Respite From War

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — For S. Sgt. Williams B. Carlson, it's a honeymoon.

For Pvt. Michael Brooks, it will be chance to swim in clean water.

They are among 54 servicemen who have completed tours of Vietnam and were flown to Phoenix from Saigon for a week's free vacation in Camelback Inn as rewards for outstanding service.

Carlson of San Diego, Calif., was joined by Khaly, the Vietnamese he married little more than three months ago.

Brooks of Houston, Tex., said that after his Vietnam duty, "I've had enough of dirty water for awhile."

Capt. K. T. Henry of Columbus, Ga., was under a blistering rocket attack in the "rocket nest" around Saigon less than a week ago. He's a 19-year Army veteran, a member of the 199th Light Infantry Brigade. As the ranking officer he was in charge of the men on their 36-hour flight from Saigon. They stopped in San Francisco only long enough to swap their fatigues for dress uniforms.

"I'd like to express our appreciation for this very warm welcome," he said after an airport greeting from a band and pom pon girls from Arizona State University.

"It bolsters our confidence in the American mission. It's quite refreshing in view of the dissident voices we hear about in Vietnam. I've never seen anything like it."

"Yesterday in Saigon, today in Arizona," said Sgt. Danny Smith of St. David, Ariz. "I can't believe it."

Dates were provided for the single men and one of them asked the hotel's social director, "Can we leave the hotel?"

"No passes are necessary — you're not in jail," said. "Consider yourself off base."

FBI, CIA CHIEFS

Hoover, Helms To Retain Posts

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect Nixon, here to confer with Republican congressional chiefs, announced today that J. Edgar Hoover has agreed to continue as FBI director and Richard Helms will remain on the job as director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Shortly after Nixon's arrival here from New York for a visit of several hours, press spokesman Ronald L. Ziegler told newsmen Nixon had talked secretly and face to face with both Hoover and Helms in New York and had asked them to retain their posts. He said they had agreed to do so.

The two men apparently will stay on their jobs indefinitely.

Aides said Nixon could hardly talk seriously about the policies and programs his administration will push since task forces studying major problem areas —and recommending programs for the future—have yet to report to him.

The President-elect will begin receiving these reports this week.

While in the capital, Nixon also will announce he is retaining 73-year-old J. Edgar Hoover as director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. By federal law, Hoover would have been forced to retire in 1964 at age 70 except for an exemption granted him by President Johnson. Nixon will continue to honor the exemption.

It was not certain, however, that Hoover would remain at the helm of the FBI throughout the new president's term. Some sources said he was considering retirement in the next few years.

The Nixon meeting with Republican leaders of Congress was a bit unusual in that one outsider was included among the conferees—Ray Bliss, chairman of the GOP National Committee.

Once in office, presidents normally do not invite their party chairman to such sessions.

But at this preinaugural meeting it was apparent that Nixon and those meeting with him would have to give particular attention to partisan strategy in the coming congressional session, where Democrats will outnumber Republicans in both houses.

On Sunday, Nixon and daughter Julie attended morning services at the Marble Collegiate Church and heard a prayer by the minister, the Rev. Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, for Johnson and the president-elect.

Julie will be married in Dr. Peale's church next Sunday to David Eisenhower, grandson of the former president.

In the afternoon, Nixon walked up Fifth Avenue from his apartment through streets covered with ice and snow to Temple Emanu-El for memorial services for Arthur Hays Sulzberger, retired publisher of The New York Times.

More Misery From Flu Bug

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hong Kong flu has caued three more universities to begin Christmas holidays early but several others tentatively scheduled reopenings this week. Among the victims of the illness is Richard Cardinal Cushing, archbishop of Boston.

In many hospitals, visiting privileges have been canceled or drastically restricted to avoid further spread of the malady.

Classes at George Washington University were ordered suspended today as about 50 per cent of the school's 2,500 undergraduates were reported ill. The holiday at the Washington, D.C. school had been scheduled to begin Friday.

Four Virginia colleges, which normally would have closed later this week, shut down last Wednesday and Thursday. Starting today, three central Virginia hospitals began discouraging visitors to protect patients from the flu.

Central Michigan University canceled all classes until Jan. 6, while Northern Michigan University also closed a week early because of "flu-like" illnesses.

Two Maryland schools, closed last week, planned to resume classes this week in view of no significant outbreaks over the weekend.

In Cleveland, Ohio, three Catholic schools closed last week will open today.

In Wisconsin, health authorities said blood tests showed Type A incidence of the flu up as much as 17 per cent in some localities compared to 3 per cent in November. In Milwaukee, about 10 per cent of the schools' teachers were absent last week, while more than 20 Milwaukee-area hospitals cut down drastically on the number of visitors.

In San Francisco, the virus reportedly made little impact on the general populace, but the police department said 300 of its men were ill, mostly with the flu. The department said it did not know if it was the Hong Kong variety.

In Pittsburgh, hospitals reported an upsurge in flu-like illnesses but pinpointed only five cases as being of the Hong Kong variety. To guard against any possible general outbreak, six hospitals restricted visiting privileges.

Cleveland hospitals reported that their staffs have been hit hard by illness, while absenteeism among police and firemen because of illness was at least three times the normal level.

Dr. E. Frank Ellis, Cleveland health director, said the worst may yet come. He caught the flu Thursday.

New York City Health Commissioner Edward O'Rourke predicted Sunday that the Hong Kong epidemic would strike one out of every five New Yorkers and that the disease would cause 300 to 400 deaths, particularly among chronic sufferers from heart and lung disease.

Michigan Fires Kill 12

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — Twelve persons, 10 of them children, died in Michigan fires over the weekend.

A mother and her three children died in a fiery gas explosion which blew their home apart Sunday on Kalamazoo's South Side.

Five children perished in a Saturday fire on Detroit's West Side.

Other victims included a 2-year-old boy, Joey Bincsik, once rescued by his parents, who broke loose and ran back into his burning home in Lapeer County. His body later was found under a bed.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bincsik, were awakened by the fire and managed to escape through a picture window with Joey and two brothers before Joey darted back inside.

A 14-month-old child, Charlene Downun, succumbed in a Saturday night Detroit blaze blamed on a defective heater at her home, and Alex Lindquest of the Upper Peninsual community of Gwin was fatally burned in a fire that destroyed his home Saturday night.

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — With the condition for their moon voyage smoothly under way, the Apollo 8 astronauts today received the final major physical examination for the flight.

Space agency doctors began examining Air Force Col. Frank Borman, Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Maj. William A. Anders in a session scheduled to last four or five hours to make certain the spacemen are in excellent shape for the mission.

FEARS OF UPHEAVAL SUBSIDE

Dubcek To Remain At Post

PRAGUE (AP) — Fears of a new political upheaval in Czechoslovakia subsided today with the news that the Communist party will keep Alexander Dubcek as its chief and will go ahead with a limited program of economic reforms.

The party central committee, which met last week, gave Dubcek, National Assembly Chairman Josef Smrkovsky and other progressives in the party leadership more time to amend party policy.

Workers and students met throughout the weekend preparing strikes and other protest actions if their more liberal favorites were deposed. But there was no mention of any leadership changes in the committee resolutions published today, and informed sources said there were none.

One resolution said, "The party takes the main line in the sphere of economic policy to be continuation of economic reforms which have been started."

But the resolution made clear that the economic program would be a delayed, weaker version of the plans made before the Soviet invasion Aug. 20.

It said the party would lay down a mandatory schedule for the reforms so that the central committee might discuss the document by mid-1969. In effect this shelved action for some six months.

There was no mention of the earlier more ambitious plans for widespread use of profit motive incentives and free market regulation of prices by supply and demand. Instead it said only that some factories and some industries would be freed from some dictates of the central planners.

The resolution called for both closer economic ties with the Soviet Union and for more trade with the capitalist West. Grade with the West was a major feature of the pre-August reform plans. But the resolution put more stress on the stronger cooperation with the Soviets.

High Court Makes Rulings On Draft

WASHINGTON (AP) — Draft boards may not use "delinquency" regulations to take away the exemptions of divinity students and groups of other young men shielded from the draft by Congress, the Supreme Court ruled 6 to 3 today.

At the same time, however, the court held that draft resisters who do not have a congressional exemption must—in order to test their 1-A classifications — chance prosecution for draft evasion.

The first ruling, protecting exempted young men from forced induction if draft boards disapprove of their behavior, was given in the case of James J. Oestereich, a ministerial student at Andoper-Newton Theological School, Newton Center, Mass.

Oestereich, of Cheyenne, Wyo., was one of 357 people who returned their draft cards to the Justice Department in a protest Oct. 16, 1967, against U.S. war action in Vietnam.

Three weeks later he was declared a delinquent, stripped of his IV-D theological exemption and put into 1-A.

The court, in a decision delivered by Justice William O. Douglas, declared that Congress had made divinity students draft exempt and that Oestereich was entitled to a chance to contest his reclassification in court.

That is, the court said, he did not have to refuse the draft, chancing a jail term, to get a ruling.

Besides, Douglas said, exempt young men cannot be declared delinquent and pushed up to the 1-A slot for activity that has nothing to do with the functioning of the Selective Service system.

Draft boards, he said, cannot make themselves "free wheeling agencies meting out their brand of justice in a vindictive manner."

Brazilians Report Tensions Easing

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Brazilians streamed to their jobs and other pursuits in normal fashion today after a weekend crackdown by President Arthur da Costa e Silva on the opposition to his regime and its military backers.

Regularly scheduled morning newspapers were on the stands but all lacked editorial comment on a weekend political upheaval in which 200 persons were reported arrested.

Available information indicated there were no incidents in any part of the nation, South America's largest and potentially its richest.

Some reports said the government would suspend the political rights of its opponents. Some militant students and opposition politicians were reported in hiding.

But the country's major cities showed little sign of tenseness. Thousands of Rio citizens spent a hot, sunny Sunday at the beach. In Sao Paulo, the state militia held a scheduled parade before thin crowds.

Some tanks and heavy equipment were reported stationed around military headquarters in Rio, Sao Paulo, Brasilia and various state capitals.

The crackdown began Friday night when Costa e Silva suspended Congress and imposed martial law after Congress refused to suspend the immunity from prosecution of a deputy who had criticized the army. The government claimed subversives were trying to overthrow it or frustrate its work.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: With the holidays just around the corner, I'd like to say something about the way some people "entertain."

When I entertain guests in MY home, I invite them into my LIVING ROOM. I have friends who invite us over for a party, and everybody is herded down the basement. It's fixed up real nice down there, but it's always a little bit damp and dark and uncomfortable. Besides, I resent getting all dressed up to stand around in somebody's cellar.

What are these people afraid of? That somebody might mess up their living room?

RUTHIE

DEAR RUTHIE: There is no defense for people who entertain in a basement that's "damp, dark, and uncomfortable." But the way some careless guests handle their cigarettes and drinks, they should be entertained in a BARN!

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I have always had the feeling that my mother-in-law never cared for me very much altho heaven knows I have tried my best to make her like me. I married her favorite son, but I am far from her favorite daughter-in-law.

What bothers me most is this: Everywhere you look in her house you see pictures of her "children" — sons, daughters, and their husbands and wives, but there is not one picture of me.

I gave her a big tinted picture of me in my wedding gown, but I have never seen it displayed anywhere. Since that time I have given her other pictures of me, but she hasn't put any of them out either. I am not an ugly girl, Abby. In fact people say I am the prettiest of her four daughters-in-law.

I keep asking my husband what his mother has against me and he says, "Nothing." What should I do? About the pictures, I mean?

HURT

DEAR HURT: I'll tell you what NOT to do. Don't bug your husband about it. He is not his mother's keeper.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: My conscience is bothering me and I have other problems, too. I'm a 15-year-old girl who everybody thinks is a "very nice girl." But I'm not as nice as they think I am.

My girl friend and I went to a movie one night and we let ourselves be picked up by a couple of guys. They had a car so we went for a ride afterwards, and we parked and made out (only light necking — nothing serious), but we really aren't "pickups" and we don't know what made us act like that.

Well, I've seen this guy a couple of times on the sneak since then, but he doesn't ever want to come in and meet my parents, and all he ever wants is to go out and park with me. I really like this guy and he is on my mind day and night. How can I make it a respectable relationship? I feel ashamed and dirty.

FIFTEEN

DEAR FIFTEEN: Even a "nice" girl can act on an impluse and behave foolishly ONCE. But she cheapens herself when she mets a boy "on the sneak" to make out with him. A boy who refuses to meet a girl's parents is bad news. Don't see him again.

• • •

CONFIDENTIAL TO "THINKING ABOUT IT": Slow down, Soldier. If this is the kind of love that will last forever (and that's the only kind worth marrying for) it will last until you finish your hitch. If the girl has truly "reformed," she won't object to your "sending for her" after you've returned home and have had a chance to think about it objectively.

• • •

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Y3c Barfoot In Exercise

Yeoman Third Class Larry W. Barfoot, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton L. Barfoot of Route 1, Hermleigh, participated in operation "Beef Trust" with Fleet Composite Squadron — 3 off the coast of Southern California.

The last major First Fleet exercise of the year, the eight-day exercise involved 28 ships and 31 air squadrons, including four Canadian units.

Designed to prepare U. S. units for the conditions encountered in Southeast Asia and throughout the Western Pacific, the exercise consisted of missile firing exercises, bombing practice, close air support and anti-submarine warfare.

Cruisers and destroyers fired their guns at the San Clemente Island Range and at a target hull, the ex-USS Jesse Rutherford, while guided missile ships tested their batteries against drone aerial targets in the Pacific Missile Range.

Carrier and land based aircraft flew strikes against the San Clemente Island Range, while the entire task force guarded against two U. S. submarines playing aggressors.

Dangerous Situation

DEWITT, Mich. (AP) — A car teetered at the edge of a 100-foot ramp, then sped toward the thin ice of Lake Geneva with two men apparently trapped inside.

It was just a demonstration of what to do in case you're trapped in a speeding car headed for water, sponsored by Michigan state police.

The rules are:

—Don't panic. Keep your doors closed. Your car will float at least four minutes.

—Wait until the car is settled, then roll down a window and crawl out, which is what Sgt. Larry Miller did.

—If the car noses down, smash the back window and climb out onto the trunk, which is what Sgt. William Carter did.

Miller and Carter were pulled to strong ice by four safety experts who spread-eagled themselves across the surface in a human chain.

Death Claims Renowned Campaigner

TOTNES, England (AP) — Dorothy Whitney Straight Elmhirst, 81, a founder of The New Republic magazine and various educational projects, died Saturday at Dartington Hall in Devon.

The daughter of William C. Whitney, American financier and President Grover Cleveland's secretary of the Navy, Mrs. Elmhirst spent her life campaigning for social and educational "adventure through unity, not uniformity."

The death of her father in 1904 left the beautiful, young Miss Whitney wealthy and she became a leading figure in New York society. But she also led marches for women's suffrage, campaigned for community homes for working girls, was elected president of the New York Junior League and later the first president of the National Junior Leagues, supported countless charities and organized the feeding of 3.5 million starving European children after World War I.

In 1911 she married Willard Straight, a banker.

Influenced by Herbert Croly's "The Promise of American Life," the Straights founded The New Republic. Straight enlisted in World War I and died in France in 1918, but his widow retained family ownership until 1954. Their son Michael was for many years editor of the magazine.

She married agriculturist Leonard K. Elmhirst in 1925 and moved to Britain, where the couple purchased Dartington Hall, a roofless ruin populated by chickens and pigs. They turned it into one of Britain's leading coeducational boarding schools and model farms, founded a center for arts and crafts education in the west of England and built a glass factory.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Elmhirst, is survived by three sons, Whitney Straight, deputy chairman of Rolls-Royce Ltd., William K. Elmhirst and Michael W. Straight, president of the William C. Whitney Foundation, and two daughters, actress Beatrice Straight and Mrs. Morris Ash.

Electoral College Makes It Official

By STERLING F. GREEN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican Richard M. Nixon seized an early lead over Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey in early returns from the presidential balloting of the Electoral College today.

Tennessee's electors, the first to finish, gave the state's 11 votes to the former vice president and his running mate Maryland Gov. Spiro T. Agnew. Vermont brought in 3 Nixon votes as expected, then Oklahoma 8 and Arizona 5.

The District of Columbia was first to give its votes, 3 of them, to Humphrey. West Virginia followed suit with 7, and at noon the count was Nixon 27 to 10.

The votes were not a surprise, and neither was the probable outcome of the electors' meetings in other state capitals and the District of Columbia, in what may be the last election decided by the Electoral College system.

The popular vote cast in the Nov. 5 general election indicated about 302 electoral votes from 32 states for Nixon, or 32 more than he needed to carry the Electoral College.

Today's results were the only official ones, under the Constitution. The ballots will be mailed to Washington, where a joint session of Congress on Jan. 6 will count them and pronounce the winner.

But it is not a foregone conclusion that all electors will vote as the people of their states did, and the threat of a constitutional crisis last year has added impetus to proposals in Congress for a constitutional amendment to change the system.

Rail Merger Is Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court delayed today the Northern Lines Railroad merger.

The at least temporary setback to creation of a massive consolidated line in the Northwest was granted on an application by the Justice Department.

The department had claimed the merger would have a "drastic anticompetitive impact" and that "the public interest will be irreparably injured."

The court, acting on the department's motion for a stay, ordered a delay "to remain in effect until further order of the court."

Presumably, the stay will continue until the court decides whether it will hear an appeal by the Justice Department striving to derail the merger.

The major roads involved are the Great Northern Railway, the Northern Pacific Railway and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad. Also included would be smaller lines such as the Pacific Coast Railway and the Spokane, Portland and Seattle Railway.

Merged they would have assets of $2.8 billion. The railroads have more than 26,500 miles of track. The new line would stretch from Chicago to Seattle and from the Canadian border to the Gulf of Mexico.

Pub Sign On Pizza Parlor?

CHOBHAM, England (AP) — The bikini girl pub sign that shook this old world English village may wind up in a Californian pizza parlor.

The sign, painted for the Sun Inn, infuriated traditionists who felt beer and bikinis don't mix. The brewers, Courage Ltd., yielded and took down the sign. Now they have offers from America.

The first came from George W. Kukar of the House of Pizza of San Jose, Calif.

"I'll be only too proud to hang the sign up here," he wrote.

Henry Grindling of Dayton, Ohio, bid with a check for $50, commenting: "I think the girl looks really nice and healthy."

Courage Ltd. said: "We wouldn't have put up the sign if we thought it would cause offense. But now it's down, and although we haven't made our minds up it almost certainly will go to America."

Blaiburg Defends Dr. Barnard

NEW YORK (AP) — The world's longest lived heart transplant patient has defended the "cold, calculated courage" of Dr. Christian Barnard, who performed the controversial operation.

The patient, Philip Blaiberg, said of the pioneer surgeon, "He it was who had the courage to transplant a new heart in me after his first patient died."

"The cold, calculated courage he has shown, while the world watched him, was courage indeed," Blaiberg wrote in a book, "Looking at My Heart," published today by Stein and Day.

The transplant operation had been criticized as premature before Blaiberg, a retired dentist, became the world's third transplant patient last Jan. 2. Before the operation, Blaiberg's condition had been considered hopeless.

In the book, Blaiberg says he and his wife resumed marital relations on April 5, their wedding anniversary. He had left Groote Schuur Hospital in Capetown, South Africa, on March 16.

This Beef Loaf Has Pizza Flavor

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

What's new in meat loaves? That's a question that interests most mothers who cook for a family.

And we have the answer: Meat Loaf in the Round, an exceptionally good beef mixture packed into a ring mold, turned out on a shallow pan and given a catchup glaze during the baking. Because the meat mixture is baked "in the round," it needs only 40 minutes in the oven.

Then, just to make the loaf extra interesting, slices of mozzarella cheese are arranged over its sides and back it goes into the oven until the cheese melts.

With the tomato - flavor glaze and the mozzarella, this loaf has pizza flavor!

Something else is different about this meat loaf — an envelope of onion soup mix goes into it. We like this addition because it gives excellent flavor and saves chopping or grating onion.

And still another plus. This beef loaf slices well. We think you'll like its compact yet moist texture.

One note about the soft bread crumbs called for in the recipe. Remove the crust from soft slices of bread before dicing very fine to make crumbs. If you use bread from a thinly sliced loaf, 4 slices will make the 1½ cups crumbs called for.

BEEF LOAF IN THE ROUND

1 egg
1 envelope (1⅜ ounces) onion soup mix
1½ cups soft bread crumbs
¾ cup milk
1½ pounds ground lean beef
¼ cup catsup
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
Mozzarella cheese, sliced

In a medium mixing bowl, beat the egg just enough to combine yolk and white; add onion soup mix, bread crumbs and milk; mix thoroughly; let stand about 5 minutes. With a fork, mix in the beef.

Oil a ring mold — 4 to 6 cup size; pack beef mixture into it; turn out onto an oiled shallow baking pan. Bake in a preheated 400-degree oven for 40 minutes, brushing once or twice with catchup mixed with mustard.

Remove loaf from oven; arrange mozzarella over the sides, using 4 to 6 slices. Return to the 400-degree oven; bake until cheese melts —3 to 5 minutes, depending on thickness of cheese.

Slide loaf onto serving plate. Center may be filled with cooked noodles.

Makes 6 servings.

BEEF LOAF IN THE ROUND — It's shaped in a ring mold and given a catchup glaze and a mozzarella cheese garnish. The center may be filled with noodles.

Almond Rice

¼ cup butter
¼ cup blanched whole almonds
1 cup converted-type rice
1 small onion, finely chopped
1 green pepper, finely diced
1½ teaspoons salt
2½ cups boiling water

In a 10-inch skillet melt the butter. Add almonds, rice and onion; over moderately low heat stirring often, cook until rice and onions are browned. Stir in green pepper, salt and water. Bring to a vigorous boil; turn heat very low; cover tightly and cook until rice is tender and water has evaporated — 20 to 25 minutes. With a fork, stir over low heat for a few minutes to fluff rice. Makes 6 servings.

soc asparagus salad 1-14 bonnie
¼ cup olive oil
2 tablespoons cider vinegar
1 can (1 pound) green asparagus spears
Romaine or other salad greens
2 tomatoes, sliced
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese

In a shallow container, with a fork, beat together the oil and vinegar. Drain asparagus and place spears in the marinade, spooning it over them. Cover and refrigerate for several hours or longer. At serving time arrange asparagus on romaine: surround with tomatoes; spoon mainade over romaine and tomatoes. Sprinkle asparagus with the Pamesan. Makes 4 servings.

New Secretary Of Labor Favors Innovation In Slums

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — George P. Shultz, chosen by President-elect Nixon as his secretary of labor, considers unemployment among young nonwhites as a "large, serious and growing" problem underlying urban unrest.

Shultz meticulously dissected the dilemma of ghetto unemployment early this year in an address before the Center for Policy Study, based at the University of Chicago, where he is dean of the Graduate School of Business.

In the paper, which Shultz reworked this summer, the next labor secretary revealed himself as in favor of innovation and a "flavor of experimentation," and as a man who believes that slum residents should be heavily involved in their own job-opportunity programs.

Shultz said that private money inevitably must be involved in developing training programs and jobs for young nonwhites. He said he foresees a large role for corporate-government efforts and suggested a novel financing method.

The method would involve an annual appropriation of funds by Congress, but buying power would then be given to individuals, though not necessarily in the form of money.

"A person could receive credits entitling him to $5,000 worth of training, counseling and wage subsidy benefits. It would be up to him to exercise these credits to his best advantage, as in the operation of the G.I. Bill," he said.

Shultz conceded that this approach unnerves some planners, but maintained that if experimented with, the rewards might be great both for the job seeker and the school system.

"The expectation would be," he said, "that new or drastically altered institutions of training would emerge, tailored much more to the needs of the disadvantaged.

"Alternatively or concurrently, experimental schools might be established in the ghetto directly addressing themselves to the problems of their people without respect to the rest of the school system."

Shultz suggested that a federal-city-neighborhood private school might be established in the slums, operated by a non-school system group, specifically for experimentation on such education problems.

One objective, he said, would be to place control in the hands of the people to be helped, and to encourage the development of an education system keyed to the problems of ghetto unemployed.

In stating his opinions, Shultz observed that "unemployment today is a disease that is endemic among nonwhite teenagers while the general population enjoys robust health."

While joblessness among whites declined frm 1961 to 1967, he observed, the unemployment rate for teen-age nonwhites remained the same at 28 per cent, or seven times the national avrage.

Shultz said the enlistment of the private sector was desirable but that it raised issues of its own. What, he asked, should be done about tardy workers, absences, conflicts, unproductiveness? How should a company maintain its efficiency while forced to be more tolerant and permissive?

To discharge the employe, he contended, would hardly solve the problem. Instead, he suggested the unsatisfactory worker might be dropped from one company but automatically employed by another firm.

Shultz expressed his thoughts at a conference on "Race and Unemployment" held by the Center for Policy Study, and organization founded in 1965 to promote dialogue between scholars and public figures.

Junior Editors Quiz on DISCOVERY OF AMERICA

QUESTION: Can we be certain that America was discovered by Columbus and not by the Vikings?

* * * *

ANSWER: This question seems to suggest a race between Leif Ericson and Christopher Columbus — impossible because the two explorers lived at different times. The idea was so quaint that our artist illustrated it. Actually, neither man realized he had discovered a huge continent called America. This name was not given to it until later, after the discoveries of Amerigo Vespucci. We have heard about Lief Ericson's journey about 1000 A.D. because the old Icelandic sagas tell his story. A few years ago the remains of a Viking settlement were found in Newfoundland. Others may have visited America before Leif, but he was certainly one of the very first explorers to land on this continent. Columbus was hoping to find a sea route to the riches of the East and thought he could reach the East Indies by sailing directly west from Europe. When, in 1492, he landed on what is now the island of San Salvador in the West Indies, he thought these were the East Indies.

Bulletins From Boyle's Mailbag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Air pollution adds to your grocery bill as well as increasing laundry costs and possibily damaging your lungs. Befouling of the atmosphere is estimated by agricultural experts to cause $500 million in crop damage each year.

Did you ever win anything beside a floor lamp or a book as a door prize? When the Colosseum was opened in Rome in 80 A.D., the Emperor Titus gave away slaves as door prizes to winning ticket holders.

A new way to remove tattoo marks has been developed at the University of Iowa Medical College. The surfaces layers of pigmented skin are removed in a few moments with a diamond burr. The skin dye then comes to the surface and flakes off as the abraded areas heals.

Every step forward creates a new problem. An example is the new concealed window wipers on cars. The problem? Traffic cops are stumped as to where to affix tickets for parking violations.

Each year Americans use enough wood to build a bridge of logs to the moon. Perhaps at that it would be cheaper to get to the moon that way than by building space vessels.

Quotable notables: "The stomach is the only part of man that can be satisfied. The yearning of man's brain for new knowledge and experience . . . is an appetite which cannot be appeased."—Thomas A. Edison.

An American's chance of going through life without being hurt in an auto accident are getting slimmer. Last year alone one out of every four motor vehicles was involved in an accident. The dollar toll: $12 billion.

Helpful tips: Don't try to lift heavy objects unless you're in top physical shape. The price of a hernia operation has gone up 48 per cent in the last 12 years.

High and low: Colorado has the highest low point of any state and Florida the lowest high point, says the National Geographic Society. Colorado's lowest spot is 3,350 feet above sea level, and the highest point in Florida is 345 feet.

Education can be killing: Each year 15 of every 100,000 college students commit suicide, a rate higher than the national average and twice the rate of young people the same age who don't go to college.

Sweet tooth: Despite all the stern dietary warnings to avoid an excessive caloric intake, the average American now eats 19 pounds of candy a year. He takes the warnings with a grain of sugar.

Worth remembering: "The reason everyone seems nicer on Christmas is because you are looki— at them with your heart."

It was Ralph Waldo Emerson who observed, "This time, like all other times, is a very good one—if we but know what to do with it."

Dave Dickey of Arkansas scored 144 points in the last two football seasons. He made 10 more points than Roland Moss of Toledo and 12 more than Leroy Keyes of Purdue during the same period.

UP AND IN! — Snyder's Wesley Bishop was the leading scorer for the Tigers during their finals triumph over Dunbar. Here, he goes up high for his first two points. Watching helplessly for Dunbar is Frank Melton. Both boys made the All-Tournament team, but the Tigers limited Melton to just four points in the finals.

The Bengals of Coach Ned Underwood put forth a great team effort to retain their tournament title and beat the team that was favored to wrest it from them. Three Tigers — Benny Ward, Wesley Bishop and Jim Patrick — were named to the All-Tournament team.

Snyder qualified for the finals by knocking off a tall Dumas team, 73-64, in the semifinals Saturday morning. Dunbar reached the final round by defeating a talented Brownfield team 60-53. Brownfield took third place with a 65-39 verdict over Dumas. Midland won the Consolation crown by rapping determined Seminole 67-54. In other tilts Saturday, Midland qualified for the Consolation finals with a 81-53 verdict over Phillips; Seminole reached the Consolation finals with a 69-37 triumph over Littlefield; and, Phillips tripped Littlefield 77-38 in a battle for 7th place.

The Bengals struck quickly to build a 10-0 lead over the tall Panthers and held a 44-36 lead at halftime. Dunbar pulled within three points in the third period, but a late rally propelled Snyder into a 62-57 lead. The Tigers kept up the pressure in the fourth period and outscored Dunbar 21-12 to win going away.

"When I saw how the boys were hustling early in the game, I figured we had a good chance to win," Underwood stated after his team sacked up the crown.

And hustle they did. The three lads who made All-Tournament hit in double figures. These three and Bill Hood, Jodi Williamson and Bruce Almond all scored in the first period as the Tigers took a commanding lead. Snyder was never behind in the contest. The Bengals seemed to try a little harder every time Dunbar threatened to pull even.

Bishop scored at least five points in every quarter and finished with a total of 25. Ward, who hit consistently from afar, compiled 18 points. Patrick hurt the Panthers from the top of the circle and on inside shots with great faking. He meshed 14 points.

As a team, the Tigers hit 60, 50, 35 and 50 per cent in the four quarters respectively while Dunbar posted 25, 41, 64 and 25 per cent. The Bengals hit free throws with uncanny accuracy, dropping in 25 of 33 while Dunbar connected on only 19 of 31.

Snyder also fought the taller Panthers on even terms on the board. Dunbar led only 35-31 in rebounds while jump balls were split at three each. Benny Ward, playing perhaps his finest game, seemed to be in the right place on the rebounds. He grabbed 14 for Snyder. Patrick grabbed six. The Tigers lost the ball 19 times on turnovers, but Dunbar gave it up 23 times through mistakes.

Marc Wilson, Dunbar's 6-6 center, posted 25 points to lead the visitors. Allan Newman was runnerup with 20, and Earnest Davis put in 11. Little Frank Melton, who hit consistently in double figures against all other foes, was kept well in check by the Tigers. He garnered only four points.

Melton and Wilson both were named to the All-Tournament team. Also named were Gary Baccus and Roger Roberson of Brownfield, Bob Thorpe of Dumas, Larry Cottrell of Seminole and Courtland Bivens of Midland.

Baccus, scoring 22 points, led Brownfield past Dumas in the fight for third place. Thorpe put in 13 to pace the losers. Bivens led Midland with 25 points in its Consolation tussle with Seminole while Cottrell connected for 12 for the Indians.

Thorpe hit for 22 points in the semifinals against Snyder, but Patrick, playing one of his best games, talled 26 for the Tigers. Ward and Lee McNair also finished in double figures with 15 and 10 points respectively. Bishop posted nine.

The Tigers trailed 13-18 after one period and 37-40 at halftime. A good defensive effort helped the Bengals grab the lead, 53-52, in the third period, and they outscored Dumas 20-12 in the last stansa.

John McHale, president of the Montreal Expos who will play in the National League next unsuccessfully for Detroit in the season, pinch hit three times 1945 World Series.

B Kittens Capture Top Kermit Trophy

KERMIT — The talented Snyder junior varsity Kittens captured the tournament championship here Saturday night with an impressive 90-73 triumph over Seminole.

Earlier Saturday, the Kittens defeated host Kermit 78-59 in the semifinal round.

Coach Jerry McLeod's hustling team jumped into a 26-17 lead against Seminole in the first round and never were threatened after that. Four boys led by Ronald Ward with 32 points, hit in double figures. Danny Farmer hit for 20, Jeff Stewart sunk 14, and Glenn Rambin roped 13.

Stewart, Rambin and Farmer all were named to the All Tournament team.

In the semifinals, Snyder trailed 18-19 after one period, and the score was tied at 37-37 at halftime. Kermit went into a 54-47 lead in the third period.

Down seven points with time becoming a factor, the Kittens got hotter than Santa Claus at the equator and scored 33 points in the last frame while holding Kermit to seven. That fine fourth period performance turned the tide in favor of the Kittens.

Rambin notched 35 points, Ward made 15, and Farmer pitched in 11 in the semifinal tilt.

Estacado Reaches Class AAA Finals

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The finals of the Texas schoolboy football playoffs this weekend centers on high interest on whether Austin Reagan, winner of 28 straight games, can retain its title as strongboy of Class AAAA.

Reagan, a classy and powerful team quarterbacked by Emory Bellard, son of Texas assistant Emory Bellard, will tangle with fiesty Odessa Permian which has compiled an 11-3 record. The meeting will be at 2 p.m. Saturday in San Angelo.

The stage is set for a real donnybrook in the Class AAA finals between Refugio and Lubbock Estacado at Fort Worth Amon Carter Stadium at 2 p.m. Saturday. Estacado, competing in its first year in the University Interscholastic League, is unbeaten in 13 games. Refugio, a high-scoring outfit, is unbeaten in 14 tests.

Surprising Daingerfield, an upset winner over Iowa Park in the semifinals, takes a 12-1 record against undefeated Lufkin Dunbar in an all-East Texas final at Nacogdoches Friday at 8 p.m. Dunbar, competing in the league for the first time, has a winning streak of 39 games which stretches over three seasons. It won the state Negro championship the past two years.

A thunderous collision is in prospect in Class A when mighty Poth and Sonora meet. Poth has ripped through 14 opponents like tissue paper, scoring an incredible 741 points to but 46 for the opposition. Sonora is 12-1-1. The two clubs meet at San Marcos 8 p.m. Friday.

In the semifinal games Reagan and the slick Bellard dazzled Houston Washington 31-13 before 35,000 in Rice Stadium in Houston. The loss was Washington's first in 20 games. Bellard passed 30 for a touchdown to Gary Morrison and directed drives climaxed by Donald Ealey who scored on runs of 13 and 3 yards.

Permian thoroughly whipped Houston Smiley 22-0, but it was a rugged run by Tommy Stewart that helped turn the key. Stewart crashed off tackler after tackler in rambling 57 yards for a touchdown that gave Permian all the spark it needed.

Estacado flashed some long-distance lightning in burning No. 1 ranked Henderson 30-0. James Lester fielded a punt and rocketed 76 yards for a score as the Lubbock team held the Lions' heralded Joe Wylie in check.

Packers KO Bears 28-27

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Don Horn started the day backing up Green Bay's back-up quarterback and wound up throwing the Chicago Bears for a fatal loss.

He had an unlikely band of Packer-backers from Minnesota behind him all the way.

Horn, activated Saturday night by the Packers as standby for Zeke Bratkowski, Bart Starr's relief pitcher, came off the bench Sunday and keyed a 28-27 triumph over Chicago that knocked the Bears out of the National Football League championship picture.

Chicago's setback, coupled with Minnesota's 24-17 victory at Philadelphia, crowned the Vikings as champions of the Central Division.

But the Vikings, who followed the Green Bay-Chicago game via clubhouse radio after the finish of their game, had to sweat out a furious Bear charge in the final minutes before nailing their first division title in eight years as a NFL expansion franchise.

In Sunday's other regular season finales, Baltimore edged Los Angeles 28-24, Dallas thumped New York 28-10, Washington topped Detroit 14-3, San Francisco nipped Atlanta 14-12 and New Orleans trimmed Pittsburgh 24-14. St. Louis upended Cleveland 27-16 Saturday.

Dallas meets the Browns in Cleveland next Saturday for the Eastern Conference title and the Vikings and Colts collide at Baltimore the following day for the Western crown.

Oakland outscored San Diego 34-27, New York slammed Miami 31-7 and Houston walloped Boston 45-17 in Sunday's American Football League games. Saturday, Kansas City rolled to a 30-7 AFL victory over Denver.

Horn, released from the Army just 10 days ago, entered the Packers-Bears scrap with Chicago leading 10-7 in the first quarter after Bratkowski, who had started in place of the injury-plagued Starr, was shaken up.

The 23-year-old San Diego State alumnus, Green Bay's No. 1 draft choice last year, uncorked a 67-yard touchdown pass to Jim Grabowski and then set up Chuck Mercein's one-yard scoring plunge with a 45-yard pass to Boyd Dowler as the Packers grabbed a 21-10 halftime lead.

Horn capped an 83-yard third quarter drive with a 25-yard TD strike to Dowler, boosting the margin to 28-10, before the Bears struck back.

Ronnie Bull's eight-yard touchdown run and Mac Percival's 26-yard field goal closed the gap to 28-20 and Dick Gordon grabbed a 51-yard TD pass from Jack Concannon with 3:58 remaining in the game. Percival's conversion left the Bears one point back.

The Packers, unable to move the ball after the kickoff, were forced to punt. Chicago stormed back to a first down on the Packer 43 with 1:19 to play, but Concannon was thrown for a five-yard loss, two passes failed and Ray Nitschke intercepted Concannon's desperate fourth down toss, sealing the Bears' fate.

Graebner Stung By Omission

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — A disappointed Clark Graebner, stung by omission from the U.S. official Davis Cup team, said today he believed he could fight way back onto the tennis squad which meets Australia here next week.

"I think I have as good a chance of playing as anybody," the tall bespectacled New York paper executive said after the bombshell announcement that he was not a member of the four-man team named by Captain Donald Dell.

"I have had some physical problems but I feel great now and I am in shape. I am going to play my heart out the next few days."

Cat Dies, Leaves Owner With $15,000

RICHARD GREB
Associated Press Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — A rich Chicago cat died Friday, leaving his owner about $15,000 richer, and much sadder.

It's the cat, Flat Nose, not the money, which dominates William J. Fields' thinking as he prepared a Monday funeral for his departed friend.

Flat Nose, who would have been 20 on Christmas, the equivalent of 140 human years, was one of five cats left to Fields in 1969 by their original owner, Mrs. Margaret Montgomery. She left $15,000 for their care which was to go to Fields when all were dead.

Two of the cats died in 1963 and two in 1966. All were more than 17 years old. They were buried in the yard of the apartment building Mrs. Montgomery had left to Fields for their lodging. Flat Nose who apparently died of a heart attack in the building hallway, also will be buried in the yard.

With the last of the cats gone, Fields plans to just stay and take care of the building. At 79, he said, he has few friends alive and sees little need for the money.

The money, which has gone untouched while Fields and the cats lived on the former hotel waiter's Social Security payments and World War I pension, will be transferred from a lawyer to Fields' bank account, where it will stay until he needs it to live on.

"After all, I don't figure on dying soon," Fields said.

Mrs. Montgomery, a seamstress, at one time had 14 cats. She was a semiinvalid. Fields helped care for her for 18 years before she died.

Synopsis: The hippies give Ding Dong their favorite possessions. He goes to the Butterfly Queen who says if he can get three colored threads from three fearful witches Hesekiah's spell might be broken.

CHAPTER 12
THE BLACK WITCH

THE Butterfly Queen told Ding Dong that the Black Witch lived in a black castle in a black canyon. Once every three years she spun one inch of coal black thread. This was one of the threads needed to break the spell on Santa Land.

Ding Dong took his bag of figts from the hippies and went off alone in Santa's little plane. It could fly anywhere in the world with just the flick of a button. He landed in the black canyon but when he tried to enter the castle the guard told him to go away quickly if he cared to save his life.

The guard said the Black Witch had ordered everyone in the castle to paint her portrait but, as yet, not a single portrait had pleased her. In each case she ordered the poor artist to be hung by his heels until a proper portrait should be done.

By now there were 136 artists hanging by their heels in the courtyard and everyone in the castle lived in terror that he would be the next to hang there.

Ding Dong was frightened but he said he must see the Black Witch anyway. The guard shook his head sadly and let him into the castle. When he entered the great hall he heard a deafening hullabaloo. Peeping through a door he saw a fearful sight.

The Black Witch was striding about the room kicking over chairs, smashing mirrors and throwing candlesticks through the windows. Meanwhile the latest unlucky artist hovered in a corner with his hands over his face to block a teacup or bookend the outraged Witch threw at him from time to time.

Suddenly the Witch saw Ding Dong at the door. She dragged him into the room shouting, "What do you think of an artist insulting me this way?"

Ding Dong stared at the offending picture. He thought it a very flattering portrait because it did not show the wart on the tip of the Black Witch's nose or the fearful black rings about her eyes.

But when the Witch demanded to know if it wasn't a terrible portrait Ding Dong could only nod. He was too frightened to speak.

"There! I told you so!" screeched the Witch and she ordered the artist to be dragged away and hung by his heels. Then the Witch said to the dumbfounded Ding Dong, "You shall be the next to paint my portrait. And, remember, if it is as ugly as the rest you, too, will hand in the courtyard."

Servants brought easel and brushes and canvas and fine paints, while the Black Witch posed. Ding Dong stood there with shaking knees. He had no idea how even to begin.

Suddenly he remembered the hippies' finger paints in his bag. He opened the jars and dipped in his hands and began to smear paint all over the wall. In five minutes the wall was covered from floor to ceiling with splashes of crimson, dabs of blue, streaks of green, blobs of gold with a handprint of purple scattered here and there.

When the pots were empty Ding Dong sighed and hung his head.

The astonished Black Witch stared at what he had done. She quivered and shook and sucked in her breath and finally she cried, "It's beautiful! It's gorgeous! It's really, really me!"

She ordered all the artists hanging by their heels to be taken down and she asked Ding Dong how she could pay him for what he'd done. When Ding Dong said he's like a piece of the black thread she wove the Black Witch gave him all 12 feet of it saying, "It's little enough I can do. For you alone have seen the beauty that is me!"

Tomorrow: The Red Witch

Ding Dong began to smear paint all over the wall.

Humphrey Accepts Professor's Post

By KARREN A. MILLS
Associated Press Writer

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey announced Sunday he will return as a professor to two schools in the Twin Cities which hold especially fond memories for him.

Humphrey, a 1939 graduate of the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis and a teacher at Macalester College of St. Paul in 1943 and 1944, has accepted a joint professorship at the two schools.

The vice president said at a gathering in Macalester's fine arts center that after 25 years in politics he has some things he wants to say and the job in his home state should provide a very good atmosphere for both teaching and learning.

The crowd of over 600, about half of them students, applauded enthusiastically after Humphrey said he would accept the teaching offer. "Word must have spread that I'm a soft grader," Humphrey responded.

The courses which Humphrey will teach after his duties as vice president end Jan. 20 have not been outlined in detail, but there are indications he will give some regular lectures and hold some seminars.

Humphrey also said he hoped in his new position to work on solutions to some problems facing society.

"It is clear that many of the answers which were satisfactory even a decade ago are no longer acceptable. The universities have become a forum for the expression of this dissatisfaction, as well as the place where better answers are being sought," Humphrey said.

The Minnesota Democrat, who lost in this years presidential election said teaching was not his main objective in returning to the state.

"I come back to learn and to have my mind and senses stretched once again by the students and faculty with whom I will be associated," Humphrey said. "And I can hardly wait to begin!"

The vice president will receive $30,000 for teaching nine months at the two schools, $20,000 from Macalester and $10,000 from the university, according to university President Malcolm Moos.

Students To Gins

LUBBOCK (AP) — The Texas Tech placement bureau has turned gin into cotton gin. More than 100 jobs in cotton gins have opened to Tech students through a cooperative agreement with the Texas Independent Ginners Association.

Mike Phipps of Purdue is the nation's only active college quarterback who gained more than 2,000 yards last season. He gained 2,020 yards, 1,800 while completing 118 passes in 243 attempts.

Astronauts Study Radiation Danger

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Despite concern expressed by some scientists, the space agency predicts America's Apollo 8 astronauts will be exposed to radiation no greater than the total equivalent of three chest X rays when they fly around the moon.

Solar flares erupting on the sun's surface could spew radiation into space between earth and the moon, but "it would take a very unusual flare" to prevent or alter the mission, said an Apollo 8 astronaut, William A. Anders.

"They probably haven't seen more than one or two in the last decade large enough to cause concern," said Air Force Maj. Anders, who plans to blast off Saturday for a 10-orbit flight around the moon with Air Force Col. Frank Borman and Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr.

While NASA said it has no grounds for worry, concern has been expressed elsewhere in the scientific community.

Dr. Harold Zirin, professor of astrophysics at the California Institute of Technology, said earlier this month that Cal Tech astronomers observed a new sunspot group which "has grown rapidly and will be facing the earth at the center of the sun on Dec. 23."

Scientists in the Soviet Union and other Communist countries have said in recent weeks that further biological testing would be necessary before the Russians would attempt a deep-space flight. Radiation hazards were among questions needed to be answered, they said.

A network of radiation-measuring U.S. satellites circling the sun and ground-based observatories are keeping track of solar storms for NASA.

The satellites can give warning of active solar regions as much as 16 days in advance.

If an unusually hazardous flare spilled radiation into space while the astronauts were in flight, "we could stay in orbit around the moon to take advantage of its one-half shielding affect," Anders said. He meant that high radiation levels could be avoided for about half of every two-hour orbit when the moon was between Apollo 8 and the sun.

Butch Colson of East Carolina leads the junior rushers and scorers playing college football this season. He rushed for 1,135 as a sophomore last year and scored 92 points.

SEWING CENTER — C. C. Allen, owner of Allen Sewing Machine Center, 2415 Avenue S, has one of the widest selections of sewing machines this side of Fort Worth. He also is dealer for Hoover vacuum cleaners and steam spray irons and Brother typewriters, hair dryers and hair setters. He does service and repair wok on any make of sewing machine or vacuum cleaner.

Allen Is Experienced In Sewing Machine Business

Charles C. Allen, owner of Allen Sewing Machine Center, 2415 Avenue S, has been in the sewing machine business 37 years, and he has operated his business in Snyder since 1955.

Snyder really is fortunate to have such a nice sewing machine store. Most towns of this size do not have a business of this type. Moreover, Allen Sewing Machine Center has one of the widest selections of sewing machines this side of Fort Worth. Allen handles Singer, Brother and other brand names.

Allen has been operating at his new location at 2415 Avenue S since last April.

"We had to have more room to carry a larger invoice," he explained. Allen also is planning to expand the business even further in the future with a larger variety of stock.

Allen also is the dealer for Hoover vacuum cleaners and Hoover steam spray electric irons. Allen also handles Brother typewriters, hair dryers and hair setters. He does service and repair work on any make of sewing machine or vacuum cleaner.

"We've got the largest supply of vacuum cleaner parts in this part of the country," he said.

Allen is a member of Union Baptist Church. His wife is a member of the First Presbyterian Church. They are parents of two grown children.

Visitors are welcome at Allen Sewing Machine Center. Telephone inquiries will be answered when you call 573-2812.

Job Corps Women Play Santa Claus

MCKINNEY, Tex. (AP)—Despite financial problems of their own, the 600 girls at the McKinney Job Corps Center for Women are determined to make Christmas brighter for their adopted South Vietnamese brother.

Nguyen Van Ngoc, 9, and his family, which includes four other children, will be sponsored by the girls at the center during the coming year.

With anguishing problems of their own, the 600 girls pooled their limited resources and donated $180 through the Save the Children Federation (SCF).

"We've been in situations like that ourselves; we know what it is like to belong to a family with those problems," said Estella Ortega, 18, of El Paso.

Estella is receiving educational and vocational help at the center located 30 miles north of Dallas. The center is designed to help school dropouts and disadvantaged young women find their place in American society.

"Our country helped us, and now we are in a posititn to help someone," said Lola Howard, 18, of Sudan. She expressed concern about little Nguyen having to drop out of school to peddle ice cream and aid his family's income.

"I only got to my sophomore year, and I know how much school means now," she said.

The McKinney Job Corps' sponsorship of the family will not only enable the little boy to stay in school, but will enable the father to buy necessary tools to go into masonry, increase his income and thereby provide education for the other four children.

The knowledge that someone cares will likely be as important to the strife-ridden family as the financial aid, particularly since the girls are trying hard to overcome similar problems themselves.

Under guidance of the SCF, a 36-year-old child welfare institution, approximately 15,000 such sponsorship exist in this country and overseas.

Star Buildings Erected By Wadleigh In Demand

J. L. Wadleigh Construction Co., 3405 Avenue S, can handle any kind of building job. No job is too small or too big for Wadleigh. Wadleigh's famous Star buildings — for commercial, industrial or agriculture use — can be seen in many parts of the Snyder and Scurry County.

Wadleigh currently is putting the finishing touches on three Star buildings the firm constructed for American Magnesium. Included are the main office building, a huge shop-warehouse combination building and a guard house and change building.

The office building is 60x116x12 with a masonry veneer front and five-eave canopies with soffits. The semi-exposed frame steel building contains the executive offices for the company, laboratory area, engineering office as well as a reception room, lunch room and rest rooms. It is centrally heated and air-conditioned throughout, and all interior walls have wood paneling. This building has vinyl asbestos floor covering and a suspended accoustical ceiling.

The shop building is 80x168x20 and features a huge crane. Walls have a 1½-inch insulation, and the roof has a 7-foot high steel liner panel. Included in the structure are the foreman's office, a lunch room and rest rooms. Access is provided by 12x12 steel overhead doors. This multiple span building is at dock height for the convenience of trucks. Natural lighting and natural illumination are provided with white skylights.

The guard house and change room is 30x48x12 with 15x24 width extension. Completely insulated, the interior walls consist of steel liner paneling. The building houses facilities for a plant guard and a shower and locker room for plant personnel as well as other areas for special use.

All three buildings feature Star's new DuPont Dulite 10 and 15 year-guaranteed color finish on the exteriors. This finish is guaranteed not to fade or chalk for a period of 10 years or to crack, check or peel for 15 years. The buildings also are virtually maintenance free. Many satisfied customers over the years can attest to the quality of the Star buildings constructed by Wadleigh Construction Co.

22 Hikers Rescued

MANCHESTER, Vt. (AP) — Twenty high school hikers and two teachers, trapped on Mt. Tabor when a rain turned to a blinding snow storm, lasted the night in a lean-to by singing songs and pairing off to watch for signs of frost bite.

The nine girls, 11 boys and teachers from the hiking club of Shenendowa High School at Elnora, N.Y., were brought down Sunday by rescuers. They had kept warm by a fire.

Two girls, Janice Naylor, 16, and Virginia Morton, 17, suffered frost bitten feet.

Snow, winds of up to 50 miles an hour and zero cold forced the group to seek shelter.

Granger said the party missed a side path, realized it was near dark, and took shelter in the lean-to, using a machete to cut down fire wood.

"We never slept, it was too cold," said Lynn Focht, 17. "We sang and talked."

Vending Case Ruling Due

DALLAS (AP) — A decision is expected this afternoon by U.S. Dist. Judge William M. Taylor Jr. on an injunction which could put a Texas House investigating committee out of business.

The B&B Vending and Music Co. of Dallas is seeking the injunction against the House Interim Investigating Committee. The committee is investigating alleged links between vending machine companies and Texas taverns.

The investigation came after state Rep. Jim Clark of Dallas charged that vending companies control taverns through loans.

B&B officials went into federal court after the committee served subpoenas on the company seeking to examine its financial records. Company officials contended that the committee's powers to investigate ended 30 days after the end of the special session of the legislature which created it.

Committee Chairman Rep. Dick Corey of Victoria said a decision against the committee would put it out of business. The committee has a hearing scheduled Tuesday in Fort Worth but Corey said it will be canceled "if the judge rules that we don't have the authority to conduct it."

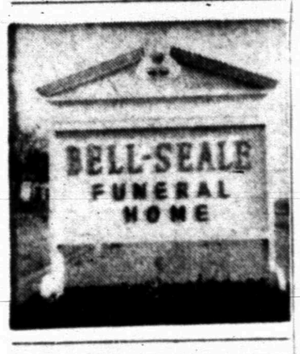

Pilot School Opens For Texas Officers

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP)—A four-month pilot training school for policemen has been organized by the Police Training Division of Texas A&M University's Engineering Extension Service.

Chief Ira E. Scott said the school is designed to meet the educational needs of law enforcement officers. The pilot school opens Feb. 1. Earlier schools at A&M were limited to four or six weeks.
