One Dies And Sixty Injured In Rush To Hear Al Smith Talk

DEMOCRATS JUBILANT OVER BIG OVATION GIVEN SPEAKER

(By The Associated Press)

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 25 — Jubilation rang in the Democratic camp today over the wild-open-armed welcome that the state Democracy gave its idol "The Happy Warrior" when he came back last night to Jersey to sound hi first major call for the election of Roosevelt and Garner.

One man died of a heart attack and 60 were injured in a jamming crush of cheering humanity. Democratic leaders said it was one of the greatest political demonstrations in New Jersey's history.

Heard By 20,000

Inside the armory a throng estimated by police at 20,000 heard and saw him. Outside, an hour before his arrival, Police Commissioner Edward Reilly estimated that 60,000 persons choked the streets that later became the triumphal pathway of Alfred E. Smith.

Criticizing President Hoover as "the dry leader of the United States," he devoted much of his speech to ridiculing the Republicans on prohibition. He assailed them on charges of bigotry, deception and hypocrisy.

He attacked Col. William J. Donovan, Republican candidate for governor of New York, declaring he was on the Republican "board of strategy" directing the 1928 campaign when Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt made a speech which Smith said aroused "bigotry and

SLIGHT TRACE OF SNOW IS SEEN HERE

FROST IS PREDICTED FOR WEST TEXAS; MERCURY DROPS

(By The Associated Press)

Indian summer weather in Texas was replaced today by chilling winds from the Rocky mountain area which brought snow to some sections of the Panhandle and West Texas and drizzling rain to North Texas and some sections of South Texas.

A trace of snow occurred at Lubbock about 11 o'clock this morning. Rain fell there about midnight and thereafter. Precipitation at Lubbock through 7 o'clock this morning totaled .53 of an inch at the state experiment sub-station. That occurring after that hour was negligible. No frost occurred here last night or this morning except possibly in low places. Dampness counteracted tendencies to frost.

Temperature Is 36

The temperature from 9 a. m. to noon at municipal airport was 36 degrees, three degrees higher than the minimum since midnight of 33 degrees, registered at 7:30 a. m. Wind velocity was only 12 miles an hour at noon as compared to 26 m. p. h. at 10 a. m. Snow fell at Levelland about 9 o'clock this morning. The lowest temperature registered between midnight and noon at the state experiment sub-station was 34 degrees.

At Plainview a two-inch snowfall was reported. Temperatures fell from a maximum of 68 yesterday to 30 degrees last night.

Similar low temperatures were reported to the north of Plainview. The temperature at Amarillo was 34 degrees. At Wichita Falls it was 42 degrees.

A cold rain sent the thermometer down to 50 degrees at Fort Worth and Dallas. A 10-degree drop within two hours was reported at Corsicana.

Frost Predicted

Colder weather, except in the Panhandle, was predicted for West

PRORATION IS HELD INVALID BY COURT

OWNERS THREATEN TO BREAK SEALS IN PROLIFIC FIELD

(By The Associated Press)

TYLER, Oct. 25—Sixteen wells in the prolific East Texas oil field were thrown wide open to production today after a federal court decision yesterday condemned the Texas railroad commission's regulatory orders.

"I have a list of the wells right here before me," said Carl Estes, Tyler newspaper publisher who has been one of the out-standing advocates of regulation. "There is no time to be lost now if the oil field and the situation in Texas and the nation is to be saved. They are opening up the wells and running wide open."

To Break Seals

Mr. Estes said that Homer Pierson of the oil and gas division of the Texas railroad commission resealed several of the wells and that the owner of the wells telephoned Pierson that as fast as the wells were sealed the seals would be broken and the oil drained out of the ground.

"For every man you put into the field now to close down wells, we are going to put ten in to keep them open," Mr. Estes said the owner told Pierson.

M. T. (Lone Wolf) Gonzaullus, Texas ranger who has been in the field for some time, said that he would not make any new move until he had orders from Austin.

FEAR PARTIALLY ALLAYED TODAY

AUSTIN, Oct. 25 (AP)—Fear that the great oil field of East Texas would be permitted to produce unrestrainedly as a result of a federal court decision holding invalid state proration orders of the pool was partially allayed today.

After studying the court finding, the Texas railroad commission announced that the injunction asked by the plaintiffs in the suit which the opinion covered, when finally entered, would apply only to those

KANE TESTIMONY OPENS

JURY DEBATES FATE OF REV. S. A. BERRIE

NO VERDICT REACHED IN POISON MURDER TRIAL TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Oct. 25—Twelve men, reported divided nine to three for acquittal, today resumed their efforts to reach a verdict in the poison murder trial of the Rev. Stephen Althea Berrie.

After seven hours deliberation, the jury retired last night without reporting to District Judge W. J. Crump, whose instructions were for acquittal or death or life imprisonment.

Intimacies Cited

Exhorting the jurors to remember "the wages of sin is death," County Attorney Phil K. Oldham declared the 52-year-old minister poisoned his 50-year-old wife last March because of intimacies with a girl in her 'teens, whom he married less than two months later.

But Grover Watkins, the preachers counsel, warned:

"Don't wake up and find, after you've turned on the juice, that you've made a mistake.

"We've got every circumstance in the world that Mrs. Berrie died of uremic poisoning.

"The prosecution has not proved where Reverend Berrie even gave her a glass of water.

Persecution Claimed

Defense Attorney M. D. Hartsell asserted the pastor, unfrocked for alleged heresy before his wife's death, was being persecuted by "men as cunning as minks."

Calling the minister a "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," Prosecution Attorney S. C. Cavender said Berrie had "lived a lie all his life," using "religion as a cloak for his nefarious schemes and his crimes."

"DIXIE", WHICH MAKES SOUTHERNERS CHOKE, SOB, SHOUT AND FIGHT, SAID TO HAVE BEEN WRITTEN BY A YANKEE

BY JAMES H. STREET

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 25. (AP)—The original Dixieland—so say some authorities—is old Manhattan; and the song itself, which makes southerners the world over choke and sob, or shout and fight, was written by a Yankee.

His father helped slaves escape from the south, and the son, quite unknowingly, gave a nation of gray warriors a battle song.

Daniel Decatur Emmett—he was born in Mt. Vernon, O., 117 years ago this week—wrote Dixie as a hooray song for a minstrel. He never dreamed his song would lead plodding feet from cotton furrows and quicken the steps until they became the death march of the Confederacy.

Some Disagree

There are three schools that disagree over the origin of Dixie as it applies to the south. Some say it came from Dixon of Mason and Dixon fame. Others contend Louisiana was the first land of Dixie—so named because the banks of New Orleans issued a "Dix Bill." They were $10 bills that had the French name Dix and were called Dixies. Another school says Dixie was named for a Manhattan slave owner, a Mr. Dixie.

Dixie's negroes led a life of ease on the Manhattan estate because there was no cotton to pick and no tobacco to hoe. They called it paradise. Old man Dixie moved south when easterners frowned on human servitude and his slaves became toilers. Somebody had to chop cotton, tote the bales and load the steamboats.

The slaves said they wished they were back on Dixie's land

SHERIFF ONLY WITNESS TO BE HEARD

AX MURDER TRIAL IS DELAYED BY RAINY WEATHER TODAY

(Special To The Journal)

FLOYDADA, Oct. 25.—Rainy weather delayed opening of testimony in the trial of Mrs. Ruth Kane of Graham, charged with the ax slaying of J. A. Cunningham, Motley county rancher, in 100th district court before Judge Kenneth Bain this morning.

Witnesses for both the state and defense were not able to arrive until after 11 o'clock due to the muddy roads and the trial did not get under way until 11:30. Sheriff Sterling Price of Motley was the first witness on the state for the prosecution and was still testifying when court recessed for noon.

Ask Suspended Term

Defense counsel for Mrs. Kane filed an application for a suspended sentence this morning.

The state will ask the death penalty for Mrs. Kane, who went under the name of McComas as Cunningham's housekeeper, and will attempt to show that she killed the 74-year-old stockman for his property. A will said to have been made by Cunningham making Mrs. McComas or Kane chief executor without bond is in possession of the state and will be introduced into the case.

Sheriff Price testified to finding the slain man in his small ranch home near Matador, describing the position of the body, condition of the room and other details establishing the state's case.

Doctor To Testify

Dr. A. C. Traweek, Matador physician who examined the body after the slaying, is expected to follow Price on the stand.

Thirty-five witnesses have been summoned for the trial, the ma-

JAPAN OFFERS NEW SCHEME

REDUCTION IN NAVAL ARMAMENTS TAKEN UP IN PROPOSAL

BY GLENN BABB

Associated Press Staff Correspondent

Copyright, 1932, By The Associated Press

TOKYO, Oct. 25 (AP)—Japan has decided to propose her own comprehensive scheme for reduction of naval armaments to the disarmament conference at Geneva, a high official told the Associated Press today.

The Japanese plan, it was understood, will neither accept nor reject the American and British schemes for cuts in naval strength, but will offer a distinctly Japanese suggestion.

Details Guarded

The details of the plan, even an idea of its general character, are being held in the closest secrecy for the time being.

The Associated Press was informed, however, that the scheme embraces all the naval categories, and will be complete enough to stand alongside the Hoover and Baldwin proposals.

Britain, America Nearing Agreement

LONDON, Oct. 25 (AP)—Conversations between Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald and Norman Davis, the American representative at Geneva, were understood today to have brought the United States and Great Britain closer to complete agreement on disarmament than at any time recently.

It was pointed out, however, that any arrangement which may be announced here as a result of these talks will be subject to concessions by European powers, particularly as to land disarmaments.

Hindenburg Action Sustained By Court

LEIPZIG, Oct. 25 (AP)—The supreme court today sustained President Von Hindenburg's removal of the Prussian government from office on July 20 and his temporary appointment of Chancellor Franz Von Papen as commissioner for that state with the power to name substitute Prussian officials.

BUD BLANTON CLAIMS ALIBI IN SLAYING OF LUBBOCK MAN

A sifting of tips and developments thus far in an investigation of two grocery store holdups here, October 15, one of which resulted in the death of Robert Tharp, was continued today.

H. C. ("Bud") Blanton, 21, former Amarillo High school football player, was in Lubbock county jail, charged with armed robbery of one of the stores and identified by grocery employes and customers as the gunman in both robberies.

Blanton declared he was innocent of the holdups and slaying. He was arrested early Sunday at Amarillo as a result of an underground investigation by Cap Moore, deputy constable, and John Keller, state highway patrolman, they said. Blanton earned a football letter at Amarillo High school in 1929.

"I wasn't given a fair chance in Amarillo; they should have tried to corroborate my story before they brought me here," the black-haired, brown-eyed youth declared in county jail late Monday.

Blanton's wife of two months has been in Hobbs, N. M., her former home, since October 14, the youth said.

Officers Scout Rumors

Some street talk of possible mob violence was reported last night, but an officer blamed the talk on "windjammers."

"I don't think we have that kind of people here," Deputy Sheriff Joe Rieger said. "We're not uneasy the people of this county will do anything like that."

The Lubbock county jail, built last year, is the strongest and most modern in this section. Without the jailer's key ring, it is virtually impossible to reach either of the two upper floors of the building.

The two officers responsible for Blanton's arrest were reticent last night regarding clues leading to the suspect. Both declared that "a lot more work has to be done." Mr. Keller said that "maybe two and maybe three were connected" with the offense.

"I've got one witness who saw

Death May Shroud Shooting Details

SEATTLE, Oct. 25. (AP)—Authorities today expressed fear Mary Nash may die and keep them from learning further details of the fatal shooting of Col. William M. Inglis, 58, and the wounding of Miss Nash in their apartment Saturday night.

Physicians said peritonitis had developed in the abdominal wound of the 30-year-old woman and they feared she may die. A blood transfusion was considered in an effort to prolong her life.

"Hunger Marchers" Headed For London

LONDON, Oct. 25 (AP) — Two thousand jobless "hunger marchers" plodded toward London today to present demands for abolition of "means test" which obliges every recipient of the dole to prove that he has no other means of support.

It has been hard going through incessant rain along muddy roads from Scotland, Wales and many parts of England, and early this morning the sun shone only to hide behind clouds which threatened another downpour.

CRIME SERIES IS REPORTED

NEGRO PORTER TELLS OF HOLDUP; GEMS ARE STOLEN

A burglary, another break-in, a purported holdup, and a series of thefts have been reported to Lubbock police.

A woman's wrist watch set with 12 small diamonds in platinum settings, two solitaire diamond rings with white gold mounting, and a .38 caliber revolver were stolen from the J. W. Moore home at 2306 Main street between 3:30 and 6 p. m. Saturday, police have been informed.

Theft of an 18-carat gold-band ring was reported by Mrs. Denton, 2107 Sixth street. A. E. Herring, 606 Avenue R, reported a handbag, a safety razor, an overcoat, a bathrobe, a pair of pajamas, a pair of house shoes, and a thermos jug was taken from an automobile, from which glass was broken, in a garage at the rear of his home.

Porter Held Up

A negro porter told police a tall man about 25 years old came into the Globe hotel, 1005 1-2 Avenue G, and held him up about 2 o'clock this morning with a .32 caliber automatic pistol. The negro said a search proved he had no money, and he was forced to keep his hands aloft, while the bandit backed down a stairway and left the hotel. The holdup man went away in a Chevrolet coupe, according to the negro.

A 27-year-old man, who said he was a civil engineer, arrested at a

Work Provided As Contracts Okehed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—Work for many men in various parts of the country was assured today through approval of the award of public works contracts aggregating more than $3,000,000 by Major General Brown, chief of army engineers.

The successful bidders included: Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific company, New York City, $113,040 for dredging Mobile bay channel.

J. DePuy, San Antonio, Texas $221,537 for constructing Vermilion lock, first New Orleans district.

Sino-Jap War Seen By Chinese Leader

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—War between China and Japan was viewed as a possibility today by Dr H. H. Kung, member of the Chinese nationalist state council, should the League of Nations fail to solve the Manchurian problem.

"We have always had great hope in the nine power pact and the Kellogg anti-war treaty, but if peaceful means fail to protect Chinas sovereign rights the Japanese will have to reckon with our four hundred million," Dr. Kung said in an interview.

KISS AND CHOCOLATES ARE SYMBOLS OF GOODWILL FOR BENITO MUSSOLINI

(By The Associated Press)

TURIN, Italy, Oct. 25—Premier Benito Mussolini has the kiss of a girl he never saw before as a symbol of the goodwill he found in Turin, known heretofore as a hotbed of anti-fascism.

The kiss was not on the leader's program—a program which began Sunday night and ended late today—but it was accepted nevertheless along with several pockets full of candy.

The incident occured in a chocolate factory one of several industrial projects visited by the premier during a busy day yesterday. As the guest of honor strode through the plant, a group of the girl workers suddenly left their machines and surrounded him.

A plump brunette stepped forward, and grabbing the premier's left arm for support reached up and planted a kiss firmly on his cheek. Then the other girls pushed around him and stuffed his pockets full of chocolates.

A few minutes later the premier was addressing the several thousand employes of the plant, and as he spoke he drew forth chocolate after chocolate, eating them, as it were, between paragraphs.

DEMO TOUR IN FINAL STAGE

ROOSEVELT TO SPEAK BEFORE BALTIMORE CROWD TONIGHT

BY F. G. VOSBURGH

ABOARD ROOSEVELT SPECIAL, En Route to Baltimore, Oct. 25. (AP)—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, homeward bound on the final stages of his last big stumping tour, pushed rapidly northward today across two southern states which cast their electoral votes for Hoover in 1928.

Only brief stops were planned in these two states—North Carolina and Virginia—before pressing on toward Baltimore, scene of the final speech of the trip tonight. The special arrives in New York Wednesday and thereafter the governor will do his battling in the populous states of the North Atlantic seaboard.

Stops Scheduled

With 15-minute stops at Raleigh, N. C., and Richmond, scheduled for 9:30 a. m., and 1:30 p. m., respectively, C. S. T., the governor bade goodbye to the southland and entered the border state of Maryland, which was found in the Hoover column in 1928.

After conferences with senators and governors who flocked around him in Atlanta Governor Roosevelt said he now believed it certain he would be elected.

He told a group of them yesterday he felt the reception he has received in various parts of the nation means that "the people of the country want to have a progressive government in Washington for the next four years and as a result on next March 4, the Democratic party will replace the present Republican leadership."

Lubbock Rotarians Plainview Guests

A group of Lubbock Rotarians headed by Dr. Bradford Knapp, Tech president went to Plainview today noon where they attended an inter-city meeting of Rotary clubs of the Panhandle. Dr. Knapp made the principal talk at the meeting.

Included in the party scheduled to make the trip were: Dr. Knapp, Dean J. M. Gordon, W. T. Gaston, Dr. W. A. Jackson, Pete Cawthon, Neil Wright, Conner Cole, W. W. Rix, Sam T. Davis, Bill Condray, R. F. Bayless and A. B. Davis.

Desert Holds Clue To Murder Of Girl

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., Oct. 25. (AP)—In the mocking silence of her wastes the Mojave desert today hid the secret of a killer.

After two days investigation which brought only failure, sheriff's deputies found themselves without a definite clue to the identity of the lifeless nude body of a young and attractive woman found Sunday in a lonely spot on the desert.

SCHOOL CHIEF ADMITS HOAX

PRODIGAL HUSBAND IS JAILED FOR THEFT OF THOUSANDS

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25 (AP)—From a prodigal husband who failed in a plot to disappear as the supposed victim of burglars and wed a Seattle girl under another name, Elliott B. Thomas, school superintendent, became a jail prisoner today by a voluntary confession he conceived the hoax to hide a theft of approximately $8,000.

Appearing at the office of District Attorney Buron Fitts with his wife, Olive, who had spoken forgiveness for his scheme to marry Sylvia Wilson, the 36-year-old superintendent of Redondo Beach schools said he had forged county warrants totaling between $8,000 and $10,000 since January, 1930.

To Plead Guilty

He assigned the motive first to speculation and later to financing his romance with Miss Wilson which began last July and ended last week shortly after they had taken out a marriage license at Kelso, Wash. His attorney, George Penney, said he would plead guilty if an indictment were returned.

"I just don't know why I did it," Thomas told Fitts. "I began to speculate in 1930. At first small amounts; then larger ones. I can't remember just how many warrants I forged; probably between $8,000 and $10,000."

APPEALS FILED

McCAMEY, Oct. 25 (AP)—Notice was filed last night with George Lee, president of the McCamey school board, of appeal to State Superintendent L. W. Rogers of the board's order ousting C. V. Compton as superintendent of McCamey schools.

SERVICE CLUB MEMBERS SOLICITING FUNDS IN SALVATION ARMY CAMPAIGN

About 30 service club men today are soliciting donations, outright and by pledge, to enable the Lubbock corps of the Salvation Army to continue its welfare activities through the fiscal year which began October 1. A total of $3,302.95 is the goal of the annual financial campaign, which is scheduled officially to last through today only.

A total of $1,265 was set as the amount to be raised in Salvation Army services here and in outpost towns, in a budget drawn by Harry L. Purdum, general secretary of the Texas division, of Dallas. Total operating expenses, including salaries of the Salvation Army here through the year ending September 30, were $3,874.70, a balance of only $1.05 remaining from the total income of $3,875.75, according to Secretary Purdum's report.

An income totaling $5,089 is needed for the current fiscal year, the divisional secretary stated.

Income Is Needed

Money from last year's drive here and a Community Chest check received totaled $1,796.01, Capt. W. T. Wilson, commander of the post here, said. The Community Chest now is an advisory organization only.

DEATH CLAIMS JAMES ROLLO

RITES PROBABLY WILL BE READ TOMORROW FOR AGED MAN

James Rollo, 78, father of Dr. J. W. Rollo, City health officer, died about 10:45 o'clock this morning at Doctor Rollo's home at 1802 Avenue S. The elder Mr. Rollo had been in ill health some time and confined to a bed the last several weeks.

Funeral services probably will be conducted Wednesday afternoon, Sanders Funeral home announced. Mr. Rollo was a Mason and a member of the Presbyterian church. Survivors are the son, the widow, also of Lubbock, and a brother.

Bullington Club Is To Be Formed Here

A non-partisan organization sponsoring the gubernatorial candidacy of Orville Bullington, Republican, was being formed here today, Mrs. Charles F. O'Neall, active in the 30th Senatorial District Hoover campaign in 1928, said this morning.

Mrs. O'Neall said that Mrs. M. L. Benson, of 2012 Sixth street, would be in charge of the organization's finances and that contributions would be solicited.

Experienced in political campaigning, Mrs. O'Neall worked with her late husband in California in 1916 in that state's successful drive which resulted in the last minute election of Woodrow Wilson.

Ninth Annual Free Cooking School Opens This Afternoon

'What We Eat' Will Be The Next Topic

Meeting Lubbock women for the second time, Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig was scheduled to open the ninth annual free cooking school of the Avalanche-Journal Publishing company this afternoon at the Uptown Dance palace. Mrs. Ihrig conducted the school in the fall of 1930.

This afternoon's class was the first for the fall. Another lecture and demonstration of cookery is to begin at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the dance palace. The school continues through Friday afternoon. Each day's program is to be concluded in approximately two hours.

"Why We Move the Door Mat" was the subject chosen by Mrs. Ihrig for her talk this afternoon. Tomorrow she is to discuss "What We Eat and Why."

Gives Recipes

In connection with each talk she is dictating recipes and preparing the foods on a platform that has been arranged as a model kitchen. At the close of the classes, foods that have been prepared will be displayed.

Although it is advisable to attend the entire school, each day's lecture and demonstration is complete. Programs will be announced from day to day all in the general theme for the school, "The Happy Kitchen."

Fires were lighted throughout the dance palace this morning, warming the hall for the afternoon's school, which was scheduled to open at 2 o'clock. Stove, cabinet, refrigerator and other furniture was moved to the stage and everything was in readiness for the opening.

In addition to the lecture and the cooking demontration, music and other features are planned for each day.

"This year's school is entirely free to any women who wish to attend, as other schools have been. It is an annual feature sponsored by the Avalanche-Journal Publishing company and staged with the cooperation of the merchants as a courtesy to women readers of the daily newspapers.

Mothers Are Invited To School Meet

Room mothers at Junior High school are to meet in Room 204 of that building at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, according to an announcement made by Mrs. A. J. Delahunty, president of the Junior High Parent-Teacher association.

Mrs. N. L. Peters, president of the P.-T. A. council, is to talk on "Room Mothers As A Means For Strengthening The Organization" and Mrs. H. F. Godeke, past president of the council, is to talk on "Co-Operation of Teachers and Room Representatives."

Leroy Pattons To Be Hosts Thursday

Dr. and Mrs. Leroy T. Patton are entertaining the Tech geology students with a party at their home 2415 19th street, Thursday evening from 8:30 until 10 o'clock.

Members of Sigma Gamma Epsilon, scholarship fraternity of geology, will be honor guests, although all students in the department are invited, according to Mrs. Patton.

Mission Budget In Church Is Excelled

The Asbury Methodist Women's Missionary society held a monthly business meeting at 3 p. m. yesterday at the church. A report from the officers of each circle revealed that the society has surpassed its original pledge to missions for this year. The surplus money will be donated to foreign mission work.

This situation resulted, according to Mrs. O. W. Carter, from a new ruling made this year that any woman in the church can become a member of the society by making a free will offering as small or as large as she wishes. Prior to this year the dues were fixed and some of the women found them too expensive.

Shows Exhibit

Mrs. Clyde Saunders, superintendent of the children's division, presented an exhibit from Brazil depicting domestic life in that country. The children of Southern Methodism, Mrs. Carter explained, are contributing to the support of a children's institution in Brazil. The exhibit was made by these foreign children.

The young women's circle is studying "Great Souls at Prayer," written by Miss Mary DeBardeleben, Bible teacher at Tech. This study is being conducted by Mrs. J. R. Taylor.

The other circle is studying Chinese missions under the leadership of Mrs. C. A. Bickley. This group is reading "Lady Fourth Daughter of China" written by an American missionary in that country.

The devotional was led by Mrs. W. F. Bonds. A joint session of the two circles will be held at the church Monday afternoon for a mission and Bible study.

Nurses' Association To Meet Tonight

Members of District 18 of the Graduate Nurses' association are to meet in monthly session at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the Lubbock sanitarium, it was announced this morning.

P-TA At Junior High School To Meet

The Elementary Parent-Teacher association of Junior High school is meeting at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Junior High school, according to an announcement made this morning.

Bible Lessons Are Program Features

Bible lessons and short business sessions were conducted Monday afternoon at circle meetings of the First Baptist Women's Missionary society. Several new members were received.

Six members were received in Circle 7 at a meeting with Mrs. Cecil Horne, 2224 Broadway. They are Mesdames O. W. McLeod, W. E. Patty, J. E. George, Claude Hurlbut, Ford Benham and T. A. Liscomby, jr.

Mrs. Fred Sparks taught a Bible lesson. She was assisted by Mesdames Cecil Balkman, A. M. Leftwich, C. W. Moses, E. H. Martin and J. H. Hankins. Mrs. Patty sang.

Mrs. W. F. Fry, chairman, presided. There were 18 in attendance.

With Mrs. Clarence Ratcliff, 1412 7th street, serving as hostess, members of Circle 8 heard a Bible lesson. There were nine members present. Mrs. L. E. Berry was received into the unit. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Leonard O'Neal.

Mesdames J. B. Doberson, B. N. Duff and L. J. Haynes were received as members in Circle 9 at a meeting with Mrs. G. V. Pardue, 2421 7th street. There were 12 women present.

Mrs. W. A. Stith, chairman, presided for a business meeting and Mrs. William Lowrimore taught a Bible lesson.

Mrs. J. K. Miller taught a Bible lesson when members of Circle 3 met at the home of Mrs. Pearl Carlisle, 1415 19th street. There were five women present.

Mrs. Carl Roberds taught a Bible study when members of Circle 2 gathered at her home, 1415 16th street. There were six members and one visitor in attendance.

Mrs. C. N. James presided for a business meeting and Mrs. J. H. Agee taught a Bible lesson at a meeting of Circle 5 at the home of Mrs. F. P. Clark, 1915 10th street. Mesdames R. R. Holmes and Will Dunn were visitors and there were eight members present.

Eigh women attended a meeting of Circle 10 with Mrs. L. T. Vaughn, 2507 22nd street. Mrs. O. J. Hull, chairman, presided and Mrs. Vaughn taught a Bible lesson.

Fifteen women attended a meeting of Circle 6 with Mrs. H. C. Burrus, 2014 16th street. Mrs. Burrus led the devotional and Mrs. O. A. Tyner led in prayer. A business session followed. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. D. Carnett.

Baptist Society Has Business Meet

The Calvary Baptist Women's Missionary society met at 3 p. m. yesterday at the home of Mrs. R. W. Syfrett for a business session. A handkerchief shower was given for Mrs. C. C. Rhoades who is moving to Amherst.

The devotional was conducted by Mrs. J. A. Alred.

H. F. Godeke Lectures To AAUW Unit

H. F. Godeke lectured before the Parliamentary Law group of the American Association of University Women at 7:30 o'clock last evening in Room 104 of the Tech home economics building.

The unit meets the fourth Monday night of each month and is open to the public, according to Miss Ruth Pirtle, chairman.

Diet Didn't Do This!

HAPPY little girl, just bursting with pep, and she has never tasted a "tonic!"

Every child's stomach, liver, and bowels need stimulating at times, but give children something you know all about.

Follow the advice of that famous family physician who gave the world Syrup Pepsin. Stimulate the body's vital organs. Dr. Caldwell's prescription of pure pepsin, active senna, and fresh herbs is a mild stimulant that keeps the system from getting sluggish.

If your youngsters don't do well at school, don't play as hard or eat as well as other children do, begin this evening with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This gentle stimulant will soon right things! The bowels will move with better regularity and thoroughness. There won't be so many sick spells or colds. You'll find it just as wonderful for adults, too, in larger spoonfuls!

Get some Syrup Pepsin; protect your household from those bilious days, frequent headaches, and that sluggish state of half-health that means the bowels need stimulating. Keep this preparation in the home to use instead of harsh cathartics that cause chronic constipation if taken too often. You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store; they have it all ready in big bottles.

Gentlemen:

Word has just reached me from General Executive Offices that Ward Week was the most gratifying sale of its kind ever held.

This sale, the greatest event of the year in the Ward organization, was held in 500 Ward stores reaching from coast to coast. This event is generally conceded to be the greatest sale of its kind and scope in America.

You will be interested in the success of the sale because of the fact that approximately 90% of the advertising appropriation for Ward Week was spent in local newspapers.

The amazing total of almost 9,000,000 lines of space in about 800 newspapers carried the Ward Week message to 50,000,000 people.

We feel we owe you a word of appreciation for the splendid manner in which the Yourtown paper co-operated in making Ward Week a success. Your publication has again proven its value as an outstanding advertising medium.

Best wishes for continued success.

DEATH CLAIMS WOMAN HERE

SERVICES SET TODAY FOR MRS. BRADLEY; HERE 23 YEARS

Funeral services for Mrs. J. M. Bradley, 72, a resident of this county for 23 years, were to be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Bradley residence, 1002 Avenue R, by the Rev. J. O. Haymes, First Methodist church minister. Burial will be in Lubbock cemetery, directed by Bynum-Stahler funeral home.

Mrs. Bradley, who suffered a stroke of partial paralysis last Wednesday, died at her home at 6:10 last night. Her husband was one of the first automobile dealers here.

Survived By One Son

Survivors are a son, H. P. Bradley of Lubbock; five sisters, Mrs. W. J. Tucker and Miss Tessie Rhea, both of Lubbock; Mrs. James Davis of Roby; Mrs. M. W. Rogers, Alice; and Mrs. W. T. Lawson, Lorena; and three brothers, J. H. Rhea of Lubbock; J. O. Rhea, Waco; and W. A. Rhea of Kansas. Mr. Bradley died in June, 1930.

Active pallbearers will be: W. E. Twitty, J. M. Kimmel, E. L. Robertson, E. L. Banks, B. B. Ater, and L. C. Ellis. Honorary pallbearers: W. N. Rogers, J. T. Inman, W. C. Bryan, J. J. Noah, D. P. Peek, O. L. Slaton, W. S. Posey, H. O. Waters, J. K. Wester, Ince English, and N. F. Minor.

Fergusonites Face Debate Challenge

H. H. Halsell, a leader here in the campaign for Orville Bullington, Republican gubernatorial candidate, Monday challenged any Ferguson supporter to a debate.

"I assert that a free American citizen has a right to cast his vote in any election as he pleases, without any abridgement. I further assert that Jim Ferguson is not a Democrat," Halsell declared.

"I challenge any Ferguson leader to a debate on the issue. If you are afraid to defend Fergusonism or your style of Democracy, then your cause is indefensible." He said he would permit any person accepting the challenge to name the date of the debate.

PENNY SUICIDE

VANCOUVER, B. C.—Fast work of L. Watson saved Mrs. Cora Durst from committing suicide. He saw her on the railing of a trestle about to jump in the water. He managed to get her back to the floor of the trestle before she lost her balance. She broke away from his grasp and made for the railing again. Constable McCallan saw the struggle and caught her. In her pockets were large quantities of pennies which she carried to make her sink.

BOYS WHO WORK OR PLAY TOO HARD MAY LAY FOUNDATION FOR AILMENTS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25. (AP)—Boys who work or play too hard may be laying the foundation for serious heart ailments in later years.

This was the conclusion today of Dr. Jerome Meyers of the New York City department of health. He presented results of a study to the American public health association at the opening of a four-day meeting here attended by 300 officers and research workers.

After studying the heart beats of 807 working boys of adolescent age, to learn the occurrence, characteristics and significance of "non-organic, pulmonic systolic" heart murmers, Dr. Meyers reported these murmers are warnings of future trouble.

"Such murmurs," he said, "were found five times more frequently than those indicating valvular heart disease. They were found more in boys doing much athletics and exposed to occupationaly strain, and in a certain number of cases disappeared on less exercise.

"It is felt that such murmurs, which have been regarded as of no pathological significance, are really signs of over-exertion and danger signals on the part of the circulatory system."

During the study, Dr. Meyers said, he had found a new kind of "delayed" pulmonic systolic murmur, not previously described in medical textbooks or literature. He warned physicians against the possibility of mistakenly diagnosing heart murmurs as valvular heart disease with resulting wrong treatment and harm to the patient.

CO-EDS TRIFLE VAGUE ON TERMS IN GRID GAME

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., Oct. 25. (AP)—Do pretty co-eds who cheer so wildly at football games know what all the shouting is about?

A survey of feminine football knowledge conducted by Katherina Raboglatti, reporter on the weekly student newspaper at Arizona State Teachers college here, indicates they are a trifle vague on terms.

Here are some of the answers the fair fans gave when asked to define their terms:

Huddle: When players fall on top of each other.

Punt: A term used in golf.

Off tackle play: When a player misses the man he is trying to tackle.

Quarterback sneak: When no one is looking the quarterback sneaks up on the ball.

Line smash: When the players bump into each other.

Quarterback: The player who does all the running.

Scouts To Collect Toys For Christmas

If you have any broken, discarded, or other toys you would give for repair by the Lubbock fire department and distribution to poor children by the Lions club, D. T. Jennings, South Plains Area council Boy Scout executive, asks that you so inform him at scout headquarters at telephone No. 695 or at his home at No. 2190-W. The toys will be given away at a party for poor children Christmas eve morning.

Boy Scouts will collect the toys Saturday. Firemen soon will begin painting and repairing the playthings. William H. Evans is chairman of the Lions club Christmas party committee. Executive Jennings asks also that persons willing to drive their automobiles, to transport scouts gathering the toys, so inform him at one of the telephone numbers.

$750 Cash Offered for Name Of Radio Singer

Reward Will Be Paid Everyone Who Submits Most Suitable Name

Here is another unusual announcement from Hollywood. A new Radio Singer to be featured in an old song program wants a Radio Name, and $750.00 Cash will be paid for the best suggestion. Readers may send their own name, or any other name they think of, as officials say any name may win the $750.00.

The Company featuring this Radio Girl in old song programs believes the Public will take a greater interest in these musical programs if they have a part in the selection of a Radio name for the Singer, and in order to secure suggestions quickly, $750.00 in cash is offered to anyone who is quick in sending the name selected. Officials say anyone has a chance to win this prize by sending their own name or the name of a friend or relative, or a coined name made up by them. Readers of this announcement are urged to send their suggestion for a name at once because $250.00 Extra will be given the winner if the name is mailed and postmarked before October 30, 1932; otherwise the reward is only $500. Just make the name easy to pronounce, and easy to remember, but send a name right away or you may be too late for the promptness prize.

The Rules of the Contest are very simple. All entries must be sent to Radio Director's Office, Studio Z503, 1023 N. Sycamore Ave., Hollywood, California. Officials of the Company say only one suggestion for a name must be submitted by each contestant; everyone but employes of the firm, or their relatives, are invited to submit a name, and in case of ties duplicate awards will be given. Readers may send their suggestion for a name on a postcard, or any kind of paper. The important thing is to send the name at once, because it means $750.00 in cash to everyone who is quick in sending the name selected.—Adv.

TECH COACHES CONCENTRATE EFFORTS FOR NOTRE DAME GAME

WESTERNERS WILL MEET BORGER FRIDAY AFTERNOON

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

Plenty of football for Lubbock folks this weekend. The Lubbock Westerners start the fireworks Friday afternoon when they meet the Borger High school Buildogs in a District 1 conference game. Tech's Matadors oppose the Notre Dame B team Friday night. On Saturday afternoon, Coach Al Baggett brings his Amarillo College Badgers to Lubbock for a tiff with Del Morgan's Picadors.

If that's not enough football to satisfy all the customers, something ought to be done about it. Just three games in two days. Well, that leaves Saturday night to go see a movie, and you oughta see that movie, too. Max Schmeling versus Mickey Walker. We're told it's one of the best fight films—beg pardon—THE best fight film ever filmed.

It'd be hard to forego any of the athletic attractions offered this week. They're all good. Outstanding, of course, is the college varsity game Friday night. There's no way of getting around the fact that the fans are saving their shekels for that particular engagement. There'll be a battle for you, and no foolin'. Before it's over, both teams will know more about the Notre Dame system than they did earlier in the day.

The football played here Friday night will be the old rough, rugged, back-to-nature type. Hard, smashing football originated at Notre Dame, and Tech follows that system from one end to the other. They've been called rough players, the Tech laddies—even charged with being dirty. It has been pointed out again and again that Tech doesn't play dirty football, but it takes a man to play for Tech and it takes a man-sized team to play against Tech. Notre Dame will do it, and like it. They've been brought up against the best football players Notre Dame has and they know what rough playing means. How nice it would be if some of those who criticize Tech's mode of playing, such as Texas A. M. players and followers, Baylor University's players and followers could look in on the Tech-Notre Dame game Friday night!

There'll be some officials out there who will let 'em go, too. Three of the officials are Ziggy Sears, Shanks Lipscomb and Bud Price—three of the best in the southwest. Ziggy's a hard man to get along with on a basketball court, but on a football field it's hard for the fans to tell one official from another, let alone see facial expressions, so Ziggy will let 'em go, too.

Announcement of the forced retirement of Amos Alonzo Stagg, the grand old man of American football, as head coach at the University of Chicago brought personal remorse to at least one Lubbock man. Tom Garrard of the local bar association never thinking it would get this far, got confidential with a Journal reporter the other day and told of some of his experiences at the University where Stagg coached for 40 years.

Mr. Garrard, the story goes, played football under Stagg about a quarter of a century ago. He does not profess to have been a star performer, but he was a halfback on the varsity squad. He was full of praise for his former coach.

"The 'Old Man' taught character along with football," said Mr. Garrard. "He wanted a man to play a square game rather than win dishonestly. Every time we had a pep meeting, the boys would remark about Stagg 'teaching us morals ahead of muscle.'"

Some of his mates, Garrard recalled, were Eckersall, "the greatest quarterback of all time, I think;" Walter Steffans, Hugh Beredck, Jess Harper, Walker, Catlin, Badenock, Boone, Kelley and De Tray. They are names to thrill the sport page readers of that time.

It was tough, that giving the gate to Stagg. And just at the time he was getting ready to show one of the greatest teams, too! Chicago will give its opponents plenty of fits this season. It would be kinda sad if the Maroons should win all their games, and then for Stagg to step down and out of the picture.

But this is the end of the stick. You'll excuse us while we go tune in on the Old Maestro and hear him play the Chicago Cubs' theme song: "'Twas Only a Summer Night's Dream."

GUARANTEE OFFERED

DALLAS, Oct. 25 (AP)—Coach Nick Dobbs of the Jefferson university Rangers said that Oklahoma A. & M. college had been offered a $3,000 guarantee to meet the Rangers here in a football game. The Sooner Aggies recently defeated Oklahoma City university, also beaten by the locals, and meet the University of Oklahoma in their game this week.

RAMBLERS DUE TO ENTRAIN TOMORROW

FIGHTING IRISH WILL MEET MATADORS ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Coach Pete Cawthon, Assistant Smith and the Matadors will call all their resources of football strategy to the front this week as they prepare for one of the outstanding conflicts of the entire season—Friday night's game against the Notre Dame B team.

The South Bend delegation will arrive in Lubbock on Thursday, which means that the squad leaves the campus tomorrow.

A light workout yesterday presaged heavy and careful drills for the balance of the week. There will be no dangerous scrimmages which invite injuries, but Tech coaches will lose no time and spare no efforts in whipping the club into top shape for one of the most important conflicts of the season.

Clark On Feet Again

With but few exceptions, the squadsmen reported in fine physical trim yesterday. Adrian Clark, flashy sophomore quarterback, and big Gwynn Dowell, sophomore halfback, appeared to have overcome the ailments of injured knees and were shuttling back and forth with apparent ease and ambition. Juicy Owens, regular tackle, was bungled up somewhat in the game Saturday against the Colorado Miners, but showed nothing serious. There are no serious injuries to mar practice sessions and forecast unpleasant possibilities for Friday night.

Coach Hunk Anderson of Notre Dame, who said "I guess I'll have to change my plans" upon learning of Tech's victory over S.M.U. and Arizona, is reported putting his B squad through heavy drills preparatory to rewarding the best looking 30 or 40 men with the trip south.

May Break Record

The Notre Dame B team, when at its top strength, has never been defeated, according to the head coach of the institution, and it is highly likely that enough bolstering will be done to provide one of the strongest teams of the school a trip to Lubbock.

Remarking that his team "looked terrible" against the Colorado Mines last Saturday, Coach Cawthon nevertheless was pleased with the individual work done by the Matadors, and blamed part of the poor showing to the distinct change of climate which made it "hard for 'em to breathe" in the higher altitude of Colorado.

By defeating the Miners, the Matadors registered their sixth victory of the season as against one defeat, and the 21 to 0 win provided the 199th point as against 14 by the seven opponents. In seven games, the Matadors have been scored against by only two teams, the Texas Aggies and the New Mexico Normal team at Las Vegas. On the home lot, no team has registered a point in opposition.

FAVOR LIFTING BROADCAST BAN

AUSTIN, Oct. 25 (AP)—Dr. D. A. Penick, president of the Southwest conference, said that a mail vote among members on lifting the ban against radio broadcasting of conference football games was favorable with the exception of certain conditions to which radio stations must agree.

He said the North Texas stations had agreed to those conditions but he had not heard from others. He expected to have a decision from the members by Thursday or Friday.

The conditions, it was learned, were that stations broadcasting any specific game should not make capital of publicity ahead of the contest and that free advertising be given conference games from time to time by cooperating stations.

Rice institute and the University of Arkansas were the only schools voting against lifting the ban. Southern Methodist, Texas Christian, Baylor university, Texas A. and M. and the University of Texas furnished the favorable majority, it was learned unofficially.

Chicago Frosh Ask Stagg Be Retained

CHICAGO, Oct. 25 (AP)—Virtually every member of the freshman football squad, who entered the University of Chicago "to play football under the "Old Man," today had signed a petition asking that A. A. Stagg be retained as head football coach.

Along with the 39 yearlings who signed, 31 members of the varsity squad, 198 members of eleven fraternities, and 70 from other groups had added their names to the request.

Football Fatalities Cut Down In Colleges By New Grid Code

MOST DEATHS CAUSED IN HIGH SCHOOLS AND SANDLOTS

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 25. (AP)—So far as the colleges are concerned, the new football code apparently has accomplished its primary purpose of making the game safer for the players, but high school and sandlot football seems just about as hazardous as before.

Of the 11 fatalities so far reported attributable directly or indirectly to football, only one has occurred in college ranks where the new rules are strictly effective. The others all came in high school or sandlot games where proper supervision and training is much more difficult and, in the case of sandlot contests at least, virtually impossible.

Changes Made

The 50 fatalities charged to football last year led to a series of drastic changes in the rules during the winter, eliminating the "flying wedge" on kickoffs, flying blocks and tackles, "rabbit punches" on the necks of linemen and an overhauling of the specifications for equipment to make it safer.

With the season now at the halfway mark, these rules seem to have eliminated many of the hazards of the game as it is played in the colleges under strict supervision.

The only fatality in college ranks was that of Hugh Martin Williams, 18, a freshman at Loyola of the South, who died of internal injuries after being kicked in the abdomen during a practice drill against the varsity.

Head Injuries Fatal

Five high school players, two sandlot competitors, two lads competing in neighboring games, and an academy player in Honolulu also have been fatally injured since the season opened. Head injuries caused most of these deaths, while several others were caused by the failure of the injured player to receive treatment after minor hurts.

ELIGIBILITY QUESTIONED

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 25 (AP)—Rumors of technical violation of eligibility rules by various southern conference athletes following the disqualification of Julian Foster, Vanderbilt end, for playing summer baseball, brought a telegram from Head Coach Dan McGugin of Vanderbilt, to Dr. C. P. Miles, conference president, suggesting that "rules relative to summer baseball have been long rather loosely administered."

FOOTBALL STAR PLAYS AFTER GIVING BLOOD

CLEVELAND, Oct. 25 (AP)—Don't be too quick to criticize if the star player of your favorite football team sometime fails to show his usual prowess.

Maybe, like 18-year-old Lester Fulton, he's a little bit weak from loss of blood—blood given, just before the game, to save his father's life.

Lester's friends at Collinwood High school found out today he played the entire game against Cleveland Heights, recently, only a few hours after giving a pint of his blood to his father, ill in a hospital. And another pint, just four weeks earlier.

Lester's coach did not learn of the transfusions until after Collinwood, with young Fulton at left tackle throughout, came out of the game the victor. Fearing he would have been kept out of the game, Lester had kept the transfusions a secret.

The boy's father, Olin Fulton, who has been in a serious condition, will be able to leave the hospital Thursday, doctors said. And Lester will play some more football.

SHARKEY WILL TAKE TIME

TO SELECT OPPONENT AND HOLD HIS NEXT BOUT AT BOSTON

BOSTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—Champion Jack Sharkey threatens to give Max Schmeling, "his outstanding challenger, a taste of his own medicine and make him wait two years for a return bout.

Johnny Buckley, the titleholder's manager, intimated as much yesterday when he warned President William F. Carey of Madison Square Garden that Sharkey was determined to defend his championship only in a Boston ring.

To Select Opponent

"When Sharkey defends his championship," Buckley told Carey, "it will be in a Boston ring and against an opponent of our selection. Sharkey is a Boston boxer, and would draw more money here than in any other city. He also believes that his home folk, who have traveled to all parts of the country to see him battle in the past, are entitled to an opportunity of watching him defend his title in a home ring.

"We are not prepared to state who Sharkey will agree to meet," Buckley continued. "There are several good heavyweights who would draw well with the champion. Max Schmeling, Primo Carnera, Stanley Poreda and Max Baer. Jack does not intend to dodge Schmeling, but there is plenty of time for a bout with Max. Besides, Schmeling kept Jack waiting for two years before he would give him a return match."

Carey, who came here to attend a meeting of the board of directors of the Boston garden, said:

"It looks to me as if Sharkey doesn't intend to meet Schmeling next summer."

THE WRONG HOUSE

EVANSVILLE, Ind.—The Burkets have a dog to protect their house from burglars. Recently Mrs. Burket and her husband went to visit her father-in-law, leaving the dog at home to watch the house. While she was at her father-in-law's, someone broke into his home and stole her purse.

"COLLEGE BRED" NOT FOUR-YEAR LOAF THIS TIME

DETROIT, Oct. 25 (AP)—That fellow who wisecracked about "college bred" meaning a "four year loaf" wasn't referring to Collis Cantine, captain of the Detroit City college cross country team.

Because, although Cantine doesn't burn any midnight oil, he pumps a lot of it, among other things.

From 10 p. m. until 6 a. m. he works at a gasoline station.

After working all night, he does his cross country training by running from one to four miles before breakfast. He sleeps until noon.

Then he attends classes until 7 p. m.

After studying for a couple of hours or so, he dashes down to the gasoline station and starts all over again.

Cantine has tied for first in the two cross country meets in which his team has engaged this fall.

He is a junior.

Betty Robinson In New Comeback Try

EVANSTON, Ill., Oct. 25 (AP)—Betty Robinson, women's Olympic 100-meter champion in 1928, who nearly lost her life in an airplane accident sixteen months ago, planned to start her second comeback attempt today.

After lying for months in a hospital following the air crash, Betty recovered enough to return to classes in the school of physical education at Northwestern university. Her first comeback try, an attempt to make the 1932 Olympic team, failed because of stiffness in her left arm and leg, both fractured in the accident.

She spent the summer swimming and taking special exercises, and today was ready to go back to work on the track under the direction of Coach Frank Hill.

TWO TEAMS TO MEET FIRST TIME HERE

TECH PICADORS WILL FACE BADGERS FROM AMARILLO SAT.

Meeting for the first time, the Borger High school Bulldogs and Lubbock High school Westerners will clash here Friday afternoon in the opening contest of the District 1 conference season for Lubbock.

The game will start at 3:30 o'clock, a prelude to the Tech-Notre Dame game, at Matador Field.

E. J. 'Pinky" Lowrey, business manager of athletics at Lubbock High, made the announcement yesterday following negotiations between officials of the two schools. The game was originally scheduled for Friday afternoon, but because of the Notre Dame game on Friday night there was talk of transferring it to Borger, or playing it here on Saturday afternoon.

Coach Del Morgan's Texas Tech freshmen, conquerors of the varsity reserves last week, will meet the Amarillo College Badgers at Matador Field Saturday afternoon in another of the week's football features.

The high school officials reached the decision to play the game here after protests from players and fans who wanted to see the Tech-Notre Dame game were considered. It was thought the Tech game would draw a large crowd of Borger fans who might not be present if the high school game were not to be played.

It's the depression, license bureau clerks at Memphis, Tenn., said, when marriage licenses declined from 1,351 from the January-September period of 1931 to 1,030 in the same period of 1932.

Babe Invades Grid

There doesn't seem to be anything in the field of athletics that this young lady can't do. Know her? Sure, it's the one and only Babe Didrikson, of Dallas, Texas, who starred at the recent Olympics. Here she is demonstrating her ability at football.

SCIENCE GOES TO DESERT IN EFFORT TO SOLVE MYSTERIES OF ACOUSTICS

BY W. B. CLAUSEN
Associated Press Staff Writer

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Oct. 25. (AP)—Science has gone to the desert solitudes in an effort to solve mysteries of acoustics. Results of the experiments may help to deaden noises in homes, theaters and all places of public gathering.

Dr. Vern O. Knudsen, associate professor of physics at the University of California, Los Angeles, is making excursions into the sandy areas of silence, while his co-workers are conducting laboratory experiments which suggest they are on the verge of a new discovery.

Study of Molecules

It is all just a study of molecules, another evidence of the big part these small things play in everything that exists.

Dr. Knudsen has worked out theoretical and experimental data indicating the weather plays a part in carrying noise. It is the function of absorption of sound waves by the molecules that is under study.

Evidence so far obtained indicates that humidity, or moisture, aids the travel of sound, and that in air more dry, sound finds the traveling harder, being absorbed more rapidly as it moves on, hence does not get so far.

Tests Conducted

Actual experiments are being carried on in the desert by Dr. Knudsen in measuring the travel distance, or absorption values, of sound waves.

The real secret of physics sought is not merely that it may be more difficult for sound to travel through dry air than moist air, but to know the actual conditions of structure of the molecules that cause this.

The result will mean progress in both directions, not only the bringing into noisy places a bit of the silence of the desert, but to create conditions wheer sound can be made to tavel more freely, for such uses of signaling or other practical applications.

Criminal Docket In Court Here Heavy

Judge Clark M. Mullican of 99th district court has set aside the weeks beginning November 21, November 28, and December 5 for trial of cases on an unusually heavy criminal docket, Assistant District Attorney Burton S. Burks said yesterday.

All cases are set for trial the first week, and each will be tried as soon as possible. Trial of A. L. Tudor, elderly Slaton coal and grain dealer, charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting October 12 of Dr. S. H. Adams at Slaton also is scheduled.

J. E. Aldredge, former Muleshoe banker, will face two charges of false entry as a result of a change of venue from Bailey county, Burks said.

WOMAN FOUND DEAD

DALLAS, Oct. 25 (AP)—Mrs. Rhena Whitson, 24, was found dead at her home here last night, a gas tube in her mouth and a quilt wrapped around her head. Efforts to revive her by artificial resuscitation were unsuccessful. Justice of the Peace J. H. Moore returned a coroner's verdict that her death was "due to asphyxiation."

CHILD MISSING

CLEVELAND, Oct. 25 (AP)—Eight-year-old Ebert Halloren, missing from his home for two days, was sought by police of Cleveland, Newburg Heights and Cayahoga Heights today. His mother, Mrs. George W. Halloren, said "I know Ebert did not run away," and police considered a kidnaping theory.

Thought For Today

Now this I say, brethern, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.—I Corinthians 15:50.

No man is a hypocrite in his pleasures.—Johnson.

Leaves The Field

That part of the country which is interested in football—which is to say, practically everybody—is beyond doubt truly sorry to learn that Alonzo Stagg is in his last season as head coach at the University of Chicago.

Of all the coaches in the land, Stagg is probably the most deeply admired. And the admiration he has won, it seems to us, is of an exceptionally worth-while kind.

Stagg is not famous as a "winning coach." He has turned out some great stars and some great teams, but there are plenty of coaches who have far better winning records. Staff has won popular affection not so much because of what he can do as because of what he is.

The acclaim that greets him is simply the public's way of showing that it knows him to be an exceptionally fine man to have a bunch of boys under his care every fall, whether he teaches them football or ping-pong. The boast that football "builds character" comes closer to truth in Stagg's case than anywhere else.

"Real" Beer

When the last Congress was urged to modify the Volstead act to permit the sale of beer of 2.75 per cent alcoholic content, a number of ardent wets opposed the move on the ground that such beer would not be "real" beer, and hence would not satisfy the hordes of thirsty. It was suggested that, to be palatable to a devoted beer drinker, the beverage must contain no less than 6 or 7 per cent of alcohol.

Now comes Colonel Jacob Ruppert, formerly one of the country's leading brewers, to explain that the best beer in the old days had an alcoholic content of just 3 per cent.

The proposed 2.75 per cent beer would fall short of that, but not as far short as a lot of people tried to tell us. And even the 3 per cent variety, it is safe to say, would fall below the kicking capacity of most of the needled alley beer that gets on the market these days.

Flapper Fanny

—A stilted air is a dangerous pose for folks on uncertain footing.

That Girl on Broadway says with wives running to bridge clubs and husbands to golf clubs, no wonder it looks like modern marriage is based on the 'club offer' plan.

Wonder what Thomas Jefferson would think of some of the candidates who are claiming to be his disciples?

AT exactly 7:12 a. m. yesterday The Plainsman happened to be gazing out of the window of The Journal office and perceived a lone pedestrian settling himself at the corner of the Citizens National bank building. He propped one foot behind him—apparently ready for the day.

Wondering why he should settle himself so early in the day and in the chill morning air with no one to converse with, your humble servant was reminded of a crack he heard way back in 1922.

The Plainsman was then working on a paper in a railroad center and the shopmen were out on strike.

The strike had lasted for several weeks, hundreds of men were idle and there was no prospect of a settlement.

One morning about 6 o'clock, the writer dropped into a restaurant and took a seat along side an attorney for the railroad and the subject of the strike bobbed up.

"Why don't you fellows get together?" The Plainsman asked the lawyer. "You know those shopmen want to get back to work. Look out there along the curb. There's a hundred of them downtown all ready—and they wouldn't be around this early if they were enjoying their enforced vacaton".

"Huh", snorted the railroad official as he bit into his doughnut. "You don't know those birds like I do. They're down this early so's they will have longer to loaf!"

WHETHER the statement were true, or whether the railroad official was merely prejudiced makes no difference now, but it does lend an idea.

Perhaps there are some people who don't care how long Hoover prosperity lasts—the longer it lasts the longer they'll have to loaf!

Speaking before the Amarillo Kiwanis club yesterday, Doctor Bradford Knapp told an applicable story.

Explaining that he had been asked upon many occasions since moving to this section just what he thought of West Texas, the Tech president remarked:

"They tell a story about a traveling man driving through the old South, when he came across a little negro, backed up against a stump holding a huge watermelon.

"Part of the melon was eaten, but a greater part of it was still untouched and the little black boy was surveying it longingly.

"'What's the matter, boy?' the traveler asked. 'You got too much melon?'

"'Naw sah', the kid replied, 'ain't no sech thing as too much melon. Just too little niggah!'"

It's impossible, says the educator, for one man to view the entire of West Texas and to realize its potentialities.

JUST how critical the national election is in the GOP stronghold may be readily seen by the way our Republican friends are grasping at the last straw, in a practically futile effort to stave off defeat.

Screaming "Don't Change Horses In The Middle of The Stream", Mr. Hoover's managers have launched a boogey-boo campaign in Eastern business circles and are fawnching about the country howling that a Democratic victory will "set us back in our march out of depression".

They are spreading a false gospel of fear, pulling a worn out political Hallowe'en stunt, hoping, of course, to cause industrialists to force, if possible, their employes into voting for four more years of bungling.

The Plainsman was talking yesterday to a man who has lost a great deal of money in the last three years but who is still swearing that he'll vote again for a continuation of what they told us was 'Republican Prosperity'.

"I'm against changing doctors in a crisis", he said. "It won't do".

You can call it changing doctors, if you want to, but a fellow with tonsilitis is using poor judgment in sticking with a doctor who has cut off one of his legs in the treatment of the ailment and is crying to cut off the other one to cure a sore throat!

That Man on Avenue Q says his wife isn't interested in the new discussion of part-time jobs. She's had to spend so many evenings at home alone that she swears she's married to a part-time husband.

* * *

"Any orders while I was out?" asked the store-keeper as he rushed back from lunch here yesterday.

"Yes sir, one", replied a clerk "A fellow came in and ordered me to put up my hands while he robbed the cash register".

YOU football fans who are disappointed over not getting the best of seats for the Tech-Notre Dame game this coming Friday night because you didn't make reservations early enough, can mark it down to experience and remember to get busy earlier next tme.

Particularly interesting to grid bugs will be the Tech-Baylor game on the afternoon of Armistice Day and there will be another crush for ducats.

Watch the papers for announcement of advance seat sales and get yours so early that you won't be disappointed on that holiday feature.

There's Something in the Air!

Republican Old Guard Of The Senate In Danger Of Being Wiped Out; Veteran Wheel Horses Are About To Retire

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—To the addict of the Senate galleries, no one thing in the campaign is more distressing than the possibility that the most famous of the old Republican wheel horses are about to be retired to private life.

The Old Guard actually seems to be in danger of being wiped out. If we lose Reed Smoot of Utah, Jim Watson of Indiana, George Moses of New Hampshire and Wesley Jones of Washington hardly anyone will be able to recognize the next Senate when it convenes.

Dutcher

All are said to be threatened with defeat, although it is not inconceivable that each one will pull successful through. They have been in the Senate longer than any other of the regular Republicans except Freddie Hale of Maine, who is not up for re-election this year.

* * *

Smoot, the serious-minded 70-year-old chairman of the Finance Committee, co-father of the present tariff act and famous foe of improper literature, has been in the Senate ever since 1903, longer than any other member.

A conservative of conservatives and a regular of regulars, he has plodded through a long and distinguished but not brilliant career of service to his party and his state.

Now he finds Prof. Elbert D. Thomas, who teaches history and political science at the University of Utah and nominee of the Democrats, running ahead of him in the straw votes by a healthy majority. Silver mining is stagnant in Utah and prices on wool and other crops are down. Smoot consequently has a real fight on his hands and must convince the voters that the Democrats, if in power, would lower tariff rates and put them in a worse hole than they are in now.

"Sunny Jim" Watson's chances are reported considerably poorer than Smoot's. Dispatches from Indiana have the veteran Republican floor leader dashing more or less frantically around the state in what appears to be a lost cause, after a career which carried him first to the House in 1894 and made him a senator in 1916.

The Republican party in Indiana is said to be in bad shape and Jim, who won only by 11,000 votes in 1926, has a strong, progressive Democratic opponent in Frederick Van Nuys.

Roosevelt is expected to carry Indiana and Watson also has against him the weight of a strong Democratic state ticket which includes Paul V. McNutt, former American Legion commander, for governor. Watson has been making speeches about the benefit of the Hawley-Smoot tariff which are said to have failed to diminish his unpopularity.

One would automatically assume that George Higgins Moses was assured of re-election in New Hampshire, but authoritive advices from the battlefield say he is rather more likely to be defeated by Fred H. Brown, who was nominated by the Democrats.

George Higgins is the Senate's president pro tem, and also its champion wisecracker. He has been wisecracking through the campaign but has experienced difficulty in wisecracking off the depression or the charges that he raised the religious issue in the 1928 presidential campaign.

Brown is a public service commissioner, a strong and shrewd candidate, and the friends of Governor Winant, Republican, apparently are doing little to save the skin of George Higgins. Many Republicans are expected to vote for Winant and Brown. At any rate, the fate of George Higgins is doubtful.

Jones, author of the "Five and Ten" prohibition law and chairman of the powerful Appropriations Committee, may win because of a tendency of conservative Democrats in Washington to resert his opponent, Homer T. Bone.

The latter is a Tacoma lawyer and head of the city port. He is denounced as a radical because he is a fighter for public ownership. He will also poll a large wet vote against Jones and some observers think he will win.

NO DRUNK LIZARDS

WASHINGTON, D. C., — The natives of Petite Gonave Island believe that the only safe way to capture the iguanas or giant lizards is to get them drunk by putting rum in the hollows of the rocks along the seashore. Imagine their surprise when members of the Smithsonian Institution expedition captured six of these great lizards by hand as well as two birds never before known to science.

China has accepted the Lytton report on Manchuria from the League of Nations. Unfortunately, however, it isn't something to eat.

A couple of football players were arrested for robbery the other day. Maybe the game is becoming more honest, after all.

Candidate Roosevelt is classed as a "gentleman farmer," that is one who does not run his farm for profit. The woods have been full of those "gentleman farmers" during the last few years.

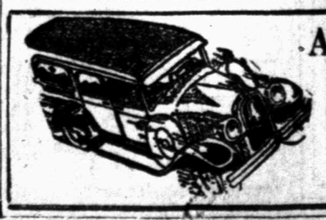

Now that the football season is well underway, nominations are being received for successor to the mantle worn by the Boston Red Sox.

Side Quit Hurting, Got Stronger, Well; CARDUI Helped Her

Mrs. R. L. West, of Huntsville, Ala., writes: "I was weak and run-down. I had a pain in my side, and I kept losing weight. I grew nervous over my condition—this was unusual for me, for I am very cheerful when I am well and don't easily get nervous. I knew I ought to take something. My aunt told me I ought to try Cardui, which I did. I began to feel better. I kept it up until I had taken three or four bottles. My side quit hurting and I was soon feeling strong and well."

Cardui is sold at drug stores here.

As Brought Over Associated Press Wires Today

(By The Associated Press)

Fair Exchange

CORSICANA—A bull yearling for two bushels of potatoes is a fair trade, think Sam B. Jordan and Henry Hall. Hall offered the potatoes at 35 cents a bushel, with no taker. Likewise Jordan found no offers for a calf he wanted to sell. Meeting in the courthouse, they swapped even.

Still Doing It

EVANSVILLE, Ind. — Sirens screeching, five fire companies pulled up in front of St. Mary's hospital. Jumping from their trucks, they found a man trying o mail a letter in the alarm box.

Ready To Vote

FORT MORGAN, Colo.—Mrs. Josephine Irwin waited 70 years to vote. At 91, she has just registered to cast her first ballot this November. She would not vote while her husband lived because they differed in parties. After his death she felt no need of voting until this election, she said.

Forgets Self

ROME—Sailor Giuseppe Valentano got a silver medal because he thought of others, forgot himself. The submarine N-6, the award disclosed, started to go down with the conning tower open off Taranto. Valentano, in the tower at the time, leaped to the deck and closed the hatch, from the ouside. He was left adrift in the ocean and was nearly dead when picked up. The submarine later returned safely to the surface.

A Spud Queen

MILWAUKEE—Miss Lelah Stark knows her potatoes. Her farm produced this year 250 bushels per acre on 240 acres, something like 60,000 bushels of "spuds" in all. From fifty to 70 bushels per acre is considered good farming in Oneida county, where her farm is situated. That's why they call her the "potato queen."

Under The Ether

WAYNESBURG, Pa.—Struck by a hit-and-run driver, Ralph Conway was taken to a hospital with a fractured skull. Police charged Raymond Throckmorton operated the machine and promptly escorted him to jail.

Throckmorton developed an attack of acute appendicitis. As he opened his eyes in the hospital he found Conway in the next cot.

Zasu Pitts testified the other day that she never attends movies, not even her own. We suppose that even a taxicab driver gets bored with his own work now and then.

DRIVE BITTER IN MISSOURI

"BOSSISM" IS HURLED BY BOTH PARTIES IN HEATED CAMPAIGN

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Oct. 25 (AP).—A "one-issue campaign" which started out with unusual mildness but recently has developed into one of the most bitter in Missouri's annals, is being waged for political control in this border state.

Charges, denials, counter-charges and counter-denials of "bossism" have been shouted from the stump in the far corners of the state, and the issue has become the outstanding one of the campaign.

Democrats Hit Back

First raised by the Republicans against Thomas J. Pendergast, head of the powerful Kansas City Democratic organization, the Democrats have hit back, charging that the two major Republican candidates, Henry W. Kiel and Lieut. Gov. E. H. Winter, nominees for the United States senate and governor, respectively, were "handpicked" by Arthur M. Hyde, secretary of agriculture, and Dr. E. D. Clements, Republican national committeeman.

Francis M. Wilson, who had the support of Pendergast in the primary for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, hich he decisively won over State Senator Russell L. Dearmont, anti-Pendergast candidate, died in mid-campaign, leaving it to the state central committee to select his successor.

Charges Renewed

Out of a long list of avowed and potential candidates, Pendergast supported Circuit Judge Guy B. Park of Platte City, life-long friend of Mr. Wilson. One by one the candidates dropped out in face of the power of Judge Park's supporters, leaving the nomination to him without a fight, and the Republicans, as their state chairman, Arthur M. Curtis, expressed it, renewed "with increased vigor," their cry of bossism.

Once regarded as safely Democratic, Missouri has gone Republican in the last three presidential elections. The Democrats, however, have continued successful in "off-year" elections.

Due to the failure of Gov. Henry S. Caulfield, Republican, and the last Democratic legislature to agree on a redistricting bill, Missouri's thirteen representatives in congress will be elected at large. Missouri lost three representatives under the last apportionment.

Ever since the August primary, when the Democratic vote exceeded the Republican by more than 260,000, Democratic leaders have repeatedly claimed Missouri for Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt. The Republicans, on the other hand, claim there recently has been a steady drift in favor of President Hoover.

fed, clothed, sheltered, and given medical attention by the Salvation Army here. Its quarters are a dingy frame building at 1404 Texas avenue.

Bureau Established

As an experiment, to relieve distress here, the agency recently established a bureau for cotton growers and jobless cotton pickers and through Monday had aided more than 650 persons in obtaining employment in the fields, and more than 85 farmers in obtaining pickers.

The following farmers, the Salvation Army announced, have expressed appreciation to the agency for the service it extended them, aided by the Avalanche-Journal newspapers:

AL SMITH

intolerance."

Raps GOP Plank

Smith claimed authorship of the Democratic repeal plank and assailed the Republican plank as holding out "a sop to the wets and a little bone to the drys." He called on New Jersey to make the senate Democratic at the next session by electing Percy Stewart to succeed the late Dwight Morrow.

And in conclusion, he said the "election of the Democratic ticket is the best way to solve these problems and the best way to bring back prosperity—the election of Roosevelt and Garner."

His return to the armory where he made a prohibition speech in 1928 bore the aspects of the homecoming of a hero. The crowd that jammed the cavernous drill shed, with its bunting draped rafters and its criss-cross of brilliant spotlights, cheered wildly.

Given Ovation

On his way from the Holland tunnel, in Jersey City, thousands jammed the streets, welcoming Smith with horns and fireworks.

In the foggy stretch through the dark Passaic and Hackensack meadows, there was a reception for him. In Harrison, fire apparatus parked along the curb opened sirens to whip the cheers into a crescendo.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady, unchanged to 8 higher on steadier Liverpool cables, cold rains in the southwest and trade buying. Dec. 6.15; Jan. 6.21; March 6.32; May 6.41; July 6.48.

Some southern selling was reported but it was in comparatively small volume, while there seemed to be considerable buying for the trade and through houses with Liverpool, continental and Japanese connections. December contracts sold up to 6.18 and March to 6.32, making net advances of about 8 to 10 points on active positions and while the volume of business tapered off, prices were holding steady within 2 or 3 points of the best at the end of the first half hour.

The census report showing 7,311,208 bales ginned prior to October 18 was a shade above the average of recent private estimates, but not sufficiently so to make any particular impression on the immediate market. Liverpool cables said that hedging had been absorbed by farm board buying and general buying promoted by the weakness in sterling, and reported a fair cloth demand from the Lancashire outlets generally.

Trade buying continued later in the morning, but the demand from Liverpool tapered off after the close of the English market, and prices sagged off from the best under New Orleans and southern selling combined with some scattering liquidation. At midday December was ruling around 6.11 with active months generally about net unchanged to 1 point higher.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 25. (AP)—Cotton opened steady as Liverpool came in better than due while sterling was lower. First trades here showed gains of 3 to 4 points and the market continued to improve after the start, mainly on the cables, and December traded up to 6.20 and March to 6.31, or 8 to 10 points above yesterday's close.

The census bureau report on cotton ginned to October 16, showing a total of 7,311,208 running bales, was slightly more than expected and as a result prices eased 2 to 4 points from the top near the end of the first hour.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Oct. 25 (AP) — Big breaks in British exchange rates knocked wheat prices quickly down a cent a bushel today. Season low price records not yet more than 24 hours old were outdone in wheat.

Opening unchanged to 1-2 lower, wheat soon dropped all around. Corn started unchanged to 1-4 off and subsequently underwent a general setback.

Livestock Market

KANSAS CITY REPORT

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 25 (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—Hogs 5,000; no directs; fairly active, steady to 10 lower than Monday's average; top 3.25 on 190-290 lbs.; 140-350 lbs 3.00-25; packing sows 275-500 lbs 2.25-85; stock pigs 70-130 lbs 2.60-3.00.

Cattle 6,500; calves 800; killing classes opening fully steady; stockers and feeders slow and steady; best fed steers early 7.25; several loads held higher; bulk killing calves 4.00 down.

Steers, 600-1500 lbs 5.75-8.75; 600 lbs up 2.75-5.75; heifers 550-850 lbs 5.00-7.50; cows 2.65-4.25; vealers (milk-fed), 3.00-5.50; stocker and feeder steers, 4.00-6.00.

Sheep 6,000; native lambs around 10 higher; odd lots sheep steady; no range lambs sold early; best held above 5.50; lambs 90 lbs down 4.85-5.50; ewes 150 lbs down 1.00-2.00; feeder lambs 50-75 lbs 4.25-75.

Have 15 Days

The commission, statutory regulator of the state's conservation laws, announced that attorneys would be given fifteen days in which to draw a decree and have it entered and that pending that function proration laws would be strictly enforced against all operators in the area.

Governor R. S. Sterling said he was not fearful that the court decision would upset the state's program of conservatism of its oil pools. He stated he did not believe it would be necessary to convene the Texas legislature into special session to rectify any flaws in the conservation laws as a result of the court's action.

The court held the railroad commission had based its proration of production in East Texas on market demand rather than in consideration of physical waste.

TOUGH ON ONE ENGINEER

There were no signals in the early days of railways — when drivers of trains met on a single track they had to argue it out. Later, a post was erected midway between stations so that "he who passed the pillar must go on, and the other go back."

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP)—Stock traders all but suspended operations in today's market, awaiting the action of the U. S. Steel directors on that company's preferred dividend after the close of the trading session.

The list moved narrowly in one of the dullest sessions of the year, but developed a somewhat heavy tone as the session wore on. Prices stiffened a little in the first hour, but such scant gains as were recorded were quickly lost, and by early afternoon, several issues had slipped a point or more below yesterday's final prices.

Drug, Inc., was a weak feature, losing more than 3 points, and the biscuit stocks were again under pressure, both National Biscuit and Loose Wiles losing nearly 2 points. Issues off a point or so included American Telephone, U. S. Steel common and preferred, Allied Chemical, Reynolds "B", Case, United Aircraft, McKeesport and Corn Products. Most price changes, however, were limited to fractions.

KANE TRIAL

jority of which are for the state.

Mrs. Arch Black of Matador, former wife of Cunningham who was estranged from him for nearly a score years, is expected to be one of the principal state witnesses. She was granted a divorce from Cunningham about a year and a half before he was slain, although she had not lived with him for many years. Mrs. Black was half owner in the ranch property at... is at present residing there.

Neighbors Summoned

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Evans, who lived about a 100 yards from Cunningham's house, have been summoned both by state and defense.

Ten major witnesses are expected to make their appearance in the trial which will occupy the remainder of this week.

Jurors selected Monday to try the case are: Robert McGuire, department store manager, Floydada; W. H. Brock, McCoy farmer; W. Edd Brown, retired wheat farmer; F. H. Phillips, ginner; and O. G. Glassmoyer, farmer; Clayton Cox, farmer; William Wood, farmer; C. H. Rose, Lockney farmer; O. E. Wicker, Lockney farmer; E. E. Dyer, Lockney hardware merchant; J. B. Houston, Floydada department store manager; and Morg Hamilton, Lockney grocer.

Herriot Will Give His Foreign Policy

PARIS, Oct. 25 (AP)—As the chamber of deputies re-assembled today, Premier Edouard Herriot was declared ready at once to define his foreign policy—involving the difficult war debts issue—and to demand immediate endorsement.

Sources close to the premier said he was insistent "in view of coming events" that the foreign policy of his government be fully aired immediately, and its line of action solidly endorsed or rejected before anything else is done.

Father Is Mistaken For Prowler, Shot

TYLER, Oct. 25 (AP)—Father and son, each searching their home in the dark for a prowler early Monday, met in a hallway and the son fired. Today Joe S. Alexander was in a critical condition in a hospital from a wound where a bullet pierced his lung.

Mrs. Alexander had awakened and thought she heard a prowler. Not wishing to disturb her husband, she roused her son and asked him to search the house. Alexander meanwhile had awakened and started through another room into the hallway, where the shooting occurred.

His wife and son were prostrated with grief.

The body of a full-grown elephant contains about 70 gallons of pure oil.

POETRY STUDENT SHOOTS PARENTS, THEN SUICIDES

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 25. (AP)—Leaving a note saying "I have been murdered by a ghost—a devil," Thomas C. Patterson, 27, student of exotic poetry, killed his mother, father and himself Monday.

The bodies were found in the family home in an exclusive residential district.

Samuel Patterson, 67, the father, wealthy coal operator of the Pocahontas field, had been shot with a revolver and struck with a hatchet.

Mrs. Patterson was killed by a shot in the forehead.

The son died from loss of blood after slashing his wrists.

There will be no inquest.

Besides the youth's body was the note, signed with a swastika-like signature which friends identified as the signature he used in personal correspondence. "I have been murdered by a ghost—a devil," the note read. "I wish to be cremated. Homicide manic I am sorry."

DIXIE

away up north. Other negroes who never heard of Manhattan took up the expression "I wish I wuz on Dixie's lan'." To them it simply was a paradise where the yams were sweet, the pork chops lean and the sweet potatoes red.

Emmett, an actor who had trouped in the south, was filling a Broadway engagement when the management asked him to write a song—"something catchy that the boys on the street will pick up."

It was a dreary Sunday when he picked up his fiddle and tried to think. Cold winds drove snow against his window panes. He thought of the south. "I wish I was in Dixie," he mused.

On and on he worked, furiously lest the rhythm flee—"Den I wish I wuz in Dixie! Hooray! Hooray."

He sang it in New York not far from old man Dixie's land which had become the sidewalks of New York.

It was in 1859 that Emmett sang Dixie in New Orleans. The south had never heard it before. Even then war clouds were gathering over the servitude of the south's negroes—many of them descendants of old man Dixie's slaves.

And so a band of southerners came here and formed the confederacy. The band played Mississippi's "Bonny Blue Flag." The crowd was quiet. Then the band struck Dixie.

"I wish I wuz in de lan' ob cotton—"

A man whooped. Another shouted.

"Lookaway to Dixie land—"

It echoed across the plains of Alabama to the Texas cattle country and back across "De lan' ob Cotton" to Virginia. And it became the rebel yell, the battle cry that followed a Yankee minstrel tune called Dixie.

Conspiracy Trial Is Recessed Today

RIO GRANDE CITY, Oct. 25 (AP)—Twenty-five prosecution witnesses were present today as the trial of eight Donna, Texas, citizens charged with conspiracy to assassinate three political rivals got under way.

Soon after court opened, however, Judge Hood Boone of this district court, granted a recess until 3 o'clock this afternoon to permit the assembling of a special venire from which to select a jury and to give defense attorneys time to notify 75 witnesses from Hidalgo county.

Hoover Discusses War On Diseases

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—President Hoover favors government encouragement of a program to reduce contagious diseases "as a constructive measure of public economy."

He supported this action before the American Public Health association last night, in a brief address to the opening meeting of a four-day session here.

tourist camp in the 1900-block of Avenue H yesterday by police, is wanted at Tyler on several charges, which were not specified, police here were informed. The man, arrested for investigation, was held for Tyler authorities.

Bicycles Stolen

David Childers, 2005 Tenth street; Clarence Johnson, Benson addition, and Forest White, 2217 Seventh street, have reported their bicycles stolen. V. T. Mullin, 612 Avenue O, reported a tire, a tube, and a rim were stolen Sunday.

Sixteen rabbits owned by Ina Walls, 802 Avenue G, were reported stolen Sunday.

Police arrested three persons for investigation, two for vagrancy, and one for drunkenness yesterday. The accused vagrants were freed on appearance bond of $15 each. A man pleaded guilty of drunkenness and paid a $15 fine.

Five negroes pleaded guilty of gambling with dice and were assessed fines and costs totaling $14.15 each in Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell's court this morning.

Thirty misdemeanor and felony cases were filed in Justice of the Peace Connell's court Monday as a result of week-end activities of city and county officers.

Nine of fifteen Mexicans, arrested Saturday night by police, pleaded guilty of gaming and were fined $1 and costs each. Five persons pleaded guilty of drunkenness and four of vagrancy.

Wife Charges Mate

A Lubbock man, who yesterday made $100 bond, was charged by his former wife with seriously threatening her life. The ex-wife was arrested by police Sunday for operating a bawdy house. The case was transferred to county officers and this morning no complaint had been filed.

A burglary charge was filed against Preston Carver, a theft drawn against Willie Jones, a negro, who this morning was released by police for lack of evidence, and a charge of concealing stolen property against W. L. Johnson. A Lubbock man was named in a complaint alleging malicious destruction of personal property. Frank Hamlin was named in a liquor law violation complaint.

Two Mexicans, one 32 and the other 19, were held in county jail today in connection with theft from a drygoods store in the 1100-block of Broadway.

Tariff Commission Inquiry Is Begun

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—Accompanied by President Hoover's request for quick action, the tariff commission today had a list of 18 industries in 30 states before it for investigations into the adequacy of existing import duties.

Mr. Hoover submitted the list "of industries and localities where there has been actual increase of unemployment or alternatively where it is inevitable that it will increase from importations" and directed Chairman O'Brien to investigate the tariff rates in connection with depreciated currencies abroad.

EXILED CHOW TO BE HONORED AS A HEROINE

BALTIMORE, Oct. 24 (AP) — Saved once by a judge after she had been sentenced to death for biting two children, Ming Toy, a chow exiled from Baltimore, is going to New York this Saturday to be honored as a heroine.

Ming Toy will be decorated with a silver medal of the New York anti-vivisection society for saving the lives of 17 other dogs during a kennel fire. At the ceremonies also will be other dogs whose acts have caused the society to give them honors.

When the chow's litter of six puppies, last spring, was only a few hours old, she nipped two neighboring children. A magistrate sentenced Ming Toy to die but gave her a stay while she mother her puppies. The order was modified later and the judge banished the dog to Delaware. Later she was returned to a kennel near Baltimore.

On the night of Aug. 11, fire broke out at the kennel. Ming Toy chewed her leather harness loose and dashed about the burning building, barking madly. The attendant, sleeping some distance away, was aroused. Three dogs lost their lives in the flames.

WEATHER

Texas tonight. Frost in the extreme northwest portion of East Texas was forecast, with cloudy skies and colder weather in other areas.

The first snow of the season—a few flurries of big flakes that melted as they touched the ground—fell in Amarillo and vicinity about midnight last night and again early today, but by noon the skies had cleared and a forecast of frost was made for tonight. A new low temperature for the season, 34 degrees, was registered last night. A brisk wind was drying roads in the Panhandle today.

North Texas felt its first real taste of winter. The thermometer at Wichita Falls, fell 42 degrees in less than 12 hours, reaching a minimum of 43 early today. A slow cold rain was reported over all of North Texas and Oklahoma. There was snow and sleet in Oklahoma and snow in the Texas Panhandle. The mercury fell to 30 degrees at Texline and 34 at Amarillo.

Bullington Is To Be Here Thursday

Orville Bullington, Republican candidate for governor, of Wichita Falls will speak in behalf of his candidacy at 8 o'clock Thursday night in the district criminal courtroom on the third floor of the Lubbock county courthouse, John L. Vaughan, postmaster and Republican chieftain here, has announced. The place of meeting was changed to the district courtroom.

BLANTON

Blanton here late on the evening before the hijackings," Moore, constable-elect, said last night. "This witness knew Blanton before Saturday. He told us Blanton was wearing whiskers then."

A light coupe, said to be owned by the suspect, was located at Hobbs, N. M., about 12:30 a. m Monday, Moore said. The car was being returned to Lubbock when engine trouble necessitated repairs at Seagraves, where the machine was last night.

Could Prove Alibi

"If they would give me half an hour I could prove I was in Amarillo at that time," Blanton said yesterday afternoon. He traced what he said were his movements on the night Tharp was wounded at M System store No. 1 at Broadway and Avenue Q. Blanton gave names of persons he said he was with, places they visited, and the time.

Blanton, a member of Battery B, 131st field artillery at Amarillo seven years, said he knew a number of Lubbock people and that "I could make a bond here in Lubbock right quick."

"The last day I was in Lubbock was Wednesday, September 7, about two o'clock in the morning," the young man said.

Man, 88, Given Hunting License

Morgan Dickinson, deputy game warden located here, believes he has set another record in the issuance of a hunting license—a record which equals that of several years ago on the other end of the line.

He issued a hunting license this morning to C. J. Whitehurst, 88 years old—which far surpasses in age of the huntsman any license Dickinson has issued.

Several years ago he issued a license to Russell Myrick, jr., then three years old, beleved to be the record for youthful nimrod permits.

PIONEER DIES

DALLAS, Oct. 25 (AP)—Miss Sally Bowen Irvine, 82, who was born at San Antonio when that city still echoed with the battles of the Texas republic, died last night at the home of a niece, Miss Lal Duke. Miss Irvine was the daughter of Albert G. and Ann Howell Irvine. Her mother's first husband was Waco Bryan, Texas pioneer colonist.

KANSAS DRIVE IS WATCHED

THREE-WAY RACE FOR GOVERNORSHIP HAS MOST INTEREST

TOPEKA, Oct. 25. (AP)—A three-way race for the governorship between the nominees of the two major parties and an independent candidate has shared public attention with the presidential contest in the political campaign in Kansas this fall.

Gov. Harry H. Woodring, 42-year-old bachelor chief executive, is the Democratic candidate for re-election. If successful, he will be the first Democratic governor of Kansas to win a second term.

Landon In Race

His Republican opponent is Alfred M. Landon of Independence, formerly a wealthy independent oil operator and formerly state chairman of the G. O. P.

The non-party candidate is Dr. John R. Brinkley, Milford goat gland specialist who is running as an independent gubernatorial candidate for the second time since the revocation of his Kansas medical practice certificate and the refusal of the federal radio commission to renew a permit for the station formerly operated in connection with his hospital.

Issues Are Varied

Taxes, governmental expenditures, free school books, gas rates, prohibition, automobile license fees and campaign assessments against state employes—all have figured as issues in one of the most intensive campaigns Kansas has experienced.

All three of the major gubernatorial candidates have made extensive stumping campaigns. Brinkley has supplemented speaking engagements in each of the 105 counties from the platform of his "ammunition train" sound truck with frequent radio addresses, including many over a station in Mexico in which he is interested. Daily radio programs are sent out from the governor's office.

Many In Race

The governorship contest has almost completely eclipsed the senatorial race in which the apparent chief contenders are Sen. George McGill, Democrat, Ben S. Paulen, Republican and former governor, and George Alfred Brown, an Independent. J. F. Wm. Renker, an Eighteenth amendment repealist, also is an independent candidate for the office. E. Haldeman-Julius is the socialist nominee.

E. A. Cornell, secretary of state, has estimated 900,000 Kansans will be eligible to vote in the November election. Only those voters residing in cities of the first and second classes are required to register, and no compilation of the municipal figures are made. However, in the 1928 presidential election, the state popular vote was:

Hoover (R) 513,672; Smith (D) 193,003, and Thomas (S) 6,205.

In 1930 in the governorship contest, Woodring received 217,171 votes, Frank Haucke, Republican, 216,920 and Brinkley, 183,278.

Mrs. Thomas F. West returned this morning from Fort Worth where she has been visiting her father who has been ill for two weeks.

Mrs. C. H. Largent, 1623 18th street, is ill in her home.

BACKYARD BARBERSHOP

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah — A backyard may not be a barber shop but a law against it, Ross Angell tonsorial artist found out when he refused to pay $1.50 state shop fee. Be it ever so novel, the open air barbershop did not conform to the state law, said S. W. Golding, state director of registration, told Angell that he couldn't operate until he established a properly licensed and equipped place to do so.

SOCIETY NEWS

First Methodist Missionary Society Conducts Annual Election On Monday

Although the new church year does not begin until January 1, officers were elected in the First Methodist Women's Missionary society Monday afternoon. Installation services are scheduled for later in the year.

Mrs. George R. Bean was elected president to succeed Mrs. Otis R. Copeland. Mrs. J. D. Peters, who has been acting president while Mrs. Copeland has been out of town was re-elected vice-president. Other officers elected included the following:

Recording secretary, Mrs. A. G. Odom; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. B. Powell; treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Henderson; superintendent of study, Mrs. R. T. Campbell; Christian social relations chairman, Mrs. R. I. Tubbs; local work chairman, Mrs. Fred Adkins; superintendent of supplies, Mrs. R. C. Odom; superintendent of World Outlook, Mrs. J. P. Edgar; publicity, Mrs. T. V. McKinney; pianist, Mrs. A. B. Ellis.

In addition to the election, reports were heard from officers and committees. A collection of bedding and clothing was made and presented to a needy family.

Mrs. J. D. Peters led a devotional on "Sacrifice". There were 40 women at the meeting.

Church Is Studied At Auxiliary Meet

"Knowing Our General Church Program" was the topic for discussion at the regular meeting of St. Paul's Episcopal auxiliary at 3 p. m. yesterday in Seaman hall.

The devotional was conducted by Mrs. J. N. Michie. Mrs. W. W. Rix spoke on "The General Convention of the National Council". "The Church And Its Power", was discussed by Mrs. T. W. Thomas. "The Natural Interest in the Church's Program" was given by Mrs. Wallie Schmid.

The auxiliary will meet for a business session the first Monday in November.

Camp Fire Girls Are To Attend Party

Meeting Monday afternoon, members of Wee Wadita Camp Fire group planned a Hallowe'en party for Saturday afternoon with Dorothy Allen, 2124 17th street.

Those who are on committees include Miss Elizabeth Conner, Anna Claire Hule, Polly Peters, Geraldine Phillips, Chalones Whitacre, Winona Simmons, Jean Holmes and Dorothy Allen.

Delegates Named To State Convention

Women in Central Baptist Women's Missionary society elected delegates to the State Baptist Associational meeting Monday afternoon in a meeting at the church. Mesdames J. D. Welch and Joe Brooks are to be the delegates. The convention opens November 8 in Oak Cliff First Baptist church, Dallas.

Mrs. G. D. Gipson, president, was in charge of a business session. The pastor, Rev. J. D. Welch, taught a Bible lesson. There were 12 women present.

Club People Enjoy Dinner And Bridge

Games of bridge were played following a dinner served to members of the Fourth Estate club Monday evening at the Hilton hotel. High scores in the games were made by Miss Rose Heatly and Jim Shaw. Misses Wayne Atcheson and Blanche Bean were hostesses.

Those who attended were Messrs. and Mesdames Vestel Lott, Leland Mast, C. W. Ratliff, Charles Guy, Hugh Norman, Irving Hall, Paul Reed, J. Sam Lewis, Bruce Craig, Jim Shaw, Howard Hunt, Allan Moses, Mrs. Lucile Smith, Misses Rose Heatly, Evelyn Babb, Margaret Turner, Sallye Bean, Messrs. Eugene Knox, Wayne Henley and Bob McCall.

Tech Faculty Is To Attend Dinner

The Tech Faculty club is meeting this evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Hilton hotel in the first session for the autumn. Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of Texas Technological college, is to be an honor guest and speaker.

An election of officers will follow the dinner, with the president, Carl Svensen, presiding.

Methodist Women Study About China

Life in China was studied and business sessions were held by members of the First Methodist Mary Helm auxiliary Monday afternoon. The meetings were in circles.

Mrs. Arnold Campbell, 1614-B Avenue K, was hostess to Circle 5 in the auxiliary at her home. Mrs. C. M. Chandler led a devotional and Mrs. Joe H. Smith read a paper on China. Miss Nancy Faver read. There were 15 members and 4 visitors present.

Mrs. J. Frank Potts talked on an annual week of prayer which is observed in the society when members of Circles 1 and 4 gathered at the home of Mrs. Burl Huffman, 2625 20th street. This program will be observed on the first Monday in November. Mrs. Potts led a devotional, also.

Mrs. Weldon B. Chapman was cohostess with Mrs. Huffman. There was a good attendance.

Four women joined in entertaining for Circles 2 and 3 at the home of Mrs. T. C. Root, 2629 22nd street. They were Mesdames John Halsey, W. L. Meier, J. B. McCauley and Root.

Miss Mary DeBardeleben led a devotional and Mrs. H. E. Kimbell talked on schools of China. Mrs. R. S. Williams was program chairman.

Twenty-six women attended this meeting.

U. S. JUDGE RAPS FEDERAL OFFICER

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 25 (AP)—Declaring the man who made the arrest had no conscience, Judge M. M. Joyce in United States district court freed Peter Adrian Nelson, 55-year-old St. Paul gardener, held 38 days in the county jail here awaiting investigation on a liquor charge.

Nelson said a friend of his met a prohibition agent and had a few drinks. They went to Nelson's small cottage here and he cooked a dinner for his friend and the agent.

After the meal, the agent asked for a drink, and he was given one from a half pint bottle, Nelson said. The man then paid him 75 cents for the meal, the gardener said. Several days later Nelson was arrested and charged with possession of liquor.

After the hearing, William F. Cunningham, deputy federal prohibition administrator in charge of Minnesota, ordered an investigation of the circumstances of the arrest.

MORE FLOGGINGS ARE INVESTIGATED

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 25 (AP)—Reports of five new floggings, adding to the lengthening list of whippings by a terrorist band here, were received at police headquarters last night following upon announcement that the county grand jury would start an investigation Wednesday morning.

The new cases reported brought to 16 the number of floggings or attempted beatings in recent weeks.

As in all of the other cases except two, police withheld names of the latest victims. Reports were that they would appear before the grand jury.

Five men have been arrested on charges of assault with intent to murder in the reported flogging of Mrs. Sally Geringer and her daughter, Ola Bell Gilstrap.

It Is Wise to Know Your BAKER! As Well as Your BANKER.

For there are many different grades of wheat. Some grades are filled with a high percentage of protein and carbohydrates while others are very low in food value.

In every loaf of Sally Ann Bread and Buttereg Bread is embodied the highest grade of wheat on the market.

So, with the same wisdom that you deposit your money for safe keeping, select for your table bread of Known Quality.

THE FALL OF TICONDEROGA

"Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by F. C. Yohn . . . inspired by that horror-filled dawn when the bloodthirsty savages fell on Ethan Allan's gallant "Green Mountain Boys" of Fort Ticonderoga fame. "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes.

Copr., 1932, The American Tobacco Co.

No raw tobaccos in Luckies —that's why they're so mild

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.
