INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Dec. 23. President Truman today came to Independence, Mo., his home town, to spend a white Christmas with his family and old-time cronies and friends.

The white Christmas was assured when a three and one-half inch snow fell in the Kansas City area Tuesday night.

The White House plane, Independence, bearing the presidential party, arrived at Fairfax airport, Kansas City, Kansas, at 11:44 a. m. CST.

The plane was a few minutes behind schedule, but the President said the flight was a pleasant one.

Air Not Bumpy

Asked whether the air was bumpy, he smiled and said "not a bump in a carload."

Mr. Truman was accompanied by his daughter, Margaret, and by the following members of the White House staff:

Secretaries Matthew J. Connelly and Charles G. Ross; Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan, his military aide, and Mrs. Vaughan; Miss Rose Conway, a member of his secretarial staff, and Col Robert G. Gates.

On hand to greet him at the airport were Mrs. Truman, who had preceded him by train, his brother, Vivian Truman, his sister, Mary Jane Truman, and about 100 others, including members of Mrs. Truman's family, friends and townspeople.

Drives To Home

The President immediately drove to his home in Independence accompanied by secret service men, reporters and photographers. On arriving, he wished all who had accompanied him a "Merry Christmas" and said he was "glad to be home."

The large gray, four-gable Independence home had a brand new iron fence around it. The fence, first to be built around the home, was an innovation of recent months.

The drive to Independence was slushy and rough from ice caked on Truman road, the highway leading to Independence. Mr. Truman's car came through all right but the secret service men, who traveled in a car of their own, got stuck on the ice at one intersection.

To Leave Wednesday

The President plans to remain in Independence until next Wednesday when he will return to the White House to complete opening messages to the second session of the 82nd Congress which will convene Jan. 3.

He plans to do a little work on the message during his five-day Christmas holiday, but for the most part it will be a period of

Capital Decked In Holiday Attire

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23. (AP)—Holiday red ribbon overlaid workaday red tape today as the capital began its Christmas observance.

President Truman got up early to fly to Independence, Mo., for a Christmas in the old family home. Mrs. Truman already was there. Daughter Margaret flew with her father.

Before the President left, he exchanged formal Christmas greetings with the Pope, telling the pontiff the United States "gladly re-dedicates its efforts to the creation of a peaceful and advancing world order."

Replying, the Pope said "Salvation will not come for the world until mankind, deriving its inspiration from the teachings and example of Christ, comes to realize that all men are children of the one Father in heaven, destined to be truly brothers through the union of his divine son, whom he sent to be redeemer of all."

Mr. Truman plans to remain in Missouri until Wednesday. He arranged to light the White House Christmas tree late tomorrow by remote control. He will broadcast a Christmas message to the nation (about 4:17 p. m., CST tomorrow.

Government offices will be closed through Monday.

American merchants, in general, could count the 1949 Christmas shopping season a rousing success. The Federal Reserve Board said department store sales last week finished one per cent ahead of 1948.

Railroads Get Coal Priority

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23 — The government took emergency action today to keep trains running despite the curb John L. Lewis has clamped on coal production.

It gave the carriers first call on coal produced in mines which normally provide them with such fuel.

With railroads granted first call on coal, industrial users and home owners will have to get along with the remainder. Meanwhile, stocks are diminishing as a result of the three-day work week of the United Mine Workers.

Effective Today

The government priority order for the railroads came from the Interstate Commerce commission which said the new system will go into effect at 12:01 a.m. (local time at the mines) tomorrow and continue until midnight February 25 —unless changed.

The ICC said that railroads having less than nine days stocks on hand can obtain tonnage to meet their needs through certification from the director of the agency's service bureau.

The ICC said it took this action because "the interest of the public and the commerce of the people is seriously threatened."

Coal retailers contend that an emergency exists now and say that they have been forced to ration supplies to home users.

Takes Over Coal

One of the major coal-carrying railroads, the Chesapeake and Ohio, yesterday took over some of the coal it was transporting to replenish its fuel stocks.

Other lines also reported that they have an insufficient amount on hand.

Lewis meanwhile announced

Hoskins, Convicted Of Amarillo Murder, Awaits Sentence In Jail

AMARILLO, Dec. 23. (AP).—Dwight Hoskins, Amarillo, convicted of murder, remained in jail today awaiting his formal sentencing expected next week.

His attorneys said they would not file a motion for a new trial. Late Wednesday a jury convicted Hoskins and recommended a 35-year prison sentence for the murder of Charles Lee Freeman during a filling station holdup here Oct. 5.

Numerous Church Programs Are Planned

Christmas Eve Rites Are Slated In City

LUBBOCK and the South Plains today will wrap up the last packages for a gala, colodful and reverent Christmas observance as residents complete their shopping, attend numerous church services and participate in numerous parties for various children's groups in the city and area.

Continued heavy shopping was indicated for today as large crowds again jammed the city Friday to wind up one of the biggest Yule shopping sprees in the city's history, reflection of the greatest cotton harvest ever chalked up on the South Plains.

Many of the city's children today will be guests at Yule parties sponsored by various organizations.

Christmas Eve Services Set

And Christmas Eve services are to be held tonight at a number of local churches.

Meanwhile, the holiday travel rush continued at a heavy pace Friday and Friday night with rail lines, the Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma Bus company and air lines reporting some of the heaviest passenger traffic of the year.

South Plains highways also were crowded and Texas Highway patrol officials renewed a plea for safe driving to hold down the area's already record-breaking traffic death toll, now standing at 104 persons for the year.

The day is expected to draw to a close on one of the busiest shopping periods in the city's history. For the South Plains it is a season of thanksgiving as well as cheer. Numerous religious services tonight and Sunday will play prominent roles in the observance.

At St. Paul's Episcopal church, Sixteenth and Ave. X, a midnight service will begin at 11:30 p.m.

Highlights of the service will be the celebration of Holy Communion and the presentation of Gounod's "St. Cecilla Mass" by members of the church choir and musicians from several other churches in the city.

Soloists will be Mrs. Frank Goodwin, Elton Plowman, George Zournas, Rex Wester, Marion Canterbury, and Anne Crenshaw.

Pergolesi's "Glory to God in The Highest," will be sung as offertory anthem by Misses Crenshaw and Canterbury.

Others who are to participate in the musical program are Mrs. D. E. Ing, Miss Joyce Watson, Mrs. Eloise Elliott. Miss Francis Ann Dalmasso, Harold Biffle, and Roger Hall.

Shooting Suspect Freed On Bond

Paul J. Deaton, 36, of 1712 eighteenth, was freed under $750 bond Friday following his arrest earlier in the day on a charge of assault with intent to murder in connection with a shooting which wounded his mother-in-law in the leg.

The injured woman, Mrs. Belva A. Moss, 52, of the same address, was termed in good condition at Lubbock Memorial hospital late last night.

The charge was filed in the justice court of C. E. Lynn, and was the result of an altercation in the woman's home about 3:20 a.m. Friday.

Deaton and his wife, whose name also is Belva, had gone to Mrs. Moss' home, where they were living, just before the shooting. They had been to a dine and dance place, city detectives said.

City Detective Lee Rice, jr., said he was informed that Mrs. Deaton's mouth was bleeding and that Deaton and Mrs. Moss got into a quarrel over the incident and scuffled over a pistol that officials were told belongs to Mrs. Moss.

Miss Jane Moss, 18, another daughter of the injured woman, called police at 3:18 a. m., that a man there had a gun. She phoned back at 3:20 that her mother had been shot.

JOHNSON REJECTS PROPOSED BAN

Medical Care Of Servicemen's Dependents To Continue Free

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23 — Defense Secretary Johnson rejected today a Budget bureau suggestion that free medical care for dependents of military personnel be discontinued.

In a letter to Budget Director Pace, Johnson said that such medical care is traditional and that it is the conclusion of the Defense department that it should be continued.

Pace, in a letter to the Defense department last month, raised a question about providing medical care for dependents and said he could find no "legal basis" for such care.

It was estimated at the time that about 6,000 dependents of military personnel receiving hospital care either free or at a low fee at home and abroad would be affected if the budget director's recommendations were accepted.

Johnson told Pace that he was appointing a committee headed by Dr. R. L. Meiling, director of military medical services, to keep the matter under study. Johnson said:

Because of the complexity of this problem, I desire it to be

Phone Strike Is Postponed

(By International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 23. — Some 50,000 members of the communications union today agreed to postpone their threatened pre-Christmas strike against Southwestern Bell telephone for 10 days.

Announcement of the strike postponement was made by Gov. Forrest Smith of Missouri.

The governor said the agreement was reached at a conference in which he took part in Jefferson City, Mo.

The threatened strike would have tied up the phone systems of six states during the busiest period of the year.

Governors To Meet

Smith said that the governors of Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Arkansas had agreed to meet with him in St. Louis Thursday morning in an attempt to settle the labor dispute with the telephone company.

The postponement was proposed by Governor Smith this morning in a 90-minute session with five CIO leaders who took the proposal under consideration and announced their decision at another parley with the governor which began at 1:30 p. m.

The telephone company had taken elaborate precautions for the strike in the belief that it would start late today or tomorrow.

A vote taken by the union showed that more than 80 per cent of the workers were in favor of the strike. Negotiations between union and company broke off Monday and the results of the vote were announced Wednesday.

The six states involved in the dispute are Missouri, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Arkansas and southern Illinois.

Gov. Smith had warned the union previously that the strike would be in violation of the Missouri King-Thompson act which prohibits strikes in public utilities. He said the law would be invoked if Missouri workers joined the other states in the walkout.

The act provides for fines of $10,000 a day for striking unions and $1,000 fines for union officials and cancels the seniority ratings of the workers involved.

Frank P. Lonergan, union vice president and spokesman, had answered that the warning "won't make any change in our plans."

The union is seeking wage increases and changes in pension programs and working conditions.

Five Injured In Knife Fight Here

Four persons were stabbed, one of them critically wounded, in an altercation at a residence at 1604 Avenue G shortly before midnight Friday. A fifth person was beaten in the affray.

Police were holding for possible charges in connection with the case a 31-year-old Lubbock man, arrested in the vicinity of the house at 1604 Ave. G, in possession of a shotgun a short time after he had allegedly left the place.

Victims of the knifing were Floyd McCreary, 38, occupant of the house, in critical condition with a deep wound in his left side; Joyce Pierce, 12, of 1822 Ave. G, Bobby Stotts, 26, of 2416 Thirtieth; and Odie Brown, 29, of 2816

'Miss America' To Marry School Beau

PHOENIX, Dec. 23 (INS)—The current Miss America, beauteous Jacque Mercer, tonight announced her engagement to Doug Cook, son of a former English professor at Phoenix college.

The 18-year-old Miss Mercer, who copped the Atlantic City beauty pageant classic last season at Atlantic City over luscious lovelies from the four corners of the nation, told International News Service:

"The very fact that I am going to be a bride is a bigger thrill to me than when I won the Miss America title."

The wedding will be next July 4, which happens to be the twenty-second wedding anniversary of her parents. Mr. Mercer is principal of a Phoenix high school.

The engaged couple will come to Los Angeles next year. Cook will enroll at an art center school while his bride-to-be will simultaneously be engaged, she hopes, in motion picture and television work.

Miss America and her husband-to-be have been sweethearts since they were in high school and have been going steady for five years.

SNOW HITS MIDWEST STATES

Mild Weather Is Forecast For South Plains For Yule Weekend

MUCH of the nation could look forward to a white and cold Christmas weekend today, but the Weatherman held out prospects of only continued cool and partly cloudy weather for Lubbock and the South Plains.

A bright sun warmed away the cold wave which had gripped most of the state Friday and prospects were for continued mild temperatures for late Christmas Eve shoppers today.

The Weather Bureau station north of Lubbock at midnight said that a low in the middle twenties could be expected early today with the maximum reading in the 50s this afternoon. Friday's low was 24 degrees, the high 56 degrees.

Sunday's weather was expected to be similar with partly cloudy weather prevailing. A new cold area in the northwest gave promise of moving down with colder weather for the section by Monday or Monday night, however. Sharply colder weather with

FIVE BODIES FOUND IN MARSH

Meadow Man, 10 Others Die In Air Force Bomber Crash

(By The Associated Press)

SAVANNAH, Ga., Dec. 23.—A crater of marshy ooze, bits of metal and dirty water marked the death site today of an Air Force B-50 bomber and 11 airmen including a son of baseball's Rogers Hornsby.

He was one of three Texans on the death ship. The others included Sgt. Manson L. Gregg of Meadow, Texas. The plane was en route to El Paso.

The flaming plane buried itself in a desolate marsh last night and lit the area with its funeral pyre.

Rogers Hornsby, jr., 29, of Denison, Texas, was navigator. He was the son of baseball's famed "Rajah," player or manager for five major league teams.

Veteran Of 50 Missions

Young Hornsby was a veteran of 50 flying missions during the war.

The elder Hornsby said in Chicago he seldom saw his son. He and the Air Force lieutenant's mother have been divorced for many years. Hornsby said he last saw the young man in 1946. Unlike his father, young Hornsby did not try baseball as a career.

Five bodies were found today in the crater of cinders, mire and dirty water. Search was suspended at nightfall but will be renewed tomorrow with the aid of a swamp buggy brought from Eglin field, Fla. Officials said it appeared doubtful if bodies of any of the missing six fliers would be found in the deep mire.

Plane Disintegrates

The puddle of dirty water and a few pieces of twisted metal, scattered over abandoned rice flats, was all that remained of the 62-ton, four-engined plane.

The craft mysteriously spouted flame and fell only five minutes after lifting from nearby Chatham field for a final training flight before Christmas.

"It looked like the whole world was on fire," said J. A. Lyles, a bridge tender who saw the burning plane fall.

Trip Takes Hours

The scene was near a branch of the Savannah river, only seven miles northward from Savannah and two miles from U. S. highway 17. It took hours for rescue crews, desperately hoping to find survivors, to reach the wreckage.

They wound through tortuous creeks by rowboat and flashlight. Then they plunged the last hundred yards through mire that gripped them to the armpits. Some were cork life jackets.

Goodfellows Renew Plea For Cars To Distribute Gifts

Much help is needed to distribute Goodfellow Christmas packages to the needy children of Lubbock tomorrow morning. Anyone with a car can help.

Here are the instructions:

Please be ready to report by 6 a.m.

Turn into Avenue H at some point south of Thirteenth street and drive north.

Boy Scouts will be on duty at 1313 Avenue H to put packages into each passing car. Each package will be clearly addressed. The drivers will deliver them to the addresses. No driver will receive more than a few packages.

To Contain Toys, Candy

Each package will contain toys, candy, fruits, nuts and other remembrances for each child in the family to whom it is addressed. In most cases, the children will be awaiting the arrival of the only gifts they will receive on Christmas.

Several more contributions Friday increased the total of the 1949 Goodfellow fund to $3,908. The new donations follow:

Injuries Fatal To J. Connolly

(Special To The Avalanche)

TAHOKA, Dec. 23 — James (Skinner) Connolly, about 62, pioneer Tahoka resident, became the area's first holiday weekend traffic fatality Friday night as the car he was driving collided with a cotton trailer five miles west of Claremont on Highway 380.

His death drove the South Plains total for the year to 105 killed in traffic mishaps. Connolly was a widely known South Plains cattle buyer and had lived in the Tahoka area for the past 27 years.

Connolly's wife, about 60, also was injured in the mishap and was described by attendants at the Prohl clinic here late tonight as being in "fair" condition. She suffered a broken collar bone and numerous bruises.

Others Not Injured

Another companion riding with the Connollys, Frank Brown, also of Tahoka, and Jet George, driver of the pickup which was pulling the cotton trailer into which the Connolly car crashed, were not injured.

George is believed to be a farmer living several miles west of Clairemont. The scene of the wreck is about 35 miles east of Post.

Connolly was killed about 8:45 p. m. His death marked the first for the Christmas season on the South Plains and surrounding area.

The accident occurred as Connolly and his wife and Brown were driving east from their home on their way to a Christmas visit to see relatives and friends in Hill county, friends in Tahoka reported late tonight.

Missed Pickup, Hit Trailer

Witnesses said Connolly, driving a 1939 Chevrolet tudor sedan, was apparently blinded by the lights of a pickup truck driven by George. The driver's side of the sedan was badly mangled as it missed the pickup, but plowed into the left side of the cotton trailer behind.

Connolly lived about 25 minutes after the crash, but was dead before an ambulance arrived. His wife suffered shock and numerous lacerations and bruises, plus possible fractured bones, attendants said. Brown and George were not treated.

A Robinson Funeral home ambulance from Jayton brought the victims to Tahoka where Connolly

Holidays Begin With Six Dead

(By The Associated Press)

At least five persons died by violence in Texas Friday as the Christmas weekend holiday period began.

In addition it was feared that six Texas hunters had died at three different points while duck hunting Thursday.

In a period starting Friday morning three were killed in traffic accidents, two men were shot to death, and a boy burned to death in a playhouse made of flimsy boxes.

The victims:

Bert W. Mooney, 27, of Dallas, killed in an auto-street car collision.

Larry Wright, one-year-old, who fell under an auto as it was backed out of the drive way at his Fort Worth home.

James Connolly, about 62, of Tahoka, was fatally injured in a car-trailer collision near Clairemont, east of Post.

Man Is Slain

Johnny De Vaughn, 42, shot to death on a farm near Byrd, Tex. A woman charged with murder was held at Waxahachie.

J. E. Minton, jr., 5, of Ennis, burned to death. He had taken a candle into his playhouse to light

CIVIL RIGHTS BATTLE SEEN

Turbulent Session Of Congress Predicted By Texas Delegation

By TEX EASLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23 — Seven Texas Democratic representatives just back from home say they look for a turbulent session of Congress starting Jan. 3.

They expect legislation affecting civil rights, labor, taxes and cotton to afford plenty of fireworks, they said in separate interviews today.

"I think the administration is getting ready to give civil rights measures the priority over everything else," said Rep. Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls.

"That will endanger the success of all other legislation in this Congress. It is a political appeal to the prejudice of minority groups in the big industrial areas. They may get somewhere, but I'm against all such moves."

Rep. Frank Wilson of Dallas agrees that the civil rights issue will cause bitter fights.

He commented that this issue likely will arise in regard to the federal housing program.

"This plan of barring federal financial aid for housing where deeds contain clauses as to who shall occupy a property could wreck building programs in the South," he added.

Says Plan Rejected

"A federal agency is trying to put into effect by its own regulations a basic policy that Congress turned down. We rejected amendments offered by Rep. Marcantonio (AL-NY) and Rep. Powell (D-NY) to put anti-segregation amendments into the housing and other legislation."

Rep. Wingate Lucas of Fort Worth and Grapevine said he expects hot arguments on labor bills. He added he believes the Taft-Hartley act should be strengthened, if any change is made. The administration seeks repeal of the law.

The new cotton crop control program has stirred resentment from scattered parts of the country as well as from Texas. A House agriculture subcommittee recently proposed that remedial legislation be enacted.

Opposition Expected

Rep. Teague of College Station said he will press for prompt passage of such measures but he foresees opposition from areas which fared well under the new law.

The Texans generally said they are inclined to support the move to repeal or at least reduce wartime excise taxes. They also said they don't like the idea of any tax boost.

Rep. Albert Thomas of Houston said government spending and taxes should both be reduced.

Reps. Paul Kilday of San Antonio and Eugene Worley of Shamrock, both expressed views generally similar to those of their colleagues.

And recently, Rep. John Lyle of Corpus Christi, who was here but went home for the holidays, predicted the new session would "see some of the bitterest debates" ever held in Congress. He said they would center around civil rights and taxes.

Shivers To Tackle Problems Of State After Rest At Home

AUSTIN, Dec. 23 (U.P.)—Gov. Allan Shivers left here today for a 10-day holiday rest with his family at his home in Mission, after which he'll return here to pitch into 1950's tangled problems of state.

Calling of a special session of the Texas Legislature was expected to be the governor's number one chore when he returns to his office on Jan. 3.

He told reporters yesterday Jan. 31 would be "a fairly accurate" guess as to when state lawmakers will be recalled to solve the state's money problems.

Busy Schedule Planned

Shivers said he would go to Port Arthur, his legal residence, to pay his poll tax. His busy January calendar also called for visits to Waco and Fort Worth, where he'll join in a junior chamber of commerce observance and visit the Fort Worth Fat Stock show.

The governor long has been on record as favoring a special legislative session to consider a proposed multi-million-dollar eleemosynary building program, a project which enjoys his personal blessing.

Also, funds are needed to operate the state institutions next fiscal year, beginning Sept. 1. Estimates of immediate money needs range from $40 million to $60 million.

Broad Base Favored

Shivers repeated at yesterday's press conference he thought any new taxes should be spread over a broad base, "with no single industry singled out to bear the brunt of new taxes."

The state's financial condition has become more acute with recent cuts in oil production allowable, chief source of revenue.

Signs were that some legislators might insist that Shivers crowd other issues into the special session, including a law "with more teeth in it" to combat the rash of sex crimes.

Foreign Oil Reserves Reported As Almost Double Those In U.S.

TULSA, Dec. 23 (U.P.)—Foreign oil reserves now are almost double those in the United States, the Oil and Gas Journal said today.

Foreign reserves total nearly 52 billion barrels.

The trade magazine said "the most widespread search in history" has added 1,500,000,000 barrels to overseas reserves in 1949 despite record-breaking production averaging 3,433,000 barrels daily.

Largest gain was reported in Venezuela and the Middle East. Canada's crude reserves jumped to more than one billion barrels.

"Refinery expansion abroad is proceeding rapidly now that war damage has been repaired," the Journal said, "and the present world capacity to refine 10,500,000 barrels of crude daily will be further increased during the next two years."

Subjects For Charitable Santa Lacking In Prosperous Lorenzo

LORENZO, Dec. 23. (Spl.)—Prosperity and Christmas cheer note: Two Lorenzo organizations made plans to play Santa Claus to the poor of the town, but found no one needed assistance.

The Lorenzo Lions club and the Eastern Star made surveys this week and discovered that Santa Claus plans a visit to everybody in Lorenzo, so plans to help the needy were discontinued.

"This speaks good for Lorenzo." The Lorenzo Tribune comments; "However, there has been so much work here this fall there is no excuse for charity unless sickness has occurred in the family."

Sheriff Asked To Destroy Gun Used In Four Fatal Shootings

COVINGTON, Dec. 23 (U.P.) — R. F. Clements today asked authorities to destroy a .38 caliber revolver which two of his sons used to kill themselves and two other persons within the past six months.

Clements voiced the plea to Hill County Sheriff Charlie Garrison shortly after his 19-year-old son George, was buried yesterday. The rites were held in the same church where only a day earlier services had been held for the childhood sweetheart George shot to death Tuesday.

The father asked Garrison to "be sure that gun never comes into anyone else's hands."

Deposits of pyrites have been found in the Kwangtung and Kwangsi Provinces of China.

U. S. Public Sees Atom Trains, Cancer Cure In Next 50 Years

By GEORGE GALLUP, Director
American Institute Of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., Dec. 23 — Trains and airplanes will be running by atomic power before the year 2000 A.D. is reached, if the guesses of the American public at this mid-century point are correct.

Also, an overwhelming majority of people believe that an absolute cure for cancer will be found in the next 50 years.

But only one person in every seven believes that science with its swift progress in the Twentieth Century will be able to devise rockets to carry men to the planet Mars. Perhaps that's left for the Twenty-first Century.

To celebrate the ushering in of the second half of the Twentieth Century—a century which has already witnessed such revolutionary developments as the airplane, the cracking of the atom, and the control or cure of a dozen or more diseases that used to prove fatal to many people—the American Institute of Public Opinion interview a national cross-section on a series of questions about the future.

One question was:

"Do you yourself, think any of the following things are likely to happen in the next 50 years? Do you think trains and airplanes will be run with atomic power?"

The vote:
Yes	63%
No	20
No opinion	17

88% See Cancer Cure

Delving into the field of medicine, the survey asked next:

"Do you think a cure for cancer will be found?"

Yes	88%
No	7
No opinion	5

There, are, of course, ways of curing certain cancers now if the growth is caught and treated in time. But medical research is seeking a drug or other form of treatment which will stop cancerous growths in all parts of the body, without undue damage to surrounding tissue.

Rockets To Moon

Rockets to carry explorers to Mars and the moon have been the dream of science fiction writers and some scientists for many decades. Research by the Germans in rockets for war use stimulated interest in the larger problem of missiles to the other planets of the solar system.

But the public still remains skeptical of the likelihood of success in the next 50 years:

"Do you think men in rockets will be able to reach the moon or the planet Mars?"

Yes	15%
No	70
No opinion	15

However, at the time the Wright Brothers were perfecting the first successful airplane, 46 years ago this month, it was the sober opinion of a number of scientific societies and journals that the idea of a flying machine was absurd.

Pakistan reports that although facilities have been extended for foreign capital participation in industries there, "such capital is still conspicuously absent."

Little Girl's Santa Answers Note Tied To Christmas Tree

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 23. (U.P.)—When little Betty Lee saw some men cutting Christmas trees for shipment near her home in Boony River, New Brunswick, she had an idea.

The little Canadian girl wrote a note to Santa Claus and pinned it to one of the trees. In the note, she asked Santa to bring her two-year-old brother Bobby a walker to help his crippled legs.

Own Desires Unmentioned

Betty didn't ask for anything for herself. Neither did she mention her other seven brothers and sisters.

The tree was shipped with a lot of others to New Orleans, and when truckers unloaded it they found Betty's note. The big-hearted truckmen began doing some checking. They found out that Betty was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee of Boony River, and that theirs was a big family.

The truckers started a fund with $90, and it grew quickly. One man raffled his prized Sugar bowl football tickets and put the proceeds in the pot. A ward in an old folks home sent a dollar.

Gifts On Way

Today, a surgical wheelchair and a Taylor tot for Bobby were on their way to Boony River on an Eastern airlines plane. There was also a big crying doll for Betty, who asked nothing for herself.

And there are lots of other presents, for all the other Lee kids.

The truckmen hope the gifts will reach the Lee family in time for Christmas. The plane goes only as far as St. Johns, New Brunswick, but it should get the gifts there in time to catch the Saturday train to Boony River.

Boy Dies Under Car, Young Girl Burned At Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, Dec. 23. (AP)—A year-old boy was killed when he fell under a car driven by his mother and a six-year-old girl was seriously burned in accidents that erased Christmas joy from two homes here today.

Dead is Larry Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wright. The burned girl is Celia Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Williams.

Mrs. Wright, 21, was backing her car out of the driveway to go shopping, with Larry beside her, when the front door swung open. The child fell out and a front wheel passed over him, fracturing his skull.

In the other accident, the Williams girl was burned when flames from an open gas heater ignited her nightgown. She was alone in the house at the time. Her mother rushed in from the back yard and wrapped Celia in quilts, saving her life, according to doctors. Celia suffered second and third degree burns on her body and arms.

Moscow Press Gives Eye-Witness Account Of Party For Stalin

MOSCOW, Dec. 23. (AP).— The Moscow press published today an eye-witness account of a reception it said was held last night in honor of Prime Minister Stalin's birthday. Stalin was 70 Wednesday.

The reception was held in the White hall of the largest of all the Kremlin chambers. Present were the highest Soviet ministers, members of the Supreme Soviet and those specially honored persons who hold the orders of Hero of the Soviet Union and Hero of Socialist Labor.

The description was issued by Tass, the Soviet news agency. It said those present spoke with "sincere warmth, love and deep respect" of Stalin.

". . . guests with happy emotions awaited the meeting with Stalin. There was a general stir, followed by a powerful storm of applause."

Tass went on: "At this moment there entered" Stalin himself, Vice Premier V. M. Molotov, Vice Premier Georgi Malenkov, Marshal Klementi Vorohilov, Vice Premier Lazar Kaganovich, Vice Premier A. I. Mikoyan; N. S. Khrushchev, a secretary of the Communist party; Marsha N. A. Buulganin, President N. M. Shvernik, Vice Premier A. N. Kosygin, Matvei Shkiryatov, A. M. Suslov and P. K. Ponomarenko.

Shvernik, president of the Presidium, invited to the speakers' table the following foreigners:

Mao Tze-Tung, head of the Chinese Communist Peoples Republic; Vulko Chervenkov of Bulgaria, Matyas Rakozi of Hungary, Cheorghe Cheorghiu-dej of Romania, Vilem Siroki, deputy premier of Czechoslovakia; Palmiro Togliatti, Communist leader in Italy; Dolores Ibarruru-Gomez (La Pasionaria), Spanish Communist leader; Walter Ulbricht, deputy premier of the East German Communist government, and representatives of the parties in Finland, Austria and Poland.

Texas Communist Secretary Gets Jail Term For Contempt

HOUSTON, Dec. 23. (AP)—James J. Green, Texas Communist party secretary, was found in contempt of court by Federal Judge T. M. Kennerly today and sentenced to Wharton county jail.

The sentence will last until Green indicates his willingness to testify and does in fact testify before the Immigration service on the actions of Kurt and Steffi Regina Wittenberg, aliens facing deportation.

Judge Kennerly postponed execution of this sentence until noon Jan. 3.

A government motion was granted by Kennerly, to require Miss Koening and Robert L. Brannan, factory clerk, to appear before immigration authorities Dec. 30 and to testify and produce any records relating to Kurt and Steffi Wittenberg, as to their right to reside in the United States.

Board To Continue Accepting Applications For RAFB Posts

The U. S. Civil Service Board of examiners at Reese Air Force base will continue to accept applications for the positions of electrical linemen, grade 15, $1.27 to $1.55 per hour carpenter, grade 12, $1.14 to $1.40 per hour; plumber, grade 13, $1.19 to $1.45 per hour and laborers, grade 3, $.79 to $.92 per hour, according to an announcement of the executive secretary Friday.

These examinations were offered at an earlier date but sufficint applications were not received to enable the commission to establish a register, the secretary stated.

Linemen, plumbers and carpenters, in order to qualify, must have had at least four years experience in their trades.

No written test is required for the examination and applicants will be judged by statements as to experience, education and training.

Necessary forms for applicants may be obtained from the post office or from the executive secretary of the board at the air base.

Insanity Alleged For American Woman Held In German Slaying

FRANKFURT, Dec. 23. (INS)—An insanity plea was filed today for Mrs. Yvette Madsen, the Brooklyn-born beauty charged with the murder of her handsome Air Force husband.

Elmo Gower, attorney for the brunette widow, entered the plea in the U. S. District court in Frankfurt. He asked that his 22-year-old client be committed for mental examination and added:

"This alleged accused is insane, and it is averred that the sanity of the accused will be made the issue in this case."

While Gower made his move, the mother of two small children spent a lonely pre-Christmas in a drab psychoneurotic ward in the Wiesbaden Army hospital. Her children have been sent back to the U. S.

Mrs. Madsen, whose hobby was making death masks, is charged with the first degree murder of her husband, First Lt. Andrew E. Madsen, Oakland, Calif. It is alleged she shot him with his .45-caliber service pistol on the morning of Oct. 20 after a party they both attended.

Thus far there has been no indication as to the precise motive for the slaying.

Texas Cities Given Housing Loan Okay

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23 (AP) — Presidential approval of $15,286,600 in planning loans for projects to provide low-rent homes for some 300,000 persons in 188 localities was announced today by the Public Housing administration.

Public Housing Commissioner John Taylor Egan said the loans will go to local housing authorities in 29 states and Puerto Rico who plan a total of 84,040 homes.

The money will be used for surveys and planning work which must precede actual construction of public housing projects.

The housing will be built, owned and operated by the local housing authorities for rent to families whose incomes are so low that they cannot afford adequate privately-owned housing.

The loans announced today bring to $35,862,000 the total approved so far. All are for developments planned in the next two years.

The approved list includes only authorities whose local governing bodies have approved loan applications.

Egan said the Public Housing administration will make loan contracts with the authorities as soon as possible so their work can start.

Loans approved and the number of units planned include:

Texas: Austin, 520, $154,000; Bonham, 90, $36,000; Borger, 150, $55,000; Eagle Pass, 54, $21,600; Orange, 200, $70,000; Port Arthur, 600, $170,000; San Antonio, 2,600, $400,000; Waco, 550, $160,000; Waxahachie, 104, $40,900.

The Woman's Angle
By Margaret Turner

THIS seems to be the day when Christmas greetings are in order. We have a few on our list.

The most wonderful returns of the day to those who have the spirit of Christmas in their lives all year long.

They are the ones who know the miracle of Christmas can work in men's lives and save this distraught civilization, if only we permit our faith to become effective and allow love to operate in the world.

To Mrs. J. W. Walker of Plainview and Ben Moore of O'Donnell, whose sincere Christmas letters gave us a warm glow.

To the people who do not compare price tags, knowing that the spirit of Christmas giving should be above such mercenary attitudes as wondering how much a gift costs.

TO Mrs. Martin, who as nurse for the Junior Welfare league goes beyond the call of duty in her dealings with the underprivileged.

To my brothers who keep the humor going in our family.

A happy Christmas to my mother and to your mother and to all mothers everywhere.

To Erich Brandeis, who is my favorite syndicated columnist.

To the Plainsman and to Parker F. Prouty. To the two young women who assist in the women's department and other associates on the paper.

A merry, merry holiday to Mrs. Oliver Thomas, Derwood Taylor, Opal Dixon, Ruth Ford and Leland J. Culp, who form a coffee partnership at the drug store with us from time to time.

To 2-year-old Janice McWilliams, because she always laughs and yells "Hello Marquet" to us.

To little Sam Ratliff who borrowed a smile from the angels.

To Pamela Ford, Schnitzel Smiley and Foo Lynch.

TO store employes, postmen and other delivery men who may rest their swollen and aching feet for another year.

To food manufacturers who make all meal preparations a pleasure.

To all people who help to make the world more beautiful.

OUR congratulations go to all young men who have gathered around perfume and jewelry counters and to all young women who have bought yards of ties and gallons of aftershave lotion for the objects of their affection.

To all organizational reporters who turn in their reports on time, with correct names and initials.

To those who have helped to make our work more interesting this year.

To our nephews, Michael and John Clark Frederick and Gary Tiernan.

HOLIDAY greetings to Dr. M. H. Benson and Bill Sewell, who patiently explained the plays at the football games this fall.

To the driver who does not sound his horn the second the light changes; to pedestrians who do not step from the curb before the light is theirs.

To all children who believe in Santa Claus.

To the Lubbock residents who decorated their homes in order that everyone who passed along could enjoy the sight.

To Mrs. J. T. Talkington for placing a tree in Margaret's that set a new high in beautiful decorations.

To those who remember the unfortunate throughout the year.

To all people who love to take a journey into Christmas.

WANT CHAIR

TWENTY-ONE club in First Methodist Friendship class wants to get a wheel chair for a woman who suffers from arthritis. They want the folding type and if anyone has one members wish she would call Mrs. Leroy Waggoner at 2-6857. The class assists Mrs. Tom Cannon, visiting nurse, in getting supplies for needy people.

Lubbockites Have Guests, And Make Holiday Trips

Christmas eve activities are centered around Lubbock guests and Lubbockites who are making trips to visit with friends and relatives.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Benson, jr., 3011 Twenty-fifth, are her mother, Mrs. W. B. Edwards, and Mr. Edwards of Mineral Wells, and her brother, Jimmy Renfro, his wife and their children, Sandra and Charles, of Corpus Christi.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Germany and Mrs. Germany's mother, Mrs. N. H. Holmes, of Dallas will arrive today to spend the holiday weekend with Mrs. Holmes' sister, Mrs. R. R. Holmes, sr., of 2510 Twenty-fifth. They will also visit her brother, F. L. Adams, of Shallowater.

Mrs. J. R. Stratton of 1612 Ninth will have her children as Christmas guests. They are Messrs. and Mesdames Hubert Knight and family of Amarillo, Ronald Corn and family of Roswell, N. M., Elbert Herbst of Idalou, and Ben Hicks of Merkel.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Green and three children, Wanda Lee, Susan Kay and Thomas Edward, left Thursday for Sedona, Ariz., to spend Christmas with Mrs. Green's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Roberts. They will return Jan. 1.

Here from St. Louis for the holidays are Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Burrus, jr., and two children, Harry Gene and Lei Lane. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Burrus, sr., of 2102 Main. The young Mr. Burrus is an instructor at Washington university in St. Louis.

Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Alexander, 1922 Seventh, are their daughter, Lorena, and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joab Alexander, of Albuquerque.

F. W. Jenkins of Mason is expected to spend Christmas with his daughters, Mrs. H. C. Burrs, sr., and Mrs. J. E. Alexander. Mr. Jenkins observed his 90th birthday recent'y.

Whiteface Guild Is At Program Meeting

"Christ in Christmas" was topic of the program given for Whiteface Wesleyan Service guild in the home of Mrs. L. S. Salser at Whiteface early this week. Hostesses were Mesdames Dorothy Smith, V. N. Townsen and Salser. Mrs. H. L. Elliott presided and Mrs. Herbert Lindsey directed the program.

Mrs. N. A. Tubb discussed "Christmas Customs in Other Lands."

The group voted to send a gift of nuts to Girlstown, and Mrs. Lindsey reported that the guild had sent a gift to a girl at the Methodist home in Waco.

Gifts were distributed from a lighted tree. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Others attending were Mesdames O. C. Rankin, Orian Dennis, R. A. Salser, Jack White, H. P. Clemons and Roy Patterson.

Dinner-Dance Held For Office Group

A dinner-dance at the Cotton club was given as a Christmas entertainment for employes of Chicopee Manufacturing corporation and guests Tuesday night.

Cotton bolls, dipped in gold paint, decorated the lighted Christmas tree, and other gold bolls, centered with Christmas bells, were given as corsages. A mound of cotton which centered the red covered dinner table was topped with red Christmas stockings filled with cotton, gold bolls and toy money wrapped in gold paper.

Places were marked for Messrs. and Mesdames George W. Pfiffenberger, Jim N. Little, Charles W. Ewing, Bob Stanford, Garland Sligh, Misses Lu D. Bradshaw, Edith Coleman, Dorothy Doose, Ruby Stewart, and Messrs. M. F. Peters, Heath Raymer, Hoyt Altman and Bob Conley.

Dinner For Children Held At Ranch House

The children of Milam's home were guests at a Christmas dinner given by Phil's Ranch House Thursday at 5 o'clock.

Baker School Party Featured By Pageant

Mrs. H. P. Baker, 1911 Eighteenth entertained children of the Baker school at a Christmas party Thursday afternoon.

Bill Wellborn read the Christmas story from the Bible, and Mrs. Raymond Dunn told a Christmas story. The children gave a Yuletide pagent, and Mrs. D. A. Wellborn read poems.

During a visit from Santa Claus, gifts were exchanged. Gifts made by the children were distributed to parents and visiting friends.

The children's rhythm band played during the tea hour. Refreshments were served to 34 guests.

Vows Said In Church Here

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Wheeler of Southland are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Wilma Fern Wheeler, to Duane Starlon Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hill of Levelland, which took place Tuesday at St. John's Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Peterson performed a double ring ceremony before an altar of white gladioli, fern and candles.

Miss Anna V. Moren, organist, accompanied the soloist, Johnnie Margaret Price, as she sang "At Dawning" and "O Promise Me." For the musical benediction, she sang "The Lord's Prayer." The organist also played "Berceuse" and "Indian Love Call."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a blush pink satin bridal gown designed with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves ending in points at the hands, and a fitted skirt extending into a long train.

Miss Tommy Jean Wall of Waco, maid of honor, wore a dress of crimson velvet fashioned after the bride's. She wore a matching muff complemented with a gardenia corsage. Miss Oleita Hill of Lubbock, sister of the bridegroom and bridesmaid, wore a dress similar to Miss Wall's.

Truett Tyler of O'Donnell served as best man and Bob Cooper of Crowell was groomesman. Bobby Simpson of Levelland and Ferrell Wheeler, brother of the bride, were ushers. Martha Ann Lockwood of Lorenzo, cousin of the bride, and Larry Burk of Slaton, cousin of the bridegroom, were ring bearers.

Those assisting with hospitalities at the reception given in Hilton hotel Navajo room were parents of the bride and bridegroom and members of the wedding party. A two tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom and decorated with yellow mallow roses and lilies, was served.

After a wedding trip to Santa Fe, N. M., the couple will be at home at Ropesville. For travel, the bride wore a green faille dress with brown accessories and a dark brown topcoat. She is a graduate of Texas Technological college where she was a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron. Mr. Hill, a senior student at Tech, is a member of Alpha Phi Omega. He formerly attended Wayland college and Rice institute.

With the Government agreeing to find a market for its cotton, Ceylon's North Central District has a program to bring 3,000 acres of cotton under cultivation.

Crippled Children To Be Guests Today For Picture Show Party

Crippled children in the city are to be the guests of Mrs. Vernice Ford for a party at the Plaza theater this afternoon from 1 until 6 o'clock. Mrs. Ford is case worker with the National Polio Foundation in Lubbock county.

Any child who has been stricken with polio is invited, Mrs. Ford said. It is hoped that children who do not have a way to get to the Plaza may be taken there.

Rev. M. P. Hsieh, chaplain of Fukien, China, visiting in Northern Ireland, was given a bicycle to aid him in covering his three parishes back in China, two of them 30 miles apart.

Ritchies Plan Open House

POST, Dec. 23 (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ritchie of the Close City community, near Post, will have open house from 2 until 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 27, to celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary.

They were married at Hamilton in 1899. Mrs. Ritchie, the former Mary Jane Tate, was born in Alabama Feb. 14, 1878, and her husband was born in Milam country Sept. 2, 1876.

All six of their children and 13 grandchildren are expected to spend Christmas with them and remain here for the Golden Wedding celebration. Their sons are Earl and Bonnie Ritchie of Ontario, Calif., Claude Ritchie of San Francisco, Calif., and Aubrey Ritchie of Close City. The daughters are Mrs. Lee Eckart of Pomona, Calif., and Mrs. A. O Parrish of the Graham community, near Post.

An invitation is being extended through the newspapers to all of the couple's friends and neighbors to attend the open house.

Bride-Elect Honored At Friday Luncheon

Cinderella club of Wolfforth honored Mrs. Wilda Reynolds, bride-elect of Crate Snider of Ropesville, with a luncheon Friday at the Chicken Village.

Guests were Mesdames Buster McNabb, Chesley Hobgood, J. R. Morris, Courtney Brooke, A. C. Glenn, D. A. Glenn, Dan Smith, B. B. Hobgood and Charles Benton.

The club had a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Chesley Hobgood Wednesday.

The Ceylon Navy's first ship is the minesweeper Flying Fish, built in Canada during the war—a gift to Ceylon from the British Government.

Husbands Guests At Club Dinner

Sew on Wednesday club gave a Christmas dinner at Kattman's Tuesday night, with husbands as guests.

After the dinner, the group went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Robertson, 1910 Twenty-sixth, for a Christmas tree party and gift exchange.

Eighteen were present.

Holiday Sales Over Nation May Set New Record

(By The Associated Press)

After a slow start the nation's cash registers jingled perhaps the merriest merry Christmas in history this year. From many parts of the country came reports the final week's rush carried sales beyond last year's record both in unit and dollar volume.

To top off higher reports from department and other retail stores came estimates that heavy last-minute buying of perishables like candy and flowers were "well ahead of a year ago." A large Chicago store said its candy volume for 1949 up to Aug. 1 was eight percent lower than the same period in 1948, but by Dec. 15, the year-to-date volume this year had forged 12½ percent ahead of the same 50 weeks a year ago.

The U. S. Department of Commerce said November sales of chain stores and mail order houses were about two percent below November, 1948. Then the Federal Reserve board came up with figures showing department stores had bounced to a new record high ir the week ended Dec. 17.

Since then a survey of major stores in key cities from coast to coast found all but one reporting business higher than a year ago. That was Detroit, where the Retail Merchants Association estimated Christmas sales were running 10 percent below last year. A lessening demand for heavy household appliances was reported, and liquor sales were estimated at 375,000 cases compared with last year's 407,000 cases.

From other cities came these reports:

New York—Business of most stores was called "highly satisfactory." One group of stores selling high-priced lines in men's and women's clothing reported dollar volume four percent ahead of last Christmas and unit volume about 20 percent better.

Boston—Retail sales expected to meet or exceed last year's dollar volume. Unit sales were reported running high enough to compensate in most cases for lower prices. In that city household furnishing were leading.

Richmond, Va.—Five leading department stores reported their Christmas business was 10 to 20 percent above 1948 for an alltime high.

Atlanta, Ga. — The Davidson-Paxon company said last Monday was the store's biggest Monday before Christmas in history, with the season "well ahead of 1948."

1948 Mark Surpassed

Minneapolis—Department store business was four to seven percent higher than a year ago.

Kansas City—Federal Reservre board reported pre-Christmas department store sales 19 percent higher for the four weeks ended Dec. 17 than a year ago. For Missouri as a whole the period was 17 percent up and for Kansas four percent higher.

Dallas — Sangers department store was finding dollar volume seven percent higher. Sears, Roebuck's retail store was getting seven to eight percent more business than in 1948. The Neiman-Marcus specialty store said business was "a little better both in units and dollars, and people seemed to be better satisfied with prices."

Denver—Daniels and Fisher, the city's leading store, had dollar volume equal to last year and unit sales showing an increase of 15 percent.

Seattle—One of the largest department stores said it was expecting this Christmas's business would prove higher than last, the previous alltime peak, with some of the biggest days in the store's history coming this season.

In Northern Rhodesia a survey showed that European miners were absent from work more than twice as much as native miners.

U.S. Agency Refuses To Ban Anti-Histamine Cold Tablets

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23. (U.P.)—The food and drug administration has no intention of banning across-the-counter sale, without doctor's prescription, of anti-histamine cold tablets, officials said today.

The agency concluded as the result of its own tests that the anti-cold tablets are safe if the manufacturer's directions are followed.

A spokesman said the agency has reached no conclusions on the effectiveness of anti-histamines, but that it is watching with keen interest proposed mass experiments for testing the pills in factories, colleges and similar institutions.

Wichita Falls Edges Austin, 14-13, For Title

17,000 Watch Jerry Fouts Come Through In Clinches

Austin's Fighting Maroons Wait Until Last Quarter To Open Ground Attack

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

FORT WORTH, Dec. 23—Jerry Fouts led Wichita Falls to the Class AA Texas schoolboy football championship today, scoring one touchdown, setting up another and kicking two extra points as the Coyotes edged Austin 14-13.

The Great Wichita Falls wingman wasn't the whole show but he was the man who did the work in the clinches.

Fighting Austin, waiting until the last quarter to begin moving, thundered for one touchdown and swept to the Coyote 11-yard line in another great surge that had the crowd of 17,000 in hysterics at the game's close.

Second State Title

Wichita Falls finished the campaign unbeaten and untied over 14 games and holder of its second state title in eight years. The Coyotes won the championship in 1941 in a game also played in Fort Worth.

Vicious ground power with the forward pass used sparingly but tellingly swept the Coyotes to the title—that and the mighty toe of Fouts. The slender, wiry wingman ran his string of points after touchdown to 30 out of 34 for the season.

Wichita Falls outgained Austin in total offense with 280 yards to 232, getting 193 on the ground and 87 in the air. Austin gouged 202 yards out of the Wichita Falls line but netted only 30 passing.

Austin didn't use its ace runner, Bobby Warren, until late in the third period and he was the boy who sparked the Maroons in their near-win. Why he was held out so long was not explained but apparently it was because the coaching staff wanted Austin to wear Wichita Falls down before turning the little fellow (150 pounds) loose on the Coyotes.

Score On 65 Yard Drive

Wichita Falls got its first touchdown midway of the opening period on a 65-yard drive. From the Coyote 35, Bill Waggoner rammed the line for two, then Bill Bookout roamed right end to the Austin 45. Here came the most sensational play of the game. Waggoner passed to Fouts, who took the ball as it slithered through the hands of Travis Eckert, Austin defender, on the Austin 20. The Coyote end ran untouched to a score then calmly kicked the point.

Little Johnny Salyer ran the kickoff back to the Wichita Falls 49, and from here the Maroons slashed to a touchdown. John Cavileer, Morris Nelson and Salyer carried down to the 15 but here Cavileer was pitched for a six-yard loss. The respite was brief, however. On the next play, Nelson passed to Bobby Frederick over the goal line for a touchdown. Bob Smith's try for extra point was wide—and that really was the ball game although a lot more was to happen before the game ended.

Bookout, Waggoner Star

Wichita Falls promptly roared to its second touchdown the next time it got the ball, smashing and crashing 63 yards. Bookout did the running and Waggoner the passing in a measured march to the Austin 15. Fouts then took the ball on an end-around play and carried to the five. Waggoner broke over left guard and cut out to cross the goal line unhindered. Again Fouts kicked the extra point.

The half ended 14-6 and in the third period Wichita Falls was camping down in Austin territory most of the way, once getting to the Maroon six-yard line and another time rolling to the Austin 38. But as the fourth period opened, Austin started its bid for glory.

The Maroons pounded and crashed 93 yards in a touchdown drive Wichita Falls couldn't come close to stopping. It required only 13 plays to make it with a 28-yard run by Warren setting up the score on the Wichita Falls 10. Nelson rammed guard for four and and Warren circled left end for a touchdown. Smith converted this time.

Littlefield Guard Will Miss State Title Game

LITTLEFIELD, Dec. 23. (Special)—Floyd Pinkerton, regular right guard for the Littlefield Wildcats, will not play in Monday's state Class A championship game at Abilene with Mexia.

The 157-pound Wildcat lineman suffered an acute attack of appendicitis Friday, and underwent an emergency appendectomy at 10:15 p. m. in Littlefield hospital. After the operation, an attending physician said Pinkerton's condition was satisfactory.

Coach J. S. Fikes indicated that the right guard slot will be filled by Billy Frank Davis, 140-pound substitute guard, or 175-pound Arlen Wesley, a tackle letterman this season.

Gene Renfro, linebacking ace and one of the Wildcats' top power runners, did not suit out for today's workout because of an ankle sprain. Renfro has received daily treatments for the injury, and may be able to play Monday on defense, Fikes said.

Otherwise, Littlefield is physically ready for the battle with the Black Cats.

The Fikesmen, two-touchdown favorites over Mexia, went through a rugged one-hour scrimmage today. Later, Fikes said he was satisfied with the workout.

The 35-man Littlefield squad will travel to Abilene Monday morning by bus, arriving about 11 a. m.

Ciudad Trujillo, capital of the Dominican Republic, expects shortly to have a second textile factory in production.

Kentucky Five Beats Purdue Squad, 60-54

LaFAYETTE, Ind., Dec. 23 (INS)—Kentucky's defending NCAA champions doubled the score on Purdue in the first half and then chocked off a rally in the last 12 minutes to beat the Boilermakers, 60 to 54, before 10,000 fans in Lafayette.

The Wildcats led 34 to 17 at halftime but the sensational shooting of Guard Howie Williams slashed the Kentucky margin from 17 to 6 points when the final gun went off.

Williams topped the scoring for the contest with 17 points. Walt Hirch had 14 for the victors.

LOT OF LETTERS

During their playing careers, the 15 graduating seniors from the 1949 University of Arizona football team won a total of 41 varsity letters. Tackle Bob Morrison won fifth letter during 1949 and four other players won their fourth.

WARREN GAINS FOR AUSTIN — Bobby Warren (arrow), Austin Maroon back, cuts over right tackle for a four-yard gain before being stopped by E. Terrill (left) and Billy Bookout (behind Warren) of Wichita Falls in Friday's state Class AA championship game at Fort Worth. Blocking for the fleet Warren is Morris Nelson (20), Austin back. The Maroons staged a thrilling last-half rally against the favored Coyotes, but it fell short and Wichita Falls gained the state crown with a 14-13 triumph. Arizona Cagers To Meet Aggies

TUCSON, Ariz., Dec. 23.—The University of Arizona basketball team, victorious in five of six starts, returns to the university's "Bear Down" gym Tuesday, Dec. 27 to meet Texas A&M in the Wildcats' final warm-up game before the Sun Carnival tourney in El Paso and start of Border conference play.

After playing Texas A&M, the Wildcats will participate in the Sun Bowl tournament, Dec. 30-31, and on Jan. 7 open their 16-game conference schedule against Arizona State in Flagstaff. Arizona's first opponent in the Sun Bowl tourney will be New Mexico university. The other two teams entered are Texas Western and West Texas, rated the team-to-beat in the 1949-50 conference race.

On their first trip of the year, to San Antonio, the Arizona team this past weekend split two games with two Southwestern conference opponents. The Cats dropped a tight 58-50 decision to Texas university for their first loss of the season, but came back to take a 56-50 victory over Texas A&M, the same team which will appear in "Bear Down" gym Dec. 27.

Despite the fact the two Texas teams held the Wildcats below their scoring average, Arizona still shows a six-game average of 63.1 points per contest. All-Border conference forward Leon Blevins leads the Cats with a per-game average of 13 points and is followed by forward Bob Honea with 11.1, and sophomore guard Roger Johnson with 10.3.

Texas Western Will Get Two-Day Holiday

EL PASO, Dec. 23 (AP)—A two-day Christmas vacation is ahead for Texas Western footballers.

They have been getting ready for their Sun Bowl game here Jan. 2 with the Georgetown university Hoyas from Washington, D. C.

The Miners will be dismissed by Coach Jack Curtice after tomorrow's practice. They'll get together again Tuesday.

Ten squadmen, including Harvey (Pug) Gabrel, who ranks eighth in the nation in rushing, will spend the short holiday at their homes in Odessa, Tex.

Seven more will go home to nearby Texas towns. Fifteen of the others live here, and the four others, from out of the state, will remain in El Paso.

Working Officials Named For Sun Bowl Game At El Paso

EL PASO, Dec. 23 (AP)—Officials were named today to work the Jan. 2 Sun Bowl game between Georgetown university and Texas Western. J. M. West, a Texas Tech grad, will be headlinesman. They were selected by the Border Conference, of which Texas Western is a member.

Other officials were chosen by the Eastern Intercollegiate Athletic Association, of which Georgetown is a member. They are James J. Henry of Villanova, umpire, and John F. James of Princeton, field judge.

Advice, Sympathy And Understanding

Louis Is Advised To Stop Fooling Public

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—Sparing no expense, we this year continue our policy of making Christmas gifts of advice, sympathy and understanding, fully realizing that the recipients won't take the advice, don't want the sympathy, and already can understand.

Anyway, we mean well, so here are our little tokens:

ADVICE

Joe Louis—Hey, quit foolin' your public. Either start cookin' or get away from the stove.

Professional Golfers' Association—Rescind the ban on Bobby Locke. You looked bad in ousting him for actions which are at least tolerated when a home pro is the culprit.

Willie Pep—We think your last fight with Sandy Saddler was a masterpiece, and you have been a great champion, but if you fail to meet him again you'll lose prestige.

Football coaches—Sing a song of sunshine. Quit moanin' low when you know it's just an act. If your kids are good, say so.

SYMPATHY

Ben Hogan—It was the toughest of tough breaks to lose at least a year out of your golf career when you were at your peak. Everyone hopes you can come back soon and take up where you left off.

Lee Savold—You really were left waiting at the church as Jersey Joe Walcott and Ezzard Charles were nominated to fight for the NBA heavyweight title, and Bruce Woodcock pulled out of a fight with you for the English version of the championship. You rate a chance to show how good you are anyway.

Charley Keller—Without exception the sports world regrets the apparently early end of your active playing career.

UNDERSTANDING

George Sauer—We know what it would be like to be given a teaspoon and told to move a mountain. You just didn't have the squad this year to face that terrific football schedule they lined up for your Navy team.

Ezzard Charles—It's tough to do a good job and receive little credit for it. Succeeding Joe Louis isn't easy.

Boston Red Sox—When you do things right, you're great; when you do things wrong, you're a flop. So people will remember you as the team which blew the pennant, instead of the team which came from far back to lose out by a nose.

And let there be no misunderstanding about this—We wish everyone a Merry Christmas.

Red Raiders Get Three-Day Rest

Texas Tech's football squad romped through a morning workout Friday, then scattered for a three-day Christmas vacation before resuming Raisin Bowl drills Monday.

Most Raider players left immediately after the Friday morning practice session for their respective homes. They will return in time for two additional workouts here before departing Wednesday for Fresno, Calif., site of their post-season clash with the San Jose State Spartans.

The overall physical condition of the Tech squad was good after Friday's workout, and it appeared that the Techsans would go into the bowl encounter free of serious injuries.

Meantime, from San Jose came word that the Spartans also broke camp today for a four-day holiday layoff. The San Jose players will reassemble Tuesday to make final preparations for the Dec. 31 bowl tilt.

Rogers Hornsby's Son Killed In Savannah Air Force Crash

CHICAGO, Dec. 23. (INS)—Rogers Hornsby, sr., one-time baseball star, said tonight that his son, Lt. Rogers Hornsby, jr., had been a member of the Air Force before the war and that he had reenlisted afterward.

The younger Hornsby was one of 11 Air Force flyers killed yesterday in a crash in the swamp lands near Savannah, Ga.

Rogers, sr., said that he had not seen his son since 1946.

Lt. Hornsby was not a baseball player. His body will be sent to his widow in Denison, Texas.

Drop In Betting Noted At Park

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 23 (AP)—A half million dollar drop in betting during the first 18 days of thoroughbred racing at Tropical Park was reported today.

The State Racing Commission said mutuel play was $508,203 below the 1948 figure for the same period. Attendance dropped 1,684.

The figures: this year 103,395 people bet $6,174,802 in the initial 18 days of racing; last year 105,079 persons wagered $6,683,005.

The Racing Commission said the decrease was in line with conditions reported at other tracks throughout the nation during summer and fall seasons.

The drop started at the very beginning of greater Miami's 122-days of racing. Attendance on opening day, Nov. 30, was off 612 persons and betting down $37,368 compared with 1948.

The general decrease was not unexpected. Tropical Park revised purses downward 10 per cent in accordance with the smaller wagering and gate take. Purses range from an $1,800 minimum to $2,500 for feature events.

The Racing Commission also granted the track permission to stage nine-race programs on nine days of the meeting, seven of them Saturdays, to help Tropical keep out of the "red." Eight races per day had been the rule.

Tropical's eight a day meeting last winter brought a mutuel turnover of $18,682,943 for an average of $467,073. The opening handle in 1948 was $461,264. This year it was $423,896.

The 41-day Tropical Park meeting runs through Jan. 16. Hialeah Park then takes over the show for 40 days followed by a 41-day season at Gulfstream Park.

Survey Shows Grid Coaches Favor Two-Platoon System

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Dec. 23—A survey taken by a New York newspaper shows that more college football coaches favor the highly-controversial two-platoon system than oppose it.

Forty-eight per cent, representing colleges of all sizes, believe the plan has definitely helped the game. Fifty per cent of the coaches of smaller schools say it has definitely helped. Thirty-eight per cent of the coaches of larger colleges believe it has hurt. Fifteen per cent of the coaches of the larger schools assert that the system has helped them and hurt the smaller fry. Only six per cent of the coaches of the smaller colleges have that idea.

This is such a protracted argument you would suspect the two-unit scheme was brand new.

Yet Knute K. Rockne used it at Notre Dame in the mid-20's. He called his starters shock troops, let them stay in there for several minutes, or until trouble threatened. He broke boys in this way, got more of them in the lineup.

Fritz Crisler generally is credited with originating the present two-platoon system in football in 1945, although Sid Gillman is said to have employed it at Miami of Ohio previously. Coach Crisler didn't believe the younger members of the Michigan squad could go all the way effectively against an Army Blanchard-Davis team, conceived the idea of continually pitching a fresh force at the Cadets. The result was a rousing game.

Now you hear talk of two-platoon basketball, just as though that were new, too.

Two-platoon basketball, as a matter of fact was introduced by Jack Friel at Washington State College 10 years ago, and quickly copied by opponents.

"When the center jump was eliminated," says the veteran coach of the Cougars, now on an eastern swing, "it became obvious that more reserves would be needed by teams using a fast break, or any sort of driving game. By the 1940-41 campaign, the year we were nosed out by Wisconsin for the NCAA championship, I'd experimented enough to become convinced there was merit in the swing-shift idea. So I started using it that season. I haven't found any reason to drop it.

"The two-platoon plan enables five men to run at full speed offensively, to bear down at all times.

"I've found that reserves, seeing action regularly in early games, show up surprisingly well for short spurts in major competition.

"Playing in every half of every game, they develop rather than go to seed. The second bunch develops a team spirit and ferocity which makes it put out extraordinary efforts, to at least hold its own while giving the first string a rest, and it watches the scoreboard closely entering and leaving the game.

"Modern college teams cannot continue playing today's game at top speed without relief. Placing practically the entire burden on five men slackens your defense, whereas players getting adequate rest can be held to much stricter responsibilities."

Platoons obviously go with the speeding up of the game.

RIVENBURG GETS HONOR

TUCSON, Ariz., Dec. 23.—Center Roy Rivenburg, senior of Globe, Ariz., was named the most valuable player on the 1949 University of Arizona football team and presented with the annual Governor's award.

St. John's Five Has Win Streak

NEW YORK, Dec. 23. (INS)—Sophomore-studded St. John's new sensation of college basketball, is doing things for Brooklyn not even its best radio quiz contestant could do.

Coach Frank McGuire's Redmen have whirled through ten victories in ten starts, numbering among their all-star victims such marvels as:

Kentucky, the National Collegiate champ; San Francisco, the National Invitation likewise.

What type monster is this?

No monster at all, says Coach McGuire. "We've been rebounding well," he murmered.

Last night, the Redmen were rebounding and doing other things well enough to flatten San Francisco 60-44. That ran their skein to ten straight and put the national spotlight on them, which is something no pre-season All-American crystall-ball-interlookers remembered to do.

The most famous player on the St. John's team, as a matter of fact, is Al McGuire.

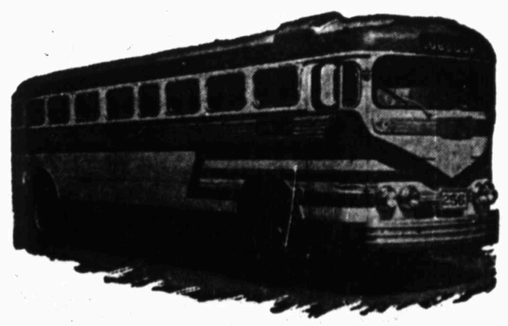

The 18-year-old junior is the brother of Dick, who is now playing for the New York Knickerbockers.

After McGuire come the sophomores who're making the Redmen go—starting with Robert "Zeke" Zawoluk, six-foot-six and 19 years old. He plays center.

Charlie Justice To End Football Career In Tussle At Cotton Bowl

Number 22 Jersey Will Be Retired

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 24. (U.P.)—Choo-Choo Charlie Justice, who has carried North Carolina to three post-season dates in four years, will try to run and pass his way in the Cotton Bowl through Rice and the double whammy which has kept him from a bowl victory.

Halfback Justice and his great battery mate, aerial artist Art Weiner, All-American end, will be playing their last game in North Carolina's light blue jerseys. They'd like to end their four fabulous years with a win.

It will be only Weiner's second bowl game. He dropped off the team before Georgia beat it in the 1947 Sugar Bowl, and re-enlisted later. But Justice played in that game, as well as in the licking by Oklahoma last New Year's Day in the Sugar Bowl. After those Sugar Bowl blues, a switch to the Dallas, Texas, Cotton Bowl might change their luck.

Chilly Charles, a level-headed lightning bolt on the field and a likeable young family man after working hours, won't play professional ball.

Weiner, a rangy giant with hands the size of pie plates, was drafted by the Green Bay Packers before the pro league merger threw his future in doubt. He's married to a pretty Chapel Hill girl.

But the Cotton Bowl won't be their last game together. Both are scheduled to play in the Senior Bowl in Florida on the South team.

Justice, hobbling on an injured ankle late in the season, proved he still was dangerous with everything you can do with a football. He ran for eight touchdowns this year and passed for six. His punts averaged 44 yards this year—the same as last year when he set a new national record. And he often decoyed his bedazzled foes to let others gain.

Off the field, Justice is quiet, informal, courteous and not impressed with himself. He's popular on the campus and a young demigod to Tarheel fans.

Weiner, less articulate than Justice with strangers, is another fine team player. In the final game, against Virginia, he caught his 52nd pass of the year, tying Barney Poole's old national record but falling one short of the 53 mark set two days earlier by Cliff Coggin of Mississippi Southern.

His teammates were dismayed when they heard about it after the game. They could have pitched more to Art. But Weiner, intent on a team victory, hadn't told them he was close to the record.

They'll hang up Justice's jersey after the Cotton Bowl, and no North Carolina player will ever wear number 22 again.

After all, they figure, they probably won't get another halfback like him—5,054 yards in total offense in four years, a passing percentage of 49.5 and 39 touchdowns so far in his career.

Marlene Bauer Picked To Retain Junior Girls Golf Title In 1950

NEW YORK, Dec. 23 (INS)—Anybody who would dare to forecast the winner of a flock of golf titles months in advance should have his head examined.

However, an outline can be made of what may generally be expected next year.

Surveys show that there are some 3,000,000 golf players in this country. Some 6,000 of them play in the six national USGA tournaments—The Open, Amateur, Women's, Public Links, Junior and Girls' Junior.

There will be more entries than ever because more youngsters are taking up the game every year and more schools and colleges are listing golf on their athletic programs.

The most uncertain title in all the realm of sport is the National Open. That is one championship which should have a favorite. The present titleholder, Cary Middlecoff, is a great golfer but the odds are all against repeating.

The closest to a reasonably fair bet to retain a golf title is Marlene Bauer, the 15 year old girls champion who was good enough to be a semi-finalist for the women's title. She is a stand-out among the younger fry.

Sam Snead should be one of the most interesting golfer of 1950 as he was this year. He has won about all the titles and tournaments on the books except the Open and it will be interesting to see if he can win that one next year.

Two years ago he was leading by two strokes with three holes to play and blew it. And last time he missed tying by a single stroke.

Charles Coe, the young amateur champ from Oklahoma City, looked unusually good in winning his title but he will have his hands full trying to repeat. Too many good golfers are coming along every day to make any titleholder's crown safe on his head.

The women's crown, now worn by Mrs. Mark Parker of Philadelphia, is far from safe and there will be a new junior titlist because Gay Brewer, the current champion, has gone beyond the 18-year-old limit.

In some respects the most interesting of all competitions is the Public Links event which next year will have close to 3,000 entries. Ken Towns of San Francisco is the champion but the chances are good that some unknown will come along to win.

There will be no Walker Cup matches next year but the Curtis Cup matches will be played at Buffalo Sept. 4 and 5. These will be closely contested because the British women golfers always seem to fare better in Curtis Cup play than their men do in Walker Cup matches.

All in all, it looks like a great year ahead.

Coaches Clinic Set For Austin July 31

FORT WORTH, Dec. 23 (AP)—Austin today was named the site of the 1950 Texas High School Coaches Association's annual coaching school.

Directors of the group made the announcement at noon after conclusion of a day and a half session here.

Dallas, which entered the bidding a heavy favorite was ruled out because it wanted a percentage of the All-Star football game gate receipts, and the final bidding took place between Austin and San Antonio.

Fort Worth extended the Association an invitation to hold the affair here but refused to enter into the bidding.

The coaching school was last held at Austin in 1940. The 1950 affair will open July 31 and end Aug. 4. Instructors for the clinic were named but their identity withheld pending acceptance of invitations. There was an unconfirmed report that University of Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson would be asked to coach one of the All-Star football teams.

University Of Iowa Quintet Defeats Carnegie Tech, 73-42

IOWA CITY, Ia., Dec. 23 (INS)—An 18-point splurge by Frank Calsbeek in the first half gave the University of Iowa basketball team a 73 to 42 victory over Carnegie Tech tonight.

The Iowans took control of the game early in the first half and had a 23 to 9 margin. They led 35 to 20 at halftime.

Calsbeek's 18 points took the scoring honors for the contest. Mike Theodore tallied 13 for the losers.

TO SPEAK HERE — Charles (Bud) Wilkinson, University of Oklahoma grid mentor who recently was chosen "Coach of the Year," will be guest speaker at the annual banquet of the South Plains Coaches and Officials association Feb. 13 in Lubbock. Arrangements for the affair are not yet complete, but tickets will be available to the public. Wilkinson sends his perfect-record Sooners against LSU in the Sugar Bowl classic Jan. 2.

Two-Hour Celebration Greets Victorious Wichita Falls Team

WICHITA FALLS, Dec. 23. (AP)—A two-hour celebration greeted members of the Wichita Falls High school football team tonight when they returned from Fort Worth with the state Class AA title.

The Coyotes defeated Austin 14-13 earlier today.

Mayor Harold Jones and Dr. James Boren of Hardin college welcomed the victorious team. Coach Joe Golding and team members were interviewed by local radio stations. The Coyote band paraded up and down the streets.

Braves Sign Up Bucky Walters As Pitching Coach For 1950

BOSTON, Dec. 23. (AP) — The Boston Braves announced tonight they had signed Bucky Walters as a pitching coach.

Walters was manager of the Cincinnati Reds until relieved late last season. He remained in the Reds organization.

A Tribal spokesman said President Warren C. Giles of the Reds gave the Boston club permission to dicker with Walters after being convinced the switch would be to the latter's financial advantage.

GOLF MATCHES SLATED

TUCSON, Ariz., Dec. 23 — Fourman University of Arizona golf and tennis teams will participate in three Border Conference matches between Feb. 27 and March 1. Members of the golf and tennis teams, who will accompany the Wildcat basketball squad on its Texas trip, will play Hardin-Simmons at Abilene Feb. 27, Texas Tech at Lubbock Feb. 28 and West Texas State at Canyon March 1.

Kell Tops AL In Batting

NEW YORK, Dec. 23 (U.P.)—George Kell of Detroit had four breaks during the past season—the first two almost ruined him but the last two made him the American League batting champion for 1949.

Kell's first two breaks were a broken bone in his right foot and a broken left thumb, each of which forced him to the side-lines. Those last two "breaks"—and the Tiger third baseman admits they were just that—were two hits on the final day of the campaign that earned him a .3429 batting mark and the league crown.

Official averages revealed today that Kell won the title over Ted Williams of Boston by an infinitesmal two ten-thousands of a point. Williams wound up with a .3427 mark in the closest batting race in American League history.

Kell, first third baseman in the circuit ever to capture the title, played in 134 games, collecting 179 hits in 522 times at bat. Playing in 155 games, Williams pounded out 194 hits in 566 appearances at the plate.

Bespectacled Bob Dillinger of St. Louis finished third in the race for the championship with a .324 and veteran Bobby Doerr of Boston fifth with 309.

Dillinger, the demon of the base paths, paced the league in stolen bases with 20, marking the third straight year he has taken that title. Little Phil Rizzuto of the Yankees was credited with the most sacrifice hits, 25.

It was strictly a runaway for the Red Sox insofar as team batting honors were concerned. Boston batted .282 and led the runner-up Yankees by 13 points. The Red Sox also led in homers with 131, in total bases, 2,237, and in doubles, 272.

Ohio State Drops California To Win Third Straight Game

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 23 (INS)—Ohio State won its third straight basketball game by defeating California, 78 to 67, before a small crowd of 1,706 fans in Columbus tonight.

The Ohioans handed the Golden Bears their fourth consecutive loss by grabbing an early 15 to 1 lead in the first four minutes of play. The Buckeyes led 26 to 8 at one time and had a 39 to 25 margin at halftime.

California's Bears Work On Offensive Against Buckeyes

BERKELEY, Calif., Dec. 23. (AP) The California Bears' offense "murdered" Ohio State Friday.

The big trouble was, it wasn't the same Ohio State team the Bears will meet in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena January 2.

"Ohio State" was the California reserve team, aided by several varsity linemen.

STILL GOING STRONG — Age hasn't slowed Connie Mack, the venerable boss of the Philadelphia Athletics. Mack, who has been in Organized Baseball 65 years (including 50 with the A's), celebrated his 87th birthday Thursday, and obligingly struck the above pose for the cameraman. UCLA Quintet Drops Illinois, 65 To 63

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Dec. 23 (INS)—A basket by George Stanich in the last five seconds of play gave UCLA a 65 to 63 victory over Illinois' defending Big Ten champions in Champaign tonight.

Stanich's basket setback the Illini for the second time in seven games and climaxed a nerve-wracking contest in which the score was tied five times in the final 11 minutes.

Illinois led 32 to 31 at halftime but the Bruins capitalized on the Midwesterners' failure at the free throw line to win their fifth game in six starts.

The Illini made only 13 of 30 gift shots while UCLA put nine of 13 through the hoop.

Alan Sawyer topped the Californians with 15 points. Illinois' Wally Osterkorn captured scoring honors for the night with eight field goals and four free throws for 20 points.

Buckeyes Ease Up On Drills

PASADENA, Calif., Dec. 23 (INS)—Ohio State coach Wes Fesler, eased up on Buckeye scrimmages today after yesterday's heated contact work put four of his Rose Bowl stars on the injured list.

"There'sll be no more scrimmage for the squad until next week," Fesler said, at the same time expressing satisfaction over the general conditioning progress made by Ohio State, which will meet the California Bears in the Rose Bowl game on Jan. 2.

Yesterday's scrimmage between the regulars and the reserves resulted in an ankle injury for Dick Doyle, fourth string halfback, which may prevent his seeing any action in the classic struggle.

Halfback Vic Janowicz, Guard Paul Faehl and Fullback Jack Wagner also suffered minor hurts in the rough contact work. Two of Fesler's first-string halfbacks didn't get into yesterday's fray. Hamilton didn't suit up because of a sore throat and Jerry Krall still complained of a neck hurt suffered last Monday.

Fesler had this observation to make as his boys exercised at Brookside Park to get the muscular kinks received in the scrimmage ironed out:

"Perhaps it is the weather but anyway I seem to notice that our boys tire so easily when they first start working out—don't start moving in high until they get their second wind.

"To build up their wind I guess we will call for more running the next few practice sessions. That should get the boys thoroughly acclimated.

Karl Sturtz, fourth-string right halfback, was the Buckeye who seemed to have gained the most benefit out of the Ohio State warm-up sessions. His speed consistently amazed the railbirds and Coach Fesler alike and it may be that he'll see a lot of action come January 2.

MISSOURI BEATS SMU

DALLAS, Dec. 23 (AP)—Missouri tonight staged a second half spree to hand Southern Methodist university its second licking in two nights, 53-42. The score was tied at the half, 24-24.

Christmas Eve Services, Other Programs Are Planned In City

mas carols beginning at 11 o'clock will precede the midnight service at St. Paul's.

Mass To Be Observed

High mass will be celebrated at St. Elizabeth's Catholic church, Main and Ave. W. beginning at 12 midnight.

Church doors will be opened at 11 p. m. and at 11:30 o'clock ,caroling will begin. Carols to be sung by the choir include "Shepherd's, Shake Off Your Drowsy Sleep," "O Little Town of Bethlehem," with Mrs. J. C. Martin and Miss Jean Keehan singing a duet, "Angels We Have Heard On High," "O Holy Night." With Mrs. Robert Farrier as soloist, "It Came Upon A Midnight Clear," and "Silent Night," sung by Miss Keehan.

"Mass of the Shepherds" will be celebrated during mass. "Adeste Fidelis" and "Gesu Bambino" will be sung. As offertory, "Ava Maria," based upon a traditional French melody, will be sung. Soloists will be Dr. James Watson, Pete Blazi, Mrs. Martin, and Mrs. Farrier.

The sermon will be delivered by Rev. William F. Blakeslee.

The choir is directed by Mrs. Ray Neary with Mrs. Jack Henry as organist.

Masses on Christmas Day at St. Elizabeth's will be held at 8 a. m., 9:30 a. m., and 11 a. m.

Other Services Slated

At St. Joseph's Catholic church, 100 Ave. O., High Mass will be celebrated by Rev. James A. Noon, C. S. P., pastor. The service is to begin at 12 midnight.

The Girls' choir, under direction of Sister Carmen, will sing the mass. Father Noon's sermon will be delivered in Spanish.

On Christmas Day, masses are to be held at 8 and 10 a. m.

A midnight service is to be held tonight at Brownfield with Father Harold Powers, C. S. P., as celebrant. Mass will be held at 11 a. m. Sunday in Seminole by Father Bernard Lohmann, C. S. P. The Brownfield and Seminole churches are in the parish of St. Joseph's.

Candle Lighting Planned

A Christmas Eve candle lighting service is to be held at 11 o'clock tonight at Westminster Presbyterian church, Thirty-third and Tyler Ave.

The church choir will present a program of carols and Christmas music. Musical highlights include a tenor solo, "O Holy Night," by Milvern Crozier, and a cello solo, "Ava Maria," by Miss Patsy Gibbs.

Rev. David L. Zacharias, pastor, will give a Christmas meditation, "The Light of Christmas."

Each person attending the service will be given a candle as he enters the church, and following the pastor's meditation, the auditorfum will be darkened and a large candle will be lighted as a symbol of the light brought into the world by the Christ child.

The smaller candles will be lighted from the large one as a symbol of the taking of the light of the Christ child into every life this Christmas season.

The congregation will sing "Joy to the World" as conclusion of the service.

Santa To Visit In City

Santa Claus, meanwhile, will continue his trips throughout the city, visiting Christmas trees and making last-minute assurances that he will be back tonight with toys for all Lubbock youngsters.

A tree for Latin-American children will see Santa present in both the Plains theater at 717 Broadway and the Llanos theater at 1419 Avenue G between 10 a.m. and 12 noon today. Children will see a free movie and receive free popcorn, apples, candy, chewing gum and balloons.

This afternoon, St. Nick will visit negro children at the Booker T. Washington Legion Post, 2316 East Avenue B, distributing boxes of candy, fruit, nuts and other surprises. That visit is scheduled for 2 p.m. today and follows a similar one for negro children Friday night at Carver Heights Community center at 2101 East Avenue C.

Other visits made Friday included one to the Westminster Presbyterian church for children of south Lubbock and another at the Community Center at Sixth and Avenue B for north Lubbock youngsters. Both those trees were sponsored by the City Recreation department and the Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Last night, also, 12 children from the Milam Orphan's home saw Santa at a Christmas party given for them in the home of Mr. and Mrs Gus Everett at 2615 Thirty-first. Stockings filled with candy, nuts and fruit were distributed among all those present.

CHILDREN ATTEND YULE OBSERVANCE AT CHURCH

Approximately 200 children, their parents and friends attended the annual children's Christmas service conducted for the Sunday school of Redeemer Ev. Lutheran church at 7:30 p.m. Friday, said Rev. Karl W. Keller, pastor.

The theme of the service was "The Joys of Christmas" and all departments of the Sunday school, the Walter League and the choir participated.

The first portion of the service followed the regular vesper order of service. The children's portion proper followed the pastor's address and was divided into seven sections. Each section was introduced by a verse of an ancient carol describing one of the joys of Christmas, sung by choir Walter League members. The meaning of Christmas was then unfolded by recitations by the children.

Offering at the service was designated for two Lutheran maintained orphanages in New Orleans, La., and Winfield, Kans.

The service closed with the distribution of gifts to the Sunday school children and treats for all the children present.

Other holiday services planned by the church include a festival service Christmas Day, a New Year's Eve vespers service at 8 p.m. Dec. 31 and a New Year's Day service with celebration of Holy Communion.

NEGRO LEGION POST TO HOLD YULE PARTY TODAY

The Booker T. Washington post of the American Legion will have its annual Christmas party for children at the Legion headquarters, Twenty-third and East Ave. B, from 2 to 6 p. m. today.

The announcement was made by Perry Jackson, finance officer of the post, who said that preparations were being made to give bags of fruit, candy, and nuts to approximately 600 children.

The post will erect a Christmas tree in the headquarters this morning in preparation for the party.

NEWS BRIEFS

Mrs. Ruby Alexander and Miss Gertrude Graham, deputies county clerk, left Friday morning for Chritmas visits with relatives—Mrs. Alexander to Grand Prairie and Miss Graham to Corning, Ark. Mrs. Alexander's husband, Lawrence will join her today and they will go to Bonham, their former home.

Briggs Irvin, Royal Ferguson and Hugh Anderson were elected to the board of directors of the American Business club Friday at a luncheon meeting in the Hilton hotel. Carl Bailey gave the invocation and George Dale presided. Guests were Waggoner Carr, Gene Guyer and Buddy Maeker.

More than 50 theater owners, newspaper and radio employes were shown a special preview of "Battleground" at the Clifton theater Friday morning as guests of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, producers of the film acclaimed by cirtics as the greatest picture of 1949. Vernon Smith of Dallas, a company representative, welcomed the guests to the Friendship showing of the film depicting the famous Battle of the Bulge and acted as host at a luncheon held in the Hilton hotel.

Sam Fort of 3713 Twenty-second, radio operator for the State Highway patrol unit here, was reported in good condition at St. Mary's hospital late Friday following a mastoidectomy.

Firemen called to the residence of W. H. Withrow on the old Plainview highway north of the city at 2:35 p. m. Friday said flame burning too high in an oil cook stove had caused excessive smoke there. The fire was extinguished without damage.

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Russell, 91-year-old pioneer Matador resident and Hill county native who died Thursday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Brians of 1628 Fifth, are still pending. Services will, however, be held in Matador.

whacked a path through the marsh growth.

Two bodies were found wedged in the wreckage. Four others were lifted from the mud. All were battered or burned.

Meadow Man Claimed

The other Texans who died were Sgt. L. B. Hughes, 32, a native of Sherman and the son of a Denison man, and Sgt. Manson L. Gregg, a gunner from Meadow in Terry county, West Texas. Hughes was a flight engineer and from Denison.

The B-50 is an improved version of the B-29 Superfortress, 99 feet long with a wingspan of 141 feet. It weighs 125,000 pounds.

The plane was a unit of the second bombardment wing, transferred here last April from Tucson, Ariz.

The crash site was only a few miles from the spot where 18 Puerto Ricans were killed and 18 were injured in the crash of their homeward bound chartered plane Jan. 7, 1948.

Chatham Air Force base announced this list of those aboard, besides the Texans:

Capt. George V. Swearingen, pilot, aircraft commander, Columbia, S. C.; Capt. Andrew G. Walker, pilot, Norfolk; 1st Lt. Robert W Beckman, bombardier, Birmingham; Capt. Anthony C. Colandro, radar navigator, Baltimore; 1st Lt. James W. Johnson, jr., flight engineer, Welsh, W. Va.; Sgt. Fred W. Cunningham, radio operator-gunner, New Orleans; Sgt. Garnell W. Myers, gunner, Frankfort, Ind.; and Sgt. Billy C. Bristol, gunner, Tucson.

Rites To Be Held At Meadow For Airman Killed In Crash

MEADOW, Dec. 23. (Special)—Funeral services for Staff Sgt. Manson L. Gregg, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Gregg of Meadow, who was killed when a B-50 bomber crashed near Savannah, Ga., last night, are to be conducted at Meadow.

However, no definite arrangements have been made. Burial will be in Meadow cemetery.

Staff Sgt. Gregg was one of 11 airmen killed in the crash.

Staff Sgt. Gregg grew up at Leonard, Texas, and his parents moved to Meadow after he entered the service early in World War II. He served four years during the war, then remained out a year during which time he operated a filling station in Meadow.

He re-enlisted for a three-year term which would have expired next October.

Survivors Are Listed

Staff Sgt. Gregg is survived by his parents; his wife, Mrs. Jo Gregg of Port Wentworth, Ga.; two brothers, Ulys Gregg of Ropesville and Delton Gregg of Meadow; and four sisters, Mrs. Maurice Cain of Ropesville, Mrs. K. A. Carter of Lubbock, Mrs. Robert Liles of Meadow and Mrs. W. G. Knight of Meadow.

Milam Children Are Guests At Party

Santa Claus visited 12 children from the Milam Orphans Home at a Christmas party Friday night at the home of Mrs. Gus Everett, 2615 Thirty-first.

The jolly old fellow listened attentatively as each of the children told him what they wished for Christmas after Mrs. Everett had served them refreshments. Then each was presented a stocking filled with Christmas candy, nuts and fruit.

The home party is given annually by Mr. and Mrs. Everett in an effort to bring cheer to the children living at the orphans home. The first one was given last year.

Neighborhood youngsters helped Mrs. Everett in serving the refreshments and entertaining the children. The party lasted from 6:30 to about 9:30 p. m.

The 12 children present included Jo Ann, James, Sonny, Edwin, Pearl, LaRue, Darlene, Pat, Claudene, Wanda, Shirley and Mildred.

Helping Mrs. Everett with the refreshments were: Wanda Woody, Skeet McClain, Rita Lane, Earnestine Gammill, Juanita Nell and Norma Jean Everett.

Five Injured Here

Ruby.

Stotts, attendants at Lubbock Memorial hospital said, suffered deep wounds of the left chest and several cuts on his thighs. The girl and Brown received minor cuts about the legs.

The man held by police was identified by the wounded persons as the person who wielded the small pocket knife with which all were stabbed during the fight.

Argument Preceded Fight

Witnesses said the man had entered the house a short time before the trouble started. He and Stotts argued briefly, it was reported, and a fight developed.

Brown and McCreary were wounded as they attempted to break up the fight, officers said they were told. The girl was wounded as the men struggled about the room.

City Patrolmen Dave DuBoe and A. R. Mason were dispatched to the Ave. G address after a disturbance there had been reported to police.

They said they were searching for the suspect when they saw him cross the street and walk toward the house.

Shotgun Is Seized

A 12 gauge shotgun was found in the suspect's pickup truck which was parked nearby, the officers said.

Several of the witnesses said the man held by police had left the house immediately after the fight. It was believed he had gone to his residence then to get the gun. The man was badly beaten about the head and face.

McCreary, suffering severe loss of blood and near shock, was in surgery at the hospital at 1:30 a. m. today, attendants said. It was feared the knife thrust may have penetrated the intestines and left kidney.

Joyce Pierce is the daughter of Mrs. Anna Lee Pierce. Mrs. Pierce had gone to her home on Twenty-second street briefly, and was not present at the time of the fight.

Two of the wounded were taken to the hospital by Rix ambulance, the others by police and a neighbor.

Patrolmen D. W. Brashear and K. A. Gordon assisted Mason and DuBoe in their investigation.

Prison Escape Artist Captured By Officers In Brownwood Cafe

BROWNWOOD, Dec. 23. (U.P.)—Officers last night captured Leo Guy Brantley, 35, who has four prison escapes on his record.

Sheriff Otis Shaw, Deputy Sheriff Jack Pike, and Police Chief M. O. Eidson were in on the catch. They caught Brantley in a cafe where he was playing a marble board.

Although armed, Brantley made no attempt to draw his .38 revolver, stuck in his belt.

Brantley was serving a life term for murder from Bowie county when he escaped Oct. 24 from the Retrieve Prison farm. Previously he had escaped twice in 1942 from Texas prison farms, and in 1944 from Arkansas where he had been given a 10-year robbery term at Gould, Ark.

Shaw came here Thursday on a bus and apparently was preparing to take a train out of town. The cafe where he was captured is located near the Santa Fe depot.

Congratulations to:

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McDougal of Shallowater on birth of a daughter weighing 7 pounds 14 ounces at 7:12 p. m. Friday in West Texas hospital. The father is a farmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Holton of 3704 Ave. E on birth of a daughter weighing 8 pounds 15 ounces at 7:05 p. m. Friday in West Texas hospital. The father is a carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Holland of Wolfforth on birth of a daughter weighing 8 pounds 11 ounces at 11:27 a. m. Friday in West Texas hospital. The father is a grocery store clerk.

Mr. and Mrs. George Morton of Sudan on birth of a daughter weighing 8 pounds 8 ounces at 6:10 p. m. Friday in West Texas hospital. The father is a welder.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Breeland of Lubbock on birth of a daughter weighing 9 pounds 9 ounces at 4:43 a. m. Friday in Lubbock Memorial hospital. The father is stationed at RAFB.

Mr and Mrs. W. B. Woods of Levelland on birth of a daughter weighing 7 pounds 8 ounces at 10:13 p. m. Thursday at West Texas hospital. The father is a vocational agriculture teacher.

Shooting Suspect

informed, was discharged into the ceiling.

Deaton had a pistol in his hand when police arrived there and arrested him.

The case will be investigated by a Jan. 2 grand jury in the 99th district court.

No formal statements had been signed last night.

The sheriff's department had received information that a negro, George Thomas, had been stabbed and taken to a hospital here for treatment. The names of two suspects were given to officials by Deputy Sheriff Strickland of Abernathy, officials said.

The stabbing was on the P. E. Crosnoe farm, four miles west and one south of Monroe, where all principals are employed, officials said.

A raid by sheriff's deputies three miles east of Lubbock along an extension of Nineteenth street produced approximately 20 cases of whisky Friday. It was in a small house.

Ownership of the whisky had not been established. Deputies who made the raid were Frank Mitchell, Raymond Land and Gene Lewis.

An investigation was underway.

Thefts reported to police Friday included hub caps valued at $11 taken from the car of Sylvester Lara of 1309 First; and a .32 caliber pistol stolen from a car belonging to Richard Watson of 1516 Hill. The weapon was valued at $18.

C. O. Marricle was fined $100 and court costs on a charge of liquor law violation, county court records showed. H. J. White, 21, was fined $1 and costs on a charge of check law violation.

Ed Forbes, 40, who lives north of Lubbock, was arrested in the 1200 block Ave. F on a warrant charging check law violation, the sheriff's department announced.

American Held As Spy Suspect

BUDAPEST, Dec. 23. (INS)—Hungary announced tonight that its state security police have arrested Israel Jacobson, American official of a Jewish relief organization, "on suspicion of espionage."

Jacobson, 37, head of the American Joint Distribution committee's Hungarian office, was arrested Thursday on his return to Budapest from the U. S. The Communist Budapest government had acknowledged the arrest, but until tonight had given no reason for the action.

A second American, Robert A. Vogeler, assistant vice president of the International Telephone and Telegraph company, is also under arrest in Hungary. He and his aide, Edgar Sanders, a Briton, have been accused of sabotage and espionage.

(The British foreign office announced today suspension of Anglo-Hungarian trade and financial talks in reprisal for Hungary's refusal to let the British minister in Budapest see Sanders.)

The arrests of Jacobson and Vogeler have intensified the strained relations between the Budapest government and the U. S., which have been precarious since the conviction of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty.

The Texas Department of Public Safety has predicted 80 persons will die in Texas traffic accidents between 12:01 a. m. Friday, Dec. 23, and 11:59 p. m. Jan. 1.

Of the 80, said the prediction, 16 will be killed on Christmas Eve; 51 will be killed on rural highways, and 29 in cities and towns. Twenty will be pedestrians; 32 will be drivers, 25 will be passengers, and three will be bicyclists.

SIX HUNTERS BELIEVED DROWNED IN STATE

Six Texas hunters apparently drowned Thursday in three separate bodies of water while duck hunting.

The bodies of two Dallas men, Robert Elkjer, 33, and Monroe M. Grusendorf, jr., 26, both Braniff airways mechanics, were recovered Friday afternoon from Lake Dallas. A third man, Ralph J. Bathers, 27, also a Braniff mechanic, managed to swim to a duck blind when their boat overturned.

A search continued for the bodies of three men missing in Galveston bay and a fourth hunter missing in the upper Nueces bay near Corpus Christi.

Boats and a plane were searching Galveston bay for three men who set out across the bay in a 14-foot aluminum skiff Thursday and have not been heard from since.

A Navy helicopter searched upper Nueces bay near Corpus Christi for W. S. Reed of Corpus Christi who disappeared Thursday while on a duck hunting trip. He had waded out trying to retrieve a drifting boat.

The three men missing in Galveston bay had headed for Pelican Spit to go hunting. They were Elmer Dever, 23, Texas City; Albert S. Chimene, 19, and Elmer Muehe, 25, both of Galveston.

Bidault Gets French Okay On New Budget

PARIS, Saturday, Dec. 24. (AP)—Premier Georges Bidault early today won a vote of confidence by a narrow margin on the national budget proposed by his coalition government.

The vote in the National assembly, the lower house of France's Parliament, was 303 to 297 for the opposition. The premier's main objective was to head off an opposition vote of 311, which would have meant the resignation of the cabinet.

The test was on whether the assembly would begin discussing the cabinet's proposed 1950 budget or a smaller opposition budget sponsored by the assembly's finance committee.

Pope Asks Union Of All Christians

By FRANK BRUTTO
Associated Press Staff Writer

VATICAN CITY, Dec. 23 — On the eve of the 25th Roman Catholic Holy Year, Pope Pius XII invited all believers in Jesus Christ now outside the Catholic fold to "return to the one true church" for a union against militant atheism.

His words were clearly directed toward Protestants and Greek Orthodox church members:

"With good reason men are anxious about the effrontery with which the united front of militant atheism advances. And the old question is now voiced aloud: Why are there still separations? Why are there still schisms? When will all the forces of the spirit and of love be harmoniously united?"

Speaks To Jews

Jews also received a bid to enter the Catholic church:

"For all those who adore Christ—not excluding those who sincerely but vainly await His coming and adore Him as one promised by the prophets and still to come—do we open the holy door."

The pope urged that the year mark "the return of all mankind to the divine plan."

His address was in reply to Christmas greetings from the Sacred College of Cardinals, but was directed to the whole world.

Broadcast In Russian

The Vatican radio transmitted translations in 23 languages, including Russian. The bells of Rome's 500 churches rang in unison to announce the coming of the Holy Year tomorrow.

This jubilee, one of a series begun by Pope Boniface VIII in 1300, will start when Pope Pius opens the door at St. Peter's basilica, which he described today as "the greatest temple in Christendom—symbol of the redeemer Jesus."

A Holy Year normally occurs every quarter of a century.

1933 Last Holy Year

The popes, however, may call one for extraordinary reasons. The last Holy Year, in 1933, was one of the exceptional jubilees. It was called to commemorate the anniversary of the death of Christ.

Pope Pius criticized both capitalism and Communism.

"The Holy Year," he said, "it seems to us must be decisive especially for the longed-for religious revival of the modern world and must solve that spiritual crisis which oppresses the souls of our age.

"Tomorrow, in opening the holy door with three strokes of a hammer, we shall be conscious of performing no mere traditional act, but a symbolic rite of high import not only for Christians but for the whole human race."

Speech Is Prayerful

The major part of the 40-minute speech was in a rather prayerful tone—a prayer for the Holy Year. The pope has described it as "the year of the great return and the great pardon."

The first pilgrims already were arriving from many countries. They included royalty—the Queen Mother Elizabeth of Belgium.

The pontiff looked with "grief of soul" toward those countries in Europe and Asia where, he said, grave dangers threaten or already afflict religion and religious institutions.

He criticized the "narrowly individualistic" social orders, (an obvious reference to capitalism) which, he said, "today is in serious crisis almost everywhere."

He said too that "more recent inovators" (Communists) have proved no better, leading to "complete overthrow of the divine order, contempt for the dignity of the human person . . . the enslavement of all persons and property in a totalitarian state to the legalization of violence and to militant atheism."

Services Slated For Abernathy Resident

ABERNATHY, Dec. 23. (Special)—Funeral services will be held at 4 p. m. today in the First Methodist church here for Charlie Goeth, 82, who died at his home here about 5:30 p. m. Friday.

Rev. H. T. Pendley, pastor of the Abernathy Baptist church will officiate at the services. Burial will be in Abernathy cemetery under direction of McDonald Funeral home.

Goeth had been a resident of Abernathy for 38 years. He is survived by his wife; two sons, H. E. Goeth of Lubbock and Raymond of Seagraves, two daughters, Mrs. Erma Brashear of Abernathy and Mrs. Tony Barker of Abernathy; two sisters, Mrs. Alma Kliem, Friona, and Mrs. Selma Fuchs, Gonzales; seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be W. A. Goeth, Walter, Marvin and Henry Struve, Dick Habbinga, and A. E. Goebel.

considered in all its aspects so that we may establish a Department of Defense policy on this matter."

Meanwhile, Johnson said he will be guided by the results of previous studies which reached the conclusion that medical care for dependents should be continued as a factor in keeping up military morale.

No accurate estimate of the cost involved was ever possible, because dependents are cared for by the same doctors and in the same hospitals as military men themselves. One estimate was that he cost might amount to $3 million a year.

GEORGIA DEAN SHOT

ATHENS, Ga., Dec. 23 (AP)—Dean John E. Drewry of the University of Georgia school of journalism was shot tonight by his estranged wife, Police Capt. L. C. Cornelison reported. Captain Cornelison said Mrs. Drewry had not been arrested. She was at the Athens general hospital awaiting the outcome of an emergency operation upon her husband.

Girl Scouts Present Christmas Program

Exactly 50 girl scouts took part in a Christmas caroling tour here last night.

Accompanied by several adult leaders, their first stop was at the Santa Fe railroad station at 6:40 where they sang carols to passengers on the eastbound passenger stopping at that time.

Then the girls came to The Avalanche-Journal office before journeying to Radio Station KCBD where they sang their carols on the air. They then entertained shortly at the Hilton and Lubbock hotels.

Directing the caroling was Mrs. Frank Millican. Accompanying the group were five troop leaders and Mrs. Robert Sells and Mrs. E. H. McMurtry, members of the arrangements committee for the caroling.

The troop leaders were Mrs. George Law, Mrs. L. C. Peveto, Mrs. R. L. Foster, Mrs. Troy Duncan, and Mrs. Carl R. Sanders.

Scout officials present were Miss Madeleine McDonald, executive director, and Misses Peggy Hess and Mary Anderson, field directors.

snow was forecast for parts of Oklahoma by Sunday, including the Oklahoma Panhandle just above the Texas Panhandle.

But unless something unforeseen develops, a white Christmas for Texas seems to be out. However, much of the midwest and northern states had snow by last night.

Over the state Friday, early readings ranged down to five degrees above zero at Dalhart but temperatures soared during the afternoon, The Associated Press said.

The bureau added that Christmas day probably will be partly cloudy in the Lone Star state.

Warm weather was forecast for Saturday over the entire state. Skies will be partly cloudy in East Texas and fair in West Texas.

Friday's chilly temperatures reached deep into South Texas and the Rio Grande valley. At Laredo the first light frost of the season was reported with a ground temperature of 32 degrees. At Eagle Pass, north of Laredo, a low of 27 degrees with a killing frost was reported.

Down the Rio Grande in the lower valley Weslaco had 33 degrees, Mercedes 33, McAllen 34, Mission 32.

SNOW COVERS WIDE SECTION OF NATION

(By The Associated Press)

Santa Claus will have perfect sleighriding conditions over much of the nation Christmas Eve.

A good snow cover — one that will remain because of chilly temperatures — stretched across the mid-section of the country Friday night to aid the old gentleman, forecasters said "it looks like it will hang on."

The snow band extended from the Southeast half of Kansas up across southern Iowa, northern Missouri, over most of Michigan, northern Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, the Dakotas, Montana, Wyoming, Idaho and Utah.

New snow was falling in northern Iowa and southern Minnesota and was moving southeastward across northern and central Illinois and Indian. It should reach Ohio Saturday morning and move into western Pennsylvania and New York by Christmas Eve, forecasters said.

The East, which has been having temperatures around 25 degrees above normal, was to drop back toward seasonable readings Friday night or Saturday.

The Pacific northwest was wet, with rains reported in Washington and northern Oregon. From there south, skies were fair but temperatures were fairly cool and were expected to remain so.

At Long Beach, Wash., a freak twister swept in off the Pacific ocean Friday and cut a narrow swath through a residential district. The wind tore the roof off one house and damaged several others. No one was hurt.

was taken to Stanley Funeral home to await funeral arrangements.

Survivors of Connolly other than his wife include two daughters, Mrs. Doris Parker of Tahoka, Mrs. Maxine Brower of Richmond, Calif., and two sons, J. K. Connolly, Denver, Colo., and Robert C. Connolly of Tahoka, a brother, Jeff of Whitney, and a sister, Mrs. Ben Franks of Whitney and four grandchildren. Connolly had retired from active business.

Connolly's death marked the 105th for the South Plains since last Jan. 1, 14 more than was predicted at that time by the State Highway patrol office in Lubbock. It was the 48th traffic death in the area in the past 56 days.

Officials Mobilize Forces To End Detroit 'Reign Of Terror'

DETROIT, Dec. 23 (AP)—Top state, county and city law enforcement officers mobilized their forces today for an all-out drive to end a "reign of terrorism" against the CIO United Auto workers.

The FBI, which turned down a bid to confer with the other groups, meanwhile was reported to have a "hot tip" in the latest terroristic act—an attempt to blow up the union's international headquarters.

Harry T. O'Connor, agent in charge of the Detroit FBI office, refused to discuss the report, printed in the Detroit Times. He gave a flat "no comment" to all questions pertaining to the case.

New Indonesian Republic Seen As Barrier To Red Advance In Orient

By EDWARD E. BOMAR
Associated Press Staff Writer

The new United States of Indonesia, which comes into being Tuesday, starts out as a strong barrier against the further advance of Soviet imperialism in the Far East.

Premier Mohammed Hatta and the other members of the first 16-man cabinet are mostly staunch anti-Communist as well as devoted nationalists.

Russia has sacrificed any influence it might have had at the outset by attacking them in the United Nations as traitors for their settlement with the Dutch.

Trend Pleases U.S.

The United States has been a sort of godfather to the new state. American policy makers are openly gratified at the way things have worked out thus far in Indonesia at a time they have gone so badly in China and many other parts of the Orient.

Prospects are that President Truman will extend diplomatic relations almost immediately and that substantial American backing in the form of loans for trade and economic development will follow.

The United States also will support the Indonesian republic for admission to the UN. Merle Cochran, who had a leading backstage role in the long negotiations leading up to the transfer of sovereignty by the Dutch, has already been selected as the first ambassador to Indonesia.

As the foremost Pacific power, the United States became directly involved in the fate of the rich and strategic Netherlands Indies at the end of World War II. This government was faced then with a decision whether to support the restoration of European colonial empires or to go along with the rising tide of native nationalism.

With Asia in a revolutionary upheaval, it appeared certain that to support the return of the Dutch as masters would play into the hands of the Communists. All over Asia Communists have sought to identify communism with nationalism. In some countries, notably French Indo-China, they have succeeded to a dangerous degree.

Indonesia thus became the first major test of the policy of backing nationalist elements and at the same time exerting American influence in favor of moderation.

Waxahachie Man Found Dead In Wrecked Car Near Glen Rose

GLEN ROSE, Tex., Dec. 23. (U.P.) James C. Proffett, 22, Rural Electrification administration employe from Waxahachie, was found dead in his wrecked car west of here today.

Authorities said a passing motorist made the discovery about 9 a.m. The accident apparently had occurred several hours earlier.

Proffett presumably lost control of his car at a curve on highway 67 (to Stephenville) near the Paluxy bridge, the car left the road and crashed into a tree near the river bank.

El Paso Woman Indicted On Charge Of Slaying Mother

EL PASO, Dec. 23. (AP)—Mrs. Edna Mead, 21, was indicted today for the hammer slaying of her mother.

The mother, Mrs. Ada Bradford, 63, was found beaten to death Dec. 14.

The indictment charged Mrs. Mead with murder by "choking Mrs. Bradford with her hands and beating her with hammer."

Police said the two argued over Mrs. Mead's marriage to Philip Mead, 30, singer with a Boston orchestra. Mrs. Mead told officers she blacked out after a struggle in which she wrested a pair of scissors from Mrs. Bradford and sought to keep the older woman from striking herself on the head with a hammer, Detective Capt. Joe Stowe said.

Correspondence Courses To Be Available For Naval Reserves

Home correspondence courses for all naval reservists will be available shortly, Loren Auten, chief quartermaster, U. S. Navy, of Lubbock, announced Friday.

Approximately 240 subjects are now being prepared by the University of Chicago for the courses. Many of these courses are expected to be ready in 1950.

The courses will permit personnel to qualify for advancement and acquire points toward a naval reserve retirement.

Persons interested in the courses, enlistment or retirement should contact the Navy Recruiting office, Room 206, Post Office building or phone 8171.

Tuberculosis Fund Drive Hits $10,000

At the end of the 29th day of the Lubbock County Tuberculosis association's drive for funds, contributions totaled $10,049.63, Miss Virginia Greenwaldt, executive director, said Friday.

The drive officially ends on Christmas Day, but contributions are expected to continue to come in next week.

Miss Greenwaldt pointed out that of the money derived from sale of Christmas seals, 82 per cent remains in Lubbock county, 13 per cent goes to the state association and 5 per cent to the national association.

Peace Hopes For World Still Held

By GERALD GREEN
INS Staff Correspondent

Christmas 1949 finds much of the world — notably the West — enjoying a spiritual resurgence and a fuller larder.

But for the fourth Yuletide season since the guns of war were silenced, the continuing East-West struggle belies the existence of real peace on earth.

Buying sprees in London, Paris, Stockholm and Copenhagen reflect the improved material status of Western Europe; the inauguration of the Roman Catholic Holy Year 1950 underscores the re-birth of faith in many countries.

Church Attendance Boosted

Church attendance in the United States is reported at its highest level since the war, and President Truman himself will lead the nation in attending services on Sunday.

The spirit of Christmas will find its way into Western Germany, where American troops will again doff khaki in favor of the red suit and white whiskers of Santa Claus. In Berlin alone, 350,000 needy, sick and orphaned children will benefit from American generosity. Even the tough military police are fashioning toys for the moppets.

Britons are acting as though austerity is something of the past. More Christmas trees and more filled stockings will be seen in British homes this year. Retailers are telling of record sales, toys are plentiful, clothes and textiles are free of controls.

France On Way Back

For the first time in ten years, French stores are experiencing a genuine Christmas rush. True, prices are high, but the abundance of goods, and their variety is taken as a sign that France is on "the road back" to recovery.

In Stockholm, the traditional garlands of pine dedeck the Swedish capital; extra rations of sugar, coffee and margarine are adding to Christmas cheer in Norway; Holland abounds in luxury gods.

Other areas are less fortunate. Superficially, Vienna appears prosperous — shops are filled with goods — but prices are sky-rocketing and unemployment remains a grave problem. Portugal is undergoing a financial crisis.

Soviet Pressure Noted

Behind the Iron Curtain, the commissar is still striving to minimize the importance of Christmas. Budapest shops reflect the situation: Children's toys have a distinct Marxist tingle — reflecting the class struggle and the glory of the USSR.

In a sense, the satellites' Christmas came four days early — on Dec. 21 when Premier Stalin cele-

Al W. Townsend Is Death Victim

Funeral services for Al W. Townsend, 56, distributor for Standard Oil company products who died suddenly at his residence on the Levelland highway at 2 p.m. Friday, will be held at 3:30 p.m. today at First Christian church.

Dr. Travis White will officiate. Burial will be at Tech Memorial Park cemetery under direction of the Rix Funeral home. The Masonic lodge will be in charge of graveside services.

Townsend, who had been in ill health the past year, has been a Lubbock resident for the last eight years.

He is survived by his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Sam Strong of Lubbock; two sisters, Mrs. Lola Price of Dallas and Mrs. Bunyon Exum of Crosbyton; two brothers, O. A. of Phoenix, Ariz., and Walter of Jerome, Ia; and two grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be R. L. Elms, R. H. Fulton, J. D. Leftwich, E. E. Louthon, Dalton Strong, Earl Miller, O. D. McCoy and C. C. Sherrod.

Honorary pallbearers will include S. E. Cone, A. L. Cone, Walter Myrick, A. E. Miller, O. C. Gooden, G. P. Kuykendall, Walter Alderson, Jack Henry and Standard Oil dealers.

Members of the Yellowhouse Lodge No. 841 are requested by M. P. Davis, worshipful master, to meet at the Masonic hall at 2:30 p. m. today to make preparations for services for Mr. Townsend.

Extension Sought In Scurry Well

Gaines County Well Is New Producer

Official completion has been reported from a two-pay, pre-Permian discovery in central-south Gaines county.

That development, Samedan Oil corporation and Anderson Brothers No. 1-E-A Andrews, wildcat on the northwest side of the Robertson field, is now on regular production from both the Devonian and the Ellenburger.

The Ellenburger—the deeper pay—reported a 24-hour potential of 262.71 barrels of 40-gravity oil, flowing through a one-inch opening on tubing from pay at 11,900-60 feet.

Acid Treatment Used

That production is through perforations in the 7-inch casing which is cemented on bottom at 12,080 feet. That zone had been treated with a total of 10,000 gallons of acid.

The section between 11,060 feet and 12,080 feet showed some formation water, and is plugged off with cement. No water is being produced with the Ellenburger oil.

Gas-oil ratio is 300-1, and the flowing tubing pressure is 50 pounds.

This new discovery had previously reported a daily initial production, on official Railroad commission test of 253 barrels of oil, in 24 hours, flowing through a one-quarter inch tubing choke, from perforated section at 10,056-070 feet, in the Devonian. That zone had also been acidized prior to the taking of the completion test gauge.

Dual Production Planned

Operators will produce the Ellenburger oil through the tubing, and will bring the Devonian oil to the surface through the annular space between the tubing and the 7-inch casing.

The two-pay discovery is adjacent to production from the middle and lower Permanian in the Robertson field. It is 15 miles south and slightly west of Seminole, and 660 feet from north and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 19, block A-24, psl survey.

It is approximately three miles north of the nearest Devonian and Ellenburger production in the Flanagan field. That area also has production from the Clear Fork of the Permian, as well as from the two pre-Permian formations.

EXTENSION SOUGHT FOR KELLEY-CANYON FIELDS

Wilshire Oil company plans to try to extend the proven limits of the Kelley-Canyon field of west-central Scurry county, slightly more than one-half mile to the northwest at its No. 8 Lunsford.

This project will be located 467 feet from north and west lines of the northwest quarter of section 253, block 97, H&TC survey. It is a little more than one half mile north and west of the nearest completed oil wells, and six miles northwest of Snyder.

Drilling on the venture will begin during January.

Harry B. Lake of Fort Worth and associates, No. 1 J. H. Floyd is to be a new petroleum prospector to 8,000 feet to test the Spraberry sandy lime of the lower Permian on the east side of the Tex-Harvey field.

It is located 2,028.16 feet from east and 666.7 feet from the south lines of section 14, block 37, TP survey, T-3-S. Drilling is due to start immediately.

This exploration is a considerable distance to the east of the proven area in the Tex-Harvey field.

NEW BORDEN COUNTY DISCOVERY COMPLETED

Amerada Petroleum corporation has completed its lower Canyon lime discovery in southeast Borden county. That development, No. 1 N. C. Von Roeder, made a 24-hour potential of 185 barrels of 38.8 gravity oil, plus 33 barrels of salt water, flowing through a 24/65th inch tubing choke.

The production is coming from perforated section in the casing at 7,100-10 feet. That interval had been treated with 500 gallons of acid. Gas-oil ratio was 885-1.

This opener of a new area for Canyon lime development is four miles west of the Sharon Ridge-Canyon field in southwest Scurry county, and it is at the center of the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 103, block 25, H&TC survey.

Top of the Canyon reef was called at 6,835 feet. That gave it a datum of minus 4,467 feet. The

Cottonseed Price Plan Extended

The government's price support program for cottonseed has been extended until Feb. 15, Cong. Geo. H. Mahon of the 19th Congressional district has been advised by the Production and Marketing Administration.

Previously the deadline for the program had been announced as Dec. 31.

Extension of the deadline by the PMA officials came after repeated requests by Cong. Mahon for extension of the closing of the program until March 1. The bumper cotton crop in this area and the failure of thousands of farmers to get their cotton ginned by the end of this year was given as one of the major reasons for asking for the extension.

Most Seed In Loan

The government's support price is $46.50 a ton and most of the cottonseed from this year's crop has been going into the loan.

To halt the loan program on Jan. 1 would have been doing a great injustice to a large number of farmers who were unable to get their cotton out in advance of the deadline, Mahon pointed out. He predicted a drop in the price of cottonseed if the loan program had been halted on Dec. 31.

"I am highly pleased with action of PMA officials in extending the deadline to Feb. 15," Cong. Mahon told The Avalanche-Journal by long distance telephone Friday. "I believe that most of the cotton in this area will be ginned by that time."

Loan Commitment Of $1 Million On Mammoth Hotel Announced

CHICAGO, Dec. 23 (AP)—A first mortgage loan commitment of $7 million was announced today on the world's largest hotel, the Stevens of the Hilton chain.

The announcement was made jointly by Thomas I. Parkinson, president of the Equitable Life Assurance society of the United States, and C. N. Hilton, president of Hilton Hotels corporation.

Under the commitment agreement the Hilton Hotels corporation may draw on the loan in multiples of $1 million during the next three years, repayable over 17 years.

Social Security Up

MILLIONS of employed persons and their employers will start the payment on January 1 of social security taxes which will be nearly twice as large as those collected in the past.

Employes will pay 1½ per cent on a larger amount of their earnings. Employers will be hit even harder. They will have to match, penny for penny, every cent collected from all their employes. The tax in the past has been 1 per cent for both, but on a lower base pay—which explains why the government's total take will be nearly doubled.

If there ever has been a tax for which there is less justification, it does not come to mind. Its whole purpose is to provide some degree of security for those who pay it after they have passed the age of 65 years.

The tax at the 1 per cent rate has piled up an enormous surplus—more than is likely to be needed to meet the payments to those eligible for social security benefits. Thus the additional tax has not been levied to strengthen the social security fund. It already contains a great deal more than enough for the purposes for which it was and is intended.

This tax was increased solely for one obvious purpose: To provide more money for spending by the wildly extravagant Truman government. The spenders get the cash by replacing it with a sort of I.O.U. As of now, the reserve in the fund—and no one denies it—consists of very little cash and a lot of these I.O.U.'s.

Few in this particular part of the country can blame anyone but themselves for higher social security levies. Our people, in general voted for Mr. Truman in 1948 and when their social security payments shoot up next month they'll be getting what they voted for.

It is futile, of course, to complain now about this new levy. It is going into effect and nothing can be done about it—nor is likely to be done for a good while to come.

But no harm can result from the reminder that those who pay the increased tax will not be paying for additional security during their declining years. They merely will be making an additional contribution to the already outrageous costs of the federal government.

The Red Navy

NO ONE should be surprised—or probably was surprised—by the recent "disclosures" that Russia has built, or is building, a huge naval fleet. This has been a subject of wide-spread interest and gossip for some time.

Even without rumors, reports and gossip, it still would be necessary to assume that the Soviet is strengthening its naval arm in every way possible. After all, the Reds are building up every other part of their war machine.

The probability is that the recent reports have been exaggerated. And it is an historical fact that Russian fleets have taken more lickings than those of any great power. Their naval record definitely is not one which inspires fear.

But it is possible that Russian fleets under the Communists are more to be feared than those under the czars. Unquestionably, the Reds have more warships. Probably they are better ships. Perhaps the sailors are better fighting men.

Safety first demands the assumption that all these things are true—that the Russian fleet may be even more powerful and efficient than reported.

With these assumptions, the free nations are left with no choice except to prepare as best they can for whatever the Soviet may have in sea strength. They cannot, with safety, take the chances involved in an under-estimation of the power of a potential enemy.

Enchanted Evening

The Cameo

By VIRGINIA TEALE
Distributed By NEA, Inc.

XXXIV

A BLAST from the pistol reverberated through the room and Reddy heard the sound of shattering pottery behind him. From his crouching position he made a blind tackle at Tom O'Neill's legs and heard Tom grunt as he hit the brick floor. Once more Reddy encountered Tom's astonishing strength as the older man thrashed around beneath him. He grabbed frantically for Tom's right arm.

The gun thundered again. This time Reddy could feel the vibration of its mechanism under his hand — the hand locked around Tom's wrist.

Reddy let go of the suddenly limp muscles. The cold sweat of horror began to drain from his pores as, for a second or two, he stared down at the red pulp that had been Tom's face.

Backing away, he stumbled over the broken figurine and looked down at it stupidly. The blue clay, and what it had concealed, were without significance now. Reddy sagged against the work bench, staring at its untidy collection of objects that, unexplainably, had assumed the mute poignancy of a dead child's toys.

Gradually, a distant pounding seeped into his consciousness. He took note of it numbly—somebody at Tom's front door. A louder sound, now, a splintering, tearing sound.

Chief Peters surged into the room. "Charlie! Did he get you? We heard the shots—" he broke off as his eyes found Tom O'Neill.

Peters took off his hat.

"Murderer and all that," he mumbled, "but, in some ways, O'Neill was a likable old boy."

Peters nodded. "Good thing. I mean, good thing he blew his own head off instead of going for you." He pointed to a streak of blood on Reddy's jacket. "What's that? You get nicked someplace?"

Reddy shook his head and did not look at the stain. "Tom's. We were fighting for the gun."

Peters buttoned his gun into the holster on his hip. "Our friend Yakov came around, finally. He was able to tell us it was Tom who'd clobbered him. Then he told us where to find the letters he'd swiped from Falter's secret box. Remember how we searched the Russian's place? Well, those damn letters were there all the time, tacked to a board behind Hagar Blair's portrait where nobody'd have thought of looking! Trotter told me you went hi-tailing off for someplace and after I read the letters, I figured you'd got wind of Tom and headed up here."

AT THE hospital the next day, Stephanie, Hagar and Trotter stood at Yakov's bedside. The open locket and an open piece of paper were in Stephanie's hands.

"Ah, yes. Dr. Urich." Yakov drew a deep breath. "Well, it is their own doing. In one respect, I am happy. My task is finished."

He turned to Trotter: "To sum up, sir, in what you are pleased to call a nutshell, the paper tells the whereabouts of the remainder of the Orloff jewels — of a value second only to those of the Crown, which disappeared shortly after the termination of the Czarist regime."

Hagar glanced at Stephanie triumphantly: "See? This has nothing to do with you at all. The Orloff jewels. And the big clue right here in Dolorosa in your mother's locket!"

When Yakov again began to speak, every eye was on his lips.

"Colonel Serenov, a close friend of the Orloffs, was said to know the whereabouts of the jewels. It was thought that they had been hidden somewhere until a propitious time for their recovery by what remained of the Duke's family. Colonel Serenov—" he paused and glanced at Stephanie's suddenly white face "—undoubtedly met with a fatal accident. It was assumed that Madame Serenov, who had fled to America, carried with her the knowledge of where the jewels were hidden. A certain personage, who later was questioned by the new government, suggested that Mme. Serenov's famous cameo locket contained the information that was sought."

Yakov's voice trailed off as he finished with:

"I have merely been searching for information which would enable the Russian treasury to obtain new and much-needed resources. This I did because of certain obligations which remain behind me in the mother country."

"This Dr. Urich probably has 'em all safe and sound at St. Petersburg College!" Hagar decided.

Yakov shook his head. "Dr. Urich was—I believe the popular term is, liquidated—in 1939."

TROTTER returned his pipe to the leather pouch. "What do you think is the significance of the special edition of 'The Cherry Orchard' mentioned in the paper?"

Yakov gave a slight shrug: "That, also, has been wheeling through my mind like a canopied cart. It would be unlikely that there would be a special bound edition of a single play—the work would not be of sufficient importance to occupy an entire edition. I think, perhaps, that this very fact signifies that the book would not be what it appeared. Something which seemed to be an elaborately bound book, perhaps the type with a little lock across the pages, could, in reality, be something else. A fine little casket in which the Orloff bracelets and rings and brooches and unset gems could rest quite snugly. So? It could quite possibly be that Dr. Urich's special edition of Mr. Chekov's play could be worth the disproportionate sum of 5,000,000 rubles. Undoubtedly, however, Dr. Urich took care that this fabulous book was safely hidden away before he was brought to trial." Yakov sighed. "The quest will go on, but this time I shall not be among the hunters."

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

AS I have said before, whenever I write anything about religion I get a stack of letters from people who disagree with me.

BRANDEIS

So, my recent column about PRAYER brought the usual — or rather more than usual — amount of mail.

Many writers censured me severely for having said that we have no business asking God for trivial or selfish things.

They claim we must go to God for EVERYTHING we need—and He will answer.

It is impossible to reply to all those letters.

Instead, let me tell you a news story sent out by one of the three great press associations.

You may have seen it in your own paper. You may have overlooked it.

It will serve as a parable.

According to the story, a woman was visiting the home of a friend who, herself, had gone to Florida for the winter.

This friend was a midget, and everything in her house was midget size.

So, the visitor, one night, got stuck in the bathtub.

No matter how she tried, she couldn't get out, being "pleasingly plump," and much too large for the tub.

Being a religious woman she prayed to God to get her out.

In her own words, "I said, 'Lord, why don't you answer? You have always answered my prayers before.'"

Still she was stuck. She kept on praying, but nothing happened.

Finally, again in her own words, "I said, 'Well, Lord, I didn't ask you about getting in this little dinky tub, so why SHOULD you answer?'"

Then she started to yell and to holler—and eventually the neighbors heard her, got into the house and yanked her out of the tub, "raw and blistered from her vain struggles to free herself, but still able to joke about her predicament."

I have always suspected that a lot of people pray because they are too lazy or lack resourcefulness to do things on their own.

Others think that no matter what foolish situations they get themselves into, all they have to do is to pray to God and He will get them out.

God never intended the human race to be a race of robots and of cry-babies. He never intended to be a perpetual nursemaid to a lot of folks that refuse to grow up and stand on their own two feet.

We do a lot of talking about "self-determination." We brag about our American democracy and our freedom to do as we like and to be our own masters.

But then, when the least little thing happens that we don't know how to solve, we run crying to God and ask Him to get us out of the mess.

That's just like taking a trip to Washington and asking President Truman to lick a postage stamp for us if the glue won't stick.

Funny Business

'PLANNED' ECONOMY

Good Year Forecast

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON: Not only for Christmas Day but throughout 1950, President Truman will present the American voters with the kind of a Santa Claus that people don't shoot, to paraphrase the late Al Smith.

Under the politico-economic formula he and his advisers have framed at Key West and Washington in the dying days of the current year, there will be no let-down in the current level of business activity and high but subsidized prosperity if he and the national treasury can do it.

TUCKER

Nineteen-fifty will be what Treasury Secretary John W. Snyder, after a confidential chat with Mr. Truman, describes as "a good business year based on sound factors in the economy."

RISK: Skeptics like Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, who resigned as chairman of the President's Economic Council because he could not stomach the Administration's spending-and-taxing schemes, look into the future through darker glasses.

"Managed inflation," he says, referring to the Truman-Snyder prosperity formula of huge expenditures, peak taxes, continuing high wages and prices and governmental stimulation of business, industry and agriculture through federal use of money, "is a greater risk than we can afford to take."

So far, so good. But what does this high-level discussion of 1950 prospects mean in bread-and-butter language, and how will it affect the average man's pocketbook and his wife's weekly budget?

INCREASE: The basic and primary consideration in forecasting economic trends for 1950, and possibly for several years beyond — certainly until after the 1952 presidential contest — is that the Truman Administration has increased or sponsored the increase of the three items which determine all living costs.

Messrs. Truman and Snyder have agreed that they must be kept at a swollen state through use of the government's power to tax and spend.

These items are, in the order of the importance of their financial reaction on every individual, family and corporation:

Wages, taxes and transportation.

MANAGED: Dips and lifts of price in isolated fields may affect living standards and costs slightly and temporarily.

But there can be no sharp downward movement in prices and in the state of the individual or national budget as a result of the Administration's inflationary policies in these fields. Those policies and prices are fixed.

Thus the politico-economic watchword for 1950, as Dr. Nourse suggests, is "managed inflation."

CONTROL: From the ballot-box standpoint alone, Mr. Truman cannot afford what is variously called "deflation," "a recession" or a "depression."

Business stagnation, a drop in prices, unemployment and a consequent decline in Treasury receipts would be a Democratic calamity on the eve of the 1950 Congressional election. It might prove politically disastrous in the 1952 presidential contest.

Therefore, President Truman and Secretary Snyder will utilize every ounce of their unchallengable control over federal money and credit to prevent any serious decline.

In short, Uncle Sam will pay out, pick up and cash the checks as long as the money holds out. He will make the old-fashioned Santa Claus look and feel like a piker.

DROP: The Truman-Snyder wage-tax policies indicate that the general level of prices in 1950 will drop only about five per cent, possibly ten, whereas a normal readjustment at about twenty per cent below the 1948-9 peak has been anticipated by private and government experts.

Incidentally, in this analysis the term "wage" includes federal subsidies to farmers as well as factory pay boosts promoted by the White House.

There will be price drops in certain areas, but they will be offset by increases in others. And if ever the general price line should sag too low for politico-economic comfort, the Treasury will rush in to prevent any real decline.

OFFSET: In the field of food, for instance, cuts in pork will be offset by lamb and higher beef, although the latter meat should react sympathetically.

Savings on poultry, eggs and potatoes will be eaten up in higher charges for most vegetables and fruits. Canned goods will be up because of higher wage and transportation costs.

OUTPOURING: Don't expect any great reductions on clothes, household furniture, electrical appliances, rents, automobiles, utilities, building materials.

Despite expectations of peak production of all these articles in 1950, barring a war, Truman-Snyder inflationary policies, deliberately conceived and executed, will keep them near their present figures.

There will be plenty of money to pay for these goods even at inflated prices under the Truman-Snyder program. For the Administration's new spending program for foreign and domestic items contemplates the largest outpouring of federal funds in any peace year.

"Before many more centuries have passed, a man will have become extinct," asserts an anthropologist. If so, possibly it will be the most sensible thing man ever did.

MOVE FOR PEACE EMERGES

Romulo Seen As World Figure

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—It is worthy of note that despite the lack of real concrete results of a basic nature from the recently concluded meeting of the United Nations Assembly there did emerge from it in a new role an international figure who demonstrated a positive impulse for peace and symbolizes leadership of the kind that holds hope for the future.

STOKES

It is significant that Brigadier General Carlos P. Romulo of the Philippines is the first veteran of the second World War to be president of the UN Assembly and in that capacity he could, as he did, represent the men who fought the war and who had, and still hold in spite of everything, the dream of a new sort of world.

Decisive Influence Used

He was personally responsible for the one achievement that relates to the dark problem that overhangs the world—the atom bomb. He was the moving influence behind the resolution which revived and put back to work again the UN Atomic Energy commission, which is trying to find some formula for international control of atomic weapons.

He performed a service in keeping the issue very much alive, as it must be.

Beyond this, he offered and now has reiterated his own proposal for a temporary halt in production and use of atomic weapons to stop the race between the United States and Russia and thus provide a more favorable atmosphere for devising some permanent plan of international control and inspection. His proposals have been referred by the commission to their governments—the United States, Canada, Great Britain, France, China and Russia.

HIS energy and persistence are refreshing against the drab background of jaded diplomacy that still uses the old rules and forms. A man of brilliance and versatility, with successful careers as a teacher, newspaperman, author of books and plays, he comes by his military title through his heroic experience with the American Army in the Philippines which came to its climax at Bataan. He was successively promoted and many times decorated. With all of his other talents he is one of the most eloquent and forceful public speakers of our times.

He was active politically in the ultimately successful campaign before the war for Philippine independence in which he became a familiar figure about Washington. Thus, he was intimately associated with the aspirations of another people who have become self-governing in recent years in the democratic tradition that we have promoted in the world.

There is another also in his part of the world, Pandit Nehru of India who finally led his people to an independent status.

Reflecting on the activity of these two, both men of spiritual quality as well as courage and intelligence, suggests that leadership in the campaign for world peace may come from that area of the world—the oldest—and from it we may get a new sort of spiritual revival that may, in the end, save us.

Sharp Contrast Seen

It is certainly a contrast with the fumbling and confusion of our side of the globe, the American-European community, which now finds itself bitterly embroiled in the conflict between our nation and Russia. This vaunted western civilization is just about to civilize itself into extinction.

All we in this sphere, on either side, have been able to offer is to arm ourselves like rival bandits to protect ourselves from each other. That is the old way, which never has worked. It can only lead to conflict eventually. Meanwhile, it is draining away our resources that might so much better be used in other ways. And it is eating away at our fundamental liberties of which western civilization has been justly proud. For liberty cannot exist in armed camps, and armed camps, in the end, can mean only war—and war such as the world never saw.

THESE are truths demonstrated by history and experience.

They are recognized by the Romulos and Nehrus, of whom there are today too few in the world. There was a light from the East two thousand years ago, it is appropriate to point out in this Christmas season. In passing, and without offering any solutions, it seems timely to direct attention that way again to two leaders who seem to have something we need. They deserve at least our thanks and our support

OWNER SEES NEW GROWTH

Higgins Mill And Cabinet Shop Aids In Expansion Of Lubbock

"Lubbock has just started to grow," says W. D. Higgins, owner of Higgins Mill and Cabinet Shop at 2726 Texas avenue, and his firm is playing a part in that growth.

Higgins, with 25 years in the building business, has been in Lubbock since 1945 building up a strong reputation for mill work, windows, sashes, doors and cabinets.

Along with the expansion of Lubbock, Higgins sees a general development toward increased prosperity on the South Plains, and his firm plans to have a good share of the mill work in new construction in the area.

Here are a few of the projects in Lubbock in which all mill work is by Higgins Mill and Cabinet Shop: East Broadway school, Chris Harwell school, the Krueger clinic and the Calvary Baptist church.

A few of the area projects include the Andrews hospital, one of the largest county hospitals in the area, the Olton Methodist church and the Kress Baptist church.

But the Higgins Mill and Cabinet shop doesn't just handle big jobs.

"We do any kind of mill work for anybody — individual doors, windows and moulded trim," Higgins points out. "Much of our work is for residences, and it doesn't have to be a large work order before we will take it."

Windows and sashes made by the Higgins Mill and Cabinet Shop, through high quality materials and skilled workmanship, have made their own reputation in Lubbock and the area.

"Our work has to be good," Higgins says, "because it isn't the part of the building that gets covered up. We select well-seasoned woods to prevent warping, and use the better grades."

Delays are often a headache to builders, and Higgins Mill and Cabinet Shop strives to turn out all work as quickly as possible, maintaining their high standards of craftsmanship at the same time.

Most window and door orders can be met in less than a week—and the time usually runs nearer to three days unless the order is too large. Many jobs can be turned out the same day the order is placed.

The shop has a large volume of business on doors, handling more doors than many lumber yards. In addition to doors which are sold through the company, the shop also takes orders for custom-built doors.

Higgins, with his long experience in the building trade, knows blueprints and construction, having served as superintendent for many construction projects at Wichita Falls, Pecos and Odessa, to mention only a few. He made his home in Wichita Falls for 20 years.

By experience, he is equipped to share in this development by providing dependable mill and cabinet work for building interiors. His employes, and machinery in his shop, also are equipped to turn out work quickly and properly.

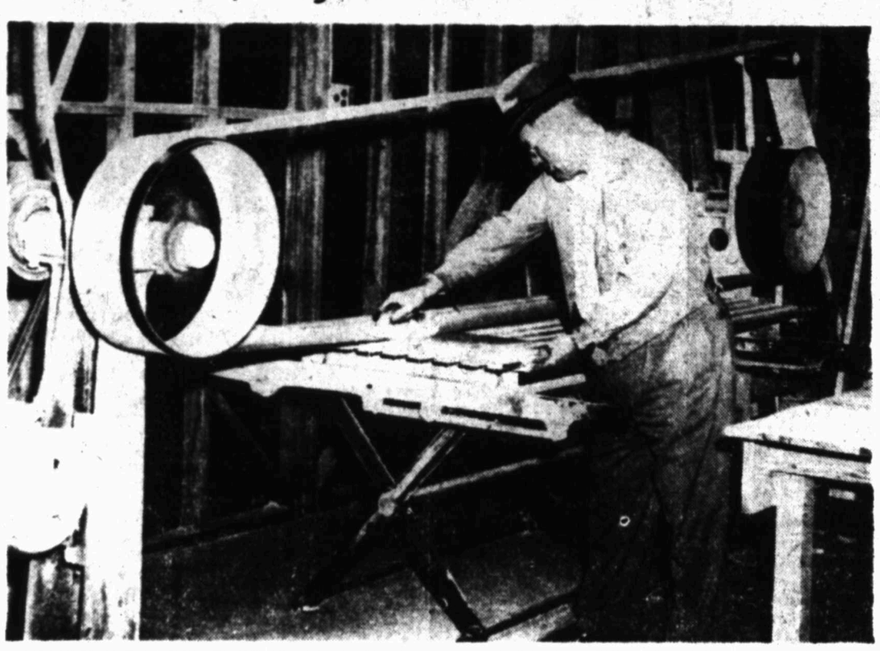

At the present, the shop keeps eight workers busy, including Higgins.

For estimates on jobs, stop by the Higgins Mill and Cabinet Shop at 2726 Texas avenue, or dial 4059. Get your estimates from a man qualified by experience in the building trade to hold down costs and still maintain high standards.

ONE-DAY SERVICE

City Mattress company at 1815 Texas avenue specializes in renovating cotton mattresses and sterlization of mattresses. For one-day service, free pickup and delivery, dial 4751.

Cullingan Soft Water Service at 210 College avenue provides both residential and commercial service.

BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE—W. D. Higgins, owner of Higgins Mill and Cabinet Shop at 2726 Texas avenue, demonstrates a power-driven belt sander, one of the many pieces of specialized machinery in the shop. His firm, with a firmly established reputation for dependable work, is doing its part in the building of the South Plains. Higgins will give estimates without charge, and is qualified by experience to keep costs low and quality high.

Tennessee Milk Has Offer On Toy Trains

In addition to freshness and nourishment, Tennessee Milk has an added attraction for the kiddies.

By sending six tabs from Tennessee milk cartons and $1 to the Dallas headquarters of the company, the youngsters can have a top milk train that would sell from $3.98 to $4.98 if purchased.

While the tabs have to be mailed to Dallas, the tabs can be secured from Tennessee milk cartons right here in Lubbock.

The local distribution plant of Tennessee Milk company is located on the Idalou highway at Fourth street, and the phone number is 2-3311.

Two retail delivery trucks serve homes in Lubbock, while grocery stores selling Tennessee milk are in Lubbock, New Deal, Abernathy, Levelland, Sundown, Wolfforth, Ropesville, Brownfield, O'Donnell and Tahoka.

The toy trains, which the youngsters assemble themselves, are sturdy and substantial. Empty milk cartons are inserted in the cars of the train to give added strength.

To get the train, send six tabs from Tennessee milk cartons and $1 to the Tennessee Milk company, 319 Crowdus street, Dallas, Tex.

It's an easy way to get a worthwhile toy for the children that will give many hours of pleasure—and high quality of Tennessee milk will give needed nourishment for the energy-burning youngsters.

Jap Emperor Refuses Cash For His Poetry

TOKYO, Dec. 23. (AP)—Emperor Hirohito still is tossing off poems, but he won't take money for them.

Recently he sent seven poems to Kaizo, a popular magazine. It was the first time in history an emperor did anything like that.

Kaizo's editors were overwhelmed. They offered the emperor 10,000 yen (about $30) for his contributions.

The emperor's household officials said "no." They'd take five copies of the magazine instead. The emperor would distribute them to members of his family.

One Kaizo editor said the imperial bookkeeper didn't want to bother with the red tape—receipts, book entries, tax statements, etc. —that would ensue.

The editors say such talent should not go unrewarded. They are thinking of sending the emperor 10,000-yen worth of fruit.

Full Auto Service At Woody Tire Co.

Good tires mean safe driving.

Before you take that holiday trip, go to Woody Tire Co., at 1656 Broadway and be sure your car is safe to drive.

If you need new tires, Woody Tire Co. has General tires and tubes. And if your old tires need re-capping, the company has the famous Hawkinson Tread.

Woody Tire Co. features the General Squeegee tire, advertised as the quickest and straightest stopping tire ever built.

The General Squeegee carries a safety factor rating of 12.8 to 1, while other ordinary tires have a safety factor of not more than 7 to 1.

The Hawkinson Tread service is another specialty of Woody Tire Co., Glenn Woody, owner of Woody Tire Co., points out:

"Our tread is of the quality that we are able to put an unconditional guarantee with each tire. We guarantee not less than 80 per cent of new tire service for less than one-third of new tire cost."

Woody began his tire company in July of 1935, giving him more than 14 years of experience in offering the best service possible.

Wheel balancing is another quality service offered by Woody Tire Co. And of course, gasoline and oil are sold.

Prompt battery service is available.

Woody Tire Co. is equipped for truck service with a service truck equipped with an air-cooled motor operating the air compressor. The compressor operates air-driven lug wrenches which speed up service.

Whether it's service for truck, tractor or passenger car tires, call on Woody Tire Co., at 1656 Broadway or dial 9181.

GOOD CONSTRUCTION IS THE BEST BUY
Located on 25th St., in exclusive Tech Terrace. Owners offer their beautiful three-bedroom and two-bath home at a sacrifice price. It contains an abundance of closet and linen storage space, and is near Roscoe Wilson School and Shopping Center. Only $17,500 with a good loan.

ONE-HALF SECTION
320-acre farm near Lariat in Parmer county with 2 sets of good improvements and good 10" well, is being sold at a sacrifice price to settle estate. A loan of $19,600 has been approved, and the price is only $135 per acre. Immediate possession

GOOD FARM AND GOOD HOME
The home won't make a farm, but it took a good farm to build this home. 160 acres good soil, and a modern six-room rock home. Better investigate this buy. $140 per acre.

SOME GOOD BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES—
Among them one of Lubbock's better small laundries, making money. Owner will sell one-half interest. $3000 will handle—buyer take over management.

WE ARE IN THE BIG MIDDLE OF OUR CHRISTMAS SALE

Price alone means nothing. Past reputation for Fair Dealing is more important. Guarantee alone means nothing unless backed up by the desire to satisfy the buyer.

All of our used cars have been reduced to the point that we feel our prices can't be beat. Ask anyone who has bought a used car from us about our guarantee. Make your family happy with a good used car for Christmas. Try these for size.

1947 Packard 4 dr. sedan. Beautiful dark grey. Electric clutch, overdrive, radio, heater. Nearly new white tires. 19,000 mi. Spotless inside and out. One owner, name on request. See our service record on this car. $1395.00

POPULATION GROWS RAPIDLY

U. S. Death Rate Hits Record Low; Heart Disease, Cancer Lead List

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—The nation's death rate was the lowest in history last year, the government reported today.

Heart disease and cancer accounted for almost half of the 1,444,337 total.

While there were only 1,033 fewer deaths in 1948 than in the previous year, the fatality rate dropped from 10.1 per 1,000 population to 9.9. This is one per cent below the previous record low set in 1946.

A rapid increase was reported in the country's population, which now has passed the 150 million mark and is still rising.

On this point the Census bureau estimated the total population was 150,183,000 on Nov. 1 and growing at a 200,000-a-month pace.

Death Figures Given

The nation's death figures for 1948 were supplied by the office of vital statistics which gave these highlights:

471,469 people died from heart diseases and 197,042 from cancer and other malignant tumors. 131,036 others succumbed to cerebral hemorrhages and other diseases of the brain and nervous system. (This compares with the United States fatality total in World War II.)

Deaths from pneumonia, influenza and tuberculosis reached new lows, with a 56,493 total for pneumonia and influenza and 43,833 for T. B. victims.

Fatalities from poliomyelitis and measles increased. The polio toll jumped from 580 in 1947 to 1,895 last year. Deaths from measles rose from 472 in 1947 to 888 in 1948.

Deaths from premature births dropped from 41,053 in 1947 to 39,085 last year.

Scarlet fever accounted for the fewest deaths—68.

The report also showed a slight drop in the number of accidental deaths, suicides and killings.

It said 32,259 people were killed in auto accidents last year as against 32,697 in 1947. 65,742 others died in other types of accidents as compared to 66,882 the previous year.

Deaths from other causes included: Typhoid and paratyphoid fever 233; cerebrospinal meningitis 873; dysentery 1,078; malaria 170; syphilis 11,616; acute rheumatic fever 927; pellagra 606; diarrhea, enteritis and ulceration of the intestines 8,831; diseases of pregnancy and childbirth 4,122; congenital malformations and diseases peculiar to the first year (except premature births) 41,704.

DALLAS MAN KILLED

DALLAS, Dec. 23 (AP) — Bert W. Mooney, 27, of Dallas, was fatally injured today when his automobile collided with a street car. Occupants of the street car were not injured.

Prose Discarded By Writer Anticipating Filmland Christmas

By FRANK NEILL
INS Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 23. — Copping a quick steal from Clem Moore's delightful ditty about the visitation from St. Nick:

'Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the town

The actors and glamor gals jumped in glee up and down;

Betty Grable's stockings were filled with two shapely shanks,

(And the last minute shoppers were charging like tanks!)

In most of the mansions the presents were whopping,

It was so still and so quiet you could hear options dropping.

To four tow-haired sons, Bing crooned "Silent Night;"

(In the ritzy gin-mills there was scarcely a fight.)

The stockings were hung by the barbecue pits

Awaiting "Oscars" from Santa for recent screen hits.

And "Lassie" licked at his chops awaiting a bone.

Roy Rogers gave "Trigger" a new knotty-pine trailer,

(But the classiest chassis still belongs to Liz Taylor!)

At Clarence Brown's ranch they were butchering hogs.

(But the line just above is really no oddity.

Because HAM is Hollywood's most prolific commodity.)

St. Nick brought some pomade to slick-Georgie Raft,

(This hole in my head is what's causing the draft.)

And all the red eyes were not caused by the smog.

Karloff and Lorre turned out the light,

Singing, "Merry Xmas to all, and to all a good fright!"

Clark and his bride, the fourth Missus G.

A few of the bachelors were around getting tight

(Ah, there's no marijuana—it's Merry Xmas tonight!)

Were filled with good spirits from the extras to Zanuck;

And from all of this prattle, we can make one deduction:

MARKET IN SMALL ADVANCE

NEW YORK, Dec. 23. (AP)—With a small advance the stock market today stepped up to another new high point for the year.

The market now stands at the best level since July 14, 1948.

Western Union was singled out late in the session for attention and jumped up 1¼ to 21¾, establishing a new high for the year on the rise.

The volume of trading at 1,470,000 shares was the second largest of the week, topped only by Thursday's 1,630,000 shares.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced 1 of a point to 71.2, a new high for 17 months. The industrial and rail components of the average were unchanged. Utilities advanced 2 of a point to make the second new high this week and stood at the best level since July 14, 1947.

Out of the 15 most active issues in the market only two of them advanced more than ⅜ of a point.

Canadian Pacific was the most active issue up ⅛ at 15¼, with Pan American World Airways in second place with a rise of ⅛ at 8⅛.

Among stocks going higher, with closing price and net change, were Homestake Mining 46 up 1, Dow Chemical 55⅞ up 1⅜, Republic Steel 23½ up ½, Goodrich 70 up ¾, Zenith 33½, International Paper 35⅜ up ⅝, McIntyre Porcupine 87½ up ⅜, Phelps Dodge 48 up ⅛, and Barnsdall Oil 56 up ⅛.

On the downside were Superior Oil of California 218 off 7, Santa Fe 99¼ off ⅜, Standard Oil (NJ) 68 off ⅝, Kennecott Copper 50⅝ off ⅛, Lockheed 23⅛ off ⅛, Douglas Aircraft 70 off ⅛, and Chrysler 65⅛ off ⅜.

The curb market was fairly active with a volume of 320,000 shares, the same as on Thursday. Most of the leaders were unchanged to higher. Among those advancing were Solar Aircraft, Selected Industries, Pantepec Oil, International Petroleum and Electric Bond and Share.

In the bond market railroad loans advanced to the third new high this week. Industrial bonds remained steady. U. S. government securities in the over the counter market were unchanged to lower.

Grain

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Dec. 23 (AP) — Grains drifted along in quiet dealings on the board of trade today. It was a typical pre-holiday market.

For most of the session the endency was for feed gains to show a slight gain and wheat to show a slight loss. Toward the close, however, wheat made up its lost ground.

Wheat closed ⅛-¼ higher, March $2.18⅝-¾, corn was ⅝ to 1 cent higher March $1.31⅛-⅜, oats were ⅜-1¼ higher, March 73½, rye was ¼-½ higher, May $1.43⅛-¾, soybeans were ⅛-¾ higher, March $2.31¼, and lard was 17 to 22 cents a hundred pounds lower, January $10.47.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Dec. 23 (AP) — Wheat No. 1 hard, 2.37½-42½.

Eggs (browns and whites): 11,141 cases; the market steady to firm; extras 60 to 69.9 per cent A 36 cents a dozen; standards 30-32; current receipts 28; dirties 27; checks 26½.

Russia claims an important oil discovery, with daily output of between 1,500 and 6,000 barrels, in the Matzen area of Austria, south of Zistersdorf, an area claimed by the Soviets.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 23 (AP) — Cotton futures were irregular today in slow pre-holiday trading. Nearby deliveries eased on commission house profit taking and light hedging, while later positions were steady on light covering orders.

The C.C.C. reported cotton loans for the week ended December 15 at 261,993 bales, against 237,023 in the previous week. So far this season 2,010,216 bales of the 1949 crop have entered the loan a year ago to the same date 3,587,320 bales of the 1948 crop had entered the loan.

Cotton closed steady.

Grace chapel at Sixteenth and Ave. N and who will speak at 7:30 o'clock Sunday night at Lubbock Bible church at Van Buren and Thirty-fourth, was in Berehovo in Carpathian Ruthinia when taken prisoner.

Thorough Search Made

The Nazis first had taken the Jewish people they knew as prisoners, she said. Then they went from house to house searching for any Jews.

She said she could have gone back to Budapest, Hungary, her native city, and there would have been hidden by her Christian friends.

Knowing the horrors the Jews were undergoing, she remained in Berehovo so she would be taken prisoner and be with them. She felt death awaited her when captured, she said. She was taken first to Auschwitz camp in Poland, where she said immediate selection was made of those to be taken to the gas chamber and to be cremated and those to be kept for hard labor. There was no room in the barracks for all the prisoners, said the missionary, who said that was the reason immediate selection was made of those to be killed.

The missionary was selected for hard labor.

Human Identity Lost

"We were no more counted as humans. We were just numbers," she said. "We lived like animals and we were treated worse than animals. I wouldn't have been able to endure it if I hadn't had living faith in the Lord Jesus."

Selection was made a second time to those to be killed and she again was chosen for hard labor and was taken to Gelsenkirchen camp, then to Essen, and from there to Belsen.

"They were all horrible, but Belsen was most horrible because they were being brought there from other camps," she said. "We were one upon the other, alive or dead. So many died of starvation." Many hundreds lived in the barracks in which she was a prisoner. There was no space even to sit down.

"Although I went voluntarily," she said, "I never regretted. I was able to witness the love of God and the love of the Lord Jesus to my suffering mates."

After about 15 months in camps, she was liberated by the British at Belsen and taken to a hospital at a DP camp "with those who had just a spark of life." She said she had lost so much weight that the skin on her body was loose. She later was treated in another DP camp and afterward went to Czechslovakia as a missionary.

She said that from Czechslovakia 360,000 Jews either were taken prisoner by the Nazis or left their homes before imprisonment, hiding from the Nazis, during World War II. Of that number, only 37,000 returned to Czechoslovakia, said.

Miss Warner was reared in Hungary and Czechoslovakia.

Parents, Brothers Killed

Her parents and two brothers were killed in Nazi camps, she said.

A sister of Miss Warner survived wartime experiences and now is in Israel.

Miss Warner, who came to this country last October and is filling a series of engagements, will leave July 3 for Israel as a missionary, she said.

She said she does not represent any church as a missionary, but her work is financed by Christians.

Egypt's proposed separate universities for women students, with only women teachers, will stress sports participation and physical training, Cairo reports.

Gaines County Well Completed As Two-Pay Producer; Extension Sought In Scurry

venture drilled to a bottom of 7,556 feet, and then plugged back and set casing through the Canyon pay zone and perforated it at 7,100-10 feet for the completion.

WILDCAT SHOWS SULPHUR WATER ON TESTING

Don Ameche, and associates, No. 1 Clayton & Johnson, central Borden county wildcat developed sulphur water, with no shows of oil or gas, in the Ellenburger.

It is now circulating, while waiting on orders. There is a section up the hole from the Ellenburger, which showed a slight "kick" on an electric log.

Interested operators may decide to run a test on that zone before the project is abandoned.

Top of the Ellenburger was picked at 9,524 feet. Elevation is 2,626 feet. The venture drilled to 9,554 feet. A one hour drillstem test was run at 9,516-54 feet. There was a blow of air at the surface throughout the period. No gas or fluid came to the surface while the tool was open.

Recovery was 3,100 feet of sulphur water.

This project is five miles west of the town of Gail and 660 feet from south and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 30, block 31, TP survey, T-5-N.

OIL, GAS SIGNS ABSENT ON DRILLSTEM TESTING

Thomas W. Doswell and associates No. 1 Cantrill, northwest Borden county wildcat, found sulphur water in the lower Ellenburger in a drillstem test at 9,896-10,106 feet.

The tester was open one hour. Recovery was 1,000 feet of mud cut sulphur water and 5,600 feet of sulphur water. No signs of oil or gas were developed from the investigation.

Operator is circulating while waiting on orders. It is expected that the project will plug back and test the section at 9,830-70 feet, in the top of the Ellenburger.

Some slight shows of oil and gas were logged in that interval. The Mississippian lime at 9,496-9,531 feet also had some slight oil and gas shows.

This exploration is 660 feet from north and west lines of the east half of the northeast quarter of section 22, block 32, TP survey, T-6-N. It is four miles north and slightly east of the lone producer from the Ellenburger in the Williams field which was opened early in 1949.

OPERATORS PLAN EIGHT NEW SCURRY EXPLORATIONS

Four operators have filed applications to drill eight explorations in Scurry county fields.

Sells' Petroleum corporation has three planned for the Diamond M field. All are rotary operations, and will be approximately 11 miles from Snyder.

Sells' No. 1 Bynum estate will be 330 feet from north and east lines of the northeast quarter of section 178, block 97, H&TC survey. Contracted depth is 4,000 feet.

Sells' Petroleum No. 2, Bynum estate is to be 990 feet from the north and east lines of the northeast quarter of section 160, block 97, H&TC survey. Contracted depth is 4,000 feet.

Sells' No. 3 Bynum estate will be 330 feet from the north and 990 feet from west lines of the northwest quarter of section 178, block 97, H&TC survey.

Pan American Production company will drill two possible additions to the Kelley field.

Pan American No. 1 S. J. Casstevens will be 467 feet from the south and east lines of the northwest quarter of section 247, block 97, H&TC survey. Rotary tools will be used and the contracted depth is 7,000 feet. It is to be 6½ miles northwest of Snyder.

7,000 FOOT EXPLORATION PLANNED NEAR SNYDER

Pan American No. 1 P. M. Davis is to be 660 feet from the south and 467 feet from the east lines of the northeast quarter of section 249, block 97, H&TC survey. Rotary tools will be used for the planned 7,000 foot exploration. It will be 4½ miles northwest of Snyder.

Tide Water Associated Oil company No. 2 Guy Stoker, in the North Snyder field, will be 467 feet from the west and 1,667 feet from the north lines of the southeast quarter of section 17, tract 2, block 1, J. P. Smith survey. Contracted depth is 6,800 feet. Location will be two miles north of Snyder.

Lone Star Producing company has planned two rotary explorations for the North Snyder field. Contracted depth for both is 7,000 feet.

Lone Star No. 2 Lyle Deffeback is to be 467 feet from the north and 1,443.8 feet from east lines of section 40, tract 18, Kirkland & Fields survey. That will put the location 5 miles northwest of Snyder.

Lone Star Producing company No. 3 Nolan C. Van Roeder is to be 467 feet from the west and 1,400 feet from the south lines of section 40, tract 18, Kirkland & Fields survey. Location will be five miles northwest of Snyder.

TWO COMPLETIONS MADE BY SINGLE COMPANY

Three completions in the North Snyder field and one in the Diamond M field have been reported to the Midland office of the Railroad commission of Texas.

Castleman & O'Neill have brought in two in the North Snyder. Their No. 1 Watts flowed natural on a 24 hour potential 2,185.4 barrels of 43 gravity oil. A one-inch choke was used for the test and tubing pressure was 500 pounds.

Gas-oil ratio was 750-1. Pay was topped at 6,678 feet, and total depth was 6,838 feet. A seven inch oil string was set at 6,700 feet. The producer is 467 feet from north and west lines of section 160, block 3, H&GN survey.

Castleman & O'Neill No. 4 Huckabee flowed natural 2,592.12 barrels of 43 gravity oil and a 24 hour potential. A one-inch choke was used, and tubing pressure was 700 pounds. No formation water appeared.

Gas-oil ratio was 750-1. Pay was topped at 6,642 feet, and total depth was 6,838 feet. A seven inch oil string was set at 6,646 feet.

Location of the O'Neill No. 4 Huckabee is 900 feet from south and east lines of section 160, block 3, H&GN survey.

SEABOARD OIL COMPLETES NORTH SNYDER PRODUCER

Another completion in the North Snyder is the Seaboard Oil company of Delaware No. 1 R. C. Lunsford. On a 24 hour potential, 644 barrels of 44 gravity oil flowed natural through a ¾-inch choke. No water appeared.

Tubing pressure was 575 pounds, and gas oil ratio was 650-1. Pay was topped at 6,382 feet, and total depth was 6,783. A 5½-inch oil string was set at 6,625.3 feet.

Location of Seaboard's producer is 467 feet from the north and west lines of the lease in section 19, block 1, J. P. Smith survey.

R. E. Smith No. 1 Marsh Springer, completed in the Diamond M field, flowed 535.24 barrels of 44 gravity oil through a quarter inch choke on a 24 hour potential. No water appeared.

Gas-oil ratio was 812-1. Tubing pressure was 900 pounds. Pay was topped at 6,705 feet, and total depth was 6,712 feet. A 5½-inch oil string was set at 6,698 feet.

Location of the well is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 123, block 25, H&TC survey.

Yule Observance

brated his 70th birthday. Wherever the hammer and sickle flew — from eastern Germany to the eastern reaches of vast China — the face of Stalin overshadowed the Crucifix.

Two nights ago, as Moscow still celebrated the birth of Stalin, Soviet Union President Nikolai Shvernik gave the last toast at a Kremlin reception. Before the Communist who's who, Shvernik said,

"Peace in the world."

But peace such as envisioned by Shvernik — with the Red Star in ascendance — is not the hope of other world leaders.

Pope Pius XII, in his annual Christmas message called upon Christians the world over to unite and oppose "the united front of militant atheism." He appealed to all Christian faiths to re-enter the Catholic church. His holiness even extended the invitation to "disbelievers, atheists, pagans" and by implication the Communists themselves, whom he asked to "return to Christian rule."

Ironically, the cradle of Christianity itself nestled under the snouts of field guns on Christmas Eve.

King Abdullah of Jordan, who says he himself will attend services in Bethlehem, has his Arab legionaires posted in the old walled city of Jerusalem, where most of the sacred shrines are located. Pilgrims will not be permitted to enter the old city from the new city of Jerusalem, which is held by the Israelis.

Thus, the faithful will have to make a round-about journey via Haifa or Damascus, into Arab Palestine and thence to the Holy City.

Operators Of Dallas Theater File Suit Against Negro Union

DALLAS, Dec. 23 (AP) — The operators of a negro movie theater here filed suit today to stop a negro union from picketing the theater because the movie's projectionist is a white man.

The white man, Frank Paradis, joined the movie owners in the suit, saying the picketing is being done to get him fired.

A hearing was set for next Wednesday in district court.

The union, Negro Moving Picture Machine operators union—Local 249-A, has been picketing the theater since Dec. 10.

Progress Claimed In Joint Fight Against Hoof, Mouth Disease

By CHARLES D. WATKINS
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23—Rep. Horan (R-Wash.) said today the joint United States-Mexico fight against the foot and mouth disease in cattle is progressing satisfactorily.

Horan returned yesterday from a trip to Mexico to inspect the eradication work. He is a member of a House Appropriations subcommittee on agriculture.

"What we saw in the fight against the disease," he told a reporter, "was reassuring to me as a member of the subcommittee. The program appears to have been carried on successfully."

U. S. Owners Reassured

Horan said the successful outcome is reassuring to owners in the United States of 83 million cattle, 96,300,000 hogs and 60 million sheep.

This also will prevent the disease from breaking out among deer and other cloven hoof wildlife in this country, he said, adding:

"If the diseases was allowed to enter the United States it would run wild through out wildlife.

"We could fight it among the domesticated animals but not in the wildlife."

He said he expects it will be necessary to appropriate another $10 million to fight the disease in Mexico during the next fiscal year starting next July 1.

Total Cost Given

Thus far, he figured, it has cost this government about $2 million a month for three years to carry on the fight to prevent the disease from crossing the United States border.

The Agriculture department now is considering which site to choose for the proposed hoof and mouth disease laboratory in the United States, he said.

Congress authorized construction of a laboratory to cost $30 million.

He said three sites are being considered. They are Ketron island in Puget Sound in Washington state, Prudence island in Rhode Island and an island off the northern coast of Maine.
