Greece Lifts Curfew In Two Cities

ATENS (AP) — Greece's military dictatorship lifted the curfew in Athefis and Pireaus today after King Constantine broke his public silence and gave qualified acceptance to the regime which seized power six days ago.

The 26-year-old monarch met with the new Cabinet Wednesday, urged organization of "a true and healthy democracy," and expressed the "fervent wish" that parliamentary government would return "as soon as possible.

Life appeared nearly normal in Athens and Pireaus, where one-quarter of Greece's 8 million people live. But the 1:30-5:30 a.m. curfew remained in force elsewhere in the nation.

The previous absence of a public statement by the king had given rise to the belief he did not approve of the military takeover made in his name Friday. His statement to the Cabinet installed by the military chiefs indicacted he was not happy with the situation which confronted him.

Constantine drove into Athens from his palace in suburban Tatoi Wednesday, made his statement to Premier Constantine Kollias and his Cabinet and possed, grim faced, for pictures with the 19 ministers.

His statement made one concession to the military leaders' claim that they took over to save the country from leftist violence.

Referring to the recurrent political crises stemming from his long feud with leftist leaders George and Andreas Papandreou, the king said in the months before the coup, "democratic institutions have been undermined; the nation, the monarchy, the armed forces and justice have been continuously assailed, acd most of all the true interests of the people have suffered."

Athens military radio said Kollias reiterated that elecction of a new Parliament would be held when "suitable conditions" are created. There was no indication when this might be.

In the first known action against any of the 8,000 persons arrested in the coup, the Athens investigating magistrate subpoenaed Andreas Papandreou to testify in the Aspida treason investigation.

Andreas and his father, former Premier Papandreou, both were arrested during the coup and their whereabouts are unknown. It was also not known whether the army would deliver Andreas to the magistrate, who acts as a one-man grand jury.

Andreas is accused of being a leader of Aspida (Shield) a secret organization of leftist army officers which is charged with plotting to overthrow the monarchy, take Greece out of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and make it a Socialist country.

Open Meet Bill Gets Panel Nod

AUSTIN (AP) — The Senate Education Committee gave quick approval today to a Senate bill to prevent public bodies from holding closed door meetings.

The approval by voice vote, came after the bill had been stalled in the Senate State Affairs Committee for more than a month without a hearing. Several hearings had been cancelled.

At the request of Sen. Chet Brooks of Pasadena, the bill (SB94) was transferred earlier this week to the Education Committee, whose chairman, Sen. Criss Cole of Houston, at once called a hearing.

Sen. Henry Grover of Houston made the motion that the bill be approved for floor debate.

A similar House bill was approved for House debate Monday night by the House State Affairs Committee.

Today, Brooks explained briefly that the bill is similar to measures that passed the House in 1963 and 1965 but never made it through the Senate.

Brooks said it would not affect the Senate's executive sessions for consideration of appointments, the only authorized closed door meeting of the legislature. He said it would apply to all administrative agencies and boards, including all political subdivisions of the state.

"Will this cover the College Coordinating Board?" asked Sen. A. M. Aikin of Paris.

"It sure will," Brooks said.

"Then let's vote it out," Sen. Bruce Reagan of Corpus Christi said.

MAGGIE VALLEY, N.C. (AP) — Clyde Ramsey was involved in a minor traffic a ccident Wednesday and was asked by North Carolina highway patrolman V.C. Coggins to show his drivers license.

The patrolman looked at the license and charged Ramsey, 52, of Maggie Valley, with not having a valid license. Ramsey's license had expired almost 30 years ago.

Red-Held Hill Costly

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. planes and artillery pounded a stubborn North Vietnamese force holding a hill in the northwest corner of South Vietnam today after 37 Marines were killed and 84 wounded in an unsuccessful, three-day attempt to take the hill.

In the air war against North Vietnam, the U.S. command announced four American planes were shot down in Wednesday's raids against the Hanoi and Haiphong areas. This raised announced losses this week to 10 U.S. planes in three days of intensified raids on the North Vietnamese heartland. The total losses announced for the air war against North Vietnam are now 520.

The U.S. command said one pilot shot down Wednesday was rescued by helicopter while four others were missing.

Hanoi Radio had claimd 1e1 American planes were downed Wednesday.

Although spokesmen in Saigon said the Marines had "closed out" their attempt to take Hill 861 three miles northwest of Khe Sanh, Associated Press photographer Richard Merron reported from Khe Sanh that bombs and artillery were raining on the Communists while Marine officers made plans for another assault.

Merron also reported 37 Marines killed and 84 wounded, while headquarters in Saigon said 22 Leathernecks were killed and 43 wounded.

A spokesman in Saigon said the Marines went looking for an estimated North Vietnamese company in Quang Tri Province, bordering the frontier with Laos, and "they found them" Tuesday. The North Vietnamese were well entrenched in bunkers and caves and threw back repeated Marine attempts to throw them off the hill.

There was no estimate of enemy casualties.

In other ground action, a company from the U.S. 4th Infantry Division ran into an enemy platoon late Wednesday and reported killing 15 in two hours of fighting in the central highlands area of Pleiku Province.

Operation Manhattan, a massive search-and-destroy sweep northwest of Saigon, continued with only light, scattered action. But U.S. and Vietnamese troops were reported finding enemy rice caches and some stores of weapons and equipment.

Eleven enemy were reported kilid in the operation Wednesday. On U.S. infantryman was killed and 17 wounded, they added.

In a province north of Saigon troops of the U. S. 11th Armored Cavalry clashed with an enemy force of unknown size this morning. Artillery and air strikes were called in to back up the Americans, but spokesmen said they had no other details except that the action was continuing

US Probes Attack On British Ship

LONDON (AP) — The United States is urgently investigating how American aircraft came to attack a British ship in Haiphong Tuesday, a foreign office spokesman said today.

He added that the probe by the State Department is taking place at Britain's request.

The 2,739-ton cargo vessel Dartford was riddled with bullets fired by a U.S. Air Force jet, according to press reports quoting a North Vietnamese news agency.

Both sides of the Dartford carried large paintings of the British flag and the vessel also flew a large flag.

A spokesman for the Peninsular Shipping Co., in Hong Kong, owners of the vessel, said six Chinese crewmen were injured. Four of them were in a Haiphong hospital and two were released after treatment, he added. He declined to say who had chartered the vessl, or what cargo she was carrying.

Authorities here have announced Britain's consul-general in Hanoi also has been ordered to investigate the circumstances of the attack but his report has not yet been received.

Britain's consular officials in Hanoi can only interview the crew with the permission of North Vietnamese authorities. Ships trade in North Vietnamese waters at their own risk and pay appropriately high insurance and wage rates.

Ethics Panel Asks Dodd Be Censured

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Ethics Committee recommended today that Sen. Thomas J. Dodd be censured for conduct it said "is contrary to accepted morals, derogates the public trust expected of a senator, and tends to bring the Senate into dishonor and disrepute."

The bipartisan committee's report said it unanimously directed Chairman John Stennis, D-Miss., to propose Senate adoption of the resolution of censure.

Stennis, in formally presenting the report, asked that the Senate consider it within "a reasonable time."

No date was fixed, and Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said he thinks Dodd should be allowed a reasonable time to study the report before the Senate is asked to vote on it.

The proposed resolution, summing up the committee's findings in its investigation of misconduct charges against the 59-year-old Connecticut Democrat, said that Dodd had obtained and used for his personal benefit funds obtained from the public through political testimonials.

It also said that he had requested and accepted reimbursements for expenses from both the Senate and private organizations for the same travel.

The committee held hearings last month on Dodd's financial affairs. Dodd, the final witness, said "my conscience is clear."

"I don't believe any man is going to look me in the eye and say I've done anything wrong," the 59-year-old senator said.

Dodd said more than $170,000 raised at testimonial affairs for him between 1961 and 1965 represented personal gifts he could use as he saw fit.

And he blamed instances in which he collected for travel both from the Senate and private sources on what he termed the sloppy bookkeeping of a former employe.

At the committee's first round of hearings last summer, Dodd denied doing anything improper on behalf of Klein.

RAIN WELCOMED

Violent Winds Damage Valley

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

High winds, possibly a tornado, left wrecked buildings and fallen utility poles today at several points in the usually calm Lower Rio Grande Valley.

The heaviest damage was at the Jaras Chinas ranch 10 miles east of Mission. An undetermined number of buildings were flattened during the night at the ranch, one of the oldest settlements in the Valley.

Communications were still out at mid-morning.

Other buildings were damaged at the Matias Pena Jr. farm 10 miles north of Edinburg.

A taxi cab building was flipped over in Edinburg.

La Joya Mayor Leo Leo said there were no reports of injuries at the Jaras Chinas.

The turbulence smote the area as heavy rains developed as a cool front moved southward Wednesday night.

Violent winds damaged one home, overturned four trailer houses and tore the roofs off two gas stations at Zapata.

The storms turned loose as much as 3.42 inches of rain at Rio Grande City, a rich farming area which had gone about a month without appreciable moisture. Wind gusts up to 40 miles per hour accompanied the downpour.

Across the Rio Grande in Mexico even heavier rains apparently descended. U.S. custom officers at Roma, on this side of the border, reported high water from the Rio Bravo blocked the highway from Reynosa to Miguel Aleman, overflowing at the village of Camargo.

Rainfall measurements at other points in the Valley included La Joya 2 inches, Garciaville 1.80, Mission 1.50 and McAllen .48.

By this morning remnants of the cool front had moved on over the Gulf of Mexico and skies remained cloudy across South Texas. It was mostly clear elsewhere across the state.

In the Panhandle temperatures sagged to 39 degrees at Amarillo, 40 at Dalhart and 41 at Dumas. Brownsville on the south tip of the state recorded a low of 76.

Readings Wednesday afternoon ranged up to 95 at McAllen and 97 at Presidio, the top marks over the nation.

Increasing clouds and a little warming were forecast over all the state by Friday with a possibility of showers in the northwest section.

Coppolino Defense Rests

NAPLES, Fla. AP) — Without putting the defendant on the stand, the defense today rested its case in the first degree murder trial of Dr. Carl Coppolino.

Coppolino, who testified in his own behalf last December when he was acquitted of the murder of a neighbor in New Jersey, was accused here in the death of his wife.

"If it pleases the court," said defense attorney F. Lee Bailey, "the defense rests." He closed his case without calling several witnesses flown in from New York.

The state closed its case Tuesday but continued to call rebuttal witnesses for an hour after the defense rested.

Flags To Show Support For Boys

CAPE MAY COURT HOUSE, N.J. (AP) — All Cape May County government buildings will fly the American flag 24 hours a day for the duration of the Vietnamese war.

The County Board of Freeholders issued the order Wednesday as a symbol of support for American servicemen.

"We want our fighting men to know we don't agree with draft Card burners and draft dodgers," Freeholder Francis Townsend said.

Spotlights will illuminate the flags at night.

Peking Posters Tell Of Violence

TOKYO AP) — Peking wall posters reported today that the deputy military commander of Tsinghai Province has staged a "coup d'etat" against his chief and killed or wounded more than 200 supporters of Mao Tse-tung.

This report followed an earlier one that several hundred persons were killed or wounded in fighting April 18 between Chinese army and 10,000 anti-Maoists in Lanchow, capital of Kansu.

These unconfirmed accounts of widespread violence in China's far western provinces appeared to mark an intensification of the struggle between Mao, the Chinese Communist party chairman, and supporters of President Liu Shao-chi.

Another aspect of this conflict was mirrored in another wall poster report that Foreign Minister Chen Yi and two famous marshals have been kicked out of China's highest military organization, the Military Affairs Commission of the party Central Committee.

The mutinous vice commander in Tsinghai was identified as Chao Yung-fu. The overthrown commander was Gen. Liu Hsien-chcuan.

Chao's action was examined by an emergency meeting of the party Central Committee, the government, the purge committee and the Military Affairs Commission, and orders were given to set up a military control commission in the province to restore the Maoists, the wall posters said.

The fighting in Kansu swirled around the Kansu Daily in Lanchow, which Maoist Red Guards encircled on April 18. Supporters of President Liu on the party provincial committee whipped up an agitated crowd of 10,000 to encircle the encirclers, the posters said. Eight truckloads of army soldiers joined them.

Japanese correspondents in Peking said only three marshals — Lin Piao, Liu Po-cheng and Nien Jung-chien — now remain on Mao's side following the ouster of Chen Yi and Marshals Yeh Chien-ying and Hsu Hsiang-chien.

GOPs See General's Trip As Move To Quiet Critics

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland's mission home — defended by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey — came under Republican attack today as a move to silence Vietnam war critics.

Humphrey told a news conference Wednesday night that no one wants to muzzle "responsible" criticism of Johnson administration policies. He said Westmoreland had given an "excellent assessment" of the Vietnam situation in a speech at an Associated Press meeting in New York Monday.

When the general speaks to Congress Friday, Humphrey predicted, he will be "well received" and will be "highly informative and helpful to the American people."

But Westmoreland's charge in the New York speech that "unpatriotic acts" of protesters at home are giving comfort to Hanoi brought criticism from Republicans who had been silent when Democratic critics complained bitterly about it in the Senate Tuesday.

While they did not go as far as Sen. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., who said the administration was using "political blackmail" to silence its critics, Sens. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., and Thruston B. Morton, R-Ky., protested that the patriotism of those who differ on policy is being questioned.

Hatfield told a Yale audience in New Haven, Conn., Wednesday night that "those who dare to challenge the administration's policies do so at the risk of having their patriotism questioned.

He said Westmoreland "is joining in the effort to silence opposition."

Aiken, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in an interview he regards the return of the U.S. commander in Vietnam as "part of an effort to quiet disapproving comment on the course of the war." Aiken has opposed escalation of the fighting.

"I detect an air of desperation on the part of the administration," Aiken said. "I think they are searching for someone to blame for their misjudgments. I have the impression that they are planning considerably more escalation."

DEAR ABBY: I have a neighbor who works from 3 p.m. to 11 p.m. She leaves her boys, 9 and 11, home alone.

The other night I heard cries and screams coming from her house so I ran over there thinking maybe the boys needed help. Soon as I rapped on the door, asking if I could be of any help, they quieted down. As it turned out, the boys were having another of their fights, but from the sound of the yelling I thought someone was being murdered. The next morning when I was on my porch getting my mail, their mother came out and told me that she didn't want me or any other neighbors "bothering" her boys while she was working. I only wanted to help. Why on earth would she take this attitude?

GOOD NEIGHBOR

DEAR GOOD: She was embarrassed. Like all people who bury their heads in the sand, your neighbor believes that what she doesn't see no one else can. She forgets of course that one who assumes that position presents an excellent target.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have a rare coin collection. Recently we noticed that four half dollar were missing. Their total value is more than $200.

The only person who has been alone in our house is a 14-year-old neighbor boy who sits with our children. This boy's parents are good friends of ours and we wouldn't want to lose their friendship over this.

My husband says we should hide the collection and keep quite about the missing coins. I say we should confront the boy's parents. I am sure the boy doesn't realize the value of the coins he took. What should we do?

COIN COLLECTORS

DEAR COLLECTORS: Whether the boy is under the impression that he took $2 in coins or $200, is beside the point. The boy himself hould be confronted. Leave his parents out of it.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Kindly transmit the following message to S. S. R., the surgeon who wrote about getting his right hand crushed by men who, when they shake your hand, want to impress you with their power and friendliness:

This can be avoided by a simple technique. Place the forefinger and middle finger high up the other person's wrist, and as the handshake is concluded, bring his hand downward using the forefinger and middle finger as a fulcrum. This breaks the power of the grip, so he cannot possibly squeeze your hand hard enough to hurt it. Try it. It works.

Two Bears Bagged In City Hall Hunt

TRENTO, Italy (AP) — Police went hunting in the Trento City Hall Wednesday and bagged two bear cubs.

The cubs had been placed in a makeshift cage in the City Hall until they could be shipped to zoos at Verona and Padua as gifts of this town in the Alpine foothills. Somehow they got loose.

Police cordoned off the corridors and closed in cautiously. One by one the errant cubs were captured. They were shipped at once to the two zoos.

FINAL PLANS for the annual Western Dance sponsored by the Ladies Golf Association of Snyder Country Club have been completed and will be in full swing Saturday evening, starting at 9 o'clock at the Country Club. Above Mrs. Coleene Butler, sells a ducat to Mr. Lonnie Crosby. The ladies have worked hard in preparing a complete western setting for the large ballroom at the club. Members and guests desiring further information are asked to call 3-3722 or 3-7653. Mrs. Eloise Devers is chairman of the event and Mrs. Butler is co-chairman. The Vernon Hall band will be on the stage.

Flower Show Set For Saturday

The Twilight Garden Club will hold their annual flower show Saturday at Martha Ann Woman's Club. The show will be open to the public from 3:30 to 7 p.m. Admission for adults is $1 and students 50 cents.

The theme of the show is "Our Heritage," with such titles in the artistic division as "Freedom," "Faith of Our Fathers," "Equality and Justice," "Natures Art," "Education," and a novice class titled "Honor."

Tables will carry out such themes as "In Honor of Mother," "After Graduation," "Our Home," and "Father's Day."

A large schedule is being offered in the horticulture division, including exotic and tropical plants.

Mrs. Lester Moore is general chairman, and Mrs. Clyde Collins is president of the club.

Having your meatman remove the leg bone from a ham leaves a dandy cavity for stuffing! Of course such festive treatment of a ham demands a party.

TEXTURE OF SPRING—The rich texture of sculptured cotton swirls dramatically in fashion's newest coat shape: the tent. The saffron-colored coat comes with its own matching dress.

Note to new cooks: before removing a butter-type cake from its pan, loosen the edges with a small spatula. Invert the pan on a wire rack; remove pan; with another rack, turn the cake right side up.

WOMEN

When you are using sour cream as a salad dressing, you may want to add a suspicion of tarragon vinegar to it. When sour cream is called for, always use the commercial variety.

Add ¼ teaspoon of curry powder to about 1 cup of French dressing (made with oil, vinegar, salt, pepper and dry mustard); serve over fresh pear halves on crisp salad greens.

Slow Boat To Saigon May Make Port Yet

By AL PRINCE
Houston Post Writer
Written for The Associated Press

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP)—The Galveston Navigator, a small merchant ship, may reach Saigon one day soon with her 5,000-ton cargo of rice, C. J. Lowrh Jr. of Galveston, chronicler of the misadventures of the slow boat to Saigon, certainly hopes so.

Since she left port in Orange, Tex., last November, she has crept only as far as Agana, Guam, some 2,000 miles from her destination.

Along the way, she has suffered idle engines, a rebellious melee and crewmen who did not care to call at Saigon. She even ran aground once, one of her lesser mishaps.

Lowth is manager of Galveston Steamship, Inc., agents for the Panamanian vessel loaded with a cargo of rice purchased by the government of South Vietnam from the U.S. Department of Agriculture for $1.1 million. Other rice ships have made the round trip to Saigon from America in two months.

Since Jan. 28, the Galveston Navigator has sat in port at Agana while her diesel engines are patched up with parts flown in from the United States.

Rifling through a pile of messages from her captain, Lowth reviewed the high points of her journey.

At her first stop, Panama, the radio operator was among five crewmen who quit the ship. "The only reason he gave us was that he didn't want to go to Saigon," Lowth said.

With replacements on board, the ship almost made it to Honolulu before developing its first signs of engine trouble. In Hawaii three officers quit the ship, "for no apparent reason that I know of," Lowth said. It was there an engineer fell ill and had to be flown home.

Some 3,000 miles later, she limped into Wake Island with more engine trouble. There, two crew members started an ax-swinging brawl while the captain was ashore. With him aboard five crewmen staged a melee, brandishing knives and smashing equipment and crockery. The captain and 15 crewmen hid in the captain's quarters.

When peace was restored, the captain had seven more crewmen flown home.

Since only temporary repairs to her engines were possible at Wake, she headed out for Guam, 1,000 miles away, and was within 160 miles of Agana when the engines again failed, leaving her drifting for 50 hours.

When the Navy towed the ship into port at Guam, two more crewmen called it quits. It was in Agana that the Galveston Navigator ran aground as she was towed to a new pier.

Controversy Stirs Over New State Dental School

AUSTIN (AP)— University of Texas officials claim that some Texas dentists are opposing a new state dental school in Dallas because they want to keep the tooth repair business to themselves.

"The dental profession simply does not want competition," Frank C. Erwin, chairman of university regents, told the Senate State Affairs Committee Wednesday. "They like it the way it is—1,000 more people per dentist than any other state."

Several Dallas dentists appeared to support the bill and testify that a new school is drastically needed to meet future dental needs.

The measure was sent to a subcommittee, with no time limit on its consideration.

Erwin said Texas now is 41st among the states in the number of dentists compared to population. He said there is only one Texas dentist for each 2,650 population compared to the national average of one per 1,700. He said the two present schools in the state — the university's dental school at Houston and Baylor University's at Dallas — turned out only 175 graduates last year, and turned away several hundred applicants.

Dr. Abner McCall, president of Baylor University, said he would not officially oppose the bill but he said he thought the Texas College Coordinating Board recommended the school without a thorough study. He said Baylor was not consulted about its dental school facilities.

PETERS TWIRLS 4-HITTER

Hot ChiSox Slam Cold Yanks, 5-1

By HAL BOCK
Assocated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — It might as well have been 80 degrees and balmy instead of 40 and frigid at Yankee Stadium Wednesday for all it bothered Chicago's Gary Peters.

The American league's earned run leader last year, Peters breezed past New York 5-1 with a sharp four-hitter. It wasn't his favorite kind of weather, but it didn't affect his pitching.

"I prefer hot weather," Peters said later. "But I'm not terribly bothered by the cold. Once you get loose, you don't feel it and you don't get as tired in it."

Peters looked pretty hot to the Yankees, who didn't manage to hit against him until the fifth inning and scored their only run with two out in the ninth.

"He showed me a slider I haven't seen before," said Elston Howard, who stroked the first hit off Peters after he had retired the first 12 batters he faced.

"My slider was sharp all the way," the White Sox' lefty agreed. "At first, I was getting my curve and slider both over but the curve started giving me trouble around the sixth inning."

Peters said the cold weather helped him because it caused the batters' hands to sting when they hit the ball.

"They don't like it and they tend to lay off the inside stuff because they're afraid of the sting," said Peters. "That helps the pitcher."

The White Sox hopped on Yankee starter Mel Stollemyre for a run in the first and got four more in the third in a rally started by Peters' single and capped by Tom McCraw's three-run homer.

The Yankees are 6-5 and have lost five straight to Peters in a string that streches back to September 1965.

"It was cold then too," smiled Peters.

The other four American League games Wednesday were rained out.

In the National League, Cincinnati beat San Francisco 4-2, St. Louis trounced Houston 7-2 and Los Angeles edged Atlanta 2-1. The Philadelphia Phillies at Pittsburgh and New York at Chicago games were rained out.

Borden Girls Grab IV-B Title

COLORADO CITY — Led by the Dennis sisters, Borden County's girls track team surged to the championship in Region VI-B competition here Wednesday.

Sonics Sock Sun Kings

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Amarillo Sonics, threatened with loss of their Texas League lead, went on a 16-hit batting spree Wednesday night and subdued challenging El Paso 10-4.

At the same time Austin moved into a tie with El Paso for second place by defeating Dallas-Fort Worth 6-3.

In the night's weirdest game, Albuquerque got 10 hits, half of them for extra bases, and scored twice that many runs in trouncing Arkansas 18-3.

The Sonics got off to a quick lead when center fielder Brock Davis hit the first pitch of the game for a home run.

Amarillo added two more runs in the first inning, had another three-run inning in the seventh, got a pair in the eighth and single runs in the second and fourth.

George Gerberman, who took over when Amarillo starter Don Arlich injured a shoulder in the fourth, scattered four hits for his first victory of the season. Leo Rodriguez' home run was the only score off Gerberman.

Ron Braddock, first of four Arkansas pitchers, had a no-hitter for the three innings he worked but an error and five walks contributed to five Albuquerque runs.

Ed Cecil also hurled three innings and gave up nine runs eight hits. Jerry Robertson was the only effective Arkansas pitcher, striking out the five batters he faced.

Every Dodger got a hit except leadoff man Bob Stinson and catcher Ted Sizemore, but they each scored two runs. Reserve catcher Lance Nichols hit a grand slam homer in his only appearance at bat.

Austin's John Stewart, with help over the last three innings from Joe Cisterna, got his second victory without defeat although he walked eight Spurs but allowed only three hits.

It was Austin's seventh triumph in eight games at home this year.

Irate Fans Boo Slumping Astros

By B. F. KELLUM

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — That booing heard nightly in the Astrodome is not directed at the umpires. It's the home team that has the paying customers angry.

The Houston Astros dropped their 10th straight game Wednesday night, a 7-2 decision to the St. Louis Cardinals. The Astros now have tied a club record for consecutive losses in a plunge into the National League cellar.

Some say there has been more booing by fans in the past week than in any other like period in the history of Houston.

The fans, patient for the past five years while the club underwent expansion pains, apparently are expecting better things this year from a team which has never finished higher than eighth place.

There has even been talk of a first division spot this year although most experts predict another eighth place finish.

Manager Grady Hatton admits he is concerned but he points out all teams have their slumps at one time or another.

"This team is just not hitting," said Hatton, now in his second season as manager. "Nobody's hitting. Nobody is driving in runs.

"This is a young ball club and when they are not hitting it affects their fielding. The question is how long it will take for them to come out of their slump.

"These kids don't understand why they are not hitting...they don't know what's happening to them."

Hatton says the team could have won at least six of the 10 games with just one clutch hit.

Through games of Tuesday, five Astro regulars were hitting under .200. Second baseman Joe Morgan, who was hitting .360 this time last year, had a feeble .086 average.

In four consecutive games in the losing streak the Astros left 10 men on base in each game and scored two runs or less in each contest.

A bright spot has been the relief pitching which has a 1.95 earned run average compared to 3.89 for the starters.

HAPPY FANS! — Jubilation is written on the faces of partisan Snyder fans at the Regional Track Meet in Odessa as Curtis Clay crosses the finish line in first place on the last leg of the mile relay. The Tigers were timed at 3:17.5 — the best time in the state registered by a Class AAA team.

AT HOBBS, N.M. SATURDAY

Tigers Tuneup For State Track Meet

The Snyder High School track team qualified individuals in four events and both relays teams for the state meet to be held in Austin May 6.

Leon Riggins, M. C. Powell, Teddy Brown and Curtis Clay turned in the best time of the season for a Class AAA school at the regional meet in Odessa last Saturday with a 3:17.5 clocking. The same foursome came in second behind Odessa Ector in the sprint relay.

In addition, Riggins placed behind Rocky Woods of Lake View in the high hurdles; Brown won the 440; and Clay won the 220. The other qualifier is little Freddie Benitez, who raced to victory in the mile run.

"We've got a chance," said Bob Carter when asked about the prospects for winning the state crown this year.

Carter sees a close battle between McKinney, San Antonio Wheatley, Ector and Snyder for the crown in Class AAA.

Clay's 21.6 effort last week in the 220 placed him in a tie for 6th place among the best times in the state and tops in Class AAA.

Jack Faubion of McKinney, with a 37.4 in the intermediates, and a 13.7 in the high hurdles, is the sparkplug of his team. He and Lake View's Rocky Woods should have quite a duel in these events at Austin.

Johnny Gentry of Ector has a 9.5 clocking in the 100 and was only a step behind Clay in the 220 with a 21.7.

Coach Carter will take the state qualifiers to a Meet in Hobbs, N. M. in preparation for the state meet. Some 20 of the top teams in West Texas and New Mexico are entered.

"We're only going to enter our relay teams," said the coach, "to keep them ready for the big meet the next week." None of the Tigers will be entered in the individual competition.

Prelims begin at 1 p.m. Saturday with the finals to get underway at 7 p.m. with the sprint relay. The mile relay will be run off at 9:25 p.m.

Memory Glamorizes The Past

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Confused and dismayed by the hazards and hurries of now, many a human heart likes on occasion to retreat into yesterday.

Memory throws a glamor over the past, softening its harsh edges and omitting its pitfalls.

"Remember the good old days?" one oldtimer wistfully asks another. And each silently recalls the golden days. Each forgets that yesterday had a tarnish as well as a luster — just as every time in history has had, including now.

What was so terribly, terribly good about those so-called "good old days?"

Looked at honestly, they presented quite an ordeal of survival. The big wonder is that anyone lived to tell their tale.

The good old days were really better for germs than for people. Tuberculosis and pneumonia and the infectious diseases of chcildhood cut short the journey of life more effectively than heart attacks and cancer do now.

Was life really more sterling in any previous generation? In those good old days when:

The farm vote controlled the politics of the nation.

Everything had to be done by hand. Rugs were beaten by hand. Cars and telephones were cranked by hand. Lawns were cut by the power of the two-hand push.

Kids spent most of their time between November and April scratching the itchiness caused by wearing long woolen underwear.

If a youngster got caught in even an innocent fib or said a bad word out loud, he was immediately grabbed by the ear and had his mouth washed out with yellow laundry soap. This custom was so prevalent that, if you look closely at any man over 60 today, the odds are that you will find one of his ear lobes is longer than the other.

Orange juice was never taken for its flavor or vitamin value. It most generally served as a camouflage for the unutterable taste of castor oil.

There were more mules than motor cars in America, and the roads were built for mules, not wheels — dusty in summer, mud-rutted in spring and autumn, snow-covered in winter.

Everybody talked about the weather then but did little about it, because air-conditioning was only a dream.

People seemed to spit indoors as often as they did outdoors. Saloons and banks prided themselves on their massive and brightly polished cuspidors. By most desks in most offices there also was a smaller, less gaudy cuspidor, sometimes but not always emplaced on a rubber mat that was put there to catch the errors.

Every working man actually worked as long as executives now claim they work — 60 hours a week was usual. Mothers, of course, put in an 80-hour week, and died earlier than they do today.

The good old days? Nonsense. Today is still the best of all times to live — if for no other reason than that, after all, it is here to be enjoyed.

Lodge Joins Westmoreland's Criticism Of The Criticis

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The critics of the war in Vietnam took after Gen. William C. Westmoreland for criticizing the critics but they will have a hard time doing the same thing to Henry Cabot Lodge who said the same thing as Westmoreland.

In this memorable week the two top Americans closest to the war for years — Westmoreland, commander of the U.S. forces in Vietnam, and Lodge, retiring U. S. ambassador to Vietnam — summed up their thinking within a day of each other.

Thus this week the war was escalated on two fronts — with words as well as weapons — for the United States intensified it by bombing the MIG bases in North Vietnam and the argument over the war got hotter and more caustic.

Westmoreland, the U. S. military boss in Vietnam since 1964, this week in a New York speech went into detail to justify this country's presence in the war and in doing so answered many arguments of the critics.

In doing so he hit at them, saying the criticism here at home gives the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese an impression of American disunity and encourages them to keep fighting.

One senator and constant critic, George McGovern, D-S.D., resented the general's statement which, although brief, was a stinging attack on the critics. He claimed Westmoreland had "obviously" been put up to saying it by President Johnson.

But Lodge, first named ambassador to Vietnam in 1963 by President John F. Kennedy, in a long interview with the New York Times also made a brief but pointed criticism of the critics.

"I think," he said, "the big thing outside Vietnam would be if, in the United States, we were to give the appearance of unity and if it were no longer possible for Hanoi to toss in some kind bone and we all start snarling at each other over it. They have been very good at that, I think."

Since Lodge is a Republican and is no longer under Johnson's command because he has voluntarily given up his ambassadorial job, the critics can hardly sound plausible if they try to suggest he, too, is a mouthpiece for the President now.

Lodge's interview was cool, well thought-out, and realistic about the whole picture in Vietnam. He doesn't think it is an easy road.

McGovern, in a Senate speech Tuesday, dismissed as a "rationalization" the domino theory for this country's part in the war, a theory enunciated by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1954 and followed ever since by Johnson a nd Kennedy.

This was it: If the Communists were alowed to grab of Vietnam, the rest of Southeast Asia would fall like domipoes: Burma, Thailand, Indonesia, Formosa, the Philippines, and even Australia.

But Lodge who gave his interview before McGovern talked, supported the domino theory after four years of watching the Communist effort to take over South Vietnam. He said "the well-advertised domino theory applies here."

Both McGovern and Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., who has probably been more critical than anyone, have called the attempt by the North Vietnamese Communists to take over South Vietnam a civil war and said the United States butted into it.

McGovern said there was "no American interest, no issues of political freedom, no moral imperative that called for sending troops and bombers into Vietnam."

Lodge and Westmoreland both contradicted that viewpoint. Both called the struggle between the two Vietnams the result of aggression from the North.

The Lodge interview and the Westmoreland speech, taken together, are a detailed explanation for the U.S. involvement. They hit on some of the major points which the critics try to use to condemn the involvement.

Junior Editors Quiz on CAR MOTORS

QUESTION: How does gasoline make a car run?

• • •

ANSWER: A cylinder in a car is like a metal tube, closed at the top. It is highly polished inside and has a strong metal piece fitting it which can slide up and down. It's called a piston. A pin goes through the piston, holding the connecting rod. The piston has an opening at the bottom, allowing the rod to move back and forth. As it revolves, the connecting rod turns the crankshaft, giving the power to move the wheels and make the car go, in much the way you make your bike go by pressing on the foot pedal. A spark plug comes down through the top of the cylinder. A mixture of air and gasoline vapor is drawn through another opening in the cylinder head. In one of the upstrokes of the piston, this opening is closed and the fuel mixture compressed so it becomes capable of rapid burning. This takes place when an electric spark is produced by the spark plug. The resulting power stroke drives the piston down. As the piston comes up, it drives out the exhuast gases. Coming down again, it pulls more fuel mixture in, compresses it on the way up. Then another spark gives another power stroke.

Stalin's Daughter Poised, Charming

By SAUL PETT
AP Special Correspondent

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Stalin's daughter exhibits a charm and openness that one imagines could only have been inherited from her mother.

She shows, too, a surprising poise for one so new to an alien country which has long regarded her father as the arch enemy in the cold war and absolute ruthless master of the Kremlin.

One assumes Svetlana Alliluyeva is aware of her father's image in America and of the many ironies attending her presence in the world capital of capitalism. Only 20 minutes from Wall Street, she shows no fluster.

With moving simplicity, she says of her father: "I loved him, I respected him and when he was gone I had lost maybe a lot of faith — that's personal faith and respect."

Mrs. Alliluyeva faced television cameras and reporters Wednesday in the Hotel Plaza, traditionally the home of rich American dowagers, passing royalty and American heiresses making their debut. It was probably the most highly promoted television event since the Superbowl, and although it was her first mass news conference — something her father never consented to — she seemed to have a quit, demure command of herself and her thoughts.

What did she think of America? Would she seek U.S. citizenship? One might expect a defector to answer those traditional questions with a fast burst of enthusiasm that begins to resemble the opening bars of the Star Spangled Banner. Not Mrs. Alliluyeva.

Like a kindly school teacher delivering a mild lecture on patience and logic to her pupils, she told reporters, with a smile: "Before the marriage their should be love. So if I should love this country and this country will love me then the marriage will be settled. But I cannot say now."

It seemed fair enough.

And for one so new here, Stalin's daughter appears to be learning the American way of life rapidly. At the news conference, she plugged her book frequently. And while we all knew she was being advised by a large American public relations firm and an impressive legal firm, somehow the plugs coming from her seemed palatable.

Mrs. Alliluyeva is a somewhat short woman with blue eyes, naturally curly, auburn hair and a round red face, so red she looks fresh off a ski slope She speaks English well, with a soft Rusian accent around the edges. Wednesday she wore a vivid blue suit that some fashion experts in the Western world might find slightly less than chic, but certainly not dumpy.

Now that she is likely to earn $1 million on her book what does she think of becoming a wealthy capitalist in veiw of her Communist background?

Stalin's daughter easily averted Western entrapment. She smiled and said, "Writers, according to Marx, are not capitalists. It is a different form of labor."

Favorite American writers?

"It's still Hemingway. I also like Salinger very much."

Her thoughts about the American press?

"American newspapers provide more information. Too much, I suppose, is better than none.

"But I cannot understand why if they write something about a person they should mention how many pounds he weighs and what he eats for lunch," she said fearlesly, during publisher's week.

After the news conference, Mrs. Alliluyeva was momentarily stuck in an elevator that stalled. She waited with a patient smile, thoroughly disguising her thoughts about the vaunted American know-how.

It is difficult to know what most Americans expected to find in Stalin's daughter, whose father was known to be despotic and paranoidly suspicious, whose mother apparently committed suicide and whose brother died an alcoholic.

Whatever one expected, Svetlana Alliluyeva comes as a pleasant surprise.

Overseas Mail Rates Increase

An increase in international surface and airmail rates will go into effect Monday, May 1, Postmaster H. D. Moreland announced today.

The new international rates, he said, will not apply to mailings for members of the Armed Forces overseas. Domestic postage rates are applicable to mail addressed through APO's and FPO's.

The rate increases for both surface and airmail — averaging 13 percent — were first proposed on Jan. 14 and publicly confirmed on March 1. The Department explained at that time that they were needed to help offset a deficit of about $16 million in international mail operations.

Specific information on the new international rates can be obtained from the service window at the post office, Moreland said.

This was the first general increase in international rates since July, 1961.

The increases are:

1. Airmail letters to Central America and Caribbean area from 13 cents a half ounce to 15 cents.

2. Airmail to the rest of the Western Hemisphere remains 15 cents a half ounce, except for Canada and Mexico.

3. Airmail to Europe and Mediterranean Africa from 15 cents a half ounce to 20 cents.

4. Airmail letter rates to the rest of the world remain unchanged at 25 cents a half ounce.

5. Aerogrammes and air post cards increased 2 cents each from 11 cents to 13 cents.

6. Items sent by air, other than letters and parcels, such as small packages, books, periodicals and other printed matter increased 10 cents per piece to all countries except Canada.

7. Most letters going by surface transportation to all nations (excluding Canada and Mexico) increased from 11 cents to 13 cents. Post cards raised from 7 cents to 8 cents.

8. Most printed matter, including publications, increased one cent a piece. For 2nd class publications to Canada only, the one cent increase will be deferred for six months to become effective Nov. 1, 1967. Also, the present bundling rate which permits postage to be computed on the bulk weight of packages of publications addressed to Canadian post offices will remain in effect until Nov. 1, 1968, at which time it will be discontinued.

9. Surface parcel post rates to all nations increased 20 cents a parcel, an average of seven per cent.

"Postage rates for surface first class letters and air letters and surface 3rd class type printed matter to Canada and Mexico correspond to U. S. domestic rates, which are set by the Congress, and are not being changed at this time," Moreland said.

Things Looking Up For Desperate Cosby Family

By DALE BURGESS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Three months ago Robert Amos Cosby, driven desperate by joblessness and debt, hurled rocks through two of the biggest plate - glass windows in City Hall.

He landed in jail, and he's still pretty frustrated with life, but things have taken a turn for the better. Cosby is working now, with enough money coming in to feed and house his family.

He has not, so far, been able to find an opening in his chosen trade of plumber, and it rankles.

"I just want a decent living for my family," he says, "and I can't get it. It's not right."

Cosby, 48, had hit bottom that day in February.

Out of work, broke, his family of 12 evicted, he turned to the County Welfare Department for help, only to hear of the "man-in-the-house" rule — no aid for a household with an able-bodied man.

As Cosby, whose name never had appeared on a police blotter, walked out of the building, his eyes came into focus on a pile of stones. He grabbed one and threw it through a huge plate-glass window. He pitched another. Then police swarmed over him.

Today, Cosby says he is sorry he did it.

But he remains one of those people frantically treading water while a wave of prosperity swishes by.

And he sinks a little deeper every week.

His take-home pay of $72 a week falls short by $12.50 of meetings bare expenses of himself, his wife and their 10 children. Township poor relief makes up the difference.

Cosby got a suspended sentence on the malicious trespass charge that resulted from smashing the window. The probation officer said he "acted only in a moment of desperation." A sympathetic landlord rented him a house for $75 a month, about half what it is worth.

But he still owes thousands of dollars, including $565 for the broken windows in the city-county building.

He is working as a $1.95-an-hour maintenance man in a State Highway Department garage.

But he considers himself a qualified, $5-an-hour plumber, barred from union membership by lack of a high school diploma and by — he is convinced — the fact he is a Negro. The plumbers union here has no Negro members.

Officials of the Legal Services Organization of Indianapolis, an agency funded by the Office of Economic Opportunity, agree with Cosby that his race makes it hard to crack the blue-collar ranks.

George E. Sawyer, executive director of the agency and himself a Negro, says: "Cosby's case and those like it are hopeless until there is a union breakthrough at the local level."

Dallas Sells, president of the Indiana State AFL-CIO, says: "The principle problem of integration of apprentice programs concerns whether or not requirements for admission should be lowered.

"We are opposed to lowering requirements which do include the necessity of being a high school graduate."

Sells adds, "A second problem is the political nature of the union where the business agent must stand for election and any change in established practices naturally creates political problems."

Cosby still has hopes.

"I have spent 17 years plumbing and I put in 3½ years training in a nonunion shop," he said. "I can pass a master plumber's examination but I'd be glad even to show I'm a journeyman."

Preacher Backs Plan Of Training

AUSTIN (AP) — A Baptist preacher from Dallas told a House Committee Wednesday that an English language training program helped him skip two grades while other Spanish-Americans who did not understand English failed.

A bill authorizing creation of a program for non - English speaking children for a period up to 4½ months was sent to a House Education subcommittee.

Sponsored by Rep. Raul Longoria, Edinburg, the measure would raise from 120 to 270 hours of pre - school English language training now available.

Increased costs would be borne jointly by the state and the local school district on the same percentage basis that the minimum foundation fund is operated by the district.

The Rev. Rudy Hernandez, Dallas, testified, "I personally received this kind of assistance on San Antonio's West Side—at the David Barkley Elementary School — and was able to pick up a bit of English and was transferred to a higher grade and double - promoted twice."

Others who did not understand English failed, he said.

Three Still Captured

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas Liquor Control Board inspectors captured three illicit stills in March, the board reported Wednesday —two in Panola County and one in Harrison. One arrest was made and 300 gallons of mash taken.

Body Found In Car

DALLAS (AP) — Death from natural causes was the ruling Wednesday in the case of George W. Johnson, 56, president of the Johnson Drill Foundation Co. of Dallas. The body was found in his car after it crashed into a creek bed.

Base Bombarded No MIGs Found

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the two North Vietnamese MIG bases struck by U.S. war planes was empty of Communist jets, Pentagon sources said today.

Only four MIGs were on the other base bombed by American jets Monday, the sources said.

Asked about this, a Defense Department spokesman said "we won't know for sure" how many Communist jet fighters were on the Kep and the Hoa Lac bases near Hanoi when they were bombed.

The pilots "said they were too busy with their missions to count," the spokesman said.

Because of poor weather, he said, there has been no satisfactory bomb damage assessment by reconnaissance planes.

The spokesman acknowledged that the Kep field — which sources said was bare of planes — has been undergoing extension of its runways. But he insisted that despite the construction work, the base 37 miles northeast of Hanoi is operational.

Another department spokesman disputed the report that only four MIGs were caught on the ground at Hoa Lac, 19 miles west of Hanoi. He said he had information indicating there might have been a dozen planes there.

In announcing the raids early this week, an official spokesman in Saigon said that Kep was known to have been the base for 19 or 20 MIGs while Hoa Lac was believed to have been the home of up to nine planes. This Hoa Lac estimate has been raised to about 15.

Air Force officers in Vietnam long have argued for striking the MIG bases in the North, contending the best way to destroy the enemy air force is while it is ground-bound, rather than taking on the MIGs in the air.

In the wake of the Hoa Lac and Kep raids, some critics complained the American raiders should have been allowed to take out all MIG bases—particularly the most important one at Phuc Yen, some 15 miles north of Hanoi.

Phuc Yen is the base of North Vietnam's best interceptors, the MIG21s. Recent reconnaissance photography showed roughly 40 MIGs sitting on the ground there.

This represented possibly a third of North Vietnam's air force, estimated at between 120 and 150 MIG jets.

The critics said the effect of only bombing Hoa Lac and Kep was to alert the enemy concentrate antiaircraft guns around the other bases. This, they said, could mean heavier U.S. losses if the remaining fields are attacked.

Other jet-capable bases are at Gia Lan on the outskirts of Hanoi, Cat Bi near Haiphong and at Bai Thuong below Haiphong. Bai Thuong was bombed some time ago while it was being built.

The Navy raiders who hit Kep were challenged by about half a dozen MIG17s, older and slower models than the MIG21. Two were downed by the U.S. attackers.

Miranda Rule To Apply To Military

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court's Miranda decision — requiring that suspects be told of their right to counsel at all times and their right to remain silent—has been held applicable to military cases.

In a 2-1 decision, the U. S. Court of Military Appeals overturned Wednesday an earlier military appeals court ruling, which said it was not necessary for military counsel to be present at all times during an investigation to insure the suspect understood his right to remain silent.

The majority decision by Associate Judge Homer Ferguson said the ruling will affect all military cases tried on or after June 13, 1966 — date of the Miranda decision.

The opinion involved the court martial of Airman 3C. Michael L. Tempia, New York City, convicted June 1, 1966 — one day after the Miranda decision — of taking indecent liberties with three 10-year-old girls May 1, 1966, at Dover Air Force Base, Del.

Tempia, sentenced to a bad-conduct discharge, forfeiture of all privileges, confinement at hard labor for six months and reduction of rank, appealed on grounds his pretrial statement — given without counsel — was allowed as evidence at this trial.

The U. S. Military Appeals Court ruled improper the refusal of a judge advocate to make available to Tempia counsel during the investigation by the special office of investigations.

Tempia's court martial was held at Dover AFB.

The court ordered the conviction reversed and a rehearing held.

CHAMBER PANEL IN SESSION — Nineteen organizations were represented Wednesday at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Public Information Committee. Bob Clifton, co-chairman who presided, outlined the program of work and the committee then voted to work on a community events calendar, a radio program, a closed circuit television program and a downtown "marquee" to advertise local events. Participation of various organizations will be sought for the radio and TV programs.

Santa Fe To Honor Slaton Division

Industrial safety has many rewards, not the least of which is a Family Night party which the Santa Fe Railway's safety department will toss for Slaton division employes and their families Friday.

According to Ralph E. Jones, safety supervisor, Clovis, N.M., the Slaton division's first place accomplishments in safety in 1966 will be honored at 7:30 p.m. that evening, at Vann's Catering, Fortieth and Avenue A, Lubbock.

Santa Fe families from such Slaton division cities as Lubbock, Slaton, Post, Snyder, Plainview, Floydada, Littlefield and Muleshoe will attend. The program will include presentation of plaques, a film on Disneyland, refreshments and door prizes.

D. D. Baird of Chicago, superintendent of safety for the system; F. N. Stuppi, general manager; J. H. Blake, assistant general manager; L. L. Luthey, manager - mechanical department, and J. D. Swauger, mechanical superintendent, all of Amarillo, all plan to attend the party, in addition to division superintendent J. P. Spears of Slaton, and Jones.

Pfc. Marion Curtis Magness, former Snyder resident, has been enjoying a 30-day furlough from the Army with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Magness, 2707 Twenty - sixth Street.

He is assigned to Co. B, 7th Battalion, 2nd Brigade, Fort Jackson, South Carolina and will report back to active duty Monday. He is a training instructor.

Magness attended school here and completed his work towards high school graduation while in the Army. He has been on active duty for the past two years.

Hepatitis Cases Soar

DALLAS (AP)—A sudden outbreak of infectious hepatitis has sent the number of cases in Dallas County to 154 but health officials declined to call the upsurge an epidemic.

Records Wednesday showed that there are 101 cases in the City of Dallas, an increase of 23 over the same date last year, and 53 in other parts of the county, almost double the number a year ago.

A similar outbreak has been reported in the Fort Worth area, where nearly 150 cases have been counted.

Officials at Fort Worth said there is no common carrier of the disease, such as mosquitoes, and that it apparently is spread from person to person. The Fort Worth outbreak was deemed an epidemic.

Most victims recover within two to three weeks but some remain ill for months, doctors said.

Injuries Are Fatal

CORSICANA (AP) — Silas Pace, 46, was injured fatally Wednesday while operating a tractor and mower. He died of a deep slash across the back, officials said.
