FORMER BELL COUNTY SHERIFF IS SLAIN GRANTING OF NEW GAS FRANCHISE IS UNLIKELY

FARRISH GONE TO CITY DADS WILL NOT ACT

COMMISSION TO AWAIT McMAHAN CONTRACT TERMINATION
While the City Commission of Lubbock has not yet taken official action on the application for a franchise by the C. L. Bullock interests in Wichita, Kansas, to pipe natural gas into Lubbock from the Pando oil fields, it was learned from an authoritative source here today that it is probable no other franchise will be issued before expiration of the one now in effect with the McMahon interests, known as the West Texas Gas company. Mayor Pink L. Parrish of Lubbock, is now absent from the city. Commissioners plan no action on their contract, until his return, it was said. Mayor Parrish was also absent last week when the application was submitted, and action was deferred on this account.

Prairie Is Interested
Information was received here Tuesday also that the Prairie and Gas company is interested in the situation here, and in the McMahon interests. It is believed that the McMahon interests will continue on their contract in Lubbock, and other towns along the proposed line. Representatives of the West Texas Gas company here insist that the company is going ahead with construction plans, and hope to have the McMahon contract terminated by May 15. Several cars were said to be in transit for the project, and other shipments are to follow immediately. The company has laid a line between Lubbock and Slaton in conformity with forfeiture contract with the city of Lubbock, and is continuing on ditching work for the line, it was said.

Commission Conservative
Apparently the sense of the commission here that the project financed, that officials are keeping faith as far as possible with their promises, and that it is not the desire of the commission to carry any probable additional burden in the way of continuation of the McMahon contract. The McMahon interests recently granted a franchise by the city of Plainview, and the McMahon franchise cancelled, but as far as can be learned here, no other franchise affected by the project has been similar action. Efforts are being made to have Plainview rescind the McMahon contract in order that the situation might be entirely clear of entanglements, although representatives of the company here say the action of Plainview has not affected the project in any way.

SOLONS FIGHT SALARY BOOST

'Conservative Bloc' Demand 'Cut-To-Bone' Economy In Judiciary System
(By The Associated Press)
AUSTIN, May 11.—Rumblings of "revolt" continued in the house today as a "conservative bloc" formed last night marshaled its force behind a "cut-to-the-bone" economy program in appropriations and created a petition seeking repeal of "the judges salary raise" law passed at the regular session. The petition signed by 35 representatives, is addressed to Governor Moody, asking him to submit to the special session the question of repealing the law. Heated speeches made with some heat at the session of the "conservative bloc" last night attacked what were branded as proposed "extravagances" in expenditure of state money. Representative W. R. Poage of Waco was elected chairman. Representatives King of Throckmorton county and Boggs of Tom Green favored the petition which recited that "a mistake was made in unwarrented salary raises and since more fully informing ourselves regarding the finances of the state and the desires of the people we feel justified in making this protest. We are informed that the Judiciary bill carries more than $2,000,000 increase over present salaries."

Says No Justification
King declared that "we are going to submit this petition to the governor and see if he means real economy. There is no real justification in boosting salaries of the judiciary at present." Boggs declared at the meeting that he is "tired of a few men running this legislature and it is time we assert our rights. I don't care if they call us bloc of insurgents; we've got to protect tax payers."

BERTAUD AND CHAMBERLIN WILL START TRANS-ATLANTIC FLIGHT SATURDAY; NO TRACES YET OF MISSING AVIATORS

HATE AGAINST AMERICANS IN PARIS WANING

PARIS, May 11 (AP)—Mystery surrounding the fate of Captains Nungesser and Goll in their trans-Atlantic flight, and of Captain Saint Roman and his flight companion, Commander Mounes, is binding all Frenchmen in a common bond of anxiety. As for Nungesser and Goll, the anxiety is tempered by a strong hope that news of their safety will be forthcoming, but the general opinion here today was that there was little justification for optimism in the case of Saint Roman and Mounes, of whom nothing has been heard since they left the coast of West Africa last Thursday in an attempt to fly across the southern Atlantic to Brazil.

Resentment is Passing
While resentment against the false news of the arrival in America of Nungesser and Goll still lingered today, the bitterness toward the United States, which appeared to be attributable to reports that the United States weather bureau withheld forecasts, is gradually subsiding in view of dispatches describing the wholehearted assistance by the American authorities in seeking the missing fliers. Moreover, the French weather bureau has publicly declared the American weather reports were sent by wireless, if they failed to arrive for two days, it was to atmospheric disturbances not to any omission by the United States weather bureau. The bitterness of the man in the street is waning.

Relief Workers Turn To Rebuilding As Death List In Storm Area Rises

(By The Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, May 11.—Prospects of a steadily increasing death list in the huge checkerboard scooped out of the middle west by a series of tornadoes and storms in which at least 228 persons perished and more than 900 were injured, today added to the trials of relief workers.

While casualty lists in Texas, Illinois, Kansas and Louisiana showed little change, debris of rased communities in Missouri and Arkansas yielded more bodies last night and several injured died in hospitals.

Score More May Die
Physicians reported that more than a score of injured in Missouri and Arkansas had little chance to live. This coupled with failure to establish communication with several villages since the tornadoes struck Monday, causing relief agencies to estimate the dead would total approximately 250. Casualty reports for the three day western storm period today showed:

State	Dead	Injured
Missouri	103	400
Arkansas	68	350
Texas	45	100
Illinois	13	35
Kansas	10	40
Louisiana	2	0
Wyoming	3	0
Totals	228	925

Judd Gray Would Say Goodbye To Ruth HE IS SORRY SHE HAS TO DIE FOR HER CRIME

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 11 (AP)—Henry Judd Gray would like to bid good-bye to Mrs. Ruth Snyder where they die in the electric chair for the murder of her husband. Twice since their conviction Monday he has expressed a desire to jail attendants to talk with her. "I didn't want to hurt her," Gray told Henry Masser, under-sheriff. "The least you can do is let me see her and say good-bye."

He Feels Better
"I tell you I don't want her to suffer. I'm sorry the verdict went so hard against her. I just couldn't do anything else," I told the truth. Now I feel better." Gray and Mrs. Snyder will see each other in court Monday when they are sentenced. After that they will be conveyed in separate automobiles to Sing Sing, where there will be no opportunity for communication. Gray was described today as apparently unconcerned by the prospect of death, but Mrs. Snyder was said to be suffering from extreme nervousness. Attorneys for both the man and woman are making preparations for appeals. Litigation is expected regarding insurance on the life of Albert Snyder, which totalled $75,000. While the insurance company has given no indication of what its attitude will be, it is thought the matter will be taken to court.

FRANCE TO BE RESENTFUL IF TRIP SUCCESS

U. S. AMBASSADOR SAYS FEELING IS BITTER AGAINST AMERICA
(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 11.—Notwithstanding warning by Ambassador Herrick that the start of any American airplane on a flight to Paris will be the fate of Captains Nungesser and Goll, remained in doubt might stir misunderstanding in France, owners of the Bellanca monoplane Columbia today planned their start for early Saturday.

Might Be Misunderstood
As joy in France over incorrect news that the war heroes had succeeded turned into resentment against the United States, Ambassador Herrick notified the state department that the start of any plane from America for Paris might be "misunderstood and misinterpreted." T. C. Charles A. Lewis, head of the Columbia Aircraft corporation, owner of the Bellanca plane, said that the start, which had been set for Thursday would be deferred to Saturday. Nungesser's fate undoubtedly would be known by then he added.

"The finest tribute we could pay these brave men is to take up the attempt where circumstances compelled them to lay it down," Mr. Turn to Page 8, Column 3, Please.

DENVER RIGHT 'OF-WAY' FIXED

Rapid Contracting Marking Efforts Of Railway Men To Speed Building
Right-of-way for the new line of the Fort Worth and Denver South Plains railroad from the main line of the Denver at Estelline to Lubbock is being rapidly contracted for through Lubbock county, although a few land owners of affected tracts are placing the price of their land higher than actual value. O. L. Slaton, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce railroad committee said today. Approximately $20,000 has been paid out by the committee for right-of-way in the last two or three days, it was said, and it is feared that the purchase of right-of-way is going to be interfered with by non-payment by signers of the notes of the amounts due by them toward the fund.

Collections on the fund are slowly being made, but not equal to amount of purchases of necessary right-of-way. Approximately $65,000 of $75,000 is yet outstanding on the fund, according to W. A. Bacon, chairman of the collections committee. Almost half of this is in notes of $400 or over, and the bulk of the balance in amounts ranging from $25 to $100.

FEUD ENDS AS ALBERT BONDS IS SHOT DOWN

(By The Associated Press)
BELTON, May 11.—Albert Bonds, former sheriff of Bell county, was shot four times with a rifle just before noon today as he walked in front of the Belton National bank. He was rushed to a hospital where he died an hour after the shooting.

The shots were fired by an unidentified person in a small automobile parked about fifty five yards from the court house. Witnesses either could not or would not mention who they believed did the shooting.

"Tell my wife and children goodbye," Bonds called as he fell when the first shot was fired. Four other shots were fired at him as he lay on the street, but one missed and three took effect.

The shooting occurred about 11:45 a. m. The shot came from an automobile, according to witnesses. Bonds was under indictment in connection with the killing of Wiley Fisher, formerly police chief of Temple, who was shot on the street of Belton last summer.

Following this shooting, Bonds disappeared and was not heard from for several months. He reappeared in Belton in the company of state rangers, and several weeks later was twice wounded on the streets of Belton.

Monroe Fisher, 35, son of Wiley Fisher, was arrested for this latter shooting, which occurred last August, but he was freed when the grand jury took no action.

The difficulties between Bonds and Fisher grew out of a bitter political fight over the sheriff's office. Bonds was a candidate for sheriff a second time. Fisher supported his opponent, John Bigham, who was elected. Following the campaign, Bonds started a criminal libel action against Fisher, and this was pending at the time Fisher was killed.

The deceased is the father of W. M. Green, of the Green and Hurbit company, of this city, and was well known to many Lubbock and other South Plains people. He had visited here many times, and in addition to being a stockholder in the Citizens National bank, and other banks in this part of the state, had extensive land holdings on the Plains.

Nose Is Deciding Factor, Says Coffin Beauty Of Face Rests Greatly On It

BY HASKELL COFFIN
For NEA Service

Feet have about the eyes. Lovers dream of their lovers' mouths. But the single feature that has most power to make or mar the beauty of a face is the nose.

The nose is the handle to the face. A bushy nose can detract from the eyes of an otherwise lovely face and often has been known to save a whole face from being classed as "ugly."

As a rule, the nose is the most individual and distinctive feature of the face and shape of its bridge, so a face is made or broken by its nose. Recently, beauty specialists have been debating the question—whether women as a rule know it or not.

Cupid Marks Two Du Ponts

The nose, as I pointed out before, should be approximately one-third the length of the face. If it must deviate from this proportion it should do so on the side of beauty. I personally like a slender, Greek nose. But it must be a tiny bit up-turned to really please me.

A very straight classical nose looks characterful. A little tilt suggests character and an arresting quality that causes you to remember it pleasantly. You instinctively smile at a woman with a nose that stirs the imagination.

But no nose should exceed the face. A little tilt that would otherwise be delightful if moderate, becomes pug if it is too well-defined. Restraint is always a concomitant of beauty; restraint in every detail will add.

Nothing need be said about the lack of beauty in a flat nose, nor the expression it imparts. Some noses, however, are types. Japanese noses, because of their characteristic of the people, but not all eastern noses have flat noses by any means. But Anglo-Saxons as a rule do not like the flat nose, nor the heavy nose. The moderate, in-between nose is best if nature withheld a Greek type when fashioning the face. A straight nose is usually attractive and distinguished.

Quivering Nostrils
Nostrils have much to do with a nose's beauty, also. The most unfortunate thing that can befall a person is to have too large nostrils. The small, Greek nose, usually has correspondingly small, delicate nostrils.

A blemish on the nose is worse than a blemish on any other part of the face. Somehow it seems emphasized by its location. For if you look either at the eyes or the mouth, the nose is the one inconspicuous part of the face. Women with perfect noses should thank their lucky gods who gave them this gift of beauty.

Overcomes Objection TO SING GRAND OPERA She's A Texas Maiden

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 11.—A romantic story of parental objections and sisterly aid lies behind the announcement last night that Miss Ethelreda Aves of Galveston, has been selected as one of seven Americans engaged for next season's Metropolitan Opera company.

The New York Sun states that the soprano's success came just as she was losing faith in herself.

Miss Aves is the daughter of a Galveston minister, the late Rev. Charles S. Aves, and she revealed today that her father was deeply shocked when she first broached the subject of becoming a professional singer.

"I would sooner see you dead here at my feet rather than see you behind the footlights of the stage," the Sun says her father told her.

The minister's opposition, based on his dislike for theatrical life, was so firm that Miss Aves never sang in public, except in church, up to the time she left home in defiance of her father's wishes seven years ago. She was then 18 and at this point in her life the sister became the guiding influence.

Her sister, Miss Marian Aves, was doing settlement work on New York's east side and she gave every encouragement to the youthful aspirant for operatic fame.

Educated in England and presented at court in 1925, she occasionally assists her mother at social functions.

American Actress Taken For Flapper

LONDON.—Fannie Ward, 52-year-old flapper and former American actress, and her daughter, Lady Plunkett, are often taken for sisters in their jaunts about London. Lady Plunkett's introduction of Miss Ward as her mother is frequently accepted on the assumption that the "young lady" is really a sister or young cousin.

Lady Plunkett, considered one of the prettiest matrons in London, is an intimate friend of the Duchess of York. Like her mother, she plans to open an exclusive dress making establishment here.

Chooses Her Job So Children May Play

SOUTH HADLEY, Mass.—Although the play grounds of most children are determined by the residence and occupations of their parents, Mrs. Sydney Greenbie, author of travel books and assistant professor of English at Mount Holyoke college, confesses that the reverse is true for her and that she chose her job because her children liked to play on the campus.

From Feminine Freedom Come Kitchen Classes For Boys

PHILADELPHIA, May 11.—Overbrook high school here has introduced a course in domestic science for boys.

This procedure on the part of the school is interesting and unprecedented as well as significant. It puts boys and girls on a new basis of equality and acknowledges the economic independence of women's kind.

Just why should the idea of teaching boys to cook be startling? They surely do most of the cooking so why not teach them to do most of their cooking as well? The future wife can demand quite that father used to bake and long for salad such as father used to mix.

Seriously, if women are sharing the financial burden it's only fair that men should share the domestic responsibilities. If "Dolly" rushes home from her office one night to get dinner, let "John" do the same the next evening. The teaching of cooking to boys seems to accept the fact that women are not going to

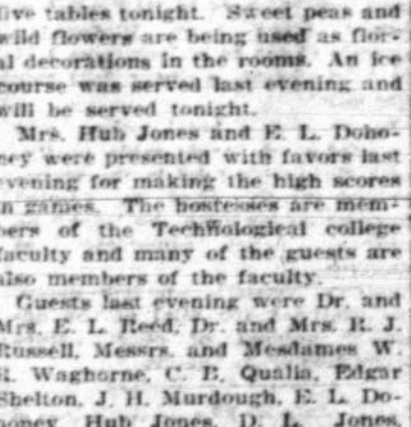

Young men taking the domestic science course at the Overbrook high school in Philadelphia will never starve if they elude marriage. Here you see Maurice Toplin rolling biscuit dough while Bernard Simpson removes a golden brown loaf of bread from the oven.

... in the kitchen but are being accorded an equal right with men to continue their profession or trade after marriage without sacrifice of home or necessary leisure hours.

The course in the Overbrook high school includes general dietetics as well as cooking. Whether boys ever learn to "bake a cherry pie as quick as a cat can wink its eye" or not, they should know something of the chemistry of foods and the fine art of combining them. Food keeps us well and as a man catch so is he to a great degree. It is the men folk learn how to choose their foods, those meals which must be eaten away from close feminine supervision will be far more wholesome and less likely to cause digestive disturbances. The eternal diet of meat and potatoes and pie to which man is prone if left to his own devices is not conducive to long life and happiness. But if the average man had learned along with his geometry and rhetoric the actual necessity of eating fresh vegetables and green salads he would cheerfully and eagerly include them in his daily bill of fare.

There are many dishes in which boys should excel. Their greater muscular strength makes the concocting of mixtures requiring such beating a simple task and not the physical strain many girls find it.

Even though boys never actually use their culinary skill, their knowledge of the art will make them far more appreciative of the efforts of others and they will gain a keener enjoyment from their food.

Beautiful eyes are measured by art's yardstick in Haskell Coffin's next article.

THE housewife does the family buying today. That is why she must compare before she buys in order to obtain the best possible values for her money. Just as in selecting grapefruit, she also finds comparison helpful in buying everything for her home.

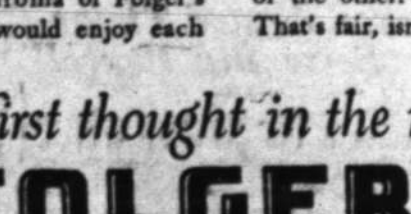

Of course, husbands admire this shopping trait. The only way to get the best quality is by comparison. So with coffee.

We could tell you of the rich, full flavor and fragrant aroma of Folger's Coffee. How you would enjoy each steaming cup of this blend of the world's finest coffees.

But we ask you to take nothing for granted. Simply make the Folger Coffee Test by which you compare Folger's with the brand you are now using.

The Folger Coffee Test: Drink Folger's Coffee tomorrow morning; the next morning drink the coffee you have been using; the third morning drink Folger's again. You will decidedly favor one brand or the other. The Best Coffee Wins. That's fair, isn't it?

RESCUERS ARE SEARCHING IN MIDWEST SNOW

THREE ARE DEAD WITH OTHERS MISSING IN SPRING DRIFTS

(By The Associated Press) DENVER, Colo., May 11.—Midwinter scenes greeted visitors to their Rocky Mountain states today as rescue parties fought snow to release persons marooned a week-end blizzard. Three persons froze to death in coming and two others were missing. Myron Bryan perished in his automobile near Fort Laramie. Mrs. Miller and his wife died when they left their stalled motor south of Laramie in an attempt to fight their way through a blizzard to a ranch house.

Hunt For Young Boys

Seven University of Iowa students are rescued between Laramie and Fort Laramie. A snow storm and several men today continued an effort to reach 14 fishermen snowed in near Jasper Saturday. They left with only enough food for one meal. Clear skies yesterday allowed the rescue of livestock men for safety cattle and sheep. With lumbering over way, sheep men expected no loss.

Although snow continued in the Horn basin near Thermopolis, last night's other points in coming and storm reported weather with rising temperatures.

MEXICO REVOLT NEARS CRISIS

Generals Prepare To Open Battle Against Yaqui Indian Troopers

(By The Associated Press) NOGALLES, Ariz., May 11.—A crisis in the rebellious movement of Yaqui Indians against the Mexican government appeared near today as federal troops rushed preparations to meet a band of rebel, known followers of Adolfo de la Huerta, former provisional president reported marching northward toward Nogales, Sonora, just across border from here. Entrenchments thrown up by the rebels about the border town were visible from the American side last night, while skirmishes with the Yaquis were reported at points as far as 15 miles from the international line.

800 Indians Ready

Reports reaching here, but which asked confirmation, were that General Luis Mattus, chief of the Yaquis, had approximately 800 well armed

A Jovial Cal Coolidge

President Coolidge left all his legendary reserve in Washington when he visited New York to address the United Press twentieth anniversary dinner. It was a smiling, jovial president, as these photos show, who arrived in the metropolis to mingle with and talk to hundreds of famous newspaper men of the country. His human mood was all the more apparent when after addressing the United Press birthday gathering on the U. S. foreign policy, he stayed to launch over a humorous talk by Irvin Cobb and finally to chat with various newsmen instead of following his usual custom of departing at once. In the upper of these two photos, the president and Mrs. Coolidge are shown just after their special train reached New York. Next to Mrs. Coolidge is Karl A. Heikel, president of the United Press. Just behind the president is Captain W. H. Brown, his naval aide. The lower photo shows the president, still smiling, and Mrs. Coolidge in their auto.

SCOUT CAMP PLANS MADE

Annual Encampment Opens August First At Post Memorial Grounds

The regular annual encampment of Boy Scouts of the South Plains Area Council is to begin August 1 at the C. W. Post Memorial camp near Post. The committee in charge of this phase of scouting has announced here, and plans are under way for a large attendance. Only 100 boys can be accommodated at a time in the camp, and it has been decided that if necessary a second period of training will be held. The encampment will be for ten days, and a fee of $10 will be charged each attendant, due to be used to defray running expenses of the camp, including food, fuel, transportation of supplies, leadership, etc. Under rules each scout must furnish his own bedding, toilet articles, uniform, and other personal equipment. The Council will furnish tents.

Registrations for the encampment will be accepted only for the first ten day period until the quota is filled, and if sufficient enrollment is made, a second encampment will be held. Registrations are to be received in the order received at head quarters office here. It was said. Plans are now under way whereby to construct the dam on the camp site to insure boating and swimming, but in the event finances do not permit to allow this construction, this diversion will be given at Two Deer Lake, as was done last year.

Every scout in the Council is urged by officials to take advantage of the encampment, for training is received there, it is said, that is not available in any other way.

A band of Yaquis and Mexican federales yesterday at Santa Barbara, east of the border town, during which one Indian was killed, several wounded, and others driven off in the direction of El Proceso. Military authorities, however, denied that the preparations about Nogales were for the defense of the town and declared that the soldiers stationed thereabouts were watching for smugglers.

Information reaching American military officials were that approximately 4,000 Mexican federales were in the troubled area.

Claims Rebellion Over MEXICO CITY, May 11 (AP)—The Yaqui rebellion in Sonora has been virtually suppressed. Major Cesar Hangel, chief of the federal forces in that state, told El Universal Grafico on his arrival in Mexico City last night to make a report to the war department. He said the Yaqui Indians were flocking into the federal post to surrender.

A New Wrinkle

ATLANTIC CITY.—Some men are using brown face powder to give the appearance of a coat of tan, if speakers at the convention of the American manufacturers of toilet articles have things straight.

He Is Halted

NEW YORK.—Frank Mullin, 20, star pitcher of the sand lots of the Red Hook district of Brooklyn, is through with baseball forever because of a tragedy. Anthony Espiolet, 13, who aspired to be a catcher but was weak on curves, was warming up. An inshoot struck Tony over the heart. He died before an ambulance arrived.

Something Wrong

NEW YORK.—There's something wrong about the reputation of messenger boys for slowness. Joseph Vassallo of Brooklyn was fined $25 for hitting it up to 55 on a motorcycle to deliver a telegram.

A New Psalm

LONDON.—Verse from a Psalm by the Rev. Basil W. S. Matthews, vicar of polytechnic, about his parish problems: "With young men and maidens the parson hath his problems, for if from them he hold aloof, they dislike him so much that when to him they should turn as to a friend in need with them he cutteth no ice."

To Join Up

NEW YORK.—Having sung for the Metropolitan Opera for 27 years, Antonio Scotti, Italian baritone, is to become a citizen. He says he has long considered himself an American without papers.

An Argument

NEW YORK.—The fair Helen of California is as fearless about superstition as about opponents on the courts. Miss Willis is leaving at midnight Friday the thirteenth in quest of tennis laurels abroad.

Chip Off Block

PHILADELPHIA.—Foster Sanford, Jr., son of the famous footballer, is quite a baseballer. He pitched his seventh victory of the season for Penn in defeating the nine from Rutgers, where his dad coaches. In five innings she fanned seven and yielded three hits, then was taken out to rest up for Princeton.

Modern Girls

NEW YORK.—An American thermos bottle is to be in the boudoir of the Queen of Spain. By special Duchess Maria Ana, daughter of the Duke of the Union of Cuba, bought it here. Maria Ana and her sister Matilda visited New York four days with the duke, with bobbed hair and Paris frocks, and American slang they could pass for New York deb. They leagued the slang at home from up-to-date American phonograph records.

Question Mark

NEW YORK.—What do politicians talk about when they confer? Would fishes swim? The answer to the first question is not always the obvious. Evans Woolen, whom Tom Taggart favors for president, called on Mr. Olvany, head of Tammany. "We did not talk politics," said Mr. Olvany. "It was purely a social visit." Nelson P. Cook of Mount Holly, Vermont, adjoining Plymouth birth place of Mr. Coolidge, also called. He did not talk politics, it was stated, telling why he is for Smith.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON NEW ORLEANS, May 11 (AP)—Lowest Liverpool cables than one and selling brought about by better weather prospects tended to lower the cotton market from the start, although at one time there was a good rally on the improvement in the financial position resulting from the thorough liquidation of the bank interests. The opening was 2 to 10 points down and selling brought July to 15.47, October to 15.70 and December to 15.85, 20 to 22 points net down. During the afternoon the market was steady, covering based on reports that western rivers were again rising but not to the extent of yesterday's closing quotations.

NEW YORK TRADING NEW YORK, May 11 (AP)—Favorable exchange reports were reflected in rather active trading on liquidation in the cotton market today. But declines of 18 to 20 points were followed by partial rallies on trade buying and covering. July, which had sold off to 15.50 advanced to 15.60. The mid afternoon market was quiet, but steady, ending 8 or 10 points of yesterday's closing quotations.

Appeals Courts

AUSTIN, May 11 (AP)— Finding no reversible error, the court of criminal appeals today affirmed the death sentence assessed A. V. Milliken for the slaying of Mrs. Virginia Petty, San Antonio real estate woman, about May 22, 1926.

Mrs. Petty's body was found on the banks of the Comal river near New Braunfels. Testimony was that she apparently had been robbed after being shot to death.

Milliken was indicted in Comal county and the case tried in Caldwell county on a charge of venue.

The court affirmed the 99 year sentence imposed on J. P. Gray of Henderson county, convicted of murder in connection with the killing of R. A. Sharp, December 17, 1924, to a five to 99 year sentence.

Motion of Gus McCoy, assessed a like term from Marion county for the slaying of J. H. Howell, sr., for rehearing was denied.

Hill county district court has legal right to deny bail to Hal Lawler, held under indictment after the slaying of Lawler's father-in-law, A. J. Motley, the appeals court held.

Despite Lawler's attorneys claim that his founded condition might result in death if he is forced to remain in jail, the court denied plea for habeas corpus.

Criminal Court
AUSTIN, May 11 (AP)—Proceedings in the court of criminal appeals include:

Affirmed: Hugh Spencer, Val Verde; W. H. Hicks, Washington; Odell Burgess, Wood; A. L. Porter, Tains; Bill Baker, Guadalupe; Will Britton, Rusk; A. Y. Milliken, Hill; Avery V. Jackson, W. A. Reversed and remanded: Charley Melburn, Lamar.

Reformed and affirmed: Jack Celeste, Jefferson.

Judgment denying bail reversed, bail granted in the sum of $7,500 and $1,500: Hugh Walker and Whitey Walker, Hutchinson.

Appellant's motion for rehearing overruled: H. A. Clements, Navarro; Rosella Jones, Jefferson; C. A. Tait, Grayson; Roy McNeely, Lubbock; F. S. Birdwell, Taylor.

Elopers

Olive Schick, 19 (upper), loved her suitor, Edward Jones, 36 (lower). So they eloped from the Jones home at Maspeth, Long Island, to Chicago. There the police stepped in, charged Jones with deserting Olive's mother, 41. "She should have given him up to me," Olive was reported as saying.

GRAIN RATE DECIED

DALLAS, May 11 (AP)—Losses to southwestern railroads which would result if the grain rate is reduced could not be made up in revenue from other sources, witnesses testified today at the interstate commerce hearing on the grain rate structure.

George T. Atkins, St. Louis, vice president in charge of traffic of the Missouri Kansas Texas, and P. J. McCarthy, St. Louis, assistant general freight agent for the Missouri Pacific railway, were the witnesses.

ON FRIDAY, THE THIRTEENTH

Newspaper persons are not superstitious. They know that the worst that can happen here is not by any means that what has already happened. So Friday, the thirteenth day of May, has been chosen as the convention date for the Mid-Texas Press Association, which will meet in Brownwood.

The Association was formed here last fall by a group of twenty or more editors and publishers from more than a dozen counties, and the meeting soon to be held will be the first semi-annual convention. Obviously the coming of editors from neighboring counties will do Brownwood good.

Editors usually tell their constituents about the good things they have seen in other communities than their own, and if Brownwood gives them the kind of welcome they are entitled to, the visitors who are to be here on the 13th will bring several nice pieces for their papers when they get back home—Brownwood Bulletin.

OIL MEN ASK FEDERAL AID

Restriction Of Production May Be Handled By U. S. Petroleum Board

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 11.—Some of the leading oil producers have appealed to the federal government for help in restricting oil production and the federal oil board has replied that the government is ready to assist in any proper manner.

The appeal, which embodies a restriction plan to guard against over production, was addressed to Secretary Work, chairman of the oil board, and was signed by Walter C. Teagle, president of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, and W. S. Parish, former president of the American Petroleum Institute.

It declared that over production had "recurred this year in a form so malignant as to seem to be without precedent." A co-operative method of control, worked out through joint purchase of certain producing lands, was proposed as a solution. Yesterday Mr. Teagle discussed this plan with Secretary Work, who told him to further consider it in conference with other oil men, and then again consult with the board. A meeting of oil producers is meeting in New York today with that purpose in view.

While in the middle of Senor Gonzales' sensational performance two of the electric wires became crossed and a short circuit resulted. The big tent was immediately thrown in darkness. Officer Wheeler showed his gun and firing two shots which frightened the furious animal, causing her to back up to the side of the arena until the lights were readjusted.

It is rumored around the show lot of the John Francis shows that a subscription will start among the employees and that officer Wheeler will be presented with a silver cup to show their appreciation.

A large crowd was on the mammoth Joy Zone last night and every one seemed to be having a good time. No disorder of any kind was reported on the midway. The show is playing here this week under auspices of the Lubbock B. P. O. Elks lodge.

Chamber Of Commerce Urges Welcome For Dallas Boosters Here On Friday

SPECIAL TRAIN TO BE HERE OVER NOON HOUR, REPORT

The Dallas Good Will delegation will arrive in Lubbock at 12:15 on Friday and will spend an hour here. Officials of the Chamber of Commerce are anxious that all Lubbock turn out to greet the visitors from the East Texas Metropolis.

Officials here should Lubbock business men arrange to meet the train and to stay in their places of business during the time the visitors are here in order that the trade trippers may have a chance to visit their customers here after the short addresses of welcome which will be extended the visitors.

Full cooperation in meeting and entertaining the visitors is expected, despite the fact that they will arrive at lunch time when Lubbock business men are ordinarily at lunch.

A two foot hydrogen filled balloon will be released by a jewelry firm of Dallas. The finder will be presented with a gold filled pocket watch. A balloon is being released in each city where the Dallas boosters stop and the finder of the balloon that travels the greatest distance will be awarded a gold plated 42-in. watch by the company.

Many other souvenirs will be distributed and the Dallas boosters will be here to again remind Lubbock that "It's in Dallas."

Typhoid Serum Given Tornado Victims
DALLAS, May 11 (AP)—Red Cross nurses and physicians prepared Wednesday to administer typhoid serum to more than 200 residents of Nevada, which was struck Monday by a tornado. It is feared that well water of the town is contaminated.

The Dallas chapter of the Red Cross sent a large quantity of serum and several nurses to the town today, and preparations were being made to get the people in line for "the shot" this afternoon.

The death list of victims of the Garland storm mounted to 13 with the death here Wednesday of D. E. Nicholson. Hospital authorities reported that a number of the Nevada sufferers here had improved.

Poplar Bluff Turns To Reconstruction
POPULAR BLUFF, Mo., May 11 (AP)—Plans for rebuilding a "great" Poplar Bluff, Mo., were definitely set today as a result of a meeting of the city's representative business men.

The death toll of Monday's tornado remained at 88 early today and Red Cross figures showed 350 injured, 100 seriously. Relief work is well organized.

Gangs Clear Wreckage
Gangs of men continued busy clearing up the debris in the main business section, which bore the full shock of the tornado. Other men were digging graves where the first of the dead will be buried today.

May Go To London
Lloyd Bertaud, navigator of the Columbia, said: "We won't go to Paris if they don't want us. We'll fly over and around the Eiffel tower, touch our wheels at Le Bourget and then go to London and land at Cuxham field."

"Nungesser and Coli tried to get the jump on us and we hoped for their success as much as anyone in France," said—New in our—chance—Let's go.

"Those are my sentiments," said Clarence Chamberlin, the plane's pilot.

French newspapers have blamed America for sending misleading weather reports to France and for the dispatches that had erroneously announced the success of the expedition.

Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau in Washington, said Nungesser had not requested special advice from the weather bureau. The French meteorological institute, he added, receives weather reports broadcast by navy wireless.

Trans-Atlantic liners, navy and coast guard boats and French government vessels today continued search of the seas. The hunt extended from New York to the French coast.

Keep Those Customers!

"It is easier and cheaper to KEEP a hundred customers than to win back ONE who has drifted elsewhere."

Continuous advertising is insurance against the loss of customers just as surely as it is an appeal for new customers. The merchant who curtails advertising takes a great risk because each one of his regular customers is some other store's "prospect."

This is the last of three articles presenting A. Bruce Bielaski's own story of his work as chief of "under cover" prohibition enforcers.

By JAMES POWERS NEA Service Writer

NEW YORK, May 11.—"In all my dealings with rum runners I've never met the movie sheik type who supposedly is surrounded with all the romance of a pirate Captain Kidd or a turn-of-the-century desperado."

"Most of them are good, ugly looking and none too intelligent. They always are armed and when cornered they shoot to kill. They do not hesitate to wreck a rival's caravan of booze, and there have been cases where they have murdered the drivers in cold blood."

All Roads Lead to Rum Of the New York territory, it might be said all roads lead to rum. It was officially estimated last year there were approximately 25,000 saloons operating in this city. As few distilleries within the city limits were numerous enough to supply the thirsty throngs of customers who nightly came to salute the brass bands, an economic demand arose for the rum runner.

Bielaski faced the task of "knocking off" the incoming trucks and passenger cars that rumbled down with booze cargoes from secluded ports, from distilleries hidden in the Maine woods, or from Canada.

Two Men and a Sedan Two agents, Clarence H. Parks and Charles M. Forbes, led especially notable work, Bielaski related. They started out with $1,000 to buy intoxicating liquor. They bought a sedan and succeeded north to cultivate the acquaintance of dealers.

They were ordered to keep their purchases as low as possible and were limited to ten cases of beer, which they bought at 85 a case. Canadian current quotation.

They averaged a profit of $2 to $4 a case. Immediately after they had made their deliveries search warrants were sworn out and simultaneous raids were made all along the road, resulting in 46 arrests.

Comedy and Tragedy Comic highlights were woven into Bielaski's experiences. One of his agents made violent love to a girl, whose brother he was piling up evidence as a leader of a fleet of cup trucks that were slipping into the Times square district every night.

"More men were killed trying to enforce the prohibition law than any other in the history of the government," he told me. "A yellow streak comes to the surface quickly in this game. Under cover men are viewed as an 'honorary' and are pictured as having long, thin noses and detestable dispositions. In fact they all are human, many of them fine husbands and fathers, and all are acting under orders. And they are brave—the bravest."

Hereford's Fire Record Is Good HEREFORD, May 11.—Reports from Austin show that the state fire insurance commission places Hereford as one of the nine leading cities in Texas for fire records. This is based on the records made during the past three years. A maximum credit of 15 per cent on all fire insurance policies written from March 1, 1927 to April 29, 1928, has been extended to Hereford and the other eight Texas cities, because of their good fire record. This is a compliment to the volunteer fire department and the citizenship of Hereford. The maximum credit has been secured in Hereford during the past two years.
