Nazi Bombers Continue To Sweep London In Severe Raids

City Shaken In Double-Barreled German Attack

New Outbursts Are Suffered Shortly Before Morning

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Sept. 20. (Friday) — German dive bombers rocked the northwest area of bomb-scarred London with a sudden, concerted attack just before dawn today. At the same time another contingent struck at an east London area.

The German planes abruptly began coming over again in relays following a period of relative calm. They blasted away with high explosive and incendiary bombs at their objectives.

The new outburst of bombing came after the Nazis' activity had been reduced in the early morning hours.

A barrage of anti-aircraft fire around the city of London last night and early today slowed somewhat the pace of the German night assault on the British capital as the battle of London neared the critical equinox period.

The Germans again struck at all parts of the metropolis but were unable to match the intensity of the Tuesday night and Wednesday morning attack which saw bombs rained in many sections of the city.

Streets Brightened

(Apparently the raid still was under way when this dispatch was filed but new censorship regulations prevent the dispatch of the exact time of the beginning and end of the air attacks.)

(Some quarters have said Adolf Hitler might attempt an invasion of Britain before the approaching equinox, which signals fall storms that could make more difficult the transportation of troops across the channel. The autumnal equinox comes next Sunday night).

Only intermittent gun and bomb flashes were seen as the morning wore on.

Small groups of raiders circled the metropolis or cut across it in the wake of their earlier fellows who unleashed loads of bombs.

Mammoth German bombs exploding in central London made the streets as bright as times square in New York and fell with roaring blasts that shook buildings from top to bottom.

This 13th consecutive nightly raid on London was loosed in heavy clouds and over the low, thick ceiling the drone of nazi motors could be clearly heard.

Anti-aircraft cannon sent up continuous streams of bursting shrapnel.

Second Since Dawn

It was the second attack since dawn, but the previous raid was declared by the air ministry to have been made by only two German planes—one of which was shot down

Britain Turns Big Guns On Italians

(By The Associated Press)

CAIRO, Egypt, Sept. 19.—Big guns of the British Mediterranean fleet and the Royal Air force have begun shelling and bombing Italian desert troops and convoys along 350 miles of the Egyptian-Libyan coastline in the first major effort to stem the Fascist wedge now menacing Matruh, 150 miles inside Egypt, it was revealed officially today.

Matruh is 78 miles east of Sidi Barrani, where the main body of invaders is digging in. It is the next objective along an asphalt coastal road leading to the Great British naval base at Alexandria, and the vital empire life-line link, the Suez canal.

VIOLENT ACTION

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, Sept. 19 (AP)—Britain's battle fleet has gone into violent action to demonstrate its mastery of the Mediterranean and to harass Italy's advancing expeditionary force along the 350-mile Egyptian-Libyan coastline.

All along the coast, the British say, the bombardment caused heavy damage to the invading columns.

The fleet's mighty guns burst against Italian land positions night before last after it had made a three weeks' sweep of the Mediterranean and Aegean seas.

Egypt's premier, Hassan Sabry Pasha, told of the fleet and RAF action, after an all-night cabinet meeting weighing non-belligerent Egypt's destiny in the conflict.

Attack Successful

Principal objectives were water and fuel supplies and Fascist heavy artillery rolling into Sidi Barrani. Further west, the British said, a big motor transport concentration moving between Salum and Sidi Barrani was fired.

Successful RAF attacks also were made on Tobruk, Derna, Begasi and Bardia, in Italian Libya, the British said, as well as raids on Italian bases in the Dodecanese islands at Maritza, and Calato in the eastern Mediterranean.

(The Italian high command in Rome said one 10,000-ton British cruiser participating in the flanking attacks was "seriously" damaged, and that Fascist bombs dispersed the other naval units.)

Assurances Rejected

Marshal Graziani, Italian desert leader, reported also that his "tireless" airmen bombed and machine-gunned British land troops fleeing

RAF Bombards Invasion Port

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Sept. 19—A merciless 5-hour attack by the Royal Air force against the "invasion port" of Le Havre on the German-held French coast was disclosed tonight by the British air ministry.

Methodically raiding the springboards for Adolf Hitler's gathering forces all along the channel and North sea coasts, the RAF was declared authoritatively to have made Le Havre their main target last night and early today, unloading vast quantities of high explosives and incendiary bombs in the face of blinding anti-aircraft fire and murky weather.

Ships On Move

Le Havre is one of the French channel ports farthest from Great Britain, about 100 miles from Southampton. However, it is known that German barge and troop ship concentrations have shifted in the last few days; scattered by nasty gales and by British bombs.

"As one stick of heavy bombs hurtled onto the docks there came the white flash of a terrific explosion," the air ministry news service reported tonight. "It seemed to come from a ship moored alongside or from a large warship on the quayside.

Fires Reported

"A great fire could be seen by bomber crews 50 miles away. At 11 p. m. fires were raging in many parts of the harbor and a large ship

Unidentified Pilot Is Killed In Crash

McCHORD FIELD, Wash., Sept. 19 (AP)—An unidentified pilot crashed to a flaming death off the edge of McChord field today after apparently stealing a joy-ride in a visiting engineer's monoplane.

Col. Carlyle H. Wash, McChord field commanding officer, said the plane was a single motored A-17 type ship which was flown here three days ago by Lieutenant Dan Callahan of Wright field, Ohio.

"We have no idea who the dead man is," Colonel Wash asserted. "Some one took the plane who apparently was not an experienced pilot."

The colonel said it must have been an army man because civilians are barred rigidly from the field.

Mexican Says He Fled From Santa Anna

VICTORIA, Sept. 19. (AP) — Jose Garcia presented himself to Postmaster Leopold Morris to register as an alien, saying he had fled Mexico rather than serve in the army of Santa Anna.

Since Santa Anna fought against Sam Houston, the postmaster inquired how old Jose was. The farmer said he was born at Pan de Maiz, San Luis Potosi, Mexico in 1821.

That would make him 119 years old.

Postmaster Morris believes he has registered Texas' oldest citizen.

Program Planned By Willkie To Preserve U. S. Democracy

By WILLIAM B. ARMSTRONG
Associated Press Staff Writer

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19—Proposing the formation of a special tax commission, Wendell L. Willkie outlined tonight this four-point program which he said would "save" United States away from "a totalitarian system":

"1—The rules under which business is conducted must be clear and must be stable.

"2. Government policies affecting business should be consistent.

"3. Government competition with business must be kept within well-defined limits. It must not stop the flow of capital into new productive enterprise.

"4. Business must be given a chance to make a profit."

Speaking before an audience in the Memorial coliseum, Willkie contended that the Roosevelt administration had set up a tax structure that is "unscientific, regressive and loaded with punitive measures."

"If elected," Mr. Willkie said, "I propose the immediate establishment of a special commission to study the whole tax question. Such a commission must be composed of government officials, members of both houses of Congress, business men, representatives of labor and tax experts.

"It should study the needs of the Mexican Rebels Stage Revolt

(By The Associated Press)

CHIHUAHUA CITY, Mexico, Sept. 19—An official bulletin from the headquarters of General Antonio Guerrero, commander of the fifth military zone, reported tonight that a band of 150 men, headed by Jose Guerrero, had risen in arms against the government in the small village of Santa Maria Decuevas, about 100 miles northwest of this city near the Sonora border.

Gen. Jose Ruiz of Guerrero's staff, the bulletin said was dispatched immediately at the head of a detachment of troops in pursuit of the rebels and succeeded in capturing two prisoners.

Badly Armed

The prisoners reportedly informed the military authorities that the band was in fact composed of rebels, that they were badly armed, had only a few cartridges and poor horses. They were quoted as saying each man had only about five or ten cartridges apiece.

When the prisoners also revealed that the band was moving toward the Sierra Madre mountains, Colonel Carlos Vega was dispatched with more troops to try to cut them off by circling from the north around the village from which the rebellion started.

Relation Unknown

The bulletin also said that nothing had been heard of Lt. Col. Cruz Villalva, defeated candidate for governor on the ticket of General Juan Andreu Almazan. Unconfirmed rumors, still being investigated, had circulated that Villalva had placed himself at the head of another uprising.

The political affiliation, if any, of the band led by Guerrero, no relation to General Guerrero, was reported unknown.

Cowpoke Pops Heads Off 9 Rattlesnakes

CLARENDONE, Sept. 19. (AP) — Tiedie Beckham, a cowpuncher on the Shoe-Bar ranch, came to town today and told of killing 36 rattlesnakes in one day while mowing cockleburs on Antelope creek.

He killed the first nine by cutting them by the tail and popping their heads off.

That got to be work, Tiedie said, and so he used his .45 on the rest of them.

Stores Launch "Money Back If Drafted" Plan

ATLANTA, Sept. 19. (AP)—Two Atlanta stores announced a "money back if drafted" plan today for the sale of fall clothes.

A receipt will be given the purchaser of each suit entitling him to return it in event of conscription by the army and receive a refund of his money.

The plan does not apply to volunteers.

Grandview Negro Is Given Death Sentence

FORT WORTH, Sept. 19. (AP) — Tommie Harris, 18-year-old Grandview negro, was given the death penalty tonight by a criminal district court jury that convicted him of murder in the brutal slaying of Mrs. Edna Earl Allen, 19, an expectant mother, at her home in Grandview on August 8.

The jury returned its written verdict to Judge Willis M. McGregor at 6:36 p. m. after deliberating 31 minutes.

The court room was filled with citizens of Cleburne and Grandview at the time the judge read the verdict.

Harris, held in a holdover cell of the county jail during the deliberation, was brought two paces into court to hear the verdict and was whisked to jail immediately after the verdict was read.

Fifth Column Hunt In NLRB Suggested

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 19. (AP)—Declaring "a hint of radicalism permeates" the National Labor Relations board personnel, Edmund M. Toland, general counsel for a congressional investigation of the NLRB, said today that any "fifth column" search "might very well begin within" the board.

"Because it has been given jurisdiction over disputes between capital and labor," Toland told the metal mining convention of the American Mining congress, the NLRB "is one of the most vital links in our defense program.

Aliens In Canal Zone Discharged

(By The Associated Press)

BALBOA, Canal Zone, Sept. 19.—The United States army announced tonight that 230 European-born aliens employed in the Canal Zone will be discharged tomorrow.

The order climaxed weeks of exhaustive investigation.

On Monday, a group of 134 aliens found to be residing illegally in the Canal Zone were sent to Ellis island, in New York harbor, aboard transports for the discharges but said army transport.

Officials declined to give detailed reasons "in the national interest."

A number of the 230 have permanent or temporary Panama visas, but some of these are expected to be cancelled by Panama authorities. What will happen to them is nebulous, since at least some probably are unable to return to their homelands.

For the most part those to be discharged are construction workers or employed in army post exchanges, barber shops and tailor establishments.

Most of them were said to be Germans, Czechs or Yugoslavs.

RECORD AT A. & M.

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 19—Registration at Texas A. & M. for the first two days easily set a new record. Six thousand and twenty-nine youths enrolled yesterday and today, compared with 5,687 on the first two days of registration in 1939. Registrar E. J. Howell estimated some 500 more would register.

Congratulations To:

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Teal of Petersburg route 2 on birth of a daughter weighing 8 pounds 9 ounces at 1:35 o'clock Thursday afternoon in West Texas hospital. Teal is a farmer.

More National Guard Troops To Be Called

Plans Announced By Secretary Of War Stimson

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Tentative plans for calling 37,000 more national guardsmen to active duty in November were announced today by Secretary Stimson, while airmail planes rushed master copies of civilian draft registration forms to central points in each state.

The new militia orders would bring the total of guardsmen mustered into active service to 133,000, and would principally affect the 56th cavalry brigade (Texas), the 31st division (Florida, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana), the 35th division (Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri) and the 36th division (Texas).

No More This Year

The plan calls for mobilizing 1,377 officers and men from the 56th cavalry on Nov. 18, at Fort Bliss, Tex., and the remainder on Nov. 25, at Camp Blanding, Fla., Camp Robinson, Ark., and Brownwood, Tex. No additional guardsmen are to be called until after Jan. 1.

The conscription forms were forwarded to be printed by the millions locally, and were the first of 64 cards, questionnaires, placards, and booklets, which will be sent out. The total printing bill, it is estimated, will run to $1,500,000.

Army officials computed that they would need 32,000,000 registration cards, 24,000,000 registration certificates and 24,000,000 questionnaires. No explanatoin was given as to the size of these figures when compared with the 16,500,000 who are to be registered.

At the White House, the day produced the appointment of a committee to cooperate with the National Defense commission on all phases of public health. Mr. Roosevelt, acting under the authority of a 1916 law, named a group of five headed by Dr. Irvin Abell of Louisville, Ky., chairman of the board of regents of the American College of Surgeons. Other members are Dr. Lewis H. Weed, chairman of the Division of Medical Sciences of the National Research counsel; Rear Admiral Ross T. McIntire, surgeon general of the navy and White House physi-

Total Of 1,267 Cars Are Inspected Here

A total of 1,267 cars passed through the Texas Highway patrol traffic lane in 1600-block Broadway, Thursday, after patrolmen were delayed in the lane opening.

Avenue N, between Broadway and Thirteen street, first was designated for the lane but was found too narrow after equipment was set up.

Approximately 66 per cent of the cars passed the test, 63 of them returning after first shown defects. Final total passing was 817.

Parts found defective and the number of each was: brakes 340, mufflers 80, lights 82, horns 18, steering gears 25, and windshields 72.

Capt. G. E. Schauer is in charge of the lane.

Sentences Assessed In District Court

A jury in 99th district court Thursday assessed a two-year penitentiary sentence against J. G. Hamner after he was found guilty of forgery and passing.

Hamner offered no defense testimoney to sustantiate his plea of innocence. Two other defendants were allowed suspension of sentences totaling seven years.

Leona Linder received a two-year sentence for forgery and passing, and Edgar Joseph a five-year sentence for theft over $50.

Bill Is Meant To Speed Defense By Changing Tax Law

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—A bill levying an excess profits tax on corporations and making revenue law revisions designed to speed the defense program was approved by the Senate today, 46 to 22, after the legislators had added an amendment calling for huge increases in taxation if the United States goes to war.

The measure now will go to a joint conference committee to reconcile wide differences between Senate and House versions.

The peace-time provisions of the Senate bill would add a flat 3.1 per cent to the normal income tax rate of all corporations. For example, corporations earning more than $25,000 would be increased from the present 20.9 per cent to 24 per cent. The bill also would impose a tax of from 25 to 50 per cent on profits defined as excess under a formula provided in the bill. The House bill did not contain the increase in the normal corporation tax rate.

Amendment Adopted

Both House and Senate adopted provisions suspending existing profit limitations on government contracts for construction of warships and airplanes and permitting corporations to charge off against earnings over a five-year period the cost of defense manufacturing facilities completed subsequent to Jan. 1, 1940.

Just before passing the bill the chamber adopted an amendment by Senator Connally (D-Tex) to set up a schedule of income tax rates, effective in time of war only, ranging up to 80 per cent on highest-bracket taxpayers. The normal tax for individuals in time of war would be fixed at 10 per cent (against the present 4 per cent) and that of corporations at 35 per cent.

Corporations would be required to pay a war tax of up to 60 per cent on profits in excess of 5 per cent. There would be a specific exemption of $5,000.

He Doesn't Know

Under the peace-time excess profits levy a corporation would determine the amount to be taxed as excess profits in one of two ways. It could take the amount in excess of average earnings for the four-year period 1936 through 1939, plus an additional exemption of $10,000; or determine the excess as the amount over an 8 per cent return on invested capital and an added

Axis Plans For Action Talked At Rome Parley

(By The Associated Press)

ROME, Sept. 19—German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop came to Rome today on an armored train equipped with anti-aircraft guns and conferred for two hours with Premier Mussolini on joint Axis plans to defeat Britain and rule Europe.

Spain's "cooperation" in winning the war, with Gibraltar as her reward, was widely discussed as a likely subject between the two leaders.

From Mussolini's side the future of Greece and Turkey—last holdouts against Axis domination in southeastern Europe—also were believed brought up.

In the war to the finish against Britain, Virginio Gayda, authoritative Fascist editor, declared other European nations, "particularly friendly ones," are involved "not as spectators alone."

This was considered a reference to Spain, and there have been unconfirmed rumors of Axis attempts to persuade Spain to at least permit troop passage for a land attack on Britain's stronghold at Gibraltar.

Ramon Serrano Suner, Spanish minister and pro-Axis adviser to his brother-in-law, General Franco, is still in Berlin where Ribbentrop had conferred with him prior to

Missing Attorney Is Found Dead On Peak

ROCKY MOUNTAIN NATIONAL PARK, Colo., Sept. 19. (AP)—Hoyt F. White, 33-year-old Yates Center, Kas., attorney missing since Sept. 5, was found dead on a desolate slope of Twin Sisters peak near Estes park today.

Chief Ranger J. Barton Herschler said White's body was "badly mangled and torn." He had apparently fallen down a steep slope.

The body was found by Henry Carter of Texas, one of the more than 125 CCC workers helping in the three-day search for the missing Kansan. It was about one-third of the way down from the top of the 11,425-foot Twin Sisters peak, one of the scenic attractions of the area.

White apparently had attempted to take a short cut in ascending or descending the mountain, Herschler said, as the body lay far from the trial generally used by hikers.

Today Is Last Day To Register At Tech

Final opportunity to register without payment of a late fee of $2 will be offered today at Texas Technological college.

Registration will be conducted from 8 to 12 and 1 to 5 o'clock. Students are to report first to the registrar's office.

Today's registration period will be the first of two late enrollment periods. A total of 3,847 permits had been issued at close of official registration days Tuesday and those among the 3,847 who did not finish registering will complete the procedure today.

More Demands Made By Japan

By C. YATES McDANIEL

HANOI, French Indo-China, Sept. 19.—New and unexplained demands threatened tonight to upset the negotiations between the government of French Indo-China and the Japanese who have sought the right to move troops and supplies through the colony to facilitate their way against China.

The French government issued a statement saying:

"Negotiations between the French authorities and the Japanese mission have reached a delicate state, the Japanese having presented new demands which do not seem compatible with instructions from the French government and which deviate from previous agreements,

ULTIMATUM REPORTED

HONGKONG, Sept. 20 (Friday) (AP) Official foreign quarters said today they had received information that Japan had given French Indo-China until Sunday to comply with new Japanese demands but that the French were unyielding.

Upon receipt of the 72-hour ultimatum, the French virtually told the Japanese to "go ahead," these quarters said.

They expressed the opinion, however, this new development did not necessarily mean the Japanese would resort immediately to military action but that instead they might seek to reach a face-saving agreement at the last minute.

Hollywood Visitors Welcomed To Texas By Fort Worth Group; Cooper And Hope Star

By ROBBIN COONS
Associated Press Staff Writer

FORT WORTH, Sept. 19—The eyes of Texas met the eyes of Hollywood today and Texas and Hollywood seemed to like each other.

This city, selected for the world premiere presentations of a new movie with a Texas historical background, played enthusiastic host to movie celebrities by Samuel Goldwyn, producer of "The Westerner."

Crowds waited at the airport to cheer Gary Cooper, Bob Hope, Edward Arnold, Chill Wills, Charlie Ruggles, Walter Brennan, Bruce Cabot, Doris Davenport, Lilian Bond, and others. Ten-gallon hats, colorful cowboy shirts, boots and spurs, worn by the visitors and many of the visited alike, revived some of the spirit of Texas frontier days.

Cooper and Hope appeared to divide equally the plaudits of the local feminine continent as they signed autographs, gave interviews, and made informal speeches at the airport, at a chamber of commerce luncheon, and rode in a frontier days parade.

One of the girls entered in a typical Texas girl contest, conducted in connection with the premiere, was heard to ask the actor if Mrs. Cooper were with him. Answered in the negative, the girl sighed "Oh, goodie, goodie!" But the comedian Hope had his coterie of admirers too.

The day's festivities included a free show after the parade at Will Rogers coliseum, followed

Business Men Will Launch Fair Ticket Sales Campaign

"Something New" Is Planned By Group; Bargains To Be Offered

Seventy-five or more of Lubbock's civic-minded, youth-conscious business men were announced ready last night for "something new" today in connection with Panhandle-South Plains fairs.

They will meet at 9 o'clock this morning in the main ballroom of Hilton hotel and after a session which, it is promised, will be short and snappy, will offer the biggest bargain in tickets to the approaching Panhandle-South Plains fair in the more than 20 years history of the fair association.

A Real Bargain

They will offer strips of four general admission tickets to the grounds for $1—just half the price that will be paid for those who wait to buy at the box office.

However, they will offer more than a mere bargain to the thrifty.

Ten per cent of all proceeds from the sales will go to Lubbock Boys club, inc., an organization sponsored by the city's five service luncheon clubs in an effort to provide the right kind of recreational environment and leadership for boys lacking in those advantages now.

Strictly Business

O. W. Ribble, general sales manager of today's drive, and S. E. Marbut, chairman of the general campaign committee, explained that previous reports that today's session will be at a breakfast were in error. The program will be one of strictly business.

Dr. Clifford Jones, president of Texas Technological college, will speak briefly. Instructions and supplies will be delivered. Then the workers will get to work.

Chairmen of the sales committees for the various clubs are C. E. Hunt, Optimist; Bill Collins, American Business; John Halsey and Marion Sanford, Kiwanis; Clarence Whiteside, Rotary; and Rayford B. Hills, Lions.

Ribble reminded that the tickets sold in advance will be good for the admission of any person at any time during the fair to the grounds. The only requirement will be that the individual tickets must not be detached from the strips when presented at the gate.

They will continue on sale until 6 p. m. Saturday, Sept. 28 at convenient locations yet to be designated. However, Ribble emphasized, hopes are to complete most of the work in the whirlwind one-day campaign, because the profit to the boys' club will be greater on those sold that day.

Committee Listed

The following members of clubs' sales committees were announced last night:

Lions—Ed Allen, Vance Apple, J. V. Beauchamp, H. J. Bingham, J. Y. Boyd, R. A. Burford, T. H. Calvin, L. M. Dever, Jack Diamond, C. D. Doggett, W. O. Fortenberry, G. R. Kennedy, C. L. Minyard, W. H. Evans, R. B. Parkinson, Bob Parnett, Bob Perry, D. Pratas, K. L. Riggs, Tommy Starnes, John E. Toles, Dayle Vannoy, Lloyd Zellner, Chas. A. Still, and George Zarafonetis.

American Business — Gradie Bownds, Bob Crawford, A. C. Sanders, jr., Bob Gee, George Reinhardt, J. A. Fortenberry, Bert Collard, George Dale, Troy Dale, Bruce Collier, Frank Lanotte, M. T. Hill, Hugh Anderson, H. B. Bryan and Porter Parris.

Scout Leaders To Attend Conference

A regional leadership training institute in Mineral Wells Saturday and Sunday will be attended by 16 adult Boy Scout leaders of the South Plains council, it was announced Thursday.

Dr. J. O. Ellsworth, council training chairman, will head the delegation. Purpose of the institute will be to train leaders for similar training work in their own communities.

Those for whom reservations have been made, Stone announced, follow: W. K. Crawley and J. D. Dyer of Lamesa; P. O. Smith of Whiteface; Charles Spencer and J. C. Grimes of Plainview; R. E. Douglas of Silverton; Clyde Martin of Petersburg; J. Edd McLaughlin of Ralls; and Dr. F. B. Malone, Sam A. Henry, sr., Dr. C. C. Schmidt, Ralph Brock, Royal Furgeson, H. F. Gilley, Ellsworth and Stone, all of Lubbock.

Advice Is Given For Building Main Canal

EL PASO, Sept. 19. (U.P.)—Members of the executive committee of the water conservation board of Hidalgo county were given information and advice this week for constructing a main canal and storage system beginning at Rio Grande City, Tex., L. M. Lawson, international boundary commissioner, said today.

The committee, composed of the president, secretary and engineer of the board, came here for a conference with engineers of the boundary commission.

Lawson said they were given information from the files of the commission which had been compiled from extensive surveys. Plans were made to secure favorable congressional action and the best means to get the canal construction started.

News Briefs

Royal Arch Masonic chapter 248 will confer marked master degrees on a class of seven candidates in ceremonies beginning at 7:30 o'clock tonight, Hugh J. McClellan, secretary, announced.

Two juveniles, both about 11 years old, Thursday admitted twice burglarizing the Jeff Beck service station at Main street and College avenue. They and another boy were taken to the police station by W. J. Tucker policeman, after one of them stole a knife from a five-and-ten store. The boys told Bill Mabray they entered the service station through a west window, drank pop and took chewing gum, peanuts and some small change. They had been questioned first Sept. 13 after the burglary the previous night.

J. V. Whaley, state supervisor of the Franklin Life Insurance company and Great American Life Insurance company, and Mrs. Whaley, of Dallas, are in Lubbock to spend the week-end. Whaley has been conferring with K. L. Riggs, associated with the same organization, and is visiting a brother, Dallas Whaley of Lubbock.

A son weighing 7 pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. English of Crosbyton at 8:45 o'clock Thursday morning in St. Mary's hospital.

James Andrew Estes, 91, was buried in a Cordell, Okla., cemetery Thursday afternoon. A brief service was read Thursday morning at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Eva Rice, on Shallowater highway, where Mr. Rice died Wednesday. Sanders Funeral home directed arrangements.

Hull Replies To Willkie Charge

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. (AP) — Secretary Hull cited figures today to show increases in income of the dairy industry and in cattle prices during the Roosevelt administration as an answer to Wendell L. Willkie's assertion yesterday about the purchase of Argantine beef.

The Republican presidential nominee told a campaign audience that one way to help rebuild the nation's domestic economy would be to have the American navy buy American beef instead of Argentine beef.

Hull told his press conference that comparative figures on dairy income and cattle prices spoke for themselves on the realtive effectiveness of the present administration's trade policies and those of the preceding Republican administration.

These, he said, show that at the culmination of the tariff period in 1932, the income of the dairy industry had fallen to $991,000,000 from $1,844,000,000 in 1929 but had risen in 1938 to $1,396,000,000 and in 1939 to $1,355,000,000.

Cattle prices, he continued, were $4.31 per hundred pounds on September 15, 1932, and averaged $4.25 for that year and rose to $7.07 on September 15, 1939, and an average of $7.03 for 1939.

Mexico is making a bid for honeymooners and has listed small cities as ideal bride-and-groom hideaways.

No Increase In Tax Rate Seen

City officials expressed belief Thursday there would be no boost in the city tax rate of $1.05 on the $100 assessed valuation despite added burdens that must be included in the annual budget.

However, it will be several days before they will know definitely, officials said. As soon as possible—within a few days, they added, a special meeting of the city commission will be called to set the rate so that new collections can begin soon after October 1.

Valuations To Increase

Encouraging the hope that no increase will be necessary, officials said, is the estimate that assessed valuations will show an increase of $2,260,025 over last year—the largest for any one year over another in the history of Lubbock.

Total of valuations is placed at $26,695,760, another all-time record. The previous high was $24,888,284 in 1931.

However, to offset the increased revenue resulting from higher valuations and the incomes of the city electric and water departments are several new expenses, officials said.

Bonds Have Been Sold

Most important among them, it was revealed, is the $600,000 in bonds which have been sold during the past year. The tax rate this year must make provision for the interest and sinking fund for those bonds, which were voted in September, 1938.

In addition are the payments on the $175,000 Diesel engine bought for the electric plant about a year ago and some installments still to be met on the $130,000 engine purchased nearly three years ago. Those payments during a part of this year total $16,000 per month, and they must be guaranteed out of the tax rate. Actually, officials said, the payments come out of light plant revenues, but that means that the contributions of those revenues to the general fund is reduced. However, both engines will be paid for completely before the beginning of the next fiscal year on April 1, 1941.

Then, said officials, all the profits from the light plant may go toward operating expenses of the city unless it is necessary to buy another engine to keep pace with increasing electrical demands. Continued Lubbock growth, they added, likely will mean that provision must be made for increased electrical power by that time.

New York Prepares For Possible Raids

NEW YORK, Sept. 19. (U.P.)—New York City already has taken precautions against possible bombing from the air, Mayor F. H. LaGuardia told the United States conference of Mayors today after President Roosevelt had assured the delegates in a letter that democracy was proving itself in the present crisis.

LaGuardia, who is head of the conference, told the 200 mayors that he feared no immediate danger but that surveys of this type were best conducted well in advance.

"We have here in New York," he said, "investigated every possible type of building. We know where we are vulnerable and we are able to direct the people where to go."

City officials also have completed studies for the transportation of troops through New York to New England, the mayor said.

Entries In Swine Division Received

Entries in swine division of the Panhandle-South Plains fair were received Thursday from exhibitors in Canyon and in Sand Spring, Okla., fair officials announced.

Another entry was that of Bailey county in the community exhibits. S. T. Logan is county agent.

Sand Springs Home farms entered hogs in all classes of competition, Poland China, Duroc-Jersey, Hampshire, Chester White and Spotted Poland China. Tierra Blanca farm at Canyon will have entries in Poland China, Duroc-Jersey and Hampshire classes.

Fair dates are Sept. 30 to Oct. 5.

London Shipyards Suffer Little Damage From Raids

LONDON, Sept. 19. (AP)—Nazi air raids have failed to cause any serious damage to London shipyards or to heavy industries in the capital, the ministry of home security said tonight.

The damage to arsenals has been negligible, the ministry said. After a study of the situation it declared the German raiders had destroyed 2 per cent of London's oil stocks, seriously but not permanently damaged an aircraft factory and damaged one gas plant.

Ministry spokesman said they had found that the loss of oil amounted to less than half the monthly fluctuation in supplies and that it already had been made up. They added that there was huge reserve storage capacity for incoming stocks.

Small Upsets

They admitted, however, that London had taken a terrific drubbing and that production had dropped in the metrolopitan area.

The ministry pointed out that London is not a vital point industrially or militarily, that it does not have heavy industries or essential war industries and that all losses in London are more than offset by the factories projected before the war which are just now coming into production.

Though admitting that London is an important railway center, ministry sources said that the railway system has not been disrupted to any appreciable extent and the damage was such as could be most quickly repaired.

No big power generating stations in the London area have been thrown out of gear and no large part of the area has been seriously affected by water shortage, it was said.

Breaks in many water mains, gas pipes and power lines, however, have affected scattered small districts.

Dr. Woods Here For Area Visits

Dr. L. A. Woods, state superintendent of public instruction, arrived in Lubbock Thursday and is scheduled to fill a busy program of engagements.

He spoke Thursday night at the dedication of a new gymnasium and home economics building at Cotton Center. He was accompanied there by E. Esten Day, deputy state superintendent with headquarters at Texas Technological college.

He will visit Tahoka and O'Donnell schools this morning and will deliver the dedicatory address at Grassland school in Lynn county this afternoon.

He will be guest of honor tonight at a dinner at 7 o'clock at Mexican Inn in Lubbock. The county superintendents' association of district 2 will give the dinner. Counties in the district are Andrews, Bailey, Borden, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Floyd, Gaines, Garza, Hale, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Terry and Yoakum.

He will address a meeting of teachers and trustees of Lynn county schools Saturday morning in the high school auditorium at Tahoka. He will leave the district Saturday.

YOUR FUTURE Congressman?

It's HARD to tell... but EASY to pick a winning oil

YOU'RE STICKING YOUR NECK OUT, if you try to guess whether this young chap is headed for Washington.

True, he is already exhibiting signs of future political prowess. But experience has shown that some of the least likely candidates end up with high position, while school boy orators and class officers seldom rise to national affairs.

Easier than picking a winning politico is voting for a winning oil for your motor. This is why:

Of the many oils which Phillips makes, in various grades to match varying needs of cars and pocketbooks, we have set one apart as our best.

We say unconditionally and without reservation that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality . . . the highest grade and greatest value . . . among all the oils we offer.

Pick a winning oil by pointing to the can marked with the Orange and Black 66 Shield. And do it every time you make the 1,000-mile replacement of oil recommended by lubrication authorities, as well as when you put in lighter oil for the winter.

Health Authorities Prepare To Test For Venereal Diseases As Men Register

Killer Is Sought In New Jersey Hills

THREE BRIDGES, N. J., Sept. 19. (U.P.)—State police, CCC youths and volunteers searched the Sourland hills and woods today for an elusive killer who returned to the vicinity of his crime in the early morning hours and fired several shotgun blasts through a window in his victim's home.

At 3:30 a. m., while two officers were spending the night there, the killer fired several bursts into the bedroom of John Norwich, farmer, whose 21-year-old son Julius was found shot to death yesterday. No one was in the bedroom.

Medical Meet Is Concluded

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (U.P.)—Government and local health authorities prepared today to make the most of the best opportunity since the World war to check up on venereal diseases when men register for compulsory military service.

Surgeon General Thomas Parran of the public health service estimated that there would be at least 300,000 cases of syhilis among the 16,500,000 men who register. He pointed out that during the last war syphilis was surpassed only by influenza and actual war injury as a disabler of men.

Conference Ends

Health officers from every state and territory, as well as representatives of various branches of the medical profession, have just finished a special three-day conference here. They recommended that voluntary blood tests to locate syphilis be given to as many as possible of the 16,500,000 men who must register for the draft on Oct. 16.

The conference also considered:

A program for setting up minimum standards for control of sanitation and communicable diseases in mobilization areas. That includes a plan for rounding up prostitutes and vagrants in conscription camp areas.

Would Be Voluntary

Treatment at government expense of potential conscripts who are deferred because of "correctable physical defects" such as infected tonsils or teeth, hernia and minor eye afflictions and cannot afford medical treatment.

Despite insufficient time to prepare for blood tests for all registrants, Parran said that a large number of registration places would have staffs of doctors and nurses who will give tests to those desiring them. All tests will be voluntary—up to the point where the man is actually selected for induction into the army.

Transportation Costs Of Schools Given

AUSTIN, Sept. 19. (U.P.) — Texas expended $2,153,287 for transporting school pupils to rural schools. Final transportation payment for the 1939-40 school term now is being sent out to school districts from the department of education.

State School Superintendent L. A. Woods said available funds were sufficient to meet 91 1-4 per cent of the total transportation claims submitted by schools.

The money goes to 4,083 schools.

Payments are being made also to school districts which the state reimburses for the amount of taxes that would be collectable on land owned by the University of Texas.

Coat-Of-Arms Of Coronado Popular Here

From now until Oct. 5, when the Coronado Entrada gives its last performance as the night feature of the Panhandle South Plains fair, the coat-of-arms of Francisco Vasquez de Coronado is going to be rather popular in the South Plains area.

A quaint little lion, with three stripes on him—on his neck, like an Eaton collar; on his chest, like a streamlined dickey; across his rump, like a hint of a diaper—and a crown upon his head. He is rampant on a shield, paws out more like a Siamese cat than like a lion. That means Francisco Vasquez de Coronado who will really come into much glory during the forthcoming Panhandle-South Plains fair that opens in Lubbock the night of September 30.

Armorial symbols, such as the leopards of the kings of England, the lillies of France, the castles and lions of Spain, carried a definite message. There was history behind them.

In the good old days, going even beyond Coronado and 1540, small armies in armor went into action with pomp and ceremony, observing the etiquette of war. Chroniclers, kings of arms and heralds went along, to perform some of the functions now left to more prosaic war correspondents.

Francis Had Price

It was not much before Coronado's time that a mighty king, Francis I of France, took mire pride in his popular designation as the "roi chevalier", the knightly king, than in his conquests, feminine and territorial. So much so, that he acted as esquire to Bayard, the knight "without fear and above reproach."

The kings of arms, the heralds and the chroniclers, versed in the colorful science of heraldry, could distinguish the redoutable Bayard, the tremendous Du Guesclin, or the king of France among many others. Shields at the Field of the Cloth of Gold were like calling cards of the best of tent society, easily read by the chroniclers, who could also identify pennons, standards or colors.

Thus, Froissart, the first of the great war correspondents, could surely and accurately single out the embattled warriors and sing their deeds of valor, way back in the 13th century.

The Spaniards under Cortes, invading Mexico, had the invaluable aid of La Malincho, who was beautiful, intelligent and devoted to Cortes. She made the conquest much easier. Had Cortes also had with him an Aztec traitor versed in the heraldry of his own peers, the conqueror would have been able to know who engaged him in battle.

Stand For Cities

The Aztecs had heraldic designs of their own, based on ideas and principles similar to these which gave birth to European heraldry. Shields charged with designs copied from authoritative source will be seen during the presentation of the Coronado "Entrada" at the Panhandle-South Plains fair, Sept. 30.-Oct. 5th.

The designs on the shield of an Aztec warrior identified him and told friend and opponent alike what claims to distinction the bearer had.

The crown on the head of Coronado's shaggy little lion practically shouts the meaning "Coronado," which means crowned. As another example, the cost of arms of Hernan Cortes shows in the center three castles in a field of blue. To the initiated they stand for the three principal cities taken by Cortes in New Spain.

Demand for munition workers in Japan are attracting workers from farms with a resulting shortage of labor on nearly every farm in the country.

Humble's Conscripts Will Get Salaries

HOUSTON, Sept. 19. (AP) — Employes of the Humble Oil and Refining company who are called to active military or naval service will receive the difference between their military pay and their civilian pay from the Humble company, for a 90-day period, it was disclosed here today.

The announcement was made in a circular letter to all departments.

In brief, the company's policy as set out in the bulletin provides that any employe who has been with the company for more than a year and who enlists or is called into active military or naval service will be granted a special leave of absence from the company for one year and 40 days.

During the first 90 days, the employe will receive the difference between his military pay and his civilian pay, and is allowed to retain his interest in the company's annuity and thrift plan. The employe in active service is allowed to continue his participation in the company's group insurance plan for the year of service plus the 40-day leave which is allowed for the employe's reentry into the service of the company after military training.

THE HOBBY CLUB

AN interesting and unusual group is the Seminole Hobby club which was organized last April after Mrs. A. L. Duff gave a "hobby" party just to remember some friends who had hobbies. During their first series of meetings, each hostess gave her guests a gift for their collections.

The club membership so far is restricted to eleven women and they are planning some charity along with their entertainments. They will have a booth at the county fair in April and soon will draw names for their Christmas party.

The president, Mrs. Duff, collects china cream pitchers. Last summer when she took a trip in the Southern states she bought ten pitchers, one from each state through which she passed.

Mrs. F. D. Stark, treasurer, collects after dinner coffee spoons; Mesdames C. C. Cothes, Ina Heath and A. J. Roach, vases; Mrs. C. E. Rollins, Mrs. B. B. Curry, salt and pepper shakers; Mesdames A. J. Dow, M. S. Doss and W. A. Cox, after dinner coffee spoons, and Mrs. Bill Munnerlyn, clever clippings. (Bet she doesn't have any from the Woman's Angle!)

Wednesday afternoon the women came over to visit with Mrs. A. B. Cunningham who is interested in old glass, silver and antiques.

IN THE MAIL

MRS. ANNIE L. BUCK of Plainview, former Crosbyton resident, has been touring the United States and visited in Canada and Old Mexico since leaving Texas in 1935, and spent some time with a son and daughter in Philadelphia and Boston.

She writes: "Now that I am back on Texas soil I hardly realize how much I have been permitted to see and hear during the past several years. It has really been worth more to me than a university course of so many years, for travel and actually seeing the wonders of our great United States of America have given me a broader vision than books can ever do.

"Many times I have stood spellbound before such scenes as Niagara or Yosemite falls; long stretches of rock-bound coast of New England or the seal rocks with their hundreds of occupants brought to shore by the rough waters of the Pacific coast.

"I've never enjoyed traveling over any highway more than the wonderful Redwood highway lying between the states of Oregon and Washington or the old Boston Post road.

"Many are the museums, library shrines, great buildings and monuments as well as mountain peaks and beautiful valleys, all these and much more will furnish food for thought in the years to come.

"How I do love to recall all these things—forgetting sorrows."

Annie Dodson Buck.

DEAR MRS. BUCK: Thank you for writing this beautiful letter. We are sure you are correct in saying that travel is as broadening as anything one can undertake. Don't you wish our plains had some of the beauty you have seen in these past years? Write again, please.

JOHN SAM LEWIS, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sam Lewis, 2001 Avenue R, won second in the children's poetry division at the Tri-State fair in Amarillo. He competed in the 10-14 year olds since he is 10 years old. John Sam won first place in a poetry contest at the fair last year.

JUST SUPPOSE

MUCH is being said this fall about the "sensible way in which women have turned masculine garbs to their own ends," but suppose the males adopted feminine fashions. What then?

In that event would we read such startling announcements as "A stand-in for the male shirt this fall is a turtle neck sweater which is available in pastels and rich shades for the new suits which will enhance the sparkle in the young man's eye no doubt." Or, "borrowing the idea from the feminine world, an ensemble created for 'him' this year in characterized by two spanking new ideas. Sleeves are important with full, flowing lines and fastening of a shirt and tie with gold chains pulled through eyelets of gold." Or "When he places bets at the races perhaps the money will be placed in a handy pocket-purse in navy dyed frogskin buttoned over the belt of his navy suit and matched in frogskin oxfords."

For all we know this may come to pass. The men may even go so far as to wear small jaunty hats that definitely tilt, if they don't teeter.

Farmers of Japan are protesting that they are denying themselves to help win the war while people in the cities are living high on wartime profits.

There Are Two Ways to Get at Constipation

Yes, and only two ways—before and after it happens! Instead of enduring those dull, tired, headachy days and then having to take an emergency cathartic—why not KEEP regular with Kellogg's All-Bran? You can, if your constipation is the kind millions have—due to lack of "bulk" in the diet. For All-Bran goes right to the cause of this trouble by supplying the "bulk" you need.

Eat this toasted, nutritious cereal regularly—with milk or cream, or baked into muffins—drink plenty of water, and see if your life isn't a whole lot brighter! Made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. If your condition is chronic, it is wise to consult a physician.

Parent-Teacher Association Meetings Are Held On Thursday

Guest Speakers Present Talks

The Parent-Teacher associations of the two newest schools in Lubbock, Roscoe Wilson and George R. Bean, met Thursday afternoon for the first programs this school year.

Approximately 93 parents and teachers attended the meeting at the Roscoe Wilson school at 3 o'clock. Mrs. L. D. Thomas presided.

Miss Ruth Dupree played a piano solo.

Tech Professor Talks

Dr. R. A. Studhalter of the faculty at Texas Technological college talked on "A Hobby for the Whole Family." His subject was nature and how it could be a hobby. Dr. Studhalter is head of the biology department at the college.

Miss Dupree's room was awarded the prize for having the largest number of parents present.

Safety Is Topic

Mrs. Russell Hardin presided for a meeting of the George R. Bean P-TA and introduced Capt. W. W. Legge, officer in charge of the Lubbock division of the Texas Highway Patrol, who in turn introduced Capt. George Schauer of the safety division of the Department of Public Safety at Austin.

Capt. Shauer talked on the relationship of the home to safety.

The group sang "God Bless America." Approximately 35 persons attended.

October 18 the association has planned a novel program. The parents are to be invited to "attend school" that night and will go to the rooms where their children are pupils.

Kongenial Kard Klub Has Dinner Meeting

Kongenial Kard Klub met with Miss Robert Raybon Wednesday night at Hotel Lubbock. Dinner was served prior to the game in which Miss Artie Galloway, a guest, scored high and Mrs. Morris Casey scored low.

Mrs. Marvin Stone and Miss Evelyn Raybon were other special guests. Other members attending were Mesdames Pauline Blagg, A. A. Sparkman, W. M. Cauley, R. L. Stovall, Harry Bennett, J. L. Downs and Miss Ruth Barnard.

October Meeting Will Be With Mrs. Barham

The Double Six Forty-Two club met with Mrs. Brooke P. Stephens, 1713 Main street, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. L. R. Rampy was a guest. The next meeting will be the third Thursday in October with Mrs. J. J. Barham.

Those attending were Mesdames C. W. Byers, Ben Noell, Mark Day, Mary L. Gardner, J. E. George, Roscoe Webster, Barham, H. W. Cherry, Ralph Moore, J. G. Oslin.

Book Club Attends Lecture Wednesday

The Book-of-the-Month club met with Mrs. Parker P. Prouty, 3019 Twenty-first street, Wednesday afternoon for a talk on world affairs given by H. C. Pender, acting head of the Tech government department. Mrs. Sam H. Reid was assistant hostess.

Miss Lula Mae Cravens discussed fall publications.

Attending were Mesdames A. T. Biggers, D. K. Bondurant, S. S. McKay, Ralph Trolinger, George Gray, Ray Mowery, W. L. Stangel and F. C. Benham.

Book committee in the club is made up of Mesdames S. B. Haynes, C. M. Ballenger and Trolinger. Mesdames Prouty and Bondurant are members of the program committee and Mesdames George Smallwood, Stangel and Don Mitchell are on the membership committee.

Gail Northe Lecture Open To The Public

The fashion lecture to be given by Gail Northe at the Palace theater Monday morning at 10 o'clock is open to the public and women of surrounding towns are urged to attend. Mrs. H. F. Godeke has announced that tickets may be secured at the door for 20 cents.

Proceeds are to go to the local chapter of the Red Cross.

Rush Week Parties Are Held Thursday

Rush week for girls clubs at Tech will continue through Saturday. The Sans Souci and Las Chaparritas clubs entertained Thursday evening.

A formal gold and white dinner which is a tradition with the Sans Souci club was given Thursday night from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock at Hilton hotel.

Candlelight Is Used

The long table was placed the length of the ballroom with the officers table at one end and another smaller table at the other end. The huge centerpiece of white fruit and gold leaves started at the officers table and decorated the full length of the main table and the smaller one. Crystal holders with white candles were placed at intervals along the centerpiece with five candles at either end of the head table and tiered candelabra at the other table.

Placecards were white with the Sans Souci gold crest on them. The plates were outlined with gold sycamore leaves.

Jack York and his orchestra played.

Sponsors, Miss Jonnie McCrery and Mrs. Edna Lyles, 22 members and 55 rushees attended.

Hobo Party Given

A hobo party was given by Las Chaparritas club at the home of Mrs. H. H. Van Aken, 1902 Thirty-second street, Thursday night. Supper was served in knap sacks of checked gingham from tables covered with gaily checked cloths.

Jack York's orchestra played.

Thirty members and 65 rushees attended.

Joe Will Triplitt Is Named Club President

Joe Will Triplitt of Lubbock was elected president of the Centaur club at a meeting Wednesday night at 2406 Broadway. Other officers elected were vice-president, Andrew McIntosh of Borger; secretary, Jimmy Allen of Hale Center and historian, Lee Perry of San Antonio.

Why sneeze?—Try New "Anti-Sneeze" Rinso

98% free of the "soap-dust" that causes sneezing

There's up to a quarter pound of irritating "soap-dust" in many other widely used package soaps

What 98% free of "soap-dust" means to YOU!

It means no cloud of "soap-dust" to make you sneeze....It means you won't be bothered by those messy scum-forming lumps of "soap-dust" in the wash-water.... It means longer-lasting suds.... It helps prevent "washday hay-fever".

New Rinso goes so much farther than the old it's like getting free soap every 5th washday

- It's the marvelous "suds-booster" in the New "Anti-Sneeze" Rinso that makes it give richer, longer-lasting suds—in double-quick time. In tub washing, Rinso's active suds SOAK clothes up to 10 shades whiter often in as little as 10 minutes. Yet Rinso is safe for overnight soaking of your finest cottons—linens, white or colors.

The New "Anti-Sneeze" Rinso is officially recommended by the makers of 33 leading washers. Marvelous for dishes and all cleaning. Grease loosens quickly. Silver and glassware come sparkling clean. Economical, too! Rinso costs less than 1¢ a day for dishwashing! And the New Rinso is so easy on hands. Try it today!

Cotton Committee To Meet At Hillsboro Saturday; Clifford Jones To Attend

Burris C. Jackson, Postmaster, And Others Will Give Barbecue

HILLSBORO, Sept. 19—Saturday is Hillsboro's big day for 1940. Week-end capital of Texas will be this busy and homey little city located in the pulsing heart of the black land cotton belt. Once a year Hillsboro claims the distinction, occasion being the annual gathering of the State-Wide Cotton committee of Texas, followed by the barbecue given by Burris C. Jackson, Hillsboro postmaster and cotton man, and a group of his townsmen. The party honors five citizens of Texas who have, in the past year, performed conspicuously faithful and valuable service to the state.

Co-hosts with Jackson are R. C. West, H. E. Chilos, W. W. Siddons, Fred O. Grimes, Pat E. Hooks and S. V. Vaughan, jr., all business men of Hillsboro, and Clay Bedell, chairman of the county Democratic committee. And this year's quintet of Texans to wear the accolade are:

Dr. N. D. Buie, Marlin, president-elect of the State Medical association of Texas; E. M. (Ted) Dealey, president, the Dallas Morning News; Dr. Clifford B. Jones, Lubbock, president of Texas Technological college; E. L. Kurth, Lufkin, president of Southland Paper Mills; and Col. William C. Torrence, Waco, commander 143rd infantry, Texas National Guard.

Coming School

Jackson is chairman of the State-Wide Cotton committee of Texas. The day's events for that organization will start, not in Hillsboro but in Fort Worth, at 8:45 Saturday morning, with a radio address on station KGKO. Speaker will be D. A. Bandeen, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. He will discuss the government's allotment formula for the cotton belt — Texas included—under the Agricultural Adjustment administration. Bandeen's subject has been announced as "Conscription in the Kingdom of Cotton."

The State-Wide Cotton committee gathering in Hillsboro will start at noon and be adjourned in time for the annual barbecue honoring the five Texans. That party will be given at Hillsboro's Frazier field, starting at 6:30 p. m. Saturday following a reception at the Newcomb hotel. In event of rain the dinner will be served in Doughty hall, a large gymnasium adjoining the field. Admission will be by card. In his letters of invitation to West Texans invited to the barbecue, Jackson said. "Texas Tech is one of coming institutions of the country. Its president, Clifford Jones, is a great educator, a great business man, and a great American."

Namsos Was A Picnic, Says Veteran AP Correspondent

(EDITOR'S NOTE: J. Norman Lodge of New York, World war veteran and Associated Press staffman who covered the German invasion of Norway, retreating on a British cruiser from Namsos under heavy fire, has just arrived in London from Dublin. Here are his first reactions.)

By J. NORMAN LODGE
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Sept. 19. — Namsos was a picnic!

I was greeted upon my return from Dublin when my hotel was smacked by a big "Goering grenade."

Peacefully sleeping the sleep of the just, I was awakened by a terrific crash. A gust of wind smelling to high heaven of illuminating gas almost blew me out of bed.

Suddenly all the glass in the huge French windows showered upon me. A strong inward rush of wind was followed by one outward. My hat went whirling out into a west end street.

Hardly three minutes elapsed when a second detonation shook the very foundations and I went out of bed.

Eventually calm returned and I finished a fitful sleep, trying to realize I was no longer in peaceful Dublin.

Today I spent several hours trying to get into the hotel to check out.

The lobby was wrecked. The huge stairway leading into the lobby was gone. All of one side of the building, which occupies an entire city block, was windowless.

'Twas a fine way to greet a man. Somehow I seem to have lost my sense of humor.

After Namsos I thought anything would be an anti-climax. I wish I was back in that 'peaceful' city of huge fjords where there are enormous fields in which to make oneself a small target.

Tonight I'm trying a new hotel. I hope Goering hasn't its number because this time I'm one floor nearer the roof and the room might be cold without windows.

Monroe Club Party Is Held At School House

The Monroe Home Demonstration club members entertained their families, the school faculty and their families with a picnic supper Wednesday night on the lawn at the school building.

Games were played and a supper was served with lemonade, ice cream and cake. Those attending were Messrs and Mesdames John Harrell, E. J. Exum, D. A. Atkins, Erby Norman, Elmer Edwards, West Boyd, W. H. Emery, Robert Meyers, R. B. Kinard, E. W. Smith, W. O. Fortenberry, E. J. Abney, A. L. Faubion and family, V. A. Cross, J. B. Johnson, R. E. Horsley, C. R. Dearmond, C. E. Batton, R. P. Swofford, L. E. Settle, R. G. Billingsley, Leo Meier; Nora Potter, Montez Snider, Miss Lucille Cox, Miss Etta Robinson and a Mr. Cavaness.

District Scout Group Meets At Littlefield

LITTLEFIELD, Sept. 19. (Special) —Rev. William Orr of Littlefield, district chairman, presided tonight at the northwest district Boy Scout committee meeting in the Methodist church here.

Reports were made by Reed Markham of Sudan, district finance chairman, J. E. Chisholm of Littlefield, Floyd Hemphill of Littlefield and Joe Salem of Sudan.

Acceptance of the district's share of the 1941 council budget, participation in the council camporall at Lubbock Oct. 4-5, a November training school for Littlefield, and a 15 per cent membership increase since Jan. 1 were announced.

Others attending were Sam A. Henry, council field commissioner, Jack O. Stone, council executive, J. C. Grimes, field executive, J. H. Sharpe and J. H. Ware.

CLUMSY CAT

HUNTINGTON, Ind., (AP) — The popular belief that cats always land on their feet when they fall was disproved here when firemen were called to rescue a clumsy cat marooned in a tree. As one of the firemen reached for the animal, the cat, sadly lacking in "feline grace," jumped to the ground, landing flat on its side.

Dust Bowl Farmer Tells Of Bitter Struggle Against Climate And Low Prices

Oklahoma City Hearing Starts

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 19. (AP)—A dust Bowl farmer, first drouth victim to testify today before the congressional committee studying interstate migration, climaxed his story of a bitter struggle against climate and market with an assertion "even hell would be all right if it had a little water."

James W. Daniels of Clinton, Okla., father of ten children who homesteaded a 640 acre farm in Cimarron county in 1906, said he was content until World war years to raise cattle, corn, and grain sorghums.

Abandoned Stock

Then high wheat prices led him to plow under the rich buffalo grass which had anchored the soil in the wind swept area.

When prices dropped, Daniel said he planted more and more wheat to keep up his income. Abandoned his horses and mules in 1929 he purchased a tractor and tried large scale mechanical farming.

Successive years of drouth and crop failure sent him further into debt, and this spring he was forced to abandon his farm.

He moved 20 miles away to 200 acres on the bottom land of the Cimarron river, where he told his interrogator Congressman Claude V. Parsons of Illinois he hoped to "make a go of it."

"Worse Than They Wuz"

Daniels said a "lot of his neighbors" had "gone to California and come back worse off than they wuz."

First witness was Edwin R. Henson, coordinator of the Southern Great Plains states for the department of agriculture.

He asserted that agriculture needed a better balance between livestock, grass land, and crops.

To take up the slack in employment in the Great Plains states Henson, a native of Beaver, Okla., suggested location in the area of "heavy industries connected with agriculture and oil."

Here To Stay

J. H. Youngblood, farm manager for a Waco, Tex., bank, which foreclosed on a number of farms, asserted that "mechanized farming is here to stay."

"The trouble is that there were too many people to support on small farms and wrong use of the land," he testified.

"The small farm will be resettled if they are used to support individual families.

"It is possible for single farm families to make a living if they adopt a program of raising chickens, dairy cows, and gardens."

McKinley Criticizes

Robert M. McKinley, Austin, farm placement supervisor of the Texas employment service, criticized recruiting of Mexican labor in Texas for the Michigan beet fields.

He said the Mexicans were transported 30 to 45 persons to a truck on nonstop trips of 36 to 48 hours, commenting:

"Interstate Commerce laws compel the railroads to stop trains every 36 hours and allow livestock to rest and be watered."

He said employment workers for Michigan beet growers "drive around the countryside and round up thousands of workers. Then they have them examined for three things (veneral disease, tuberculosis and heart disease). They take the strongest, leaving our landowners only the weak and sickly."

To Take Over Job

J. H. Bond, assistant director of the Texas State employment service, made similar charges, concluding his testimony with:

"Let Michigan hire their own people and we will take care of ours."

Bond told the committee that approximately 85 percent of Texas migratory workers are of Mexican descent.

He suggested enactment of federal legislation to prohibit private employers "shooting people over state lines" to poor paying jobs or jobs under poor working conditions.

His statement brought from Chairman Tolan the assertion:

"We are going to address ourselves to that job."

Government police working on Fifth Column activities in Argentina discovered a miniature arsenal in the German colony at Cerro Azul.

LUBBOCK KIWANIANS BETTER GOLFERS—Pampa Kiwanis club members came down Thursday for a friendly visit with the Lubbock club and brought along a bunch of golfers for a contest but met defeat at the hands of Lubbock's crew, 4 to 1. The photos above show the two teams. To the left is Lubbock's and its players are, left to right: Lonnie Langston, Olen Stewart, George Brewer, Paul Newman, Knox Thomas and Preston Smith. Pampa's team, shown on the right, left to right: John Wilkinson, Jeff Bearden, Ernie Voss, W. B. Weathered, Garnet Reeves and Dan McGrew. Stewart and Reeves did not play in the matches. Results were: Brewer won over Wilkinson, 5 and 4; Newman over Weathered, 3 and 2; Langston over McGrew, 2 up; Thomas over Bearden, 2 and 1 and Smith lost to Voss, 5 and 4. W. G. McMillan, operator of Meadowbrook Golf course, was host to the players for the matches. Above photos are also by McMillan.

Unknown Democratic Choice In Massachusetts Appears

BOSTON, Sept. 19. (AP)—The "unknown" Democratic nominee for state auditor of Massachusetts re-appeared in Boston today for the first time since Tuesday's primaries to brush away the "mystery" surrounding his identity.

Until then, party leaders knew him only by name—Thomas J. Buckley, a dark horse who defeated three better-known rivals for the nomination by an overwhelming margin.

Most of the Democratic chiefs admitted they had never met him, but they knew he was not Thomas H. Buckley, heavy vote-getting former state auditor, now assistant collector of internal revenue, who was not a candidate.

Dark-horse Buckley helped them out upon his return from a "rest" by describing himself as a 45-year-old bachelor and Boston native employed as an accountant in a Boston company.

Although he never before ran for office, made no radio speeches, distributed little, if any, campaign literature and spoke at few rallies, he polled 155,216 votes—more than 100,000 better than his nearest opponent.

Doba Ignacia de Oca de Casas, who celebrated her 105th birthday with her daughter, aged 74, at La Plata, Argentina, was the mother of 18 children.

TOWNSEND SPEAKS

OLEAN, N. Y., Sept. 19. (AP)—Dr. Francis E. Townsend, leader of the old age pension movement that bears his name, said in an address last night that "if we don't want a dictator in the United States, let's not have one in a tempting position."

At a religious festival at Kag, India, 200 Jodpur Boy Scouts manned First Aid posts, cared for lost children, managed water booths and directed traffic.

Pampa Kiwanis Members Here

Several members of Pampa Kiwanis club remained in Lubbock Thursday night after conducting a program on the Lubbock Kiwanian luncheon meeting at noon in Lubbock hotel.

Those remaining here of the 16 attending the luncheon will go to Plainview today to attend the noon luncheon of the club there.

The Pampans are gathering support in the campaign of the fellow club member, Fred Thompson, for the district governorship of the Texas-Oklahoma district, election of whom will be made at the district convention in Oklahoma City Oct. 6-8.

Superintendent Presides

W. B. Weathered, Gray county school superintendent, presided at the luncheon program staged by the visitors. He was introduced by Dude Buster, chairman of the Lubbock club's inter-city committee.

Arthur Nelson entertained with vibraharp selections after which Tex De Weese, editor of the Pampa News, made a short talk on Constitution, citing the dangers facing the Constitution and American ideals of personal liberty and freedom today.

"The last democracy in Europe is fighting with its back to the wall today," De Weese declared, "and America is facing a great danger, our Constitution, the Bill of Rights and our ideas of liberty and freedom are in danger."

He cited a recent article in PM, new New York newspaper, which predicted the bombing of the Hercules Powder plant in New Jersey two weeks ahead of time as an example of the determination of the Nazis to undermine American institutions, morale and ideals.

"You think it can't happen here," De Weese said . . . "Well it is happening here . . . Just the same as it happened to those countries over there who thought it couldn't happen to them . . . It behooves every American citizen, every Kiwanian to do all in his power to see that America retains its libery and freedom . . . I'll tell you like Martin Dies told them in Amarillo not very long ago, 'Too many people in this country today think they have had their liberty and freedom so long that nothing can happen to it'; but it can."

De Weese praised the work of Dies in his investigation of Un-American activities and declared his efforts were rapidly becoming recognized over the nation.

De Weese also told of plans of the Pampa club for the election of Thompson to the Kiwanis post and asked support from the Lubbock delegates.

Others attending from Pampa were: C. E. (Dan) McGrew, Thompson, Jeff Bearden, Ernie Voss, Alvin Bell, Greely Warner, Joe Gordon, John Wilkinson, M. P. Downs, Guy E. McTaggart, W. F. Dean and Garnet Reeves, former member of the staff of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

Jesse Jones Sworn In To New Position

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. (AP)—Jesse Jones, who said he wasn't very much excited about the job, became secretary of commerce today.

He was sworn in by Stanley Reed, associate justice of the supreme court, in the presence of President Roosevelt.

North Texas' Judges Meet

GREENVILLE, Sept. 19. (U.P.)—County judges and commissioners of 80 North Texas counties met in Greenville today for a three-day annual convention.

Judge Wesley Dice of Bell county president of the North Texas County Judges and Commissioners association, will preside over the 300 delegates.

The convention program scheduled addresses by Manton Hanna of McLennan county, Judge Reagan Huffman, of Harrison county, Judge O. C. Mulkey of Hunt county, Judge C. C. Randle of Ellis county, Homer T. Bouldin, president of the State County Judges and Commissioners association, Judge Marshall Formby of West Texas association, A. E. Lacy of the East Texas association, Judge R. L. Davis of the South Texas association, J. S. Allen of Dallas, John Damron of Hunt county and Judge O. L. Couch of Fannin county.

German Press Threatens British Empire With "Whole Catalogue Of Terror"

Wars On New Fronts Hinted

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Sept. 19.—The journalistic voice of official Germany threatened England and her civilians today with a whole catalogue of terror and declared that, in a Rome conference, the Axis was assembling its full power "for the last round battle against Britain."

The press, in which there appeared hints that the war might go on through the winter, opened up in angry chorus against British bombing attacks on Germany, and the Nazi high command officially accused British pilots of having killed nine children and wounded 12 in raids on plainly marked hospitals in Prussia.

Retaliation Demanded

Der Angriff, the organ of Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels, demanded retaliation a thousand-fold; Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung thundered: "the scoring of accounts will be terrible."

"Hereafter," declared the newspaper Nachtausgabe, "not the slightest consideration need be taken" for British civilians.

Authorized German spokesmen said that "tangible acts" would follow the Rome discussions between German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop and Premier Mussolini.

These "acts," it was indicated in various quarters, would be against "vulnerable" points in the British empire; the notion generally conveyed was that the war was going to open up in scope as well as in time.

The high command indicating that its air force was still following an old pattern, reported successful attacks on the Tilbury docks, British shipyards at Chatham; oil tanks at the London Victoria docks, and the firing of several ships, Liverpool port, the Newcastle docks and a series of other objectives of military importance.

by a western party at Shady Oak farm, home of Amon G. Carter, publisher of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, screening of the film at three theaters, and a movie ball.

The Hollywood delegation motors to Dallas for further celebration and screening of the film. For Chill Wills, native of Seagoville (near Dallas), and member of the cast, the visit will be in the nature of a homecoming.

William Wyler, director, and Mrs. Wyler (Margaret Tallichet) flew from New York with others to join the Hollywood party.

Calling Of Troops

cian, Major General James C. Magee, army surgeon general, and Dr. Thomas Parran, head of the public health service.

McIntire said problems for the committee would be mustering 16,000 physicians to examine men called under the draft act, and seeing that military needs for medical help were filled without upsetting the "civilian side" of medical care.

At the Capitol, meanwhile, two committees were busy with problems arising from conscription.

Home Guard Okayed

Rep. Patman (D-Tex), appearing before the House military committee said that the draft act had already had the effect of "freezing" credit and retarding sales of installment houses. He urged that a pending bill to extend certain debt relief to men who are drafted include a provision permitting installment firms to set up a government-supervised insurance fund to protect them against losses due to the draft.

The Senate Military committee approved a bill giving the states broad authority to establish home defense units, or home guards, to meet emergencies usually attended to by the militia.

A similar bill was approved by the House military committee.

Japanese Demands

but the negotiations are continuing."

No Explanation

The statement offered no explanation of the new demands, but informed sources declared the Japanese suddenly had shifted the emphasis in the negotiations from their desire to move troops and supplies through the colony to a request for bases which could have little connection with the Japanese army's China campaign.

Meanwhile, 160 Japanese nationals from all points in northern Indo-China gathered at Hanoi and Haiphong awaiting a Japanese order to leave the colony.

Earlier in the day Japan announced her determination to withdraw civilian nationals and consular representatives from the colony to lessen the danger of "unfortunate incidents" when her troops march in to take up "limited military facilities."

Developments In Africa Probable, Writer Says

By J. W. T. MASON
United Press War Expert

Developments in North Africa rather than plans to attack Gibraltar seem the more probable reason for discussions which Serrano Suner, Spanish minister of the interior, has opened with German and Italian leaders. Spain's formal entrance into the war is not to be expected, but Germany and Italy might well desire Spanish forces in North Africa to restrain any revolt against the Vichy government by French North African colonials.

Negotiations along this line probably are now under way, with Senor Suner bargaining for territorial payment to Spain if North African Spanish help is needed. News of growing insurgency among French North Africans is increasing, with Spain being the point of origin of the reports. The disturbances are spreading from Moroccan to Algerian cities as the German air attacks against Great Britain fail to show annihilating effect.

Neither In Position

It would be disturbing to Germany and Italy if a major French colonial uprising were to occur in North Africa. Properly organized, such a movement could constitute a serious threat from Algeria into Libya, compromising the rear of Marshal Graziani's offensive into Egypt.

Neither Germany nor Italy is in a position to transport troops to Morocco while the British Mediterranean fleet retains its power. Graziani could move an army backward into Alegria from Libya and so to Morocco, but such a maneuver would be difficult and would surely interrupt his Egyptian campaign plans.

Spain, however, has a considerable force in North Africa, well equipped and trained in local combat conditions. The French are disorganized for the present and it would require time for any pro-British French colonial force to prepare for military action, especially since the French colonials are divided in their opinions.

Must Be Considered

With this condition prevailing, the Spanish North Africans might well be able to halt reorganization of French combat units seeking to aid Britain. If Spain were commissioned by Germany and Italy to take this step, it could be interpreted as non-belligerent action, since it would not involve hostilities against the formally constituted French government. It might fall within the category of police measures to prevent rioting in territories bordering Spanish possessions, beyond the power of the local authorities to suppress.

General Weygand has been ordered to go to North Africa by the Petain government to stem the growth of revolt. If he undertakes the mission and can rely on Spanish assistance, his authority might be increased. There is the uncertainty, however, that Spanish intervention might have the opposite effect of uniting the colonial Frenchmen against Spain and so against Germany and Italy. This possible development must be given consideration in Berlin, Rome, and Vichy.

Judge May Have Set Precedent

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 19. (U.P.) Federal court attaches said today that a national precedent may have been set by Judge Claude McColoch in refusing to grant a habeas corpus petition filed by Willapa, Wash., postmaster in an effort to gain the release of his son from the Oregon National Guard.

Counsel for Samuel B. Huntting, 218th field artillery captain and defendant in the action, said that the ruling may affect hundreds of "out-of-state" college students throughout the country who enlisted in the guard where they attended school rather than in their home states.

The petition for habeas corpus was filed by Jacob H. Owens whose son, Robert, 19, joined the guard while a student at Portland university. The defense contended that Robert was enlisted illegally because he was a minor and a resident of Washington, not Oregon.

Judge McColloch held that no formal residential status was required for enlistment. He said presence in the state for a "substantial length of time" was sufficient. He held also that there were no age provisions in the Oregon code.

Three To Be Probed On Ring Connection

CHICAGO, Sept. 19. (U.P.) — Two women and a man, arrested today for the illegal sale of narcotics, will be questioned for possible connection with the nationwide Green Diamond narcotics ring, U. S. Assistant District Attorney Mary D. Bailey said.

The prisoners are Clifford Goodman, 37; Gloria McGrew, 40, known as "Babe Novak" and Leona White, 22. All gave Chicago addresses.

Miss Bailey said the three will be questioned in regard to shipments of heroin to Houston and Dallas, Texas, districts in which Green Diamond gang operations recently have been reported.

Phil Chadwick, alleged gang leader, recently was sentenced to jail in Dallas.

Compromises In Suits Hinted

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. (U.P.) — Justice department attorneys today considered the possibility of compromising issues raised by the National Defense commission relative to the projected anti-trust suit against 22 major oil companies.

The commission said in an opinion requested by Attorney General Robert H. Jackson that any legal action as broad as that proposed in the suit would have a tendency to "becloud relationships between the government and industry" and hinder the defense program.

It said it was not suggesting that the action be abandoned because the decision lies with Jackson. The attorney general was in New York today and no immediate decision was expected.

Informed sources indicated that a compromise might involve stripping the action of proposals to force the oil companies to divest themselves of their transportation and marketing facilities. If this were done, only charges of alleged arbitrary price-fixing and artificial restrictions on supply would remain.

The commission held that the existing structure in the petroleum industry was "well adapted to the defense program," adding that the disintegration proposed might entail "a loss of technical management" of the industry.

exemption of $8,000.

Only one Republican — Senator Townsend of Delaware—voted for the bill on final passage. Five Democrats — Bilbo of Mississippi, Clark of Missouri, Downey of California, Hill of Alabama and Holt of West Virginia—opposed it.

There was no roll call vote on Connally's war profits amendment. It was adopted by the Senate earlier this year and rejected in conference with the House. Chairman Harrison (D-Miss) said he would accept the amendment and "fight diligently" for it in conference but added that he didn't "know whether I can persuade the House conferees or not."

the Rome conference.

Italy already is launched in an offensive in Egypt toward the Suez canal, one key in Britain's hold on the Mediterranean.

United States trends since the trade of 50 American destroyers for British western hemisphere bases also were considered by observers as involved in the talks—which may prove a pivot in the war's next turn.

During this daylight action there was an undetermined number of cilivian casualties but it was declared that nothing of military importance was hit.

A total of five German planes was destroyed during the day over England, the ministry said.

As the night assault began the streets were empty; the people were no longer interested in watching what now has become a routine horror, returning every evening with the darkness.

Thousands In Stations

An official of the new United States embassy in Grosvenor square, Mayfair, stood on its roof and heard the mighty bursts of the bombs and ground guns.

The city's ten million front-liners in this hottest sector of a war from the skies rushed again to shelter.

Thousands stood in defiant queues in the subway stations, despite the official warning that they must not thus choke the transit facilities.

Willkie's Program

federal, state, and local governments. The effects of taxation upon the individual and upon the nation must be analyzed together with the cost and complexity of administering various types of taxes.

Andersons Problems

Toward the end of his address, the Republican presidential nominee said he claimed to understand some of labor's problems because he had been a business man by training.

"Labor is entitled to the protection of progressive labor legislation," Willkie declared, "such as the wage and hour law and the national industrial labor relations act."

Willkie, who received a noisy reception on his arrival here this afternoon, declared that labor laws "must be administered in the interest of the whole nation."

"Their purpose is to reduce industrial strife, not foment it," he continued, adding:

America Is Young

"The proper function of our government is to police the activities of its people so that they do not injure each other or encroach upon each other's rights. It is in this spirit that government should stand with relation to workers and employers, not as opponents of either party, but as a friend to both."

The candidate said that labor, along with business and government, must remember "that we in America are young."

"Unlimited capacity for growth lies ahead of us," he added. " . . . We are not old enough to have an indispensable manor—or an indispensable law—or an indispensable theory of economics."

Saying that the American system is a dynamic one, the nominee continued:

Can't Stand Still

"We cannot stand still behind the guns of our battleships. In order to be strong we must grow. . . .

"Democracy can persist only so long as its people are busy. . . . I therefore propose to put an end to this industrial stagnation. I propose to establish in this country the only kind of life that you and I understand—a life of good, honest work and good, honest reward.

RAF Bombardment

alongside the quay was burning fiercely.

"A 7,000 ton ship about a mile north of Honfleur—some 7 miles from Le Havre—also was well alight."

The RAF's heaviest bombers were sent against Le Havre, in relay after relay.

Other ports were raided from Cherbourg, France to Flushing, the Netherlands, including Dieppe, Boulogne, Calais, Dunkerque, Zeebrugge, Ostend and Antwerp.

The pilots who bombed Calais said they left a long line of fires.

Cadet And Reserve Officer Are Killed

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 19. (AP)—A flying cadet and a reserve officer lost their lives today as a training ship from the southeast air base crashed and burned near Prattville, Ala., 14 miles from Montgomery.

The dead:

Second Lieutenant Pleasant G. Keith, jr., air reserves, whose home was Flat River, Mo., and Cadet Daniel W. Lowery, 21, of Ellicottville, N. Y.

Ban On Portion Of Movie Is Upheld

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19. (AP)—Pennsylvania board of censors after a day-long conference, refused today to lift the ban on a portion of the motion picture, "The Ramparts We Watch."

The films distributors announced they would adhere to the board's decision, pending further advice by counsel.

The board announced yesterday it had barred the showing of that portion of the film made up of reels from the German picture "Baptism of Fire" because it was a "part of the propaganda being disseminated by Germany."

No Delays In Suits Urged

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. (AP) — Senator Gillette (D-Iowa) wrote Attorney General Jackson today urging that there be "no further delay" in filing an anti-trust suit to divorce the producing and marketing activities of 22 major oil companies.

The National Defense commission, however, holds the opinion that certain parts of the preparedness program would be hampered or delayed if the action was pursued. The views were set forth in a report the commission submitted to Jackson after a study of the proposed legal proceedings.

Opinion Differs

Gillette's opinion differed from the commission's. He said he believed any possibility of interference with defense needs had been eliminated by a change in the petition to be filed, should the government initiate the suit.

He said Thurman Arnold, assistant general in charge of the anti-trust division, had informed him that the government would ask the court to consider "all relevant testimony" as to the effect of possible court orders on the problem of national defense "to the end that no combination necessary for national defense be improvidently held to be illegal."

Dallas Negotiates For Motor Factory

DALLAS, Sept. 19. (U.P.) — Dallas Chamber of Commerce officials today said they had been negotiating with the Wright Aeronautical corporation for the establishment of an airplane motor factory here.

They cautioned, however, that "it would be premature to think any definite decision had been reached yet."

Ben Critz, general manager of the chamber, said that a "planned, coordinated campaign, had been carried out since the intensified national defense program was launched last May in an effort to secure for Dallas new units of the aviation industry.

Rev. Vernon Shaw Is Named Moderator

CROSBYTON, Sept. 19 (Special) Rev. Vernon Shaw of Floydada was named moderator of the Floyd County Missionary Baptist association at conclusion of its 24th annual meeting here yesterday.

Approximately 500 pastors and members of the 21-county association attended the two-day meeting. Matador was awarded the 1941 conference, to be conducted Sept. 16-17.

Other officers elected were: Rev. W. M. Joslin of Matador, vice moderator; Rev. W. R. Derr of Ralls, clerk; R. E. Campbell of Matador, Sunday school superintendent; L. A. Claybourne of Sterley, B. T. U. director; George Owens of Quitaque, brotherhood president; Mrs. G. A. Lider of Floydada, W. M. U. president; and Arch B. Muncy of Lockney, treasurer.

Mr. Shaw, Mr. Derr and Muncy were elected to compose the district board.

Settlement Of Oil Cases Seen

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 19. (U.P.)—Early settlement of the government's dispute with a second foreign oil company whose properties were expropriated on March 18, 1938, has been hinted by President Lazaro Cardenas.

The Sinclair oil interests last spring settled expropriation differences, the first of 17 American, British and Dutch concerns to do so.

The president's hint was contained in a statement to the Mexican press. It was generally believed he referred to the Cities Service oil company or Sam Katz's.

Such a settlement would be relatively unimportant, however, since the recent government evaluation of the seized properties placed Cities Service non-taxable holdings at less than 2,000,000 pesos ($400,000) and Katz's at considerable less.

The president's statement was issued simultaneously with a report that major companies involved in the expropriation had instituted a last-minute court action in an effort to block application of the government's evaluation, recently announced by Judge Ponciano Hernandez of the first district court as 178,040,149 pesos ($25,608,029) for all non-taxable properties. The evaluation, which was reached after a study of the expropriated holdings by government and company avaluators, was less than one-tenth the value placed on the properties by their former owners.

Preparedness Said To Be Only On Paper

BOSTON, Sept. 19. (AP) — The chairman of the American Legion's national defense committee asserted today that "America thus far has preparedness only on paper."

"Although great publicity has been given to preliminary preparations for national defense, but little specific accomplishment can as yet be pointed to" declared Warren H. Atherton of Stockton, Cal., in his annual report prepared for the legion's 22nd annual convention opening next week.

Atherton said that while "current plans are a splendid start, we must keep in mind that time is an important factor in adequate preparedness. . . .

"Until dollars and orders have been converted into armament, planes and ships," he said, "they are of little protection in a war."

SCHOOL FOR PARKERS

CHILLICOTHE, O., (U.P.)—Mayor Harold H. Brown is awaiting response to his offer to establish a parking school for those who have difficulty maneuvering into a curbside space. Special parking spaces would be reserved for the instruction at specified times.

Reese Not Interested In Appeal Of Case

GROESBECK, Sept. 19. (U.P.) — Lanky Arlin P. Reese lounged in his jail cell today, listless, without appetite and apparently not interested in whether he will be given a new trial.

District Judge Fountain Kirby tomorrow will rule on a motion for new trial, filed by Norton Fox, defense attorney for the man who was convicted and sentenced to die for killing his common-law wife as she experienced labor pains in bearing his second child.

Reese, shortly after a jury returned the guilty verdict, calling for his electrocution, told Limestone county officers that "I expected to get the chair all the time."

Since then he has eaten little and spent much of his time slumped in the corner of his cell, silent and expressionless.

Already slender, the tall Mexia farmer has lost 15 pounds since he dumped the body of Mrs. Lizzie Reinhardt, 32, on a country road near Corsicana three weeks ago.

toward Matruh, and attacked fortifications surrounding that next objective. Italy is using 14 Libyan divisions—about 170,000 men—in addition to Italian troops in the offensive. The Libyans marched a total of 150 miles in eight days on a quart of water per man, the command said.)

The British emphasized that British forces had intentionally abandoned the area now held by the Italians, leaving only small harassing forces which they said inflicted heavy casualties.

Egyptian officials said they did not believe the Italian occupation of the western desert strip constituted a real menace to the Nile valley in which 98 per cent of Egypt's population lives.

The press rejected Italian assurances of friendship for Egypt.

Tigers Gain Tie For Lead

Detroit Takes Two From Macks

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, Sept. 19.—The fence-wrecking Detroit Tigers bombarded the Philadelphia Athletics into humble submission, 13 to 2 and 10 to 1, in a double header today, thereby climbing into a first place tie with the Cleveland Indians.

The Bengals and the Indians open a "promoter's dream" three game series here tomorrow with the American League pennant probably hinging on the outcome.

The Tigers got brilliant pitching from two unexpected quarters and tremendous slugging by their home run twins—Hank Greenberg and Rudy York—in their one-sided victories.

Greenberg and York both homered in the first game and each drove in five runs. York hit for the circuit in the nightcap and batted in three runs while Greenberg was sending one runner over the plate with a double. Greenberg scored a total of seven runs, four in the optner and three in the nightcap.

FIRST GAME

PHILADELPHIA	100 001 000—	2	8 2
DETROIT	202 024 03x—13	14	0

Cleveland Defeats Senators, 3 To 1

CLEVELAND, Sept. 19. (AP)—The hit-hungry Cleveland Indians drove to a 3 to 1 triumph over the hapless Washington Senators today to carry a first-place tie with the Tigers into their all-important pennant series opening tomorrow in Detroit.

Lefty Al Smith, exponent of the screwball pitch, outdid Emil (Dutch) Leonard, right-handed knuckle ball artist, to give the Indians a grand slam, doubled and vulnerable, in the three-game stand with the Senators.

Westerners In Cowtown To Play North Side Tonight

By JAY HARRIS
Avalanche Sports Writer

OLNEY, Sept. 19. — Coaches "Goober" Keys and Walker Nichols' spirited Westerners tonight raced through a final workout on the Olney High school gridiron in preparation for their invasion of Fort Worth and Friday night's interdistrict clash with North Side's Steers.

Looking in the best of shape and showing much of the same fire and smoothness that carried them through a "schedule of champions" to the title last fall, the Bronc Busters reeled off a little bit of everything in their nocturnal drill.

Game Attracts Attention

Leete Jackson with his "coffin corner" punting, Max Walthall, co-captain and quarterback, and his aerial darts, Fullback Robert McKinnon's size and Right Halfback Billy Wright's all round performances caught spectators' eyes.

The quartet just mentioned likely will start against the Steers Friday night.

The game is one of those highlighted by observers attempting to start doping the Texas Interscholastic league campaign in its early stages. Masonic Home's invasion of Wichita Falls shares the limelight with the Westerner-Steer tussle, however, in this part of the state.

Lubbock Holds Edge

Early Friday morning the team will journey on to Fort Worth, taking things easy until game time.

Farrington Field is the scene of the contest and indications are that an extra large crowd will be on hand to watch the defending state champions perform.

This marks the third consecutive season the charges of Coach Herman Clark and Lubbock High elevens have tangled. In 1938, the Westerners eked out a 7 to 6 victory when Howard Alford, now a Tech "Fish" prospect, booted the extra point. Last fall, the Steers returned the visit and battled the Lubbocks to a scoreless standstill at Tech Stadium.

Lead In Lettermen

Neither machine possesses many veterans from last year's team, although the Westerners possibly hold an edge in this department with five lettermen, two of them regulars, while North Side can boast only three lettermen, one regular, on the '40 roster.

As a result, the Black and Gold standard bearers from the South Plains are expected to take the Steers but by only the narrowest of margins—perhaps after one of the best games over the entire state.

Steer Backfield Potent

Little is known of the Steer machine except that in weight it stacks up about even with the Hub City crew and boasts a trio of backs who are the class of District 7-AA.

The Westerners will field a starting lineup averaging 166-pounds, a line averaging 168 3-7 pounds, a mail-toting department tipping the the beams at an average of 163-1-4 pounds.

Probable starters, the weights and positions for the Westerners follow:

Starters Are Listed

A squad of 26 is making the Fort Worth trip and it is not unlikely that a majority of the reserves will see service as the mentors did not get the opportunity to use them in Lubbock's 13 to 6 conquest of Odessa last Saturday night.

Pacing the promising Steer forward wall will be Center Emmett Sherrod. He, along with Backfield-

Derringer In Win No. 20

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19.—Paul Derringer scored his 20th victory of the season today, pitching the National League pennant winners, the Cincinnati Reds, to a 4-1 victory over the Phils. Ben Warren counted the losers' only run with a home run in the final inning.

Hits—off Lohrman 10 in 7 innings; off Dean 4 in 2. Wild pitch—Lohrman. Losing pitcher—Lohrman.

Indians Can "Take It" Says Harridge

CHICAGO, Sept. 19. (AP)—The Cleveland Indians who've been taking an unmerciful verbal scalping ever since they complained to Owner Alva Bradley about Manager Oscar Vitt's "jitterbugging," have not asked for relief from American League headquarters.

President Will Harridge made that plain today in commenting on reports that the Indians had asked him to make other clubs stop riding the Tribe while the club is in the middle of the hot pennant battle. Said Harridge: "Bench riding, or jockeying, has become a part of baseball's setup and is purely within the jurisdiction of the umpires."

President Harridge, however believes they'll have plenty to handle at Detroit tomorrow, when the Indians begin their important three-day engagement with the Tigers—so much that he has named four arbiters to work the games: Steve Basil, Bill Summers, George Pipgras and Bill McGowan.

Fleming 2, by Auker 2. Hits—off Johnson 3 in 4 innings; off Fleming 4 in 4. Hit by pitcher—by Johnson (Lozadello); by Fleming (Lozadello). Losing pitcher—Fleming.

Houston Buffs Get Justice At Last; Win 3-2

(By The Associated Press)

BEAUMONT, Sept. 19 — Third-baseman Red Davis doubled the Houston Buffs into the Dixie Series today when his line smash in the tenth inning scored Howard Krist from second to give the Buffs a 3 to 2 victory over Beaumont and the championship of the Texas League playoff, four games to one.

Davis saved the game for Houston in the seventh inning when he made a great defensive play to halt an Exporter rally that would have broken the 2-2 deadlock.

Manager Eddie Dyer piloted his club back to Houston tonight to await the final-round playoff in the Southern Association between Nashville and Atlanta, the winner of which will meet the Buffs for the Dixie championship.

Buffs Take Lead

Howard Krist, young righthander who won 23 games over the regular season, chalked up the deciding victory.

Houston had scored two runs in the first. Murtaugh walked, and on a hit-and-run went to third when Davis singled to left. When Davis started for second, Franklin got off a wild peg and Murtaugh proceeded home. Wyrostek lofted to left but Winsett plunked a single to center and Davis tallied.

Beaumont tied the count in the fourth, Patrick opening the inning with a single. Parsons beat out a bunt. Secory popped up but Franklin singled scoring Patrick and putting Parsons on third and Perry's fly to deep left brought him home.

HOUSTON	200 000 000 1—	3	8 0
BEAUMONT	000 200 000 0—	2	8 2

(10 innings).

Krist and Narron; Fuchs, Hardy, Trucks and Parsons.

Jenkins Offered 20 Grand For "Return"

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19. (AP) — Promoter Herman Taylor announced tonight he had offered Lightweight Champion Lew Jenkins $20,000 to defend his title in a return match with Philadelphia's Bob Montgomery. The fight would be held here or at Atlantic City.

Jenkins recently won a close 10-round decision over Montgomery at Shibe Park.

John W. Davis Raps Third Term Policy

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. (U.P.)—John W. Davis, Democratic presidential nominee in 1924 who became a founder of the American Liberty league 10 years later, today denounced a third term for any president, asserting that "the man has not yet been born of woman" whom he would entrust with the presidency for more than eight years.

Davis urged that Congress set now "a definite, fixed, certain termination to the length of any man's occupancy of the presidency," and suggested that if the day ever comes when we imagine only one man is fit for the position we may as well "install a permanent or even an hereditary head under any name we choose to give him."

He revealed his opposition to a third term before a Senate judiciary subcommittee which is considering a proposal to limit the president to one six-year term. Davis did not mention President Roosevelt by name or the current third term campaign.

ers Edgar Boorman, a 175-pounder, and Elmer Mosely, passing wizard who holds down a quarterback slot, are the returning lettermen.

Coach Clark rates Mosely one of the best passers ever to perform for him, and therein may lie plenty of trouble for the Westerners.

Others who will prove big obstacles to the Lubbock steamrollers likely will be Dean Robertson, a scat runner who plays a wingback post, and James Weston and Tommy Wilson, who alternate at the other halfback slot.

Return trip for the Westerners will be made Saturday.

Tech Raiders Get A Bit Rough In Frosh Scrimmage

Pronounced indication that the Texas Tech Red Raiders would take all possible advantage of their resources of speed this season was rendered up before the goggle-eyed spectators at the stadium yesterday.

Coach Pete Cawthon rushed the Raiders through a prolonged signal drill in which the slippery backs maneuvered in strange and intricate "slides" and "zig-zags," and climaxed one of the toughest workouts of the season by sending all hands into a "till after dark" scrimmage against Berl Huffman's Picadors.

EL PASO TEAM HERE

The Bowie High school football team of El Paso, enroute to Plainview for an inter-district game with the Plainview High Bulldogs tonight, stopped in Lubbock last night and worked out at Tech Stadium. Many fans, seeing the floodlights on at the stadium, figured the Red Raiders were working overtime, but the yipping athletes on the field were from El Paso. They quartered at Hilton hotel.

Smith Drives Linemen

The varsity was pretty well pooped from more than an hour of hard work under the hot sun before it bumped into the freshmen, but the freshmen were worse pooped after the long session of head-butting, ripping and tearing.

Even more serious than Head Coach Cawthon was Line Coach Dutchy Smith, who drove his forwards hard, pointed out mistakes in no uncertain terms, lashed them severely with a wilting tongue.

It's a week until the Red Raiders begin their 1940 schedule, but to a casual onlooker yesterday, it might not be more than a day or two. Tech marches to Oklahoma City to meet the Oklahoma A. and M. College Cowboys one week from tonight, and it is strongly indicated the Raiders will be "in shape," at least, for the season opener.

Cawthon and Smith ran three complete teams, turn about, against two freshman clubs coached by Huffman and Dixie White, mostly with the frosh taking the defensive punishment.

But Nobody's Hurt

All hands came from the fray with no serious hurts, but with numerous minor scratches and bruises. It is doubtful if many of the boys caroused around much last night.

Cawthon seemed pleased with the backfield scatting of Red Amonett, who is recovering from a slight stomach ailment, but was a bit concerned over the Flomot Flash's loss of weight recently. The Red Raiders looked good in all assignments yesterday, running with what looms as the No. 1 backfield, or at least a variation thereof. Big Walter Webster and pass-throwing, hard running C. L. Storrs, were in that backfield.

SCAT BACK—It's Don Austin, rapidly becoming a possibility for "first string" service in the Texas Tech backfield. The Wellington youth, a sensation as a freshman last year, is impressing the coaches and fans with his speed afoot and his willingness to work.

Hunt Wins TKO From W. Linn

(Special To The Avalanche)

SEAGRAVES, Sept. 19. —Babe Hunt of Lubbock, Texas heavyweight champion, won a technical knockout over Woody Linn of Fort Worth at the end of the sixth round of their "exhibition" bout here tonight.

An estimated crowd of 2,500 persons, one of the largest crowds ever to see an athletic contest here, practically jammed the high school football stadium and apparently got a wallop out of the program, which was sponsored by the Lions club of Seagraves for the benefit of crippled children in this oil field section.

Martin, Smyer Win

Linn carried the fight to Hunt for the first two rounds, then the champion took charge, knocked Linn down for an eight-count in the third. Babe jabbed constantly with his left, and punished Linn terrifically with a smashing right. Linn went down late in the sixth for a seven count, blood streaming from his face, and the referee halted the proceedings.

Heavyweight Abe Martin of Floydada knocked out Jelly Harry in the second round of the semi-final fight.

In one of the features, Noah Valdez of San Angelo took an 8-round decision from Frisco Linda, Fort Worth. They are flyweights.

Sonny Smyer of Lorenzo knocked out Kid Chaves of San Angelo in the second round of their preliminary fussle.

Officials Of Grid Games Meet Sunday

Football coaches and football referees, field judges, headlinesmen and umpires, and all who aspire to be football officials, are invited to attend a meeting Sunday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, at Hilton hotel, mezzanine floor, for a general discussion of the rules as they apply to 1940 gridiron games.

C. I. "Stoney" Wall, popular high school official, will act as chairman of the meeting and lead in the discussion of rules. Vernon Hilliard, head coach at Plainview High school, is president of the Panhandle Plains Football Coaches and Officials association, to which all coaches of the section are invited to apply for membership.

Baylor's Crain And Parks Are Injured

WACO, Sept. 19. (AP)—The Baylor Bears today suffered their biggest setback thus far this year when Milton "Freight Train" Crain, 208-pound sophomore back, and Dwight Parks, scintillating scat back, went out with injuries.

Crain developed a knee infection, and was in the hospital with a temperature of 103. Physicians said he would be out at least four days.

Parks received a hard knock at the ribs and heart in scrimmage, and may be unable to practice again for two weeks. He was looming as a triple threat man who would be hard for any aggregation in the southwest to hold.

Numerous Teams Face Big Tests

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Staff

Schoolboy gridiron favorites will be established on a tangible basis from Panhandle to Gulf this weekend.

Wichita Falls plays Masonic Home's giant killers, Amarillo tackles Quanah, Sherman plays Highland Park, Corsicana meets Sunset (Dallas), Waco plays North Dallas Robstown engages Temple and Longview is host to Beaumont in feature tilts of the 56-game schedule for Friday and Saturday.

Lubbock At Fort Worth

The title drive opens in one district with Conroe, a transfer from the Houston district, meeting Orange in District 14. Lubbock's defending champion Westerners travel to Fort Worth to play the rugged North Side Steers. It is the test designed to show if Lubbock is comparable to the 1939 title outfit.

More than half the games are interdistrict affairs and there are several intersectional games, with Port Arthur's journey to Mesa, Ariz., as the feature.

Seven games were played Wednesday and Thursday nights, the most important being Paris' 6-0 defeat of Adamson, one of the Dallas leaders

Temple bows back into the Interscholastic league with a rugged opponent in the veteran Robstown eleven. The Wildcats were out of the league last year because of a suspension.

The schedule:

Friday—Bowie (El Paso) at Plainview, Quanah at Amarillo, Childress at Pampa, Shamrock at Borger, Nocona at Electra, Masonic Home (Fort Worth) at Wichita Falls, Cisco at Burkburnett, Poly (Fort Worth) at Vernon, Gainesville at O'ney, Southwestern University reserves at Abilene, Brownwood at Sweetwater, Roswell, N. M., at Lamesa, Wink at Midland, Big Spring at Austin (El Paso).

Stimson Reports On Placing Of Orders

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. (U.P.) — Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson announced today that the army has placed orders for 9,174 of the 18,641 army airplanes appropriated for at this session of Congress.

He told a press conference that 4,152 planes had been ordered of the 4,247 authorized by the regular and first supplemental defense appropriation bills which provided funds on July 1.

Of the 14,394 army planes authorized under the second supplemental defense appropriation bill, which became effective Sept. 9, Stimson said that the army had contracted for 5,022.

Class A And B Teams Of Section Get More Than "Warming Up" This Weekend

Lubbock High Cowhands To Open Season With Turkey

Lubbock's 1940 gridiron season gets underway tonight at 8 o'clock when Turkey's Turks engage the Lubbock Cowhands under the lights of Tech Stadium.

The Cowhands, consisting mostly of the boys who went through an undefeated season as the Junior High Cowboys last year, lost their first game of the season at Post last week, 15 to 24. Tonight's contest is the first of the season for the invading Turks.

Turkey Rated High

The Turkey team is regarded as one of the better Class B elevens of the state this season, with four hefty senior backs the big reason for that rating. Halfback Stephens, 180 pounds, is the speedster of the lot. Others are Payne, a three-letterman blocking beak, and Conner, all-district back last season.

Starting lineup for the Cowhands: Hubert Bechtol and Ezell Wallace, ends; Skeeter Brock and Kenneth Pharr, tackles; Jim Butler and Bill Smith, guards; Robert Reik, center; Joe L. Thompson, quarterback; Wayne Odom and Robert Brewer, halfbacks; and Douglas McCurry or Jack Pipes, fullback.

Old Crossing Bridge May Be Transferred

DALLAS, Sept. 19. (U.P.) — A few weeks ago Dallas County Commissioner Tom Field publicly proclaimed that the 50-year-old Record Crossing bridge had served its usefulness.

"Anyone who will dismantle it can have it," Fields announced.

Then came some 1,000 inquiries to his office. Many offered to buy the iron bridge.

Today Commissioner Fields announced, after conferring with the county engineer, that the bridge probably will be kept by the county, moved and used on another rural road.

Slaton Host To Floydada Team

SLATON, Sept. 19. (Special) — Slaton's High School Tigers open their home schedule against Floydada's Whirlwind at 8 o'clock Friday night.

The Tigers, after losing to Lamesa by 0 to 19 last week; have been drilling hard this week to get ready for the double-tough Whirlwind, which has ten starters from its 1939 team in this year's lineup.

Probable starters for Slaton are: ends, George Green and Earl Blassingame; tackles, Sherley Butler and Van Smith; guards, R. C. Hall and Luther Faulkner, center, Frank Wethered; quarter, J. W. Martindale; halfbacks, Billy Miller and Harry Bell; fullback, Elzo Collier.

Loboes, Eagles Ready For 5-A League Game

LEVELLAND, Sept. 19. (Special)—Coach Bill Stevens' Levelland Loboes and Coach Roy DeBusk's O'Donnell Eagles get together here Friday night in the first District 5-A conference game of the 1940 season.

Levelland is rated favorite for the game after swamping Anton 29 to 0 last week. It is the first contest of the season for the Eagles.

New Mexico Gridsters Play Lamesa Tonight

LAMESA, Sept. 19. (Special)—Lamesa's Golden Tornado, successful in its first try of the season last week, tackle an out-of-state foe Friday night, attempting to gain its second consecutive victory against Roswell, N. M.

Last week Coach Ted McCollum's boys stopped the Slaton Tigers, 19 to 0, counting heavily on Foy Futrell's passing.

Mustangs Try For 2nd Victory At Matador

MATADOR, Sept. 19. (Special)—Coach Ernest Jones' Olton Mustangs, losers of only one game in their last 13 starts, come to Matador Friday to play a District 4-A eleven for the second week in a row.

Last week the Mustangs, bi-district champions in 1939 counted a 13 to 0 victory over Spur on twin touchdowns by their twin halfbacks, Willard and Willis Hedges.

Strengthened Post '11' Plays Morton Tonight

POST, Sept. 19. (Special)—After a week's hard work ironing out the rough edges that showed up when they beat Lubbock's Cowhands last week, Coach Howard Price's Post Antelopes get down to business again Friday night, engaging Morton Indians on Antelope field. The game starts at 8 o'clock.

The Antelopes will be strengthened by the return of Billy Cox, guard, and L. D. Stevens, halfback, to the lineup. Injured in pre-schedule practice, these boys were unable to play against the Cowhands.

Probable starters for the Post eleven: W. R. Carpenter, le; Wayne Chaffin, lt; J. W. Hodges, lg; A. C. Surman, c; Clyde Williams, rg; Co-Captain Billy Hudman, rt; Guy T. Harrison, re; Winnie Carpenter, qb; Ralph Dean, fb; Laurence Sherrod, lh; Captain Delmo Gossett, rh.

Crane At Brownfield In Cub's Home Opener

BROWNFIELD, Sept. 19. (Special)—Hurt by the possible loss of Co-Captain M. J. Akers, Brownfield's Cubs try for their second victory of the season Friday night when they play Crane in Brownfield.

Akers, who plays tackle, was injured last week when Brownfield stopped Kermit, 26 to 7, and may not be able to play. Otherwise, the Cubs, rated as of District 4-A championship caliber, have the starting lineup intact.

Willkie Drive Said Gaining

NEW YORK, Sept. 19. (U.P.)—Gov. Harold E. Stassen, R., Minn., said today that Wendell L. Willkie's Republican presidential campaign had slumped in recent weeks but was recovering and would continue to gain strength henceforth.

"The tendency to level off and drop somewhat has now ended," the 33-year-old governor said. "It hit a low about 10 days ago but is now starting to rise, and we should increase our standing until election day."

Stassen came here in his capacity of chairman of Willkie's campaign advisory committee to attend a meeting called by Samuel F. Pryor, jr., Eastern campaign manager.

The governor attributed Willkie's "temporary" drop in popularity, as indicated by various public opinion polls, to the fact that he is fighting a "ruthless incumbent" not above "spreading rumors."

Stassen said Willkie's receptions thus far in his campaign tour indicated that his strength was growing daily and that the New York Times' " announced support would strengthen the trend to the Republican candidate.

Medalists Survive Meadowbrook Push

Co-medalists Melvin Best and Lofton Burnett moved successfully through the first round of match play in the Meadowbrook Open golf tournament yesterday, but some of the other favorites fell by the wayside.

Best, the Texas Tech golfer, won from Weldon Counts, considered a favorite on his "home" course, and Burnett shipped J. R. Farmer, another worthy opponent, 5 and 3. The winners had qualified with 69's, and all but kept up the pace in the opening round of match play.

All first round matches were not completed because of late starts, but these, and all second round matches are to be played today. Opponents are urged to contact each other and make dates for playing time, and are urged to start early enough to complete the matches.

Results of first round matches, along with the schedules for today, follow:

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT

Melvin Best defeated Weldon Counts, 4 and 3; J. D. Hinson won from J. R. Eagen, 5 and 4; Merle Tripp defeated Elton Rozier, 3 and 2; Bill Hackett defeated Roy Howard, 1 up; Chick Trout defeated Amos Howard, 4 and 2; Raymond Marshall won from Ted Tipps, 2 up, and Lofton Burnett won from J. R. Farmer, 5 and 3. Joe Bihl and Carroll Claiborne did not finish their match, on account of darkness. Bihl was one up through 15 holes.

Today's schedule: Best plays Hinson, Tripp meet winner of the Bihl-Claiborne match, Hackett plays Trout, Marshall meets Burnett. In the consolations, Counts plays Eagen, Dozier meets the loser of the Bihl-Claiborne match, Roy Howard plays Amos Howard, and Tipps meet Farmer.

FIRST FLIGHT

Gus Freeland defeated Hob Fowler, 1 up; Fred Hinson defeated Sam Parkinson, 3 and 2; Billy Martin won from Hugh Anderson, 1 up; W. F. Helwig and Cotton McAfee were overtaken by darkness and postponed the finish; Ed. C. King won from O. A. Terry by default; Halsey Lee Hackett defeated O. J. Felty, 1 up; Lawrence Banks won from Benny Bates, 5 and 4, and A. B. Holton won from E. W. Settle, 2 up:

Today's schedule: Freeland plays Hinson, Martin meets the winner of the Helwig-McAfee match, King meets Hackett and Banks plays A. B. Holton, while in the consolations, Fowler meets Parkinson, Anderson plays loser of the Helwig-McAfee match, Terry plays Felty and Bates meets Settle.

SECOND FLIGHT

C. A. Rodgers defeated A. C. Jackson, 6 and 4; W. T. Rodgers defeated M. F. Swart, 6 and 5; Louis Doyle defeated W. L. Hale, 3 and 1; Tom Davis defeated Bob Thomas, 3 and 2; Hap Padgett won from Bill Parker, 2 up; Buster Holton defeated Joe Dennis 2 and 1; E. M. Barnett won from Chick Trout, jr., 1 up, and Jack Trammell defeated George Carter, 6 and 5.

The second round will pit C. A. Rodgers against W. T. Rodgers, Louis Doyle against Davis, Padgett against Buster Holton and Barnett against Trammell, with Jackson and Swart, Hale and Thomas, Parker and Dennis, Trout and Carter in the consolations.

THIRD FLIGHT

James Morris won from L. N. Russell, 5 and 4; D. C. Casey won from Eugene Dennis, 3 and 2; Larry Doyle won from George Weiss, 8 and 6; Bill Mowery won from Robert Dowell, 1 up; Bill Pool won from Jimmie Pyor, 1 up; W. C. Foote won from Tommie Wilson by default; Jasper Sanders won from Jack McGinnis, 7 and 6, and Bud Robinson won from Clyde Burleson, 8 and 7.

FOURTH FLIGHT

C. E. Martin defeated Harold Ford, 3 and 2; Si Gooden won from C. J. Bell, 2 up; C. J. Farris and Howard Hughes were overtaken by darkness; Clyde Fortune won from Bedford Raley, 7 and 6; A. A. Marchant won from Bill Tory, 1 up, 19 holes; O. A. Brock won from R. L. Stovall, 5 and 3; C. R. Hurmance and C. J. Straley did not finish; R. J. Cheatham won from Don Eagen, 2 and 1.

Today, Martin plays Gooden, winner of the Farris-Hughes match plays Cheatham, with losers playing losers in the consolations.

NYA Project To Teach Aviation Is Assured

GLADEWATER, Sept. 19. (U.P.) — Superintendent F. C. McConnell of the Gladewater schools said today an NYA project to teach aviation, automobile and radio mechanics had been assured for the district including Gregg, Upshur and Smith counties.

McConnell said a federally-financed building in which the NYA will install approximately $100,000 worth of equipment will be built, and classes started as soon as possible.

The project was described as a "cooperative" with the national defense program.

It will operate as an extension of the public school program to adults 17 to 24 years old, with classes to accommodate 100 at a time. The payroll is estimated at $40,000 annually.

New Research Shows Brer Rabbit Syrup RICH in IRON

Gives children the flavor they love ...and extra iron they need

THE mellow-sweet flavor of freshly crushed sugar-cane juice is a treat all children adore. And when they enjoy that flavor daily in luscious Brer Rabbit Syrup, they also get the benefit of extra iron in their diet.

The full value of this delicious syrup for giving extra iron to children has only recently been learned through scientific tests. These tests prove:

1. Brer Rabbit Syrup contains a valuable amount of iron.
2. The iron in Brer Rabbit Syrup is almost 100% available for use by the body. It is more fully available than the iron in most other foods.
3. Brer Rabbit Syrup helps to supply the iron needed daily by both children and adults.

Remember, mother, that growing bodies require more iron than adults in proportion to their size. Make sure a food rich in iron that is fully available to the body is included in your child's daily diet. Just such a food is Brer Rabbit Syrup. Buy a can from your grocer today.

How to Add Iron to Children's Diets

Children love to get their iron from delicious Brer Rabbit Syrup — and you can give it to them in any form they enjoy . . .

As a spread—For pancakes, waffles, biscuits and other hot breads. Or on plain or buttered bread for between-meal snacks.

In milk—Brer Rabbit Milk Shake is a delicious drink! Just mix one or more tablespoons of Brer Rabbit Syrup with a glass of milk 3 times a day.

Go cereal—In place of other sweetening.

For dessert—As a sauce for ice cream or in luscious gingerbread or cookies. All of Brer Rabbit's iron richness is retained in cooking.

LEGAL NOTICE

39—Legal Notice

SHERIFF'S SALE

The State of Texas; County of Lubbock.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a certain execution issued out of the Honorable county court of Lubbock county on the 22nd day of August, 1940, by Ed D. Allen, clerk of said county court for the sum of Three Hundred Eighteen and 75-100 ($318.75) Dollars and costs of suit, under a judgment, in favor of W. J. Lasater in a certain cause in said court No. 4453 and styled W. J. Lasater vs. E. E. Kingston, placed in my hands for service, I, Tom Abel as Sheriff of Lubbock county, Texas, did on the 5th day of September, 1940, levy on certain real estate, situated in Lubbock county, Texas, described as follows, to-wit:

Lots Nos. Nine (9), Ten (10), Eleven (11) and Twelve (12), in Block No. One (1) of the J. T. Hart addition to the City of Lubbock, Texas, and levied upon as the property of E. E. Kingston and that on the first Tuesday in October, 1940, the same being the 1st day of said month, at the Court House door of Lubbock county, in the City of Lubbock, Texas, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m., by virtue of said levy and said execution I will sell said above described real estate at public vendue, for cash, to the highest bidder, as the property of said E. E. Kingston.

And in compliance with law, I give this notice by publication, in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale, in the Avalanche-Journal, a newspaper published in Lubbock county.

Witness my hand, this 5th day of September, 1940.

TOM ABEL,
Sheriff, Lubbock County, Texas.
By VERLIE SHEARER, Deputy.

PROFIT TAKERS ACTIVE

NEW YORK, Sept. 19 (AP)—The stock market encountered profit taking handicaps today after four successive rising sessions.

The list got off to a fairly good start under leadership of steels. Gains ran to a point or so for favorites, with a few preferred issues enjoying wider advances.

For a while the pace of dealings was ahead of yesterday. Prices began to slip after midday and, at the close, top marks were well trimmed in most instances and fractional minus signs were plentiful.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was unchanged at 44.1. Transfers totalled 669,670.

The market still had an assortment of good business items to prop sentiment, but the war, taxes and politics remained as speculative question marks, brokers said. Many traders, in view of the extended advance, apparently decided to garner a little cash and await a possible technical reaction.

Industrial stocks were more resistant than others as growing defense spending brightened the outlook for corporation profits.

Steels were given a hand on the belief these companies may be the chief beneficiaries of the rearmament program. Rails slipped notwithstanding a more than seasonal upturn in last week's freight loadings to a new top since last October. Coppers kept their balance when the scrap metal was boosted ⅛ of a cent a pound.

Jones and Laughlin preferred was up 5¾ on a light turnover, and Republic Steel preferred gained 2¼.

Lagging were Youngstown Sheet, General Motors, U. S. Rubber, Santa Fe, N. Y. Central, Standard Oil of N. J. and Westinghouse.

Carrier loans were among the best in the bond department. Commodities were narrow. Wheat at Chicago was unchanged to off ⅛ of a cent a bushel. Corn was down ⅜ to ⅞. Cotton improved 10 to 55 cents a bale.

Gasoline Stocks Show Decrease

NEW YORK, Sept. 19 (U.P.)—Gasoline reserves contracted 994,000 barrels in the week ended Sept. 14, the American Petroleum institute reported today.

In the latest week stocks of finished and unfinished gasoline amounted to 83,300,000 barrels, contrasted with 84,294,000 a week ago and 71,708,000 in the corresponding week of 1939.

Daily average production of crude oil in the week ended Sept. 14 was stepped up 23,500 barrels to 3,647,000 compared with 3,623,850 a week ago and 3,422,350 a year earlier. The daily average also was above the bureau of mines calculated daily average requirements for September.

Crude runs to stills average 3,580,000 barrels daily in the week ended Aug. 14, compared with 3,500,000 a week ago and 3,517,000 in the corresponding week of 1939.

Stocks Increase

The authority disclosed that production of gasoline at refineries, including natural blended, amounted to 11,724,000 barrels in the latest week, against 11,460,000 a week earlier and 11,846,000 in the 1939 period.

Stocks of residual oil at refineries and terminals, in transit and pipelines, amounted to 109,135,000 barrels, against 107,080,000 a week earlier and 114,930,000 in the year-ago week.

Imports of petroleum for domestic use and receipts in bond at principal U. S. ports, for the week ended Sept. 14, totaled 1,885,000 barrels, a daily average of 269,286 barrels, against 173,000 daily in the preceding week and 212,929 barrels per day in the four weeks ended Sept. 14.

National Guard Rush Expected

AUSTIN, Sept. 19. (U.P.) — Enlistments in the national guard of Texas are expected to receive a boost rather than a back-set as the result of the national defense training conscription act.

In Texas an enlistment drive will be continued until the guard units are ordered out for their year's training. Many vacancies now exist in the national guard units, Adj. Gen. J. Watt Page said, because guard ranks have recently been depleted by members resigning to enter regular army service.

The guard officers have co-operated in these enlistments by granting discharges and in recent months the guard has been losing about 100 men a month, and more recently five to 10 men a day.

To Rush Training

Several reasons were cited why men may prefer to enlist in the national guard rather than wait for the draft. One is that it will permit them to put in their military training with their home organizations and among a personnel with whom thy are acquainted. Probably the chief reason is the desire of some of the men of draft age to get their year's military training completed as quickly as possible. Instead of waiting for a call in two, three or four years, by entering the guard and taking the year's training expected to start within a month, they will be free to return to their civilian careers.

Present strength of the national guard of Texas is 11,438 officers and enlisted men. Enlistment up to full peace time strength will raise the total to more than 13,000.

Possible Union With U.S. To Be Studied

LONDON, Sept. 19. (AP)—Clement R. Atlee, lord privy seal, assured the House of Commons today that the members will have opportunity for the fullest discussion "before any union of the kind proposed to France is put forward in regard to the United States."

Just before France signed her armistice with Germany it was announced Prime Minister Churchill had proposed a form of British-French union with common citizenship.

Churchill is prepared to give such assurance of discussion "if ever such a far reaching scheme were put forward," Atlee said.

On other questions relating to the United States, Sir John Anderson, home secretary, said he agreed "a liberal policy should be followed and steps have been taken at this end" to relax alien restrictions in the cases of United States citizens "engaged in commerce or in any way assisting the Allied cause."

Clothing Dealer Has Bargain For Draftees

JOPLIN, Mo., Sept. 19. (U.P.) — A Joplin clothing dealer today advertised this proposition for young men who may be conscripted into the army:

If new fall clothes are purchased before Nov. 1, the store guarantees that full credit will be given, regardless of wear, if the purchaser is drafted into army service between Nov. 1 and Jan. 1, 1941.

Work In Cancer War Extended

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 19. (U.P.) — The Empire State has contributed a new 1,000,000-volt X-ray therapy unit to help the fight against cancer.

The two-ton apparatus represents a marked advancement in the study and treatment of the disease. The radiation it produces approximates that of radium more closely than has hitherto been possible with any other X-ray machine.

The new unit is the third of its type in the United States. It has been installed at the State Institute for Malignant Diseases at Buffalo. Other units have been installed in Memorial hospital, New York City, and St. John's hospital, Cleveland.

The institute treats approximately 5,000 cases annually. It possesses about eight of the entire amount of 30 grams of radium in this country. The institute's radiation equipment includes one 400,000-volt outfit, three 220,000-volt machines for deep X-ray therapy and one 140,000-volt unit for intermediate therapy.

High Voltage Praised

For some types of cancer extremely high-voltage machines may prove to be of superior value, according to Dr. Edward S. Godfrey, New York state health commissioner.

"High voltage," he said, "enables generation of a greater number of the more penetrating rays with the result that those most desirable may be selected to treat deep-seated cancer of a number of types."

Dr. Godfrey said the high-voltage also makes possible shorter treatment time in attaining a desired dosage. For other types of malignancy, however, surgery, radium, or lower-voltage X-ray remain the preferred methods of treatment.

"The estimates of the possibility of preventing death and disability from cancer," he said, "rests upon the results already achieved in hospitals and clinics where adequate therapy is given to patients still at an early stage of the disease.

"The extent to which patients, once under treatment, receive adequate therapy is unknown, but there is evidence that many patients receive only symptomatic treatment or treatment which is inadequate by modern standards of surgery or radio-therapy."

Facilities Not Adequate

Dr. Godfrey explained that in upper New York State, for example, more than 80 per cent of cancer patients admitted to hospitals, "enter general hospitals, fully half of which have no facilities for X-ray therapy and few of which possess facilities for radium therapy in adequate dosage."

A conservative estimate based on results achieved with patients adequately treated at an early stage of the disease, he said, indicates that the case fatality could be reduced 60 per cent, which would mean a saving of 2,300 lives annually upstate.

On this basis for the entire nation, this would amount to 38,000 lives saved, according to Dr. Godfrey.

New York State currently seeks to promote the establishment of tumor clinics at strategic points.

The use of visiting cards is generally believed to have originated during the reign of Louis XIV of France.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Southern Demos Form Group

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 19 (U.P.) A group of Southern Democrats who favor Republican Nominee Wendell L. Willkie for president met here today to form the "Southern Association of Democrats for Willkie."

The meeting was called by L. P. (Pat) Casey, Houston, Texas, business man, who said that representatives of eleven southern states would attend. He said the meeting would not be open to the public.

Among those expected to attend the meeting were F. I. Beyer, Little Rock, Ark.; Thurmond Chatham, Winston Salem, N. C.; Joseph W. Bailey, jr., Dallas, Tex., and Arthur Y. Milam and William Rogers, Jacksonville, Fla.

Casey said "our purpose is to form a group which will act as a clearing house for information as to the progress of Willkie Democratic organizations in the Southern states. The work of the local groups will continue as it has in the past, independent of other organizations."

Verdict Of Accidental Death Is Returned

SHERMAN, Sept. 19. (AP) — J. H. Burkett, 63-year-old farmer carried a pistol with him when he went outside his home last night to investigate a noise he heard about his chickenhouse.

His wife heard a shot. She searched an hour in the darkness and then found her husband's body, shot through the head.

Justice of the Peace W. H. Horton of Whitewright returned a verdict of accidental death. Apparently Burkett had stumbled as he sought the origin of the noise.

Child Is Crushed In Auto Accident

LAKE CHARLES, La., Sept. 19. (AP)—Crushed by the car in which he was riding when it rolled into a ravine 12 miles east of De Ridder, Robert E. Hughes, jr., six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hughes of Galveston, Tex., was killed instantly late yesterday afternoon.

His mother, who was driving, suffered a broken pelvis and possible internal injuries, while her mother-in-law, Mrs. Thomas Hughes of Bon Weir, Tex., received several broken ribs. A younger son, Paul Norman, 4, escaped uninjured.

The accident occurred, it was reported, when Mrs. Hughes was blinded by dust as she attempted to cross a bridge on the De Ridder-Sugartown highway while returning from a visit to Elizabeth, La., her former home.

Former Narcotics Unit Wins Praise

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (AP)—H. J. Anslinger, federal narcotics commissioner, is sorry that the narcotics unit of the Texas Rangers has been abolished.

He wrote in his annual report that the unit had been abolished by the governor of Texas on August 1, and "this is reported with regret in view of the fact that the state of Texas had been doing outstanding work on narcotics enforcement."

Swine Exhibits Closed By Wind

Close of some of the swine exhibits in the Tri-State fair in Amarillo was caused by the wind, members of the Wenzel family of Wilson, Lynn county, said here Thursday.

Members of the family who visited Lubbock were the father, C. D. Wenzel, and his sons, Leo, 13, and Wilburn, 11, who are 4-H club boys.

The entries of the boys competed in the Berkshire swine division at the Tri-State, those of Wilburn making an especially fine record. His litter of six carried away the sweepstakes championship in the 4-H department in competition with 22 other litters. His single barrows placed third and fourth and his pen of three barrows placed third. A single barrow belonging to Leo placed fifth. Between them the boys won $21 and an assortment of ribbons.

They related, however, that they were enabled to leave the Tri-State fair early because of the winds. Their exhibits, they explained, were shown in a tent which was blown down. Another tent was erected and it was blown down, too, they said. Then the exhibits were released.

Wenzel reported that the entry list in the swine department at the fair was perhaps the largest and finest ever seen in West Texas.

He added that his sons plan to bring their Berkshires to the Panhandle-South Plains fair here Sept. 30-Oct. 5 and probably will exhibit them in the state fair at Dallas.

MAKE OLD "STAND-BY" DISHES TASTE DELICIOUSLY DIFFERENT

RECIPE
QUICK SKILLET STEW

● Brown 2 lbs. round steak, cut in one-inch cubes, in 4 tbs. fat. Stir in 2 tbs. flour. Add 3 cups of hot water, 3 medium carrots cut in pieces, 1 medium onion sliced, 1 tbs. salt, ½ tbs. Heinz Pure Cider Vinegar and ⅓ cup Heinz Ketchup. Simmer until carrots are half done. Add 4 potatoes, diced. Cook until tender. (4 servings.) Note: 2 cups cooked leftover diced meat may be used for steak.

RECIPE
HAM WITH KETCHUP SAUCE

● Fry 1 thick slice of ham slowly till brown. Combine ¼ cup Heinz Tomato Ketchup, ¾ cup cold water, 1 tbs. Heinz Cider Vinegar, 2 tsp. flour, 1 tsp. sugar, ½ tsp. Heinz Prepared Brown or Yellow Mustard. Pour over ham. Simmer on top of stove or bake in moderate oven (350° F.) half hour—turning once. Serve ham topped with sauce and garnished with fried apple rings.

DRESS UP your favorite dishes with the dashing, robust zest of Heinz Tomato Ketchup—and hear the family cheer! The full-bodied flavor and racy color of this mouth-watering ketchup make plain foods taste marvelous. For it's cooked the country-kitchen way—from Heinz pedigreed tomatoes, our aged-in-wood vinegar and Heinz-selected spices. Try it in gravies—on steaks and chops. It's so rich a little bit works wonders with your cooking!

MONTGOMERY WARD

Canada Builds Army Toward Million Mark; Rapid Strides Taken In Last Year

Men Sent To Aid Britain

By JAMES N. CRANDALL
United Press Staff Correspondent

OTTAWA, Sept. 19 — When, on Sept. 10, 1939, Canada declared war on Germany, it had an air force of only 4,061 men, a navy of 15 ships and 1,774 men and a standing army of 4,492.

Today, one year later, Canada has more than 16,500 serving in the Royal Canadian Air force and the British commonwealth air training plan will soon have 40,000 men training to become pilots, gunners, air observers and ground crew men.

The Royal Canadian navy now has 120 vessels and 10,000 officers and men. In a few months 215 vessels will be in service and the personnel may exceed 15,000. In addition to Canadian crews on Canadian vessels, more than 450 men are serving with the Royal navy, or in training with it.

Army Growing Rapidly

Canada's army today has an active service force of 152,842 and another 100,731 in the non-permanent active militia, making a total strength of 253,573. According to plans it will continue to grow under the national mobilization act at the rate of 30,000 a month until 1,000,000 men have been trained. Canada has 29,839 serving with the C.A.S.F. overseas.

The Canadian navy has had its full share of onerous and dangerous duties since the outbreak of war. Some of the ships are assigned to the Atlantic patrol. Other vessels have seen duty in the Caribbean. Still others served in the evacuation of troops from France. One of these ships, H. M. C. S. Fraser, was lost.

Since the outbreak of war, the navy has supervised the convoying of more than 15,000,000 tons of cargo, with losses of less than one-quarter of 1 per cent.

Many naval men have been serving since boyhood.

Canada has sent two army co-operation squadrons and one fighter squadron to England. These men are playing their part in the defense of Britain. At home, nine squadrons of the Royal Canadian Air force are stationed at strategic points on the Atlantic and Pacific. Soon 12 squadrons will be in service in the Dominion. On these men rests the duty of defending Canadian shores against attack, and of protecting convoys of ships approaching or leaving Canadian ports.

Cadets Weeded Out

These fliers and thousands of others entered the air training schools with caried backgrounds. At manning depots, where they were sent immediately after enlistment, each man was uniformed and was taught the rudiments of military training. He received a brief series of tests in a Link-trainer. Those who showed exceptional ability in handling the trainer were selected for a pilot's course, others went to observers' or gunners' school.

After 50 hours flying time, the recruit moves onto the service flying training school, where he learns the elements of acrobatics and aerial combat. After 100 hours flying time he usually receives his "wings" and moves into the advanced training squadron.

Eventually he may be drafted to the Royal Air force or to the Royal Canadian Air force, depending on requirements.

R.A.F. KNOWS THE ANSWERS TO ITALIAN CHALLENGE—Italy's invasion of Egypt and advance toward the Suez Canal is constantly harassed by British troops. Newly arrived photo, above shows R.A.F. flyers in Egypt loading bombs aboard a big Blenheim bomber, preparing a deadly answer to Il Duce's challenge.

Construction Of New Building Is Launched

Construction of a $22,000 building at 1402 Texas avenue opened Thursday. The building will be occupied by Rigney-Ferguson company, automobile equipment dealers now located at 1312-14 Texas.

Permits for the building was issued Wednesday afternoon to J. L. Hair Construction company of Wichita Falls, contractor.

The building is to be of brick and tile, fronting 78 feet on Texas and extending 125 feet in depth.

It increased the city building permit total for the week to $48,395, for the month to $180,967, and for the year to $3,378,360.

Thousands of prospectors are reported to have returned to working abandoned diggings in S. Joal del Rey, Brazil, since the finding of high grade gold ore.

NAP WINS $5

COLBERT, Ga. (U.P.)—To advertise its summer revival meeting, the Colbert Methodist church offered $5 to anyone who could go to sleep during service.

LOWERS ILLITERACY

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (U.P.)—More than 3,000 Alabama adults were taught to read and write last year by WPA adult education classes.

Packages Inspected After Bomb Scare

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19. (U.P.)—All parcel post packages arriving here from Norfolk, Va., and vicinity were examined by postal inspectors and police today following an anonymous tip that a bomb had been placed in the mails in Norfolk.

One source said it had been reported that the bomb was set to explode "within 48 hours." Because of the visit of President Roosevelt to Philadelphia tomorrow, unusual precautions were taken.

Meadow District Names Officials

BROWNFIELD, Sept. 19. (Special) Vocational agriculture teachers of Meadow district chose Boyce Evans of Tahoka as president and L. H. Moore of New Home vice president at a meeting in the high school here Wednesday night.

Approximately 35 vocational agriculture students and teachers were present, representing Wilson, Tahoka, New Home, Plains, Brownfield, Meadow and Ropesville schools. Featured speakers were O. T. Ryan and Ray Chappelle of the Texas Technological college faculty.

France Said "All Alone" In Far East

VICHY, France, Sept. 19. (AP) — Foreign Minister Paul Baudoin said today France is "all alone" in the Far East and should not be judged too harshly if her decisions in Indo-China, where she has had to yield to Japanese demands, are not pleasing to "the western world."

In a statement to American newspaper correspondents the foreign minister said France had been given to understand no real support could be given her by the United States should the Japanese attack Indo-China.

First Lady Says Selective Service Program To Hit Totalitarian Influence

Mrs. Roosevelt Airs Her Views

NEW YORK, Sept. 19. (U.P.)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt said today that the selective service program will combat totalitarian influence by developing in American youth a love for democracy "as enthusiastic and as passionate as their belief in religion."

"Democracy must give them not only what the totalitarian states offer, but in addition, individual liberty; the priceless heritage of offering their service voluntarily and directing their own futures, rather than trusting to one hero and following him blindly," Mrs. Roosevelt said.

The statements were made in a special article for the United Features syndicate which distributes her daily newspaper column.

No Democratic Element

"We should register everyone so that they will all have a feeling of obligation," she wrote. "Then in the various communities, it should be left to a carefully chosen board to decide which people can best serve in different capacities, which of them shall obtain training this year in the army, navy, or any other military branch of the service, and which of them shall serve in any one of a thousand different ways.

"If it were left to the volunteers, some would volunteer for military service who would undoubtedly be better suited for something quite different. It is a foolish, wasteful process, this volunteering, and incidentally, it lacks one essential element of democracy where everybody stands on an equal level and is placed where he or she can be most useful to the nation."

Fire Service Driver Dies After Rescue

LONDON, Sept. 19. (U.P.) — Jack Reaves, an auxiliary fire service driver who spent 17 hours awaiting rescue from beneath a 20-foot pile of debris, died today in a hospital.

A bomb fell into the basement of a West End garage used as an A.F.S. sub-station, killing Reeves' wife of two months, who was sitting beside him in a car, and burying Reaves under bricks and timbers. Workers struggled through seven air raid alarms to extricate him. He died without knowing of his wife's death.

Placards Of Instructions On Conscription Blanks Mailed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (A.P.) — Master copies of a two-foot placard explaining how to answer the questions to be put conscription registrants were being sent today to the 48 states.

The placard will be reproduced for posting in each of thousands of voting precincts throughout the country. An enlarged reproduction of the registration card, the placard contains exact instructions for the information which will be wanted from every man as follows:

1. Name (give your first name first, then your middle name in full, and your family name last. Spell out each name as you give it. Example: Say "John Lewis Jones" and not "Jones, John Lewis.")

2. Address (give the address where you actually live. If you do not live at a particular address, then give the address where mail will reach you quickly. Give your address in this manner: "25789 Alaska avenue, Chicago, Ill."); or Box 221, R. F. D. No. 1, Jonesville, Jones county, Kas.")

Must Give Number

3. Telephone (give a telephone number where you can be easily reached; either your home phone or your business phone, or the phone of a neighbor. Give the telephone exchange and city. Example: "Chicago, Midwest 4294" or "Jonesville, 3 long—1 short." If you have no telephone answer "none.")

4. Age in years (give your age in years as of your last birthday. Don't give months or days. Example: If you are "25 years 11 months" old, just say "25 years.") Date of birth (give, in order, the month, day, and year of your birth, such as "September 20, 1910.")

5. Place of birth (give the city or town, county and state and the country in which you were born. If foreign born, give the name of the county in which your place of birth was located at the time of your birth, even though the name of your country has been changed.

Citizenship Listed

6. Country of citizenship (give the name of the country of which you are a citizen. If a United States citizen, answer "U. S. A." If you are a citizen of a foreign country, give the name of that country. If you have taken out first papers only, you are not a citizen of the U. S. A. Give the country of which you are still a citizen. If you have an alien registration card, give the number here.)

7. Name of person who will always know your address (give the name of the person most likely to know your whereabouts at all times. If you are living with your wife, parents, or other close relatives, give the name of the family member who can locate you easiest and quickest. If you are not living with your family, give the name of some person who can locate you quickly. In answering this question, say "Mr.," "Mrs.," or "Miss," followed by the first name, middle name, and then the last name of the person. Example: "Mr. Henry Jones," or "Miss Susan Brown," or "Mrs. Charles Black.")

8. Relationship of that person (give the relationship to you of the person who you have said will always know where to find you quickly. Example: "wife," "mother," "friend," "employer," "neighbor," etc.)

Employer's Name

9. Address of that person (give the address of this person. Give first the street number, then the street name or RFD number, city or town, county, and finally the state. Example: "25789 Alaska avenue, Chicago, Ill.")

10. Employer's name (give the name of the company, firm or person by whom you are employed. Give the company name, not your foreman's name. If you are in business for yourself, answer "self." If you are employed by more than one employer, give the name of the one who can usually reach you. If you are a federal, state, or local government employe, give the department or bureau for which you work. If you are working on a WPA project, answer "WPA project." If you are not working and are a college student registering in the college precinct, say "Jonesville college student." If you are unemployed, not on WPA, and not attending school, answer "none." Examples: "Jones Hardware Co." or "Jonesville postoffice," or "N. Y. state highway Dept.," or "WPA project," or Jonesville college, student," or "none.")

Swear Or Affirm

11. Place of employment or business (give the street number or location of the place where you are employed. Also give the city or town, county, and the state. If you are in business for yourself, give your business address. If you are on WPA, give the address of the WPA assignment office. If you are a student in a college and not working, give the college address. If you have answered "none" when asked for your employer's name, the registrar will enter a dash——" and you will not answer this question).

I affirm that I have verified above answers and that they are true. (Sign your name here exactly as you usually sign it. If you cannot write your name, make a cross mark (X). When you sign this card, the registrar will have you swear that the answers are true. If your religious belief will not permit you to swear to this, you may affirm that the answers are true. The registrar will accept your affirmation).

RAIL EMPLOYE DIES

Lincoln-Zephyr To Be Displayed Today

The new Lincoln-Zephyr will be shown today in display rooms of K. D. Leftwich Motor company at 1008 Avenue J, said Kenneth D. Leftwich, manager.

Only one model, a four-door sedan, will arrive in time, but other models will be arriving soon.

A host of new improvements over the 1940 models is listed for the 1941 cars. Roominess is the outstanding improvement; the new cars being longer and wider. The new cars naturally embody new luxuries and refinements—suggested by experience and a continuing research.

A one-piece panorama windshield with no obstruction marring the vision of the driver is one of the outstanding features.

The car's design is different. Body and frame in Lincoln-Zephyr closed body types are a unit. This welded, truss, arch-bridge construction reduces weight, lowers the floor, improves economy of operation and gives great strength.

Two handsome upholsteries, cord or broadcloth in any of a wide range of colors are available. A sparkling combination of leather and whipcord is also available for the convertible coupe and custom interiors give you shadow-stripe broadcloth in harmonizing tones.

The new Lincoln automatic overdrive transmission is another outstanding improvement in the new cars. It is entirely automatic in its operation yet is instantly controllable by the driver and gives you the advantage of a reduction in engine speed of 30 per cent; saves on gasoline and oil; brings added joy to driving.

The Leftwich firm is also dealer and distributor for Mercury cars in this area and expect a showing of these new models next week.

Musician Suicides, Examiner Declares

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 19. (U.P.) A medical-examiner today returned a finding of "suicide by carbon monoxide" in the mysterious death of Montfort Cariell, wealthy young piano student whose body was found in his apartment Monday.

Police Capt. John J. Canney, who announced the finding, said his own investigation indicated that Cariell's motive lay in disappointment over "his failure to come up to his own standards" in his efforts to become a concert pianist. Canney said, however, there probably would be no official finding as to motive.

OUR PLEDGE

We pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States, and to the Republic for which it stands: One Nation, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all.

Might Still Rules Mexico

REGARDLESS who eventually may become the new president of Mexico, it seems quite evident that our southern neighbor still is a nation where might is the decisive factor in elections.

Right now it looks as though Gen. Manuel Avila Camacho is the man who will be riding high when the new term of office begins on Dec. 1. He has been proclaimed president-elect by the Congress which seems to have the strongest claim to "official" standing.

But disputing the Camacho election is Gen. Juan Andreu Almazan, who has been designated as the president-elect by what he claims to be the real Congress of his nation.

However, there is every indication that when one or the other of the two claimants finally is installed in the president's palace, it will not be because of the declaration of any Congress—real or pretending. It will be by the might of the armed men at his back. And it also appears certain that the man who does not get into the palace—assuming he isn't assassinated—won't accept the decision quietly. If he does not engage in revolution, it likely will be for the lack of men and arms with which to wage a rebellion.

Thus, it appears more evident every day that the "election" of last July will amount to almost nothing insofar as having any decisive bearing on the actual choice of the president will be concerned. The decisive factor will be the man with the biggest and the best equipped army. On that basis, Camacho would seem to occupy a favored position because of having the support of the present Mexican administration and, presumably, the Mexican army in addition to his own private army.

Still, the present election cannot be branded as having been wholly without value. Most of the Mexican people were, at least, given the opportunity to go to the polls and to mark their ballots. In many cases they doubtless took advantage of that opportunity at personal peril. Furthermore, there is reason to suspect that there may have been widespread frauds of various kinds in connection with the balloting and the count.

But the election may have been a start in the right direction. Perhaps it foreshadows the time when the will of the Mexican people as expressed at the ballot box actually will have positive meaning.

Being 'Solid' Costs South

PERHAPS the general election next November will not be a good time for the South to depart from its tradition of being the "Solid South." Certainly, there is little at the moment to indicate that Republican Candidate Wendell Willkie will be successful in his efforts to crack this southern Democratic stronghold.

However, it still is a fact that the South has profited little during the past 75 years from having been the "Solid South." It has been a stepchild of the nation in the distribution of government largess regardless whether a Democrat or a Republican has been in the White House.

That fact is not hard to understand. Democrat administrations have reasoned that regardless how the South was treated, it still would continue to be Democratic. Republicans have theorized that no matter how generous they might be, they could not gain politically. The result has been that most of the favors have gone to the doubtful states — to the states which might express their resentment at the ballot box if they didn't like the treatment they received at the hands of the party in power.

The South never has given large scale expression, to any such resentment—although it has had cause for resentment many, many times. Possibly if the time should come that southerns will mark their resentment down on the ballots, the South may be more generally treated by whichever party happens to gain power.

The One Minute Sermon

Verily, I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them. — St. Matthew 18; 18 through 30.

EXPLANATION OF CARTOON

SNOW SKATER NO. 1

For twenty years "Snowshoe" Thompson was the only means of communication between the Atlantic states and California in the winter. His full name was John A. Thompson (1827-1876), and he was a native of Norway. His route covered the distance between Placerville, California, and Carson City, Nevada over a wilderness covered with snow twenty to thirty feet deep. His mail bag weighed from sixty to 100 pounds. He never carried either an overcoat or a blanket. He covered from thirty to forty-five miles a day. He is considered skiier number one in the history of California. His most celebrated feat was when he saved James Sisson's life by traveling 460 miles on snowshoes requiring ten days of skiing almost without a rest. His snowshoes are now in Sutter's Fort Museum in Sacramento, California. He never received any payment for his twenty years of heroic labors.

Casual Slaughters

By VIRGINIA HANSON

YESTERDAY: Unable to sleep, Kay starts thinking. She comes to the conclusion that Sandra was blackmailing the murderer. Suddenly she remembers her rejected manuscript and decides to get it.

Chapter 400
'Lover's Return'

The corridor was not quite dark on the cross hall that led to the A dim light had been left burning lounge, and a small fanlight over the side door let in a little light from the street. To my left, not more than a dozen steps away, was the door to my rooms. Directly opposite Felicia's door and mine were those of two empty guest rooms when they were not in use. To my which I knew were kept locked right, beyond Felicia's room, and beyond the cross hall, stretched a double row of cryptically closed doors. Now that Sandra and Jeff were gone, only one other room in this wing was occupied, and that by the chaplain. Gerald was upstairs somewhere among the bachelors.

There was no one in sight in either direction. Nevertheless that strange chill persisted. I told myself that I had imagined the creaks and rustles, the click of the door latch. I had to get that manuscript! It would take me only a moment. I would simply unlock the case, open it, extract the manila envelope and bring it back to Felicia's room to read. It was nonsense to suppose that I was in any danger——

Clasping my pocketbook tightly in hands that were suddenly damp, I edged along the wall that distance the other door and pulled myself of twelve steps, found the knob of toward it as if I were walking a tight rope. I was tempted to turn back as I faced the mystery of what might lie within that closed room, above the hammering of my heart, but I listened as well as I could and heard nothing; so presently, rebuking myself for a coward, I turned the knob and swung the door wide.

There was no light, no sound within the room. Fearfully I pressed the switch and inspected the light-flooded room, not neglecting to peep through the crack behind the wide-swung door. I had been fooled by that just once in my life, and it had been a costly error.

There was no one there. I crossed the room on light steps, leaving the corridor door open behind me, and repeated my maneuvers in the bedroom. I looked under the dismantled beds; I looked in the closet; I looked in the bathroom. There was no one in the suite.

Feeling considerably better, I went back into the sitting room, closed and locked the corridor door and switched off the overhead light. There was a small, shaded lamp on the table. I had turned that on instead, after pulling down the thick blinds of the sitting-room windows. Then I closed the door to the dark bedroom and, reasonably safe from interruption, unlocked the wardrobe case and got out the manuscript.

It was just where I had left it, the seal still unbroken. I carried it over to the table, sat down facing the corridor door, and prepared to open it. I had thought better of my resolution to return with it to Felicia's room. I did not want her waking up and coming in on me with her everlasting curiosity. For the matter of that, how did I know I dared trust her? I was in no mood to trust anyone.

And suddenly I saw Sandra's notebook.

Rear Vision

It was lying on the table, just beyond the lamp. On top of some magazines I intended to give the orderly. Where Jeff had found it; where I had looked for it in vain when I returned from the hospital.

If it had been a coiled snake I could not have felt a more fascinated horror. Then someone had been in this room since I left it! I forced myself to reach for it, but as I drew it toward me I felt a sudden consciousnes of the spot between my shoulder blades that acts as a third eye. I glanced nervously behind me, but there was nothing there—nothing but the closed door to the bedroom which I had just thoroughly searched.

"Don't be a fool," I muttered crossly. But I reflected that if human beings were cars someone would long ago have contrived for them some form of rear vision. Rear vision——

Why not contrive a little of my own?

There was a fair-sized mirror set into the inner side of the flap of my pocketbook — one of those envelope-shaped affairs. I turned it inside out and propped it against the lamp so that the mirror reflected the knob of the bedroom door.

I still have that pocketbook. I expect to will it to my grandchildren, if any. For if they ever have any existence, they will owe it to that mirror. Without it I would have lost my life that night.

For the moment it gave me a false sense of security. I opened the unstable notebook, saw that it contained about three pages of competent Gregg shorthand and, concentrating on the little I could remember from a high school course, set myself to decipher it.

A few lines were enough to tell me that this was merely the dictation I had given Sandra on Tuesday. I began to skip, puzzling out a phrase here and there, turning the pages, reassuring myself that there was nothing more.

Nothing more? I turned the last page and saw, detached from the rest of the text, a line of four characters.

I puzzled over them for a moment. The first was the little curved stroke that denotes the hard sound of the letter c—kuh, or k or can. red. Can red—that didn't make The second character seemed to be sense. No, wait—can read! I went on to the last two, which were more complex, with the two little strokes under each that mean capitals. A title. With that as a clue I deciphered them.

Lover's Return! The manuscript she had helped me copy. I was right! Can read—no! What a fool I was! Kay, read Lover's Return!

My fingers trembling with almost unbearable eagerness, I tore open the manila envelope and drew out the eighteen or twenty typed pages.

I started to read. I don't know what I expected to find—underlined words, interlineations——

'I Have Decided——'

There was nothing. This was just the story I had written, the pages I had copied and proofread myself Sandra had done the last six or eight pages. I flipped the manuscript over, chose a page at random, scanned the lines. But I had proofread these pages, too, as she typed them. What——

And then I remembered the letter: "About the middle it starts to go haywire——"

I fumbled the pages apart, grabbed a section out of the middle and began to read.

Page ten.

—what any of you say. I just can't go on without him. He's—why, don't you understand? He's part of my life!

That was no good. My own deathless lines.

I had started to turn the page when I was struck by the strangely solid look of the lower half of the sheet. No dialogue. Paragraphs that begged to be shortened. Why, that would be a solid block in print——

Maribel flung back her silken curls an dstared up at him stagically. 'It's no use, Alfred. Sit down and I will tell you my story: '

What was this? Maribel had silken curls, all right, like all proper pulp heroines and maybe she had a past, too. But this was no way to intorduce either. Maribel had certainly gone haywire——

With more eagerness than any shopgirl, I began to revel in Maribel's past.

There is an imposter here, and I am the only one who knows it. In the beginning I was assured that I would only do harm by exposing the imposter, and I agreed to keep silent, for a price. I saw and still see, no reason why I should not be paid for a service rendered. I needed the money—not for myself alone, but for the man I loved. There is nothing quite so bitter as to be denied love because of poverty—and that poverty caused by a callous world's rejection of genius. And then he was killed. I still think my husband killed him, and I mean him to suffer for it. But my own future was at stake, too. I had to decide between immediate revenge, or security first. I've never been anybody or had anything but the charity of strangers. When the only person I loved lay brutally murdered I cared about nothing but power, money, the means to revenge myself on a world that has shown me no kindness. But something was said about spies which has set me thinking. And I have not yet been paid for my silence. I intend to give my imposter one more chance, but to safeguard myself from one who may be a spy, I have decided to record what I know—

A shiver like a tickling feather had started at the nape of my nack and was zigzagging down my backbone. My fingers fumbled as I tried to flip the page and something, I will never know what, drew my eyes to the mirror.

The knob of the bedroom door was slowly turning.

Incredulous, I stared at the mirror. I had searched that room. There couldn't be anyone there!

The National Whirligig

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

THE very Democratic leaders who lobbied against the Hatch Act have discovered means to make political profit out of the law's ban on excessive campaign expenditures. The Republicans, contrariwise, are suffering from the legal pinch.

Democratic National Treasurer Oliver Quayle, Jr. recently delivered the opinion that the provision limiting expenditures to $3,000,000 applied to the calendar year beginning January, 1940, rather than to the period of active campaigning. His liberal interpretation surprised associates who recalled that the committee had fought the law from start to finish, also President Roosevelt. But when both national parties made their report on 1940 spending to the Clerk of the House, Mr. Quayle's solicitude became understandable.

The GOP has expended $800,000-plus so far this year, while the Democrats have laid out only $350,000. Having possession of the Government with its millions of jobs, the Democrats did not need to oil the machinery of politics as lavishly as their enemies. But if Mr. Quayle's ruling sticks, it will leave the out-of-power party with only about $2,000,000 for the Presidential campaign. In the old days they used to spend that much in two or three of the larger states alone. And with $300,000 to $500,000 allocated to the radio, the GOP's candidates won't have cab fare to the polls on election day.

LOSS: President Roosevelt's national defense experts' investigation of plant capacity has thrown a curious sidelight on our vaunted industrial structure. It has raised great doubt about our economic supremacy as of the present moment.

The need for expansion—the rush for federal financial help—the critical shortage of skilled workers—reveal that America's present productive potential falls far short of defense requirements. Even when expanded, it will not furnish jobs for the estimated 9,000,000 of unemployed men and women. Practical economists are discovering, to their astonishment, that our manufacturing and human plants were more seriously depleted during a decade of depression than anybody dreamed. It is the same tragic lesson which England learned when she went to war with the economically mobilized totalitarians. It amounts to a more dangerous threat against national security than the remote possibility of military invasion of our hemisphere.

These revelations darken the prospect that conscription, foreign armament orders and industrial activity resulting from our preparedness program will relieve unemployment and lighten the national tax load. So far the monthly outlay for defense—about $170,000,000—does not create as many jobs as have disappeared with the loss of our foreign trade in peacetime products.

HOPES: The sincerity of Fiorello LaGuardia's support of President Roosevelt is not questioned by foes or friends. He has long advocated the New Deal's social and economic reforms; he was fighting for them before FDR arrived on the national political scene.

But the New York Mayor, a politician without peer, undoubtedly figures that a Roosevelt victory holds more for him than a Willkie triumph. F. H. will walk out of City Hall on January 1, 1941, for he has promised his family that he will not seek an elective office again. He would curl up and die if he quit public life forever. There seems scant chance that he can attain his great ambition of a seat in the Senate. Neither Democrats nor Republicans will give him a nomination, and he cannot win as an independent.

But if the President is reelected, he can undoubtedly have a cabinet post, probably Secretary of War. It is not expected that Henry L. Stimson, whose age and health incapacitate him from continued service, will hang on in a third term. And the mayor's experience as chairman of the American section of the U. S.-Canadian Defense commission is believed to be a workout for the more permanent assignment as head of the War department.

MORAL: The primary defects of Senators Ashurst of Arizona and King of Utah have deeply affected the political thinking and behavior of their Senate colleagues. They may drive the honorable gentlemen on Capitol Hill into a recess or adjournment, despite anti-war members' demands that they remain on the job. They may also dampen Congressional ardor for the president's extreme pro-Ally policies.

The courtly Ashurst and the scholarly King lost out because they neglected the bread-and-butter problems of their bailiwicks. The Arizonian has not visited his state or confabbed with the husbands and housewives for several years. He has made no attempt to obtain jobs for his "constits." As chairman of the District of Columbia committee, the man from Utah preferred headlines in Washington newspapers to favorable press notices at home. The two men yearned to be regarded as national statesmen rather than as representatives of their states. Their opponents assailed them on the ground that they "spent too much time at Washington."

Both men have packed the administration's foreign policies since France and Britain declared war on Hitler, although Mr. Ashurst opposed conscription. The moral appears to be that Congressmen seeking reelection should stick more closely to their domestic knitting.

NEW YORK
By Richard Waldo

THE mariners have a separate theory from diplomats and military experts on chances that Ireland will be used as an avenue for the German assault. There has not been a noteworthy shipping incident in Erie's territorial waters in weeks that could hint of a naval smash via the Irish sea, but the underwriting brotherhood expects just that.

Insurance quotations on shipping to any Irish point have quietly spiraled to an even 2 cents on the dollar. For comparison, the odds become significant when stacked against the quotations for a through journey from New York to British waters, traversing the full length of the Thames estuary, and F.O.B. the docks of London. For this trip the New York syndicates will insure for 10 per cent and can't find sufficient placement for their money.

Only one shipping passage on earth commands steeper odds than the Irish coast and that is the Mediterranean bottleneck between the Italian island fortress of Pantelleria and the Tunisian coast, a cannon-shot distance. Here the rate is only 5 per cent up on the computed Irish peril. Moreover, the figure is that of independent American underwriters, and is one of the few instances in which the Yankees are not guided by the London risk tables.

CONDITIONS: An American businessman returning to the United States by Clipper after an extensive tour of the Continent reports from his own observations that the Port of London area was a sorry sight last week when he saw it. Based on a thorough survey and on comparison with similar conditions in France, Belgium and Holland, our informant give Great Britain just one more month until surrender will become inevitable because of complete disruption of all communications.

One of the deepest impressions of his entire trip was a visit to Rotterdam which—in parts—four months after fighting stopped is still a heap of ruins. The American observer fears that unless a miracle happens London will not escape that same fate. A journey through Norway showed the country fully returned to peaceful pursuits, but many of its inhabitants are obsessed by fear of a serious food shortage next winter.

Scientists explode superstition that wars have an effect on rains. They do, however, have an effect on reigns.

A cartoonist depicts Hitler as having sold his soul to the devil. Can this be an attempt to gain for the fuehrer the title, "Faust in war, etc.?"

Think twice before you speak, caution our elders, unaware that such action is what brought on the epidemic of doubletalk.

Here And There In Texas

By GORDON K. SHEARER
United Press Staff Correspondent

AUSTIN, Sept. 19—Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel's unprecedented friendship tour of the state has the state capitol busy assigning motives for the visit to legislators.

Few think the compelling purpose of the governor was inability to suppress a desire to "bounce their babies on my knee."

First guess of most of the politically astute is that the governor seeks to pave an easier way for confirmation of his appointees than was experienced at the last legislature. Then he had his choices for highway commissioner and tax commissioner turned down.

Board of Control Chairman Harry Knox, jr., and member Frank Davis will be up for confirmation. There will be a vacancy to fill on the state highway commission, but it is reported here that Carr Collins does not wish the governor to appoint him to that post this time. Possibility that Hal Collins of Mineral Wells or Jesse McKee of Fort Worth might be selected has been dismissed about the capitol.

Groundwork For Third Term?

Another suggestion heard here is that the governor seeks to stave off attacks upon himself such as those staged in the last session. "I hope the legislature will devote all its time to discussing the issues, and not personalities," was considered a significant statement in the radio broadcast in which he announced his state tour.

Others see the trip as laying the groundwork for a third term campaign. Atty. Gen. Gerald C. Mann's recent trip about the state to report on his "stewardship" is cited by those who look on the tour as a political move. Mann is expected to run for governor.

Molly Scoops Jim

Molly O'Daniel, the governor's pretty and energetic daughter, scooped him on announcement of the trip. Molly once conducted a column in the Dallas News. Now she writes for J. M. West's Austin Tribune. Sunday morning she told about the trip with regrets that "dad" insisted that she and her brothers stay home and go to the university.

Whatever purposes are assigned for the tour, everyone seemed to agree that the plan is as good as it is novel.

Redistricting To Be Sought

WITH the U. S. census bureau announcement that Texas now has 6,418,321 people, a new drive for congressional and state senatorial redistricting may be expected at the January session of the state legislature.

Sen. Rogers Kelley of Edinburg already is clamoring for a redistricting that will give Southwest Texas representation more nearly in proporation to its share of the state population. The district which he represents does not have the greatest number of counties but does include counties with large population. He represents more people than the senators from some districts with more counties. His district of 18 counties includes Nueces where Corpus Christi is situated, Webb with Laredo as its county seat, and the densely populated areas of Cameron and Hidalgo counties in the lower Rio Grande valley.

Hazelwood's District Larger

Sen. Grady Hazelwood, who succeeds Sen. Clint C. Small has a district larger in number of counties. But Amarillo is the only major city in the 27-county district. Sen. H. L. Winfield also represents a 27-county district with El Paso as its biggest place. Harris, Tarrant and Dallas counties have senatorial districts of one-county size. Bandera, Kerr and Kendall counties are grouped with Bexar which is the site of San Antonio.

Sen. Alan Shivers has but four counties in his district but his territory includes three large cities, Beaumont, Port Arthur and Orange.

Tucker An Author

Executive Director Will J. Tucker of the state game, fish and oyster commission is blossoming out as an author. His novel based on the history of the Rainbow division is to be issued shortly by Southwest Press. Tucker was captain of the 168th infantry in the Rainbow division. The novel is said by the publishers to include an exciting factual portrayal of the division combined with a fascinating romance. Its title is "Not All Ashes."

To persons who are unfamiliar with the early days of World war No. 1, it may be explained that the Rainbow division was an early division of American troops sent to France. It was composed of crack units selected from National guard organizations.

Incidentally Tucker will receive a trophy at San Antonio on Sept. 21, honoring him as the executive who has done most for wild life conservation on the North American continent in the past two years. The award was voted to him at the Toronto meeting of game commissioners of Canada, Mexico and the United States.

Ever since the college was established in 1876 one of the required courses has been in military science and tactics. Last June a total of 360 graduates were commissioned lieutenants in the officers reserve corps. Many of these accepted active service immediately upon graduation.

During the World war, A. and M. students and graduates numbering 2,200 were in active service, 55 of them paying the supreme sacrifice.

Many hundreds of others served in essential war activities and since the war 4,600 A and M. men have been commissioned in the ROTC.

The college offers two years of basic military training for all students.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor the Avalanche:

Did you ever visit that city in Texas situated on the Colorado, where every two years it becomes a mecca for law makers, job-finders, and "Professional Politicians"? Well, I have and have observed as a country boy all types of humanity. Once I looked down from the balcony on the postling street below and behold every phase of character and grade and condition of life mixing and mingling in that popular mart of our modern civilization.

I saw youth and beauty chasing rainbows of pleasure, and old age shambling along, bent under the weight of years. I saw exultant hope peer over the shoulder of despair, and joy pass and touch the black veil of sorrow. I saw the Christian brush the infidel, and the Gentile elbow the Jew. I saw enterprise grabbing opportunity by the fore lock and success hurling back mock kisses at the panting lips of disappointment. I saw pride and vanity flash their jewels and flaunt their silken skirts in the tear-stained faces of humility, and the chariot of dives throw contemptuous dust from its glittering wheels on the tattered garments of Lazarus. I saw ambition battling for power; greed struggling for wealth, and poverty begging for bread.

Nearby is a green park where art and nature mingled in the beautiful gifts of statue, and fountain, and leaf and tree, and it was touched by the white pavement of America's broadest avenue.

From my position I could see, the blue-coated, brass-buttoned policeman swinging his shining billy in his strong right hand. He seemed the most important personage in the vast throng. I saw him collar a tough and club a pickpocket. I saw him gallantly make way for the ladies to pass, and kindly lead a feeble old man over the crowded crossing. I saw him bow to all the sports and politicians as they passed.

I saw every extreme of society and every striking contrast of virtue and vice, hope and fear, joy and sorrow, of wealth and rags, of glory and shame—I saw these pass like phantoms before me.

I left the balcony to mingle with the teaming thoroughfares. I saw wealth rolling in ease and feasting in luxurious dining halls and rich cafes, while raged children with hungry looks stood without and gazed through plated windows. I saw would-be statesmen drink bumpers with ward politicians and clink glasses with champions of the prize ring. There many an innocent boy just from the old home with his mother's last kiss still warm on his lips and his father's benediction fresh in his heart poured out his first libation to the god of wine and entered the world of sin through the beautiful gate of temptation.

The scene changed as I wandered half-bewildered down the Avenue of that city by the Colorado. I saw unguarded youth, charmed by the glances of fallen beauty, and lured into the silken web of tinseled sin, where remorseless guilt feeds on the polluted husks of blighted hearts, and I thought of the story of the spider and the fly. The scene changed again, and I entered a temple dedicated to the goddess of chance. I heard the roulette wheel, the rattle of the poker chips, and the clink of coins. It was the sound of the clods on the coffin of fortune. I saw anguish hovering there like a brooding angel and beside her stood pale and haggard ruin, with an automatic pointed at his own heart, and he said: "Farewell, O dream of happiness. Farwell to the sweet memories of a mother's kiss and a father's benediction."

The day died into night, and the night vanished before the light of a beautiful Sabbath morning, and I entered into a temple of the living God.

Adams States Congress Will Have To Increase National Debt To 65 Billions

Bonds Will Be Hard To Sell

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. (U.P.) — Sen. Alva B. Adams, D., Colo., asserted today that Congress will have to increase the national debt to $65,000,000,000 and that removal of tax exemption privileges from federal securities would make it difficult to sell government bonds to cover the increasing deficit.

Adams opposed an amendment to the excess-profits tax mortization bill which would provide for the reciprocal taxation of formerly tax exempt state and federal securities.

"We have a $45,000,000,000 national debt," Adams said, "and this Congress will raise that to $65,000,000,000. We are going to have to sell $20,000,000,000 worth of bonds."

Held By Banks

He said $18,000,000,000 worth of federal securities are held by banks and a tax on the interest on these bonds would decrease their value.

"That would mean disaster to many banks," he said, "and I think that Congress should hesitate to do anything that might jeopardize the banks and insurance companies."

Burke Against It

Sen. George W. Norris, Ind., Neb., said that passage of the amendment would "bring a delayed justice to the people of the United States." He declared that Congress has the power to levy taxes "on all income from whatever source derived."

"If there is no favored class, the way to prove it is to levy taxes on all income alike. I think it extremely important that we pass this law and bring a delayed justice to the people of the United States."

Sen. Edward R. Burke, D., Neb., said he opposed the Brown amendment to such an extent he would vote against final passage of the entire tax bill if it were accepted.

Banks Afraid

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. (AP) — Senator Glass (D-Va), one of the first congressional sponsors of the federal reserve banking system, told his colleagues today that banks had been "maneuvered" into a position where they were "afraid" not to purchase new issues of federal bonds.

The Virginian made the assertion during debate on a proposal to tax income from future issues of governmental securities.

Senator Adams (D-Colo) had expressed concern lest such a move would make banks and other buyers less willing to purchase the $20,000,000,000 of federal bonds which he estimated would be sold to increase the national debt to $65,000,000,000.

Will Not Sell

"They are not going to sell this $20,000,000,000 of bonds at all," Glass broke in. "They haven't been selling them for years. They have been allocating them to the banks. They have maneuvered the banks into a position where they are afraid not to take them when they are allocted to them.

"It has been said by competent authority that depreciation of federal bonds ten points below par would ruin 90 per cent of the banks of this country and that's true."

Adams remarked that the credit of the government was "at the peak" at the present time, but he added, "comes a new isue of bonds and the question is what we are going to get for that. When those bonds cease to find a ready market, down goes our defense program as well as the economic structure of the country."

No Questions Involved

Adams said that there was no legal question involved in taxing income from federal bonds and that he did not believe wealthy persons should be permitted to use tax exempt securities as a means of escaping a fair share of taxes.

"But I'm inclined to think," he added, "that in the effort to reach that evil we might perpetrate a worse evil on the country."

Soviet Organ Accuses U. S. Of Designs

MOSCOW, Sept. 19. (AP) — Red Fleet, publication of the Soviet Russian navy, accused the United States today of spreading the Monroe doctrine to the "whole world" and of planning to occupy the Azores, Madeira, Canary and Cape Verde islands.

The newspaper declared that occupation of these Portuguese and Spanish bases off the west coast of North Africa "by a strong European power would be a serious menace for the United States and particularly Latin America."

Hence, Red Fleet asserted, the United States is preparing to take them over herself, "under conditions of imperialism."

Population Increase On Coast Announced

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. (AP) — The Census bureau announced today 1930-40 population increased of 18.2 per cent in the Pacific states, 12.5 per cent in the South Atlantic states, 3.2 per cent in the New England states.

The South Atlantic division had the largest numerical increase of any of the regions for which figures are now available, although the Pacific states registered a larger percentage gain.

The South Atlantic region, comprising Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, had a preliminary population total of 17,771,099, an increase of 1,977,510 over 1930.

The Pacific states of California, Washington, and Oregon, totaled 9,682,781, a margin of 1,488,348 in the decade.

In New England—Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut—the 8,426,566 total was only 260,225 more than 10 years ago.

Among individual states, California so far had the largest numerical gain, 1,196,437.

Chavez Promises Two New Mexico Probes

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 19. (AP)—Taking a parting shot at "migratory millionaires," Senator Dennis Chavez, victorious over Rep. J. J. Dempsey in Saturday's New Mexico Democratic senatorial primaries, left today for Washington with the assertion he intended obtaining state and federal investigation of campaign expenditures.

He hinted at a grand jury inquiry by the state, saying he intended turning over all evidence of unlawful expenditures to district court officials in Santa Fe.

Upon reaching Washington, Chavez said, he will demand a "thorough investigation" from Senator Gillette (D-Ia) and the Senate campaign expenditures committee.
