

BLOUNT TO RUN? Postmaster General Will Resign

WASHINGTON (AP) — Winton M. Blount told President Nixon today he is resigning as postmaster general, clearing the way for his expected bid for an Alabama Senate seat.

At a White House news conference, Blount told of his decision to leave the key government post but said "I have not made up my mind" about running for the Senate seat held by Democrat John J. Sparkman since 1946.

Appearing at the same news conference, Presidential press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler relayed Nixon's high praise for Blount's supervision of the post office, which during his tenure has been converted to an independent, semi-autonomous agency called the U.S. Postal Service. The President, Ziegler said, told Blount at a White House meeting today that he appreciated Blount's "undertaking and accomplishing what many thought was an impossible job."

With the postal reorganization, Blount's position was removed from the Cabinet. His successor will be named by the Postal Service's board of governors.

Blount said his resignation is effective today, and added he would "return to Alabama and make up my mind" about his expected Senate bid. He said he thought "some time around the first of the year would be an appropriate time" to announce his decision, which he said would hinge on "whether there is a broad base of support" for his candidacy.

The 50-year-old Blount joined the Cabinet when Nixon took office in 1969. The previous year he was president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. He had founded Blount Brothers Corp., a general contracting and construction firm, in 1946, and built it into one of the nation's largest.

WITCHING AND BEWITCHING — Melody Choate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Choate, 2324 Brent, checks out the effects on Halloween of the Saturday night change from Daylight Savings Time. The friendly witch reminds Melody that DST doesn't leave until 2 a.m. Sunday, but to avoid getting up in the middle of the night, she suggests turning the clock BACK one hour before going to bed Saturday night. She also reminds that although Sunday is Halloween, Saturday is official "trick or treat" night in Big Spring.

Rain Blankets Howard County

Early morning showers blanketed the Howard County area, with reports ranging from light showers at Ackerly to 1.3 inches at Coahoma.

Big Spring reported .53 inch at the experiment station, .7 inch near Cosden and .93 inch east of town. The temperature high was 77 and the low 57.

Reports of rain included 1 inch at Lomax, .6 inch at Forsan, 1.3 inches at Coahoma, .8 inch at Fairview, .5 inch at Vealmoor, 1 inch at Luther, .85 inch at Vincent, TESCO reported 1.5 inches at Colorado City, .55 inch at Sweetwater, .98 at Escoda, and .17 at Lamesa.

Lake Thomas at the dam had 1.50 inches, .4 inch at the Big Spring-Odessa intake four miles upstream, the Big Spring pump station had .60, and the lake elevation was 2,234.08, an increase of .04 overnight. Lake Spence reported drizzle and an elevation of 1,854.74, down .04. Snyder reported 1 inch.

Trick 'r Treat Night Saturday

Big Spring citizens are urged to take their children trick or treating Saturday night rather than Sunday night.

Mayor J. Arnold Marshall said in the official proclamation, "Whereas, interested citizens of Big Spring have requested that activities surrounding the commemoration of this day be exercised on Saturday, and so that trick and treating and all activities synonymous with Halloween will not interfere with church participation on Sunday, I, by the authority vested in me, do hereby proclaim the evening of Oct. 30, as trick or treat night."

Stanley Bogard, acting chief of police, cautioned parents to be careful in letting small children out alone, and to be aware of some of the goodies children might bring home.

The Texas Insurance Advisory Association reminds citizens that trick or treat night can be dangerous for children. They remind motorists to drive slowly, watching for children darting out from between parked cars. They also urge parents to escort small children and to provide children with a flashlight and bright clothing.

Work Under Way On Preliminary City Budget

By BRIAN PEAY

Work on the city budget for fiscal year 1971-72 is continuing at a speedy pace, and according to city officials a preliminary budget will be presented to the city commission within two weeks.

"We will have a preliminary budget to present to the commission very shortly, and then a budget work session will be scheduled," Harry Nagel, city manager, said today.

"It will depend on the final decision of the commission before the actual printing of the budget will be done," he continued.

The city manager explained that due to a lack of information for the computer, work on the budget is going slow. "We are having to work out a lot of the material by hand, without help from the computer."

Nagel predicted that next year's budget work will start in June, "the time it should be started," and will be done entirely by the computer.

Due to the deficit facing the city at the start of the new fiscal year, city officials anticipate a cut-back in spending in the budget, but Nagel said that there is a possibility that city revenues will be slightly higher than in previous years.

As of Sept. 30 the city deficit figure stood at $177,816.28. The figure was arrived at with the completion of the auditors' report.

Nagel related a big portion of the over-all deficit with the city borrowing $112,454.36 from the water meter deposit fund in fiscal year 1970-71. Also he credited some of the cause to payments of $50,000 or more for water to the Colorado River

Municipal Water District and a number of unpaid bills.

Until the budget is completed the city is currently operating on a continuing appropriations system.

Nagel Announces New City Attorney

Vacant offices at city hall are rapidly becoming a thing of the past.

James W. Gregg, 41, has been named as city attorney to become effective Dec. 1, Harry Nagel, city manager, announced today. Gregg is currently city attorney in Rosenberg, Tex.

"We were in the same situation as in the selection of a finance director, due to the number of non-experienced applicants," Nagel said this morning.

"However, I received Mr. Gregg's application a few weeks ago, and he meets the requirements for both education and experience," he said.

The new city attorney was born in Fort Worth and was graduated from Paschal High School there in 1948. From there he attended the University of Houston where he received a degree in sociology in 1969.

He also received a Doctor of

JAMES W. GREGG

Juris Prudence degree from the university in 1969. Nagel said that the man's main ambition

Texas Sniper Kills Officer

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — A hidden gunman, apparently perched atop a building, opened fire on police outside a psychedelic night club early today, killing one officer and wounding a second.

GIRL WOUNDED

The ambush occurred during an investigation by some two dozen officers of an earlier shooting in which a Negro man and a teen-age girl were wounded.

Police questioned a number of persons, both black and white, but made no arrests at once in the slaying of the policeman.

Investigators said a security guard at an apartment house exchanged wild shots with a man who ran across a parking lot carrying a high-powered rifle. The apartments are across the street from the scene of the trouble—a racially mixed rock music night spot called the Electric Circus.

The man dropped the rifle, equipped with a telescopic sight, and fled unharmed, police said.

Officers identified the slain policeman as E. M. Belcher, 24. He was shot in the head.

Another policeman, Ronald G. Turner, 28, was treated for wounds from shell fragments at a hospital and dismissed.

ALL-POINTS BULLETIN

Officers issued an all-points bulletin for the pickup of three men wanted for questioning.

The police said the three are black and in a 1970 red and white Buick.

A man identified as Kenneth Wayne Harris, 23, was wounded seriously in the earlier disturbance. The girl, Debra Brooks, 19, suffered a superficial head wound and was dismissed after treatment.

Police did not pinpoint the cause of the disturbance at once but said the sequence of events apparently began after a dice game was broken up at the club, the scene of recent racial disturbances.

INSIDE CLUB

Police Capt. J. W. Tindall said gunfire erupted inside the club during the gambling incident and Harris and the Brooks woman apparently were wounded at that time.

The first shooting brought more officers to the scene. Sgt. M. R. Church said police were attempting to disperse a crowd of between 300 and 400 in the parking lot at the height of the disturbance.

J. R. Shaw, an officer at the scene, said he was talking to Turner when the fatal shot was fired and that Belcher was less than 10 feet away from him when hit.

"I don't know what happened first," Shaw said. "Whether his head exploded or I heard the shot."

He said the shot appeared to have come from the direction of a hamburger stand about 175 yards distant.

An ambulance attendant who picked up the wounded Harris said a girl friend of Harris rode with them from the club.

End Of The Chase For 'A Tough One'

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — James L. Cochran, who led authorities on a week-long chase across 10 states and allegedly took 21 hostages in the process, has surrendered quietly to the FBI.

About the same time 10 FBI agents surrounded Cochran at a motel here Thursday night, authorities in Missouri announced they had found the body of Marilyn Oliver, 21, said to be an acquaintance of the fugitive. Authorities said they did not know how she had died.

The decomposed body was covered with sacks when it was discovered in an abandoned farm house near Leslie, Mo.

None of the hostages was harmed.

"He's a tough one and I'd have hated to tangle with him. He looks like he could bend an iron bar," said one FBI agent who helped take the 36-year-old Cochran into custody.

Cochran, who had registered at the motel giving his real name and St. Louis address, had wounds in the left arm and right leg that he is believed to have suffered during an earlier shootout with police.

Cochran's multistate flight began Oct. 21 following a $10,000 robbery at the Cass Federal Savings and Loan Association in St. Louis.

HYPO FINDS HOME — Hypo, who roamed the grounds of Northwest Texas Hospital for nearly two years, found a home today. His new owner is Mrs. J. C. Wilhite of Amarillo. She chose the Collie because she was looking for a dog that would especially like women, and she thought he would fit the bill. The dog was picked up and held by the Amarillo Animal Control Shelter after complaints were lodged against him.

MEN HE DISLIKES—POSSIBLY HE EQUATES THEM WITH DOG CATCHERS

Nurses Going To Miss Old Hypo, Their Collie Guardian

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — A handsome white and honey-colored mystery collie languished unhappily in the dog pound today. He would have been a lot happier a few days ago if he had known what hung over his obviously well-bred head.

The fix the woman-loving animal found himself in started Tuesday.

That was when the dog catchers—four of them backed up by two police units—finally collared Hypo on the grounds of Northwest Texas Hospital.

The nurses rose screaming into the air.

Hypo had been around the hospital grounds for almost two years. When nurses quit work at night, he escorted them to their cars.

One nurse said Hypo had walked home with her, 2½ blocks, each night for more than a year.

"He walks with me up to my door and stands there until I'm inside and have the light on," she said.

Hypo also is a sort of unofficial guard in front of the nurses' dormitory.

But men he dislikes—possibly he equates all of them with the dog catchers who have chased him, some of his friends speculate.

But the Amarillo law is clear. Hypo must be taken to the animal shelter. If his owner doesn't claim him in 72 hours, he is put up for adoption. If no one wanted him, he would be, euphemistically speaking, put to sleep.

But you don't do that in Amarillo, particularly not when Hypo's story is spread on Page One of the Amarillo News and Globe-Times.

The city of 127,000 became so aroused that Mayor L. Ray Vahue had to make a statement explaining the law.

Merrill Buckles, director of the animal shelter, issued running accounts. Hospital Administrator F. S. Walters had to explain why the hospital couldn't assume ownership.

The deadline of 72 hours is expiring this afternoon. But have no fears.

People have been swamping telephones at the sheriff's office, police headquarters, the newspapers and the shelter with demands that they be allowed to become Hypo's owners.

Nurses pooled their nickels and dimes for enough money to buy Hypo a dog tag in the name of the hospital and promised to care for him, which they had been doing anyway.

Hospital Administrator Walters explained that the hospital could not take the responsibility in the event Hypo caused an injury.

First in with a bid to adopt Hypo were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilhite.

So, says shelter director Buckles, Mrs. Wilhite will pick up Hypo late this afternoon.

He may miss the spaciousness of the hospital grounds, but he will be moving into what is known as a silk-stocking district of Amarillo. This will be in keeping with his lines, which dog fanciers say show he is well bred.

Mrs. Wilhite says she will rename him "Honey."

Already Hypo is a legend at the hospital.

The story goes, and no one can confirm it, that Hypo's owner died in the hospital.

Further, says the legend, the owner drove a Volkswagen which was taken away after his death. This probably stems from a peculiarity of Hypo. He chases cars, but only that make, and then turns around and trots back to the hospital when the cars do not stop.

Good Grief! Charlie Brown And All The 'Peanuts' Gang Will Be Bringing That Beagle To Big Spring

"You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown," the charming musical romp based on Charles M. Schulz' famed "Peanuts" comic strip which plays Saturday evening at the Municipal Auditorium for one performance brings to life characters who have become among the most beloved figures in American pop mythology: Snoopy, the brilliant beagle and World War I flying ace; Lucy Van Pelt, that paragon of crabbiness; Linus, the blanket-brandishing moppet; and Schroeder the would-be Beethoven; but the character that readers and audiences seem to identify with most is the shy, winsome, inferiority complex-ridden hero, Charlie Brown. Perhaps it is because Charlie Brown is the character closest to the experiences of his creator. Born in Minneapolis, Minn., in 1922, Charles M. Schulz was timid as a child and unusually shy as an adolescent. Although his talent for drawing was obvious at an early age, his scholastic record, like that of his colleague Al Capp, was less than inspiring. "Current Biography" reveals that in his high school days, Schulz was "too shy to ask a girl for a date because he was afraid he might be turned down. As a baseball pitcher, he once lost a game 40-0, and he lost even the consolation rounds when he played on the school golf team. He submitted some cartoons for the high school graduation year book, only to have them rejected. Like his own Charlie Brown, he was the epitome of underachievement." Like Charlie Brown, too, however, Charles M. Schulz' endearing sincerity and sensitivity have brought his great success. After serving in the Army in France and Germany, Schulz got a job lettering comic pages, then accepted an offer to join the staff of Art Instruction, Inc. While there, he created a weekly cartoon for a local newspaper, and shortly thereafter was asked to join the staff of the late Saturday Evening Post. When Schulz conceived the idea for what was to become "Peanuts," it was accepted by the United Features Syndicate, but his title for it "L'il Folks," had already been copyrighted and used by another cartoonist, so "L'il Folks" became "Peanuts" and "Peanuts" became a huge success, and "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown" was born. Clark Gesner wrote the music and lyrics for the production which opened in 1967 and played 1,597 performances. The tour is presented by Gordon Cruve, Arthur Whitelaw and Gene Persson. The show is appearing here under the sponsorship of the Community Concert Association which is headed by Robert Hickson, president. Admission to the series is by season ticket only, and at the end of this year's membership drive, the house was completely sold out for the first time in the association's history. The first program in the series was "The Little Angels of Korea" and the next program, not due until Feb. 10, 1972, will be the piano-duo of Ferrante and Teicher. "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown," the musical which played 1,597 performances in New York is one of the most successful and most acclaimed shows of any season. Winner of the Outer Critics' Circle Award as "The Best Musical of the Season," for Joseph

Hardy, and the Clarence Derwent Award for performances, as well as runner-up for the Drama Critics Circle Award as Best Musical, it is a show that captivates viewers of every age. The cast which will appear in the Big Spring production includes Gene Kidwell as Linus, Richard Whelan as Charlie Brown, Linda Sherwood as Patty, Carter Cole as Schroeder, Barnaby Millard as Snoopy and Cathy Wallace as Lucy. The story unfolds as an "average day" in the life of Charlie Brown. There are over a dozen musical numbers, several of which include the entire company, and the demanding job of percussionist is performed by John White. Musical staging is by Patricia Birch, lighting by Jules Fisher and sets and costumes by Alan Kimmel. The book is by John Gordon, while musical supervision, arrangements and additional material is by Joseph Raposo. Joseph Hardy is director, and of course, the music and lyrics were composed by Clark Gesner. The original cast album is available on M-G-M Records. Each member of the cast, although comparatively young, has accumulated impressive credits in theatre productions, as well as television and radio.

A LOVELIER YOU Backless Is Back For Evening Wear

By MARY SUE MILLER Evening dresses again bare the back. To suggest that satin-shoulders are in demand is an understatement. Ways to satinize the shoulders and back, as need be, are detailed here: Treat dry, roughened skin with an oil soak. Using warmed skin or salad oil, thickly coat back and shoulders; let "set" for 15 minutes. Then bathe or shower, and scrub with a sudsy, long-handled brush. If you can secure one, a sponge on a long stick works up a good lather. In any case a mild, non-drying soap is wanted. Follow cleansing with a stiff towelling. Finish with a creamy body-lotion massage. Repeat several times weekly — all winter.

To free the back of blackheads do not use the above treatment. Instead brush-scrub with medicated soap during daily baths. Twice weekly apply a grainy cleanser after soaping up and massage in with a sponge. Thoroughly rinse and blot dry. Then pat on an anti-septic lotion and let air dry. (Caution: Avoid use of grainy cleanser if the skin is erupted.) Eruptions — pimples — respond to medicated lotions, used night and morning. Treat affected areas gently; lather up with a soft sponge and pat on lotion with sterile gauze pads. Every single day!

LOVELY FIGURE What's your figure problem? To achieve total attractiveness send for my booklet, "Secrets Of A Lovely Figure." It contains easy ways to reduce weight and proportions; to overcome grooming problems, such as fuzz, freckles and blemishes; to move with grace and poise. For your copy, write to Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin.

Cotton Patterned Summer Flowers

If you can't always find real flowers for summery bouquets, then make your own out of a pretty flower-printed cotton fabric. Here are some tips. Cut out flower motifs from fabric and stiffen with iron-on interfacing pressed to the wrong side. Snip a hole in the center of the fabric flower so that a florist wire can be pulled through the material and knotted to hold. Stick the other end of the florist wire in a piece of plastic foam. There's another way to give a room a light and airy look with fabric flowers. Use flower cutouts, stiffened with iron-on interfacing, to make a swiny mobile. Glue cotton thread to the backs of the flower cutouts and attach threads to small wooden dowels. Balance flowers by moving threads along the dowel sticks.

88th Birthday Of Joe Edens

The 88th birthday of Joe B. Edens was the occasion Thursday of a reunion of the four surviving members of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Balls Edens, pioneer Howard County couple. Mr. and Mrs. Edens moved to Howard County in October 1898 and lived the winter of '98 and '99 one mile south of Big Spring. In 1899 they homesteaded Section 6-31-1N, the R-Bar Ranch. They later helped organize the R-Bar School and Mr. Edens was one of the trustees at the school where B. Reagan was principal. There were eight children in the Edens family. Here for the birthday dinner Friday night at the Luther home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Edens were Joe Edens and his daughter, Mrs. Ola Ruth Barbee of Eldorado, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edens of Sun City, Ariz., and Mrs. Ruth Martin of the R-Bar Community. Other family members brought the guest list to 18. A list of pioneer families is tied together through the marriages of the children. HISPANIOLA HUSTLING QUICKIE DIVORCES

'Seven Days To Freedom'

SAN JUAN, P. R. (AP) — With quickie Mexican divorces outlawed, the Dominican Republic's new seven-day divorce law is attracting U.S. business.

Inquiries started flowing in after singer Barbra Streisand and actor Elliot Gould were divorced in the Dominican Republic last July.

Lawyers in the Dominican Republic and representatives elsewhere seem to be outdoing attorneys in Haiti, which instituted quickie divorces last November and December, about the time Mexico banned them.

Haiti and the Dominican Republic share the Caribbean island of Hispaniola and the Dominican Legislature wouldn't be outdone by a neighbor. It legalized the quickie divorce in May.

Enterprising attorneys set up offices and began advertising in newspapers published where divorce is illegal or difficult.

Some Puerto Ricans are concerned about the effect on the morals of this predominantly Roman Catholic society. Baltasar Corrada del Rio speaking as "a Puerto Rican, a Catholic and a lawyer," said: "It is a shame to treat such a serious matter with such little reflection. It is also wrong to make Puerto Ricans go outside their island to dissolve a marriage which was made here, which affects other people here, and which is being destroyed by conditions here."

Corrada del Rio says he has handled only three divorces in his 12-year career. The three most common grounds for divorce in Puerto Rico are separation, desertion, and physical or mental cruelty. Mutual consent is not enough for divorce here.

Corrada del Rio also questions the legality of the seven-day

Dominican divorce, which he retained for as little as $500 in procedure in motion with an attorney's fees. The partner attorney. After that the partner seeking a divorce goes to Haiti can leave Haiti; the attorney for three days to set the takes care of the rest.

Hints From Heloise

Dear Folks:

I had to make 320 fingertip sandwiches today (seven loaves of bread), with all crusts trimmed, decimated, etc., etc. The crusts must be removed. I have been making these for years and discarding the crusts or feeding them to the birds. Can you imagine how many crusts there were?

My husband walked in and said: "Let's don't feed the crusts to the birds this time. Why don't we put them on a cookie sheet and bake them in the oven. We'll call them 'Crusties Heloise.'"

The sandwiches contained different fillers, such as chicken salad, tuna fish salad homemade pimento cheese, salami, etc. I didn't believe you could put this mixture of crusts all together and toast them (the crusts do have parts of the filling on 'em), but so help me, Hannah, you sure can. We toasted them on cookie sheets until golden brown.

One some of them we sprinkled onion salt, others garlic salt, still others sesame seed. And on those crusts which held bits of the cheeses, I sprinkled paprika which was mixed with salt, pepper (both a dash of cayenne and plain old pepper — lots of it), and celery salt.

We put the sheet on the middle shelf of a 400 degree oven, and tossed from time to time so that all of the tidbits browned easily and evenly. The most important part of the whole procedure is to keep turning these crusts every few minutes until golden brown and entirely crisp. You don't want any soggy ones. Don't pile the crusties too high on the cookie sheet as this will prevent the crisping.

For those of you who want something "way out," mix all of these condiments together

SPOOK HOUSE AT COAHOMA

Cadette Girl Scout Troop 129 of Coahoma is sponsoring a Halloween Spook House from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Saturday at the American Legion Hall in Coahoma. The building is located near the Coahoma Drug Store. There will be an admission fee of 25 cents, and all area residents are invited to tour the house. Proceeds will provide funds for a troop trip.

with some oleo and dribble, drip or sprinkle it over these wonderful tidbits.

It was suggested by my lovely neighbor that these finger tidbits be put right back in the same plastic bag that the bread came in and that the very same twistem that came on the bread wrapper be used. You talk about dolls . . . she was one to think of it!

My husband also discovered these could be either broken up or cut with the electric knife and used as croutons for soups or salads. And they can be frozen and used any time. (Oh, dear mother of Bessie — that's a cow — don't we hate to give husbands credit. But I've just got to bow to a man this time, Jon't you agree? I did. Kissed him, too, and even fed him some of them.)

These goodies can be used for dips, instead of the plain ol' potato chips . . . 'Nibbles' I call 'em (just something to nibble on). Or served along with soup instead of crackers, etc.

So don't ever throw a crust of bread away, my dears. Luv . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:

I'm writing about how to clean plastic cups. Soda is fine

However, I've discovered that on badly stained plastic, or any kind of dishes, and on silverware, that toothpaste works still better — and with a little less elbow grease.

I keep a tube of tooth paste near the kitchen sink just for cleaning the tea and coffee stains off the tableware (plastic, china, porcelain and silver). Of course, I use a piece of nylon net to scour with. It takes so little paste that it is no more expensive than any other cleaner.

I enjoy your column, and use many of the helpful hints, so I am glad to share one of my own. Try it . . . I'm sure you'll like it and agree it is both quick and easy, and does a good job . . . Myra Huffman.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

I hate to clean silver—any kind!

When it gets to the point of no return in our home I invite a foursome for lunch or friends for dinner.

Then I clean and polish furiously and have a wonderful time doing it. . . . Neva G.

Dear Heloise:

Yesterday I was having a terrible time making self-covered buttons for a dress. (They look more tailored, I think.) Anyway, the material was slippery and wouldn't stay under the teeth of the shell. They said to wet the material . . . still no luck.

So I remembered years ago we covered wooden button molds by gathering the circle of material around the edges with small stitches and pulling it up. This I did and snapped the back on. Presto, I had my five buttons in no time. . . . Mrs. B.

Those Pills

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: What should a mother do when she knows her unmarried daughter is taking birth control pills? This daughter doesn't even have a steady boyfriend.

She works, pays room and board and is paying for her own car. Although her friends have always been welcome at home (though I admit lately I have criticized the appearance of some of them), she seldom has a date call for her at home anymore.

I just don't know what to do. She leaves these pills in plain sight. Do you think this is her way of asking for help? Or doesn't she give a damn? HER MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: How old is this "unmarried" daughter? If she's 18, she could be asking for help. If she's 28, she may not give a damn. You would worry less if you had more communication and a better relationship. For openers, resolve not to criticize her friends. She sounds like a responsible girl, and there is a chance that she is doing nothing of which she is ashamed.

DEAR ABBY: I have a neighbor (I refuse to call her a "friend") who uses people.

She represents a direct-selling cosmetic company and she is always trying to sell the line to everybody she knows. (I bought some.) She also sells a line of cookware. (I bought some of that, too.) Her son recently started selling subscriptions to magazines, so she sent him around to all of her friends and neighbors, and naturally we couldn't very well turn him down.

She also sells Christmas cards, and gets into people's homes by offering to "collect" for every worthwhile cause you can think of. How can I say, "I've had it" to a woman like this?

MILWAUKEE
DEAR MILWAUKEE: In English. Unless you can speak a language she understands better.

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law is a very lovely, wellbred woman who is employed as a housekeeper. Her days off are somewhat irregular. Since my husband is her only child we include her in most of our plans, outings and vacations. She always spends her days off with us, and sometimes we have no notice whatsoever and have already accepted a dinner invitation or weekend with friends. When this occurs, my husband calls the hostess for the dinner (or weekend) and tells her that he is bringing his mother.

I think it is very presumptuous to bring uninvited guests, but my husband says as long as it's his mother it is perfectly all right. What is your opinion?

"M"
DEAR "M": I think your husband's obvious consideration for his mother is admirable, even though some hostesses would regard it as an imposition.

This Strongman Is Long Gone

DARWIN (AP) — A strongman who bet he would eat an auto from bumper to bumper in four years is missing and there are no gnawed cars around.

It was in November, 1967, that Leon Sampson bet $23,000 with Darwin businessman John Katapodis. It is recorded on paper.

"I haven't seen him since we made the bet," said Katapodis as the four-year deadline drew near.

At the time of the bet Sampson was working the country show circuit doing a strong man act in which he munched razor blades and electric light bulbs.

Soft Spots Close

Your Good Health
Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My son is 18½ months old and as yet his "soft spot" has not completely closed up.

When I asked our pediatrician about it, all he said was that we'll have to watch it. I couldn't get a direct answer from him and this alarms me. Should we be concerned? — Mrs. P.T.

At birth there are four fontanelles, or "soft spots," in a baby's skull. The skull, to begin with, is not a solid piece of bone, but forms in segments which later fuse together. The places where the bones will fuse are the "soft spots."

There is one on each side of the head, one in back, and the largest one in front.

Those on the sides and back of the head close by about the second month, but the one in front, to which I am sure you refer, may not close until the 20th month.

So, no, I don't see any reason for you to be alarmed at this stage of the game.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: When a person has leg cramps and has to get out of bed several times each night to walk them out, does it indicate faulty circulation? If so can something be done to improve the circulation and should that provide at least some relief? — L.W.M.

It may indicate faulty circulation — and may not. Lack of calcium in the diet is another possibility. Faulty foot structure is another. Also excessive use of the muscles by exercises.

I suggest that for fuller details you send 25 cents and a self-addressed, stamped envelope for my booklet, "How to Stop Leg Cramps."

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Over a year ago I had a ganglion removed from my wrist. The surgeon said there was probably a 50 per cent chance of its coming back in a year or so. It did, and I've had it removed again by another surgeon who said there was a 75 per cent chance of return, and I should not have the operation again unless it was very necessary.

I would very much like to play tennis for another 20 years, but it seems this ganglion bit will interfere. Is there anything that can be done to prevent continuing growth? — G.B.F.

They told you the truth: there's a strong chance of a ganglion's recurring. A ganglion is a cyst or herniation in a tendon sheath.

There is no way of preventing recurrence, but usually a ganglion is not large, and I'm not clear as to why you feel it would prevent tennis.

Dear Doctor: You mentioned that potassium can be replaced in the form of a pleasant-tasting drink, but you forgot to mention what the drink is or what it contains. Please elaborate. — B.J.B.

I didn't forget. I didn't mention the name on purpose. There's no point in taking extra potassium unless you need it — and if your doctor sees that you need it, he will tell you what you need and how much.

There are different ways of giving potassium, but the simplest and most pleasant is a fairly new product which comes in waters that dissolve in water and taste something like lime pop. By "fairly new," I mean it has been in use for three or four years now, and by now is familiar to your doctor and others.

Area Youths To Aid CROP

Fifteen area churches will sponsor approximately 500 youths in their efforts Sunday, Nov. 7, to collect funds for CROP, the community hunger appeal of the Church World Service. The youths will conduct the door-to-door campaign from 2 to 6 p.m. Last year, hunger marches by young people in 36 urban areas accounted for $86,000 of the total. Nearly 8,000 marchers walked distances of up to 15 miles, securing pledges from sponsors for each mile walked. These marches made possible the construction of plastic-covered greenhouses to extend the growing season in Korean villages, funding for a nutritional education program in India, and freight and handling costs for seven rail freight cars of durum wheat donated by NFO groups in the Dakotas. Other CROP programs in which youth were predominantly involved brought in an additional $117,000 last year, over a third of which was raised by Texas youth.

Rev. Robinson Leaves For Jackson Pastorate

Sunday will mark the close of the ministry of Rev. Forrest Robinson in Big Spring. The Rev. Robinson will assume the pastorate of the Capital City Church of God, Jackson, Miss. Tuesday and will preach his first sermon there Sunday.

The Rev. Robinson has served as pastor of the First Church of God, 2009 Main St., since Aug. 1969. During the time he has served as pastor here, he has been very active in the city, and the church has experienced a growing constituency.

Accomplishments of the church during this period are highlighted by the liquidation of the debt on the church's beautiful plant built in 1956. The church has broadened its ministry to the city by operating the "Friendship Center," a mission outreach, on the west side of Big Spring. An extensive hospital ministry has reached into the Veterans Administration Hospital with a weekly class taught by Pastor Robinson. The Sunday School enrollment and attendance have shown a substantial increase during the Rev. Robinson's ministry.

REV. FORREST ROBINSON

The Rev. Robinson's activities in the city include serving as co-chairman for the city-wide crusade, as chairman of the softball association, on various committees in the Ministerial Association, coaching in the Gra-Y program, coaching in the National Little League and other responsibilities. He earned the 100 hours, certificate for volunteer service to the Veterans Administration Hospital and was awarded a special commendation by the hospital administration for "outstanding service to veterans."

"Big Spring has been good to myself and my family, and pastoring the First Church of God has been one of the most enjoyable experiences of my life," said the Rev. Robinson. "We hate to leave our friends, but we believe the Call to the Capital City Church of God is the Lord's will for us, and it will afford many new challenges and opportunities for myself and my family."

"The city has a population of approximately 300,000 people and we are excited about reaching as many as we can for Christ. I plan to enter a doctoral program leading to the doctorate of theology," he added. (Rev. Robinson is scheduled to receive the master of theology degree in June, 1971) "The church has scheduled a 'Farewell Dinner' for the Robinsons on their last Sunday here.

East Fourth Plans Week Of Revival

Evangelist Bob Craig of Waller, Tex., will lead in revival services at The East Fourth St. Baptist Church beginning Friday evening, and continuing through Sunday.

The Rev. Craig is known as one of the finest young preachers in our land today. He is a 1960 graduate of Howard Payne College, Brownwood, and served in the pastorate for some 12 or 13 years prior to May of this year, when he entered full-time evangelism work. His pastorates include the Shiloh Baptist Church of Hempstead, Tex., and the First Baptist Church, Waller.

Danny Shirley, who is presently attending East Texas State University at Commerce, where he will graduate with a BS degree in music in December, will lead in the music program for the revival services. Shirley is serving at the present time as part-time music and youth director at the East Dallas Baptist Church, Dallas.

James Kinman, music and youth director at Phillips Memorial Baptist Church, will direct the music for the remaining services of the revival, Monday through Sunday. Kinman grew up in the East Fourth Street Baptist Church and served for some time as music and youth director at Westside Baptist Church. He is a graduate of Big Spring High School and Arlington State College and is presently employed at Texas Electric Service Company. Kinman has asked that those who plan to sing in the revival choir meet for rehearsal each evening at 7 p.m.

Services will begin at 7:30 p.m. nightly except on the two Friday evenings when the time has been moved up to 6:30 p.m. so that those attending can be out in time to go to the Steer football games, and on Sunday evenings when the regular Sunday evening worship time of 7 p.m. will be observed. Morning services will also be held on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday mornings at 10 o'clock.

On each of the Friday evenings, there will be a hamburger supper in Fellowship Hall at the church for all the youth of the church and any guests they may wish to invite, following the football game. Tuesday night has been designated as Junior Night (for fourth, fifth and sixth grade children) and a hot dog supper will be served for these children at 6:30 p.m. on that evening.

Wednesday night will be Sunday School night and all Sunday school members will sit together by classes and departments. Thursday night will be Youth Night with special emphasis and recognition being given to junior high and senior high school young people.

Friday night will be Family Night and a meal will be served in Fellowship Hall at 6:30 p.m. that evening, to be followed by a brief devotional service, then those attending will be dismissed in time to attend to the football game.

Saturday night, Nov. 6, will be designated as Music Night and several special musical numbers will be presented by the choir, soloists, quartets, etc. Pastor Dale Cain extends a cordial invitation to all Big Spring and area residents to attend these revival services and hear the messages delivered by Bro. Bob Craig and the good gospel music at each service.

Women Trace Afro-History

Mrs. LeRoy Minchew traced the history of African nations and their educational progress for Baptist Women at Westside Baptist Church Tuesday morning. The program was from the club's study book, "New Drums Over Africa," written by Melton Cunningham, a missionary in South Africa.

Mrs. Minchew said African natives had no way of gaining knowledge until missionaries entered the country and taught with the use of pictures and visual aids. As few as seven years ago, more than 19 per cent of the Africans couldn't read at all. Today there are many schools being taught by Southern Baptists, and Nairobi in Kenya has a medical school.

A skit depicting work done by Southern Baptists was given by Mrs. Don Brooks, Mrs. Ben Burroughs, Mrs. J.O. Murphy, Mrs. E.O. Sanderson, Mrs. J.W. Trantham and Mrs. Lloyd Murphree. The women outlined Communism as a target for Christians in Africa, and discussed the Islam religion. They said Christianity is growing in Rhodesia, Kenya and Zambia. A sense of pride and nationalism has grown since Africans were taught to think of themselves as natives of Africa rather than natives of a particular tribe.

Prayers were given by Mrs. Mary Riddle, Mrs. Sally Sanders and Mrs. J.W. Trantham. Mrs. Minchew and Mrs. Burroughs served refreshments to patients at Veterans Administration Hospital Wednesday.

Area Man Named To Study Group

The Rev. Darrell W. Robinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Vernon, has been accepted as a member of the Scientific Marriage Foundation.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Woner Robinson, Route 2 and formerly pastored in this area. The SMF is a charitable educational organization of 2,500 clergymen-counselors. In contrast to the nationwide divorce rate of 25 per cent, the SMF record is one per cent in the cases in which its counselors have been involved. The organization is interfaith and includes on its board such distinguished clergymen as Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, Rabbi Samuel Silver, Monsignor Henry Ward, Bishop Gerald Kennedy.

Wednesday Service To Feature Ex-Overseer

Rev. M.H. Kennedy, overseer of the Churches of God in Texas, will be featured speaker at a special service here Wednesday. Reverend Kennedy is the former state overseer for the Church of God in Washington.

The service is held especially in the interest of missions and is an annual affair for the churches. The service Wednesday night will be a bi-district meeting with the churches of the Odessa district joining with churches of the Big Spring district.

The public is welcome to this service which will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the Church of God, W. 4th and Galveston Streets.

'WHO OWNS THE CLOUDS?' Mother Nature

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — "Who owns the clouds?" The question was posed by Dr. Louis Battan of the University of Arizona's Institute of Atmospheric Physics.

"If I take my share of rain from a cloud and you don't get yours, what happens?" Battan asked at a meeting of the National Biological Congress.

"These are questions that become real as weather modification becomes real."

During a discussion of man's attempts to control the weather, Battan said there were some forms of weather modification to which no one would object.

"As far as I know, the tornado does no good whatsoever, and it kills a lot of people," the Arizona meteorologist said.

"But even in hail suppression research, there are differences of opinion."

"The wheat farmer doesn't want hail on his crops, but the cattle rancher doesn't care if it falls in 200-pound blocks as long as it doesn't hit his cows. He just wants the water."

Dr. Cecil Genety of the National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration also provided a question with a potentially sticky answer.

In Project Stormfury which he heads, scientists have succeeded in reducing the strength of hurricanes by bombing them with chemicals, but they are wary that their efforts might cause the big storms to change direction, Genety said.

Then he asked: "If a hurricane headed for New Orleans was seeded and then headed for Galveston, Tex., who pays the bill for the damage, who comforts Galveston?"

The right to make rain became a real problem for residents of South Florida during a prolonged drought last winter and spring.

Federal scientists succeeded in producing rain with cloud seeding operations. The rain eased drought conditions, but it also drew complaints from tomato growers that it could destroy their ripe crops.

SEEK INFO ON VANDALS

City Manager Harry Nagel requested this morning that anyone with information concerning the identity of vandals who have caused considerable damage, recently in the city with pellet guns, contact Stanley Bogard, police chief.

The manager was given authorization in the regular session of the city commission Tuesday to offer a reward of $100 for information leading to the capture and possible conviction of the vandals.

Nagel said that he and the police chief would determine who the reward will go to if there is more than one informant.

Watch Out For Cleaver

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Black militant Eldridge Cleaver may try to cross the Mexican border into Texas, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has warned state and local peace officers.

He is sought by the FBI for interstate flight to avoid prosecution on charges of assault with intent to murder. These grew out of a gun battle with San Francisco police Dec. 10, 1968.

Cleaver, 36, left this country several years ago and has spent most of the time since in Algeria.

An FBI teletype message from its El Paso office said he is armed and dangerous.

It described Cleaver as 6 feet 2 inches tall and weighing 185 to 195 pounds. The FBI said he sometimes wears a small gold earring.

Connally Still Demo

WASHINGTON (AP) — Treasury Secretary John B. Connally was appearing before a House committee when Rep. Frank Annunzio, D-Ill., asked if he still was a Democrat. Connally confirmed that he was.

In return, Annunzio then told Connally, the only Democrat in President Nixon's Cabinet:

"There are so many members of the other body (the Senate) who are seeking the presidency. I wanted to show there are others in the party, not members of the other body, who are fully capable of handling the responsibilities of the presidency."

Connally paused, then said with a smile:

"My failure to respond is neither agreement nor assent."

'Frank Sinatra Has Cancer' Yarn Triggers Suit

NEW YORK (AP) — Frank Sinatra's lawyers have filed a $5 million suit against the weekly newspaper "Midnight" claiming the publication defamed the retired entertainer by falsely reporting he had cancer and would soon die.

The suit in U.S. District Court in Manhattan claimed Sinatra "has never had nor does he have cancer, nor has any diagnosis been made by any doctor that he has cancer."

Cited in the complaint was a May 10, 1971 "Midnight" story headlined, "Frank Sinatra has cancer," that claimed the singer was "suffering from cancer of the throat; and that within a period of one year he would be forced to be confined to a hospital to await his death."

The complaint also said Sinatra was libeled by a Nov. 1, 1971, article in "Midnight" that reported the entertainer was secretly married and his new wife was pregnant.

Named in the suit were the Midnight Publishing Corp., a Canadian firm; Fawcett Publications Inc., Greenwich, Conn.; the U.S. distributor, and Manhattan News Co., listed as New York City distributor of "Midnight."

Shoulder-Long Hair In, But Hot Pants Are Out

By STEVE HULTMAN
Shoulder-length hair is in, hot pants are out, according to the Big Spring school board.

The board adopted a new hair and dress code at a meeting Thursday.

The new code replaces the old code which had been suspended at the beginning of school to allow students and administrators time to submit proposals for the new code.

The Big Spring High School student council and the school district administrators each submitted proposals, which the school board amended into the new code.

The code has separate rules for boys and for girls.

Boys may have shoulder length hair, which should be kept out of their eyes; sleeveless shirts are not allowed; shorts are not allowed; belts are required, although built-in belts are acceptable; and shoes must be worn, with socks.

Girls should have their hair neat and well groomed and cut so that vision is not obstructed; skirt length may be stylish, but not mini, not shorter than the middle of the thigh; pants, slacks and blue jeans are acceptable, as are hip-huggers; scooter-skirts with flaps in front and back are acceptable; and shorts and hot pants are not acceptable.

All clothing will be worn as it is designed to be worn. An appeal may be made by a student or his parents in case of disagreement about the code.

Students and administrators were present during the discussion of the codes, and frequent questions were exchanged by students and school board members. The board and the students discussed the difference between shorts and hot pants, hip-huggers, muscle shirts and tank tops and hair length.

The students agreed that it was difficult to differentiate between shorts and hot pants and between muscle shirts and tank tops. The board decided not to allow any of them so that the code would be easier to enforce.

Board members amended the administration proposal by allowing shoulder length hair, hip-huggers and by adding parts of the student proposal.

The amended proposal was accepted in place of the previous code by unanimous vote.

The school board met Thursday and approved the execution of a surety bond for textbook custodian Dan Conley.

The bond was co-signed by S. M. Anderson, superintendent, Lynn Hise, assistant superintendent for instruction, and Delnor Foss, for the school board.

County Judge A. G. Mitchell is expected to sign the bond today.

The board members were presented information on the recent California Supreme Court decision on public school financing, on House Bill 1073, on the four quarter school year and on the National school lunch program.

The meeting ended after a report by Bob Greene, president of the local Headstart parents advisory council, on the new home start program passed by Congress. The program, initially a pilot program in 15 areas, will bring teachers into the home.

On the battlefields, the U.S. Command reported that an American observation helicopter was shot down 21 miles northeast of Saigon, but the crew survived.

South Vietnamese troops battled about 100 Viet Cong for nine hours 42 miles northeast of the capital, and spokesmen said 16 enemy troops were killed.

One South Vietnamese soldier and a hamlet chief were killed and six government troops and four civilians were wounded, field reports said.

In the Cambodian capital of Phnom Penh, military sources said at least 50 Cambodian soldiers were wounded in fighting along a 25-mile stretch of Highway 6 during the third day of an enemy counteroffensive in northeastern Cambodia.

Representatives of foreign governments began arriving for the inauguration ceremony.

Treasury Secretary John B. Connally, representing President Nixon, is due Saturday and in advance U.S. Secret Service agents made elaborate preparations.

Inducted as a new member was Gene Gresham, special education teacher. Ralph Dowden, head of the music department at Howard County Junior College, accompanied by Janice Majors, sang two selections for the club.

Anti-Thieu Forces Spur Fresh Alert

SAIGON (AP) — More than 40,000 South Vietnamese troops and police were mobilized today as part of a tight security network in and around Saigon for the inauguration Sunday of President Nguyen Van Thieu.

Across South Vietnam, 202,000 U.S. troops went on an increased alert in anticipation of North Vietnamese and Viet Cong attacks during the inauguration.

The alert also was intended to keep American troops away from any hostile demonstrations by anti-Thieu forces who blame the United States for his unopposed re-election.

About 1,500 South Vietnamese reinforcements were brought to the capital for the inauguration.

The other forces are part of Saigon's normal defense network but have been mobilized as a citywide security force, with the majority of them in the downtown area.

Representatives of foreign governments began arriving for the inauguration ceremony. Treasury Secretary John B. Connally, representing President Nixon, is due Saturday and in advance U.S. Secret Service agents made elaborate preparations.

Senate Crushes Attempt To Cut U.S. Aid To UN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Crushing the first of several expected attempts to cut the U.S. contribution to the United Nations, the Senate also has discarded a new end-the-war bid and cleared the way for final passage of a $3.2 billion foreign aid bill.

In a long series of roll call votes lasting well into Thursday night, the Senate decided, in addition, to retain restrictions on U.S. spending in Cambodia that were written into the bill by the Foreign Relations Committee.

Earlier Thursday Henry Kissinger, the President's top foreign affairs adviser, warned that Nixon might veto the entire measure unless the Senate eliminated the Cambodia restrictions and dropped an anti-war provision drafted into the bill by Sens. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., and Frank Church, D-Idaho.

SLIM MARGIN
The Cooper-Church provision would have limited all funds for the U.S. military in Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia to those needed for withdrawal.

It was struck from the bill in a 47-44 vote despite a strong attempt by antiwar forces to reverse the decision.

Senate Republican leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania managed to hold his finger in the dike of antiwar sentiment, pleading with senators to listen to what the President has to say in his Nov. 15 troop-reduction speech before they commit themselves.

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield—reciting what he called the "monotonous—deadly monotonous—litany of the war"—55,000 dead, more than 300,000 wounded, 35,000 totally disabled—pleaded for action to end at last "this ghastly, misbegotten conflict."

"REVENGE"
Angered by the United Nations' decision to oust Nationalist China and seat the Peking regime, a group of conservative senators, led by Sens. James Buckley, Con-R-N.Y., and Peter Dominick, R-Colo., was to try again today to cut U.S. funds for the world organization.

In contrast to the almost jubilant mood of the ouster vote at the U.N. General Assembly Monday night, the Senate was undemonstrative as members voted, 55 to 28, to reject a Buckley amendment cutting off $101.5 million of the $139 million in funds for the U.N. agencies earmarked in the bill.

Buckley insisted his amendment was not punitive "revenge" but, in light of the U.N. action, did reflect "nothing more nor less than a loss of confidence in the United Nations."

Ashes Net $390 From Uncle Sam

LEBANON, Ore. (AP) — Amy Bresler has received a check for $390 from the Treasury Department—all but $20 of the cash she says she accidentally burned in the fireplace of her parents' home.

Miss Bresler earned $410 as a lifeguard instructor last summer, and last August she said she mistakenly threw her savings into the fireplace along with trash. Later, she and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bresler, discovered the remains of the currency.

They sent the ashes to Washington with an affidavit saying what happened. Treasury Department investigators were able to verify the remains of $390 and sent her a check for that amount, Miss Bresler said.

1,000-YEAR PRISON TERM HANDED KILLER

DALLAS (AP) — Slayer Carl (Junior) Hackathorn was assessed a 1,000-year prison sentence Thursday upon his second conviction in the killing of Mrs. Bobbie Smith in 1963.

The first conviction was overturned by the U.S. Supreme Court on a technicality. During the second trial, an anonymous telephone caller told The Associated Press that the jury would be slain if Hackathorn was freed.

Mrs. Smith's body was found in an alley in Dallas March 5, 1963. She had been shot to death. Her 3-month-old child was found later that same day in the cab of a truck parked nearby.

Hackathorn was arrested the next day in Laredo after a running gun battle in which he wrecked his car after trying to run through a customs service checkpoint.

Hackathorn's lawyer appealed on constitutional grounds, saying he was given improper warnings about self-incrimination after his arrest. The court said it sent the case back for a second trial because the law had changed between the time of the slaying and the trial.

'Rap' Recovering From Bullet Hits

NEW YORK (AP) — H. Rap Brown, recovering from bullet wounds suffered in a police shootout, has been shifted to the prison ward of Bellevue Hospital.

Brown was shifted Thursday from Roosevelt Hospital where he had been under treatment since seized earlier this month with three other men in an attempted bar holdup.

Brown was arraigned on charges of attempted robbery, attempted murder, and possession of a dangerous weapon. He is held in lieu of $250,000 bail.

Although identified through fingerprints as Brown, the prisoner claims to be Roy Williams.

Brown dropped out of sight in March, 1970, after two associates were killed when their car blew up in Bel Air, Md.

We improve with age.

We like to think of ourselves as the Chateau Lafite-Rothschild of the automotive world.
So it goes on.
We keep getting better every year.
Since 1949, we've improved our little car over 2,200 times.
Last year we gave it a more powerful engine and nearly twice the luggage space it had before.
This year we added 29 more improvements.
We found a way to keep engine noise down.
We found a way to make it run better in cold weather.
And we found a way to make it run even smoother.

In cold, hot or whatever weather you have in mind.
So it goes on.
Since '49, we've made over a thousand body and chassis improvements.
Since '49, we've made over a thousand engine and transmission improvements.
And the reason for all this progress?
Since '49, we've spent absolutely no time making silly styling changes.
What you see, once again, is what you get.

Officials Make A Good Move

Elected officials of four city and county agencies met in informal session this week to publicly endorse the principle of fiscal cooperation.

Their stated purpose is to explore areas of mutual cooperation that, if successful, will mean tax dollar savings.

Realistically there is little chance these savings will be passed back to the taxpayer, but at the least, the hoped for savings will mean dollars freed for improved service in other areas without having to resort to the usual increase in taxes.

This is undertaking which all spectrums of our countrywide community can endorse with enthusiasm.

To our knowledge no elected official representing the City of Big Spring, the Howard County, the Big Spring Independent School District or the Howard County Junior College District has failed to endorse this renewed effort at economy in government through cooperative enterprise. Citizens of Howard County will be looking forward to the first tangible evidence of the success or failure of this effort. We congratulate these officials upon their constructive attitude in these first steps.

Tit For Tat

The United States should follow the law of the land and cut off all foreign aid to Chile unless that country fully and promptly pays American firms whose property it has expropriated.

Chile discovered a new way to take over foreign investments there by amending its constitution. The Chilean law provides that "excess profits" may be deducted from compensation for expropriated property.

President Salvador Allende found that the non-nationalized copper mines of Anaconda Co. and Kennecott Copper Corp. had made $774 million in excess profits in the last 15 years. After deducting the $774 million for the $400 million to $500 million value of the mines, the American companies apparently owe Chile money. This is ludicrous.

American law provides that all foreign aid be automatically cut off unless the property owners are compensated for their loss. The law is the Hickenlooper Amendment to the Foreign Aid Act.

Chile has been receiving about $20 million a year from the United States in various forms of aid. Under the law, aid would stop next Jan. 16, and unless Chile changes its tune, we should stick by the act and drop off aid.

Single-Girl Retorts

Around The Rim

Linda Cross

This column is written in defense of the single girl, and as a warning to her of the different birds that might take an "interest" in her single state.

There is the:

KLUTZ-MOUTHED Inopportune Warbler — who pipes up with "Why aren't you two married?" when you're out with your fellow who is a charter member of S.D.P.B. (Society Dedicated to the Preservation of Bachelorhood.) The species also picks bad moments to chirp! "Why isn't a nice girl like you married?"

There is the nesting species:

GREAT CRESTED Experienced Wives — This species loves to pretend secret, mysterious knowledge and trill little jokes that the single girl is not supposed to understand. If one does, she darn well better pretend she does not.

SOFT PLUMED New Wives — Usually found at social functions where the single girl is sans escort, either due to a drop in the market or by design. Discomfort for the single girl results when she unwittingly strikes up a conversation with a newly-married male and suddenly confronts the stony gaze of a soft-plumed one guarding her preserve. It's best to flit to a new perch as gracefully as possible.

ROVING EYED Strutter — Sans

mate — there's not enough space here to describe all the characteristics of this male species, but few of them have an original mannerism anyway.

These are but a few of the myriad of types a single girl can encounter, often within the course of a day. Many sharp replies have been recommended to turn off unwelcome inquiries like:

"We're just good friends"; or "his mother won't let him"; or "why spoil a good friendship?"

Some of these are amusing; some of them are insulting; but none of them work.

ON RECTIFYING the awkwardness at times between married women and single women, there's only one fool-proof method, and it eliminates the single girl.

Single-ness is fun. The difficult part about it is enjoying it in peace. There's a conspiracy out to eliminate the single girl from our midst or brand her an old maid so that she's easily identified. Otherwise she would look a lot like a wife without apron strings attached.

IT'S DIFFICULT to find allies in the war to enjoy singleness in peace. One magazine which touts itself as the modern single woman's bible is really a front for the other side, offering a 1001 devious ways per issue to Stamp Out the Single Girl. Put that on your next cover, H.G.B.I.

Stalking A Killer

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — A killer stalking the land defies all the barriers of law and order. It is cancer, and those who have felt the killer strike with the stealth of an assassin in the night know the sense of helplessness, pitting hope against despair, of the ordeal of watching and waiting.

THERE IS HOPE or, at any rate, progress. In the remarkable articles written in Newsweek of his own confrontation with what at first appeared to be a fatal leukemia Stewart Alsop described the advances that have been made in "taming the beast." Eight forms of cancer are now, if not curable, subject to treatment giving at least considerable remission. The most notable progress has been in leukemia that is becoming increasingly prevalent.

But the beast is far from tamed. The attack of the scientific community has been hampered by limited funds and by bureaucratic complexities. Now a proposal is before Congress to create a National Cancer Attack Program with greatly expanded funds both for research and for the application of research. It has passed the Senate by a vote of 79 to 1.

THE APPROPRIATION for the current fiscal year would be $400 million; for 1973 it would be $500 million, and $600 million for the year ending June 30, 1973. One of the prime movers in persuading President Nixon to go for this expanded attack was his good friend, Elmer Bobst. They hope for a Manhattan Project that would do for cancer what the wartime project achieved in five years in splitting the atom.

AT THIS POINT is a basic division among cancer researchers. Spending large sums of money is not the answer, say the critics. Research can proceed only within the limits of resources available. There are only just so many front-rank seekers after the cause and the cure of the killer and no amount of money can speed their efforts.

Nonsense, say the advocates of the proposed attack program. If billions can split the atom and other billions can send men into space to land on the moon, the mysteries of cancer will respond to a massive search.

THE MEASURE passed by the Senate provides not only for greatly increased scientific and technical manpower but for construction of new facilities. In short, the whole framework would be expanded as rapidly as possible.

Unfortunately, the proposed program, which originated with a distinguished commission, has stirred the kind of political, bureaucratic temper that so often clouds the issues. On one side are those who believe that research directed by the National Cancer Institute in the National Institutes of Health should proceed independently with all possible speed.

On the other side are distinguished cancer specialists, the American Cancer Society, and other individuals and groups long advocating a bold new approach. One argument is that the emphasis on research into causes is so dominant that the cure is lost sight of. No one really knows the cause of diabetes but insulin is a cure reducing this killer close to zero.

One charge is that the White House wants to concentrate control of the program for political ends. This charge sets the blood boiling of the advocates of the new program. No president could play politics with cancer.

There is only one thing to say: Stop the bureaucratic quarreling and get on with it, get on with it, get on with it. (Copyright, 1971, United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Chaos In Ireland

John Cunniff

By DONALD FORBES (Contributing to John Cunniff)

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Commerce Minister Roy Bradford believes that the swift defeat of the Irish Republican Army in Northern Ireland is becoming an economic imperative as well as a political one.

Bradford has warned feuding Roman Catholics and Protestants in this province: "We could face bankruptcy in a matter of weeks."

While other members of the government believe Bradford was exaggerating, they are worried by the decline in foreign investment in Northern Ireland and the damage to business in central Belfast because of the IRA's terror campaign.

Tourist revenue has been waning since the trouble erupted in 1968.

Economic chaos destroying the foundations of Ulster's Protestant-based government is one of the objectives of the IRA, which is pledged to reunite Northern Ireland and the Irish Republic to the South by bomb and bullet.

Government officials put the bill of Northern Ireland's economic havoc at $60 million up to the end of last year from August 1969. And the 1971 crop of bombings and displacement could add at least another $36 million to that figure.

Northern Ireland is a province which has traditionally borne chronic unemployment. Because of Britain's economic stagnation and the IRA's policy of economic disruption, one man in 10 is already unemployed and the statistics go from bad to worse.

Nowhere is the effectiveness of the terrorist campaign more evident than in the center of Belfast. Big department stores—the equal of plush shops across Europe—are doing up to 40 per cent less business and are laying off employees.

The government now fears a wave of bankruptcies affecting even the prestige Belfast stores.

A Commerce Ministry spokesman said: "Before all the trouble blew up, we could reckon that half of the province's new jobs created annually came from the expansion of established industries and the other half from new sources. Now the ratio is up to 80-20 because of a slowdown in new outside investment."

He said American or European manufacturers who might have set up factories in Northern Ireland, where wage rates are relatively low and labor relations good, had probably been dissuaded by the violence.

A government committee is currently studying future economic development and methods of stimulating private investment and is due to make its report at the end of the year.

It is expected to press hard for increased public investment.

The rioting has had an inevitable effect on tourism, one of Northern Ireland's major industries.

Tourist revenue stood at $67.2 million in 1968 and dropped to $55.2 million last year.

Paul Would Fail

Andrew Tully

WASHINGTON — St. Paul was not only smart. His timing was good. A kind of lawyer, with a brilliant legal mind and a taste for the prosecutor's role, he didn't live long enough to be nominated to the Supreme Court. He never would have made it.

IN THE EARLY days of Christianity, when liberals were flocking to the banner of Jesus, St. Paul was a reactionary. As Sha'ul of Tarsus, he vowed to exterminate the new sect and to destroy its blasphemous heresy. Indeed, he set out for Damascus with warrants from religious authorities in Jerusalem authorizing him to seize as many heretics as he could find and bring them back to face trial.

Since the record shows that Sha'ul was converted by Christ on the road to Damascus and went on to bring Christianity to the West, a President of the United States probably would have named him to the highest bench. But in today's atmosphere, the man who became St. Paul wouldn't have a chance.

I CAN HEAR Nixon and Atty. Gen. John Mitchell protesting that Paul's career as a vigilante was a youthful indiscretion and that his reformation was complete. And I can hear the opposition saying, "Zilch, once a reactionary always a reactionary."

So I can't help feeling sorry for Nixon's latest nominees — Lewis F. Powell Jr., of Virginia and Assistant Atty. Gen. William H. Rehnquist — as the Senate proceeds with its inquiry into their private and professional lives. The oddsmakers hereabouts are betting Powell and Rehnquist will make it, but there will be times when both will wonder whether the honor is worth it.

NONE OF US, after all, is qualified to sit with the angels, and some unkind and even nasty things will be said about Powell and Rehnquist before the Senate votes. They are conservatives and they have been nominated by a President who has collected an army of professional haters, and they will suffer for these sins.

FOR THE TIMES are out of joint. Richard Nixon's critics have adopted a double standard which deposes, in effect, that a liberal President may appoint a liberal to the Supreme Court but that a conservative President is prohibited — on moral grounds — from appointing a conservative.

Nixon is partially to blame. His nominations of Judge G. Harrold Carswell and Judge Clement Haynsworth were awful goofs, not because Carswell is an ex-Klanman and Haynsworth was careless about conflicts of interest, but because they were lacking in distinction.

BUT THE SYSTEM is the major villain. As Lyndon Johnson discovered before Richard Nixon, this is not democracy but something very close to anarchy. It is power politics reduced to the lowest level.

A MAN OF uncommon toughness and intellectual agility, St. Paul undoubtedly would challenge the system. But I expect Las Vegas would make today's ersatz Puritans the odds-on favorites. (Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

Golf Taking Place Of Sex?

Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — How are you coming along with your worry list?

The difference between the amateur brooder and the serious brooder is what they worry about. The amateur worrier worries about anything and everything. He doesn't get wrinkles fretting over trifles. He concentrates on the big worries.

With this in mind, it is a good idea for a fellow to weed out his worries periodically so he doesn't waste his time.

Here are a few problems and issues we've decided to put in our discard file and let somebody else worry about:

Is Lassie taking the pill?

Would the U.S. foreign policy improve if we gave our diplomats overtime pay?

What, if anything, is being done to improve the working conditions of laboratory mice?

If we are to close the generation gap, does that mean adults will have to learn to act like teen-agers, or teen-agers learn to act like adults?

Why do they still call it the cocktail hour when sometimes it lasts till darned near morning?

Would it help solve your dog's identity problem if you fed him food from a personalized can with his very own name on the label?

Is golf taking the place of sex in the American way of life?

Can a marriage be saved if both the husband and the wife like to watch pro football games on television?

Why is it that the guy who wears them calls them dentures but everybody else calls them false teeth?

When a girl says she likes nothing better than to curl up with a good book, does she really mean it—or has she simply led an underprivileged life?

Why do college commencement speakers always advise the graduates to "live dangerously," when there isn't any other way for anybody to live?

Why do we celebrate Halloween only one night of the year, when life seems like Halloween all the time now?

Yes, remember that successful worrying requires a wise choice of what you worry about. After all, it isn't the man who makes the worries—it's the worries that make the man.

Billy Graham

I am a naturally frank person, but many of my friends are offended by my frankness. I don't see why people should be offended when people try to be honest. T.H.

Restraint in appraising others is a part of wisdom. The best way to be offensive is to be unwaveringly candid in one's judgments and opinions. Remember, you may be sincere and honest, but wrong. To be absolutely frank is a mark of intellectual egotism.

Tact and diplomacy are desirable factors in etiquette. Most of us respond to a little praise, more than we do to brutally frank estimates of our conduct and character. The average person is too well aware of his defects, and frankness only adds fuel to the flame of inferiority.

Let us say you enter a new house of a friend, and the decor strikes you as being ridiculous. Being frank, you could say, "How inharmonious — how utterly absurd!" This may be your honest, frank estimate — but is such a statement wise or necessary? How much more tactful and help to say, "How different-how unique!" A good rule to go by is this: if you can't be helpful, don't be harmful.

A Devotion For Today . . .

Do not conform outwardly, to the standards of this world, but let God transform you inwardly by a complete change of your mind. Then you will be able to know the will of God—what is good, and is pleasing to him, and is perfect. —Romans 12:3 (TEV)
PRAYER: Give us the ability, Lord, to know Your will and the courage to follow it—unrestrained by the petty values of men. Amen. (From the "Upper Room")

Sick Calls

TEEN FORUM

Jean Adams

SICK CALLS: (Q.) My boy friend was killed recently in Vietnam. This hurt me deeply and I am trying to forget. But I can't because someone keeps calling me up and saying, "Hi, this is Ed." My boy friend's name was Ed.

I know who is to blame because the calls started right after I had an argument with one of my friends. I have tried to talk to her but she refuses to talk to me. — In Pain in Massachusetts.

(A.) If what you suspect is true, both the girl you fell out with and the boy who is doing the calling for her must be very sick.

The cure, so far as you are concerned, is to hang up the moment you recognize the boy's voice on the phone. That should be between the "hi" and the "this." Fast. Keep hanging up. Fast. He'll give up.

FRECKLES: (Q.) I'm almost 13 and I am covered with thousands and thousands of freckles. During school I wear a hot sweater to cover them up. In summer at the beach I want to dig a giant hole and bury myself and my freckles forever.

I don't know any models or movie stars with freckles. Is there something I can get to remove or hide mine? — Speckled in South Carolina.

(A.) Freckles are fashionable today. Some very famous models have capitalized on theirs. Don't cover yours with a hot sweater. Take advantage of them.

First, learn to accept them as a part of you that many boys in years to come will find exciting and attractive. Next learn to use make-up and dress colors to give you a healthy glow that will enhance your healthy freckles.

Start now to look for clothing colors that do things for your hair and eyes. Girls with freckles almost always have unusual hair and eyes.

When you start using make-up use blushes and pale lipsticks to add to that healthy glow I mentioned earlier. When you start using eye make-up, learn to highlight those eyes and call attention to them.

For really special occasions, when you just have to look like an unfreckled model or movie star, use foam make-up.

Adds A Day Off

SIDNEY (AP) — One of Australia's largest finance companies is giving 1,300 employees a holiday with pay every fourth Monday.

"There is no catch in it," said managing director William M. Edmonds. "A greater part of our work is being done by computer and we can afford to give our employees more leisure time."

The company made $9.7 million profit last year.

Don't Get In Kitchen If ...

PAWTUCKET, R.I. (AP) — The youngest person ever to qualify here as a mayoral candidate says he's dropping out of the race "because I've run into a lot of trouble lately with school and other things."

Craig S. Brown, 20, a sophomore at the University of Rhode Island, was the only one of four aspirants to get enough signatures to qualify as a candidate to oppose Mayor Robert F. Burns.

Brown said Wednesday he didn't realize that the campaign would require his making public appearances. A Pawtucket fraternal organization official had criticized him for not speaking before groups.

Brown can not remove his name from ballots which already have been printed for Tuesday's election. Absentee and shut-in ballots have already been distributed.

Mao On Cover Of Magazine

HONG KONG (AP) — Chinese Communist party Vice Chairman Lin Piao, rumored throughout most of the world in recent weeks as having lost power or been down-graded, appears with Chairman Mao Tse-tung on the cover of a magazine just received from China.

They appear in a full-color photo and the caption refers to Lin Piao as Mao's "close comrade in arms and vice chairman."

Although the magazine probably was printed some weeks ago, top Western government China experts say its export from China and being placed on sale here Thursday by official Communist outlets strongly indicates that Lin Piao still holds power as heir designate.

Tracking A Trail

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Kentucky may have a new state park 17 miles long and 30 feet wide.

It is the right-of-way between Frankfort and Georgetown in the Bluegrass area, belonging to the Frankfort & Cincinnati Railroad, but not used for years.

Finance Commissioner Albert Christen says the state wants to purchase the land and use it as a scenic hiking trail for Boy Scouts and others.

Dallas Is Underdog In Chicago Fracas

NEW YORK (AP) — The Oakland Raiders are expected to play before a record home crowd when they meet Kansas City Sunday. But the fans won't be able to help defend against Ods Taylor.

With Taylor catching and Len Dawson throwing, the Chief will win the big game of a weekend of key games.

Los Angeles, Baltimore, Washington and Chicago will join the Chiefs as winners, it says from this corner, where the score last week was 8-5-1 for a total of 34-17-1.

Kansas City 20, Oakland 17—Helping Taylor and Dawson give the Chiefs the edge will be a rushing defense that has allowed less than 100 yards in each of the last five games.

Los Angeles 24, Miami 17—The Rams have a good offensive-defensive balance and that should give them the edge in this battle of two top rushing teams.

Baltimore 17, Pittsburgh 16—Baltimore is in good health for what should be a very physical game and has the experience edge. The Steelers make youthful mistakes and have not won on the road in three tries this season.

Washington 31, New Orleans 10—The Redskins, who suffered their first loss last week, won't have receiver Charlie Taylor but they have enough offense and too much defense for New Orleans which probably won't have rookie quarterback Archie Manning.

Chicago 20, Dallas 17—The Bears, weak on paper, are starting to believe they are strong on the field and will add the Cowboys to their list of surprises. Dallas plans to alternate quarterbacks Roger Staubach and Craig Morton on every offensive play.

Cleveland 27, Atlanta 17—The Browns will be out to make up for embarrassing shutout by Denver last week. Dick Shiner, who stepped in for injured quarterback Bob Berry, and helped beat New Orleans, will find the Browns much tougher.

Minnesota 34, New York Giants 7—The Vikings get the points when they're needed and have given up only 49 in six games. The Giants lost to Philadelphia.

Houston 21, Cincinnati 10—The Oilers are hungry for their first victory and should get it at home against a team that might have to go with a third-string quarterback, Dave Lewis.

Dickson Leads Ice Box Open; Trevino 2nd

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — "I knew we were going to be in trouble when I looked out the hotel window in the morning and saw the white-capped waves in the swimming pool," Richard Crawford said.

"Cold? All the jackrabbits and roadrunners are heading north to get warm," said Gardner Dickinson.

"I'm so cold my hair hurts," said Lee Trevino.

The comments were typical Thursday as golf's touring pros battled through the most severe weather conditions on the tour this season in the first round of the $135,000 Sahara Invitational.

Lanky Bob Dickson, a former American and British amateur champion seeking his first pro title since 1968, emerged the leader with a brilliant, four-under-par 68 on the 7,143-yard Paradise Valley Country Club course.

"I guess I've got to say I like the weather," Dickson grinned. "It's got to be the best round I've played in a long, long time."

Trevino, emerging from a slump that has plagued him since his sweep of the American, Canadian and British Open titles three months ago, took second alone with a 69.

"I think I'm ready to go again," said Trevino, heavily bundled in several layers of clothing and a green ski cap.

Bob Goalby and Dale Douglass had 70s in the frigid weather with six players locked at 71, the only others in the field of 144 able to break par 72. They are Don January, Jim Jamieson, Deane Beman, Bert Yancey, Paul Moran and Fred Marti, who finished second in last week's Kaiser International.

There's no doubt the experience they're picking up will be good for them. Their job, however, is to continue to play together as a unit and not look back.

Merrill Green, the Cooper coach, depends heavily upon a chunking quarterback named Chuck Hughes, a pine-knot tough defensive line and a whirling dervish named Willie Burton.

Willie is leading the league in scoring and yardage gained, even though he's been a marked man since the season got under way. He's tough to contain because he gets outside in a hurry and knows how to follow his blockers.

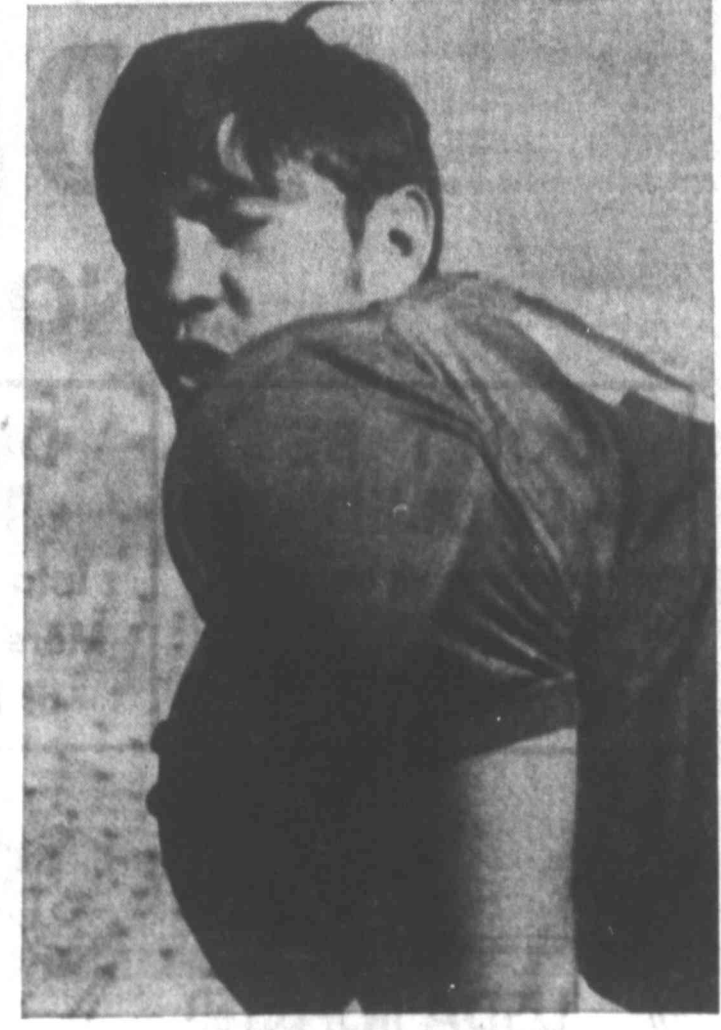

Big Spring has been hard hit by injuries. Ace running back Arthur Trevino is definitely out, as are defensive tackle Jeff Murdock and defensive back Barry Truett.

Alan Davis is due back to help Mike Adams with the quarterbacking chores. The two will look to boys like Rick Steen, Dick Conley, Earl Reynolds and J.T. Smith when it comes time to move the ball.

Sophomores Slam Cee City, 18-8

COLORADO CITY — The Big Spring Sophomores charged from behind in the fourth quarter to topple Colorado City, 18-8, here Thursday night.

Following play, the Big Spring bus was stoned by an unruly group of students. The win was the fourth for Big Spring, compared to two losses and a tie.

Coach Tim Smith of Big Spring said Nathan Baker of the Dogies simply 'ran over people' on offense while the entire defensive unit distinguished itself.

Big Spring scored in the opening period when Baker bruised in from the three. The shortorns had controlled the ball for eight minutes during that surge.

In the third, Colorado City was awarded a touchdown on a controversial play. The Wolves fumbled and the Big Springers recovered but the ball was turned over to Cee City. The Wolves added the two PATs to lead, 8-6.

With seven minutes to go in the fourth, Baker ran 92 yards for another Big Spring score. He appeared to have been stopped several times but kept going.

With three minutes left in the game, John Smith intercepted a Wolf pass and sped 30 yards across the double stripes for Big Spring's third tally.

Colorado City's touchdown was set up by a Big Spring fumble on the 10.

The Big Spring team returns to play in Big Spring at 7 p.m., next Thursday against San Angelo.

Edison Bumps Mavs, 26-7

San Angelo Edison rolled by Big Spring Goliad, 26-7, in an eighth grade football game here Thursday.

Mike Hernandez scored two touchdowns for Edison on runs of six and seven yards.

Ronald Rodgers got another on a six-yard jaunt while Richard Gutierrez scrambled for the last one after a 25-yard run. Eddie Rodriguez fled another end for Edison's lone two-point conversion.

Big Spring scored on the final play of the game when Mark Moore and Jerry Marquez hooked up on a pass, good for 35 yards.

The defeat left Goliad with a 3-5 record. The Mavericks play Lamar in Snyder next Thursday.

San Angelo made 13 first downs to six for Goliad, 228 total yards to 112 for Big Spring. The visitors failed to complete a pass in four attempts. Goliad made good on four of 11 for 68 paces.

Moore glistened at both defensive safety, where he prevented three enemy touchdowns and at safety.

Fullback Jimmy Douglas and running back Marquez also stood out. On defense, linebacker Juan Mauricio, tackles Tim Lancaster and Brian Nass and halfback Kerry Robinson showed to advantage.

Coach Don Lightfoot praised the efforts of his team.

"We were simply outmanned," Lightfoot stated, in analyzing play.

Cornhuskers, Colorado Tangle In Headliner

By The Associated Press

Nebraska and Oklahoma, both undefeated, ranked No. 1 and 2 in college football and bolting headlong for a Thanksgiving Day showdown, are watchful their opponents between now and then don't spoil the contest which could decide the national championship.

Nebraska, 1970's national top team, plays Colorado Saturday in a nationally televised (ABC-TV) game. The Cornhuskers' 7-0 record is impressive but if it were not for a 45-17 loss to Oklahoma, the Buffaloes would have the same mark.

Jerry Tague heads the Nebraska offense which leads the Big Eight in total offense while the defense has given up just 5.7 points per game. Flanker Johnny Rodgers has scored 11 touchdowns for the Huskers and averaged 16 yards on every reception.

Colorado, ranked ninth, has two top signal callers in soph Ken Johnson and Joe Duenas. Johnson is a top passer while Duenas is a running and option threat. Kickoff time is 1:30 p.m. EDT.

Oklahoma's offense grinds out yardage by the hundreds from the Wishbone-T as run by quarterback Jack Mildren, with backs Greg Pruitt and Joe Wylie. The Sooners, 6-0, face Iowa State, which also boasts a very respectable 5-1 mark for the season. The Cyclones appear to have the best chance of stopping the championship festivities on Thanksgiving by dumping Oklahoma.

Bill Brooks named PREXY OF BS GOLF ASSOCIATION

Bill Brooks was elected president of the Big Spring Golf Association for 1972 at Thursday night's meeting of the membership in the Munny clubhouse.

Brooks was the candidate projected by the nominating committee. He is personnel officer at the local VA Hospital.

Other officers named included Ray Bluhm, vice president and tournament director; and Harold Rosson, secretary-treasurer.

Membership cards, priced at $3 each, will likely be made available as early as Dec. 1.

The association had 154 members during 1971, one of its largest registrations in years.

The group took in an estimated $6,000 and invested all of it either in the way of tournament prize money or for association expenses. Royce Cox served as the 1971 president.

LOOKING 'EM OVER With Tommy Hart

Some communities, like some individuals, can't stay out of trouble. Others go looking for it.

One star-crossed neighborhood which may have to atone for its sins is Lorraine, where school officials seem powerless to do anything about the shoddy treatment extended visiting athletic delegations.

When an area school sent one of its teams down there recently, a member of its pep squad was stoned by a jeering student and a group of malcontents tried to deliver bodily harm upon some of the guest athletes.

The offenders may reason there is safety in numbers but they reckon without the penalties that can be visited upon the school and the community by the University Interscholastic League.

There's teeth in the regulations drawn up by the UIL to protect visitors to a campus and the league is not timid about chomping them if the complaints are valid.

There may be racial overtones to the school's problems. But, then again, the community may just be hostile to anyone who wears alien colors. What ever the cause, the guilty parties should be disciplined before the entire community pays for the transgressions committed by the few.

This is the way the bowl principals appear to be aligning at this early date:

COTTON — Arkansas vs Alabama.

ROSE — Stanford vs Ohio State or Michigan.

ORANGE — Notre Dame vs Nebraska-Oklahoma winner.

SUGAR — LSU vs Nebraska-OU loser.

GATOR — Auburn-Georgia winner vs Penn State.

ASTRO-BLUEPONNET — Texas vs Auburn-Georgia loser.

Glenn Pettv, the hard-working track and field coach at the local high school, has tentatively scheduled a track show here for March 11. His plans crystallized after the Tall City Relays in Midland were cancelled.

Pettv would have two or three of the top AAA teams in the area aligned against some of the better AAAA teams in West Texas. There would only be one level of competition.

If the meet materializes and it is a success, chances are four or five colleges would be asked to gather for a companion show in future years.

Midland Lee will play practice football games with Lubbock High, Snyder and Plainview next fall while Midland High has booked Fort Worth Trimble Tech, Ysleta Eastwood and Lubbock Monterey.

The Dallas-Fort Worth American baseball league team will make its home debut as early as next April 11, at which time the erstwhile Senators will come to grips with the Kansas City Royals.

Texas Tech has now played 65 football games without a draw, SM

Church Class Sets Halloween Visits

Halloween will be observed differently this year by the young married peoples class of the First Assembly of God Church.

The class will meet at the church at 7:30 p.m. and leave to knock on doors, not to trick or treat, but to leave a gospel tract with the inhabitants of the home.

Following this unique and different approach to Halloween, the group will then gather at the parsonage for an evening of food and fellowship.

Desegregation
Bill Facing
Test Monday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's $1.5 billion school desegregation bill has been scheduled for a House vote Monday but under terms that could lead to its burial rather than its long-delayed passage.

The bill will be brought up under a procedure that permits only 40 minutes of debate, prohibits amendments from being offered and requires a two-thirds majority for passage.

The procedure is designed for quick action on non-controversial measures, which hardly describes the desegregation bill. It has been mired in controversy on Capitol Hill for 18 months.

Of limited House appeal to begin with, since it would provide funds only for school districts that are desegregating, it has become acutely distasteful to many members since the busing of pupils to overcome desegregation became a burning national issue.

Northern liberals who have supported busing for the South but are now faced with mounting antibusing sentiment at home don't want to have to vote on the amendment.

The bill's two chief sponsors, Reps. Albert H. Rees, R-Minn., and Roman C. Pucinski, D-Ill., are gloomy about its prospects. Rees accused the Democratic leadership Thursday of deliberately trying to kill the bill by bringing it to a vote under such circumstances.

The procedure decided on by the House leadership for Monday's vote will protect those members since no amendments will be permitted. The decision has infuriated conservatives and antibusing Southerners who are anxious for such a vote, however, and there is considerable doubt that the bill can get the required two-thirds majority.

10 Texans Challenge Congressional Remap

DALLAS (AP)—A three-judge federal court has been asked to hold the 1971 legislature's congressional redistricting plan unconstitutional on grounds it violates the "one man, one vote" rule.

Two Dallasites, a Wichita Falls resident, a citizen of Iowa Park, three Lubbock residents and three El Pasoans filed the suit.

One of their lawyers said the 10 were just "concerned citizens" and he had never thought to ask what they had in common, such as political affiliations.

"SAFE SEATS" The group said in their petition that the new congressional districts "are not as compact, contiguous and as nearly equal in population as is practicable." According to the petition, the districts "were created as a result of political expediency, to perpetuate in office those representatives whose political philosophy coincided with that of the dominant forces in the state legislature, to create 'safe seats' for those of a like mind to provide a political denouement for past political favors or grievances, to neutralize the votes of ethnic or economic blocs, and with only minimal regard to the constitutional mandate of 'one man, one vote.' The suit says the largest district has 19,275 people more than the smallest, or a 4.1 per cent difference.

"The vote of a voter in the 13th District (Panhandle) is worth only 96 per cent of the vote of a voter in the 15th District (Lower Rio Grande Valley)," the petition says. The court was asked to declare the plan unconstitutional and issue an order forbidding secretary of state Bob Bullock to conduct congressional elections in the new districts. The plaintiffs also asked the court to command the legislature to enact a new set of district "which meet the requirements of the federal constitution."

Should the legislature fail to do so, the plaintiffs submitted a plan of their own for the court to enact. They said their plan had a population difference of only 696 people between the largest and smallest districts, or less than one-tenth of one per cent.

Plaintiffs are Dan Weiser and John L. Edwards of Dallas; Donald Coleman, John Fletcher and Benjamin Newcombe of Lubbock; Hugh Elliott of Wichita Falls; John R. Karr, Joyce V. Karr and Marvin Zimet of El Paso; and Norma Palmer of Iowa Park.

Bush Reveals
'Apologies'
Are Received

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Ambassador George Bush said Thursday night the United States has received "some apologies" from other nations about the behavior of their delegates during the vote to admit Mainland China to the United Nations.

But Bush declined to name the countries which sent apologies.

Bush, attending a White House dinner for President Tito of Yugoslavia, told reporters he thought the atmosphere after the U.N. vote Monday night was not as wildly exuberant as some reports indicated.

However, Bush said he thought the over-all mood of the U.N. discussion, which resulted in the expulsion of Taiwan and the seating of Mainland China, was "clearly hostile to the United States."

"Everytime I would speak, for instance, there were some hisses and boos," said Bush.

The White House said Wednesday that the "shocking demonstration and undisguised glee" shown by some U.N. delegates at the defeat of the U.S. position in seating both Taiwan and Red China could have a detrimental effect on support for the world body and on foreign aid to those countries.

But Bush said the U.N. decision to throw out Taiwan is "past history." He said he looked ahead to what he called the "exciting transition" when mainland China becomes a U.N. member.

"We wanted them in," said Bush. "We just didn't want the other guy kicked out."

AUSTIN (AP) — Sen. Oscar Mauzy of Dallas says he expects to file suit Monday in an East Texas federal court challenging the newly enacted House redistricting plan.

The crucial issue of individual

ATTY. GEN. MARTIN HIT—Roy Cohn of New York as he told a news conference Thursday Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin should be removed from office. Cohn said Martin "has been the man in charge of whitewashing" for Moody Foundation chairman Paul Haas for years.

House districts which would give minorities a stronger legislative voice probably will be left out of the main suit, he said.

Tony Koriath of Austin, another attorney in the suit, said "the present theory" is to present the single-member issue later in a petition to be filed by a group who would seek to intervene in the case.

Intervenor would include Negroes, Mexican-Americans, Republicans and other minorities, Mauzy said.

He said that "as a practical matter, it will be Monday" before the basic suit is filed.

Mauzy also said some state representatives or potential legislative candidates also may intervene in the suit on grounds that the high cost of running countywide in a large metropolitan county discriminates against them.

Koriath said the main issue in the basic suit would be the numerous deviations in the plan enacted by the Legislative Redistricting board from the equal population standard. The board said there was a 9.9 per cent spread between the districts with the most and the least populous.

"The present thought," he said is that the suit will be filed in a federal court in East Texas, either that of U.S. District Court Judge William Wayne Justice of Tyler or U.S. District Court Judge William Steger of Beaumont. Steger is a former state Republican Party chairman.

Mauzy was the strongest advocate of single-member districts—as opposed to countywide at-large districts for urban representatives—during the redistricting board's proceedings. A special hearing was called at which Mauzy presented about 2½ hours of testimony on individual districts and warned that the board's plan would be challenged in court if single-member districts were not drawn.

Only Harris County (Houston) and rural areas were given districts represented only by one House member.

Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin, Board chairman, said he was satisfied that the plan enacted by the board was legal.

Solons Are Given Hunt Privileges

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials have invited legislators to hunt on wildlife management areas with no limit on the number of people in their hunting parties. It was reported here.

The San Antonio Express said today that letters went to state senators and representatives, the governor, lieutenant governor and House speaker inviting them to participate in all activities of the department.

UNITED FUND AT $49,161

The United Fund reached $49,161 Friday morning, and is still expected to reach the halfway point by Sunday.

The goal for this year is $110,000, money that will be spent on 15 local welfare and child guidance organizations.

"By Sunday we think we can reach $55,000," said Morris Robertson, campaign chairman. "All the United Fund volunteers are working hard to reach the halfway point."

The United Fund campaign for 1971-72 started Oct. 4, and is slated to end when the goal of $110,000 has been reached.
