Harry Hazlett, K. L. Cornelius Dead In Crash

Car Is Overturned Several Times On Road Near Tatum

(Special To The Journal)

LOVINGTON, N. M., Dec. 6.—Harry W. Hazlett, 49, Lubbock pharmacist, and Kenneth Leon Cornelius, 22, of Phoenix, Ariz., were fatally injured about 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon when the heavy automobile in which they were believed enroute from Phoenix to Lubbock overturned several times after failing to make a curve on the highway three miles west of Tatum.

Cornelius died enroute to a hospital at Lovington, and Hazlett lived only about an hour after reaching the hospital, according to Sheriff Horace Owens, of Lea county, who investigated the accident.

Failed To Make Curve

Sheriff Owens said his investigation showed that the car, a nearly new Chrysler New Yorker, failed to make the curve, rolled over several times, and was almost demolished. The sheriff said both men were thrown clear of the wreckage, adding that Hazlett was found about 16 feet beyond where the car finally came to rest, and Cornelius was several feet farther on.

No other vehicle was involved, Sheriff Owens said. Identities of the two were established from papers found on them. The sheriff said Hazlett's papers indicated he had written his sister, Mrs. H. J. Wuffen, of Grand Junction, Colo., designating disposition of his property in event something should happen to him.

Property To Needy

The note, which the sheriff said was not dated, directed that his property be given to the needy, or some other worthy cause.

Sheriff Owens said he did not know which of the men was driving at the time. He said he was advised by Phoenix relatives of Cornelius that the young man, who was in naval service from 1945 to 1947, had advertised in Phoenix newspapers for a ride to the vicinity of his home in Oklahoma, and they presumed he was with Hazlett as result of that.

The bodies were at Yarbrough Funeral Home here, where instructions had been received for shipment of Cornelius' body to Davenport, Okla., where his mother, Mrs. Gladys Mann, lives.

Theft Reports Are Received

Numerous theft reports were under investigation today of law enforcement agencies here.

Checks of the Kuykendall foundation and some signed by Mrs. Kuykendall were stolen from Mrs. Kuykendal's car, parked near the First Christian church, the police were informed Sunday. Mr. Kuykendall said $225 worth of checks had been signed by the foundation for mailing to persons in foreign countries. Checks totaling $135, signed by Mrs. Kuykendall, also were taken.

Some Reported Found

Some of the checks later were found in an alley near the church, Capt. of Detectives Pat Davidson said.

Mrs. Columbia Waldrop, operator of La Mode Beauty shop, said $400 in cash and $100 in checks were taken from her car at 1916 Ave. K, as well as important papers removed from her purse.

Neil Davis of Los Alamos, N. M., said his car stalled en route from Post to Lubbock in a driving sandstorm and that when he went for assistance a beaverette, raincoat, topcoat and a jacket were removed from the car.

Tire, Wheel Taken

A tire and wheel, valued at $35, were stolen from Curtis Warren of 1909 Sixteenth.

Hub caps valued at $10 were taken from the car of Jack O. Horsby of 2118 Seventh.

'29 Crash Given As Argument For Boost In Business Taxes

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 —Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) today cited the 1929 financial crash as an argument for boosting taxes on business profits.

Corporation earnings now are piling up at about the same rate as in 1929 although the companies are bigger. So the earnings are greater than ever before, O'Mahoney said.

"The conclusion we are asked to draw from this is that these profits should not be taxed," the senator told a reporter. "My conclusion is, on the contrary, that if the corporate profits of 1929 had been adequately taxed, this government would have been in a much better fiscal position than it was to meet the depression."

Supports Truman Plan

O'Mahoney is a member of the Senate-House economic committee which opens two weeks of public hearings on business profits (at 12:30 p. m CST) today.

The Wyoming senator also is one of the leading congressional supporters of President Truman s twice-rejected plea to reimpose a modified form of the wartime excess profits tax to boost government revenue and try to curo inflation.

Senator Flanders (R-Vt), who will preside at the unusual profits study, is opposed to reviving the profits tax method.

But Flanders said the hearings will provide a background in the next Congress for a wide variety of legislative proposals, including higher taxes, government price and rationing controls, housing, and labor-management relations.

Experts To Testify

Industrialists, leaders of big labor unions, accountants and economists have been requested to give their views about what, if anything, Congress should do about profits which are estimated at a record $20,000,000,000 for this year.

O'Mahoney said earnings of the 100 largest corporations are nearly double the incomes of the same business units in 1945.

He proposes that "little business" or small independent corporations be given special exemptions under any profits tax plan. This might be to exempt the first $50,000 or $100,000 of profits.

Two Harvard University economists, Sumner H. Slichter and Seymour Harris, were listed as today's witnesses before the Flanders subcommittee.

Ex-Tech Student Weds German Girl By Trans-Atlantic Phone

DALLAS, Dec. 6 (AP)—A Corsicana ex-G.I. and a German girl were married today by trans-Atlantic telephone.

The groom was Henry Nieper and the bride was Ericka Keinath of Munich. The groom telephoned from the office of Dallas County Judge Al Templeton, who performed the ceremony.

The romance began when Nieper was stationed in Germany. He started arranging for the ceremony last September when he returned to the states and was discharged from the Army. Miss Keinath was a secretary in the U. S. quartermaster group in Munich.

Because of his marriage, Nieper will be allowed to reenter Germany. He and his bride plan to go to Zurich, Switzerland, where Nieper plans to study chemistry. He hopes to arrive in Munich by Feb. 1.

DELIVERIES TO FAR EAST LAG

Chinese Get Small Cut Of U.S. Goods

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—American military aid to China is running somewhat under one-third of that to Greece and Turkey.

This became known today with estimates from government sources that fighting equipment valued at about $63,000,000 has been delivered to Chiang Kai-Shek's hard-pressed armies in the last year and a half.

During roughly the same period, the United States shipped arms and other military supplies worth $230,000,000 to Greece and Turkey under the Truman doctrine pledging to keep those nations out of Communist clutches.

China Seeks Boost

How successful China may be in its desperate efforts to narrow the ratio of American aid to the two-Communist - menaced areas remains to be seen.

Those efforts currently are being pressed by Mme Chiang, wife of the generalissimo, who flew here last Wednesday. China's first lady is due to meet President and Mrs. Truman early this week to voice her informal appeal for greater help from this country.

Chinese authorities here say the program she is proposing would cost the United States about $1,000,000,000 a year over the next three years.

That would be a big jump from the $400,000,000 Congress voted for China earlier this year and would far outstrip the two-year, $625,000,000 Greek-Turkish program.

Of this year's China fund, $275,000,000 was earmarked for economic assistance and $125,000,000 was made available for arms help.

While most of this military fund has been spent, actual deliveries have lagged. Chinese authorities say they have received about $25,000,000 worth. Presumably this includes some naval equipment, plus $16,800,000 in Army equipment started o nits way to China since October 1. Two major shipments, one of 5,000 tons several weeks ago and another of about 4,000 tons on December 1, were composed primarily of small arms ammunition.

Records show that the Chinese government also has bought about $45,000,000 worth of equipment from surplus stocks in Hawaii and the Far East. These purchases apparently included captured Japanese ammunition because one of the calibers mentioned—7.92 millimeter—is for Japanese weapons.

High Court To Review Cases

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 (AP) — The Supreme court agreed by a 5-4 vote today to review the cases of two wartime Japanese officials sentenced to die as war criminals. It set the hearing for Dec. 16.

The high court also granted hearing on appeals filed by five other Japanese convicted of crimes against peace and given prison sentences.

All the Japanese attacked legality of their trials and contended the international military tribunal was illegally established by General Douglas MacArthur, the American occupation commander.

Two Sentenced To Death

The two Japanese under sentence to be hanged are Gen. Kenji Doihara, 64, and former Premier Koku Hirota, 70.

They will not have to be brought here personally for the hearings. Their attorneys waived a personal appearance for them.

Four of the five Japanese sentenced for crimes against peace were given life imprisonment They are Koichi Kodo, lord keeper of the privy seal and adviser to the emperor; Admiral Takasumi Oka, General Kenryo Sato, and Admiral Shigetaro Shaimada The fifth man, Shigenori Togo, former foreign minister, was sentenced to 20 years.

Executions Deferred

After the appeals were filed here last Monday, General MacArthur announced that execution of the sentences given Dohihara

Huge Turnout For Balloting Marks Victory

Socialists Gain Biggest Triumph Of Party History

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Dec. 6.—A final count showed today blockaded Berliners slapped the Communists with 1,330,820 votes, each one a protest against Soviet occupation policies.

The central election bureau said 86.2 per cent of the eligible voters cast valid ballots yesterday in the three western sectors for the regularly scheduled city elections, which the Communists boycotted.

The vote swept the Socialist party into power in the western part of the city. Like the Christian Democrats and the Liberal Democrats, who ran second and third, the Socialists are anti-Communist.

The final results:

Social democrats (socialist) — 858,100 (64.5 per cent).

Christian Democrats (Conservative)—258,496 (19.4 per cent.)

Liberal Democrats (Conservative)—214,224, (16.1 per cent).

Threats Defied

In all, 1,586,090 Germans were eligible to vote in the constitutionally prescribed election in the three sectors, under American, British and French control. The Russians refused to conduct or permit voting in their sector. In voting the western Berliners defied a variety of threats from the Communists.

Although the Communists had urged either a boycott of the polls or spoiling ballots, election officials said the number actually rendered invalid was not unusual.

The voters balloted for representatives in the city and borough assemblies. They voted for the party of their choice. Each party received seats in the assemblies in proportion to the share of total votes. The assemblymen are named by party executive committees.

Vote Percent Significant

Anti-Communist leaders regarded every ballot as a vote against Russian occupation policies.

Although the election ordinarily would have been merely a local contest between rival political parties, the East-West struggle magnified it into a barometer indicating support of Soviet or Western policies.

Western Berliners, blockaded 100 miles behind the iron curtain, went to the polls with the exhortation of their leaders to vote "for freedom and against Communism."

The 86.2 per cent figure of eligible voters who cast ballots was doubly significant. Even if all non-voters were Communists — which is not likely—they could

Father Held In Stomping And Stabbing Death Of Baby Son

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6.—A young father was held on suspicion of murder today in the stomping and stabbing death of his baby son and the critical wounding of four other members of his family.

Raymond E. Jensen, 32, telephoned police last night and said "come and get me." They found him waiting in his parents' home.

Sheriff's Lieut. Vic England said that Jensen went berserk Saturday during a quarrel with his estranged wife and her parents. England said he suddenly pulled out a knife and began stabbing right and left.

His wife, Helen, 31, was cut in the face and chest as were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bodner. Eighteen-months-old Raymond, jr., was trampled and stabbed to death by his father, England said. The officer added that the couple's six-weeks-old daughter, Jenean, was picked from her crib and hurled against the wall and then stabbed.

In a statement to police, Jensen said his actions result-

37 On Plane Down In Pacific Waters

(By The Associated Press)

JOHNSTON ISLAND, Dec. 6.—An undetermined number of survivors from an Air Force C-54 transport, forced down in the mid-Pacific, was placed under constant air watch today while a rescue ship sped towards the scene.

The plane, with 37 Air Force personnel aboard, was ditched early Sunday 478 miles southwest of this tiny island and about 1,200 miles southwest of Honolulu.

The Navy patrol craft PC 1141 from Johnston island was due to reach the survivors about 1 p. m. Johnston isuand time (7 p.m., EST). The escort aircraft carrier Rendova and the Navy freighter Zelma were due at the scene about the same time.

Flares Are Sighted

Flares were sighted late Sunday night by a B-17 search plane which dropped a 27-foot boat.

Officers directing the rescue operation said flares seen later indicated that at least some of the castaways had managed to board the boat.

The B-17 which made the first sighting was damaged in dropping the boat and returned immediately to Johnston island with its radio broken and a hole in its fuselage.

A Navy Privateer re-located the men early today and took up a vigil overhead.

To Maintain Watch

Relays of planes were to maintain this watch until the surface craft arrived.

The C-54 was one of five en route from Okinawa to Spokane, Wash., with ground personnel of the 98th bomb group. It was ditched at 4:06 a. m. (10:06 a. m., EST) Sunday after two engines failed.

Its radio, locked on the distress signal, continued to operate for eight minutes afterward. This indication that the plane did not sink immediately was the basis for hopes that a large number of the 30 passengers and crew of seven escaped into life rafts.

Winds Shriek Over Area In Near Blizzard

Highways Glazed By Sleet; Power Failures Caused

(By The United Press)

Icy winds and snow swept the midwest today as the nation counted at least 20 dead in weekend accidents attributed to the weather.

Seven of the dead were killed in midwestern plane crashes.

The storm swept eastward from the Rockies, across the north central states and into the Great Lakes region. Temperatures plummeted as the storm struck.

Highways Are Glazed

Sleet glazed highways with ice in many areas and numerous traffic accidents were reported. High winds snapped telephone lines and caused widespread property damage.

U. S. weather forecasters said the storm center was moving northeastward across Lake Superior. The storm swept down the eastern slopes of the Rockies Saturday, driving across Kansas and part of Missouri.

It was the third near blizzard for Kansas in two weeks. The high winds and driven snow shrieked across western Iowa and eastern Nebraska yesterday, then moved into the Dakotas, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Chicago Is Lashed

At Chicago, the temperature dropped 12 degrees in a single hour as gusts as high as 60 miles per hour lashed the windy city's lake front. At Milwaukee, the wind reached 69 miles per hour. The temperature at Eau Claire, Wis. last night plunged from 40 degrees down to 20.

Bus schedules in Minnesota were delayed by the storm, and the Northwestern Bell Telephone company at Minneapolis reported that it was setting up emergency communications as sleet and high winds tore down telephone lines.

Throughout Minnesota and the Dakotas, highways were slippery and numerous cars skidded into ditches.

Power Is Disrupted

At Muscatine, Ia., the wind tore down power lines and poles, plunging some sections of the city into darkness.

In Kansas, where the storm first struck, high winds had sub-

Lubbock Busy Clearing Dust

South Plains residents were "digging out" today following the worst dust storm since January, 1947.

Visibility dropped to one-eighth mile, which was the lowest visibility on record at the U. S. Weather bureau station north of Lubbock since January of last year.

Some Flights Held Up

The clouds of dust held up some of the airline flights, since the minimum operating visibility for the airport is one mile. Visibility remained below one mile from 8:30 p. m. Saturday to 4:30 a. m. Sunday and dropped below one mile again at 11:30 a. m. Sunday and remained at about five-eighths mile, until a mass of cold air moved in and swept the dust out of the skies, about 12:30 p. m. Sunday.

The cold front moved off to the northeast, with only the edge sweeping across the South Plains and therefore not dropping temperatures as much as had been expected. The front passed about 12:30 p .m. The minimum temperature this morning was 20 degrees, 14 degrees lower than Sunday morning's minimum.

The forecast indicates fair weather today and tonight, warmer today, and partly cloudy and cooler Tuesday.

The howling wind which swept the dust over the area and gave the whole of Texas one of its worst dust storms in many years rose to a maximum sustained velocity of 55 miles per hour Saturday night, with strong gusts, at the weather station near Lubbock. Sunday's highest maximum velocity was 52 miles per hour at 12:30 a. m.

Residence Damaged When Hit By Auto

An automobile driven by William Earl Bales, 21, of 2404 Thirty-first, inflicted much damage when it struck the Gilmore residence at 1827 Texas about 12:15 a. m. Sunday, police said today.

Their report said they were "afraid to move the car, afraid the house would fall down."

Bales was charged with drunk driving, and bond was set when he pleaded innocent.

Another motorist, who subsequently was charged with drunkenness, got his car atop a wall on the south side of Sears Roebuck & Co., in 1600-block Fourteenth, police said.

Bond of $2,000 was set by C. E. Lynn, justice of peace, for Jimmy B. Cousins, 27, of Lubbock, who pleaded innocent of a charge of theft from the person, C. E. Lynn, justice of peace, said this morning.

It had not been posted, the sheriff's department said.

The charge, sworn to by Grady Backus of Blue Ridge, Texas, before A. W. Salyars, assistant district attorney, accused Cousins of having taken money from Backus when the victim was sleeping.

Officials said Backus claimed $27.50 had been taken.

Investigators said Cousins is under conditional pardon from the Texas penitentiary.

Tremor Shock Center Sought

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6. (AP)—Southern California's latest earthquake was just a matter of conversation today.

At that, the tonic only shared talk with the USC-Notre Dame 14-14 football thriller that ended a few minutes before the first shock was felt Saturday.

Palm Springs seemed to be the worst hit in the quake area. Two broken legs were reported there.

Broken window panes, dishes, bottles formed the bulk of the wreckage. A 5,800-gallon water tank split open, and plaster cracked and fell from the walls in many buildings.

No deaths or wrecked buildings were reported.

Shock Center Sought

Dr. Charles Richter, seismologist at the the California Institute of Technology, said the shock could not be called a major convulsion. He estimated its intensity as being less than one per cent that of the 1906 San Francisco quake.

He said parties of seismologists were searching the desert and mountains northwest of Palm Springs for the source of the quake.

The quake was felt in a band extending from Santa Barbara and Fresno on the north to San Diego and El Centro on the south, and east to the Colorado river and Las Vegas, Nev.

It centered in mountains and deserts about 100 miles east-southeast of here. Only the isolated nature of the country prevented more serious damage and injury.

Jaycees Defeat ABC Team In Spelling Bee

A ten-man team from the Junior Chamber of Commerce edged out a group from the American Business club in a spelling bee which featured today's weekly Jaycee luncheon at the Hilton hotel.

"Silhouette" was the word which finally decided the contest, with two Jaycees and the last ABC representative going down before the final Jaycee contestant spelled it correctly.

R. S. (Curly) Wilkinson captained the Jaycee team, which included Rufus Rush, Homer Wright, Bill Linn, Barney St angner, Pat Wiman, Wayne Kelly, Choc Hutcheson and Bill Tinney.

Arthur B. Watkins led the ABC team, which included Roy L. Krebbs, Bert Pinson, Douglas S. Adams, Earl Burnett, W. L. Hester, Carl M. Bailey, Royal Furgeson, G. H. Nelson and Asher Thompson.

Jim Paxon served as spelling master.

Jaycee President Horace Gearhart presided at the luncheon, at which invocation was by Arthur B. Watkins. Two guests, C. W. Dennison and Thelbert Miller, were introduced, along with the visiting ABC spelling team members.

Mary Haworth's Mail...

Mother Is Criticized Because She Permits Children To Call Her By First Name

DEAR Mary Haworth: I am married and have a very good husband and three lovely little daughters. My eldest daughter Carla is almost five and she has always called her father and me by our first names — Carl and Edna.

Also, I call my mother-in-law by her first name, Martha, and everybody thinks this practice of addressing the older generation by first name is awful. They say it manifests lack of respect for my mother-in-law, and that it's wrong of me to allow our children to call me Edna, instead of "mommie" or mother.

I have had a number of arguments with my three sisters-in-law about this, and would welcome your opinion to settle the dispute. So please tell me the proper way to address one's mother-in-law; and tell me also whether it's wrong (and why) to let one's children grow up calling parents by first name.

CUSTOMARY USAGE SAFE SOCIAL GUIDE

DEAR E. G.: In another era it was said, "When In Rome, do as the Romans do." Meaning that unobtrusive manners are best — those which don't label one eccentric as compared to majority behavior.

Customary social usage is the guide to acceptable manners in any situation or relationship. And when one applies this criterion to the question of how to address one's mother-in-law, one finds two principal "schools of example" in the western world.

For instance, it is more or less prevalent custom amongst the so-called gentry—those bred for generations in the "polite" tradition that accrues to inherited wealth and transmitted cultude—to speak of one's mother-in-law and directly salute her as Mrs. Grant, and to persist in this formality until such time as she may kindly waive the formality by suggesting that her son's wife call her Mother, or Mother Grant, or even Martha—or maybe the pet-name her son coined for her.

In the event Mrs. Grant invites the more intimate address, it were bad manners not to oblige her nicely thereafter, although it may be a difficult mouthful for the bride or matron who doesn't feel en rapport with her mother-in-law.

CHILDREN PREFER REGULATION LIVING

IN THE second, more populous "school of example" established in the broad community of the great middle-to-lower echelon of society, mothers-in-law are addressed as Mother Grant right off the bat; and it's not uncommon for an engaged girl to thus address her fiance's mother even before the knot is tied.

But in neither group, so far as I know, does a well-mannered girl address her mother-in-law by first name, without having had the privilege wished upon her—unless perhaps they have a seasoned co-worker acquaintanceship or were on first-name terms from the younger's childhood. Thus your manner of speaking is rather flip, judged by standard criteria; and may be unwittingly offensive to your mother-in-law's sense of dignity or concept of her social due.

About the children: you are injecting a falsetto note into the family relationship and cheating them of a priceless ingredient of "normalcy," in letting them grow up without use of, or "feel" of, the rich proud words (from a loved child's viewpoint) of "Mother" and "Dad,"—and "my dad" and "my mommie."

Children nearing school age don't want to be different in any respect from other children; they want only to be super-normal in all attributes of enviable home-life, regulation style; so there is haunting embarrassment in store for your brood—to add to the "lost chord" deficit already cited—if you continue to train them in first-named address of their parents.

"Clean Up" Of Chest Campaign Scheduled

In an effort to "clean up" the Lubbock Community Chest drive for 1948, 50 Lubbock civic workers will gather at the Hilton hotel at 9 a. m. Tuesday to make a final canvass for contributions.

The drive is $21,677 short of its goal of $97,500 set for 1948.

Directors of the Chest are to head the various teams of workers who will call on approximately 200 firms on which there are no reports from the solicitation made several weeks ago.

17-Year-Old Clerk Hits Radio Jackpot

PAWTUCKET, R. I., Dec. 6 (U.P.)—Alice Heaney, a 17-year-old meat market clerk who won a $26,200 radio merchandise prize, said today she would go back to work as usual.

The girl, one of a family of 20 that lives in a five-room house, identified the mystery melody on last night's "Stop The Music" broadcast. The tune was "Nancy Dawson."

She was the third person in a radius of five miles to tap the game network in a year. A few weeks ago a woman in Attleboro, Mass., won some $30,000 in prizes. A woman in Providence hit the same contest for $18,000 some months ago.

Between . . . The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

Probably the most startling bit of news to crop up this winter broke Saturday with the announcement from Clovis, N. M., that the Dean brothers, Paul and Jerome Herman, had bought the Clovis Baseball club's franchise in the West Texas-New Mexico League. This entirely unexpected and unheralded move climaxed the interest George Schepps obtained in the Lubbock Hubbers and the hiring of Hayden "Stubby" Greer to manage the Abilene Blue Sox.

We're glad to see two men as strong and colorful as Daffy and Dizzy Dean join Clovis and we hasten to welcome them to the league. For one thing, it will result in even greater publicity than ever before. For another, it will mean that fans will come out to see Clovis, rather than listening to the game over the radio. But most important of all, it will mean that Clovis should field one of the stronger teams in the league With Dizzy scouting for talent and Daffy managing the club, the Pioneers should be one of the league's stronger contenders.

Addition of Daffy as playing manager means that Clovis will be much stronger next year. Schepps will make the Hubbers stronger. The combination of Buck Fausett and Bob Seeds will make the Gold Sox stronger. Stubby Greer at Abilene should go a long way to take the Blue Sox out of the doldrums. Eddie Carnett is a power at Borger and the Gassers should have more contention next year. No one in Albuquerque could complain about Herschel Martin and the Dukes. It's impossible — and unwise — to sell Grover Seitz and Pampa short. That leaves only Lamesa about which to worry and at the fall meeting of the WT-NM loop, Lamesa said to quit doing just that

The point we wish to make is that every club in the league apparently is making a strenuous effort to improve its personnel and tentative strength. It's a heartening move, for good, strong competition will produce better baseball and better baseball means more fans. More fans, of course, means more money in the tills and more money means ability to improve. So the circle goes and the ones who benefit most by the well-greased wheel are the fans. A one-sided race stirs the interest of no one, but if as many as six clubs could be reasonably well bunched in a fight for the crown, the fans would talk, think and try WT-NM League ball.

Next week at this time, Texas Tech will either have been admitted to the Southwest Conference, or will have been turned down. And we frankly don't know which way the tide will turn, although we are prepared, at the moment, to accept the feeling of pessimism so common around town. There is optimism in some corners and we hope that it is justified. But in the interim, we were interested to note that the all-opponent team picked by Texas A. and M. failed to list a single Texas Tech player. It isn't surprising. The game was won not by the outstanding action of any one player, but by a team playing as a unit, the type of play that Tech exemplified all season.

When we were in Tucson, we made some good friends, both in that city and from Phoenix. From them we learn that selections for an All-Border Conference team are in the mail. Each coach will get a list of 32 players and it is up to him to mark a first and second team. Far from Texas Tech's placing only one or two, we were surprised to learn that of the 32 names submitted, 11 were those of Red Raiders. That does not mean that any or all will make either team, but it's a good indication that the Border champions will land their share. Our information shows that Tech players named as possible choices are Ends Bill Kelley and Luke Thompson, Tackles Marshall Gettys and John Andrews, Guards Dan Pursel and Dorrell McCurry, Center Bobby Williams, and Backs Ernest Hawkins, Cal Stevenson, Glenn Lewis and Earl Jackson. Look familiar? It's virtually the Tech first team.

The Post defeat by Phillips was no disgrace to Coach Francis Bingham and the Antelopes. The boys played their hearts out, but lost to a Blackhawk eleven that is one of the most superbly coached and drilled teams we have seen all year. Although light for even Class A, the Hawks continually outcharged their heavier foes and opened gaping holes, through which four great Phillips backs poured. The Antelopes never were able to get started and their outstanding back, Junior Malouf, was smothered almost in his tracks each time he carried the ball. Their best efforts Saturday just weren't enough against a team that was superior in every phase of play.

A CLASSES IN QUARTER-FINALS

Lamar, Arlington Tangle For Crown

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Lamar of Houston and Arlington Heights of Fort Worth, two of five undefeated teams left in Texas, will play this week for the first state schoolboy football championship to be determined.

They will settle the City conference race in a battle at Fort Worth Saturday at 2 p. m.

Meanwhile, class AA, with Port Arthur still the title favorite, and class A, a free-for-all between a flock of high-scoring teams, move through their quarter-final rounds.

Feature Clash Of Round

Feature game of the class AA second round will be the clash of undefeated, untied Port Arthur—a team that has rolled up 390 points—with Austin, one of the comeback elevens of the year. Austin dropped its first two games of the season then swished upward and at the finish was flattening all before it. Last week Austin whipped San Benito 27-7 in the bi-district round.

Port Arthur did everything to Baytown except run up the score as the ponderous Yellow Jackets lashed into the quarter-finals with a 9-0 decision. Baytown's defense was terrific.

The schedule of the class AA quarter-finals:

Friday—Breckenridge at Denison, 2 p. m.; Saturday—Amarillo at Odessa, 2:30 p. m.; Waco at Texarkana, 2 p. m.; Port Arthur at Austin, 2 p. m.

Breck Whams Highland

Breckenridge whammed Highland Park of Dallas 35-7 in an awesome show of power last week. The Buckaroo ground attack made Denison coaches scouting the game wince. Denison the night before had outscored Austin (El Paso) 35-21 and Coach Les Cranfill of Denison averred "they should have beaten us 30 points."

Amarillo drew a bye last week while Odessa was kicking Wichita Falls out of the race 20-0. Waco slugged Palestine 41-6 as Texarkana, which drew a bye, looked on.

In class A the quarter-finals schedule reads:

Friday—Bowie vs. New London at Dallas, 7:30 p. m.; Van vs. New Braunfels at Temple, 7:30 p. m.; Aldin vs. Falfurrias at Victoria, 7:30 p. m.; Saturday—Phillips vs. Monahans at Lubbock, 2. p. m.

Phillips Smothered Post

Phillips swept into the quarter-finals with a 41-0 victory over Post while Monahans more than matched Ballinger in touchdowns to win 33-28. Bowie took Irving out 20-7 and New London, one of the title favorites, licked Dekalb, 27-0.

Van edged La Vega 26-25 and New Braunfels, another of the top-rated teams, beat a strong Cameron eleven 19-13. Aldine furnished the surprise of the week by trouncing El Campo, which had won 33 straight, 20-0. Falfurrias beat Carrizo Springs, 31-13.

Favorite in this week's games will be Phillips, New London, New Braunfels and Aldine.

The Lamar-Arlington Heights City conference title game appears a toss-up. Comparative records indicate it. Lamar beat Amon Carter-Riverside (Fort Worth) 7-0 and Woodrow Wilson (Dallas) 29-14. Arlington Heights downed Amon Carter-Riverside 20-7 and improved Woodrow Wilson 7-0. Lamar reached the finals by nosing Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio 13-12 while Arlington Heights got there with its win over Woodrow Wilson.

Amarillo Is Favored

Comparative scores would indicate Amarillo will take out Odessa in class AA. Amarillo beat Odessa 33-6 early in the season. Amarillo also beat Lubbock 14-6 and Lubbock played Odessa to a 7-7 tie. Amarillo defeated Abilene 14-0 and Odessa licked Abilene 20-6.

Dension and Breckenridge can be compared only through one game. Denison lost to Wichita Falls 13-26 and Breckenridge lost to Wichita Falls 7-14. These results indicate little. The concensus of the critics, however, is that Breckenridge will take Denison into camp.

Texarkana and Waco appear well-matched despite the fact that Waco is undefeated and untied while Texarkana lost one game—to Denison. Texarkana moved fast after that and among its victories was a 38-7 trouncing of Tyler. Waco beat Tyler 34-9.

There is no direct comparison between Port Arthur and Austin but the Yellow Jackets will be heavy favorites.

Lubbock Gets Class A Game

The Phillips Blackhawks and Monahans Lobos, two of the top powers in Texas Class A football circles, will play their state quarter-final game in Jones stadium here at 2 p. m. Saturday.

Officials of the two schools, meeting Sunday in Amarillo, mutually agreed upon Jones stadium as site of the clash of their undefeated, untied teams, after Horace Gearhart, president of Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce, assured them by telephone that local Jaycees would make every effort to assure financial success of the game.

Ticket Prices Set

Ticket prices will be $1.50 for adult reserved seats, and 50 cents for students. The 50-cent charge will apply to Texas Tech students, as well as to public school students, Gearhart said today.

All arrangements for the contest are being handled by the Jaycees on a non-profit basis. Gearhart said a vigorous advance ticket sale campaign is being planned. Harold Chapman and R. S. Wilkinson have been named to head a ticket sales committee, and location of ticket booths is to be announced as soon as arrangements are completed.

Turnout Is Small

Lubbock was chosen as site of the quarter-final game after a disappointing turnout at Saturday's Phillips-Post regional contest in Amarillo. Barely 5,000 fans — of which more than 4,000 were estimated to be from Phillips and Post—attended the regional clash, as compared to a crowd of approximately 9,000 at the Post-Lockney bi-district tussle in Jones stadium Thanksgiving day.

The winner of this week's game here will be a favorite to represent the northern bracket in the state Class A finals. Both Phillips and Monahans boast 12 straight victories this season. Saturday Phillips gained the regional title with a convincing 41-0 triumph over Post, after Monahans had outscored a strong Ballinger team, 33-28, to win its region crown.

Only 3 Teams Are Unbeaten

NEW YORK, Dec. 6. (AP)—Michigan might well be the only major college football team to escape the 1948 season with a perfect record.

The Wolverines have run through their regular string — their second straight year without defeat or tie—and have no post-season commitments. Their mark is safe.

But the other mighties continue to stub majestic toes. A week ago it was Army, tied 21-21 by hapless Navy. Saturday it was Notre Dame, stunned by a 14-14 draw with underdog Southern California.

Two Others Are Left

The latest turn of events leaves only California and Clemson, besides Michigan, still with unspotted banners. Both go into Jan. 1 bowl games against foes likely to be favored.

The California Bears play rugged Northwestern in the Rose bowl at Pasadena. Clemson meets Missouri, Big Seven conference runnerup, in the Gator bowl at Jacksonville.

The Irish, victorious in 21 straight games, put on a pulstating last-minute finish to gain a deadlock.

With Notre Dame behind 7-14, opportunitist Bill Gay of the Irish returned a kickoff 87 yards to the Southern California 13. The South Benders moved from there to the one; with Emil Sitko bulling across. There were only 30 seconds left in the game when Steve Oracko kicked the vital extra point.

Win Tenth In Row

Clemson finished its regular campaign by humbling the Citadel, 20-0, for No. 10 in a row and a clincher on the Southern conference championship.

Two longtime Alabama feudists who were on the outs for 41 years finally got together again with Alabama routing Auburn, 55-0.

Fred Wendt scored six touchdowns as Texas Mines won over University of Hawaii in Honolulu, 49-6.

Seven bowl games were written into the books, with these results:

Refrigerator bowl—Evansville defeated unbeaten, untied Missouri Valley, 13-7.

Glass bowl—Toledo won a third time in a row, trouncing Oklahoma City, 27-14.

Fish bowl—Hampton Institute defeated Wilberforce, 20-19.

Mo-Kan bowl—Emporia Teachers defeated Southwest Missouri, 34-20.

Orange Blossom bowl—Virginia Union topped Florida A. and M., 39-18.

Potato bowl — Santa Barbara whipped Willamette, 46-7.

Salt bowl—Northwestern Oklahoma shut out Trinidad, Colo., J. C., 34-0.

Grid Group To See Tech, H-SU Movie

Pictures of the thrilling 28-20 victory scored Nov. 27 by Texas Tech over Hardin-Simmons university at Abilene will be shown to the Quarterback club tonight in the Tech gym.

Tom Duggan, jr., club president, said that the meeting would begin at 8 p. m. as usual, with a lighter program than usual. The pictures will be the main attraction, although Coach Dell Morgan and Coach C. R. Pattison of Lubbock High school may speak briefly.

Yank, Britisher To Fight For Possible Shot At World Title

LONDON, Dec. 6. (AP)—Lee Savold, the exbartender from Minnesota and Bruce Woodcock, the British heavyweight champion, fight a crucial 10 rounds tonight for a possible shot at Joe Louis and his world title.

At 9 a. m. (EST) they will weigh in at Promoter Jack Solomons' gymnasium.

Seven hours later they will step into the ring in Harringay arena before a capacity crowd of 10,600.

Opinion Varies

Opinion varies as to what will happen then.

Though bettors weren't very active, the story was that some would give you 11-10 against Savold and others 5-4 against Woodcock.

Going on record in this morning's newspapers, five London sports writers picked Savold to win. Two were non-commital. Three picked Woodcock.

Both Seem Confident

Both gladiators seemed confident as they landed in town from training camps last night, and both were eager for a lucrative, Louis bout. Promoters have indicated tonight's winner or the Joe Baksiezzard Charles winner in New York Friday may be the Brown Bomber's next championship foe.

It was Baksi who broke Woodcock's jaw here in April, 1947. Bruce was more than a year getting well enough to resume training. His first outing—the short waltz against Lee Oma — tested nothing.

Savold, at 32, is five years older than the Britisher, and in 14 years in the ring has had three times as many pro fights. Both scale around 191 pounds.

Resentful Longhorns Out To Show Up Orange Bowl Eleven

AUSTIN, Dec. 6 (AP)—The University of Texas football players resent being called a "third rate team" and they'll do something about it in the Orange bowl, Coach Blair Cherry predicted today.

Obviously nettled himself over the slurs that have come out of Miami since Texas' selection to meet Georgia in the Florida post-season classic, Cherry declared "I think we will represent the university and the Southwest conference well."

Will Prove Helpful

Cherry intimated that the hulabaloo from Miami and elsewhere over selection of the thrice-beaten Longhorns was going to be mighty helpful in getting his team ready for the Orange bowl battle.

"There might have been other teams with a better record than Texas but I certainly can not criticize Coach Wallace Butts for insisting that Georgia not play another Southeastern conference team at Miami," Cherry said. "Georgia had won the conference championship and playing Tulane or Mississippi or some other team from that conference would have been like Texas playing Southern Methodist in the Cotton bowl last Jan. 1. There was some talk about that since SMU beat us by only one point during that regular season but it would have been wrong for such a game to be played. Why should Georgia or Southern Methodist have agreed to play a team from their own conference and, in the event of a loss, have a synthetic champion?"

Glad To Get Game

Cherry said Texas had not had as good a season as it hoped for and that personally he was glad to get to play the game in the Orange bowl and show that the team wasn't as bad as its record might indicate. "We have a good team but we had a year when things went wrong at the wrong time," he said.

That "third rate team" crack was what ired the Texas football squad, Cherry said, adding with a grin that "at least it will have been more diplomatic to say that Texas didn't have a first rate team."

SWC Gets Chance To Fatten Record

By WILBUR MARTIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

Southwest conference basketball teams this week get a chance to fatten a lean intersectional record.

Last week conference teams dropped six of nine games with other area teams and lost three to clubs in this vicinity.

North Texas State and Texas Christian open the week's card tonight at Denton. The first intersection tilt is carded tomorrow night at St. Louis. Baylor meeting St. Louis university.

Lost Two Decisions

Baylor, defending conference champion, lost two decisions on an eastern tour last week. The Bears bowed to New York university, 47-67, and to Canisius, 45-55.

Texas and Rice split even in competition in Louisiana. Texas dumped Louisiana State, 60-45, but lost to Tulane, 56-39. Rice won over LSU, 51-39, lost to Tulane, 65-54.

Not a single conference team is undefeated after just one week of play. Texas Christian, Texas A. and M. and Baylor haven't won a game.

Arkansas, figured to be a strong contender in the championship race, dropped two decisions—to Phillips Oilers, 40-58, and Oklahoma A. and M., 28-53.

Intersectional Games

Eight intersectional tilts are scheduled this week. Arkansas and Southern Methodist are playing in the east. Texas has a tilt in Oklahoma, Baylor is host to the Phillips five of Bartlesville, Okla., and Rice and a Louisiana five get together.

Last week's results:

Phillips Oilers 58, Arkansas 40; Southern Methodist 68, Texas Wesleyan 65; Rice 66, Sam Houston State 58; Arkansas 31, Oklahoma City university 29; New York university 67, Baylor 47; Texas 60, Louisiana State 45; Tulane 65, Rice 54; Trinity university 56, Texas A. and M. 49; Southern Methodist 57-58, Texas Tech 45-60; Canisius 55, Baylor 45; North Texas State 62, Texas Christian 53; Oklahoma A. and M. 53, Arkansas 28; Tulane 56, Texas 39; Rice 51, Louisiana State 39.

EL PASO, Dec. 6.—La Senorita en Avenida del Rio Grande dice los hombres estan divididos en tres clases: los parecidos, los intelegentes y la majoria!

Sudden Thought: (This time in English, since El Paso is bi-lingual!) The main reason most of us don't understand money is because we don't keep it long enough to really get acquainted with it!

* * *

Este Hombre en Avenida de la Luz dice cuando apunta su dedo acusando a alguno otro, acuerdese que usted tiene tres otros dedos atuntandole a usted!

THERE'S nothing like an occasional visit to El Paso, we always say. This is one important Texas city where John Smith is more likely to be Juan Garcia and where, when they want the opinion of the Man in the Street, they look up el hombre en el calle, hey?

Come to think about it, El Paso is probably the place where Doc Gallup and the rest of the pollsters took their pre-election surveys and misunderstood "quien sabe?" for "el Senor Tomas Doo-ee!"

Our Latin neighbors are the most courteous people in the world and always thank you for any little courtesy.

It's good to remember when someone says, "gracias," or even "muchisimos gracias," the answer is: "No hide the cake."

ALBEIT we are primarily in this colorful border metropolis to huddle with Dorrance Roderick, Bill Hooten and others of our chums of the El Paso Times, we felt it the courteous thing to pay our respects to the editor of El Paso's second newspaper, the Herald-Post.

As usual, we found the Herald-Post's skipper, Edward M. (for Montmorency) Pooley, in something of a dither. This did not surprise us, because Mr. Pooley is constantly in a dither, if not about the El Paso police, then about the constable in Smeltertown, the refusal of the people to elect his choices to Congress, or the necessity of accompanying his wife to the symphony concert.

But this time we found ourself more than casually interested in Mr. Pooley's attack of mental bellyache, because Mr. Pooley's current attack is one which has to do, in some way or some form, with everybody in Texas, rather than just with citizens of El Paso, New Mexico, Arizona and Chihuahua.

It seems that Mr. Pooley went to a meeting the other night at which some of El Paso's bigwigs discussed with their three representatives to the Legislature some of the financial needs of the state and, as Mr. Pooley puts it, "how it might be possible for the cities of Texas to get something like a fair deal from the state."

The things that came up at the meeting, also attended by El Paso city and county officials, chamber of commercers, etc., prompted Mr. Pooley to do a little digging into state affairs. As a result, he has come up with some ideas which might well be discussed by citizens all over our fair state.

* * *

REARING back in his swivel chair and looking every inch a Man of Distinction with a mad on, Mr. Pooley greeted us with:

"Did you know the Legislature of Texas is no servant of the people, but, instead, is the servant of the special interests?"

"Well, Montmorency," we answered, sitting down without invitation, "we've sort of suspected that. Tell us more."

So Mr. Pooley told us more.

To be specific, he told us a lot, and here is what he said:

"More than $2.5 billions in oil and gas will be taken out of the Texas earth this year, and the people of Texas will get about 4 per cent—$100,000,000—in taxes.

"It is flagrant robbery of the inheritance of the people, and from year to year the Legislature has connived in the robbery.

"While the oil people were paying $100,000,000 for the crude oil they took out of Texas, the people of Texas were paying $80,000,000 in taxes on the gasoline made from about 10 per cent of the oil of which their state was despoiled.

"What do you think about that?" he demanded.

"Well," we said — but Mr. Pooley was off again.

* * *

"Any Legislature," he continued, "working for the best interests of Texas could abolish the 4-cent tax on gasoline at the filling station and and double the state's income by putting a tax of one cent on gasoline at the refinery. And of the $150,000,000 that would yield, Texans would pay less than $25,000,000 while non-Texans would pay the remainder.

"Isn't that worth thinking about?" Mr. Pooley asked.

"Yep," we said, "and—"

But he wasn't through.

"A TAX of 15 to 20 per cent of the state's natural resources," he went on, "would yield more money than is needed in Austin and allow the abolition of every other tax—on everything from cigarets to homes and dogs.

"Texas spends a lot of money, too. Last year it totaled $403,983,965.99 against receipts of $508,266,867.77.

"Ten years ago, in 1938, the State took in $175,311,068 and spent $157,747,878.

"This year we spent $115,798,000 on highway building and maintenance and to retire county road bonds. For education there was a bill of $149,854,972.51 and for welfare, pensions and retirements $100,336,161.67.

"From the gross receipts and natural resources taxes, the State got $107,784,900; from gasoline $86,667,416 less $15,031,399 that was refunded to farmers, airlines, boats and the like. Cigarets turned in $22,658,000, liquor $13,222,000, auto sales tax $9,755,000, auto license fees $20,759,000."

"When you add up those auto taxes," Mr. Pooley plunged on, "including the gasoline, there is a total of $101,000,000, while all the real and personal property in Texas paid an ad valorem tax of only $27,540,321.

"Among the state's expenditures last year were some pretty startling items, too.

"There was spent, for example, $3,747,445.53 for public school textbooks—better than $2 per child—but the textbook companies paid the state only $43,916.45. Nice business.

"Our servants put out $2,328,000 for travel expenses, but of course Texas is a big state.

"The State's grocery bill was a mere $4,524,857.

"Postage cost $488,369.69.

"The State spent $34,395.28 for funerals.

"It cost $24,612 to examine engineers, $6806 for architects, $62,967 for barbers, $18,481 for doctors, $23,193 for dentists and $127,073 for beauticians.

"BUT," Mr. Pooley said with a snort, "the people aren't going to get anything but a gypping from their Legislatures so long as the oil and gas lobbyists and their minor playmates run the show.

"Texas is pretty big business, and we ought to have more big men running it.

"I say everybody in the state ought to know the score. What do you say?"

"I say O. K.," we answered, hurriedly, picking up our hat and getting out of there before Mr. Pooley broke loose in another place!

(Adios, amigos! See you back in la Ciudad de Lubbock, manana!)

BY DREW PEARSON: EUROPE'S FRIENDSHIP DOESN'T MEAN THEY WILL FIGHT FOR US

The Ruhr Holds An Opportunity For World Peace

(ED. NOTE—Drew Pearson's column today takes the form of a letter to Secretary of State Marshall).

My Dear General Marshall:

YOU may possibly recall a conversation I had with you shortly after you became secretary of state in which you talked about the fact that a soldier, in order to fight well, must have the will to fight. Weapons alone, you said, don't make a good soldier. I remember the conversation most vividly because you talked with such great eloquence and feeling and described various cases during the war when well-trained, well-armed troops did not put their heart into battle because they did not understand why they were fighting.

PEARSON

I have thought of this conversation many times since then. I thought of it a year ago, when, traveling through Europe, I had a change to get acquainted with some of its war-weary people. And I have thought of it more recently as you have proposed a policy of arming these war-weary people as a bulwark of American defense.

The greaty majority of the American people, I feel sure, agree with your policy, in principle—as do I. Certainly the friendly countries of western Europe should be armed against the threat of an invading red army, and the investment will be more than worth while—if they will fight.

Europe Wouldn't Fight

However, as you yourself so eloquently indicated, guns are no good unless you have men to fire them. And today I greatly fear the people of western Europe would not fight.

They would not fight because they are tired of war, because they do not want to see their farms and factories become another battleground, and finally because they do not see enough difference between the aims of Russia and the United States to get in the middle of another great conflagration.

They like the United States. They trust us more than they do Russia. They want to be friendly, and they are reasonably grateful for the Marshall plan. But their friendship does not go to the extent of fighting.

This does not mean they won't declare war, nor that the generals won't try to lead troops into battle. They will, but generals are worth little without soldiers who follow them, and today the common folks of western Europe who make up the backbone of any army, just aren't going to follow the generals. They will fade away just as fast as the Belgians, the Dutch and the French faded before Hitler.

I am sure you will find that the intelligence reports of the U. S. Army agree with this.

THEREFORE, it seems to me that our problem of defense in western Europe boils down to the question of inspiring the same will to defend themselves that you and others inspired in the American Army from 1942 to 1945.

Which means that this is a battle of ideas and ideals. Weapons, of course, are necessary. But weapons will only fall into the hands of the Red army if the people of Europe aren't sold on the idea that we Americans are trying desperately to build up a new order for world peace, and that they should help us.

Today it remains an undisputable fact that they are not sold. They are not sold partly because they see the same bankers who loaned the money to build up German munitions plants prior to the war, now proposing to turn German steel and chemical and munitions plants back to the same German cartels which ran them during the war.

They see the same American bankers who loaned Germany billions before the war, now acting as our secretary of national defense, as our under-secretary of the Army and as our undersecretary of state. And they see them carrying out exactly the same policies in Germany which gave Hitler the chance to convert American loans into a wartime machine.

All the efforts by the Voice of America and by American newspapers to tell the true story of American idealism will come to naught. Mr. Secretary, as long as this situation prevails.

Consumers Come First

On the other hand, there is a great opportunity in the Ruhr to build for the peace of Europe. The Ruhr is just as important to the economic welfare of all Europe as it is to Germany. Almost every consumer in Europe has a stake in the Ruhr.

And where consumers have a vital interest we, in the United States, have recognized and protected it. That is why we have utility commissions to regulate electric lights and telephone rates. That is why the Interstate Commerce commission tells the railroad what it can charge for passengers and freight. The consumers' interest is considered more important than the vested interest.

Germany has a vested interest in the Ruhr, but the people of western Europe have a consumers' interest, and they have the right to put a commission of small nations in control of the Ruhr to look out for that interest.

In Europe, furthermore, the organizations which have done the best job for the consumer are the big Swedish, Danish, British and Norwegian cooperatives. They are efficient organizations, run by skilled executives who understand European business management, and who are not suspect of building up war plants for the future.

If such men, sitting under the jurisdiction of a commission of small nations, operated Ruhr industry, then it would dispel the fears and suspicions of western Europe. It would cut the ground right out from under Moscow's propaganda. And it would do much to build up confidence on the part of Europe's man in the street—the man who will have to shoulder the gun—that our foreign policy is not dictated by bankers, but by an unselfish desire to build up the future peace of the world.

I apologize for intruding with these thoughts. I do so only because of your own previous eloquence on the necessity of the will to fight, and because a man as busy as you cannot always mingle with the people who in any army must do the bulk of the fighting.

Yours, Sincerely,
Drew Pearson.

"Come, Come, Uncle, That's Not Like You!"

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

ANYONE who has ever had to do much telephoning for a church group, Scout troop, woman's club or any other such organization soon discovers there is a lot of difference in the telephone manners of various women.

Some women treat a telephone caller as graciously as though the speaker had stepped into their own living rooms. But others have telephone manners that are almost a slap in the face to the caller.

MILLETT

Some women answer a telephone in a brusque, "hurry up and get it over with" manner.

Some sound whiney. Some put on a waiting act, never adding more than one word at a time to the conversation, and that grudgingly. Some women go to the other extreme and completely take over a call, so that it is almost impossible for the person who made the call to bring it to an end.

WORTH ATTENTION

CONSIDERING how much a part of the home the telephone has become, it's a wonder housewives don't pay more attention to their telephone manners.

Since there are probably more "guests" who enter the average home by way of the telephone than through the front door, a woman ought to be as gracious a person on the telephone as to the caller whom she invites into the living room.

Of course, the ringing of the telephone is often an unwelcome interruption to a busy woman. But it doesn't take any longer to answer it graciously than it does to be careless about one's telephone manners.

"So I'm a problem child! What other kind is there?"

By Bennett Cerf

"Try And Stop Me"

THE color line in big league baseball was relaxed just in time to give one of the world's greatest pitchers a chance to shine there. "Satchel" Paige will end his baseball career in a Cleveland uniform. In his prime, he burned up the Negro leagues, and made monkeys of major league batting kings in exhibition contests.

"Satchel" (named in honor of his Number 12 shoes) was no shrinking violet. Watching Bobby Feller at his best, Satchel's praise was limited to "that white boy's pretty near as fast as me." He walked three men on purpose in an exhibition game in Phoenix just to get at Babe Ruth. The Babe fanned on four pitches. Another time he waved all his outfielders to the bench and nonchalantly struck out the mighty "Ducky" Medwick.

On his way to a Philadelphia contest, he was arrested for going eighty miles an hour in his cerise roadster, and arrived after the third inning had gotten under way. The rival club had the bases full with none out, and were leading, 2-0. "Satchel" had no time to warm up. Instead, he whipped the ball to first base six or seven times, though the runner was rooted to the bag. The rival manager protested, but "Satchel" asked to see the rule he was violating. Then he swung into action and made three batsmen in a row pop up. "Satchel's" team won, 3-2. On the way home, he was arrested again. This time he was doing eighty-five.

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

No Room In China Situation For Self-Righteous Feeling

WASHINGTON—Not long ago in one of his dispatches from Nanking the U. S. ambassador, John Leighton Stuart, reported that Madame Chiang Kai-Shek was suffering from a recurrence of the itching hives. This unhappy malady, he observed, usually coincided with one of China's recurring crises.

CHILDS

In Madame Chiang's journey to Washington there is something infinitely tragic. It is a pitiful period to a life that is woven like a brightly colored threat through the lurid tapestry of China's revolutionary years.

So long ago in time—and as events go today an era as remote as early Babylonia—little Mei-Ling Soong came to America to learn about the west. In 1906 at the age of nine she left her home and her family to cross the wide Pacific. Her father had been educated here and he wanted his children to learn about Christianity and progress in the United States.

It was an era when the zeal and the good will of the missionaries seemed about to bring east and west together in Christian brotherhood. Mei-Ling and her sisters went first to Wesleyan college for women in Macon, Ga. As Emily Hahn tells the absorbing story in "The Soong Sisters" from that beginning the three went on to play vital parts in China's upheaval.

Sister Marries Leader

The middle sister married Sun Yat-Sen, leader of China's revolution. As his widow, Madame Sun has devoted her life to upholding what she believed to be his high ideals.

This has not been easy to do. According to reports from China, Madame Sun has often been distressed by the repression and the corruption of the Chiang Kai-Shek regime. Once or twice she spoke out, but for the most part she has been silent. Her sister, Mei-Ling, was the wife of Chiang.

Until the present moment, perhaps the greatest crisis in the Soong family came when Chiang in 1927 broke with the Communists. The break followed the Communist intention, spurred by Russian agents, to confiscate all property. Up to that point Chiang and many other leaders had believed that China's future lay in friendship with the Soviet Union and a modified Communism.

MADAME SUN went to Moscow where she spent some time before she rejoined her family. But in a farewell message she warned that the Kuomintang, the political party her husband founded, was in danger of losing the support of the workers and the peasants. That warning had a prophetic ring:

"Without their support the Kuomintang, as a revolutionary party, becomes weak and chaotic and illogical in its social platform; without their support, political issues are vague. If we adopt any policy that weakens these supports, we shake the very foundation of our party, betray the masses and are falsely loyal to our leader. . . We must not betray the people. We have built up in them a great hope. They have placed in us a great faith."

Now that Madame Chiang has arrived we shall hear a great deal about her high-handed behavior on previous visits; about the luxury surrounding her, the silken sheets and the 11 fur coats. While this has a direct relation to public opinion in this country, it is essentially irrelevant to the problem America faces.

Problem Is Stated

That problem is to save what can be saved in China and southeast Asia. If that can still be done through Chiang Kai-Shek, in spite of the errors both here and there, then regardless of personalities and prejudices that is the course to be followed.

Almost all the information out of Nanking points in the opposite direction. The nationalist armies are refusing to fight and the Communists are taking masses of arms virtually without losses.

The west has so much to answer for in this debacle. Too many Chinese saw nothing but the greed and the prejudice of westerners who saw only markets for exploitation. The zeal and the hope of that long-ago era when Mei-Ling set out for the promised land have all but vanished.

Through the bitter years of World War II Madame Chiang in bombed Chungking repeatedly appealed for help from Washington where the war in China was always subordinated to other fronts. What happened after Yalta seemed a deliberate betrayal of the hopes of nationalist China. Let's be honest. There is no room here for anyone to feel self-righteous.

When the universe was a tenth as old as it now is, the great masses of stars called the galaxies were formed. It took that time, 300,000,000 years, from the beginning of things for the universe to evolve into the general shape it is at present.

Today's Journal Editorial

A WET FIRECRACKER

While the inter-American defense treaty, which was put into operating effect last week, may be a long step in a desirable direction, no one should be under misapprehension as to its broad provisions.

When terms of the treaty were drafted in Rio de Janeiro last year, the general reaction—especially in the United States delegation—was one of disappointment. They wanted a positive, powerful instrument which would guarantee instant, all-out aid by all American nations if one of them should be attacked.

What they actually got, according to most observers, was a watered-down treaty which does little more than insure that, if an American nation is attacked, the others will consider sending help.

That doubtless was a good deal better than nothing. But it arouses the suspicion that much of the pretended enthusiasm was artificial when the pact was declared in operating effect a few days ago.

Shocking Proof Of Red Spies In U.S. Will Be Given Jury

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 — The House un-American activities committee is handing a grand jury today what it calls definite and shocking proof a Red spy network operated in the State department before the war.

At the request of the Justice department, the committee sent one of its investigators, William A. Wheeler, to New York. His mission: to turn over copies of secret papers to a grand jury which has been investigating Communists and espionage for nearly a year and a half.

These are papers which the committee says a member of the Communist underground in the State department turned over to another member on the outside for relay to Russian agents.

Hidden In Pumpkin

The outside man was Whittaker Chambers, now a Time magazine editor who admits he was a courier for the Communist underground in Washington before he broke with the Reds in 1938.

The committee is hanging on to another set of copies of the documents, for use when it starts its own spy hearings going again tomorrow—but perhaps behind closed doors.

The prints were made from microfilms obtained by subpoena from Chambers last week. At the time, Chambers had them cached in a hollow pumpkin on his Maryland farm.

Chambers has said these particular documents never reached the Russians because he got them while he was in the process of splitting with the Reds.

Robert E. Stripling, chief investigator for the House committee, has said the hearings starting tomorrow will establish who fed the papers to Chambers from the State department.

Hearings Important

The committee regards those hearings as so important that it enlisted the help of the Coast Guard and the Navy to bring one of its members back from a ship at sea.

Rep. Nixon (R-Calif.) was en route to Panama aboard the S. S. Panama. A Coast Guard plane flew from St. Petersburg, Fla., to a dramatic rendezvous at Aklins Island, south of Jamaica

Nixon transferred to the plane, and it flew the 475 miles to Miami. There he boarded a Navy transport for the hop to Washington.

Immediately after his arrival last night Nixon went into a huddle with Stripling to go over the documents. His first reaction was that they are "so damnably important" it may not be possible to make them public.

Stripling already had shown the papers to Sumner Welles, former Undersecretary of State, to determine which might be "too hot" to bring into the open.

Welles May Testify

The result of the Stripling-Welles conference was not announced, but Nixon said Welles might be the first witness tomorrow—behind closed doors—and that present State department officials also might be called for secret testimony.

"I want to know exactly what the international repercussions will be at the present time" if the 10-year-old documents are made public, Nixon told reporters.

Upon his arrival at Miami, Nixon promised that tomorrow's hearing "will prove to the American people once and for all that where you have a Communist, you have an espionage agent."

Icy Storm

sided and skies had cleared, but the temperature dropped almost to zero last night in the western portion of the state.

At Grants Pass, Ore., last night, a bus loaded with the town's state championship high school football team skidded on an icy curve, careened downhill and burst into flames. Two players were killed and four youths were hospitalized

26 Passengers Injured

Near Chapman, Neb., an Omaha to Salt Lake City Greyhound bus skidded off an ice-covered highway and overturned, injuring 26 passengers, nine of them seriously enough for hospital treatment.

At Dubuque, Ia., yesterday four youths took off in a borrowed plane in rain, wind and fog. They crashed to their deaths. In Wisconsin, bad weather was cited as the cause of a plane crash which killed three leading citizens of Sturgeon Bay, Wis.

At Gilroy, Cay., dense fog caused the crash of a single-engined plane which plunged into a mountainside. The number of dead was undetermined, but reports ranged from two to five.

Three persons died in Minnesota as strong winds whipped sleet across the state. A father and son were killed near Blue Earth when the wind toppled a huge tree onto their car. They had stopped at their mailbox on the way home from church. An 18-year-old youth was killed when his car skidded off the icy road near Champlin.

In North Dakota, three persons died in a fire at Minot. An overheated stove, fueled against the cold, was blamed for the fire.

KOVALCHECK RESIGNS

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 6. (U.P.)—Kass Kovalcheck, head football coach at Duquesne university, resigned under fire today. His resignation was announced by the Very Rev. Francis P. Smith, president of the school. He said Kovalcheck gave no reason for quitting the job. His three-year contract had another year to go.

Liquor, Truck Taken In Amarillo Burglary

AMARILLO, Dec. 6 (AP)—Burglars stole whiskey valued at $15,725.75 cents from a wholesale store here early Sunday and made their getaway in a panel truck stolen from an adjoining bakery firm.

They sawed through a one-by-six plank partition between the Amarillo branch of the Lesage Wholesale Liquor company and the Sunshine Biscuit Co., Inc.

Removing the plank, the burglars neatly looped the burglar alarm wire around a nail.

The truck, undamaged and apparently not driven far, was found by police in a vacant lot.

The burglars got into the building by forcing the rollaway doors of the biscuit factory, then apparently went through the factory to the liquor store, pausing only to take $23 from the Sunshine manager's desk.

Negro Is Held

A 25-year-old negro was held for investigation into informal charges that he had stolen a bus ticket sent by registered mail to another black in Tucson, Ariz. Milam Steen of 1720 Ave. A made the complaint. The suspect allegedly used the ticket to come here. He was being held for investigation of postal authorities.

A 24-year-old negro was held for investigation into theft of a car. He figured in a wreck at Twenty-fifth and East Ave. B a few minutes after a woman said he had showed up at her place. After he had left she heard the car there started and driven away, she told police.

Thefts Admitted

Joe Lefall and James Gipson, negroes, said a radio and a $1 bill were taken from them in a hotel room. Investigating officers said they had elicited confessions from a negro man and a negro woman that they were responsible for the theft, and had sold the radio for $3. Charges probably will be filed.

MARKET HOLDS GAINS

NEW YORK, Dec. 6 (U.P.) — The stock market advanced in early dealings today and held most of its gains in the face of mild profit-taking prior to the close. Trading was more active than on Friday.

Improvement in sentiment was traceable to the disclosure that Atlas corporation was actively seeking additional shares of Barnsdall Oil Co., a move announced by Floyd Odlum, Atlas president, who said Barnsdall earnings this year should be around $6 a share and that the dividend should be raised 50 cents a share.

Other favorable news included declaration of an extra dividend of $1 a share by directors of Montgomery Ward, and the declaration of extra dividends in cash and stock by the board of Admiral corporation, producers of radio and television equipment.

A slight recession in steel production was forecast for this week by the American Iron & Steel Institute, which reported that output would be 1,802,500 net tons, or 1,800 tons under the all-time high reached last week.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 6 (AP) — Trade and commission house buying advanced cotton futures today. Initial impetus came from aggressive covering against export sales to France and Japan.

A declaration by Senator Thomas that he will seek a fixed high loan support price for farm crops in place of the flexible provisions of the existing farm legislation, influenced some buying.

Washington also said that a new liberal aid program for China next year was being considered.

The heavy loan movement in cotton and the failure of offerings to increase, although nearby futures were nearly two cents a pound above the loan level at Memphis were firming factors.

Cotton futures weakened sharply in late dealings as increased profit-taking and hedging outweighed trade demand.

Futures closed 40 cents a bale lower to 10 cents higher than the previous close.

Wheat sold off toward the close after showing some strength in early trading. The gains in the forepart of the session were sufficient to send December wheat to a new high since Feb. 4.

Merger Of Reserves, Guard Hit By General

AUSTIN, Dec. 6. (AP)—Maj. K. L. Berry, state adjutant general, urged yesterday that the National Guard fight the proposed merger of the guard with Army reserves.

The merger has been recommended in a "grey board" report to President Truman.

"If we don't defeat them on this, there won't be a National Guard," Berry told a command and staff conference of the 36th division, Texas National Guard. "It looks like it might be an all-out fight."

Pacific Ports Booming Again

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6 (AP)—After 95 days of strike idleness the Pacific coast today reopened its biggest business — shipping.

The last obstacles to maritime peace were removed yesterday when the non-striking AFL Sailors Union of the Pacific received a written guarantee from shipowners the strike settlements with CIO unions would not invade its jurisdiction.

Five striking unions with memberships of about 28,000 made peace in the coast's second longest strike last week, but the AFL sailors blocked a return to work until they got the guarantee.

CIO longshore gangs called to the docks today began working cargo on some 280 ships tied up in the strike.

Employers estimated the tieup has cost about $380,000,000 in the shipping industry and many millions more in industries affected by it. Only Army cargoes, tankers and a few exempted ships were worked in strike-bound ports. These included all major U. S. port cities on the coast except Tacoma, Wash., where cargoes were handled by non-striking AFL longshoremen.

A railroad embargo, imposed to prevent cargoes from piling up on western docks, has been lifted.

Major ports will be congested with cargoes for two to three weeks, employers said, but no delay in cargo handling was anticipated.

Berlin Election

not have pulled more than 2.8 per cent of the total. In 1946 the Communists polled 19 per cent of the vote.

Russians Forbid Voting

The Soviet military command had forbidden the election in its sector of Berlin. The Russians set up a "rump" Communist government of their own in the city last week.

German Communists had refused to be on the ballot and threatened revenge against all who dared vote.

German leaders of all three anti-Soviet parties united in calling the election a plebiscite for freedom versus Kremlin-style dictatorship. The Russians called it an election for "chaos and famine."

The Social Democrats who demanded socialization of Germany along the lines followed by the labor party in England, scored possibly the greatest victory in the 80-year history of their party.

They emerged with an absolute majority which gives them working control of the next city and borough governments under western Allied auspices.

The Socialists claimed the election showed at least half the Berliners who voted Communist in 1946 had gone over to the Social Democratic party.

Lubbock Dust

clean of the piles of dust this morning and some business personel found it necessary to clear their desks of layers of dust before going to work.

Other Areas Also Hit

The Associated Press reported the dust storm was the worst in 10 years at Austin, where visibility was cut to a half-mile Sunday. The storm seemed worse in Central, East and South Texas. Lufkin, Houston, Corpus Christi, Alice, Waco, Laredo and Galveston reported visibility was cut sharply.

A new cold front, expected to be less severe than the one which whipped across Texas during the weekend, was expected to reach the state Tuesday, after pushing down from the Rockies. A forecaster of the U. S. Weather bureau said the front did not carry threats of extreme cold, but "you can't always tell until it hits."

Some of the Christmas decorations in the city were damaged by the strong wind. Most of the decorations on the Avalanche-Journal building were damaged. Some were blown from the building. About 50 per cent of the lights decorating the Lubbock National building were broken or disconnected.

Some of the large Christmas boxes decorating Hemphill-Wells Co were dislodged.

In many stores in the city, merchandise in show windows was damaged by dust.

Officer Doesn't Care Who The Accused Is!

Republican Senator Facing Charge Of Reckless Driving

(By The United Press)

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Dec. 6. Sen. Chan Gurney, R., S. D., arrested for driving his Cadillac at "an excessive rate of speed," today faced a charge of reckless driving.

Gurney was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Vic Wilson, who said the senator led him a "pell-mell" chase west of Taft, Okla., at a speed of 90 miles an hour.

Gurney was booked at the county jail and released on $75 bond pending the filing of formal charges being prepared by assistant County Attorney Andy Wilcoxen.

Wilson said he spotted the Cadillac with a South Dakota license plate "weaving in and out of traffic and driving at a very excessive rate of speed." The deputy said he followed, with his siren going full plast, but Gurney would not stop.

After hitting 90 miles an hour, Wilson said, Gurney finally pulled over to the side of the road and stopped. He produced papers identifying himself.

"I told him I didn't care who he was," Wilson said. "I told him that no one could drive that way in Muskogee county, especially since we've had six highway fatalities here in the last month."

Gurney came here to inspect dams in the area. He told Wilson he was in a hurry to get home.

"If that's the case you should have started sooner," the deputy told the senator.

Chinese Ship Sinking Brings Disaster Fatalities To 9,200

SHANGHAI, Dec. 6. (AP)—A belated report disclosed that possibly 6,000 Chinese died in the explosion and sinking of a crowded evacuation ship off southern Manchuria early last month.

That would bring to 9,200 the number of Chinese estimated to have lost their lives in this and a similar disaster near Shanghai Friday night involving the overcrowded steamer Kiangya.

The Manchurian sinking would rank as probably the greatest single ship tragedy. Official sources in Nanking made it known only yesterday. They said the boiler burst aboard an unidentified merchant ship evacuating troops of the government's 52nd army from Yingkow. The explosion set off ammunition; all on board were killed.

Encirclement Of Big China Force Claimed

NANKING, Dec. 6 (AP) — The Chinese Communist radio reported tonight that Red forces had completed "an air-tight encirclement" of the Nationalist former Suchow garrison in the developing battle for Nanking.

The garrison, comprising some 110,000 combat troops in the 16th, 13th and Second Army groups, abandoned Suchow last Wednesday in an effort to reach the trapped government 12th Army group in the Suhsien sector, about 45 miles to the south.

If the Communist claim is true, it means that only the government troops on the new Hwai river defense line enjoy freedom of movement in the region. The line was set up recently 100 miles northeast of Nanking, but is manned by relatively inferior troops.
