve—"but he'll get more good time off for this."

Edie Adams Wins Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"This is the way Ernie would have wanted it," said Edie Adams after a judge awarded her custody of the late comedian Ernie Kovacs' two daughters by an earlier marriage.

Superior Judge Clarence L. Kincaid ruled Thursday that both Miss Adams and Kovacs' first wife, Bette, are fit and proper guardians but that the girls "are of sufficient age to form an intelligent preference."

The daughters, Bette Lee, 15, and Kippie Raleigh, 13, had testified they preferred living with Miss Adams.

The first Mrs. Kovacs, 39, wept bitterly as Miss Adams' attorney, Murray Chotiner, said the first wife was motivated by money love, not mother love, in seeking custody.

He said Mrs. Kovacs made no attempt to find and comfort the children after Kovacs died last January. The girls had been living with Kovacs and his second wife since 1955.

Rev. Lentz Is Delegate

The Rev. Walter L. Lentz, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, will represent the local congregation as delegate at the Constituting Convention of the Texas-Louisiana Lutheran Synod as a constituent synod of the new Lutheran Church in America.

The convention will be held in First English Lutheran Church in Austin on Wednesday and Thursday.

The merger of the Lutheran bodies, the United Lutheran Church, the Finnish Lutheran Church, the American Evangelical Lutheran Church and the Augustana Lutheran Church last June formed the largest Lutheran body, numbering 3½ million Lutherans in North America. The local constituent district will geographically comprise Texas and Louisiana.

Eight Killed In Collision

ANTONITO, Colo. (AP)—Eight persons were killed in a two-car collision three miles south of here Thursday.

Sheriff Amos Abeyta said one car apparently veered across U.S. 285 and hit the other.

The sole survivor, Fred Bradish Jr., 39, of Fort Worth, was in a hospital at Alamosa in critical condition.

Killed in one car were Sam Jose Rodriguez, Julian Trujillo, Robert Padilla, Gilbert Padilla, David Padilla, 18, and an unidentified man, all of Espanola or Hernandez, N.M. Dead in the other car were Ford Bradish Sr., 77, and his wife, Eunice, 68, of Fort Worth.

Says Accident Ruined Career

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Gloria Mimieux, 18-year-old sister of actress Yvette Mimieux, claims a traffic accident ruined her chances of becoming a professional dancer.

She filed a $100,000 damage suit Thursday against Mrs. Rhoda von Meter, also an actress.

Miss Mimieux, a student at Los Angeles City College, contended in her suit she suffered neck and back injuries when an auto driven by Mrs. Van Meter hit the rear of a car in which she was a passenger.

Principal Turns Clown For Summer

By GENE PLOWDEN

NASSAU, BAHAMAS (AP) — A Florida school teacher and his son have given the children on remote islands of the Bahamas their first taste of the circus.

Mark Adams of Sarasota, Fla., who is principal of the Bay Haven Elementary School, used his vacation time and money to take a field trip with his son, Jay, 7, and entertain hundreds of Bahamian children who had never seen a clown.

Adams, a trim, handsome 33-year-old native of Toledo, Ohio, always loved the circus. And as a partner in a kiddieland a few years ago he found that children enjoyed themselves more when he dressed as a clown.

He had no particular ambition to become a professional but when he made a trip through the Bahamas last summer, entertaining children with simple magic tricks, he interpreted their applause and enthusiasm as a command to come back.

Why not, he reasoned, take Jay along and show him the very spot on San Salvador Island where Christopher Columbus first landed in the New Orleans on Oct. 12, 1942?

So he packed a sea bag with clown suits, big red noses and flapping ears, put some grease paint in a hand satchel and flew to Bimini with Jay.

After entertaining children there, they went to Rum Cay, then San Salvador, where a monument marks Columbus' landing place. Exuma and Cat Islands were next, and then Nassau, where they entertained 40 children at the Ranfurly Homes for Children.

Adams began his act by explaining that a clown is somebody who makes people laugh. He said that years ago when a king had troubles, he would send for a jester to cheer him up. Thus clowns had an important role in history.

"A clown is a thing, a rag doll, the butt of a joke," Mark Adams told the wide-eyed children. "Clowns do not talk, but use the universal language, pantomime."

While he talked, he began putting grease paint on Jay, making him up into a clown with a big red nose, outsize ears and a red wig. Adams then put on his own makeup, including a bald wig with fringes of red hair.

The two tumbled and tripped and fell, got all tangled up in each other's arms and legs, and did a whole repertoire of clown antics while the children squealed with laughter.

As a climax, Adams held up a cigarette, clutched it between his fingers and made it disappear.

Mark and Jay traveled through the Bahamas on foot, by mail boat, plane and taxicab, stopping wherever there were children and entertaining in schoolrooms or on street corners. Adams paid their transportation and living costs; his only reward was the children's laughter.

They found accommodations where they could. In one village, they spent three days at the home of the school headmaster, a bachelor who had plenty of room. On another island, the constable had charge of a house while the owners were away and permitted Adams to stay there.

In one village, a child whose private school had closed for the summer heard the clowns were coming, so he enrolled in the public school to see them.

"That's one way to get them into school," said the headmaster.

Mark and his wife, Phyllis, have two other children, Pam, 6, and Kim, 5.

"The girls want to come along next year," Adams reported. And they probably will, for this crew-cut young man who works with youngsters all year long apparently cannot resist the plea of a child.

CREATING A CLOWN—Mark Adams of Sarasota, Fla., puts grease paint on his 7-year-old son, Jay, as he explains to Bahamian children that a clown is somebody who makes people laugh.

ALL IN PANTOMIME—Clown Mark Adams compares arm muscles with a little boy in the Bahamas. Adams and his clown-son, Jay, toured Bahama Islands this summer, entertaining children everywhere they went.

Miss Sealy On Radio In Lubbock

Phyllis Sealy will always remember Monday, Aug. 20th., the day of a "Lucky 13" rush party, as her lucky day.

Upon arriving at the party she was met with cries of congratulations from several girls. Surprised and bewildered, she finally learned that she had won a contest at radio station KSEL in Lubbock. It seemed most everyone in Snyder—except Phyllis—had heard the announcement on the radio that day. She couldn't quite believe it at first, but a phone call to Mr. Bill McAlister of the station confirmed the report. She had indeed won the "Program Director For a Day" contest. To enter, Phyllis had written a letter telling how she would run the station if she were program director.

Soon a letter arrived saying to pick one of the first three Saturdays in September as her day. She chose Saturday, Sept. 1, and early that morning she, her mother and two sisters departed for Lubbock. Arriving at the station just before 8 a.m., Phyllis met the secretary who introduced her to Mr. McAlister. He told her that they had a table and microphone set up for her in the control room and that she could go right in and start to work.

After graciously explaining to Mrs. Sealy how to find the home of a friend in Lubbock, Mr. McAlister took Phyllis into the control room, introduced her to Lou D'Elia, who in turn, promptly introduced her to the radio audience. From then until 5 p.m. it was — in Phyllis' words— "A Blast".

She took part in announcing, giving news and weather, choosing records to play, and answering the phone. She ran several contests and gave away records throughout the day. Once she asked if they could play Elvis Presley records for one hour. Mr. McAlister finally said yes if 50 people called with 10 minutes and asked them too. They called and Phyllis and Bill played only "E. P." records from 3 to 4 p.m.

From 4 to 5 p.m. they took telephone requests and played as many as possible. Her last official act was to draw a name for the winner of a mink given by a super market.

Just before 5 p.m. McAlister announced that Phyllis had been made an honorary member of the KSEL staff and was welcome to come back anytime. He thanked her for coming and gave her a certificate good for three albums of her choice at a record shop.

Mrs. Sealy and Sue, and Tonya Farnsworth of Lubbock spent part of the afternoon visiting in the control room, and report it was enjoyable.

Upon leaving KSEL Phyllis was heard to exclaim, "That was a blast! I want to come back!"

Phyllis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don L. Sealy; and a sophomore in Snyder High School.

Shock Unhinged Althea

ALTHEA. By Grace Zaring Stone.

Psychological suspense is the core of this brief, strongly etched study in what a violent act can do to the lives of the people involved.

Althea is a woman still young enough to retain much of the beauty that made her a typical southern belle back in Kentucky during the early years of World War II.

She and her wealthy aunt, Fanny Bolivar, have just come back from Switzerland, where Althea was under medical care for years, because of some illness of a paralytic type. They have leased a house on the Connecticut shore, and Althea is reaching full recovery from her paralysis.

The story opens with the arrival of their house guest, Sam Ransome. A remote cousin of Althea's he had met her only once in the Kentucky years, and then after war service had wandered abroad as an engineer. It becomes evident that Fanny hopes for a match.

Arriving simultaneously as a neighbor is Dr. Gavin Ogilvie, a surgeon who has been told to take a long rest because of a heart condition. It is the doctor in whom the others confide, and it is the doctor who tells the narrative, gradually piecing together the events of the past.

The doctor soon perceives that Althea's long illness had its origin in a sharp mental shock. And that somehow Sam was connected with this shattering event, and apparently is suffering feelings of guilt about it — which could explain his predilection for the bottle. But this is only the beginning of a complex and jarring resolution of the plot.

It's the sort of book you feel compelled to finish even though the clock is heralding the late hours.

Nothing Arouses Beast In Man Like Discussion Of Tax

By INEZ ROBB

Anyone who yearns to be all things to all men should write a column.

Only 10 days ago I wrote what seemed at the time a Milquetoast-ish column on the prospects of general tax reform and revision by Congress in 1963. It included my conviction that our Topsy-like tax structure ceretainly needs both. But it also stated my belief that a suggested flat tax rate of 22 per cent on all incomes, both great and small, was (1) unfair and (2) would never get past vote-seeking politicians, anyway.

Well, sir, for my pains I have received a bushel of mail accusing me of being part of (1) the radical right because "you are obviously a rich witch who doesn't want to pay her fair share of taxes" and (2) a member of the Communist conspiracy because "anyone can see you are jealous of the rich people and want to take all their money away through taxation."

Others merely thought I was a John Birchite, a socialist, Attila the Hun, a liberal or a disciple of Henry Luce. All of which is added confirmation of a discovery made over the years, i.e., that nothing so rouses the beast in otherwise rational people as a discussion of taxes. It confirms my amazement that any tax measure got through Congress this year and my pessimism that real tax reform, so badly needed, will get anywhere in '63.

However, my conviction that the graduated income tax is here to stay, like it or lump it, has strong confirmation in bills that were introduced in Congress this year, without results, and that probably will be reintroduced in much the same form in the next session of Congress.

These are bills for reform of personal and corporate income taxes, by Reps. A. S. Herlong Jr. (D., Fla.) and Howard H. Baker (R., Tenn.). These two members of the House propose sharp but graduated reduction in both fields over a five-year period. They are convinced that such reductions would be a stimulus to business and a sharp prod to economic growth at home, no less than to renewed confidence abroad in the American way and dollar.

The Messrs. Herlong and Baker would, over a five-year period, reduce the present whopping 91 percent tax take in the highest income brackets to 42 per cent. In the lowest income bracket (up to $2,000 of taxable income), these Congreessmen would cut the take by one point annually until, at the and of five years, the tax stood at 15 per cent.

In between these extremes, the Herlong-Baker measures would make comparable cuts so that taxpayers now in the 30 per cent group would be reduced to 18 per cent, the 50 percenters would be whittled to 23 per cent and the 78 per cent clan would eventually be pegged at 32 per cent.

These men would cut corporate taxes so that the present "normal" tax of 20 percent on all net income would wind up as 22 per cent at the end of five years; the 22 per cent surtax on all net income above $25,000 would be shaved to 20 per cent; and the combined tax rate would drop from 52 to 42 per cent.

The authors of these measures believe their bills would "usher in a new era of well-being for the American people and strength for the nation." Our economy, they point out, "is one of the most tax-oppressed among the major producing nations of the world."

Whether one agrees with them in their theories or their percentage cuts, their bulls show the way the tax wind is blowing in one sector of Washington. But taxation is such a tender subject, their noggins are apt to be bloodied, if unbowed, before the '63 session ends. And remember: If you think these two gentlemen are members of the radical right of the Communist conspiracy, for goodness' sake, write them and spare me!

Junior Editors Quiz on— TONSILS

QUESTION: I have just had my tonsils out and now I am worried about my dog. Do dogs have tonsils?

• • •

ANSWER: The writer of this question must be a very friendly and nice young person. Tonsilitis is not a serious ailment as a rule, but it can be very uncomfortable and our young friend is anxious that her dog doesn't have to go through the discomfort which she had to put up with. We wish we could say that dogs don't have tonsils, so that no one needs to worry about them getting tonsilitis. But dogs as well as humans have tonsils. Tonsils are tissues which go around the throat. With human beings, a certain part of them, known as the "palatine tonsils," sometimes becomes infected. Rest in bed and remedies prescribed by a doctor will generally cure mild cases, but the doctor may decide that it is better to remove the palatine tonsils. This is easily done and is a simple operation. Veterinarians tell us that it is possible for a dog's tonsils to become infected and that it is also possible to remove them safely. We suggest that you cease to worry about your dog. The chances are that he will never have tonsilitis; but if he does get sick, you can always take him to a veterinarian who will know exactly what to do.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: We humans worry about a lot of bad things which never happen. Look back over the past year and see if you can't find something which you worried about at the time but which came out okay later.

Big Stomach Offers Many Advantages

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the most fascinating possibilities life affords a man is the ownership of a large stomach.

It opens all doors.

It silently says, "I'm your buddy. You can trust me."

There are the starved few who go through life celebrating the virtues of the counted calorie and the slender waist.

These lonely rigors they can have, and welcome to them. To me the possession of a large stomach has more advantages.

To begin with, a man with a large stomach is a major investor.

Flesh costs money. If you figure a dollar to the calorie and 3,500 calories of the pound, a man with a 40-pound pot over and under his solar plexus is toting around the equivalent of $140,000.

Yet a large stomach combines safely the double pleasures of capitalism and socialism.

You have a feeling it belongs to you, but everyone you meet feels it also belongs to them—although they don't go to the trouble of carrying it.

That is probably the most striking thing about having a large stomach—the sense of mutuality it engenders in others.

Girls in the office can't keep their hands off it. They love to pat it. Children like to play in the shade of it on hot, sunny days. Old men like to lean on it with their elbows while they tell you their troubles.

Everyone you know takes a personal interest in it, and usually greets you with such remarks as, "Well, it ain't getting any smaller, is it?"

I guess when you get right down to it, a large stomach is the pleasantest of all forms of wealth. Your friends would rather see it on you than on them.

They don't consciously envy you. It works the other way. Unconsciously, they admire you. In their secret little minds your king-sized tummy becomes a symbol of plenty, a father image, an everlasting surety in a dubious time.

That's why you can't afford to lose weight. It hurts the safety of your friends—their belief in something bigger and finer than themselves.

It has been said that inside every fat man is a thin man trying to get out. There is some truth to this remark on some days—particularly when a fat man is confronted with a long flight of stairs.

But it could be said with probably equal truth that inside every fat man is a thin man enjoying himself.

His blubber serves as a protective sheath against the shocks of a rude world.

In a crowd, most people instinctively realize a fat man needs more space and they give it to him. Even if they push against him it is only his fat they crowd. Inside him there is his thin shapely uncrowded self, laughing at life. He wears a portable wall against all outside importunity, a barrier of being. Fat doesn't wound easily.

There is a final advantage to having a large stomach. At buffet dinners it provides an ample shelf to eat a meal from.

Though doctors may cajole him into dieting it away, he always remembers it with fondness—the time when he cast a bigger shadow.

The beautiful golden bowerbird, smallest member of the family, builds the biggest bower. The thrush-size bird contructs an eight-foot tower woven around saplings.

Local Junior High Teams Win 3 Of 4 Grid Battles

Four shutouts were registered last night in games involving Snyder Junior High teams, as the grid season arrived locally.

Snyder clubs batted a commendable .750 in the four games, with Travis 9th and Lamar 8th and 7th marking up triumphs and Lamar 9th suffering the only loss.

Wrapups on each contest follow.

TRAVIS 9TH 6, LAMESA 0

LAMESA—One touchdown proved to be sufficient here last night, as the Travis 9th Blue Devils of Snyder rolled to a 6-0 opening victory over Lamesa.

Left half Jerry Kincheloe provided the margin of difference by sweeping end for 15 yards and six points in the second quarter. He also had a 50-yard scoring scamper in the same period that was nullified.

Defensively, the Blue Devils showed up very well in what was described by Coach Wayne Tyrone as a "typical first game" in which penalties and fumbles were abundant. He added that he was fairly well pleased with the overall effort shown by his charges, though, considering the fact that it was their first game of the year.

The Blue Devils next play San Angelo Lee this Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Bobcat Stadium. The Lee eleven of this year went through its 7th and 8th grade campaigns in undefeated fashion.

GOLIAD 24, LAMAR 9TH 0

The Texans of Lamar 9th received a rude jolt from a roaming band of Big Spring Goliad Mavericks here last night, spoiling their season opener by carting home a 24-0 victory.

Gary Earhart got the ball rolling for the invaders by ramming the middle of the line on a five-yard scoring burst late in the first period to cap off a 50-yard drive cranked up after the Mavs had recovered a Texan fumble at midfield. The extra point run was no good.

But for a beautiful shoestring tackle on the part of Freddy Johnston, the visitors would have scored again in the second period. With nothing but open pasture in front of the runner, Johnston tripped him up after a 45-yard gain.

Texan defenses held tight with less than a minute to go in the half, also, when they stopped Big Spring cold on downs one yard away from the double stripe, so that at intermission the visitors held a scant 6-0 lead.

Scoring aerials of 38 and 41 yards, along with a 48-yard touchdown run to cap it all off, constituted the final demise for the Texans, however. The last Mav marker was scored with just 52 seconds left in the game.

All of their extra-point running tries were rebuffed.

Highlighting the Texan offense was a bold play in the third period that paid off with a first down. With fourth and six on the Goliad 35, fullback David Holt moved into punt formation. He faked it for a pickup of 13 yards and the first, but the gamble was all for naught when the goalward drive fizzled on the 15.

LAMAR 8TH 14, GOLIAD 0

Lamar 8th's opportunistic Texans made their 1962 debut a happy one here last night by ringing up a 14-0 triumph over the Big Spring Goliad Mavericks, sandwiching in second and third period touchdowns for the win.

Rob Golden barrelled around right end for 13 yards and a TD with 3:25 remaining in the second quarter, then gathered in a quickie pass over the middle of the line from quarterback Murray Bowden to boost the Texans into an 8-0 advantage.

Lamar was knocking on the door again late in the half, but the clock caught them with the ball resting on Goliad's 10-yard line.

Doug Hill triggered his mates to their second and final touchdown deep in the third period when he pounced on a muffed punt deep in Maverick territory. Tommy Sinclair, whose power running kept the visitors reeling through most of the game, carried four yards over left tackle for the tally. The attempted run for the extras was unsuccessful.

Heads-up defensive work on the part of the Texans the remainder of the game served to keep the Mavs frustrated and scoreless. Their most serious threat of the night transpired midway through the final period, but was stalled on the Texan seven by downs. Then—with a minute left to go—Rickey Hall pilfered a pass on his own 15 and streaked 47 yards before being hauled down to insure his mates their shutout triumph.

LAMAR 7TH 26, LAMESA 0

Lamar 7th threw together a consistent scoring attack here last night in drubbing Lamesa 26-0 in the opening game of the season for both elevens.

The Texans' initial scoring threat was thwarted when they drove all the way to Lamesa's one-yard line before losing the ball on downs. Lamar recovered a Lamesa fumble on the first play run from there, however, and quarterback Steve Moffett sneaked over the necessary yard to break the scoring ice only seconds into the second period. A run for the points failed.

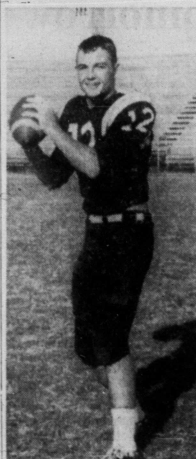

Frankie Grimmett skirted right end for three yards and a touchdown with 46 seconds remaining in the half. His attempted scamper for the bonus points was no good, giving the Texans a 12-0 halftime bulge.

Midway through the third quarter Lamar notched another insurance tally on a seven-yard toss from Moffett to Grimmett. O. L. Cooper rammed right guard for the extras, and the Texans led by 20-0.

A nifty double reverse earned for Lamar its final marker with 3:39 to go in the game. Teddy Taylor skipped around right end on that five-yard scoring play, after which the extra-point run was stymied.

Emerson In Colonial Net Appearance

FORT WORTH (AP)—Top seeded Roy Emerson of Australia, delayed by a previously scheduled exhibition appearance, was due to swing into action today in the Colonial Invitation Tennis Tournament.

Laurence Becker of Kerrville was his opponent in a makeup first round match. The winner will face Mexico's Antonio Palafox.

In other top singles matches of today's second round it was Mexico's Rafael Osuna vs. Australian Davis Cupper Fred Stolle, veteran Ham Richardson of Dallas vs. Jon Douglas of Stanford University, and Mexican Davis Cup captain Pancho Contreras vs. No. 2 seeded Chuck McKinley of St. Ann, Mo.

Of the favorites, only Stolle and Contreras had trouble Thursday. Stolle had to go three sets to turn back Cliff Richey, 15, a junior high student from Dallas, 4-6, 6-3, 7-5. Contreras was extended in defeating Al Hill Jr. of Dallas 6-3, 4-6, 6-1.

Palafox beat Frank Willett of Chattanooga, Tenn., 6-4, 6-0. Osuna downed Kenney Wickett of Fort Worth 6-0, 6-2.

McKinley, U.S. Davis Cup star, had no difficulty smashing Jack Turpin of Dallas 6-1, 6-1. Douglas placed his shots flawlessly in blanking Darrell Willerson of San Antonio, a University of Texas student, 6-0, 6-0.

Bob Kurland of Oklahoma A&M, Alex Groza of Kentucky and Jerry Lucas of Ohio State are the only players in the 24-year history of the NCAA basketball tournament to be awarded most valuable player honors two consecutive years.

Banker Likes To Aid His Home Town

By BARBARA HAYDEN

Written For The Associated Press

RICHMONDVILLE, N.Y. (AP)—The president of the Bank of Richmondville likes to spend his own money to help his tiny community.

John D. Holmes, a banker for 74 of his 92 years, has bought this Schoharie Valley hamlet a swimming pool and a fire truck. Now he is having the roads paved in the Richmondville rural cemetery.

The tall, spry banker says his gifts stem from his love for the village (population 900) where he has lived since he was five years old.

The swimming pool was his first big gift.

"In 1954," he said, "our local physician came to me and suggested that I give the village a swimming pool. The idea appealed to me. So the village has a pool. I get a lot of satisfaction seeing the youngsters swim and mothers still come to me and thank me. I'd go swimming myself if I could.

"The fire chief two years ago suggested that it would be nice to get the village a new fire truck because the department equipment was rather old, about 30 years old. So I got the truck for our fire department.

"Nothing had been done for a number of years to improve the roads in the cemetery. So I decided to do something about that."

Holmes also gave Hartwick College a girls' dormitory.

IN TIGER STADIUM, 8 P. M.

Tigers, Ponies Meet To Kick Off Season

Snyder's Tigers, partially hobbled but eager for battle, launch their 1962 grid campaign here tonight against the highly-respected Andrews Mustangs of District 2-AAA.

Game time for this season inaugural for both elevens, to be played on the Tiger Stadium turf, is 8 p.m.

When the Tigers take the field, they will be attempting to snap a two-game losing streak that has been dealt them the past two years by the invaders. Last year the Bengals dropped a narrow 12-8 decision, while in 1960 the Mustangs reigned supreme by 28-14. Snyder still maintains a 3-2 edge in the overall series, though, with victories of 37-8 in 1959, 34-12 in 1958, and 12-7 in 1951.

The Tigers' work is definitely cut out for them, as Andrews is the odds-on favorite to take home all the cookies in the 2-AAA championship scramble. Sweetwater has been placed on the pre-season pedastal for 3-AAA honors, while Snyder is rated in the fourth-place spot by the majority of prognosticators.

Coach Horrace Bostick is in his sophomore year at the helm of the Snyder club. Assisting him are line coach V. V. Shearburn and backfield coach Jim Stehley.

Lineup Riddled

The Tiger injury list has mounted in recent days, with there being no less than five cogs in their machine scheduled to sit out tonight's clash due to injuries. Sidelined are tackle William Robinson with a hip injury, halfbacks Gail Potter, Gail Read and Eddie Kirby with an injured leg, elbow and back, respectively, and end Edward Schulz with a bad knee.

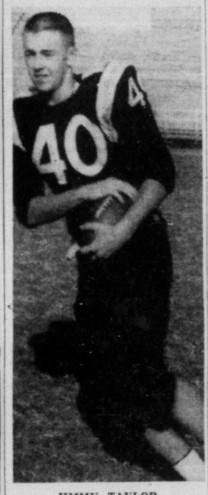

With the three halfbacks named all hurting, the Tiger defensive secondary will be hampered considerably. Robinson is a two-letterman starter at tackle, and will be missed there, also.

One sophomore has broken into the starting lineup due to the Read and Potter injuries. He's Leslie Brown, and will be running from the left half slot.

Greene and Pena, both veteran seniors, will serve as game captains during tonight's conflict.

After this evening's home opener, the Tigers will take to the road for three Fridays against Levelland, Big Spring and Kermit before coming home for Stamford, their final non-district foe.

National Amateur Set At Pinehurst

By KEN ALYTA
Associated Press Sports Writer

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—The National Amateur Golf Tournament will open Monday on a course the equal of any that has played host to its 61 predecessors.

That's the opinion of Joe Dey, executive director of the United States Golf Association.

Dey, here to oversee final preparations for the tournament at the Pinehurst Country Club said today its condition and fitness and a true championship test never has been exceeded.

In addition, at 7,051 yards, the No. 2 course is the longest the amateurs ever have had to play.

But it's not mere yardage that makes old No. 2 the formidable but fair test of a golfer's game.

Dey pointed out that the course puts a premium on position for every shot. During the four months it was closed this summer various alterations were made. Most of the changes will penalize the power hitters who are not accurate.

Texan Dud Wysong, runner-up last year to Jack Nicklaus, now a professional, summed up the course condition in one word—"super." He added a bit ruefully, "if I could just improve my putting I'd be all right."

Another who was high in praise of the course was Charlie Coe, the slender Oklahoman who has won the tournament twice. He shot a 1-under-par 71 Thursday, the first time he ever had played the course.

Playing with him and shooting 70 was North Carolina's Billy Joe Patton, one of the top contenders.

Two hundred men are in the field which will play 72 first round matches Monday. The winners will join 56 men who received first round byes in Tuesday's second round. Two rounds will follow on Wednesday and Thursday, with Friday's semifinals and Saturday's finals at 36 holes.

The Thoroughbred Racing Associations of The United States embraces 46 member tracks.

HE GREW HAIR

Before Treatment

A Few Months Later

Mr. T. A. Melton, Jr., of Hollidaysburg, Pa. (above) gave about 20 minutes of his time for an interview with a representative — saved and regrew his hair in only a few months with the exclusive home method. He did not have male pattern baldness.

Home Treatment System

Will be in Snyder, Texas
Tomorrow, Saturday Only

The Ebb Hair Specialists' Staff Director, R. J. Webber, on his regularly scheduled visit will be at the Beacon Motor Lodge, Snyder, Texas, Saturday, September 15. Every hair-worried person should take advantage of this great opportunity.

The Ebb method is known to many people all over the United States. You can have a conference with the Ebb representative regarding your hair and scalp problems at no cost to you whatsoever, learn how the scalp treatments work, and the results you can expect in a short period of time.

Results guaranteed by the Ebb organization. We don't ask you to take our word. You will be given a written guarantee from the beginning to end on a pro-rated basis.

Male pattern baldness is the cause of a great majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss, for which neither the Ebb method nor any other method is effective, and the Ebb method will not help those who are slick bald after years of gradual hair loss.

If your scalp is still creating hair and you have dandruff, or excessive hair fall, excessive oiliness, dryness or itchy scalp, you should take 20 minutes of your time to see what you can do.

Many have reported satisfactory results from the methods used by Ebb. Why burden yourself with unhealthy hair and scalp? Anyway it costs you nothing to come in and learn how many people have been helped by the years of Ebb experience plus the wonderful opportunity for help it offers. Just go to the Beacon Motor Lodge in Snyder, Texas, on Saturday, September 15 only, between 1 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. Ask the Hotel Desk Clerk for R. J. Webber, he will do the rest. Interviews are given in private. You will not be embarrassed in any way.

Pittsburgh-Miami Encounter Tops Collegiate Schedule

By The Associated Press

George Mira and Jim Traficant, two of the nation's top-ranked quarterbacks, have a football slinging duel scheduled Saturday afternoon that will make the opening of the 1962 college football season anything but dull.

Mira leads Miami's Hurricanes into Pitt Stadium to face the University of Pittsburgh and Traficant, in the key action on the opening day's schedule. The game will be televised nationally.

Mira, a 175-pounder from Key West, Fla., is considered the equal of any of the nation's college signal-callers, but he will have to prove his value against the punishment of Pitt's bruising, rugged team that is bulwarked with 24 returning lettermen.

Pitt's passing attack won't take a back seat to the Hurricanes' attack with Traficant at the controls. The 6-0 senior from Youngstown, Ohio completed 52 of 67 for 457 yards last year and is completely free of injuries that hampered him at the beginning.

Miami, a 15-14 loser to Syracuse in the Liberty Bowl last year, lost all-around back Eddie Johns for the year with a leg injury. The rest of the first team are veterans, but the bench is a little thin.

Pitt's ground attack is led by halfback Paul Martha and fullback Rick Leeson. Martha is an outstanding pass catcher. He averaged 5.1 in rushing a year ago.

Two Southern Conference games are on tap in other action, which also finds Utah State, the champ of the now-defunct Skyline Conference, Iowa State and Sun Bowl champ Villanova also getting under way.

In the Southern Conference, George Washington and Virginia Military play at Lynchburg, Va., while Virginia Tech goes against William & Mary. Utah State, stripped by graduation of the stars of 1961, travels to San Jose State for a night game while Dave Hoppmann, the 1961 individual offense leader, and his Iowa State Cyclones play Drake. Villanova meets neighboring West Chester (Pa.) State College.

In other games, the Citadel is at Florida State, Presbyterian visits Furman and East Carolina goes to the University of Richmond, all for night games in the South; Hardin-Simmons faces Tulsa and Louisville is at Wichita in night games. On the West Coast, Wyoming meets Montana State, Brigham Young, winless in 10 games in 1961, opens against the University of Pacific and New Mexico State and New Mexico tangle in an intra-state battle.

Shoot Planned By Auxiliary

The Snyder Gun Club Auxiliary will hold a shoot at the club range Sunday beginning at 1:30 p.m., with a cash jackpot award and ribbons slated to be awarded at its conclusion.

Competition will be bench rest firing with five rounds at 100 yards. Group scoring is to be utilized.

Entry fee is 50 cents, and all women interested and desiring to participate are invited to do so.

Tulsa Snares Playoff Lead

By The Associated Press

Tulsa forged into a 2-1 lead in the final Texas League playoffs by defeating the Austin Senators 4-3 Thursday night.

The Oilers, who finished second in the regular season, eliminated third place Albuquerque while the Senators, who barely finished fourth, won a spot in the playoff finals by eliminating the first place El Paso Sun Kings.

A fourth game in the best of five final series will be played Friday night at Tulsa.

Jeoff Long and Gary Kolb unloaded homers for Tulsa Thursday night. The Oilers held a 4-0 lead after five innings, but the margin shrank as Ray Withrow's homer scored three runs for the Senators in the sixth.

Brilliant relief hurling by Lou Vickery, who took the mound in the seventh, protected the victory for starter Bill Wakefield.

Tiger 'B' Tackles Ponies Tomorrow

Snyder's sophomore-sprinkled "B" team will see its first action of the season in Tiger Stadium tomorrow night when it meets Sweetwater "B" in a 7:30 battle.

Coaching the local Tiger outfit are Bill Hartsfield and Roy Carter. Carter will be making his "B" team coaching debut, as he was moved into that assignment upon departure last year of Jim Gafford.

Tiger "B", like its varsity counterpart, is small in size and will be depending on quickness rather than brawn when it takes the field against the arch-rival Mustang "B". The two teams met on two occasions last year, with the Snyder eleven copping the first decision by 20-6 before the Ponies bounced back to notch a win in the second, 14-7.

That loss was the last of the campaign for Snyder, as the team went on to win its final four games for a season's mark of 5-3.

Snyder's Lincoln High Trojans, mentored by Calvin Edwards, will also get their first official taste of competition tomorrow night when they go up against Odessa Blackshear in a 7:30 duel here. That contest will be unveiled on the field located two blocks south of Travis Junior High.

Area battles of tonight will have Hermleigh at Aspermont, O'Brien at Hobbs, and Gail at Nazareth. Ira is observing an open date.

Snyder's 3-AAA cousins will be having a busy night this evening. Heralded Sweetwater travels to Breckenridge, Lamesa treks to Midland, Brownfield entertains Littlefield, and Lake View journeys to Brady in those headliners.

Green Bay Pick Over Minnesota

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK (AP)—It probably was a lot more pleasant trying to pick Miss America, and at first glance, probably a lot easier too than trying to forecast the winners of the seven National Football League games this weekend, or the three in the American Football League.

But, these are the likely choices:

Green Bay over Minnesota—The Vikings, showing an improved defense and jazzed up offense in their final two exhibitions, have the misfortune of playing in "Titletown, U.S.A.", where Bart Starr, Paul Hornung, Jim Taylor & Co., aren't allowed to lose.

New York over Cleveland—The Browns have made wholesale changes in their offense, but the defensive backfield still is a bit porous to the sharp-shooting of quarterback Y. A. Tittle and the strengthened Giants, whose defense isn't as old as a lot of people think.

St. Louis over Philadelphia—The Cards' John David Crow is running at full tilt and quarterback Sam Etcheverry's arm is sound which will bode evil for the Eagles, whose defenses still are weak and whose offense is still too one-sided toward the forward pass.

Detroit over Pittsburgh — The Lions and new quarterback Milt Plum have found their new relationship quite satisfying, while the Steelers' Bobby Layne still isn't ready to direct their new running game or conduct a passing offense.

Los Angeles over Baltimore—The absence of halfback Lenny Moore, who broke a kneecap last weekend, make the Colts easier to handle. Zeke Bratkowski has found the range with his passing and the Rams strengthened defense should do the rest.

San Francisco over Chicago—The 49ers are a cohesive unit, with John Brodie at the controls, while the Bears, winless in five exhibitions, still haven't found the key due mainly to injuries.

Dallas over Washington—The Cowboys have the defensive savvy of Coach Tom Landry, plus the new horses to help make it go, and the 'Skins will have to wait a game or two to show they are rejuvenated.

Buffalo over Denver—This AFL game is a Saturday night affair, and the Bills' secondary should mean the difference against Denver's fine passing attack that surprised San Diego last week.

Houston over Boston — The Oilers, still panting over their close call at Buffalo, won't have to worry about Boston's running attack and its own crunching running game should take advantage of some injuries in the Pats defensive platoon.

San Diego over New York—The Chargers, weakened by injuries, still have too much overall power for the Titans, even though Lee Grosscup will try and work the same magic that beat Oakland last week.

Mays Abed; Giants Lose

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

From the time Willie Mays started running out from under his baseball cap on a fulltime basis eight years ago, the Giants never have won a game in which the name Mays did not appear in the line-up.

They met with similar success Thursday night.

While Willie lay in a hospital bed undergoing tests to determine why he collapsed in Wednesday's game, Cincinnati dealt San Francisco's National League pennant hopes a stiff jolt as Jim O'Toole pitched a four-hitter for a 7-2 victory over the Giants.

The defeat dropped the second-place Giants two games behind the front-running Los Angeles Dodgers, who were not scheduled. Both teams have 15 games remaining to play. The defending champion Reds, in third place five games back, have 13 games left.

The Mays case remained somewhat of a mystery.

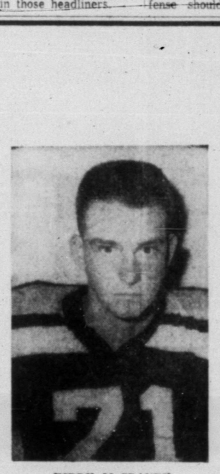

The slugging San Franciscan, major league home run leader with 43, blacked out in the third inning of the opener of the game series—the last meeting between any of the contenders for the NL flag.

Manager Al Dark said there was no apparent indication of what felled Mays. Cincinnati team physician Dr. George Ballou said it apparently was acute indigestion. Giants vice president Chub Feeney said "He's feeling fine, but the doctors want him to stay in the hospital."

The 31-year-old center fielder, who has missed only about 15 games since he came out of the army in 1954 and joined the Giants on a fulltime basis, was scheduled to fly from Cincinnati for tonight's game at Pittsburgh, after the tests were concluded.

The Dodgers also received good news about ailing 24-game winner Don Drysdale, who injured a rib Monday night against Chicago. Manager Walt Alston said Drysdale will pitch Saturday.

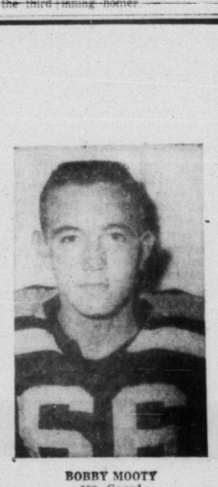

One other game was scheduled in the NL Thursday. Philadelphia beat Warren Spahn and Milwaukee 2-1 on John Callison's ninth inning homer.

Crab-Apple Tree Slaying Recalled

By ROBERT A. DUBILL

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP)—Forty years ago tonight, a handsome minister rendezvoused in a lovers lane with the pretty wife of the church sexton.

Their bodies were found two days later, neatly laid out under a crab-apple tree. Love letters fluttered at their feet. A calling card of the minister was propped against one of his shoes.

The Rev. Edward W. Hall, 41, rector of fashionable St. John's Episcopal Church and married to a wealthy woman several years his senior, had a bullet in the head.

Mrs. James Mills, 34, a choir singer in his church and his clandestine sweetheart, had been shot three times. Her throat was slashed.

Four years later, after charges of bungling and fumbling were leveled against law officials, the case came to trial.

Defendants were the clergyman's wife, Frances Stevens Hall, aristocratic granddaughter of George Washington's chief of artillery in the American Revolution, and her brothers, Henry Stevens, 57-year-old sportsman and expert rifle shot, and Willie Stevens, 54, an eccentric idler and frequenter of local firehouses.

The drama unfolded a multiple and colorful cast of characters, including Mrs. Jane Gibson, whom reporters called the "Pig Woman." She had a pig farm near the murder scene.

At a preliminary hearing, this strange 52-year-old woman testified she saw Mrs. Hall, the Stevens brothers and a cousin, Henry Carpenter, at the scene of the slaying. Charges against Carpenter were dismissed.

When the trial began, Mrs. Gibson, seriously ill, was the state's major witness. Attended by doctors and nurses she was carried into the courtroom on a stretcher and told this story:

She heard noises outside the night of the murder. Suspecting corn thieves, she saddled Jenny, her mule, and set off to track them down. In the glare of an automobile headlight she said she saw a woman with white hair and a man with a mustache—Mrs. Hall and Willie.

She dismounted, tied the mule to a tree, and advanced on foot. She said she then saw the two Henrys.

She started for home. Four shots pierced the darkness. A woman screamed.

Mrs. Hall, calm and confident, swore she was home the night of the murder. So did Willie.

Henry Stevens claimed he was fishing, 58 miles away.

James Mills, the church sexton, said his wife received a telephone call the fatal night and left the house.

A team of seven defense lawyers, in a six and a half hour summation, suggested Mills or even the "Pig Woman" might have committed the crimes.

"Hadn't Mrs. Gibson by her own admission come out to hunt thieves?" She could have killed the minister and choir singer and fled on her mule, the lawyers suggested.

The defense also claimed Mills violently quarreled with his wife, that as a onetime caretaker at the Hall home he had access to the love letters penned by the pastor and choir singer.

The trial lasted a month. The jury deliberated five hours and found the defendants innocent.

The famous crab-apple tree no longer stands; souvenir hunters carted it away, roots and all. The lovers lane has given way to homes. The major figures in the drama now are dead.

37th Street C-C

"Worship in the Lord's Church" will be the subject of Durward Boggs, minister at the Thirty-seventh Street Church of Christ, for the Sunday morning service.

All One Gives to God COMES BACK TO THE GIVER

REAPING

"And they took the fruit of the land in their hands and brought it down to us." Deut. 1:25. Isn't that just like God's children... always ready to lend a helping hand, or to give an extra portion — all if necessary. When the crop is ripe, the reaping done and the bounties stored away, do you ever stop to thank God? Maybe your inventory still shows all you ever possessed. Better realize it all came from God and give back a portion. How is it right now with you and yours? It is reaping time but what will your harvest be? Do you support His cause, His church, or, are you one of the would-be self-sufficient? Why not begin right now to use your harvest to help bring in the Kingdom?

So They May See — Psalm 91 — So They May Hear

HE THAT DWELLETH in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

3. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

4. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

6. Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

7. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

8. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

BECAUSE THOU hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation,

10. There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

12. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

13. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

14. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

16. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.
