

Southern Melody Boys In Free Concert Saturday

The Loraine Chamber of Commerce is again offering free entertainment to Loraine visitors Saturday afternoon. This week some of the schools in the territory were ready to present a program so the entertainment committee secured the services of the Southern Melody Boys for an entertaining program of sacred and popular music and songs. Four highly trained voices will be heard in the concert.

Bring your family to town Saturday afternoon and enjoy this program at the theatre as the guest of the Chamber of Commerce.

BOX SUPPER AT BROWNLEE

A box supper will be held at the Brownlee school house Saturday night, November 11. Proceeds will go to pay for a piano. Everybody is invited.

C. O. C. TO MEET THURSDAY NIGHT

The Loraine Chamber of Commerce will meet Thursday night of this week. The meeting was postponed from Tuesday night. Some important business is to be before the body and all members are urged to be present.

The Nolan County News, published at Sweetwater, came out with a special edition last Sunday. It was full of good reading and advertising. The edition was to advertise the four-day Hereford Sale and Rodeo in Sweetwater this week end.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday school attendance was low due to the cold weather Sunday. Mrs. Georgia Johnson's class of intermediate girls made the highest grade Sunday. Mrs. Brame's class of older men stay right at the top with their report each Sunday.

The teachers and officers meeting was well attended last Wednesday evening. A few words of encouragement were said by the pastor and a round table discussion was held by superintendent Clyde Bennett. Refreshments of punch and sandwiches were served at the close of the service. These meetings for S. S. teachers and workers will be held each month on Wednesday evening before the first Sunday.

Our pastor brought a message on "Stewardship" Sunday morning and brought a message to the lost Sunday evening. May we pray for our pastor and church that we may win the lost this coming year.

One-half the members and a number of visitors were present in Baptist Training Service Sunday evening. It is very important that each member of the Training Service be there each Sunday.

The orchestra played special numbers at both morning and evening services.

The church has planned to adopt the S. S. Standard of Excellence for the coming year and use literature for all classes. Why not get enrolled in some class if you are not in Sunday school.

Hays Jeter also pled guilty to the theft of a car and was given a two-year sentence. The M. W. Barrett case in which he was charged with robbery, was continued to the next term of court after his trial resulted in a hung jury.

In the civil docket the case of Minnie A. Johnson versus the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. was settled out of court.

The F. C. Sloan case, in which he is suing the Texas and Pacific railway for damages, was continued to the next term of court after the trial had been started. The mother of a principal witness was killed in an accident near Temple.

TEXAS TO RECEIVE $20,000,000 SHARE IN NEW WORK FUND

Austin, Nov. 9.—Relief Director Lawrence Westbrook left today for Washington to confer with Emergency Relief Administrator Harry Hopkins and other authorities on the newly created civil works administration.

After talking to Washington authorities by long distance telephone yesterday, Westbrook estimated Texas' share of the funds allotted to civil works would amount to $20,000,000.

The federal government yesterday allotted $400,000,000 from the public works fund to the civil works administration, to be administered by the nation-wide relief set-up.

Miss Maggie Jeter spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Anderson at Sweetwater.

Father of Baptist Pastor Dies Following Long Illness

BOYS WIN, GIRLS LOSE TO WESTBROOK SATURDAY

The Westbrook girls showed better shooting ability Saturday and scored a 21 to 9 victory over the Loraine girls team. The Loraine team is made up of new material and should do better under fire next time.

The local boys team put up a good defensive game when they held the Westbrook boys to a lone field goal. However, fouls almost cost them their game. Loraine 16, Westbrook 12. There were sixteen fouls registered against the local team but some hard work will eliminate that soon.

A good crowd saw both games and we think they got their money's worth.

We are trying to match games for Saturday week with Dunn boys and girls. They report strong teams.

A pep squad has been organized. Margaret Ruth Edwards and Butsie Hall were elected yell leaders.

Come help Loraine win the game.

CANCER CAUSES MANY DEATHS IN TEXAS

Austin, Texas, Nov. 8.—"The increasing number of persons in Texas dying from cancer, justifies a warning at this time against cancer quacks and so-called cancer cures. While newspapers, as a rule, do not carry advertising of this type, there are many other ways by which misinformation can reach the public. Undoubtedly there are many persons who, being thus deluded from seeking proper advice, unnecessarily become cancer victims, while others not having cancer, are fleeced out of much for a cure," stated Dr. John W. Brown, State Health officer.

"There are but two ways of treating cancer. First, by surgery, and second, by the use of radium or X-ray. Treatment must be started early and in the hands of a competent surgeon. Surgery is relied upon to remove cancerous tumors and is used in nearly two-thirds of the cases. X-ray or radium is used to advantage in one-third of the cases. Frequently the two methods are combined. Self-medication, serums, colored lights, pastes, salves, and diets are valueless.

"The great bulwark against cancer is early diagnosis. Every case is an emergency as it is unfortunate that the majority of those with cancer do not seek medical advice until beyond a permanent cure. No hope should be placed in fake cancer prophets and their treatments. Rather, the annual physical examination and an immediate reporting to your physician of any symptoms which may be suspected to be the beginning of cancer, should be relied upon. These symptoms are: Any unusual bleeding from any body opening, any lump in the breast or other part of the body, any persistent sore, particularly on the face or mouth, and chronic indigestion. These conditions may not be cancer, but sometimes they are forerunners of the more common type of this disease. Where cancer is suspected, do not delay, but consult your physician at once."

More interest in proper canning of meat is in evidence on Texas farms this year than in any previous season in Mrs. Blair's opinion. She warns home canners to watch two things particularly in canning meat, both of which have caused trouble and sometimes spoilage in the past.

First, the meat should be thoroughly cooked before sealing the can or jar until the protein in the container is hot enough to drive all the cold air out. A simple test for this is to hold the hand over the can and if it is scalding hot the cold air has been driven out and an effective steam seal can be obtained.

Produce pre-cooked in this way are sausage, hamburgers, meat, steaks, and liver paste. Due to difficulty of heat penetration sausage and hamburgers should not be put in No. 3 cans.

Meat, chops, stew and meat loaf can be pre-heated in an open vessel, put into cans boiling hot and immediately sealed and processed.

A second important step which has caused trouble has been in allowing the paper on gasket lids to become damp from water or steam and to buckle up. This can be avoided by turning the lid bottom side up on the cans and not turning over until just ready for sealing.

To facilitate home meat canning Mrs. Blair suggests that grandfathers make a wooden rack to about 4 feet long for storing raw and cold. New pine should not be used for this. She also suggests he put a fork in a broom handle in preparation for canning day.

The first rat killing campaign in Mitchell county was planned for November 16 and meetings will be held every week up to January 15.

The red squill to be used for rat killing is a poison which is hard to get. It is a very toxic substance and should be handled with care. It is a very effective rat poison and should be used in a safe manner.

Most people misunderstand the strength of poisons. For instance it is not generally known that if the same quantity of a poison is fed to each of a group of rats and it is found that one fourth of the rats die from this poison it will require a poison approximately four times as toxic to kill all the rats.

This is the reason why some rats are found dead after a single dose of very inferior rat poison and also why all the rats on one premises are not killed even after exposure to the poison many times.

OFFICIALS SWING INTO ACTION VS. GAMING DEVICES

District Attorney George Mahon, assisted by County Attorney Warren Dodson, swung into action last week, with mechanical gambling devices as their prey. The carnival then in town was forced to close games of this character, and slot machines were banned from local stores. A check-up yesterday, however, revealed that several machines said to come under the law's ban are yet being operated here. —Scurry County Times.

LOCAL GINNINGS NEAR 15,000 BALEEES TO DATE

Ginnings for the season at the seven plants in Merkel and those at Stith, Noodle and Blair lack only a little over a hundred bales of reaching the 15,000 mark; tabulation of The Mail Wednesday afternoon showed 14,841 bales ginned to date. Ginnings for the past week were 1,882, as compared with 779 the previous week. For the same date last year, the total was 12,287. —Merkel Mail.

32 BEER MAKES DEBUT HERE, 5 HAVE LICENSES

Three-point-two beer is getting ready to step out in the open in Roscoe, after being sold more or less on the sly since the beverage became legal in Texas on Sept. 16. Plans were made yesterday for the opening of a retail beer dispensing plant in the town town district in the old National Bank Building, and may be completed within a few days. In the meantime, at least four licenses to sell the beverage have already been secured by local persons, and another application is expected to be filed within a short time. License to beer, fruit wines, hard liquor, or what have you, until June 14 of next year, totals $16.75 in Roscoe, one of the persons holding such a license, revealed. The license was secured in Abilene, and while it is known that the liquor part is not yet legal the license holder said he figured he might as well shoot the works on chance of it being legalized before his present license runs out. —Roscoe Times.

ON TEXAS FARMS By W H Darrow, Extension Service Editor

Other things equal, good seed wins. Austin Bishop, Jr., Red River county 4-H club boy, picked more than a bale of cotton to be acre on three acres planted to pedigreed seed. His father made three-fourths of a bale planted on the same kind of land at the same time. Something green from the garden was used on the dining table of the Ed Sklar home in Wharton county every day from late last fall until now with the exception of two weeks following last year's freeze. The gardener was Irene Sklar, president of the Muldoon 4-H club.

When half through terracing a field last year rain set in and prevented Oscar Mangold, Medina county farmer, from finishing the job. The rain was costly, the county agent says. The terraced land was the poor upland hal off of the field but it made 10 bushels more corn to the acre than the richer bottom land.

A one-section farm in Hale county made money for C. H. Day and sons last year, the county agent reports. With the help of 4 sons Mr. Day grew wheat, cotton, alfalfa, sudan, oats, barley and grain sorghum and balanced crops up with hogs, dairy cattle, baby beeves, and poultry. A garden and orchard helped, too.

Anything from bathroom fixtures to false teeth are bought with canned product in Tarrant county this year, according to reports of home demonstration club members. Plumbers, laundries, filling stations, news stands and dentists are among the concerns accepting pay in canned goods.

Cato Weinheimer, Gillespie county farmer is among those who are getting paid off for several years; work in making improved pecans grow on native trees. He expects to gather from 4000 to 5000 pounds of paper shell pecans this fall.

It is said that in a churchyard in Richmond, Virginia, there is a quaint, old tombstone inscribed as follows: "Stop, my friend, as you pass by. As you are so once was I. As I am now you soon shall be. Prepare yourself to follow me. It is further said that a school boy read the inscription one day, and with a heavy crayon, added these lines: "To follow you I'm not content. Until I know which way you went."

Rat Killing Campaign Starts In Mitchell County November 16th

The cooperative rat campaign for Mitchell county will begin November 16 and meetings will be held according to schedule shown in various schools of the counties by Mr. Ben Baskin, county agent, and Miss Emma Gunter, Home demonstration agent. A representative of U. S. Biological Survey will assist the demonstration agents in discussing the best poisoning methods and a poisoning demonstration will be given at each meeting.

Red squill will be the principal poison used and will be available on a cooperative basis for less than the wholesale price of similar poisons. This poison if used properly is very toxic to rats and mice but is practically harmless to livestock, poultry and human beings. But this poison, like all other poisons, does not attract rats, therefore the bait used and the method of exposing the poisoned bait is of more importance than the kind of poison used.

All red squill poisons are not recommended nor approved by the Government. In fact several red squill poisons sold locally have been tested and found to be worthless or very from time to time so much that they can not be relied upon as a rat poison. According to the U. S. Biological Survey red squill to be used as a rat poison should kill all rats fed a proportion of 5 mg. red squill to 1 kilogram of rat weight.

Most people misunderstand the toxic strength of poisons. For instance it is not generally known that if the same quantity of a poison is fed to each of a great number of rats and it is found that one fourth of the rats die from this poison it will require a poison approximately four times as toxic to kill all the rats fed. This is the reason why some rats will be found dead after using a very inferior rat poison and also why all the rats on the premises are not killed even after exposing the poison many times.

The red squill to be used for this campaign was prepared through the U. S. Biological Survey and comes up to standard strength.

Schedule of meetings for Rat killing campaign in Mitchell County.

Meetings will be held at the schoolhouse of the following named places during the Rat killing campaign. The first meeting will be held to instruct each farmer in the necessity of pre-baiting, how to pre-bait, when, where, etc. At the same meeting orders will be taken as to the number of farmers needing poison, amount needed, etc. At the second meeting the poison will be delivered and instructions given in how to distribute same. Below is the schedule of meetings:

- Monday, Nov. 13, 2 p. m. Bauman, 4 p. m. Loraine.
- Tuesday, Nov. 14, 2 p. m. Valley View, 4 p. m. Buford.

SUGGEST BETTER METHOD IN CANNING BEEF OR HOG

College Station—It is hard to get too many steam pressure cookers and wash pots together when canning a beef or a hog on the farm, declares Miss Lola Blair, food specialist in the Extension Service at Texas A and M College. "There should be 8 or 10 cookers and 4 wash pots if the work is to be done easily and without loss of time," she says. "One wash pot is needed for heating water, one for searing roasts and steaks, and one each for chili and stew meat. With proper equipment a beef or two hogs may be entirely canned from 8 in the morning until 4 in the afternoon if there are 8 to 10 people helping, including 2 or 3 men."

More interest in proper canning of meat is in evidence on Texas farms this year than in any previous season in Miss Blair's experience. She warns home meat canners to watch two things particularly in canning meat, both of which have caused trouble and sometimes spoilage in the past. Pre-heating before sealing the canning should be continued in an open jar until the product in the container is hot enough to drive all the cold air out. A simple test for this is to hold the hand over the can and if it is steaming hot the cold air has been driven out and an effective vacuum seal can be obtained.

Products pre-cooked in this way are sausage, hamburgers, roasts, steaks, and liver paste. Due to difficulty of heat penetration sausage and hamburgers should not be put in No. 3 cans. Soup, chili, stew and meat loaf can be pre-bleached in an open vessel, put into cans boiling hot, immediately sealed and processed.

A second important step which has caused trouble has been in allowing the paper on gasket lids to become damp from water or steam and to buckle up. This can be avoided by turning the lids bottom side up on the cans and not turning over until just ready for sealing.

To facilitate home meat canning Miss Blair suggests that grandfathers make a wooden paddle about 4 feet long for stirring stew and chili. New pine should not be used for this. She also suggests he put a fork on a broom handle in preparation for canning day.

OFFICIALS SWING INTO ACTION VS. GAMING DEVICES

District Attorney George Mahon, assisted by County Attorney Warren Dodson, swung into action last week, with mechanical gambling devices as their prey. The carnival then in town was forced to close games of this character, and slot machines were banned from local stores. A check-up yesterday, however, revealed that several machines said to come under the law's ban are yet being operated here. —Scurry County Times.

LOCAL GINNINGS NEAR 15,000 BALEES TO DATE

Ginnings for the season at the seven plants in Merkel and those at Stith, Noodle and Blair lack only a little over a hundred bales of reaching the 15,000 mark; tabulation of The Mail Wednesday afternoon showed 14,841 bales ginned to date. Ginnings for the past week were 1,882, as compared with 779 the previous week. For the same date last year, the total was 12,287. —Merkel Mail.

32 BEER MAKES DEBUT HERE, 5 HAVE LICENSES

Three-points-two beer is getting ready to step out in the open in Roscoe, after being sold more or less on the sly since the beverage became legal in Texas on Sept. 16. Plans were afoot yesterday for the opening of a retail beer dispensing joint in the downtown district in the old First National Bank Building, and may be completed within a few days. In the meantime, at least four licenses to sell the beverage have already been secured by local persons, and another application is expected to be filed within a short time. License to beer, light wines, hard liquor, or what have you, until June 14 of next year, totals $16.75 in Roscoe, one of the persons holding such a license, revealed. The license was secured in Abilene, and while it is known that the liquor part is not yet legal the license holder said he figured he might as well shoot the works on chance of it being legalized before his present license runs out. —Roscoe Times.

C. M. FINCH HAS TWO BALES PER

Our hat is off to C. M. Finch, of the Edith community. Mr. Finch is the champion cotton producer of Lynn county if somebody else does not show up with a better record. From five and one-half acres of J. R. Penn Half and Half, Mr. Finch reports that he has picked eleven 500-pound bales of cotton, and will get one more and Mr. Finch is an honorable man. From three acres of Champion Ranch cotton he has picked six bales and will get at least one and one-half bales more-two and one-half bales per acre. Lynn County News.

3568 BALES OF COTTON GINNED PRIOR TO OCT. 18

According to figures furnished by J. H. Fryar of Midland in charge of government crop reporting for this area, 3568 bales of cotton had been ginned in Howard County prior to October 18. This compares with 3666 bales ginned of the same date in 1932. His records show that up to October 18 this year less than 100 bales have been ginned in each of Martin and Midland counties. —Big Spring Weekly News.

ON TEXAS FARMS

By W. H. Darrow, Extension Service Editor

Other things equal, good seed wins. Austin Bishop, Jr., Red River county 4-H club boy, picked more than a bale of cotton to the acre on three acres planted to pedigreed seed. His father made three-fourths of a bale planted on the same kind of land at the same time. Something green from the garden was used on the dining table of the Ed Sklar home in Wharton county every day from late last fall until now with the exception of two weeks following last year's freeze. The gardener was Irene Sklar, president of the Muldoon 4-H club.

When half through terracing a field last year rain set in and prevented Oscar Mangold, Medina county farmer, from finishing the job. The rain was costly, the county agent says. The terraced land was the poor upland half of the field but it made 10 bushels more corn to the acre than the richer bottom land.

A one-section farm in Hale county made money for C. H. Day and sons last year, the county agent reports. With the help of 4 sons Mr. Day grew wheat, cotton, alfalfa, sudan, oats, barley and grain sorghum and balanced crops up with hogs, dairy cattle, baby beeves, and poultry. A garden and orchard helped, too.

Anything from bathroom fixtures to false teeth are bought with canned product in Tarrant county this year, according to reports of home demonstration club members. Plumbers, laundries, filling stations, news stands and dentists are among the concerns accepting pay in canned goods.

Otto Weinheimer, Gillespie county farmer is among those who are getting paid off for several years; work in making improved pecans grow on native trees. He expects to gather from 4000 to 5000 pounds of paper shell pecans this fall.

MORE INFORMATION NEEDED

It is said that in a churchyard in Richmond, Virginia, there is a quaint, old tombstone inscribed as follows: "Stop, my friend, as you pass by. As you are so once was I. As I am now you soon shall be. Prepare yourself to follow me. It is further said that a school boy read the inscription one day, and with a heavy crayon, added these lines: "To follow you I'm not content until I know which way you went."

TELLS OF TRIP TO THE WORLDS FAIR

College Station, Texas, Monday Night. To The Lorraine News: I will tell you about my trip to Chicago as much as possible in a letter.

Tuesday, the 10th of October, we left College at 8 o'clock and went to Dallas, arrived there about 12 o'clock noon. We had our lunch with us so we ate there at Mrs. Mummerlyn's father and mothers home, where Mrs. Mummerlyn left her children. We left Dallas about 2 o'clock and got into Texarkana about 8 o'clock and stayed there nearly two hours. We then went on and got as far as Little Rock, Ark., that night where we stayed in a tourist camp.

Wednesday, the 11th. We left

Little Rock about 10 o'clock and went as far as Perdue, Ill. Thursday, the 12th. We got up early and went to see the Illinois Hatchery and then drove on into Chicago. Arrived there about 11 o'clock p. m. Friday the 13th. We had to be at the C. I. Union Hotel at 8 o'clock for the inspection trip. We first went to the Co-operative trade market and from there to the cold storage plant and saw everything of cold storage. Saw 150,000 cases of eggs in one room. Then went to the Board of Trade building in Chicago and saw how they bought and sold farm products such as cotton, wheat, corn, barley, etc. There were two hundred signs with their trade names which was some kind of a code. We then went to the top of the skyscraper and viewed the city. It was about dinner time so Swift & Co. served us our dinner. We then went through their plant. They kill 750 hogs every hour, 450 chickens and 350 sheep. Two or five minutes from the time they enter the killing room they are dressed and in the cooler. We returned with this trip about 4:30.

Saturday the 14th. We started judging at 8 o'clock and finished at 12:30. We went to our rooms and cleaned up and to the bank at 6 o'clock. We got out of the bus at 9 o'clock and took a night train at 12 o'clock and arrived in St. Louis at 11:15.

Sunday the 15th. We slept until noon. That afternoon we drove out on the South Beach drive, and then Sunday night we took a sight seeing bus and saw the city at night. We went to the Hull house and saw it, then China Town, Hobo town, the Shums, the Business district, residential section, and the view of the fair. The bus driver showed us on one block some machine bullet holes and blood spattered on the wall. This happened a few months ago when some gangster and police had it out. I saw more things that night than I could possibly tell in a letter.

Monday, the 16th. We spent the day at the Fair and Monday night all stayed in the Fair ground. Also Monday morning we visited Maxwell street where they had their push carts and stands out in the middle of the street. There was not hardly enough room to walk down the street. They would stop you and want you to buy their stuff, you could buy just anything that you wanted. They had everything there. You had to be there that I had on your mind. We also drove through the fair and saw the costumes.

Tuesday, the 17th. We spent another day at the fair. We drove first to the World's Fair and then to the fair until about 10 o'clock and then drove back to the hotel last time.

Wednesday the 18th. We drove for home at 12 o'clock as far as St. Louis. We stopped at the Mother Miller's Home, capacity of 650,000.

Thursday the 19th. We traveled all the way from St. Louis to Purcell, Oklahoma, and saw the street for the first time. We arrived at College Station on Saturday morning.

One interesting thing I noticed was the difference between the North and South. Cotton belt you could see houses, better barns, and a good flock of chickens. A big barn and a field. Their dwelling was full compared with the Southern farm. We saw more on either side before. We could see once coming back to the Mississippi Valley I saw 3 bales of cotton in any good home. In the home in the cotton belt North their houses were beautiful dwellings well kept. I saw a farm that didn't have a push cart to get the goods. All the goods were all in the store. The going to the store every time I had to did not seem to be over the 12, 8, 4, the created market in U. S. They said it was as a grand time. We also drove through the fair and saw the costumes.
