City seeks permission for special election

The Iowa Park city council is seeking permission from Gov. Bill Clements to hold a special election Oct. 16 to fill two alderman vacancies. A letter was drafted by city attorney Roger Lee, requesting permission to hold the election. One vacancy resulted in the resignation of Bill Gilmore and a week later Herman Mahler followed. Though the remaining three aldermen can conduct most business, there are some actions which require more than a simple majority. Lee explained to the council when he suggested the election be held. Holding a special election is no simple situation anymore, however. An amendment to the state's election code establishes every general and special election must be held on one of four dates: "the third Saturday in January, the first Saturday in April, the second Saturday in August, or the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November."

"The statute further provides that in even-numbered years the only issues that can be submitted in the November date are the election of state and county officials," Lee explained in his letter to the council. Because this is an even-numbered year, November's date is ruled out for a local election. Aldermen approved a proposal to seek Oct. 16 at the date for the special election because if permission is received in a short period of time, an adequate number of days would remain in which to announce the election, accept candidacies and print ballots. Some observers felt that to wait until the January date would put that election too close to the regular April election date, duplicating the cost and effort for such a short span of time. SHORT MEETING Monday's meeting was unlike those which have been held by the city over the past couple of months. It was short (lasting only 55 minutes) and there were no outspoken visitors, though all the seats in the chamber were occupied. Aldermen went through the formality of accepting the resignations of Gilmore and Mahler, after which Mayor Charlie Lee explained to the audience the special election procedures and requirements. He noted the resignations came too late for the August date, as provided in the election code. Two bids submitted to pave a block of West Coleman were rejected, as being too high. Timmins-Anderson bid $33,932 and Zack Burkett Co. bid $74,641. Engineer Kerry Maroney said he felt the bids were 20 to 30 percent higher than other recent paving bids in the area. A suggestion was made that when the city re-advertises for paving bids, which aldermen voted to do, that the two blocks of West Park be included, possibly reducing the per-foot cost. Consideration of the suggestion will be given, Mayor Lee said. Aldermen approved an ordinance abandoning the alley in Block C, Manes Subdivision; advertising for bids to graze the area around Lake Buffalo; set up work sessions Monday and Tuesday evenings for the upcoming budget; and approved re-appointment of John Brown, John Mixon and Ralph Beall to the citizens traffic safety council.

Juvenile charged vandalizing home

An Iowa Park juvenile was arrested and charged yesterday with vandalizing the home of a couple away from town on vacation. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Smith, 703 West Manes, was heavily damaged recently, and though estimations are still being made, costs reportedly could run into the thousands of dollars. Chief Billy Hamilton and officer Tommy Rich arrested, charged and transported the juvenile to Wichita Falls yesterday, following Monday's discovery of the vandalism. Officers are continuing investigation to determine if more than one person was involved, and obtain damage estimates.

As of yesterday, the Smiths had not been reached to notify them of the situation. Keith Rusk told police yesterday that someone had hooked onto his boat trailer parked at 504 W. Aldine sometime between midnight and 7:30 a.m., and drove away. The boat and trailer were reportedly found about 1:30 p.m., but without a 115 HP Johnson motor and Johnson trolling motor and other equipment. Total value of the entire unit was set at $10,978.

David Lee Hayman of Iowa Park was arrested Monday evening and charged with DWI after allegedly striking two vehicles with the one he was driving. Hayman is alleged to have struck a station wagon at 1010 N. Fourth and a pickup at Third and West Highway.

Kenny Gilmore reported Sunday evening that someone had taken a dark blue comforter from a dryer at Davis Wash House. The item was valued at $75.

Animal control officer James McCord was faced with an unique problem shortly before 10 p.m. Tuesday in the 1000 block of Louisa: a 1,000-pound Hereford bull. McCord got the cooperation of Denny McCarthy to haul away and house the bull until the owners claims it.

WORKOUTS BEGIN - Seventy-two candidates for Iowa Park High School football teams reported this week for two-a-day training. They were broken down as 22 for varsity, 28 junior varsity and 22 freshmen by Coach David Baugh. Working in shorts through today, tomorrow they will put on full pads and see their first scrimmage action next Thursday at Jacksboro.

Truck replacement considered

At a called meeting of the council Wednesday afternoon, aldermen were expected to approve leasing a trash pickup truck and advertising for two new trucks. At Monday's meeting, aldermen were told of the loss of one truck by fire Friday. The loss leaves the city with only one vehicle for gathering trash. A used truck is available for lease from the Plainview firm that sold the units to the city. Rental is $50 per day and 20-cents per mile. Steve Morath, city administrator, estimated the cost would be approximately $75 per day. If approved, bids will be sought for two new trucks, replacing the one lost in the fire and its twin, which was nearing replacement anyway. Discussion Monday indicated replacements will be diesel rather than gasoline. Estimated cost is $50,000 per unit. The truck lost in the fire was at the sanitary landfill when the blaze was noted. Because much of the unit is of fiberglass, flames gutted the vehicle before help could arrive, aldermen were told.

Don't look now, but....school start around corner

If you haven't looked at your calendar lately, and you have school-age children, you might be interested to know school starts in a little more than two weeks. Because the school bells are being oiled and final preparations are underway for the start of a "new year," school officials have released information which will be helpful to students, parents and personnel. Teachers will begin in-service training Aug. 23. After three days of in-service, two days are considered "work days," in preparation for commencement of classes. SCREENING All children who will be five years of age by Sept. 1, and who were not screened for kindergarten last May, will be screened between 8:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. next week.

Parents should contact Kidwell Elementary for an appointment. Parents are asked to remain with their children until screening is completed, and have with them the child's birth certificate and immunization record. A full year "special education early childhood" program for the three and four-year-old children is available if they have a physical or learning deficiency as determined by sight, hearing, speech, mental maturity or a physician's diagnosis. Parents who feel their child may be eligible for the program and who missed the May screening should also contact Kidwell school for an appointment next week. NEW STUDENT REGISTRATION Elementary students who did not attend school here last year and who have not yet been registered should be at their respective campus either Tuesday or Wednesday of next week. Kindergarten through second grades are held at Kidwell Elementary, and grades three through five are at Bradford Elementary. Junior high students, which includes grades six through eight, who did not attend school here last year and have not been registered are to report to that campus either Thursday or Friday of next week. Any high school student new to the district and not yet registered should report as soon as possible for assignment to classes. High school students will pick up class schedules and locker assignments on the following schedule: Aug. 26, seniors between 9 a.m. and noon, juniors 1:30-4 p.m.; Aug. 27, sophomores between 9 a.m. and noon, freshmen 1:30-4 p.m. IMMUNIZATION Children attending school and age five through 11 must have the following immunizations: ORAL POLIO - At least three doses of vaccine, provided one or more doses have been received since the fourth birthday; DIPHTHERIA/TETANUS - Minimum of three doses, with at least one dose having been received since the fourth birthday (usually given as DTP for children less than six years of age, and TD for children six and older); MEASLES - One dose of vaccine, or history of measles illness. All histories presented after Sept. 1979 must be physician verified; RUBELLA - One dose of vaccine.

Not required past age 12; MUMPS - One dose of vaccine, or history of mumps illness. All histories must be physician verified. Students 12 years of age and older must have the following immunizations:

ORAL POLIO - At least three doses of vaccine, provided one or more doses have been received since the fourth birthday. (Polio vaccine is not required for persons 18 years of

School's financing trustee topic

School finances were a major part of Tuesday night's school trustee meeting, and will be the primary subject of two more meetings to be held before the end of the month. Supt. Harold Cowley presented an early draft of the 1982-83 budget, but emphasized the figures may be considerably changed before next Tuesday, when the formal budget hearing for the public is held at 7 p.m. Cowley pointed out that the board this year will be faced with the prospect of establishing a budget, but must wait an estimated two months before it can set the tax rate. The school's tax rate cannot be established before the county tax appraisal district provides a certified tax roll. That may be in October, but could possibly be as late as November, depending on when equalization hearings are held and adjustments are made to complete the roll. Early draft of the new budget indicates expenditures of slightly more than $4-million will be required for both the local district and West Wichita Co-op, which the district is physical agent. Cowley told trustees the early budget calls for expenditures approximately $140,000 less than the 1981-82 local budget. The third meeting slated this month for trustees will be at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 24, when the present budget is to undergo final amending. The new budget will be somewhat more complex and larger than in the past because of a new requirement of the Texas Education Agency. Schools must now list all income and expenditures of any instructional group and food service, which has not been required in the past. Income of any group other than clubs must be placed into the general operating fund, Cowley reported. This includes athletics, vocations, publications and other such activities. A separate fund has been used for those monies, but has been open for accounting, Cowley explained.

BOARD ACTIONS Trustees hired new personnel, accepted a resignation, approved a hardship transfer request, made an exception to a policy, rejected a fund-raising project and accepted food service bids. Cathlene Workman was hired as title one instructor at the junior high. Formality of transferring Kenneth Davis from high school vice principal to Bradford principal, and James Ward from Bradford to Kidwell principal was also observed. Also Jerry McCain was hired as a high school teacher, Eldon Patterson was changed from full time to half time in the vocational department and Carol Edwards was named homebound teacher, all in the West Wichita Co-op. Carol Snodgrass resigned as homebound teacher. A hardship transfer of a first grade student whose mother is a teacher here was approved. The application explained that the student could not ride a bus in its home district and no suitable care for the child before and after school could be found. Trustees also approved an exception to board policy which requires administrators to reside in the district. An applicant for high school vice principal sought exception in order to sell his present home before moving. Board members restricted the exception, limiting it until the following year's contract time, which is in February. Cowley explained there are no qualified applicants currently employed in the system for the position, which requires an administration certification. A fund-raising project for the football team to buy travel shirts was rejected. On bids for the food service department, trustees accepted the low bids of Preston Dairy for milk, Oak Farms for ice cream, and American Bakeries for breads. Moore Oil Co. was low bidder for gasoline for the transportation department.

News in brief

Gilmore bound over to grand jury

Kenny Gilmore has been bound over to the federal grand jury for possible indictment on a charge of assaulting a federal officer in the performance of his duties. At a hearing Thursday afternoon in Wichita Falls, U.S. Magistrate Robert Roach said "I will not dismiss the case. . . it will stand." He said there was sufficient probable cause of the offense.

Gilmore attacked FBI Agent Lee Hale in federal court after his father, Bill, had been sentenced to a three-year prison term for mail fraud. Bill Gilmore is to report Monday to begin serving his sentence. No date has been announced for a meeting of the grand jury. The younger Gilmore was represented at the hearing by Wichita Falls attorney Gene Douglass.

Soccer sign-up slated Saturday

Iowa Park youth will be able to register Saturday for the fall soccer season. Registration will be from 9 a.m.

until 2 p.m. at the fire station. Players eligible are from six to 14 years of age. The season is to start Sept. 4.

Food pantry seeks donations

The food pantry sponsored by the Iowa Park Ministerial Alliance will be open every Monday morning between 9:30-10:30 to receive donations of non-perishable foods. Foods in short supply at the present time are: fruit juices, Miracle Whip salad dressing, baby food, disposable diapers, tooth paste, soaps, salt and pepper. These foods can be donated at the cooperating churches or Chamber of Commerce office. People in need who meet the requirements should contact the Iowa Park Ministerial Alliance.

Watts, Taylor nuptial vows are solemnized Saturday

In impressive nuptials performed Saturday evening in the Church of God, Miss Jill Kenet Watts became the bride of Donnie Herbert Taylor. Rev. W.F. Williams, pastor, was the officiating minister for the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Watts, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, and the late Joyce Taylor.

The registry table in the church foyer where Mrs. Bob Hodges directed guests to sign the wedding book as they arrived for the service was laid with white lace over pink satin, giving the first hint of the color combination chosen for the wedding and reception. In addition to the book and white plume pen, the table held a pink rose in a crystal heart-shaped vase.

The nuptial music was furnished by Mrs. C.H. Phillips, organist, who played "Love Story," "Somewhere My Love," "Wedding Song," and "Oh Perfect Love," accompanied Buddy Mercer for a vocal rendition of "Through the Years," then played accompaniment for Miss Pam Cope and Mercer for a vocal duet, "We've Only Just Begun," for the prelude music. Mrs. Phillips and the vocalist presented the "Lord's Prayer" at the close of the ceremony, and the organist included the time-honored marches in her offerings.

Members of the wedding party entered the church to stand at an altar decorated in excellent and refined taste. The couple repeated their vows before fifteen-branched footed brass candelabra traced with boxwood greenery touched with pink silk bow trim. Footed brass stands at outer extremities held potted ferns brightened with white daisies and pink carnations. Pink silk bows and baby's breath were combined in markers for the church pews.

The bride entered the sanctuary with her father who escorted her to the altar and presented her in marriage for her parents. On the way, she paused by her mother who had entered the church with two other daughters, Mrs. Bud Joyner of Levelland and Mrs. Ricky Ricks of Iowa Park, to present her with a long stemmed pink rose.

The bride wore a beautifully flowing white silk organza gown delicately detailed with Chantilly lace and pearls. The raised bodice embellished with lace and pearls featured a Queen Anne neckline and long lace sleeves that terminated in organza ruffles at the wrists. Lace and organza ruffles captured skirt attention by forming an inverted V in front, then falling to encircle the skirt several times above the hemline as they drifted into a chapel train.

For her headpiece, she chose a white organza picture hat featuring a raised brim adorned with a white silk rose at one side and a large bow at the back to which her fingertip illusion veil was attached. Her silk nosegay, representing the essence of loveliness and taste, was created with white stephanotis accented with pearls, pink rosebuds, English ivy and white lace streamers.

Bridal traditions chosen by the bride included her mother's wedding band attached to her garter for

MRS. DONNIE HERBERT TAYLOR

"something old"; a diamond heart necklace, the "something borrowed" from her sister, Mrs. Ricky Ricks. "Something blue" was the pouch worn in her shoe that contained a penny dated the year of her birth, and her gown was "something new."

Miss Mary Gray, the maid of honor, and Miss Denette Vanek of Corpus Christi, the bridesmaid, presented a charming picture in their Southern Belle-style gowns of pink flowered white organza designed with off-the-shoulder ruffles, snug waists, and flattering nostalgic full skirts accented with multiple layers of solid white and print organza ruffles. They wore white silk daisies and pink apple blossoms in their hair and carried nosegays of pink roses and white daisies snuggled against white lace fans.

Julea Ricks, the bride's niece, the flower girl, wore a long pink polyester dress patterned with ruffled bodice, puffed sleeves, bow sash and long skirt ruffled above the hemline. She carried pink roses and apple blossoms and white daisies in a white lacy basket.

The groom wore a white tuxedo with tails and a pink rosebud boutonniere. Deno Bates, his cousin, served as ring bearer and wore a less formal white tuxedo.

Ronnie Taylor served as best man for his brother, and Jeff Watts, brother of the bride, was groomsman. Ushers were Bob Hodges and Berry Phillips. They were attired in gray tuxedos worn with pink ruffled shirts.

For the wedding, Mrs. Watts, mother of the bride wore a long pink Qiana dress styled with a high ruffled neck, short sleeves and a string belt that tied at the waist. Mrs. Taylor was attired in a long gray crepe dress made with long sleeves and a slightly gathered skirt. Their corsages of pink roses and white daisies were in keeping with the bride's chosen colors.

The wedding reception was given by the bride's parents in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The special beauty of the setting was stressed in the refreshment table covered with a lace bordered white satin cloth over a floor length skirt of pure white silk. The center ornament was a five-branched silver candelabrum holding tall pink candles. The transparent crystal punch service, cake and bridal napkins embossed with names of the bride and groom and their wedding date conformed to the delicate decor of the table.

True to form, the three-tiered white cake with one set of Grecian pillars was a fascinating part of the table. Each layer was ornamented with clusters of pink frosting roses with mint green leaves, reverse shell borders, intricate sculpturing and tiny white doves. The top of the second tier was completely covered with the roses, and the top ornament that focused attention upon a kissing bride and groom backgrounded by a pearled heart centered with wedding bells suited the romantic mood of the occasion.

Reception assistants were Mmes. David Wright, Ronnie Taylor, Sonny Bates and Sammy Bates.

A separate white satin-covered table in the room held framed pictures of the bride in her wedding gown, the attendants' fans and white net rice bags tied with pink ribbons. Jennifer Ricks, niece of the bride, dressed in a pink street-length dress styled like the flower girl's dress, handed out the rice bags.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at Underwood's Friday evening, and Mrs. Jackie Gholson was hostess for a bridal luncheon Saturday.

Messrs. and Mmes. Herbert Taylor of Pampa, Milburn Bates, Claud Starr and Elmer Watts, all of Iowa Park, grandparents of the bride and groom, were special wedding guests. Others from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Joyner of Levelland and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Watts of Gainesville.

The bride and groom were both graduated from Iowa Park High School. She played basketball and made the All-District team for four years. She was a three-year member of the pep squad and president of ornamental horticulture class. He played varsity football, basketball, and baseball and was in auto body. He is employed by Hodges Well Service. The bride was wearing a pink voile short-sleeved dress accented with a pink embroidered collar when they left for a weekend trip to Dallas. They will live in Iowa Park.

Boles, Sargent wedding held Saturday

Miss Deborah Elaine Boles and Lester Thomas Sargent, Jr. were united in marriage Saturday afternoon in a double-ring ceremony performed in Grace Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Boles, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Agnes McDonald and Lester Thomas Sargent, all of Iowa Park.

Officiating for the nuptials was Rev. Jimmy Johnson at an altar centered with a brass arch laced with boxwood studded with white daisies and a peach bow at the top center. On either side of the arch tall white candles, burned in seven-branched candelabra decorated with the chosen greenery. At the base of the candelabra were placed large natural straw baskets filled with striking arrangements of fresh daisies and carnations in shades of peach, honey and white, dark maroon lilies, leather leaf and sprengeri fern.

The bride's keepsake natural straw basket atop the piano was filled with silk honey and peach carnations, stephanotis and apple blossoms.

A program of pre-nuptial music was presented by Randy Rinehart, organist, Mrs. Stewart Schroeder, pianist, and Mrs. George Shay, vocalist. The organist played "More," "Let It Be Me," and "Turn Around." The pianist accompanied the vocalist for two numbers, "There Is Love" and "You Light Up My Life." Members of the wedding party entered and left the church as the organist played the traditional marches.

The bride walked to the altar with her father who gave her in marriage for her parents. She wore a beautiful formal candlelight organza gown that she chose for the "something new" bridal tradition. The tight bodice was completely covered in rich Venice lace that was repeated in a smart peplum below the waistline. The bishop sleeves were cuffed with the Venice lace, and the full skirt and chapel train were bordered with wide matching Chantilly lace.

Her waistlength Venice lace veil was secured to a headpiece of fresh honey and peach-colored roses and baby's breath. The bride's nosegay fashioned of sonia roses, gypsophila, and leatherleaf, cascading pink satin and white lace streamers was the finishing touch to the picture.

To complete traditions, for "something old," she wore an antique gold locket set with three rubies that belonged to her great-grandmother, Mrs. Jewell Darnell, and wore diamond earrings loaned to her by Miss Laura Sargent, the groom's sister, for "something borrowed." The "something blue" accessory was her garter.

The bride's colors of honey and peach were emphasized in her attendants' gowns styled to flatter them in every way. The honey-colored whipped cream long dresses featured V-necks bordered with apricot lace and short sleeves. They wore wrist corsages formed of white daisies, peach carnations and dark maroon lilies.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Tana Boles, as maid of honor. Miss Laura Sargent and Miss Vivian Sargent, sisters of the groom, as bridesmaids. Miss Cindy Sargent, another sister of the groom, the flower girl, was dressed like the attendants and carried rose petals in the bride's colors in a natural straw basket.

The groom and his attendants wore candlelight tuxedos trimmed in dark brown and matching ruffled shirts.

David Simmons of Wichita Falls was best man. Groomsmen and ushers were Billy Luke of Wichita Falls and Mark Conyers of Iowa Park.

Mothers of the bride and groom complemented their street-length dresses with white daisies, peach carnations and maroon lilies formed into shoulder corsages.

Guests registered in the wedding book placed in the church foyer and again in the reception room under the direction of Miss Pam Bush of Randlett, Okla., cousin of the bride.

The reception that followed the wedding was given by the bride's parents in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

One of the tables set up in the room was covered with lace-trimmed white dotted swiss over white crepe bordered with eyelet embroidery, and it held the net rice bags in the bride's colors in a natural straw basket.

Miss Jill Green, cousin of the bride, presided at another table arranged for gifts.

The bride's table was covered with white polyester satin featuring a two-tiered pinch-pleated skirt that extended to the floor. The centerpiece was an imposing silver epergne bowl centered with a white pillar candle arising from a bed of white daisies, dark maroon lilies and sprengeri.

The two-tiered white cake with one set of Grecian dividers was decorated with clusters of peach roses that combined effectively with white scrollwork, reverse shell borders, miniature white doves and a base border of peach net to make a beautiful bride's cake. The top ornament, using the familiar symbols of a bride and groom dressed in formal white and a heart accented with tiny peach flowers and touches of net set the confection off to advantage.

The honey-colored napkins printed with "Deborah and Tom, August 7, 1982" and the crystal punch service were additional table appointments.

The groom's table was covered with a beige polyester cloth marked with a two-tiered floor length skirt. It was set apart with a chocolate sheet cake decorated with two hearts encircled with chocolate frosting roses and white doves, one heart detailed with the names of the bride and groom and the other with their wedding date. The centerpiece, a natural straw basket of fresh daisies, carnations and lilies in white, honey, peach and maroon colors, and the silver coffee service were other meaningful parts of the table setting.

During the reception, Mrs. Johnny Hankins, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Mike Williams served at the bride's table, and Mrs. Bobby Bush of Randlett, Okla., aunt of the bride, and Timothy Sargent, brother of the groom, served at the groom's table.

The bride and groom attended Iowa Park High School. After a weekend trip to Dallas, they are at home in Iowa Park where he is engaged in contract farm work.

Special wedding guests were Mrs. Corene Davis of Iowa Park, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boles of Plainview, grandparents of the bride, Mrs. Jewell Darnell, her great-grandmother and Mrs. Rose McDonald of Scotland, the groom's grandmother.

Other out-of-town guests not previously mentioned were Messrs. and Mmes. George Boyd of Fort Worth, Tom Sanders of Oklahoma City; Mrs. Jerry Carter of Plainview, Kay Boles and Sylvia Barton of Borger and Brandon Bush of Randlett, Okla.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at Underwood's.

Teacher seeks new profession

Linda Williams, a teacher in the Holliday school system the past seven years, said Tuesday her experience in Backdoor Theater will lead her to California and a possible professional acting career.

She said she will be moving to the west coast sometime in the future in search of her new career.

Turning professional is not uncommon for members of the Wichita Falls theatrical group. She told members of the Noon Lions Club that in one year alone, seven members turned professional in dinner theaters.

Explaining some background of Backdoor Theater, she said it was one of few community theater groups in the nation which does not accept federal funding, and is the only such organization that has its own dinner theater.

She said community theater is not only a place to go and be busy, but also provides a social life for those who participate.

She was introduced by Dr. James Edwards, local optometrist and president of the Lions Club, who is also a member of the community theater group.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

Wait a minute. Stop this world and let me get off!

What in the world is going on in Texas? These past few days there have been stories from four different areas about mass murders.

One series of murders is enough, but when they come as close together as the ones at Blum, Fort Worth, Houston and Grand Prairie, it's just too much.

If people are as jumpy about the situation in this area, what must it be like for residents of those affected areas?

Hopefully, it is just a coincidence that the four situations all happened in such a short span of time. Certainly there can't be more in the offing.

One comment in the coffee shop was that people are just going crazy. Apparently the feeling is that world, society and financial pressures are just getting too much for some people.

Another theory offered was because so much violence is shown on television and in the movies.

Yet another theory advanced was the often-quoted saying of conservatives that there is no deterrent to killing, because executions are no threat anymore.

Well, maybe that one Tuesday night will help some.

It concerns me that news of the four mass murders, in harmony with the news of all the killing in Lebanon, as well as the war between Iran and Iraq, will give people the idea that life is cheap.

I certainly don't consider mine cheap. It's the only one I've got, and I value it highly. It's one of those one-of-a-kind deals.

Maybe those hippies in the 1960s had something, after all, with all that "peace and love" stuff.

20 ways to help hold down your electric bill.

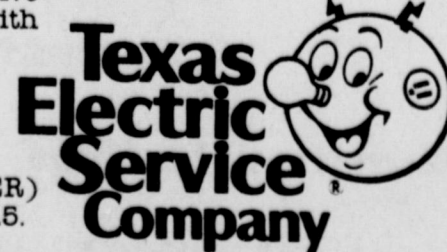

A checklist to help you save energy and money at home.

Energy Conservation Practices

- Electricity is costing more this summer mainly because the fuel to make it is costing more. The following low- or no-cost home conservation practices can help you save energy and money.
- ☐ Do not use air conditioner unless absolutely necessary.
 - ☐ Keep your thermostat set no lower than 80° in the summer. Use ceiling or oscillating fans to circulate the air.
 - ☐ Check your air conditioner filters each month to see if they need cleaning or changing. And make sure that the outside unit is free of grass, leaves and trash.
 - ☐ When leaving home, turn off air conditioning. If away for two days or more, turn off water heater.
 - ☐ If you have a dishwasher, set water heater to 140°; otherwise, set temperature to 120° or lower.
 - ☐ Use scrap insulation to plug air leaks in attic, around fireplace dampers and window air conditioners.
 - ☐ Repair water leaks in pipes and faucets, and seal air duct leaks.
 - ☐ Use drapes, blinds, shades, awnings or plants to block sunlight.
 - ☐ Try to minimize traffic through outside doors.
 - ☐ Economize in the kitchen. Plan meals so several dishes can be cooked in the oven at the same time.
 - ☐ Save when you do laundry. Wash and dry only full loads of clothes.

Energy Conservation Measures

- These home installations and modifications require an investment, but may return their cost to you in the form of savings on utility bills.
- ☐ Caulk and weatherstrip around doors and windows to reduce air leaks.
 - ☐ Add insulation to ceilings, walls and floors.
 - ☐ Insulate ducts, especially in the attic.
 - ☐ Insulate hot water pipes in attic.
 - ☐ Install insulation blankets on water heaters, especially in garage or basement.
 - ☐ Investigate cost-effectiveness of storm doors and windows.
 - ☐ Add solar-reflecting materials to doors and windows on east/west exposures.
 - ☐ Install a clock thermostat to automatically set air conditioner and heating unit to desired temperature. Even when you're away from home, the clock thermostat can control your air conditioner for more economical operation.
 - ☐ Investigate replacing your central air conditioner, especially if unit is more than five years old, with a new unit that has a Seasonal Energy Efficiency Rating (SEER) of at least 8.5.

Tax increase hearing voided

A hearing on the proposed eight-percent tax increase for Holliday School District taxpayers never materialized Monday night, when school trustees learned any action would be voided by state law.

According to superintendent Dan Owen, the board was told recently by Jimmy Horany, attorney for the District Taxpayer's Association, that a public hearing and subsequent tax rate hike using the school's own tax roll could not be done.

In other words, the board will have to wait for the tax roll prepared by the Archer County Tax Appraisal District.

"Looking through all our records, we didn't see that we were wrong (in holding a public hearing)," Owen said Tuesday. Owen added that calls were made to the State Tax Board and to the Texas Education Agency, and the tax board said the school would be in violation if they set a tax rate before receiving the county appraisal district's roll, and before the appraisal district's board of equalization hearing.

"In the past, we have always set our tax rate before approving a budget, and now the TEA has told us we can only approve an estimated budget for the coming year," Owen explained. He added that, after receiving the tax roll from the appraisal district, the school will have to make amendments to its budget, before Nov. 1.

"When we called the TEA, they informed us that we are in the same position a lot of other schools in Texas are," Owen said.

ESTIMATED BUDGET

The tentative budget for the 1982-83 school year calls for expenditures of $1,735,332 with an estimated income of $1,447,962, which is $287,370 less than what is needed.

During discussion of the budget, Owen presented estimates of tax losses due to exemptions granted by the board. Exemptions include agriculture value, homestead, disability, disabled veterans, over 65, and cattle. Total tax revenue loss, said Owen, amounts to around $281,847.

Owen said the exemptions, passed by the state legislature, provided local entities with no means of making up the revenue loss other than raising taxes.

LUNCH PRICES RAISED

While breakfast prices remain the same as last year, lunch prices were raised 10-cents across the board, with kindergarten-third grade paying 85-cents, fourth -12th grade $1, and adults $1.35. Reduced prices remain the same, at 40-cents per meal.

Breakfast prices are 40-cents for K-third grades, 50-cents for fourth-12th grades, 60-cents for adults, and 30-cents for reduced price.

Dairy and bread bids were also approved, with Borden's receiving the milk bid, and American (Taystee) Bakeries the bread bid. The two companies, used by Holliday schools last year, provided adequate service and were "very competitive in their bids" this year, according to Owen.

BUS BIDS

Two buses were sold Monday night, with the Holliday Church of Christ awarded the 1972 International for $1,026.75, and Sharon and Clayton Robertson of Iowa Park awarded the 1965 Chevrolet for $800.

BUS DRIVER HIRED

After meeting in a short executive session dealing with personnel, trustees accepted the resignation of bus mechanic G.D. Jarvis, and hired Joe Biter as a new bus driver.

AMBULANCE SERVICE

Trustees approved a motion to pay the city of Holliday $50 per night for ambulance service at football games played in Holliday. This amounts to approximately $800 for the season, including freshman, junior varsity, varsity and varsity scrimmages.

POLICIES APPROVED

Trustees also approved several policies, including purchasing by employees, sick leave days, professional days for employees, and a vehicle policy for during-school hours.

Couple sets anniversary

MR. and MRS. ROY HOLLIMAN

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Holliman of Holliday will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary from 2-5 p.m. Aug. 14 in the recreation room of the First Baptist Church in Holliday.

The reception will be hosted by the couple's family.

The Hollimans were married Aug. 12, 1932 in Eastland, and moved to Holliday in 1940. Holliman retired from Christie Oil Co. in 1969, while Mrs. Holliman worked at the Holliday High School cafeteria, retiring in 1976.

They have one daughter, Mrs. Michael Hunter of Burkburnett, and two grandchildren. Friends of the couple are invited to attend the reception.

Dugan's changes

It might not have been evident on the outside, but a major business transformation was made in Holliday recently when Dugan's Spee-Dee Store was sold to Larry Ayres and Jay Miller.

Ayres and Miller purchased the store from R.E. Sammon Dugan Monday, Aug. 2. Dugan, who is retiring because of health reasons, has had the store over 15 years, making it one of the oldest established operations still running in Holliday.

"We feel fortunate to have the opportunity to take over the store instead of starting a new one," Ayres said Wednesday. "And we look forward to serving the people of Holliday as best we can."

Ayres, who is associated with Ayres Oil and manager of Ayres Fina in Iowa Park, said the personnel will remain the same, and the only changes include installation of new equipment and arcades, in addition to a "good housecleaning."

The store, now called "Spee-Dee Food Store" will retain its deli, a popular lunch spot for locals. Day-by-day lunch specials will be offered, according to Ayres.

His partner, Miller, owns Miller's Store on Southwest Parkway in Wichita Falls. Both graduated from Holliday High School in 1977.

Eagle Boosters slate supper

The Holliday Eagle Booster Club will hold its annual covered dish supper at 8 p.m. Aug. 13 in the high school cafeteria.

The supper gives Eagle supporters a chance to meet the varsity football team, including players and coaches. Those wishing to attend should bring food for their family. The booster club will furnish paper plates, forks, spoons, and offer tea and coffee.

A meeting of the booster club will precede the supper, according to Alice Carver. Membership fees for the club are $7.50 per couple, and $5 for singles.

Season ticket sales started

Season tickets for the 1982 Holliday Eagle football season go on sale today in the superintendent's office from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. each weekday.

Prices are $15 for five home games. Reserved-seating ticket holders from last year will have the option to retain the same seats for this year until noon next Thursday, Dan Owen, superintendent, said.

FREE SPEECH AND THE A.C.L.U.

On May 20, 1982, U.S. District Judge John Singleton ruled that the children in Aldine schools, outside Houston, could no longer include a phrase praising God in their school song.

That made the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) very happy. They had been party to the suit, claiming that the song violated constitutional provisions of separation of church and state.

On July 3rd, the Supreme Court ruled that states can indeed ban the distribution of child pornography. That made ACLU very unhappy. One of their spokesmen was quoted in the press as complaining this violated the constitutional provisions of free speech.

If this all seems strange to you, perhaps it is because it is strange. The ACLU is constantly worried about the "free speech" rights of pornographers, but seemingly is on the other side of the fence when the question turns on the free speech rights of school children. One cannot escape the conclusion that the ACLU would defend the "right" of school children to distribute smut, but they would deny them the right to sing the praises of God.

And if you ever wonder where the ACLU gets the money to pursue its goals, consider this: a lot of rich people in high places give them a lot of money. Our current Lieutenant Governor Hobby, for example, held a fund raiser for them in his Houston home that raised some $60,000. He is very proud of his efforts in this regard, defending it repeatedly while out on the campaign trail seeking reelection. That is one of the many areas where he and I are in disagreement. I think there are far worthier organizations for Texans to champion. I would appreciate hearing your thoughts. Just write me at 1213 W. 34th, Austin, Texas 78705.

Cook of the Week

Mrs. Ernest Bowling

Salads seem to have become more and more important in America's eating habits, and as versatile as they are in terms of ingredients and mere convenience, it is easy to see why.

Dieters across the nation live by the salad; southerners suffering from summer-long heat spells find relief by a cool concoction of vegetables or fruits; and, grandmothers preparing an important meal are sure to make one or more decorative and tasty salads.

This week's cook, Mrs. Ernest Bowling of Holliday, found many of the following salad recipes during the frequent salad luncheons at Parker Square Bank in Wichita Falls, where she has been employed eight years.

A resident of Holliday 32 years, Mrs. Bowling said the recipes are exchanged at the luncheon, and she has several that have found their way to the Bowling dinner table. "We also get recipes from tellers from other areas of the country," she added.

Her husband, who works for Ayres Oil, provides her with fresh vegetables from their own garden. "He had already started on the fall garden," she said, adding that what they don't eat, she cans. "I love to can. I will can just about anything he grows," she remarked.

The Bowlings have two sons, Burle, a dental lab technician in Dallas, and Mike and his wife Janet. They live in Holliday, where Mike works for Gearhart, and Janet is a kindergarten teacher in Iowa Park.

Both members of the First Baptist Church in Holliday, the Bowlings helped to organize Holliday's first riding club. And, even though Mrs. Bowling no longer has any horses of her own, she still considers it one of her hobbies. "When you develop a love for horses, you never lose it," she explained.

IOWA PARK
CONSOLIDATED INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

P. O. BOX 898

HAROLD COWLEY, Superintendent
IOWA PARK, TEXAS 76367

PHONE 817/592-4193

Dear Parent or Guardian:

The Iowa Park Consolidated Independent Schools serve nutritious meals every school day. Students may buy lunch for 75c, 85c and $1.00 and breakfast for 50c.

Children from families whose income is at or below the level shown on the attached scale are eligible for either free meals OR reduced-price meals priced at 40c for lunch and 30c for breakfast.

To apply for free or reduced-price meals, please fill out this application as soon as possible, sign it and return it to the school. Please answer all questions on the form. An application which does not contain complete information on household members and income cannot be used by the school. If information is missing, your child will be denied the meal benefits.

COMPLETE APPLICATION: For an application to be complete, you must provide: the total household income, the names of all household members, Social Security Numbers of all household members 21 years or older or state that a household member does not have one, signature of an adult household member.

VERIFICATION: The information on the application may be checked by the school or other officials at any time during the school year.

REPORTING CHANGES: If your child is approved for meal benefits, you must tell the school when your household income increases by more than $50 per month ($600 per year) or when your household size decreases.

You may apply for benefits at any time during the school year. If you are not eligible now, but have a decrease in household income, become unemployed, or have an increase in family size, fill out an application at that time.

FOSTER CHILDREN: In certain cases, foster children are eligible for these benefits. If you have foster children living with you and you wish to apply for free or reduced-price benefits for them, please tell the school.

NONDISCRIMINATION: Children who get meal benefits are treated the same way as children who pay for meals. In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, national origin, age or handicap.

FAIR HEARING: If you do not agree with the school's decision on your application or the result of verification, you may wish to discuss it with the school. You also have a right to a fair hearing. This can be done by calling or writing to: Bill Steger, P.O. Box 428, Iowa Park, Texas, 76367, phone 592-5921.

If you have any questions or need help in filling out the application form, please contact us. Within 10 days of receiving your application, the school will let you know whether or not your children are eligible.

Sincerely,

Harold Cowley

This notice must be brought to the attention of all household members whose social security numbers are disclosed. The social security numbers may be used to identify household members in carrying out efforts to verify the correctness of information stated on the application. These verification efforts may be carried out through program reviews, audits, and investigations and may include contacting employers to determine income, contacting the state employment security office to determine the amount of benefits received and checking the documentation produced by household members to prove the amount of income received.
